VERIFIED COMPLAINT FOR INJUNCTIVE RELIEF

The Boy Scouts of America (the “BSA”), as the non-profit corporation that is a debtor and debtor-in-possession in the above-captioned bankruptcy case and plaintiff in this adversary proceeding, alleges for its Verified Complaint (the “Complaint”), upon knowledge of its own acts and upon information and belief as to other matters, as follows:

NATURE OF THE ACTION AND THE NEED FOR RELIEF

1. This is an adversary proceeding brought pursuant to Rules 7001(7) and 7065 of the Federal Rules of Bankruptcy Procedure (the “Bankruptcy Rules”) and sections 105(a) and 362 of title 11 of the United States Code (the “Bankruptcy Code”). This adversary proceeding seeks to extend the stay to enjoin the prosecution of the Pending Abuse Actions (as defined below) asserted against the BSA Related Parties (as defined below).

² A full list of the Defendants in this adversary proceeding is included in redacted form on Exhibit A attached hereto to protect the privacy interests of abuse victims. An unredacted version of this Complaint and Exhibit A hereto will be served on each Defendant’s counsel.

2. The BSA, together with certain independently incorporated local councils (the “Local Councils”) and chartered organizations (the “Chartered Organizations”) that collectively operate under the BSA federal charter to deliver the Scouting program, currently are co-defendants in approximately 275 pending civil actions in state and federal courts around the country asserting personal injury abuse claims and causes of action (collectively, the “Pending Abuse Actions”).³ The preliminary injunction sought in this Complaint applies to the Pending Abuse Actions as against the BSA, to the extent not already covered by the automatic stay, and the claims and causes of action asserted against (i) non-debtor Learning for Life, a non-stock organization affiliated with the BSA (“LFL”), (ii) the non-debtor Local Councils, and (iii) all other non-debtor Chartered Organizations, to the extent they are named as co-defendants with the BSA, a Local Council, and/or LFL in a Pending Abuse Action ((i), (ii), and (iii), collectively, the “BSA Related Parties”).⁴

3. The BSA seeks a preliminary injunction to enjoin the continued prosecution of, and to extend the automatic stay to (if not otherwise subject to the automatic stay imposed by section 362 of the Bankruptcy Code), the Pending Abuse Actions as against the BSA and the BSA Related Parties, for a period of 180 days from the issuance of the injunction.

4. The BSA seeks this preliminary injunction to avoid the irreparable harm to its estate and its prospects for reorganization that would occur if such litigation were allowed to continue unabated. As long as the Pending Abuse Actions are actively prosecuted against the

⁴ As noted above, a list of BSA Related Parties is included in Exhibit B to this Complaint.

BSA and/or the BSA Related Parties, the value of the estate will continue to be rapidly eroded by the staggering direct and indirect costs of litigation. The BSA spent more than $150 million on settlements and legal and related professional costs from 2017 through 2019 alone.

5. In addition to these the hard costs, the prosecution of the Pending Abuse Actions would result in substantial and relentless pressure on the BSA's operations and employees. For example, unless the stay is extended, the BSA would be required to engage in piecemeal litigation on behalf of the BSA Related Parties, even as it attempts to resolve claims against itself in its bankruptcy case. This involvement would include formulating litigation strategies, assisting in discovery, protecting against disclosure of privileged or otherwise protected documents, attending depositions, preparing witnesses and a myriad of other litigation tasks. Moreover, the BSA and its employees would be distracted during this critical stage from, among other things, negotiating an equitable, global resolution of all of the Pending Abuse Actions and pursuing a plan of reorganization. Absent the requested relief, these monetary and non-monetary costs will continue, regardless of whether the Pending Abuse Actions proceed against only the BSA Related Parties.

