The consent by Landlord to any transfer shall not constitute consent to any subsequent transfer or to any successive transfer. Further, subject to the provisions of Section 2.2, and without in any way limiting or otherwise affecting the provisions of this Lease, Landlord shall be permitted to assign this Lease and all agreements, duties, obligations and rights incidental thereto to any entity related to, or affiliated with Landlord, without any consent from Tenant. The term "transfer" shall mean any direct or indirect sale, conveyance, transfer, lease (including any amendment, extension, modification, waiver or renewal thereof), sublease, sub-sublease, assignment, mortgage, pledge, grant of a security interest or hypothecation, whether by operation of law or otherwise, whether voluntary or not, of or in (i) all or part of the Leased Premises (including any legal or beneficial direct or indirect interest therein) or (ii) any direct or indirect interest in Tenant. Section 15.2 ~~Assignment and Related Matters~~. Any sublease shall be expressly subject and subordinate to all applicable terms and conditions of this Lease and provide that upon the expiration or earlier termination of this Lease, Landlord, at its option and without any obligation to do so, may require any subtenant to ~~attorn~~ to Landlord, its successors and assigns, in which event Landlord shall undertake the obligations of Tenant, under such sublease from the time of the exercise of such option to the termination of such sublease; provided, however, that in such case Landlord shall not be liable for any prepaid rents, fees or other charges or for any prepaid security deposits paid by such subtenant to Tenant or for any other prior defaults of Tenant under such sublease. In the event that Landlord shall not require such attornment with respect to any sublease, then such sublease shall automatically terminate upon the expiration or earlier termination of this Lease, including any early termination by mutual agreement of Landlord and Tenant. In addition, any such sublease shall provide that in the event that the subtenant or other transferee receives a written notice from Landlord stating that a Lease Default has occurred or that an event or circumstance has occurred which with notice and/or passage of time would constitute a Lease Default, such subtenant or other transferee thereafter shall without further consent or instruction of Tenant pay all rentals accruing under such sublease directly to Landlord or as Landlord may direct; provided, however, that (a) as and to the extent that the amounts so paid to Landlord, together with other amounts paid to or received by Landlord on account of this Lease, exceed the amounts then due Landlord from Tenant under this Lease, the excess shall be promptly remitted to Tenant, and (b) at such time as the Lease Default has been cured and this Lease reinstated (if ever), Landlord shall notify and direct the subtenant(s) in writing to resume making payments of rentals under their sublease(s) directly to Tenant, or as Tenant may direct. Any such rentals collected from such subtenant or other transferee by Landlord shall be credited against the amounts owing by Tenant under this Lease in such order of priority as Landlord shall reasonably determine. Furthermore, any sublease or other agreement regarding a transfer shall expressly provide that the subtenant, assignee, manager or other transferee shall furnish Landlord, its lender, the Mortgagee, if applicable, the HUD Mortgagee, and/or the Commissioner, and for DOH, if applicable, with such financial, operational and other information about the Facility and subtenant, etc., as Landlord may request from time to time.

Section 15.3 Assignment of Subleases. or other re-entry or repossession by Landlord under the provisions hereof or (d) a receiver for all or a portion of the Leased Premises is appointed, and then only as to such of the subleases that Landlord may elect to take over and assume. At any time and from time to time within ten (10) days after Landlord's written demand, Tenant promptly shall deliver to Landlord a schedule of all Subleases, setting forth the names of all Subtenants, with a photostatic copy of each of the Subleases. Upon request of Landlord, Tenant shall permit Landlord and its agents and representatives, and Mortgagee, its agents and representatives, to inspect all Subleases affecting the Leased Premises. Tenant covenants that each Sublease shall provide that the Subtenant thereunder shall be required from time to time, upon request of Landlord or Tenant, to execute, acknowledge and deliver, to and for the benefit of Landlord, an estoppel certificate confirming with respect to such Sublease the information set forth in Section 20.11 hereof.

Section 15.4 Additional Sublease Requirements. Tenant covenants and agrees that all Subleases hereafter entered into affecting the Leased Premises shall provide that (a) they are subject to this Lease and that the principals of the Subtenant acknowledge that they have read this Lease and accept the terms hereof, (b) the term thereof shall not end less than one (1) day prior to the Expiration Date hereof, unless Landlord shall consent otherwise, which consent may be withheld in Landlord's sole and absolute discretion, (c) the Subtenants will not do, authorize or execute any act, deed or thing whatsoever or fail to take any such action which will or may cause Tenant to be in violation of any of its obligations under this Lease, (d) the Subtenants will not pay rent or other sums under the Subleases with Tenant for more than one (1) month in advance, (e) the Subtenants shall give to Landlord at the address and otherwise in the manner specified in Section 13.1 hereof, a copy of any notice of default by Tenant as the landlord under the Subleases at the same time as, and whenever, any such notice of default shall be given by the Subtenants to Tenant; and (f) all of the representations, warranties and covenants given by Tenant to Landlord in this Lease, including but not limited to all reporting requirements and covenants set forth in Section 7.4 above, shall be made and given by each Subtenant for the benefit of Landlord, Mortgagee, and their respective successors and assigns.

Section 15.5 Transfers in Bankruptcy. (a) In the event of a transfer pursuant to the provisions of Title 11 of the United States Code or any statute of similar purpose or nature (the "Bankruptcy Code"), all consideration payable or otherwise to be delivered in connection with such transfer shall be paid or delivered to Landlord, shall be and remain the exclusive property of Landlord and shall not constitute property of Tenant or of the estate of Tenant within the meaning of the Bankruptcy Code. Any consideration constituting Landlord's property pursuant to the immediately preceding sentence and not paid or delivered to Landlord shall be held in trust for the benefit of Landlord and be promptly paid or delivered to Landlord. For purposes of this Section 15.5, the term "consideration" shall mean and include money, services, property and any other thing of value such as payment of costs, cancellation or forgiveness of indebtedness, discounts, rebates, barter and the like. If any such consideration is in a form other than cash (such as in kind, equity interests, indebtedness earn-outs, or other deferred payments, consulting or management fees, etc.), Landlord shall be entitled to receive in cash the then present fair market value of such consideration. If Tenant assumes this Lease and proposes to assign the same pursuant to the provisions of the Bankruptcy Code to any person or entity who shall have made a bona fide offer to accept an assignment of this Lease on terms acceptable to Tenant, then notice of such proposed assignment shall be given to Landlord by Tenant no later than fifteen (15) days after receipt of such offer by Tenant, but in any event no later than ten (10) days prior to the date that Tenant shall file any application or motion with a court of competent jurisdiction for authority and approval to enter into such assumption and assignment. Such notice shall set forth (a) the name and address of the assignee, (b) all of the terms and conditions of such offer, and (c) the proposal for providing adequate assurance of future performance by such person under the Lease, including, without limitation, the assurance referred to in Section 365 of the Bankruptcy Code. Any such assignee shall execute and deliver to Landlord upon demand an instrument confirming such assumption.

(b) The term "adequate assurance of future performance" as used in this Lease shall mean (in addition to the assurances called for in Bankruptcy Code Section 365(1)) that any proposed assignee shall, among other things, (i) deposit with Landlord on the assumption of this Lease an amount equal to the greater of (x) two (2) times the then monthly Fixed Rent and Additional Rent or (y) such other amount deemed by the Bankruptcy Court to be reasonably necessary for the adequate protection of Landlord under the circumstances, as security for the faithful performance and observance by such assignee of the terms and obligations of this Lease, (ii) furnish Landlord with financial statements of such assignee for the prior three (3) calendar years, as finally determined after an audit and certified as correct by a certified public accountant, which financial statements shall show a net worth at least equal to the amount of the deposit referenced in (i) above, (iii) if determined by the Bankruptcy Court to be appropriate under the circumstances, grant to Landlord a security interest in such property of the proposed assignee as Landlord shall deem necessary to secure such assignee's future performance under this Lease, and (iv) provide such other information or take such action as Landlord, in its reasonable judgment, shall determine is necessary to provide adequate assurance of the performance by such assignee of its obligations under this Lease.

(c) If, at any time after Tenant may have assigned Tenant's interest in this Lease in a proceeding of the type described in Section 16.1 (iv) through (vii), this Lease shall be disaffirmed or rejected in any proceeding of the types described in Section 16.1 (iv) through (vii) hereof, or in any similar proceeding, or in the event of termination of this Lease by reason of any such proceeding or by reason of lapse of time following notice of termination given pursuant to Article XVI based upon any of the Lease Defaults set forth in said Section 16.1 (iv) through (vii) Tenant, upon request of Landlord given within thirty (30) days next following any such disaffirmance, rejection or termination (and actual notice thereof to Landlord in the event of a disaffirmance or rejection or in the event of termination other than by act of Landlord); shall (a) pay to Landlord all Rent due and owing by the assignee to Landlord under this Lease to and including the date of such disaffirmance, rejection or termination, and (b) as "tenant", enter into a new lease with Landlord for a term commencing on the effective date of such disaffirmance, rejection or termination and ending on the expiration date of the term, unless sooner terminated as in such lease provided, at the same Fixed Rent and Additional Rent upon the then executory terms, covenants and conditions as are contained in this Lease, except that (i) Tenant's rights under the new lease shall be subject to the possessory rights, if any, of the assignee under this Lease and the possessory rights of any person claiming through or under such assignee or by virtue of any applicable Law, (ii) such new lease shall require all defaults existing under this Lease to be cured by Tenant with due diligence, and (iii) such new lease shall require Tenant to pay all Rent reserved in this Lease which, had this Lease not been so disaffirmed, rejected or terminated, would have accrued under the provisions of this Lease after the date of such disaffirmance, rejection or termination with respect to any period prior thereto. If Tenant shall default in its obligation to enter into said new lease for a period of ten (10) days next following Landlord's request therefor, then in addition to all other rights and remedies by reason of such default, either at law or in equity, Landlord shall have the same rights and remedies against Tenant as if Tenant had entered into such new lease and such new lease had thereafter been terminated as of the commencement date thereof by reason of Tenant's default thereunder.

Section 15.6 Management Agreement. Tenant agrees and acknowledges that it will not enter into any management agreements during the Term with regard to the Facility except with an entity (i) owned wholly by a an individual principal of Tenant which entity has been received establishment approval from the New York State Department of Health Public Health and Health Planning Council in compliance with 10 NYCRR 600.9(d)(1) and (ii) approved by HUD if the Facility is, or is about to be financed by a HUD program, and/or Mortgagee. Any such management agreement shall be subordinate to Landlord's rights hereunder, to the rights of Mortgagee and to the rights of the Commissioner. Tenant shall cause such manager to execute such documents as are required by Landlord or Mortgagee or by the Commissioner to effect such subordination.

Section 15.7 Memorandum of Lease. This Lease shall not be recorded, but either party may record a memorandum of lease in which shall describe the parties to this Lease, a description of the Leased Premises and a recitation of the Term. The party requesting that the memorandum of lease be recorded shall prepare and pay all costs of recording the memorandum of lease, and the other party agrees to execute at any and all times such instruments as may be reasonably required for such recording. Upon the expiration or earlier termination of this Lease, Landlord may release the memorandum of lease. For this purpose Tenant constitutes and appoints Landlord its true and lawful attorney in fact with full power of substitution to execute a release of such memoranda in the name of Tenant. Such power of attorney shall be deemed to be a power coupled with an interest and cannot be revoked. To the extent any transfer tax, conveyance tax, excise tax, or similar tax is imposed by any Governmental Authority as a result of the recording of such Memorandum of Lease, or is otherwise due and payable as to Tenant's leasehold interest granted pursuant to this Lease, Tenant shall pay same to the applicable Governmental Authority.

Upon the occurrence of a Lease Default, Landlord, may, if Landlord so elects, upon five (5) days written notice of such election, forthwith terminate this Lease and Tenant's right to possession of the Leased Premises and, at Landlord's sole and absolute discretion, accelerate the payment of all Rent for the balance of the Term and declare the same presently due and payable in full provided, however, that with respect to a Lease Default under Section 16.1(a)(iv), this Lease shall automatically terminate. In the event of such Lease termination, Tenant shall immediately pay Landlord the then present value of all such accelerated Rent. Landlord, in addition to all other remedies given to Landlord at law or in equity, may by written notice to Tenant, without terminating this Lease, cause Tenant to apply to the DOH to install a manager and/or management consultant and/or a receiver having the necessary approvals from Governmental Authorities, of Landlord's choice, at Tenant's sole cost and expense or to the extent permitted by applicable law, reenter the Leased Premises by summary proceedings or otherwise. In any event, upon a Lease Default, Landlord may require Tenant to consent to a so-called "Change of Ownership" and Landlord may dispossess Tenant upon approval of the Change of Ownership or Certificate of Need by DOH, it being the understanding that under no circumstances is this Lease to be an asset for Tenant's creditors by operation of law or otherwise. In the event of such reentry, Landlord may relet the Leased Premises without being obligated to do so, and in the event of a reletting may apply the Rent therefrom first to the payment of Landlord's cost and expenses, including consultant and/or expert and attorneys' fees and expenses incurred by reason of such Lease Default, and the cost and expense of reletting including, but not limited to, repairs, renovation, or alteration of the Leased Premises and then to the amount of Rent and all other sums due from or payable by Tenant hereunder, Tenant remaining liable for all other sums due from or payable by Tenant hereunder and for any deficiency. Tenant shall also be liable for and indemnify Landlord against all amounts owed to Medicare, Medicaid, all applicable third-party payor programs, third party payors, or residents, including, but not limited to, any overpayments received by Tenant, relating to the Term. Any and all such deficiencies shall constitute Additional Rent hereunder and shall be payable by Tenant monthly on the date herein provided for the payment of Rent. In addition to the foregoing remedies, Landlord shall immediately be entitled to retain the Security Deposit and draw on and retain proceeds of the Letter of Credit, and thereafter Tenant shall have no further claim, right, title or interest therein to the extent of Landlord's claims only.

Landlord acknowledges that its rights of reentry onto the Leased Premises set forth in this Lease do not confer on Landlord the authority to operate a nursing facility as defined in Article 28 of the Public Health Law on the Leased Premises and agrees that except in the event of a Lease Default Landlord will give the DOH, Tower Building, Empire State Plaza, Albany, NY 12237, notification by certified mail of its intent to reenter the Leased Premises or to initiate dispossession proceedings or that the Lease is due to expire at least thirty (30) days prior to the date on which Landlord intends to exercise a right of reentry or to initiate such proceedings or at least sixty (60) days before expiration of the Lease.

Upon receipt of notice from Landlord of its intent to exercise its right of reentry or upon the service of process in dispossession proceedings and sixty (60) days prior to the expiration of the Lease, Tenant shall immediately notify by certified mail the DOH, Tower Building, Empire State Plaza, Albany, NY 12237 (or its then current address), of the receipt of such notice or service of such process or that the Lease is about to expire.

(b) Except as provided in this Lease to the contrary, Rent and other sums not paid when due (unless paid within any applicable grace period) shall bear interest from the date when the same are first payable under the terms of this Lease until the same shall be paid at an annual rate of interest equal to the Overdue Rate.

(c) Upon the filing of a petition by or against Tenant pursuant to the Bankruptcy Code, Tenant, as debtor and as debtor-in-possession, and any trustee who may be appointed shall: (i) timely perform each and every obligation of Tenant under this Lease until such time as this Lease is either rejected or assumed by order of the United States Bankruptcy Court; (ii) pay monthly in advance on the first day of each month as reasonable compensation for use and occupancy of the Leased Premises an amount equal to the Rent and other charges otherwise due pursuant to this Lease; and (iii) reject or assume this Lease within one hundred twenty (120) days after the filing of such petition under the Bankruptcy Code or within such time period as the Bankruptcy Code may allow. Tenant, as debtor and as debtor-in-possession, and any trustee shall be deemed to have rejected this Lease in the event of the failure to comply with any of the above. Included within and in addition to any other conditions or obligations imposed upon Tenant or its successor, in the event of assumption and/or assignment is the prior written consent of any mortgagee in which this Lease has been assigned as collateral security.

(d) In the event of termination of this Lease by reason of any Lease Default by Tenant, or upon the expiration of the Term, then, and in any of such events, Tenant, upon Landlord's written request, shall to the greatest extent permitted by law, transfer to Landlord or its designees or assigns, or cause its Subsidiaries and/or Affiliates, to transfer to Landlord or its designees or assigns, the following: (i) all federal, state or municipal licenses, certifications, certificates, accreditations, approvals, permits, variances, waivers, provider agreements (including non-governmental) and other authorizations which relate to the operation of the Facility; and (ii) the name of the Facility as then commonly known to the general public. Tenant shall also prepare and file all notices required by applicable law in connection with such termination and shall also prepare and timely file all final Medicare and Medicaid cost reports. In the event Tenant fails or refuses to transfer any such licenses, certifications, certificates, accreditations, approvals, permits, variances, waivers, provider agreements, other authorization or trade name, then this provision shall constitute an act of assignment by Tenant to Landlord or its assigns without the necessity of any further written instrument. For this purpose, Tenant constitutes and appoints Landlord its true and lawful attorney-in-fact with full power of substitution to complete or undertake such replacements in the name of Tenant. Such power of attorney shall be deemed to be a power coupled with an interest and cannot be revoked.

(e) Landlord shall have the option of taking over the operation of the Facility, or having the operation of the Facility taken over by a designee, in the event of a termination of this Lease for any reason, without Landlord or designee assuming any of Tenant's liabilities or obligations, including Tenant's liabilities and obligations with respect to employees, such as vacation, sick leave, health insurance and pension liabilities and Tenant's obligations under applicable law to offer and provide group health continuation coverage. Landlord shall give Tenant written notice of Landlord's intent to exercise the right set forth above, in which event, upon the approval of the DOH of the Change of Ownership, Tenant shall and shall cause the Subtenant to immediately turn over possession and control of the Facility without any further action having to be taken on the part of Landlord. At the request of Landlord, Tenant shall and shall cause the Subtenant to turn over any or all of inventories, personal property (including computer and telecommunications equipment but excluding any leased equipment) vehicles, and material contracts (including hospital, transfer, vendor, and managed care contracts).

(f) No failure of Landlord to enforce any rights or remedies upon default of Tenant shall prejudice or affect the rights of Landlord upon any subsequent or similar default.

(g) In the event of a Lease Default by Tenant of any of the terms, covenants, conditions or provisions of this Lease, which Lease Default is not cured within any applicable grace or cure period, Landlord shall have the right to invoke any remedy permitted to Landlord at law, in equity or otherwise. All remedies available to Landlord are declared to be cumulative and concurrent and the exercise of one shall not preclude or waive the right to exercise any other. No termination of this Lease and no taking or recovering of possession of the Leased Premises shall deprive Landlord of any of its remedies or actions against Tenant and Tenant shall remain liable for all past or future Rent, including all taxes, insurance premiums and all other charges and Rent payable by Tenant under this Lease, during and for the balance of the Term hereof. The bringing of any action for Rent or other default shall not be construed as a waiver of the right to obtain possession of the Premises.

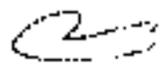

(h) If suit shall be brought for recovery of possession of the Leased Premises, for the recovery of Rent, or any other amount due under the provisions of this Lease, or because of the breach of any other covenant herein contained on the part of Tenant to be kept or performed, and breach shall be established, Tenant shall pay to Landlord all expenses, including reasonable attorney fees, incurred therefor. This subsection shall survive termination of this Lease.

Section 16.2 Facility Operating Deficiencies. On written notice of a request therefor by Landlord to Tenant, upon a Lease Default and for a period of time necessary to fully remedy the Lease Default, Tenant shall engage the services of a consultant, unaffiliated with Tenant and approved by Landlord, which approval shall not be unreasonably withheld, to review the management of the facility for the purpose of making recommendations to remedy the Lease Default. Subject to applicable legal requirements governing confidentiality of patient records, the consultant shall have complete access to the Facility, its records, offices and facilities, in order that it may carry out its duties. Tenant shall cause such consultant to prepare and deliver to Landlord and Tenant a written report of its recommendations within ten (10) days after its engagement. If Tenant shall fail to designate a consultant approved by Landlord as provided above within five (5) days after Tenant's receipt of Landlord's notice, Landlord may designate such consultant by further notice to Tenant. Tenant shall be responsible for payment of all fees and expenses reasonably charged and incurred by the consultant in carrying out its duties. Tenant shall promptly implement any and all reasonable recommendations made by such consultant in order to promptly correct or cure the Lease Default; provided, however, that in no event shall Tenant implement any such recommendations if the same would constitute a violation of applicable legal requirements, violate any rule or regulation of the DOH, or would otherwise cause a Lease Default hereunder (e.g., a transfer or change in use of the Leased Premises), unless Landlord consents in writing to such Lease Default, which consent may be given or withheld in Landlord's sole and absolute discretion. Nothing herein shall impose any liability or obligation on Landlord to (a) request the appointment of a consultant or (b) otherwise remedy the Facility Operating Deficiency(ies) nor shall it deem Landlord an operator of the Facility.

Section 16.3 Receivership

Tenant acknowledges that one of the rights and remedies available under applicable law for nursing facilities which fail to comply with the conditions of participation for Medicare or Medicaid is to apply to a court of competent jurisdiction for the appointment of a receiver to take possession of the Facility, to collect the rents, issues, profits and income of the Facility and to manage the operation of the Facility. Tenant further acknowledges that the revocation, suspension or material limitation of the certification of the Facility for provider status under Medicare or Medicaid (or successor programs) and/or the revocation, suspension or material limitation of a license relating to the operation of the Facility for its intended use under the laws of the State of New York will materially and irreparably impair the value of Landlord's investment in the Facility. Therefore, in the event of a Lease Default, and in addition to any other right or remedy of Landlord under this Lease, at the request of Landlord, Tenant shall request DOH to, or to the extent permissible under law, Tenant shall, petition any appropriate court, for the appointment of a receiver to take possession of the Facility, to manage the operation of the Facility under Tenant's licenses and certifications, to collect and disburse all rents, issues, profits and income generated thereby and to preserve or replace to the extent possible any such license and provider certification for the Facility or to otherwise substitute the licensee or provider thereof. The receiver shall be entitled to a reasonable fee for its services as a receiver. All such fees and other expenses of the receivership estate shall be added to the monthly Rent due to Landlord under this Lease as Additional Rent. Tenant hereby irrevocably stipulates to the voluntary appointment of a receiver under such circumstances and for such purposes and agrees not to contest such appointment.

Section 16.4 Tenant's Waiver, Mitigation. In connection with the exercise by Landlord of any of its remedies under this Section 16, including the termination of this Lease, in whole or in part, Tenant waives, to the maximum extent permitted by applicable Laws, (1) any right of redemption, re-entry or repossession, (2) the benefit of any moratorium laws or any laws now or hereafter in force exempting property from liability for rent or for debt, (3) any duty on the part of Landlord to mitigate the damages recoverable from Tenant on account of any Lease Default by Tenant, except that notwithstanding the foregoing or anything in this Lease to the contrary, Landlord agrees to comply with any duty to mitigate damages where applicable Laws do not allow Tenant to waive such right, (4) the right to interpose any counterclaim (other than compulsory counterclaims) in any summary proceeding instituted by Landlord against Tenant in any court or in any action instituted by Landlord in any court for unpaid Rent under this Lease, and (5) any other right provided to Tenant under applicable Laws relating to a breach of or Lease Default under this Lease, including any rights to cure such breach or Lease Default.

ARTICLE XVII

ENTRY AND REIMBURSEMENT RIGHTS OF LANDLORD

Section 17.1 Entry and Reimbursement Rights of Landlord. In addition to those rights set forth in Section 7.2 of this Lease, Landlord reserves the right at all reasonable times during business hours and upon at least twenty-four (24) hours' advance oral notice to go upon and inspect the Facility and every part thereof (subject to applicable Laws pertaining to patient confidentiality and privacy and the confidentiality of medical records). If Landlord shall make any payments or perform any repairs on behalf of Tenant which are Tenant's obligation and which Tenant has failed to make after applicable notice from Landlord, then any reasonable amounts so paid by Landlord are agreed and declared to be Additional Rent, and shall be due and payable to Landlord by Tenant upon submission to Tenant of an invoice, bill, or statement therefor, together with interest charged at the Overdue Rate commencing on the date of such invoice, bill, or statement. Nothing in this Section 17.1 shall impose any liability or obligation upon Landlord.

Section 20.9 Use of Brokers. Landlord and Tenant each represent and warrant to the other that no broker, finder or other person has been involved in regard to this Lease. Landlord and Tenant hereby agree to indemnify, defend and hold the other harmless from and against any and all claims, liabilities, costs and expenses of any kind (including the injured party's reasonable attorneys' fees and expenses) in any way relating to or arising from a claim by any Person that such Person acted on behalf of a party to this Lease in connection with the transactions contemplated herein. As used in this Lease, the term "Confidential Information" does not include any information which: (i) at the time of disclosure is generally available to and known by the public (other than as a result of a disclosure directly or indirectly by either party or their Representatives); (ii) was available to either party on a non-confidential basis from a source other than a party to this Lease or its Representatives, provided that such source is not and was not bound by a confidentiality agreement with the party hereto; (iii) has been independently acquired or developed by either party or their Representatives without violating any of the obligations hereunder; (iv) is required by law to be disclosed; or (v) relates to the tax structure, tax strategy or tax planning of this transaction.

(d) In the event that either party or any of the Representatives receives notice of a legal request for disclosure of any of the Confidential Information (by deposition, interrogatory, request for documents, subpoena, civil investigative demand or similar process), the party receiving such notice ("Receiving Party") shall promptly notify the other party ("Notified Party") so that the Notified Party may seek a protective order or other appropriate remedy if it chooses to do so. Failure by the Notified Party to take action to seek a protective order or other remedy and to notify the Receiving Party of such action prior to the required disclosure date, shall be deemed a waiver of the provisions of this section. In the event that a protective order or other remedy is not obtained or that the Notified Party waives compliance with the provisions hereof, the Receiving Party shall exercise its best efforts to obtain a confidentiality agreement or protective order concerning the Confidential Information, and in the absence thereof, shall disclose only that portion of the Confidential Information which it is advised by written opinion of counsel is legally required to be disclosed, or which is compelled by court order.

(g) In the event of any breach or threatened breach hereof, Landlord or Tenant shall be entitled to equitable relief, including a temporary preliminary and permanent injunction and specific performance, in addition to all other remedies available to them at law or in equity.

(h) Notwithstanding anything herein to the contrary, Landlord (and each employee, agent, or other Representative of Landlord) may disclose to any and all persons, without limitation, of any kind, the tax treatment and tax structure of this Lease, related documents and all materials of any kind (including opinions or other tax analyses) that are provided to Landlord relating to such tax treatment and tax structure. For this purpose, the tax treatment of a transaction is the purported or claimed U.S. federal income tax treatment of the transaction and the tax structure of a transaction is any fact that may be relevant to understanding the purported or claimed U.S. federal income tax treatment of the transaction.

Section 20.13 Holdover. If, at the expiration of the Term, or earlier termination of the Lease, Tenant continues to occupy the Leased Premises except during a Reimbursement Period, with Landlord's consent, such holding over shall not constitute a renewal of this Lease, but Tenant shall be a Tenant from month-to-month at 300% of the most recent Rent payable by Tenant hereunder, at Landlord's sufferance, and under the same terms and conditions as were in force and effect at the expiration of the Term (except only as to the Term), and except that in the event Tenant shall continue to occupy the Leased Premises after the expiration of the Term, without a duly executed extension agreement in writing having been entered into by and between Landlord and Tenant, then if Landlord shall suffer any damage, loss, cost or expense as a result of such holdover, then Tenant, in addition to such increased Rent, shall pay the amount thereof to Landlord immediately on demand. The provisions of this Section shall be deemed to be "an agreement expressly provided" otherwise as provided in Section 232-C of the Real Property Law of the State of New York, Holding Over. Nothing contained herein shall constitute the consent, express or implied, of Landlord to the holding over of Tenant after the Expiration Date or earlier termination of this Lease, nor shall anything contained herein be deemed to limit Landlord's remedies.

Section 20.14 Tenant's Waiver of Claim for Physical Injury. Landlord and Landlord's Indemnities shall not be liable for, and Tenant waives and indemnifies Landlord and Landlord's Indemnities against all claims for, damage or injury to person or property sustained by Tenant or any person claiming through Tenant, or otherwise, resulting from any accident or occurrence in, about, or upon the Leased Premises, whether occurring as a result of Landlord's active or passive negligence, or otherwise.

(a) Such waiver shall include, but not be limited to, claims for damage resulting from: (i) any equipment or appliances becoming out of repair or any other capital improvement, replacement, repair or maintenance; (ii) injury done or occasioned by wind; (iii) any defect in or failure of plumbing, heating, or air conditioning equipment, electric wiring, gas, water and steam pipes, stairs, rail or walks; (iv) broken glass; (v) the backing up of any sewer pipe or washstand, water closet, waste pipe, drain or any other pipe or tank in, upon or about the Leased Premises; (vi) the escape of steam or hot water; (vii) water, snow or ice being upon, falling from or coming through the roof, skylight, trap door, stairs, walks or any other place upon or near the Leased Premises; (viii) the falling of any fixture, plaster, drywall or stucco; and (ix) any act, omission or negligence of trespassers.

Section 20.15 Binding Effect. This Lease does not constitute an offer to lease and shall not bind Landlord or Tenant unless and until each such party elects to be bound hereby by executing and delivering to the other party an executed original counterpart hereof.

Section 20.16 Default by Landlord. Landlord shall in no event be charged with default in the performance of any of its obligations hereunder unless and until Landlord shall have failed to perform such obligations within sixty (60) days of when they are due to be performed, except in cases when documents are required or consents needed in less than sixty (60) days in which case failure to render timely shall be deemed to be approval or consent of Landlord (or such additional time as is reasonably required to correct any such default) except for Landlord's default in making timely payment of taxes and interest, in which case Landlord shall be in default when such payments are delinquent or past due. Tenant agrees to give to the holder of record of any mortgage covering the Leased Premises notice simultaneously with any notice given to Landlord to correct any default of Landlord as hereinabove provided and agrees that the holder of record of any mortgage shall have the right, after receipt of notice of such default, within sixty (60) days after the expiration of Tenant's applicable cure period with respect thereto, to correct or remedy such default before Tenant may take any action under this Lease by reason of such default. Landlord shall also give to the holder of any mortgage copies of any notices of default which it may give or send to Tenant.

Section 20.17 Liens. Tenant shall not do or suffer anything to be done whereby the Leased Premises, or any portion thereof, or any interest therein, may be encumbered by any liens of mechanics, laborers, or materialmen, chattel mortgages or any other liens. Tenant shall, whenever and as often as any such liens are filed against the Leased Premises, or any portion thereof, purporting to be for labor or material furnished or to be furnished to Tenant, discharge the same of record within thirty (30) days after the date of filing by payment, bonding or otherwise, as provided by law. In the event of the default of Tenant in procuring the discharge, as aforesaid, of any such lien, Landlord may, with five (5) days prior notice, procure such discharge and the expenses incurred by Landlord in obtaining such discharge shall be paid by Tenant as Additional Rent within ten (10) days after notice from Landlord of the amount thereof.

Section 20.18 Publicity. All news releases, publicity or advertising by Tenant or their Affiliates through any media intended to reach the general public which refers to Landlord, or its Affiliates, this Lease or the purchase of the Real Property shall be subject to the prior written approval of Landlord.

Section 20.19 Trial by Jury. TENANT HEREBY AGREES NOT TO ELECT A TRIAL BY JURY OF ANY ISSUE TRIABLE OF RIGHT BY JURY, AND WAIVES ANY RIGHT TO TRIAL BY JURY FULLY TO THE EXTENT THAT ANY SUCH RIGHT SHALL NOW OR HEREAFTER EXIST WITH REGARD TO THIS LEASE, OR ANY CLAIM, COUNTERCLAIM OR OTHER ACTION ARISING IN CONNECTION THEREWITH. THIS WAIVER OF RIGHT TO TRIAL BY JURY IS GIVEN KNOWINGLY AND VOLUNTARILY BY TENANT, AND IS INTENDED TO ENCOMPASS INDIVIDUALLY EACH INSTANCE AND EACH ISSUE AS TO WHICH THE RIGHT TO A TRIAL BY JURY WOULD OTHERWISE ACCRUE. LANDLORD IS HEREBY AUTHORIZED TO FILE A COPY OF THIS PARAGRAPH IN ANY PROCEEDING AS CONCLUSIVE EVIDENCE OF THIS WAIVER BY TENANT.

Section 20.20 Construction and Interpretation. The Parties have each negotiated the terms and conditions hereof and reviewed this Lease carefully. It is the intent of the Parties that each word, phrase, sentence and other part hereof shall be given its plain meaning, and that rules of interpretation or construction of contracts that would construe any ambiguity of any part hereof against the draftsman, by virtue of being the draftsman, shall not apply.

Section 20.21 Accord and Satisfaction. No payment by Tenant or receipt by Landlord of a lesser amount than shall be due hereunder, shall be deemed to be other than a payment on account nor shall any endorsement or statement on any check or any letter accompanying any check or payment as rent be given any effect or be deemed an accord and satisfaction, and Landlord may accept such checks without prejudice to any other rights or remedies which Landlord may have.

Accordingly, Tenant agrees that it and their Affiliates will not, during the Term of this Lease at any time for a period of two (2) years after the expiration or early termination of this Lease, directly or indirectly, together or alone or in conjunction with any others, engage in the following:

(i) compete with the business conducted at the Facility, and for those purposes will not own, manage, operate, join, control or participate in, or be connected as an officer, employee, partner, director, trustee or otherwise in any manner with a company which owns or operates (or provides consulting and/or management services to any skilled nursing facility located within the Primary Market of the Facility or (ii) any company providing hospice services in the Commonwealth of Massachusetts, or, otherwise lend credit to a person, firm or entity of a type which they prohibited from owning.

The relationship between Tenant, on the one hand, and Landlord, on the other hand, is, and at all times shall remain, solely that of landlord and tenant. DEFENSES

100. MCB reserves the right to rely upon any of the following or any additional defenses to the extent that such defenses are supported by information developed through discovery or evidence at trial. MCB presently has insufficient knowledge or information upon which to form a belief as to whether there may be, as yet unstated, defenses available to MCB and thus, expressly reserves the right to (a) amend or supplement this answer, defenses and all other pleadings, and (b) assert any and all additional defenses under any applicable federal and state law in the event that discovery indicates such defenses would be appropriate. By asserting the matters below, MCB does not admit that Plaintiff is relieved of his burden to prove each element of its claims and the damages or relief sought.

AS AND FOR A FIRST DEFENSE

101. MCB has a fully perfected security interest in the Membership Interest and the certificates constituting the Membership Interest that is senior to all other persons.

AS AND FOR A SECOND DEFENSE

102. MCB has a possessory right in the certificates constituting the Membership Interest that is superior to all other persons.

AS AND FOR A THIRD DEFENSE

103. Given that MCB is the creditor with the fully perfected senior secured interest in the Membership Interests and certificates constituting the Membership Interest, and also has possession of the certificates (and cannot be dispossessed of same), defendants WPHP and Fensterman cannot conduct a commercially reasonable sale of the Membership Interest and thus, they cannot proceed with a sale of said Membership Interest.

AS AND FOR A FOURTH DEFENSE

104. Upon information and belief, WPHP and Fensterman never had a valid security interest in the Membership Interest and thus, they cannot foreclose or sell same.

AS AND FOR A FIFTH DEFENSE

105. Upon information and belief, assuming arguendo WPHP and Fensterman had a valid security interest in the Membership Interest, said security interest has since terminated and thus, they cannot foreclose or sell same.

AS AND FOR A CROSS-CLAIM
AGAINST WHITE PLAINS HEALTHCARE
PROPERTIES I, LLC AND HOWARD FENSTERMAN
(Declaratory Judgment)

106. MCB repeats and re-alleges the foregoing paragraphs as though fully set forth herein.

MCB's Security Interest in the Membership Interest

107. On or about December 19, 2019, MCB loaned $3 million to, among others, Waterview Acquisition I, LLC ("Waterview") and in connection therewith Waterview executed and delivered to MCB a Promissory Note and Loan Agreement each dated December 19, 2019.

108. To secure repayment of Waterview's obligations to MCB, among other things, Plaintiff executed and delivered to MCB a Guaranty Of Payment dated December 19, 2019 (the "Guaranty").

109. Plaintiff secured his obligations under his Guaranty by executing and delivering to MCB, among other things, the Assignment And Pledge Of Membership Interests dated December 19, 2019 (the "Pledge Agreement").

110. Pursuant to the Pledge Agreement, Plaintiff, among other things, "pledge[d], collateral[ly] assign[ed], transfer[red] and convey[ed], and grant[ed] a security interest in and lien on, in favor of [MCB], all of [Plaintiff's] right, title and interest in, to, and under ... , whether now owned or existing or hereafter acquired or arising [Seventy and one-tenths percentage (70.1%) of the membership interests ... owned by HERBERT JOZEFOVIC ... in WATERVIEW ACQUISITION I, LLC ....]". In other words, by the Pledge Agreement, Plaintiff pledged his Membership Interests to MCB.

111. To authorize, permit and facilitate the pledge of Plaintiff's Membership Interests to MCB, Plaintiff's Membership Interests were certificated (the "Certificates") and the Amended

And Restated Operating Agreement Of Waterview Acquisition I, LLC was amended pursuant to the Second Amendment To Amended And Restated Operating Agreement Of Waterview Acquisition I, LLC dated December 19, 2019 (collectively, the "Operating Agreement"). After obtaining a senior secured interest in Plaintiff's Membership Interests and Certificates, MCB fully perfected same by filing a UCC Financing Statement on December 23, 2019 and taking possession of the Certificates.

112. All of Plaintiff's rights and interests in and to the Membership Interests are merged with and in the Certificates.

The Certificates

113. MCB remains in possession of the Certificates.

114. MCB has a possessory interest in the Certificates that is superior to all other persons and thus, cannot be dispossessed of the Certificates.

115. The Certificates, moreover, states as follows: "This certifies that Herbert Lizer Jozefovic is the registered owner of Seventy and 1/10 (70.1%) Percent of the membership in the Limited Liability Company transferable only on the books of the Company in accordance with the Company's Operating Agreement and pursuant to the provisions of Section 2801-a(4)(b) of the New York State Public Health Law."

116. Pursuant to Article XII of Waterview's Operating Agreement, a pledge or transfer of a membership interest is prohibited absent consent of the Public Health Council of the State of New York and the members of Waterview.

117. Likewise, Section 2801-a(4)(b) of the New York State Public Health Law requires the consent of the New York Public Health and Health Planning Council.

The Notice of Sale

118. On or about October 6, 2020, MCB and its counsel Windels Marx Lane & Mittendorf, LLP received a Notification Of Disposition Of Collateral pursuant to which WPHP and Fensterman purported to sell WPHP's interests in and to Plaintiff's Membership Interests and Certificates (the "Notice of Sale").

119. The Notice of Sale allegedly relates to an August 11, 2017 collateral assignment, pledge and security agreement between Plaintiff and WPHP. However, WPHP did not file a UCC Financing Statement until September 15, 2020.

120. Even if WPHP and Fensterman were to have a valid security interest in the Membership Interest, it would be junior to MCB's security interest by virtue of the fact that MCB perfected its interest before WPHP's September 15, 2020 UCC Financing Statement.

The UCC Requires that any Sale be "Commercially Reasonable"

121. Pursuant to NY UCC 9-610(b), "Every aspect of a disposition of collateral, including the method, manner, time, place, and other terms, must be commercially reasonable."

122. In order to conduct a commercially reasonable sale of the Membership Interests, WPHP and Fensterman must have possession of the Certificates.

Declaratory Relief is Necessary

123. As evidenced by the Notice of Sale, and the subsequent refusal by WPHP and Fensterman to withdraw the Notice of Sale, there exists a genuine controversy and dispute as to whether WPHP and Fensterman have the authority to sell Plaintiff's Membership Interest given that (a) WPHP and Fensterman never had a security interest in the Membership Interests and if they did, then said security interest long ago terminated, and even if they did and still have a security interest in the Membership Interests, then (b) (i) MCB has a fully perfected security interest in the Membership Interest and Certificates that is senior to all other persons, (ii) MCB is in possession of the Certificates, (iii) MCB has a possessory right in the Certificates that is superior to all other persons, (iv) MCB cannot be dispossessed of the Certificates given its superior possessory right in same, (v) the Certificates limit any transfer of same except in compliance with the Operating Agreement, which requires the consent of Waterview's members, and the Public Health Law, which requires the consent of the Public Health Council; (vi) all of Plaintiff's rights and interests in and to the Membership Interests are merged with and in the Certificates, and (vii) in order to conduct a commercially reasonable sale, WPHP and Fensterman must have possession of the Certificates.

124. A judicial determination of these issues is necessary.

125. This controversy is ripe, genuine, actually justiciable and MCB has no adequate remedy at law.

126. MCB is entitled to a declaratory judgment stating that WPHP and Fensterman are prohibited from selling Plaintiff's Membership Interest pursuant to the Notice of Sale or otherwise because: (a) WPHP and Fensterman never had a security interest in the Membership Interests and if they did, then said security interest long ago terminated, and even if they did and still have a security interest in the Membership Interests, then (b) (i) MCB has a fully perfected security interest in the Membership Interest and Certificates that is senior to all other persons, (ii) MCB is in possession of the Certificates, (iii) MCB has a possessory right in the Certificates that is superior to all other persons, (iv) MCB cannot be dispossessed of the Certificates given its superior possessory right in same, (v) the Certificates limit any transfer of same except in compliance with the Operating Agreement, which requires the consent of Waterview's members, and the Public Health Law, which requires the consent of the Public Health Council; (vi) all of Plaintiff's rights and interests in and to the Membership Interests are merged with and in the Certificates, and (viii) in order to conduct a commercially reasonable sale, WPHP and Fensterman must have possession of the Certificates.

127. WHEREFORE, MCB demands judgment as follows:

(a) Granting Plaintiff's request for a judgment declaring that (i) the Collateral Assignment to WPHP and Fensterman is null and void following the establishment of the Rent Security; (ii) the Membership Interest has been properly assigned to MCB; and (iii) WPHP and Fensterman have no right or claim to the Membership Interest, nor can WPHP, Fensterman, or counsel sell or otherwise transfer the Membership Interest;

(b) Granting MCB's request for a judgment declaring that WPHP and Fensterman are prohibited from selling Plaintiff's Membership Interest pursuant to the Notice of Sale or otherwise because: (1) WPHP and Fensterman never had a security interest in the Membership Interests and if they did, then said security interest long ago terminated, and even if they did and still have a security interest in the Membership Interests, then (2) (i) MCB has a fully perfected security interest in the Membership Interest and Certificates that is senior to all other persons, (ii) MCB is in possession of the Certificates, (iii) MCB has a possessory right in the Certificates that is superior to all other persons, (iv) MCB cannot be dispossessed of the Certificates given its superior possessory right in same, (v) the Certificates limit any transfer of same except in compliance with the Operating Agreement, which requires the consent of Waterview's members, and the Public Health Law, which requires the consent of the Public Health Council; (vii) all of Plaintiff's rights and interests in and to the Membership Interests are merged with and in the Certificates, and (viii) in order to conduct a commercially reasonable sale, WPHP and Fensterman must have possession of the Certificates; and

(c) Granting MCB such other relief as the Court may deem fair, just and proper.

PRELIMINARY STATEMENT

Plaintiff, White Plains Healthcare Properties I, LLC (“WPH Properties”) by its attorneys, DelBello, Donnellan, Weingarten, Wise & Wiederkehr, LLP and Abrams, Fensterman, Fensterman, Eisman, Formato, Ferrara, Wolf & Carone, LLP, respectfully submit this memorandum of law in support of its motion, pursuant to CPLR § 3025(b), granting WPH Properties leave to file an amended complaint.

WPH Properties is moving for leave to amend because the defendants rejected an amended complaint served on November 30, 2020, 25 days, not 20 days, after they filed their answer. The relevant facts are set forth in the accompanying affirmation of Alfred E. Donnellan, Esq. For the reasons that follow, WPH Properties respectfully submits that leave to amend should be granted.

ARGUMENT

I

THE COURT SHOULD GRANT LEAVE TO FILE THE AMENDED COMPLAINT.

Pursuant to CPLR 3025(b), a party “may amend his pleading, or supplement it . . . at any time by leave of court” and leave “shall be freely given upon such terms as may be just . . . .” CPLR § 3025(b); Sentry Ins. Co. v. Kero-Sun, Inc., 122 A.D.2d 204, 204 (2d Dep’t 1986) (“As a general rule, leave to amend should be freely given absent prejudice or surprise resulting directly from the delay.”). “Thus, leave to amend a pleading should be granted where the amendment is neither palpably insufficient nor patently devoid of merit, and the delay in seeking amendment does not prejudice or surprise the opposing party.” Ulster Savings Bank v. Fiore, 165 A.D.3d 734, 735 (2d Dep’t 2018). “Prejudice . . . is not found in the mere exposure of the defendant to greater liability. Instead, there must be some indication that the defendant has been hindered in the preparation of his case or has been prevented from taking some measure in support of his position.”

Abdelnabi v. New York City Transit Authority, 273 A.D.2d 114, 115 (1st Dep’t 2000) (citing Loomis v. Civetta Corrinno Construction Corp., 54 N.Y.2d 18, 24 (1981)).

Granting leave to amend the complaint here would result in no prejudice or surprise whatever to the defendants. Discovery in this case has only just commenced. Defendants served their first set of interrogatories and request for the production of documents on December 18, 2020. Donnellan aff., ¶8 Pursuant to the Courts preliminary conference order, responses to those discovery requests are due on February 26, 2021. Depositions have not yet commenced. Donnellan aff., ¶8 Since leave is being sought at the commencement of discovery, the defendants cannot plausibly claim that they somehow changed their position in reliance on the original complaint, or even that the amended complaint would somehow cause them significant trouble or expense.

Indeed, Courts have held that leave should be granted to amend a complaint even close to the eve of trial. See Kimso Apartments, LLC v. Gandhi, 24 N.Y.3d 403 (2914). In Sunken Pond Estates Homeowners Ass’n v. Sunken Pond Estate, Inc., No. 43653/08, 2012 WL 2742825, *6 (Sup. Ct. Suffolk Cty. June 21, 2012), for example, the defendants opposed leave to amend the complaint, asserting that “the proposed amendment is unfair because it is made almost on the eve of trial and will cause unreasonable expense and delay if it leads to additional discovery is insufficient to make such a showing.” Id. The Court granted leave to amend, stating:

Mere lateness is not a barrier to an amendment. It must be lateness coupled with significant prejudice to the other side, the very elements of the laches doctrine. There must be some indication that the defendants have been hindered in the preparation of their case or prevented from taking some measure in support of their position. The defendants' conclusory assertion that the proposed amendment is unfair because it is made almost on the eve of trial and will cause unreasonable expense and delay if it leads to additional discovery is insufficient to make such a showing.

Id. (citations omitted).

The lack of surprise to the defendants is further reinforced by the fact that the amended complaint does nothing more than add a cause of action against Jozefovic individually for HBL's breach of the same provisions in the lease agreement as alleged in the original complaint. Jozefovic pledged the Waterview membership interest as security to ensure HBL's compliance with the lease. The amended complaint seeks to enforce the security agreement and the lease. Because the facts supporting WHP Properties' claims against Jozefovic individually are based on the same breaches of HBL's obligations under the lease, there is cannot possibly be any surprise to the defendants of the facts alleged that support the new claims.

Finally, "the established rule is that the legal sufficiency or merits of proposed amendments will not be examined on a motion to amend unless the insufficiency or lack of merit is clear and free from doubt." Sentry Ins. Co. v. Kero-Sun, Inc., 122 A.D.2d at 204; see also Yong Soon Oh v. Hua Jin, 124 A.D.3d 639, 640 (2d Dep't 2015) ("[I]n the absence of prejudice or surprise to the opposing party, leave to amend pleadings should be freely granted unless the proposed amendment is palpably insufficient or patently devoid of merit."); Sample v. Levada, 8 A.D.3d 465, 467-68 (2d Dep't 2004) ("The legal sufficiency or merits of a proposed amendment to a pleading will not be examined unless the insufficiency or lack of merit is clear and free from doubt."). The fifth cause of action easily satisfies that standard.

The basis for the fifth cause of action in the amended complaint is Jozefovic's breach of the security agreement. The fifth cause of action alleges as follows:

- Under the Jozefovic Security Agreement, Jozefovic pledged the Waterview Collateral in order to secure the obligations under the Jozefovic Security Agreement and under the Lease;
- The Jozefovic Security Agreement provides that Jozefovic has not and will not enter into any assignment, mortgage, pledge or other instrument that transfers or encumbers all or any part of the Waterview Collateral, Donnellan aff., ex. C, ¶39, and further provides that Jozefovic agrees not to subsequently further amend or voluntarily permit the amendment of the security agreement and/or the rights of WPH Properties. Donnellan aff., ex. C, ¶ 40;

- Notwithstanding his agreement not to pledge or assign the Waterview Collateral in a manner that would materially adversely affect WPH Properties, Jozefovic assigned the MCB to secure Jozefovic's obligation to repay a $3,000,000 loan from MCB. Donnellan aff., ex. C, ¶ 39;
- To effectuate Jozefovic's assignment of his Waterview interest to MCB, Jozefovic agreed to and voluntarily permitted the amendment of the Waterview Operating Agreement. Donnellan aff., ex. C, ¶ 42;
- Jozefovic breached his obligations under the security agreement by agreeing to and voluntarily permitting the amendment of the Waterview operating agreement and by assigning his Waterview interest to MCB. Donnellan aff., ex. C, ¶ 44;
- Jozefovic further breached the security agreement by failing to take all of the necessary steps to add Howard Fensterman, a principal of WPH Properties, as a co-signatory to the JP Morgan Chase accounts identified therein as required by the security agreement. Donnellan aff., ex. C, ¶ 45;
- Jozefovic and HBL breached their obligation to post the $1,600,000 additional security deposit required by the security agreement and the lease. Donnellan aff., ex. C, ¶ 46;
- The failure of Jozefovic and HBL failure to satisfy the obligation to post the $1.6 million additional security deposit constitutes a breach of the security agreement and the lease. Donnellan aff., ex. C, ¶ 48;
- Under the UCC and the security agreement, WPH Properties is entitled, in the event of a default, to, among other remedies, to sell Jozefovic's Waterview interest at a public sale, subject to MCB's senior security interest in the collateral. Donnellan aff., ex. C, ¶¶ 50, 52;
- Jozefovic's breach of the security agreement has therefore caused WPH Properties damages in the amount of $3,000,000, which is the amount of Jozefovic's obligation to MCB secured by Jozefovic's illicit assignment of the same collateral to MCB. Donnellan aff., ex. C, ¶ 53;

The defendants have no credible argument that the “insufficiency or lack of merit” of the fifth cause of action “is clear and free from doubt.” In fact, those claims are based on the clear and unambiguous provisions of the security agreement and lease, and many of the allegations contained in the fifth cause of action are indisputable. For example, MCB has asserted in an Answer with Cross-Claims filed in Jozefovic v. White Plains Healthcare Properties I, LLC, Index no. 655549/2020 (Sup. Ct. N.Y. Cty) (the “New York County Action”), that Jozefovic pledged the Waterview Collateral to MCB to secure his loan obligation to MCB and that the Waterview Operating Agreement was amended to permit that pledge. Donnellan aff., ex. H, ¶¶ 107-111. Jozefovic has also admitted in the New York County action that, after pledging the Waterview Collateral to WPH Properties, he “subsequently transferred the [Waterview] Membership Interest to Defendant Metropolitan Commercial Bank (“MCB”) as part of a financing arrangement. Donnellan aff., ex. H. As alleged in the amended complaint’s fifth cause of action, the pledge to MCB of the Waterview Collateral – which Jozefovic had already pledged to WPH Properties – as well as amending the Waterview operating agreement to facilitate the pledge to MCB were clear violations of the security agreement.

As the parties have also discussed with this Court, it is also indisputable that Jozefovic and HBL have breached their obligation to post the $1,600,000 additional security deposit required by the Jozefovic Security Agreement and the Lease. As alleged in the fifth cause of action of the amended complaint, this was another breach of the security agreement.

In a letter from his counsel dated December 2, 2020, Donnellan aff., ex. E, Jozefovic opposed the amended complaint on the basis that he had instituted the New York County action seeking declaratory judgment regarding WHP Properties’ rights to enforce the Jozefovic Security Agreement. Jozefovic’s argument is unavailing because: (i) the New York County Action was filed after this action was commenced in Westchester; (ii) venue for the New York County Action is improper because the only connection to New York County is the place of business of MCB, a nominal party, and (iii) WHP Properties already moved to change venue and consolidate the New York County Action No. 2. The motion to change venue and consolidate has been fully briefed and submitted before Hon. Nancy Bannon, J.S.C. and the parties are awaiting the Court’s decision on the motion.

Because the fifth cause of action added in the amended complaint -- far from being palpably insufficient or patently devoid of merit -- is clearly meritorious and will result in no prejudice or undue surprise, the Court should grant leave to file the amended complaint.

CONCLUSION

For all of these reasons, WPH Properties respectfully request that the Court grant it leave to file its amended complaint and award such other relief as the Court deems just.

Index No. 60278/2020

AFFIRMATION OF
ALFRED E. DONNELLAN

Alfred E. Donnellan, an attorney duly admitted to practice in the courts of the State of New York, affirms the following to be true under the penalty of perjury:

1. I am a member of the law firm of DelBello Donnellan Weingarten Wise & Wiederkehr, LLP, lead counsel for the plaintiff, White Plains Healthcare Properties I, LLC (“WPH Properties”), and third-party defendants, CCC Equities, LLC, Project Equity Consulting, The Congress Companies, Howard Fensterman and William Nicholson (collectively, “third-party defendants”).

2. I submit this affirmation in support of the motion of WPH Properties for an order dismissing the counterclaims and third-party claims (collectively, the “Claims”) asserted by defendants/third-party plaintiffs, HBL SNF, LLC (“HBL”), Lizer Jozefovic (“Jozefovic”) and Mark Neuman (“Neuman”) (collectively, “defendants”).

3. This action concerns a nursing home facility developed, financed, constructed and owned by WPH Properties located at 116-120 Church Street, White Plains, New York. WPH Properties has leased the nursing home to HBL, an entity controlled by Jozefovic, which is the operator of the facility. WPH Properties commenced this action on September 18, 2020 seeking to recover the amounts due from HBL to WPH Properties as a result of HBL's defaults under the lease, and a related letter of intent. The defendants filed an answer on November 5, 2020 asserting the Claims for an accounting, interest, breach of contract, fraud, fraud in the inducement and bad faith. In essence, the defendants assert that that WPH Properties and the third-party defendants failed to meet their obligations under a development agreement and the lease with respect to development, financing and construction of the nursing home facility.

4. The Claims should be dismissed, pursuant to CPLR 3211(a)(5) and (a)(7) because they have been released as against WPH Properties and fail to state viable causes of action.

5. First, WPH Properties and HBL are parties to the development agreement, which expressly provides that WPH Properties has fulfilled all its obligations and responsibilities. Pursuant to the development agreement, the Claims against WPH Properties -- asserted in the first, second and third causes of action -- were released and discharged upon substantial completion of the nursing home, which occurred long ago. The Claims were released as against WPH Properties pursuant to the lease as well. Under the lease, the defendants waived any claims they may have against WPH Properties in law or equity with respect to any aspect of the nursing home facility. The Claims asserted against WPH Properties in the first, second and third causes of action should therefore be dismissed pursuant to CPLR 3211(a)(5).

6. The defendants' first, second, fourth, fifth and sixth causes of action should be dismissed as well under CPLR 3211(a)(7) for failure to state a claim.

7. The first cause of action demanding an accounting should be dismissed because the defendants do not and cannot allege a fiduciary relationship between the parties, which is necessary to obtain an accounting.

8. The second cause of action seeks “imputed interest” on a purported loan of $2,200,000 made by HBL to WPH Properties, but that claim is not viable because, even assuming that the $2,200,000 was in fact a loan, the second cause of action expressly pleads that the parties made no provision for interest on the alleged loan.

9. The fourth, fifth and sixth causes of action alleging fraud in the inducement, bad faith and fraud should be dismissed because they: (i) are duplicative of the defendants’ breach of contract claim; (ii) fail to satisfy the applicable pleading standard of CPLR 3016(b), and (iii) fail to state viable claims for fraud, bad faith or fraud in the inducement.

10. A true and correct copy of the summons and complaint in this action is attached as Exhibit A.

11. A true and correct of defendants’ Answer asserting the counterclaims and third-party claims is attached as Exhibit B.

12. A true and correct copy of the Development Agreement between WPH Properties and HBL dated as of November 19, 2015 is attached as Exhibit C.

13. A true and correct copy of the amended and restated operating lease between WPH Properties and HBL dated as of November 19, 2015, as amended July 12, 2017 is attached as Exhibit D.

14. A true and correct copy of the temporary certificate of occupancy for the Facility (“the “TCO”) is attached as Exhibit E.

15. A true and correct copy of the AJA Form 0704 refenced in Article VIII of the Development Agreement is attached as Exhibit F.

16. A true and correct copy of a communication from the New York State Department of Health approving the Facility as constructed to accept patients. The DOH approval is annexed as Exhibit G.

WHEREFORE, I respectfully request that this Court grant the motion of WPH Properties in its entirety.

COUNTERCLAIMS AGAINST WHITE PLAINS
HEALTHCARE PROPERTIES I, LLC
AND
THIRD-PARTY CLAIMS AGAINST CCC EQUITIES, LLC, PROJECT EQUITY CONSULTING, THE CONGRESS COMPANIES, HOWARD FENSTERMAN, AND WILLIAM NICHOLSON

Now and for their counterclaims against plaintiff and third-party complaint against third-party defendants, Defendants, upon information and belief, allege the following:

1. CCC Equities, LLC is a limited liability company duly organized and existing under the laws of the State of New York with an address and place of business at 3 Dakota Drive, Suite 300, Lake Success, New York 11042.

2. Project Equity Consulting is a limited liability company duly organized and existing under the laws of the State of New York with an address and place of business at 3 Dakota Drive, Suite 300, Lake Success, New York 11042.

3. The Congress Companies is a corporation duly organized and existing under the laws of the State of Massachusetts with an address and place of business at 2 Bourbon Street, West Peabody Executive Center, Peabody, Massachusetts 01960 and regularly conducts business within the State of New York.

4. Howard Fensterman is an individual residing at 4 Pond Lane, Sands Point, New York 11050 with a business address and place of business at Abrams, Fensterman, Fensterman, Eisman, Formato, Ferrara, Wolf & Carone, LLP, 3 Dakota Drive, Suite 300, Lake Success, New York 11042.

5. Through the period complained of herein, Fensterman acted as both a principal in the transaction and legal counsel to certain parties including the defendant Lizer Jozefovic.

6. William Nicholson is an individual residing at 12 Long Meadow Drive, Ipswich, Massachusetts 01938 with a business address and place of business at 2 Bourbon Street, West Peabody Executive Center, Suite 200, Peabody, Massachusetts 01960.

7. This case involves the development of a new state-of-the-art 160-bed skilled nursing facility on Church Street in White Plains, New York (the "Facility.")

8. The Facility was proposed by the defendant, HBL SNF, LLC, and its principals Lizer Jozefovic and Mark Newman (the “Jozefovic Team”) to the New York State Department of Health (“NYSDOH”) in August 2009.

9. The Facility is dedicated to providing specialized services to “difficult to place patients,” including but not limited to, patients who exhibit psychiatric behaviors, patients who are undocumented, patients with developmental and physical disabilities, and patients who have no means of financial support and require charity care.

10. The Facility was intentionally located in White Plains to service high-density minority and high-density poverty populations as compared to surrounding regions.

11. In order to obtain a Certificate of Need from NYSDOH, the Jozefovic Team acquired skilled nursing bed licenses from other area nursing facilities including Hebrew Hospital Home of Westchester, Bethel Nursing Home, and Taylor Care Center.

12. After full review of the Jozefovic Team’s application, NYSDOH determined that the Jozefovic Team was a successful operator of nursing facilities that are authorized to care for the elderly and individuals with long-term physical care needs and has an established history of achieving high occupancy at the facilities it operated.

13. NYSDOH further determined that the Facility was unique and necessary as it provided care to patients not accepted by other facilities because of their special needs.

14. At the time the Jozefovic Team proposed the Facility, the Plaintiff White Plains Healthcare Properties I, LLC (“WPHP”) and the third-party defendants Howard Fensterman (“Fensterman”), William Nicholson (“Nicholson”), and their companies CCC Equities LLC (“CCCE”), Project Equity Construction (“PEC”), and The Congress Companies (“Congress”), approached the Jozefovic Team and proposed that they act as developers for the new Facility.

15. Led by third-party defendant Fensterman, these parties represented that they were capable of performing all aspects of development of the Facility including construction and financing (hereafter “the Project.”)

16. In fact, the Project costs for the Facility presented to NYSDOH by the Jozefovic Team were costs calculated and submitted by Fensterman and Nicholson.

17. Importantly, these costs established a total Project cost of $56, 631,759.

18. The Project costs for the Facility were itemized by Fensterman and Nicholson as follows:

Land acquisition	$ 4,528,333
New construction	$37,282,722
Design Contingency	$ 1,864,136
Construction Contingency	$ 1,864,136
Architect/Engineering Fees	$ 2,982,618
Construction Manager Fees	$ 745,654
Other Fees (Consultant)	$ 750,000
Movable Equipment	$ 1,480,000
Financing Costs	$ 2,112,000
Interim Interest Expense	$ 2,710,400
CON Application Fee	$ 2,000
CON Processing Fee	$ 309,760
Total Project Cost	$56,631,759

19. Many of these costs were to be paid to Fensterman and Nicholson directly, as well as Fensterman’s law firm, and other costs to their entities as fees, interest costs, and other Project expenses.

20. In addition, Fensterman and Nicholson represented that they could arrange for 100% of the Project financing.

21. More specifically, Fensterman and Nicholson specifically represented and agreed in writing that they could secure a HUD insured mortgage in the amount of $42,240,000 with an interest rate of 5.5% and a term of thirty (30) years.

22. A description of this mortgage was included in the projected Medicaid Reimbursement submitted to NYSDOH as part of the Project feasibility forecast.

23. Furthermore, Fensterman represented that he could provide the necessary project equity in the amount of $9,863,246 through his company CCC Equities, LLC.

24. The Jozefovic Team presented this financing arrangement to NYSDOH in support of its request for approval of the Facility and these costs became part of NYSDOH's Project approval.

25. Given that Fensterman and Nicholson agreed to develop, finance, and own the Project, the Jozefovic Team agreed to enter into a Lease Agreement to occupy and operate the Facility.

26. To accomplish this, Fensterman and Nicholson proposed that their company White Plains Healthcare Properties I, LLC become the landlord for the operating company owned by the Jozefovic Team known as HBL SNF, LLC.

27. The Lease was to be for a twenty (20) year term.

28. The rent was to be calculated as an amount equal to the debt service of the HUD insured mortgage to be obtained by Fensterman and Nicholson plus a return of cash equity to WPHP on the account of the equity contributions through CCCE.

29. The annual rent proposed by Fensterman and Nicholson and presented to NYSDOH equaled $4,318,000 annually or $360,000 per month.

30. The amount of annual rent as calculated above was eligible for reimbursement to HBL SNF, LLC through the NYSDOH.

31. The Project as proposed to the NYSDOH was to be completed in approximately twenty (20) months.

32. The NYSDOH gave approval for the Project on the terms described above in October 2012.

33. Throughout the NYSDOH application process, the Jozefovic Team relied upon representations made by Fensterman and Nicholson.

34. However, shortly after receiving approval from NYSDOH, the Jozefovic Team learned that Fensterman and Nicholson did not have the capital necessary to commence or complete the Project as presented.

35. As a result of this lack of capital the Project was delayed for years.

36. In an attempt to overcome this lack of capital, on November 15, 2015, HBL SNF, LLC entered into a Development Agreement with White Plains Healthcare Properties I, LLC (the “Development Agreement.”)

37. On the same date, HBL SNF, LLC entered into a Lease with White Plains Healthcare Properties I, LLC (the “Lease”) for the Facility in order to enable WPHP to obtain its Project financing.

38. The Development Agreement and Lease are essential parts of the same transaction and are constitute integrated agreements.

39. Pursuant to the Development Agreement, the Project was to be “turn-key” meaning that the plaintiff and third-party defendants would deliver a fully constructed facility authorized to operate as a skilled nursing facility with permanent financing in place in accordance with the approval granted by NYSDOH.

40. However, because Fensterman and Nicholson lacked sufficient capital to complete the Project on a turn-key basis, they induced the Jozefovic Team to withdraw its equity from another nursing facility which it owned and operated known as Waterview Nursing Home and to contribute that equity to the Project so that the Project could move forward in 2016.

41. In particular, the Jozefovic Team made the following capital contributions to the Project as memorialized in a Term Sheet dated November 20, 2015:

- a) $2,200,000 paid to WPHP to be used by Congress for pre-development costs;
- b) $197,072 to CCC Equities, LLC to be used in the discretion of Fensterman;
- c) $1,595,368.32 into a control account in the name of HBL SNF.

42. Despite repeated requests since 2015, Fensterman, Nicholson, Congress, and CCCE have failed or refused to provide an accounting of the use of the predevelopment and discretionary funds paid to them.

43. In consideration for the $2,200,000 contribution to WPHP, WPHP agreed that these funds constituted a loan to WPHP to be repaid to HBL SNF, LLC.

44. No provision was made for the payment of interest on the loan notwithstanding that WPHP had the use of such funds since 2015.

45. WPHP agreed to repay the principal amount of the loan by purchasing the furniture, fixtures, and equipment (the "FF&E") in the amount of $1,500,000 for the Project and by giving HBL SNF, LLC a future credit against Lease payments.

46. When advancing these funds to Fensterman, Nicholson, CCC Equities and Congress, the Jozefovic Team anticipated that the Facility would be delivered in September 2017.

47. The Facility was not delivered until December 2019.

48. Despite repeated requests, WPHP has never provided an accounting for purchases of the required FF&E or any documentation evidencing repayment of $1,500,000 of the loan amount to HBL SNF, LLC.

49. In the absence of such an accounting, HBL SNF, LLC cannot determine how much of its loan amount, if any, has been repaid and how much of the remaining loan balance should be credited to current Lease payments.

50. In addition, accrued interest on the $2,200,000 loan must be calculated from November 2015 and either paid to HBL SNF, LLC or credited to payments due under the Lease.

51. The Development Agreement required that the Project be substantially completed within twenty-two (22) months or before September 2017.

52. The plaintiff breached its obligations to HBL SNF, LLC by failing to complete the Project until December 2019.

53. The delay in completing the Project caused HBL SNF, LLC to lose substantial revenue.

54. In addition, by delivering the Project in December 2019, HBL SNF, LLC encountered market conditions during its start-up phase in 2020 caused by the COVID-19 pandemic which adversely affected HBL SNF LLC's operations as it has nursing homes throughout the region.

55. HBL SNF, LLC would not have encountered these adverse financial conditions but not for the delay caused by plaintiff and third-party defendants.

56. In addition to the Project being completed more than two (2) years late, plaintiff and third-party defendants delivered the Project well over budget.

57. The Development Agreement required the plaintiff to enter into a construction contract with Congress and to secure a 100% performance bond to guarantee the performance of the construction contract.

58. However, unbeknownst to HBL SNF, LLC, Congress could not secure a performance bond.

59. Fensterman and Nicholson never disclosed to HBL SNF, LLC or any of its principals that Congress could not obtain a bond.

60. As a result, WPHP entered into a contract without approval or consent from HBL SNF, LLC for a creation of a joint venture agreement with a third-party contractor.

61. The joint venture, among other reasons, added substantial costs to the Project.

62. These substantial additional costs exceeded the capital expenditures approved by NYSDOH and are not reimbursable through NYSDOH.

63. Upon information and belief, Congress's inability to secure the performance bond is related to certain judgments taken against its principal Nicholson arising from claims for diversion of project funds in a skilled nursing project located in Milwaukee, Wisconsin dating back to 2015, the time when the Jozefovic Team advanced monies to Nicholson and Congress.

64. Neither Fensterman nor Nicholson disclosed these adverse proceedings to the Jozefovic Team.

65. In fact, Nicholson was adjudged to have committed conversion and civil theft in the amount of $1,903,452, and that judgement was affirmed on appeal to the Seventh Circuit Court of Appeals.

66. The Development Agreement required that plaintiff and third-party defendants deliver the Project at the costs approved by NYSDOH.

67. Only in the event of a change order, authorized by HBL SNF, LLC, would HBL SNF, LLC have responsibility for any cost higher than the cost approved by the NYSDOH.

68. There were no approved change orders.

- 69. The approved Project cost is $57,000,000.
- 70. The plaintiff and third-party defendants caused the Project to exceed the approved costs by more than $5,000,000.
- 71. The plaintiff and third-party defendants breached their obligations to HBL SNF, LLC under the Development Agreement by causing the Project to be over budget.
- 72. As a result, HBL SNF, LLC is not eligible for reimbursement of its rent payments as originally intended - a loss of eligibility that will cause substantial harm to HBL SNF, LLC.
- 73. Given these costs overruns and the loss of eligibility for reimbursement, the Lease is unenforceable.
- 74. As part of the “turn-key” delivery of the Project, plaintiff was obligated to provide permanent financing for the Project on the terms of the HUD insured loan submitted by plaintiff as part of the Project approved by NYSDOH.
- 75. The plaintiff and third-party defendants have failed to provide such permanent financing and are in breach of the Development Agreement and the Lease.
- 76. In connection with the permanent financing, the plaintiff and third-party defendants were required to demonstrate sufficient equity invested in the Project for HUD or any other lender of permanent financing to grant a thirty (30) year loan to the Project.
- 77. Plaintiff and third-party defendants have failed to demonstrate sufficient equity in the Project.
- 78. Upon information and belief, Fensterman procured financial contributions from individual third parties who contributed capital to CCCE to meet the equity requirement.
- 79. Although this capital is required to be and has, in fact, been represented by Fensterman to be in the nature of equity, upon information and belief, these contributions from individual third-parties are loans at high rates of interest which are overdue as a result of the Project delays.

80. Fensterman, CCCE, and plaintiff have caused additional financial burden to the Project and have attempted to pass along to HBL SNF, LLC and the Jozefovic Team these higher interest costs.

81. The Project cost overruns and the higher finance costs due to the delay in delivering the Project, together with the lack of sufficient equity, have prevented the Project from securing permanent financing.

82. The plaintiff and third-party defendants have advised HBL SNF, LLC that they have initiated this lawsuit because they are in default of their current loan agreements.

83. As of this date, plaintiff and third-party defendants have been unable to provide to the Jozefovic Team an accurate Project accounting of Project expenditures and have refused to provide information concerning the Project financing.

84. As of this date, plaintiff and third-party defendants have been unable to procure the HUD insured financing which they represented they could secure and is required by NYSDOH Project approval.

85. As of this date, the Project does not comply with the approval issued by the NYSDOH.

86. As a result of the failure to deliver the Project on the terms approved by NYSDOH, HBL SNF, LLC cannot be reimbursed for the cost of the Facility as intended by the Development Agreement and the Lease and HBL SNF, LLC and its principals have suffered financial harm as a result.

87. Throughout the development process, WPHP, Fensterman, Nicholson and Congress have made false representations to the Jozefovic Team and have taken adverse actions which have adversely affected the business of HBL SNF, LLC.

AS AND FOR A FIRST CAUSE OF ACTION AS AGAINST WPHP, CCCE, CONGRESS, AND FENSTERMAN (DEMAND FOR ACCOUNTING)

88. Defendants repeat and reallege each and every allegation set forth in paragraphs “1” through “87” with the same force and effect as if fully set forth herein.

89. HBL SNF, LLC, Lizer Jozefovic and Mark Neuman had a trust-based relationship with Fensterman, Nicholson, and WPHP.

90. Given that relationship, HBL SNF, LLC, Lizer Jozefovic, and Mark Neuman advanced monies to WPHP and Fensterman prior to commencement of the Project in order to allow the Project to proceed.

91. HBL SNF, LLC, Lizer Jozefovic, and Mark Neuman are entitled to an accounting of the use of the funds advanced for the Project.

AS AND FOR A SECOND CAUSE OF ACTION AS AGAINST WPHP (PAYMENT OF INTEREST)

92. Defendants repeat and reallege each and every allegation set forth in paragraphs “1” through “91” with the same force and effect as if fully set forth herein.

93. HBL SNF, LLC is entitled to imputed interest on the $2,200,000 made to WPHP loan from November 2015 to present.

AS AND FOR A THIRD CAUSE OF ACTION AS AGAINST WPHP (BREACH OF CONTRACT)

94. Defendants repeat and reallege each and every allegation set forth in paragraphs “1” through “93” with the same force and effect as if fully set forth herein.

95. WPHP breached the Development Agreement and the Lease.

96. As a result of such breach, HBL SNF, LLC has been damaged by the loss of reimbursable capital expenditures and has incurred other costs due to the nonperformance of WPHP.

97. In addition, HBL SNF, LLC has lost funds and continues to lose revenues as a result of Project delays.

AS AND FOR A FOURTH CAUSE OF ACTION
AS AGAINST FENSTERMAN AND NICHOLSON (FRAUD IN THE INDUCEMENT)

98. Defendants repeat and reallege each and every allegation set forth in paragraphs “1” through “97” with the same force and effect as if fully set forth herein.

99. Third-party defendants Fensterman and Nicholson fraudulently induced HBL SNF, LLC, Lizer Jozefovic, and Mark Neuman to enter into the Development Agreement, the Lease, and the Guaranty.

100. Fensterman and Nicholson misrepresented the Project costs.

101. Fensterman and Nicholson misrepresented their ability to secure permanent HUD financing.

102. Fensterman and Nicholson misrepresented their ability to complete the Project.

103. Fensterman misrepresented the capital contributions made to CCCE to satisfy the equity requirement for the Project.

104. Fensterman and Nicholson failed to disclose the claimant civil proceeding against Nicholson for civil theft.

105. By reason of such fraud in the inducement, Defendants Lizer Jozefovic and Mark Neuman have no obligations under the guarantees.

106. By reason of such fraud in the inducement, HBL SNF, LLC has suffered financial damages.

AS AND FOR A FIFTH CAUSE OF ACTION
AS AGAINST ALL THIRD-PARTY DEFENDANTS (BAD FAITH)

107. Defendants repeat and reallege each and every allegation set forth in paragraphs “1” through “106” with the same force and effect as if fully set forth herein.

108. As alleged throughout this third-party complaint, the plaintiff and third-party defendants acted in bad faith.

109. As a result of such bad faith dealings, HBL SNF, LLC has suffered damages in an amount not less than $15,000,000.

AS AND FOR A SIXTH CAUSE OF ACTION
AS AGAINST WPHP AND ALL THIRD-PARTY DEFENDANTS (FRAUD)

110. Defendants repeat and reallege each and every allegation set forth in paragraphs “1” through “109” with the same force and effect as if fully set forth herein.

111. The misrepresentations and non-disclosures by Fensterman and Nicholson and third-party defendants constitute fraud.

112. WPHP, Fensterman and Nicholson new such statements were false.

113. WPHP, Fensterman and Nicholson made such statements to deceive HBL SNF, LLC, Lizer Jozefovic, and Mark Neuman.

114. HBL SNF, LLC has been damaged by such fraudulent conduct.

WHEREFORE, Defendants and Third-Party Plaintiffs deny generally and specifically that it committed any wrongdoing and demand:

- 1) A determination that the amount of rent payable under the Lease be modified by any sums not reimbursable by the NYSDOH and offset by prior payments and accrued interest;
- 2) The Guaranty Agreements be nullified;
- 3) Monetary damages in an amount to be determined;
- 4) Attorneys' fees, and
- 5) Such other relief as the Court deems appropriate.

LEASED PREMISES

Section 2.1 Leased Premises. Landlord hereby leases and demises to Tenant, and Tenant hereby leases from Landlord, on the terms and conditions set forth in this Lease, the following assets:

- (a) all of Landlord's right, title, and interest in and to the Real Property, including, without limitation, all buildings, structures, erections, improvements, appurtenances, easements and fixtures, including fixed machinery and fixed equipment situated thereon or forming a part thereof; and
- (b) all of Landlord's right, title and interest in and to all machinery, trade equipment, trade fixtures, furniture, furnishings, beds, and accessories of all kinds used in connection with the Facility located on the Real Property.

All of the items described in Sections 2.1(a) and 2.1(b) herein are collectively referred to as the "Leased Premises." Landlord and Tenant acknowledge and understand that all of the items which comprise the Leased Premises, as repaired, rebuilt, replaced, restored, altered or added to as permitted or required by provisions of this Lease, shall be transferred back to Landlord in accordance with the terms and conditions set forth herein upon the expiration or earlier termination of this Lease.

Section 2.2 In connection with any assignment of Landlord's interest under this Lease and the assumption of this Lease by a new landlord, the original Landlord named herein, and each successor in interest, shall have the right to transfer all amounts deposited pursuant to Section 4.3 with respect to the Facility, less any amount used pursuant to Section 4.3, to such assignee (as the subsequent holder of Landlord's interest in this Lease) and upon such transfer, Landlord or the applicable successor in interest transferring the deposits shall thereupon be completely released from all liability with respect to such deposits so transferred and Tenant shall look solely to said assignee, as the subsequent holder of Landlord's interest under this Lease, in reference thereto. If Landlord's interest in the Leased Premises is sold or conveyed as provided above or otherwise or by operation of law: (i) at the new owner's option, Tenant shall affirm to and recognize the new owner as Tenant's Landlord under this Lease and Tenant shall take such actions to confirm the foregoing within ten (10) days after request.

ARTICLE III

TERM AND RENT

Section 3.1 Term of Lease.

(a) The term (the "Term") of this Lease shall be for a period of thirty (30) years commencing on the later to occur of (i) the date of issuance of a permanent or temporary Certificate of Occupancy for the Facility and (ii) the date that New York State Department of Health (hereinafter sometimes, "DOH") determines that the Landlord's Work is sufficiently complete as constructed (but not necessarily the Tenant's operations) to accept patients, provided, however, if the Landlord is unable to obtain a permanent or temporary Certificate of Occupancy because of the actions or inactions of the Tenant, its employees or agents including, but not limited to, a delay in obtaining the necessary DOH approvals then delivery of a permanent or temporary Certificate of Occupancy shall not be a condition under clause (i) (the "Commencement Date"), and ending at 11:59:59 P.M. on the day preceding the thirtieth (30th) anniversary of the Commencement Date (the "Expiration Date"). Under any and all circumstances, Landlord shall not be liable to Tenant, in damages or otherwise, for any delay in delivering the Leased Premises to Tenant and Tenant shall have no right to terminate or rescind this Lease on account thereof. Notwithstanding the Commencement Date, certain of the rights and obligations of the parties shall commence on the Effective Date, but not including Tenant's obligations to pay Fixed Rent and Impositions prior to the Commencement Date, or to maintain the Leased Premises, insure the Leased Premises or restore the Leased Premises after a casualty or condemnation prior to the Commencement Date, or any other rights and obligations, which by their terms are intended to commence as of the Commencement Date, which rights and obligations shall commence on the Commencement Date.

As used herein with respect to the Term and the periods for payment of Rent (unless the context otherwise requires) the term "Lease Year" shall mean a 365 day period (or 366 day period in the case of a leap year), first commencing on the Commencement Date and thereafter on successive anniversaries thereof, and ending on the day prior to the next succeeding anniversary of the Commencement Date.

Landlord and Tenant hereby acknowledge that the Commencement Date is presently indeterminate and shall occur only as hereinabove provided in this Section. Except for the rights of Tenant expressly stated herein, Tenant hereby waives any right to rescind this Lease under the provisions of Section 223-a of the Real Property Law of the State of New York, and agrees that the provisions of this Article are intended to constitute "an express provision to the contrary" within the meaning of said Section 223-a. Landlord and Tenant shall execute a memo specifying the Commencement Date immediately following its occurrence.

(b) Provided a Lease Default has not occurred and is then continuing either at the time of the exercise of the options provided below or at the end of the Term or Extension Term, or there has not been any Lease Default listed in Schedule 3.1 attached hereto (a "Material Default"), whether or not cured, within two years of the end of the Term or Extension Term, Tenant shall have the option to extend the Term of this Lease for three (3) additional periods of ten (10) years each (each an "Extension Term"), by giving written notice to Landlord not less than five forty-five (45) days nor more than seven hundred (700) days prior to the expiration of the Term (or Extension Term as the case may be) of this Lease, TIME BEING OF THE ESSENCE to these time periods. These options may be exercised by Tenant serving written notice upon Landlord stating that Tenant is exercising the option to extend. If Tenant fails to give such notice in writing to Landlord within the time period specified herein, all rights and privileges granted to Tenant to extend this Lease shall lapse and become null and void. No later option may be exercised if Tenant has failed to exercise a prior option. If Tenant has validly exercised its option(s) to extend the Term, references herein to the "Term" shall be deemed to include an Extension Term.

Section 3.2 Rent

(a) Beginning in the first (1st) Lease Year of the Term and for each succeeding Lease Year thereafter, including during any and all Extension Terms, until the First Refinance Date, Tenant shall pay Landlord an annual amount of Six Million Seventy Three Thousand One Hundred Fifty Eight ($6,073,158) Dollars ("Fixed Rent") in monthly installments of $506,096.50.

(b) Tenant shall pay the Rent to Landlord during the term without deduction or setoff and without demand.

(c) The terms "Additional Rent" or "additional rent" means all sums, amounts, fees, expenses and costs (including, without limitation, legal fees and disbursements) payable or reimbursable to Landlord under this Lease other than Fixed Rent, and all of same shall be and constitute Additional Rent hereunder. The terms "Fixed Rent" and "Additional Rent" shall be collectively referred to as "Rent." Landlord shall have the same rights and remedies hereunder consequent upon a failure of Tenant to pay any item of Additional Rent as upon a failure of Tenant to pay any item of Fixed Rent.

(d) Rent shall be due and payable in advance in equal monthly installments during each year on the first (1st) day of each calendar month thereof (or in the event the first day of the calendar month is not a business day, on the first business day following the first day of each calendar month) throughout the Term. Rent for any period which is less than a full calendar month or full year, as the case may be, during the Term, shall be prorated on a daily basis. Rent shall not be paid more than one (1) month in advance. Rent shall be paid to Landlord at Landlord's address set forth in Section 12.1 or in such other place as Landlord designates from time to time by written notice to Tenant. Tenant agrees to pay Rent, at Landlord's direction, by electronic transfer or wire, as directed by Mortgage in writing.

(e) TENANT HEREBY ACKNOWLEDGES THAT LATE PAYMENT BY TENANT TO LANDLORD OF RENT WILL CAUSE LANDLORD TO INCUR COSTS NOT CONTEMPLATED HEREUNDER, THE EXACT AMOUNT OF WHICH IS PRESENTLY ANTICIPATED TO BE EXTREMELY DIFFICULT TO ASCERTAIN. SUCH COSTS MAY INCLUDE PROCESSING AND ACCOUNTING CHARGES AND LATE CHARGES WHICH MAY BE IMPOSED ON LANDLORD BY THE TERMS OF ANY LOAN AGREEMENT AND OTHER EXPENSES OF A SIMILAR OR DISSIMILAR NATURE. ACCORDINGLY, IF ANY INSTALLMENT OF RENT THAT IS PAYABLE TO LANDLORD

OR ITS DESIGNEE SHALL NOT BE PAID WITHIN FIVE (5) DAYS OF THE DATE WHEN DUE. TENANT WILL PAY LANDLORD ON DEMAND A LATE CHARGE EQUAL TO FIVE PERCENT (5%) OF THE UNPAID PORTION OF THE AMOUNT OF SUCH INSTALLMENT. THE PARTIES AGREE THAT THIS LATE CHARGE REPRESENTS A FAIR AND REASONABLE ESTIMATE OF THE COSTS THAT LANDLORD WILL INCUR BY REASON OF LATE PAYMENT BY TENANT. THE PARTIES FURTHER AGREE THAT SUCH LATE CHARGE IS RENT AND NOT INTEREST AND SUCH ASSESSMENT DOES NOT CONSTITUTE A LENDER OR BORROWER/CREDITOR RELATIONSHIP BETWEEN LANDLORD AND TENANT. IN ADDITION, THE AMOUNT UNPAID, INCLUDING ANY LATE CHARGES, SHALL BEAR INTEREST AT THE OVERDUE RATE FROM THE DUE DATE OF SUCH INSTALLMENT TO THE DATE OF PAYMENT THEREOF, AND TENANT SHALL PAY SUCH INTEREST TO LANDLORD ON DEMAND. THE PAYMENT OF SUCH LATE CHARGE AND/OR SUCH INTEREST SHALL NOT CONSTITUTE A WAIVER OF, NOR EXCUSE OR CURE, ANY DEFAULT UNDER THIS LEASE, NOR PREVENT LANDLORD FROM EXERCISING ANY OTHER RIGHTS AND/OR REMEDIES AVAILABLE TO LANDLORD.

(f) If a default is declared by the Commissioner under the provisions of the Regulatory Agreement, provided a copy of Notice of Default is given to Tenant, Tenant shall thereafter make all future payments under this Lease to the Commissioner.

Section 3.3 Net Lease Provisions. Landlord and Tenant intend that the Rent herein specified shall be net to Landlord in each year during the Term, and that all costs, expenses and obligations of every kind and nature, (known or unknown, general or special, ordinary or extraordinary, foreseen or unforeseen, direct or indirect, contingent or otherwise) relating to the operation, repair and maintenance of the Leased Premises (except Landlord's income taxes) which may arise or become due during the Term shall be timely paid by Tenant; and that Landlord shall be indemnified by Tenant against such costs, expenses and obligations. Tenant's obligation to pay Rent is independent of all, and is in no manner conditioned upon any, other covenants, conditions and obligations of Landlord or Tenant under this Lease. There shall be no abatement of Rent payments for any reason nor shall Tenant be entitled to any offsets or deductions from Rent payments due hereunder.

Section 3.4 Rent Tax. If any governmental taxing authority levies, assesses, or imposes any tax, sales or use tax, privilege tax, excise or assessment (other than income or franchise taxes) upon or against the Rent payable by Tenant to Landlord, either by way of substitution for or in addition to any existing tax on land and buildings or otherwise, then Tenant shall be responsible for and shall pay such tax, excise or assessment, or, if Landlord pays same, Tenant shall reimburse Landlord for the amount thereof within ten (10) days after written demand by Landlord.

It is the intent of this Section 3.4 and all other provisions of this Lease to insure that the Rent (including Additional Rent) paid to Landlord by Tenant will be received by Landlord without diminution by any tax, assessment, charge or levy of any nature whatsoever, except United States, State of New York and local net income taxes, and the terms and conditions of this Lease shall be liberally construed to effect such purpose. Without limiting the generality of the foregoing, if any tax is assessed or based on gross income actually or constructively received by Landlord pursuant to this Lease, Tenant shall pay such amount which, when added to said gross income, shall yield to Landlord, after deduction of all such tax payable by Landlord with respect thereto, a net amount equal to that which Landlord would have realized therefrom had no such tax been imposed.

Section 3.5. Assignment of Lease to Mortgagee. Tenant acknowledges that all of the interest of Landlord in and to this Lease has been or will be assigned to Mortgagee pursuant to the Loan Documents.

Tenant agrees to promptly execute and deliver to Landlord from time to time any and all documents required by a Mortgagee, Prospective Mortgagee, HUD and/or HUD's Approved Lender, or any successor, commercial, agency or private lender, including, without limitation, a lease addendum, regulatory agreement, subordination agreement, non-disturbance and attornment agreement, and/or escrow certificate, in order to finance or refinance the Facility or otherwise.

Tenant will on request at any time or from time to time by Landlord or any Mortgagee or Prospective Mortgagee subordinate this lease and all of Tenant's rights and estate hereunder to such Person's Mortgage and to any renewals, extensions, substitutions, refinancings, modifications or amendments thereof, or declare such Mortgage to be prior to this lease and to any renewals, extensions, substitutions, refinancings, modifications or amendments thereof, and agree with such holder that Tenant will assent thereto in the event of foreclosure. Landlord agrees to use reasonable efforts (except that Landlord shall not be obligated to expend money for any such agreement) to obtain a written agreement from any such holder in the form typically used by such holder which consents to this lease and provides that, notwithstanding such mortgage or any default, expiration, termination, foreclosure, sale, entry or other act or omission under, pursuant to or affecting said Mortgage, Tenant shall not be disturbed in peaceful enjoyment of the Leased Premises or this lease terminated or canceled at any time, except in the event Landlord shall have the right to terminate this lease under the terms and provisions set forth herein.

Section 3.6 True Lease. It is the intent of Landlord and Tenant and the parties agree that this Lease is a true lease and that this Lease does not represent a financing agreement. Each party shall reflect the transaction represented hereby in all applicable books, records and reports (including income tax filings) in a manner consistent with "true lease" treatment rather than "financing" treatment.

Section 3.7 Right of First Refusal; Buyout. (a) Landlord shall not sell, transfer or convey the Leased Premises to a third person or entity unless Tenant first is given the opportunity to purchase the Leased Premises pursuant to the terms and conditions set forth in this Section 3.7(a). If at any time during the first eleven years of Term Landlord receives from any third person or entity an Offer (as hereinafter defined) to purchase the Leased Premises which Landlord desires to accept, Landlord shall notify Tenant of such Offer by delivering written notice to Tenant, which notification (the "Offer Notice") shall contain a copy of the written Offer or, at Landlord's election, a written summary of the terms of the Offer. For purposes of this Lease, an "Offer" shall mean any bona fide written instrument or verbal communication setting forth the terms pursuant to which Landlord will convey the Leased Premises. Tenant shall have ten (10) Business Days after receipt of the Offer Notice in which to elect by written notice delivered to Landlord (the "Acceptance Notice") to enter into a formal agreement on the same terms and conditions as those contained in the Offer ("Tenant's Purchase Right"). Such election shall be effective only if within ten (10) Business Days after delivery of the Acceptance Notice the parties enter into a written purchase agreement on terms reasonably acceptable to Landlord in good faith for the sale of the Leased Premises to Tenant containing all terms of the Offer. If Tenant fails to timely deliver the Acceptance Notice, or if Tenant fails to timely enter into said purchase agreement as provided herein, Landlord shall have the right to accept the Offer or any modification thereof on terms substantially similar as those set forth in the Offer. Tenant's right to purchase the Leased Premises identified in the Offer Notice shall not apply to (i) transfers of less than one hundred percent of the ownership interests in Landlord, (ii) a public offering of ownership interests in Landlord, (iii) a recapitalization transaction of any kind involving Landlord, (iv) condemnation, eminent domain or similar proceedings, or (v), rights exercised by Mortgagees in foreclosure or in lieu thereof pursuant to Mortgagee or other documents executed by Landlord in connection therewith, including the subsequent disposition of the Premises by Mortgagee or its affiliate or designee that acquires the Leased Premises in connection therewith.

(b) Notwithstanding anything to the contrary, if Landlord's Offer Notice states that it is purchasing from Tenant Tenant's Purchase Right, then (i) Tenant shall have no further rights under Section 3.7(a), and Section 3.7(a) shall be null and void without further effect, and (ii) upon the closing of the purchase and sale of the Leased Premises pursuant to the Offer, Landlord shall pay Tenant ten percent (10%) of the excess of the sales price agreed to pursuant to the Offer (less costs and fees, including broker's fees) over the TPC, the "Offer Fee", and (iii) the Rent shall be the greater of the amount as determined by Section 3.2(a) or fair market value, as shall be determined by an independent third party appraiser jointly appointed by Landlord or and Tenant, and absent their agreement appointed by the then chairman or similar officer of the Westchester County Society of Real Estate Appraisers. For purposes of clarification, Tenant shall not be entitled to the receipt of the Offer Fee if Tenant exercises Tenant's Purchase Right as set forth in Section 3.7(a) above.

(c) Upon expiration of the eleventh Lease Year, Tenant's Right of First Refusal as set forth in in Section 3.7(a) shall lapse and become null and void.

Section 3.8. Option to Purchase. Commencing on the latter of (i) the first day after the Commencement Date and (ii) 24 months from the date of the closing of the Original Mortgage, and ending on the last day of the fifteenth Lease Year of the Lease, Tenant shall have the option to purchase the Leased Premises from Landlord for a purchase price of $65,055,000 by giving written notice of its exercise of the Option to Purchase including a proposed closing date, provided if Tenant does not exercise the Option to Purchase prior to receiving an Offer Notice pursuant to Section 3.7, Tenant's Option to Purchase under this Section 3.8 shall lapse unless and until the conveyance of the Leased Premises contemplated under Section 3.7 does not occur. Upon expiration of the fifteenth Lease Year, Tenant's the right to purchase the Leased Premises from Landlord, all as set forth above, shall lapse, become null and void, and Tenant shall have deemed to waived all such rights hereunder.

ARTICLE IV

UTILITIES AND TAXES

Section 4.1 Utilities. From and after the Commencement Date, Tenant shall pay or cause to be paid all charges next coming due and payable for electricity, steam, telephone, cable, gas, oil, water, sewer and all other services or utilities used on or related to the Leased Premises (the "Utilities") during the Term. Tenant covenants to place all Utilities in Tenant's name as of the Commencement Date. Adjustment shall be made for Utilities applicable to any period prior to the Commencement Date. In the event Landlord is billed directly by any service provider or utility company for any Utilities or services supplied to Tenant during the Term, Landlord shall send Tenant the bill and Tenant shall promptly pay the same. Landlord shall have no obligation or liability with respect to any interruption or failure in the supply of any such Utilities. If Landlord elects to or shall be required to pay for any Utilities to preserve and/or protect the Leased Premises, Tenant shall reimburse Landlord for the cost and expense thereof plus interest at the Prime Rate.

Section 4.2 Taxes. Tenant shall be solely responsible for the payment, prior to the date when penalties would attach, of all general and special real estate taxes and assessments (together with any excise taxes on such real estate taxes and assessments levied or imposed by any governmental taxing authority), fire district taxes, liens, impositions, including capital stock, franchise, ad valorem, sales, use, single business, gross receipts, transaction privilege, rent or similar taxes; personal property taxes, assessments including assessments for public improvements or benefits, whether or not commenced or completed prior to the date hereof and whether or not to be completed within the Term; ground rents; water, sewer and other utility levies and charges; excise tax levies; fees including license, permit, inspection, authorization and similar fees; and all other governmental charges, in each case whether general or special, ordinary or extraordinary, or foreseen or unforeseen, of every character in respect of the Leased Premises, and all interest and penalties thereon attributable to any failure in payment by Lessee which at any time prior to, during or in respect of the Term hereof may be assessed or imposed on or in respect of or be a lien upon the Leased Premises (collectively, the "Impositions") that accrue from the Commencement Date through the Term. Adjustment shall be made for Impositions applicable to any period prior to the Commencement Date. Tenant shall pay all of the Impositions directly to the applicable taxing authorities and Tenant shall promptly forward proof of payment to Landlord in such form as shall be reasonably acceptable to Landlord unless Landlord elects to require escrow deposits in accordance with Section 4.3 hereof. Landlord shall promptly forward any tax bills which it may receive to Tenant. Landlord shall only bill Tenant for any of the Impositions if Tenant does not pay any of the Impositions before delinquency and Landlord is obligated or elects (in Landlord's sole and absolute discretion) to pay any of the Impositions directly to remain current with all taxing authorities. Tenant shall pay the full amount of any increases in any of the Impositions resulting from alterations or improvements made by or for the benefit of Tenant. After the expiration or termination of this Lease, Tenant shall pay all bills for any of the Impositions which become due and payable after the expiration or termination of the Lease covering any period through the expiration or earlier termination of the Lease. If any governmental taxing authority acting under any present or future ordinance or regulation, shall levy, assess or impose a tax, excise and/or assessment (other than any net income or franchise tax) upon Landlord or Tenant for rental payable by Tenant to Landlord, either by way of substitution for or in addition to any existing tax on land, buildings or otherwise, then Tenant shall be responsible for and shall pay such tax, excise and/or assessment or shall reimburse Landlord for the cost and expense thereof, as the case may be. Provided that Tenant shall have deposited a sufficient amount of funds to pay the Impositions pursuant to Section 4.3 and Tenant has done nothing to prevent payment by Landlord or its lender of the Impositions, then Tenant shall not be responsible for any and all late payment fees and/or penalties, including interest, imposed by any applicable taxing authorities with respect to the untimely payment of Impositions.

Section 4.3 Escrow Deposits.

