To whom it may concern:

,I was about 7 to 10 years old when I was a Scout.

After that my life NEVER been the same. I'm now in my 50's, A LOT of things I just didn't and still don't understand as far as who I am. I would ask my mom "when am I going to camp?" She would send me not knowing what the Scout leaders was doing to me, and other boys. Now i know i was being sexually abused by people i looked up to. It was different. I think i liked the feeling,not knowing it was sexual abuse. As I got older I realized

TIMES. I wasn't able to keep a job. I am permanently disabled because of the imprint of my childhood. I'M no longer using drugs. I'm a member of the Church of Christ. They saved me.

NO MORE BURYING THE TRUTH. It's past due to let the world know what happened at camp.