6. The requested injunction supports the strategy of the entire chapter 11 restructuring of the BSA and Delaware BSA, LLC (collectively, the "Debtors"). To that end, along with the breathing spell the BSA seeks herein, the Debtors are in the process of seeking other forms of relief in furtherance of their dual objectives in these chapter 11 cases: (a) the timely and equitably compensating victims of abuse in Scouting and (b) ensuring that the BSA emerges from bankruptcy with the ability to continue its vital charitable mission. Namely, the Debtors are (a) establishing and populating an electronic data room with information regarding the BSA's and the Local Councils' assets, including any restrictions on such assets; (b) assisting in the formation of an ad hoc committee of Local Councils; (c) engaging an independent third-party representative for future abuse claimants; (d) filing a motion seeking to establish a schedule for this Court to hear and adjudicate any disputes regarding whether the BSA's assets are available to satisfy creditor claims; (e) filing a motion to establish comprehensive procedures for providing notice of the applicable bar dates to the Debtors' creditors and for creditors, including abuse victims, to file proofs of claim; (f) filing a motion seeking the appointment of a sitting bankruptcy judge as a mediator and the referral to mandatory mediation of all issues related to a global settlement of abuse claims through a consensual plan of reorganization; (g) filing a plan of reorganization that provides a framework for the negotiation of a global resolution of abuse claims asserted against the BSA and a comprehensive restructuring of the BSA; (h) removing any Pending Abuse Action that was pending in a state court as of the Petition Date to its corresponding federal district court (or bankruptcy court, depending upon the applicable local rules); and (i) commencing a proceeding in the United States District Court for the District of Delaware seeking the nationwide transfer of the Pending Abuse Actions to that court pursuant to 28 U.S.C. §§ 157(b)(5) and 1334(b).

7. The BSA therefore respectfully requests that the Court issue the requested injunction. To be clear, the BSA acknowledges that the Pending Abuse Actions, as against the BSA, are explicitly subject to the automatic stay. However, because the scope of the Pending Abuse Actions is so vast—involving hundreds of separate cases across dozens of jurisdictions—the BSA cannot sustain a case-by-case or claim-by-claim litigation of the scope of the automatic stay, any exceptions thereto, and any lift-stay motions that may be filed. Instead, the BSA asks that this Court stay the Pending Abuse Actions—as against the BSA and the BSA Related Parties—to provide the best opportunity for a successful reorganization.

JURISDICTION AND VENUE

8. This adversary proceeding arises in and relates to the BSA's case pending before this Court under chapter 11 of the Bankruptcy Code.

9. The Court has jurisdiction to consider this adversary proceeding pursuant to 28 U.S.C. §§ 157 and 1334, and the Amended Standing Order of Reference from the United States District Court for the District of Delaware, dated February 29, 2012.

10. This Court has subject matter jurisdiction over the claims against the BSA and against the BSA Related Parties pursuant to 28 U.S.C. §§ 157 and 1334. Related-to jurisdiction exists over the claims against the non-debtor BSA Related Parties because (1) the BSA and the BSA Related Parties share an identity of interest, based upon their shared purpose and common mission and the BSA's lead role in defending and resolving the Pending Abuse Actions, such that the claims against the BSA Related Parties are, in effect, claims against the BSA's estate; (2) the BSA shares insurance with the BSA Related Parties in the Pending Abuse Actions; (3) the claims against the BSA Related Parties raise factual and legal questions that are substantially identical to, and inextricably intertwined with, those raised by the claims against the BSA; and (4) continued prosecution of claims against the BSA Related Parties will have an adverse impact on the Debtors' ability to reorganize.

11. This is a core proceeding under 28 U.S.C. § 157(b), and the BSA confirms its consent, pursuant to Local Rule 9013-1(f), to the entry of a final order or judgment by the Court in connection with this Motion if it is determined that the Court, absent consent of the parties, cannot enter final orders or judgments in connection herewith consistent with Article III of the United States Constitution.

12. Venue is proper before the Court pursuant to 28 U.S.C. §§ 1408 and 1409.

THE PARTIES

13. The BSA is a congressionally chartered non-profit corporation that serves a unique and critically important mission: to train young men and women in responsible citizenship, character development, and self-reliance through participation in a wide range of outdoor activities, educational programs, and, at older age levels, career-oriented programs in partnership with community organizations.