(a) Escrow. At the option of Landlord, which may be exercised at any time by Landlord in its sole and absolute discretion Tenant shall, on the first day of the first calendar month commencing after notice from Landlord, and on the first day of each calendar month thereafter during the Term (each of which dates is referred to as a "Monthly Deposit Date"), pay to and deposit with Landlord a sum equal to one-twelfth (1/12th) of the Impositions to be levied, charged, filed, assessed or imposed upon or against the Leased Premises within one (1) year after said Monthly Deposit Date and a sum equal to one-twelfth (1/12th) of the premiums for the property insurance policies required pursuant to Article VI which are payable within one (1) year after said Monthly Deposit Date. If the amount of the Impositions to be levied, charged, assessed or imposed or insurance premiums to be paid within the ensuing one (1) year period shall not be fixed upon any Monthly Deposit Date, such amount for the purpose of computing the deposit to be made by Tenant hereunder shall be reasonably estimated by Landlord with an appropriate adjustment to be promptly made between Landlord and Tenant as soon as such amount becomes determinable. In addition, Landlord may, at its option, from time to time require that any particular deposit be greater than one-twelfth (1/12th) of the estimated amount payable within one (1) year after said Monthly Deposit Date, if such additional deposit is required in order to provide to Landlord sufficient funds from which to make payment of all Impositions on or before the next due date of any installment thereof, or to make payment of any required insurance premiums not later than the due date thereof. If any Mortgagee or the Commissioner requires Landlord to impound insurance premiums on a periodic basis during the term, Tenant, on notice from Landlord indicating this requirement, shall pay a sum of money towards its liability under this Lease to Landlord on a periodic basis in accordance with Landlord's requirements. Landlord shall impound the premium payments received from Tenant in accordance with the requirements of Mortgagee and shall utilize such funds to timely pay insurance premiums.

(b) Use of Deposits. The sums deposited by Tenant under this Section 4.3 shall be held by Landlord or Mortgagee and shall be applied in payment of the Impositions or insurance premiums, as the case may be, when due. Any such deposits may be commingled with other assets of Landlord or such Mortgagee, and shall be deposited by Landlord or such Mortgagee in an Eligible Institution in such account or accounts as Landlord or the Mortgagee may, from time to time select, and Landlord shall not be liable to Tenant or any other person (i) based on Landlord's or the Mortgagee's (or any bank's) choice of investment vehicles, (ii) for any consequent loss of principal or interest or (iii) for any unavailability of funds based on such choice of investment. Furthermore, subject to the foregoing regarding the use of depositories and accounts, Landlord and its Mortgagee shall bear no responsibility for the financial condition of, nor any act or omission by the depository bank. No income, if any, from such investment or interest on such deposits shall be paid to Tenant. To the extent that Landlord does not have an invoice or bill specifying the due date for payment, Tenant shall give not less than thirty (30) days prior written notice to Landlord in each instance when an Imposition or insurance premium is due, specifying the Imposition or premium to be paid and the amount thereof, the place of payment, and the last day on which the same may be paid in order to comply with the requirements of this Lease. If Landlord, in violation of its obligations under this Lease, does not pay any Imposition or insurance premium when due, for which a sufficient deposit exists, Tenant shall not be in default hereunder by virtue of the failure to pay such Imposition or such insurance premium and Tenant shall not be liable for any late payment fees and/or penalties, including interest imposed as a result of such failure to pay. The term "Eligible Institution" shall mean a depository institution or trust company, the short term unsecured debt obligations or commercial paper of which are rated at least "A-1+" by S&P, "P-1" by Moody's and "P-1+" by Fitch in the case of accounts in which funds are held for thirty (30) days or less (or, in the case of accounts in which funds are held for more than thirty (30) days, the long term unsecured debt obligations of which are rated at least "AA" by Fitch and S&P and "Aa2" by Moody's).

(c) Deficits. If for any reason any deposit made by Tenant or held by Landlord under this Section 4.3 shall not be sufficient to pay any Imposition or insurance premium within the time specified therefor in this Lease, then, within ten (10) days after demand by Landlord, Tenant shall deposit an additional amount with Landlord, increasing the deposit held by Landlord so that Landlord holds sufficient funds to pay such Imposition or premium in full (or in installments as otherwise provided for herein), together with any penalty or interest thereon. Landlord may change its estimate of any Imposition or insurance premium for any period on the basis of a change in an assessment or tax rate or on the basis of a prior miscalculation or for any other good faith reason; in which event, within ten (10) days after demand by Landlord, Tenant shall deposit with Landlord the amount in excess of the sums previously deposited with Landlord for the applicable period which would theretofore have been payable under the revised estimate.

(d) Transfers. Consistent with Section 2.2, in connection with any assignment of Landlord's interest under this Lease and the assumption of this Lease by a new landlord, the original Landlord named herein and each successor in interest shall have the right to transfer all amounts deposited pursuant to the provisions of this Section 4.3 and not used pursuant to this Section 4.3 to such assignee (as the subsequent holder of Landlord's interest in this Lease) and upon such transfer, the original Landlord named herein or the applicable successor in interest transferring the deposits shall thereupon be completely released from all liability with respect to such deposits so transferred and Tenant shall look solely to said assignee, as the subsequent holder of Landlord's interest under this Lease, in reference thereto.

(e) Security. All amounts deposited with Landlord pursuant to the provisions of this Section 4.3 shall be held by Landlord as additional security for the payment and performance of Tenant's obligations under this Lease and, upon the occurrence and during the continuance of any Lease Default, Landlord may, in its sole and absolute discretion, apply such amounts towards payment or performance of such obligations.

(f) Return. Upon the expiration or earlier termination of this Lease, as long as all of the Rent and any and all other obligations due under this Lease have been fully paid and performed, any sums then held by Landlord under this Section 4.3 shall be refunded to Tenant.

and subject to the rights of a Mortgagee, together with all interest, if any, earned thereon and all income, if any, earned therefrom; provided, however, that if a Lease Default has occurred and is continuing, all of such sums may be applied by Landlord towards any amounts owed to Landlord pursuant to this Lease.

(b) Receipts. Tenant shall deliver to Landlord copies of all claims and bills in relation to the Impositions and Insurance premiums promptly upon receipt thereof by Tenant.

This Article and the obligations herein shall survive expiration or earlier termination of this Lease.

LANDLORD'S WORK, MAINTENANCE AND REPAIR, IMPROVEMENTS

Section 5.1 Landlord's Work. (a) Landlord shall cause the Facility to be constructed ("Landlord's Work").

(b) Landlord will give Tenant thirty (30) days' notice of the date Landlord expects to be the Substantial Completion Date. On or prior to the Substantial Completion Date, Landlord and Tenant shall jointly prepare a list of the items for the Facility that remain to be completed or corrected, set a dollar value for the cost to complete the work, and fix time for their completion or correction (collectively the "Punchlist").

(c) Notwithstanding anything in this lease to the contrary, on and after the Substantial Completion Date Tenant shall be deemed to have agreed Landlord has completed Landlord's Work to Tenant's complete satisfaction, except for (i) the Punchlist, (ii) such items of decoration or mechanical adjustment of which Tenant gives Landlord written notice within thirty (30) days after the Substantial Completion Date (the "Initial Correction Items") or (iii) any defects in the Facility which were not known or reasonably discoverable by Tenant in the time period specified in the immediately prior clause (ii) ("Latent Defects"); provided that, as to Latent Defects, Landlord will have no responsibility or liability therefor, or for the correction thereof, unless (A) Tenant conducts at least one inspection of the Facility with a qualified engineer or other expert, within one year from the Substantial Completion Date, and (B) Tenant gives Landlord notice of such Latent Defects within thirty (30) days after discovery thereof and in any event not later than one year after the Substantial Completion Date, which notice will be accompanied by the certification of such engineer or other experts, specifying, in detail, such Latent Defects in the Facility.

(d) At its sole expense, Landlord shall complete the Punchlist, and remedy the Initial Correction Items, and the Latent Defects provided with respect to Latent Defects that the conditions set out in clause (iii) of section (c) are satisfied.

(e) To the extent assignable at no cost to Landlord, Landlord assigns to Tenant all manufacturer warranties on materials and equipment. Tenant shall have the benefit and right to enforce such warranties at its sole cost and expense.

Section 5.2 Maintenance and Repair. Except as provided in Section 5.1, Tenant, at Tenant's sole cost and expense, shall keep the Leased Premises, including all buildings, fixtures, trade equipment, trade fixtures, furniture, beds and other personal property leased to Tenant pursuant to this Lease, including, without limitation, all structural and non-structural components, the roof, foundation, all outer walls, plumbing, sprinklers, electrical, mechanical, heating, ventilation, utility service, air conditioning, vertical transport, telephone, communications, cable, computer, fire-life safety, nursing call, and all other systems of the Leased Premises in good condition and repair and in compliance with all Laws. Landlord shall not be responsible to make any improvements, repairs, maintenance or replacements whether occasioned by the act, omission, active negligence, or passive negligence of Landlord or Tenant and/or its agents, employees, invitees or licensees or otherwise, and Tenant shall pay for all improvements, repairs, replacements, maintenance and expenditures relating to the Leased Premises, whether interior or exterior, structural or non-structural, ordinary or extraordinary, foreseen or unforeseen or arising by reason of a condition existing prior to the commencement of the Lease, by Tenant's use or by a change in applicable Laws. The Leased Premises and its appurtenances shall at all times be kept clean, safe and sanitary and in good order, condition, replacement and repair by Tenant, at Tenant's sole cost and expense, except for ordinary wear and tear (provided, however, that, without limiting the generality of this Section 5.2, Tenant shall be obligated to replace any portion of the Leased Premises upon any obsolescence thereof or if proper repair is impractical). Tenant shall provide (if not currently a part of the Leased Premises) and maintain, repair and replace, as necessary, all furniture, fixtures, equipment and/or other personal property required by any Governmental Authority (other than furniture, fixtures, equipment and/or other personal property owned by contractors providing ancillary services at the Facility) necessary for the operation of the Facility and to comply with all Laws. All such property provided by Tenant shall immediately become the property of Landlord and Tenant shall execute such documentation as Landlord may reasonably require vesting title in such property in Landlord. Landlord shall have no liability or obligation with respect to such property or any of Tenant's operations relating thereto. All replacements made by Tenant hereunder shall be made in a good and workmanlike manner in accordance with Laws using the same, similar or better quality of materials as being replaced and shall immediately become the property of Landlord. Tenant acknowledges that title and ownership of all repaired and replaced furniture, fixtures, equipment and/or other personal property made hereunder shall belong to and is for the benefit of Landlord. Tenant shall not enter into any equipment lease or conditional sales contracts for any furniture, fixtures, equipment and/or other personal property relating to the Facility without Landlord's consent which it may grant or withhold in its sole discretion. The term "Laws" means, all federal, state, county, municipal and other governmental statutes, laws, rules, orders, regulations, ordinances, judgments, decrees and injunctions of Governmental Authorities affecting any Leased Premises or any part thereof, or the construction, use, alteration or operation thereof, or any part thereof, whether now or hereafter enacted and in force, and all permits, licenses and authorizations and regulations relating thereto, and all covenants, agreements, restrictions and encumbrances contained in any instruments, either of record or known to Tenant, at any time in force affecting the Leased Premises or any part thereof. The term "Governmental Authority" means any court, board, agency, arbitrator, commission, office or other authority of any nature whatsoever for any governmental unit (foreign, federal, state, county, district, municipal, city or otherwise) whether now or hereafter in existence.

Section 5.3 Improvements, Renovation, Alterations and Additions. Tenant shall have the right during the Term to make such non-structural interior alterations, changes and improvements to the Leased Premises as may be proper and necessary for the conduct of Tenant's business, to cause the Leased Premises to conform to all Laws, for patient comfort and safety, or for the full beneficial use of the Leased Premises, so long as such improvements do not (i) exceed Three Hundred Fifty Thousand Dollars ($350,000.00) in any given calendar year, (ii) interfere with any of the purposes for which the Facility was leased or affect the roof or structure, (iii) decrease the value of the Leased Premises, (iv) affect any building system, including, heating, ventilation, air conditioning, mechanical, electrical, plumbing or vertical transport systems, or (v) affect the exterior appearance of the Leased Premises. Tenant shall not make any other alterations, changes, or improvements without the express written approval in each instance by Landlord, which consent shall not be unreasonably withheld; provided, however, that the granting or withholding of consent shall not result in any liability to Landlord. Furthermore, Tenant may make all repairs or replacements required by a Governmental Authority without obtaining Landlord's consent, provided, however, Tenant shall give Landlord no less than ten (10) days prior written notice of such government mandated repairs or replacements prior to making or implementing same, unless emergency factors necessitate the making of such repairs before Tenant can reasonably give notice to Landlord, in which event Tenant shall give notice to Landlord as soon as reasonably possible. Tenant shall pay for all costs, fees and penalties imposed by the applicable state agencies or the Center for Medicare and Medicaid Services ("CMS") or other Governmental Authority in connection with any survey or the Change of Ownership. Tenant shall notify Landlord of any alterations, changes or improvements required and/or permitted by the applicable state agencies or the CMS or other Governmental Authority prior to the commencement thereof. Tenant shall pay all costs and expenses of any required and/or permitted alterations, changes, and improvements, shall make the same in a good and workmanlike manner, and in accordance with all Laws, having obtained all necessary permits and approvals from Governmental Authorities having jurisdiction over the Facility and work performed thereon or therein, and shall assure Landlord, in form reasonably satisfactory to Landlord, all necessary permits and authorizations have been received and that payment for the work and materials will be made by Tenant. Tenant hereby completely and fully indemnifies Landlord against any mechanic's liens or other liens or claims in connection with the making of any alterations, changes, and/or improvements. Any liens arising out of any required and/or permitted alterations, changes, and/or improvements shall be discharged of record by Tenant within the earlier of thirty (30) days after the same have been filed by payment, bonding or otherwise, as permitted by law, or five (5) days after commencement of a foreclosure or enforcement action. Notwithstanding any provision of this Lease to the contrary, Tenant shall not undertake any alterations, renovations, or improvements to the Facility or otherwise commence any project or activity with respect to the Facility, which may result in any bed being taken out of service for more than seven (7) days without Landlord's and/or Mortgagee's prior written consent, which Landlord's consent shall not be unreasonably withheld. Tenant shall give Landlord written notice ten (10) days prior to commencing repairs, construction, or alterations whose costs exceed One Hundred Thousand Dollars ($100,000.00).

Section 5.4 Signs. All signs installed by Tenant at the Facility shall comply with all Laws, and all necessary permits or licenses shall be obtained by Tenant. Tenant shall maintain all signs in good condition and repair, and/or replace as may be required by applicable law, at all times at Tenant's sole cost and expense. Upon vacating the Leased Premises, Tenant shall remove all signs and supporting material or installations so installed by Tenant, but only if Landlord shall request such removal, and Tenant shall repair all damage caused by such removal. Landlord acknowledges and agrees that neither Landlord nor any subsequent tenant of Landlord shall be authorized to use any company or registered trade name of Tenant or any of Tenant's affiliates or subcontractors.

Section 5.5 Surrender (a) Subject to applicable law and to receipt of any necessary DOH approval, Tenant shall deliver up and surrender to Landlord possession of the Leased Premises and all improvements and replacements thereof, including all of Tenant's alterations, improvements work (and all replacements thereof) and all fixtures permanently attached to the Leased Premises by Tenant during the Term, upon the expiration of this Lease or its termination in any manner whatsoever, in as good condition and repair and in substantially similar form, character and manner as the same shall be on the Commencement Date, reasonable wear and tear excepted (without compensation to Tenant), with permitted changes, improvements and additions made during the Term as authorized herein, subject to no liens, encumbrances, charges, restrictions, conditions, limitations or claims whatsoever to the extent not encumbering the Leased Premises as of the Commencement Date, and deliver the keys and/or operational security cards to the Leased Premises to Landlord or Landlord's designated agent.

(b) Licenses and Transfer of Operations. Upon the expiration of the Term or earlier termination of the Lease, Tenant shall and shall cause its subcontractors to, (i) transfer to Landlord or Landlord's nominee a fully operational, licensed and certified, and staffed facility and shall cooperate with Landlord or Landlord's designee or nominee in connection with the processing by Landlord or Landlord's designee or nominee of any applications for all licenses, operating permits and other governmental authorization, all contracts, including contracts with all Governmental Authorities or quasi governmental entities (provided that except following a Lease Default, the reasonable costs and expenses of the processing of any such application shall be paid by Landlord or Landlord's designee or nominee), (ii) transfer to Landlord or Landlord's nominee all tangible personal property of Tenant, including financial and accounting records, business records, data, employee and/or personnel records, patient and resident records, and all records held in electronic form, (all subject to the Laws requiring confidentiality), all equipment and small ware and all inventory used in connection with the Facility, (iii) transfer to Landlord or Landlord's nominee all intangible property except accounts receivable of Tenant, and (iv) transfer to Landlord or Landlord's nominee all residents in the Facility. With respect to resident funds, Tenant shall transfer to Landlord or its designee, all patient and resident trust accounts, and shall cause its subcontractor to prepare and submit to Landlord or its designee a true, correct, and complete accounting and inventory (properly reconciled) of any patient trust funds and resident property to be transferred to Landlord, or its designee. Tenant shall, and shall cause its subcontractor, not to commit any act or be remiss in the undertaking of any act that would jeopardize the licensure or certification of the Facility, and Tenant shall and shall cause its subcontractor to comply with all requests for an orderly transfer of the same upon the expiration or early termination of the Term, including, but not limited to, upon the request of Landlord or its designee, the transitioning of employees in compliance with applicable laws. Without limiting the generality of the foregoing, if requested by Landlord or a proposed replacement operator for the Facility, Tenant hereby agrees to enter into a reasonable operations transfer agreement with such replacement operator. Tenant shall not unreasonably withhold, condition or delay its consent to entering into any interim subleases or management agreements as may be necessary to effectuate an early transfer of the operations of the Facility prior to the time that such replacement operator holds all licenses and permits from all applicable Governmental Authorities with jurisdiction necessary to operate the Facility for its intended use. In addition, upon request, Tenant shall and shall cause subtenants, to promptly deliver copies to Landlord or Landlord's designee of all books and records relating to the Leased Premises and operations thereon (including inventories, employee lists and personnel records, and policies and procedures manuals). Tenant shall allow Landlord or a proposed replacement operator for the Facility to utilize Tenant's, subtenants' computer hardware and software for a minimum of ninety (90) days to facilitate the transfer of operations, the collection of accounts receivable, the billing of providers, and the provision of patient care. Tenant shall indemnify, defend, protect and hold harmless Landlord from and against any loss, damage, cost or expense incurred by Landlord or Landlord's designee or nominee in connection with the correction of any and all deficiencies of a physical nature identified by any Governmental Authority responsible for licensing the Leased Premises in the course of any change of ownership inspection and audit. Tenant shall be responsible for any alterations or renovations necessitated by, or imposed in connection with, a change of ownership inspection survey for the transfer of operation of the Leased Premises to Landlord or its designee. Tenant shall not commence to wind up and terminate the operations of the Facility or relocate the patients or occupants of the Facility to any other health care facility. In addition, Tenant shall not terminate the employees of the Facility except in connection with and upon the transfer of operations of the Facility to Landlord or its designee.

(c) If Landlord notifies Tenant in writing that it intends to transfer the operations of the Facility to a new operator and desires to have Tenant continue to operate the Facility after the Expiration Date or earlier termination of the Lease, then Tenant shall continue to operate the Facility until the earliest to occur of (i) the date on which such successor operator shall assume operation of the Facility, or (ii) the date that is 180 days after the applicable Expiration Date or termination date (the "Reimbursement Period"). During the Reimbursement Period (x) Landlord shall provide Tenant with an operating budget, (y) Landlord shall include in the aforesaid operating budget, and Tenant shall continue to pay during the Reimbursement Period, all Rent that would have been owing under this Lease as to the Leased Premises if this Lease had not expired or terminated as to, and/or Tenant had not been dispossessed from, such Leased Premises, and (z) provided that this Lease was not terminated with respect to, and Tenant was not dispossessed from, such the Lease Premises due to a Lease Default, Landlord shall reimburse Tenant for any operating deficits with respect to the Facility that Tenant may be required to fund out-of-pocket on account of operating losses and expenses incurred by Tenant by reason of, or arising out of compliance with, such budget with respect to the Reimbursement Period. Any such reimbursement shall be due from Landlord to Tenant within 60 days after request by Tenant, provided that Tenant shall furnish such documentation of any operating deficits, losses and expenses as Landlord may reasonably request. The terms of this Section 5.5(c) shall survive the expiration or earlier termination of this Lease and/or any dispossession of Tenant from the Lease Premises.

(d). Use of Legacy Tradename. Without limitation of the other provisions of (b) Section 5.5 and notwithstanding anything to the contrary contained in this Lease, Tenant agrees to allow Landlord or its designee operator, at its option and at no cost to Landlord or any such designee, to continue to use, in its signage, marketing and advertising materials, operations and otherwise, any or all name(s) (including tradenames) associated with the operation of the Facility as a going concern for up to 180 days following (i) the expiration or termination of this Lease and (ii) the vacation from, and surrender of, the Leased Premises and Facility by Tenant. At the end of such 180 day period, or upon sooner written notice from Landlord to Tenant, Tenant shall, promptly and at its expense, remove its aforesaid name(s) from all signs on the Facility and repair any damage to such signs caused by such removal. Landlord acknowledges and agrees that Tenant, not Landlord, owns the aforesaid names and that neither Landlord nor any designee of Landlord may use the same except as described in this Section 5.3(d) or as otherwise agreed in writing by Tenant.

(c) Management of Terminated/Dispossessed Premises. Commencing on the applicable Termination/Dispossession Date as to any Terminated/Dispossessed Premises, Landlord or its designee, upon notice to Tenant, may elect to assume the responsibilities and obligations for the management and operation of the Business at such Terminated/Dispossessed Premises, and Tenant agrees to cooperate fully to accomplish the transfer of such management and operation without interrupting the operation of such Business to the extent allowable by Law. Tenant shall permit Landlord or its designee to operate the Facility under Tenant's license, certifications and other authorizations pending the issuance of new licenses, certifications and other authorizations Landlord or its designee. Tenant shall not commit any act or be remiss in the undertaking of any act that would jeopardize any licenses, certifications and other authorizations related to the Facility, and Tenant shall comply with all requests for an orderly transfer of all licenses, certifications and other authorizations related to the Facility and any payor's certifications.

(f) In addition, upon any expiration or termination of this Lease, Tenant covenants and agrees to do such things and to take such action as may, from time to time, be necessary or appropriate to permanently surrender and withdraw from possession and operation (including but not limited to licensure and certification) of the Leased Premises, and shall thereafter be fully and permanently relieved of all powers, duties, responsibilities and obligations that are conferred or imposed upon Tenant under this Lease (except those continuing obligations, including but not limited to the obligation to pay all Rent due and owing under this Lease, and the obligation to pay all amounts owed by Tenant to the Medicare, Medicaid, third party payor programs and residents for the period of the Term, which survive the termination hereof as provided herein) and to restore and place Landlord or its designee in possession and operation of the Leased Premises, or any portion thereof, and Tenant covenants and agrees to execute and deliver to Landlord or Landlord's designee (each subject to the approval of DOH) all assignments, operation transfer agreements, consents, consents to assignments (including Medicare and Medicaid provider agreements, if requested by Landlord) documents and other instruments, to the reasonable satisfaction of Landlord in order to effectuate the provisions hereof.

Section 5.6 Condition of Leased Premises. (a) Subject to Section 5.1, Tenant shall accept and take possession of the Leased Premises in its "AS IS," "WHERE IS" "WITH ALL FAULTS" condition, and acceptance of possession of the Leased Premises on the Commencement Date shall be deemed an acknowledgment by Tenant of Tenant's acceptance of the condition of the Leased Premises. Tenant acknowledges and agrees that Landlord is not making any representation, warranty or covenant whatsoever with respect to the condition of the Leased Premises, or any portion thereof, or its suitability for any particular purpose, and Tenant shall be relying solely on its inspection of the Leased Premises and due diligence investigations with respect thereto.

(b) LANDLORD MAKES NO WARRANTY OR REPRESENTATION, EXPRESS OR IMPLIED, IN RESPECT OF THE LEASED PREMISES OR ANY PART THEREOF, EITHER AS TO ITS FITNESS FOR USE, DESIGN OR CONDITION FOR ANY PARTICULAR USE OR PURPOSE OR OTHERWISE, OR AS TO THE NATURE OR QUALITY OF THE MATERIAL OR WORKMANSHIP THEREIN, OR THE EXISTENCE OF ANY HAZARDOUS SUBSTANCE, IT BEING AGREED THAT ALL SUCH RISKS, LATENT OR PATENT, ARE TO BE BORNE SOLELY BY TENANT, INCLUDING ALL RESPONSIBILITY AND LIABILITY FOR ANY ENVIRONMENTAL REMEDIATION AND FOR COMPLIANCE WITH ALL ENVIRONMENTAL LAWS. EFFECTIVE AS OF THE DATE OF THIS LEASE, TENANT SHALL RELEASE LANDLORD FROM ALL CLAIMS WHICH TENANT OR ANY AGENT, REPRESENTATIVE, AFFILIATE, EMPLOYEE, DIRECTOR, OFFICER, PARTNER, MANAGER, MEMBER, SERVANT, SHAREHOLDER, TRUSTEE OR OTHER PERSON OR ENTITY ACTING ON TENANT'S BEHALF OR OTHERWISE RELATED TO OR AFFILIATED WITH TENANT ARISING FROM OR RELATED TO ANY MATTER OR THING RELATED TO OR IN CONNECTION WITH THE LEASED PREMISES, INCLUDING THE INFORMATION AND ANY PHYSICAL OR ENVIRONMENTAL CONDITIONS, AND TENANT SHALL NOT LOOK TO LANDLORD IN CONNECTION WITH THE FOREGOING FOR ANY REDRESS OR RELIEF. THIS RELEASE SHALL BE GIVEN FULL FORCE AND EFFECT ACCORDING TO EACH OF ITS EXPRESSED TERMS AND PROVISIONS, INCLUDING THOSE RELATING TO UNKNOWN AND UNSUSPECTED CLAIMS, DAMAGES AND CAUSES OF ACTION, EXCEPT AS TO MATTERS SPECIFICALLY SET FORTH IN THIS LEASE; (A) TENANT WILL ACQUIRE THE LEASED PREMISES SOLELY ON THE BASIS OF ITS OWN PHYSICAL AND FINANCIAL EXAMINATIONS, REVIEWS AND INSPECTIONS, AND (B) WITHOUT LIMITING THE FOREGOING, WAIVES ANY RIGHT IT OTHERWISE MAY HAVE AT LAW OR IN EQUITY AGAINST LANDLORD WITH RESPECT TO ANY ASPECT OF LEASED PREMISES.

(c) Any blanket insurance Policy shall specifically allocate to the Facility the amount of coverage from time to time required hereunder and shall otherwise provide the same protection as would a separate Policy insuring only the Facility in compliance with the provisions of Section 6.1(a).

a waiver of subrogation for property damage is not prohibited in the State of New York, has been consented to by the applicable insurance carrier, and only to the extent of such insurance coverage.

ARTICLE VII

SECURITY, ACCESS AND REPORTING OBLIGATIONS, WORKING CAPITAL

Section 7.1 Security Deposit/Guaranty.

(a) Contemporaneously with the execution of this Lease, Tenant shall deliver a guarantor of this Lease (the "Guaranty") from Liza Josefovic and Mark Naumen (collectively, the "Guarantors") in the form of Exhibit "B" attached hereto, or in form and amount as may be otherwise required by the Landlord and Landlord's first and second Mortgages. The Guaranty shall set forth that the Guarantors will be required to cooperate in turning the license over to the Landlord's designee or be personally liable for all costs, expenses and damages or deficiencies. The Guarantors shall ensure that the Tenant shall deliver all of the documents required to transfer the license in escrow to Posternak, Blackstein & Lund, or such other party as Landlord designates. As further security for the Tenant's performance under the Lease, the Tenant hereby agrees as follows:

(i) Tenant agrees that it shall deliver to Landlord 60 days prior to the Commencement Date, an agreement by Capital Funding Group, which cannot be amended except by an agreement in writing signed by Landlord, Tenant and Capital Funding Group, in the form attached hereto as Exhibit 7.1(a) or otherwise approved by Landlord and Landlord's lenders in their reasonable discretion, wherein and whereby Capital Funding Group agrees to allow Tenant to draw down on its Credit Line each month so as to enable Capital Funding Group to pay directly to Landlord the sum of $506,096.50 per month commencing the Commencement Date and on each day Fixed Rent is due under the Lease for the following 11 months.

(ii) Tenant agrees that it shall deliver 60 days prior to the anticipated Commencement Date either (i) an unconditional Letter of Credit, in accordance with the Letter of Credit Agreement attached hereto as Exhibit 7.1(b) (which shall be executed simultaneously herewith), in the amount of $3,700,000, or (ii) $3,700,000 in cash ("Security Deposit") to secure the full and timely payment and performance of Tenant's obligations under this Lease. Tenant's failure to deliver the Letter of Credit or timely pay to Landlord the Security Deposit shall be deemed a Lease Default by Tenant. Landlord may retain the Security Deposit in such accounts as Landlord elects in its sole discretion and Landlord may commingle the Security Deposit with other funds of Landlord or its affiliates. Tenant shall have no right to any interest on the funds comprising the Security Deposit that it delivers to Landlord.

(iii) Sixty days prior to the anticipated Commencement Date, the funds in the controlled account number [REDACTED] at JPMorgan Chase Bank, N.A. (the "Bank") in the amount not less than $1,000,000 shall be delivered by Tenant to Landlord and retained by Tenant to Landlord to be held as an additional Security

Deposit by Landlord. The letter to Bank implementing the Tenant's obligations pursuant to the preceding sentence, attached hereto as Exhibit 7.1(c), which shall be held in escrow by Posternak, Blankstein & Land, shall be delivered by it to the Bank sixty days prior to the anticipated Commencement Date upon notice from Landlord.

(b) The term "Letter of Credit" shall mean an irrevocable, unconditional, transferable, clean sight draft letter of credit in favor of Landlord in form and content reasonably satisfactory to Landlord and entitling Landlord to draw thereon without the payment of any fees or charges in New York, New York, issued by a domestic banking institution or the U.S. agency or branch of a foreign banking institution; provided, that such banking institution has a long term senior unsecured debt obligation rating of at least "AA" by S&P. The Letter of Credit shall have an expiration date of the date that is the first anniversary of the date hereof. The Letter of Credit shall provide that it shall be deemed automatically renewed (without amendment) for consecutive periods of one year each thereafter during the Term unless the issuing bank sends written notice to Landlord and Tenant by certified mail, return receipt requested, not less than thirty (30) days preceding the then expiration date of the Letter of Credit that it elects not to have such Letter of Credit renewed. If such notice is sent, then at least twenty (20) days prior to the expiration of the Letter of Credit (and each subsequent or replacement Letter of Credit), Tenant shall deliver to Landlord a new Letter of Credit in the same amount and a failure to do so shall entitle Landlord to draw upon the existing Letter of Credit and to receive the proceeds therefrom and hold such proceeds as a cash Security Deposit pursuant to this Section 7.1 pending delivery of a new Letter of Credit.

(c) Upon a Lease Default, Landlord shall have the right, but not the obligation, in Landlord's sole and absolute discretion, to draw upon the Security Deposit and/or Letter of Credit and apply some or all of the funds to remedy such default or occurrence and to compensate Landlord for any loss or damage resulting therefrom, without prejudice to any other rights or remedies of Landlord under this Lease or at law or in equity. Upon any such application by Landlord, Tenant shall promptly deposit with Landlord an amount in cash equal to the amount from the Security Deposit so utilized by Landlord. Landlord shall at all times have, as security hereunder, Letter of Credit and cash Security Deposit in the amounts stated in Section 7.1(a). Upon the termination or expiration of this Lease, as long as Tenant has performed all of its obligations pursuant to this Lease and no Lease Default has occurred which is continuing, the remaining amount of the Security Deposit shall be returned or refunded to Tenant, without interest, subject in all events to Landlord's right to apply the Security Deposit as provided herein.

(d) Upon the occurrence of a Lease Default, Landlord may use, apply or retain the whole or any part of the Security Deposit or draw under a Letter of Credit to the extent required for the payment of any Rent or any other sums due to which Tenant is in default or for any sum which Landlord may expend or may be required to expend by reason of Tenant's default in respect of any of the terms, covenants and conditions of this Lease, including, but not limited to, any damages or deficiency in the reletting of all or any portion of the Leased Premises, whether such damages or deficiency accrue before or after summary proceedings or other re-entry by Landlord. If Landlord shall so use, apply or retain the whole or any part of the Security Deposit, Tenant shall upon demand immediately deposit with Landlord a sum equal to the amount so used, applied or retained. In the event of any sale or financing of Landlord's interest in the Leased Premises, Landlord shall have the right to assign its interests in the Security Deposit to the transferee, assignee or mortgagee, as the case may be, and if Landlord has given notice to Tenant of the assignment of Landlord's interest in the Security Deposit and if assignee or transferee of the Security Deposit has accepted liability for the Security Deposit, Landlord shall thereupon be released by Tenant from all liability for the return or payment thereof; and Tenant shall look solely to the new landlord or mortgagee for the return or payment of the same. Tenant shall not assign or encumber or attempt to assign or encumber the Security Deposit and neither Landlord, nor its successors or assigns, shall be bound by any such assignment, encumbrance, attempted assignment or attempted encumbrance.

Section 7.2 Access to Leased Premises. Tenant shall permit Landlord, Mortgagee and their agents to enter upon the Leased Premises at all reasonable times during ordinary business hours and upon at least twenty-four (24) hours advance oral notice (except that in the case of emergency, Landlord may enter at any time and without prior notice) to inspect and examine the Leased Premises, to perform repairs as to Landlord's Work pursuant to Section 5.1, and to inspect and copy any operating manuals, procedures manuals, training manuals, and other books and records concerning unemployment, workers' compensation, insurance, tax, and any other business issues pertaining to the Leased Premises (subject to applicable laws and regulations governing patient confidentiality and privacy and the confidentiality of medical records) and any information necessary for audit relating to cost reimbursement, collections, general financial matters, litigation, inquiries and related activities (as may be necessary in connection with the Lease or the Leased Premises or any matters relating to periods prior to the Commencement Date). Any access by Landlord to patient records or medical records shall be strictly governed by Laws governing patient confidentiality and privacy and the confidentiality of medical records and all appropriate consents and/or waivers from residents or their guardians or representatives shall have been obtained before access to such records shall be granted. Landlord shall make reasonable efforts not to materially interfere with or materially disrupt Tenant's business and use and enjoyment of the Leased Premises during any such inspection or examination. Landlord shall also have the right but not the obligation to conduct a physical inspection of the Facility and from time to time and within ninety (90) days prior to the expiration of the Term or earlier termination of the Lease, upon twenty-four (24) hours advance oral notice. If Landlord reasonably determines based on this inspection that the Facility, or any portion of the Facility, requires repairs or maintenance so that the condition of the Facility is in compliance with this Lease and all Laws, then within thirty (30) days of notification by Landlord, Tenant shall commence making said repairs and diligently pursue such repairs to completion. Should Tenant fail to do so, within seven (7) days of notification by Landlord, Tenant shall pay to Landlord a deposit of funds in an amount equal to Landlord's reasonable estimate of the costs of such repairs or maintenance, which funds shall be released to Tenant from time to time during the progress of such repairs and maintenance based on submission by Tenant of evidence reasonably satisfactory to Landlord that such work is complete and all costs and expenses incurred to date have been paid in full. Tenant and Landlord acknowledge that the operations of the Facility and its maintenance are the sole and absolute responsibility of Tenant. Landlord shall have no liabilities or obligations with respect to the Facility, including no liabilities or obligations with respect to inspections of the Facility or the failure by Landlord to inspect the Facility.

Notwithstanding anything to the contrary in this in this Lease, Landlord and Tenant agree that all information, records and data collected or maintained regarding Facility residents shall be confidential. Landlord, Tenant, and their respective employees and agents shall maintain the confidentiality of all Facility resident information received in accordance with applicable New York and federal laws, including the Health Insurance Portability and Accountability Act of 1996 (Public Law 104-91) and the regulations issued in connection therewith (collectively, "HIPAA"). No employee or agent of Landlord or Tenant shall discuss, transmit or narrate in any manner the Facility resident information of a personal, medical, or other nature except as a necessary part of providing services to the resident, effectuating a transfer of the Facility's assets, or otherwise fulfilling its obligations under this Lease or under law. The obligations under this Section 7.2 shall survive the termination of this Lease, whether by rescission or otherwise.

Section 7.3 Changes in Licensure and Certification Status. As of the Commencement Date, Tenant represents and warrants that the number of beds licensed or certified for the Facility is one hundred sixty (160). Tenant shall not increase or decrease the licensed or certified number of beds, or change the license or certification thereof, without the consent of Landlord, which consent may be withheld in Landlord's sole and absolute discretion; Tenant may increase the number of licensed or certified beds of the Facility upon thirty (30) days prior written notice to Landlord, but without the prior written consent of Landlord. If required, Tenant shall not increase the number of beds without the consent of the Commissioner and/or the DOH and Tenant agrees to return to Landlord upon the expiration of the Lease, the Leased Premises. Should Tenant increase the number of licensed beds at the Facility, the Fixed Rent payable for the Facility shall be increased proportionately for such additional beds. In no event shall the Fixed Rent be reduced in the event the number of Licensed Beds at the Facility is reduced. Landlord and Tenant acknowledge that the Leased Premises are, and at all times under the Term of this Lease are, the sole and absolute property of Landlord. Upon any termination of this Lease or any Lease Default by Tenant hereunder (which breach or default is not cured within any applicable grace period), and subject to the approval of the DOH, Landlord shall have the right to cause the Facility's licenses to be reissued in Landlord's name or in the name of Landlord's designee upon application therefor to, and the receipt of approval from, the DOH and to further have the right to have any and all Medicare, Medicaid and any other provider and/or third party payer agreements issued in Landlord's name or in the name of Landlord's designee. In the event Landlord exercises its rights pursuant to this Section 7.3, Tenant and Guarantors shall cooperate with Landlord in transferring the aforementioned issues to Landlord's name or for the benefit of Landlord or as Landlord may direct pursuant to the terms of this Lease.

Tenant shall be responsible for designating as a "mandatory capital expenditure" any expenditure which, if not made would, in Tenant's reasonable judgment: (a) cause the Facility to lose or put at risk its License; (b) place at risk the safety of a patient or resident or employee of the Facility; (c) cause the ineligibility of the Facility under any third party payor program applicable to the Facility; (d) cause the issuance of a formal notice that any of the operating licenses for the Facility or any substantial portion of the Facility will be revoked or suspended or qualified in any material adverse respect; or (e) subject Landlord or Tenant to criminal prosecution. Landlord agrees to subordinate its lien on Tenant's accounts receivable in favor of Tenant's accounts receivable lender, which shall be a nationally recognized nursing home accounts receivable lender with experience acceptable to HUD or Mortgagee on at least 20 nursing homes, securing up to a $2,000,000.00 accounts receivable loan, provided such lender enters into an Intercreditor agreement reasonably acceptable to Mortgagee and Landlord. Should Mortgagee require a subordination of the priority of Landlord's security interest in the Collateral, Landlord and Tenant shall execute such documents as Mortgagee may request to subordinate Landlord's lien to the Mortgagee's security interest in the collateral. In addition, Tenant's members shall grant to Landlord a first lien pledge (subject to the following sentence) of the membership interests of Tenant. To the extent required by Tenant's accounts receivable lender, Landlord agrees to subordinate its lien on Tenant's membership interests to a lien in favor of such lender securing up to a $2,000,000.00 accounts receivable loan; provided such lender enters into an intercreditor agreement reasonably acceptable to Mortgagee and Landlord. On or before the Commencement Date, Tenant shall provide Landlord with a detailed list and description of all the Collateral. Upon a Lease Default by Tenant, Landlord shall have all the rights and remedies of a secured party under the laws of the State of New York. Tenant and Tenant's members consent to Landlord's preparation of and the filing of such financing statements by Landlord and agrees that the provisions of this Section 7.6 shall constitute a security agreement for the purposes contemplated hereby. The security interest granted by this Section 7.6 shall be in addition to any lien of Landlord that may now or at any time hereafter be provided by law. In the event Landlord exercises its remedies to foreclose the security interest created under this Section 7.6, or elsewhere in this Lease, Tenant shall cooperate with Landlord in transferring all of the aforementioned items promptly as requested by Landlord in Landlord's or its designee's name or for the benefit of Landlord. Tenant covenants and agrees that it shall not sell, move, surrender, cancel, modify, transfer, assign, relocate, pledge, grant a security interest in, convey or in any other manner encumber any assets of Tenant including, without limitation, the personal property, the certificate of need approval or any of the licensed or Medicare- and/or Medicaid-certified beds at the Facility, or any licenses for the Facility, or attempt at any time to do so, except as expressly provided hereunder and with the written consent of Landlord. This Section 7.6 and Landlord's rights and remedies hereunder shall survive the termination of the Lease.

Section 7.7 Working Capital. As of the Effective Date, Tenant shall have and maintain until the Commencement Date in accounts, acceptable to Landlord in its sole and complete discretion, an amount of funds equal to the greater of ("Working Capital") (i) any debt service reserve required by Mortgagee, (ii) the aggregate negative net operating income of Tenant for the period of months from the Commencement Date to the first day of the first two month period in which aggregate net income from operations exceeds zero, all as reflected in the projections attached hereto as Schedule 2.2 ("Cash Requirement"); for the purpose of this calculation net operating income shall be determined on a cash basis, and (iii) 4.5 million dollars. Working Capital shall not include any accounts or reserves established to satisfy the requirements of Section 7.1(a) (i) and (k). From and after the Commencement Date, the Working Capital, subject to any requirement of the Mortgagee, may be used by Tenant only to fund the Cash Requirement.

7.8 Refinance. Tenant shall fully cooperate with Landlord in its efforts to Refinance from time to time, including without limitation, providing all information and executing all documents required by Landlord or its lender(s). On and after each Refinance Date the Fixed Rent for each twelve month period shall equal the sum of the amounts provided for in clauses (a) through (e): (a) the annual debt service payments (principal, interest, and mortgage insurance premiums, if any) that Landlord is required to pay to Lender pursuant to the first Mortgage (the "Mortgage Debt"), plus such additional amounts as Landlord may be required to pay under any of the Loan Documents with respect to tax, insurance and other reserve requirements and/or payment obligations; (b) the annual aggregate debt service payments or preferred equity payments that the Landlord is required to pay pursuant to the Junior Debt (or replacement thereof) (with the Mortgage Debt, the "New Debt Service"); plus such additional amounts as Landlord may be required to pay under any of the Loan Documents with respect to tax, insurance and other reserve requirements and/or payment obligations under the Junior Debt (or replacement thereof); (c) an annual amount equal to $1,390,115; (d) an additional amount of $250,000 per year prior to the fourth year of the Term; $350,000 per year during Lease Years 4 and 5; and $400,000.00 per Lease Year thereafter until the end of the Term, including all Extension Terms; and (e) an additional amount equal to one-half of the amount that (i) a sum equal to the last 12 months interest payment on the original Mortgage and Junior Debt exceeds (ii) New Debt Service.

Upon the expiration or termination of this Lease, Tenant shall leave all personal property leased to Tenant hereunder, as required, rebuilt, replaced, restored, altered or added to as permitted or required by provisions of this Lease, in or on the Leased Premises, except for ordinary wear and tear. Any and all restorations, alterations or replacements of, or repairs, reconstructions or additions to, the personal property at the Facility made by Tenant shall become part of Landlord's personal property, and any and all security interests (except in favor of Landlord) in Tenant's personal property and financing statements shall be cleared, terminated and/or released to the satisfaction of Landlord at Tenant's expense. Tenant shall pay off in full the remaining payments due on all personal property leased by Tenant and such personal property shall become part of Landlord's personal property and financing statements shall be cleared, terminated and/or released to the satisfaction of Landlord at Tenant's expense. Any of Tenant's software, software licenses, proprietary information, and policies, and procedures of Tenant ("Retained Assets") shall not become part of Landlord's personal property except in the event of the termination of this Lease as a result of a Lease Default, in which case the Retained Assets shall become the personal property of Landlord; provided, however, upon request of Landlord, in consideration of a payment by Landlord or its designee of Ten Dollars ($10.00) and any applicable lease, rent, or license fees owed to any third parties during the Transition Period (hereinafter defined), Tenant shall license Landlord or its designee(s) (at Tenant's cost with no mark-up) to utilize the Retained Assets for a period of one hundred twenty (120) days (the "Transition Period") in connection with the transition of operations from Tenant and Landlord's new operator(s). To the extent Tenant or any Subtenants are obligated under license agreements with third party vendors supplying software (and/or computer hardware which Tenant does not own or lease) to such Tenant, Tenant shall use its best efforts to arrange for Landlord or Landlord to enter into licensing agreements with such third party vendors to allow Landlord or its designee to utilize such software and computer hardware supplied by such third party vendors for the duration of the Transition Period.

Section 8.2 Tenant's Retained Assets. At the termination of the Lease, Landlord shall have the right to purchase all or a portion of Tenant's Retained Assets located at the Facility at the lower of its fair market value or book value. To the extent any of Tenant's Retained Assets is subject to a license, Landlord shall have the right but not the obligation to assume some or all of such license Landlord's sole cost and expense and at no additional liability to Tenant.

(b) Any amounts which become payable by Tenant under this Article IX shall be paid within ten (10) days after liability therefor is determined by litigation or otherwise, and if not timely paid shall bear interest at the Prime Rate plus 5% (the "Overdue Rate") from the date of such determination to the date of payment. Tenant, at its sole cost and expense, shall contest, resist and defend any such claim, action or proceeding asserted or instituted against Landlord or may compromise or otherwise dispose of the same as Tenant sees fit provided that Landlord receives a full and complete release with respect to such claim, action or proceeding. Such rate need not be the lowest rate charged by Citibank, N.A. If Citibank, N.A. discontinues its use of such prime, base or reference rate or ceases to exist, Landlord shall designate the prime, base or reference rate of another state or federally chartered bank with offices in New York, N.Y. to be used for the purpose of calculating the Prime Rate hereunder.

Section 10.2 No Waste. Tenant shall not commit or suffer to be committed any waste on the Leased Premises nor shall Tenant cause or permit any nuisance thereon.

Section 10.3 Hazardous Materials and Hazardous Waste. (a) Tenant shall not place or hold any Hazardous Materials on or at the Leased Premises, except as is necessary for the ordinary course of its business as a skilled nursing facility in compliance with Section 10.1. If Tenant's business requires the use of any Hazardous Materials, other than such cleaning materials as are typically found in skilled nursing facilities in compliance with Section 10.1, Tenant shall notify Landlord in writing and shall comply with hazard communication and notification requirements of the Occupational Safety and Health Act ("OSHA") and all Laws which require notification of employees, the community or any governmental agency of the hazardous properties of such Hazardous Materials. For purposes of this Lease, "Hazardous Materials" means and includes any hazardous substance defined as such in OSHA, the Comprehensive Environmental Response, Compensation, and Liability Act ("CERCLA"), the Toxic Substances Control Act ("TSCA"), or any other federal, state or local statute, law, ordinance, code, rule, regulation, order or decree regulating, relating to, or imposing liability or standards of conduct concerning, any hazardous substance or material, as now or at any time hereafter in effect.

(c) Tenant shall not cause or allow any asbestos or any asbestos containing materials to be incorporated into any improvements or alterations which it makes or causes to be made on or to the Leased Premises. Tenant shall obtain and maintain O&M Programs for the Facility if the Facility is determined to contain asbestos or asbestos containing materials and upon Landlord's request, shall furnish copies of same to Landlord, Mortgagee or their designee(s).

Tenant further agrees that it shall not use the Leased Premises as a treatment, storage, or disposal (whether permanent or temporary) facility for Hazardous Waste. If Tenant, in the ordinary course of its business as a skilled nursing facility generates Hazardous Waste, then Tenant shall comply with all applicable federal, state and local laws, statutes, ordinances, codes, rules, regulations, orders or decrees relating to the appropriate use, storage, transportation and disposal of Hazardous Waste. For the purposes of this Lease, "Hazardous Waste" means and includes any hazardous material that has entered the waste stream or any contaminant or pollutant as defined as such in the Resource Conservation and Recovery Act, CERCLA, as amended, any so-called "Superfund" or "Superfund" law, the TSCA, or any other Law, relating to or imposing liability or standards of conduct concerning, any hazardous, toxic or dangerous waste. Tenant further agrees that it shall properly dispose in accordance with Laws of all "infectious waste" such as laboratory waste, pathological waste, blood specimens or products, patient or resident waste including, without "Environmental Notice" shall mean any note, notice, or report of any suit, proceeding, investigation, order, consent order, injunction, writ, award, or action related to or affecting or indicating the treatment, storage, handling, disposal, generation, spill, release or discharge of any Hazardous Waste or Hazardous Materials in, upon, under, from or affecting the Leased Premises. All of the terms, covenants, warranties and indemnifications contained in this Section 10.3 shall survive the expiration or termination of this Lease.

(e) Without in any way limiting Tenant's obligation to indemnify Landlord and Landlord's Indemnitees under Section 9.1 of this Lease, Tenant shall indemnify, defend (at Landlord's request) and hold harmless Landlord and Landlord's Indemnitees from and against any claims, losses, costs, damages or expenses of any and every kind whatsoever (including reasonable attorney's fees and expenses and consultant's and expert's fees and expenses) which at any time or from time to time may be paid, incurred or suffered by, or asserted against Landlord and/or Landlord's Indemnitees for, with respect to, or as a direct or indirect result of: (a) a breach by Tenant of the covenants set forth in Section 10.3 or, (b) caused, permitted or allowed by Tenant or any agent, employee, business, or licensee of Tenant, the presence on or under, or the escape, seepage, leakage, spillage, discharge, emission, or release from, onto, or into the Leased Premises, the atmosphere, or any watercourse, body of water, or groundwater, of any Hazardous Material (including, without limitation, any losses, liabilities, damages, injuries, costs, expenses or claims asserted or arising under CERCLA, as amended, any so-called "Superfund" or "Superfund" law, or any other Law, relating to or imposing liability or standards of conduct concerning, any Hazardous Material) occurring from and after the Commencement Date; and the provisions of and undertakings and indemnification set out in this Section 10.3(d) shall survive the termination of this Lease, and shall continue to be the personal liability, obligation and indemnification of Tenant, binding upon Tenant, forever. If required by Mortgagee, Tenant shall enter into an agreement to indemnify, defend and hold harmless Mortgagee with respect to matters contained in this Section 10.3 and other similar matters pursuant to a form of agreement reasonably acceptable to Mortgagee. In no event however shall Tenant have any liability to Landlord or Landlord's Indemnitees for Hazardous Materials located at or under the Leased Premises prior to the Commencement Date or for the remediation of same.

(f) If Tenant or its employees, agents, or contractors violate the provisions of this Section 10.3, then, in addition to any other duty or obligation of Tenant hereunder, at law or in equity, Tenant shall be obligated to clean up, remove, and dispose of the material causing the violation, in compliance with all applicable environmental laws and repair any damage to and remediate the Leased Premises within such period of time as may be reasonable under the circumstances after written notice by Landlord; provided that such work shall commence no later than thirty (30) days from the date of such notice and be diligently and continuously carried to completion by Tenant or Tenant's designated contractors. Tenant shall notify Landlord of its method, time and procedure for any clean-up, remediation or removal of material causing the violation under this provision, and Landlord shall have the right to require reasonable changes in such method, time or procedure.

(k) Landlord reserves the right from time to time, but not more than once a year, except in the event of an emergency or during the occurrence and continuation of an uncured Lease Default during the Term hereof, at Landlord's cost and expense (except that, in the event of a continuing and uncured Lease Default, at Tenant's sole cost and expense), to have the Leased Premises inspected by environmental engineers and/or specialists for the purpose of determining compliance by Tenant with any environmental laws, rules and regulations applicable to Tenant's operations in or about the Leased Premises and with the terms and conditions of this Lease dealing with environmental matters, including without limitation, the provisions of this Section 10.3. If the environmental assessment or report resulting from such inspection discloses any non-compliance with Laws, Tenant shall immediately, following receipt of the environmental assessment, take all such steps as are necessary to put the Leased Premises into compliance, including without limitation, cleaning up any spills or other emissions of Hazardous Wastes or Hazardous Materials, and reimburse Landlord for the costs of its inspection.

(l) Upon the expiration of the Term, or the earlier termination thereof, subject to the last sentence of Section 10.3(d) above, Tenant shall forthwith remove all Hazardous Materials and Hazardous Waste from the Leased Premises or any portion thereof in accordance with applicable Law. Landlord shall have the right to inspect the Leased Premises with regard to the management and disposal of Hazardous Materials and Hazardous Waste at all reasonable times during the Term.

ARTICLE XI

DAMAGE OR DESTRUCTION

Section 11.1 Damage or Destruction. Tenant shall immediately notify Landlord of any casualty, fire, damage, destruction or injury ("Casualty") affecting the Facility, including a description of the Casualty, and whether the Casualty is such as to cause the Leased Premises to be unusable, in whole or in part, for the intended Use. Tenant shall proceed with reasonable diligence to repair or reconstruct the Leased Premises and Tenant shall be liable for any costs of repair or replacement to the Leased Premises, whether or not such Casualty, or the costs of repairing such Casualty, are fully covered by the proceeds of Tenant's insurance required to be carried hereunder. If such Casualty renders the Facility unusable for the purpose of this Lease and if Landlord's Mortgagee so requires, Landlord, upon notice to Tenant, Landlord may terminate this Lease and Landlord and Tenant shall be released from any further liability hereunder thereafter accruing with respect to the Facility, except that Tenant shall be responsible and shall pay Landlord an amount equal to the difference between the fair market value of the Leased Premises immediately prior to such Casualty and the proceeds of Tenant's insurance to the extent such difference results from Tenant's breach of Article VI. Notwithstanding the foregoing, if Landlord's obligations to its Mortgagee have been satisfied in full and the DOH approves and agrees to reimburse the costs of rebuilding the Facility, Landlord shall not so terminate this Lease with respect to the Facility, and Tenant shall repair or reconstruct the Leased Premises in substantially the same condition as just prior to the incident with the proceeds of the property casualty insurance carried by Tenant, as required hereunder (if not otherwise paid to the Mortgagee), and/or with funds of Tenant. Regardless of any Casualty, except as provided above, this Lease shall continue in full force and effect without any abatement of Rent, and Tenant shall not be entitled to surrender possession of the Leased Premises as a result of such casualty. Landlord's receipt of Rent from Tenant's rental interruption insurance shall be credited against Rent payments due from Tenant hereunder. If Tenant fails to commence such repair or reconstruction within thirty (30) days of the Casualty, Landlord shall have the option, subject to the approval of the DOH if required by Laws, to either terminate this Lease upon written notice to Tenant or repair and reconstruct the Leased Premises in substantially the same condition just prior to the incident and costs and expenses incurred as a result thereof shall be deemed Additional Rent hereunder and shall be payable to Landlord by Tenant, upon demand. Upon payment of all such sums demanded by Landlord, Tenant may re-enter and resume possession of the Leased Premises pursuant to the terms of this Lease. All insurance proceeds collected under the Policies shall be paid to Landlord, and made available to Tenant to pay for or reimburse Tenant for the costs and expenses for such repairs and reconstruction subject to the terms, conditions and provisions of any mortgage or other loan documents encumbering the Leased Premises. If Mortgagee does not make the insurance proceeds available to Landlord, then Landlord may terminate this Lease upon thirty (30) days' notice to Tenant, and Landlord and Tenant shall be released from any further liability hereunder thereafter accruing with respect to the Facility, except that Tenant shall be responsible and shall pay Landlord an amount equal to the difference between the fair market value of the Leased Premises immediately prior to such Casualty and the proceeds of Tenant's insurance.

Section 11.2 Precedence of Rights of Mortgagee. All provisions contained in the loan documents between Landlord and Mortgagee, or any other document in connection therewith which concern or pertain to the restoration of the Leased Premises, the application of insurance proceeds and any and all matters concerning a casualty, shall take precedence over and be in lieu of any contrary provision provided for in this Lease, and in all respects are binding upon Tenant who agrees to and acknowledges the same.

Section 11.3 Tenant hereby waives the provisions of Section 227 of the Real Property Law of the State of New York and acknowledges that the terms of this Article XI shall govern in lieu thereof.

ARTICLE XII

EMINENT DOMAIN

Section 12.1 Eminent Domain. (a) In the event that all or substantially all of the Leased Premises, or such portion of the Real Property which renders the balance of the Facility unsuitable for the purpose of this Lease, shall be taken by condemnation or right of eminent domain, this Lease shall terminate as of the day the taking authority takes possession of the Leased Premises, and Landlord and Tenant shall be released from any further liability hereunder thereafter accruing with respect to the Facility, except as otherwise expressly provided in this Lease. In the event only a portion (and less than substantially all) of the Leased Premises is taken by condemnation or right of eminent domain and the portion so taken does not render the balance of the Leased Premises unsuitable for the purposes of this Lease, as determined by Landlord, this Lease shall not terminate. In such an event, Tenant shall restore the Leased Premises with reasonable diligence with its own funds and with the proceeds of any award from the applicable public or quasi-public authority, or private corporation or individual having the power of condemnation ("Award") to an architectural unit as nearly like its condition prior to such taking as shall be practicable. Notwithstanding anything to the contrary herein, this Section 12.1(a) is subject to the terms, conditions and provisions of any mortgage and other loan documents encumbering the Leased Premises.

(i) Notwithstanding anything to the contrary contained in Section 12.1(a), Landlord may cancel this Lease with no further liability to Tenant, in the event that following a taking by condemnation or right of eminent domain, Mortgagee elects to require Landlord to repay the mortgage on the Leased Premises.

(j) Tenant shall not be entitled to any part of any award or settlement of damages representing the value of land and buildings appropriated, the value of this Lease or any estate therein, or damage to the residue of the Leased Premises or other property of Landlord; it being agreed as between Landlord and Tenant any such award shall be the sole property of Landlord. No appropriation of part or all of the Leased Premises or cancellation of this Lease pursuant to this Article XII shall be deemed an eviction of Tenant or a breach of any covenants of Landlord hereunder.

The term "Business Day" means any day other than (i) a Saturday or a Sunday, and (ii) a day on which federally insured depository institutions in New York, New York are authorized or obligated by law, regulation, governmental decree or executive order to be closed.

Section 13.2 Notices to Mortgagee. (a) Tenant hereby agrees, upon request of Mortgagee, to give to Mortgagee copies of all notices given by Tenant of default by Landlord under this Lease at the same time and in the same manner as, and whenever, Tenant shall give any such notice of default to Landlord. Such Mortgagee shall have the right to remedy any default under this Lease, or to cause any default of Landlord under this Lease to be remedied, and for such purpose Tenant hereby grants such Mortgagee such period of time as may be reasonable to enable such Mortgagee to remedy, or cause to be remedied, any such default in addition to the period given to Landlord for remedying, or causing to be remedied, any such default which is a default. Tenant shall accept performance by such Mortgagee of any term, covenant, condition or agreement to be performed by Landlord under the Lease with the same force and effect as though performed by Landlord. No default by Landlord under the Lease shall exist or shall be deemed to exist: (i) as long as such Mortgagee, in good faith, shall have commenced to cure such default and shall be prosecuting the same to completion with reasonable diligence, subject to Force Majeure, or (ii) if possession of the Leased Premises is required in order to cure such default, or if such default is not susceptible of being cured by such Mortgagee, as long as such Mortgagee, in good faith, shall have notified Tenant that such Mortgagee intends to institute proceedings under the mortgage and, thereafter, as long as such proceedings shall have been instituted and shall prosecute the same with reasonable diligence and, after having obtained possession, prosecutes the cure to completion with reasonable diligence. This Lease shall not be assigned by Tenant or modified, amended or terminated without Mortgagee's prior written consent in each instance, which consent shall not be unreasonably withheld or delayed. In the event of the termination of this Lease by reason of any default thereunder or for any other reason whatsoever except the expiration thereof, upon such Mortgagee's written request, given within thirty (30) days after any such termination, Tenant, within fifteen (15) days after receipt of such request, shall execute and deliver to such Mortgagee or its designee or nominee a new lease of the Leased Premises for the remainder of the Term of the Lease upon, at a minimum, all of the terms, covenants and conditions of this Lease. Neither such Mortgagee or its designee or nominee shall become liable under this Lease unless and until such Mortgagee or its designee or nominee becomes, and then only for so long as such Mortgagee or its designee or nominee remains, the fee owner of the Leased Premises or the owner of the leasehold interest of Landlord under this Lease. Such Mortgagee shall have the right, without Tenant's consent, to, as the case may be, foreclose its mortgage or to accept a deed in lieu of foreclosure of such mortgage.

(b) In the event of any act or omission of Landlord which would give Tenant the right, immediately or after lapse of a period of time, to cancel or terminate this Lease, or to claim a partial or total eviction, Tenant shall not exercise such right (i) until it has given written notice of such act or omission to Mortgagee, and (ii) unless such act or omission shall be one which is not capable of being remedied by Landlord or such Mortgagee within a reasonable period of time, until a reasonable period for remedying such act or omission shall have elapsed following the giving of such notice and following the time when such Mortgagee shall have become entitled under its loan documents with Landlord in connection therewith, as the case may be, to remedy the same (which reasonable period shall in no event be less than the period to which Landlord would be entitled under this Lease or otherwise, after similar notice, to effect such remedy).

ARTICLE XIV

QUIET ENJOYMENT

Section 14.1 Quiet Enjoyment. Landlord covenants, warrants and represents to Tenant that, provided no Lease Default exists under this Lease, Tenant shall at all times during the Term peacefully and quietly have, hold, occupy and enjoy the Leased Premises, subject to the terms and conditions of this Lease, without any hindrance, interference or molestation by Landlord or by, under or through Landlord.

ARTICLE XV

SUBLETTING AND ASSIGNMENT

Section 15.1 Subletting and Assignment (a) Tenant shall not, without the prior written consent of Landlord, which consent may be withheld in the Landlord's sole and absolute discretion (and, if required by law, without the prior written consent of the Commissioner, which consent may be withheld in the Commissioner's sole and absolute discretion), transfer or assign this Lease or Tenant's interest in the Leased Premises or any part thereof or sublease all or any part of the Leased Premises. In all events of assignment, transfer or subletting, the prior approval of the DOH shall be required. Tenant shall not at any time, without the prior written consent of Landlord, which consent may be withheld or given in the sole and absolute discretion of Landlord, pledge, mortgage, or hypothecate the leasehold estate hereby created or any interest of Tenant therein. The issuance of or a transfer or series of transfers (including transfers caused by mergers, acquisitions or consolidations of any direct or indirect interests in the equity ownership interests in Tenant or any subtenant aggregating to forty-nine percent (49%) or more of the stock, membership or ownership interest in Tenant or any subtenant shall constitute an assignment for purposes of this Lease, requiring Landlord's consent thereof; notwithstanding anything to the contrary, any change in the management or control of Tenant such that Lizer Josefovich does not control all of the decisions of Tenant shall constitute an assignment for purposes of this Lease, requiring Landlord's consent thereof. Notwithstanding anything to the contrary, the issuance of or a transfer or series of transfers (including transfers caused by mergers, acquisitions or consolidations of any direct or indirect interests in the equity ownership interests in Tenant or any subtenant resulting in the aggregate interest of Lizer Josefovich, Marc Neuman, and their spouse or issue, or a trust for their benefit, equaling less than seventy-five percent (75%) of the stock, membership or ownership interest in Tenant or any subtenant to any person or entity shall constitute an assignment for purposes of this Lease, requiring Landlord's consent thereof; provided that any assignment by Lizer Josefovich to Joseph Josefovich made after five years after the Commencement date shall not be unreasonably denied by Landlord taking into account, among other things, the experience, performance record, and financial strength of Joseph Josefovich. The consent by Landlord to any transfer shall not constitute consent to any subsequent transfer or to any successive transfer. Further, subject to the provisions of Section 2.2, and without in any way limiting or otherwise affecting the provisions of this Lease, Landlord shall be permitted to assign this Lease and all agreements, duties, obligations and rights incidental thereto to any entity related to, or affiliated with Landlord, without any consent from Tenant. The term "transfer" shall mean any direct or indirect sale, conveyance, transfer, lease (including any amendment, extension, modification, waiver or renewal thereof), sublease, sub-sublease, assignment, mortgage, pledge, grant of a security interest or hypothecation, whether by operation of law or otherwise, whether voluntary or not, of or in (i) all or part of the Leased Premises (including any legal or beneficial direct or indirect interest therein) or (ii) any direct or indirect interest in Tenant. Notwithstanding anything to the contrary contained herein, Tenant may assign this Lease to, or enter into a sublease with, or transfer interests in an entity comprising Tenant to, an affiliate under common control with Tenant, or owned by Lizer Josefovich, Marc Neuman, or their spouse or issue, or a Trust for their benefit, without Landlord's consent, provided (x) Landlord is given thirty (30) days prior written notice of such intended transfer, assignment or sublease with copies of the organizational documents of the assignee, transferee or sublessee, (y) after such transfer, assignment or sublease, Lizer Josefovich controls all of the decisions of the assignee, transferee or sublessee, and (z) all required consents from, the Mortgagee, the DOH and/or the Commissioner (if required), have been obtained by Tenant. Notwithstanding the foregoing and any other provision contained herein to the contrary, no transfer or series of transfers of legal, economic, beneficial or equitable (direct or indirect) interest in the Lease or in Tenant's membership interest that requires DOH's consent shall occur without the prior written consent of Landlord and DOH. Tenant shall enter into such subordination agreements or subordination, non-disturbance agreements ("SNDAs") as Mortgagee may request from time to time.

Section 15.2 ~~Assignment and Related Matters~~. Any sublease shall be expressly subject and subordinate to all applicable terms and conditions of this Lease and provide that upon the expiration or earlier termination of this Lease, Landlord, at its option and without any obligation to do so, may require any subtenant to ~~attorn~~ to Landlord, its successors and assigns, in which event Landlord shall undertake the obligations of Tenant, under such sublease from the time of the exercise of such option to the termination of such sublease; provided, however, that in such case Landlord shall not be liable for any prepaid rents, fees or other charges or for any prepaid security deposits paid by such subtenant to Tenant or for any other prior defaults of Tenant under such sublease. In the event that Landlord shall not require such attornment with respect to any sublease, then such sublease shall automatically terminate upon the expiration or earlier termination of this Lease, including any early termination by mutual agreement of Landlord and Tenant. In addition, any such sublease shall provide that in the event that the subtenant or other transferee receives a written notice from Landlord stating that a Lease Default has occurred or that an event or circumstance has occurred which with notice and/or passage of time would constitute a Lease Default, such subtenant or other transferee thereafter shall without further consent or instruction of Tenant pay all rentals accruing under such sublease directly to Landlord or as Landlord may direct; provided, however, that (a) as and to the extent that the amounts so paid to Landlord, together with other amounts paid to or received by Landlord on account of this Lease, exceed the amounts then due Landlord from Tenant under this Lease, the excess shall be promptly remitted to Tenant, and (b) at such time as the Lease Default has been cured and this Lease reinstated (if ever), Landlord shall notify and direct the subtenant(s) in writing to resume making payments of rentals under their sublease(s) directly to Tenant, or as Tenant may direct. Any such rentals collected from such subtenant or other transferee by Landlord shall be credited against the amounts owing by Tenant under this Lease in such order of priority as Landlord shall reasonably determine. Furthermore, any sublease or other agreement regarding a transfer shall expressly provide that the subtenant, assignee, manager or other transferee shall furnish Landlord, its lender, the Mortgagee, if applicable, the HUD Mortgagee, and/or the Commissioner, and for DOH, if applicable, with such financial, operational and other information about the Facility and subtenant, etc., as Landlord may request from time to time.

Section 15.3 Assignment of Subleases. To secure the prompt and full payment by Tenant of the Rent and the faithful performance by Tenant of all the other terms and conditions herein contained on its part to be kept and performed, Tenant hereby assigns, transfers and sets over unto Landlord, subject to the conditions hereinafter set forth and any required consent(s) from DOH, all of Tenant's right, title and interest in and to all permitted subleases, assignments, licenses and occupancy agreements, to the extent permitted by law, involving the Facility, as set forth on Schedule 15.3 attached hereto (the "Sublease", and the subtenant under a Sublease herein referred to as a "Subtenant") and hereby confers upon Landlord, its agents and representatives, a right of entry (subject to prior notice) in, and sufficient possession of, the Leased Premises to permit and insure the collection by Landlord of the rentals and other sums payable under the Sublease, and further agrees that the exercise of said right of entry and qualified possession by Landlord shall not constitute an eviction of Tenant from the Leased Premises or any portion thereof and that should said right of entry and possession be denied Landlord, its agent or representative, Landlord, in the exercise of said right, may use all requisite force to gain and enjoy the same without responsibility or liability to Tenant, its servants, employees, guests or invitees, or any Person whomsoever; provided, however, that such assignment shall become operative and effective only if (a) a Lease Default shall occur and be continuing or (b) this Lease and the Term shall be cancelled or terminated pursuant to the terms, covenants and conditions hereof or (c) there occurs a repossession under a dispossessionary warrant or other re-entry or repossession by Landlord under the provisions hereof or (d) a receiver for all or a portion of the Leased Premises is appointed, and then only as to such of the subleases that Landlord may elect to take over and assume. At any time and from time to time within ten (10) days after Landlord's written demand, Tenant promptly shall deliver to Landlord a schedule of all Subleases, setting forth the names of all Subtenants, with a photostatic copy of each of the Subleases. Upon request of Landlord, Tenant shall permit Landlord and its agents and representatives, and Mortgagee, its agents and representatives, to inspect all Subleases affecting the Leased Premises. Tenant covenants that each Sublease shall provide that the Subtenant thereunder shall be required from time to time, upon request of Landlord or Tenant, to execute, acknowledge and deliver, to and for the benefit of Landlord, an estoppel certificate confirming with respect to such Sublease the information set forth in Section 20.11 hereof.

Section 15.4 Additional Sublease Requirements. Tenant covenants and agrees that all Subleases hereafter entered into affecting the Leased Premises shall provide that (a) they are subject to this Lease and that the principals of the Subtenant acknowledge that they have read this Lease and accept the terms hereof, (b) the term thereof shall not end less than one (1) day prior to the Expiration Date hereof, unless Landlord shall consent otherwise, which consent may be withheld in Landlord's sole and absolute discretion, (c) the Subtenants will not do, authorize or execute any act, deed or thing whatsoever or fail to take any such action which will or may cause Tenant to be in violation of any of its obligations under this Lease, (d) the Subtenants will not pay rent or other sums under the Subleases with Tenant for more than one (1) month in advance, (e) the Subtenants shall give to Landlord at the address and otherwise in the manner specified in Section 13.1 hereof, a copy of any notice of default by Tenant as the landlord under the Subleases at the same time as, and whenever, any such notice of default shall be given by the Subtenants to Tenant; and (f) all of the representations, warranties and covenants given by Tenant to Landlord in this Lease, including but not limited to all reporting requirements and covenants set forth in Section 7.4 above, shall be made and given by each Subtenant for the benefit of Landlord, Mortgagee, and their respective successors and assigns.

Section 15.5 Transfers in Bankruptcy. (a) In the event of a transfer pursuant to the provisions of Title 11 of the United States Code or any statute of similar purpose or nature (the "Bankruptcy Code"), all consideration payable or otherwise to be delivered in connection with such transfer shall be paid or delivered to Landlord, shall be and remain the exclusive property of Landlord and shall not constitute property of Tenant or of the estate of Tenant within the meaning of the Bankruptcy Code. Any consideration constituting Landlord's property pursuant to the immediately preceding sentence and not paid or delivered to Landlord shall be held in trust for the benefit of Landlord and be promptly paid or delivered to Landlord. For purposes of this Section 15.5, the term "consideration" shall mean and include money, services, property and any other thing of value such as payment of costs, cancellation or forgiveness of indebtedness, discounts, rebates, barter and the like. If any such consideration is in a form other than cash (such as in kind, equity interests, indebtedness earn-outs, or other deferred payments, consulting or management fees, etc.), Landlord shall be entitled to receive in cash the then present fair market value of such consideration. If Tenant assumes this Lease and proposes to assign the same pursuant to the provisions of the Bankruptcy Code to any person or entity who shall have made a bona fide offer to accept an assignment of this Lease on terms acceptable to Tenant, then notice of such proposed assignment shall be given to Landlord by Tenant no later than fifteen (15) days after receipt of such offer by Tenant, but in any event no later than ten (10) days prior to the date that Tenant shall file any application or motion with a court of competent jurisdiction for authority and approval to enter into such assumption and assignment. Such notice shall set forth (a) the name and address of the assignee, (b) all of the terms and conditions of such offer, and (c) the proposal for providing adequate assurance of future performance by such person under the Lease, including, without limitation, the assurance referred to in Section 365 of the Bankruptcy Code. Any person or entity to which this Lease is assigned pursuant to the provisions of the Bankruptcy Code shall be deemed without further act or deed to have assumed all of the obligations arising under this Lease from and after the date of such assignment. Any such assignee shall execute and deliver to Landlord upon demand an instrument confirming such assumption.

(b) The term "adequate assurance of future performance" as used in this Lease shall mean (in addition to the assurances called for in Bankruptcy Code Section 365(1)) that any proposed assignee shall, among other things, (i) deposit with Landlord on the assumption of this Lease an amount equal to the greater of (x) two (2) times the then monthly Fixed Rent and Additional Rent or (y) such other amount deemed by the Bankruptcy Court to be reasonably necessary for the adequate protection of Landlord under the circumstances, as security for the faithful performance and observance by such assignee of the terms and obligations of this Lease, (ii) furnish Landlord with financial statements of such assignee for the prior three (3) calendar years, as finally determined after an audit and certified as correct by a certified public accountant, which financial statements shall show a net worth at least equal to the amount of the deposit referenced in (i) above, (iii) if determined by the Bankruptcy Court to be appropriate under the circumstances, grant to Landlord a security interest in such property of the proposed assignee as Landlord shall deem necessary to secure such assignee's future performance under this Lease, and (iv) provide such other information or take such action as Landlord, in its reasonable judgment, shall determine is necessary to provide adequate assurance of the performance by such assignee of its obligations under this Lease.

(c) If, at any time after Tenant may have assigned Tenant's interest in this Lease in a proceeding of the type described in Section 16.1 (iv) through (vii), this Lease shall be disaffirmed or rejected in any proceeding of the types described in Section 16.1 (iv) through (vii) hereof, or in any similar proceeding, or in the event of termination of this Lease by reason of any such proceeding or by reason of lapse of time following notice of termination given pursuant to Article XVI based upon any of the Lease Defaults set forth in said Section 16.1 (iv) through (vii) Tenant, upon request of Landlord given within thirty (30) days next following any such disaffirmance, rejection or termination (and actual notice thereof to Landlord in the event of a disaffirmance or rejection or in the event of termination other than by act of Landlord); shall (a) pay to Landlord all Rent due and owing by the assignee to Landlord under this Lease to and including the date of such disaffirmance, rejection or termination, and (b) as "tenant", enter into a new lease with Landlord for a term commencing on the effective date of such disaffirmance, rejection or termination and ending on the expiration date of the term, unless sooner terminated as in such lease provided, at the same Fixed Rent and Additional Rent upon the then executory terms, covenants and conditions as are contained in this Lease, except that (i) Tenant's rights under the new lease shall be subject to the possessory rights, if any, of the assignee under this Lease and the possessory rights of any person claiming through or under such assignee or by virtue of any applicable Law, (ii) such new lease shall require all defaults existing under this Lease to be cured by Tenant with due diligence, and (iii) such new lease shall require Tenant to pay all Rent reserved in this Lease which, had this Lease not been so disaffirmed, rejected or terminated, would have accrued under the provisions of this Lease after the date of such disaffirmance, rejection or termination with respect to any period prior thereto. If Tenant shall default in its obligation to enter into said new lease for a period of ten (10) days next following Landlord's request therefor, then in addition to all other rights and remedies by reason of such default, either at law or in equity, Landlord shall have the same rights and remedies against Tenant as if Tenant had entered into such new lease and such new lease had thereafter been terminated as of the commencement date thereof by reason of Tenant's default thereunder.

Section 15.6 Management Agreement. Tenant agrees and acknowledges that it will not enter into any management agreements during the Term with regard to the Facility except with an entity (i) owned wholly by a an individual principal of Tenant which entity has been received establishment approval from the New York State Department of Health Public Health and Health Planning Council in compliance with 10 NYCRR 600.9(d)(1) and (ii) approved by HUD if the Facility is, or is about to be financed by a HUD program, and/or Mortgagee. Any such management agreement shall be subordinate to Landlord's rights hereunder, to the rights of Mortgagee and to the rights of the Commissioner. Tenant shall cause such manager to execute such documents as are required by Landlord or Mortgagee or by the Commissioner to effect such subordination.

Section 15.7 Memorandum of Lease. This Lease shall not be recorded, but either party may record a memorandum of lease in which shall describe the parties to this Lease, a description of the Leased Premises and a recitation of the Term. The party requesting that the memorandum of lease be recorded shall prepare and pay all costs of recording the memorandum of lease, and the other party agrees to execute at any and all times such instruments as may be reasonably required for such recording. Upon the expiration or earlier termination of this Lease, Landlord may release the memorandum of lease. For this purpose Tenant constitutes and appoints Landlord its true and lawful attorney in fact with full power of substitution to execute a release of such memoranda in the name of Tenant. Such power of attorney shall be deemed to be a power coupled with an interest and cannot be revoked. To the extent any transfer tax, conveyance tax, excise tax, or similar tax is imposed by any Governmental Authority as a result of the recording of such Memorandum of Lease, or is otherwise due and payable as to Tenant's leasehold interest granted pursuant to this Lease, Tenant shall pay same to the applicable Governmental Authority.

(xxix) a default or breach of the provisions set forth in Section 7.4(b) or a report required by Section 7.4 proves to be untrue in any material respect;

(xxx) any act or omission by Tenant or any Subtenant referenced in Section 7.4 that constitutes a default by Landlord under its loan documents with Mortgagee;

(xxxi) Tenant's failure to meet the covenants provided in Section 7.4 (g)

(xxxii) the sale or transfer or attempted sale or transfer of all or any portion of any certificate of need, bid or vote right or other similar authorization relating to any portion of the Facility or the Leased Premises, assignment or subletting in violation of the provisions of Section 15.1;

(xxxiii) the use of any portion of the Premises other than for the intended Use;

(xxxiv) the Facility appears on the Special Focus Facility List, or similar list established by CMS;

(xxxv) Tenant fails to procure the insurance coverage, or less of the insurance coverage, required by this Lease;

(xxxvi) Tenant enters into any corporate integrity agreement, settlement or consent decree, or deferred prosecution agreement with any Governmental Authority;

(xxxvii) Any Governmental Authority assesses a fine or penalty against, or with, Tenant that imposes a payment or fine upon Tenant in excess of $75,000;

(xxxxi) Tenant or any Subtenant fails or refuses to execute escrow certificate required pursuant to Section 20.11, or otherwise complying with the requirements of Section 2.1 within ten (10) days after Tenant's receipt thereof.

Upon the occurrence of a Lease Default, Landlord, may, if Landlord so elects, upon five (5) days written notice of such election, forthwith terminate this Lease and Tenant's right to possession of the Leased Premises and, at Landlord's sole and absolute discretion, accelerate the payment of all Rent for the balance of the Term and declare the same presently due and payable in full provided, however, that with respect to a Lease Default under Section 16.1(a)(iv), this Lease shall automatically terminate. In the event of such Lease termination, Tenant shall immediately pay Landlord the then present value of all such accelerated Rent. Landlord, in addition to all other remedies given to Landlord at law or in equity, may by written notice to Tenant, without terminating this Lease, cause Tenant to apply to the DOH to install a manager and/or management consultant and/or a receiver having the necessary approvals from Governmental Authorities, of Landlord's choice, at Tenant's sole cost and expense or to the extent permitted by applicable law, reenter the Leased Premises by summary proceedings or otherwise. In any event, upon a Lease Default, Landlord may require Tenant to consent to a so-called "Change of Ownership" and Landlord may dispossess Tenant upon approval of the Change of Ownership or Certificate of Need by DOH, it being the understanding that under no circumstances is this Lease to be an asset for Tenant's creditors by operation of law or otherwise. In the event of such reentry, Landlord may relet the Leased Premises without being obligated so to do, and in the event of a reletting may apply the Rent therefrom first to the payment of Landlord's cost and expenses, including consultant and/or expert and attorneys' fees and expenses incurred by reason of such Lease Default, and the cost and expense of reletting including, but not limited to, repairs, renovation, or alteration of the Leased Premises and then to the amount of Rent and all other sums due from or payable by Tenant hereunder, Tenant remaining liable for all other sums due from or payable by Tenant hereunder and for any deficiency. Tenant shall also be liable for and indemnify Landlord against all amounts owed to Medicare, Medicaid, all applicable third-party payor programs, third party payors, or residents, including, but not limited to, any overpayments received by Tenant, relating to the Term. Any and all such deficiencies shall constitute Additional Rent hereunder and shall be payable by Tenant monthly on the date herein provided for the payment of Rent. In addition to the foregoing remedies, Landlord shall immediately be entitled to retain the Security Deposit and draw on and retain proceeds of the Letter of Credit, and thereafter Tenant shall have no further claim, right, title or interest therein to the extent of Landlord's claims only.

Landlord acknowledges that its rights of reentry onto the Leased Premises set forth in this Lease do not confer on Landlord the authority to operate a nursing facility as defined in Article 28 of the Public Health Law on the Leased Premises and agrees that except in the event of a Lease Default Landlord will give the DOH, Tower Building, Empire State Plaza, Albany, NY 12237, notification by certified mail of its intent to reenter the Leased Premises or to initiate dispossession proceedings or that the Lease is due to expire at least thirty (30) days prior to the date on which Landlord intends to exercise a right of reentry or to initiate such proceedings or at least sixty (60) days before expiration of the Lease.

Upon receipt of notice from Landlord of its intent to exercise its right of reentry or upon the service of process in dispossession proceedings and sixty (60) days prior to the expiration of the Lease, Tenant shall immediately notify by certified mail the DOH, Tower Building, Empire State Plaza, Albany, NY 12237 (or its then current address), of the receipt of such notice or service of such process or that the Lease is about to expire.

(b) Except as provided in this Lease to the contrary, Rent and other sums not paid when due (unless paid within any applicable grace period) shall bear interest from the date when the same are first payable under the terms of this Lease until the same shall be paid at an annual rate of interest equal to the Overdue Rate.

(c) Upon the filing of a petition by or against Tenant pursuant to the Bankruptcy Code, Tenant, as debtor and as debtor-in-possession, and any trustee who may be appointed shall: (i) timely perform each and every obligation of Tenant under this Lease until such time as this Lease is either rejected or assumed by order of the United States Bankruptcy Court; (ii) pay monthly in advance on the first day of each month as reasonable compensation for use and occupancy of the Leased Premises an amount equal to the Rent and other charges otherwise due pursuant to this Lease; and (iii) reject or assume this Lease within one hundred twenty (120) days after the filing of such petition under the Bankruptcy Code or within such time period as the Bankruptcy Code may allow. Tenant, as debtor and as debtor-in-possession, and any trustee shall be deemed to have rejected this Lease in the event of the failure to comply with any of the above. Included within and in addition to any other conditions or obligations imposed upon Tenant or its successor, in the event of assumption and/or assignment is the prior written consent of any mortgagee in which this Lease has been assigned as collateral security.

(d) In the event of termination of this Lease by reason of any Lease Default by Tenant, or upon the expiration of the Term, then, and in any of such events, Tenant, upon Landlord's written request, shall to the greatest extent permitted by law, transfer to Landlord or its designees or assigns, or cause its Subsidiaries and/or Affiliates, to transfer to Landlord or its designees or assigns, the following: (i) all federal, state or municipal licenses, certifications, certificates, accreditations, approvals, permits, variances, waivers, provider agreements (including non-governmental) and other authorizations which relate to the operation of the Facility; and (ii) the name of the Facility as then commonly known to the general public. Tenant shall also prepare and file all notices required by applicable law in connection with such termination and shall also prepare and timely file all final Medicare and Medicaid cost reports. In the event Tenant fails or refuses to transfer any such licenses, certifications, certificates, accreditations, approvals, permits, variances, waivers, provider agreements, other authorization or trade name, then this provision shall constitute an act of assignment by Tenant to Landlord or its assigns without the necessity of any further written instrument. For this purpose, Tenant constitutes and appoints Landlord its true and lawful attorney-in-fact with full power of substitution to complete or undertake such replacements in the name of Tenant. Such power of attorney shall be deemed to be a power coupled with an interest and cannot be revoked.

(e) Landlord shall have the option of taking over the operation of the Facility, or having the operation of the Facility taken over by a designee, in the event of a termination of this Lease for any reason, without Landlord or designee assuming any of Tenant's liabilities or obligations, including Tenant's liabilities and obligations with respect to employees, such as vacation, sick leave, health insurance and pension liabilities and Tenant's obligations under applicable law to offer and provide group health continuation coverage. Landlord shall give Tenant written notice of Landlord's intent to exercise the right set forth above, in which event, upon the approval of the DOH of the Change of Ownership, Tenant shall and shall cause the Subtenant to immediately turn over possession and control of the Facility without any further action having to be taken on the part of Landlord. At the request of Landlord, Tenant shall and shall cause the Subtenant to turn over any or all of inventories, personal property (including computer and telecommunications equipment but excluding any leased equipment) vehicles, and material contracts (including hospital, transfer, vendor, and managed care contracts).

(f) No failure of Landlord to enforce any rights or remedies upon default of Tenant shall prejudice or affect the rights of Landlord upon any subsequent or similar default.

(g) In the event of a Lease Default by Tenant of any of the terms, covenants, conditions or provisions of this Lease, which Lease Default is not cured within any applicable grace or cure period, Landlord shall have the right to invoke any remedy permitted to Landlord at law, in equity or otherwise. All remedies available to Landlord are declared to be cumulative and concurrent and the exercise of one shall not preclude or waive the right to exercise any other. No termination of this Lease and no taking or recovering of possession of the Leased Premises shall deprive Landlord of any of its remedies or actions against Tenant and Tenant shall remain liable for all past or future Rent, including all taxes, insurance premiums and all other charges and Rent payable by Tenant under this Lease, during and for the balance of the Term hereof. The bringing of any action for Rent or other default shall not be construed as a waiver of the right to obtain possession of the Premises.

(h) If suit shall be brought for recovery of possession of the Leased Premises, for the recovery of Rent, or any other amount due under the provisions of this Lease, or because of the breach of any other covenant herein contained on the part of Tenant to be kept or performed, and breach shall be established, Tenant shall pay to Landlord all expenses, including reasonable attorney fees, incurred therefor. This subsection shall survive termination of this Lease.

Section 16.2 Facility Operating Deficiencies. On written notice of a request therefor by Landlord to Tenant, upon a Lease Default and for a period of time necessary to fully remedy the Lease Default, Tenant shall engage the services of a consultant, unaffiliated with Tenant and approved by Landlord, which approval shall not be unreasonably withheld, to review the management of the facility for the purpose of making recommendations to remedy the Lease Default. Subject to applicable legal requirements governing confidentiality of patient records, the consultant shall have complete access to the Facility, its records, offices and facilities, in order that it may carry out its duties. Tenant shall cause such consultant to prepare and deliver to Landlord and Tenant a written report of its recommendations within ten (10) days after its engagement. If Tenant shall fail to designate a consultant approved by Landlord as provided above within five (5) days after Tenant's receipt of Landlord's notice, Landlord may designate such consultant by further notice to Tenant. Tenant shall be responsible for payment of all fees and expenses reasonably charged and incurred by the consultant in carrying out its duties. Tenant shall promptly implement any and all reasonable recommendations made by such consultant in order to promptly correct or cure the Lease Default; provided, however, that in no event shall Tenant implement any such recommendations if the same would constitute a violation of applicable legal requirements, violate any rule or regulation of the DOH, or would otherwise cause a Lease Default hereunder (e.g., a transfer or change in use of the Leased Premises), unless Landlord consents in writing to such Lease Default, which consent may be given or withheld in Landlord's sole and absolute discretion. Nothing herein shall impose any liability or obligation on Landlord to (a) request the appointment of a consultant or (b) otherwise remedy the Facility Operating Deficiency(ies) nor shall it deem Landlord an operator of the Facility.

Section 16.3 Receivership.

Tenant acknowledges that one of the rights and remedies available under applicable law for nursing facilities which fail to comply with the conditions of participation for Medicare or Medicaid is to apply to a court of competent jurisdiction for the appointment of a receiver to take possession of the Facility, to collect the rents, issues, profits and income of the Facility and to manage the operation of the Facility. Tenant further acknowledges that the revocation, suspension or material limitation of the certification of the Facility for provider status under Medicare or Medicaid (or successor programs) and/or the revocation, suspension or material limitation of a license relating to the operation of the Facility for its intended use under the laws of the State of New York will materially and irreparably impair the value of Landlord's investment in the Facility. Therefore, in the event of a Lease Default, and in addition to any other right or remedy of Landlord under this Lease, at the request of Landlord, Tenant shall request DOH to, or to the extent permissible under law, Tenant shall, petition any appropriate court, for the appointment of a receiver to take possession of the Facility, to manage the operation of the Facility under Tenant's licenses and certifications, to collect and disburse all rents, issues, profits and income generated thereby and to preserve or replace to the extent possible any such license and provider certification for the Facility or to otherwise substitute the licensee or provider thereof. The receiver shall be entitled to a reasonable fee for its services as a receiver. All such fees and other expenses of the receivership estate shall be added to the monthly Rent due to Landlord under this Lease as Additional Rent. Tenant hereby irrevocably stipulates to the voluntary appointment of a receiver under such circumstances and for such purposes and agrees not to contest such appointment.

Section 16.4 Tenant's Waiver, Mitigation. In connection with the exercise by Landlord of any of its remedies under this Section 16, including the termination of this Lease, in whole or in part, Tenant waives, to the maximum extent permitted by applicable Laws, (1) any right of redemption, re-entry or repossession, (2) the benefit of any moratorium laws or any laws now or hereafter in force exempting property from liability for rent or for debt, (3) any duty on the part of Landlord to mitigate the damages recoverable from Tenant on account of any Lease Default by Tenant, except that notwithstanding the foregoing or anything in this Lease to the contrary, Landlord agrees to comply with any duty to mitigate damages where applicable Laws do not allow Tenant to waive such right, (4) the right to interpose any counterclaim (other than compulsory counterclaims) in any summary proceeding instituted by Landlord against Tenant in any court or in any action instituted by Landlord in any court for unpaid Rent under this Lease, and (5) any other right provided to Tenant under applicable Laws relating to a breach of or Lease Default under this Lease, including any rights to cure such breach or Lease Default.

ENTRY AND REIMBURSEMENT RIGHTS OF LANDLORD

Section 17.1 Entry and Reimbursement Rights of Landlord. In addition to those rights set forth in Section 7.2 of this Lease, Landlord reserves the right at all reasonable times during business hours and upon at least twenty-four (24) hours' advance oral notice to go upon and inspect the Facility and every part thereof (subject to applicable Laws pertaining to patient confidentiality and privacy and the confidentiality of medical records). If Landlord shall make any payments or perform any repairs on behalf of Tenant which are Tenant's obligation and which Tenant has failed to make after applicable notice from Landlord, then any reasonable amounts so paid by Landlord are agreed and declared to be Additional Rent, and shall be due and payable to Landlord by Tenant upon submission to Tenant of an invoice, bill, or statement therefor, together with interest charged at the Overdue Rate commencing on the date of such invoice, bill, or statement. Nothing in this Section 17.1 shall impose any liability or obligation upon Landlord.

Section 19.3 Injunctive Relief. Notwithstanding anything to the contrary set forth in this Lease, the Parties hereto understand and agree that: (a) each term of Article XIX of this Lease is fully required to protect Landlord's interests, and that no such term confers a benefit on Landlord that is disproportionate to the detriment imposed on Tenant, if any; (b) the remedy at law for any breach by Tenant of Article XIX would be inadequate; (c) the damages flowing from such breach are not readily susceptible to measurement in monetary terms; and (d) Landlord shall be entitled to immediate injunctive relief restraining any breach thereof. Tenant shall, without charge, at any time and from time to time, within ten (10) days after written request by Landlord or Mortgagee, deliver a written instrument to Landlord or any other person specified by Landlord, duly executed and acknowledged, certifying the following and such other matters as may be reasonably required by Landlord, including, without limitation, current financial information relating to Tenant:

- (a) That Tenant has accepted and is in possession of the Leased Premises;
- (b) That this Lease is unmodified and in full force and effect or, if there has been any modification, that the same is in full force and effect as so modified, and identifying any such modification;
- (c) Whether or not there are then existing any setoffs or defenses in favor of Tenant against the enforcement of any of the terms, covenants, and conditions of this Lease by Landlord and, if so, specifying the same, and also whether or not Landlord has observed and performed all of the terms, covenants, and conditions on the part of Landlord to be observed and performed and, if not, specifying same;
- (d) That no Lease Defaults exist or are continuing; and
- (e) The dates to which Rent and all other charges hereunder have been paid.

Section 20.12 Confidentiality. (a) Landlord and Tenant agree to keep all aspects of (but not the existence of) this Lease confidential, and shall not disclose to any person other than the members, managers, owners, directors, officers, employees, agents, advisors, affiliates, brokers, lenders, attorneys or accountants (collectively the "Representatives") of the Parties hereto on a need-to-know basis, or to any Governmental Authority pursuant to regulatory authority, any confidential or proprietary information, knowledge or data concerning the business, affairs, operations, secrets, dealings or finances of the other party furnished directly or indirectly by such other party (collectively referred to as the "Confidential Information"). As used in this Lease, the term "Confidential Information" does not include any information which: (i) at the time of disclosure is generally available to and known by the public (other than as a result of a disclosure directly or indirectly by either party or their Representatives); (ii) was available to either party on a non-confidential basis from a source other than a party to this Lease or its Representatives, provided that such source is not and was not bound by a confidentiality agreement with the party hereto; (iii) has been independently acquired or developed by either party or their Representatives without violating any of the obligations hereunder; (iv) is required by law to be disclosed; or (v) relates to the tax structure, tax strategy or tax planning of this transaction.

(f) In the event that either party or any of the Representatives receives notice of a legal request for disclosure of any of the Confidential Information (by deposition, interrogatory, request for documents, subpoena, civil investigative demand or similar process), the party receiving such notice ("Receiving Party") shall promptly notify the other party ("Notified Party") so that the Notified Party may seek a protective order or other appropriate remedy if it chooses to do so. Failure by the Notified Party to take action to seek a protective order or other remedy and to notify the Receiving Party of such action prior to the required disclosure date, shall be deemed a waiver of the provisions of this section. In the event that a protective order or other remedy is not obtained or that the Notified Party waives compliance with the provisions hereof, the Receiving Party shall exercise its best efforts to obtain a confidentiality agreement or protective order concerning the Confidential Information, and in the absence thereof, shall disclose only that portion of the Confidential Information which it is advised by written opinion of counsel is legally required to be disclosed, or which is compelled by court order.

(g) In the event of any breach or threatened breach hereof, Landlord or Tenant shall be entitled to equitable relief, including a temporary preliminary and permanent injunction and specific performance, in addition to all other remedies available to them at law or in equity.

(h) Notwithstanding anything herein to the contrary, Landlord (and each employee, agent, or other Representative of Landlord) may disclose to any and all persons, without limitation of any kind, the tax treatment and tax structure of this Lease, related documents and all materials of any kind (including opinions or other tax analyses) that are provided to Landlord relating to such tax treatment and tax structure. For this purpose, the tax treatment of a transaction is the purported or claimed U.S. federal income tax treatment of the transaction and the tax structure of a transaction is any fact that may be relevant to understanding the purported or claimed U.S. federal income tax treatment of the transaction.

Section 20.13 Holdover. If, at the expiration of the Term, or earlier termination of the Lease, Tenant continues to occupy the Leased Premises except during a Reimbursement Period, with Landlord's consent, such holding over shall not constitute a renewal of this Lease, but Tenant shall be a Tenant from month-to-month at 300% of the most recent Rent payable by Tenant hereunder, at Landlord's sufferance, and under the same terms and conditions as were in force and effect at the expiration of the Term (except only as to the Term), and except that in the event Tenant shall continue to occupy the Leased Premises after the expiration of the Term, without a duly executed extension agreement in writing having been entered into by and between Landlord and Tenant, then if Landlord shall suffer any damage, loss, cost or expense as a result of such holdover, then Tenant, in addition to such increased Rent, shall pay the amount thereof to Landlord immediately on demand. The provisions of this Section shall be deemed to be "an agreement expressly provided" otherwise as provided in Section 232-C of the Real Property Law of the State of New York, Holding Over. Nothing contained herein shall constitute the consent, express or implied, of Landlord to the holding over of Tenant after the Expiration Date or earlier termination of this Lease, nor shall anything contained herein be deemed to limit Landlord's remedies.

Section 20.14 Tenant's Waiver of Claim for Physical Injury. Landlord and Landlord's Indemnitees shall not be liable for, and Tenant waives and indemnifies Landlord and Landlord's Indemnitees against all claims for, damage or injury to person or property sustained by Tenant or any person claiming through Tenant, or otherwise, resulting from any accident or occurrence in, about, or upon the Leased Premises, whether occurring as a result of Landlord's active or passive negligence, or otherwise.

