If Hartford chooses to be deposed remotely:

1. Counsel for the parties and their clients will be participating from various, separate locations;
2. The court reporter will administer the oath to the witness remotely;
3. The witness will be required to provide government-issued identification satisfactory to the court reporter, and this identification must be legible on camera;
4. Each participating attorney may be visible to all other participants, and their statements will be audible to all participants;
5. All exhibits will be provided simultaneously and electronically to the witness and all participants;
6. The court reporter will record the testimony;
7. The deposition may be recorded electronically; and
8. Counsel for all parties will be required to stipulate on the record:
 - a. Their consent to this manner of deposition; and
 - b. Their waiver of any objection to this manner of deposition, including any objection to the admissibility at trial of this testimony based on this manner of deposition.