14. To carry out its mission, a core function of the BSA is chartering the independently incorporated Local Councils and Chartered Organizations that deliver Scouting to U.S. citizens around the world. Each of the BSA's more than 81,000 Scouting units is organized, registered and supported by a Local Council assigned to a geographic area in which the unit is located. The BSA has chartered approximately 261 Local Councils across the United States, which are led by paid professional adult leaders and volunteers called "Scouters." Each Local Council is separately incorporated under the non-profit laws of its respective state. The Local Councils are tasked with facilitating and overseeing all Scouting activities in their assigned geographic areas. To accomplish this, the professional staff of the Local Councils work in tandem with volunteer leaders to partner with local organizations, such as faith-based organizations, clubs, civic associations, businesses, groups of individuals, and educational institutions, to serve as Chartered Organizations. The Chartered Organizations in turn sponsor, and in some cases operate, units — referred to as "packs" for Cub Scouts, "troops" for Scouts BSA (formerly known as Boy Scouts), "crews" for Venturing units, "ships" for Sea Scouts, "labs" for STEM Scouts, and "posts" for Exploring — that comprise the backbone of the Scouting programs. These units are led by adult volunteers appointed by the Chartered Organization in consultation with Local Councils and the BSA. In addition, LFL, a non-stock, non-profit corporation under the laws of the District of Columbia affiliated with the BSA, works with the BSA and local community organizations to provide the Exploring program, which focuses on educational and career-oriented experiences. Each of these entities and individuals – the BSA, Local Councils, Chartered Organizations, LFL, professional Scouters, and volunteer leaders – are essential to the success of Scouting programs in the United States.

15. Although not named parties in this adversary proceeding, as noted above, the BSA Related Parties are listed in Exhibit B to the Complaint.

16. The Defendants in this adversary proceeding are certain plaintiffs in the Pending Abuse Actions who have asserted claims against certain of the BSA and the BSA Related Parties. The Defendants are listed in the caption of this Complaint and Exhibit A to this Complaint.

FACTUAL BACKGROUND

The Pending Abuse Actions

17. As has been widely reported, the BSA is currently a defendant (in most cases, along with certain of the BSA Related Parties) in numerous lawsuits related to historical acts of sexual abuse in its programs. The BSA cares deeply about all victims of child abuse and sincerely apologizes to anyone who was harmed during their time in Scouting. The BSA also understands that no apology can repair the damage caused by this abuse or take away the pain that victims have endured. The BSA is steadfast in its commitment to provide equitable compensation to victims of abuse in its Scouting programs and to continually improve its policies to prevent abuse. The BSA will continue to actively encourage anyone who has suffered from abuse as a Scout to come forward.

18. Many of these victims have taken legal action against the BSA and the BSA Related Parties in the civil tort system. There are currently approximately 275 lawsuits pending in state and federal courts across the United States asserting abuse-related claims against the BSA. The BSA is unable to continue to address abuse litigation in the tort system on a case-by-case basis without jeopardizing its ability to carry out its vital charitable mission. In addition to the unsustainable financial cost of continuing to engage in piecemeal litigation across the country, continuing this process will result in the risk of inconsistent judicial outcomes and inequitable treatment of victims.

19. For these reasons, beginning in late 2018, the BSA, with the assistance of its legal and financial advisors, began to explore strategic options for achieving an equitable global resolution of abuse claims, including efforts to reach an agreement with a substantial number of abuse victims that could be implemented through a prearranged chapter 11 proceeding. After it became clear that there were no meaningful prospects for a prearranged global resolution, the BSA commenced these chapter 11 cases.

20. While the Pending Abuse Actions have without question been automatically stayed as against the BSA, certain of the actions also assert claims against the BSA Related Parties, who are not debtors.

Impact of Pending Abuse Actions on the Debtors' Resources

21. Continued litigation of the Pending Abuse Actions on the scale faced by the Debtors will deplete estate assets, consume management attention, and severely harm the BSA's ability to carry out its mission.