(a) Such waiver shall include, but not be limited to, claims for damage resulting from: (i) any equipment or appliances becoming out of repair or any other capital improvement, replacement, repair or maintenance; (ii) injury done or occasioned by wind; (iii) any defect in or failure of plumbing, heating, or air conditioning equipment, electric wiring, gas, water and steam pipes, stairs, rail or walks; (iv) broken glass; (v) the backing up of any sewer pipe or washstand, water closet, waste pipe, drain or any other pipe or tank in, upon or about the Leased Premises; (vi) the escape of steam or hot water; (vii) water, snow or ice being upon, falling from or coming through the roof, skylight, trap door, stairs, walks or any other place upon or near the Leased Premises; (viii) the falling of any fixture, plaster, drywall or stucco; and (ix) any act, omission or negligence of trespassers.

Section 20.15 Binding Effect. This Lease does not constitute an offer to lease and shall not bind Landlord or Tenant unless and until each such party elects to be bound hereby by executing and delivering to the other party an executed original counterpart hereof.

Section 20.16 Default by Landlord. Landlord shall in no event be charged with default in the performance of any of its obligations hereunder unless and until Landlord shall have failed to perform such obligations within sixty (60) days of when they are due to be performed, except in cases when documents are required or consents needed in less than sixty (60) days in which case failure to render timely shall be deemed to be approval or consent of Landlord (or such additional time as is reasonably required to correct any such default) except for Landlord's default in making timely payment of taxes and interest, in which case Landlord shall be in default when such payments are delinquent or past due. Tenant agrees to give to the holder of record of any mortgage covering the Leased Premises notice simultaneously with any notice given to Landlord to correct any default of Landlord as hereinabove provided and agrees that the holder of record of any mortgage shall have the right, after receipt of notice of such default, within sixty (60) days after the expiration of Tenant's applicable cure period with respect thereto, to correct or remedy such default before Tenant may take any action under this Lease by reason of such default. Landlord shall also give to the holder of any mortgage copies of any notices of default which it may give or send to Tenant.

Section 20.17 Liens. Tenant shall not do or suffer anything to be done whereby the Leased Premises, or any portion thereof, or any interest therein, may be encumbered by any liens of mechanics, laborers, or materialmen, chattel mortgages or any other liens. Tenant shall, whenever and as often as any such liens are filed against the Leased Premises, or any portion thereof, purporting to be for labor or material furnished or to be furnished to Tenant, discharge the same of record within thirty (30) days after the date of filing by payment, bonding or otherwise, as provided by law. In the event of the default of Tenant in procuring this discharge, as aforesaid, of any such lien, Landlord may, with five (5) days prior notice, procure such discharge and the expenses incurred by Landlord in obtaining such discharge shall be paid by Tenant as Additional Rent within ten (10) days after notice from Landlord of the amount thereof.

Section 20.18 Publicity. All news releases, publicity or advertising by Tenant or their Affiliates through any media intended to reach the general public which refers to Landlord, or its Affiliates, this Lease or the purchase of the Real Property shall be subject to the prior written approval of Landlord.

Section 20.19 Trial by Jury. TENANT HEREBY AGREES NOT TO ELECT A TRIAL BY JURY OF ANY ISSUE TRIABLE OF RIGHT BY JURY, AND WAIVES ANY RIGHT TO TRIAL BY JURY FULLY TO THE EXTENT THAT ANY SUCH RIGHT SHALL NOW OR HEREAFTER EXIST WITH REGARD TO THIS LEASE, OR ANY CLAIM, COUNTERCLAIM OR OTHER ACTION ARISING IN CONNECTION THEREWITH. THIS WAIVER OF RIGHT TO TRIAL BY JURY IS GIVEN KNOWINGLY AND VOLUNTARILY BY TENANT, AND IS INTENDED TO ENCOMPASS INDIVIDUALLY EACH INSTANCE AND EACH ISSUE AS TO WHICH THE RIGHT TO A TRIAL BY JURY WOULD OTHERWISE ACCRUE. LANDLORD IS HEREBY AUTHORIZED TO FILE A COPY OF THIS PARAGRAPH IN ANY PROCEEDING AS CONCLUSIVE EVIDENCE OF THIS WAIVER BY TENANT.

Section 20.20 Construction and Interpretation. The Parties have each negotiated the terms and conditions hereof and reviewed this Lease carefully. It is the intent of the Parties that each word, phrase, sentence and other part hereof shall be given its plain meaning, and that rules of interpretation or construction of contracts that would construe any ambiguity of any part hereof against the draftsman, by virtue of being the draftsman, shall not apply.

Section 20.21 Accord and Satisfaction. No payment by Tenant or receipt by Landlord of a lesser amount than shall be due hereunder, shall be deemed to be other than a payment on account nor shall any endorsement or statement on any check or any letter accompanying any check or payment as rent be given any effect or be deemed an accord and satisfaction, and Landlord may accept such checks without prejudice to any other rights or remedies which Landlord may have.

Section 20.22 Captions and Headings. The captions and headings set forth in this Lease are included for convenience and reference only, and the words obtained therein shall in no way be held or deemed to define, limit, describe, explain, modify, amplify or add to the interpretation, construction or meaning of, or the scope or intent of, this Lease, or any parts hereof or thereof.

Section 20.23 Time is of the Essence. Time is of the essence of each and every term, condition, covenant and warranty set forth herein or in any of the other Lease Documents.

Section 20.24 Successors and Assigns. This Lease and the other Lease Documents shall (a) be binding upon Tenant and Tenant's legal representatives and permitted successors and permitted assigns, and (b) inure to the benefit of Landlord and any other person or entity who may now or hereafter hold the interest of Landlord under this Lease and their respective successors and assigns.

Section 20.25 No Third Party Beneficiaries. This Lease is solely for the benefit of Landlord, its successors and assigns, and Tenant, and nothing contained herein shall confer upon any person other than Tenant or Landlord or their respective successors and assigns, any right to insist upon or to enforce the performance or observance of any of the obligations contained herein, except only as may be otherwise specifically provided for in this Lease. All conditions to the obligations of Landlord to advance or make available proceeds of insurance or condemnation are imposed solely and exclusively for the benefit of Landlord, its successors and assigns. No other person or entity shall have standing to require satisfaction of such conditions in accordance with their terms, and no other person or entity shall, under any circumstances, be a beneficiary of such conditions, any or all of which may be freely waived in whole or in part by Landlord at any time, if in Landlord's sole and absolute discretion, Landlord deems it advisable or desirable to do so.

Section 20.26 Non-Competition and Non-Solicitation.

Tenant agrees to the following restrictive covenants and agreements which covenants are not severable from this Lease and which are included to protect the value of the Leased Premises. Accordingly, Tenant agrees that it and their Affiliates will not, during the Term of this Lease at any time for a period of two (2) years after the expiration or early termination of this Lease, directly or indirectly, together or alone or in conjunction with any others, engage in the following:

- (i) compete with the business conducted at the Facility, and for those purposes will not own, manage, operate, join, control or participate in, or be connected as an officer, employee, partner, director, trustee or otherwise in any manner with a company which owns or operates (or provides consulting and/or management services to any skilled nursing facility located within the Primary Market of the Facility or (ii) any company providing hospice services in the Commonwealth of Massachusetts, or, otherwise lend credit to a person, firm or entity of a type which they prohibited from owning.

(ii) solicit or hire any then current or former (having provided services during the period commencing one year prior to each date of solicitation or hire) employees of the Facility (except for employment at the Facility).

(iii) solicit or cause any then current resident of the Facility to move to another nursing facility unless, except during the Term of this Lease the Facility can no longer provide adequate care for such resident.

Tenant acknowledges and agrees that the remedy at law for any breach or threat of breach of the foregoing agreements will be inadequate and that Landlord shall be entitled to injunctive relief in addition to any rights or remedies available to it for any breach or threat of breach hereof. The foregoing covenants shall be deemed to be severable and if the same be held invalid by reason of length of time or area covered, or both, the Tenant agrees that such length of time or area covered, or either of them, shall be reduced to the extent necessary to cure such invalidity and the provisions hereof shall be enforceable to the fullest extent permitted by law.

Section 20.27 Subdivision. If the Leased Premises are in excess of that which is required to operate the Facility in accordance with the Intended Use, Landlord may subdivide the Leased Premises and amend this Lease to include only so much of the Leased Premises as is necessary to operate the Facility in accordance with the Primary Intended Use. If Landlord subdivides the Leased Premises there shall be no change in the Rent payable hereunder. After any such subdivision, Tenant shall have no rights to any land which is no longer part of the Leased Premises and Landlord may sell, lease or develop any land which is no longer part of the Leased Premises. If Landlord elects to subdivide the Leased Premises Tenant shall cooperate with Landlord and take all actions reasonably requested by Landlord to effect such subdivision.

Section 20.28 Landlord Not in Control; No Partnership. None of the covenants or other provisions contained in this Lease shall, or shall be deemed to, give Landlord the right or power to exercise control over the affairs or management of Tenant, the power of Landlord being limited to the rights to exercise the remedies referred to in this Lease. The relationship between Tenant, on the one hand, and Landlord, on the other hand, is, and at all times shall remain, solely that of landlord and tenant. No covenant or provision of this Lease is intended, nor shall it be deemed or construed, to create a partnership, joint venture, agency or common interest in profits or income between Landlord, on the one hand, and Tenant, on the other hand. Landlord undertakes or assumes no responsibility or duty to Tenant or to any other person with respect to the Facility or this Lease, except as expressly provided in this Lease; and notwithstanding any other provision of this Lease (a) Landlord shall not be construed as, a partner, joint venturer, alter ego, manager, controlling person or other business associate or participant of any kind of Tenant or its stockholders, members, or partners and Landlord never intends to ever assume such status; (b) Landlord shall not in any event be liable for any debts, expenses or losses incurred or sustained by Tenant; and (c) Landlord shall not be deemed responsible for or a participant in any acts, omissions or decisions of Tenant or their stockholders, members, or partners. Landlord, on the one hand, and Tenant, on the other hand, disclaim any intention to create any partnership, joint venture, agency or common interest in profits or income between Landlord, on the one hand, and Tenant, on the other hand, or any sharing of liabilities, losses, costs or expenses.

Section 20.29 Tenant Cooperation. Tenant agrees to cooperate with Landlord in providing, and upon request by Landlord or its lender, Tenant shall provide or cause its subtenants to provide, such documents, information, financial reports, and such other items as may be required by Mortgagee in connection with Landlord's loan or loans to acquire the Leased Premises. Tenant agrees to cause its outside counsel to provide updated healthcare opinions required by Mortgagee in connection with the healthcare operations by Tenant or its subtenants at the facility, and if required by Mortgagee, an opinion of counsel as to the due formation of Tenant and its subtenants and the execution by said parties, and Tenant Affiliates, of the Lease, all subleases, all guaranties of the Lease, and any other documents executed by such parties in connection with the loan(s) from Mortgagee to Landlord. Tenant agrees to execute, and cause the subtenants to execute, SNDAs in form and substance required by Mortgagee and by its prospective lender who will be making HUD-insured loans to Landlord. Tenant further agrees to cooperate with Landlord and with its lenders who are processing and will be making HUD Loans to Landlord.

Section 20.30 Capitalized Terms. To the extent capitalized terms used herein are not defined, they shall have the same meaning as capitalized terms in the Loan Documents.

Section 20.31 Affiliates. The term "Affiliate" shall mean, as to any Person, any other Person that, directly or indirectly, is in control of, is controlled by or is under common control with such Person or is a director or officer of such Person or of an Affiliate of such Person.

ARTICLE XXI

REMEDIES CUMULATIVE

Section 21.1 The rights and remedies set forth under this Lease are in addition to all other rights and remedies afforded to Landlord under any of the other documents contemplated under this Lease ("Lease Documents") or at law or in equity, all of which are hereby reserved by Landlord, and this Lease is made and accepted without prejudice to any such rights and remedies. All of the rights and remedies of Landlord under each of the Lease Documents shall be separate and cumulative and may be exercised concurrently or successively in Landlord's sole and absolute discretion.

ARTICLE XXII

LIMITATION OF LIABILITY

Section 22.1 Liability. No member, manager, officer, shareholder, employee or agent of Landlord or its respective affiliates shall be held to any personal liability, jointly, or severally, for any obligation of, or claim against Landlord under this Lease. All persons dealing with Landlord, in any way, shall look only to the assets of Landlord for the payment of any sum or the performance of any obligations.

Section 22.2 Consequential Damages. Under no circumstances shall Landlord be liable to Tenant or any subtenant or Affiliate of Tenant for any consequential, specified, exemplary or permitted damages.

Section 22.3 Liability Limited to Interest in Premises. Tenant shall look solely to Landlord's interest in the Leased Premises owned by Landlord to satisfy any liability arising under this Lease. It is specifically agreed that no constituent partner in Landlord or officer, director, member, manager or employee of Landlord shall ever be personally liable for any such judgment or for the payment of any monetary obligation to Tenant. Except as otherwise expressly provided herein, in no event shall Landlord ever be liable to Tenant for any indirect or consequential damages suffered by Tenant from whatever cause.

ARTICLE XXIII

(a) All Medicare and Medicaid provider agreements, certificates of need, if applicable, certifications, governmental licenses, permits, regulatory agreements or other agreements and approvals, including certificates of operation, completion and occupancy, and state nursing facility licenses or other licenses required by Health Care Authorities (as defined in the Lease) for the legal use, occupancy and operation of the Facility (collectively, the "Health Care Licenses") for the Facility have been obtained by the party required to hold such Health Care Licenses and are in full force and effect, including approved provider status in any approved third-party payor program. Each Subtenant (hereinafter "Operator") owns and/or possesses, and holds free from restrictions or conflicts with the rights of others, all such Health Care Licenses and will operate or cause the Facility to be operated in such a manner that the Health Care Licenses shall remain in full force and effect;

(b) The Facility is duly licensed as a skilled nursing facility as required under the applicable laws of the State of New York. The licensed bed capacity of the Facility and the actual bed count operated at the Facility is 160. The Tenant has not applied to reduce the number of licensed or certified beds of the Facility or to move or transfer the right to any and all of the licensed or certified beds of the Facility to any other location or to amend or otherwise change the Facility and/or the number of beds approved by the DOH or other applicable state licensing agency, and there are no proceedings or actions pending or contemplated to reduce the number of licensed or certified beds of the Facility;

(c) The Health Care License with respect to the Facility (i) has not been and will not be (A) transferred to any location other than the Facility or (B) pledged as collateral security (other than any pledge as collateral security to Tenant's accounts receivable lender approved by Landlord which pledge is subject to the interests of (x) Landlord under the Lease and (y) Mortgagee, including the liens and security interests of the Loan Documents), (ii) is and will continue to be held free from restrictions or known conflicts that would materially impair the use or operation of the Facility as intended, and (iii) is not provisional, probationary, or restricted in any way, except in instances where a Governmental Authority or Health Care Authority has issued a provisional, probationary or restricted license, permit or certification in the ordinary course pending issuance of a final license, permit or certification;

(d) Tenant has or will take any action to rescind, withdraw, revoke, amend, modify, supplement or otherwise alter the nature, tenor or scope of any Health Care

License or applicable provider payment program participation other than non-material alterations effected in the ordinary course of business;

(e) Tenant and the operation of the Facility are in material compliance with the applicable provisions of the Laws and all orders, standards, policies, restrictions or rules of any Health Care Authority having jurisdiction over the ownership, use, occupancy or operation of the Facility, including (i) staffing requirements, (ii) health and fire safety codes including quality and safety standards, (iii) accepted professional standards and principles that apply to the Operator's provision of services at the Facility, (iv) federal, state or local laws, rules, regulations or published interpretations or policies relating to the prevention of fraud and abuse, (v) insurance, reimbursement and cost reporting requirements, government payment program requirements and disclosure of ownership and related information requirements, (vi) requirements of applicable Health Care Authorities, including those relating to the Facility's physical structure and environment, licensing, quality and adequacy of nursing facility care, distributions of pharmaceuticals, rate setting, equipment, personnel, operating policies, and additions of Facility and services, and (vii) any other applicable laws, regulations or agreements for reimbursement for the type of care or services provided by Tenant and/ with respect to the Facility. As used herein, "material compliance" means a level of compliance that would keep Tenant and/ (and the operation of the Facility) free from any final orders or sanctions by any Governmental Authority or Health Care Authority having jurisdiction over the operation of the Facility and would not adversely affect Tenant's and/'s operations, including, but not limited to, its right to receive reimbursement or insurance payments;

(f) Tenant and the Facility are each in material compliance with the requirements for participation in the Medicare and Medicaid programs with respect to the Facility that currently participates in such programs and has a current provider agreement under Title XVIII and/or XIX of the Social Security Act which is in full force and effect. Facility has not had any deficiencies on its most recent survey (standard or complaint) that would result in a denial of payment for new admissions with no opportunity to correct prior to termination. The Facility had not any deficiencies at "level G" or above on its most recent survey (standard or complaint), nor has Tenant been cited with any substandard quality of care deficiencies (as that term is defined in Part 488 of 42 C.F.R.) for the past two consecutive surveys. The Facility has not been designated as a Special Focus Facility (as such term is defined by the Centers for Medicare and Medicaid Services Special Focus Facility Program);

(g) Neither Tenant nor the Facility is a target of, participant in, or subject to any action, proceeding, suit, audit, investigation or sanction by any Health Care Authority or any other administrative or investigative body or entity or any other third party payor or any patient or resident (including, without limitation, whistleblower suits, or suits brought pursuant to federal or state False Claims Acts, and Medicaid/Medicare/State fraud/abuse laws, but excluding medical malpractice claims and other civil liability lawsuits for which the Facility is maintaining insurance coverage in the ordinary course of business) which may result, directly or indirectly or with the passage of time, in the imposition of a fine, penalty, alternative, interim or final sanction, a lower rate certification, recoupment, recovery, suspension or discontinuance of all or part of reimbursement from any Health Care Authority, third-party payor, insurance carrier or private payor, a lower reimbursement rate for services rendered to eligible patients, or any other civil or criminal remedy, or which could reasonably be expected to have a material adverse effect on Landlord, Tenant, or the operation of the Facility, including the Facility's ability to accept or retain residents, or which could result in the appointment of a receiver or manager, or in the modification, limitation, annulment, revocation, transfer, surrender, suspension or other impairment of a Health Care License, or affect Tenant's participation in the Medicare, Medicaid, or third-party payor program, as applicable, or any successor program thereto, or current rate certification, nor has any such action, proceeding, suit, investigation or audit been threatened;

(h) There are no agreements with residents of the Facility or with any other persons or organizations that deviate in any material adverse respect from or that conflict with any statutory or regulatory requirements. All resident records at the Facility, including patient and/or resident accounts records, are true, complete, and correct in all material respects;

(i) Other than the Medicare, Medicaid, and Veteran Administration programs, Tenant is not a participant in any federal, state or local program whereby any federal, state or local government or quasi-governmental body, or any intermediary, agency, board or other authority or entity may have the right to recover funds with respect to any Individual Property by reason of the advance of federal, state or local funds, including, without limitation, those authorized under the Hill-Burton Act (42 U.S.C. 291, et seq.). Tenant has received no notice, and is not aware of any violation of applicable antitrust laws;

(j) Tenant's private payor, Medicaid, Medicare, and/or managed care company, insurance company or other third-party insurance accounts receivable with respect to the Facility are free of any liens and Tenant has not pledged any of its receivables as collateral security for any loan or indebtedness;

PRELIMINARY STATEMENT

Plaintiff, White Plains Healthcare Properties I, LLC (“WPH Properties”), and third-party defendants, CCC Equities, LLC (“CCCE”), Project Equity Consulting, The Congress Companies (“Congress”), Howard Fensterman and William Nicholson (collectively, “third-party defendants”), by their attorneys, DelBello, Donnellan, Weingarten, Wise & Wiederkehr, LLP and Abrams, Fensterman, Fensterman, Eisman, Formato, Ferrara, Wolf & Carone, LLP, respectfully submit this memorandum of law in support of their motion for an order, pursuant to CPLR § 3211(a)(5) and 3211(a)(7) dismissing the counterclaims and third-party complaint (collectively, the “Claims”) asserted by defendants/third-party plaintiffs, HBL SNF, LLC (“HBL”), Lizer Jozefovic (“Jozefovic”) and Mark Neuman (“Neuman”) (collectively, “defendants”).

SUMMARY OF ARGUMENT

This action concerns a nursing home facility developed, financed, constructed and owned by WPH Properties located at 116-120 Church Street, White Plains, New York. WPH Properties leased the nursing home to HBL, an entity controlled by Jozefovic, which is the operator of the facility. WPH Properties commenced this action on September 18, 2020 seeking to recover the amounts due from HBL to WPH Properties as a result of HBL’s defaults under the lease, and a related letter of intent. The defendants filed an answer on November 5, 2020 asserting the Claims for an accounting, interest, breach of contract, fraud, fraud in the inducement and bad faith. In essence, the defendants assert that that WPH Properties and the third-party defendants failed to meet their obligations under a development agreement and the lease with respect to development, financing and construction of the nursing home facility.

The Claims should be dismissed, pursuant to CPLR 3211(a)(5) and (a)(7) because they have been released as against WPH Properties and fail to state viable causes of action.

First, WPH Properties and HBL are parties to the development agreement, which, as more fully demonstrated below, expressly provides that WPH Properties has fulfilled all its obligations and responsibilities. Pursuant to the development agreement, the Claims against WPH Properties -- asserted in the first, second and third causes of action -- were released and discharged upon substantial completion of the nursing home, which occurred in September 2019 before HBL took possession. The Claims were released as against WPH Properties pursuant to the lease as well. Under the lease, the defendants waived any claims they may have against WPH Properties in law or equity with respect to any aspect of the nursing home facility. The Claims asserted against WPH Properties in the first, second and third causes of action should therefore be dismissed pursuant to CPLR 3211(a)(5).

The defendants' first, second, fourth, fifth and sixth causes of action should be dismissed as well under CPLR 3211(a)(7) for failure to state a claim.

The first cause of action demanding an accounting should be dismissed because the defendants do not and cannot allege a fiduciary relationship between the parties, which is necessary to obtain an accounting.

The second cause of action seeks "imputed interest" on a purported loan of $2,200,000 made by HBL to WPH Properties, but that claim is not viable because, even assuming that the $2,200,000 was in fact a loan, the second cause of action expressly pleads that the parties made no provision for interest on the alleged loan.

The fourth, fifth and sixth causes of action alleging fraud in the inducement, bad faith and fraud should be dismissed because they: (i) are duplicative of the defendants' breach of contract claim; (ii) fail to satisfy the applicable pleading standard of CPLR 3016(b), and (iii) fail to state viable claims for fraud, bad faith or fraud in the inducement.

STATEMENT OF FACTS

A. Background.

WPH Properties developed, financed, constructed and owns a brand new, state-of-the-art, 160-bed skilled nursing home located at 116-120 Church Street, White Plains, New York (the “Facility”). Affirmation of Alfred E. Donnellan dated February 3, 2021 (the “Donnellan affirmation” or “Donnellan aff.”), ex. A, ¶ 2. HBL, an entity controlled by Jozefovic, is the tenant and operator of the Facility. WPH Properties, as developer/landlord and HBL, as tenant/operator, are parties to a development agreement (the “Development Agreement”) and an amended and restated operating lease (the “Lease”), both dated as of November 19, 2015., Donnellan aff., exs. C (Development Agreement) and D (Lease). On July 12, 2017 WPH Properties and HBL entered into the renegotiated, amended and restated Lease, which remained dated as of November 19, 2015. Pursuant to the Development Agreement and the Lease WPH Properties designed, constructed and leased the Facility to HBL. Donnellan aff., ex. C, at 1, ¶¶ 1-4. The Lease also obligated HBL to deliver a guarantee of all obligations owed by HBL under the Lease from HBL’s principals, Jozefovic and Neuman. Donnellan aff., ex. D, at §7.1. This action concerns the material default of HBL with respect to HBL’s obligations under the Lease and enforcement of the unconditional guaranties executed by Jozefovic and Neuman in favor of WPH Properties. Donnellan ex. A.

On August 22, 2019, after constructing the Facility in full compliance with its obligations under the Development Agreement, WPH Properties obtained a temporary certificate of occupancy for the Facility. Donnellan aff., ex. E. Almost immediately after taking possession of the Facility, HBL defaulted on its obligations under the Lease. Donnellan ex. A, ¶ 38. After HBL defaulted, WPH Properties negotiated in good faith with HBL in an attempt to avoid termination of the Lease and, as a result, WPH Properties and HBL entered into a Letter of Intent. HBL thereafter breached its obligations under the Letter of Intent. Donnellan aff., ex. A, ¶¶ 53-62.

On January 7, 2020 WPH Properties served HBL with a Notice of Default and terminated the Lease effective January 13, 2020. Donnellan aff., ex. A, ¶¶ 63-66. HBL continues to occupy and operate the Facility as a hold-over tenant and HBL has defaulted on its obligations as a hold-over tenant. Donnellan aff., ex. A, ¶¶ 68-71.

On September 18, 2020, WPH Properties commenced this action seeking to recover the amounts due from HBL to WPH Properties as a result of HBL's default under the Lease, the Letter of Intent and as a hold-over tenant. Donnellan aff., ex. A.

B. The Claims.

On November 5, 2020, the defendants served an answer with counterclaims and a third-party complaint asserting the Claims (the "Answer"), which are all based on defendants' allegation that WPH Properties failed to meet its obligations with respect to the development, financing and construction of the Facility. Donnellan aff., ex. B, ¶¶ 14-87. The Claims allege that Jozefovic and Neuman proposed the Facility in 2009 and are the principals of HBL. Donnellan aff., ex. B, ¶ 8. The Claims further allege, that: (i) at the time HBL proposed the Facility (in 2009) WPH Properties and third-party defendants proposed that they act as developers of the Facility; (ii) WPH Properties and third-party defendants made misrepresentations with respect to development, construction and financing of the Facility; (iii) WPH Properties and HBL thereafter entered into the Development Agreement and the Lease; and (iv) the Facility was delayed and project costs exceeded the original estimates due to issues relating to construction financing. Donnellan aff., ex. B, ¶¶ 14-87.

The Claims demand an accounting (first cause of action), seek payment of “imputed interest” (second cause of action) and allege breach of contract (third cause of action), fraud in the inducement (fourth cause of action), “bad faith” (fifth cause of action) and fraud (sixth cause of action). The first cause of action is asserted against WPH Properties, Congress, CCCE and Fensterman, the second and third causes of action are asserted against WPH Properties, the fourth cause of action is asserted against Fensterman and Nicholson and the fifth and sixth causes of action are asserted against all of the third-party defendants (Fensterman, Nicholson, Congress, CCCE and Project Finance Consulting).

ARGUMENT

I

THE CLAIMS AGAINST WPH PROPERTIES HAVE BEEN RELEASED AND DISCHARGED PURSUANT TO THE DEVELOPMENT AGREEMENT AND THE LEASE.

As the Appellate Division has stated:

In general, a valid release constitutes a complete bar to an action on a claim which is the subject of the release. If the language of a release is clear and unambiguous, the signing of a release is a jural act binding on the parties. A valid general release will apply not only to known claims, but may encompass unknown claims, including unknown fraud claims, if the parties so intend and the agreement is fairly and knowingly made.

Rivera v. Wycoff Heights Medical Center, 113 A.D.3d 667, 670-71 (2d Dep’t 2014) (citations and internal quotation marks omitted). “A release will not be treated lightly, and will be set aside by a court only for duress, illegality, fraud, or mutual mistake.” Seff v. Meltzer, Lippe, Goldstein & Schlissel, P.C., 55 A.D.3d 592, 593 (2d Dep’t 2008) see also Rivera v. Wycoff Heights Medical Center, 113 A.D.3d at 670 (same). The party seeking to invoke the release establishes its “prima facie entitlement to judgment as a matter of law by submitting the release.” Schiller v. Guthrie, 102 A.D.3d 852, 854 (2d Dep’t 2013). “[A] signed release shifts the burden of going forward . . . to the [plaintiff] to show that there has been fraud, duress or some other fact which will be sufficient to void the release.” Davis v. Rochdale Village Inc., 109 A.D.3d 867, 867 (2d Dep’t 2013) (internal citations and quotations omitted) (citing Centro Empresarial Cempresa S.A. v. América Móvil, S.A.B. de C.V., 17 N.Y.3d 269, 276 (2011)).

Here, the Claims’ first three causes of action -- for an accounting, “imputed interest” and breach of contract, respectively -- are asserted against WPH Properties. Those claims should be dismissed pursuant to CPLR 3211(a)(5) because they have been released pursuant to express, clear and unambiguous provisions in the Development Agreement and the Lease.

The parties to the Development Agreement are HBL (defined as the Operator/Tenant) and WPH Properties (defined as the Developer). Donnellan aff., ex. C, at 1. Pursuant to Article III § I of the Development Agreement, the Claims against WPH Properties were released and discharged on the Substantial Completion Date of the Facility. The Substantial Completion Date passed long ago and, therefore, the release is fully effective. The Claims against WPH Properties have also been released pursuant to section 5.6 (b) of the Lease, which releases the Claims and provides that HBL will acquire the Facility “solely on the basis of its own physical and financial examinations, reviews and inspections.” Donnellan aff., ex. D, § 5.6.

Notably, the defendants assert repeatedly that “[t]he Development Agreement and Lease are essential parts of the same transaction and are constitute integrated agreements.” Answer, ¶ 38; see also Answer, ¶¶ 1 (first affirmative defense), 2 (second affirmative defense). Black’s Law Dictionary defines “integrated contract” as “[o]ne or more writings constituting a final expression of one or more terms of the agreement – Also termed integrated agreement, integrated writing.” Black’s Law Dictionary (11th ed. 2019). “[T]wo instruments . . . negotiated and executed as part of an integrated agreement . . . should be read and considered together as part of the same transaction.” Bronxville Knolls, Inc. v. Webster Town Center Partnership, 221 A.D.2d 248, 248 (1st Dep’t 1995). Because the defendants concede that the Development Agreement and the Lease constitute an integrated agreement, the release provisions in each agreement are to be read and interpreted together, making even more clear that the provisions broadly apply to release all Claims concerning any aspect of the Facility.

A. The Development Agreement released the Claims against WPH Properties.

Article III § I of the Development Agreement provides that the Tenant/Operator (HBL) agrees that the Developer (WPH Properties) has fulfilled all of its responsibilities under the Development Agreement to the satisfaction of HBL on the Substantial Completion Date. It provides that:

Except as provided in the Lease, on the Substantial Completion Date the Tenant/Operator shall (i) be deemed to have taken occupancy and accepted possession of the Project, (ii) have agreed that the Project has been completed in accordance with the Plans and Specifications, and (iii) have agreed that the Developer has fulfilled all of its responsibilities hereunder to the satisfaction of Tenant/Operator.

Donnellan aff., ex. C, Art. III § I (emphasis added).

Article VIII of the Development Agreement provides that:

The "Substantial Completion Date" shall mean the date which is the later of: (i) the date specified in the AJA Form 0704, duly executed and certified by the Architect, that the Project was substantially completed and in substantial compliance with the Plans and Specifications for the Project, (ii) the date Developer delivers a Temporary Certificate of Occupancy (the "TCO") for the Project, and (iii) the date the DOH approves the Project as constructed (but not necessarily the Operator/Tenant's operations) to accept patients, provided, however, if the Developer is unable to obtain the TCO or Permanent CO because of the actions or inactions of the Operator/Tenant, its employees or agents including, but not limited to, a delay in obtaining the necessary DOH approvals then delivery of the TCO shall not be a condition under this clause (i); Developer will give Operator/Tenant thirty (30) days' notice of the date Developer expects to be the Substantial Completion Date.

Donnellan aff., ex. C, Art. VIII.

The date specified in the AJA Form 0704 as the Substantial Completion Date is September 30, 2019. Donnellan aff., ex. F. WPH Properties delivered a TCO for the Facility dated August 22, 2019. Donnellan aff., ex. E. DOH approved the Facility as constructed to accept patients on November 14, 2019. Donnellan aff., ex. G. Because each of these dates passed long ago, the Substantial Completion Date has also passed and, therefore the release provision contained in Article III § I was fully effective as of the Substantial Completion Date. And under the express terms of that provision, the Developer has fulfilled all of its responsibilities to the satisfaction of Tenant/Operator. The defendants' Claims against WPH Properties, all of which relate to alleged breaches of WPH Properties' obligations with respect to the development, financing and construction have therefore necessarily been released and discharged. The release should be enforced in accordance with its plain terms. Centro Empresarial Cempresa S.A. v. America Movil,

S.A.B. de C.V., 17 N.Y.3d 269, 276 (2011) (“Generally, a valid release constitutes a complete bar to an action on a claim which is the subject of the release.”) (quoting Global Mins. & Metals Corp. v. Holme, 35 A.D.3d 93, 98 (1st Dept 2006)); Matter of Brooklyn Resources Recovery, Inc., 309 A.D.2d 931, 932 (2d Dep’t 2003) (“The plain language of the release is controlling, regardless of one party's claim that he intended something else”).

B. The Claims against WPH Properties have been released pursuant to the Lease.

The parties to the Lease are HBN and WPH Properties. Donnellan aff., ex. D, at 1. Section 5.6(b) of the Lease releases all claims against WPH Properties that HBL or any of its officers, directors, members, affiliates or other related or affiliated entity may have arising from, related to or in connection with the Facility including unknown or unsuspected causes of action and provides that HBL will take possession of the Facility solely on the basis of its own physical and financial reviews and inspections and waives any cause of action in law or in equity it may have with respect to any aspect of the Facility. That section provides:

Section 5.6 (b) . . . . . EFFECTIVE AS OF THE DATE OF THIS LEASE, TENANT SHALL RELEASE LANDLORD FROM ALL CLAIMS WHICH TENANT OR ANY AGENT, REPRESENTATIVE, AFFILIATE, EMPLOYEE, DIRECTOR, OFFICER, PARTNER, MANAGER, MEMBER, SERVANT, SHAREHOLDER, TRUSTEE OR OTHER PERSON OR ENTITY ACTNG ON TENANT'S BEHALF OR OTHERWISE RELATED TO OR AFFILIATED WITH TENANT ARISING FROM OR RELATED TO ANY MATTER OR THING RELATED TO OR IN CONNECTION WITH THE LEASED PREMISES, INCLUDING THE INFORMATION AND ANY PHYSICAL OR ENVIRONMENTAL CONDITIONS, AND TENANT SHALL NOT LOOK TO LANDLORD IN CONNECTION WITH THE FOREGOING FOR ANY REDRESS OR RELIEF. THIS RELEASE SHALL BE GIVEN FULL FORCE AND EFFECT ACCORDING TO EACH OF ITS EXPRESSED TERMS AND PROVISIONS, INCLUDING THOSE RELATING TO UNKNOWN AND UNSUSPECTED CLAIMS, DAMAGES AND CAUSES OF ACTION. EXCEPT AS TO MATTERS SPECIFICALLY SET FORTH IN THIS LEASE; (A)

TENANT, WILL ACQUIRE THE LEASED PREMISES SOLELY ON THE BASIS OF ITS OWN PHYSICAL AND FINANCIAL EXAMINATIONS, REVIEWS AND INSPECTIONS, AND (B) WITHOUT LIMITING THE FOREGOING, WAIVES ANY RIGHT IT OTHERWISE MAY HAVE AT LAW OR IN EQUITY AGAINST LANDLORD WITH RESPECT TO ANY ASPECT OF LEASED PREMISES.

Donnellan aff., ex. D, § 5.6(b).

By its express terms, therefore, effective as of the date of the Lease, section 5.6 broadly releases all claims “arising from or related to any matter or thing related to or in connection with the Leased Premises (the Facility), including claims “relating to unknown and unsuspected claims, damages and causes of action.” The language of section 5.6(b) goes on to highlight the broad scope of the release, stating that HBN “waives any right it otherwise may have at law or equity against the landlord with respect to any aspect of the Leased Premises.” The Claims against WPH Properties, all of which concern the development, construction and financing of the Facility. The Claims therefore all “arise from or are related to or in connection with” the Facility, and thus necessarily fall within the scope of this release. They should therefore be dismissed.

II

NONE OF THE DEFENDANTS’ CLAIMS STATE A VIABLE CAUSE OF ACTION.

The Court should dismiss all of the defendants’ causes of action pursuant to CPLR 3211(a)(7) because none of them state a viable cause of action as a matter of law.

A. Defendants’ first cause of action seeking an accounting should be dismissed.

The defendants’ first cause of action alleges that WPH Properties and third-party HBL, Jozefovic and Neuman advanced monies to WPH Properties and Fensterman before commencement of the project and seeks an accounting from WPH Properties and three of the third-party defendants, Fensterman, CCCE and Congress. Answer, ¶¶ 88-91. On that basis, defendants seek an accounting. Defendants’ claim for accounting fails as a matter of law because they do and cannot not plead the existence of a fiduciary relationship.

As the Appellate Division has held:

The right to an accounting rests on the existence of a trust or fiduciary relationship regarding the subject matter of the controversy at issue.” A fiduciary relationship arises when one is under a duty to act for or to give advice for the benefit of another upon matters within the scope of the relation. It is grounded in a higher level of trust than normally present in the marketplace between those involved in arm’s length business transactions. A conventional business relationship, without more, is insufficient to create a fiduciary relationship. Rather, a plaintiff must make a “showing of ‘special circumstances’ that could have transformed the parties’ business relationship to a fiduciary one, such as control by one party of the other for the good of the other.

DiTolla v. Doral Dental IPA of New York, LLC, 100 A.D.3d 586, 587 (2d Dep’t 2012) (internal citations and quotation marks omitted); see also Baer v. Complete Office Supply Warehouse Corp., 89 A.D.3d 877, 878 (2d Dep’t 2011) (Dismissing accounting cause of action because, “[c]ontrary to the plaintiff’s contention, the complaint failed to plead facts demonstrating the existence of a special, confidential, or fiduciary relationship.”); WIT Holding Corp. v. Klein, 282 A.D.2d 527, 529 (2d Dep’t 2001) (“[A]n arm’s length business relationship does not give rise to fiduciary relationship.”); Grossman v. Laurence Handprints – N.J., Inc., 90 A.D.2d 95, 105 (2d Dep’t 1982) (Dismissing accounting claim where “plaintiff’s allegations do not plead the existence of a fiduciary or trust relationship entailing a duty owed therein by defendants to the plaintiff, nor any special circumstances justifying the equitable relief of an accounting.”).

The defendants do not come close to pleading the existence of a fiduciary relationship among the parties. They allege only that “HBL SNF, LLC, Lizer Jozefovic and Mark Neuman had a trust-based relationship with Fensterman, Nicholson, and WPHP” and that “[g]iven that relationship, HBL SNF, LLC, Lizer Jozefovic, and Mark Neuman advanced monies to WPHP and Fensterman prior to commencement of the Project in order to allow the Project to proceed between the parties, which is necessary to obtain an accounting.” Answer, ¶¶ 89-90. These bare allegations fall far short of alleging that WPH Properties Fensterman, CCCE and/or Congress were “under a duty to act for or to give advice for the benefit of” the defendants.” And the defendants fail plead any special circumstances that would except the relationship here from the general rule that a conventional business relationship does not give rise of a fiduciary relationship.

Because the defendants have failed to plead the existence of a fiduciary relationship, their first cause of action seeking an accounting should be dismissed in its entirety.

B. The second cause of action for imputed interest should be dismissed.

The defendants allege that “the Jozefovic Team” made a capital contribution of $2,200,000 to WPH Properties “as memorialized in a Term Sheet dated November 20, 2015” ... “to be used by Congress for pre-development costs.” Answer, ¶ 41. They allege that: (i) “[i]n consideration for the $2,200,000 contribution to WPHP, WPHP agreed that these funds constituted a loan to WPHP to be repaid to HBL SNF, LLC;” and (ii) “no provision was made for the payment of interest on the loan notwithstanding that WPHP had the use of such funds since 2015.” Answer, ¶¶ 43-44.

Notwithstanding their admission that, under the parties’ alleged agreement relating to the loan, “no provision was made for the payment of interest” on the loan, the second cause of action claims that “HBL SNF, LLC is entitled to “imputed interest on the $2,200,000 made to WPHP loan from November 2015 to present.” Answer, ¶ 93.

To start, the defendants’ allegations are completely contradictory. On the one hand, they assert that the $2,000,000 is a capital contribution “as memorialized in a November 20, 2015 Term Sheet.” Interest, whether imputed or otherwise, cannot possibly be owed on a capital contribution. And while the defendants also assert that the $2,200,000 was a “loan to be repaid by HBL,” nowhere is there a reference to a loan agreement. In any event, the $2,200,000 cannot be both a capital contribution and a loan, and the second cause of action makes conflicting allegations concerning what it is.

Even assuming for the sake of argument that the $2,200,000 was a loan, the second cause of action fails to state a viable claim for breach of a provision in a contract providing for interest on the loan. “To plead breach of contract, the proponent must allege the existence of a contract, the plaintiff’s performance thereunder, the defendant’s breach thereof, and resulting damages. Second Source Funding, LLC v. Yellowstone Funding, LLC, 144 A.D.3d 445,445-46 (1st Dep’t 2016). The defendants have not pled the breach of an agreement providing for the payment of interest on the alleged $2,200,000 loan. Indeed, they have pled to the contrary by asserting that “no provision was made for the payment of interest on the loan.” Answer, ¶¶ 44. Even assuming the truth of the defendants’ allegations, therefore, they have not pled a viable claim for “imputed interest.” The defendants’ “imputed interest” claim should therefore be dismissed.

C. The defendants’ causes of action for fraud, fraud in the inducement and “bad faith” should be dismissed.

1. The Claims for fraud, fraud in the inducement and “bad faith” should be dismissed as duplicative of the defendants’ breach of contract claim.

Defendants’ fourth, fifth and sixth causes of action alleging fraud in the inducement, bad faith and fraud, respectively, should be dismissed because they are based on the same factual allegations and seek the same damages as defendants’ breach of contract claim against WPH Properties. New York does not permit the same conduct to be the basis for both a breach of contract and a tort claim. Oceanview Assoc., LLC v. HLS Builders Corp., 184 A.D.3d 843, 845 (2d Dep’t 2020) (“where . . . a claim to recover damages for fraud is premised upon an alleged breach of contractual duties and the supporting allegations do not concern representations which are collateral or extraneous to the terms of the parties’ agreement, a cause of action sounding in fraud does not lie.”) (quoting McKernin v. Fanny Farmer Candy Shops, Inc., 176 A.D. 2d 233, 234 (2d Dep’t 1991)); Bd. of Managers of Beacon Tower Condominium v. 85 Adams St., LLC, 136 A.D.3d 680, 684 (2d Dep’t 2016) (dismissing claim for fraud in the inducement as duplicative of breach of contract claim, stating that “[a] cause of action alleging fraud does not lie where the only fraud claim relates to a breach of contract.”) (quoting WIT Holding Corp. v. Klein, 282 A.D.2d 527 528 (2d Dep’t 2001)); Pollak v. Moore, 85 A.D.3d 578, 579 (1st Dep’t 2011) (Plaintiff’s alternative claims for fraud and fraud in the inducement were duplicative of breach of contract claims and therefore were properly dismissed.).

The defendants’ first cause of action for breach of contract against WPH Properties alleges that “[p]ursuant to the Development Agreement, the Project was to be ‘turn-key’ meaning that the plaintiff and third-party defendants would deliver a fully constructed facility authorized to operate as a skilled nursing facility with permanent financing in place in accordance with the approval granted by NYSDOH,” Answer, ¶ 39, and that the Lease and the Development Agreement “are essential parts of the same transaction and comprise an “integrated agreement.” Answer, ¶ 38.

The defendants allege that WPH Properties breached the Development Agreement by failing to timely complete the Facility (Answer ¶¶ 51-52), allowing cost overruns and delivering the project over budget (Answer, ¶¶ 66, 71, 73), and failing to provide permanent financing (Answer, ¶ 75). And they allege that WPH Properties breached the Lease by failing to provide permanent financing (Answer, ¶ 75), allowing cost overruns and causing the loss of eligibility for rent reimbursement (Answer, ¶ 73).

The fraud and fraud in the inducement causes of action are based on the same facts and circumstances and allege misrepresentations that are at the core of the alleged breach of contract. See, e.g., Answer, ¶ 15 (“Led by third-party defendant Fensterman, these parties represented that they were capable of performing all aspects of development of the Facility including construction and financing.”); see also Answer, ¶¶ 20 (“Fensterman and Nicholson represented that they could arrange for 100% of the Project financing.”); 87 (“Throughout the development process, WPHP, Fensterman, Nicholson and Congress have made false representations to the Jozefovic Team and have taken adverse actions which have adversely affected the business of HBL SNF, LLC.”); 100 (“Fensterman and Nicholson misrepresented the Project costs.”); 101 (“Fensterman and Nicholson misrepresented their ability to secure permanent HUD financing.”); 102 (“Fensterman and Nicholson misrepresented their ability to complete the Project.”); 103 (“Fensterman misrepresented the capital contributions made to CCCE to satisfy the equity requirement for the Project.”)

As to the fourth cause of action for “bad faith,” it alleges only that “[a]s alleged throughout this third-party complaint, the plaintiff and third-party defendants acted in bad faith.” Answer, ¶ 108. While the legal underpinning of this claim is unclear and the viability of a cause of action asserting a claim for “bad faith” unmoored to any recognized cause of action is highly questionable, it appears that the “bad faith” claim purports to assert a claim sounding in fraud or some other tort. And as previously discussed, the allegations in the third-party complaint all relate to the same facts and circumstances underlying the defendants’ breach of contract claim. The “bad faith” claim is therefore also based on the same alleged facts and circumstances and is also duplicative of the breach of contract claim.

The fourth, fifth and sixth causes of action should therefore all be dismissed because they sound in fraud and tort and are duplicative of the defendants’ breach of contract claim. Page v. Muze, Inc., 270 A.D.2d 401, 402 (2d Dep’t 2000); (“A cause of action to recover damages for fraud may not be maintained when the only fraud alleged relates to a breach of contract.”); 23/23 Communications Corp. v. General Motors Corp., 257 A.D.2d 367, 368 (1st Dep’t 1999) (“[P]laintiff’s tort claims were properly dismissed as duplicative of its breach of contract claim.”).

2. Dismissal for failure to comply with the pleading requirements of CPLR 3016(b).

The defendants’ claims for fraud in the inducement, “bad faith” and fraud should also be dismissed because they fail to satisfy the requirement that claims asserting fraud and/or misrepresentation be pled with specificity.

CPLR 3016(b) provides that “[w]here a cause of action or defense is based upon misrepresentation, fraud, mistake, willful default, breach of trust or undue influence, the circumstances constituting the wrong shall be stated in detail.” “To plead a cause of action for fraud, a party must allege the elements of representation of a material existing fact, falsity, scienter, justifiable reliance and damages. In addition, each of these essential elements must be supported by factual allegations sufficient to satisfy the requirement of CPLR 3016(b) that the circumstances surrounding the fraud be pleaded in detail.” Bramex Associates, Inc. v. CBI Agencies, Ltd., 149 A.D.2d 384, 383 (1st Dep’t 1989). Courts have therefore dismissed claims sounding in fraud where the allegations were not pled with the required specificity. See e.g., Matter of Woodson, 136 A.D.3d 691, 693 (2d Dep’t 2016) (Dismissing fraud claims, stating that “[h]ere, the petition consists of bare, conclusory allegations, without any supporting detail, which do not meet the specificity requirements of CPLR 3016(b) to sufficiently plead the existence of an underlying fraud, knowledge thereof on the part of [respondent], or substantial assistance in achievement of the fraud.); Helbig v. City of New York, 212 A.D.2d 506, 508 (2d Dep’t 1995) (dismissing fraud claims where “the plaintiffs failed to plead the allegations of fraud with the specificity required by CPLR 3016(b).”).

To begin with, the fifth and sixth causes of action -- for “bad faith” and fraud, respectively -- are asserted against all the third-party defendants (Nicholson, Fensterman, Congress, CCCE and Project Equity Consulting). But the only allegation that alludes to CCCE and Project Equity Consulting -- and not even by name -- is that “[a]s alleged throughout this third-party complaint, the plaintiff and third-party defendants acted in bad faith.” Answer, ¶ 108. And the only allegation referencing Congress asserts that “[t]hroughout the development process, WPHP, Fensterman, Nicholson and Congress have made false representations to the Jozefovic Team and have taken adverse actions which have adversely affected the business of HBL SNF, LLC. Answer, ¶ 87. These allegations fall far short of the specificity required by CPLR 3016(b) and the applicable case law. The fifth and sixth causes of action against Congress, CCCE, Project Equity Consulting should therefore be dismissed.

The defendant’s fraud allegations against Nicholson and Fensterman -- the remaining third-party defendants -- fail for lack of specificity as well. The defendants allege that Fensterman, and Nicholson, made certain misrepresentations concerning their ability to finance, construct and provide equity for the project, Answer, ¶¶ 15, 20, 23, 100-103, 111, that defendants relied on those representations, Answer, ¶ 33, and that they “made false representations to the Jozefovic Team and have taken adverse actions which have adversely affected the business of HBL SNF, LLC.” Answer, ¶ 87.

But the defendants fail to plead the “circumstances surrounding the fraud” by specifying the time, place and manner in which the alleged misrepresentations were made. Riverbay Corp. v. Thyssenkrupp Northern Elevator Corp., 116 A.D.3d 487, 488 (1st Dep’t 2014) (fraud cause of action dismissed where it “failed to allege specific facts with respect to the time, place, or manner in which defendants-appellants made the purported misrepresentations.”); Ritchie v. Carvel Corp., 180 A.D.2d 786, 788 (2d Dep’t 1992) (fraud claim dismissed where “the time, place, and speaker of the alleged misrepresentations, or the documents in which they appear, are not identified with specificity.”) Defendants’ recitation of the alleged misrepresentations without specifying in detail the circumstances surrounding those misrepresentations fails to satisfy the pleading requirement of CPLR 3016(b). The defendants' claim for fraud and fraud in the inducement should therefore be dismissed.

The defendants' "bad faith" cause of action alleges only that "[a]s alleged throughout this third-party complaint, the plaintiff and third-party defendants acted in bad faith." Answer, ¶ 108. As previously noted, therefore, it appears that this claim is premised on the purported misrepresentations alleged in the third-party complaint. As such, the defendants' "bad faith" cause of action suffers from the same pleading deficiency as the fraud and fraud in the inducement claims and should therefore be dismissed.

3. Dismissal for failure to allege a present intention to deceive.

"Absent a present intention to deceive, a statement of future intentions, promises or expectations is not actionable on the grounds of fraud." Non-Linear Trading Co., Inc. v. Braddis Associates, Inc., 243 A.D.2d 107, 118 (1st Dep't 1998) (citing Adams v. Clark, 239 N.Y. 403 (1925)). Therefore, "[a] complaint based upon a statement of future intention must allege facts to show that the defendant, at the time the promissory representation was made, never intended to honor or act the defendant, at the time the promissory representation was made, never intended to honor or act on his statement." Non-Linear Trading Co., 243 A.D.2d at 118; see also Lanzi v. Brooks, 54 A.D.2d 1057, 1058 (3d Dep't 1976) ("Absent a present intent to deceive, a statement of future intentions, promises or expectations is not actionable on the grounds of fraud. A complaint based upon a statement of future intention must allege facts to show that the defendant, at the time the promissory representation was made, never intended to honor or act on his statement.”).

The defendants’ fraud, fraud in the inducement and bad faith claims do not assert a “present intention to deceive.” The fraud in the inducement cause of action relies on alleged misrepresentations by Fensterman and Nicholson and one alleged instance of an alleged failure to disclose a prior civil proceeding against Nicholson. Answer, ¶¶ 101-104. But that cause of action simply does not assert that at the time the representations were made, WPH Properties, Nicholson, Fensterman and Congress never intended to honor or act on their representations, nor does it allege that the failure to disclose the prior civil proceeding was motivated by an intention to deceive.

As for the “bad faith” cause of action,” it alleges that the defendants acted in bad faith as alleged in the third-party complaint, Answer, ¶ 108, but nowhere in the third-party complaint is there an allegation of a present intention to deceive or specific facts supporting such an allegation as required by CPLR 3016(b).

Finally, the sixth cause of action asserting fraud alleges only that that WPH Properties and third-party defendants “new [sic] such statements were false” and “made such statements to deceive HBL SNF, LLC, Lizer Jozefovic, and Mark Neuman.” Answer, ¶¶ 113-114. But the sixth cause of action does not plead the alleged present intention to deceive with the specificity required by CPLR 3016(b) (see pages 17-18, supra) by alleging specific “facts to show that the defendant, at the time the promissory representation was made, never intended to honor or act on his statement.” Lanzi v. Brooks, 54 A.D.2d at 1058.

CONCLUSION

For all of these reasons, WPH Properties and third-party defendants respectfully request that the defendants' counterclaims and third-party complaint be dismissed and that the Court award such other relief as it deems just.

County of Westchester

Re: White Plains Healthcare Properties I, LLC v. HBL SNF, LLC et al
Index No. 60278/2020

Dear Justice Walsh:

This firm represents plaintiff, White Plains Healthcare Properties I, LLC (“WPH Properties” and third-party defendants, CCC Equities, LLC, Project Equity Consulting, The Congress Companies, Howard Fensterman and William Nicholson (collectively, “third-party defendants”) in the above action.

The discussion at the most recent conference centered on the plaintiff’s desire to amend the complaint, to move to dismiss the defendants’ counterclaims and third-party claims and to stay discovery on those claims. The defendants would not consent to the amendment, so the plaintiffs have moved for leave. The motion is returnable on February 12, 2021.

It was contemplated at the conference that, in anticipation that leave to amend would be granted, the plaintiffs would hold off moving to dismiss the counterclaims and third-party claims until a new complaint and a new answer, presumably asserting the same counterclaims and third-party claims, had been served. But that presents a serious scheduling problem for the defendants. The preliminary conference order requires that responses to document demands and interrogatories are due on February 26, 2021, long before a motion to dismiss the counterclaims and third-party claims and the new answer can be heard. Therefore, the plaintiffs have moved to dismiss the current counterclaims and third-party claims and request a conference at which they can ask the Court to stay their obligation to respond to the 80+ discovery demands addressed to those claims until either the current motion to dismiss or a subsequent motion to dismiss has been decided.

Respectfully,

I. PRELIMINARY STATEMENT

Defendants and Third-Party Plaintiffs HBL SNF, LLC, Lizer Jozefovic (“Jozefovic”), and Mark Neuman (collectively, “Defendants”) respectfully submit this Memorandum of Law and accompanying Affirmation in opposition to White Plains Healthcare Properties I, LLC’s (“White Plains” or “Plaintiff”) motion for leave to file an amended complaint, dated January 26, 2020 (the “Motion”), or in the alternative, request that the Court stay the Motion.

Defendants oppose the Motion on one fundamental principle: the same issues cannot be litigated at the same time in different actions. This principle is clear and ultimately results dismissal of the copycat litigation. Simply put, the Motion should be denied because Plaintiff is attempting to insert duplicate facts and claims from a separate, pending action into this action.

There are currently two, distinct actions. Plaintiff, Defendants, and Third-Party Defendants CCC Equities, LLC, Project Equity Consulting, The Congress Companies, Howard Fensterman (“Fensterman”), and William Nicholson are before this Court in the action captioned White Plains Healthcare Properties I, LLC v. HBL SNF, LLC et al., Index No. 60278/2020, (the “Westchester Action”). Separately, Jozefovic, White Plains, Fensterman, and Metropolitan Commercial Bank (“MCB”) are involved in an action captioned Lizer Jozefovic v. White Plains Healthcare Properties I, LLC et al., Index No. 655549/2020, before Judge Bannon (the “New York Action”).

The Westchester Action involves nine parties and is based upon the events leading up to and after Plaintiff and Defendants entered into an operating lease, dated November 19, 2015 (the “Lease Agreement”). In contrast, the New York Action is based upon the August 17, 2017 Collateral Assignment Pledge of Membership Interest and Security Agreement (the “Collateral Assignment”) and the attempted sale of Jozefovic’s membership interest in Waterview Acquisition I, LLC. The Westchester Action and the New York Action are entirely distinct, as they involve different parties, facts, contracts, and issues of law. In short, a decision in the Westchester Action would have no impact on the New York Action, or vice versa.

Regardless, Defendants have taken the position that the New York Action should be consolidated with the Westchester Action. On October 26, 2020, Defendants filed an order to show cause to consolidate in the New York Action (the “Motion to Consolidate”). Judge Bannon has already heard oral arguments and entered an interim order on December 16, 2020, with a final decision expected at any moment. Yet, Plaintiff now moves to amend its complaint with essentially the same claims that are still pending before Judge Bannon in the New York Action.

It is premature and inappropriate for Plaintiff to comingle the facts and issues in the New York Action with the Westchester Action through an amended complaint. Plaintiff has already filed the Motion to Consolidate, which it presumably still endorses. If the motion to consolidate is denied, it would be improper to simultaneously litigate the same claims in separate actions. Plaintiff cannot and should not be allowed to amend with duplicative claims that are subject to dismissal while the New York Action is pending.

Defendants are forced to oppose the Motion as a result of Plaintiff’s insistence. There is no reason why Plaintiff’s proposed amendment could not be stayed until the Motion to Consolidate is resolved. As Plaintiff has forced the issue, Defendants respectfully request that the Motion be denied in its entirety, or in the alternative, that the Motion be stayed until a decision on the Motion to Consolidate is reached.

II. STATEMENT OF FACTS

Jozefovic is the owner of a seventy percent (70%) interest in Waterview Acquisition I, LLC (the “Membership Interest”), and on August 17, 2017 entered into the Collateral Assignment, which involved the establishment of a rent security account for the White Plains Skilled Nursing Facility. Affirmation of John Giardino in Opposition to the Motion to Amend (“Giardino Aff.”) ¶¶ 4-5. The Collateral Assignment contains two key provisions: (1) It automatically self-terminated upon the deposit of $1,600,000 into a rent security account; and (2) White Plains’ rights are limited to enforcing the maintenance of the rent security account. Giardino Aff. ¶ 6.

In November 2015, Jozefovic deposited $1.6 million into a Chase Account ending in xxxx-xxx-xxxx-7272 to establish the rent security (the “Rent Security”). Giardino Aff. ¶¶ 8-9. In 2017, the Rent Security was transferred to the Chase account ending in xxxx-xxx-xxxx-0885 with White Plains and Fensterman’s knowledge and consent. Giardino Aff. ¶¶ 11-15. Neither White Plains nor Fensterman objected to this transfer and Jozefovic attempted to make Fensterman a signatory on the Chase account, yet Fensterman failed to do so. Giardino Aff. ¶¶ 16-19.

The Operating Agreement of Waterview Acquisition I, LLC was subsequently amended, permitting Jozefovic to assign the Membership Interest to MCB in connection with a $3 million loan, most of which was paid in the form of rent to White Plains. Giardino Aff. ¶¶ 20-22. MCB then perfected its security interest in the Membership Interest and maintains physical possession of the membership certificates. Giardino Aff. ¶ 23.

On September 18, 2020, White Plains initiated the Westchester Action by filing claims against Defendants for allegedly breaching the Lease Agreement. Giardino Aff. ¶ 24. On November 5, 2020, Defendants responded by filing an answer which includes substantial affirmative defenses, and counterclaims, as well as third-party claims against CCC Equities, LLC, Project Equity Consulting, the Congress Companies, Fensterman, and William Nicholson. Giardino Aff. ¶ 25.

On October 6, 2020, DelBello Donnellan Weingarten Wise & Wiederkehr, LLP (“DDW LLP”) issued a purported Notification of Disposition of Collateral, dated October 6, 2020, which stated that Plaintiff was a “debtor” and announced the sale of the Membership Interest at “public auction” scheduled for 10:00 am on Friday, October 30, 2020. Giardino Aff. ¶ 26. This action was taken independently from any events connected to the Westchester Action. Giardino Aff. ¶ 28.

The Notification was both false and improper, as Jozefovic had not been found in breach of the Collateral Assignment and DDW LLP had no right to seize or sell the Membership Interest, especially while MCB held a perfected security interest. Giardino Aff. ¶ 29. On October 22, 2020, facing immediate, irreparable harm, Jozefovic initiated the New York Action by filing a complaint against White Plains, Fensterman, and MCB for multiple causes of action, and simultaneously filed an order to show cause seeking a temporary restraining order and a preliminary injunction to halt DDW LLP’s wrongful sale. Giardino Aff. ¶ 30.

On October 26, 2020, White Plains and Fensterman filed the Motion to Consolidate. Giardino Aff. ¶ 32. Judge Bannon heard oral argument on both Jozefovic’s request for a preliminary injunction and the Motion to Consolidate, and on December 16, 2020, issued an interim order maintaining the status quo. Giardino Aff. ¶ 33.

Throughout this time, the Westchester Action has continued forward on an entirely separate track, proving that there is no need to consolidate the actions. However, rather than wait for Judge Bannon to decide the Motion to Consolidate, Plaintiff attempted to file a proposed amended complaint on November 30, 2020 (the “PAC”). Giardino Aff. ¶ 36. Defendants disputed the PAC for two reasons: (1) the PAC contains the same facts and issues that are in the New York Action; and (2) Plaintiff could not amend as of right, as the PAC was filed more than 20 days after Defendants filed their answer. Giardino Aff. ¶ 36. On January 26, 2021, Plaintiff filed the Motion.

III. LEGAL ARGUMENT

1. The Court Should Deny the Motion to Amend

A. Legal Standard

CPLR § 3025(b) states:

Amendments and supplemental pleadings by leave. A party may amend his or her pleading, or supplement it by setting forth additional or subsequent transactions or occurrences, at any time by leave of court or by stipulation of all parties. Leave shall be freely given upon such terms as may be just including the granting of costs and continuances. Any motion to amend or supplement pleadings shall be accompanied by the proposed amended or supplemental pleading clearly showing the changes or additions to be made to the pleading.

Although motions to amend are treated liberally, there are limits. A proposed amended complaint must be denied if it “(1) would unfairly prejudice or surprise the opposing party, or (2) is palpably insufficient or patently devoid of merit.” Favia v Harley-Davidson Motor Co., Inc., 119 AD3d 836, 836 [2d Dept 2014] (citations omitted). Prejudice occurs when a party “has been hindered in the preparation of his case or has been prevented from taking some measure in support of his position.” Loomis v Civetta Corinno Const. Corp., 54 NY2d 18, 23 [1981]; see also Urias v Daniel P. Buttafuoco & Assoc., PLLC, 173 AD3d 1244, 1245 [2d Dept 2019].

Additionally, CPLR § 3211(a)(4) states in relevant part:

(a) Motion to dismiss cause of action. A party may move for judgment dismissing one or more causes of action asserted against him on the ground that:

4. there is another action pending between the same parties for the same cause of action in a court of any state or the United States.

Therefore, when there is “a substantial identity of the parties, the two actions are sufficiently similar, and the relief sought is substantially the same, a court has broad discretion in determining whether an action should be dismissed pursuant to CPLR 3211(a)(4) on the ground that there is another action pending.” Scottsdale Ins. Co. v Indem. Ins. Corp. RRG, 110 AD3d 783, 784 [2d Dept 2013] (citations omitted). Courts must dismiss a duplicative pleading when “both suits arise out of the same subject matter or series of alleged wrongs.” Cherico, Cherico & Assoc. v Midollo, 67 AD3d 622, 622 [2d Dept 2009] (citations omitted).

B. The Motion to Amend Seeks to Add Duplicative Claims From the New York Action

The substantive addition in the PAC is a new section titled “THE JOZEFOVIC SECURITY AGREEMENT” and a separate cause of action for breach of contract against Jozefovic based upon the Collateral Assignment (the “Proposed Amendment”). PAC ¶¶ 38-53, 100-101. The Proposed Amendment duplicates the core facts, issues, and claims that Jozefovic has already pled in the New York Action:

PAC	Complaint in the New York Action
38. ...Jozefovic executed a Collateral Assignment and Pledge of Membership Interest and Security Agreement...	18. [Jozefovic] previously entered into a collateral assignment, which established a rent security account for the White Plains Skilled Nursing Facility...
41. On September 15, 2020 [White Plains] duly perfected its security interest with respect to the Jozefovic Waterview Collateral by filing a UCC financing statement.	33. ...MCB has perfected its security interest in the Membership Interest and maintains physical possession of the membership certificates...
42. ...in or around December 2019, Jozefovic assigned the Jozefovic Waterview Collateral to [MCB] to secure Jozefovic’s obligation to repay a $3,000,000 loan...	32. In December 2019, Jozefovic assigned the Membership Interest to MCB in connection with a $3,000,000.00 loan as part of a financing arrangement to provide working capital to benefit the White Plains project, most of which was paid in the form of rent to [White Plains and Fensterman].

43. ...to effectuate Jozefovic’s assignment of the Jozefovic Waterview Collateral to MCB, Jozefovic agreed to and voluntarily permitted the amendment of the Waterview Acquisition I, LLC Operating Agreement.	31. ...the Operating Agreement of Waterview was subsequently amended in order to authorize [Jozefovic], as the majority member, to assign his interest.
45. Jozefovic further breached the Jozefovic Security Agreement by failing to take all of the necessary steps to add [Fensterman]...as a co-signatory to the JPMorgan Chase accounts...	26. ...[the] account holder certification form [for the Chase account was] tendered to Fensterman.
50. ...WPH Properties is entitled, among other remedies, to dispose of the Jozefovic Waterview Collateral at a public sale	7. ...[White Plains and Fensterman] have no right or ability to sell [Jozefovic’s] interest in Waterview Acquisition I, LLC.

Notably, Plaintiff did not include these facts and claims regarding the Collateral Assignment when it filed its original complaint. Plaintiff and Defendants’ claims in the Westchester Action are limited to the Lease Agreement, a distinct contract which has no bearing on the Collateral Assignment. Likewise, the New York Action is focused on the Collateral Assignment, and does not involve any claims arising from or related to the Lease Agreement.

Courts regularly deny motions to amend where the proposed amendment is procedurally or substantively improper. See, e.g., Feldman v Finkelstein & Partners, LLP, 76 AD3d 703, 705 [2d Dept 2010]; Crossbeat New York, LLC v LiiRN, LLC, 169 AD3d 604, 604 [1st Dept 2019]. Courts have specifically denied motions to amend that attempt to duplicate claims from another action, as it is self-evidently prejudicial and without merit:

“Since the claims asserted in the proposed counterclaim were duplicative of those set forth in the legal malpractice action, the Supreme Court providently exercised its discretion in denying the defendant's motion for leave to amend her answer to assert a counterclaim alleging legal malpractice.”

Bleakley Platt & Schmidt, LLP v Barbera, 136 AD3d 725, 726 [2d Dept 2016]; see also Johnson v State, 125 AD3d 1073, 1074 [3d Dept 2015] (“Inasmuch as the first proposed cause of action is duplicative of another claim pending in the Court of Claims...the Court of Claims properly denied claimant's motion for leave to amend.”).

Here, Plaintiff’s attempted end-run around the Motion to Consolidate will prejudice Defendants. Rather than wait for Judge Bannon to issue a decision and proceed accordingly, Plaintiff is using the PAC to forcibly consolidate the New York Action with the Westchester Action. It is fundamentally prejudicial to require Defendants to litigate the same claims before two courts at the same time.

If the Motion to Consolidate is granted, then the Motion will be moot. However, if the Motion is granted and then the Motion to Consolidate is denied, the parties will be faced with predictable chaos, and the Court will be required to spend additional time and resources removing the duplicative claims. Plaintiff has no justification for attempting to add claims concerning the Collateral Assignment, which involves the same parties and legal theories as the New York Action. See, e.g., JPMorgan Chase Bank, N.A. v Luxama, 172 AD3d 1341, 1342 [2d Dept 2019] (dismissing a complaint when “both arise from the same subject matter and alleged wrongs, and involve substantial identity of the parties and similarity of claims); Dec v BFM Realty, LLC, 153 AD3d 497, 497 [2d Dept 2017]; Matter of In re Willnus, 101 AD3d 1036, 1037 [2d Dept 2012].

Therefore, Defendants respectfully request that the Motion be denied in its entirety, or in the alternative, that the Motion be stayed until Judge Bannon issues a decision on the Motion to Consolidate.

IV. CONCLUSION

For the foregoing reasons, Defendants and Third-Party Plaintiffs HBL SNF, LLC, Lizer Jozefovic, and Mark Neuman respectfully request that the Court deny White Plains Healthcare Properties I, LLC’s motion for leave to amend the complaint, or in the alternative, stay the motion until the Motion to Consolidate is decided.

AFFIRMATION OF JOHN GIARDINO IN OPPOSITION TO MOTION FOR LEAVE TO AMEND THE COMPLAINT

JOHN GIARDINO, ESQ., an attorney duly admitted to practice law in the State of New York, affirms the following to be true under the penalties of perjury:

1. I am a partner at the law firm of Michelman & Robinson, LLP, attorneys for the Defendants and Third-Party Plaintiffs HBL SNF, LLC, Lizer Jozefovic (“Jozefovic”), and Mark Neuman (collectively “Defendants”).
2. I respectfully submit this Affirmation in Opposition to Plaintiff White Plains Healthcare Properties I, LLC’s (“Plaintiff”) Motion for Leave to Amend the Complaint.
3. This Affirmation is based upon my personal knowledge and upon files maintained by my firm in relation to this action.

4. Jozefovic is the majority member of Waterview Acquisition I, LLC (the “Membership Interest”), owning a seventy percent (70%) interest.

5. On or about August 17, 2017, Jozefovic entered into a collateral assignment, which involved the establishment of a rent security account for the White Plains Skilled Nursing Facility (the “Collateral Assignment”).

6. The Collateral Assignment states, in relevant part:

- a. Under Paragraph 2, upon the deposit of $1,600,000 into the rent security account, the “assignment shall automatically terminate and be void and of no further effect”;
- b. Under Section 13, the exercise of the White Plains Health Care Properties LLC’s (the “Assignee”) rights is limited to a violation of the “terms and provisions concerning the maintenance of the account...”; and
- c. Under Section 13(c), any proceeds derived from the disposition of the collateral must be applied to the rent security account.

7. A true and correct copy of the Collateral Assignment is attached as Exhibit A.

8. On November 19, 2015, an email was sent to Third-Party Defendant Howard Fensterman (“Fensterman”) (the “November 19 Email”). The November 19 Email states, in relevant part: “$1,595,368.32 is going to be held until such time as we give them instructions to deposit in an Account in the Name of HBL-SNF to be opened at Chase Private Banking.”

9. In November 2015, pursuant to the November 19 Email, $1,595,031.44 was deposited into Chase Account ending in xxxx-xxx-xxxx-7272 (the “First Account”) to establish the rent security (the “Rent Security”) on behalf of Jozefovic.

10. Fensterman was personally aware that the Rent Security had been established and the Collateral Assignment had been satisfied, as he was directly informed of the creation of the account, the money to fund the account was wired from the Abrams, Fensterman LLP account, and Fensterman was made a signatory.

11. On August 10, 2017, an email was sent to Fensterman (the “August 10 Email”). The August 10 Email states, in relevant part, that the following “reflects what we agreed to. Please confirm...[and] do the paperwork to finalize this. If you have any issues with what I did please call me on cell.” The August 10 Email continues to state that “[w]ith respect to the Waterview account: 1. Howard Fensterman and Lizer Jozefovic shall be co-signatories to the Waterview account...”

12. On August 16, 2017, Fensterman was sent an email (the “August 16 Emails”). The August 16 Emails state, in relevant part, “[e]nclosed please find the Chase Certification that we received today; Please note that the Certification requires that the Resolution that we prepared be annexed as an exhibit. What I need from Howard is original signature cards from Howard with wet ink signatures-Lizer should have all of the resolutions and certifications signed this evening.”

13. On August 17, 2017, an email was sent to Fensterman (the “August 17 Email”). The August 17 Email states, in relevant part, that “I need [Fensterman’s] signature on the last page.”

14. The purpose of the August 17 Email was to transfer the Rent Security to a new account pursuant to a resolution of Waterview Acquisition I, LLC

15. In 2017, the Rent Security was transferred to the Chase account ending in xxxx-xxx-xxxx-0885 (the “Second Account”).

16. Once completed, the resolution and account holder certification form were tendered to Fensterman.

17. All of Jozefovic’s obligations under the Collateral Assignment were fully satisfied by the provision of the Rent Security, resulting in the automatic termination of the Collateral Assignment.

18. Fensterman simply had to sign the forms provided and submit them in order to become a signatory on the Second Account.

19. Following the August 17 Email, Fensterman took no actions to become a signatory and never discussed the matter with Jozefovic until the recent events leading up to this action.

20. At the time of the Collateral Assignment, the Operating Agreement of Waterview Acquisition I, LLC did not permit its members to assign their membership interests.

21. On October 11, 2005, Abrams, Fensterman LLP filed a Certificate of Amendment of the Articles of Organization for Waterview Acquisition I, LLC, which authorized Jozefovic, as the Majority Member, to assign the Membership Interest.

22. In December 2019, Jozefovic, in connection with a $3,000,000.00 loan, assigned the Membership Interest to Metropolitan Commercial Bank (“MCB”) as part of a financing arrangement to provide working capital to benefit the White Plains project, most of which was paid in the form of rent to the White Plains and Fensterman.

23. On December 23, 2019, Jozefovic granted MCB a security interest in the Membership Interest, and MCB perfected its security interest by taking possession of the related certifications and filing a Uniform Commercial Code Financing Statement.

24. On September 18, 2020, White Plains filed a complaint against HBL SNF, LLC, Jozefovic, and Mark Neuman (collectively, “Defendants”) in Westchester County, in an action captioned White Plains Healthcare Properties I, LLC v. HBL SNF, LLC et al., Index No. 60278/2020 (the “Westchester Action”).

25. On November 5, 2020, Defendants filed an answer which included affirmative defenses, counterclaims, and third-party claims against CCC Equities, LLC, Project Equity Consulting, the Congress Companies, Fensterman, and William Nicholson.

26. On or about October 6, 2020, I received a purported Notification of Disposition of Collateral issued by DelBello Donnellan Weingarten Wise & Wiederkehr, LLP (“DDW LLP”), dated October 6, 2020 (the “Notification”), which announced the intention to sell the Membership Interest at “public auction”.

27. A true and correct copy of the Notification is attached as Exhibit B.

28. The Notification was not based on or connected to any events, decisions, or orders in the Westchester Action.

29. The Notification is false, as Jozefovic is not now, nor has ever been, indebted to White Plains or Fensterman, and White Plains and Fensterman have no claim to the Membership Interest, much less the right to sell it at public auction.

30. On October 22, 2020, I filed a complaint on behalf of Jozefovic against White Plains, Fensterman, and MCB alleging multiple causes of action (the “Complaint”), and simultaneously filed an order to show cause seeking a temporary restraining order and a preliminary injunction to halt DDW LLP’s wrongful sale.

31. A true and correct copy of the Complaint is attached as Exhibit C.

32. On October 26, 2020, White Plains and Fensterman filed an order to show cause to consolidate in the New York Action (the “Motion to Consolidate”).

33. On December 16, 2020, Judge Bannon issued an interim order maintaining the status quo and gave the parties a short period of time to attempt to resolve the issues (the “Interim Order”).

34. A true and correct copy of the Interim Order is attached as Exhibit D.

35. On November 30, 2020, White Plains attempted to file a proposed amended complaint (the “PAC”).

36. I rejected the PAC because it was filed more than 20 days after the answer, and because it was based on the same facts and issues as the New York Action.

Upon any such sale, the Assignee shall have the right to assign, transfer and deliver to the purchaser or purchasers thereof the Collateral. Such purchaser at any such sale shall hold the Collateral sold absolutely free from any claim or right on the part of the Assignor, and the Assignor hereby waives (to the extent permitted by law) all rights of redemption, stay or appraisal which he has or may have under any rule of law or statute now existing or hereafter adopted. The Assignee shall give the Assignor twenty-one (21) days' written notice by registered or certified mail, postage prepaid, return receipt requested (which Assignor acknowledges is reasonable and sufficient), of the Assignee's intention to make any such public or private sale. Such notice, in the case of public sale, shall state the time and place fixed for such sale. Any such public sale shall be held at such time or times within ordinary business hours and at such place or places in the State of New York as the Assignee may fix in the notice of such sale. The Assignee shall not be obligated to make any sale of the Collateral if it shall determine not to do so, regardless of the fact that notice of such sale of the Collateral may have been given. The Assignee may, upon one day's written notice, adjourn any public or private sale or cause the same to be adjourned from time to time by announcement at the time and place fixed for sale, and such sale may, without further notice, be made at the time and place within in the State of New York to which the same was so adjourned. In case sale of all or any part of the Collateral is made on credit or for future delivery, the Collateral so sold may be retained by the Assignee until the sale price is paid by the purchaser or purchasers thereof, but the Assignee shall not incur any liability in case any such purchaser or purchasers shall fail to take up and pay for the Collateral so sold, and, in case of any such failure, such Collateral may be sold again upon like notice. As an alternative to exercising the power of sale herein conferred upon it, the Assignee may proceed by a suit or suits at law or in equity to foreclose this Assignment and to sell the Collateral, or any portion thereof, pursuant to a judgment or decree of a court of competent jurisdiction;

(b) such other rights with respect to the Collateral as shall be afforded to secured parties by the Uniform Commercial Code of the State of New York including, but not limited to, the right to setoff; and/or

(c) to apply any proceeds of any disposition of the Collateral to the payment of the cash security required under the terms and provisions of the lease and reasonable expenses of the Assignee in connection with the exercise of its rights or remedies, including reasonable fees and expense of attorneys, and any balance shall be paid to such party as shall be entitled thereto pursuant to law,

13. The Assignor hereby waives any right to require that the Assignee proceed against any real or personal property or any guaranty given as security for the Note, whether or not existing or hereafter given, before exercising its rights and remedies with respect to the Collateral.

14. This Agreement may be executed in counterparts, each of which, when taken together, shall be construed as one and the same instrument.

15. All notices, demands and other communications provided for herein shall be deemed received upon personal delivery or delivery by national overnight delivery service, or three (3) business days following deposit in the U.S. mail, postage prepaid, first class registered or certified.

COMPLAINT

Plaintiff Lizer Jozefovic (“Plaintiff”), by his attorneys Michelman & Robinson, LLP, brings his complaint against Defendants White Plains Healthcare Properties I, LLC (“WPHP”), Howard Fensterman (“Mr. Fensterman”), and Metropolitan Commercial Bank (“MCB”), alleging upon information and belief the following:

INTRODUCTION

1. This is an action to halt the dissemination of false and harmful statements as well as to prevent the fraudulent sale and to clarify the ownership of a limited liability company.
2. Plaintiff is the majority owner of Waterview Acquisition I, LLC.
3. Plaintiff previously entered into a collateral assignment, which established a rent security account for the White Plains Skilled Nursing Facility.
4. Plaintiff performed all obligations under the collateral assignment, which was acknowledged and documented by Mr. Fensterman.
5. Plaintiff subsequently assigned his interest in Waterview Acquisition I, LLC to MCB, as part of a financing arrangement, which both WPHP and Mr. Fensterman were aware of.

6. On October 6, 2020, WPHP and Mr. Fensterman issued a purported Notification of Disposition of Collateral, which stated that Plaintiff was a “debtor” and announced that Plaintiff’s interest in Waterview Acquisition I, LLC would be sold at “public auction” on October 30, 2020 (the “Notification”).

7. The Notification is entirely false: Plaintiff is not now, and has never been, indebted to WPHP or Mr. Fensterman, and WPHP and Mr. Fensterman have no right or ability to sell the Plaintiff’s interest in Waterview Acquisition I, LLC. Any attempt to do so is false, improper, and in breach of the collateral assignment.

8. Moreover, the Notification was designed to inflict maximum damage, as it was widely broadcast to Plaintiff’s business partners and other interested parties, harming Plaintiff’s reputation and ability to operate his facilities.

9. Moreover, Mr. Fensterman has represented Plaintiff previously, and continues to represent Plaintiff in a variety of matters, making his decision to act directly against Plaintiff’s interests bizarre, improper, and actionable.

10. Moreover, if WPHP and Mr. Fensterman continue with a fraudulent sale, as stated in the Notification, it will harm Plaintiff’s business and operations, as well as potential third parties who improperly attempt to purchase Plaintiff’s interest.

THE PARTIES

- 11. Plaintiff Lizer Jozefovic is a resident of the State of New York.
- 12. Defendant White Plains Healthcare Properties I, LLC is a foreign limited liability company that regularly conducts business in the State of New York.
- 13. Defendant Howard Fensterman is a resident of the State of New York and regularly conducts business in the State of New York.

14. Defendant Metropolitan Commercial Bank is a commercial bank with its headquarters located at 99 Park Ave, New York, NY 10016 and regularly conducts business in the State of New York.

15. This Court has jurisdiction over all causes of action asserted herein because all causes of action asserted herein arise out of conduct undertaken by defendants in the State of New York.

16. Each defendant has sufficient minimum contacts with the State of New York and has otherwise intentionally availed himself/itself of the State of New York so as to render the exercise of jurisdiction over it by the State of New York court consistent with traditional notions of fair play and substantial justice.

FACTUAL ALLEGATIONS

The Collateral Assignment

17. Plaintiff has a 70% share of Waterview Acquisition I, LLC (the “Membership Interest”), making him the majority owner.

18. Plaintiff previously entered into a collateral assignment, which established a rent security account for the White Plains Skilled Nursing Facility (the “Collateral Assignment”).

19. The Collateral Assignment states, in relevant part:

- a. Under Paragraph 2, upon the deposit of $1,600,000 into the rent security account, the “assignment shall automatically terminate and be void and of no further effect”;
- b. Under Section 13, the exercise of the White Plains Health Care Properties LLC’s (the “Assignee”) rights is limited to a violation of the “terms and provisions concerning the maintenance of the account...”; and

c. Under Section 13(c), any proceeds derived from the disposition of the collateral must be applied to the rent security account.

20. In November 2015, Plaintiff deposited $1,595,031.44 into Chase Account ending in xxxx-xxx-xxxx-7272 to establish the rent security (the “Rent Security”).

21. The funds for the Rent Security were derived from the refinancing of the Waterview real property.

22. At that time, both Gerald Billow, Esq an attorney at Posternak, Blankstein & Lund LLP, in Boston and Greg Stollar, Esq. of Abrams, Fensterman, Fensterman, Eisman, Formato, Ferrara, Wolf & Carone, LLP (“Abrams, Fensterman LLP”), attorneys for WPHP and Mr. Fensterman, were directly informed that the Rent Security had been established, satisfying the Collateral Assignment requirements.

23. Moreover, Mr. Fensterman was personally aware of the Rent Security and that the Collateral Assignment had been satisfied, as he and his legal counsel were informed of the creation of the account, and the money to fund the account was wired from Abrams, Fensterman LLP after Plaintiff established the account and made arrangements for Mr. Fensterman to be a signatory.

24. On December 14, 2015, Mr. Fensterman signed the Business Account Signature Form.

25. In 2017, the Rent Security was transferred to the Chase account ending in xxxx-xxx-xxxx-0885 by resolution of Waterview Acquisition I, LLC.

26. The resolution and account holder certification form were tendered to Mr. Fensterman.

27. As a result of Plaintiff's performance, all relevant obligations under the Collateral Assignment were completely satisfied by the provision of the Rent Security, automatically terminating the Collateral Assignment and rendering it void pursuant to its own provisions.

Assignment of the Membership Interest to MCB

28. At the time of the Collateral Assignment, the Operating Agreement of Waterview Acquisition I, LLC did not permit its members to assign their membership interests.

29. At that time, the Operating Agreement of Waterview Acquisition I, LLC stated, in relevant part:

- a. Articles 5 and 6 did not provide for any assignment of the Membership Interest;
- b. Article 12 specifically prohibited an assignment of the Membership Interest to Mr. Fensterman as Nominee of White Plains Healthcare Properties LLC.

30. Mr. Fensterman is aware of these facts, as well as the limitations on transferring and assigning the Membership Interest, as Mr. Fensterman and his firm Abrams, Fensterman LLP acted as counsel to Waterview Acquisition I, LLC in its formation and execution of its operating agreement.

31. However, the Operating Agreement of Waterview was subsequently amended in order to authorize Plaintiff, as the majority member, to assign his interest.

32. In December 2019, Plaintiff assigned the Membership Interest to MCB in connection with a $3,000,000.00 loan as part of a financing arrangement to provide working capital to benefit the White Plains project, most of which was paid in the form of rent to Defendants WPHP and Mr. Fensterman.

33. Currently, MCB has perfected its security interest in the Membership Interest and maintains physical possession of the membership certificates evidencing Plaintiff's ownership of interests in Waterview Acquisition I, LLC.

34. Mr. Fensterman knew of the approved of the loan from and assignment to MCB, as the proceeds have been used to pay rent on the White Plains Nursing Home.

35. Moreover, Mr. Fensterman has continued to represent Waterview Acquisition I, LLC to the present date, and has recently tendered bills and asked for payment for certain litigation matters.

36. Moreover, Mr. Fensterman previously acted as Plaintiff's personal counsel, during which time he represented Plaintiff in matters related to the corporate compliance and collection matters for all of Plaintiff's nursing homes.

Distribution of the Notification and Resulting Harm

37. On October 6, 2020, DelBello Donnellan Weingarten Wise & Wiederkehr, LLP ("DDW LLP") issued a purported Notification of Disposition of Collateral, dated October 6, 2020, which announced the intention to sell the Membership Interest at "public auction" (the "Notification").

38. The Notification was first sent on October 6, 2020 by Mr. Fensterman "as nominee for White Plains Health Care Properties, LLC."

39. The Notification claims to be based upon the Collateral Assignment.

40. The Notification states that Plaintiff is a "debtor" and that the Membership Interest will be sold "to the highest qualified public bidder in public" at 10:00 am on Friday, October 30, 2020 at DDW LLP.

41. Since then, Defendants WPHP and Mr. Fensterman have distributed the notice to multiple hospital operators across the state, as well as Plaintiff’s current and potential colleagues and business partners.

42. Plaintiff has received multiple calls inquiring about the alleged “debt” claimed in the Notification.

43. Plaintiff has never received any funds from WPHP or Mr. Fensterman. Therefore, neither Waterview Acquisition I, LLC nor Plaintiff owes any money to WPHP as there is no debt, and Plaintiff is not and cannot be a debtor.

44. Moreover, since 2015, Plaintiff has given WPHP and Mr. Fensterman over $4.6 million in a combination of loans, unallocated payments, and a down-payment for the purchase of a building.

45. Moreover, since September 2019, Plaintiff has paid rent of over $6 million.

46. In Plaintiff’s business, the public allegation of unpaid debts is very serious and damaging and has negatively impacted Plaintiff’s standing in the business and banking communities.

47. On October 16, 2020, Plaintiff, through counsel, attempted to contact Alfred E. Donnellan, Esq. (“Mr. Donnellan), the Managing Partner at DDW LLP, to confirm by October 20, 2020 that the Notification has been withdrawn and that there will be no attempts to proceed against the Membership Interest.

48. Neither Mr. Donnellan nor Mr. Fensterman have responded.

49. Plaintiff has been irreparably harmed by the Notification and any purported sale of the Membership Interest, and this harm will continue until the Notification is withdrawn and a correction is issued.

50. The wide dissemination of the false claims in the Notification has damaged Plaintiff's reputation and standing within the nursing home community.

51. Moreover, Plaintiff has been questioned by lenders and other interested parties as to the viability of his business concerns.

52. Moreover, the publication of the Notification has materially affected admissions to Plaintiff's facilities.

53. Moreover, if WPHP and Mr. Fensterman continue with a wrongful and fraudulent sale of the Membership Interest, it will disastrously and irreparably harm Plaintiff and potential third-parties who attempt to purchase the Membership Interest based upon a non-existent debt and without the ability to do so.

54. This action is brought to seek redress for WPHP and Mr. Fenster's harmful conduct, and to clarify ownership of the Membership Interest as to MCB.

FIRST CAUSE OF ACTION
Declaratory Judgment
(All Defendants)

55. Plaintiff repeats and incorporates by reference each of the foregoing allegations as though fully set forth herein.

56. The Collateral Assignment states that it is automatically terminated upon the establishment of the Rent Security.

57. Plaintiff properly established the Rent Security, pursuant to the requirements of the Collateral Assignment.

58. Defendants have personal knowledge that the Collateral Assignment was satisfied and is therefore null and void.

59. Plaintiff properly assigned the Membership Interest to MCB.

60. Defendants have personal knowledge that the Membership Interest has been assigned to MCB.

61. Plaintiff requests that the Court issue a declaratory judgment finding that: the Collateral Assignment is null and void following the establishment of the Rent Security; that the Membership Interest has been assigned to MCB; that Plaintiff is not indebted to WPHP or Mr. Fensterman; and consequently that WPHP and Mr. Fensterman have no right or claim to the Membership Interest, nor can WPHP, Mr. Fensterman, or DDW LLP sell or otherwise transfer the Membership Interest.

SECOND CAUSE OF ACTION
(WPHP and Mr. Fensterman)

62. Plaintiff repeats and incorporates by reference each of the foregoing allegations as though fully set forth herein.

63. Plaintiff and WPHP entered into the Collateral Assignment

64. Plaintiff has performed all conditions, covenants, and promises required to be performed by Plaintiff in accordance with the terms of the Collateral Assignment alleged herein.

65. Specifically, Plaintiff established the Rent Security pursuant to the terms of the Collateral Assignment, resulting in the termination of the Collateral Assignment and rendering it void pursuant to its own provisions.

66. Defendants have personal knowledge that the Rent Security has been established, and that the Collateral Assignment has been terminated.

67. WPHP and Mr. Fensterman issued the Notification in breach of the Collateral Assignment.

68. As a direct and proximate result of the foregoing conduct by WPHP and Mr. Fensterman, Plaintiff has suffered damages in an amount subject to proof at trial.

69. WPHP and Mr. Fensterman’s conduct, as alleged above, was willful, malicious and intentional and done for the purpose of depriving Plaintiff of property or legal rights or otherwise causing injury, and, therefore, was despicable conduct that subjected Plaintiff to a cruel and unjust hardship in conscious disregard of Plaintiff’s rights, so as to justify an award of exemplary and punitive damages in an amount to be established at trial.

THIRD CAUSE OF ACTION

Fraud

(WPHP and Mr. Fensterman)

70. Plaintiff repeats and incorporates by reference each of the foregoing allegations as though fully set forth herein.

74. As a direct and proximate result of the foregoing conduct by WPHP and Mr. Fensterman, Plaintiff has suffered damages in an amount subject to proof at trial.

75. WPHP and Mr. Fensterman’s conduct, as alleged above, was willful, malicious and intentional and done for the purpose of depriving Plaintiff of property or legal rights or otherwise causing injury, and, therefore, was despicable conduct that subjected Plaintiff to a cruel and unjust hardship in conscious disregard of Plaintiff’s rights, so as to justify an award of exemplary and punitive damages in an amount to be established at trial.

77. On October 6, 2020, WPHP and Mr. Fensterman caused the Notification to be issued.

78. The Notification claims that Plaintiff is a “debtor,” and that WPHP, Mr. Fensterman, and DDW LLP will sell the Membership Interest at a public auction to satisfy Plaintiff’s debts. These statements are false.

79. WPHP and Mr. Fensterman knew that the statements in the Notification were false at the time the Notification was issued.

80. The Notification was widely distributed to Plaintiff’s current and potential colleagues and business partners.

81. As a direct and proximate result of the foregoing conduct by WPHP and Mr. Fensterman, Plaintiff has suffered damages in an amount subject to proof at trial.

82. WPHP and Mr. Fensterman’s conduct, as alleged above, was willful, malicious and intentional and done for the purpose of depriving Plaintiff of property or legal rights or otherwise causing injury, and, therefore, was despicable conduct that subjected Plaintiff to a cruel and unjust hardship in conscious disregard of Plaintiff’s rights, so as to justify an award of exemplary and punitive damages in an amount to be established at trial.

COMPLAINT

INTRODUCTION

1. This is an action to halt the dissemination of false and harmful statements as well as to prevent the fraudulent sale and to clarify the ownership of a limited liability company.
2. Plaintiff is the majority owner of Waterview Acquisition I, LLC.
3. Plaintiff previously entered into a collateral assignment, which established a rent security account for the White Plains Skilled Nursing Facility.
4. Plaintiff performed all obligations under the collateral assignment, which was acknowledged and documented by Mr. Fensterman.
5. Plaintiff subsequently assigned his interest in Waterview Acquisition I, LLC to MCB, as part of a financing arrangement, which both WPHP and Mr. Fensterman were aware of.

6. On October 6, 2020, WPHP and Mr. Fensterman issued a purported Notification of Disposition of Collateral, which stated that Plaintiff was a “debtor” and announced that Plaintiff’s interest in Waterview Acquisition I, LLC would be sold at “public auction” on October 30, 2020 (the “Notification”).

7. The Notification is entirely false: Plaintiff is not now, and has never been, indebted to WPHP or Mr. Fensterman, and WPHP and Mr. Fensterman have no right or ability to sell the Plaintiff’s interest in Waterview Acquisition I, LLC. Any attempt to do so is false, improper, and in breach of the collateral assignment.

8. Moreover, the Notification was designed to inflict maximum damage, as it was widely broadcast to Plaintiff’s business partners and other interested parties, harming Plaintiff’s reputation and ability to operate his facilities.

9. Moreover, Mr. Fensterman has represented Plaintiff previously, and continues to represent Plaintiff in a variety of matters, making his decision to act directly against Plaintiff’s interests bizarre, improper, and actionable.

10. Moreover, if WPHP and Mr. Fensterman continue with a fraudulent sale, as stated in the Notification, it will harm Plaintiff’s business and operations, as well as potential third parties who improperly attempt to purchase Plaintiff’s interest.

THE PARTIES

- 11. Plaintiff Lizer Jozefovic is a resident of the State of New York.
- 12. Defendant White Plains Healthcare Properties I, LLC is a foreign limited liability company that regularly conducts business in the State of New York.
- 13. Defendant Howard Fensterman is a resident of the State of New York and regularly conducts business in the State of New York.

14. Defendant Metropolitan Commercial Bank is a commercial bank with its headquarters located at 99 Park Ave, New York, NY 10016 and regularly conducts business in the State of New York.

15. This Court has jurisdiction over all causes of action asserted herein because all causes of action asserted herein arise out of conduct undertaken by defendants in the State of New York.

16. Each defendant has sufficient minimum contacts with the State of New York and has otherwise intentionally availed himself/itself of the State of New York so as to render the exercise of jurisdiction over it by the State of New York court consistent with traditional notions of fair play and substantial justice.

FACTUAL ALLEGATIONS

The Collateral Assignment

17. Plaintiff has a 70% share of Waterview Acquisition I, LLC (the “Membership Interest”), making him the majority owner.

18. Plaintiff previously entered into a collateral assignment, which established a rent security account for the White Plains Skilled Nursing Facility (the “Collateral Assignment”).

19. The Collateral Assignment states, in relevant part:

- a. Under Paragraph 2, upon the deposit of $1,600,000 into the rent security account, the “assignment shall automatically terminate and be void and of no further effect”;
- b. Under Section 13, the exercise of the White Plains Health Care Properties LLC’s (the “Assignee”) rights is limited to a violation of the “terms and provisions concerning the maintenance of the account...”; and

c. Under Section 13(c), any proceeds derived from the disposition of the collateral must be applied to the rent security account.

20. In November 2015, Plaintiff deposited $1,595,031.44 into Chase Account ending in xxxx-xxx-xxxx-7272 to establish the rent security (the “Rent Security”).

21. The funds for the Rent Security were derived from the refinancing of the Waterview real property.

22. At that time, both Gerald Billow, Esq an attorney at Posternak, Blankstein & Lund LLP, in Boston and Greg Stollar, Esq. of Abrams, Fensterman, Fensterman, Eisman, Formato, Ferrara, Wolf & Carone, LLP (“Abrams, Fensterman LLP”), attorneys for WPHP and Mr. Fensterman, were directly informed that the Rent Security had been established, satisfying the Collateral Assignment requirements.

23. Moreover, Mr. Fensterman was personally aware of the Rent Security and that the Collateral Assignment had been satisfied, as he and his legal counsel were informed of the creation of the account, and the money to fund the account was wired from Abrams, Fensterman LLP after Plaintiff established the account and made arrangements for Mr. Fensterman to be a signatory.

24. On December 14, 2015, Mr. Fensterman signed the Business Account Signature Form.

25. In 2017, the Rent Security was transferred to the Chase account ending in xxxx-xxx-xxxx-0885 by resolution of Waterview Acquisition I, LLC.

26. The resolution and account holder certification form were tendered to Mr. Fensterman.

27. As a result of Plaintiff's performance, all relevant obligations under the Collateral Assignment were completely satisfied by the provision of the Rent Security, automatically terminating the Collateral Assignment and rendering it void pursuant to its own provisions.

Assignment of the Membership Interest to MCB

28. At the time of the Collateral Assignment, the Operating Agreement of Waterview Acquisition I, LLC did not permit its members to assign their membership interests.

