Watching TV, a commercial came on it was about范Arnsdale. He was asking for help so I listened to him. The more I listen the more tears came. I started remembering. Van was asking people to come forward. The hardest thing I've ever done was talk about the abuse I suffered at the hands of a perverted scout master. I was scared, ashamed and confused. I didn't know what to do. I could not talk to a mom and step dad that would drink till they passed out. It would shame them. They had fights all the time. Some times it would be a knock down drag out. I told myself it didn't happen, but walking home from school I would avoid the short cut and take the long way. I had nightmares wake up screaming. Mom told me go back to sleep it will pass. It took a lot of alcohol to hide what happened to me. I often wondered if it was something I did. I was a kid. I did not deserve what he did to me. It has effected my whole life. To ashamed to admit it happened. I could go on and on but I would have to write a book. Please do not let the victims of this abuse suffer. We all need to take a good look at what this is all about. Children, kids and what they went through. Please, no Insurance Quick fix. Do not let them abuse us any kind of way. Thank you for your time. I wonder if they would feel the same; if it were there kids. + + +