22. The costs of litigating hundreds of actions across the country are immense. The BSA spent more than $150 million on settlements and legal and related professional costs from 2017 through 2019 alone. As the number of lawsuits nearing dispositive motion practice and trial increases in 2020 and beyond, there is no reason to think that litigation expenses directly connected to the Pending Abuse Actions will decrease.

23. In addition to financial costs, the Pending Abuse Actions have a significant impact on the BSA's day-to-day conduct operations. The time and energy required to monitor, manage, and direct the BSA's response to the Pending Abuse Actions is enormous. Unless the stay is extended to BSA Related Parties, the BSA necessarily will remain involved in a wide variety of litigation matters, including, for example, responses to discovery requests, the overwhelming majority of which are directed at the BSA as opposed to solely at any of the BSA Related Parties. Moreover, the BSA will likely need to continue its roles in facilitating the retention of joint defense counsel, coordinating with insurance carriers, and assessing proposed settlements.

24. The BSA is a non-profit corporation that relies largely on member fees and donations. Unlike a for-profit corporation, the BSA cannot rely on revenues from the ordinary sales of products or services to sustain its operations during bankruptcy. Rather, there is a close correlation between the viability of the BSA as an institution and the public's confidence in the BSA's ability to carry out its mission to serve youth, families and local communities through its Scouting programs. A prolonged bankruptcy case would erode public confidence in the BSA, jeopardize its ability to operate, and ultimately deprive America's youth of the ability to participate in Scouting. A prolonged chapter 11 case would also deplete the assets available to compensate abuse victims.

The Bankruptcy Proceeding

25. On February 18, 2020 (the "Petition Date"), the Debtors each filed a voluntary petition for relief under chapter 11 of the Bankruptcy Code in the United States Bankruptcy Court for the District of Delaware.

26. The Debtors have commenced the chapter 11 cases to achieve the dual objectives of (a) equitably compensating victims of abuse in Scouting and (b) ensuring that the BSA emerges from bankruptcy with the capability to continue carrying out its vital charitable mission.

27. The Debtors seek to use tools specifically provided by the Bankruptcy Code and related statutes to provide a pause in the Pending Abuse Actions and seek a more equitable and efficient procedural path forward. As discussed in paragraph 5 above, in addition to the injunctive relief sought in this Complaint, the Debtors are concurrently taking several immediate steps and seeking related forms of relief in furtherance of their objective to achieve a speedy and equitable resolution of their chapter 11 cases.

CLAIM FOR RELIEF

COUNT ONE

(Extension of the Automatic Stay to Enjoin Actions Against BSA Related Parties)

28. The BSA repeats and re-alleges the allegations contained in the preceding paragraphs of this Complaint as if fully set forth herein.

29. The BSA seeks to extend the automatic stay to enjoin the Pending Abuse Actions against the BSA Related Parties, pursuant to sections 105(a) and 362 of the Bankruptcy Code, for a period of 180 days from the issuance of the injunction.

30. Sections 362 and 105(a) of the Bankruptcy Code empower this Court to extend the stay to enjoin the prosecution of claims against the non-debtor BSA Related Parties.

31. Section 362 automatically stays, among other things, (1) “the commencement or continuation . . . of a judicial, administrative, or other action or proceeding against the debtor that was or could have been commenced before the commencement of the case under this title, or to recover a claim against the debtor that arose before the commencement of the case under this title,” 11 U.S.C. § 362(a)(1); and (2) “any act to obtain possession of property of the estate or of property from the estate or to exercise control over property of the estate,” 11 U.S.C. § 362(a)(3).

32. Section 105(a) provides that this Court “may issue any order, process, or judgment that is necessary or appropriate to carry out the provisions of this title.” 11 U.S.C. § 105(a).

33. As set forth above, this Court has the jurisdiction and authority to enjoin the claims against the non-debtor BSA Related Parties pursuant to sections 362 and 105(a) because the actions will have a direct and substantial impact on the Debtors’ estates.