29. At that time, the Operating Agreement of Waterview Acquisition I, LLC stated, in relevant part:

- a. Articles 5 and 6 did not provide for any assignment of the Membership Interest;
- b. Article 12 specifically prohibited an assignment of the Membership Interest to Mr. Fensterman as Nominee of White Plains Healthcare Properties LLC.

30. Mr. Fensterman is aware of these facts, as well as the limitations on transferring and assigning the Membership Interest, as Mr. Fensterman and his firm Abrams, Fensterman LLP acted as counsel to Waterview Acquisition I, LLC in its formation and execution of its operating agreement.

31. However, the Operating Agreement of Waterview was subsequently amended in order to authorize Plaintiff, as the majority member, to assign his interest.

32. In December 2019, Plaintiff assigned the Membership Interest to MCB in connection with a $3,000,000.00 loan as part of a financing arrangement to provide working capital to benefit the White Plains project, most of which was paid in the form of rent to Defendants WPHP and Mr. Fensterman.

33. Currently, MCB has perfected its security interest in the Membership Interest and maintains physical possession of the membership certificates evidencing Plaintiff's ownership of interests in Waterview Acquisition I, LLC.

34. Mr. Fensterman knew of the approved of the loan from and assignment to MCB, as the proceeds have been used to pay rent on the White Plains Nursing Home.

35. Moreover, Mr. Fensterman has continued to represent Waterview Acquisition I, LLC to the present date, and has recently tendered bills and asked for payment for certain litigation matters.

36. Moreover, Mr. Fensterman previously acted as Plaintiff's personal counsel, during which time he represented Plaintiff in matters related to the corporate compliance and collection matters for all of Plaintiff's nursing homes.

Distribution of the Notification and Resulting Harm

37. On October 6, 2020, DelBello Donnellan Weingarten Wise & Wiederkehr, LLP ("DDW LLP") issued a purported Notification of Disposition of Collateral, dated October 6, 2020, which announced the intention to sell the Membership Interest at "public auction" (the "Notification").

38. The Notification was first sent on October 6, 2020 by Mr. Fensterman "as nominee for White Plains Health Care Properties, LLC."

39. The Notification claims to be based upon the Collateral Assignment.

40. The Notification states that Plaintiff is a "debtor" and that the Membership Interest will be sold "to the highest qualified public bidder in public" at 10:00 am on Friday, October 30, 2020 at DDW LLP.

41. Since then, Defendants WPHP and Mr. Fensterman have distributed the notice to multiple hospital operators across the state, as well as Plaintiff’s current and potential colleagues and business partners.

42. Plaintiff has received multiple calls inquiring about the alleged “debt” claimed in the Notification.

43. Plaintiff has never received any funds from WPHP or Mr. Fensterman. Therefore, neither Waterview Acquisition I, LLC nor Plaintiff owes any money to WPHP as there is no debt, and Plaintiff is not and cannot be a debtor.

44. Moreover, since 2015, Plaintiff has given WPHP and Mr. Fensterman over $4.6 million in a combination of loans, unallocated payments, and a down-payment for the purchase of a building.

45. Moreover, since September 2019, Plaintiff has paid rent of over $6 million.

46. In Plaintiff’s business, the public allegation of unpaid debts is very serious and damaging and has negatively impacted Plaintiff’s standing in the business and banking communities.

47. On October 16, 2020, Plaintiff, through counsel, attempted to contact Alfred E. Donnellan, Esq. (“Mr. Donnellan), the Managing Partner at DDW LLP, to confirm by October 20, 2020 that the Notification has been withdrawn and that there will be no attempts to proceed against the Membership Interest.

48. Neither Mr. Donnellan nor Mr. Fensterman have responded.

49. Plaintiff has been irreparably harmed by the Notification and any purported sale of the Membership Interest, and this harm will continue until the Notification is withdrawn and a correction is issued.

50. The wide dissemination of the false claims in the Notification has damaged Plaintiff's reputation and standing within the nursing home community.

51. Moreover, Plaintiff has been questioned by lenders and other interested parties as to the viability of his business concerns.

52. Moreover, the publication of the Notification has materially affected admissions to Plaintiff's facilities.

53. Moreover, if WPHP and Mr. Fensterman continue with a wrongful and fraudulent sale of the Membership Interest, it will disastrously and irreparably harm Plaintiff and potential third-parties who attempt to purchase the Membership Interest based upon a non-existent debt and without the ability to do so.

54. This action is brought to seek redress for WPHP and Mr. Fenster's harmful conduct, and to clarify ownership of the Membership Interest as to MCB.

FIRST CAUSE OF ACTION

PRELIMINARY STATEMENT

Plaintiff, White Plains Healthcare Properties I, LLC (“WPHI” or the “plaintiff”) by its attorneys, DelBello, Donnellan, Weingarten, Wise & Wiederkehr, LLP and Abrams, Fensterman, Fensterman, Eisman, Formato, Ferrara, Wolf & Carone, LLP, respectfully submits this reply memorandum of law in further support of its motion, pursuant to CPLR § 3025(b), granting WPHI leave to file an amended complaint.

ARGUMENT

I

THE COURT SHOULD GRANT LEAVE TO FILE THE AMENDED COMPLAINT.

The defendants’ argument that granting leave to file the amended complaint would unfairly prejudice them and that the plaintiff improperly seeks to “coningle the facts and issues in the New York Action with the Westchester Action through an amended complaint” are completely without merit. Memorandum of law in opposition to motion for leave to amend complaint dated February 5, 2020 (the “Opp. br.”), at 2.

To start, it is not the plaintiff that has acted improperly here, it is the defendants. Defendant Lizer Jozefovic commenced the action in New York County more than a month after this action was filed for the obvious and unlawful purpose of dividing the dispute between the parties into two different courts. In contrast, the plaintiff properly seeks simply to add a cause of action against Jozefovic for his breach of the two agreements (a lease and a pledge agreement) that are at the core of the dispute raised in the original complaint.

As more fully set forth below, the defendants’ assertions that they will suffer prejudice if the complaint is amended and that the proposed amendment is barred by CPLR 3211(a)(4) are without any basis.

The plaintiff commenced this action on September 18, 2020. Affirmation of Alfred E. Donnellan dated January 26, 2021 (the "Donnellan aff."), ex. B. More than a month later, on October 22, 2020, Jozefovic commenced the action in New York County, Jozefovic v. White Plains Health Care Properties I, LLC, Index No. 655549/2020 (Sup. Ct. N.Y. Cty.) (the "New York County action"); see also Affirmation of Alfred E. Donnellan dated February 18, 2021 (the "Donnellan reply aff."), ex. A. The New York County action concerns the same parties and contractual agreements and the same dispute arising out of those agreements.

In particular, both actions relate to the same nursing home facility located in Westchester County (the "Facility") and to an obligation to post $1.6 million in additional security under an Amended and Restated Operating Lease dated as of November 19, 2015 (the "Lease") and a Collateral Assignment and Pledge of Membership Interest and Security Agreement dated August 11, 2017 (the "Pledge Agreement"). This action seeks to enforce the terms of the Lease, under which HBL SNF, LLC ("HBL") -- an entity controlled by Jozefovic -- is the tenant and Jozefovic is a guarantor. The New York County action seeks to enjoin the sale of Jozefovic's membership interest in Waterview Acquisition I, LLC ("Waterview"), which was given as collateral to WPHP for Jozefovic's obligations under the Lease and Pledge Agreement. WPHP -- the plaintiff in this case -- is attempting to sell that membership interest on account of defaults under the Lease and the Pledge Agreement.

Indeed, there is no legitimate basis at all for venue in New York County. All of the events giving rise to the claims asserted in the New York County action occurred in Westchester County.

See CPLR 503(a). The New York County action seeks to enjoin the sale of Jozefovic's membership interest in Waterview, which is located in Westchester County.<sup>1</sup> WPHP is seeking to sell that membership interest on account of defaults: (i) by HBL and Jozefovic (as guarantor) under the Lease, which is of commercial property in Westchester County; and (ii) by Jozefovic under the Pledge Agreement, which pledged Jozefovic's membership interest in Waterview (located in Westchester County) as collateral.

The only party in the New York County action that resides in New York County is Metropolitan Commercial Bank ("MCB"), but MCB was named as a defendant for the sole purpose of fabricating venue in New York County. The New York County action complaint seeks no relief whatever against MCB. MCB is mentioned in the complaint only in connection with Jozefovic's allegation that he assigned the membership interest to the bank before assigning it to WPHP, and his request for a declaration to that effect. Domellan aff., ex. A, ¶¶ 32-34, 59-61. None of that is relevant to the claims Jozefovic makes in the New York County action. If the allegations in the New York County action are true, Jozefovic's interest will be sold subject to the rights of MCB. Jozefovic has no need to assert MCB's priority. There is only one reason that Jozefovic named MCB as a defendant in the New York County action: to invent a basis for venue in New York County, so that he can divide the parties' dispute into two different fora. That is improper. Espinoza v. Concordia Int'l Forwarding Corp., 39 A.D.3d 258 (1st Dep't 2007) (Where venue properly lies elsewhere, it is error to retain venue on the basis of a nominal defendant against whom there is no legitimate claim.).

In contrast to Jozefovic's improper conduct in commencing the New York County action, plaintiff has acted more than appropriately in seeking leave to amend the complaint to add a cause of action against Jozefovic individually for FBI's breach of the same provisions in the Lease as alleged in the original complaint and for his breach of the Pledge Agreement. Jozefovic pledged his membership interest in Waterview as security to ensure FBI's compliance with the Lease and the Pledge Agreement. The cause of action added to the amended complaint, therefore, seeks to do nothing more than enforce against Jozefovic the terms of the Lease and the Pledge Agreement, the agreements at the core of the parties' dispute.

B. The defendants will suffer no prejudice if the motion for leave to amend is granted.

The defendants argue that it would be "fundamentally prejudicial to require Defendants to litigate the same claims before two courts at the same time." Opp. br., at 8. To reiterate, it is Jozefovic that commenced the New York action asserting what the defendants say are the same claims more than a month after the plaintiff filed this action. Accordingly, to the extent that the parties are "litigat[ing] the same claims before two courts at the same time," that is the defendants' doing, not the plaintiff's.

The plaintiff further notes that the defendants curiously also make the contradictory claim that New York action and this action raise different claims because this action is based on the Lease and the New York County action is based on the Pledge Agreement. Opp. br., at 7 ("Plaintiff and Defendants' claims in the Westchester Action are limited to the Lease Agreement, a distinct contract which has no bearing on the [Pledge Agreement]. Likewise, the New York action is focused on the [Pledge Agreement], and does not involve any claims arising from or related to the Lease Agreement.”). The defendants cannot have it both ways. If the claims in this action and the New York action are the “same,” then the defendants acted improperly by commencing the New York action. If the claims are different, then the defendants’ assertion that the proposed amendment to the complaint is improper because it is duplicative of the claims in the New York County action is wrong.

In any event, as the plaintiff has previously argued, no prejudice to the defendants could possibly result from allowing the complaint to be amended. Plaintiff’s Memorandum of Law in Support of Motion for Leave to Amend the Complaint dated January 26, 2021, at 1-3. Discovery in this case has only just commenced. Defendants served their first set of interrogatories and request for the production of documents on December 18, 2020. Pursuant to the Court’s preliminary conference order, responses to those discovery requests are due on February 26, 2021. The parties also agreed to adjourn the responses for thirty days with the Court’s consent. Depositions have not yet commenced. Since leave is being sought at the commencement of discovery, the defendants cannot plausibly claim that they somehow changed their position in reliance on the original complaint, or even that the amended complaint would somehow cause them significant trouble or expense.

The cases cited by the defendants, Bleakley Platt & Schmidt, LLP v. Barbera, 136 A.D.3d 725, 726 (2d Dept 2016) and Johnson v. State, 125 A.D.3d 1073, 1074 (3d Dept 2015), Opp. br., at 7-8, are completely inapposite. Unlike the claims at issue in those cases, the cause of action added to the amended complaint here is not duplicative of the claims asserted in the New York County action. The claim added to the amended complaint asserts breaches of the Lease and the Pledge Agreement and seeks damages against Jozefovic on account of those breaches. The New York action, in contrast, asserts claims relating to the proposed sale of Jozefovic's membership interest in Waterview and seeks to enjoin the sale.

The defendants also cite CPLR 3211(a)(4), which allows for dismissal of an action if there is another action pending between the same parties for the "same cause of action." CPLR 3211(a)(4) does not apply here. It "requires that the prior action or proceeding be 'for the same cause of action,' an essential that seriously limits the availability of this defensive motion." Kent Development Co., Inc. v. Liccione, 37 N.Y.2d 899, 901 (1975). Accordingly, "[e]ven where both causes of action may arise out of the same occurrence, where the relief requested is different, more than one action can obviously be maintained." Hofinger v. Hofinger, 107 Misc.2d 573, 575 (Sup. Ct. Suffolk Cty. 1981); see also Kent Development Co., Inc. v. Liccione, 37 N.Y.2d at 901 (Even where "the causes of action in both suits arise out of the same subject matter or series of alleged wrongs," dismissal is not warranted under CPLR 3211(a)(4) where "the nature of the relief sought is not the same or substantially the same."); Reliance Ins. Co. v. Am. Elec. Power Co., Inc., 224 A.D.2d 235, 235 (1st Dep't 1996) (denying motion where "[t]he requisite complete identity of issues, for purposes of CPLR 3211(a)(4), does not exist.").

While the facts and circumstances that are the subjects of this action and the New York action arise out of the same dispute, the causes of action asserted in the two cases and the relief sought are different. In the New York action, Jozefovic asserts that the sale of his membership interest in Waterview was improperly noticed and scheduled and seeks to enjoin the sale and claims damages on various legal theories on the basis of the alleged improper notification, scheduling and conduct of the proposed sale. See Donnellan aff., ex. B. In this action, in contrast, the plaintiff: (i) asserts breaches of the Lease, a related letter of intent and the Pledge Agreement, and seek damages against HBL and Jozefovic on those grounds; and (ii) seeks to enforce the guarantees of the obligations under the Lease executed by Jozefovic and Neuman. See Donnellan aff., ex. A. Unlike in the New York action, the plaintiff in this action seeks no relief concerning the proposed sale of the Waterview membership interest. Because the causes of action asserted in the two cases are not the same and the relief sought is different, CPLR 3211(a)(4) does not apply.

II.

THE DEFENDANTS' REQUEST FOR A STAY SHOULD BE DENIED.

The defendants' request in the alternative that the Court "stay" the motion for leave to amend pending a decision on the motion to consolidate the New York County action with this action in this Court. That request should be denied. As previously argued, the cause of action added to the amended complaint asserts a different cause of action than those in the New York action and seeks different relief. As the defendants have conceded that "a decision in the Westchester Action would have no impact on the New York Action, or vice versa." Op. br., at 1-2. If the motion to consolidate is denied, the claims asserted in each of the actions will proceed independently. Accordingly, there is no need for a stay.

CONCLUSION

For all of these reasons, WPHIP respectfully request that the Court grant leave to file the amended complaint and award such other relief as the Court deems just.

Motion Seq. 3
Motion Date: 2/18/2021
DECISION AND ORDER

WALSH, J.

The following e-filed documents, listed in NYSCEF by Document Numbers 51-61, 73-81 were read on this motion by Plaintiff White Plains Healthcare Properties I, LLC ("Plaintiff" or "WPHP") for an order pursuant to CPLR 3025(b) granting it the right to amend its Complaint. Defendants/Third-Party Plaintiffs HBL SNF, LLC ("HBL"), Lizer Jozefovic a/k/a Lizer Jozofovic ("Jozefovic") and Marc Neuman ("Neuman") (collectively "Defendants") oppose Plaintiff's motion. Upon the foregoing papers, and for the reasons set forth herein, Plaintiff's motion is granted.

FACTUAL AND PROCEDURAL BACKGROUND

Plaintiff initiated this action on September 18, 2020 by filing its Summons and Complaint seeking to recover damages due to HBL's alleged default under an amended and restated operating lease dated November 19, 2015 and amended July 12, 2017 (the "Lease"). Pursuant to the Lease, HBL is the tenant and operator of a 160-bed nursing facility that WPHP constructed at 116-120

Church Street, White Plains, New York (the “nursing facility”). On November 5, 2020, Defendants filed their answer with counterclaims and a third-party complaint. On November 13, this Court held a Preliminary Conference and issued a Preliminary Conference Order with a discovery cut-off date of June 4, 2021 and a trial readiness conference scheduled for June 9, 2021.

On November 30, 2020, Plaintiff filed an Amended Verified Complaint in which Plaintiff amended its initial Complaint by adding a Fifth Cause of Action against Jozefovic seeking to enforce a pledge agreement provided by Jozefovic as security against any breach of the Lease (the “Proposed Fifth Cause of Action”). The pledge agreement assigns Jozefovic’s interest in Waterview Acquisition I, LLC (“Waterview”).

By letter dated December 2, 2020, Defendants’ counsel rejected service of the Amended Complaint on the grounds that: (1) the Amended Complaint was not filed within 20 days of Defendants’ Answer, and (2) Jozefovic filed an action in Supreme Court, New York County Index No. 655549/2020 (the “NY Action”) seeking, inter alia, a preliminary injunction enjoining Plaintiff’s sale of Jozefovic’s interest in Waterview. In the NY Action, Jozefovic also asserts a claim of libel based on the Notification WPHP and Howard Fensterman (“Fensterman”) circulated in connection with the proposed sale. Because the NY Action was filed after Plaintiff filed this action, WPHP moved to transfer and consolidate the NY Action with this action. That motion is sub judice before Hon. Nancy Bannon, J.S.C. At various conferences with this Court,<sup>1</sup> WPHP has indicated that it believes the motion will be granted. Defendants agree that if the motion to consolidate is granted, Plaintiff should be permitted to amend its Complaint to add the Proposed Fifth Cause of Action, but unless and until that happens, Defendant oppose Plaintiff’s attempt to amend.

PLAINTIFF’S MOTION TO AMEND

A. Plaintiff’s Contentions in Support of its Motion

In support of its motion to amend, Plaintiff submits: (1) an Affirmation of Alfred E. Donnellan, Esq. dated January 26, 2021, together with its attached exhibits (“Donnellan Aff.”); and (2) a memorandum of law. In his Affirmation, Donnellan asserts that Plaintiff owns a “brand new, state-of-the-art, 160 bed skilled nursing home” in White Plains, New York, and that HBL is the tenant and operator under the Lease (Donnellan Aff. at ¶ 2). Donnellan contends that Jozefovic and Neuman are HBL’s principals and guarantors under the Lease, and the guaranty is subject to a security agreement in which Jozefovic pledged his 71% controlling interest in Waterview as security for HBL’s obligations (“Collateral Assignment”) (id.). Donnellan states that the Proposed Amended Complaint (“PAC”), which is the subject of this motion, seeks to add the Proposed Fifth Cause of Action, which alleges that Jozefovic breached his obligations under the Collateral Assignment by: (1) “voluntarily permitting the amendment of the operating agreement” of Waterview by assigning his controlling interest to Metropolitan Commercial Bank (“MCB”) as security for another obligation; (2) “failing to add defendant Howard Fensterman as a co-signatory to certain accounts held by JP Morgan Chase;" and (3) failing to post an additional security deposit (id. at ¶ 4).

According to counsel, the PAC was filed after the 20-day deadline because of a clerical error, resulting in the PAC being served shortly after Thanksgiving Day weekend (id. at ¶ 5). He contends that Defendants' objections are not a basis for this Court's denial of Plaintiff's motion because: (1) Plaintiff moved to change venue and consolidate the NY Action with this action; and (2) the additional breach claims relate to this action and belong here, "not in the libel action [Jozefovic] commenced in [the NY Action]" (id. at ¶ 6). Counsel further argues that the proposed Fifth Cause of Action is "based on the clear and unambiguous provisions of the [Collateral Assignment] and the Lease," annexed as Exhibit F and Exhibit G, and are "either indisputable or are established by the answer" filed by MCB in the NY Action, annexed as Exhibit H (id. at ¶ 9). According to Donnellan, MCB's answer confirms that Jozefovic pledged his controlling interest in Waterview as collateral to MCB and that Waterview's Operating Agreement was amended to allow him to do so (id. at ¶ 10).<sup>2</sup>

In its memorandum of law, Plaintiff asserts that its motion should be granted because Defendants would not be prejudiced or surprised by the additional cause of action (Plf's Mem. at 2). Plaintiff argues that since the case is in the early stages of discovery, "[D]efendants cannot plausibly claim that they somehow changed their position in reliance on the original complaint, or even that the amended complaint would somehow cause them significant trouble or expense" (id.). Plaintiff further contends there is a lack of surprise since the PAC adds a cause of action against Jozefovic individually for breach of the same provisions of the Lease (id. at 3). Lastly, Plaintiff argues that the allegations contained in the Proposed Fifth Cause of Action have merit because they are based on "clear and unambiguous provisions of the Collateral Assignment and Lease, and many of the allegations contained in the fifth cause of action are indisputable" (id. at 5). In support, Plaintiff relies on MCB's Answer and Jozefovic's affidavit in the NY Action as evidence (id.). Plaintiff also contends that the arguments set forth in Defendants' counsel's letter dated December 2, 2020 are unavailing because: (1) the NY Action began after this one; (2) venue for the NY Action is improper; and (3) Plaintiff has moved to change venue and consolidate the NY Action with this action (id. at 6).

B. Defendants' Contentions in Opposition

In opposition, Defendants submit: (1) an Affirmation in Opposition of John Giardino, Esq. dated February 5, 2021 ("Giardino Opp. Aff."), together with its attached exhibits, and (2) a memorandum of law in opposition.

Because Giardino affirms to various facts without providing a basis for his personal knowledge, they have not been considered for purposes of this motion (United Specialty Ins. Co. v. Columbia Cas. Co., 186 AD3d 650 [2d Dept 2020]; Currie v. Wilhouski, 93 AD2d 816 [2d Dept 2012]). In any event, given the current procedural context of a motion to amend, most of the facts asserted are irrelevant because they simply involve Defendants' contention that: (1) Jozefovic's obligations under the Collateral Assignment were satisfied through his tender of the rent security; and (2) the assignment to MCB was authorized by Plaintiff.<sup>3</sup>

With regard to the facts for which counsel does have personal knowledge, Giardino asserts that on October 6, 2020, he received a "purported Notification Disposition of Collateral issued by DelBello Donnellan Weingarten Wise & Wiederkehr, LLP . . . which announced the intention to sell the Membership Interest at 'public auction,'" (the "Notification") a copy of which is annexed as Exhibit B (Giardino Opp. Aff. at ¶¶ 26-27). According to Giardino, the Notification was not issued in connection with this action, and the Notification is false because Jozefovic is not indebted to WPHP or Howard Fensterman ("Fensterman"), and WPHP and Fensterman have no claim to his Membership Interest, much less the right to sell it at public auction (id. at ¶ 28-29). Giardino asserts that as a result of his receipt of the Notification, he initiated the NY Action against WPHP and Fensterman on October 22, 2020, and that WPHP and Fensterman moved to transfer the venue of the NY Action to Westchester County and to consolidate the NY Action with this action on October 26, 2020 (id. at ¶¶ 30, 32). Counsel states that he rejected the PAC because it was filed more than 20 days after Defendants' answer and because it was based on the same facts and issues as the NY Action (id. at ¶ 36).

In their memorandum of law, Defendants take the position that Plaintiff's motion should be denied because "Plaintiff is attempting to insert duplicative facts and claims from the [NY Action] into this action" (Defs' Opp. Mem. at 1). Defendants repeat the facts asserted in the Giardino affirmation, only some of which have been considered on this motion (id. at 1-4). Defendants' argument rests primarily on the similarity between six paragraphs contained in the affirmative defenses WPHP asserted in its answer in the NY Action and the allegations in the Proposed Fifth Cause of Action (id. at 6-7). Defendants argue that Plaintiff did not include the facts and claims in its original Complaint because this action is limited to the Lease, which is not related to the Collateral Assignment (id. at 7). Defendants contend this is an attempt to force consolidation, which will ultimately prejudice Defendants (id. at 8). Defendants request that this Court either deny Plaintiff's motion, or wait for Justice Bannon to rule on the motion to consolidate (id.).

C. Plaintiff's Contentions in Further Support of the Motion

In reply, Plaintiff submits: (1) a Reply Affirmation of Alfred E. Donnellan, Esq. dated February 18, 2021 ("Donnellan Reply Aff.") and its attached exhibit; and (2) a Reply Memorandum of Law.

In further support of its motion, Plaintiff argues that it was Jozefovic who acted improperly by filing the NY Action "for the obvious and unlawful purpose of dividing the dispute between the parties into two different courts" (Plf's Reply at 1). Plaintiff admits that both actions relate to the same facility and contracts (i.e., the Lease and Collateral Assignment signed by Jozefovic) (id. at 2). However, it is Plaintiff's contention that this action is to enforce the Lease against HBL, which is controlled by Jozefovic who is also the guarantor, while the NY Action seeks to prevent Plaintiff from selling Jozefovic's Membership Interest in Waterview, which was given as collateral for Jozefovic's obligations under the Lease (id.). Plaintiff contends there is no basis for venue in New York County since all the events at issue occurred in Westchester County (id.). Plaintiff alleges the only party who resides in New York County is MCB, who was named as a defendant in that action "for the sole purpose of fabricating venue in New York County" (id. at 3). According to Plaintiff, the complaint in the NY Action seeks no relief from MCB, and MCB is only mentioned in connection with Jozefovic's alleged assignment of his Membership Interest to MCB before assigning it to Plaintiff (id.). Plaintiff contends there is no need for Jozefovic to assert MCB's priority because if the allegations in the NY Action are true, the interest will be sold subject to MCB's rights (id.). According to Plaintiff, the new claim asserted in the PAC is proper because Jozefovic offered his Membership Interest as security under the Lease, and Plaintiff's new cause of action seeks to enforce the terms of the Lease against Jozefovic (id. at 4).

Plaintiff claims that Defendants' argument that they will be prejudiced by having to litigate the same claims between two courts is without merit because Jozefovic initiated the NY Action asserting the same claims arising in this action (id.). Plaintiff further contends that Defendants' arguments in its opposition are inconsistent because "[i]f the claims in this action and the [NY Action] are the 'same,' then the [D]efendants acted improperly by commencing the [NY Action]. If the claims are different, then the [D]efendants' assertion that the proposed amendment to the complaint is improper because it is duplicative of the claims in the [NY Action] is wrong" (id. at 4-5). Plaintiff maintains there is no prejudice to Defendants because the amendment is being sought at the commencement of discovery, and Defendants cannot claim their position changed in reliance on the original complaint (id. at 5). Plaintiff further argues the causes of action and relief sought in this case are separate and distinct from those in the NY Action (id. at 6). According to Plaintiff, in the NY Action, Jozefovic asserts that his Membership Interest in Waterview was improperly noticed for sale and he seeks to prevent the sale claiming damages on the basis of improper notification, scheduling, and conduct of the proposed sale (id. at 7). In this action, Plaintiff seeks to recover damages for breaches of the Lease and Collateral Assignment, and to enforce the guarantees of Jozefovic and Neuman under the Lease. As such, it is Plaintiff's contention that unlike the NY Action, this action seeks no relief concerning the proposed sale of Jozefovic's Membership Interest in Waterview (id.).

D. The PAC

The crux of the proposed amendment is Plaintiff's Proposed Fifth Cause of Action in which Plaintiff seeks to add a new claim alleging breach of contract against Jozefovic based on his alleged "default in the performance of his obligations under the Jozefovic [Collateral Assignment] and HBL's default in the performance of its obligations under the Lease" (PAC at ¶ 100). To support its new cause of action, Plaintiff alleges that Jozefovic executed the Collateral Assignment and "Pledge of Membership Interest and Security Agreement" assigning a "first and superior security interest" in Waterview to WPHP (id. at ¶ 38). Plaintiff alleges that under the Collateral Assignment, Jozefovic agreed not to encumber or use his Waterview Interest as collateral in other transactions, and Jozefovic agreed not to amend or allow an amendment to the Waterview Operating Agreement that would "materially adversely affect" the Collateral Assignment and WPHP's rights to the collateral (id. at ¶¶ 39-40). Plaintiff alleges it perfected its security interests on September 15, 2020 by filing a financing statement under the Uniform Commercial Code ("UCC") (id. at ¶ 42). Plaintiff asserts that in violation of the Collateral Assignment, Jozefovic assigned his Waterview interest to MCB and agreed to allow the Waterview Operating Agreement to be amended (id. at ¶ 43). Plaintiff also alleges that: (1) Jozefovic further breached the Collateral Assignment by "failing to take all of the necessary steps to add Howard Fensterman . . . as a co-signatory to the JP Morgan Chase accounts identified" in the Collateral Assignment (id. at ¶¶ 44-45); and (2) Jozefovic and HBL breached the Collateral Assignment and Lease by failing to post $1.6 million security deposit (id. at ¶¶ 46-47). Plaintiff alleges it is entitled to dispose of Jozefovic's Waterview interest at a public sale as a remedy for his alleged breaches under the Collateral Assignment and Lease (id. at ¶¶ 49-51).

DISCUSSION

CPLR 3025(b) provides that "[a] party may amend his or her pleading . . . at any time by leave of court or by stipulation of all parties. Leave shall be freely given upon such terms as may be just including the granting of costs and continuances" (CPLR 3025[b]). In the absence of prejudice or surprise, leave should be granted unless the amendment is palpably insufficient or patently devoid of merit (Watkins-Bey v City of New York, 174 AD3d 553 [2d Dept 2019]; 39 College Point Corp. v Transpac Capital Corp., 27 AD3d 454 [2d Dept 2006]; Ravnikar v Skyline Credit-Ride, Inc., 79 AD3d 1118 [2d Dept 2010]; Maloney Carpantry, Inc. v Budnik, 37 AD3d 558 [2d Dept 2007]; Emilia v Rahtson Oil Corp., 28 AD3d 417 [2d Dept 2006]). "The burden of demonstrating prejudice or surprise, or that a proposed amendment is palpably insufficient or patently devoid of merit, falls upon the party opposing the motion . . . [and] a party seeking leave to amend is not required to make a showing of merit in the proposed amendment" (National Recruiting Group, LLC v Bern Ripka, LLP, 183 AD3d 831, 832 [2d Dept 2020], quoting Faiella Apts., LLC, 110 AD3d at 1029). While leave to amend a pleading shall be freely granted (see CPLR 3025 [b]), a motion for leave to amend is committed to the broad discretion of the court (see Ravnikar, 79 AD3d at 1119).

A review of the PAC reveals that there is nothing palpably insufficient or patently devoid of merit with regard to the allegations in the Proposed Fifth Cause of Action. Thus, Defendants' argument is predicated on their claim that because WPHP has asserted affirmative defenses in the NY Action which are similar in nature to the allegations contained in the Proposed Fifth Cause of Action, by allowing the amendment, there will be duplicative litigation and presumably, the possibility for a waste of judicial resources and inconsistent determinations.

In its Complaint, Plaintiff already alleges a cause of action against Jozefovic to enforce the terms of the guaranty based on HBL's alleged breach of the Lease. The Collateral Assignment was given by Jozefovic as security for his guaranty and, as such, Plaintiff's Proposed Fifth Cause of Action concerning Jozefovic's alleged breach of the Collateral Assignment is intertwined with not only Plaintiff's existing cause of action seeking to enforce the Jozefovic guaranty,<sup>4</sup> but also its existing cause of action for breach of the Lease.<sup>5</sup> WPHP filed this action more than a month before Jozefovic filed the NY Action. As such, it is this action and not the NY Action which is the first-filed action arising from the alleged breaches by HBL and Jozefovic. One of Plaintiff's remedies for these alleged breaches includes its right to enforce its security interest (i.e., Jozefovic's interest in Waterview). Jozefovic is contending that Plaintiff has no right to proceed with a sale of that interest under the UCC. Given that Jozefovic was granted a TRO from Justice Bannon, he may be correct in his position. Although this Court is not deciding the merits of the motion made by WPHP and Fensterman to transfer and consolidate the NY Action with this action, the Court believes WPHP and Fensterman are likely to be successful. In that event, as Defendants' concede, Plaintiff should be permitted to amend its Complaint in the manner proposed. However, although WPHP has asserted affirmative defenses in the NY Action which include some of the factual allegations supporting its Proposed Fifth Cause of Action, WPHP has not asserted a counterclaim in the NY Action and, as such, it will not be entitled to any affirmative relief in the NY Action. In the event the NY Action is not transferred and consolidated here, the Court has discretion to fashion relief to avoid inconsistent determinations between the NY Action and this action (e.g., by severing and staying any claims/defenses that are duplicative in both actions). Furthermore, Jozefovic should not be rewarded for having filed the NY Action when Jozefovic's claims are related to the claims in this action, particularly given the fact that New York County has no connection to: (1) the parties' residence other than the residence of the nominal defendant MCB; (2) the facility at issue; and (3) the contracts at issue.

<sup>4</sup> In this regard, in its PAC, Plaintiff alleges that the Collateral Assignment "provides that Jozefovic pledges, assigns and grants a first and superior security interest in and to all of his rights, title and interest as a member of Waterview Acquisition I, LLC to WPH Properties in order to secure the obligations under the [Collateral Assignment] and under the Lease" (PAC at ¶ 49).

<sup>5</sup> In this regard, in its PAC, Plaintiff alleges that "Jozefovic and HBL breached their obligation to post the $1,600,000 additional security deposit required by the [Collateral Assignment] and the Lease. Jozefovic's moving of funds into a separate account that he controls does not satisfy the obligation to post the $1.6 million additional security deposit as required by the [Collateral Assignment] and the Lease" (PAC at ¶¶ 46-47).

Finally, Defendants' reliance on CPLR 3211(a)(4)<sup>6</sup> as a basis to deny Plaintiff's motion to amend is unavailing both because it is premature, and because even if Defendants subsequently move to dismiss the Proposed Fifth Cause of Action based on CPLR 3211(a)(4), it is unlikely that this Court would dismiss it. Here, a month after this action was filed, Jozefovic decided to institute the NY Action rather than assert his claims in this action. Although it is true that the NY Action includes a claim of libel that has nothing to do with this action, it is clear that the disposition of Jozefovic's interest in Waterview is a critical issue in this action as it provides the security for Jozefovic's guaranty which Plaintiff is seeking to enforce. Based on the motion papers filed in the NY Action, other than the residence of MCB, these claims all arise out of transactions and entities located in Westchester County and it was likely brought in New York County for tactical advantage.

It is well settled that a court has "broad discretion in considering whether to dismiss an action on the grounds that another action is pending between the same parties on the same cause of action" (Whitney v. Whitney, 57 NY2d 731, 732 [1982]; Simonetti v. Larson, 44 AD3d 1028, 1029 [2d Dept 2007] [court may dismiss subsequently filed action where there is substantial identity between the parties and the causes of action – i.e., "the two actions must be 'sufficiently similar' and the relief sought must be 'the same or substantially the same' ... 'both suits arise out of the same subject matter or series of alleged wrongs'"]). Further, under CPLR 3211(a)(4), if there is another action pending between the same parties for the same causes of action, the court need not dismiss upon this ground but may make such order as justice requires. The rationale for the rule is "to avoid vexatious litigation and duplication of effort, with the attendant risk of divergent rulings on similar issues" (White Light Prods., Inc. v. On The Scene Prods., Inc., 231 AD2d 90,96 [1st Dept 1997]). In deciding the motion, "[t]he court must consider in which jurisdiction litigation was first commenced, how far each litigation has progressed and which forum has a more significant and substantive nexus to the controversy, and thus is the most appropriate forum for its resolution" (Matter of Topps Co., Inc. Shareholder Litig., 2007 NY Slip Op 52543[U], 19 Misc 3d 1103[A] at *2 [Sup Ct NY County 2007]). Thus, "in deciding a motion to dismiss based on the pendency of another action, the analysis is similar to that employed in entertaining a motion predicated on forum non conveniens" (White Light Prods., Inc., 231 AD2d at 570) and the court should consider "whether the litigation and the parties have sufficient contact with this State to justify the burdens imposed on our judicial system" (id. at 572, quoting Flintkote Co. v. American Mut. Liab. Ins. Co., 103 AD2d 501, 506 [2d Dept

A party may move for a judgment dismissing one or more causes of action asserted against him on the ground that ... there is another action pending between the same parties for the same cause of action in a court of any state or the United States; the court need not dismiss upon this ground but may make such order as justice requires ...

1984), affd 67 NY2d 857 (1986)). The issue is one of “judicial economy, the question is which court should defer, as a matter of comity, to the other in order to avoid vexatious litigation and duplication of effort, with the attendant risk of divergent rulings on similar issues” (White Light Prods., Inc., supra, 231 AD2d at 96).

Even though Defendants’ argument based on CPLR 3211(a)(4) is premature, even if Defendants were moving to dismiss the Fifth Cause of Action under CPLR 3211(a)(4), it is not clear to the Court that the two actions are “sufficiently similar” and that relief sought therein is “the same or substantially the same,” as would require the dismissal of it under CPLR 3211(a)(4) (see Whitney, supra, 57 NY2d at 732; Simonetti, supra, 44 AD3d at 1029).

Furthermore, with respect to whether the NY Action was in fact a “prior action pending” for purposes of CPLR 3211(a)(4), the Appellate Division, First Department has noted:

“Another action pending” is, by contrast, a “first-in-time”-oriented defense. Here the focus is shifted from inconvenience to a more objective standard of chronology. A CPLR 3211(1)(4) motion requires, first and foremost, the pendency of another action between the parties which was instituted earlier in time ... and has not yet been terminated .... Priority in time is not always controlling, however. Exceptions to the general application of this defense are recognized where competing actions have been commenced “reasonably close in time” to one another ... Virtually every exception to the first-in-time rule involves competing litigation commenced within days or even hours of each other ... (National Union Fire Ins. Co. of Pittsburgh, PA v. Jordache Enter., Inc., 205 AD2d 341, 343 [1st Dept 1994]).

Thus, even if the NY Action had been, technically speaking, the first action for CPLR 3211(a)(4) purposes, “[w]hile technical priority in the commencement of actions is a factor to be considered in determining whether dismissal pursuant to CPLR 3211(a) is appropriate, it is not necessarily dispositive” and a court will decline to dismiss a second filed action if it is determined that the filing of the action was motivated on the basis of obtaining a tactical advantage through forum shopping (L-3 Communications Corp. v. Safenet, Inc., 45 AD3d 1 [1st Dept 2007]; Seneca Ins. Co. v. Lincolnshire Mgt. Inc., 269 AD2d 274 [1st Dept 2000]; Seaboard Surety Co. v. Gillette Co., 75 AD2d 525 [1st Dept 1980]; National Union Fire Ins. Co. of Pittsburgh, PA, 205 AD2d 341; Aon Risk Serv. v. Cusack, 2012 WL 11009718 [Sup Ct, NY County 2012]). Courts do not favor the tactic by which “a party who has reason to know a lawsuit will be brought against him ... employ[s] the expedient of filing an action to subject his opponent to a preferred forum” (see White Light Productions, Inc., 231 AD2d 90). The use of such a tactic militates in favor of allowing the later filed action to proceed to judgment in the plaintiff’s chosen forum (id.).

Based upon the foregoing, and for the reasons stated above, it is hereby

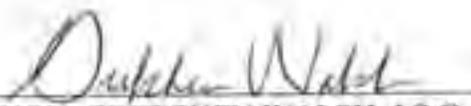

ORDERED that the motion by Plaintiff White Plains Healthcare Properties I, LLC for an order granting it leave to amend its Complaint is granted, and it is further ORDERED that Plaintiff shall serve and file its First Amended Verified Complaint within 7 days of this Decision and Order.

The foregoing constitutes the Decision and Order of this Court.

Motion Seq. 3
Motion Date: 2/18/2021
DECISION AND ORDER

WALSH, J.

The following e-filed documents, listed in NYSCEF by Document Numbers 51-61, 73-81 were read on this motion by Plaintiff White Plains Healthcare Properties I, LLC ("Plaintiff" or "WPHP") for an order pursuant to CPLR 3025(b) granting it the right to amend its Complaint. Defendants/Third-Party Plaintiffs HBL SNF, LLC ("HBL"), Lizer Jozefovic a/k/a Lizer Jozofovic ("Jozefovic") and Marc Neuman ("Neuman") (collectively "Defendants") oppose Plaintiff's motion. Upon the foregoing papers, and for the reasons set forth herein, Plaintiff's motion is granted.

FACTUAL AND PROCEDURAL BACKGROUND

Plaintiff initiated this action on September 18, 2020 by filing its Summons and Complaint seeking to recover damages due to HBL's alleged default under an amended and restated operating lease dated November 19, 2015 and amended July 12, 2017 (the "Lease"). Pursuant to the Lease, HBL is the tenant and operator of a 160-bed nursing facility that WPHP constructed at 116-120

Church Street, White Plains, New York (the “nursing facility”). On November 5, 2020, Defendants filed their answer with counterclaims and a third-party complaint. On November 13, this Court held a Preliminary Conference and issued a Preliminary Conference Order with a discovery cut-off date of June 4, 2021 and a trial readiness conference scheduled for June 9, 2021.

On November 30, 2020, Plaintiff filed an Amended Verified Complaint in which Plaintiff amended its initial Complaint by adding a Fifth Cause of Action against Jozefovic seeking to enforce a pledge agreement provided by Jozefovic as security against any breach of the Lease (the “Proposed Fifth Cause of Action”). The pledge agreement assigns Jozefovic’s interest in Waterview Acquisition I, LLC (“Waterview”).

By letter dated December 2, 2020, Defendants’ counsel rejected service of the Amended Complaint on the grounds that: (1) the Amended Complaint was not filed within 20 days of Defendants’ Answer, and (2) Jozefovic filed an action in Supreme Court, New York County Index No. 655549/2020 (the “NY Action”) seeking, inter alia, a preliminary injunction enjoining Plaintiff’s sale of Jozefovic’s interest in Waterview. In the NY Action, Jozefovic also asserts a claim of libel based on the Notification WPHP and Howard Fensterman (“Fensterman”) circulated in connection with the proposed sale. Because the NY Action was filed after Plaintiff filed this action, WPHP moved to transfer and consolidate the NY Action with this action. That motion is sub judice before Hon. Nancy Bannon, J.S.C. At various conferences with this Court,<sup>1</sup> WPHP has indicated that it believes the motion will be granted. Defendants agree that if the motion to consolidate is granted, Plaintiff should be permitted to amend its Complaint to add the Proposed Fifth Cause of Action, but unless and until that happens, Defendant oppose Plaintiff’s attempt to amend.

PLAINTIFF’S MOTION TO AMEND

A. Plaintiff’s Contentions in Support of its Motion

In support of its motion to amend, Plaintiff submits: (1) an Affirmation of Alfred E. Donnellan, Esq. dated January 26, 2021, together with its attached exhibits (“Donnellan Aff.”); and (2) a memorandum of law. In his Affirmation, Donnellan asserts that Plaintiff owns a “brand new, state-of-the-art, 160 bed skilled nursing home” in White Plains, New York, and that HBL is the tenant and operator under the Lease (Donnellan Aff. at ¶ 2). Donnellan contends that Jozefovic and Neuman are HBL’s principals and guarantors under the Lease, and the guaranty is subject to a security agreement in which Jozefovic pledged his 71% controlling interest in Waterview as security for HBL’s obligations (“Collateral Assignment”) (id.). Donnellan states that the Proposed Amended Complaint (“PAC”), which is the subject of this motion, seeks to add the Proposed Fifth Cause of Action, which alleges that Jozefovic breached his obligations under the Collateral Assignment by: (1) “voluntarily permitting the amendment of the operating agreement” of Waterview by assigning his controlling interest to Metropolitan Commercial Bank (“MCB”) as security for another obligation; (2) “failing to add defendant Howard Fensterman as a co-signatory to certain accounts held by JP Morgan Chase;" and (3) failing to post an additional security deposit (id. at ¶ 4).

According to counsel, the PAC was filed after the 20-day deadline because of a clerical error, resulting in the PAC being served shortly after Thanksgiving Day weekend (id. at ¶ 5). He contends that Defendants' objections are not a basis for this Court's denial of Plaintiff's motion because: (1) Plaintiff moved to change venue and consolidate the NY Action with this action; and (2) the additional breach claims relate to this action and belong here, "not in the libel action [Jozefovic] commenced in [the NY Action]" (id. at ¶ 6). Counsel further argues that the proposed Fifth Cause of Action is "based on the clear and unambiguous provisions of the [Collateral Assignment] and the Lease," annexed as Exhibit F and Exhibit G, and are "either indisputable or are established by the answer" filed by MCB in the NY Action, annexed as Exhibit H (id. at ¶ 9). According to Donnellan, MCB's answer confirms that Jozefovic pledged his controlling interest in Waterview as collateral to MCB and that Waterview's Operating Agreement was amended to allow him to do so (id. at ¶ 10).<sup>2</sup>

In its memorandum of law, Plaintiff asserts that its motion should be granted because Defendants would not be prejudiced or surprised by the additional cause of action (Plf's Mem. at 2). Plaintiff argues that since the case is in the early stages of discovery, "[D]efendants cannot plausibly claim that they somehow changed their position in reliance on the original complaint, or even that the amended complaint would somehow cause them significant trouble or expense" (id.). Plaintiff further contends there is a lack of surprise since the PAC adds a cause of action against Jozefovic individually for breach of the same provisions of the Lease (id. at 3). Lastly, Plaintiff argues that the allegations contained in the Proposed Fifth Cause of Action have merit because they are based on "clear and unambiguous provisions of the Collateral Assignment and Lease, and many of the allegations contained in the fifth cause of action are indisputable" (id. at 5). In support, Plaintiff relies on MCB's Answer and Jozefovic's affidavit in the NY Action as evidence (id.). Plaintiff also contends that the arguments set forth in Defendants' counsel's letter dated December 2, 2020 are unavailing because: (1) the NY Action began after this one; (2) venue for the NY Action is improper; and (3) Plaintiff has moved to change venue and consolidate the NY Action with this action (id. at 6).

B. Defendants' Contentions in Opposition

In opposition, Defendants submit: (1) an Affirmation in Opposition of John Giardino, Esq. dated February 5, 2021 ("Giardino Opp. Aff."), together with its attached exhibits, and (2) a memorandum of law in opposition.

Because Giardino affirms to various facts without providing a basis for his personal knowledge, they have not been considered for purposes of this motion (United Specialty Ins. Co. v. Columbia Cas. Co., 186 AD3d 650 [2d Dept 2020]; Currie v. Wilhouski, 93 AD2d 816 [2d Dept 2012]). In any event, given the current procedural context of a motion to amend, most of the facts asserted are irrelevant because they simply involve Defendants' contention that: (1) Jozefovic's obligations under the Collateral Assignment were satisfied through his tender of the rent security; and (2) the assignment to MCB was authorized by Plaintiff.<sup>3</sup>

With regard to the facts for which counsel does have personal knowledge, Giardino asserts that on October 6, 2020, he received a "purported Notification Disposition of Collateral issued by DelBello Donnellan Weingarten Wise & Wiederkehr, LLP . . . which announced the intention to sell the Membership Interest at 'public auction,'" (the "Notification") a copy of which is annexed as Exhibit B (Giardino Opp. Aff. at ¶¶ 26-27). According to Giardino, the Notification was not issued in connection with this action, and the Notification is false because Jozefovic is not indebted to WPHP or Howard Fensterman ("Fensterman"), and WPHP and Fensterman have no claim to his Membership Interest, much less the right to sell it at public auction (id. at ¶ 28-29). Giardino asserts that as a result of his receipt of the Notification, he initiated the NY Action against WPHP and Fensterman on October 22, 2020, and that WPHP and Fensterman moved to transfer the venue of the NY Action to Westchester County and to consolidate the NY Action with this action on October 26, 2020 (id. at ¶¶ 30, 32). Counsel states that he rejected the PAC because it was filed more than 20 days after Defendants' answer and because it was based on the same facts and issues as the NY Action (id. at ¶ 36).

In their memorandum of law, Defendants take the position that Plaintiff's motion should be denied because "Plaintiff is attempting to insert duplicative facts and claims from the [NY Action] into this action" (Defs' Opp. Mem. at 1). Defendants repeat the facts asserted in the Giardino affirmation, only some of which have been considered on this motion (id. at 1-4). Defendants' argument rests primarily on the similarity between six paragraphs contained in the affirmative defenses WPHP asserted in its answer in the NY Action and the allegations in the Proposed Fifth Cause of Action (id. at 6-7). Defendants argue that Plaintiff did not include the facts and claims in its original Complaint because this action is limited to the Lease, which is not related to the Collateral Assignment (id. at 7). Defendants contend this is an attempt to force consolidation, which will ultimately prejudice Defendants (id. at 8). Defendants request that this Court either deny Plaintiff's motion, or wait for Justice Bannon to rule on the motion to consolidate (id.).

C. Plaintiff's Contentions in Further Support of the Motion

In reply, Plaintiff submits: (1) a Reply Affirmation of Alfred E. Donnellan, Esq. dated February 18, 2021 ("Donnellan Reply Aff.") and its attached exhibit; and (2) a Reply Memorandum of Law.

In further support of its motion, Plaintiff argues that it was Jozefovic who acted improperly by filing the NY Action "for the obvious and unlawful purpose of dividing the dispute between the parties into two different courts" (Plf's Reply at 1). Plaintiff admits that both actions relate to the same facility and contracts (i.e., the Lease and Collateral Assignment signed by Jozefovic) (id. at 2). However, it is Plaintiff's contention that this action is to enforce the Lease against HBL, which is controlled by Jozefovic who is also the guarantor, while the NY Action seeks to prevent Plaintiff from selling Jozefovic's Membership Interest in Waterview, which was given as collateral for Jozefovic's obligations under the Lease (id.). Plaintiff contends there is no basis for venue in New York County since all the events at issue occurred in Westchester County (id.). Plaintiff alleges the only party who resides in New York County is MCB, who was named as a defendant in that action "for the sole purpose of fabricating venue in New York County" (id. at 3). According to Plaintiff, the complaint in the NY Action seeks no relief from MCB, and MCB is only mentioned in connection with Jozefovic's alleged assignment of his Membership Interest to MCB before assigning it to Plaintiff (id.). Plaintiff contends there is no need for Jozefovic to assert MCB's priority because if the allegations in the NY Action are true, the interest will be sold subject to MCB's rights (id.). According to Plaintiff, the new claim asserted in the PAC is proper because Jozefovic offered his Membership Interest as security under the Lease, and Plaintiff's new cause of action seeks to enforce the terms of the Lease against Jozefovic (id. at 4).

Plaintiff claims that Defendants' argument that they will be prejudiced by having to litigate the same claims between two courts is without merit because Jozefovic initiated the NY Action asserting the same claims arising in this action (id.). Plaintiff further contends that Defendants' arguments in its opposition are inconsistent because "[i]f the claims in this action and the [NY Action] are the 'same,' then the [D]efendants acted improperly by commencing the [NY Action]. If the claims are different, then the [D]efendants' assertion that the proposed amendment to the complaint is improper because it is duplicative of the claims in the [NY Action] is wrong" (id. at 4-5). Plaintiff maintains there is no prejudice to Defendants because the amendment is being sought at the commencement of discovery, and Defendants cannot claim their position changed in reliance on the original complaint (id. at 5). Plaintiff further argues the causes of action and relief sought in this case are separate and distinct from those in the NY Action (id. at 6). According to Plaintiff, in the NY Action, Jozefovic asserts that his Membership Interest in Waterview was improperly noticed for sale and he seeks to prevent the sale claiming damages on the basis of improper notification, scheduling, and conduct of the proposed sale (id. at 7). In this action, Plaintiff seeks to recover damages for breaches of the Lease and Collateral Assignment, and to enforce the guarantees of Jozefovic and Neuman under the Lease. As such, it is Plaintiff's contention that unlike the NY Action, this action seeks no relief concerning the proposed sale of Jozefovic's Membership Interest in Waterview (id.).

D. The PAC

The crux of the proposed amendment is Plaintiff's Proposed Fifth Cause of Action in which Plaintiff seeks to add a new claim alleging breach of contract against Jozefovic based on his alleged "default in the performance of his obligations under the Jozefovic [Collateral Assignment] and HBL's default in the performance of its obligations under the Lease" (PAC at ¶ 100). To support its new cause of action, Plaintiff alleges that Jozefovic executed the Collateral Assignment and "Pledge of Membership Interest and Security Agreement" assigning a "first and superior security interest" in Waterview to WPHP (id. at ¶ 38). Plaintiff alleges that under the Collateral Assignment, Jozefovic agreed not to encumber or use his Waterview Interest as collateral in other transactions, and Jozefovic agreed not to amend or allow an amendment to the Waterview Operating Agreement that would "materially adversely affect" the Collateral Assignment and WPHP's rights to the collateral (id. at ¶¶ 39-40). Plaintiff alleges it perfected its security interests on September 15, 2020 by filing a financing statement under the Uniform Commercial Code ("UCC") (id. at ¶ 42). Plaintiff asserts that in violation of the Collateral Assignment, Jozefovic assigned his Waterview interest to MCB and agreed to allow the Waterview Operating Agreement to be amended (id. at ¶ 43). Plaintiff also alleges that: (1) Jozefovic further breached the Collateral Assignment by "failing to take all of the necessary steps to add Howard Fensterman . . . as a co-signatory to the JP Morgan Chase accounts identified" in the Collateral Assignment (id. at ¶¶ 44-45); and (2) Jozefovic and HBL breached the Collateral Assignment and Lease by failing to post $1.6 million security deposit (id. at ¶¶ 46-47). Plaintiff alleges it is entitled to dispose of Jozefovic's Waterview interest at a public sale as a remedy for his alleged breaches under the Collateral Assignment and Lease (id. at ¶¶ 49-51).

DISCUSSION

CPLR 3025(b) provides that "[a] party may amend his or her pleading . . . at any time by leave of court or by stipulation of all parties. Leave shall be freely given upon such terms as may be just including the granting of costs and continuances" (CPLR 3025[b]). In the absence of prejudice or surprise, leave should be granted unless the amendment is palpably insufficient or patently devoid of merit (Watkins-Bey v City of New York, 174 AD3d 553 [2d Dept 2019]; 39 College Point Corp. v Transpac Capital Corp., 27 AD3d 454 [2d Dept 2006]; Ravnikar v Skyline Credit-Ride, Inc., 79 AD3d 1118 [2d Dept 2010]; Maloney Carpentry, Inc. v Budnik, 37 AD3d 558 [2d Dept 2007]; Emilia v Rahtson Oil Corp., 28 AD3d 417 [2d Dept 2006]). "The burden of demonstrating prejudice or surprise, or that a proposed amendment is palpably insufficient or patently devoid of merit, falls upon the party opposing the motion . . . [and] a party seeking leave to amend is not required to make a showing of merit in the proposed amendment" (National Recruiting Group, LLC v Bern Ripka, LLP, 183 AD3d 831, 832 [2d Dept 2020], quoting Faiella Apts., LLC, 110 AD3d at 1029). While leave to amend a pleading shall be freely granted (see CPLR 3025 [b]), a motion for leave to amend is committed to the broad discretion of the court (see Ravnikar, 79 AD3d at 1119).

A review of the PAC reveals that there is nothing palpably insufficient or patently devoid of merit with regard to the allegations in the Proposed Fifth Cause of Action. Thus, Defendants' argument is predicated on their claim that because WPHP has asserted affirmative defenses in the NY Action which are similar in nature to the allegations contained in the Proposed Fifth Cause of Action, by allowing the amendment, there will be duplicative litigation and presumably, the possibility for a waste of judicial resources and inconsistent determinations.

In its Complaint, Plaintiff already alleges a cause of action against Jozefovic to enforce the terms of the guaranty based on HBL's alleged breach of the Lease. The Collateral Assignment was given by Jozefovic as security for his guaranty and, as such, Plaintiff's Proposed Fifth Cause of Action concerning Jozefovic's alleged breach of the Collateral Assignment is intertwined with not only Plaintiff's existing cause of action seeking to enforce the Jozefovic guaranty,<sup>4</sup> but also its existing cause of action for breach of the Lease.<sup>5</sup> WPHP filed this action more than a month before Jozefovic filed the NY Action. As such, it is this action and not the NY Action which is the first-filed action arising from the alleged breaches by HBL and Jozefovic. One of Plaintiff's remedies for these alleged breaches includes its right to enforce its security interest (i.e., Jozefovic's interest in Waterview). Jozefovic is contending that Plaintiff has no right to proceed with a sale of that interest under the UCC. Given that Jozefovic was granted a TRO from Justice Bannon, he may be correct in his position. Although this Court is not deciding the merits of the motion made by WPHP and Fensterman to transfer and consolidate the NY Action with this action, the Court believes WPHP and Fensterman are likely to be successful. In that event, as Defendants' concede, Plaintiff should be permitted to amend its Complaint in the manner proposed. However, although WPHP has asserted affirmative defenses in the NY Action which include some of the factual allegations supporting its Proposed Fifth Cause of Action, WPHP has not asserted a counterclaim in the NY Action and, as such, it will not be entitled to any affirmative relief in the NY Action. In the event the NY Action is not transferred and consolidated here, the Court has discretion to fashion relief to avoid inconsistent determinations between the NY Action and this action (e.g., by severing and staying any claims/defenses that are duplicative in both actions). Furthermore, Jozefovic should not be rewarded for having filed the NY Action when Jozefovic's claims are related to the claims in this action, particularly given the fact that New York County has no connection to: (1) the parties' residence other than the residence of the nominal defendant MCB; (2) the facility at issue; and (3) the contracts at issue.

<sup>4</sup> In this regard, in its PAC, Plaintiff alleges that the Collateral Assignment "provides that Jozefovic pledges, assigns and grants a first and superior security interest in and to all of his rights, title and interest as a member of Waterview Acquisition I, LLC to WPH Properties in order to secure the obligations under the [Collateral Assignment] and under the Lease" (PAC at ¶ 49).

<sup>5</sup> In this regard, in its PAC, Plaintiff alleges that "Jozefovic and HBL breached their obligation to post the $1,600,000 additional security deposit required by the [Collateral Assignment] and the Lease. Jozefovic's moving of funds into a separate account that he controls does not satisfy the obligation to post the $1.6 million additional security deposit as required by the [Collateral Assignment] and the Lease" (PAC at ¶¶ 46-47).

Finally, Defendants' reliance on CPLR 3211(a)(4)<sup>6</sup> as a basis to deny Plaintiff's motion to amend is unavailing both because it is premature, and because even if Defendants subsequently move to dismiss the Proposed Fifth Cause of Action based on CPLR 3211(a)(4), it is unlikely that this Court would dismiss it. Here, a month after this action was filed, Jozefovic decided to institute the NY Action rather than assert his claims in this action. Although it is true that the NY Action includes a claim of libel that has nothing to do with this action, it is clear that the disposition of Jozefovic's interest in Waterview is a critical issue in this action as it provides the security for Jozefovic's guaranty which Plaintiff is seeking to enforce. Based on the motion papers filed in the NY Action, other than the residence of MCB, these claims all arise out of transactions and entities located in Westchester County and it was likely brought in New York County for tactical advantage.

It is well settled that a court has "broad discretion in considering whether to dismiss an action on the grounds that another action is pending between the same parties on the same cause of action" (Whitney v. Whitney, 57 NY2d 731, 732 [1982]; Simonetti v. Larson, 44 AD3d 1028, 1029 [2d Dept 2007] [court may dismiss subsequently filed action where there is substantial identity between the parties and the causes of action – i.e., "the two actions must be 'sufficiently similar' and the relief sought must be 'the same or substantially the same' ... 'both suits arise out of the same subject matter or series of alleged wrongs'"]). Further, under CPLR 3211(a)(4), if there is another action pending between the same parties for the same causes of action, the court need not dismiss upon this ground but may make such order as justice requires. The rationale for the rule is "to avoid vexatious litigation and duplication of effort, with the attendant risk of divergent rulings on similar issues" (White Light Prods., Inc. v. On The Scene Prods., Inc., 231 AD2d 90,96 [1st Dept 1997]). In deciding the motion, "[t]he court must consider in which jurisdiction litigation was first commenced, how far each litigation has progressed and which forum has a more significant and substantive nexus to the controversy, and thus is the most appropriate forum for its resolution" (Matter of Topps Co., Inc. Shareholder Litig., 2007 NY Slip Op 52543[U], 19 Misc 3d 1103[A] at *2 [Sup Ct NY County 2007]). Thus, "in deciding a motion to dismiss based on the pendency of another action, the analysis is similar to that employed in entertaining a motion predicated on forum non conveniens" (White Light Prods., Inc., 231 AD2d at 570) and the court should consider "whether the litigation and the parties have sufficient contact with this State to justify the burdens imposed on our judicial system" (id. at 572, quoting Flintkote Co. v. American Mut. Liab. Ins. Co., 103 AD2d 501, 506 [2d Dept

A party may move for a judgment dismissing one or more causes of action asserted against him on the ground that ... there is another action pending between the same parties for the same cause of action in a court of any state or the United States; the court need not dismiss upon this ground but may make such order as justice requires ...

1984), affd 67 NY2d 857 (1986)). The issue is one of “judicial economy, the question is which court should defer, as a matter of comity, to the other in order to avoid vexatious litigation and duplication of effort, with the attendant risk of divergent rulings on similar issues” (White Light Prods., Inc., supra, 231 AD2d at 96).

Even though Defendants’ argument based on CPLR 3211(a)(4) is premature, even if Defendants were moving to dismiss the Fifth Cause of Action under CPLR 3211(a)(4), it is not clear to the Court that the two actions are “sufficiently similar” and that relief sought therein is “the same or substantially the same,” as would require the dismissal of it under CPLR 3211(a)(4) (see Whitney, supra, 57 NY2d at 732; Simonetti, supra, 44 AD3d at 1029).

Furthermore, with respect to whether the NY Action was in fact a “prior action pending” for purposes of CPLR 3211(a)(4), the Appellate Division, First Department has noted:

“Another action pending” is, by contrast, a “first-in-time”-oriented defense. Here the focus is shifted from inconvenience to a more objective standard of chronology. A CPLR 3211(1)(4) motion requires, first and foremost, the pendency of another action between the parties which was instituted earlier in time ... and has not yet been terminated .... Priority in time is not always controlling, however. Exceptions to the general application of this defense are recognized where competing actions have been commenced “reasonably close in time” to one another ... Virtually every exception to the first-in-time rule involves competing litigation commenced within days or even hours of each other ... (National Union Fire Ins. Co. of Pittsburgh, PA v. Jordache Enter., Inc., 205 AD2d 341, 343 [1st Dept 1994]).

Thus, even if the NY Action had been, technically speaking, the first action for CPLR 3211(a)(4) purposes, “[w]hile technical priority in the commencement of actions is a factor to be considered in determining whether dismissal pursuant to CPLR 3211(a) is appropriate, it is not necessarily dispositive” and a court will decline to dismiss a second filed action if it is determined that the filing of the action was motivated on the basis of obtaining a tactical advantage through forum shopping (L-3 Communications Corp. v. Safenet, Inc., 45 AD3d 1 [1st Dept 2007]; Seneca Ins. Co. v. Lincolnshire Mgt. Inc., 269 AD2d 274 [1st Dept 2000]; Seaboard Surety Co. v. Gillette Co., 75 AD2d 525 [1st Dept 1980]; National Union Fire Ins. Co. of Pittsburgh, PA, 205 AD2d 341; Aon Risk Serv. v. Cusack, 2012 WL 11009718 [Sup Ct, NY County 2012]). Courts do not favor the tactic by which “a party who has reason to know a lawsuit will be brought against him ... employ[s] the expedient of filing an action to subject his opponent to a preferred forum” (see White Light Productions, Inc., 231 AD2d 90). The use of such a tactic militates in favor of allowing the later filed action to proceed to judgment in the plaintiff’s chosen forum (id.).

Based upon the foregoing, and for the reasons stated above, it is hereby

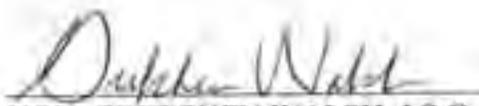

ORDERED that the motion by Plaintiff White Plains Healthcare Properties I, LLC for an order granting it leave to amend its Complaint is granted, and it is further ORDERED that Plaintiff shall serve and file its First Amended Verified Complaint within 7 days of this Decision and Order.

The foregoing constitutes the Decision and Order of this Court.

Index No. 60278/2020

FIRST AMENDED VERIFIED COMPLAINT

Plaintiff, White Plains Healthcare Properties I, LLC ("WPH Properties"), by its attorneys, DeHelle, Donnellan, Weingarten, Wise & Wiederkehr, LLP and Abrams, Fensterman, Fensterman, Eisman, Formato, Ferrara, Wolf & Carone, LLP, for its amended verified complaint against defendants, HBL SNF, LLC ("HBL"), Lizer Jozefovic a/k/a Lizer Jozefovic ("Jozefovic") and Mark Neuman ("Neuman"), alleges:

NATURE OF THE CASE

1. This action concerns HBL's material default of its obligations under an amended and restated operating lease dated as of November 19, 2015 (the "Lease"), by which WPH Properties leased to HBL a brand new, state-of-the-art, 160-bed skilled nursing facility that WPH Properties constructed at 116-120 Church Street, White Plains, New York.

2. WPH Properties had constructed the nursing facility and entered into the Lease with HBL, dated November 19, 2015. The Lease was amended and restated in 2017. It provided that HBL would operate the facility for 30 years. The Lease commenced on September 30, 2019. HBL took possession of the facility on September 30, 2019. By the end of October 2019, HBL had defaulted.

3. On January 7, 2020, WPH Properties served notice of default and elected to terminate the Lease and accelerate all rents due. This action seeks to recover from HBL the Rent it owes and the other damages its defaults have caused and to enforce the unconditional guaranties of HBL's performance under the Lease given by Neuman and Jozefovic.

PARTIES AND VENUE

4. WPH Properties is a limited liability company duly organized and existing under the laws of the State of Massachusetts, with its principal place of business at 2 Bourbon Street, Suite 200, Peabody, Massachusetts. WPH Properties is duly authorized to do business in the State of New York.

5. HBL was and is a limited liability company duly organized and existing under the laws of the State of New York with an address and place of business at 537 Route 22, Purdys, New York.

6. Jozefovic is an individual residing at 53 Mariner Way, Monsey, New York, with a business address and place of business at HBL, 537 Route 22, Purdys, New York.

7. Neuman is an individual residing at 22 Lyncrest Drive, Monsey, New York, with a business address and place of business at HBL, 537 Route 22, Purdys, New York.

8. Pursuant to CPLR § 503(a), venue is properly designated in Westchester County based on the residences of WPH Properties and HBL, because a substantial part of the events giving rise to the claim occurred in Westchester County and because HBL and WPH Properties agreed in the Lease that any action or proceeding arising out of the Lease be brought in Westchester County. Lease § 20.1(b).

FACTS

9. WPH Properties is and was at all relevant times the owner of the real property known as 116-120 Church Street, White Plains, New York (the "Real Property").

10. WPH Properties constructed a brand new, state-of-the-art, 160-bed skilled nursing facility on the Real Property.

THE LEASE

11. In 2017, WPH Properties, as landlord, and HBL, as tenant, entered into the amended and restated Lease, dated as of November 19, 2015, under which WPH Properties leased to HBL the Real Property and the improvements to be constructed on the Real Property, together with other assets, all as defined in Section 2.1 of the Lease (the "Facility"). A true and accurate copy of the Lease is annexed to this complaint as Exhibit 1 and is incorporated into this complaint by reference.

12. WPH Properties obtained a certificate of occupancy for the Facility on August 22, 2019.

13. HBL entered into possession of the Facility on September 30, 2019.

14. The Lease provided for a term of 30 years, with three 10-year options to the tenant, unless sooner terminated. Exhibit 1, Lease, § 3.1.

15. The Lease obligated HBL to pay WPH Properties annual fixed rent of $6,073,158 in monthly installments of $506,096.50 (the "Fixed Rent"). Exhibit 1, Lease, § 3.2

16. The Lease also obligated HBL to pay WPH Properties other amounts which are defined as "Additional Rent." Fixed Rent and Additional Rent are referred to collectively as "Rent."

17. The Lease obligated HBL to pay all charges for electricity, steam, telephone, cable, gas, oil, water, sewer and all other services or utilities used on or related to the Premises during the Term. Exhibit 1, Lease, § 4.1.

18. The Lease obligated HBL to pay, before penalties are incurred, all real estate taxes, assessments, utility charges and other taxes. Exhibit 1, Lease, § 4.2.

19. The Lease obligated HBL to keep the Premises in good condition and repair including, at HBL's sole cost and expense, payment of all utility service and maintenance deposits and expenses relating to the Premises. Exhibit 1, Lease, § 5.2.

20. The Lease obligated HBL to deliver a guarantee of all obligations owed by HBL under the Lease from Jozefovic (the "Jozefovic Guaranty") and from Neuman (the "Neuman Guaranty"). Exhibit 1, Lease, § 7.1.

21. A true and accurate copy of the Jozefovic Guaranty is annexed to this complaint as Exhibit 2.

22. A true and accurate copy of the Neuman Guaranty is annexed to this complaint as Exhibit 3.

23. Pursuant to the Jozefovic Guaranty, Jozefovic absolutely, unconditionally and irrevocably guaranteed the full and prompt payment of all rent, sums and charges of every type and nature payable by HBL under the Lease, whether due by acceleration or otherwise, and the full, timely and complete performance of all obligations to be performed by HBL under the Lease, including obligations that survive termination of the Lease.

24. The Jozefovic Guaranty is an absolute and unconditional guaranty of payment and of performance and is enforceable against Jozefovic without the necessity of any notice of nonpayment, nonperformance or nonobservance, or any notice or demand, all of which Jozefovic expressly waived

25. Pursuant to the Neuman Guaranty, Neuman absolutely, unconditionally and irrevocably guaranteed the full and prompt payment of all rent, sums and charges of every type and nature payable by HBL under the Lease, whether due by acceleration or otherwise, and the full, timely and complete performance of all obligations to be performed by HBL under the Lease, including obligations that survive termination of the Lease.

26. The Neuman Guaranty is an absolute and unconditional guaranty of payment and of performance and is enforceable against Neuman without the necessity of any notice of nonpayment, nonperformance or nonobservance, or any notice or demand, all of which Neuman expressly waived.

27. The Lease obligated HBL to deliver to WPH Properties, before the commencement date of the Lease, an agreement by Capital Funding Group by which Capital Funding Group agreed to allow HBL to draw down on its credit line each month so as to enable Capital Funding Group to pay the Fixed Rent each month directly to WPH Properties on the commencement date and for the following 11 months. Exhibit 1, Lease, § 7.1.

28. The Lease obligated HBL to deliver to WPH Properties, before the commencement date of the Lease, an unconditional letter of credit or cash in the amount of 53,700,000 to secure the full and timely performance of its obligations under the Lease. Exhibit 1, Lease, § 7.1

29. The Lease obligated HBL to deliver to WPH Properties, before the commencement date of the Lease, $1,600,000 as an additional security deposit. Exhibit 1, Lease, § 7.1.

30. The Lease obligated HBL to provide WPH Properties all reports, statements and inspections as defined in the Lease, including all Medicare, Medicaid and other provider agreements and reimbursement rates for the Facility, updated reimbursement rates, financial reporting and written reports providing an operational overview of significant events and circumstances on a monthly basis. Exhibit 1, Lease, § 7.4.

31. The Lease obligated HBL to maintain working capital accounts in specified amounts. Exhibit 1, Lease, § 7.7.

32. The Lease provides that HBL will be in default of the Lease if, among other things, (i) HBL fails to pay any installment of Rent within five days of the date when Rent was due; (ii) HBL defaults in the prompt and full performance of any other of its obligations and fails to correct that failure within 30 days of receipt of written notice from WPH Properties of the default; (iii) HBL fails to give WPH Properties timely notice or timely deliver copies of documents as required by Section 7.4 of the Lease; (iv) HBL defaults or breaches the provisions of Section 7.4(b); (v) a Guarantor defaults beyond expiration of any applicable cure period; or (vi) any governmental authority assesses a fine or penalty against HBL in an amount in excess of $75,000. Exhibit 1, Lease, § 16.1.

33. WPH Properties performed all of the conditions on its part required by the Lease.

34. The Lease provides in Section 16.1 that upon the occurrence of a default by HBL, WPH Properties may, upon five days written notice, terminate the Lease, accelerate the payment of all Rent for the balance of the Term and declare the Rent presently due and payable in full, requiring HBL to pay to WPH Properties the present value of the accelerated Rent.

35. Section 16.1 of the Lease also provides that upon the occurrence of a default, and in addition to all of the other remedies provided for in the Lease, WPH Properties is immediately entitled to retain the security deposit required by Section 7.1 of the Lease and HBL has no further claim, right, title or interest therein to the extent of WPH Properties' claims.

36. Section 16.1 of the Lease also provides that upon the occurrence of a default and the commencement of an action for Rent or for any other amount due under the Lease, HBL must pay to WPH Properties all of the expenses, including reasonable attorneys' fees, incurred by WPH Properties to enforce the Lease.

37. In addition, under the terms of the Lease, HBL's continuation in occupancy after termination does not constitute a renewal of the Lease, but HBL becomes a tenant month-to-month for a rental of 300% of the most recent Rent payable by HBL under the Lease. Exhibit 1, Lease, § 20.13.

THE JOZEFOVIC SECURITY AGREEMENT

38. On August 11, 2017 Jozefovic executed a Collateral Assignment and Pledge of Membership Interest and Security Agreement (the "Jozefovic Security Agreement"), assigning to WPH Properties' nominee a first and superior security interest in Jozefovic's interest in Waterview Acquisition I, LLC (the "Jozefovic Waterview Collateral") in order to secure the obligations under the Jozefovic Security Agreement and under the Lease. A true and accurate copy of the Jozefovic Security Agreement is annexed to this complaint as Exhibit 4.

39. The Jozefovic Security Agreement provides that Jozefovic has not and will not enter into any assignment, mortgage, pledge or other instrument which transfers or encumbers all or any part of the Jozefovic Waterview Collateral. Exhibit 4, Jozefovic Security Agreement § 3

40. The Jozefovic Security Agreement further provides that Jozefovic agrees not to subsequently further amend or voluntarily permit the amendment of the Waterview Acquisition I,

LLC Operating Agreement that would in any manner materially adversely affect the Jozefovic Security Agreement and/or the rights of WPH Properties, Exhibit 4, Jozefovic Security Agreement § 4

41. On September 15, 2020 WPH Properties duly perfected its security interest with respect to the Jozefovic Waterview Collateral by filing a UCC financing statement.

42. Upon information and belief, in or around December 2019, Jozefovic assigned the Jozefovic Waterview Collateral to Metropolitan Commercial Bank ("MCB") to secure Jozefovic's obligation to repay a $3,000,000 loan from MCB to Jozefovic.

43. Upon information and belief, to effectuate Jozefovic's assignment of the Jozefovic Waterview Collateral to MCB, Jozefovic agreed to and voluntarily permitted the amendment of the Waterview Acquisition I, LLC Operating Agreement.

44. Jozefovic breached his obligations under the Jozefovic Security Agreement by agreeing to and voluntarily permitting the amendment of the Waterview Acquisition I, LLC Operating Agreement and assigning the Jozefovic Waterview Collateral to MCB.

45. Jozefovic further breached the Jozefovic Security Agreement by failing to take all of the necessary steps to add Howard Fensterman, a principal of WPH Properties, as a co-signatory to the JP Morgan Chase accounts identified therein as required by the Jozefovic Security Agreement.

46. Jozefovic and HBL breached their obligation to post the $1,600,000 additional security deposit required by the Jozefovic Security Agreement and the Lease.

47. Jozefovic's moving of funds into a separate account that he controls does not satisfy the obligation to post the $1.6 million additional security deposit as required by the Jozefovic

Security Agreement and the Lease.

48. Jozefovic's and HBL's failure to satisfy the obligation to post the $1.6 million additional security deposit constitutes a breach of the Jozefovic Security Agreement and a breach of the Lease.

49. The Jozefovic Security Agreement provides that Jozefovic pledges, assigns and grants a first and superior security interest in and to all of his rights, title and interest as a member of Waterview Acquisition I, LLC to WPH Properties in order to secure the obligations under the Jozefovic Security Agreement and under the Lease.

50. Pursuant to the remedies granted to WPH Properties under the UCC and the Jozefovic Security Agreement, in the event of a default, WPH Properties is entitled, among other remedies, to dispose of the Jozefovic Waterview Collateral at a public sale.

51. Jozefovic breached the Jozefovic Security Agreement and materially and adversely affected the Jozefovic Waterview Collateral and the rights of WPH Properties by (i) agreeing to and voluntarily permitting the amendment of the Waterview Acquisition I, LLC Operating Agreement; and (ii) assigning the Jozefovic Waterview Collateral to MCB to secure Jozefovic's obligation to repay a $3,000,000 loan from MCB to Jozefovic.

52. As a result of Jozefovic breaching the Jozefovic Security Agreement by amending the operating agreement and assigning the Jozefovic Waterview Collateral to MCB, any purchaser of the Jozefovic Waterview Collateral at public sale by WPH Properties will purchase the Jozefovic Waterview Collateral subject to MCB's senior security interest in the collateral.

53. Jozefovic's breach of the Jozefovic Security Agreement therefore has caused WPH Properties damages in the amount of $3,000,000, the amount of Jozefovic's obligation to MCB.

secured by Jozefovic's illicit assignment of the same collateral to MCB.

HBL BREACHED ITS OBLIGATIONS UNDER THE LEASE

54. HBL failed to perform its obligations, materially defaulting under the Lease, almost immediately after taking possession of the Premises.

55. HBL failed to pay Rent as required by the Lease.

56. HBL failed to pay real estate taxes as required by the Lease.

57. HBL failed to pay utility deposits as required by the Lease.

58. HBL failed to pay municipal maintenance escrows as required by the Lease

59. HBL failed to pay utility charges as required by the Lease.

60. HBL failed or refused to deliver certificates of insurance as required by the Lease

61. HBL failed to deliver to WPH Properties all Medicare, Medicaid and other provider agreements and reimbursement rate sheets for the Facility, as required by the Lease.

62. HBL failed to deliver to WPH Properties all Medicare, Medicaid and other provider updated rate sheets, as required by the Lease.

63. HBL failed to deliver to WPH Properties the required financial reporting, as required by the Lease.

64. HBL failed to deliver to WPH Properties the required written reporting providing an operational overview of significant events and circumstances at the Facility during each prior month of the term of the Lease, as required by the Lease.

65. HBL failed or refused to deliver to WPH Properties the security deposits, as required by the Lease

66. HBL failed to deliver and maintain the required credit line in an amount equal to 12 months' rent, as required by the Lease.

67. HBL failed to have and maintain the working capital account required by the Lease.

68. HBL failed to pay late fees and costs, as required by the Lease.

THE LETTER OF INTENT

69. After HBL defaulted, WPH Properties negotiated in good faith with HBL in an attempt to avoid termination of the Lease, despite HBL's default.

70. On November 20, 2019, WPH Properties and HBL entered into a Letter of Intent (the "LOI") in which WPH Properties and HBL agreed that WPH Properties would sell the Facility for $73,000,000 to a Delaware Statutory Trust in which Jozefovic and Neuman would have a 77.5 percent interest and WPH Properties or its designees would have a 22.5 percent interest.

71. A true and accurate copy of the LOI is annexed to this complaint as Exhibit 5.

72. The LOI provides for the Lease to be amended to require that HBL pay the November 2019 rent by November 18, 2019, the December rent by December 5, 2019 and all real estate taxes and utility payments by December 1, 2019, that by December 5, 2019 HBL reimburse WPH Properties for $65,856 in municipal and utility deposits, that HBL enter into a Deposit Account Control Agreement with MNB requiring MNB to draw on the account first to pay the rent.

73. The LOI further provides for the Lease to be amended so that the $3,700,000 security deposit required by Section 7.1(a)(ii) is reduced to $2,000,000, $1,000,000 of which was required to be paid by HBL on or before December 1, 2019 or the date on which WPH Properties obtained a permanent certificate of occupancy for the Facility (which was granted on November 14, 2019), whichever was later, and the balance of which was required to be paid on April 1, 2020, which was the Closing date required by the LOI.

74. In addition, the LOI provides for the Lease to be amended so that in lieu of providing the additional $1,600,000 in security required by Section 7.1(a)(iii) of the Lease, HBL would be required to enter into an agreement with JP Morgan Chase Bank prohibiting liquidation of that account until the second $1,000,000 in security required by the LOI had been paid.

75. The LOI also provides for the Lease to be amended to require HBL to obtain a single working capital line of credit in the amount of $8,000,000 by December 1, 2019.

76. HBL defaulted and breached its obligations under the LOI by failing to pay rent, failing to pay the municipal and utility payments to WPH Properties, failing to pay the real estate taxes and utility payments, failing to enter into the Deposit Account Control Agreement, failing to enter into the agreement with JP Morgan Chase Bank, by failing to pay the first $1,000,000 security deposit as required by the LOI and by failing to obtain the $8,000,000 working capital credit line, and by failing to meet the required Closing date of April 1, 2020.

77. WPH Properties performed all conditions on its part required by the LOI.

78. Solely as a result of HBL's breach of the LOI, WPH Properties did not sell the property to the Delaware Statutory Trust, causing damage to WPH Properties, and WPH Properties incurred interest and late charges on its loans, all of which are the direct result of HBL's breach of the LOI.

NOTICE OF DEFAULT, TERMINATION OF THE LEASE AND ACCELERATION OF RENT

79. On January 7, 2020, while the LOI was in effect, WPH Properties served a "Notice of Default And Landlord's Election To Terminate Lease And Accelerate All Rents Due For The Balance of the Lease Term" upon HBL (the "Notice of Default").

80. A true and accurate copy of the Notice of Default is annexed to this complaint as Exhibit 6 and incorporated into this complaint by reference.

81. The Notice of Default contains a true and accurate accounting of the amounts then due and owing under the Lease and LOE.

82. The Notice of Default gave HBL notice that by reason of HBL's defaults under the Lease, WPH Properties had exercised its right under Section 16.1 of the Lease to terminate the Lease, effective January 13, 2020.

83. The Notice of Default further gave HBL notice that pursuant to Section 16.1 of the Lease all Rent for the balance of the Term was accelerated and HBL became obligated to pay WPH Properties the present value of the accelerated rent, discounted at a rate of 6% per annum.

84. HBL continued, and still continues, to occupy the Premises, despite WPH Properties' termination of the Lease.

85. Because HBL has held over after its default resulted in termination of the Lease, HBL is a tenant month-to-month at a rent equal to 300% of the most recent Rent payable by HBL under the Lease. Exhibit 1, Lease, § 20.13.

86. HBL has failed to perform its obligations as a tenant month-to-month by failing to pay rent in the amount of 300% of the most recent Rent payable by HBL under the Lease, remitting only the base rent which had been payable before WPH Properties terminated the Lease.

87. HBL is in default with respect to its obligations under the Lease and its obligations as a month-to-month tenant following termination of the Lease effective January 13, 2020.

AMOUNTS DUE

88. As a result of HBL's defaults, HBL is obligated to pay to WPH Properties, as of August 25, 2020, the sum of $113,832,987.54 (the "Amounts Due"), as follows: (i) holdover rent and rent, $7,096,182.79; (ii) municipal and utility deposits, $26,725.35; (iii) security and working capital deposits, $9,800,000.00; (iv) late fees, default fees, costs and professional fees, $1,948,753.00; and (v) accelerated rent, $94,961,326.40.

89. HBL is obligated to pay to WPH Properties the Amounts Due in full, plus any amounts that have accrued since August 25, 2020.

90. HBL has failed or refused to pay the Amounts Due.

91. WPH Properties has fully performed all obligations required to be performed on its part with respect to the Lease, the LOI, HBL's month-to-month tenancy after the termination of the Lease, the Jozefovic Guaranty, the Neuman Guaranty, the HBL Security Agreement, the Jozefovic HBL Security Agreement and the Neuman HBL Security Agreement.

FIRST CAUSE OF ACTION AGAINST HBL
(BREACH OF CONTRACT)

92. WPH Properties repeats and re-alleges each and every allegation set forth in paragraphs "1" through "91" with the same force and effect as if fully set forth here.

93. By reason of HBL's material default and breach of its obligations pursuant to the Lease and its obligations as a month-to-month tenant after termination of the lease, WPH Properties is entitled to judgment against HBL for the Amounts Due, together with the other and further amounts that may come due between the date of this complaint and the entry of judgment, plus interest from the date of the default as provided by law.

SECOND CAUSE OF ACTION AGAINST HBL
(BREACH OF CONTRACT)

94. WPH Properties repeats and re-alleges each and every allegation set forth in paragraphs "1" through "93" with the same force and effect as if fully set forth here.

95. By reason of HBL's material default and breach of its obligations pursuant to the LOI, WPH Properties is entitled to judgment against HBL in an amount to be determined at trial.

THIRD CAUSE OF ACTION AGAINST JOZEFOVIC
(ENFORCING GUARANTY)

96. WPH Properties repeats and re-alleges each and every allegation set forth in paragraphs "1" through "95" with the same force and effect as if fully set forth here.

97. By reason of HBL's default in the performance of its obligations under the Lease, WPH Properties is entitled to judgment against Jozefovic for the Amounts Due pursuant to the terms of the Jozefovic Guaranty.

FOURTH CAUSE OF ACTION AGAINST NEUMAN
(ENFORCING GUARANTY)

98. WPH Properties repeats and re-alleges each and every allegation set forth in paragraphs "1" through "97" with the same force and effect as if fully set forth here.

99. By reason of HBL's default in the performance of its obligations under the Lease, WPH Properties is entitled to judgment against Neuman for the Amounts Due pursuant to the terms of the Neuman Guaranty.

Exhibit 2 to Amended Verified Complaint

GUARANTY OF LEASE

THIS GUARANTY OF LEASE (this "Guaranty") is made as of November 19, 2015, by Lizer Jozofovic ("Guarantor"), to WHITE PLAINS HEALTHCARE PROPERTIES I, LLC, a Massachusetts limited liability company ("Landlord").

RECITALS

A. Landlord has been requested by HBL SNF, LLC a New York Limited Liability Company ("Tenant") to enter into an Amended and Restated Lease and Security Agreement dated as of November 19, 2015 (the "Lease"), whereby Landlord would lease to Tenant, and Tenant would lease from Landlord, certain premises located in White Plains, New York, as more particularly described in the Lease (the "Premises").

B. Tenant is owned by Guarantor, and Guarantor will derive substantial economic benefit from the execution and delivery of the Lease.

C. Guarantor acknowledges that Landlord would not enter into the Lease unless this Guaranty accompanied the execution and delivery of the Lease.

D. Guarantor hereby acknowledges receipt of a copy of the Lease.

NOW, THEREFORE, in consideration of the execution and delivery of the Lease and of other good and valuable consideration, the receipt and sufficiency of which are hereby acknowledged, Guarantor covenants and agrees as follows:

1. DEFINITIONS. Defined terms used in this Guaranty and not otherwise defined herein have the meanings assigned to them in the Lease.

2. COVENANTS OF GUARANTOR.

2.1 Guarantor absolutely, unconditionally and irrevocably guarantees, as a primary obligor and not merely as a surety: (i) the full and prompt payment of all Minimum Rent and Additional Rent and all other rent, sums and charges of every type and nature payable by Tenant under the Lease, whether due by acceleration or otherwise, including costs and expenses of collection (collectively, the "Monetary Obligations"), and (ii) the full, timely and complete performance of all covenants, terms, conditions, obligations, indemnities and agreements to be performed by Tenant under the Lease, including any indemnities or other obligations of Tenant that survive the expiration or earlier termination of the Lease (all of the obligations described in clauses (i) and (ii), are collectively referred to herein as the "Obligations").

2.2 Guarantor agrees with Landlord that (i) any action, suit or proceeding of any kind or nature whatsoever (an "Action") commenced by Landlord against Tenant, Guarantor or any Other Guarantor of the Lease ("Other Guarantor") to enforce the Obligations shall not prejudice in any way Landlord's rights to enforce the Obligations in any subsequent Action against Tenant, Guarantor or any Other Guarantor, (ii) Landlord may, at its option, join Guarantor in any Action against Tenant or any Other Guarantor or seek recover against Guarantor without Landlord first asserting, prosecuting, or exhausting any remedy or claim against Tenant or any Other Guarantor and (iii) Guarantor will be conclusively bound by a judgment entered in any Action in favor of Landlord against Tenant whether or not Guarantor is entered as a party or participates in such Action.

2.3 If Landlord proposes to grant a mortgage on, or refinance any mortgage encumbering the Premises or any portion thereof, Guarantor shall cooperate in the process, and shall permit Landlord and the proposed mortgagee to meet with Guarantor or, if applicable, officers of Guarantor and to discuss Guarantor's business and finances. On request of Landlord, Guarantor agrees to provide any such prospective mortgagee the information to which Landlord is entitled hereunder, provided that if any such information is not publicly available, such nonpublic information shall be made available on a confidential basis. Guarantor agrees to execute, acknowledge and deliver documents requested by the prospective mortgagee (such as a consent to the financing, without encumbering Guarantor's or Tenant's assets, a consent to a collateral assignment of the Lease and of this Guaranty, estoppel certificate, and a subordination, non-disturbance and attornment agreement), customary for tenants and their guarantors to sign in connection with mortgage loans to landlords, so long as such documents are in form then customary among institutional lenders (provided the same do not materially and adversely change Tenant's rights or obligations under the Lease or materially and adversely change Guarantor's rights and obligations under this Guaranty).

3. GUARANTOR'S OBLIGATIONS UNCONDITIONAL.

3.1 This Guaranty is an absolute and unconditional guaranty of payment and of performance, and not of collection, and shall be enforceable against Guarantor without the necessity of the commencement by Landlord of any Action against Tenant, and without the necessity of any notice of nonpayment, nonperformance or nonobservance, or any notice of acceptance of this Guaranty, or of any other notice or demand to which Guarantor might otherwise be entitled, all of which Guarantor hereby expressly waives in advance. The obligations of Guarantor hereunder are independent of, and may exceed, the obligations of Tenant.

3.2 This Guaranty shall apply notwithstanding any extension or renewal of the Lease, or any holdover following the expiration or termination of the Lease Term or any renewal or extension of the Lease Term.

3.3 This Guaranty is a continuing guarantee and will remain in full force and effect notwithstanding, and the liability of Guarantor hereunder shall be absolute and unconditional irrespective of any or all of the following: (i) any renewals, extensions, modifications, alterations or amendments of the Lease (regardless of whether Guarantor consented to or had notice of same); (ii) any releases or discharges of Tenant or any Other Guarantor other than the full release and complete discharge of all of the Obligations; (iii) Landlord's failure or delay to assert any claim or demand or to enforce any of its rights against Tenant or any Other Guarantor; (iv) any extension of time that may be granted by Landlord to Tenant or any Other Guarantor; (v) any assignment or transfer of all of any part of Tenant's interest under the Lease (whether by Tenant, by operation of law, or otherwise); (vi) any subletting, concession, franchising, licensing or permitting of the Premises or any portion thereof; (vii) any changed or different use of the Premises (or any portion thereof);

(viii) any other dealings or matters occurring between Landlord and Tenant or any Other Guarantor; (ix) the taking by Landlord of any additional guarantees, or the receipt by Landlord of any collateral, from Tenant, any Other Guarantor or any other persons or entities; (x) the release by Landlord of any Other Guarantor; (xi) Landlord's release of any security provided under the Lease or any other guaranty; (xii) Landlord's failure to perfect any landlord's lien or other lien or security interest available under applicable Legal Requirements; (xiii) any assumption by any person of any or all of Tenant's obligations under the Lease or any Other Guarantor's obligations under any other guaranty, or Tenant's assignment of any or all of its rights and interests under the Lease, (xiv) the power or authority or lack thereof of Tenant to execute, acknowledge or deliver the Lease; (xv) the existence, non-existence or lapse at any time of Tenant as a legal entity or the existence, non-existence or termination of any corporate, ownership, business or other relationship between Tenant and Guarantor; (xvi) any sale or assignment by Landlord of any or all of this Guaranty, any other guaranty and the Lease (including any direct or collateral assignment by Landlord to any mortgagee); (xvii) the solvency or lack of solvency of Tenant or any Other Guarantor at any time or from time to time; or (xviii) any other cause, whether similar or dissimilar to any of the foregoing, that might constitute a legal or equitable discharge of Guarantor (whether or not Guarantor shall have knowledge or notice thereof) other than payment and performance in full of the Obligations; (xix) the release or discharge of Tenant in any state or federal creditors' proceedings, receivership, bankruptcy or other proceeding; (xx) the impairment, limitation or modification of the liability of Tenant or the estate of Tenant in bankruptcy, or of any remedy for the enforcement of Tenant's liability under the Lease, resulting from the operation of any present or future provision of the United States Bankruptcy Code (11 U.S.C. § 101 et seq., as amended), or from other statute, or from the order of any court; (xxi) the rejection, disaffirmance or other termination of the Lease in any such proceeding; (xxii) the assertion or the failure to assert by Landlord against Tenant, of any of the rights or remedies reserved to Landlord pursuant to the provisions of the Lease; or (xxiii) if at any time the payment of any amount due under the Lease or this Guaranty is rescinded or must otherwise be returned by Landlord for any reason, in such event, Guarantor shall pay to Landlord an amount equal to any such payment that has been rescinded or returned. This Guaranty shall continue to be effective if at any time the payment of any amount due under the Lease or this Guaranty is rescinded or must otherwise be returned by Landlord for any reason. Without in any way limiting the generality of the foregoing, Guarantor specifically agrees that (A) if Tenant's obligations under the Lease are modified or amended with the express written consent of Landlord, this Guaranty shall extend to such obligations as so amended or modified without notice to, consideration to, or the consent of, Guarantor, and (B) this Guaranty shall be applicable to any obligations of Tenant arising in connection with a termination of the Lease, whether voluntary or otherwise. Guarantor hereby consents, prospectively, to Landlord's taking or entering into any or all of the foregoing actions or omissions. For purposes of this Guaranty and the obligations and liabilities of Guarantor hereunder, "Tenant" shall be deemed to include any and all concessionaires, licensees, franchisees, department operators, assignees, subtenants, permittees or others directly or indirectly operating or conducting a business in or from the Premises or any portion thereof, as fully as if any of the same were the named Tenant under the Lease.

3.4 Notwithstanding anything to the contrary hereunder, Guarantor shall be released and discharged from all liability with respect to any obligations of Tenant under the Lease arising or accruing after the Commencement Date (the "Guaranty Termination Date"); provided that 60 days prior to the Commencement Date Tenant has delivered to Landlord (i) (a)

an unconditional Letter of Credit, in accordance with the Section 7.1(a)(ii) of the Lease in the amount of $3,700,000, or (b) $3,700,000 in cash to secure the full and timely payment and performance of Tenant's obligations under the Lease, (ii) an agreement by Capital Funding Group, which cannot be amended except by an agreement in writing signed by Landlord, Tenant and Capital Funding Group, in the form attached as Exhibit 7.1(a) of the Lease or otherwise approved by Landlord and Landlord's lenders in their reasonable discretion, wherein and whereby Capital Funding Group agrees to allow Tenant to draw down on its Credit Line each month so as to enable Capital Funding Group to pay directly to Landlord the sum of $506,096.50 per month commencing the Commencement Date and on each day Fixed Rent is due under the Lease for the following 11 months, and (iii) and released to Landlord all funds in the controlled account number [REDACTED] in JPMorgan Chase Bank, N.A. in the amount not less than $1,600,000 to be held as an additional Security Deposit by Landlord. After the Guaranty Termination Date, Guarantor shall continue to remain personally liable pursuant to the terms of this Guaranty for (i) all obligations of Tenant under the Lease which arose or accrued on or prior to the Guaranty Termination Date and (ii) any liability of Tenant arising out of a breach of any warranty or representation of Tenant under Lease, and all documents executed by Tenant in connection therewith, (iii) and any liability of Guarantor arising out of a breach of any warranty or representation hereunder.

4. WAIVERS OF GUARANTOR.

4.1 Without limitation of the foregoing, Guarantor waives (i) notice of acceptance of this Guaranty, protest, demand and dishonor, presentment, and demands of any kind now or hereafter provided for by any statute or rule of law, (ii) notice of any actions taken by Landlord or Tenant under the Lease or any other agreement or instrument relating thereto, (iii) notice of any and all defaults by Tenant in the payment of Minimum Rent and Additional Rent or other rent, charges or amounts, or of any other defaults by Tenant under the Lease, (iv) all other notices, demands and protests, and all other formalities of every kind in connection with the enforcement of the Obligations, omission of or delay in which, but for the provisions of this Section 4, might constitute grounds for relieving Guarantor of its obligations hereunder, (v) any requirement that Landlord protect, secure, perfect, insure or proceed against any security interest or lien, or any property subject thereto, or exhaust any right or take any action against Tenant, any Other Guarantor or any other person or entity (including any additional guarantor or Guarantor) or against any collateral, and (vi) the benefit of any statute of limitations affecting Guarantor's liability under this Guaranty.

4.2 GUARANTOR HEREBY WAIVES TRIAL BY JURY IN ANY ACTION, PROCEEDING OR COUNTERCLAIM BROUGHT BY ANY PERSON OR ENTITY WITH RESPECT TO ANY MATTER WHATSOEVER ARISING OUT OF OR IN ANY WAY CONNECTED WITH: THIS GUARANTY; THE LEASE; ANY LIABILITY OR OBLIGATION OF TENANT IN ANY MANNER RELATED TO THE PREMISES OR ANY PORTION THEREOF; ANY CLAIM OF INJURY OR DAMAGE IN ANY WAY RELATED TO THE LEASE AND/OR THE PREMISES (OR ANY PORTION THEREOF); ANY ACT OR OMISSION OF TENANT, ITS AGENTS, EMPLOYEES, CONTRACTORS, SUPPLIERS, SERVANTS, CUSTOMERS, CONCESSIONAIRES, FRANCHISEES, PERMITTEES OR LICENSEES; OR ANY ASPECT OF THE USE OR OCCUPANCY OF, OR THE CONDUCT OF BUSINESS IN, ON OR FROM THE PREMISES (OR ANY PORTION THEREOF).

GUARANTOR SHALL NOT INTERPOSE ANY COUNTERCLAIM OR COUNTERCLAIMS OR CLAIMS FOR SET-OFF, RECOUPMENT OR DEDUCTION OF RENT IN ANY ACTION BROUGHT BY LANDLORD AGAINST GUARANTOR UNDER THIS GUARANTY. GUARANTOR SHALL NOT BE ENTITLED TO MAKE, AND HEREBY WAIVES, ANY AND ALL DEFENSES AGAINST ANY CLAIM ASSERTED BY LANDLORD OR IN ANY SUIT OR ACTION INSTITUTED BY LANDLORD TO ENFORCE THIS GUARANTY OR THE LEASE. IN ADDITION, GUARANTOR HEREBY WAIVES, BOTH WITH RESPECT TO THE LEASE AND WITH RESPECT TO THIS GUARANTY, ANY AND ALL RIGHTS WHICH ARE WAIVED BY TENANT UNDER THE LEASE, IN THE SAME MANNER AS IF ALL SUCH WAIVERS WERE FULLY RESTATED HEREIN. THE LIABILITY OF GUARANTOR UNDER THIS GUARANTY IS PRIMARY AND UNCONDITIONAL.

4.3 Guarantor expressly waives any and all rights to defenses arising by reason of (i) any "one-action" or "anti-deficiency" law or any other law that may prevent Landlord from bringing any action, including a claim for deficiency, against Guarantor before or after Landlord's commencement or completion of any action against Tenant or any Other Guarantor; (ii) ANY ELECTION OF REMEDIES BY LANDLORD (INCLUDING ANY TERMINATION OF THE LEASE) THAT DESTROYS OR OTHERWISE ADVERSELY AFFECTS GUARANTOR'S SUBROGATION RIGHTS OR GUARANTOR'S RIGHTS TO PROCEED AGAINST TENANT FOR REIMBURSEMENT; (iii) any disability, insolvency, bankruptcy, lack of authority or power, death, insanity, minority, dissolution, or other defense of Tenant, of any other guarantor (or any other Guarantor), or of any other person or entity, or by reason of the cessation of Tenant's liability from any cause whatsoever, other than full and final payment in legal tender and performance of the Obligations; (iv) any right to claim discharge of any or all of the Obligations on the basis of unjustified impairment of any collateral for the Obligations; (v) any change in the relationship between Guarantor and Tenant or any Other Guarantor or any termination of such relationship; (vi) any irregularity, defect or unauthorized action by any or all of Landlord, Tenant, any Other Guarantor or surety, or any of their respective officers, directors or other agents in executing and delivering any instrument or agreements relating to the Obligations or in carrying out or attempting to carry out the terms of any such agreements; (vii) any assignment, endorsement or transfer, in whole or in part, of the Obligations, whether made with or without notice to or consent of Guarantor; (viii) if the recovery from Tenant or any other Person (including any Other Guarantor) becomes barred by any statute of limitations or is otherwise prevented; (ix) the benefits of any and all statutes, laws, rules or regulations applicable in the State of Illinois which may require the prior or concurrent joinder of any other party to any action on this Guaranty; (x) any release or other reduction of the Obligations arising as a result of the expansion, release, substitution, deletion, addition, or replacement (whether or not in accordance with the terms of the Lease) of the Premises or any portion thereof; or (xi) any neglect, delay, omission, failure or refusal of Landlord to take or prosecute any action for the collection or enforcement of any of the Obligations or to foreclose or take or prosecute any action in connection with any lien or right of security (including perfection thereof) existing or to exist in connection with, or as security for, any of the Obligations, it being the intention hereof that Guarantor shall remain liable as a principal on the Obligations notwithstanding any act, omission or event that might, but for the provisions hereof, otherwise operate as a legal or equitable discharge of Guarantor. Guarantor hereby waives all defenses of a surety to which it may be entitled by statute or otherwise.

5. SUBORDINATION; SUBROGATION.

5.1 Guarantor subordinates to and postpones in favor of the Obligations (i) any present and future debts and obligations of Tenant or any Other Guarantor to Guarantor (the "Indebtedness"), including: (A) salary, bonuses, and other payments pursuant to any employment arrangement; (B) fees, reimbursement of expenses and other payments pursuant to any independent contractor arrangement; (C) principal and interest pursuant to any Indebtedness; (D) distributions payable to any partners, members or shareholders of Guarantor or Affiliates of Guarantor; (E) lease payments pursuant to any leasing arrangement; (F) any management fees; and (G) all rights, liens and security interests of Guarantor, whether now or hereafter arising, in any assets of the Tenant or any Other Guarantor, and (ii) any liens or security interests securing payment of the Indebtedness. Guarantor shall have no right to possession of any assets of Tenant or any Other Guarantor or to foreclose upon any such asset, whether by judicial action or otherwise, unless and until the Obligations have been paid and performed in full. Guarantor agrees that Landlord shall be subrogated to Guarantor with respect to Guarantor's claims against Tenant or any Other Guarantor and Guarantor's rights, liens and security interest, if any, in any of Tenant's or any Other Guarantor's assets and proceeds thereof until all of the Obligations have been paid and performed in full.

5.2 After the occurrence of an Event of Default and until such Event of Default is cured or after the commencement of any bankruptcy or insolvency proceeding by or against Tenant and until such proceeding is dismissed, Guarantor shall not: (i) make any distributions or other payments to any partners, parent entities, or Affiliates of Guarantor (other than to Tenant); or (ii) ask for, sue for, demand, take or receive any payment, by setoff or in any other manner, including the receipt of a negotiable instrument, for all or any part of the Indebtedness owed by Tenant, or any successor or assign of Tenant, including a receiver, trustee or debtor in possession (the term "Tenant" shall include any such successor or assign of Tenant) until the Obligations have been paid in full; however, if Guarantor receives such a payment, Guarantor shall immediately deliver the payment to Landlord for credit against the then outstanding balance of the Obligations, whether matured or unmatured. Notwithstanding anything in this Section 5 to the contrary, after an Event of Default has occurred and is outstanding, Guarantor may make cash contributions to Tenant.

5.3 Guarantor shall not be subrogated, and hereby waives and disclaims any claim or right against Tenant by way of subrogation or otherwise, to any of the rights of Landlord under the Lease or otherwise, or in the Premises (or any portion thereof), which may arise by any of the provisions of this Guaranty or by reason of the performance by Guarantor of any of its Obligations hereunder. Guarantor shall look solely to Tenant for any recoupment of any payments made or costs or expenses incurred by Guarantor pursuant to this Guaranty. If any amount shall be paid to Guarantor on account of such subrogation rights at any time when all of the Obligations shall not have been paid and performed in full, Guarantor shall immediately deliver the payment to Landlord for credit against the then outstanding balance of the Obligations, whether matured or unmatured.

6. REPRESENTATIONS AND WARRANTIES OF GUARANTOR. Guarantor represents and warrants that:

6.1 This Guaranty is valid and binding upon and enforceable against Guarantor without the requirement of further action or condition.

6.2 The execution, delivery and performance by Guarantor of this Guaranty does not and will not (i) contravene any applicable Legal Requirements, the organizational documents of Guarantor, if applicable, any order, writ, injunction, decree applicable to Guarantor, or any contractual restriction binding on or affecting Guarantor or any of its properties or assets, or (ii) result in or require the creation of any lien, security interest or other charge or encumbrance upon or with respect to any of its properties or assets.

6.3 No approval, consent, exemption, authorization or other action by, or notice to, or filing with, any governmental authority is necessary or required in connection with the execution, delivery or performance by, or enforcement against, Guarantor of this Guaranty or any other instrument or agreement required hereunder.

6.4 There is no action, suit or proceeding pending or threatened against or otherwise affecting Guarantor before any court or other governmental authority or any arbitrator that may materially adversely affect Guarantor's ability to perform its obligations under this Guaranty.

6.5 Tenant is directly or indirectly owned and controlled by Guarantor.

6.6 Guarantor has derived or expects to derive financial and other advantages and benefits directly or indirectly, from the making of the Lease and the payment and performance of the Obligations. Guarantor hereby acknowledges that Landlord will be relying upon Guarantor's guarantee, representations, warranties and covenants contained herein.

6.7 All reports, statements (financial or otherwise), certificates and other data furnished by or on behalf of Guarantor to Landlord in connection with this Guaranty or the Lease are: true and correct, in all material respects, as of the applicable date or period provided therein; do not omit to state any material fact or circumstance necessary to make the statements contained therein not misleading; and fairly represent the financial condition of Guarantor as of the respective date thereof; and no material adverse change has occurred in the financial condition of Guarantor since the date of the most recent of such financial statements.

7. NOTICES. Any consents, notices, demands, requests, approvals or other communications given under this Guaranty shall be in writing and shall be given as provided in the Lease, as follows or to such other addresses as either Landlord or Guarantor may designate by notice given to the other in accordance with the provisions of this Section 7:

9.1 Financial Deliveries. Guarantor shall deliver the following information to Landlord:

9.1.1 As soon as available, and in any event within 120 days after the close of each calendar year, in hard copy and electronic format, in form satisfactory to Landlord, and presented on a consolidated as well as a property-by-property basis, complete financial statements prepared for such year with respect to Guarantor including a balance sheet as of the end of such year, together with related statements of operations, cash flows and changes in equity for such calendar year, prepared in accordance with GAAP applied on a consistent basis.

Upon the delivery of any financial information by or on behalf of Guarantor pursuant to this Section 9 from time to time during the Lease Term, Guarantor shall be deemed (unless Guarantor specifically states otherwise in writing) to automatically represent and warrant to Landlord that the financial information delivered to Landlord is true, accurate and complete, presents fairly the results of operations of Guarantor for the respective periods covered thereby, reflects accurately the books and records of account of Guarantor as of such dates and for such periods, and that there has been no adverse change in the financial condition of Guarantor since the date of the then applicable financial information.

9.2 Assignment; Sale of Assets; Change in Control. Without the prior consent of Landlord, which consent may be withheld or granted in Landlord's sole discretion, Guarantor shall not assign (whether directly or indirectly), in whole or in part, this Guaranty or any obligation hereunder or, through one or more step transactions or tiered transactions, do, or permit to be done, any activity, transaction or Transfer prohibited under Section 10.1 of the Lease.

9.3 Payment Method; Default Interest. Guarantor shall make any payments due hereunder in immediately available funds by wire transfer to Landlord's bank account as notified by Landlord, unless Landlord agrees to another method of payment of immediately available funds. If Guarantor does not pay an amount due hereunder on its due date, Guarantor shall pay, on demand, interest at 18% annually on the amount due for a period ending on the full payment of such amount, including the day of repayment, whether before or after any judgment or award, to the extent permitted under applicable law.

10. MISCELLANEOUS.

10.1 Guarantor further agrees that Landlord may, without notice, assign this Guaranty in whole or in part. If Landlord disposes of its interest in the Lease, "Landlord," as used in this Guaranty, shall mean Landlord's successors and assigns.

10.2 Guarantor promises to pay all costs of collection or enforcement incurred by Landlord in exercising any remedies provided for in the Lease or this Guaranty whether at law or in equity. If any legal action or proceeding is commenced to interpret or enforce the terms of, or obligations arising out of, this Guaranty, or to recover damages for the breach thereof, the party prevailing in any such action or proceedings shall be entitled to recover from the non-prevailing party all attorneys' fees and reasonable costs and expenses incurred by the prevailing party. As used herein, "attorneys' fees" shall mean the fees and expenses of counsel to the parties hereto, which may include printing, photocopying, duplicating and other expenses, air freight charges, and fees billed for law clerks, paralegals, librarians and others not admitted to the bar but performing services under the supervision of an attorney. The term "attorneys' fees" shall also include all such fees and expenses incurred with respect to appeals, arbitrations and bankruptcy proceedings.

10.3 Guarantor shall, from time to time within 10 days after receipt of Landlord's request, execute, acknowledge and deliver to Landlord a statement certifying that this Guaranty is unmodified and in full force and effect (or if there have been modifications, that the same is in full force and effect as modified and stating such modifications), and setting forth such other information as Landlord may reasonably request. Such certificate may be relied upon by any prospective purchaser, lessor or lender of all or a portion of the Premises (or any portion thereof).

10.4 If any portion of this Guaranty shall be deemed invalid, unenforceable or illegal for any reason, such invalidity, unenforceability or illegality shall not affect the balance of this Guaranty, which shall remain in full force and effect to the maximum permitted extent.

10.5 The provisions, covenants and guaranties of this Guaranty shall be binding upon Guarantor and its heirs, successors, legal representatives and assigns, and shall inure to the benefit of Landlord and its successors and assigns, and shall not be deemed waived or modified unless such waiver or modification is specifically set forth in writing, executed by Landlord or its successors and assigns, and delivered to Guarantor.

10.6 Whenever the words "include", "includes", or "including" are used in this Guaranty, they shall be deemed to be followed by the words "without limitation", and, whenever the circumstances or the context requires, the singular shall be construed as the plural, the masculine shall be construed as the feminine and/or the neuter and vice versa. This Guaranty shall be interpreted and enforced without the aid of any canon, custom or rule of law requiring or suggesting construction against the party drafting or causing the drafting of the provision in question.

10.7 Each of the rights and remedies herein provided are cumulative and not exclusive of any rights or remedies provided by law or in the Lease or this Guaranty.

10.8 The provisions of this Guaranty shall be governed by and interpreted solely in accordance with the internal laws of the State of New York, without giving effect to the principles of conflicts of law.

10.9 The execution of this Guaranty after the execution of the Lease shall not invalidate this Guaranty or lessen the Obligations of Guarantor hereunder.

10.10 This Guaranty may be executed in multiple counterparts, each of which shall be an original, but all of which shall constitute but one instrument. The signature page of any counterpart may be detached therefrom and reattached to any other counterpart to physically form a single document.

10.11 The Recitals set forth above are hereby incorporated by this reference and made a part of this Guaranty. Guarantor hereby represents and warrants that the Recitals are true and correct.

IN WITNESS WHEREOF, Guarantor has executed this Guaranty under seal as of the day and year first above written.

A. Landlord has been requested by HBL SNF, LLC a New York Limited Liability Company ("Tenant") to enter into an Amended and Restated Lease and Security Agreement dated as of November 19, 2015 (the "Lease"), whereby Landlord would lease to Tenant, and Tenant would lease from Landlord, certain premises located in White Plains, New York, as more particularly described in the Lease (the "Premises").

B. Guarantor will derive substantial economic benefit from the execution and delivery of the Lease.

C. Guarantor acknowledges that Landlord would not enter into the Lease unless this Guaranty accompanied the execution and delivery of the Lease.

D. Guarantor hereby acknowledges receipt of a copy of the Lease.

NOW, THEREFORE, in consideration of the execution and delivery of the Lease and of other good and valuable consideration, the receipt and sufficiency of which are hereby acknowledged, Guarantor covenants and agrees as follows:

1. DEFINITIONS. Defined terms used in this Guaranty and not otherwise defined herein have the meanings assigned to them in the Lease.

2. COVENANTS OF GUARANTOR.

2.1 Guarantor absolutely, unconditionally and irrevocably guarantees, as a primary obligor and not merely as a surety: (i) the full and prompt payment of all Minimum Rent and Additional Rent and all other rent, sums and charges of every type and nature payable by Tenant under the Lease, whether due by acceleration or otherwise, including costs and expenses of collection (collectively, the "Monetary Obligations"), and (ii) the full, timely and complete performance of all covenants, terms, conditions, obligations, indemnities and agreements to be performed by Tenant under the Lease, including any indemnities or other obligations of Tenant that survive the expiration or earlier termination of the Lease (all of the obligations described in clauses (i) and (ii), are collectively referred to herein as the "Obligations").

2.2 Guarantor agrees with Landlord that (i) any action, suit or proceeding of any kind or nature whatsoever (an "Action") commenced by Landlord against Tenant, Guarantor or any Other Guarantor of the Lease ("Other Guarantor") to enforce the Obligations shall not prejudice in any way Landlord's rights to enforce the Obligations in any subsequent Action against Tenant, Guarantor or any Other Guarantor, (ii) Landlord may, at its option, join Guarantor in any Action against Tenant or any Other Guarantor or seek recover against Guarantor without Landlord first asserting, prosecuting, or exhausting any remedy or claim against Tenant or any Other Guarantor and (iii) Guarantor will be conclusively bound by a judgment entered in any Action in favor of Landlord against Tenant whether or not Guarantor is entered as a party or participates in such Action.

2.3 If Landlord proposes to grant a mortgage on, or refinance any mortgage encumbering the Premises or any portion thereof, Guarantor shall cooperate in the process, and shall permit Landlord and the proposed mortgagee to meet with Guarantor or, if applicable, officers of Guarantor and to discuss Guarantor's business and finances. On request of Landlord, Guarantor agrees to provide any such prospective mortgagee the information to which Landlord is entitled hereunder, provided that if any such information is not publicly available, such nonpublic information shall be made available on a confidential basis. Guarantor agrees to execute, acknowledge and deliver documents requested by the prospective mortgagee (such as a consent to the financing, without encumbering Guarantor's or Tenant's assets, a consent to a collateral assignment of the Lease and of this Guaranty, estoppel certificate, and a subordination, non-disturbance and attornment agreement), customary for tenants and their guarantors to sign in connection with mortgage loans to landlords, so long as such documents are in form then customary among institutional lenders (provided the same do not materially and adversely change Tenant's rights or obligations under the Lease or materially and adversely change Guarantor's rights and obligations under this Guaranty).

3. GUARANTOR'S OBLIGATIONS UNCONDITIONAL.

3.1 This Guaranty is an absolute and unconditional guaranty of payment and of performance, and not of collection, and shall be enforceable against Guarantor without the necessity of the commencement by Landlord of any Action against Tenant, and without the necessity of any notice of nonpayment, nonperformance or nonobservance, or any notice of acceptance of this Guaranty, or of any other notice or demand to which Guarantor might otherwise be entitled, all of which Guarantor hereby expressly waives in advance. The obligations of Guarantor hereunder are independent of, and may exceed, the obligations of Tenant.

3.2 This Guaranty shall apply notwithstanding any extension or renewal of the Lease, or any holdover following the expiration or termination of the Lease Term or any renewal or extension of the Lease Term.

3.3 This Guaranty is a continuing guarantee and will remain in full force and effect notwithstanding, and the liability of Guarantor hereunder shall be absolute and unconditional irrespective of any or all of the following: (i) any renewals, extensions, modifications, alterations or amendments of the Lease (regardless of whether Guarantor consented to or had notice of same); (ii) any releases or discharges of Tenant or any Other Guarantor other than the full release and complete discharge of all of the Obligations; (iii) Landlord's failure or delay to assert any claim or demand or to enforce any of its rights against Tenant or any Other Guarantor; (iv) any extension of time that may be granted by Landlord to Tenant or any Other Guarantor; (v) any assignment or transfer of all of any part of Tenant's interest under the Lease (whether by Tenant, by operation of law, or otherwise); (vi) any subletting, concession, franchising, licensing or permitting of the Premises or any portion thereof; (vii) any changed or different use of the Premises (or any portion thereof);

(viii) any other dealings or matters occurring between Landlord and Tenant or any Other Guarantor; (ix) the taking by Landlord of any additional guarantees, or the receipt by Landlord of any collateral, from Tenant, any Other Guarantor or any other persons or entities; (x) the release by Landlord of any Other Guarantor; (xi) Landlord's release of any security provided under the Lease or any other guaranty; (xii) Landlord's failure to perfect any landlord's lien or other lien or security interest available under applicable Legal Requirements; (xiii) any assumption by any person of any or all of Tenant's obligations under the Lease or any Other Guarantor's obligations under any other guaranty, or Tenant's assignment of any or all of its rights and interests under the Lease, (xiv) the power or authority or lack thereof of Tenant to execute, acknowledge or deliver the Lease; (xv) the existence, non-existence or lapse at any time of Tenant as a legal entity or the existence, non-existence or termination of any corporate, ownership, business or other relationship between Tenant and Guarantor; (xvi) any sale or assignment by Landlord of any or all of this Guaranty, any other guaranty and the Lease (including any direct or collateral assignment by Landlord to any mortgagee); (xvii) the solvency or lack of solvency of Tenant or any Other Guarantor at any time or from time to time; or (xviii) any other cause, whether similar or dissimilar to any of the foregoing, that might constitute a legal or equitable discharge of Guarantor (whether or not Guarantor shall have knowledge or notice thereof) other than payment and performance in full of the Obligations; (xix) the release or discharge of Tenant in any state or federal creditors' proceedings, receivership, bankruptcy or other proceeding; (xx) the impairment, limitation or modification of the liability of Tenant or the estate of Tenant in bankruptcy, or of any remedy for the enforcement of Tenant's liability under the Lease, resulting from the operation of any present or future provision of the United States Bankruptcy Code (11 U.S.C. § 101 et seq., as amended), or from other statute, or from the order of any court; (xxi) the rejection, disaffirmance or other termination of the Lease in any such proceeding; (xxii) the assertion or the failure to assert by Landlord against Tenant, of any of the rights or remedies reserved to Landlord pursuant to the provisions of the Lease; or (xxiii) if at any time the payment of any amount due under the Lease or this Guaranty is rescinded or must otherwise be returned by Landlord for any reason, in such event, Guarantor shall pay to Landlord an amount equal to any such payment that has been rescinded or returned. This Guaranty shall continue to be effective if at any time the payment of any amount due under the Lease or this Guaranty is rescinded or must otherwise be returned by Landlord for any reason. Without in any way limiting the generality of the foregoing, Guarantor specifically agrees that (A) if Tenant's obligations under the Lease are modified or amended with the express written consent of Landlord, this Guaranty shall extend to such obligations as so amended or modified without notice to, consideration to, or the consent of, Guarantor, and (B) this Guaranty shall be applicable to any obligations of Tenant arising in connection with a termination of the Lease, whether voluntary or otherwise. Guarantor hereby consents, prospectively, to Landlord's taking or entering into any or all of the foregoing actions or omissions. For purposes of this Guaranty and the obligations and liabilities of Guarantor hereunder, "Tenant" shall be deemed to include any and all concessionaires, licensees, franchisees, department operators, assignees, subtenants, permittees or others directly or indirectly operating or conducting a business in or from the Premises or any portion thereof, as fully as if any of the same were the named Tenant under the Lease.

3.4 Notwithstanding anything to the contrary hereunder, Guarantor shall be released and discharged from all liability with respect to any obligations of Tenant under the Lease arising or accruing after the Commencement Date (the "Guaranty Termination Date"); provided that 60 days prior to the Commencement Date Tenant has delivered to Landlord (i) (a)

an unconditional Letter of Credit, in accordance with the Section 7.1(a)(ii) of the Lease in the amount of $3,700,000, or (b) $3,700,000 in cash to secure the full and timely payment and performance of Tenant's obligations under the Lease, (ii) an agreement by Capital Funding Group, which cannot be amended except by an agreement in writing signed by Landlord, Tenant and Capital Funding Group, in the form attached as Exhibit 7.1(a) of the Lease or otherwise approved by Landlord and Landlord's lenders in their reasonable discretion, wherein and whereby Capital Funding Group agrees to allow Tenant to draw down on its Credit Line each month so as to enable Capital Funding Group to pay directly to Landlord the sum of $506,096.50 per month commencing the Commencement Date and on each day Fixed Rent is due under the Lease for the following 11 months, and (iii) and released to Landlord all funds in the controlled account number [REDACTED] in JPMorgan Chase Bank, N.A. in the amount not less than $1,600,000 to be held as an additional Security Deposit by Landlord. After the Guaranty Termination Date, Guarantor shall continue to remain personally liable pursuant to the terms of this Guaranty for (i) all obligations of Tenant under the Lease which arose or accrued on or prior to the Guaranty Termination Date and (ii) any liability of Tenant arising out of a breach of any warranty or representation of Tenant under Lease, and all documents executed by Tenant in connection therewith, (iii) and any liability of Guarantor arising out of a breach of any warranty of representation hereunder.

4. WAIVERS OF GUARANTOR.

4.1 Without limitation of the foregoing, Guarantor waives (i) notice of acceptance of this Guaranty, protest, demand and dishonor, presentment, and demands of any kind now or hereafter provided for by any statute or rule of law, (ii) notice of any actions taken by Landlord or Tenant under the Lease or any other agreement or instrument relating thereto, (iii) notice of any and all defaults by Tenant in the payment of Minimum Rent and Additional Rent or other rent, charges or amounts, or of any other defaults by Tenant under the Lease, (iv) all other notices, demands and protests, and all other formalities of every kind in connection with the enforcement of the Obligations, omission of or delay in which, but for the provisions of this Section 4, might constitute grounds for relieving Guarantor of its obligations hereunder, (v) any requirement that Landlord protect, secure, perfect, insure or proceed against any security interest or lien, or any property subject thereto, or exhaust any right or take any action against Tenant, any Other Guarantor or any other person or entity (including any additional guarantor or Guarantor) or against any collateral, and (vi) the benefit of any statute of limitations affecting Guarantor's liability under this Guaranty.

4.2 GUARANTOR HEREBY WAIVES TRIAL BY JURY IN ANY ACTION, PROCEEDING OR COUNTERCLAIM BROUGHT BY ANY PERSON OR ENTITY WITH RESPECT TO ANY MATTER WHATSOEVER ARISING OUT OF OR IN ANY WAY CONNECTED WITH: THIS GUARANTY; THE LEASE; ANY LIABILITY OR OBLIGATION OF TENANT IN ANY MANNER RELATED TO THE PREMISES OR ANY PORTION THEREOF; ANY CLAIM OF INJURY OR DAMAGE IN ANY WAY RELATED TO THE LEASE AND/OR THE PREMISES (OR ANY PORTION THEREOF); ANY ACT OR OMISSION OF TENANT, ITS AGENTS, EMPLOYEES, CONTRACTORS, SUPPLIERS, SERVANTS, CUSTOMERS, CONCESSIONAIRES, FRANCHISEES, PERMITTEES OR LICENSEES; OR ANY ASPECT OF THE USE OR OCCUPANCY OF, OR THE CONDUCT OF BUSINESS IN, ON OR FROM THE PREMISES (OR ANY PORTION THEREOF).

GUARANTOR SHALL NOT INTERPOSE ANY COUNTERCLAIM OR COUNTERCLAIMS OR CLAIMS FOR SET-OFF, RECOUPMENT OR DEDUCTION OF RENT IN ANY ACTION BROUGHT BY LANDLORD AGAINST GUARANTOR UNDER THIS GUARANTY. GUARANTOR SHALL NOT BE ENTITLED TO MAKE, AND HEREBY WAIVES, ANY AND ALL DEFENSES AGAINST ANY CLAIM ASSERTED BY LANDLORD OR IN ANY SUIT OR ACTION INSTITUTED BY LANDLORD TO ENFORCE THIS GUARANTY OR THE LEASE. IN ADDITION, GUARANTOR HEREBY WAIVES, BOTH WITH RESPECT TO THE LEASE AND WITH RESPECT TO THIS GUARANTY, ANY AND ALL RIGHTS WHICH ARE WAIVED BY TENANT UNDER THE LEASE, IN THE SAME MANNER AS IF ALL SUCH WAIVERS WERE FULLY RESTATED HEREIN. THE LIABILITY OF GUARANTOR UNDER THIS GUARANTY IS PRIMARY AND UNCONDITIONAL.

4.3 Guarantor expressly waives any and all rights to defenses arising by reason of (i) any "one-action" or "anti-deficiency" law or any other law that may prevent Landlord from bringing any action, including a claim for deficiency, against Guarantor before or after Landlord's commencement or completion of any action against Tenant or any Other Guarantor; (ii) ANY ELECTION OF REMEDIES BY LANDLORD (INCLUDING ANY TERMINATION OF THE LEASE) THAT DESTROYS OR OTHERWISE ADVERSELY AFFECTS GUARANTOR'S SUBROGATION RIGHTS OR GUARANTOR'S RIGHTS TO PROCEED AGAINST TENANT FOR REIMBURSEMENT; (iii) any disability, insolvency, bankruptcy, lack of authority or power, death, insanity, minority, dissolution, or other defense of Tenant, of any other guarantor (or any other Guarantor), or of any other person or entity, or by reason of the cessation of Tenant's liability from any cause whatsoever, other than full and final payment in legal tender and performance of the Obligations; (iv) any right to claim discharge of any or all of the Obligations on the basis of unjustified impairment of any collateral for the Obligations; (v) any change in the relationship between Guarantor and Tenant or any Other Guarantor or any termination of such relationship; (vi) any irregularity, defect or unauthorized action by any or all of Landlord, Tenant, any Other Guarantor or surety, or any of their respective officers, directors or other agents in executing and delivering any instrument or agreements relating to the Obligations or in carrying out or attempting to carry out the terms of any such agreements; (vii) any assignment, endorsement or transfer, in whole or in part, of the Obligations, whether made with or without notice to or consent of Guarantor; (viii) if the recovery from Tenant or any other Person (including any Other Guarantor) becomes barred by any statute of limitations or is otherwise prevented; (ix) the benefits of any and all statutes, laws, rules or regulations applicable in the State of Illinois which may require the prior or concurrent joinder of any other party to any action on this Guaranty; (x) any release or other reduction of the Obligations arising as a result of the expansion, release, substitution, deletion, addition, or replacement (whether or not in accordance with the terms of the Lease) of the Premises or any portion thereof; or (xi) any neglect, delay, omission, failure or refusal of Landlord to take or prosecute any action for the collection or enforcement of any of the Obligations or to foreclose or take or prosecute any action in connection with any lien or right of security (including perfection thereof) existing or to exist in connection with, or as security for, any of the Obligations, it being the intention hereof that Guarantor shall remain liable as a principal on the Obligations notwithstanding any act, omission or event that might, but for the provisions hereof, otherwise operate as a legal or equitable discharge of Guarantor. Guarantor hereby waives all defenses of a surety to which it may be entitled by statute or otherwise.

5. SUBORDINATION; SUBROGATION.

5.1 Guarantor subordinates to and postpones in favor of the Obligations (i) any present and future debts and obligations of Tenant or any Other Guarantor to Guarantor (the "Indebtedness"), including: (A) salary, bonuses, and other payments pursuant to any employment arrangement; (B) fees, reimbursement of expenses and other payments pursuant to any independent contractor arrangement; (C) principal and interest pursuant to any Indebtedness; (D) distributions payable to any partners, members or shareholders of Guarantor or Affiliates of Guarantor; (E) lease payments pursuant to any leasing arrangement; (F) any management fees; and (G) all rights, liens and security interests of Guarantor, whether now or hereafter arising, in any assets of the Tenant or any Other Guarantor, and (ii) any liens or security interests securing payment of the Indebtedness. Guarantor shall have no right to possession of any assets of Tenant or any Other Guarantor or to foreclose upon any such asset, whether by judicial action or otherwise, unless and until the Obligations have been paid and performed in full. Guarantor agrees that Landlord shall be subrogated to Guarantor with respect to Guarantor's claims against Tenant or any Other Guarantor and Guarantor's rights, liens and security interest, if any, in any of Tenant's or any Other Guarantor's assets and proceeds thereof until all of the Obligations have been paid and performed in full.

5.2 After the occurrence of an Event of Default and until such Event of Default is cured or after the commencement of any bankruptcy or insolvency proceeding by or against Tenant and until such proceeding is dismissed, Guarantor shall not: (i) make any distributions or other payments to any partners, parent entities, or Affiliates of Guarantor (other than to Tenant); or (ii) ask for, sue for, demand, take or receive any payment, by setoff or in any other manner, including the receipt of a negotiable instrument, for all or any part of the Indebtedness owed by Tenant, or any successor or assign of Tenant, including a receiver, trustee or debtor in possession (the term "Tenant" shall include any such successor or assign of Tenant) until the Obligations have been paid in full; however, if Guarantor receives such a payment, Guarantor shall immediately deliver the payment to Landlord for credit against the then outstanding balance of the Obligations, whether matured or unmatured. Notwithstanding anything in this Section 5 to the contrary, after an Event of Default has occurred and is outstanding, Guarantor may make cash contributions to Tenant.

5.3 Guarantor shall not be subrogated, and hereby waives and disclaims any claim or right against Tenant by way of subrogation or otherwise, to any of the rights of Landlord under the Lease or otherwise, or in the Premises (or any portion thereof), which may arise by any of the provisions of this Guaranty or by reason of the performance by Guarantor of any of its Obligations hereunder. Guarantor shall look solely to Tenant for any recoupment of any payments made or costs or expenses incurred by Guarantor pursuant to this Guaranty. If any amount shall be paid to Guarantor on account of such subrogation rights at any time when all of the Obligations shall not have been paid and performed in full, Guarantor shall immediately deliver the payment to Landlord for credit against the then outstanding balance of the Obligations, whether matured or unmatured.

6. REPRESENTATIONS AND WARRANTIES OF GUARANTOR. Guarantor represents and warrants that:

6.1 This Guaranty is valid and binding upon and enforceable against Guarantor without the requirement of further action or condition.

6.2 The execution, delivery and performance by Guarantor of this Guaranty does not and will not (i) contravene any applicable Legal Requirements, the organizational documents of Guarantor, if applicable, any order, writ, injunction, decree applicable to Guarantor, or any contractual restriction binding on or affecting Guarantor or any of its properties or assets, or (ii) result in or require the creation of any lien, security interest or other charge or encumbrance upon or with respect to any of its properties or assets.

6.3 No approval, consent, exemption, authorization or other action by, or notice to, or filing with, any governmental authority is necessary or required in connection with the execution, delivery or performance by, or enforcement against, Guarantor of this Guaranty or any other instrument or agreement required hereunder.

6.4 There is no action, suit or proceeding pending or threatened against or otherwise affecting Guarantor before any court or other governmental authority or any arbitrator that may materially adversely affect Guarantor's ability to perform its obligations under this Guaranty.

6.5 Tenant is directly or indirectly owned and controlled by Guarantor.

6.6 Guarantor has derived or expects to derive financial and other advantages and benefits directly or indirectly, from the making of the Lease and the payment and performance of the Obligations. 6.7 All reports, statements (financial or otherwise), certificates and other data furnished by or on behalf of Guarantor to Landlord in connection with this Guaranty or the Lease are: true and correct, in all material respects, as of the applicable date or period provided therein; do not omit to state any material fact or circumstance necessary to make the statements contained therein not misleading; and fairly represent the financial condition of Guarantor as of the respective date thereof; and no material adverse change has occurred in the financial condition of Guarantor since the date of the most recent of such financial statements.

7. NOTICES. Any consents, notices, demands, requests, approvals or other communications given under this Guaranty shall be in writing and shall be given as provided in the Lease, as follows or to such other addresses as either Landlord or Guarantor may designate by notice given to the other in accordance with the provisions of this Section 7:

9. CERTAIN ADDITIONAL COVENANTS.

9.1 Financial Deliveries. Guarantor shall deliver the following information to Landlord:

Upon the delivery of any financial information by or on behalf of Guarantor pursuant to this Section 9 from time to time during the Lease Term, Guarantor shall be deemed (unless Guarantor specifically states otherwise in writing) to automatically represent and warrant to Landlord that the financial information delivered to Landlord is true, accurate and complete, presents fairly the results of operations of Guarantor for the respective periods covered thereby, reflects accurately the books and records of account of Guarantor as of such dates and for such periods, and that there has been no adverse change in the financial condition of Guarantor since the date of the then applicable financial information.

9.2 Assignment; Sale of Assets; Change in Control. Without the prior consent of Landlord, which consent may be withheld or granted in Landlord's sole discretion, Guarantor shall not assign (whether directly or indirectly), in whole or in part, this Guaranty or any obligation hereunder or, through one or more step transactions or tiered transactions, do, or permit to be done, any activity, transaction or Transfer prohibited under Section 10.1 of the Lease.

9.3 Payment Method; Default Interest. Guarantor shall make any payments due hereunder in immediately available funds by wire transfer to Landlord's bank account as notified by Landlord, unless Landlord agrees to another method of payment of immediately available funds. If Guarantor does not pay an amount due hereunder on its due date, Guarantor shall pay, on demand, interest at 18% annually on the amount due for a period ending on the full payment of such amount, including the day of repayment, whether before or after any judgment or award, to the extent permitted under applicable law.

10. MISCELLANEOUS.

10.1 Guarantor further agrees that Landlord may, without notice, assign this Guaranty in whole or in part. If Landlord disposes of its interest in the Lease, "Landlord," as used in this Guaranty, shall mean Landlord's successors and assigns.

10.2 Guarantor promises to pay all costs of collection or enforcement incurred by Landlord in exercising any remedies provided for in the Lease or this Guaranty whether at law or in equity. If any legal action or proceeding is commenced to interpret or enforce the terms of, or obligations arising out of, this Guaranty, or to recover damages for the breach thereof, the party prevailing in any such action or proceedings shall be entitled to recover from the non-prevailing party all attorneys' fees and reasonable costs and expenses incurred by the prevailing party. As used herein, "attorneys' fees" shall mean the fees and expenses of counsel to the parties hereto, which may include printing, photocopying, duplicating and other expenses, air freight charges, and fees billed for law clerks, paralegals, librarians and others not admitted to the bar but performing services under the supervision of an attorney. 10.3 Guarantor shall, from time to time within 10 days after receipt of Landlord's request, execute, acknowledge and deliver to Landlord a statement certifying that this Guaranty is unmodified and in full force and effect (or if there have been modifications, that the same is in full force and effect as modified and stating such modifications), and setting forth such other information as Landlord may reasonably request. Such certificate may be relied upon by any prospective purchaser, lessor or lender of all or a portion of the Premises (or any portion thereof).

10.10 This Guaranty may be executed in multiple counterparts, each of which shall be an original, but all of which shall constitute but one instrument. The signature page of any counterpart may be detached therefrom and reattached to any other counterpart to physically form a single document.

10.11 The Recitals set forth above are hereby incorporated by this reference and made a part of this Guaranty. Guarantor hereby represents and warrants that the Recitals are true and correct.

IN WITNESS WHEREOF, Guarantor has executed this Guaranty under seal as of the day and year first above written.

MOTION SEQ. NO. 001 002

DECISION + ORDER ON MOTION

The following e-filed documents, listed by NYSCEF document number (Motion 001) 2, 3, 4, 5, 6, 14, 15, 16, 17, 18, 19, 20, 21, 22, 23, 24, 25, 28, 29, 30, 31, 32, 33, 34, 35, 36, 37, 38, 39, 40, 41, 42, 43, 44, 45, 46, 47, 48, 49, 50, 51, 52, 53, 54, 55, 56, 57, 58, 59, 60, 65, 66, 67, 68, 69, 70, 71, 72, 73, 74, 75, 76, 86 were read on this motion to/for PREL INJUNCTION/TEMP REST ORDR.

The following e-filed documents, listed by NYSCEF document number (Motion 002) 7, 8, 9, 10, 11, 12, 13, 61, 62, 63, 77, 78, 79, 80, 81, 82, 83, 84, 85, 87, 89 were read on this motion to/for CHANGE VENUE.

In this action seeking a declaratory judgment and damages in connection with claims sounding in, inter alia, breach of contract, fraud, defamation, breach of fiduciary duty, and legal malpractice, the plaintiff moves pursuant to CPLR 6301 for a preliminary injunction enjoining the defendants and their agents from publishing and distributing false statements about the plaintiff and from taking any action to transfer, assign, convey, or sell the plaintiff's membership interest in Waterview Acquisition I, LLC ("Waterview") (SEQ 001). The defendants White Plains Healthcare Properties I, LLC ("WPH Properties"), and Howard Fensterman ("Fensterman") oppose the motion and separately move pursuant to CPLR 511 and 602 to transfer this action to Westchester County and consolidate it with an action pending there entitled White Plains Healthcare Properties I, LLC v HBL SNF, LLC, Lizer Jozefovic and Mark Neuman, Index No. 60278/2020 (the "Westchester Action") (SEQ 002). The plaintiff opposes the moving defendants' application. For the following reasons, the moving defendants' motion is granted and the plaintiff's motion is denied without prejudice.

WPH Properties is the developer and owner of a new skilled nursing facility located in Westchester County, New York (the “Facility”). The Facility is operated by HBL SNF, LLC (“HBL”), an entity controlled by the plaintiff. WPH Properties and HBL are parties to an operating lease dated November 19, 2015 (the “Lease”), under which WPH Properties leases the Facility to HBL, as tenant. The plaintiff and nonparty Marc Neuman, as principals of HBL, are HBL’s guarantors under the Lease.

Section 7.1(a)(iii) of the Lease provides that HBL was to pay an additional security deposit in the amount of $1.6 Million 60 days prior to the start of the lease period. As security for that payment, the plaintiff and WPH Properties entered into a collateral assignment agreement (the “Collateral Assignment Agreement”). Pursuant to the Collateral Assignment Agreement, the plaintiff assigned to WPH Properties his 71% membership interest in Waterview, an entity that owns another skilled nursing home in Westchester County (the “Waterview Interest”). The plaintiff also agreed to list Howard Fensterman, attorney for WPH Properties, as a signatory to a Waterview account with JP Morgan (the “Waterview account”) where the $1.6 Million was currently being held. The Collateral Assignment Agreement provided that:

“[u]pon the effectuation of Section 7.1(a)(iii) of the lease which requires Sixty days prior to the anticipated Commencement Date, the funds in the [Waterview account] in the amount of not less than $1,600,000 shall be deposited into the Landlords Rent Security Account, the [Waterview Interest] assigned to [WPH Properties] ...shall be automatically reassigned by [WPH Properties] to [the plaintiff] without recourse, representation or warranty, and this Assignment shall automatically terminate and be void and of no further effect.”

The “Landlords Rent Security Account” is not a defined term in the Lease or the Collateral Assignment Agreement. The Collateral Assignment Agreement further provides that the exercise of WPH Properties’ rights to sell the Waterview Interest as assignee is authorized upon the plaintiff’s violation of the “terms and provisions concerning the maintenance of the [Waterview account]...”

The plaintiff avers that he satisfied his obligations under the Collateral Assignment Agreement and that as a result, the assignment terminated. In 2019, the plaintiff assigned the Waterview Interest to defendant Metropolitan Commercial Bank (“MCB”) in connection with a $3 Million loan as part of a financing arrangement to provide working capital to benefit the Facility, including through the payment of rent to WPH Properties.

On September 18, 2020, WPH Properties commenced the Westchester Action, in which it contends, inter alia, that HBL breached the Lease by failing to pay rent, municipal and utility deposits, real estate taxes, and other fees associated with the Facility, including the $1.6 Million security deposit required by Section 7.1(a)(iii). On October 6, 2020, WPH Properties noticed a public sale of the Waterview Interest based upon the plaintiff's alleged default under the Collateral Assignment Agreement. On October 22, 2020, this action ensued.

"Consolidation is generally favored in the interest of judicial economy and ease of decision-making where cases present common questions of law and fact, 'unless the party opposing the motion demonstrates that a consolidation will prejudice a substantial right.'" Raboy v McCrory Corp., 210 AD2d 145 (1st Dept. 1994) (quoting Amtorg Trading Corp. v Broadway & 56th St. Assoc., 191 AD2d 212, 213 [1st Dept. 1993]). The movants correctly argue that consolidation is warranted here because this action and the Westchester Action share common questions of law and fact. See CPLR 602; DeSilva v Plot Realty, LLC, 85 AD3d 422 (1st Dept. 2011); Kern v Shandell, Blitz, Blitz & Bookson, 58 AD3d 487 (1st Dept. 2009).

The plaintiff opposes consolidation, observing that while the Westchester Action involves claims regarding HBL's performance of its obligations under the Lease and the plaintiff's performance under the guarantee he signed, the instant action involves claims regarding ownership of the Waterview Interest pursuant to the separate Collateral Assignment Agreement. However, this characterization of the actions ignores the fact that both (a) WPH Properties' claim in the Westchester Action that the additional security was not paid and (b) the plaintiff's central claim in this action that the Collateral Assignment Agreement automatically terminated turn on the same question: whether Section 7.1(a)(iii) of the Lease was effectuated. Allowing this question to proceed in two separate courts risks inconsistent results. Moreover, WPH Properties avers in its moving papers that it has amended its complaint in the Westchester Action to include a claim sounding in violation of the Collateral Assignment Agreement against the plaintiff. Finally, the plaintiff, who is a resident of Westchester County and a party to the Westchester Action, which was commenced prior to the instant action, would not suffer prejudice to any substantial right as a result of consolidation and transfer.

The court notes that transfer is also appropriate because it appears that venue is improper in New York County. CPLR 503 provides that "[e]xcept where otherwise prescribed by law, the place of trial shall be in the county in which one of the parties resided when it was commenced; the county in which a substantial part of the events or omissions giving rise to the claim occurred; or, if none of the parties then resided in the state, in any county designated by the plaintiff.” Here, the only entity residing in New York County is MCB, which the plaintiff has included as a defendant but against which the plaintiff has not asserted any claim. Conversely, several parties, including the plaintiff, reside in Westchester County. Since venue properly lies in Westchester County, the court declines to retain venue on the basis of MCB, a nominal defendant against whom there is no claim. See Espinoza v Concordia Intl. Forwarding Corp., 39 AD3d 258 (1st Dept. 2007).

The plaintiff’s motion for preliminary injunctive relief is denied without prejudice to renewal upon transfer and consolidation in Westchester County.

Accordingly, it is

ORDERED that the plaintiff’s motion pursuant to CPLR 6301 for a preliminary injunction (SEQ 001) is denied without prejudice to renewal upon the transfer and consolidation of this action in Westchester County; and it is further

ORDERED that the motion of White Plains Healthcare Properties I, LLC, and Howard Fensterman pursuant to CPLR 511 and 602 to transfer this action to Westchester County and consolidate it with an action pending there entitled White Plains Healthcare Properties I, LLC v HBL SNF, LLC, Lizer Jozefovic and Mark Neuman, Index No. 60278/2020, (SEQ 002) is granted; and it is further

ORDERED this action, Lizer Jozefovic v White Plains Healthcare Properties I, LLC, Howard Fensterman, and Metropolitan Commercial Bank, Index No. 655549/2020, pending in the Supreme Court, New York County, shall be consolidated in the Supreme Court, Westchester County, with White Plains Healthcare Properties I, LLC v HBL SNF, LLC, Lizer Jozefovic and Mark Neuman, Index No. 60278/2020; and it is further,

ORDERED that the consolidation shall take place under Westchester County Index No. 60278/2020; and it is further,

ORDERED that the Clerk of this Court shall transfer the file in this action to the Clerk of the Supreme Court, Westchester County, for consolidation and shall mark his records to reflect such transfer; and it is further,

ORDERED that the Clerk of the Court shall coordinate the transfer of the file in this action with the Clerk of the Supreme Court, Westchester County, so as to ensure an efficient transfer and minimize insofar as practical the reproduction of documents, including with regard to any documents that may be in digital format; and it is further

ORDERED that the pleadings in the actions hereby consolidated shall stand as the pleadings in the consolidated action; and it is further

ORDERED that, within 30 days from entry of this order, counsel for the moving defendants shall serve a copy of this order with notice of entry upon the Clerk of this Court, shall pay the appropriate transfer fee, if any, and shall contact the staff of the Clerk of this Court and cooperate in effectuating the transfer and consolidation; and it is further

ORDERED that such service upon the Clerk of this Court shall be made in accordance with the procedures set forth in the Protocol on Courthouse and County Clerk Procedures for Electronically Filed Cases (accessible at the "E-Filing" page on the court's website at the address www.nycourts.gov/supctmanh).

This constitutes the Decision and Order of the court.

COMPLAINT

INTRODUCTION

1. This is an action to halt the dissemination of false and harmful statements as well as to prevent the fraudulent sale and to clarify the ownership of a limited liability company.
2. Plaintiff is the majority owner of Waterview Acquisition I, LLC.
3. Plaintiff previously entered into a collateral assignment, which established a rent security account for the White Plains Skilled Nursing Facility.
4. Plaintiff performed all obligations under the collateral assignment, which was acknowledged and documented by Mr. Fensterman.
5. Plaintiff subsequently assigned his interest in Waterview Acquisition I, LLC to MCB, as part of a financing arrangement, which both WPHP and Mr. Fensterman were aware of.

6. On October 6, 2020, WPHP and Mr. Fensterman issued a purported Notification of Disposition of Collateral, which stated that Plaintiff was a “debtor” and announced that Plaintiff’s interest in Waterview Acquisition I, LLC would be sold at “public auction” on October 30, 2020 (the “Notification”).

7. The Notification is entirely false: Plaintiff is not now, and has never been, indebted to WPHP or Mr. Fensterman, and WPHP and Mr. Fensterman have no right or ability to sell the Plaintiff’s interest in Waterview Acquisition I, LLC. Any attempt to do so is false, improper, and in breach of the collateral assignment.

8. Moreover, the Notification was designed to inflict maximum damage, as it was widely broadcast to Plaintiff’s business partners and other interested parties, harming Plaintiff’s reputation and ability to operate his facilities.

9. Moreover, Mr. Fensterman has represented Plaintiff previously, and continues to represent Plaintiff in a variety of matters, making his decision to act directly against Plaintiff’s interests bizarre, improper, and actionable.

10. Moreover, if WPHP and Mr. Fensterman continue with a fraudulent sale, as stated in the Notification, it will harm Plaintiff’s business and operations, as well as potential third parties who improperly attempt to purchase Plaintiff’s interest.

THE PARTIES

- 11. Plaintiff Lizer Jozefovic is a resident of the State of New York.
- 12. Defendant White Plains Healthcare Properties I, LLC is a foreign limited liability company that regularly conducts business in the State of New York.
- 13. Defendant Howard Fensterman is a resident of the State of New York and regularly conducts business in the State of New York.

14. Defendant Metropolitan Commercial Bank is a commercial bank with its headquarters located at 99 Park Ave, New York, NY 10016 and regularly conducts business in the State of New York.

15. This Court has jurisdiction over all causes of action asserted herein because all causes of action asserted herein arise out of conduct undertaken by defendants in the State of New York.

16. Each defendant has sufficient minimum contacts with the State of New York and has otherwise intentionally availed himself/itself of the State of New York so as to render the exercise of jurisdiction over it by the State of New York court consistent with traditional notions of fair play and substantial justice.

FACTUAL ALLEGATIONS

The Collateral Assignment

17. Plaintiff has a 70% share of Waterview Acquisition I, LLC (the “Membership Interest”), making him the majority owner.

18. Plaintiff previously entered into a collateral assignment, which established a rent security account for the White Plains Skilled Nursing Facility (the “Collateral Assignment”).

19. The Collateral Assignment states, in relevant part:

- a. Under Paragraph 2, upon the deposit of $1,600,000 into the rent security account, the “assignment shall automatically terminate and be void and of no further effect”;
- b. Under Section 13, the exercise of the White Plains Health Care Properties LLC’s (the “Assignee”) rights is limited to a violation of the “terms and provisions concerning the maintenance of the account...”; and

c. Under Section 13(c), any proceeds derived from the disposition of the collateral must be applied to the rent security account.

20. In November 2015, Plaintiff deposited $1,595,031.44 into Chase Account ending in xxxx-xxx-xxxx-7272 to establish the rent security (the “Rent Security”).

21. The funds for the Rent Security were derived from the refinancing of the Waterview real property.

22. At that time, both Gerald Billow, Esq an attorney at Posternak, Blankstein & Lund LLP, in Boston and Greg Stollar, Esq. of Abrams, Fensterman, Fensterman, Eisman, Formato, Ferrara, Wolf & Carone, LLP (“Abrams, Fensterman LLP”), attorneys for WPHP and Mr. Fensterman, were directly informed that the Rent Security had been established, satisfying the Collateral Assignment requirements.

23. Moreover, Mr. Fensterman was personally aware of the Rent Security and that the Collateral Assignment had been satisfied, as he and his legal counsel were informed of the creation of the account, and the money to fund the account was wired from Abrams, Fensterman LLP after Plaintiff established the account and made arrangements for Mr. Fensterman to be a signatory.

24. On December 14, 2015, Mr. Fensterman signed the Business Account Signature Form.

25. In 2017, the Rent Security was transferred to the Chase account ending in xxxx-xxx-xxxx-0885 by resolution of Waterview Acquisition I, LLC.

26. The resolution and account holder certification form were tendered to Mr. Fensterman.

27. As a result of Plaintiff's performance, all relevant obligations under the Collateral Assignment were completely satisfied by the provision of the Rent Security, automatically terminating the Collateral Assignment and rendering it void pursuant to its own provisions.

Assignment of the Membership Interest to MCB

28. At the time of the Collateral Assignment, the Operating Agreement of Waterview Acquisition I, LLC did not permit its members to assign their membership interests.

29. At that time, the Operating Agreement of Waterview Acquisition I, LLC stated, in relevant part:

- a. Articles 5 and 6 did not provide for any assignment of the Membership Interest;
- b. Article 12 specifically prohibited an assignment of the Membership Interest to Mr. Fensterman as Nominee of White Plains Healthcare Properties LLC.

30. Mr. Fensterman is aware of these facts, as well as the limitations on transferring and assigning the Membership Interest, as Mr. Fensterman and his firm Abrams, Fensterman LLP acted as counsel to Waterview Acquisition I, LLC in its formation and execution of its operating agreement.

31. However, the Operating Agreement of Waterview was subsequently amended in order to authorize Plaintiff, as the majority member, to assign his interest.

32. In December 2019, Plaintiff assigned the Membership Interest to MCB in connection with a $3,000,000.00 loan as part of a financing arrangement to provide working capital to benefit the White Plains project, most of which was paid in the form of rent to Defendants WPHP and Mr. Fensterman.

33. Currently, MCB has perfected its security interest in the Membership Interest and maintains physical possession of the membership certificates evidencing Plaintiff's ownership of interests in Waterview Acquisition I, LLC.

34. Mr. Fensterman knew of the approved of the loan from and assignment to MCB, as the proceeds have been used to pay rent on the White Plains Nursing Home.

35. Moreover, Mr. Fensterman has continued to represent Waterview Acquisition I, LLC to the present date, and has recently tendered bills and asked for payment for certain litigation matters.

36. Moreover, Mr. Fensterman previously acted as Plaintiff's personal counsel, during which time he represented Plaintiff in matters related to the corporate compliance and collection matters for all of Plaintiff's nursing homes.

Distribution of the Notification and Resulting Harm

37. On October 6, 2020, DelBello Donnellan Weingarten Wise & Wiederkehr, LLP ("DDW LLP") issued a purported Notification of Disposition of Collateral, dated October 6, 2020, which announced the intention to sell the Membership Interest at "public auction" (the "Notification").

38. The Notification was first sent on October 6, 2020 by Mr. Fensterman "as nominee for White Plains Health Care Properties, LLC."

39. The Notification claims to be based upon the Collateral Assignment.

40. The Notification states that Plaintiff is a "debtor" and that the Membership Interest will be sold "to the highest qualified public bidder in public" at 10:00 am on Friday, October 30, 2020 at DDW LLP.

41. Since then, Defendants WPHP and Mr. Fensterman have distributed the notice to multiple hospital operators across the state, as well as Plaintiff’s current and potential colleagues and business partners.

42. Plaintiff has received multiple calls inquiring about the alleged “debt” claimed in the Notification.

43. Plaintiff has never received any funds from WPHP or Mr. Fensterman. Therefore, neither Waterview Acquisition I, LLC nor Plaintiff owes any money to WPHP as there is no debt, and Plaintiff is not and cannot be a debtor.

44. Moreover, since 2015, Plaintiff has given WPHP and Mr. Fensterman over $4.6 million in a combination of loans, unallocated payments, and a down-payment for the purchase of a building.

45. Moreover, since September 2019, Plaintiff has paid rent of over $6 million.

46. In Plaintiff’s business, the public allegation of unpaid debts is very serious and damaging and has negatively impacted Plaintiff’s standing in the business and banking communities.

47. On October 16, 2020, Plaintiff, through counsel, attempted to contact Alfred E. Donnellan, Esq. (“Mr. Donnellan), the Managing Partner at DDW LLP, to confirm by October 20, 2020 that the Notification has been withdrawn and that there will be no attempts to proceed against the Membership Interest.

48. Neither Mr. Donnellan nor Mr. Fensterman have responded.

49. Plaintiff has been irreparably harmed by the Notification and any purported sale of the Membership Interest, and this harm will continue until the Notification is withdrawn and a correction is issued.

50. The wide dissemination of the false claims in the Notification has damaged Plaintiff's reputation and standing within the nursing home community.

51. Moreover, Plaintiff has been questioned by lenders and other interested parties as to the viability of his business concerns.

52. Moreover, the publication of the Notification has materially affected admissions to Plaintiff's facilities.

53. Moreover, if WPHP and Mr. Fensterman continue with a wrongful and fraudulent sale of the Membership Interest, it will disastrously and irreparably harm Plaintiff and potential third-parties who attempt to purchase the Membership Interest based upon a non-existent debt and without the ability to do so.

54. This action is brought to seek redress for WPHP and Mr. Fenster's harmful conduct, and to clarify ownership of the Membership Interest as to MCB.

FIRST CAUSE OF ACTION
Declaratory Judgment
(All Defendants)

55. Plaintiff repeats and incorporates by reference each of the foregoing allegations as though fully set forth herein.

56. The Collateral Assignment states that it is automatically terminated upon the establishment of the Rent Security.

58. Defendants have personal knowledge that the Collateral Assignment was satisfied and is therefore null and void.

59. Plaintiff properly assigned the Membership Interest to MCB.

60. Defendants have personal knowledge that the Membership Interest has been assigned to MCB.

61. Plaintiff requests that the Court issue a declaratory judgment finding that: the Collateral Assignment is null and void following the establishment of the Rent Security; that the Membership Interest has been assigned to MCB; that Plaintiff is not indebted to WPHP or Mr. Fensterman; and consequently that WPHP and Mr. Fensterman have no right or claim to the Membership Interest, nor can WPHP, Mr. Fensterman, or DDW LLP sell or otherwise transfer the Membership Interest.

Developer reserves the right to change the site, subject only to the prior approval of the DOH should it become impracticable or commercially unfeasible to construct the Project on the Church Street Location.

A. The Developer has caused The Architectural Team, 50 Commandant's Way, at Admirals Hill, Chelsea, MA 02150 (the "Architect") to prepared outline drawings and specifications for the development of the Project (the "Outline Plans and Specifications 3rd Edition") which satisfies the design standards of the New York State Department of Health ("DOH"). The Developer has submitted the Outline Plans and Specifications 3rd Edition to DOH for approval.

B. The Parties acknowledge and agree the 1st and 2nd Editions of the Outline Plans and Specifications have been provided by Developer, approved by Operator/Tenant, and

The Operator/Tenant acknowledges that Developer has received approvals of the Outline Plans and Specifications 2nd Edition for 179 beds from all other federal, state, municipal and other governmental authorities having jurisdiction thereof (collectively, the "Approving Authorities") and requests that Developer resubmit to the Approving Authorities the Outline Plans and Specifications 3rd Edition for 160 beds.

C. After the Outline Plans and Specifications 3d Edition have been approved (the "Plans and Specifications"), no material amendments to the Plans and Specifications will be made without the prior written consent of Developer, Operator/Tenant and the Approving Authorities. The Developer will not be required to make proposed changes which do not comply with the provisions of this section. In the event of disputes as to whether changes proposed by Operator/Tenant constitute impermissible deviations from the criteria described above, the matter will be submitted for determination to Developer's Architect, whose decision will be final. Except as provided in Article IV hereof, the Project shall be constructed in accordance with the Plans and Specifications.

ARTICLE II PERMITS AND APPROVALS

A. The Operator/Tenant is the applicant under that certain Certificate of Need Project No. 092058B, entitled Westchester Health Care Properties, LLC, which was contingently approved by the DOH and The Public Health and Planning Council on October 11, 2012 (the "CON"), to establish and construct a 160 bed skilled nursing care facility at Church Street Location (the "Contingent Approval").

Operator/Tenant shall cooperate and sign all necessary applications and other documents as may be required from the Operator/Tenant in order to obtain the Approvals. All fees and costs incurred by the Developer in obtaining the Approvals shall be included in the Project Cost (as hereinafter defined).

AFFIRMATION OF JOHN GIARDINO IN SUPPORT OF ORDER TO SHOW CAUSE

JOHN GIARDINO, ESQ., an attorney duly admitted to practice law in the State of New York, affirms the following to be true under the penalties of perjury:

1. I am a partner at the law firm of Michelman & Robinson, LLP, attorneys for the Defendants and Third-Party Plaintiffs HBL SNF, LLC, Lizer Jozefovic (“Jozefovic”), and Mark Neuman (collectively, “Petitioners”).
2. I respectfully submit this affirmation in support of Petitioners’ Motion for an Order to Show Cause.
3. This Affirmation is based upon my personal knowledge and upon files maintained by my firm in relation to this action.

4. Petitioners' motion seeks an order preliminary enjoining (1) the Plaintiff and Third-Party Defendants from taking any action to transfer, assign, convey or sell Petitioners' membership interest in Waterview Acquisition I, LLC; and (2) Epic Healthcare Management ("Epic") and Defendants and Third-Party Plaintiffs HBL SNF, LLC, Lizer Jozefovic, and Mark Neuman from taking any action to reduce the Rent Security below $1.6 million.

5. Jozefovic is the majority member of Waterview Acquisition I, LLC (the "Membership Interest"), owning a seventy percent (70%) interest.

6. A Notification of Disposition of Collateral was first sent on October 6, 2020 (the "First Notification").

7. The First Notification stated that Petitioners were indebted and that the Membership Interest would be sold "to the highest qualified public bidder in public" at 10:00 am on Friday, October 30, 2020.

8. A true and correct copy of the First Notification is attached as Exhibit A.

9. The First Notification was negated by the entry of a Preliminary Injunction and Temporary Restraining Order by Judge Bannon in the action captioned Lizer Jozefovic v. White Plains Healthcare Properties I, LLC et al., No. 655549/2020.

10. On or about June 10, 2021, I received a purported Notification of Disposition of Collateral, dated June 9, 2020 (the "Second Notification"), which announced the intention to sell at "public auction" the Membership Interest.

11. A true and correct copy of the Second Notification is attached as Exhibit B.

12. Since then, White Plains and Third-Party Defendants Howard Fensterman, ("Fensterman"), William Nicholson, CCC Equities LLC ("CCCE"), Project Equity Construction, and The Congress Companies (collectively, “White Plains”) has distributed the notice to multiple hospital operators and other business and individuals across the state.

13. Petitioners have received calls from interested and concerned parties inquiring about the purported sale.

14. The continued publication of the Second Notification and any purported sale will irreparably harm Petitioners and jeopardize their operations.

15. In August 2009, Petitioners proposed the development of a new, state-of-the-art 160-bed skilled nursing facility in White Plains, New York (the “Facility”) to the New York State Department of Health (“NYSDOH”).

16. On or about this time, White Plains proposed to Petitioners that they act as turn-key developers for the new Facility and provide all necessary financing and construction for the project.

17. White Plains submitted a development proposal to Petitioners and NYSDOH with (1) a total Project cost of $56,631,759; (2) a thirty-year, $42,240,000 HUD-insured mortgage with an interest rate of 5.5%; and (3) $9,863,246 in project equity contributed by CCCE.

18. In October 2012, White Plains submitted the application to NYSDOH and represented that the Project would be completed in 20 months, after which Petitioners would pay $360,000 per month in rent.

19. On November 15, 2015, Petitioners executed a development agreement (the “Development Agreement”) and lease (the “Lease”) with White Plains which constitutes an integrated agreement.

20. Pursuant to the Development Agreement, White Plains was required to deliver a “turn-key” facility, i.e., the Facility was to be (1) fully constructed; (2) authorized to operate as a skilled nursing facility; (3) with permanent financing in place; and (4) all financing and construction was to be completed in accordance with the approval granted by NYSDOH.

21. White Plains lacked the necessary capital to complete the Project.

22. To overcome the capital shortfall, White Plains induced Petitioners to withdraw its equity in Waterview, an entirely separate nursing facility, and contribute that equity to the Project.

23. As memorialized in a term sheet dated November 20, 2015, Petitioners provided the following capital contributions to the Project: (1) $2,200,000 paid to White Plains to be used by Congress for pre-development costs; (2) $197,072 to CCCE to be used in the discretion of Fensterman; and (3) $1,595,368.32 into a control account as rent security in the name of Petitioners (the “Term Sheet”). These funds constituted a loan to be repaid to Petitioners.

24. A true and correct copy of the Term Sheet is attached Exhibit C.

25. White Plains agreed to repay a portion of the principal amount of the loan by purchasing the furniture, fixtures, and equipment (the “FF&E”) for payment in the amount of $1,500,000 for the Project and by giving a future credit against Lease payments in the amount of $700,000.

26. To date, White Plains has refused to convey title to the FF&E, to provide an accounting of the use of these predevelopment and discretionary funds.

27. To date, White Plains has refused to provide evidence of purchases of the required FF&E, or to credit $700,000 against Petitioner’s Lease payments.

28. The $700,000 can be credited as an advance on the rent security as these funds are already in the White Plains’ possession.

29. To date, interest accrued on this $2,200,000 loan would be equal to more than $450,000. Consequently, the Landlord is in receipt of funds in the amount of $1,140,000.

30. The Second Notification claims to be based upon a collateral assignment, which established a rent security account for the White Plains Skilled Nursing Facility (the “Collateral Assignment”).

31. The Collateral Assignment states, in relevant part:

- a. Under Paragraph 2, upon the deposit of $1,600,000 into the rent security account, the “assignment shall automatically terminate and be void and of no further effect”;
- b. Under Section 13, the exercise of the White Plains Health Care Properties LLC’s (the “Assignee”) rights is limited to a violation of the “terms and provisions concerning the maintenance of the account...”; and
- c. Under Section 13(c), any proceeds derived from the disposition of the collateral must be applied to the rent security account.

32. A true and correct copy of the Collateral Assignment is attached as Exhibit D.

33. On November 19, 2015, an email was sent to Third-Party Defendant Howard Fensterman (“Fensterman”) and Petitioners (the “November 19 Email”). The email states, in relevant part: “$1,595,368.32 is going to be held until such time as we give them instructions to deposit in an Account in the Name of HBL-SNF to be opened at Chase Private Banking.”

34. In November 2015, pursuant to the November 19 Email, $1,595,031.44 was deposited into Chase Account ending in xxxx-xxx-xxxx-7272 (the “First Account”) to establish the rent security (the “Rent Security”) on behalf of Petitioners.

35. At that time, both Gerald Billow, Esq an attorney at Posternak Blankstein & Lund LLP, in Boston and Greg Stollar, Esq. of Abrams, Fensterman, Fensterman, Eisman, Formato, Ferrara, Wolf & Carone, LLP (“Abrams, Fensterman LLP”) attorneys for White Plains were both informed that the Rent Security had been established and of the First Account, satisfying the Collateral Assignment requirements.

36. Fensterman was personally aware of the Rent Security, the First Account, and that the Collateral Assignment had been satisfied, as he was directly informed of the creation of the account, the money to fund the account was wired from the Abrams, Fensterman LLP account, and Fensterman was made a signatory.

37. On December 14, 2015, Fensterman signed the Business Account Signature Form.

38. True and correct copies of the November 19 Email, the account statement, and the signature form are attached as Exhibit E.

39. On August 10, 2017, an email was sent to Fensterman (the “August 10 Email”). The August 10 Email states, in relevant part, that the following “reflects what we agreed to. Please confirm...[and] do the paperwork to finalize this. If you have any issues with what I did please call me on cell.” The August 10 Email continues to state that “[w]ith respect to the Waterview account: 1. Howard Fensterman and Lizer Jozefovic shall be co-signatories to the Waterview account....”

40. A true and correct copy of the August 10 Email is attached as Exhibit F.

41. On August 16, 2017, Fensterman was sent an email (the “August 16 Emails”). The August 16 Emails state, in relevant part, “[e]nclosed please find the Chase Certification that we received today; Please note that the Certification requires that the Resolution that we prepared be annexed as an exhibit. What I need from Howard is original signature cards from Howard with wet ink signatures-Lizer should have all of the resolutions and certifications signed this evening.”

42. True and correct copies of the August 16 Emails are attached as Exhibit G.

43. On August 17, 2017, an email was sent to Fensterman (the “August 17 Email”). The August 17 Email states, in relevant part, that “I need [Fensterman’s] signature on the last page.”

44. The purpose of the August 17 Email was to transfer the Rent Security to a new account pursuant to a resolution of Waterview Acquisition I, LLC

45. In 2017, the Rent Security was transferred to the Chase account ending in xxxx-xxx-xxxx-0885 (the “Second Account”).

46. Once completed, the resolution and account holder certification form were tendered to Fensterman.

47. All of Petitioners’ obligations under the Collateral Assignment were fully satisfied by the provision of the Rent Security, resulting in the automatic termination of the Collateral Assignment.

48. Fensterman simply had to sign the forms provided and submit them in order to become a signatory on the Second Account.

49. Following the August 17 Email, White Plains took no actions to become a signatory and never discussed the matter with Petitioners until the recent events leading up to this action.

50. True and correct copies of the August 17 Email, account information form, resolution, and account holder form are attached as Exhibit H.

51. The Development Agreement required the Project be completed no later than September 2017.

52. However, the Project was not completed until December 2019, resulting in Petitioners commencing operations at the onset of the COVID-19 pandemic.

53. The Development Agreement required that the Project be delivered at the NYSDOH-approved budget of $57 million, and Petitioners would only be responsible for additional costs caused by authorized change orders.

54. Petitioners did not authorize any change orders, yet the total costs exceeded the approved budget by more than $5 million.

55. As a result of these cost overruns, Petitioners are unable to obtain full reimbursement of its monthly rent payments as originally intended.

56. White Plains was obligated to provide permanent financing for the Project in the form of the HUD-insured loan approved by NYSDOH.

57. White Plains breached the Development Agreement and the Lease by failing to provide permanent financing.

58. As a result of this breach, Petitioners are currently losing $68,000 per month on NYSDOH reimbursements for an annualized loss of $816,000.

59. On November 20, 2019, Petitioners entered into a letter of intent with White Plains (the “LOI”) to address these defaults.

60. A true and correct copy of the LOI is attached as Exhibit I.

61. The LOI resolved certain disputes pursuant to a $2.2 million payment from Petitioners to White Plains, and in exchange White Plains would transfer the property to “a newly formed Delaware Statutory Trust.”

62. To date, Petitioners alone performed their obligations under the LOI.

63. Petitioners have paid and continues to pay rent to White Plains on time every month.

64. Since December of 2019, Petitioners' monthly rent payments of $506,096.50 have totaled more than $12 million.

65. White Plains was supposed to use the rent payments to pay the mortgage, owned by Security Benefit Life Insurance Company ("Security Benefit").

66. Security Benefit has declared White Plains to be in default of its mortgage for having failed to make necessary mortgage payments, charges, interest, and other required fees.

67. In a notice dated April 16, 2020, Security Benefit states that White Plains has breached the terms of the mortgage and White Plains is solely at fault.

68. On May 22, 2020, Security Benefit sent a second letter to White Plains, reiterating that White Plains remains in default and raising additional breaches.

69. Security Benefit makes no reference to Petitioners' obligations.

70. True and correct copies of the Security Benefit letters are attached as Exhibit J.

71. On May 1, 2021, Security Benefit brought a foreclosure action against White Plains for nonpayment of rent in the action captioned Security Benefit Life Insurance Company, et al. v. White Plains Healthcare Properties I, LLC et al., No. 55883/2021.

72. Security Benefit temporarily discontinued the action on May 28, 2021, but upon renewal will likely foreclose on the mortgage, jeopardizing Petitioners' tenancy and continued operations.

73. Publicity about the foreclosure has created uncertainty about the Facility's future in the marketplace.

74. On or about March 2021, White Plains contacted NYSDOH and claimed that the appointment of an emergency receiver for Petitioners was necessary.

75. White Plains failed to inform the Court or Petitioners of this request.

76. Petitioners were contacted by NYSDOH Director Marthe JB Ngwashi who requested further information about the situation.

77. When Petitioners contacted White Plains regarding this request, White Plains' counsel responded by claiming that White Plains was pursuing its rights under the Lease.

78. The only section of the Lease which references receivership is Article XVI, Section 16.1.

79. Once Petitioners was given the opportunity to meaningfully respond, NYSDOH took no further steps to appoint a receiver.

80. A true and correct copy of the letter from Petitioners' counsel to NYSDOH regarding White Plains' request for receivership is attached as Exhibit K.

81. White Plains is not in possession of Petitioners' membership interest certificates.

82. At the time of the Collateral Assignment, the Operating Agreement of Waterview Acquisition I, LLC did not permit its members to assign their membership interests.

83. At the time, the Operating Agreement of Waterview Acquisition I, LLC stated, in relevant part:

- a. Articles 5 and 6 did not provide for any such assignment of the Membership Interest;
- b. Article 12 specifically prohibited an assignment of the Membership Interest to Fensterman as Nominee of White Plains Healthcare Properties LLC.

84. Fensterman is aware of these facts, as well as the limitations on transfer and assignment of the Membership Interest, as Fensterman and Abrams, Fensterman LLP acted as counsel to Waterview Acquisition I, LLC in its formation and execution of its operating agreement.

85. Fensterman previously acted as Petitioners' personal counsel, during which time he represented Petitioners in matters related to all of Petitioners' nursing homes, including Waterview and Abrams, Fensterman LLP continues to handle all of Petitioners' corporate compliance and regulatory matters.

86. By way of example, on October 11, 2005, Abrams, Fensterman LLP filed a Certificate of Amendment of the Articles of Organization for Waterview Acquisition I, LLC (the "Certificate of Amendment").

87. A true and correct copy of the Certificate of Amendment is attached as Exhibit L.

88. In fact, Fensterman and Abrams, Fensterman LLP have continued to represent Waterview Acquisition I, LLC to the present date, and have recently tendered bills and asked for payment for certain litigation matters that they handled.

89. By way of example, Abrams, Fensterman LLP has submitted substantial invoices for legal work performed on behalf of Petitioners every month, from January to August 2020 (the "2020 Monthly Invoices").

90. True and correct copies of the 2020 Monthly Invoices are attached as Exhibit M.

91. By way of further example, on September 11, 2020, Abrams, Fensterman LLP sent Petitioners a letter listing six matters where they are currently representing Petitioners (the "September 11 Letter").

92. A true and correct copy of the September 11 Letter is attached as Exhibit N.

93. To permit this assignment, the Operating Agreement of Waterview was amended so as to authorize Petitioners, as the Majority Member, to assign the Membership Interest.

94. In December 2019, Petitioners, in connection with a $3,000,000.00 loan, assigned the Membership Interest to Metropolitan Commercial Bank ("MCB") as part of a financing arrangement to provide working capital to benefit the White Plains project, most of which was paid in the form of rent to the Defendants.

95. Currently, MCB has perfected its security interest in Membership Interest and has physical possession of the membership certificates evidencing my ownership of interests in Waterview Acquisition I, LLC, and Fensterman knew of an approved of the loan from MCB and the Pledge since the proceeds have been used to pay rent on the White Plains Nursing Home.

96. On December 23, 2019, Petitioners granted MCB a security interest in the Membership Interest, and MCB perfected its security interest by taking possession of the related certifications and filing a Uniform Commercial Code Financing Statement.

97. As a show of good faith, Petitioners prepared to offer White Plains a $1.6 million security interest in the Rent Security to resolve this dispute.

98. Petitioners' have provided a proposed UCC Financing Statement to that effect. A true and correct copy of the draft UCC Filing Statement is attached as Exhibit O.

99. Petitioners' motion seeks an Order to Show Cause for a preliminary injunction to (1) enjoin White Plains Healthcare Properties I, LLC, Howard Fensterman, and Metropolitan Commercial Bank from taking any action to transfer, assign, convey or sell Jozefovic's membership interest in Waterview Acquisition I, LLC; and (2) enjoin Epic and Defendants and Third-Party Plaintiffs HBL SNF, LLC, Lizer Jozefovic, and Mark Neuman from taking any action to reduce the Rent Security below $1.6 million.

100. Because White Plains is distributing false and damaging statements and will attempt to sell the Membership Interest, Petitioners will be irreparably harmed if the relief requested is not granted.

c) Guarantees: Simultaneously with the assignment of the Mokray notes and mortgages and the satisfaction of the payoff letter, Lizer Jozefovic and William Nicholson shall jointly and severally issue a guaranty in favor of WPHCP, pursuant to which they shall guarantee any deficiency between the amount of CCC's investment in WPHCP and the proceeds realized from the collateral (Project, Beds, Entitlements, Land, Plans, Control Account, Etc.,) in event the project's assets needs to be sold because Lancaster Pollard (or equivalent) does not provide construction funding and/or Mezzanine financing or as a result of any breach of HBL/SNF's or Lizer Jozefovic's obligations.

Dear Mr. Nicholson:

Reference is made to the Note and to the Loan Agreement dated August 18, 2017 by and between Borrower and Lender (the "Loan Agreement").

Borrower executed and delivered the Note to Lender. The Note evidences the obligation of Borrower to pay the Loan, including without limitation, the principal amount of the Note and all interest which accrued on the Note.

Borrower has failed to make, or cause to be made, the monthly payment of interest due under the Note and under Section 2.12 of the Loan Agreement on April 1, 2020, which failure constitutes an Event of Default under the Loan Agreement Section 5.1 (a) (Events of Default). In accordance with the terms and conditions of the Loan Agreement, for so long as any Event of Default shall have occurred and be continuing, the outstanding principal balance of the Loan and, to the extent permitted by applicable law, overdue interest in respect of the Loan, shall each accrue interest at the Default Rate, calculated from the date such payment was due without regard to any grace or cure periods contained in the Loan Agreement.

In addition, pursuant to Section 2.8 of the Loan Agreement, a late charge will be assessed.

Finally, despite repeated requests, Borrower has failed to establish the Cash Management Account as required under Section 8.1 of the Loan Agreement.

Re: Notice of Default - Construction loan (the "Loan") evidenced by that certain Promissory Note dated August 18, 2017 (the "Note") in the original aggregate principal amount of $38,500,000.00 made by White Plains Healthcare Properties I, LLC ("Borrower") to the order of Security Benefit Life Insurance Company ("Lender")

Dear Mr. Nicholson:

Reference is made to the Note and to the Loan Agreement dated August 18, 2017 by and between Borrower and Lender (the "Loan Agreement").

Borrower executed and delivered the Note to Lender. The Note evidences the obligation of Borrower to pay the Loan, including without limitation, the principal amount of the Note and all interest which accrued on the Note.

Payment Default

Borrower has failed to make, or cause to be made, the monthly payment of interest due under the Note and under Section 2.12 of the Loan Agreement on May 1, 2020, which failure constitutes an Event of Default under the Loan Agreement Section 5.1 (a) (Events of Default). In accordance with the terms and conditions of the Loan Agreement, for so long as any Event of Default shall have occurred and be continuing, the outstanding principal balance of the Loan and, to the extent permitted by applicable law, overdue interest in respect of the Loan, shall each accrue interest at the Default Rate, calculated from the date such payment was due without regard to any grace or cure periods contained in the Loan Agreement. In addition, pursuant to Section 2.8 of the Loan Agreement, a late charge will be assessed. Please note that the total principal amount currently due from Borrower, together with late charges and default interest due from Borrower, are shown on Exhibit A.

Other Defaults

1. Borrower has failed to establish the Cash Management Account as required under Section 8.1 of the Loan Agreement.

Security Benefit Life Insurance Company

White Plains Healthcare Properties I, LLC
Attn: William A. Nicholson
May 22, 2020

2. Borrower has failed to send a Tenant Direction Notice to direct the sole tenant, HBL SNF, LLC, to pay rent directly to Lender, as required by Section 8.1 of the Loan Agreement.

3. Borrower has failed to deposit all revenue generated by the Property into the Cash Management Account as required by Section 8.1 of the Loan Agreement. Among other things, we recently learned that the Tenant may have paid Borrower approximately $2,200,000 in late 2019 or early 2020. Any such revenue should have been deposited with Lender.

4. Borrower has failed to supply the financial statements for Borrower required under Section 3.13 and Exhibit B of the Loan Agreement.

5. Borrower has failed to supply annual financial statements of each Guarantor as required under Section 3.13 and Exhibit B of the Loan Agreement.

Other Issues

We also call your attention to the following:

1. No Distributions. Section 3.27 of the Loan Agreement prohibits "any distribution" to "any owner of any direct or indirect equity interests of Borrower," with limited exceptions. Please confirm that no prohibited distributions have been made while the Loan has been outstanding.

2. No Termination of Lease. We understand Borrower may have sent a Notice of Termination to the tenant under the Operating Lease in late 2019 or early 2020. Please note that pursuant to Section 3.5 of the Loan Agreement, the Operating Lease cannot be terminated without the consent of Lender.

3. Recourse Liability. Under the Loan Agreement and the Guaranty Agreement, Borrower and each Guarantor are personally liable to Lender for the "misapplication, misappropriation or conversion by Borrower" of any "Rents" or other monetary collateral for the Loan. We also call to your attention that Borrower and each Guarantor are personally liable to Lender for certain "Losses" arising out of the "willful misconduct" of Borrower in connection with the Loan or Property.

4. Maturity Date. We remind you again of the maturity date of the Loan on August 1, 2020.

Reservation of Rights

The foregoing does not constitute a waiver of any term, provision, condition, covenant or agreement contained in any of the Loan Documents (as defined in the Loan Agreement) or any instrument or agreement evidencing, related to or securing the Note, nor shall it (i) operate as a waiver of any right, remedy, power or privilege thereunder, (ii) prejudice or preclude any other further exercise thereof or the exercise of any right or remedy provided by law or in equity, (iii) entitle Borrower to any other or further notice or demand whatsoever or (iv) in any way modify, change impair, affect, diminish or release any liability of Borrower under or pursuant to any of the Loan Documents.

Re: *White Plains Rehabilitation Center

Dear Marthe:

Thank you for the candid discussion of the recent request made by White Plains Healthcare Properties I, LLC (“White Plains”) and its counsel to appoint a receiver for our client’s facility, White Plains Rehabilitation Center.

After our call, we reached out to counsel for White Plains to understand the basis for their request to the New York State Department of Health (“DOH”). In response, counsel advised that their client, White Plains, is pursuing its rights under the Amended and Restated Operating Lease dated November 19, 2015 (the “Lease”).

The only section of the Lease which references receivership is Article XVI, Section 16.1, which provides, in relevant part:

[White Plains], in addition to all other remedies given to [White Plains] at law or in equity, may by written notice to [HBL-SNF, LLC], without terminating this Lease, cause [HBL-SNF, LLC] to apply to the DOH to install a manager and/or management consultant and/or a receiver having the necessary approvals from Governmental Authorities, of [White Plains]’ choice, at [HBL-SNF, LLC]’s sole cost and expense or to the extent permitted by applicable law, reenter the Leased Premises by summary proceedings or otherwise (emphasis added).

This remedy, like the other remedies given to White Plains, only arises upon a default by the Tenant, HBL-SNF, LLC. As we advised during our call, there is no default under the Lease. White Plains’ allegations of default are the subject of a significant litigation matter which has been pending before Judge Walsh in Westchester County for the past nine (9) months with further proceedings scheduled into 2022 (White Plains Healthcare Properties I, LLC v. HBL SNF, LLC, Lizer Jozefovic A/K/A Lizer Jozefovic, and Mark Neuman, Index No. 60278/2020).

Marthe JB Ngwashi, Director
Bureau of Health Facility Planning and Development
Division of Legal Affairs
New York State Department of Health
April 8, 2021

As we discussed during our call:

1. HBL-SNF, LLC is current on its rent payments;
2. HBL-SNF, LLC is current on its obligation for taxes, insurance, and all other operating expenses;
3. The litigation involves capital contributions to the development project other than monthly lease payments; and
4. HBL-SNF, LLC has asserted substantial counterclaims arising from (i) delays in completing the project, (ii) severe project cost overruns, (iii) the failure to procure financing consistent with DOH approvals, and (iv) the lack of accounting for millions of dollars advanced to the project by HBL-SNF, LLC.
5. There are no issues whatsoever regarding HBL-SNF, LLC's financial status and no allegations relating to patient care and wellbeing.

White Plains has not raised the issue of the appointment of a receiver or made any request for emergent or injunctive relief to e Judge Walsh, and White Plain's current request represents nothing more than an attempted "end-run" to avoid Judge Walsh's rulings in the pending lawsuit.

Furthermore, please observe that pursuant to Section 16.1 of the Lease, White Plains is required to provide notice to HBL-SNF, LLC. No such notice has been provided. We only just learned of the request from the DOH. More importantly, pursuant to Section 16.1, White Plains can only cause HBL-SNF, LLC to apply to your Department for a receiver - it has no right to act unilaterally.

For the reasons stated above, there are no grounds to request the appointment of a receiver, and HBL-SNF, LLC rejects such a request as an improper attempt to engage the DOH in private civil litigation. Accordingly, HBL-SNF, LLC requests that the Department refuse the request.

I am enclosing the Complaint filed by White Plains, and HBL-SNF, LLC's Answer and Counterclaims for your review. I am available to discuss this matter further at your convenience.

Very truly yours,

Re: Status Updates

Gentlemen and Ladies,

Please allow this letter to update you on the status of the matters our office is handling on behalf of Waterview Hills.

BARTLETT, CLIFFORD

This file was closed in our office after we wired the $25,000 settlement sum to the client.

BEVILACQUA, PASQUALE

We succeeded in compelling WCDSS to revise this former resident's Medicaid budget, which reduced the debt to only $1815.60 and we were then authorized to close the file in our office.

BRENNAN, JOHN T.

We are in the process of finalizing a settlement of this account for a lump sum payment of $50,000.

JACKSON, DAPHNE

After trying for months to informally resolve errors in the 2/2/2020 budget with WCDSS, we finally requested a formal Fair Hearing; however, since the resident is deceased, and no estate representative is in place, we will not have standing to proceed with the Fair Hearing once it is scheduled by OTDA. We have been asking the caseworker to revise the budget to either give the recipient a 2/1/2019 pick up date, or deduct the full viable bill of $5,173.08 from the excess resources. Given the relatively small amounts of money at stake, and the costs of filing a creditor's petition with the Surrogate's Court to get Fair Hearing standing, this case may not be cost effective to pursue further if we cannot reach an informal resolution with WCDSS. Since we were only asked to maximize this resident's Medicaid coverage, and were never authorized to commence litigation on the account, the facility may ultimately decide to write off the debt.

MALONEY, EARL

Using subpoenas and title searches, we compiled the evidence needed to support our motion for a default judgment against this deceased resident's son based on our allegations of fraud.

MILLER, JOAN

This case settled in open court for $3000 to be paid off in monthly payments of $50 starting June 15, 2017. According to our records, a balance of $1820 remains unpaid on the settlement. We have sent out a series of default notices, but have not received a payment on account since February. If the default is not cured following our most recent letter drafted this month, we will assume you want us to close the file as the case is not cost effective to pursue further.

Kindly call with questions or concerns regarding the preceding or any other matters.

Thank you.

Warmest regards,

Nancy Levitin

Instructions for UCC Financing Statement (Form UCC1)

Please type or laser-print this form. Be sure it is completely legible. Read all Instructions, especially Instruction 1; correct Debtor name is crucial. Follow Instructions completely.

Fill in form very carefully; mistakes may have important legal consequences. If you have questions, consult your attorney. Filing office cannot give legal advice. Do not insert anything in the open space in the upper portion of this form; it is reserved for filing office use.

When properly completed, send Filing Office Copy, with required fee, to filing office. If you want an acknowledgment, complete item B and, if filing in a filing office that returns an acknowledgment copy furnished by filer, you may also send Acknowledgment Copy; otherwise detach. If you want to make a search request, complete item 7 (after reading Instruction 7 below) and send Search Report Copy, otherwise detach. Always detach Debtor and Secured Party Copies.

If you need to use attachments, you are encouraged to use either Addendum (Form UCC1Ad) or Additional Party (Form UCC1AP).

A. To assist filing offices that might wish to communicate with filer, filer may provide information in item A. This item is optional.

B. Complete item B if you want an acknowledgment sent to you. If filing in a filing office that returns an acknowledgment copy furnished by filer, present simultaneously with this form a carbon or other copy of this form for use as an acknowledgment copy.

1. Debtor name: Enter only one Debtor name in item 1, an organization's name (1a) or an individual's name (1b). Enter Debtor's exact full legal name. Don't abbreviate.
    - 1a. Organization Debtor. "Organization" means an entity having a legal identity separate from its owner. A partnership is an organization; a sole proprietorship is not an organization, even if it does business under a trade name. If Debtor is a partnership, enter exact full legal name of partnership; you need not enter names of partners as additional Debtors. If Debtor is a registered organization (e.g., corporation, limited partnership, limited liability company), it is advisable to examine Debtor's current filed charter documents to determine Debtor's correct name, organization type, and jurisdiction of organization.
    - 1b. Individual Debtor. "Individual" means a natural person; this includes a sole proprietorship, whether or not operating under a trade name. Don't use prefixes (Mr., Mrs., Ms.). Use suffix box only for titles of lineage (Jr., Sr., III) and not for other suffixes or titles (e.g., M.D.). Use married woman's personal name (Mary Smith, not Mrs. John Smith). Enter individual Debtor's family name (surname) in Last Name box, first given name in First Name box, and all additional given names in Middle Name box.
For both organization and individual Debtors: Don't use Debtor's trade name, DBA, AKA, FKA, Division name, etc. in place of or combined with Debtor's legal name; you may add such other names as additional Debtors if you wish (but this is neither required nor recommended).
  2. If an additional Debtor is included, complete item 2, determined and formatted per Instruction 1. To include further additional Debtors, attach either Addendum (Form UCC1Ad) or Additional Party (Form UCC1AP) and follow Instruction 1 for determining and formatting additional names.
  3. Enter information for Secured Party or Total Assignee, determined and formatted per Instruction 1. To include further additional Secured Parties, attach either Addendum (Form UCC1Ad) or Additional Party (Form UCC1AP) and follow Instruction 1 for determining and formatting additional names. If there has been a total assignment of the Secured Party's interest prior to filing this form, you may either (1) enter Assignor S/P's name and address in item 3 and file an Amendment (Form UCC3) [see item 5 of that form]; or (2) enter Total Assignee's name and address in item 3 and, if you wish, also attaching Addendum (Form UCC1Ad) giving Assignor S/P's name and address in item 12.
  4. Use item 4 to indicate the collateral covered by this Financing Statement. If space in item 4 is insufficient, put the entire collateral description or continuation of the collateral description on either Addendum (Form UCC1Ad) or other attached additional page(s).
  5. If filer desires (at filer's option) to use titles of lessee and lessor, or consignee and consignor, or seller and buyer (in the case of accounts or chattel paper), or bailee and bailor instead of Debtor and Secured Party, check the appropriate box in item 5. If this is an agricultural lien (as defined in applicable Commercial Code) filing or is otherwise not a UCC security interest filing (e.g., a tax lien, judgment lien, etc.), check the appropriate box in item 5, complete items 1-7 as applicable and attach any other items required under other law.
  6. If this Financing Statement is filed as a fixture filing or if the collateral consists of timber to be cut or as-extracted collateral, complete items 1-5, check the box in item 6, and complete the required information (items 13, 14 and/or 15) on Addendum (Form UCC1Ad).
  7. This item is optional. Check appropriate box in item 7 to request Search Report(s) on all or some of the Debtors named in this Financing Statement. The Report will list all Financing Statements on file against the designated Debtor on the date of the Report, including this Financing Statement. There is an additional fee for each Report. If you have checked a box in item 7, file Search Report Copy together with Filing Officer Copy (and Acknowledgment Copy). Note: Not all states do searches and not all states will honor a search request made via this form; some states require a separate request form.
  8. This item is optional and is for filer's use only. For filer's convenience of reference, filer may enter in item 8 any identifying information (e.g., Secured Party's loan number, law firm file number, Debtor's name or other identification, state in which form is being filed, etc.) that filer may find useful.
- 1c. An address is always required for the Debtor named in 1a or 1b.
- 1d. Reserved for Financing Statements to be filed in North Dakota or South Dakota only. If this Financing Statement is to be filed in North Dakota or South Dakota, the Debtor's taxpayer identification number (tax ID#) — social security number or employer identification number must be placed in this box.
- 1e,f,g. "Additional information re organization Debtor" is always required. Type of organization and jurisdiction of organization as well as Debtor's exact legal name can be determined from Debtor's current filed charter document. Organizational ID #, if any, is assigned by the agency where the charter document was filed; this is different from tax ID #; this should be entered preceded by the 2-character U.S. Postal identification of state of organization if one of the United States (e.g., CA12345, for a California corporation whose organizational ID # is 12345); if agency does not assign organizational ID #, check box in item 1g indicating "none."

Note: If Debtor is a trust or a trustee acting with respect to property held in trust, enter Debtor's name in item 1 and attach Addendum (Form UCC1Ad) and check appropriate box in item 17. If Debtor is a decedent's estate, enter name of deceased individual in item 1b and attach Addendum (Form UCC1Ad) and check appropriate box in item 17. If Debtor is a transmitting utility or this Financing Statement is filed in connection with a Manufactured-Home Transaction or a Public-Finance Transaction as defined in applicable Commercial Code, attach Addendum (Form UCC1Ad) and check appropriate box in item 18.

I. PRELIMINARY STATEMENT

This is an application for a preliminary injunction restraining Plaintiff and Third-Party Defendants (collectively, “White Plains”) from auctioning or otherwise selling the majority ownership interest in a nursing home facility to which White Plains has no relationship whatsoever. As addressed herein, White Plains’ Notification of Disposition of Collateral is simply another tactic designed to harm Defendants. The background for White Plains’ wrongful actions is set forth in detail in this Memorandum.

As this Court knows, White Plains is the landlord of a single-purpose building in which Defendants and Third-Party Plaintiffs, as tenants, operate a nursing home. White Plains and Defendants and Third-Party Plaintiffs are actively engaged in complex litigation before this Court involving multiple claims arising from the development and leasing of the property and the misappropriation of funds by White Plains.

White Plains seeks to sell the ownership interest in an unrelated, separate business enterprise owned by Defendant Lizer Jozefovic, the majority owner of a nursing home. Together with Defendant Mark Neuman, Jozefovic owns and operates a well-established and successful skilled nurse management company known as Epic Healthcare Management (collectively with HBL SNF, LLC, “Epic”). Established more than 20 years ago, Epic successfully manages six high quality skilled nursing and rehabilitation facilities including the two facilities which are the subject of this litigation: Waterview Hills Rehabilitation and Healthcare, located in Purdys, New York (“Waterview”), and Epic Rehabilitation and Nursing of White Plains (“White Plains Nursing Home”).

The primary dispute between White Plains and Epic involves multiple claims and counterclaims arising from the development of the White Plains Nursing Home project, as demonstrated in the Complaint, the Answer with Counterclaims and Third-Party Claims, and the Complaint from the consolidated action.

White Plains cannot utilize a collateral assignment executed in 2017 to sell the membership interests in Waterview. There are at least ten reasons to grant the proposed Order:

- 1) Epic performed all of its obligations under the collateral assignment;
- 2) White Plains failed to perform under the collateral assignment;
- 3) The collateral assignment terminated by its own terms in 2017;
- 4) White Plains waived its rights under the collateral assignment at least four years ago;
- 5) White Plains is in breach of the lease agreement and cannot demand performance;
- 6) White Plains diverted millions of dollars advanced by Epic;
- 7) White Plains defaulted on its mortgage loan causing harm to Epic;
- 8) White Plains modified the requirements of the security deposit;
- 9) Metropolitan Commercial Bank has a first priority security interest; and
- 10) Any sale or transfer of a nursing home must receive prior approval from NYSDOH.

Moreover, the proposed Order not only restrains White Plains from selling the membership interest in Waterview, it also preserves the disputed funds by restraining Epic from making any transfers out of the rent security account. By granting the Order, the Court will preserve the status quo for all parties pending the resolution of the substantial claims in this action.

Furthermore, if the Court is not prepared to issue the Order maintaining the rent security account balance, Epic is prepared to grant White Plains a security interest in the rent security account pursuant to the same terms and requirements previously proposed by White Plains.