34. It is likely that there will be a successful reorganization, and a stay of the claims against the BSA Related Parties will further the likelihood of this success. Although the Debtors have only just commenced their bankruptcy cases, they have taken a number of significant and crucial steps to ensure a successful reorganization. For example, the Debtors are concurrently filing a proposed plan of reorganization and a disclosure statement, signaling a clear path forward towards the successful emergence from these chapter 11 proceedings. The Debtors are also pursuing a number of avenues to pause, consolidate, and mediate the Pending Abuse Actions to bring all stakeholders and parties in interest together in one centralized forum to achieve a consensual resolution to their chapter 11 cases.

35. Absent a stay of the claims against the BSA Related Parties, there would be irreparable harm to the BSA’s estates and prospect for reorganization.

36. Because the BSA Related Parties are either additional or named insureds on certain of the BSA primary, umbrella, and excess insurance coverage and thus “share” insurance coverage, any judgment or liability resulting from the continuation of the Pending Abuse Actions against the BSA Related Parties threatens to deplete estate assets that are essential to the BSA's reorganization and the equitable treatment of all abuse victims.

37. The claims against the non-debtor BSA Related Parties are based on conduct substantially related to, and inextricably intertwined with, that alleged to have been engaged in by the BSA, such that the BSA faces substantial risks of collateral estoppel, record taint, and evidentiary prejudice unless the Pending Abuse Actions are stayed.

38. Continuation of the Pending Abuse Actions will divert critical resources away from the BSA's reorganization efforts. Irrespective of the risks of collateral estoppel or the protection of the automatic stay, the BSA would be required to actively participate in the Pending Abuse Actions due to their lead role in the defense of each of the Pending Abuse Actions, as well as the fact that the BSA is in possession of much of the discovery materials requested and produced therein.

39. The balance of harms in this case strongly favors the issuance of preliminary injunctive relief. As described above, absent an injunction of the Pending Abuse Actions, the BSA faces distinct, imminent, and irreparable harm that would immediately cast serious doubt on its ability to successfully reorganize. Furthermore, any prejudice involved in asking victims to seek relief in a managed chapter 11 process rather than in the civil tort system can be mitigated—if not offset—by the speedy development of a plan that provides a mechanism to equitably compensate all victims.

40. The BSA seeks to ensure that victims of abuse are equitably compensated. As outlined above, it has taken concrete steps toward this outcome: it has proposed a reasonable plan of reorganization and requested the appointment of a judicial mediator to facilitate the consensual resolution of the chapter 11 cases. However, the entire process would be jeopardized if the hundreds of Pending Abuse Actions are allowed to proceed in various state and federal courts across the country while the BSA attempts to seek a global resolution in these chapter 11 cases.

41. Finally, staying the claims against BSA Related Parties is in the public interest. In any bankruptcy case, there is strong public policy in favor of allowing a debtor to reorganize and resolve its liabilities through a centralized and rational restructuring, as well as a public interest in achieving such a reorganization through the consensual process the Debtors propose to implement in these cases. The public interest in a successful reorganization is particularly acute in this case. The BSA is a non-profit, federally chartered, charitable entity that has a vibrant, century-old history of serving youth, families, and local communities. The BSA is an important American cultural institution that exists to serve the public interest through the Scouting program. Absent a preliminary injunction over the Pending Abuse Actions, the BSA's ability to reorganize, and therefore its ability to continue serving the public, will be cast into serious doubt. As such, the public interest is undoubtedly best served by granting the requested relief and extending the stay to enjoin prosecution of the Pending Abuse Actions.

42. An injunction staying claims against the BSA Related Parties for a period of 180 days from the issuance of an order extending the stay is therefore appropriate.

43. No prior application for the relief requested herein has been made to this Court or any other court.

PRAYER FOR RELIEF

WHEREFORE, the Plaintiffs respectfully request that this Court enter judgment in their favor and request relief as follows:

- (a) extend the stay to enjoin the Defendants in this adversary proceeding from commencement or continuation of the Pending Abuse Actions against the BSA and the BSA Related Parties, if not otherwise subject to the automatic stay imposed by section 362 of the Bankruptcy Code, for a period of 180 days; and
- (b) all such other relief as the Court finds just and equitable.