White Plains' sudden effort to foreclose on the Waterview ownership interest is yet another underhanded attempt to disadvantage and leverage Epic before the issues in the primary action before this Court can be adjudicated. As described herein, in addition to the Notification of sale of Waterview, White Plains unilaterally approached the New York Department of Health, in violation of the specific provisions of the Lease Agreement and attempted to remove Epic from the management of the White Plains Nursing Home. Given its unclean hands, White Plains must not be allowed to proceed with this extrajudicial pre-judgment execution on Epic’s assets.

II. STATEMENT OF FACTS

In August 2009, Epic proposed the development of a new, state-of-the-art 160-bed skilled nursing facility in White Plains, New York (the “Facility”) to the New York State Department of Health (“NYSDOH”). Affirmation of John Giardino in Support of Order to Show Cause (“Giardino Aff.”) ¶ 15.

At this time, White Plains and Third-Party Defendants Howard Fensterman, (“Fensterman”), William Nicholson, CCC Equities LLC (“CCCE”), Project Equity Construction, and The Congress Companies, proposed to Epic that they act as turn-key developers for the new Facility and provide all necessary financing and construction for the project. Giardino Aff. ¶ 16. White Plains submitted a development proposal to Epic and NYSDOH with (1) a total Project cost of $56,631,759; (2) a thirty-year, $42,240,000 HUD-insured mortgage with an interest rate of 5.5%; and (3) $9,863,246 in project equity contributed by CCCE. Giardino Aff. ¶ 17.

In October 2012, White Plains submitted the application to NYSDOH and represented that the Project would be completed in 20 months, after which Epic would pay $360,000 per month in rent. Giardino Aff. ¶ 18. On November 15, 2015, Epic executed a development agreement (the “Development Agreement”) and lease (the “Lease”) with White Plains which constitute an integrated agreement. Giardino Aff. ¶ 19. Pursuant to the Development Agreement, White Plains was required to deliver a “turn-key” facility, i.e., the Facility was to be (1) fully constructed; (2) authorized to operate as a skilled nursing facility; (3) with permanent financing in place; and (4) all financing and construction was to be completed in accordance with the approval granted by NYSDOH. Giardino Aff. ¶ 20.

Despite their representations, White Plains lacked the necessary capital to complete the Project. Giardino Aff. ¶ 21. To overcome the capital shortfall, White Plains induced Epic to withdraw its equity in Waterview, an entirely separate nursing facility, and contribute that equity to the Project. Giardino Aff. ¶ 22. As memorialized in a term sheet dated November 20, 2015, Epic provided the following capital contributions to the Project:

- (1) $2,200,000 paid to White Plains to be used by Congress for pre-development costs;
- (2) $197,072 to CCCE to be used in the discretion of Fensterman; and
- (3) $1,595,368.32 into a control account as rent security in the name of Epic.

Giardino Aff. ¶ 23. Importantly, these funds constituted a loan to be repaid to Epic. Giardino Aff.

¶ 24. In fact, White Plains agreed to repay a portion of the principal amount of the loan by purchasing the furniture, fixtures, and equipment (the “FF&E”) for payment in the amount of $1,500,000 for the Project and by giving a future credit against Lease payments in the amount of $700,000. Giardino Aff. ¶ 25.

Despite repeated requests, White Plains has refused to convey title to the FF&E, to provide an accounting of the use of these predevelopment and discretionary funds, to provide evidence of purchases of the required FF&E, or to credit $700,000 against Epic’s Lease payments.<sup>1</sup> As such, White Plains has already converted or diverted the monies paid by Epic. In addition, interest accrued on this $2,200,000 loan must be calculated from November 2015 and either paid to Epic or credited to payments due under the Lease.<sup>2</sup> Giardino Aff. ¶¶ 26-29.

1. Epic Fulfilled Its Obligations Under The Collateral Assignment

On August 11, 2017, White Plains and Epic entered into the Collateral Assignment. The <sup>1</sup> The $700,000 can be credited as an advance on the rent security as these funds are already in the White Plains’ hands.

<sup>2</sup> The interest amount at 4% per annum would be equal to more than $450,000. Consequently, the Landlord is in receipt of funds in the amount of $1,140,000.

stated purpose of the Collateral Assignment was “to add Howard Fensterman as a signatory to such account so as to ensure no withdrawal may be made so as to reduce the amount of the account below $1.6 Million.” Section 2 of the Collateral Assignment required Epic to deposit $1,600,000 into a dedicated rent security account and provide Fensterman with signatory authority after which the Collateral Assignment “shall automatically terminate and be void and of no further effect.”<sup>3</sup> Giardino Aff. ¶¶ 31-32.

On August 10, 2017, in compliance with the Collateral Assignment, an email was sent to Fensterman (the “August 10 Email”). The August 10 Email states, in relevant part, that the following:

[R]eflects what we agreed to...[w]ith respect to the Waterview account...Howard Fensterman and Lizer Jozefovic shall be co-signatories to the Waterview account, provided however that Howard Fensterman shall be the sole signatory authorized on any direction for the account to be diminished below 1.6 million dollars. This authority shall be relegated to removal of the funds pursuant to the terms of the lease between HBL SNF, LLC as Tenant And White Plains Healthcare Property I, LLC as Landlord. Lizer and Waterview agree to maintain at least $1.6 M in account. Howard Fensterman agrees that he shall consent to all sums in excess 1.6 million being withdrawn from the account by the direction of Lizer Jozefovic.

<sup>3</sup> Fensterman was a signatory on the First Account. On November 19, 2015, White Plains received an email stating that “$1,595,368.32 is going to be held until such time as we give them instructions to deposit in an Account in the Name of HBL-SNF to be opened at Chase Private Banking.” On December 14, 2015, Fensterman signed the Business Account Signature Form for the First Account:

The image shows two Business Account Signature Forms for account number 7272. The top form is signed by Lizer Jozefovic, Member, on 12/14/15. The bottom form is signed by Howard Fensterman, Signer, on 12/14/15. Both forms include fields for Name of the Signer to Add, Title, ID Number, and Expiration Date.

(emphasis added). One week later, on August 17, 2017, an email was sent to Fensterman (the “August 17 Email”), which stated that “I need [Fensterman’s] signature on the last page.” In 2017, the Rent Security was transferred to the Chase account ending in xxxx-xxx-xxxx-0885 (the “Second Account”).

Giardino Aff. ¶¶ 39-40.

Consistent with the terms of the August 17th email, the Members and Managers of Waterview Acquisition I, LLC adopted the following resolution dated August 11, 2017:

THEREFORE, BE IT RESOLVED, that

1. The Company add Howard Fensterman as a co-signatory to the following account Waterview Acquisition I, LLC Account Number 7002 and Account Number 0885 at JP Morgan Chase together with Marc Neuman and Lizer Jozefovic;
2. Howard Fensterman’s signature shall be required on any withdrawal or any direction to the Bank on the account where such withdrawal or direction shall cause the balance and value of the account to fall below 1.6 million dollars.

To satisfy these terms, Epic corresponded with Fensterman on August 16th and 17th and provided everything required to authorize him as an account signatory:

Please note that the Certification requires that the Resolution that we prepared be annexed as an exhibit. What I need from Howard is original signature cards from Howard with wet ink signatures

...

Howard I need your signature on the last page.

AUTHORIZED SIGNATORY

Howard Fensterman

As of August 17, 2017, Epic had fulfilled its obligations by providing White Plains with the bank authorizations for the account. All Fensterman had to do was sign and submit the forms to JPMorgan Chase to become a signatory on the Second Account. Giardino Aff. ¶¶ 46-50. Inexplicably, Fensterman never transacted these documents, and White Plains never raised the issue or took any further action to become a signatory on the Second Account until this action.

2. The Project Was Two Years Late And $5M Over Budget

The Development Agreement required the Project be completed no later than September 2017. However, the Project was not completed until December 2019, resulting in Epic commencing operations at the onset of the COVID-19 pandemic. Giardino Aff. ¶¶ 51-52.

Not only was the Facility completed more than two years late, but it was also substantially overbudget. The Development Agreement required that the Project be delivered at the NYSDOH-approved budget of $57 million, and Epic would only be responsible for additional costs caused by authorized change orders. Giardino Aff. ¶ 53. Importantly, Epic never authorized one change order, yet the total costs exceeded the approved budget by more than $5 million. Giardino Aff. ¶ 54. These cost overruns had a serious impact on Epic, as it is now unable to obtain full reimbursement of its monthly rent payments as originally intended. Giardino Aff. ¶ 55.

More importantly, as part of the “turn-key” delivery of the Project, White Plains was obligated to provide permanent financing for the Project in the form of the HUD-insured loan approved by NYSDOH. Giardino Aff. ¶ 56. Yet White Plains has breached the Development Agreement and the Lease by failing to provide permanent financing. Giardino Aff. ¶ 57. As a consequence, Epic is currently losing $68,000 per month on NYSDOH reimbursements for an annualized loss of $816,000. Giardino Aff. ¶ 58.

3. The 2019 Letter Of Intent

On November 20, 2019, Epic entered into a letter of intent with White Plains (the “LOI”) to address these defaults. The LOI provided a simple exchange pursuant to which Epic made a $2.2 million payment to White Plains to resolve all prior disputes, including the structure of the Rent Security, and White Plains would transfer the property to “a newly formed Delaware Statutory Trust.” Giardino Aff. ¶¶ 59-61.

Epic alone performed its obligations under the LOI by making the $2.2 million payment to White Plains. Giardino Aff. ¶ 62. Beyond this initial payment, Epic also paid and continues to pay rent to White Plains on time every month. Since December of 2019, Epic’s monthly rent payments of $506,096.50 have totaled more than $12 million:

10/30/2019	$509,000.00

6/4/2021	$506,096.50

Giardino Aff. ¶¶ 63-64.

4. White Plains Defaults With Security Benefit

Notwithstanding Epic’s rent payments to White Plains, White Plains defaulted on its mortgage with Security Benefit Life Insurance Company (“Security Benefit”). Security Benefit has declared White Plains to be in default of its mortgage for having failed to make necessary mortgage payments, charges, interest, and other required fees. Giardino Aff. ¶ 66. In a notice dated April 16, 2020, Security Benefit states that White Plains has breached the terms of the mortgage and White Plains is solely at fault:

[White Plains] executed and delivered the Note to Lender. The Note evidences the obligation of [White Plains] to pay the Loan...[White Plains] has failed to make, or cause to be made, the monthly payment of interest due under the Note and under Section 2.12 of the Loan Agreement on April 1, 2020, which failure constitutes an Event of Default.

Giardino Aff. ¶ 67.

On May 22, 2020, Security Benefit sent a second letter, reiterating that White Plains remains in default and raising two additional breaches. First, White Plains was supposed to “send a Tenant Direction Notice to direct the sole tenant, HBL, to pay rent directly to Lender.” Second, and most importantly:

[White Plains] failed to deposit all revenue generated by the Property into the Cash Management Account....Among other things, we recently learned that [Epic] may have paid [White Plains] approximately $2,200,000 in late 2019 or early 2020. Any such revenue should have been deposited with [Security Benefit].

Notably, Security Benefit makes no reference to Epic’s obligations. Giardino Aff. ¶¶ 68-70.

On May 1, 2021, Security Benefit brought a foreclosure action against White Plains for nonpayment of rent in the action captioned Security Benefit Life Insurance Company, et al. v. White Plains Healthcare Properties I, LLC et al., No. 55883/2021. Although Security Benefit temporarily discontinued the action on May 28, 2021, Security Benefit will likely foreclose on the mortgage, jeopardizing Epic’s tenancy and continued operations. Publicity about the foreclosure has created uncertainty about the Facility’s future in the marketplace. Giardino Aff. ¶¶ 71-73.

The breach of White Plains’ mortgage agreement with Security Benefit is especially prejudicial because Epic has made, and continues to make, rent payments. On the other hand, White Plains has failed to pay its mortgage to Security Benefit and has not accounted for Epic’s payments to White Plains. Neither the mortgage agreement with Security Benefit nor the Lease Agreement with Epic provide White Plains with the right to seize and sell the Membership Interest in Waterview.

5. White Plains Wrongfully Sought To Appoint A Receiver

As stated above, in or about March 2021, White Plains contacted NYSDOH and claimed that the appointment of an emergency receiver was necessary because Epic was facing certain and immediate financial ruin as a result of this action. Notably, White Plains failed to inform the Court or Epic of this request. Instead, Epic was contacted by NYSDOH Director Marthe JB Ngwashi who requested further information about the situation. When Epic contacted White Plains regarding this request, White Plains’ counsel responded by claiming that White Plains was pursuing its rights under the Lease. Giardino Aff. ¶¶ 74-77.

This is both false and improper. The only section of the Lease which references receivership is Article XVI, Section 16.1, which states, in relevant part:

[White Plains], in addition to all other remedies given to [White Plains] at law or in equity, may by written notice to [Epic], without terminating this Lease, cause [Epic] to apply to the DOH to install a manager and/or management consultant and/or a receiver having the necessary approvals from Governmental Authorities, of [White Plains'] choice, at [Epic's] sole cost and expense or to the extent permitted by applicable law, reenter the Leased Premises by summary proceedings or otherwise.

This remedy, like the other remedies given to White Plains, only arises upon an actual default by Epic. However, despite White Plains' allegations, there has been no default under the Lease, as Epic has made, and continue to make, their monthly rental payments. Moreover, pursuant to Section 16.1 of the Lease, White Plains is required to provide notice to Epic, which they failed to do, and White Plains is solely limited to requesting that Epic apply to NYSDOH for a receiver. Giardino Aff. ¶¶ 78-80.

White Plains had no right to unilaterally request that NYSDOH appoint a receiver under the Lease, nor were there any grounds that would require receivership. Instead, rather than prove their claims before the Court, White Plains once again attempted to avoid judicial scrutiny by asking NYSDOH to improperly intervene. Once Epic was given the opportunity to meaningfully respond, NYSDOH took no further steps to appoint a receiver.

6. White Plains' Second Attempt To Foreclose On Waterview Interests

On June 9, 2021, White Plains issued a purported Notification of Disposition of Collateral which announced the intention to sell the "Collateral," defined as "[a]ll rights, title and interest of Lizer Jozefovic as a member of Waterview Acquisition 1, LLC," to the "highest qualified bidder in public" on Thursday, July 1, 2020, at 10:00 AM (the "Notification"). Giardino Aff. ¶¶ 10-11.

The Notification is entirely false, as White Plains have no right to proceed against the Membership Interest, especially in the middle of ongoing litigation. Moreover, the Notification has been widely distributed to Epic’s current and potential colleagues and business partners, which harms its standing and ability to operate the Facility. Giardino Aff. ¶¶ 12-14.

III. LEGAL ARGUMENT

A. The Preliminary Injunction Maintains the Status Quo Pending Resolution of the Litigation

The purpose of a preliminary injunction is to preserve the status quo until a matter can be fully briefed and resolved. See, e.g., Koob v. IDS Fin. Serv., Inc., 629 N.Y.S.2d 426 (1st Dep’t 1995); Residential Bd. of Managers of the Columbia Condo. v. Alden, 576 N.Y.S.2d 859 (1st Dep’t 1991).

To obtain a preliminary judgment, Epic must satisfy three requirements:

- (1) a likelihood of success on the merits of the action;
- (2) the danger of irreparable injury in the absence of a preliminary injunction; and
- (3) a balance of the equities in favor of the party seeking the injunction.

See, e.g., Nobu Next Door, LLC v. Fine Arts Housing, Inc., 4 N.Y.3d 839, 840 (2005); W. T. Grant Co. v. Srogi, 52 N.Y.2d 496, 517 (1981). These factors must be weighed together and in context when determining whether to grant a preliminary injunction. See Doe v. Axelrod, 73 N.Y.2d 748, 750 (1988); see also Chernoff Diamond & Co. v. Fitzmaurice, Inc., 651 N.Y.S.2d 504, 506 (1996). As set forth below, Epic satisfies each of these three requirements and is entitled to an injunction preventing the pre-judgment sale of its asset.

B. Epic Is Likely To Succeed On The Merits

In order to obtain a preliminary injunction, the moving party is not required to demonstrate “a certainty of success,” but need only provide a prima facie showing of their right to relief. Bingham v. Struve, 591 N.Y.S.2d 156, 158 (1st Dep’t 1992); Parkmed Co. v. Pro-Life Counselling, Inc., 457 N.Y.S.2d 27, 29 (1st Dep’t 1982). The moving party establishes a likelihood of success through credible claims and arguments, regardless of whether the opposing party disputes the facts. Four Times Square Assocs., LLC v. Cigna Invs., Inc., 764 N.Y.S.2d 1, 2 (1st Dep't 2003).

As evidenced by Epic's counterclaims,<sup>4</sup> affirmations, and exhibits, Epic has established credible claims, identified millions of dollars of unaccounted contributions to the Project, and is likely to succeed on the merits of these claims. See also Promenade Condo. v. J.J. & P. Corp., 662 N.Y.S.2d 509, 510 (1997) (holding that an affidavit and basic documentary evidence are sufficient to grant a preliminary injunction).

i. Epic Performed Its Obligations Under The Collateral Assignment

Section 2 of the Collateral Assignment required Epic to deposit $1,600,000 into a dedicated rent security account and provide White Plains with signatory authority for the purpose of ensuring that "no withdrawal may be made so as to reduce the amount of the account below $1.6 Million" (emphasis added). Once the $1.6 million was deposited, the Collateral Assignment by its own terms "terminate[s] and [is] void and of no further effect." (emphasis added). Although Epic has satisfied both of these requirements, the proposed Order does exactly what the assignment requires: it prevents withdrawals which reduce the balance below $1.6 million.

Epic has provided bank records, bank statements, and correspondence demonstrating that in November 2015, the $1.6 million security account was properly established and the $1.6 million account balance has been maintained ever since. The evidence also shows that Epic provided <sup>4</sup> In its Answer with Counterclaims dated November 5, 2020, Epic has asserted the following counterclaims: (1) An accounting to establish what became of the significant advance payments Epic made prior to commencement of the Project; (2) Imputed interest based upon the $2.2 million loan Epic provided to White Plains in November 2015; (3) Fraud in the inducement against Fensterman and Nicholson for their misrepresentations regarding the Project's costs, ability to secure financing, ability to timely complete the project, and ability to obtain capital contribution; (4) Bad faith throughout the development and execution of the Project, resulting in Epic suffering losses totaling $15 million; (5) Fraud based upon the prior and continued misrepresentations that White Plains and Fensterman have made regarding Plaintiff's payments and ability to operate the Project.

White Plains with fully executed bank authorization forms to establish Fensterman as a signatory to the Rent Security and that White Plains took no action.

Again, on August 10, 2017, Epic notified White Plains that the $1.6 million Rent Security would be transferred to the Second Account for which “Fensterman and [Jozefovic] shall be co-signatories.” In furtherance of this agreement, on August 16 and 17, 2021, Epic provided White Plains with all documents necessary to authorize Fensterman as an account signatory.

As of August 17, 2017, White Plains possessed the bank authorization documents. However, White Plains never transacted these documents, and White Plains never raised this issue until five years later when they filed the current action. Meanwhile, Epic has maintained the Rent Security, which has never fallen below $1.6 million.

The record establishes that Epic (1) created the Rent Security Account, (2) funded the account with $1.6 million, (3) executed the bank signatory and authorization forms, (4) secured the signatures of the other account owners to effectuate the authorization, (5) conducted a company meeting to approve the resolution granting Fensterman signatory authority consistent with the Collateral Assignment, and (6) delivered the executed bank forms to White Plains. These acts fully discharged Epic’s obligations under the Collateral Assignment and consequently terminated the agreement.

ii. White Plains Waived Its Rights Under the Collateral Assignment

White Plains’ failure to consummate the account transaction in 2017 constitutes a complete waiver of contractual rights. See 13 Williston on Contracts § 39:15 at 621 (4th ed.) (the doctrine of waiver is “designed to prevent the waiving party from lulling the other party into a belief that strict compliance with a contractual duty will not be required and then either suing for noncompliance or demanding compliance”).

Courts have routinely held that “[c]ontractual rights may be waived if they are knowingly, voluntarily and intentionally abandoned,” as established “by failure to act so as to evince an intent not to claim a purported advantage” or by “undisputed acts...inconsistent with [the party’s] purpose to stand upon [their] rights.” Fundamental Portfolio Advisors, Inc. v. Tocqueville Asset Mgmt., L.P., 7 N.Y.3d 96, 104 (2006) (citations omitted); Alsens Am. Portland Cement Works v. Degenon Contracting Co., 222 N.Y. 34, 37 (1917); CT Chemicals (U.S.A.), Inc. v. Vinmar Impex, Inc., 81 N.Y.2d 174, 179, (1993). By their lack of action since 2017, White Plains has waived their rights under the Collateral Assignment.

iii. Modification Of The Security Deposit Requirement

Not only have they waived their rights under the Collateral Assignment, White Plains modified any rights with respect to the Rent Security by accepting a $2.2 million payment from Epic. On November 20, 2019, in an attempt to resolve certain disputes, White Plains and Epic entered into the LOI, under which Epic paid $2.2 million to White Plains, and in exchange White Plains agreed to transfer the Property to “a newly formed Delaware Statutory Trust.” White Plains accepted the $2.2 million from Epic and thereby extinguished any and all previous disputes. Yet, in what is becoming a pattern, White Plains failed to perform its obligations under the LOI, despite having benefited from the $2.2 million payment from Epic, and now seeks to enforce the Collateral Assignment.

iv. White Plains Is Not In Possession Of The Membership Interest And Cannot Sell It

White Plains is publishing fraudulent statements claiming that the Membership Interest will be sold at auction, despite not possessing the Membership Interest, nor having any right to sell the Membership Interest. White Plains intends to induce third parties to rely on the Notification and attempt to purchase the Membership Interest, a transaction that will lead to certain injury to Epic, MCB, and any other parties who may erroneously attempt to purchase the Membership Interest.

Notably, MCB entered into a security agreement with Epic in 2019. Epic granted MCB a security interest in the Membership Interest and MCB subsequently perfected its security interest by taking possession of the related certifications and filing a Uniform Commercial Code (“UCC”) Financing Statement on December 23, 2019. In contrast, White Plains failed to file a UCC Financing Statement until September 15, 2020.

Consequently, MCB has a senior security interest in the Membership Interest. MCB has perfected its security interest in the Membership Interest and maintains physical possession of the membership certificates. White Plains cannot sell the Membership Interest which is properly assigned to MCB.

v. White Plains’ Publication Is Defamatory

Defamation occurs when an entity makes “a false statement, published without privilege or authorization to a third party, constituting fault as judged by, at a minimum, a negligence standard, and, it must either cause special harm or constitute defamation per se.” Dillon v. City of New York, 704 N.Y.S.2d 1, 5 (1999).

The Notification identifies Jozefovic as an “assignor” and states that White Plains will sell the Membership Interest at a public auction to satisfy Epic’s debts. These statements are false—Epic does not owe White Plains or Fensterman anything, and White Plains has no right to sell the Membership Interest. White Plains and Fensterman knew that the statements in the Notification were false at the time it was issued, and they purposefully distributed the Notification to Epic’s current and potential colleagues and business partners, harming Epic’s reputation.

vi. Fensterman, As Epic's Former And Current Legal Counsel, Breached His Fiduciary Duties To Epic, Committing Legal Malpractice, And Violated Judiciary Law § 487

To state a claim for breach of fiduciary duty, a plaintiff must allege that “(1) defendant owed them a fiduciary duty, (2) defendant committed misconduct, and (3) they suffered damages caused by that misconduct.” Burry v. Madison Park Owner LLC, 924 N.Y.S.2d 77, 78 (2011). An attorney breaches their fiduciary duties to their client when they violate their attorney-client obligations, such as by disclosing confidential information or acting in conflict with the client’s interests. See Napoli v. New York Post, 107 N.Y.S.3d 279, 282 (2019), leave to appeal denied, 35 N.Y.3d 906 (2020).

Fensterman acted as legal counsel to Epic in connection with the refinancing of Waterview and the execution and delivery of Collateral Assignment. As Fensterman previously and currently represents Epic in certain matters, Fensterman owes a fiduciary duty to Epic, including the duties of loyalty, good faith, and care.

C. Epic Will Suffer Irreparable Harm

Courts have long held that membership in, or ownership of, a corporation constitutes a specific asset that cannot be replaced or compensated through money alone. See, e.g., Walker & Zanger v Zanger, 245 AD2d 144, 145 (1st Dept 1997); Vanderminde v Vanderminde, 226 AD2d 1037, 1041 (3d Dept 1996); Matter of Brenner v Hart Sys., Inc., 114 AD2d 363, 366 (2d Dept 1985); Cooperstown Capital, LLC v Patton, 60 AD3d 1251, 1253 (3d Dept 2009). This principle is well settled: irreparable harm will occur and injunctive relief is necessary when the control or management of a closely held corporation is threatened. See, e.g., Casita, LP v Maplewood Equity Partners (Offshore) Ltd., 17 Misc 3d 1137(A) (Sup Ct 2007) (“[The] loss of some or all of its investment...by reason of a forced sale...would constitute irreparable injury.”); Yemini v

Goldberg, 60 AD3d 935, 937 (2d Dept 2009) (“[B]ecause control and management...were at stake, money damages were not sufficient.”); Matter of Madelone v Whitten, 18 Misc 3d 1131(A) (Sup Ct 2008) (“The Court concludes that this contemplated shift in the governance and control...constitutes irreparable harm, particularly where the provisional relief sought by petitioner is to maintain the status quo”); Louis Foodservice Corp. v Konstantinos Vouyiouklis, 2002 NY Slip Op 50448(U), 10 (Sup Ct Aug. 26, 2002) (“[A]n opportunity for Epic to shift the balance of power and assume management and control of the corporation, may properly be viewed as irreparable injury”).

Jozefovic is the majority shareholder of Waterview, a closely held corporation, through his ownership of the Membership Interest. Jozefovic has spent years of his life building and operating Waterview, which represents the accumulation of Jozefovic’s efforts, labor, and business acumen. As Waterview is a closely held corporation, the Membership Interest cannot be replaced and its value is impossible to measure. Moreover, Jozefovic is not a minor investor and the Membership Interest is not a fungible asset; Jozefovic cannot be compensated for the loss of the Membership Interest after it has been sold to a third party. Therefore, if White Plains continues with the sale of the Membership Interest, Epic will be irreparably harmed. See Aetna Ins. Co. v Capasso, 75 NY2d 860, 862 (1990); see also Grand Manor Health Related Facility, Inc. v Hamilton Equities, Inc., 85 AD3d 695 (1st Dept 2011) (“Without the injunction, plaintiff, which operates a residential health care facility, would be at risk of losing its valuable leasehold and incurring significant permanent damage to more than 30 years of hard-earned goodwill.”).

D. The Balance Of Equities Favors Epic

The final requirement requires a balancing of equities. The court should grant a preliminary injunction if “the damage to [Epic] from denial of the preliminary injunction... would [cause] substantially greater harm [to Epic] if they were ultimately proved right in the action, than the harm that would be caused to [White Plains] by the granting of the preliminary injunction if [Epic] were ultimately proved right.” Kurtz v Zion, 61 AD2d 778, 778 (1st Dept 1978). Courts must give greater deference to actual, concrete harm, whereas theoretical concerns are weighted less. See, e.g., Louis Foodservice Corp., 2002 NY Slip Op at 10.

The known, immediate harm that Epic will suffer far outweighs any potential inconvenience to White Plains. The $1.6 million is in a dedicated account and the proposed Order prevents its withdrawal. See Maestro West Chelsea SPE LLC v. Pradera Realty Inc., 954 N.Y.S.2d 819 (Sup. N.Y. Co. 2012). The proposed Order serves the exact purpose of a preliminary injunction, as it preserves the status quo until the parties' rights can be determined. See Koob, 629 N.Y.S.2d 426.

E. NYSDOH Has Not Approved Of The Sale

New York State has strict laws about the sale and transfer of nursing homes, especially those certified as Medicaid providers, as is Epic. By way of example, at least 90 days before agreeing to sell a nursing home the owner must provide notification about the sale and the proposed management and operations plan to NYSDOH. Additionally, there are numerous requirements before an owner can complete a proposed sale. See N.Y. Pub. Health Law, § 2803-X. If there is a change in ownership of a facility, the new owner must get written approval from NYSDOH in order to receive an operating license. See New York Consol. Laws Article 36, § 3611(A). The application process involves submitting a Certificate of Need and undergoing a lengthy approval process. Failure to procure approval via this process bars the sale of a nursing home sale, which occurred in Putnam Acquisition I, LLC v. KNH Partners, 21 Misc. 3d 1103(A) (Nassau County Supreme Court 2008) where the plaintiff’s failure to receive NYSDOH approval of their Certificate of Need application prevented a nursing home purchase from being completed.

Although New York State’s Moratorium on LHCSA licensures officially expired in March 2020, NYSDOH remains focused on the COVID-19 pandemic and continues the freeze on processing LHCSA applications. See <https://www.health.ny.gov/facilities/cons/>. Additionally, New York State’s 2021 Executive Budget continues, effective through March 31, 2022, “a moratorium on the processing and approval of applications for a certificate of authority to operate as a Managed Long Term Care program.” The Managed Long Term Care program is a common New York State Medicaid health plan that provides coverage for various services, including nursing home care.

New license applications, once they are available to be processed, will need to be more extensive than they were in the past, given new amendments to New York Consol. Laws Article 36, § 3605. A LHCSA applicant due to change of ownership will need to: (1) Undergo a character and competence review; (2) Provide proof of financial resources and feasibility to operate the entity; and (3) “such other matters as [the DOH] shall deem pertinent.”

F. The Court Should Grant Epic A Temporary Restraining Order Pending The Determination Of The Preliminary Injunction

CPLR § 6301 states, in relevant part, that

“[a] temporary restraining order may be granted pending a hearing for a preliminary injunction where it appears that immediate and irreparable injury, loss or damage will result unless the defendant is restrained before the hearing can be had.”

Irreparable injury is defined as an injury for which monetary damages are insufficient. James v. Gottlieb, 445 N.Y.S.2d 719, 719 (1981). Additionally, the moving party must demonstrate that the harm is specific and imminent. In short, the moving party is required to provide a showing that the requested temporary relief is needed to protect the status quo, as the threatened action will complicate, diminish, or moot the desired final outcome. See Atlas MF Mezzanine Borrower, LLC v. Macquarie Texas Loan Holder LLC, 174 A.D.3d 150, 105 N.Y.S.3d 59 (2019) (holding that while a party may seek to enjoin a sale of collateral before the sale occurs, the same party may not unwind a sale after its conclusion, even if a court later finds evidence of bad faith).

As discussed above, Epic has complied with the Collateral Assignment by providing the Rent Security, yet White Plains intends to engage in a fraudulent sale of the Membership Interest on July 1, 2021. For the reasons discussed supra, Epic risks suffering irreparable injuries, losses, and damages, unless White Plains is immediately enjoined. Therefore, the Court should grant a temporary restraining order pending a hearing and determination of the preliminary injunction motion.

G. In The Alternative, Epic Is Prepared To Provide White Plains With A Security Interest In the Rent Security

White Plains does not have the right to sell the Membership Interest, as Epic has not breached the Collateral Assignment, and the Rent Security remains intact. However, in the interest of resolving this matter without further unnecessary motion practice and as further proof of good will, Epic is prepared to offer White Plains a $1.6 million security interest in the Rent Security. This additional security interest is sufficient to protect White Plains' interests throughout the course of litigation and would allow the parties to focus on resolving the actual issues and disputes, instead of attempting to leverage long-defunct contracts to engage in wrongful, fraudulent activities. Giardino Aff. ¶98.

IV. CONCLUSION

For the foregoing reasons, Epic and Defendants and Third-Party Plaintiffs HBL SNF, LLC, Lizer Jozefovic, and Mark Neuman respectfully request that the Court grant the Order to Show Cause for a preliminary injunction and a temporary restraining order to (1) enjoin White Plains

Healthcare Properties I, LLC, Howard Fensterman, and Metropolitan Commercial Bank from taking any action to transfer, assign, convey or sell Jozefovic’s membership interest in Waterview Acquisition I, LLC; and (2) enjoin Epic and Defendants and Third-Party Plaintiffs HBL SNF, LLC, Lizer Jozefovic, and Mark Neuman from taking any action to reduce the Rent Security below $1.6 million; be granted in its entirety, together with such other and further relief as this Court deems just, proper and equitable.

ROBERT J. MALATAK, an attorney duly admitted to practice law before the Courts of this State, affirms the following to be true under penalty of perjury:

1. I am a member of the law firm Windels Marx Lane & Mittendorf, LLP, attorneys for third-party defendant and cross-claimant Metropolitan Commercial Bank (“MCB”), and I am fully familiar with the facts and circumstances set forth herein. I submit this affirmation in partial joinder and support of the motion by defendants / third-party plaintiffs Lizer Jozefovic (“Josefovic”), HBL SNF LLC (“HBL”), and Mark Neuman (“Neuman”) (collectively, “Movants”) for an order pursuant to CPLR Article 63 enjoining plaintiff White Plains Healthcare Properties I,

LLC (“WPHP”) and the third-party defendants (collectively, the “WP Parties”), during the pendency of this action, from, among other things, taking any action to transfer, assign, convey, or sell Josefovich’s membership interests in Waterview Acquisition I, LLC (the “Certificates”).

2. A copy of the Affidavit of Brett Bandazian, sworn to on October 26, 2020 (the “Bandazian Aff.”), along with Exhibits A-H thereto, is annexed hereto as Exhibit 1. The Bandazian Aff. was previously e-filed on October 27, 2020 in the action entitled Josefovich v. White Plains Healthcare Properties I, LLC et. al, Index No. 655549/2020 (the “New York County Action”), in partial joinder and support of Josefovich’s prior application for a temporary restraining order, and MCB resubmits same in partial joinder and support of this motion.

3. On October 27, 2021, the Court granted Josefovich’s TRO request in the New York County Action pending a determination on the request for a preliminary injunction. A true copy of the conformed Order to Show Cause signed by the Court is annexed hereto as Exhibit 2.

4. Notably, the WP Parties admit that MCB has a first priority lien on the Certificates. See Emergency Affirmation Of Alfred E. Donnellan In Support Of Order To Show Cause (New York County Action, Doc. No. 8, ¶¶ 12, 15).

5. WPHP and Howard Fensterman subsequently moved to consolidate the New York County Action with this action pending in Westchester County Supreme Court.

6. While the motion was pending, on January 8, 2021, MCB filed in the New York County Action an Answer With Cross-Claim against WPHP and Howard Fensterman. A true copy of the Answer With Cross-Claim is annexed hereto as Exhibit 3. MCB’s cross-claim seeks a declaratory judgment that WPHP and Howard Fensterman are prohibited from selling the Certificates because, inter alia, (a) they either have no interests in the Certificates, or (b) even if they do have interests in the Certificates any such interests are trumped by MCB’s interests and related rights.

7. By Decision and Order, dated April 8, 2021 (Bannon, J.S.C.), a true copy of which is annexed hereto as Exhibit 4, the New York County Action was consolidated with this action, and the motion for a preliminary injunction was denied without prejudice to renewal upon transfer and consolidation in this Court.

8. After the two (2) actions were consolidated, Howard Fensterman, as nominee for White Plains, issued a Notification of Disposition of Collateral, dated June 9, 2021 (the “Second Notice of Sale”), purporting to once again notice a sale of the Certificates, this time on July 1, 2021. A true copy of the Second Notice of Sale is annexed hereto as Exhibit 5.

WHEREFORE, MCB respectfully requests that the Court issue an order granting (1) Movants’ order to show cause for a temporary restraining order and preliminary injunction, except that the injunction should not be extended to MCB and (2) MCB such other and further relief as this Court deems just and proper.

AFFIDAVIT OF BRETT BANDAZIAN IN PARTIAL SUPPORT OF PLAINTIFF’S MOTION, BY ORDER TO SHOW CAUSE, FOR AMONG OTHER THINGS, A TEMPORARY RESTRAINING ORDER

STATE OF NEW YORK )
 ) ss:
 COUNTY OF NEW YORK )

BRETT BANDAZIAN, being duly sworn, deposes and says:

1. I am a Vice President, Commercial Lending, of Metropolitan Commercial Bank (“MCB”), and respectfully submit this affidavit in partial support of plaintiff Lizer Jozefovic’s (“Plaintiff”) motion, by order to show cause, for, among other things, a temporary restraining order (the “Motion”). In my capacity as Vice President, I have personal knowledge of MCB’s business dealings with Plaintiff, as well as non-party Waterview Acquisition I, LLC (“Waterview”). Except as otherwise stated, I have personal knowledge of the matters set forth herein based upon personal knowledge, a review of MCB’s business records and other relevant documents and information, as well as my discussions with other MCB personnel and representatives. Where the facts are on information and belief, I believe them to be true.

BASIS FOR RELIEF SOUGHT

2. On October 22, 2020, Plaintiff filed this action and Motion seeking, among other things, a temporary restraining order that restrains defendants White Plains Healthcare Properties I, LLC (“White Plains”), Howard Fensterman (“Fensterman”) and MCB from, among other things, “Taking any action to transfer, assign, convey or sell Plaintiff’s membership interest in Waterview .... (the ‘TRO’).” Because MCB is the fully perfected senior secured creditor in and to Plaintiff’s Membership Interests and Certificates (each defined below) and actually has possession of them, any attempted sale by White Plains and Fensterman -- assuming arguendo that White Plains is even a secured creditor which remains an open issue -- cannot be “commercially reasonable” and MCB will suffer significant damages as a result. Accordingly, MCB supports this Court imposing a TRO, but only on White Plains and Fensterman. The TRO should not be expanded to MCB because its rights and remedies under its loan documents (including, without limitation, those identified below), at law and in equity should not in any way be limited because of a dispute that is really between Plaintiff, White Plains and Fensterman.

PERTINENT FACTS

3. On or about December 19, 2019, MCB loaned $3 million (the “Loan”) to, among others, Waterview and in connection therewith Waterview executed and delivered to MCB a Promissory Note (the “Note”) and Loan Agreement (the “Loan Agreement”) each dated December 19, 2019.

4. To secure repayment of Waterview’s obligations to MCB, among other things, Plaintiff executed and delivered to MCB a Guaranty Of Payment dated December 19, 2019 (the “Guaranty”). A true copy of the Guaranty is annexed hereto as Exhibit A.

5. Plaintiff secured his obligations under his Guaranty by executing and delivering to MCB, among other things, the Assignment And Pledge Of Membership Interests dated December 19, 2019 (the “Pledge Agreement”). A true copy of the Pledge Agreement is annexed hereto as Exhibit B.

6. Pursuant to the Pledge Agreement, Plaintiff, among other things, “pledge[d], collaterally assign[ed], transfer[red] and convey[ed], and grant[ed] a security interest in and lien on, in favor of [MCB], all of [Plaintiff’s] right, title and interest in, to, and under ..., whether now owned or existing or hereafter acquired or arising [‘Seventy and one-tenths percentage (70.1%) of the membership interests ... owned by HERBERT JOZEFOVIC ... in WATERVIEW ACQUISITION I, LLC ....’]” (“Plaintiff’s Membership Interests”). See Pledge Agreement, § 2-3 & Annex A.

7. To authorize, permit and facilitate the pledge of Plaintiff’s Membership Interests to MCB, Plaintiff’s Membership Interests were certificated (the “Certificates”) and the Amended And Restated Operating Agreement Of Waterview Acquisition I, LLC was amended pursuant to the Second Amendment To Amended And Restated Operating Agreement Of Waterview Acquisition I, LLC dated December 19, 2019 (collectively, the “Operating Agreement”). A true copy of the Operating Agreement is annexed hereto as Exhibit C.

8. After obtaining a senior secured interest in Plaintiff’s Membership Interests and Certificates, MCB fully perfected same by filing a UCC Financing Statement on December 23, 2019 (the “MCB UCC”) and taking possession of the Certificates. A true copy of the MCB UCC is annexed hereto as Exhibit D. MCB remains in possession of the Certificates.

9. On or about October 6, 2020, MCB and its counsel Windels Marx Lane & Mittendorf, LLP (“Windels Marx”) received a Notification Of Disposition Of Collateral pursuant to which White Plains and Fensterman purported to sell White Plains' interests in and to Plaintiff's Membership Interests and Certificates (the "Notice of Sale"). A true copy of the Notice of Sale is annexed hereto as Exhibit E.

10. The Notice of Sale allegedly relates to an August 11, 2017 collateral assignment, pledge and security agreement between Plaintiff and White Plains. This is the first time MCB became aware of any such alleged agreement and not surprisingly, since White Plains/Fensterman did not file a UCC Financing Statement until only last month -- September 15, 2020 (the "WP UCC"). A true copy of the WP UCC is annexed hereto as Exhibit F.

11. By letter dated October 19, 2020, MCB's counsel wrote to White Plains and Fensterman's counsel demanding that it cease and desist with any and all efforts to sell Plaintiff's Membership Interests and Certificates (the "Windels Letter"). A true copy of the Windels Letter is annexed hereto as Exhibit G.

12. By letter dated October 22, 2020, White Plains' counsel, DelBello Donnellan Weingarten Wise & Wiederkehr, LLP, in responding to both the Windels Letter, as well as an earlier dated cease and desist letter by Plaintiffs' counsel, reported that White Plains and Fensterman would not cease and desist but rather would proceed with the sale as noticed (the "DelBello Letter"). A true copy of the DelBello Letter is annexed hereto as Exhibit H.

13. Thereafter, Plaintiff filed this action and Motion.

MCB WILL SUFFER SIGNIFICANT PREJUDICE IF THE SALE IS NOT TEMPORARILY ENJOINED

20. I am advised by MCB's counsel, Windels Marx, that debtors and secured creditors alike must proceed in good faith under New York's Uniform Commercial Code ("UCC") and that all sales thereunder must be "made in a commercially reasonable manner." I am further advised that a secured party who is not in possession of the collateral cannot by law conduct a commercially reasonable disposition of that collateral.

21. Based upon the foregoing discussion, MCB is a fully perfected senior secured creditor in and to Plaintiff's Membership Interests and Certificates -- a fact that Plaintiff, White Plains and Fensterman apparently concede. MCB has not, nor will it, turn over the Certificates to White Plains or Fensterman for purposes of conducting a sale or otherwise. MCB's rights in and to Plaintiff's Membership Interests and Certificates are paramount to those of White Plains (assuming it has any) and thus, is under no obligation -- nor can it be compelled -- to turn over the Certificates. Consequently, because neither White Plains nor Fensterman is in a position to conduct a "commercially reasonable" sale of same, they should be enjoined from further proceeding down that path.

22. Additionally, given MCB's paramount interests -- which it will not waive for, but will seek to enforce against White Plains, Fensterman or any potential third-party purchaser -- it is hard to imagine that a legitimate third-party purchaser would be willing to pay anything for Plaintiff's Membership Interests at a sale conducted by White Plains and Fensterman. Therefore, the attempted sale appears to be designed to damage the image of Waterview for some other purpose which in turn reduces the value of MCB's collateral security for the Loan and causes MCB to suffer related significant damages if the sale is not enjoined and otherwise stayed.

23. MCB also notes that Plaintiff raises serious issues about whether or not White Plains even obtained a security interest in Plaintiff's Membership Interests and Certificates given that White Plains did not take the steps necessary (as did MCB) to have the Operating Agreement amended so as to permit a pledge of Plaintiff's interests to White Plains. Plaintiff also raises serious questions about whether the purported security interest in White Plains' favor

(assuming one was even created) had long ago terminated. MCB submits that at a minimum these threshold issues as to White Plains' status (or not) as a secured creditor respectfully must be resolved before any UCC sale by White Plains or Fensterman can even be contemplated. If White Plains/Fensterman have no secured creditor status, then their actions with respect to Plaintiff's Membership Interests and Certificates are nothing more than blatant attempts to interfere with MCB's contractual arrangements with, among others, Waterview and Plaintiff, which this Court respectfully should not permit.

WHEREFORE, defendant Metropolitan Commercial Bank respectfully requests that the Court grant (a) Plaintiff's requested TRO, except that MCB should not be subject to the TRO and (b) MCB such other and further relief as the Court shall deem just and proper.

WHEREAS, unless otherwise indicated in this Guaranty, capitalized terms used herein which are not defined herein shall have the respective meanings assigned to them in the Loan Agreement.

NOW, THEREFORE, in consideration of the premises and other good and valuable consideration, the receipt of which is hereby acknowledged, and in order to induce the Lenders to make the Loan to Borrower, each Guarantor Party hereby agrees, as follows:

1. Intentionally Omitted.
2. Obligations Guaranteed.

(a) The Guarantor Parties unconditionally guarantee to the Lenders and Administrative Agent, the due, prompt and unconditional payment of the Loan, and the interest thereon, whether now or hereafter advanced, as the same shall become due and payable under the Note and Loan Agreement, whether at stated maturity, by acceleration or otherwise, and any and all sums of money that, at the time, may have become due and payable under the provisions of the Note, the Loan Agreement, the Pledge Agreements or any such other documents (such documents are hereinafter referred to, collectively, as the “Loan Documents”) plus all other amounts, in each case, liquidated or unliquidated, owing by the Borrower to the Administrative Agent and each Lender pursuant to and whether arising under the Note, the Loan Agreement or any other Loan Document at any time, of each and every kind, nature and description, and whether secured or unsecured, direct or indirect (that is, whether the same are due directly by the Borrower to a Lender, Administrative Agent or any of their affiliates; or are due indirectly by the Borrower to Administrative Agent, any Lender or any of their affiliates as endorser, guarantor or other surety, or as Borrower of obligations due third persons which have been endorsed or assigned to any Lender, Administrative Agent or any of their affiliates, or otherwise), absolute or contingent, due or to become due, now existing or hereafter arising or contracted, including, without limitation, payment when due of all amounts outstanding respecting any of the Loan Documents, and the due and prompt performance of all of the terms, agreements, covenants and conditions of the Note, the Loan Agreement or any other Loan Documents (collectively, the “Guaranteed Obligations”); and

(b) Each Guarantor Party unconditionally guarantees to all Lenders and Administrative Agent, payment in full of any and all reasonable expenses that may be paid or incurred by Administrative Agent, or any Lender, or their designees, or any of its affiliates in the collection of all or any portion of the Guarantor’s obligations hereunder or the exercise or enforcement of any one or more of the other rights, powers, privileges, remedies and interests of Administrative Agent or such Lenders, under the Loan Documents, including, without limitation, reasonable attorneys’ fees, irrespective of the manner or success of any such collection, exercise or enforcement, and whether or not such expenses constitute part of the Borrower’s obligations.

(c) Notwithstanding anything to the contrary in this Guaranty or any of the Loan Documents, Administrative Agent, the Lenders or their designees shall not be deemed to have waived any right which the Lenders and Administrative Agent, or their designees, may have under Section 506(a), 506(b), or 1111(b) of the Bankruptcy Code or any other provisions of the Bankruptcy Code to file a claim for the full amount of the Guaranteed Obligations or to require that all collateral shall continue to secure all of the Guaranteed Obligations owing to the Administrative Agent or any Lender in accordance with the Loan Documents.

3. Unconditional Guaranty. This Guaranty is an absolute, unconditional, present and continuing guaranty of payment and not of collection and is in no way conditioned or contingent upon any attempt to enforce Administrative Agent's, Lenders' or any of its affiliates rights against Borrower or to collect from Borrower or upon any other condition or contingency; accordingly, Administrative Agent shall have the right to proceed against the Guarantor Parties immediately upon any Event of Default (as defined in the Loan Agreement) under the Loan Agreement without taking any prior action or proceeding to enforce the Loan Documents or any of them or for the liquidation or foreclosure of any security the Administrative Agent or its affiliates may at any time hold pursuant thereto. Each Guarantor Party hereby waives and releases any claim (within the meaning of 11 U.S.C. § 101) that any Guarantor Party may have against Borrower arising from a payment made by any Guarantor Party under this Guaranty and agrees not to assert or take advantage of any subrogation rights of any Guarantor Party or any right of any Guarantor Party to proceed against Borrower for reimbursement. It is expressly understood that the waivers and agreements of each Guarantor Party constitute additional and cumulative benefits given to each of Administrative Agent and each Lender and their respective affiliates for its security and as an inducement for its extension of credit to Borrower. Administrative Agent may at any time and from time to time take any and/or all actions and enforce all rights and remedies available to it and Lenders hereunder or under applicable law to collect from any Guarantor Party any amounts then due and payable hereunder by any Guarantor Party and/or to cause any Guarantor Party to fulfill his, her or its obligations hereunder.

4. Liability Unimpaired. Each Guarantor Party's liability hereunder shall in no way be limited or impaired by, and each Guarantor Party hereby consents to and agrees to be bound by, any amendment or modification of the provisions of any of the Loan Documents, or any other instrument or agreement made to or with the Administrative Agent, any Lenders, or any of its respective affiliates, by Borrower or any Guarantor Party. In addition, no Guarantor Party's liability hereunder shall in any way be limited or impaired by (i) any extensions of time for performance required by any of said documents, (ii) any sale, assignment or foreclosure of the Note or any sale or transfer of all or part of the collateral pledged to the Administrative Agent, (iii) any exculpatory provision in any of said documents limiting the Administrative Agent's or any Lender's recourse to the collateral or to any other security, or limiting the Administrative Agent's or any Lender's rights to a deficiency judgment against Borrower, (iv) the release of Borrower or any other Person from performance or observance of any of the agreements, covenants, terms or conditions contained in any of said documents including any other Guarantor Party under this Guaranty or any other guaranty, for any reason, including by the Administrative Agent's or any Lender's election, by operation of law (including, but not limited to the Commodity Exchange Act (the "CEA") and any successor statute or any other rule, regulation or order of the Commodity Futures Trading Commission), or otherwise, (v) the release or substitution in whole or in part of any security for the Obligations, (vi) the Administrative Agent's or any Lender's failure to record or file any UCC financing statements (or the Administrative Agent's or any Lender's improper recording or filing of same) or to otherwise perfect, protect, secure or insure any security interest or lien given as security for the Guaranteed Obligations, (vii) the invalidity, irregularity or unenforceability, in whole or in part, of any of the Loan Documents, this Guaranty or any other instrument or agreement executed or delivered to the Administrative Agent on behalf of the Lenders in connection with the Obligations, except to the extent that there is a final adjudication by a court of competent jurisdiction of a valid defense to the applicable Borrower's obligations under the Loan Documents to payment of the Guaranteed

Obligations, (viii) the inaccuracy of any of the representations and warranties made by Borrower in the Loan Agreement or the other Loan Documents, or (ix) any other action or circumstance whatsoever that constitutes, or might be construed to constitute, a legal or equitable discharge or defense (except full payment and satisfaction) of Borrower for their obligations under any of the Loan Documents or of any Guarantor Party under this Guaranty; and, in any such case, whether with or without notice to each Guarantor Party and with or without consideration.

5. Preservation of Loan Documents. Each Guarantor Party will cause the Borrower to maintain and preserve the enforceability of any of the Loan Documents, as the same may be modified and will not permit Borrower to take or to fail to take actions of any kind which might be the basis for a claim that any Guarantor Party has a defense to any Guarantor Party's obligations hereunder.

6. Each Guarantor Party Event of Default. Upon the occurrence of any of the following events which is continuing after all applicable cure periods (each a "Guarantor's Event of Default"): (a) any Guarantor Party defaults following any applicable notice and cure period under this Guaranty or any Loan Document to which any Guarantor Party is a party; (b) any representation or warranty made by any Guarantor Party herein or in any other Loan Document to which any Guarantor Party is a party is materially false or untrue as of the date such representation or warranty is made; (c) any Guarantor Party commences any case, proceeding, or other action under any law of any jurisdiction relating to bankruptcy, insolvency, reorganization, or relief of debtors or seeks to have an order for relief entered with respect to any Guarantor Party or seeks to be adjudicated a bankrupt or insolvent, or seeks reorganization, arrangement, adjustment, liquidation, dissolution, composition or other relief with respect to any Guarantor Party or any Guarantor Party's debts, or seeks the appointment of a receiver, trustee, custodian, or other similar official for any Guarantor Party or for all or any substantial part of any Guarantor Party's property; (d) any Guarantor Party makes a general assignment for the benefit of creditors; (e) there is commenced against any Guarantor Party, any case, proceeding or other action of the type referred to in clause (c) above or seeking the issuance of a warrant of attachment, execution, distraint, or similar process against all or any substantial part of any Guarantor Party's property, which case, proceeding or other action results in an entry of an order for relief or is not dismissed, discharged or bonded within thirty (30) days of the commencement thereof; (f) any Guarantor Party takes any action indicating any Guarantor Party's consent to, approval of, or acquiescence in or in furtherance of, any of the acts set forth in clause (c) and (e) above; (g) in the case of the Individual Guarantors, the death or incapacity of such Guarantor, except if a replacement guarantor acceptable to the Administrative Agent in all respects in its sole and absolute discretion assumes each of the obligations of such Guarantor hereunder within twenty (20) days from the date of the death or incapacity of such Guarantor; (h) any Guarantor Party admits in writing any Guarantor Party's inability to pay such Guarantor Party's debts as they mature; (i) any Guarantor Party terminates or dissolves or suspends such Guarantor Party's usual business activities or conveys, sells, leases, transfers or otherwise disposes of all or a substantial part of any Guarantor Party's property, business or assets other than in the ordinary course of business; (j) a breach of the Liquidity Covenant; or (k) the existence or occurrence at any time of one or more conditions or events that, in the sole opinion of the Lenders, has resulted or is reasonably likely to have a Material Adverse Effect on any Guarantor Party; then, any or all of the obligations of any Guarantor Party shall, at the Required Lenders' option, become (for the purpose of this Guaranty) immediately due and payable by Guarantor Parties, without demand or notice. In addition, upon the occurrence of any Event of Default or a Guarantor's Event of Default, the Administrative Agent shall have all of the rights and remedies provided to a secured party by the Uniform Commercial Code as in effect in New York State at that time.

7. No Contest with Administrative Agent; Subordination. So long as any Guaranteed Obligation hereby guaranteed remains unpaid or undischarged, no Guarantor Party will, by paying any sum recoverable hereunder (whether or not demanded by the Administrative Agent) or by any means or on any other ground, claim any set-off or counterclaim against Borrower in respect of any liability of any Guarantor Party to the Borrower or, in proceedings under federal bankruptcy law or insolvency proceedings of any nature, prove in competition with the Administrative Agent in respect of any payment hereunder or be entitled to have the benefit of any counterclaim or proof of claim or dividend or payment by or on behalf of the Borrower or the benefit of any other security for any obligation hereby guaranteed which, now or hereafter, the Administrative Agent may hold or in which it may have any share. Until the Guaranteed Obligations are paid in full, each Guarantor Party hereby subordinates any and all indebtedness of Borrower now or hereafter owed to any Guarantor Party to all indebtedness of Borrower to the Administrative Agent and any Lenders, and agrees with the Administrative Agent that no Guarantor Party shall (a) demand or accept any payment from the Borrower on account of such indebtedness (except for payments expressly authorized in the Loan Agreement, if any), (b) claim any offset or other reduction of any Guarantor Party's obligations hereunder because of any such indebtedness, and (c) take any action to obtain any interest in any of the security described in and encumbered by the Loan Documents because of any such indebtedness; provided, however, that, if the Administrative Agent so requests, such indebtedness shall be collected, enforced and received by any Guarantor Party as trustee for the Administrative Agent and be paid over to the Administrative Agent and the Lenders on account of the indebtedness of Borrower to the Administrative Agent and Lenders, but without reducing or affecting in any manner the liability of any Guarantor Party under the other provisions of this Guaranty except to the extent the principal amount of such outstanding indebtedness shall have been reduced by such payment.

8. Indemnification; Payments; Certain Waivers. Each Guarantor Party (i) waives any rights or claims of right to cause a marshalling of Borrower's assets or to cause the Administrative Agent or any Lender to proceed against any of the security for Guaranteed Obligations, or for the obligations guaranteed hereby before proceeding against any Guarantor Party, (ii) agrees that any payments required to be made by Guarantor Parties hereunder shall become due on demand in accordance with the terms of Section 2 hereof and without presentment to Borrower, demand for payment or protest, or notice of non-payment or protest, and (iii) except as hereinafter provided, expressly waives and relinquishes all rights and remedies accorded by applicable law to guarantors. Without limiting the generality of the foregoing, the Guarantor Parties hereby waive all rights (x) to participate in any claim or remedy the Administrative Agent or any Lender or any of their affiliates may now or hereafter have against the Borrower or in any collateral that Administrative Agent or any Lender has or hereafter may acquire for the Guaranteed Obligations guaranteed hereby and (y) except as provided below, to contribution, indemnification, set-off, exoneration or reimbursement, whether from Borrower, any Guarantor Party, or any other Person now or hereafter primarily or secondarily liable for any of the Borrower's obligations to the Administrative Agent or any Lender and whether arising by contract or operation of law or otherwise by reason of such Guarantor Party's execution, delivery or performance of this Guaranty. Each Guarantor Party retains its rights of subrogation, contribution, indemnification, set-off or reimbursement against each Borrower or any other Guarantor Party that any Guarantor Party may have (the “Undersigned’s Rights”); provided, however, that (i) this Guaranty shall neither be contingent upon the existence of the Undersigned’s Rights nor subject to any claims or defenses whatsoever that may be asserted in connection with the enforcement or attempted enforcement of the Undersigned’s Rights including, without limitation, any claim that the Undersigned’s Rights were abrogated by any of the Administrative Agent’s or any Lenders’ acts, and (ii) until the Guaranteed Obligations shall have been indefeasibly paid in full each Guarantor Party hereby fully postpones and subordinates (A) the exercise of any and all of the Undersigned’s Rights to Administrative Agent’s and each Lender’s rights against such Guarantor Party under this Guaranty or against Borrower under any of the Loan Documents, and (B) any of the Undersigned’s Rights to any collateral securing the Guaranteed Obligations.

9. Reinstatement. This Guaranty shall continue to be effective, or be reinstated automatically, as the case may be, if at any time payment, in whole or in part, of any of the obligations guaranteed hereby is rescinded or otherwise must be restored or returned by Administrative Agent or any Lender or any affiliate (whether as a preference, fraudulent conveyance or otherwise) upon or in connection with the insolvency, bankruptcy, dissolution, liquidation or reorganization of Borrower, any Guarantor Party or any other Person, or upon or as a result of the appointment of a receiver, intervenor or conservator of, or trustee or similar officer for, Borrower, any Guarantor Party or any other Person or for a substantial part of the Borrower’s, any Guarantor Party’s or any of such other person’s property, as the case may be, or otherwise, all as though such payment had not been made. The Guarantor Parties further agree that in the event any such payment is rescinded or must be restored or returned, all costs and expenses (including, without limitation, legal fees and expenses) incurred by or on behalf of Administrative Agent or any Lender in defending or enforcing such continuance or reinstatement, as the case may be, shall constitute costs of enforcement, the payment of which is guaranteed by Guarantor pursuant to Section 2 above and covered by Guarantor Parties’ indemnity pursuant to Section 7 above.

10. Guarantor Parties’ Representations and Warranties. Each of the Guarantor Parties, with respect to himself or itself only, represents and warrants as follows:

(a) Litigation; Compliance with Judgments. There are no actions, suits or proceedings pending or threatened against or affecting such Guarantor Party, at law, in equity or before or by any governmental authorities that would have a material effect on such Guarantor Party’s ability to perform his or her obligations hereunder; to the best of each Guarantor Party’s knowledge, such Guarantor Party is not in default with respect to any order, writ, injunction, decree or demand of any court or governmental authorities.

(b) Authorization and Enforceability; No Conflicts. Each Guarantor Party has the full power and authority to enter into and perform his or its obligations under this Guaranty and this Guaranty is a legal, valid and binding instrument, enforceable against each Guarantor Party in accordance with its terms. The consummation of the transactions contemplated hereby and the performance of this Guaranty, the other Loan Documents to which each Guarantor Party is a party have not resulted and will not result in any breach of, or constitute a default under, any mortgage, deed of trust, lease, bank loan or credit agreement, corporate charter, by-laws, operating agreement, partnership agreement or other instrument to which any Guarantor Party is a party or by which such Guarantor Party may be bound or affected.

(c) Compliance with Laws. Such Guarantor Party is in compliance with, and the transactions contemplated by the Loan Documents, and this Guaranty do not and will not violate any provision of, or require any filing, registration, consent or approval under, any federal, state or local law, rule, regulation, ordinance, order, writ, judgment, injunction, decree, determination or award (hereinafter, "Laws") presently in effect having applicability to such Guarantor Party, and agrees that such Guarantor Party will comply promptly with all Laws now or hereafter in effect having applicability to such Guarantor Party.

(d) Accuracy of Information; Full Disclosure. Neither this Guaranty nor any documents, financial statements, reports, notices, schedules, certificates, statements or other writings furnished by or on behalf of such Guarantor Party to Administrative Agent or Lenders in connection with the negotiation of the Loan Documents or the consummation of the transactions contemplated thereby, or required herein or by the Loan Documents to be furnished by or on behalf of such Guarantor Party, contains any untrue or misleading statement of a material fact; there is no fact that such Guarantor Party has not disclosed to the Administrative Agent or Lenders in writing that materially affects adversely any of the property covered by the business affairs or financial condition of such Guarantor Party, or the ability of such Guarantor Party to perform this Guaranty and the other Loan Documents to which such Guarantor Party is a party.

11. Loan Agreement. By its execution of the Loan Agreement, each Guarantor Party acknowledges that he or it has received a copy of and agrees to comply with his or its obligations under and in connection with the Loan Agreement and the Loan Documents, including without limitation the requirement to deliver the financial statements and information set forth in Section 6.03 of the Loan Agreement.

12. Non-Waiver Remedies Cumulative. No failure or delay on the Administrative Agent's or Lender's part in exercising any right, power or privilege under any of the Loan Documents, this Guaranty or any other document made to or with Administrative Agent or any Lender in connection with the Guaranteed Obligations shall operate as a waiver of any such privilege, power or right or shall be deemed to constitute the Administrative Agent's or any Lender's acquiescence in any default by Borrower or Guarantor Parties under any of said documents. A waiver by the Administrative Agent or any Lender of any right or remedy under any of the Loan Documents, this Guaranty or any other document made to or with the Administrative Agent or any Lender in connection with the Guaranteed Obligations shall not be construed as a bar to any right or remedy which Administrative Agent or any Lender otherwise would have on any future occasion. The rights and remedies provided in said documents are cumulative, may be exercised singly or concurrently and are not exclusive of any rights or remedies provided by law.

13. Transfers of Interests in Loan. Each Guarantor Party acknowledges that each Lender, in its sole discretion, may sell, assign or transfer interests in the Loan, this Guaranty and the other Loan Documents to one or more participants, purchasers and/or assignees (collectively, “Participants”), and agrees in connection therewith, all Loan Documents and other documentation, financial statements, appraisals and other data, or copies thereof, relevant to Borrower, Guarantor Parties or the Loan Agreement, may be provided to and retained by any such participant, purchaser or assignee or prospective participant, purchaser or assignee. Guarantor Parties agree that Administrative Agent and/or Lenders shall have no obligation to give Guarantor Parties written notice of any sale, assignment or transfer of any interest or participation in the Loan or any part thereof.

14. Separate Indemnity. Each Guarantor Party acknowledges and agrees that the respective rights of Administrative Agent or any Lender and any of their respective affiliates (and Guarantor Parties’ obligations) under this Guaranty shall be in addition to all of Administrative Agent’s or any Lender’s rights (and all of Guarantor Parties’ obligations) under any indemnity agreement executed and delivered to Administrative Agent or any Lender by Borrower and/or any Guarantor Parties in connection with the Guaranteed Obligations, and payments by any Guarantor Party under this Guaranty shall not reduce any of any Guarantor Party’s obligations and liabilities under any such indemnity agreement.

15. Severability. Any provision of this Guaranty, or the application thereof to any Person or circumstance (including any invalidation of any other guarantor’s obligations under or in connection with the CEA), that, for any reason, in whole or in part, is prohibited or unenforceable in any jurisdiction shall, as to such jurisdiction, be ineffective to the extent of such prohibition or unenforceability without invalidating the remaining provisions of this Guaranty (or the remaining portions of such provision) or the application thereof to any other person or circumstance, and any such prohibition or unenforceability in any jurisdiction shall not invalidate or render unenforceable such provision (or portion thereof) or the application thereof to any person or circumstance in any other jurisdiction.

16. Entire Agreement; Amendments. This Guaranty contains the entire agreement of the parties with respect to the subject matter hereof and supersedes all prior oral or written agreements or statements relating to such subject matter, and none of the terms and provisions hereof may be waived, amended or terminated except by a written instrument signed by the Person against whom enforcement of the waiver, amendment or termination is sought.

17. Successors and Assigns. This Guaranty shall be binding upon and shall inure to the benefit of Administrative Agent, Lenders and any of their respective affiliates and each Guarantor Party and their respective heirs, personal representatives, successors and assigns. This Guaranty may be assigned by Administrative Agent, any Lender or any of their respective affiliates with respect to all or any portion of the obligations guaranteed hereby, and when so assigned Guarantor Parties shall be liable under this Guaranty to the assignee(s) of the portion(s) of the obligations guaranteed hereby so assigned without in any manner affecting the liability of Guarantor Parties hereunder to Administrative Agent or any Lender or their affiliates with respect to any portion of the Guaranteed Obligations guaranteed hereby retained by Administrative Agent or any Lender or any of their respective affiliates.

18. WAIVER OF TRIAL BY JURY. EACH OF THE GUARANTOR PARTIES, AND BY THE ACCEPTANCE HEREOF, THE ADMINISTRATIVE AGENT HEREBY AGREES NOT TO ELECT A TRIAL BY JURY OF ANY ISSUE TRIABLE OF RIGHT BY

JURY, AND WAIVES ANY RIGHT TO TRIAL BY JURY FULLY TO THE EXTENT THAT ANY SUCH RIGHT SHALL NOW OR HEREAFTER EXIST WITH REGARD TO THE LOAN DOCUMENTS, OR ANY CLAIM, COUNTERCLAIM OR OTHER ACTION ARISING IN CONNECTION THEREWITH. THIS WAIVER OF RIGHT TO TRIAL BY JURY IS GIVEN KNOWINGLY AND VOLUNTARILY BY GUARANTOR PARTIES AND THE ADMINISTRATIVE AGENT, AND IS INTENDED TO ENCOMPASS INDIVIDUALLY EACH INSTANCE AND EACH ISSUE AS TO WHICH THE RIGHT TO A TRIAL BY JURY WOULD OTHERWISE ACCRUE. GUARANTOR PARTIES AND THE ADMINISTRATIVE AGENT ARE HEREBY AUTHORIZED TO FILE A COPY OF THIS PARAGRAPH IN ANY PROCEEDING AS CONCLUSIVE EVIDENCE OF THIS WAIVER.

19. ADDITIONAL WAIVERS IN THE EVENT OF ENFORCEMENT. GUARANTOR PARTIES HEREBY EXPRESSLY AND UNCONDITIONALLY WAIVE, IN CONNECTION WITH ANY SUIT, ACTION OR PROCEEDING BROUGHT BY OR ON BEHALF OF THE ADMINISTRATIVE AGENT ON THIS GUARANTY, ANY AND EVERY RIGHT ANY GUARANTOR PARTY MAY HAVE TO (I) INJUNCTIVE RELIEF, (II) INTERPOSE ANY COUNTERCLAIM THEREIN (OTHER THAN COMPULSORY COUNTERCLAIMS), AND (III) HAVE THE SAME CONSOLIDATED WITH ANY OTHER OR SEPARATE SUIT, ACTION OR PROCEEDING. NOTHING HEREIN CONTAINED SHALL PREVENT OR PROHIBIT ANY GUARANTOR PARTY FROM INSTITUTING OR MAINTAINING A SEPARATE ACTION AGAINST THE ADMINISTRATIVE AGENT WITH RESPECT TO ANY ASSERTED CLAIM.

20. Governing Law; Submission to Jurisdiction. This Guaranty and the rights and obligations of the parties hereunder shall in all respects be governed by, and construed and enforced in accordance with, the laws of the State of New York. Each Guarantor Party hereby irrevocably submits to the nonexclusive jurisdiction of any New York state or federal court sitting in the City of New York and County of New York over any suit, action or proceeding arising out of or relating to this Guaranty, and each Guarantor Party hereby agrees and consents that, in addition to any methods of service of process provided for under applicable law, all service of process in any such suit, action or proceeding in any New York state or federal court sitting in the City of New York and County of New York may be made by certified or registered mail, return receipt requested, directed to the Guarantor Parties at the address indicated below, and service so made shall be complete three (3) days after the same shall have been so mailed.

21. Paragraph Headings. Any paragraph headings and captions in this Guaranty are for convenience only and shall not affect the interpretation or construction hereof.

22. Liability Unaffected by Release. Any other Person liable upon or in respect of any obligation hereby guaranteed may be released without affecting the liability of Guarantor Parties hereunder.

23. Joint and Several Obligations. If more than one Person comprises Guarantor Parties, then each such Person's obligations and liability under this Guaranty shall be joint and several.

24. Notices. Notices shall be given in the manner provided in the Loan Agreement, with all notices to Guarantor Parties being delivered to the Borrower.

25. Principles of Construction. All references to sections, paragraphs, schedules and exhibits are to sections, schedules and exhibits in or to this Guaranty unless otherwise specified. Unless otherwise specified, the words “hereof,” “herein” and “hereunder” and words of similar import when used in this Guaranty shall refer to this Guaranty as a whole and not to any particular provision of this Guaranty. The recitals to this Guaranty shall be deemed a part hereof and all exhibits and schedules attached hereto, if any, are incorporated herein by reference for all purposes. Unless otherwise specified, all meanings attributed to defined terms herein shall be equally applicable to both the singular and plural forms of the terms so defined and “including” means including without limitation. 26. Counterparts. This Guaranty may be executed in any number of counterparts, each of which shall be an original and all of which shall constitute together but one and the same agreement. Any signature delivered by a party by facsimile or email transmission shall be deemed to be an original signature hereto.

THIS ASSIGNMENT AND PLEDGE OF MEMBERSHIP INTERESTS (this “Agreement”), dated as of December 19, 2019, is made by and between HERBERT JOZEFOVIC, an individual (“Pledgor”), and METROPOLITAN COMMERCIAL BANK, a New York State chartered bank (together with its successors and assigns, the “Administrative Agent” or the “Pledgee”).

WITNESSETH:

- A. Pledgor is a member of WATERVIEW ACQUISITION I, LLC, a New York limited liability company (the “Company”).
- B. Pursuant to the terms of that certain Loan Agreement of even date herewith (as amended and/or restated from time to time, the “Loan Agreement”), by and among the Administrative Agent; the Company, Salem Acquisition I, LLC (collectively, the “Borrower”); each Guarantor (as such term is defined in the Loan Agreement); and the Lenders (as such term is defined in the Loan Agreement), Lenders have agreed to make a loan to Borrower in the original principal amount of Three Million and No/100 Dollars ($3,000,000.00) (the “Loan”).
- C. The Loan is secured by, among other things, the Guaranty and this Agreement.
- D. Capitalized terms used but not defined herein shall have the meanings ascribed thereto in the Loan Agreement.
- E. Pledgor is a member of the Company and shall derive direct and indirect benefits (financial and otherwise) from the Loan made to the Borrower by the Lenders as contemplated by the Loan Agreement, and it is and will be to Pledgor’s advantage to assist the Borrower in procuring the Loan from the Lenders; and
- F. As further security for the Pledgor’s obligations under the Guaranty, Pledgor grants and executes this Agreement.
- G. It is a condition precedent to the Loan Agreement that Pledgor executes and delivers this Agreement and shall have made the pledge contemplated hereunder.

NOW, THEREFORE, in consideration of the premises hereinabove, and to induce the Lenders to make the Loan identified hereinabove pursuant to the Loan Agreement and in consideration of the benefits accruing to Pledgor, and for other good and valuable consideration, the receipt, adequacy and sufficiency of which are hereby acknowledged, Pledgor hereby covenants and agrees with the Pledgee as follows:

1. SECURITY FOR OBLIGATIONS, ETC. This Agreement is for the benefit of the Pledgee to secure the prompt and complete payment and performance when due of all obligations, liabilities, indebtedness (whether for principal, interest, charges, or fees, including, without limitation, attorneys' fees), costs, expenses, covenants, indemnities and agreements of every nature whatsoever of the Company, and Pledgor to the Pledgee now existing or hereafter arising under or in connection with the Loan Agreement, this Agreement, the Guaranty, and any and all other Loan Documents (as defined in the Loan Agreement, and as each may be from time to time amended, supplemented, extended, renewed and/or modified), including, without limitation, all Obligations (all of the foregoing collectively referred to herein as the "Secured Obligations").

2. DEFINITION OF PLEDGED COLLATERAL. As used herein, the term "Pledged Collateral" shall mean Pledgor's membership interests in the Company, as more particularly described on Annex A attached hereto and made a part hereof, and any additional Pledged Collateral acquired pursuant to Section 3.2 below (whether by purchase, distribution, merger, consolidation, sale of assets, split, spin off, or any other dividend or distribution of any kind or otherwise), which Annex A may be supplemented from time to time pursuant to Section 3.2 below. Pledgor represents and warrants that on the date hereof (a) Annex A attached hereto correctly identifies the Pledged Collateral owned by Pledgor with respect to its direct interest in the Company; (b) Pledgor is the holder of record and sole beneficial and legal owner of such Pledged Collateral; and (c) no other Person owns or has any interest in or claim to, whether actual or contingent, the Pledged Collateral.

3. PLEDGE OF PLEDGED COLLATERAL AND OTHER COLLATERAL.

3.1 Pledge. To secure the Secured Obligations and for the purposes set forth in Section 1 hereof, Pledgor hereby pledges, collaterally assigns, transfers and conveys, and grants a security interest in and lien on, in favor of the Pledgee, all of Pledgor's right, title and interest in, to, and under each of the following, whether now owned or existing or hereafter acquired or arising: (A) the Pledged Collateral, (B) any additional Pledged Collateral acquired pursuant to Section 3.2 below (whether by purchase, dividend, distribution, merger, consolidation, sale of assets, split, spin-off, or any other dividend or distribution of any kind or otherwise), (C) all distributions, dividends, cash, certificates, liquidation rights and interests, options, rights, warrants, instruments or other property (whether real, personal or mixed) from time to time received, receivable or otherwise distributed in respect of or in exchange or substitution for any and all of the Pledged Collateral, and all rights to receive any and all income, gain, profit, loss or other items allocated or distributed to Pledgor by, to or from the Company (including, without limitation, under or pursuant to the Company's operating agreement), and (D) all proceeds, products, replacements and substitutions for any of the foregoing, in each case whether now owned or hereafter acquired by Pledgor (collectively, the "Collateral"). If the Collateral or any interest in the Collateral is evidenced by certificates, Pledgor shall deposit with the Pledgee the Collateral owned by Pledgor on the date hereof and the certificates representing the Collateral and any interest therein accompanied by "Assignment Separate From Certificate," in form and substance reasonably acceptable to Pledgee, duly executed in blank by Pledgor. Pledgor hereby delivers to the Pledgee: (i) assignments of its interest in the Collateral duly executed in blank by Pledgor substantially in the form of Annex B attached hereto, (ii) UCC Financing Statements, naming Pledgor as debtor and the Pledgee as secured party with respect to the Collateral in any jurisdiction reasonably required by the Pledgee (including with the appropriate Secretary of State), in form and substance satisfactory to the Pledgee in its sole and absolute determination, and without the requirement of Pledgor's signature, and (iii) notice of the pledge of the Collateral to be recorded on the books of the Company substantially in the form of Annex C attached hereto. Notwithstanding anything to the contrary contained in this Agreement, the Pledgee shall not as a result of this Agreement be responsible or liable for any obligations or liabilities of Pledgor in Pledgor's capacity as a member or manager of the Company, if any, and the Pledgee shall not be deemed to have assumed any of such obligations or liabilities.

3.2 Subsequently Acquired Pledged Collateral. If at any time or from time to time after the date hereof during the term of this Agreement, Pledgor shall acquire any additional Collateral, including any further membership interests or units in the Company (whether by purchase, distribution, merger, consolidation, sale of assets, split, spin-off, or any other dividend or distribution of any kind or otherwise), Pledgor will forthwith pledge and, if applicable, deposit such additional Collateral with the Pledgee and deliver to the Pledgee certificates or instruments therefor, endorsed in blank by Pledgor or accompanied by an "Assignment Separate From Certificate" duly executed in blank by Pledgor, and will promptly thereafter deliver to the Pledgee a certificate (which shall be deemed to supplement Annex A attached hereto) executed by Pledgor describing such Collateral and the other Collateral pledged to the Pledgee, and certifying that the same have been duly pledged with the Pledgee hereunder. Whether or not such additional Collateral is evidenced by certificates, Pledgor shall permit the Pledgee to file a UCC Financing Statement naming Pledgor as debtor and the Pledgee as secured party with respect to the additional Collateral in any jurisdiction reasonably required by the Pledgee (including with the appropriate Secretary of State), in form and substance satisfactory to the Pledgee in its sole and absolute determination, and without the requirement of Pledgor's signature.

3.3 Certificated Collateral. In addition to anything contained in Sections 3.1 and 3.2 hereof, if any Collateral or interest in any Collateral (whether now owned or hereafter acquired) is or becomes evidenced by a certificated security, Pledgor shall promptly notify the Pledgee thereof and shall promptly take all actions required to perfect the security interest and pledge in favor of the Pledgee under applicable law (including, in any event, delivery of physical possession of all certificates to the Pledgee, and take any other action required or appropriate under this Agreement or the Uniform Commercial Code as in effect in the State of New York or equivalent provisions of any other applicable jurisdiction (the "UCC")). Pledgor further agrees to promptly take such actions as the Pledgee deems necessary or desirable to effectuate the foregoing and to permit the Pledgee to exercise any of its rights and remedies hereunder.

4. VOTING, ETC. Unless and until an Event of Default (as defined in the Loan Agreement) shall occur and be continuing, Pledgor shall be entitled to vote, if applicable, and exercise any other consensual rights (or managerial rights, if applicable) pertaining to any and all of the Pledged Collateral; provided, however, that no vote shall be cast or any action taken by Pledgor which would, or would cause the Company to, violate or be inconsistent with any of the terms of this Agreement, the Loan Agreement, any other Loan Document or any other instrument or agreement relating to the Secured Obligations, or which would have the effect of impairing the positions or interests of the Pledgee or which would authorize or effect actions prohibited under the terms of the Loan Agreement or any other Loan Document. All such rights of Pledgor to vote (and exercise managerial rights, if applicable) shall cease in case an Event of Default shall occur and be continuing, if the Pledgee so directs and notifies the Pledgor. Upon and after an Event of Default and during its continuance, Pledgor irrevocably designates, makes, constitutes and appoints the Pledgee (and all Persons designated by the Pledgee) as its true and lawful attorney (and agent-in-fact) and the Pledgee, or the Pledgee's agent, may, without notice to Pledgor, and at such time or times thereafter as the Pledgee or said agent, in its discretion, shall have the sole and exclusive right to exercise, all voting powers pertaining to any and all of the Collateral (and to give written consents in lieu of voting thereon) and may exercise such power in such manner as the Pledgee, in its sole discretion, shall determine. The exercise by the Pledgee of any of its rights and remedies under this Section 4 shall not be deemed a disposition of Collateral under Article 9 of the Uniform Commercial Code nor an acceptance by the Pledgee of any of the Collateral in satisfaction of any of the Secured Obligations. THIS PROXY IS COUPLED WITH AN INTEREST AND IS IRREVOCABLE. THERE IS NO INTENTION OF THE PARTIES HERETO, WHETHER UNDER THIS AGREEMENT OR ANY LOAN DOCUMENT, THAT THE PLEDGEE'S ACCEPTANCE OF THIS PROXY OR THIS PLEDGE OF COLLATERAL IS INTENDED TO BE OR IMPLY ANY ELECTION OF REMEDIES BY THE PLEDGEE.

5. PAYMENTS AND OTHER DISTRIBUTIONS. Notwithstanding anything herein to the contrary, unless and until an Event of Default (as defined in the Loan Agreement) shall occur and be continuing, all cash dividends or distributions payable in respect of the Collateral (to the extent such payments shall be permitted pursuant to the terms and provisions of the Loan Agreement, each Loan Document, and applicable subordination agreement) shall be paid to Pledgor; provided, however, upon an Event of Default and so long as such Event of Default is continuing, all cash dividends or distributions payable in respect of the Collateral, shall be paid to the Pledgee for application to the Secured Obligations (with any excess to be paid to Pledgor). The Pledgee shall be entitled to receive directly, and to retain as part of the Collateral:

(a) all other or additional securities or investment property, or rights to subscribe for or purchase any of the foregoing, or property (other than cash) paid or distributed by way of dividend in respect of the Collateral;

(b) all other or additional securities, investment property or property (including cash) paid or distributed in respect of the Collateral by way of split, spin-off, split-up, reclassification, combination of shares or similar rearrangement; and

(c) except for cash dividends or distributions payable in respect of the Pledged Collateral which may be paid to Pledgor so long as no Event of Default has occurred and is continuing pursuant to the terms of this Section 5, all other or additional securities, investment property or property which may be paid in respect of the Collateral by reason of any consolidation, merger, exchange, dividend, split, or distribution, conveyance of assets, liquidation or similar reorganization or other disposition of Collateral (to the extent any of the foregoing actions are permitted under the Loan Agreement).

If at any time Pledgor shall obtain or possess any of the foregoing Collateral described in this Section, Pledgor shall be deemed to hold such Collateral in trust for the Pledgee and the Pledgor shall promptly surrender and deliver such Collateral to the Pledgee.

6. REMEDIES IN CASE OF AN EVENT OF DEFAULT. Upon the occurrence and during the continuance of an Event of Default, the Pledgee shall be entitled to exercise all of the rights, powers and remedies (whether vested in it by this Agreement, the Loan Agreement, any other Loan Documents, and/or in equity or by law, and including, without limitation, all rights and remedies of a secured party of a debtor in default under the UCC) for the protection and enforcement of its rights in respect of the Collateral, and to the fullest extent permitted by applicable law, the Pledgee shall be entitled, without limitation, to exercise the following rights, which Pledgor hereby agrees to be commercially reasonable:

(a) to receive all amounts payable in respect of the Collateral otherwise payable under Section 5 hereof to Pledgor;

(b) to transfer all or any part of the Collateral into the Pledgee's name or the name of its nominee or nominees;

(c) to vote all or any part of the Collateral and otherwise act with respect thereto as though it were the outright owner thereof;

(d) at any time or from time to time to sell, assign and deliver, or grant options to purchase, all or any part of the Collateral in one or more parcels, or any interest therein, at any public or private sale at any exchange, broker's board or at any of the Pledgee's offices or elsewhere, without demand of performance (which, except as may be required by mandatory provisions of applicable law, is hereby expressly and irrevocably waived by Pledgor) for cash, on credit or for other property, for immediate or future delivery without any assumption of credit risk, and for such price or prices and on such terms as the Pledgee may determine in its reasonable business credit judgment exercised in good faith. Pledgor agrees that at least ten (10) calendar days' prior written notice to Pledgor of the time (which shall be during normal business hours) and place of any public sale or the time after which any private sale is to be made shall constitute reasonable notification of such sale. The Pledgee shall not be obligated to make any sale of Collateral regardless of notice of sale having been given. The Pledgee may adjourn any public or private sale from time to time by announcement at the time and place fixed therefor, and any such sale may, without further notice, be made at the time and place to which it was so adjourned. Pledgor hereby waives and releases to the fullest extent permitted by law any right or equity of redemption with respect to the collateral, whether before or after sale hereunder, and all rights, if any, of marshalling the Collateral and any other security for the Secured Obligations or otherwise. At any public sale, and at any private sale if the Collateral is of a type customarily sold in a recognized market or is of a type which is the subject of widely distributed price quotations, Pledgee may bid for and purchase all or any part of the Collateral so sold free from any such right or equity of redemption. The Pledgee shall not be liable for failure to collect or realize upon any or all of the Collateral or for any delay in so doing nor shall the Pledgee be under any obligation to take any action whatsoever with regard thereto;

(e) to settle, adjust, compromise and arrange all accounts, controversies, questions, claims and demands whatsoever in relation to all or any part of the Collateral;

(f) in respect of the Collateral, to execute all such contracts, agreements, deeds, documents and instruments, to bring, defend and abandon all such actions, suits and proceedings, and to take all actions in relation to all or any part of the Collateral as the Pledgee in its reasonable business credit judgment exercised in good faith may determine;

(g) to appoint managers, sub-agents, officers and servants for any of the purposes mentioned in the foregoing provisions of this Section and to dismiss the same, all of the Pledgee in its reasonable business credit judgment exercised in good faith may determine; and

(h) generally, to take all such other action as the Pledgee in its reasonable business credit judgment exercised in good faith may determine as incidental or conducive to any of the matters or powers mentioned in the foregoing provisions of this Section and which the Pledgee may or can do lawfully and to use the name of Pledgor for the purposes aforesaid and in any proceedings arising therefrom.

Pledgor recognizes that the Pledgee may be unable to effect a public sale of any or all the Collateral, by reason of certain prohibitions contained in the Securities Act of 1933, as amended (the "Securities Act"), and applicable state securities laws or otherwise, and may be compelled to resort to one or more private sales thereof to a restricted group of purchasers which will be obliged to agree, among other things, to acquire such securities for their own account for investment and not with a view to the distribution or resale thereof. Pledgor acknowledges and agrees that any such private sale may result in prices and other terms less favorable than if such sale were a public sale and, notwithstanding such circumstances, agrees that any such private sale shall be deemed to have been made in a commercially reasonable manner. The Pledgee shall be under no obligation to delay a sale of any of the Collateral for the period of time necessary to permit the issuer thereof to register such securities or other interests for public sale under the Securities Act, or under applicable state securities laws, even if such issuer would agree to do so. Pledgor agrees to use its best efforts to do or cause to be done all such other acts as may be necessary to make such sale or sales of all or any portion of the Collateral pursuant to this Section valid and binding and in compliance with applicable law. Pledgor further agrees that a breach of any of the covenants contained in this Section will cause irreparable injury to the Pledgee, that the Pledgee has no adequate remedy at law in respect of such breach and, as a consequence, that each and every covenant contained in this Section shall be specifically enforceable against Pledgor, and Pledgor hereby waives and agrees not to assert any defenses against an action for specific performance of such covenants except for a defense that no Event of Default has occurred under the Loan Agreement. Pledgor hereby waives its rights, claims or defenses, after any Event of Default, with respect to any voting rights Pledgor may have with respect to the admission of any new members or any delay in time for the admission of new members that may be required under the operating agreement or other formation documents of the Company.

7. REMEDIES, ETC., CUMULATIVE. Each right, power and remedy of the Pledgee provided for in this Agreement, the Loan Agreement, any Loan Document or any other security agreement, mortgage, guaranty now or hereafter existing at law or in equity or by statute shall be cumulative and concurrent and shall be in addition to every other such right, power or remedy. The acceptance as of this date of this Agreement and the pledge of Collateral contained herein is not intended as an exercise of any remedy under the Loan Documents and exercise or beginning of the exercise by the Pledgee of any one or more of the rights, powers or remedies provided for in this Agreement, the Loan Agreement, or any other Loan Document or now or hereafter existing at law or in equity or by statute or otherwise shall not preclude the simultaneous or later exercise by the Pledgee of all such other rights, powers or remedies, and no failure or delay on the part of the Pledgee to exercise any such right, power or remedy shall operate as a waiver thereof.

8. APPLICATION OF PROCEEDS. Subject to any mandatory requirements of applicable law and the terms of the Loan Agreement, all moneys collected by the Pledgee upon sale or other disposition of the Collateral, together with all other moneys received by the Pledgee hereunder, shall be applied as follows:

(a) To the payment of any and all costs, expenses and fees (including reasonable attorneys' fees and disbursements) incurred by the Pledgee directly or indirectly in connection with such sale or other disposition, the delivery or taking possession of the Collateral or the collection of any such moneys;

(b) Next, to the payment of the Secured Obligations and any other amounts due or owing to the Pledgee in accordance with the Loan Agreement in any order that the Pledgee shall determine; and

(c) Any surplus then remaining shall be paid to Pledgor.

9. INDEMNITY. Without duplication of any amounts payable under any other similar indemnity provision set forth in the Loan Agreement or any other Loan Documents, Pledgor shall: (i) pay all out-of-pocket costs and expenses of the Pledgee actually incurred in connection with the administration of and in connection with the preservation of rights under, and enforcement of, and any renegotiation or restructuring of this Agreement and any amendment, waiver or consent relating thereto (including, without limitation, the reasonable fees and disbursements of counsel for the Pledgee); (ii) pay and hold the Pledgee harmless from and against any and all present and future stamp or documentary taxes or any other excise or property taxes, charges or similar levies which arise from any payment made hereunder or from the execution, delivery or registration of, or otherwise with respect to this Agreement and save the Pledgee harmless from and against any and all liabilities with respect to or resulting from any delay or omission to pay any such taxes, charges or levies (excluding income taxes of the Pledgee); and (iii) indemnify the Pledgee, and each of its officers, directors, shareholders, employees, representatives and agents from and hold each of them harmless against any and all costs, losses, liabilities, claims, damages or expenses actually incurred by any of them (whether or not any of them is designated a party thereto) arising out of or by reason of any investigation, litigation or other proceeding related to this Agreement or any transaction contemplated hereby, including, without limitation, the reasonable fees and disbursements of counsel incurred in connection with any such investigation, litigation or other proceeding. Notwithstanding anything in this Agreement to the contrary, Pledgor shall not be responsible to the Pledgee for any costs, losses, damages, liabilities or expenses which result from the Pledgee's gross negligence or willful misconduct. Pledgor's obligations under this Section shall survive any termination of this Agreement. If and to the extent that the obligations of Pledgor under this Section are unenforceable for any reason, Pledgor hereby agrees to make the maximum contribution to the payment and satisfaction of such obligations which is permissible under applicable law.

10. FURTHER ASSURANCES. Pledgor agrees that, at any time and from time to time, Pledgor will join with the Pledgee in executing and, at Pledgor's own expense, will file and refile under the UCC such financing statements, amendment statements, continuation statements and other documents in such offices as the Pledgee may deem necessary or appropriate and wherever required or permitted by law in order to perfect and preserve the Pledgee's security interest in the Collateral, and hereby authorizes the Pledgee to file financing statements, continuation statements and amendments thereto relative solely to the Collateral without the signature of Pledgor, and agrees to do such further acts and things and to promptly execute and deliver to the Pledgee such additional conveyances, assignments, agreements and instruments as the Pledgee may require or deem advisable to carry into effect the purpose of this Agreement or to further assure and confirm unto the Pledgee its rights, powers and remedies hereunder.

11. REASONABLE CARE BY PLEDGEE. The Pledgee shall be deemed by Pledgor to have exercised reasonable care in the custody and preservation of the Collateral in its possession if the Collateral is accorded treatment substantially equal to that which the Pledgee accords its own similar property.

12. TRANSFER BY THE PLEDGOR. Pledgor shall not sell, transfer or otherwise dispose of, grant any option with respect to, or pledge or otherwise encumber any of the Collateral or any interest therein.

13. REPRESENTATIONS AND WARRANTIES OF THE PLEDGOR. Pledgor hereby represents and warrants to the Pledgee, which representations and warranties shall survive the execution and delivery of this Agreement, as follows:

13.1 Validity, Perfection and Priority. The pledge and security interests in the Collateral granted to the Pledgee constitute valid and continuing security interests in the Collateral. Upon the filing of a UCC Financing Statement naming Pledgor as debtor and the Pledgee as secured party with the appropriate Secretary of State or the physical delivery of the certificates evidencing the Pledged Collateral to the Pledgee, the security interests in the Collateral granted to the Pledgee hereunder constitute valid and perfected security interests therein superior and prior to the rights or claims of any other person or entity therein.

13.2 No Liens; Other Financing Statements.

(a) Except for the liens and security interests granted to the Pledgee, Pledgor is the legal and beneficial owner of, and has good and marketable title to, the Pledged Collateral and is the lawful owner of all of the other Collateral whether now existing or hereafter acquired and will continue to own each item of the Collateral free and clear of any and all pledges, liens, mortgages, hypothecations, security interests, charges, rights, options, claims and other encumbrances of all other Persons and Pledgor shall defend the Collateral against all claims and demands of all Persons at any time claiming the same or any interest therein adverse to the Pledgee.

(b) No financing statement or other evidence of lien covering or purporting to cover any of the Collateral or any interest therein is on file in any public office. Pledgor is a member of the Company.

13.3 Pledged Collateral.

(a) The Pledged Collateral described in Annex A attached hereto is and all other Pledged Collateral in which Pledgor shall hereafter grant a lien or security interest pursuant to Section 2 hereof will be, duly authorized, validly issued, and, except for the pledge provided in Section 3.1 hereof in favor of Pledgee and the terms of the Company's Operating Agreement (a true and complete executed copy of which has been delivered to the Pledgee on or prior to the date hereof), none of such Collateral is or will be subject to any legal or contractual restriction. The Collateral is, as of the date hereof, and shall be at all times hereafter during the term of this Agreement, freely transferable without restriction or limitation (except as limited by the terms of this Agreement or applicable law).

(b) The Pledged Collateral described in Annex A hereto constitutes all of the issued and outstanding securities, membership interests and investment property legally and beneficially owned by Pledgor on the date hereof in or relating to the Company and no other Person has any interest, whether actual or contingent, direct or indirect, in the Company.

13.4 Power and Authority. Pledgor has the power and authority to pledge and assign all of the Collateral pursuant to this Agreement. Pledgor has executed and delivered this Agreement, and this Agreement constitutes the legal, valid and binding obligations of Pledgor, enforceable against Pledgor in accordance with the terms herein, except as such enforceability may be limited by bankruptcy, insolvency, reorganization and other similar laws affecting the enforceability of agreements and by general principles of equity.

13.5 No Violation. Neither the execution, delivery or performance by Pledgor of this Agreement, nor compliance with the terms and provisions hereof by Pledgor nor the consummation of the transactions contemplated hereby will conflict or be inconsistent with or result in any breach of, any of the terms, covenants, conditions or provisions of, or constitute a default under any agreement or other instrument to which Pledgor is a party.

13.6 Litigation. There are no actions, suits or proceedings pending or, to Pledgor's knowledge, threatened against or involving Pledgor before any court with respect to any of the transactions contemplated by this Agreement or the ability of the Pledgor to perform any of the obligations of the Pledgor hereunder, including those disclosed to Pledgee on Schedule II of the Loan Agreement.

13.7 Copies of Loan Agreement. Pledgor has received and reviewed true and complete, fully-executed copies of the Loan Agreement and any and all other Loan Documents requested to be received by Pledgor.

13.8 Miscellaneous. There are no outstanding options, warrants or other rights to subscribe for or purchase membership interests of the Company, nor any notes, bonds, debentures or other evidences of indebtedness that (a) are at any time convertible into membership interests of the Company, or (b) have or at any time would have voting rights with respect to the Company.

14. COVENANTS OF THE PLEDGOR. Pledgor covenants and agrees with the Pledgee that on and after the date hereof and until all of the Secured Obligations shall have been indefeasibly paid in full:

14.1 Collateral. (a) Pledgor will defend the Pledgee's right, title and security interest in and to the Collateral against the claims and demands of all Persons whomsoever; (b) Pledgor will have good and marketable title to and right to pledge any other property at any time hereafter constituting Collateral and will likewise defend the right thereto and security interest therein of the Pledgee; and (c) Pledgor will not without the advance written consent of the Pledgee, with respect to any Collateral, enter into any shareholder type agreements, voting agreements, voting trusts, trust deeds, irrevocable proxies or any other similar agreements or instruments which would be inconsistent with the terms of this Agreement or adversely affect the Pledgee's interest in any Collateral.

14.2 Right of Inspection. Subject to any state or federal privacy laws, including without limitation the HIPAA, the Pledgee and its representatives shall upon reasonable advance notice (but in any event, not less than two (2) Business Days) prior to an Event of Default, or at any time if an Event of Default (as defined in the Loan Agreement) occurs and is continuing, have full and free access to all the books, correspondence and records of Pledgor relating to the Collateral, if any, and the Pledgee and its representatives may examine the same, take extracts therefrom and make photocopies thereof.

14.3 Compliance with Laws. Pledgor will comply in all material respects with all requirements of law applicable to the Collateral or any part thereof.

14.4 Payment of Obligations. Pledgor will pay promptly when due all taxes, assessments and governmental charges or levies imposed upon the Collateral or in respect of any income or profits therefrom, as well as all claims of any kind against or with respect to the Collateral, provided that the foregoing shall not require Pledgor to pay any such tax or charge so long as it shall contest the validity thereof in good faith by appropriate proceedings and shall set aside on its books adequate reserves with respect thereto in accordance with GAAP and, in the case of a claim which could become a Lien on any of the Collateral, such contest proceedings shall stay the foreclosure of such Lien or the sale of any portion of the Collateral to satisfy such claims.

14.5 No Impairment. Pledgor will not take or permit to be taken any action which could impair the Pledgee's rights in the Collateral. Pledgor will not create, incur or permit to exist, will defend the Collateral against and will take such other action as is necessary to remove, any lien or claim on or to the Collateral, other than the liens created hereby, and will defend the right, title and interest of the Pledgee in and to any of the Collateral against the claims and demands of all Persons whomsoever.

14.6 Performance by Pledgee of Pledgor's Obligations; Reimbursement. If Pledgor fails to perform or comply with any of the agreements contained herein within a reasonable time after receipt of notice from Pledgee describing the action to be taken, the Pledgee may, without further notice to or consent by Pledgor, perform or comply or cause performance or compliance therewith, and the expenses of the Pledgee incurred in connection with such performance or compliance shall be payable by Pledgor to the Pledgee on demand, and such reimbursement obligation shall be secured hereby; provided, however, the Pledgee shall not be under any obligation to taken any such action.

14.7 Further Identification of Pledged Collateral. Pledgor will furnish to the Pledgee from time to time such reports in connection with the Pledged Collateral as the Pledgee may reasonably request from time to time.

14.8 Continuous Perfection. Pledgor will not change Pledgor's name, in any manner which might make any financing or continuation statement filed hereunder seriously misleading within the meaning of any applicable provision of Article 9 of the UCC unless Pledgor shall have given the Pledgee at least fifteen (15) days prior written notice thereof and shall have taken all action necessary or reasonably requested by the Pledgee to amend such financing statement or continuation statement so that it is not seriously misleading. Pledgor will not change Pledgor's residence unless Pledgor shall have given the Pledgee at least fifteen (15) days prior written notice thereof and shall have taken such action as is necessary to cause the security interest of the Pledgee in the Pledged Collateral to continue to be perfected.

14.9 Stay or Extension Laws. Pledgor will not at any time claim, take, insist upon or invoke the benefit or advantage of or from any law now or hereafter in force providing for the valuation or appraisal of the Collateral prior to any sale or sales thereof to be made pursuant to the provisions hereof or pursuant to the decree, judgment, or order of any court of competent jurisdiction; nor, after such sale or sales, claim or exercise any right under any statute now or hereafter made or enacted by a state to redeem the property so sold or any part thereof, and, to the extent permitted by applicable law, the Pledgor hereby expressly waives, on behalf of Pledgor and each and every Person claiming by, through and under Pledgor, all benefit and advantage of any such law or laws, and covenants that Pledgor will not invoke or utilize any such law or laws or otherwise hinder, delay or impede the execution of any power, right or remedy herein or hereby granted and delegated to the Pledgee, but will authorize, allow and permit the execution of every such power, right or remedy as though no such law or laws had been made or enacted.

14.10 Company's Records. Pledgor shall cause the Company to make a notation on the records of Company indicating the interest granted hereby in favor of the Pledgee.

14.11 Operating Agreement. Pledgor will not (a) suffer or permit any amendment or modification of the operating agreement of the Company ("Operating Agreement") without the prior written consent of the Pledgee, or (b) waive, release, or compromise any material rights or material claims Pledgor may have against any other party which arises under any such Operating Agreement.

14.12 Miscellaneous. Pledgor shall not file or authorize or authenticate or permit to be filed in any jurisdiction any financing statements under the UCC or any like statement relating to the Collateral in which the Pledgee is not named as the sole secured party.

15. PLEDGOR'S OBLIGATIONS ABSOLUTE, ETC. The obligations of Pledgor under this Agreement shall be absolute and unconditional in accordance with its terms and shall not be released, suspended, discharged, terminated or otherwise affected by, any circumstance or occurrence whatsoever, including, without limitation: (a) any change in the time, place or manner of payment of, or in any other term of, all or any of the Secured Obligations, any waiver, indulgence, renewal, extension, amendment or modification of or addition, consent or supplement to or deletion from or any other action or inaction under or in respect of the Loan Agreement or any other Loan Document, or any of the other documents, instruments or agreements relating to the Secured Obligations or any other instrument or agreement referred to therein or any assignment or transfer of any thereof; (b) any lack of validity or enforceability of the Loan Agreement, or any other Loan Document, or any other documents, instruments or agreement referred to therein or any assignment or transfer of any thereof; (c) any furnishing of any additional security or collateral to the Pledgee or its assignees or any acceptance thereof or any release of any security by the Pledgee or its assignees; (d) any limitation on any party's liability or obligations under any such instrument or agreement or any invalidity or unenforceability, in whole or in part, of any such instrument or agreement or any term thereof; (e) any bankruptcy, insolvency, reorganization, composition, adjustment, dissolution, liquidation or other like proceeding relating to Pledgor, as applicable, or any action taken with respect to this Agreement by any trustee or receiver, or by any court, in any such proceeding, whether or not Pledgor shall have notice or knowledge of any of the foregoing; (f) any exchange, release or nonperfection of any other collateral, or any release, or amendment or waiver of or consent to departure from any guaranty or security, for all or any of the Secured Obligations; or (g) any other circumstance which might otherwise constitute a defense available to, or a discharge of, Pledgor.

17. POWER OF ATTORNEY. Pledgor hereby absolutely and irrevocably constitutes and appoints the Pledgee as Pledgor's true and lawful agent and attorney-in-fact with full power of substitution, in the name of Pledgor upon the occurrence and during the continuance of an Event of Default (as defined in the Loan Agreement): (a) to execute and do all such assurances, acts and things which Pledgor ought to do but has failed to do under the covenants and provisions contained in this Agreement; (b) to take any and all such action as the Pledgee or any of its sub-agents, nominees or attorneys may, in its or their reasonable business credit judgment exercised in good faith, determine as necessary or advisable for the purpose of maintaining preserving or protecting the security constituted by this Agreement or any of the rights, remedies, powers or privileges of the Pledgee under this Agreement; and (c) generally, in the name of Pledgor, exercise all or any of the powers, authorities, and discretions conferred on or reserved to the Pledgee by or pursuant to this Agreement, and (without prejudice to the generality of any of the foregoing) to deliver or otherwise perfect any deed, assurance, agreement, instrument or act as the Pledgee may deem proper in or for the purpose of exercising any of such powers, authorities or discretions. Pledgor hereby ratifies and confirms, and hereby agrees to ratify and confirm, whatever lawful acts the Pledgee or any of the Pledgee's sub-agents or attorneys shall do or purport to do in the exercise of the power of attorney granted to the Pledgee pursuant to this Section, which power of attorney, being coupled with an interest and given for security, is irrevocable until this Agreement shall have expired or been terminated in accordance with the terms hereof.

18. MISCELLANEOUS. Pledgor agrees with the Pledgee that each of the obligations and liabilities of Pledgor to the Pledgee under this Agreement may be enforced against Pledgor without the necessity of joining any other Person (as defined in the Loan Agreement) as a party. This Agreement shall create a continuing security interest in the Collateral and shall be binding upon the heirs and legal beneficiaries, and permitted successors and assigns of Pledgor, as applicable, and shall inure to the benefit of and be enforceable by the Pledgee and its successors and assigns; provided, however, Pledgor may not assign any of its obligations or liabilities hereunder without the prior written consent of the Pledgee. Unless otherwise defined herein, terms defined in the UCC as in effect in the State of New York are used herein as therein defined. The headings in this Agreement are for convenience of reference only and shall not limit or define the meaning hereof. This Agreement may be executed in any number of counterparts, each of which shall be an original, but all of which shall constitute one instrument. If this Agreement or any provision of this Agreement shall prove to be invalid or unenforceable or hinder or render any other Loan Document invalid or unenforceable, this Agreement or such provision shall be deemed to be severable from the other Loan Documents or other provisions of this Agreement which shall remain binding on all parties hereto. Pledgor shall have no rights of subrogation as to any of the Pledged Collateral until full and complete performance and payment of the Secured Obligations.

19. TERMINATION. This Agreement shall terminate after the Secured Obligations are indefeasibly paid in full and the Loan Agreement is terminated. Upon the termination of this Agreement, the Pledgee, at the request of Pledgor and at the expense of Pledgor, will promptly execute and deliver to Pledgor the proper instruments acknowledging the termination of this Agreement and will duly assign, transfer and deliver to Pledgor or to whomsoever shall be lawfully entitled to receive the same (without recourse and without any representation or warranty of any kind) such of the Collateral as may be in the possession of the Pledgee and has not theretofore been sold or otherwise applied or released pursuant to this Agreement.

20. AMENDMENTS; MARSHALLING; LIMITATION OF LIABILITY. None of the terms or provisions of this Agreement may be waived, amended, supplemented or otherwise modified except by a written instrument executed by Pledgor and the Pledgee. The Pledgee shall be under no obligation to marshal any assets or collateral in favor of Pledgor or any other person or entity or against or in payment of any or all of the Secured Obligations. No claim may be made by Pledgor or any other Person against the Pledgee or its officers, employees, affiliates, directors, shareholders, attorneys or agents of any of them for any special, indirect, punitive or consequential damages in respect of any claim for breach of contract or any other theory of liability (other than gross negligence or willful misconduct as finally determined by a court of competent jurisdiction) arising out of or related to the transactions contemplated by this Agreement, or any act, omission or event occurring in connection therewith; and Pledgor hereby waives, releases and agrees not to sue upon any such claim for any such damages, whether or not accrued and whether or not known or suspected to exist in its favor.

21. DUTY OF PLEDGEE. The Pledgee's sole duty with respect to the custody, safekeeping and physical preservation of the Collateral in its possession shall be to deal with it in the same manner as the Pledgee deals with similar property for its own account. Neither the Pledgee nor any of its officers, directors, employees or agents shall be liable for any failure to demand, collect or realize upon any of the Collateral or for any delay in doing so or shall be under any obligation to sell or otherwise dispose of any Collateral upon the request of Pledgor or any other Person or to take any other action whatsoever with regard to the Collateral or any part thereof. The powers conferred on the Pledgee hereunder are solely to protect the interests of the Pledgee in the Collateral and shall not impose any duty upon the Pledgee to exercise any such powers. The Pledgee shall be accountable only for amounts that it actually receives as a result of the exercise of such powers, and neither it nor any of its officers, directors, employees or agents shall be responsible to Pledgor or the Company for any act or failure to act hereunder.

22. REVIEW OF AGREEMENT BY PLEDGOR. Pledgor acknowledges that Pledgor has thoroughly read and reviewed the terms and provisions of this Agreement, and that such terms and provisions are clearly understood by Pledgor, and has been fully and unconditionally consented to by Pledgor with the full benefit and advice of counsel chosen by Pledgor, and that Pledgor has freely and voluntarily signed this Agreement without duress. The Pledgee does not have any fiduciary relationship with or duty to the Pledgor arising out of or in connection with this Agreement or any of the other Loan Documents, and the relationship between Pledgor, on the one hand, and the Pledgee, on the other hand, in connection herewith or therewith is solely that of debtor and creditor; and no joint venture is created hereby or by the other Loan Documents or otherwise exists by virtue of the transactions contemplated hereby among Pledgor and the Pledgee.

23. Inapplicable Provisions. If any term, covenant or condition of this Agreement is held to be invalid, illegal or unenforceable in any respect, this Agreement shall be construed without such provision.

24. GOVERNING LAW; SUBMISSION TO JURISDICTION.

NOTHING CONTAINED IN THIS SECTION SHALL AFFECT THE RIGHT OF THE PLEDGEE TO SERVE LEGAL PROCESS IN ANY OTHER MANNER PERMITTED BY LAW OR AFFECT THE RIGHT OF THE PLEDGEE TO BRING ANY ACTION OR PROCEEDING AGAINST PLEDGOR OR PLEDGOR'S PROPERTY IN THE COURTS OF ANY OTHER JURISDICTION.

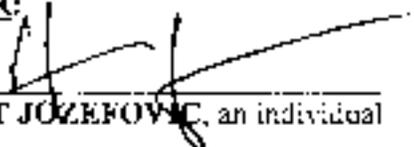

25. WAIVER OF TRIAL BY JURY. PLEDGOR AND THE PLEDGEE KNOWINGLY, VOLUNTARILY, IRREVOCABLY AND WITHOUT COERCION, WAIVE ALL RIGHTS TO TRIAL BY JURY OF ALL DISPUTES BETWEEN THEM. THE SCOPE OF THIS WAIVER IS INTENDED TO BE ALL-ENCOMPASSING OF ANY AND ALL DISPUTES THAT MAY BE FILED IN ANY COURT AND THAT RELATE TO OR ARISE OUT OF THIS AGREEMENT OR TO THE SUBJECT MATTER OF THIS AGREEMENT, INCLUDING, WITHOUT LIMITATION, CONTRACT CLAIMS, BREACH OF DUTY CLAIMS, AND ALL OTHER COMMON LAW AND STATUTORY CLAIMS. (ii) For purposes of this Section 13.3.2.4, the net fair market value of the non-cash assets of the Company will be determined as follows: The parties will first attempt to agree upon the "net fair market value of the assets." For this purpose, "Net fair market value of the assets" will mean the cash price which a sophisticated purchaser would pay on the financing then encumbering the assets, such valuation to be made on the assumption that those assets which are subject to agreements will not be released from such agreements. A sophisticated purchaser will be one who would take into account the nature, extent, maturity date, and other terms of the liabilities encumbering such assets, whether fixed or contingent, including the favorable or unfavorable nature of any financing, and the prospects that the income from the assets would be sufficient to satisfy such liabilities when due, excluding any liability under any financing already taken into account.

(iii) In the event the Members are unable to agree upon the net fair market value of the non-cash assets of the Company, such value will be settled as provided in Section 14 hereof.

(b) The positive balance (if any) of each Member's Capital Account (after taking into account all Capital Account adjustments for the Company's taxable year during which the liquidation occurs) will be distributed to the Members, either in cash or in kind, as determined by the Requisite Consent of the Members.

13.3.3 Upon completion of the winding up, liquidation and distribution of the assets, the Company will be deemed terminated.

13.3.4 The Manager and the Members will comply with all requirements of applicable law pertaining to the winding up of the affairs of the Company and the final distribution of its assets.

13.4 Document Holding Period. With the exception of Environmental Documents, which will remain the property of the party to which each is addressed, or, as applicable, the party which originated each, all documents and records will be delivered to the Manager upon dissolution of the Company. The Manager will retain such documents and records for such a period of time ("Document Holding Period") as may be required by any regulation, decree, code, ordinance, rule or law of any city, county, state, or federal government or governmental agency having jurisdiction (including the requirements of the Internal Revenue Service) and will make the documents available during normal business hours to the other Members for inspection and copying at such other Member's cost and expense. In the event any Member ("Withdrawing Member") for any reason ceases to be a Member at any time prior to the dissolution of the Company, and the Company is continued without the Withdrawing Member, the documents for the period prior to the date of the termination of the Withdrawing Member's interest will be maintained by the Manager for the Document Holding Period; provided, however, that if there is an audit or threat of audit, such documents will be retained until the audit is completed and any tax liability finally determined. Said documents will be available for inspection, examination and copying by the Withdrawing Member in the same manner as provided above in this Section 13.4 with respect to a dissolution of the Company.

13.5 Certificate of Dissolution. Upon the filing of the certificate of dissolution, the existence of the Company will cease. The Manager will have authority to distribute any Company property discovered after dissolution, convey real estate and take such other action as may be necessary on behalf of and in the name of the Company.

13.6 Return of Contribution Nonrecourse to Other Members and Managers. Upon dissolution, each Member and Economic Interest Owner will look solely to the assets of the Company for the return of its Capital Contribution. If the Company property remaining after the payment or discharge of the debts and liabilities of the Company is insufficient to return the contribution of one or more Members or Economic Interest Owners, such Member(s) or Economic Owner(s) will have no recourse against any Member or the Managers unless such insufficiency arose out of any act of fraud, deceit, gross negligence, willful misconduct, breach of fiduciary duty or a wrongful taking.

ARTICLE XIV

14.1 Alternative Dispute Resolution.

14.1.1 In the event of any dispute, difference or controversy arising under or in connection with this Agreement among the Members, their heirs, executors, legal representatives, successors and assigns, all of such disputes, differences and controversies will be arbitrated in the City of New York in accordance with the laws of the State of New York and the arbitrators will be selected in the following manner:

14.1.1.1 The Member or Members seeking arbitration will serve notice in writing sent by registered mail within 10 days after a dispute, difference or controversy has arisen and said notice will contain the designation of an arbitrator selected by the Member or Members seeking the arbitration. Within 5 days after receiving such notice, the remaining Members will designate an arbitrator and will send notice of such designation in writing by registered mail within said period of time to the Members requesting arbitration. Within 5 days thereafter, the 2 arbitrators so selected will meet and select a 3rd arbitrator. The 3 arbitrators so chosen and selected will hear and determine said dispute within 10 days thereafter and their decision will be in the form required under the applicable provisions of the Civil Practice Law and Rules of the State of New York applying to arbitration. In case any Member fails or refused to designate an arbitrator, or in the event that the 2 designated arbitrators fail to designate or cannot agree upon a 3rd arbitrator within the 5 day period set forth above, such designation will be made by the presiding justice of the Appellate Division, Supreme Court, State of New York, Second Department, and the arbitration will proceed in accordance with the provisions of the Civil Practice Law and Rules of the State of New York. It is specifically understood and agreed that the award of the arbitrators may provide for a judgment or direction compelling a Member to retire or withdraw from the Membership and in the event of such an award or direction, the amount payable to such withdrawing or retiring Member for his Membership interest will be as provided in Section 13.3.2.4 of this Agreement. The arbitration costs will be borne by the losing Member.

MISCELLANEOUS PROVISIONS

15.1 Determination of Amounts Under this Agreement. All determinations with respect to Profits and Losses, Capital Accounts, Distributable Cash and any other amounts payable by or to the Company under this Operating Agreement, except as otherwise specifically provided in this Operating Agreement, will be made by the accountants regularly engaged to maintain the books and records of the Company at the time when such determinations are made, in accordance with the accounting practices and procedures regularly employed by such accountants in preparing financial reports and tax statements for companies conducting the same business as the Company.

15.2 Notices. Any notice, demand or communication required or permitted to be given by any provision of this Operating Agreement will be in writing and will be deemed to have been sufficiently given or served for all purposes if delivered personally to the party or to an executive officer of the party to whom the same is directed or sent by registered or certified mail, postage and charges prepaid, addressed to the address of the Manager, Company or Member, as the case may be, which is set forth in this Operating Agreement or in a notice given by such Person to the Manager. Except as otherwise provided herein, any such notice will be deemed to be given three business days after the date on which the same was deposited in a regularly maintained receptacle for the deposit of United States mail, addressed and sent as aforesaid.

This Operating Agreement constitutes the entire understanding of the Members with respect to the subject matter hereof, and no amendment, modification or alteration hereof will be binding on any Person unless in writing executed by all of the Members of the Company. No amendment, supplement or termination of this Operating Agreement will affect or impair any rights or obligations which have heretofore matured hereunder.

15.6 Execution of Additional Instruments. Each Member hereby agrees to execute such other and further statements of interest and holdings, designation, powers of attorney and other instruments necessary to comply with any laws, rules or regulations.

15.7 Construction. Whenever the singular number is used this Operating Agreement and when required by the context, the same will include the plural and vice versa, and the masculine gender will include the feminine and neuter genders and vice versa.

15.8 Headings. The headings in this Operating Agreement are inserted for convenience only and in no way intended to describe, interpret, define, or limit the scope, extent or intent of this Operating Agreement or any provision hereof.

15.9 Waivers. The failure of any Person to seek redress for violation of or to insist upon the strict performance of any covenant or condition of this Operating Agreement will not prevent a subsequent act, which would have originally constituted a violation, from having the effect of an original violation.

15.10 Rights and Remedies Cumulative. The rights and remedies provided by this Operating Agreement are cumulative and the use of any one right or remedy by any party will not preclude or waive the right to use any or all other remedies. Said rights and remedies are given in addition to any other rights the parties may have by law, statute, ordinance or otherwise.

15.11 Severability. If any provision of this Operating Agreement or the application hereof to any person or circumstance will be invalid, illegal or unenforceable to any extent, the remainder of this Operating Agreement and the application hereof will not be affected and will be enforceable to the fullest extent permitted by law.

15.12 Binding Effect. Each and all of the covenants, terms, provisions and agreements herein contained will be binding upon and inure to the benefit of the parties hereto and, to the extent permitted by this Operating Agreement, their respective heirs, legal representatives, successors and assigns.

15.13 Creditors. None of the provisions of this Operating Agreement will be for the benefit of or enforceable by any creditors of the Company.

15.14 Counterparts. This Operating Agreement may be executed in counterparts, each of which will be deemed an original but all of which will constitute one and the same instrument.

15.15 Investment Representations.

15.15.1 The Members understand (a) that the Economic Interests evidenced by this Operating Agreement have not been registered under the Securities Act of 1933, New York securities laws or any other state securities laws (the "Securities Acts") because the Company is relying upon the exemptions from the registration requirements of the Securities Acts providing for issuance of securities not involving a public offering, (b) that the Company has relied upon the fact that the Economic Interests are to be held by each Member for investment, and (c) that said exemption from registration would not be available if the Economic Interests were acquired by a Member with a view to distribution.

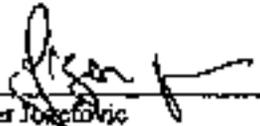

15.15.2 Accordingly, each Member hereby confirms to the Company that such Member is acquiring the Economic Interests for such Member's own account, for investment and not with a view to the resale or distribution thereof.

15.15.3 Prior to acquiring its Economic Interest each Member has made an investigation of the Company and its business and has had made available to it all information with respect thereto which such Member needed to make an informed decision to acquire its Economic Interest. Each Member considers itself to be a Person possessing experience and sophistication as an investor which is adequate for the evaluation of the merits and risks of such Member's investment in the Company.

White Plains Healthcare Properties, LLC

Dear Mr. Donnellan,

We represent Metropolitan Commercial Bank (“Bank”) and are in receipt of (1) White Plains Healthcare Properties, LLC’s (“White Plains”) Notification Of Disposition Of Collateral dated October 6, 2020 (the “Sale Notice”) and (2) the October 16, 2020 letter from John Giardino, of Michelman & Robinson, LLP, counsel for Waterview Acquisition I, LLC (“Waterview”) (the “Cease & Desist Letter”).

For the reasons, inter alia, set forth below, White Plains’ Sale Notice and planned sale of the Pledged Membership Interests (hereinafter defined) is in direct violation of Bank’s rights, and we hereby demand that White Plains immediately rescind the Sale Notice and cease and desist from taking any further action with respect to the Pledged Membership Interests.

A. Bank’s Rights In And To The Pledged Membership Interests

As you probably know, on or about December 19, 2019, Bank made a commercial loan to Waterview (the “Loan”). To secure Waterview’s repayment of the Loan, Herbert Jozefovic (“Jozefovic”), among other things, executed and delivered to Bank a Guaranty Of Payment (the “Guaranty”). Jozefovic secured his obligations under the Guaranty by pledging, collaterally assigning, transferring and conveying and granting Bank all of his rights, title and interest in, to and under, inter alia, any and all of his membership interests in Waterview (the “Pledged Membership Interests”). Bank immediately perfected its senior secured interests in the Pledged Membership Interests by taking and retaining possession of same and filing a UCC Financing Statement. Accordingly, Bank is a creditor of Jozefovic and has a fully perfected senior secured interest in the Pledged Membership Interests with all of the accompanying rights and remedies available to it under the Uniform Commercial Code, at law and in equity.

B. White Plains' Violation Of Bank's Rights

White Plains' Sale Notice seeks to sell the Pledged Membership Interests at a public sale scheduled for October 30, 2020, in direct violation of Bank's rights.

As an initial matter, assuming arguendo the accuracy of the facts set forth in Waterview's Cease & Desist Letter, White Plains has no interest whatsoever in the Pledged Membership Interests. According to Waterview, any and all obligations that Jozefovic may have owed to White Plains that were secured by the Pledged Membership Interests were fully satisfied in 2017 -- long before Jozefovic pledged same to Bank in December 2019. Thus, if the underlying obligations no longer exist, then White Plains cannot now have a security interest in the Pledged Membership Interests and thus, has no right to seek their sale.

Waterview's Cease & Desist Letter also accurately points out that its Operating Agreement in effect at the time the Pledged Membership Interests were supposedly pledged to White Plains did not permit a transfer or pledge of the same to White Plains and thus, White Plains cannot have obtained for itself a security interest in the Pledged Membership Interests. Finally, the Cease & Desist Letter correctly highlights the many defects in White Plains' Sale Notice.

Based upon, inter alia, the foregoing, White Plains is not acting in good faith or in a commercially reasonable manner and is otherwise interfering with Bank's contractual relationship with Waterview and Jozefovic. Further note that Bank does not authorize the sale of the Pledged Membership Interests (let alone any sale that is free and clear of Bank's senior secured rights) and hereby demands that (1) White Plains immediately withdraw its Sale Notice and (2) you advise my office in writing that it has done so. If we have not been so advised by 5:00 p.m. Eastern Standard Time on Tuesday, October 20th, we will take all steps necessary to protect Bank's interests in and to the Pledged Membership Interests, including the pursuit of any and all legal and equitable claims against White Plains to redress its unlawful actions and seek, among other things, monetary damages for same.

Please be guided accordingly. All rights reserved.

Very truly yours,

Re: Waterview Acquisition I, LLC
White Plains Healthcare Properties I, LLC

Dear Mr. Giardino:

This firm represents White Plains Healthcare Properties I, LLC (“WPH Properties”).

I write in response to your letter dated October 16, 2020 (the “Letter”) and Robert J. Malatak’s letter dated October 19, 2020 on behalf of Metropolitan Commercial Bank (the “Bank”). Both letters request the withdrawal of WPH Properties’ Notification of Disposition of Collateral dated October 6, 2020 (the “Notification”) and cancellation of the public sale of collateral identified in that notice, which consists of all rights, title and interest of Lizer Jozefovic (“Debtor” or “Jozefovic”) in Waterview Acquisition I, LLC (“Waterview”).

Your requests are without any basis. As more fully set forth below, Jozefovic is in default under the Collateral Assignment and Pledge of Membership Interest Security Agreement dated August 11, 2017 (the “Pledge Agreement”). Under express provisions of Article 9 of the New York Uniform Commercial Code (the “UCC”), WPH Properties is entitled to sell the Debtor’s interest in Waterview (the “Waterview Membership Interest”) at the public sale scheduled for October 30, 2020. WPH Properties has and will continue to comply with all applicable requirements governing that sale.

The Debtor has defaulted under the Pledge Agreement, which remains in full force and effect.

The Letter first asserts that “the requirement for a rent security account has been satisfied” and that the Pledge Agreement is null and void. These claims are false.

JOHN GIARDINO, ESQ.

As you know, the “requirement for a rent security account” referred to in the Letter refers to the Debtor’s obligation under the Pledge Agreement to add Howard Fensterman to two JP Morgan bank accounts entitled Waterview Acquisition I, LLC Account Numbers SI3087002 (“Account 7002”) and 962-90885 (“Account 0885” and, together with Account 7002, the “Waterview JPM Accounts”) in order to ensure that the balance in those accounts was not reduced below $1.6 million. The Debtor defaulted on his obligations with respect to the Waterview JPM Accounts by failing to take the necessary steps to add Howard Fensterman as a signatory to those accounts.

The documents attached to the Letter do not establish that Howard Fensterman was added as a signatory to the Waterview JPM Accounts. The Letter attaches the account documents for Account 0885, including a Limited Liability Company Certification. The certification states as follows on page 1 (in bold lettering): “Use this form to certify the members/managers authorized to act on an investment account for a Limited Liability Company. A Signatory Information Sheet MUST BE provided for all signers.” The documents attached to the Letter do not include a Signatory Information Sheet for Howard Fensterman. Further, there are no account documents attached to the Letter relating to Account 7002.

In any event, the Debtor’s default on his obligations with respect to the Waterview JPM Accounts is not the only outstanding breach under the Pledge Agreement. Contrary to your claim that the Pledge Agreement secured only the obligations concerning the Waterview JPM Accounts, the Pledge Agreement also expressly secured obligations of the Debtor and those of HBL-SNF LLC (“HBL”), an entity controlled by the Debtor, under the Amended and Restated Operating Lease dated November 19, 2015 between HBL, as tenant, and WPH Properties, as landlord. The Pledge Agreement provides:

WHEREAS in order to secure the promises made by Assignor concerning such account Assignor has agreed to deliver to Assignee this Assignment; and the Assignor desires to pledge to Assignee all of his membership interest in Waterview Acquisition I, LLC (the "Company"), in order to secure the promises made herein and in the Lease and Security Agreement delivered to the Construction Lender[.]

Pledge Agreement, at 2 (emphasis added). And Section 2 of the Pledge Assignment, referring to the obligations in the Lease, provides in pertinent part:

Upon the effectuation of Section 7.1(a)(iii) of the lease which requires Sixty days prior to the anticipated Commencement Date, the funds in the JP Morgan Chase Bank account in the amount of not less than $1,600,000 shall be deposited into the Landlords Rent Security Account, the interest in the Company assigned to the Assignee pursuant to Paragraph 1 hereof shall be automatically reassigned by the Assignee to the Assignor without recourse, representation or warranty, and this Assignment shall automatically terminate and be void and of no further effect.

Since the $1.6 million in additional rent security was never delivered to WPH Properties in accordance with Section 7.1(a)(iii) of the Lease, the Pledge Agreement remains in full force and effect. And because the Pledge Agreement, by its express terms, secures the obligations under the Lease, the failure to deliver the $1.6 million in additional rent security was also a default under the Pledge Agreement.

JOHN GIARDINO, ESQ.

Your assertion that the transfer of funds into Account 0885 was sufficient to comply with the obligation under the Lease to deliver the $1.6 million in additional rent security is wrong. As you know, the Waterview JPM Accounts are bank accounts of Waterview, not of the landlord under the Lease, WPH Properties. Section 7.1(a)(iii) of the Lease requires that the $1.6 million in additional rent security be released by HBL as tenant to WPH Properties as landlord. That was not done.

Further, the Letter ignores that HBL has defaulted on a number of other obligations under the Lease, including by failing to pay rent, failing to meet its other obligations to post security, failing to pay real estate taxes and failing to pay utility charges and deposits. Each of the defaults under the Lease is also a default under the Pledge Agreement.

Given the numerous outstanding defaults under the Pledge Agreement and the Lease, WPH Properties is well within its rights to dispose of the collateral -- the Debtor's membership interest in Waterview -- in accordance with the UCC. Your claims to the contrary are completely without merit.

The Bank's alleged senior security interest does not preclude WPH Properties' disposition of the collateral.

Your claim that the Bank's alleged senior security interest in the Waterview Membership Interest somehow prohibits WPH Properties from disposing of the collateral in accordance with Article 9 of the UCC is also wrong. UCC § 9-610(a) provides that "[a]fter default, a secured party may sell, lease, license, or otherwise dispose of any or all of the collateral in its present condition or following any commercially reasonable preparation or processing." The section does not provide that only the most senior secured creditor may conduct a sale. The Official Comments confirm this. Official Comment 5 to UCC § 9-610 states "[d]isposition rights under subsection (a) are not limited to first-priority security interests. Rather, any secured party as to whom there has been a default has the right to dispose of collateral under this subsection."

A junior creditor does have an obligation to notify other creditors with perfected security interests in the collateral of the sale as provided by UCC § 9-611(c)(3)(B). As you know, that was done.

A UCC Article 9 sale discharges only interests junior to the foreclosing creditor and therefore any sale of collateral would be subject to any senior security interest. The terms and conditions of sale clearly indicate that the sale will be subject to the Bank's security interest.

JOHN GIARDINO, ESQ.

The members of Waterview consented to the pledge and assignment of the Waterview Membership Interest.

Your claim that the pledge and assignment of the Waterview Membership Interest was prohibited by Waterview’s operating agreement is also incorrect. While the operating agreement requires the consent of Waterview’s members for a transfer, the fact that the Pledge Agreement was executed by both Waterview as well as the Debtor clearly indicates that the Waterview members consented to the Pledge Agreement, which expressly provides for the pledge and assignment of the Waterview Membership Interest.

Further, the Waterview resolution attached to the Pledge Agreement, which was executed by all the members of Waterview, resolves that Howard Fensterman would be added as a signatory to the Waterview JPM Accounts and that his signature would be required for any withdrawal that would result in the balance and value of those accounts to fall below $1.6 million. The resolution provides that the “action is taken pursuant to the applicable New York limited liability company statutory laws and the operating agreement of the Company, by the written consent of a majority of its members and managers of the Company.” The resolution also states that the managers of Waterview were authorized, directed and empowered to execute any agreements required to effectuate the terms of the resolution. Under the resolution, therefore, the members clearly authorized Waterview and its managers to enter into the Pledge Agreement, which set forth the Debtor’s obligations with respect to the Waterview JPM Accounts and pledged the Waterview Membership Interest as collateral. Given the provisions of the resolution, which is dated the same day as the Pledge Agreement, it is indisputable that all of the members of Waterview were aware of and consented to the Pledge Agreement.

Finally, the Letter asserts that “Article 12 specifically prohibited an assignment to Mr. Fensterman as Nominee of White Plains Healthcare Properties LLC.” That is also incorrect. Article 12 of the Pledge Agreement contains no such prohibition.

The Notification fully complies with the requirements of the UCC.

Contrary to the claims in the Letter, the Notification is fully compliant with the UCC.

To begin with, your claim that WPH Properties cannot foreclose because the Debtor, the assignor, is not “indebted” to WPH Properties, the assignee, is without any basis. First, Debtor is indebted to WPH Properties as a guarantor. Second, indebtedness to the secured party is not a prerequisite for a UCC sale of collateral. UCC § 9-102 defines “debtor” as a person who has an interest in the collateral, other than a security interest. UCC § 9-102 and UCC § 9-102-73(A) define a secured party as “a person in whose favor a security interest is created or provided for under a security agreement, whether or not any obligation to be secured is outstanding.” (emphasis added). Neither of those provisions requires underlying indebtedness, and UCC § 9-102-73(A) expressly provides that no underlying indebtedness is required to qualify as a secured party.

Second, notwithstanding the Letter’s assertion that you “find no evidence that you have taken any steps to properly conduct this sale as a public sale as required by the UCC,” rest assured that WPH Properties has complied with all UCC requirements with respect to the Notification and the public sale.

Third, lack of possession of the Waterview membership interest certificates is completely irrelevant as the UCC does not require that the secured party possess the collateral in order to foreclose. As previously noted, UCC § 9-102-73(A) defines a secured party, as relevant here, as “a person in whose favor a security interest is created or provided for under a security agreement. . . .” It does not require that the secured party have possession. Nothing in UCC Article 9 provides that possession of certificates is required as a precondition to a UCC Article 9 foreclosure. It requires only that the party foreclosing be a “secured party.” See UCC § 9-601(a).

There is no conflict of interest.

Your claims concerning conflicts of interest and “significant ethical and legal issues” are false. Howard Fensterman has never represented Waterview or Jozefovic as counsel.

For the reasons set forth herein, the public sale will proceed as scheduled.

Very truly yours,

/s/ ALFRED E. DONNELLAN

DEFENSES

100. MCB reserves the right to rely upon any of the following or any additional defenses to the extent that such defenses are supported by information developed through discovery or evidence at trial. MCB presently has insufficient knowledge or information upon which to form a belief as to whether there may be, as yet unstated, defenses available to MCB and thus, expressly reserves the right to (a) amend or supplement this answer, defenses and all other pleadings, and (b) assert any and all additional defenses under any applicable federal and state law in the event that discovery indicates such defenses would be appropriate. By asserting the matters below, MCB does not admit that Plaintiff is relieved of his burden to prove each element of its claims and the damages or relief sought.

AS AND FOR A FIRST DEFENSE

101. MCB has a fully perfected security interest in the Membership Interest and the certificates constituting the Membership Interest that is senior to all other persons.

AS AND FOR A SECOND DEFENSE

102. MCB has a possessory right in the certificates constituting the Membership Interest that is superior to all other persons.

AS AND FOR A THIRD DEFENSE

103. Given that MCB is the creditor with the fully perfected senior secured interest in the Membership Interests and certificates constituting the Membership Interest, and also has possession of the certificates (and cannot be dispossessed of same), defendants WPHP and Fensterman cannot conduct a commercially reasonable sale of the Membership Interest and thus, they cannot proceed with a sale of said Membership Interest.

AS AND FOR A FOURTH DEFENSE

104. Upon information and belief, WPHP and Fensterman never had a valid security interest in the Membership Interest and thus, they cannot foreclose or sell same.

AS AND FOR A FIFTH DEFENSE

105. Upon information and belief, assuming arguendo WPHP and Fensterman had a valid security interest in the Membership Interest, said security interest has since terminated and thus, they cannot foreclose or sell same.

AS AND FOR A CROSS-CLAIM
AGAINST WHITE PLAINS HEALTHCARE
PROPERTIES I, LLC AND HOWARD FENSTERMAN
(Declaratory Judgment)

106. MCB repeats and re-alleges the foregoing paragraphs as though fully set forth herein.

MCB's Security Interest in the Membership Interest

107. On or about December 19, 2019, MCB loaned $3 million to, among others, Waterview Acquisition I, LLC ("Waterview") and in connection therewith Waterview executed and delivered to MCB a Promissory Note and Loan Agreement each dated December 19, 2019.

108. To secure repayment of Waterview's obligations to MCB, among other things, Plaintiff executed and delivered to MCB a Guaranty Of Payment dated December 19, 2019 (the "Guaranty").

109. Plaintiff secured his obligations under his Guaranty by executing and delivering to MCB, among other things, the Assignment And Pledge Of Membership Interests dated December 19, 2019 (the "Pledge Agreement").

110. Pursuant to the Pledge Agreement, Plaintiff, among other things, "pledge[d], collateral[ly] assign[ed], transfer[red] and convey[ed], and grant[ed] a security interest in and lien on, in favor of [MCB], all of [Plaintiff's] right, title and interest in, to, and under ... , whether now owned or existing or hereafter acquired or arising [ 'Seventy and one-tenths percentage (70.1%) of the membership interests ... owned by HERBERT JOZEFOVIC ... in WATERVIEW ACQUISITION I, LLC ... ']. In other words, by the Pledge Agreement, Plaintiff pledged his Membership Interests to MCB.

111. To authorize, permit and facilitate the pledge of Plaintiff's Membership Interests to MCB, Plaintiff's Membership Interests were certificated (the "Certificates") and the Amended

And Restated Operating Agreement Of Waterview Acquisition I, LLC was amended pursuant to the Second Amendment To Amended And Restated Operating Agreement Of Waterview Acquisition I, LLC dated December 19, 2019 (collectively, the "Operating Agreement"). After obtaining a senior secured interest in Plaintiff's Membership Interests and Certificates, MCB fully perfected same by filing a UCC Financing Statement on December 23, 2019 and taking possession of the Certificates.

112. All of Plaintiff's rights and interests in and to the Membership Interests are merged with and in the Certificates.

The Certificates

113. MCB remains in possession of the Certificates.

114. MCB has a possessory interest in the Certificates that is superior to all other persons and thus, cannot be dispossessed of the Certificates.

115. The Certificates, moreover, states as follows: "This certifies that Herbert Lizer Jozefovic is the registered owner of Seventy and 1/10 (70.1%) Percent of the membership in the Limited Liability Company transferable only on the books of the Company in accordance with the Company's Operating Agreement and pursuant to the provisions of Section 2801-a(4)(b) of the New York State Public Health Law."

116. Pursuant to Article XII of Waterview's Operating Agreement, a pledge or transfer of a membership interest is prohibited absent consent of the Public Health Council of the State of New York and the members of Waterview.

117. Likewise, Section 2801-a(4)(b) of the New York State Public Health Law requires the consent of the New York Public Health and Health Planning Council.

The Notice of Sale

118. On or about October 6, 2020, MCB and its counsel Windels Marx Lane & Mittendorf, LLP received a Notification Of Disposition Of Collateral pursuant to which WPHP and Fensterman purported to sell WPHP's interests in and to Plaintiff's Membership Interests and Certificates (the "Notice of Sale").

119. The Notice of Sale allegedly relates to an August 11, 2017 collateral assignment, pledge and security agreement between Plaintiff and WPHP. However, WPHP did not file a UCC Financing Statement until September 15, 2020.

120. Even if WPHP and Fensterman were to have a valid security interest in the Membership Interest, it would be junior to MCB's security interest by virtue of the fact that MCB perfected its interest before WPHP's September 15, 2020 UCC Financing Statement.

The UCC Requires that any Sale be "Commercially Reasonable"

121. Pursuant to NY UCC 9-610(b), "Every aspect of a disposition of collateral, including the method, manner, time, place, and other terms, must be commercially reasonable."

122. In order to conduct a commercially reasonable sale of the Membership Interests, WPHP and Fensterman must have possession of the Certificates.

Declaratory Relief is Necessary

123. As evidenced by the Notice of Sale, and the subsequent refusal by WPHP and Fensterman to withdraw the Notice of Sale, there exists a genuine controversy and dispute as to whether WPHP and Fensterman have the authority to sell Plaintiff's Membership Interest given that (a) WPHP and Fensterman never had a security interest in the Membership Interests and if they did, then said security interest long ago terminated, and even if they did and still have a security interest in the Membership Interests, then (b) (i) MCB has a fully perfected security interest in the Membership Interest and Certificates that is senior to all other persons, (ii) MCB is in possession of the Certificates, (iii) MCB has a possessory right in the Certificates that is superior to all other persons, (iv) MCB cannot be dispossessed of the Certificates given its superior possessory right in same, (v) the Certificates limit any transfer of same except in compliance with the Operating Agreement, which requires the consent of Waterview's members, and the Public Health Law, which requires the consent of the Public Health Council; (vi) all of Plaintiff's rights and interests in and to the Membership Interests are merged with and in the Certificates, and (vii) in order to conduct a commercially reasonable sale, WPHP and Fensterman must have possession of the Certificates.

124. A judicial determination of these issues is necessary.

125. This controversy is ripe, genuine, actually justiciable and MCB has no adequate remedy at law.

126. MCB is entitled to a declaratory judgment stating that WPHP and Fensterman are prohibited from selling Plaintiff's Membership Interest pursuant to the Notice of Sale or otherwise because: (a) WPHP and Fensterman never had a security interest in the Membership Interests and if they did, then said security interest long ago terminated, and even if they did and still have a security interest in the Membership Interests, then (b) (i) MCB has a fully perfected security interest in the Membership Interest and Certificates that is senior to all other persons, (ii) MCB is in possession of the Certificates, (iii) MCB has a possessory right in the Certificates that is superior to all other persons, (iv) MCB cannot be dispossessed of the Certificates given its superior possessory right in same, (v) the Certificates limit any transfer of same except in compliance with the Operating Agreement, which requires the consent of Waterview's members, and the Public Health Law, which requires the consent of the Public Health Council; (vi) all of Plaintiff's rights and interests in and to the Membership Interests are merged with and in the Certificates, and (viii) in order to conduct a commercially reasonable sale, WPHP and Fensterman must have possession of the Certificates.

127. WHEREFORE, MCB demands judgment as follows:

(a) Granting Plaintiff's request for a judgment declaring that (i) the Collateral Assignment to WPHP and Fensterman is null and void following the establishment of the Rent Security; (ii) the Membership Interest has been properly assigned to MCB; and (iii) WPHP and Fensterman have no right or claim to the Membership Interest, nor can WPHP, Fensterman, or counsel sell or otherwise transfer the Membership Interest;

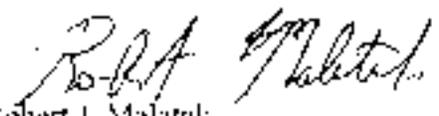

(b) Granting MCB's request for a judgment declaring that WPHP and Fensterman are prohibited from selling Plaintiff's Membership Interest pursuant to the Notice of Sale or otherwise because: (1) WPHP and Fensterman never had a security interest in the Membership Interests and if they did, then said security interest long ago terminated, and even if they did and still have a security interest in the Membership Interests, then (2) (i) MCB has a fully perfected security interest in the Membership Interest and Certificates that is senior to all other persons, (ii) MCB is in possession of the Certificates, (iii) MCB has a possessory right in the Certificates that is superior to all other persons, (iv) MCB cannot be dispossessed of the Certificates given its superior possessory right in same, (v) the Certificates limit any transfer of same except in compliance with the Operating Agreement, which requires the consent of Waterview's members, and the Public Health Law, which requires the consent of the Public Health Council; (vii) all of Plaintiff's rights and interests in and to the Membership Interests are merged with and in the Certificates, and (viii) in order to conduct a commercially reasonable sale, WPHP and Fensterman must have possession of the Certificates; and

(c) Granting MCB such other relief as the Court may deem fair, just and proper.

The following e-filed documents, listed by NYSCEF document number (Motion 002) 7, 8, 9, 10, 11, 12, 13, 61, 62, 63, 77, 78, 79, 80, 81, 82, 83, 84, 85, 87, 89 were read on this motion to/for CHANGE VENUE.

In this action seeking a declaratory judgment and damages in connection with claims sounding in, inter alia, breach of contract, fraud, defamation, breach of fiduciary duty, and legal malpractice, the plaintiff moves pursuant to CPLR 6301 for a preliminary injunction enjoining the defendants and their agents from publishing and distributing false statements about the plaintiff and from taking any action to transfer, assign, convey, or sell the plaintiff's membership interest in Waterview Acquisition I, LLC ("Waterview") (SEQ 001). The defendants White Plains Healthcare Properties I, LLC ("WPH Properties"), and Howard Fensterman ("Fensterman") oppose the motion and separately move pursuant to CPLR 511 and 602 to transfer this action to Westchester County and consolidate it with an action pending there entitled White Plains Healthcare Properties I, LLC v HBL SNF, LLC, Lizer Jozefovic and Mark Neuman, Index No. 60278/2020 (the "Westchester Action") (SEQ 002). The plaintiff opposes the moving defendants' application. For the following reasons, the moving defendants' motion is granted and the plaintiff's motion is denied without prejudice.

WPH Properties is the developer and owner of a new skilled nursing facility located in Westchester County, New York (the "Facility"). The Facility is operated by HBL SNF, LLC ("HBL"), an entity controlled by the plaintiff. WPH Properties and HBL are parties to an operating lease dated November 19, 2015 (the "Lease"), under which WPH Properties leases the Facility to HBL, as tenant. The plaintiff and nonparty Marc Neuman, as principals of HBL, are HBL's guarantors under the Lease.

Section 7.1(a)(iii) of the Lease provides that HBL was to pay an additional security deposit in the amount of $1.6 Million 60 days prior to the start of the lease period. As security for that payment, the plaintiff and WPH Properties entered into a collateral assignment agreement (the "Collateral Assignment Agreement"). Pursuant to the Collateral Assignment Agreement, the plaintiff assigned to WPH Properties his 71% membership interest in Waterview, an entity that owns another skilled nursing home in Westchester County (the "Waterview Interest"). The plaintiff also agreed to list Howard Fensterman, attorney for WPH Properties, as a signatory to a Waterview account with JP Morgan (the "Waterview account") where the $1.6 Million was currently being held. The Collateral Assignment Agreement provided that:

"[u]pon the effectuation of Section 7.1(a)(iii) of the lease which requires Sixty days prior to the anticipated Commencement Date, the funds in the [Waterview account] in the amount of not less than $1,600,000 shall be deposited into the Landlords Rent Security Account, the [Waterview Interest] assigned to [WPH Properties] ...shall be automatically reassigned by [WPH Properties] to [the plaintiff] without recourse, representation or warranty, and this Assignment shall automatically terminate and be void and of no further effect."

The "Landlords Rent Security Account" is not a defined term in the Lease or the Collateral Assignment Agreement. The Collateral Assignment Agreement further provides that the exercise of WPH Properties' rights to sell the Waterview Interest as assignee is authorized upon the plaintiff's violation of the "terms and provisions concerning the maintenance of the [Waterview account]..."

The plaintiff avers that he satisfied his obligations under the Collateral Assignment Agreement and that as a result, the assignment terminated. In 2019, the plaintiff assigned the Waterview Interest to defendant Metropolitan Commercial Bank ("MCB") in connection with a $3 Million loan as part of a financing arrangement to provide working capital to benefit the Facility, including through the payment of rent to WPH Properties.

On September 18, 2020, WPH Properties commenced the Westchester Action, in which it contends, inter alia, that HBL breached the Lease by failing to pay rent, municipal and utility deposits, real estate taxes, and other fees associated with the Facility, including the $1.6 Million security deposit required by Section 7.1(a)(iii). On October 6, 2020, WPH Properties noticed a public sale of the Waterview Interest based upon the plaintiff's alleged default under the Collateral Assignment Agreement. On October 22, 2020, this action ensued.

"Consolidation is generally favored in the interest of judicial economy and ease of decision-making where cases present common questions of law and fact, 'unless the party opposing the motion demonstrates that a consolidation will prejudice a substantial right.'" Raboy v McCrory Corp., 210 AD2d 145 (1st Dept. 1994) (quoting Amtorg Trading Corp. v Broadway & 56th St. Assoc., 191 AD2d 212, 213 [1st Dept. 1993]). The movants correctly argue that consolidation is warranted here because this action and the Westchester Action share common questions of law and fact. See CPLR 602; DeSilva v Plot Realty, LLC, 85 AD3d 422 (1st Dept. 2011); Kern v Shandell, Blitz, Blitz & Bookson, 58 AD3d 487 (1st Dept. 2009).

The plaintiff opposes consolidation, observing that while the Westchester Action involves claims regarding HBL's performance of its obligations under the Lease and the plaintiff's performance under the guarantee he signed, the instant action involves claims regarding ownership of the Waterview Interest pursuant to the separate Collateral Assignment Agreement. However, this characterization of the actions ignores the fact that both (a) WPH Properties' claim in the Westchester Action that the additional security was not paid and (b) the plaintiff's central claim in this action that the Collateral Assignment Agreement automatically terminated turn on the same question: whether Section 7.1(a)(iii) of the Lease was effectuated. Allowing this question to proceed in two separate courts risks inconsistent results. Moreover, WPH Properties avers in its moving papers that it has amended its complaint in the Westchester Action to include a claim sounding in violation of the Collateral Assignment Agreement against the plaintiff. Finally, the plaintiff, who is a resident of Westchester County and a party to the Westchester Action, which was commenced prior to the instant action, would not suffer prejudice to any substantial right as a result of consolidation and transfer.

The court notes that transfer is also appropriate because it appears that venue is improper in New York County. CPLR 503 provides that "[e]xcept where otherwise prescribed by law, the place of trial shall be in the county in which one of the parties resided when it was commenced; the county in which a substantial part of the events or omissions giving rise to the claim occurred; or, if none of the parties then resided in the state, in any county designated by the plaintiff.” Here, the only entity residing in New York County is MCB, which the plaintiff has included as a defendant but against which the plaintiff has not asserted any claim. Conversely, several parties, including the plaintiff, reside in Westchester County. Since venue properly lies in Westchester County, the court declines to retain venue on the basis of MCB, a nominal defendant against whom there is no claim. See Espinoza v Concordia Intl. Forwarding Corp., 39 AD3d 258 (1st Dept. 2007).

The plaintiff’s motion for preliminary injunctive relief is denied without prejudice to renewal upon transfer and consolidation in Westchester County.

Accordingly, it is

ORDERED that the plaintiff’s motion pursuant to CPLR 6301 for a preliminary injunction (SEQ 001) is denied without prejudice to renewal upon the transfer and consolidation of this action in Westchester County; and it is further

ORDERED that the motion of White Plains Healthcare Properties I, LLC, and Howard Fensterman pursuant to CPLR 511 and 602 to transfer this action to Westchester County and consolidate it with an action pending there entitled White Plains Healthcare Properties I, LLC v HBL SNF, LLC, Lizer Jozefovic and Mark Neuman, Index No. 60278/2020, (SEQ 002) is granted; and it is further

ORDERED this action, Lizer Jozefovic v White Plains Healthcare Properties I, LLC, Howard Fensterman, and Metropolitan Commercial Bank, Index No. 655549/2020, pending in the Supreme Court, New York County, shall be consolidated in the Supreme Court, Westchester County, with White Plains Healthcare Properties I, LLC v HBL SNF, LLC, Lizer Jozefovic and Mark Neuman, Index No. 60278/2020; and it is further,

ORDERED that the consolidation shall take place under Westchester County Index No. 60278/2020; and it is further,

ORDERED that the Clerk of this Court shall transfer the file in this action to the Clerk of the Supreme Court, Westchester County, for consolidation and shall mark his records to reflect such transfer; and it is further,

ORDERED that the Clerk of the Court shall coordinate the transfer of the file in this action with the Clerk of the Supreme Court, Westchester County, so as to ensure an efficient transfer and minimize insofar as practical the reproduction of documents, including with regard to any documents that may be in digital format; and it is further

ORDERED that the pleadings in the actions hereby consolidated shall stand as the pleadings in the consolidated action; and it is further

ORDERED that, within 30 days from entry of this order, counsel for the moving defendants shall serve a copy of this order with notice of entry upon the Clerk of this Court, shall pay the appropriate transfer fee, if any, and shall contact the staff of the Clerk of this Court and cooperate in effectuating the transfer and consolidation; and it is further

ORDERED that such service upon the Clerk of this Court shall be made in accordance with the procedures set forth in the Protocol on Courthouse and County Clerk Procedures for Electronically Filed Cases (accessible at the "E-Filing" page on the court's website at the address www.nycourts.gov/supctmanh).

This constitutes the Decision and Order of the court.

PRELIMINARY STATEMENT

By this motion, defendants / third-party plaintiffs Lizer Jozefovic (“Josefovic”), HBL SNF LLC (“HBL”), and Mark Neuman (“Neuman”) (collectively, “Movants”) seek to temporarily restrain and preliminarily enjoin the noticed sale – currently set for July 1, 2021 – by plaintiff White Plains Healthcare Properties I, LLC (“WPHP”) and third-party defendant Howard Fensterman (“Fensterman”) (collectively, “WP Parties”) of Josefovic’s membership interests in Waterview Acquisition I, LLC (“Waterview”). In their moving papers, Movants set forth a prima facie case that they will likely succeed on the merits of their causes of action. Movants have also demonstrated that, absent injunctive relief, they will suffer irreparable injury and the equities tip in their favor.

Third-party defendant/Cross-claimant Metropolitan Commercial Bank (“MCB”) joins and supports this motion for a temporary restraining order and preliminary injunction, but only against the WP Parties and other third-party defendants – not against MCB. The WP Parties have admitted that MCB has a senior security interest in Josefovic’s membership interests. Indeed, the fact is indisputable – MCB entered into a security agreement with Josefovic in 2019 through which he granted MCB a security interest in his membership interests, whereupon MCB perfected its security interest by taking possession of the related certificates and filing a Uniform Commercial Code (“UCC”) Financing Statement on December 23, 2019. To the extent it even had a security interest in the membership interests, the WP Parties did not file a UCC Financing Statement until September 15, 2020, resulting in MCB having priority.

Allowing the WP Parties to proceed with their noticed sale now, or ever for that matter, would unduly prejudice not only Josefovic, but MCB as well, especially since MCB has an unadjudicated cross-claim for a declaratory judgment that, among other things, seeks a declaration that Josefovic’s membership interests/certificates cannot be sold. First, the threshold questions of whether the WP Parties have a valid security interest in the membership interests must first be resolved first. If after appropriate proceedings the evidence establishes that the WP Parties’ security interest long ago terminated, then they have no right whatsoever to try to sell Josefovic’s membership interests/certificates a/k/a MCB’s collateral. In that case, the WP Parties are nothing more than a stranger who are tortiously interfering with MCB’s contractual relations with Waterview and Josefovic, and otherwise attempting to convert MCB’s collateral to MCB, Josefovic, and Waterview’s detriment.

Second, if the evidence establishes that the WP Parties currently have a junior secured interest in the membership interests/certificates, they are still unable to effectuate a sale of same because MCB has a superior possessory right in and to the interests and related certificates and without possession of the certificates, the WP Parties cannot conduct a commercially reasonable sale as the UCC requires. Not only is this grounded in law, it is not an unfair result, since MCB took many steps to safeguard its loan commitment to Josefovic, including having the membership interest certificated pursuant UCC Article 8, searching for any prior UCC filings, and, finally, taking possession of the certificates and immediately filing a UCC Financing Statement thereby perfecting its own security interest. Despite having an opportunity to do so, the WP Parties took none of these steps – except, of course, filing its own UCC Financing Statement nearly two (2) years after it supposedly became a secured creditor of Josefovic and only a few days before it commenced this lawsuit.

Based upon the foregoing, the Court respectfully must grant the requested temporary restraining order and preliminary injunction to allow for a determination of whether the WP Parties have a valid security interest and to ensure that MCB's interests in and to its collateral is fully protected and preserved.

A. The MCB Loan

On or about December 19, 2019, MCB loaned $3 million (the "Loan") to Waterview, and in connection with the Loan, Waterview executed and delivered to MCB a Promissory Note (the "Note") and Loan Agreement (the "Loan Agreement"). To secure repayment of Waterview's obligations to MCB, among other things, Josefovic executed and delivered to MCB a Guaranty Of Payment dated December 19, 2019 (the "Guaranty"). (Bandazian Aff., Ex. A.)<sup>1</sup>

Josefovic secured his obligations under his Guaranty by executing and delivering to MCB, among other things, the Assignment And Pledge Of Membership Interests dated December 19, 2019 (the "Pledge Agreement"). (Id., Ex. B.) Pursuant to the Pledge Agreement, Josefovic, among other things, "pledge[d], collaterally assign[ed], transfer[red] and convey[ed], and grant[ed] a security interest in and lien on, in favor of [MCB], all of [Josefovic's] right, title and interest in, to, and under ..., whether now owned or existing or hereafter acquired or arising [Seventy and one-tenths percentage (70.1%) of the membership interests ... owned by HERBERT JOZEOFVIC ... in WATERVIEW ACQUISITION I, LLC ....]" ("Josefovic's Membership Interests"). (Id., Ex. B, § 2-3 & Annex A.)

Further, the Amended And Restated Operating Agreement Of Waterview Acquisition I, LLC (the "Operating Agreement") was amended to authorize, permit, and facilitate the pledge of Josefovic's Membership Interests to MCB (see new Section 6.7) (Id., ¶ 7, Ex. C.), Josefovic's

<sup>1</sup> "Bandazian Aff." refers to the Affidavit of Brett Bandazian, sworn to on October 26, 2020, which was initially submitted in support of Josefovic's prior motion for a preliminary injunction before the New York County Supreme Court, and is annexed as Exhibit 1 to the Malatak Aff. (defined below).

Membership Interests were certificated (the “Certificates”) and expressly deemed to be governed by Article 8 of the UCC (see new Section 2.8) (Id., ¶ 7, Ex. C.) and Section 12.2 of the Operating Agreement was amended to permit the transfer of Josefovic’s interests to MCB (see new Section 12.2) (Id., ¶ 7, Ex. C.). After obtaining a senior secured interest in Josefovic’s Membership Interests/Certificates, MCB fully perfected same by filing a UCC Financing Statement on December 23, 2019 (the “MCB UCC”) and taking possession of the Certificates. (Id., ¶ 8, Ex. D.)

Importantly, MCB remains in possession of the Certificates. (Id.)

B. The WP Security Agreement And The First Notice Of Sale

On or about October 6, 2020, MCB and its counsel, Windels Marx Lane & Mittendorf, LLP (“Windels Marx”), received a Notification Of Disposition Of Collateral, pursuant to which the WP Parties purported to notice a sale of Plaintiff’s Membership Interests/Certificates (the “First Notice of Sale”). (Id., ¶ 9, Ex. E.) The First Notice of Sale purportedly relates to an August 11, 2017 collateral assignment, pledge and security agreement between Josefovic and WPHP (the “WP Security Agreement”). (See Id., Ex. E.)

The WP Security Agreement suffers from a number of fatal infirmities. For instance, the WP Security Agreement is hopelessly ambiguous and vague. Paragraph 1 of the WP Security Agreement provides as follows:

As collateral security for the Borrowers’ obligations under the Lease, the Security Agreement, the Loan, and the Development Agreement, the Assignor hereby pledges and assigns and grants a first and superior security interest in and to all of his rights, title and interest as a member in the Company (the “Collateral”). (Giardino Aff., Ex. D, § 1.)<sup>2</sup>

It is not clear, however, whose obligations are at issue, as “Borrower” is not defined in the WP Security Agreement. Nor, for that matter, are the terms “Lease,” “Security Agreement,” “Loan,” or “Development Agreement.” (See Giardino Aff., Ex. D.) In other words, the WP Parties are relying on a security agreement pursuant to which Josefovic supposedly pledged his membership interests to secure an unknown person’s obligations under unknown agreements. Further, it appears that the WP Security Agreement terminated pursuant to its own terms prior to Josefovic pledging the interests to the WP Parties. (Giardino Aff., ¶ 31-50.)

MCB had no prior actual notice of the WP Security Agreement. (Bandazian Aff., ¶ 10.) MCB’s UCC search did not locate any prior claims against Josefovic’s Membership Interests/Certificates because the WP Parties did not file a UCC Financing Statement until September 15, 2020 (the “WP UCC”). (Bandazian Aff., Ex. F.)

As will be shown below, even if the WP Parties have a valid security interest, its failure to file a UCC Financing Statement prior to MCB results in MCB having a senior claim to Josefovic’s Membership Interests/Certificates. Indeed, WP Parties admitted as much in their motion in the New York County Action to consolidate and change venue. According to the WP Parties, MCB “holds a prior lien on the Waterview Membership Interest,” and “[t]he Waterview Membership Interest will be sold subject to the lien of Metropolitan Commercial Bank.” (Malatak Aff., ¶ 4.)<sup>3</sup> The WP Parties’ counsel further states that, “The Waterview Membership Interest will be sold subject to Metropolitan Commercial Bank’s first lien. There is no dispute about that.” (Id., ¶ 15.)<sup>4</sup>

<sup>4</sup> Actually, while there is no dispute that MCB has a senior lien, there is a dispute over whether the collateral will be sold.

D. The WP Parties Persist Despite Warning

By letter dated October 19, 2020, MCB’s counsel wrote to the WP Parties’ counsel demanding that it cease and desist with any and all efforts to sell Josefovic’s Membership Interests/Certificates (the “Windels Letter”). (Bandazian Aff., Ex. G.) However, in response, the WP Parties’ counsel refused to cease and desist and asserted they would proceed with the sale (Id., Ex. H), requiring Josefovic to commence an action on October 22, 2020 entitled Josefovic v. White Plains Healthcare Properties I, LLC et. al, Index No. 655549/2020 (the “New York County Action”) and file an Order to Show Cause seeking, among other things, a temporary restraining order and preliminary injunction enjoining the WP Parties from, among other things, taking any action to transfer, assign, convey or sell Jozefovic’s Membership Interests/Certificates in Waterview.

E. The WP Parties’ First Noticed Sale Is Enjoined, And A Second Notice of Sale Is Issued

On October 27, 2021, the Court issued the requested temporary restraining order in the New York County Action pending a determination on the request for a preliminary injunction. (Malatak Aff., Ex. 2.) The WP Parties responded by moving to consolidate the New York County Action with this action. (Malatak Aff., ¶ 5.) While the motion was pending, on January 8, 2021, MCB filed in the New York County Action an Answer With Cross-Claim against WPHP and Howard Fensterman. (Malatak Aff., ¶ 6, Ex. 3.) MCB’s cross-claim seeks a declaratory judgment that WPHP and Howard Fensterman are prohibited from selling the Certificates because, inter alia, (a) they either have no interests in the Certificates, or (b) even if they do have interests in the Certificates any such interests are trumped by MCB’s interests and related rights. Thereafter, by Decision and Order, dated April 8, 2021 (Bannon, J.S.C.), the New York County Action was consolidated with this action, and the motion for a preliminary injunction was denied without prejudice. (Malatak Aff., Ex. 4.) After the two (2) actions were consolidated, the WP Parties issued a Notification of Disposition of Collateral, dated June 9, 2021 (the “Second Notice of Sale”), purporting to once again notice a sale of the Jozefovic Membership Interests, this time on July 1, 2021. (Malatak Aff., Ex. 5.) Thereafter, Movants filed this motion to again enjoin any sale of the Josefovic Membership Interests/Certificates.

ARGUMENT

POINT I

THE COURT SHOULD GRANT A TEMPORARY RESTRAINING ORDER AND PRELIMINARY INJUNCTION ENJOINING THE SALE OF THE COLLATERAL

The Court should grant this motion for a temporary restraining order and preliminary injunction enjoining the WP Parties’ sale of Josefovic’s Membership Interests/Certificates pending a determination of Josefovic’s and MCB’s claims. There are serious threshold questions whether the WP Parties have a valid security interest of any kind. Even if the WP Parties are able to ultimately demonstrate a currently valid security interest, MCB is indisputably the senior creditor and is in possession of the Certificates. Any sale by the WP Parties would be commercially unreasonable and will destroy the value of the collateral in which MCB retains its senior lien. Until all of these issues are determined, the Court respectfully must preserve the status quo and enjoin any sale.

The purpose of a temporary restraining order and a preliminary injunction is to maintain the status quo pending a determination on the merits. Segarra v. Ashouin, 253 A.D.2d 406, 407 (1st Dep’t 1998) (regarding temporary restraining order); Ying Fung Moy v. Hohi Umeki, 10 A.D.3d 604, 604 (2d Dep’t 2004) (regarding preliminary injunction). It is well settled that a party is entitled to preliminary injunctive relief upon a showing of (1) a probability of success on the merits; (2) the danger of irreparable injury absent the issuance of the injunction; and (3) a balancing of the equities in favor of the movant. See Aetna Insurance Co. & Capasso, 75 N.Y.2d 860, 862 (1990). Here, Movants have met all three (3) required criteria, and granting the requested injunctive relief would preserve the status quo.

A. Movants And MCB Are Likely To Prevail On The Merits

While Movants assert several reasons why they will likely prevail on the merits, MCB will focus here only on the fact that MCB has a first priority security interest, and the WP Parties have, at most, a junior security interest. Indeed, for the reasons discussed below just that fact alone is sufficient to demonstrate a likelihood of success on the merits in this case.

To establish “the likelihood of success on the merits, a prima facie showing of a right to relief is sufficient; actual proof of the case should be left to further court proceedings.” McLaughlin, Piven, Vogel, Inc. v. W.J. Nolan & Co., 114 A.D.2d 165, 172-173 (2d Dep’t 1986); see also Parkmed Co. v. Pro-Life Counselling, Inc., 91 A.D.2d 551, 553 (1st Dep’t 1982). The affidavits, documentary evidence and the opposition’s admissions set forth a prima facie case that the WP Parties do not currently have, a security interest in the collateral, and even if they did, they cannot conduct a commercially reasonable sale of same because of MCB’s superior possessory rights.

1. The WP Security Agreement Terminated Pursuant To Its Own Terms

The WP Security Agreement’s terms provide that upon the provision of $1.6 million in rent security, the WP Security Agreement automatically terminates. (Giardino Aff., Ex. D, ¶ 2.) Movants have demonstrated that the account was funded and the WP Security Agreement therefore terminated. (Giardino Aff., ¶ 31-50.)

“Security agreements are evaluated by the same principles of construction and interpretation as any contract” and the “parties are deemed to have intended the Security Agreement provisions to mean what is evident from the language employed.” Bostwick-Westbury Corp. v. Commercial Trading Co., Inc., 94 Misc.2d 401, 406 (Civ. Ct. N.Y. City 1978). Here, the WP Security Agreement unambiguously states that, upon the provision of $1.6 million in rent security in an account, the agreement automatically terminates, and Movants have made a prima facie case that it has complied with that requirement. Thus, it is likely that Movants will prevail in showing that the WP Security Agreement, and with it the WP Parties’ security interest (if any), was terminated long ago.

2. Without Possessing The Certificates, The WP Parties Cannot Conduct A Commercially Reasonable Sale

To properly sell collateral pursuant to the UCC, the sale must be “commercially reasonable.” NY UCC 9-610(b) (“Every aspect of a disposition of collateral, including the method, manner, time, place, and other terms, must be commercially reasonable.”) A secured creditor cannot sell certificates of membership interests in a commercially reasonable manner, however, without possession of the certificates. See In re Domestic Fuel Corp., 71 B.R. 734 (Br. S.D.N.Y. 1987). In In re Domestic Fuel Corp., a debtor pledged shares in certain companies, but upon execution of the security agreement, the secured party did not take possession of the share certificates. Id. at 736. After a default, the secured party, still without possession purported to sell the collateral. Id. at 737. The court, however, deemed the sale commercially unreasonable because the creditor did not have possession of the share certificates at the time of the purported sale. Id. at 739-40.

In order to sell the Certificates in a commercially reasonable manner, the WP Parties must have possession of them. However, the WP Parties do not possess the Certificates and, as the junior creditor, it is not entitled to them. As an initial matter, the Certificates were first issued in connection with MCB’s Loan and MCB perfected its security interest in them by taking possession of same, and still maintains possession. (Bandazian Aff., ¶ 8.) Further, as the senior creditor -- and the WP Parties concede MCB is the senior creditor (Malatak Aff., ¶ 4) -- MCB is entitled to continued possession of the Certificates. See NY UCC § 6-906, comment 5 (“a senior secured party is entitled to possession as against a junior claimant”). Finally, MCB has identified no provision of the UCC that would compel it to have to turn over the Certificates to the WP Parties for purposes of conducting a sale. Moreover, the WP Parties cannot, for example, maintain a cause of action against MCB for replevin because it cannot plead, let alone establish, the required elements. “To establish a claim for replevin, the plaintiff must prove two elements: [i] that plaintiff has a possessory right superior to that of the defendant; and [ii] that plaintiff is entitled to the immediate possession of that property.” Malvar Egerique v. Chowaiki, 2020 WL 1974228, *26 (S.D.N.Y. 2020). Because MCB, not the WP Parties, has the superior possessory right in the Interests/Certificates, the WP Parties could not succeed on such a claim. Id.; NY UCC § 6-906, comment 5. Accordingly, the WP Parties are unable to conduct a commercially reasonable sale.

B. Josefovic And MCB Would Be Irreparably Harmed Absent An Injunction

Movants have also demonstrated irreparable harm absent an injunction. Indeed, if Josefovic’s 70% membership interest is sold, Josefovic will lose his business. The loss of goodwill of a “viable, ongoing business” constitutes irreparable harm. See, Second On Second v. Hing Sing, 66 A.D.3d 255, 272-273 (1st Dep’t 2009) (“We reject HST's argument that the loss of the goodwill of a viable, ongoing business does not constitute irreparable harm warranting the grant of preliminary injunctive relief.”); FTI Consulting, Inc. v. PricewaterhouseCoopers LLP, 8 A.D.3d 145, 146 (1st Dep’t 2004) (“[T]he agreement's breach entailed irreparable harm, the loss of goodwill not being readily quantifiable.”). More concerning to MCB is that it would also be irreparably harmed if the sale were to proceed. MCB loaned money to Waterview, and the sale of the Interests/Certificates would effectively allow the WP Parties to choose MCB’s borrower. Even if the WP Parties were legally permitted to sell the Interests/Certificates (and they are not), any sale by the WP Parties subject to MCB’s senior security interest will most certainly fetch a small sale price and devalue Waterview, also to MCB’s detriment (Bandazian Aff., ¶ 22.), not to mention that there might not be any replacement collateral available to MCB.

C. The Equities Favor An Injunction

In reviewing a request for a preliminary injunction, “a court must balance the equities. [I]t must be shown that the irreparable injury to be sustained ... is more burdensome [to the plaintiff] than the harm caused to defendant through imposition of the injunction.” McLaughlin, Piven, Vogel, Inc. v. W.J. Nolan & Co., Inc., 114 A.D.2d 165, 174 (2d Dep’t 1986). Here, there will be no injury to the WP Parties if the sale is enjoined. However, if the Court fails to preliminarily enjoin the sale and it is ultimately determined that the WP Parties do not have a valid security interest, then they will have been permitted to sell property in which they had no rights whatsoever. Conversely, if it turns out that the WP Parties do have a security interest in the collateral, proceeding with a sale without possession of the Certificates (which it has no right to do), will lead to a devaluation of the collateral through a sale that will be commercially unreasonable as a matter of law. Further, if the WP Parties are permitted to sell the Certificates, it would just be dragging that purchaser into this litigation because MCB will be forced to assert an adverse claim against the purchaser. Thus, the equities clearly favor sorting out this mess before a sale, rather than letting the dispute spread to yet new parties. Complain as they may, the WP Parties have no one to blame but themselves for the situation in which they find themselves for failing to protect whatever interests they might have in the Certificates.

CONCLUSION

For the foregoing reasons, MCB respectfully requests that this Court grant this motion for a temporary restraining order and preliminary injunction against the WP Parties only, and not against MCB.

Dear Justice Walsh:

This firm represents plaintiff, White Plains Healthcare Properties I, LLC (“WPH Properties”) and third-party defendants, CCC Equities, LLC, Project Equity Consulting, The Congress Companies, Howard Fensterman and William Nicholson, in connection with the above referenced action.

During the hearing with this Court on Friday, June 25, 2021, in connection with Defendants’ request for a temporary restraining order, the Court directed Defendants HBL SNF, LLC, Lizer Jozefovic, and Mark Neuman to supplement their evidence in support of their motion by noon today Monday, June 28, 2021. It is now approximately two hours past the Court’s deadline and Defendants have not filed any supplemental papers. For this reason, and because the documents originally submitted to this Court by Defendants HBL SNF, LLC, Lizer Jozefovic and Mark Neuman have no evidentiary value, WPH Properties respectfully requests that Defendants’ order to show cause be denied in its entirety. *Warrington v. AFFIRMATION OF LIZER JOZEFOVIC
 IN SUPPORT OF ORDER TO SHOW CAUSE

LIZER JOZEFOVIC affirms the following to be true under the penalties of perjury:

1. I respectfully submit this affirmation in support of the Motion for an Order to Show Cause preventing the sale of my Membership Interest in Waterview Acquisition I, LLC (“Waterview”). This Affirmation is based upon my personal knowledge.
2. I am the managing member of Waterview and own 70.1% of the company (the “Membership Interest.”)

3. The history of my dealings with White Plains and all other parties is set forth in the Affirmation of John Giardino and the Memorandum of Law.

4. The Waterview facility consists of a 130-bed skilled nursing facility licensed by the State of New York.

5. I acquired Waterview in 2005.

6. There are currently 126 residents in the facility.

7. I am personally involved in managing the daily operations of Waterview and I am in the facility every week.

8. My son, Joseph Jozefovic, has been the administrator of the facility since 2015.

9. I am personally the holder of the nursing home license issued by the New York State Department of Health whose operations are overseen by the Department of Health.

10. In 2015, I refinanced the facility with the U.S. Department of Housing and Urban Development and there is currently a $25,000,000 HUD loan in place for the Waterview operations.

11. In addition, I borrowed $3,000,000 from Metropolitan Commercial Bank to fund operations, a loan I personally guaranteed.

12. I also have a line of credit extended by Gemino in the amount of $1,400,000, which I have also personally guaranteed.

13. The proposed sale of my membership interest in Waterview will cause a default on all of these loans.

14. As set forth in the motion papers, I have invested approximately $5,000,000 in White Plains. Without the infusion of my capital, the White Plains Project could not have been completed.

15. Specifically, on November 20, 2015, I contributed to the Project: (1) $2,200,000 paid to White Plains to be used by Congress for pre-development costs; (2) $197,072 paid to CCCE to be used at the discretion of Fensterman; and (3) $1,595,368.32 paid into a control account as rent security.

16. During this time, I was represented by Third-Party Defendant Howard Fensterman of Abrams, Fensterman, Fensterman, Eisman, Formato, Ferrara, Wolf & Carone, LLP.

17. These funds are a loan to the developer that has never been paid back to me by White Plains.

18. White Plains agreed to repay $1,500,000 of the principal amount of the loan by purchasing the furniture, fixtures, and equipment (the "FF&E") for the Project and conveying title to my company.

19. In addition, White Plains agreed to repay $700,000 of the principal amount of the loan by providing credit against Lease payments.

20. I have never received this rent credit and this amount of $700,000 could certainly be credited to the rent security which Plaintiff is seeking that sale of the Waterview Membership interest<sup>1</sup>.

21. To date, White Plains has refused to convey title to the FF&E, or to provide an accounting of the use of these predevelopment and discretionary funds.

22. To date, White Plains has refused to provide evidence of purchases of the required FF&E, or to credit $700,000 against the Lease payments.

23. To date, interest accrued on this $2,200,000 loan is equal to more than $450,000.

24. In short, White Plains has an unpaid obligation to me which totals over $1,140,000.
25. I have always performed my obligations under the Development Agreement and the Lease.
26. On August 10, 2017, an email was sent to Fensterman (the "August 10 Email"). The August 10 Email states, in relevant part, that the following "reflects what we agreed to. Please confirm...[and] do the paperwork to finalize this." The August 10 Email continues to state that "[w]ith respect to the Waterview account: 1. Howard Fensterman and Lizer Jozefovic shall be co-signatories to the Waterview account...."
27. A true and correct copy of the August 10 Email is attached to the Affirmation of John Giardino as Exhibit F.
28. On or about August 11, 2017, I entered into a Collateral Assignment and Pledge of Membership Interest and Security Agreement, which formalized the rent security account for the Facility (the "Collateral Assignment").
29. The Collateral Assignment contained three relevant sections:
- a. Under Paragraph 2, as soon I deposited $1,600,000 into the rent security account, the Collateral Assignment "shall automatically terminate and be void and of no further effect";
  - b. Under Section 13, White Plains' rights are limited to a violation of the "terms and provisions concerning the maintenance of the account..."; and
  - c. Under Section 13(c), any proceeds derived from the disposition of the collateral must be applied to the Rent security.
30. A true and correct copy of the Collateral Assignment is attached to the Affirmation of John Giardino as Exhibit D.

31. On August 16, 2017, Fensterman was sent a series of emails (the "August 16 Emails"). The August 16 Emails state, in relevant part, "[e]nclosed please find the Chase Certification that we received today; Please note that the Certification requires that the Resolution that we prepared be annexed as an exhibit. What I need from Howard is original signature cards from Howard with wet ink signatures."

32. True and correct copies of the August 16 Emails are attached to the Affirmation of John Giardino as Exhibit G.

33. On August 17, 2017, an email was sent to Fensterman (the "August 17 Email"). The August 17 Email states, in relevant part, that "I need [Fensterman's] signature on the last page."

34. The purpose of the August 17 Email was to transfer the Rent Security to a new account pursuant to a resolution of Waterview Acquisition I, LLC

35. In 2017, the Rent Security was transferred to the Chase account ending in xxxx-xxx-xxxx-0885 (the "Second Account").

36. Once completed, the resolution and account holder certification form were tendered to Fensterman.

37. True and correct copies of the August 17 Email, account information form, resolution, and account holder form are attached to the Affirmation of John Giardino as Exhibit H.

38. The Collateral Assignment required me to place $1.6 million into an account and provide Fensterman with signatory authority, after which the Collateral Assignment would automatically terminate.

39. I ensured that the Rent Security was properly deposited in the Second Account and that Fensterman was provided with all necessary forms to become a signatory, thereby completing all of my obligations under the Collateral Assignment.

40. However, following the August 17 Email, White Plains and Fensterman took no actions to become a signatory. From August 2017 until this current action, the Second Account was never discussed, and White Plains never raised it as an issue. As multiple years passed, I reasonably believed that White Plains was satisfied with the Rent Security, especially since the Second Account maintained a balance of well over $1.6 million.

41. I sent these documents to Mr. Fensterman and never heard anything further until this lawsuit.

42. Previously, the Operating Agreement of Waterview Acquisition I, LLC did not permit its members to assign their membership interests.

43. At the time, the Operating Agreement of Waterview Acquisition I, LLC stated, in relevant part:

- a. Articles 5 and 6 did not provide for any such assignment of the Membership Interest;
- b. Article 12 specifically prohibited an assignment of the Membership Interest to Fensterman as Nominee of White Plains Healthcare Properties LLC.

44. Fensterman is aware of these facts, as well as the limitations on transfer and assignment of the Membership Interest, as Fensterman and Abrams, Fensterman LLP acted as counsel to Waterview Acquisition I, LLC in its formation and execution of its operating agreement.

45. To permit an assignment, the Operating Agreement of Waterview was amended to authorize me, as the Majority Member, to assign the Membership Interest.

46. In December 2019, I assigned the Membership Interest to Metropolitan Commercial Bank ("MCB") as part of a $3 million loan and financing arrangement to provide working capital to benefit the Project, most of which was paid in the form of rent to White Plains.

47. On December 23, 2019, I granted MCB a security interest in the Membership Interest, and MCB perfected its security interest by taking possession of the related certifications and filing a Uniform Commercial Code Financing Statement.

48. Currently, MCB has perfected its security interest in Membership Interest and has physical possession of the membership certificates. White Plains knew and approved of the loan from MCB, since the proceeds have been used to pay rent on the Facility.

49. Following my performance under the Collateral Assignment, I waited for White Plains to complete the Project. Pursuant to the Development Agreement, White Plains was required to complete the Project by no later than September 2017.

50. However, due to unexplained delays, the Project was not completed until December 2019. Not only was this two-year delay financially burdensome, but it also forced me to open the Facility at the onset of the COVID-19 pandemic.

51. Moreover, the Development Agreement required White Plains to complete the Project at the NYSDOH-approved budget of $57 million. To guarantee that White Plains stayed within this budget, I was supposed to be responsible only for additional costs pre-authorized via change orders.

52. Throughout the entire Project, I never authorized a single change order. Yet, by the time the Facility was completed, White Plains had incurred more than $5 million in additional costs.

53. These cost overruns are extremely detrimental, as not only must they be repaid, but they have also prevented me from obtaining full reimbursement of my monthly rent payments as was originally intended under the Development Agreement and Lease.

54. Moreover, White Plains was required to provide permanent financing for the Project in the form of the HUD-insured loan approved by NYSDOH.

55. However, White Plains failed to provide permanent financing, breaching the Development Agreement and the Lease.

56. As a result of White Plains' breach, I am currently losing $68,000 per month on NYSDOH reimbursements, resulting in an annualized loss of $816,000.

57. On November 20, 2019, I entered into a letter of intent with White Plains to address certain defaults and issues (the "LOI").

58. A true and correct copy of the LOI is attached to the Affirmation of John Giardino as Exhibit I.

59. Pursuant to the LOI, I paid White Plains an additional $2.2 million.

60. White Plains has never accounted for these funds.

61. To the extent there were any issues about the Rent Security, the $2.2 million payment for these funds resolved them.

62. To date, I have paid and continue to pay rent to White Plains on time every month.

63. Since December of 2019, I have made every monthly rent payment of $506,096.50, totaling more than $12 million.

64. I understood that White Plains would use my rent payments to pay the mortgage for the Facility, which is owned by Security Benefit Life Insurance Company ("Security Benefit").

65. However, Security Benefit has declared White Plains to be in default of the mortgage for having failed to make necessary mortgage payments, charges, interest, and other required fees.

66. In a notice dated April 16, 2020, Security Benefit stated that White Plains breached the terms of the mortgage.

67. On May 22, 2020, Security Benefit sent another letter to White Plains, reiterating that White Plains remains in default and raising additional breaches.

68. True and correct copies of the Security Benefit letters are attached to the Affirmation of John Giardino as Exhibit J.

69. On May 1, 2021, Security Benefit brought a foreclosure action against White Plains for nonpayment of rent in the action captioned Security Benefit Life Insurance Company, et al. v. White Plains Healthcare Properties I, LLC et al., No. 55883/2021.

70. Although I have paid over $500,000 per month in rental payments to White Plains each and every month, pursuant to Security Benefit's complaint, White Plains is required to pay Security Benefit approximately $160,000 per month in mortgage payments. It is inexplicable why White Plains has failed to pay its mortgage, and raises troubling questions concerning what White Plains is doing with my rental payments.

71. The mortgage foreclosure action has harmed the reputation of the facility and has adversely affected business.

72. Rather than address its own failures and breaches under the Development Agreement, Lease, Collateral Assignment, LOI, and mortgage with Security Benefit, White Plains has engaged in extrajudicial tactics to seize the Membership Interest and the Facility.

73. On or about October 6, 2020, I received a purported Notification of Disposition of Collateral issued by DelBello Donnellan Weingarten Wise & Wiederkehr, LLP (“DDW LLP”), dated October 6, 2020 (the “First Notification”).

74. The First Notification claimed that I was a debtor and that the Membership Interest at would be sold “to the highest qualified public bidder in public” at 10:00 am on Friday, October 30, 2020.

75. A true and correct copy of the First Notification is attached to the Affirmation of John Giardino as Exhibit A.

76. The First Notification was negated by the entry of a Preliminary Injunction and Temporary Restraining Order by Judge Bannon in the action captioned Lizer Jozefovic v. White Plains Healthcare Properties I, LLC et al., No. 655549/2020.

77. On or about March 2021, after the First Notification failed, White Plains contacted NYSDOH and claimed that the appointment of an emergency receiver for the Facility was necessary.

78. White Plains made this request in secret, never informing me or my counsel of this request.

79. I was subsequently contacted by NYSDOH Director Marthe JB Ngwashi who requested further information about the situation and whether the Facility was in financial jeopardy.

80. Once I was given the opportunity to meaningfully respond, NYSDOH took no further steps to appoint a receiver.

81. A true and correct copy of the letter from my counsel to NYSDOH regarding White Plains' improper request for receivership is attached to the Affirmation of John Giardino as Exhibit K.

82. Finally, on or about June 10, 2021, I received a purported Notification of Disposition of Collateral, dated June 9, 2020 (the "Second Notification"), which announced White Plains' renewed intention to sell the Membership Interest at "public auction".

83. A true and correct copy of the Second Notification is attached to the Affirmation of John Giardino as Exhibit B.

84. However, White Plains is not in possession of my Membership Interest.

85. White Plains has widely distributed the Second Notification to my business partners and colleagues. As a result, I have received calls from interested and concerned parties inquiring about the purported sale.

86. I have spent years of my life successfully building and operating nursing homes. Although it is difficult to estimate, the Membership Interest is worth no less than $6 million.

87. White Plains has no right to sell the Membership Interest under the Collateral Assignment. Moreover, White Plains' rights under the Collateral Assignment are limited to enforcing the Rent Security, which remains intact.

88. I will be irreprovably harmed if the sale is permitted to proceed.

89. Furthermore, under the Assignment, the proceeds of such a sale can only be used to fund the Rent Deposit Account.

90. The continued publication of the Second Notification and any purported sale will irreparably harm me and jeopardize my operations.

91. Because White Plains will attempt to sell the Membership Interest, I will be irreparably harmed if the relief requested is not granted.

92. Moreover, my Membership Interest is essential for the management of Waterview and New York Law. I obtained the proper licensing and authorization to operate these particular nursing homes from NYSDOH. The licensing and authorization cannot be transferred to another party without a thorough analysis and approval from NYSDOH.

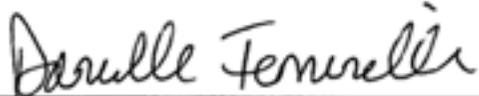

93. In this action, my claims for damages far exceed $1.6 million.

94. I seek an Order to Show Cause for a preliminary injunction to (1) enjoin White Plains Healthcare Properties I, LLC, Howard Fensterman, and Metropolitan Commercial Bank from taking any action to transfer, assign, convey or sell the Membership Interest; and (2) enjoin Epic and Defendants and Third-Party Plaintiffs HBL SNF, LLC, Lizer Jozefovic, and Mark Neuman from taking any action to reduce the Rent Security below $1.6 million.

ROBERT J. MALATAK, an attorney duly admitted to practice law before the Courts of this State, affirms the following to be true under penalty of perjury:

1. I am a member of the law firm Windels Marx Lane & Mittendorf, LLP, attorneys for third-party defendant and cross-claimant Metropolitan Commercial Bank (“MCB”), and I am fully familiar with the facts and circumstances set forth herein. I submit this supplemental affirmation in partial joinder and support of the motion by defendants / third-party plaintiffs Lizer Jozefovic (“Josefovic”), HBL SNF LLC (“HBL”), and Mark Neuman (“Neuman”) (collectively, “Movants”) for an order pursuant to CPLR Article 63 enjoining plaintiff White Plains Healthcare Properties I, LLC (“WPHP”) and the third-party defendants (collectively, the “WP Parties”), during the pendency of this action, from, among other things, taking any action to transfer, assign, convey, or sell Josefovic’s membership interests in Waterview Acquisition I, LLC (“Waterview”), which have now been certificated (the “Certificate”).

2. I submit this supplemental affirmation to clarify the status of the Certificate under the Uniform Commercial Code; specifically, the Certificate is a security, not a general intangible, and as such the case In re Domestic Fuel Corp., 71 B.R. 734 (Br. S.D.N.Y. 1987) is instructive.

3. The Operating Agreement was specifically amended to certificate the interests and render said certificate a security under the Uniform Commercial Code (“UCC”) § 8-103(c) and New York Limited Liability Company Law (“LLC Law”) § 603(b).

LLC Membership Interests Under The UCC

4. UCC § 8-103, entitled “Rules for Determining Whether Certain Obligations and Interests are Securities or Financial Assets,” governs, for purposes of the UCC, whether a particular interest is considered a security. With respect to membership interests in a limited liability company, UCC § 8-103(c) provides as follows:

(c) An interest in a partnership or limited liability company is not a security unless it is dealt in or traded on securities exchanges or in securities markets, its terms expressly provide that it is a security governed by this Article, or it is an investment company security. However, an interest in a partnership or limited liability company is a financial asset if it is held in a securities account. (Emphasis added.)

5. Official Comment 4 to UCC § 8-103 explains that subsection (c) provides that, while the UCC generally treats limited liability company membership interests as general intangibles, a limited liability company may “opt in” and specify that its shares are to be treated as securities under the UCC:

4. Subsection (c) is designed to foreclose interpretive questions that might otherwise be raised by the application of the “of a type”

language of Section 8-102(a)(15)(iii) to partnership interests. Subsection (c) establishes the general rule that partnership interests or shares of limited liability companies are not Article 8 securities unless they are in fact dealt in or traded on securities exchanges or in securities markets. The issuer, however, may explicitly “opt-in” by specifying that the interests or shares are securities governed by Article 8. Partnership interests or shares of limited liability companies are included in the broader term “financial asset.” Thus, if they are held through a securities account, the indirect holding system rules of Part 5 apply, and the interest of a person who holds them through such an account is a security entitlement. (Emphasis added.)

6. In summary, the UCC treats LLC membership interests as general intangibles, unless the LLC “opts in” and specifies that the interest are securities.

Opting In Under LLC Law § 603(b)

7. LLC Law § 603(b) specifically allows New York LLCs to “opt in” to treatment as securities by the UCC:

(b) The operating agreement may provide that a member’s interest may be evidenced by a certificate issued by the limited liability company and may also provide for the assignment or transfer of any of the interest represented by such a certificate. A member’s interest may be a certificated security or an uncertificated security within the meaning of section 8-102 of the uniform commercial code if the requirements of section 8-103(c) are met, and if the requirements are not met such interest shall, for purposes of the uniform commercial code, be deemed to be a general intangible asset. The existence of the restrictions on the sale or transfer of a membership interest, as contained in this chapter and, if applicable, in the operating agreement, shall be noted conspicuously on the face or back of every certificate representing a membership interest issued by a limited liability company. Any sale or transfer in violation of such restrictions shall be void. (Emphasis added.)

8. Thus, under New York’s LLC Law, an LLC may elect to reduce their interests to certificate form, and may “opt in” and specify that the certificates are to be treated as certificated securities under UCC Article 8.

Waterview Amended Its Operating Agreement To Specify That The Certificate Be Treated As Securities Under UCC Article 8

9. As set forth in the Affidavit of Brett Bandazian (“Bandazian Aff.”),<sup>1</sup> Waterview amended its Operating Agreement specifically to certificate Josefovich’s membership interests and to specify that the Certificate is to be treated as securities under UCC Article 8. (Bandazian Aff., ¶ 7.)

10. Accordingly, paragraph 4 of the Second Amendment to Amended and Restated Operation Agreement of Waterview provides as follows:

A new section 2.8 is added to the Operating Agreement:

2.8 Certification of Membership Interests and Opt-In to “Article 8”. Notwithstanding anything in this Agreement which may (may be construed to be) to the contrary: (a) the limited liability company membership interests and Economic Interest (as such term is defined in the Operating Agreement) (collectively, the “Membership Interests”) in the Company shall be evidenced by a certificate or certificates the form of which is attached to this Agreement as Schedule 2.8 (the “Membership Interest Certificates”); and (b) the Membership Interests in the Company shall (and hereby do) provide that they are securities governed by Article 8 of the Uniform Commercial Code as in effect from time to time in the State of New York and Article 8 of the Uniform Commercial Code of any other jurisdiction that now or hereafter substantially includes the 1994 revisions to Article 8 thereof as adopted by the American Law Institute and the National Conference of Commissioners on Uniform State Laws and approved by the American Bar Association on February 14, 1995 (and shall be treated as such for all purposes, including, without limitation, perfection of a security interest therein under Article 9 of the Uniform Commercial Code as in effect in such jurisdiction.” (Bandazian Aff., Ex. C, pdf p. 42 of 49, emphasis added.)

11. Thus, in accordance with the UCC and LLC Law, the issuer of Josefovich’s Membership Interests -- Waterview -- specified in its Operating Agreement that the interests are to be treated as a security under UCC Article 8.

Conclusion

12. Pursuant to UCC § 8-103(c), LLC Law § 603(b), Operating Agreement § 2.8 (as amended), the Certificate is to be treated as a security and not a general intangible. Accordingly, as set forth in our memorandum of law, because the Certificate is a security (rather than a general intangible), a creditor must have possession of the Certificate in order to conduct a commercially reasonable sale. See In re Domestic Fuel Corp., 71 B.R. 734 (Br. S.D.N.Y. 1987). This makes sense, particularly under the circumstances here, because what legitimate third-party would pay fair market value for a certificate which is not being delivered as part of the sale transaction -- not to mention the fact that the interests are at the center of a hotly contested dispute which includes, among others, the senior creditor. Because MCB has possession of the Certificate -- and will not voluntarily transfer possession of same, nor can it be compelled to do so because of, inter alia, its superior possessory rights -- the WP Parties cannot conduct a commercially reasonable sale. MCB therefore respectfully requests that the Court enjoin the sale of Josefovic's Membership Interests pending this action which sale seems to be nothing more than a premature attempt by the WP Parties to pursue a post-judgment-like remedy.

13. There is simply no prejudice to the WP Parties if the sale is delayed until the numerous knotty issues presented in this matter are sorted out. Conversely, MCB will be irreparably harmed because, inter alia, (1) the collateral (a/k/a the Certificate) cannot for the foregoing reasons be sold at its fair market value, thus leaving MCB in a under-collateralized position for which it did not bargain; (2) Waterview (MCB's borrower) will be controlled by a stranger whom MCB has not vetted; and (3) an event of default under the MCB/Waterview loan documents will occur.

WHEREFORE, MCB respectfully requests that the Court issue an order granting (1) Movants' order to show cause for a temporary restraining order and preliminary injunction, except that the injunction should not be extended to MCB and (2) MCB such other and further relief as this Court deems just and proper.

Re: *White Plains Healthcare Properties I, LLC v. HBL SNF, LLC et al.

Dear Judge Walsh:

As you know, we represent Defendants and Third-Party Plaintiff's HBL SNF, LLC, Lizer Jozefovic, and Mark Neuman (collectively, "HBL") in the above-referenced action. We write regarding the proposed Order to Show Cause and Affirmations in Support [Dkt. Nos. 106-123, 132-133] [Mot. Seq. #5] (the "Order to Show Cause").

Given Your Honor's direction that the funds at issue be transferred to an escrow account, HBL arranged for a superior form of collateral, namely HBL is willing to provide Plaintiff with an irrevocable letter of credit for $1.6 million as rent security.

HBL has provided a draft letter of credit and is working with counsel for JPMorgan Chase to complete this transaction as soon as possible. We have requested that Plaintiff's counsel postpone the threatened sale to allow us to complete this transaction. Plaintiff's counsel is refusing to accept the letter of credit, and instead insists on continuing with the purported sale.

We are available to discuss this matter with the Court and HBL respectfully requests the Court's assistance in resolving this matter.

Respectfully yours,

COUNTY OF ESSEX )

William A. Nicholson, being duly sworn, deposes and says:

1. I am a Manager of White Plains Healthcare Properties I, LLC ("WPH Properties"). I have personal knowledge of the facts and circumstances set forth in this affidavit.
2. I submit this affidavit in opposition to the motion of Lizer Jozefovic ("Jozefovic") in the above captioned consolidated actions, in which Metropolitan Commercial Bank ("MCB") joins, for a temporary restraining order and preliminary injunction enjoining WPH Properties from proceeding under Article 9 of the Uniform Commercial Code (the "UCC") to dispose of and/or sell Jozefovic's 71% membership interest (the "Waterview Membership Interest") in Waterview Acquisition I, LLC ("Waterview").

3. For the reasons that follow, and are more fully set forth in the accompanying memorandum of law, Jozefovic is in default under the pledge agreement that gives WPH Properties a security interest in the Waterview Membership Interest. Jozefovic's entity, HBL SNF, LLC ("HBL"), which is the tenant, is also in default under the lease. The pledge agreement secures HBL's obligations under the lease, as well. Although the material defaults under the lease are numerous, and they will be spelled out below, the critical default is HBL's failure to post the $5.3 million security deposit that was required by the lease to be posted 60 days prior to the anticipated occupancy date. In fact, HBL has never posted any security deposit at all, despite the fact that it has been occupying WPH Properties' $65 million building since September 2019.

4. HBL's failure to post the required security deposit is directly related to Jozefovic's default under the pledge agreement. WPH Properties and HBL entered into the lease before the building was built. They did so knowing that the pre-construction and construction activities were going to take several years. (In fact, as will be discussed below, HBL caused the delay in moving forward with the construction of the building.) HBL was reluctant to post the $1.6 million in security two years before taking occupancy. WPH Properties had to know, however, that HBL had the funds to provide the security when the building was completed. So the parties agreed that HBL could hold the funds in its account until 60 days before the building was going to be finished, as long as the funds could not be moved from that account and remained available to be posted as security. That obligation (as well as HBL's other obligations under the lease) was secured by the pledge of the Waterview Membership Interest, which the pledge agreement allows WPH Properties to sell if Jozefovic defaults under the pledge agreement or HBL defaults under the lease. Both defaults have occurred.

5. Jozefovic's argument to avoid his obligations under the pledge agreement centers on his contention that he satisfied his obligations under the pledge agreement by tendering certain bank documents to Howard Fensterman. As will be more fully explained below, the documents Jozefovic tendered were insufficient for that purpose. But that argument is a sideshow, intended to divert the Court's attention from the more substantial default under the lease – HBL's failure to post any security deposit – that Jozefovic does not dispute or even argue about.

6. The pledge agreement does not terminate when HBL puts the $1.6 million in the account. It terminates when HBL deposits the $1.6 million in WPH Properties Rent Security Deposit Account. That has never happened and HBL does not even claim that it has.

7. Jozefovic acknowledges that. In his affirmation he states that “[u]nder Paragraph 2, as soon as I deposited $1,600,000 into the rents security account, the Collateral Assignment ‘shall automatically terminate and be void and of no further effect.’” Jozefovic Affirmation, ¶ 29. That is an accurate citation of paragraph 2. Pledge Agreement, Exhibit D, ¶ 2. But then he states, in direct contradiction to that statement, that “[t]he Collateral Assignment required me to place $1.6 million into an account and provide Fensterman with signatory authority, after which the Collateral Assignment would automatically terminate.” Jozefovic Affidavit, ¶ 38. That is a complete and blatant misreading of paragraph 2. As Jozefovic admitted in paragraph 29 of his affirmation, the Pledge Agreement terminates only after the $1.6 million was deposited in WPH Properties' Rent Security Deposit Account. Pledge Agreement, Exhibit D, ¶ 2.

8. HBL has been and continues to be in default of its obligation under the lease to post the $1.6 million in security. Because HBL has not posted that security, the pledge agreement remains in effect. Under the pledge agreement, the Waterview Hills Interest secures HBL's obligation to post the $1.6 million. As a secured creditor, WPH Properties therefore has the right under the UCC to sell the Waterview Hills Interest. There is no lawful basis, therefore, on which the Court can prevent WPH Properties from exercising its rights under the pledge agreement and the UCC.

9. The fact that Jozefovic, in violation of the pledge agreement, has also pledged the Waterview Membership Interest to Metropolitan Commercial Bank ("MCB") does not defeat the rights of WPH Properties. WPH Properties recognizes that even though Jozefovic pledged the Waterview Membership Interest first to WPH Properties, MCB perfected its security interest first. The Waterview Membership Interest will therefore be sold subject to MCB's interest (although if the facts establish that MCB knew about the prior pledge to WPH Properties, it would not have priority). As the accompanying memorandum of law establishes, however, a junior creditor has the right under the UCC to sell the collateral subject to the rights of the senior creditor and MCB has failed to establish any basis for stopping the sale.

10. Jozefovic should not be rewarded with an injunction for his nefarious actions and duplicity. The pledge agreement prohibits him from pledging the Waterview Membership Interest to anyone else. It also prohibits him from amending the Waterview operating agreement, which he did to authorize the membership certificates that MBC now claims make the sale commercially unreasonable.

The Assignor represents and covenants . . . that he will not enter into any assignment, mortgage, pledge or other instrument which transfers or encumbers all or any part of his interest in the Company and that there are no current liens or encumbrances that exist as of the day of this assignment.

The Assignor agrees not to subsequently further amend or voluntarily permit the amendment of the operating agreement of the Company that would in any manner materially adversely affect this Assignment and/or the rights of the Assignee hereunder without the consent of the Assignee, which consent shall not be unreasonably withheld.

Pledge Agreement, Exhibit D, ¶ 3, 4.

11. Notwithstanding these express prohibitions in the Pledge Agreement, Jozefovic, after signing the Pledge Agreement, amended the operating agreement and pledged the Waterview Membership Interest to MCB. Jozefovic's material breach of the pledge agreement should defeat his motion, not be used to support it. The motion for a temporary restraining order and preliminary injunction should be denied.

Background

12. WPH Properties developed, financed, constructed and owns a brand new, state-of-the-art, 160-bed skilled nursing home located at 116-120 Church Street, White Plains, New York (the "Facility"). HBL is the tenant and operator of the Facility. WPH Properties and HBL are parties to an amended and restated operating lease dated as of November 19, 2015 (the "Lease"), under which WPH Properties, as landlord, leased the Facility to HBL, as tenant. A copy of the Lease is attached as exhibit A. The Lease obligated HBL to deliver a guarantee of all obligations owed by HBL under the Lease from Jozefovic (the "Jozefovic Guaranty") and from Neuman (the "Neuman Guaranty"). Exhibit A, Lease, § 7.1. The Jozefovic and Neuman guarantees are attached as exhibits B and C.

13. Waterview owns a 130-bed skilled nursing facility known as Waterview Hills Rehabilitation and Nursing Center located at 537 Route 22, Purdys, New York 10578. Pursuant to a Collateral Assignment and Pledge of Membership Interest and Security Agreement dated August 11, 2017 (the "Pledge Agreement"), Jozefovic pledged and assigned the Waterview Membership Interest. A copy of the Pledge Agreement is attached as exhibit D. The pledge and assignment were security for: (i) Jozefovic's obligations concerning the maintenance of certain bank accounts containing funds sufficient to cover a $1.6 million additional security deposit that HBL was required to provide to WPH Properties under the Lease; and (ii) all of HBL's contractual obligations under the Lease. WPH Properties perfected its security interest in the Waterview Membership Interest by filing a UCC-1 financing statement, a copy of which is attached as Exhibit E, on September 15, 2020.

14. Jozefovic failed to comply with his obligations under the Pledge Agreement and HBL defaulted on its obligations under the Lease. Those defaults entitle WPH Properties to foreclose on the Waterview Membership Interest by public sale conducted pursuant to the UCC. WPH Properties has therefore noticed a public sale of the Waterview Membership Interest for July 1, 2021 and has fully complied with the requirements of the UCC relating to the disposition of collateral at a public sale, including those relating to notice and commercial reasonableness. Jozefovic's motion to enjoin the UCC sale is without any basis. The sale should be allowed to proceed.

A. The Pledge Agreement.

15. HBL, the tenant under the Lease, entered into a Development Agreement with WPH Properties dated November 19, 2015, as amended July 12, 2017, concerning the Facility (the "Development Agreement"). Exhibit D, Pledge Agreement, at 1, ¶ 2. The Development Agreement obligated HBL to enter into the Lease with WPH Properties. Exhibit D, Pledge Agreement, at 1, ¶¶ 2-3. Under the Lease, HBL was obligated to, among other things, deposit additional security in the sum of $1,600,000 (the "Additional Security Deposit") into the Landlord's Rent Security Account at least 60 days before the anticipated commencement date of the Lease. Exhibit A, Lease, § 7.1(a)(iii); Pledge Agreement, at 1, ¶¶ 6-7. In particular, the Lease provides that "[s]ixty days prior to the anticipated Commencement Date, the funds in the controlled account number xxxxxx7272 in JPMorgan Chase Bank, N.A. . . . in the amount not less than $1,600,000 shall be delivered by Tenant to Landlord and released by Tenant to Landlord to be held as an additional Security Deposit by Landlord." Exhibit A, Lease, § 7.1(a)(iii).

16. The Pledge Agreement recites that the funds in HBL's JPMorgan Chase Bank, N.A account number xxxxxx7272 (the "HBL JP Morgan Account") had been transferred to two JP Morgan accounts owned by Waterview (account number xxxxxx7002 and account number xxx-x0885) (the "Waterview JPM accounts") and that Howard Fensterman ("Fensterman"), one of the principals of WPH Properties, was not a signatory on the Waterview JPM Accounts. Exhibit D, Pledge Agreement, at 1, ¶ 8. The Pledge Agreement further recites that Jozefovic and HBL had promised to add Fensterman as a signatory to the Waterview JPM Accounts to guarantee that no withdrawals would be made from these accounts that would reduce the balance below $1.6 million, "so as to ensure that when required 60 days prior to the commencement date [of the Lease] the money in the account or equivalent shall be delivered as additional cash security for the [L]ease." Pledge Agreement, at 2, ¶ 1.

17. Similarly, the Waterview resolution attached to the Pledge Agreement (the "Waterview Resolution") provides as follows:

THEREFORE, BE IT RESOLVED, that

1. The Company add Howard Fensterman as a co-signatory to the following account Waterview Acquisition I, LLC Account Number xxxxxx7002 and Account Number xxx-x0885 at JP Morgan Chase together with Marc Neuman and Lizer Jozefovic;
2. Howard Fensterman's signature shall be required on any withdrawal or any direction to the Bank on the account where such withdrawal or direction shall cause the balance and value of the account to fall below 1.6 million dollars until such time as the Facility is completed and an affiliated entity HBL-SNF satisfies its obligation to post a 1.6 million dollar additional cash security deposit according to Section 7.1(a)(iii) of the lease between HBL SNF, LLC as Tenant And White Plains Healthcare Property I, LLC as Landlord which requires Sixty days prior to the anticipated Commencement Date that the funds in the JP Morgan Chase Bank account in the amount of not less than $1,600,000 shall be deposited into the Landlords Rent Security Account.

- 3. Howard Fensterman's signature shall be required to withdraw all sums in the account in excess of 1.6 million at the direction of Lizer Jozefovic or Marc Neuman and by his signature below agrees to give such consent unless such withdrawal shall cause the balance in the account to fall below 1.6 Million dollars.

Pledge Agreement, Exhibit A, at 1-2.

18. In other words, the funds in the Waterview JPM Accounts were intended to secure the obligation under the Lease to post the Additional Security Deposit by adding Fensterman as a co-signatory whose signature would be required to make any withdrawal that would reduce the account below $1.6 million. That would ensure that the balance in the Waterview JPM Accounts was always at least $1.6 million, the amount of the Additional Security Deposit, and that those funds would be used to post the Additional Security Deposit when HBL was required under the Lease to post it - 60 days prior to taking occupancy.

19. The parties' intent is made crystal clear by § 2 of the Pledge Agreement, which provides that the Pledge Agreement would terminate only when the $1.6 million was deposited in WPH Properties' Rent Security Account, not when Howard Fensterman's signature was on the Waterview JPM Accounts. Pledge Agreement, Exhibit D, ¶ 2. Only when HBL had complied with its obligation under the Lease to deposit the $1.6 million Additional Security Deposit with WPH Properties would the Waterview Membership Interest be "automatically reassigned by the Assignee to the Assignor without recourse, representation or warranty, and this Assignment shall automatically terminate and be void and of no further effect." Exhibit D, Pledge Agreement, ¶ 2.

20. Jozefovic failed to take all of the steps necessary to add Fensterman as a co-signatory to the Waterview JPM Accounts, a clear breach of the Pledge Agreement. And, most fundamentally, when it came time in July 2019 for HBL to post the Additional Security Deposit, it failed to do so. To this day it continues to refuse to do so. The failure to deposit the $1.6 million Additional Security Deposit in WPH Properties' Rent Security Deposit Account was, and continues to be, a breach of both the Pledge Agreement and the Lease. Exhibit A, Lease, § 7.1(a)(iii).

21. In addition to its failure to comply with its obligations under the Pledge Agreement, HBL has committed a number of other breaches of the Lease as well.

(i) Failure to pay security deposits.

22. The Lease obligates HBL to deliver to WPH Properties, before the commencement date of the Lease, an unconditional letter of credit or cash in the amount of $3,700,000 to secure the full and timely performance of its obligations under the Lease. In addition, , as previously noted, the Lease requires HBL to deposit into WPH Properties' Rent Security Account an "Additional Security Deposit" in the amount of $1,600,000. Exhibit A, Lease, § 7.1. HBL has never paid either amount.<sup>1</sup>

(ii) Failure to pay rent.

23. The Lease obligated HBL to pay WPH Properties annual fixed rent of $6,073,158 in monthly installments of $506,096.50 and other amounts which are defined as "Additional Rent." Exhibit, A, Lease, § 3.2. Almost immediately after taking possession of the Facility on September

<sup>1</sup> In January 2020, after HBL under the Lease, WPH Properties worked with HBL to try to resolve its defaults by entering into a Letter of Intent under which WPH Properties would sell the building to an entity in which Jozefovic and his partners would have a 70% interest. The Letter of Intent reduced the amount of the security deposit to $1 million. But Jozefovic defaulted under that agreement as well by failing to pay the $1 million security deposit, failing to pay rent, failing to pay municipal and utility payments, failing to pay real estate taxes, failing to enter into the required Deposit Account Control Agreement, failing to enter into an agreement with JP Morgan Chase Bank and by failing to maintain an $8,000,000 working capital credit line.

30, 2019, HBL defaulted in paying rent. As of January 7, 2020, HBL owed rent due for September 30, 2019 through December 31, 2019 in the amount of $10,831.79 and "Additional Rent" due for January 1, 2020 through January 31, 2020 totaling $40,000. A copy of a January 7, 2020 Notice of Default detailing the rent and other amounts payable from HBL to WPH Properties as of January 7, 2020 is attached as Exhibit F.

24. The Lease also obligates HBL to pay, before penalties are incurred, all real estate taxes, assessments, utility charges and other taxes. Exhibit A, Lease, § 4.2. HBL failed to pay its prorated portion of the required real estate taxes for the period July 1, 2019 through December 31, 2019 (exclusive of late fees, costs, penalties and interest per municipal regulations and per the Lease), in the total amount of $61,456.39, and real estate taxes for the period January 1, 2020 through June 30, 2020 in the total amount of $121,587.12. Exhibit F, Notice of Default.

(iv) Failure to pay utility charges, utility deposits and municipal maintenance escrows.

25. The Lease obligated HBL to pay all charges for electricity, steam, telephone, cable, gas, oil, water, sewer and all other services or utilities used on or related to the Facility and required HBL to keep the Facility in good condition and repair including, at HBL's sole cost and expense, payment of all utility service and maintenance deposits and expenses. Exhibit A, Lease, §§ 4.1 and 5.2. HBL failed to pay utility charges to Con Edison and failing to pay utility deposits totaling $60,356.10 and municipal maintenance escrows totaling $5,500.00, which WPH Properties paid to avoid the termination of electrical service to the building. Exhibit F, Notice of Default.

(v) Other defaults under the Lease.

26. HBL failed to deliver an agreement by Capital Funding Group allowing HBL to draw down on its credit line to pay the Rent each month directly to WPH Properties as required by § 7.1

of the Lease. Exhibit A, Lease, § 7.1.

27. HBL failed, as required by § 7.4 of the Lease, to deliver certificates of insurance, all Medicare, Medicaid and other provider agreements, reimbursement rate sheets and updated rate sheets, required financial reporting and written reporting providing an operational overview of significant events and circumstances at the Facility during each prior month of the term of the Lease. Exhibit A, Lease, § 7.4.

28. HBL failed to maintain working capital accounts in the required amounts as required by § 7.7 of the Lease. Exhibit A, Lease, § 7.7.

C. The Notice of Default

29. The Lease provides that upon the occurrence of a default by HBL, WPH Properties may, upon five days written notice, terminate the Lease and HBL's right to possession of the Premises, accelerate the payment of all Rent for the balance of the Term and declare the Rent presently due and payable in full, requiring HBL to pay to WPH Properties the present value of the accelerated Rent. Exhibit A, Lease, §16.1.

30. WPH Properties terminated the Lease as of January 13, 2020 by reason of HBL's multiple defaults. The Lease provides that, if HBL continues to occupy the Premises after termination of the Lease (which it has done) its holding over does not constitute a renewal of the Lease, but HBL becomes a tenant month-to-month for a rental of 300% of the most recent rent payable by HBL under the Lease. Exhibit A, Lease, § 20.13. HBL defaulted on its rent obligations as a month-to-month tenant during the months of January, February, March, April, May, June, July, August, September and October 2020, when this action was commenced.

D. WPH Properties is entitled to foreclose on the Waterview Membership Interest.

31. The Pledge Agreement provides that Jozefovic pledges and assigns the Waterview

Membership Interest to WPH Properties in order to secure the obligations under the Pledge Agreement and the Lease. Exhibit D, Pledge Agreement, at 2, second Whereas clause (“WHEREAS, in order to secure the promises made by Assignor concerning such account Assignor has agreed to deliver to Assignee this Assignment; and the Assignor desires to pledge to Assignee all of his membership interest in Waterview Acquisition I, LLC (the ‘Company’), in order to secure the promises made herein and in the Lease and Security Agreement delivered to the Construction Lender.”); see also Exhibit D, Pledge Agreement, at 1, § 1 (“As collateral security for the Borrowers’ obligations under the Lease, the Security Agreement, the Loan, and the Development Agreement the Assignor hereby pledges and assigns and grants a first and superior security interest in and to all of his rights, title and interest as a member in the Company (the ‘Collateral’).”)<sup>2</sup>

32. Section 13 of the Pledge Agreement provides that if Jozefovic violates the terms of the Pledge Agreement with respect to the Waterview JPM Account, WPH Properties “shall have”

[t]he right to sell the Collateral in the State of New York at one or more public or private sales at such price and on such terms as Assignee [WPH Properties] in its discretion accepts, for cash, upon or for future delivery. Upon any such sale, the Assignee shall have the right to assign, transfer and deliver to the purchaser or purchasers thereof the Collateral.

Exhibit D, Pledge Agreement, § 13.

E. The balancing of the equities weighs heavily in favor of WPH Properties.

33. The equities here weigh heavily in WPH Properties favor. It will suffer substantial harm if the injunction is granted. As a result of Jozefovic’s breach of the Pledge Agreement and FIBL’s breach of the lease, WPH Properties is the landlord of a $65 million building occupied by a tenant who has never paid the security deposit required by the Lease, HBL is therefore in a position where it knows that it can default at will because it has no security deposit at stake.

34. Jozefovic agreed that if he defaulted under the Pledge Agreement or HBL defaulted under the Lease by failing to deposit the $1.6 million before taking occupancy he would forfeit the Waterview Membership Interest. Jozefovic and HBL defaulted. The consequence of that default is the forfeit of the Waterview Membership Interest. A UCC sale of the Waterview Membership Interest is the express contractual remedy provided for in the Pledge Agreement as a result of Jozefovic's breaches of the obligations under the Pledge Agreement the breaches of the Lease. There is no reason Jozefovic should not be held to the agreement that he made.

35. The defaults by HBL and Jozefovic have not just caused harm to WPH Properties in on their own, but they have had a cascading effect, causing WPH Properties to default under a Construction Loan Agreement, Note and Mortgage given to its construction lender, Security Benefit Life Insurance Company ("Security Benefit"), which financed the construction of the Facility. Copies of the Construction Loan Agreement, Note and Mortgage are attached as exhibits G, H and I, respectively. Under the circumstances, enjoining WPH Properties from exercising its contractual and statutory remedies for Jozefovic's default would result in significant prejudice and harm.

36. In particular, WPH Properties has not been able to obtain permanent financing because HBL has been in default since it took occupancy. In order to obtain permanent financing for a commercial rental building, the owner must be able to represent to the lender that the tenant is not in default. WPH Properties has never been able to make that representation solely because HBL has been consistently in default. As a result, although WPH Properties has been paying the interest on Security Benefit's construction loan, it has not been able to obtain the permanent financing necessary to pay the loan off.

37. On April 16, 2020, Security Benefit issued a notice of default to WPH Properties stating that WPH Properties was in default under the Construction Loan Agreement, subjecting WPH Properties to increased interest rates, late charges and other penalties provided in the Construction Loan Agreement. A copy of the April 16, 2020 notice of default is attached as exhibit J.

38. On May 22, 2020, Security Benefit issued another notice of default to WPH Properties stating that WPH Properties failed to make the monthly payment due under the Note and under § 2.12 of the Construction Loan Agreement on May 1, 2020 and reminding WPH Properties of the maturity date of the loan, August 1, 2020. A copy of the May 22, 2020 notice of default is attached as exhibit K.

39. The Lease requires HBL to cooperate in WPH Properties' efforts to refinance the Mortgage. Lease, §7.8. As a direct result of HBL's defaults under the Lease, however, WPH Properties was unable to refinance the Mortgage securing the construction loan prior to maturity. HBL's defaults under the Lease made it impossible to refinance the Mortgage because any new lender would have required proof that the Lease (which would provide the necessary funding in the form of rents to pay debt service on the new mortgage loan) was not in default. Due to HBL's defaults, it was therefore impossible for WPH Properties to provide any prospective new lender an estoppel certificate or other evidence certifying that the Lease was not in default. As a result, the construction loan has now matured and is in default, placing the ongoing operations of the Facility and WPH Properties at imminent risk of foreclosure by Security Benefit.

40. On May 1, 2021, Security Benefit commenced an action to foreclose the Mortgage based upon the failure to pay all amounts due under the Note on its maturity date. Security Benefit

Life Insurance Company v. White Plains Healthcare Properties I, LLC, et al (Supreme Court, Westchester County, Index. No. 55883/2021) (the "Foreclosure Action"). A true and correct copy of the complaint in the Foreclosure Action is attached as exhibit L.

41. Security Benefit withdrew the Foreclosure Action without prejudice to renew upon expiration of the moratorium on commercial foreclosure proceedings in New York State enacted by the "Covid-19 Protect Our Small Businesses Act of 2021," as amended, which is currently set to expire on August 31, 2021. Thus, upon expiration of the statutory foreclosure prohibition on August 31, 2021, Security Benefit will almost certainly recommence the Foreclosure Action.

42. Jozefovic's claims of defaults on the part of WPH Properties are baseless. To begin with, they have been released. The Lease provides, in 2017, that HBL, its officers, agents and anyone acting on its behalf release WPH Properties from "ALL CLAIMS . . . ARISING FROM OR RELATED TO ANY MATTER OR THING RELATED TO OR IN CONNECTION WITH THE LEASED PREMISES." Exhibit C, Lease, § 5.6(b) (emphasis in original). And in 2019, the Letter of Intent provided:

Except as set forth herein above, the Tenant waives any and all claims against the Landlord it has or every may have had for the following: (1) any claims by the Tenant that the Landlord is or ever was required to deliver a mortgage of any particular amount, terms, amortization or interest rate, for Medicaid rate setting or any other purposes (2) any claims for Punchlist or uncompleted Work, except for the Remaining Punchlist and the Suspended Work defined herein above, and the Warranties and Guarantees set forth in the Lease, (3) any claims related to the Cost Certification, except the Landlord shall complete the Final Cost Certification in the usual and ordinary course, upon the receipt of the Initial Payment, the Rent having been brought and remaining current, and all other obligations of the Tenant are paid as set forth herein above.

Exhibit W, Letter of Intent, ¶ 8.

43. But even if these claims had not been waived or released, they have no basis in fact.

44. Jozefovic's claim that construction was delayed until 2017 because of delays on the part of WPH Properties is completely false and belied by the documentary evidence. Construction could not begin until HBL had obtained all of the approvals necessary from the New York State Department of Health. That was delayed by HBL's failure to obtain the necessary working capital and by the bankruptcy of Hebrew Hospital, one of the members of HBL. As Jozefovic's attorney, Mark Zafrin, admitted in an email dated April 11, 2017 to Linda Whitehead, Hebrew Hospital's counsel: "Linda. Your bankruptcy was a large impediment to our financing package that is an immutable fact. I don't want to argue about it. Mr Nicholson will have to provide you with all of the details as to his next steps to finish the financing." Exhibit M. The chronology is as follows.

45. WPH Properties and HBL entered into the initial lease on November 19, 2015. Hebrew Hospital filed for bankruptcy on December 9, 2015. A copy of the filing is attached as Exhibit N. On April 18, 2016, the New York State Department of Health advised HBL's consultant, Pinnacle Health Consultants, that it considered HBL's application for a certificate of need to be abandoned. A copy of that letter is attached as Exhibit O. Pinnacle responded by letter dated May 24, 2016 that the operating agreement has been delayed by the need for the Bankruptcy Court to approve HBL's operating agreement. A copy of that letter is attached as Exhibit P (Page 5, Response 14). By letter dated July 20, 2016, Pinnacle advised the Department of Health that its application continued to be delayed by the Bankruptcy Court and, further, that HBL did not yet have the operating capital that was required. A copy of that letter is attached as Exhibit Q. By email dated October 11, 2016, I advised Jozefovic, his lawyer and consultants that without the operating agreement and the approval of the Department of Health, WPH Properties could not close on its construction financing. A copy of that email is attached as Exhibit R. The Bankruptcy Court finally approved the operating agreement on November 23, 2016; the operating agreement was not signed until February 1, 2017. Exhibits S and T, respectively. The Department of Health did not finally approve the project until July 26, 2017. A copy of the letter of that date to Pinnacle is attached as Exhibit U. WPH Properties closed its construction loan three weeks later, on August 18, 2017, and the building was completed on September 30, 2019.

46. Jozefovic's claim that WPH Properties failed to construct the building within the approved budget of $57 million is also completely false. Jozefovic Affirmation, ¶ 51. HBL "acknowledge[d] and agree[d]" in the Development Agreement that "the actual total cost of the Project ("Project Cost") as of the date hereof [November 20, 2015] is approximately $60.0 million, is not possible to exactly ascertain as of the date of this Agreement due to circumstances beyond the control of all parties to this Agreement and is projected to be greater than the Approved Project Cost." Development Agreement, Article IV(A). A true and correct copy of the Development Agreement is annexed as Exhibit V. In fact, HBL was responsible for all of the approvals required from the New York State Department of Health. Exhibit V, Development Agreement, Article II(C). HBL, not WPH Properties, was responsible to "file and diligently pursue with DOH all applications required to increase the Approved Project Cost such that it then equals the best estimate of the Project Cost." Exhibit V, Development Agreement, Article IV(A).

47. Also contrary to Jozefovic's affirmation, there is nothing in the Development Agreement or the Lease that obligates WPH Properties to obtain permanent financing. Jozefovic Affirmation, ¶ 55. In fact, in the Letter of Intent, HBL waived "any claims by the Tenant that the Landlord is or ever was required to deliver a mortgage of any particular amount, terms, amortization or interest rate, for Medicaid rate setting or any other purpose" and "any claims related to the Cost Certification." Exhibit W, Letter of Intent, ¶ 8.

48. But even if HBL had such a claim and had not waived it, the only reason WPH Properties has not permanently financed the project is that HBL has defaulted. As the Court is aware, the construction lender has commenced and withdrawn a foreclosure action. The defaults alleged in the foreclosure complaint are that WPH Properties did not satisfy the construction loan when it was due and has not paid the interest at the default rate since then (although WPH Properties has continued to pay interest at the non-default rate). WPH Properties would have been able to satisfy the construction loan on a timely basis by refinancing, however, if HBL had not defaulted under the lease. No lender will lend to a landlord where the tenant is in default. The failure to obtain permanent financing is, therefore, the fault of HBL, not WPH Properties.

49. The costs incurred by WPH Properties as a result of its inability to obtain permanent financing have not been passed along to HBL yet, as the defendants allege. First Amended Verified Answer, ¶ 92. HBL pays a fixed rent, not dependent on WPH Properties' costs. But those costs are part of WPH Properties' damages claim against HBL.

50. Likewise, the $2.2 million HBL paid pursuant to the Letter of Intent had nothing to do with the security deposit and additional security deposit at issue here. It was HBL's down payment for the purchase of the Facility. Exhibit W, Letter of Intent, § (1)(a)(i). HBL defaulted under the Letter of Intent, as well.

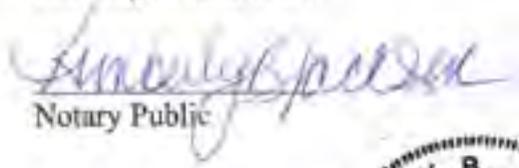

51. The failure and refusal of Jozefovic and HBL, which Jozefovic controls, to comply with their contractual obligations under the Pledge Agreement, the Lease and the guarantees have caused WPH Properties substantial prejudice and financial harm and placed its principal asset, the Facility, at serious imminent risk of foreclosure by Security Benefit, demonstrated beyond any doubt by Security Benefit commencing the Foreclosure Action, which it withdrew without prejudice to renew upon expiration of the New York State moratorium on commercial foreclosures. Enjoining WPH Properties from exercising their contractual and statutory remedies for these defaults would obviously cause it substantial, completely unwarranted harm.

52. On the other hand, the only consequences Jozefovic would suffer as a result of the UCC sale is the loss of his Waterview Membership Interest, which is precisely what he bargained for in the event he defaulted on his obligations under the Pledge Agreement and the Lease.

LEASED PREMISES

Section 2.1 Leased Premises. Landlord hereby leases and demises to Tenant, and Tenant hereby leases from Landlord, on the terms and conditions set forth in this Lease, the following assets:

(a) all of Landlord's right, title, and interest in and to the Real Property, including, without limitation, all buildings, structures, erections, improvements, appurtenances, easements and fixtures, including fixed machinery and fixed equipment situated thereon or forming a part thereof; and

(b) all of Landlord's right, title and interest in and to all machinery, trade equipment, trade fixtures, furniture, furnishings, beds, and accessories of all kinds used in connection with the Facility located on the Real Property.

All of the items described in Sections 2.1(a) and 2.1(b) herein are collectively referred to as the "Leased Premises." Landlord and Tenant acknowledge and understand that all of the items which comprise the Leased Premises, as repaired, rebuilt, replaced, restored, altered or added to as permitted or required by provisions of this Lease, shall be transferred back to Landlord in accordance with the terms and conditions set forth herein upon the expiration or earlier termination of this Lease.

Section 2.2 In connection with any assignment of Landlord's interest under this Lease and the assumption of this Lease by a new landlord, the original Landlord named herein, and each successor in interest, shall have the right to transfer all amounts deposited pursuant to Section 4.3 with respect to the Facility, less any amount used pursuant to Section 4.3, to such assignee (as the subsequent holder of Landlord's interest in this Lease) and upon such transfer, Landlord or the applicable successor in interest transferring the deposits shall thereupon be completely released from all liability with respect to such deposits so transferred and Tenant shall look solely to said assignee, as the subsequent holder of Landlord's interest under this Lease, in reference thereto. If Landlord's interest in the Leased Premises is sold or conveyed as provided above or otherwise or by operation of law: (i) at the new owner's option, Tenant shall affirm to and recognize the new owner as Tenant's Landlord under this Lease and Tenant shall take such actions to confirm the foregoing within ten (10) days after request.

TERM AND RENT

Section 3.1 Term of Lease.

(a) The term (the "Term") of this Lease shall be for a period of thirty (30) years commencing on the later to occur of (i) the date of issuance of a permanent or temporary Certificate of Occupancy for the Facility and (ii) the date that New York State Department of Health (hereinafter sometimes, "DOH") determines that the Landlord's Work is sufficiently complete as constructed (but not necessarily the Tenant's operations) to accept patients, provided, however, if the Landlord is unable to obtain a permanent or temporary Certificate of Occupancy because of the actions or inactions of the Tenant, its employees or agents including, but not limited to, a delay in obtaining the necessary DOH approvals then delivery of a permanent or temporary Certificate of Occupancy shall not be a condition under clause (i) (the "Commencement Date"), and ending at 11:59:59 P.M. on the day preceding the thirtieth (30th) anniversary of the Commencement Date (the "Expiration Date"). Under any and all circumstances, Landlord shall not be liable to Tenant, in damages or otherwise, for any delay in delivering the Leased Premises to Tenant and Tenant shall have no right to terminate or rescind this Lease on account thereof. Notwithstanding the Commencement Date, certain of the rights and obligations of the parties shall commence on the Effective Date, but not including Tenant's obligations to pay Fixed Rent and Impositions prior to the Commencement Date, or to maintain the Leased Premises, insure the Leased Premises or restore the Leased Premises after a casualty or condemnation prior to the Commencement Date, or any other rights and obligations, which by their terms are intended to commence as of the Commencement Date, which rights and obligations shall commence on the Commencement Date.

As used herein with respect to the Term and the periods for payment of Rent (unless the context otherwise requires) the term "Lease Year" shall mean a 365 day period (or 366 day period in the case of a leap year), first commencing on the Commencement Date and thereafter on successive anniversaries thereof, and ending on the day prior to the next succeeding anniversary of the Commencement Date.

Landlord and Tenant hereby acknowledge that the Commencement Date is presently indeterminate and shall occur only as hereinabove provided in this Section. Except for the rights of Tenant expressly stated herein, Tenant hereby waives any right to rescind this Lease under the provisions of Section 223-a of the Real Property Law of the State of New York, and agrees that the provisions of this Article are intended to constitute "an express provision to the contrary" within the meaning of said Section 223-a. Landlord and Tenant shall execute a memo specifying the Commencement Date immediately following its occurrence.

(b) Provided a Lease Default has not occurred and is then continuing either at the time of the exercise of the options provided below or at the end of the Term or Extension Term, or there has not been any Lease Default listed in Schedule 3.1 attached hereto (a "Material Default"), whether or not cured, within two years of the end of the Term or Extension Term, Tenant shall have the option to extend the Term of this Lease for three (3) additional periods of ten (10) years each (each an "Extension Term"), by giving written notice to Landlord not less than five forty-five (545) days nor more than seven hundred (700) days prior to the expiration of the Term (or Extension Term as the case may be) of this Lease, TIME BEING OF THE ESSENCE to these time periods. These options may be exercised by Tenant serving written notice upon Landlord stating that Tenant is exercising the option to extend. If Tenant fails to give such notice in writing to Landlord within the time period specified herein, all rights and privileges granted to Tenant to extend this Lease shall lapse and become null and void. No later option may be exercised if Tenant has failed to exercise a prior option. If Tenant has validly exercised its option(s) to extend the Term, references herein to the "Term" shall be deemed to include an Extension Term.

Section 3.2 Rent.

(a) Beginning in the first (1st) Lease Year of the Term and for each succeeding Lease Year thereafter, including during any and all Extension Terms, until the First Refinance Date, Tenant shall pay Landlord an annual amount of Six Million Seventy Three Thousand One Hundred Fifty Eight ($6,073,158) Dollars ("Fixed Rent") in monthly installments of $506,096.50.

(b) Tenant shall pay the Rent to Landlord during the term without deduction or setoff and without demand.

(c) The terms "Additional Rent" or "additional rent" means all sums, amounts, fees, expenses and costs (including, without limitation, legal fees and disbursements) payable or reimbursable to Landlord under this Lease other than Fixed Rent, and all of same shall be and constitute Additional Rent hereunder. The terms "Fixed Rent" and "Additional Rent" shall be collectively referred to as "Rent." Landlord shall have the same rights and remedies hereunder consequent upon a failure of Tenant to pay any item of Additional Rent as upon a failure of Tenant to pay any item of Fixed Rent.

(d) Rent shall be due and payable in advance in equal monthly installments during each year on the first (1st) day of each calendar month thereof (or in the event the first day of the calendar month is not a business day, on the first business day following the first day of each calendar month) throughout the Term. Rent for any period which is less than a full calendar month or full year, as the case may be, during the Term, shall be prorated on a daily basis. Rent shall not be paid more than one (1) month in advance. Rent shall be paid to Landlord at Landlord's address set forth in Section 1.1 or at such other place as Landlord designates from time to time by written notice to Tenant. Tenant agrees to pay Rent, at Landlord's direction, by electronic transfer or wire, as directed by Mortgagee in writing.

(e) TENANT HEREBY ACKNOWLEDGES THAT LATE PAYMENT BY TENANT TO LANDLORD OF RENT WILL CAUSE LANDLORD TO INCUR COSTS NOT CONTEMPLATED HEREUNDER, THE EXACT AMOUNT OF WHICH IS PRESENTLY ANTICIPATED TO BE EXTREMELY DIFFICULT TO ASCERTAIN. SUCH COSTS MAY INCLUDE PROCESSING AND ACCOUNTING CHARGES AND LATE CHARGES WHICH MAY BE IMPOSED ON LANDLORD BY THE TERMS OF ANY LOAN AGREEMENT AND OTHER EXPENSES OF A SIMILAR OR DISSIMILAR NATURE. ACCORDINGLY, IF ANY INSTALLMENT OF RENT THAT IS PAYABLE TO LANDLORD

OR ITS DESIGNEE SHALL NOT BE PAID WITHIN FIVE (5) DAYS OF THE DATE WHEN DUE, TENANT WILL PAY LANDLORD ON DEMAND A LATE CHARGE EQUAL TO FIVE PERCENT (5%) OF THE UNPAID PORTION OF THE AMOUNT OF SUCH INSTALLMENT. THE PARTIES AGREE THAT THIS LATE CHARGE REPRESENTS A FAIR AND REASONABLE ESTIMATE OF THE COSTS THAT LANDLORD WILL INCUR BY REASON OF LATE PAYMENT BY TENANT. THE PARTIES FURTHER AGREE THAT SUCH LATE CHARGE IS RENT AND NOT INTEREST AND SUCH ASSESSMENT DOES NOT CONSTITUTE A LENDER OR BORROWER/CREDITOR RELATIONSHIP BETWEEN LANDLORD AND TENANT. IN ADDITION, THE AMOUNT UNPAID, INCLUDING ANY LATE CHARGES, SHALL BEAR INTEREST AT THE OVERDUE RATE FROM THE DUE DATE OF SUCH INSTALLMENT TO THE DATE OF PAYMENT THEREOF, AND TENANT SHALL PAY SUCH INTEREST TO LANDLORD ON DEMAND. THE PAYMENT OF SUCH LATE CHARGE AND/OR SUCH INTEREST SHALL NOT CONSTITUTE A WAIVER OF, NOR EXCUSE OR CURE, ANY DEFAULT UNDER THIS LEASE, NOR PREVENT LANDLORD FROM EXERCISING ANY OTHER RIGHTS AND/OR REMEDIES AVAILABLE TO LANDLORD.

(j) If a default is declared by the Commissioner under the provisions of the Regulatory Agreement, provided a copy of Notice of Default is given to Tenant, Tenant shall thereafter make all future payments under this Lease to the Commissioner.

Section 3.3 Net Lease Provisions. Landlord and Tenant intend that the Rent herein specified shall be net to Landlord in each year during the Term, and that all costs, expenses and obligations of every kind and nature, (known or unknown, general or special, ordinary or extraordinary, foreseen or unforeseen, direct or indirect, contingent or otherwise) relating to the operation, repair and maintenance of the Leased Premises (except Landlord's income taxes) which may arise or become due during the Term shall be timely paid by Tenant and that Landlord shall be indemnified by Tenant against such costs, expenses and obligations. Tenant's obligation to pay Rent is independent of all, and is in no manner conditioned upon any, other covenants, conditions and obligations of Landlord or Tenant under this Lease. There shall be no abatement of Rent payments for any reason nor shall Tenant be entitled to any offsets or deductions from Rent payments due hereunder.

Section 3.4 Rent Tax. If any governmental taxing authority levies, assesses, or imposes any tax, sales or use tax, privilege tax, excise or assessment (other than income or franchise taxes) upon or against the Rent payable by Tenant to Landlord, either by way of substitution for or in addition to any existing tax on land and buildings or otherwise, then Tenant shall be responsible for and shall pay such tax, excise or assessment, or, if Landlord pays same, Tenant shall reimburse Landlord for the amount thereof within ten (10) days after written demand by Landlord.

It is the intent of this Section 3.4 and all other provisions of this Lease to insure that the Rent (including Additional Rent) paid to Landlord by Tenant will be received by Landlord without diminution by any tax, assessment, charge or levy of any nature whatsoever, except United States, State of New York and local net income taxes, and the terms and conditions of this Lease shall be liberally construed to effect such purpose. Without limiting the generality of the foregoing, if any tax is assessed or based on gross income actually or constructively received by Landlord pursuant to this Lease, Tenant shall pay such amount which, when added to said gross income, shall yield to Landlord, after deduction of all such tax payable by Landlord with respect thereto, a net amount equal to that which Landlord would have realized therefrom had no such tax been imposed.

Section 3.5 Assignment of Lease to Mortgagee. Tenant acknowledges that all of the interest of Landlord in and to this Lease has been or will be assigned to Mortgagee pursuant to the Loan Documents.

Tenant agrees to promptly execute and deliver to Landlord from time to time any and all documents required by a Mortgagee, Prospective Mortgagee, HUD and/or HUD's Approved Lender, or any successor, commercial, agency or private lender, including, without limitation, a lease addendum, regulatory agreement, subordination agreement, non-disturbance and attornment agreement, and/or estoppel certificate, in order to finance or refinance the Facility or otherwise.

Tenant will on request at any time or from time to time by Landlord or any Mortgagee or Prospective Mortgagee subordinate this lease and all of Tenant's rights and estate hereunder to such Person's Mortgage and to any renewals, extensions, substitutions, refinancings, modifications or amendments thereof, or declare such Mortgage to be prior to this lease and to any renewals, extensions, substitutions, refinancings, modifications or amendments thereof, and agree with such holder that Tenant will atom thereto in the event of foreclosure. Landlord agrees to use reasonable efforts (except that Landlord shall not be obligated to expend money for any such agreement) to obtain a written agreement from any such holder in the form typically used by such holder which consents to this lease and provides that, notwithstanding such mortgage or any default, expiration, termination, foreclosure, sale, entry or other act or omission under, pursuant to or affecting said Mortgage, Tenant shall not be disturbed in peaceful enjoyment of the Leased Premises or this lease terminated or canceled at any time, except in the event Landlord shall have the right to terminate this lease under the terms and provisions set forth herein.

Section 3.6 True Lease. It is the intent of Landlord and Tenant and the parties agree that this Lease is a true lease and that this Lease does not represent a financing agreement. Each party shall reflect the transaction represented hereby in all applicable books, records and reports (including income tax filings) in a manner consistent with "true lease" treatment rather than "financing" treatment.

Section 3.7 Right of First Refusal: Buyout. (a) Landlord shall not sell, transfer or convey the Leased Premises to a third person or entity unless Tenant first is given the opportunity to purchase the Leased Premises pursuant to the terms and conditions set forth in this Section 3.7(a). If at any time during the first eleven years of Term Landlord receives from any third person or entity an Offer (as hereinafter defined) to purchase the Leased Premises which Landlord desires to accept, Landlord shall notify Tenant of such Offer by delivering written notice to Tenant, which notification (the "Offer Notice") shall contain a copy of the written Offer or, at Landlord's election, a written summary of the terms of the Offer. For purposes of this Lease, an "Offer" shall mean any bona fide written instrument or verbal communication setting forth the terms pursuant to which Landlord will convey the Leased Premises. Tenant shall have ten (10) Business Days after receipt of the Offer Notice in which to elect by written notice delivered to Landlord (the "Acceptance Notice") to enter into a formal agreement on the same terms and conditions as those contained in the Offer ("Tenant's Purchase Right"). Such election shall be effective only if within ten (10) Business Days after delivery of the Acceptance Notice the parties enter into a written purchase agreement on terms reasonably acceptable to Landlord in good faith for the sale of the Leased Premises to Tenant containing all terms of the Offer. If Tenant fails to timely deliver the Acceptance Notice, or if Tenant fails to timely enter into said purchase agreement as provided herein, Landlord shall have the right to accept the Offer or any modification thereof on terms substantially similar as those set forth in the Offer. Tenant's right to purchase the Leased Premises identified in the Offer Notice shall not apply to (i) transfers of less than one hundred percent of the ownership interests in Landlord, (ii) a public offering of ownership interests in Landlord, (iii) a recapitalization transaction of any kind involving Landlord, (iv) condemnation, eminent domain or similar proceedings, or (v), rights exercised by Mortgagees in foreclosure or in lieu thereof pursuant to Mortgages or other documents executed by Landlord in connection therewith, including the subsequent disposition of the Premises by Mortgagee or its affiliate or designee that acquires the Leased Premises in connection therewith.

(b) Notwithstanding anything to the contrary, if Landlord's Offer Notice states that it is purchasing from Tenant Tenant's Purchase Right, then (i) Tenant shall have no further rights under Section 3.7(a), and Section 3.7(a) shall be null and void without further effect, and (ii) upon the closing of the purchase and sale of the Leased Premises pursuant to the Offer, Landlord shall pay Tenant ten percent (10%) of the excess of the sales price agreed to pursuant to the Offer (less costs and fees, including broker's fees) over the TPC, the "Offer Fee", and (iii) the Rent shall be the greater of the amount as determined by Section 3.2(a) or fair market value, as shall be determined by an independent third party appraiser jointly appointed by Landlord or and Tenant, and absent their agreement appointed by the then chairman or similar officer of the Westchester County Society of Real Estate Appraisers. For purposes of clarification, Tenant shall not be entitled to the receipt of the Offer Fee if Tenant exercises Tenant's Purchase Right as set forth in Section 3.7(a) above.

(c) Upon expiration of the eleventh Lease Year, Tenant's Right of First Refusal as set forth in in Section 3.7(a) shall lapse and become null and void.

Section 3.8. Option to Purchase. Commencing on the latter of (i) the first day after the Commencement Date and (ii) 24 months from the date of the closing of the Original Mortgage, and ending on the last day of the fifteenth Lease Year of the Lease, Tenant shall have the option to purchase the Leased Premises from Landlord for a purchase price of $65,055,000 by giving written notice of its exercise of the Option to Purchase including a proposed closing date, provided if Tenant does not exercise the Option to Purchase prior to receiving an Offer Notice pursuant to Section 3.7, Tenant's Option to Purchase under this Section 3.8 shall lapse unless and until the conveyance of the Leased Premises contemplated under Section 3.7 does not occur. Upon expiration of the fifteenth Lease Year, Tenant's the right to purchase the Leased Premises from Landlord, all as set forth above, shall lapse, become null and void, and Tenant shall have deemed to waived all such rights hereunder.

ARTICLE IV

UTILITIES AND TAXES

Section 4.1 Utilities. From and after the Commencement Date, Tenant shall pay or cause to be paid all charges next coming due and payable for electricity, steam, telephone, cable, gas, oil, water, sewer and all other services or utilities used on or related to the Leased Premises (the "Utilities") during the Term. Tenant covenants to place all Utilities in Tenant's name as of the Commencement Date. Adjustment shall be made for Utilities applicable to any period prior to the Commencement Date. In the event Landlord is billed directly by any service provider or utility company for any Utilities or services supplied to Tenant during the Term, Landlord shall send Tenant the bill and Tenant shall promptly pay the same. Landlord shall have no obligation or liability with respect to any interruption or failure in the supply of any such Utilities. If Landlord elects to or shall be required to pay for any Utilities to preserve and/or protect the Leased Premises, Tenant shall reimburse Landlord for the cost and expense thereof plus interest at the Prime Rate.

Section 4.2 Taxes. Tenant shall be solely responsible for the payment, prior to the date when penalties would attach, of all general and special real estate taxes and assessments (together with any excise taxes on such real estate taxes and assessments levied or imposed by any governmental taxing authority), fire district taxes, liens, impositions, including capital stock, franchise, ad valorem, sales, use, single business, gross receipts, transaction privilege, rent or similar taxes; personal property taxes, assessments including assessments for public improvements or benefits, whether or not commenced or completed prior to the date hereof and whether or not to be completed within the Term; ground rents; water, sewer and other utility levies and charges; excise tax levies; fees including license, permit, inspection, authorization and similar fees; and all other governmental charges, in each case whether general or special, ordinary or extraordinary, or foreseen or unforeseen, of every character in respect of the Leased Premises, and all interest and penalties thereon attributable to any failure in payment by Lessee which at any time prior to, during or in respect of the Term hereof may be assessed or imposed on or in respect of or be a lien upon the Leased Premises (collectively, the "Impositions") that accrue from the Commencement Date through the Term. Adjustment shall be made for Impositions applicable to any period prior to the Commencement Date. Tenant shall pay all of the Impositions directly to the applicable taxing authorities and Tenant shall promptly forward proof of payment to Landlord in such form as shall be reasonably acceptable to Landlord unless Landlord elects to require escrow deposits in accordance with Section 4.3 hereof. Landlord shall promptly forward any tax bills which it may receive to Tenant. Landlord shall only bill Tenant for any of the Impositions if Tenant does not pay any of the Impositions before delinquency and Landlord is obligated or elects (in Landlord's sole and absolute discretion) to pay any of the Impositions directly to remain current with all taxing authorities. Tenant shall pay the full amount of any increases in any of the Impositions resulting from alterations or improvements made by or for the benefit of Tenant. After the expiration or termination of this Lease, Tenant shall pay all bills for any of the Impositions which become due and payable after the expiration or termination of the Lease covering any period through the expiration or earlier termination of the Lease. If any governmental taxing authority acting under any present or future ordinance or regulation, shall levy, assess or impose a tax, excise and/or assessment (other than any net income or franchise tax) upon Landlord or Tenant for rental payable by Tenant to Landlord, either by way of substitution for or in addition to any existing tax on land, buildings or otherwise, then Tenant shall be responsible for and shall pay such tax, excise and/or assessment or shall reimburse Landlord for the cost and expense thereof, as the case may be. Provided that Tenant shall have deposited a sufficient amount of funds to pay the Impositions pursuant to Section 4.3 and Tenant has done nothing to prevent payment by Landlord or its lender of the Impositions, then Tenant shall not be responsible for any and all late payment fees and/or penalties, including interest, imposed by any applicable taxing authorities with respect to the untimely payment of Impositions.

Section 4.3 Escrow Deposits

(a) Escrow. At the option of Landlord, which may be exercised at any time by Landlord in its sole and absolute discretion Tenant shall, on the first day of the first calendar month commencing after notice from Landlord, and on the first day of each calendar month thereafter during the Term (each of which dates is referred to as a "Monthly Deposit Date"), pay to and deposit with Landlord a sum equal to one-twelfth (1/12th) of the Impositions to be levied, charged, filed, assessed or imposed upon or against the Leased Premises within one (1) year after said Monthly Deposit Date and a sum equal to one-twelfth (1/12th) of the premiums for the property insurance policies required pursuant to Article VI which are payable within one (1) year after said Monthly Deposit Date. If the amount of the Impositions to be levied, charged, assessed or imposed or insurance premiums to be paid within the ensuing one (1) year period shall not be fixed upon any Monthly Deposit Date, such amount for the purpose of computing the deposit to be made by Tenant hereunder shall be reasonably estimated by Landlord with an appropriate adjustment to be promptly made between Landlord and Tenant as soon as such amount becomes determinable. In addition, Landlord may, at its option, from time to time require that any particular deposit be greater than one-twelfth (1/12th) of the estimated amount payable within one (1) year after said Monthly Deposit Date, if such additional deposit is required in order to provide to Landlord sufficient funds from which to make payment of all Impositions on or before the next due date of any installment thereof, or to make payment of any required insurance premiums not later than the due date thereof. If any Mortgagee or the Commissioner requires Landlord to impound insurance premiums on a periodic basis during the term, Tenant, on notice from Landlord indicating this requirement, shall pay a sum of money towards its liability under this Lease to Landlord on a periodic basis in accordance with Landlord's requirements. Landlord shall impound the premium payments received from Tenant in accordance with the requirements of Mortgagee and shall utilize such funds to timely pay insurance premiums.

(b) Use of Deposits. The sums deposited by Tenant under this Section 4.3 shall be held by Landlord or Mortgagee and shall be applied in payment of the Impositions or insurance premiums, as the case may be, when due. Any such deposits may be commingled with other assets of Landlord or such Mortgagee, and shall be deposited by Landlord or such Mortgagee in an Eligible Institution in such account or accounts as Landlord or the Mortgagee may, from time to time select, and Landlord shall not be liable to Tenant or any other person (i) based on Landlord's or the Mortgagee's (or any bank's) choice of investment vehicles, (ii) for any consequent loss of principal or interest or (iii) for any unavailability of funds based on such choice of investment. Furthermore, subject to the foregoing regarding the use of depositories and accounts, Landlord and its Mortgagee shall bear no responsibility for the financial condition of, nor any act or omission by the depository bank. No income, if any, from such investment or interest on such deposits shall be paid to Tenant. To the extent that Landlord does not have an invoice or bill specifying the due date for payment, Tenant shall give not less than thirty (30) days prior written notice to Landlord in each instance when an Imposition or insurance premium is due, specifying the Imposition or premium to be paid and the amount thereof, the place of payment, and the last day on which the same may be paid in order to comply with the requirements of this Lease. If Landlord, in violation of its obligations under this Lease, does not pay any Imposition or insurance premium when due, for which a sufficient deposit exists, Tenant shall not be in default hereunder by virtue of the failure to pay such Imposition or such insurance premium and Tenant shall not be liable for any late payment fees and/or penalties, including interest imposed as a result of such failure to pay. The term "Eligible Institution" shall mean a depository institution or trust company, the short term unsecured debt obligations or commercial paper of which are rated at least "A-1+" by S&P, "P-1" by Moody's and "F-1+" by Fitch in the case of accounts in which funds are held for thirty (30) days or less (or, in the case of accounts in which funds are held for more than thirty (30) days, the long term unsecured debt obligations of which are rated at least "AA" by Fitch and S&P and "Aa2" by Moody's).

(c) Deficits. If for any reason any deposit made by Tenant or held by Landlord under this Section 4.3 shall not be sufficient to pay any Imposition or insurance premium within the time specified therefor in this Lease, then, within ten (10) days after demand by Landlord, Tenant shall deposit an additional amount with Landlord, increasing the deposit held by Landlord so that Landlord holds sufficient funds to pay such Imposition or premium in full (or in installments as otherwise provided for herein), together with any penalty or interest thereon. Landlord may change its estimate of any Imposition or insurance premium for any period on the basis of a change in an assessment or tax rate or on the basis of a prior miscalculation or for any other good faith reason; in which event, within ten (10) days after demand by Landlord, Tenant shall deposit with Landlord the amount in excess of the sums previously deposited with Landlord for the applicable period which would theretofore have been payable under the revised estimate.

(d) Transfers. Consistent with Section 2.2, in connection with any assignment of Landlord's interest under this Lease and the assumption of this Lease by a new landlord, the original Landlord named herein and each successor in interest shall have the right to transfer all amounts deposited pursuant to the provisions of this Section 4.3 and not used pursuant to this Section 4.3 to such assignee (as the subsequent holder of Landlord's interest in this Lease) and upon such transfer, the original Landlord named herein or the applicable successor in interest transferring the deposits shall thereupon be completely released from all liability with respect to such deposits so transferred and Tenant shall look solely to said assignee, as the subsequent holder of Landlord's interest under this Lease, in reference thereto.

(e) Security. All amounts deposited with Landlord pursuant to the provisions of this Section 4.3 shall be held by Landlord as additional security for the payment and performance of Tenant's obligations under this Lease and, upon the occurrence and during the continuance of any Lease Default, Landlord may, in its sole and absolute discretion, apply such amounts towards payment or performance of such obligations.

(f) Return. Upon the expiration or earlier termination of this Lease, as long as all of the Rent and any and all other obligations due under this Lease have been fully paid and performed, any sums then held by Landlord under this Section 4.3 shall be refunded to Tenant.

and subject to the rights of a Mortgagee, together with all interest, if any, earned thereon and all income, if any, earned therefrom; provided, however, that if a Lease Default has occurred and is continuing, all of such sums may be applied by Landlord towards any amounts owed to Landlord pursuant to this Lease.

(g) Receipts. Tenant shall deliver to Landlord copies of all claims and bills in relation to the Impositions and insurance premiums promptly upon receipt thereof by Tenant.

This Article and the obligations herein shall survive expiration or earlier termination of this Lease.

LANDLORD'S WORK, MAINTENANCE AND REPAIR; IMPROVEMENTS

Section 5.1 Landlord's Work. (a) Landlord shall cause the Facility to be constructed ("Landlord's Work").

(b) Landlord will give Tenant thirty (30) days' notice of the date Landlord expects to be the Substantial Completion Date. On or prior to the Substantial Completion Date, Landlord and Tenant shall jointly prepare a list of the items for the Facility that remain to be completed or corrected, set a dollar value for the cost to complete the work, and fix time for their completion or correction (collectively the "Punchlist").

(c) Notwithstanding anything in this lease to the contrary, on and after the Substantial Completion Date Tenant shall be deemed to have agreed Landlord has completed Landlord's Work to Tenant's complete satisfaction, except for (i) the Punchlist, (ii) such items of decoration or mechanical adjustment of which Tenant gives Landlord written notice within thirty (30) days after the Substantial Completion Date (the "Initial Correction Items") or (iii) any defects in the Facility which were not known or reasonably discoverable by Tenant in the time period specified in the immediately prior clause (ii) ("Latent Defects"); provided that, as to Latent Defects, Landlord will have no responsibility or liability therefor, or for the correction thereof, unless (A) Tenant conducts at least one inspection of the Facility with a qualified engineer or other expert, within one year from the Substantial Completion Date, and (B) Tenant gives Landlord notice of such Latent Defects within thirty( 30) days after discovery thereof and in any event not later than one year after the Substantial Completion Date, which notice will be accompanied by the certification of such engineer or other experts, specifying, in detail, such Latent Defects in the Facility.

(d) At its sole expense, Landlord shall complete the Punchlist, and remedy the Initial Correction Items, and the Latent Defects provided with respect to Latent Defects that the conditions set out in clause (iii) of section (c) are satisfied.

(e) To the extent assignable at no cost to Landlord, Landlord assigns to Tenant all manufacturer warranties on materials and equipment. Tenant shall have the benefit and right to enforce such warranties at its sole cost and expense.

Section 5.2 Maintenance and Repair. Except as provided in Section 5.1, Tenant, at Tenant's sole cost and expense, shall keep the Leased Premises, including all buildings, fixtures, trade equipment, trade fixtures, furniture, beds and other personal property leased to Tenant pursuant to this Lease, including, without limitation, all structural and non-structural components, the roof, foundation, all outer walls, plumbing, sprinklers, electrical, mechanical, heating, ventilation, utility service, air conditioning, vertical transport, telephone, communications, cable, computer, fire-life-safety, nursing call, and all other systems of the Leased Premises in good condition and repair and in compliance with all Laws. Landlord shall not be responsible to make any improvements, repairs, maintenance or replacements whether occasioned by the act, omission, active negligence, or passive negligence of Landlord or Tenant and/or its agents, employees, invitees or licensees or otherwise, and Tenant shall pay for all improvements, repairs, replacements, maintenance and expenditures relating to the Leased Premises, whether interior or exterior, structural or non-structural, ordinary or extraordinary, foreseen or unforeseen or arising by reason of a condition existing prior to the commencement of the Lease, by Tenant's use or by a change in applicable Laws. The Leased Premises and its appurtenances shall at all times be kept clean, safe and sanitary and in good order, condition, replacement and repair by Tenant, at Tenant's sole cost and expense, except for ordinary wear and tear (provided, however, that, without limiting the generality of this Section 5.2, Tenant shall be obligated to replace any portion of the Leased Premises upon any obsolescence thereof or if proper repair is impractical). Tenant shall provide (if not currently a part of the Leased Premises) and maintain, repair and replace, as necessary, all furniture, fixtures, equipment and/or other personal property required by any Governmental Authority (other than furniture, fixtures, equipment and/or other personal property owned by contractors providing ancillary services at the Facility) necessary for the operation of the Facility and to comply with all Laws. All such property provided by Tenant shall immediately become the property of Landlord and Tenant shall execute such documentation as Landlord may reasonably require vesting title in such property in Landlord. Landlord shall have no liability or obligation with respect to such property or any of Tenant's operations relating thereto. All replacements made by Tenant hereunder shall be made in a good and workmanlike manner in accordance with Laws using the same, similar or better quality of materials as being replaced and shall immediately become the property of Landlord. Tenant acknowledges that title and ownership of all repaired and replaced furniture, fixtures, equipment and/or other personal property made hereunder shall belong to and is for the benefit of Landlord. Tenant shall not enter into any equipment leases or conditional sales contracts for any furniture, fixtures, equipment and/or other personal property relating to the Facility without Landlord's consent which it may grant or withhold in its sole discretion. The term "Laws" means, all federal, state, county, municipal and other governmental statutes, laws, rules, orders, regulations, ordinances, judgments, decrees and injunctions of Governmental Authorities affecting any Leased Premises or any part thereof, or the construction, use, alteration or operation thereof, or any part thereof, whether now or hereafter enacted and in force, and all permits, licenses and authorizations and regulations relating thereto, and all covenants, agreements, restrictions and encumbrances contained in any instruments, either of record or known to Tenant, at any time in force affecting the Leased Premises or any part thereof. The term "Governmental Authority" means any court, board, agency, arbitrator, commission, office or other authority of any nature whatsoever for any governmental unit (foreign, federal, state, county, district, municipal, city or otherwise) whether now or hereafter in existence.

Section 5.3 Improvements, Renovation, Alterations and Additions. Tenant shall have the right during the Term to make such non-structural interior alterations, changes and improvements to the Leased Premises as may be proper and necessary for the conduct of Tenant's business, to cause the Leased Premises to conform to all Laws, for patient comfort and safety, or for the full beneficial use of the Leased Premises, so long as such improvements do not (i) exceed Three Hundred Fifty Thousand Dollars ($350,000.00) in any given calendar year, (ii) interfere with any of the purposes for which the Facility was leased or affect the roof or structure, (iii) decrease the value of the Leased Premises, (iv) affect any building system, including, heating, ventilation, air conditioning, mechanical, electrical, plumbing or vertical transport systems, or (v) affect the exterior appearance of the Leased Premises. Tenant shall not make any other alterations, changes, or improvements without the express written approval in each instance by Landlord, which consent shall not be unreasonably withheld; provided, however, that the granting or withholding of consent shall not result in any liability to Landlord. Furthermore, Tenant may make all repairs or replacements required by a Governmental Authority without obtaining Landlord's consent, provided, however, Tenant shall give Landlord no less than ten (10) days prior written notice of such government mandated repairs or replacements prior to making or implementing same, unless emergency factors necessitate the making of such repairs before Tenant can reasonable give notice to Landlord, in which event Tenant shall give notice to Landlord as soon as reasonably possible. Tenant shall pay for all costs, fees and penalties imposed by the applicable state agencies or the Center for Medicare and Medicaid Services ("CMS") or other Governmental Authority in connection with any survey or the Change of Ownership. Tenant shall notify Landlord of any alterations, changes or improvements required and/or permitted by the applicable state agencies or the CMS or other Governmental Authority prior to the commencement thereof. Tenant shall pay all costs and expenses of any required and/or permitted alterations, changes, and improvements, shall make the same in a good and workmanlike manner, and in accordance with all Laws, having obtained all necessary permits and approvals from Governmental Authorities having jurisdiction over the Facility and work performed thereon or therein, and shall assure Landlord, in form reasonably satisfactory to Landlord, all necessary permits and authorizations have been received and that payment for the work and materials will be made by Tenant. Tenant hereby completely and fully indemnifies Landlord against any mechanic's liens or other liens or claims in connection with the making of any alterations, changes, and/or improvements. Any liens arising out of any required and/or permitted alterations, changes, and/or improvements shall be discharged of record by Tenant within the earlier of thirty (30) days after the same have been filed by payment, bonding or otherwise, as permitted by law, or five (5) days after commencement of a foreclosure or enforcement action. Notwithstanding any provision of this Lease to the contrary, Tenant shall not undertake any alterations, renovations, or improvements to the Facility or otherwise commence any project or activity with respect to the Facility, which may result in any bed being taken out of service for more than seven (7) days without Landlord's and/or Mortgagee's prior written consent, which Landlord's consent shall not be unreasonably withheld. Tenant shall give Landlord written notice ten (10) days prior to commencing repairs, construction, or alterations whose costs exceed One Hundred Thousand Dollars ($100,000.00).

Section 5.4 Signage. All signs installed by Tenant at the Facility shall comply with all Laws, and all necessary permits or licenses shall be obtained by Tenant. Tenant shall maintain all signs in good condition and repair, and/or replace as may be required by applicable law, at all times at Tenant's sole cost and expense. Upon vacating the Leased Premises, Tenant shall remove all signs and supporting material or installations so installed by Tenant, but only if Landlord shall request such removal, and Tenant shall repair all damage caused by such removal. Landlord acknowledges and agrees that neither Landlord nor any subsequent tenant of Landlord shall be authorized to use any company or registered trade name of Tenant or any of Tenant's affiliates or subtenants.

Section 5.5 Surrender. (a) Subject to applicable law and to receipt of any necessary DOH approval, Tenant shall deliver up and surrender to Landlord possession of the Leased Premises and all improvements and replacements thereof, including all of Tenant's alterations, improvements work (and all replacements thereof) and all fixtures permanently attached to the Leased Premises by Tenant during the Term, upon the expiration of this Lease or its termination in any manner whatsoever, in as good condition and repair and in substantially similar form, character and manner as the same shall be on the Commencement Date, reasonable wear and tear excepted (without compensation to Tenant), with permitted changes, improvements and additions made during the Term as authorized herein, subject to no liens, encumbrances, charges, restrictions, conditions, limitations or claims whatsoever to the extent not encumbering the Leased Premises as of the Commencement Date, and deliver the keys and/or operational security cards to the Leased Premises to Landlord or Landlord's designated agent.

(b) Licenses and Transfer of Operations. Upon the expiration of the Term or earlier termination of the Lease, Tenant shall and shall cause its subtenants to, (i) transfer to Landlord or Landlord's nominee a fully operational, licensed and certified, and staffed facility and shall cooperate with Landlord or Landlord's designee or nominee in connection with the processing by Landlord or Landlord's designee or nominee of any applications for all licenses, operating permits and other governmental authorization, all contracts, including contracts with all Governmental Authorities or quasi governmental entities (provided that except following a Lease Default, the reasonable costs and expenses of the processing of any such application shall be paid by Landlord or Landlord's designee or nominee), (ii) transfer to Landlord or Landlord's nominee all tangible personal property of Tenant, including financial and accounting records, business records, data, employee and/or personnel records, patient and resident records, and all records held in electronic form, (all subject to the Laws requiring confidentiality), all equipment and small ware and all inventory used in connection with the Facility, (iii) transfer to Landlord or Landlord's nominee all intangible property except accounts receivable of Tenant, and (iv) transfer to Landlord or Landlord's nominee all residents in the Facility. With respect to resident funds, Tenant shall transfer to Landlord or its designee, all patient and resident trust accounts, and shall cause its subtenant to prepare and submit to Landlord or its designee a true, correct, and complete accounting and inventory (properly reconciled) of any patient trust funds and resident property to be transferred to Landlord, or its designee. Tenant shall, and shall cause its subtenant, not to commit any act or be remiss in the undertaking of any act that would jeopardize the licensure or certification of the Facility, and Tenant shall and shall cause its subtenant to comply with all requests for an orderly transfer of the same upon the expiration or early termination of the Term, including, but not limited to, upon the request of Landlord or its designee, the transitioning of employees in compliance with applicable laws. Without limiting the generality of the foregoing, if requested by Landlord or a proposed replacement operator for the Facility, Tenant hereby agrees to enter into a reasonable operations transfer agreement with such replacement operator. Tenant shall not unreasonably withhold, condition or delay its consent to entering into any interim subleases or management agreements as may be necessary to effectuate an early transfer of the operations of the Facility prior to the time that such replacement operator holds all licenses and permits from all applicable Governmental Authorities with jurisdiction necessary to operate the Facility for its intended use. In addition, upon request, Tenant shall and shall cause subtenants, to promptly deliver copies to Landlord or Landlord's designee of all books and records relating to the Leased Premises and operations thereon (including inventories, employee lists and personnel records, and policies and procedures manuals). Tenant shall allow Landlord or a proposed replacement operator for the Facility to utilize Tenant's, subtenants' computer hardware and software for a minimum of ninety (90) days to facilitate the transfer of operations, the collection of accounts receivables, the billing of providers, and the provision of patient care. Tenant shall indemnify, defend, protect and hold harmless Landlord from and against any loss, damage, cost or expense incurred by Landlord or Landlord's designee or nominee in connection with the correction of any and all deficiencies of a physical nature identified by any Governmental Authority responsible for licensing the Leased Premises in the course of any change of ownership inspection and audit. Tenant shall be responsible for any alterations or renovations necessitated by, or imposed in connection with, a change of ownership inspection survey for the transfer of operation of the Leased Premises to Landlord or its designee. Tenant shall not commence to wind up and terminate the operations of the Facility or relocate the patients or occupants of the Facility to any other health care facility. In addition, Tenant shall not terminate the employees of the Facility except in connection with and upon the transfer of operations of the Facility to Landlord or its designee.

(c) If Landlord notifies Tenant in writing that it intends to transfer the operations of the Facility to a new operator and desires to have Tenant continue to operate the Facility after the Expiration Date or earlier termination of the Lease, then Tenant shall continue to operate the Facility until the earliest to occur of (i) the date on which such successor operator shall assume operation of the Facility, or (ii) the date that is 180 days after the applicable Expiration Date or termination date (the "Reimbursement Period"). During the Reimbursement Period (x) Landlord shall provide Tenant with an operating budget, (y) Landlord shall include in the aforesaid operating budget, and Tenant shall continue to pay during the Reimbursement Period, all Rent that would have been owing under this Lease as to the Leased Premises if this Lease had not expired or terminated as to, and/or Tenant had not been dispossessed from, such Leased Premises, and (z) provided that this Lease was not terminated with respect to, and Tenant was not dispossessed from, such the Lease Premises due to a Lease Default, Landlord shall reimburse Tenant for any operating deficits with respect to the Facility that Tenant may be required to fund out-of-pocket on account of operating losses and expenses incurred by Tenant by reason of, or arising out of compliance with, such budget with respect to the Reimbursement Period. Any such reimbursement shall be due from Landlord to Tenant within 60 days after request by Tenant, provided that Tenant shall furnish such documentation of any operating deficits, losses and expenses as Landlord may reasonably request. The terms of this Section 5.5(c) shall survive the expiration or earlier termination of this Lease and/or any dispossession of Tenant from the Lease Premises.

(d) Use of Legacy Tradename. Without limitation of the other provisions of this Section 5.5 and notwithstanding anything to the contrary contained in this Lease, Tenant agrees to allow Landlord or its designee operator, at its option and at no cost to Landlord or any such designee, to continue to use, in its signage, marketing and advertising materials, operations and otherwise, any or all name(s) (including tradenames) associated with the operation of the Facility as a going concern for up to 180 days following (i) the expiration or termination of this Lease and (ii) the vacation from, and surrender of, the Leased Premises and Facility by Tenant. At the end of such 180 day period, or upon sooner written notice from Landlord to Tenant, Tenant shall, promptly and at its expense, remove its aforesaid name(s) from all signs on the Facility and repair any damage to such signs caused by such removal. Landlord acknowledges and agrees that Tenant, not Landlord, owns the aforesaid names and that neither Landlord nor any designee of Landlord may use the same except as described in this Section 5.5(d) or as otherwise agreed in writing by Tenant.

(e) Management of Terminated/Dispossessed Premises. Commencing on the applicable Termination/Dispossession Date as to any Terminated/Dispossessed Premises, Landlord or its designee, upon notice to Tenant, may elect to assume the responsibilities and obligations for the management and operation of the Business at such Terminated/Dispossessed Premises, and Tenant agrees to cooperate fully to accomplish the transfer of such management and operation without interrupting the operation of such Business to the extent allowable by Law. Tenant shall permit Landlord or its designee to operate the Facility under Tenant's licenses, certifications and other authorizations pending the issuance of new licenses, certifications and other authorizations Landlord or its designee. Tenant shall not commit any act or be remiss in the undertaking of any act that would jeopardize any licenses, certifications and other authorizations related to the Facility, and Tenant shall comply with all requests for an orderly transfer of all licenses, certifications and other authorizations related to the Facility and any payor's certifications.

(f) In addition, upon any expiration or termination of this Lease, Tenant covenants and agrees to do such things and to take such action as may, from time to time, be necessary or appropriate to permanently surrender and withdraw from possession and operation (including but not limited to licensure and certification) of the Leased Premises, and shall thereafter be fully and permanently relieved of all powers, duties, responsibilities and obligations that are conferred or imposed upon Tenant under this Lease (except those continuing obligations, including but not limited to the obligation to pay all Rent due and owing under this Lease, and the obligation to pay all amounts owed by Tenant to the Medicare, Medicaid, third party payor programs and residents for the period of the Term, which survive the termination hereof as provided herein) and to restore and place Landlord or its designee in possession and operation of the Leased Premises, or any portion thereof, and Tenant covenants and agrees to execute and deliver to Landlord or Landlord's designee (each subject to the approval of DOH) all assignments, operation transfer agreements, consents, consents to assignments (including Medicare and Medicaid provider agreements, if requested by Landlord) documents and other instruments, to the reasonable satisfaction of Landlord in order to effectuate the provisions hereof.

Section 5.6 Condition of Leased Premises. (a) Subject to Section 5.1, Tenant shall accept and take possession of the Leased Premises in its "AS IS," "WHERE IS" "WITH ALL FAULTS" condition, and acceptance of possession of the Leased Premises on the Commencement Date shall be deemed an acknowledgment by Tenant of Tenant's acceptance of the condition of the Leased Premises. Tenant acknowledges and agrees that Landlord is not making any representation, warranty or covenant whatsoever with respect to the condition of the Leased Premises, or any portion thereof, or its suitability for any particular purpose, and Tenant shall be relying solely on its inspection of the Leased Premises and due diligence investigations with respect thereto.

In addition, Tenant shall obtain: (x) if any portion of any of the Leased Premises is currently or at any time in the future located in a federally designated "special flood hazard area," flood hazard insurance in an amount equal to the lesser of (1) the outstanding principal balance of any loan encumbering the Leased Premises or (2) the maximum amount of such insurance available under the National Flood Insurance Act of 1968, the Flood Disaster Protection Act of 1973 or the National Flood Insurance Reform Act of 1994, as each may be amended, or successor legislation, or such greater amount as Landlord and/or Mortgagee shall require; (y) earthquake insurance in amounts and in form and substance satisfactory to Landlord and Mortgagee in the event the Facility is located in an area with a high degree of seismic activity and (z) coastal windstorm insurance in amounts and in form and substance satisfactory to Landlord and Mortgagee in the event the Facility is located in a coastal region; provided that the insurance pursuant to clauses (x), (y) and (z) hereof shall be on terms consistent with the comprehensive insurance policy required under this Subsection (i); and further provided that the earthquake insurance pursuant to clause (y) may provide for a deductible of up to the greater of One Hundred Thousand Dollars ($100,000.00) and two percent (2%) of the amount of such coverage, (III) the flood insurance pursuant to clause (x) may provide for a deductible of up to One Hundred Thousand Dollars ($100,000.00), and (IV) the ordinance and law coverage pursuant to clause (D) may have a sub-limit of Two Million Five Hundred Thousand Dollars ($2,500,000.00).

percent (100%) of the projected net profit and extra expense with respect to the Facility for a period of twelve (12) months from the date of such Casualty (assuming such Casualty had not occurred) and notwithstanding that the policy may expire at the end of such period. The amount of such business income insurance shall be determined prior to the date hereof and at least once each year thereafter based on Tenant's reasonable estimate of the gross income from the Facility for the succeeding twelve (12) month period. Nothing herein contained shall be deemed to relieve Tenant of its obligations to pay the Rent when due except to the extent such amounts are actually paid out of the proceeds of such business income insurance;

(iv) at all times during which structural construction, repairs or alterations are being made with respect to the Facility, and only if the Facility coverage form does not otherwise apply, (A) owner's contingent or protective liability insurance covering claims not covered by or under the terms or provisions of the above mentioned commercial general liability insurance policy; and (B) the insurance provided for in subsection (i) above written in a so-called builder's risk completed value form (1) on a non-reporting basis, (2) against all risks insured against pursuant to subsection (i) above and (3) with an agreed amount endorsement waiving co-insurance provisions;

(ix) if the Facility is or becomes a legal "non-conforming" use, ordinance or law coverage and insurance coverage to compensate for the cost of (upon a Casualty) demolition or rebuilding of the undamaged portion of the Facility along with any reduced value and the increased cost of construction in amounts as requested by Landlord and Mortgagee;

(x) the commercial property and business income insurance required under Sections 6.1(a)(i) and (iii) above shall cover perils of terrorism and acts of terrorism and Tenant shall maintain commercial property and business income insurance for loss resulting from perils and acts of terrorism on terms (including amounts) consistent with those required under Sections 6.1(a)(i) and (iii) above at all times during the Term;

(xi) professional liability and malpractice insurance with limits of at least Two Million Dollars ($2,000,000.00) per claim / Five Million Dollars ($5,000,000.00) in the aggregate. Tenant shall also require each medical director for the Facility and the associated nurse practitioner at the Facility to carry professional liability and malpractice insurance with limits of not less than Two Million Dollars ($2,000,000.00) per claim / Five Million Dollars ($5,000,000.00) in the aggregate; and

(xii) notwithstanding anything to the contrary in the foregoing, all insurance coverage required by any mortgagee of Landlord shall be met by Tenant, from time to time as necessary;

(xiii) upon sixty (60) days' notice, such other reasonable insurance and in such reasonable amounts as Landlord and/or Mortgagee from time to time may reasonably request against such other insurable hazards which at the time are commonly insured against for property similar to the Facility located in or around the region in which the Facility is located.

(b) All insurance provided for in Section 6.1(a) shall be obtained under valid and enforceable policies (collectively, the "Policies" or, in the singular, the "Policy"), and shall be subject to the approval of Landlord and Mortgagee as to insurance companies, amounts, deductibles, loss payees and insureds. The Policies shall be issued by financially sound and responsible insurance companies authorized to do business in the State of New York and having a claims paying ability rating of "A" or better (and the equivalent thereof) by at least two (2) of the Rating Agencies rating the companies (one of which shall be S&P if they are rating the securities and one of which will be Moody's if they are rating the companies), or if only one Rating Agency is rating the companies, then only by such Rating Agency and shall specifically name Landlord and Mortgagee as loss payees and additional insureds, as applicable. Not less than ten (10) days prior to the expiration dates of the Policies theretofore furnished to Landlord and Mortgagee, certificates of insurance evidencing the Policies accompanied by evidence satisfactory to Landlord and Mortgagee of payment of the premiums due thereunder (the "Insurance Premiums"), shall be delivered by Tenant to Landlord and Mortgagee.

(c) Any blanket insurance Policy shall specifically allocate to the Facility the amount of coverage from time to time required hereunder and shall otherwise provide the same protection as would a separate Policy insuring only the Facility in compliance with the provisions of Section 6.1(a).

(d) All Policies provided for or contemplated by Section 6.1(a), except for the Policy referenced in Section 6.1(a)(v), shall name Tenant as the insured and Landlord and Mortgagee as the additional insured, as their interests may appear, and in the case of property damage, boiler and machinery, flood and earthquake insurance, shall contain a so-called lender's loss payee endorsement in favor of Mortgagee providing that the loss thereunder shall be payable to Mortgagee.

(e) All Policies provided for in Section 6.1 shall contain clauses or endorsements to the effect that:

(i) no act or negligence of Tenant, or anyone acting for Tenant, or of any tenant or other occupant, or failure to comply with the provisions of any Policy, which might otherwise result in a forfeiture of the insurance or any part thereof, shall in any way affect the validity or enforceability of the insurance insofar as Landlord and Mortgagee are concerned;

(ii) the Policies shall not be materially changed (other than to increase the coverage provided thereby) or canceled without at least thirty (30) days' written notice to Landlord and Mortgagee and any other party named therein as an additional insured;

(iii) the issuers thereof shall give notice to Landlord and Mortgagee if the Policies have not been renewed fifteen (15) days prior to its expiration; and

(iv) Neither Landlord nor Mortgagee shall be liable for any insurance premiums thereon or subject to any assessments due thereunder.

(f) If at any time Landlord and Mortgagee is not in receipt of written evidence that all Policies are in full force and effect, either shall have the right, without notice to Tenant, to take such action as either deems necessary to protect its interest in the Leased Premises, including, without limitation, the obtaining of such insurance coverage as either in its sole discretion deems appropriate. All premiums incurred by Landlord and/or Mortgagee in connection with such action or in obtaining such insurance and keeping it in effect shall be paid by Tenant to Landlord and/or Mortgagee, as the case may be, upon demand and, until paid, shall be secured by the Mortgagee and shall bear interest at the Overdue Rate.

(g) Tail Insurance. If Tenant has claims made insurance coverage of any type, upon expiration or earlier termination of this Lease, Tenant shall purchase so-called "tail" insurance for a period of three years in an amount not less than its existing coverages in order to assure Tenant is covered by insurance after the expiration or earlier termination of this Lease for all claims arising or relating to the period prior to the expiration or earlier termination of this Lease, and Landlord and Mortgagee shall be named as additional insured thereunder.

Section 6.2 Certificates of Insurance. Upon the Commencement Date of this Lease, Tenant shall furnish Landlord, Mortgagee and other third parties which Landlord shall designate with appropriate certificates of insurance on acceptable Acorf forms, together with an additional insurance endorsement showing that each type of insurance required under this Article VI is in full force and effect and not cancelable or modifiable without thirty (30) days prior written notice to Landlord, and upon request of Landlord or one or more of such additional insureds, deliver copies of such insurance policies. Tenant will provide Landlord with acceptable certificates of insurance pursuant to this Section 6.2 evidencing the renewal of such Policies ten (10) Business Days prior to the Policies' expiration date. Tenant acknowledges that all such certificates shall name Landlord, its successors and assigns, and Mortgagee, its successors and assigns, as additional insureds on the general liability and umbrella policies and as a loss payee/mortgagee, as their interests may appear, on the property and boiler and machinery policies.

Section 6.3 Waiver of Subrogation. Landlord and Tenant hereby waive all rights of recovery for causes of action which either has or may have or which may arise hereafter against the other for any damage to the Leased Premises or the property or business of either of them or of anyone claiming through either of them, by way of subrogation or otherwise, caused by any of the perils covered by a special form policy of property insurance or contents insurance or by any other insurance for damage to property carried by the party whose property was damaged; provided, however, that the foregoing waiver shall apply only if and to the extent that

A waiver of subrogation for property damage is not prohibited in the State of New York, has been consented to by the applicable insurance carrier, and only to the extent of such insurance coverage.

ARTICLE VII

SECURITY, ACCESS AND REPORTING OBLIGATIONS, WORKING CAPITAL

Section 7.1 Security Deposit/Guaranty.

(a) Contemporaneously with the execution of this Lease, Tenant, shall deliver a guarantee of this Lease (the "Guaranty") from Lizer Josefovic and Mark Neuman (collectively, the "Guarantors") in the form of Exhibit "B" attached hereto, or in form and amounts as may be otherwise required by the Landlord and Landlord's first and second Mortgagee. The Guaranty shall set forth that the Guarantors will be required to cooperate in turning the license over to the Landlord's designee or be personally liable for all costs, expenses and damages or deficiencies. The Guarantors shall ensure that the Tenant shall deliver all of the documents required to transfer the license in escrow to Posternak, Blankstein & Lund, or such other party as Landlord designates. As further security for the Tenants performance under the Lease, the Tenant hereby agrees as follows:

(i) Tenant agrees that it shall deliver to Landlord 60 days prior to the Commencement Date, an agreement by Capital Funding Group, which cannot be amended except by an agreement in writing signed by Landlord, Tenant and Capital Funding Group, in the form attached hereto as Exhibit 7.1(a) or otherwise approved by Landlord and Landlord's lenders in their reasonable discretion, wherein and whereby Capital Funding Group agrees to allow Tenant to draw down on its Credit Line each month so as to enable Capital Funding Group to pay directly to Landlord the sum of $506,096.50 per month commencing the Commencement Date and on each day Fixed Rent is due under the Lease for the following 11 months.

(ii) Tenant agrees that it shall deliver 60 days prior to the anticipated Commencement Date either (i) an unconditional Letter of Credit, in accordance with the Letter of Credit Agreement attached hereto as Exhibit 7.1(b) (which shall be executed simultaneously herewith), in the amount of $3,700,000, or (ii) $3,700,000 in cash ("Security Deposit") to secure the full and timely payment and performance of Tenant's obligations under this Lease. Tenant's failure to deliver the Letter of Credit or timely pay to Landlord the Security Deposit shall be deemed a Lease Default by Tenant. Landlord may retain the Security Deposit in such accounts as Landlord elects in its sole discretion and Landlord may commingle the Security Deposit with other funds of Landlord or its affiliates. Tenant shall have no right to any interest on the funds comprising the Security Deposit that it delivers to Landlord.

(iii) Sixty days prior to the anticipated Commencement Date, the funds in the controlled account number [REDACTED] 7272 in JPMorgan Chase Bank, N.A. (the "Bank") in the amount not less than $1,600,000 shall be delivered by Tenant to Landlord and released by Tenant to Landlord to be held as an additional Security

Deposit by Landlord. The letter to Bank implementing the Tenant's obligations pursuant to the preceding sentence, attached hereto as Exhibit 7.1(c), which shall be held in escrow by Posternak, Blankstein & Lund, shall be delivered by it to the Bank sixty days prior to the anticipated Commencement Date upon notice from Landlord.

(b) The term "Letter of Credit" shall mean an irrevocable, unconditional, transferable, clean sight draft letter of credit in favor of Landlord in form and content reasonably satisfactory to Landlord and entitling Landlord to draw thereon without the payment of any fees or charges in New York, New York, issued by a domestic banking institution or the U.S. agency or branch of a foreign banking institution; provided, that such banking institution has a long term senior unsecured debt obligation rating of at least "AA" by S&P. The Letter of Credit shall have an expiration date of the date that is the first anniversary of the date hereof. The Letter of Credit shall provide that it shall be deemed automatically renewed (without amendment) for consecutive periods of one year each thereafter during the Term unless the issuing bank sends written notice to Landlord and Tenant by certified mail, return receipt requested, not less than thirty (30) days preceding the then expiration date of the Letter of Credit that it elects not to have such Letter of Credit renewed. If such notice is sent, then at least twenty (20) days prior to the expiration of the Letter of Credit (and each subsequent or replacement Letter of Credit), Tenant shall deliver to Landlord a new Letter of Credit in the same amount and a failure to do so shall entitle Landlord to draw upon the existing Letter of Credit and to receive the proceeds therefrom and hold such proceeds as a cash Security Deposit pursuant to this Section 7.1 pending delivery of a new Letter of Credit.

(c) Upon a Lease Default, Landlord shall have the right, but not the obligation, in Landlord's sole and absolute discretion, to draw upon the Security Deposit and/or Letter of Credit and apply some or all of the funds to remedy such default or occurrence and to compensate Landlord for any loss or damage resulting therefrom, without prejudice to any other rights or remedies of Landlord under this Lease or at law or in equity. Upon any such application by Landlord, Tenant shall promptly deposit with Landlord an amount in cash equal to the amount from the Security Deposit so utilized by Landlord. Landlord shall at all times have, as security hereunder, Letter of Credit and cash Security Deposit in the amounts stated in Section 7.1(a). Upon the termination or expiration of this Lease, as long as Tenant has performed all of its obligations pursuant to this Lease and no Lease Default has occurred which is continuing, the remaining amount of the Security Deposit shall be returned or refunded to Tenant, without interest, subject in all events to Landlord's right to apply the Security Deposit as provided herein.

(d) Upon the occurrence of a Lease Default, Landlord may use, apply or retain the whole or any part of the Security Deposit or draw under a Letter of Credit to the extent required for the payment of any Rent or any other sums as to which Tenant is in default or for any sum which Landlord may expend or may be required to expend by reason of Tenant's default in respect of any of the terms, covenants and conditions of this Lease, including, but not limited to, any damages or deficiency in the reletting of all or any portion of the Leased Premises, whether such damages or deficiency accrue before or after summary proceedings or other re-entry by Landlord. If Landlord shall so use, apply or retain the whole or any part of the Security Deposit, Tenant shall upon demand immediately deposit with Landlord a sum equal to the amount so used, applied or retained. In the event of any sale or financing of Landlord's interest in the Leased Premises, Landlord shall have the right to assign its interests in the Security Deposit to the transferee, assignee or mortgagee, as the case may be, and if Landlord has given notice to Tenant of the assignment of Landlord's interest in the Security Deposit and if assignee or transferee of the Security Deposit has accepted liability for the Security Deposit, Landlord shall thereupon be released by Tenant from all liability for the return or payment thereof; and Tenant shall look solely to the new landlord or mortgagee for the return or payment of the same. Tenant shall not assign or encumber or attempt to assign or encumber the Security Deposit and neither Landlord, nor its successors or assigns, shall be bound by any such assignment, encumbrance, attempted assignment or attempted encumbrance.

Section 7.2 Access to Leased Premises. Tenant shall permit Landlord, Mortgagee and their agents to enter upon the Leased Premises at all reasonable times during ordinary business hours and upon at least twenty-four (24) hours advance oral notice (except that in the case of emergency, Landlord may enter at any time and without prior notice) to inspect and examine the Leased Premises, to perform repairs as to Landlord's Work pursuant to Section 5.1, and to inspect and copy any operating manuals, procedures manuals, training manuals, and other books and records concerning unemployment, workers' compensation, insurance, tax, and any other business issues pertaining to the Leased Premises (subject to applicable laws and regulations governing patient confidentiality and privacy and the confidentiality of medical records) and any information necessary for audit relating to cost reimbursement, collections, general financial matters, litigation, inquiries and related activities (as may be necessary in connection with the Lease or the Leased Premises or any matters relating to periods prior to the Commencement Date). Any access by Landlord to patient records or medical records shall be strictly governed by Laws governing patient confidentiality and privacy and the confidentiality of medical records and all appropriate consents and/or waivers from residents or their guardians or representatives shall have been obtained before access to such records shall be granted. Landlord shall make reasonable efforts not to materially interfere with or materially disrupt Tenant's business and use and enjoyment of the Leased Premises during any such inspection or examination. Landlord shall also have the right but not the obligation to conduct a physical inspection of the Facility and from time to time and within ninety (90) days prior to the expiration of the Term or earlier termination of the Lease, upon twenty-four (24) hours advance oral notice. If Landlord reasonably determines based on this inspection that the Facility, or any portion of the Facility, requires repairs or maintenance so that the condition of the Facility is in compliance with this Lease and all Laws, then within thirty (30) days of notification by Landlord, Tenant shall commence making said repairs and diligently pursue such repairs to completion. Should Tenant fail to do so, within seven (7) days of notification by Landlord, Tenant shall pay to Landlord a deposit of funds in an amount equal to Landlord's reasonable estimate of the costs of such repairs or maintenance, which funds shall be released to Tenant from time to time during the progress of such repairs and maintenance based on submission by Tenant of evidence reasonably satisfactory to Landlord that such work is complete and all costs and expenses incurred to date have been paid in full. Tenant and Landlord acknowledge that the operations of the Facility and its maintenance are the sole and absolute responsibility of Tenant. Landlord shall have no liabilities or obligations with respect to the Facility, including no liabilities or obligations with respect to inspections of the Facility or the failure by Landlord to inspect the Facility.

Notwithstanding anything to the contrary in this in this Lease, Landlord and Tenant agree that all information, records and data collected or maintained regarding Facility residents shall be confidential. Landlord, Tenant, and their respective employees and agents shall maintain the confidentiality of all Facility resident information received in accordance with applicable New York and federal laws, including the Health Insurance Portability and Accountability Act of 1996 (Public Law 104-91) and the regulations issued in connection therewith (collectively, "HIPAA"). No employee or agent of Landlord or Tenant shall discuss, transmit or narrate in any manner the Facility resident information of a personal, medical, or other nature except as a necessary part of providing services to the resident, effectuating a transfer of the Facility's assets, or otherwise fulfilling its obligations under this Lease or under law. The obligations under this Section 7.2 shall survive the termination of this Lease, whether by rescission or otherwise.

Section 7.3 Changes in Licensure and Certification Status. As of the Commencement Date, Tenant represents and warrants that the number of beds licensed or certified for the Facility is one hundred sixty (160). Tenant shall not increase or decrease the licensed or certified number of beds, or change the license or certification thereof, without the consent of Landlord, which consent may be withheld in Landlord's sole and absolute discretion; Tenant may increase the number of licensed or certified beds of the Facility upon thirty (30) days prior written notice to Landlord, but without the prior written consent of Landlord. If required, Tenant shall not increase the number of beds without the consent of the Commissioner and/or the DOH and Tenant agrees to return to Landlord upon the expiration of the Lease, the Leased Premises. Should Tenant increase the number of licensed beds at the Facility, the Fixed Rent payable for the Facility shall be increased proportionately for such additional beds. In no event shall the Fixed Rent be reduced in the event the number of Licensed Beds at the Facility is reduced. Landlord and Tenant acknowledge that the Leased Premises are, and at all times under the Term of this Lease are, the sole and absolute property of Landlord. Upon any termination of this Lease or any Lease Default by Tenant hereunder (which breach or default is not cured within any applicable grace period), and subject to the approval of the DOH, Landlord shall have the right to cause the Facility's licenses to be reissued in Landlord's name or in the name of Landlord's designee upon application therefor to, and the receipt of approval from, the DOH and to further have the right to have any and all Medicare, Medicaid and any other provider and/or third party payor agreements issued in Landlord's name or in the name of Landlord's designee. In the event Landlord exercises its rights pursuant to this Section 7.3, Tenant and Guarantors shall cooperate with Landlord in transferring the aforementioned items to Landlord's name or for the benefit of Landlord or as Landlord may direct pursuant to the terms of this Lease.

Section 7.4 Reporting and Other Obligations.

(a) During the Term, Tenant shall and shall cause all Subtenants, sub-subtenants and any operators of the Facility to provide (without duplication) Landlord and Mortgagee with the following reports, statements, and inspections:

(i) Annual Budget. Within 60 days prior to the projected Substantial Completion Date, and no later than thirty (30) days prior to the end of each calendar year thereafter, Tenant shall submit to Landlord an annual budget (each an "Annual Budget") covering the operations of and proposed capital expenditures to be made with respect to the Facility for the next calendar year (or the remainder of the current calendar year, in the case of the initial Annual Budget).

(A) Capital Expenditures. The Annual Budget shall include a capital budget (the "Capital Budget") outlining a program of capital expenditures as may be required by Law, any lender to Landlord, or Tenant's reasonable business judgment during the next calendar year (or the remainder of the current calendar year, in the case of the initial Capital Budget), in which each proposed capital expenditure will be designated as either mandatory, highly recommended or desirable. Tenant shall be responsible for designating as a "mandatory capital expenditure" any expenditure which, if not made would, in Tenant's reasonable judgment: (a) cause the Facility to lose or put at risk its License; (b) place at risk the safety of a patient or resident or employee of the Facility; (c) cause the ineligibility of the Facility under any third party payor program applicable to the Facility; (d) cause the issuance of a formal notice that any of the operating licenses for the Facility or any substantial portion of the Facility will be revoked or suspended or qualified in any material adverse respect; or (e) subject Landlord or Tenant to criminal prosecution. Tenant shall make during the calendar year, or calendar quarter for which they are budgeted, all capital expenditures approved by Landlord. On and after the Commencement Date, Tenant shall expend at least Five Hundred Twenty-Three Dollars ($523.00) per bed per annum for capital expenditures at the Facility, including amounts expended to comply with the licensure and other expenditures required by any Governmental Authority or such other amounts as may be required by Mortgagee from time to time. If Mortgagee requires Landlord to deposit sums for capital expenditures, replacements and/or refurbishments relating to furniture, fixtures, equipment and/or improvements to the Facility, then Tenant shall pay to Landlord, as Additional Rent hereunder, all reserve or escrow amounts, sums and/or deposits which Landlord is required to pay to such Mortgagee with respect to such capital expenditures, replacements and/or refurbishments. Tenant shall pay any and all of such amounts and sums to or as directed by Landlord as Additional Rent hereunder together with each payment of Fixed Rent hereunder. Tenant acknowledges that as of the date hereof, Mortgagee requires a monthly deposit of Five Hundred Twenty-Three Dollars ($523.00) per bed with respect to the Facility. In the event that such deposits are made by Tenant hereunder, Landlord shall use its reasonable efforts, subject to the terms and conditions of the loan agreements with Mortgagee, to obtain disbursements of such funds to be used for the payment of or reimbursement for the costs of such capital expenditures, replacements and/or refurbishments.

(B) Operating Budget. The Annual Budget shall include an operating budget (the "Operating Budget") setting forth an estimate of operating revenues and expenses for the Facility for the next calendar year (or the remainder of the current calendar year, in the case of the initial Operating Budget), together with an explanation of anticipated changes in the Facility. Tenant shall provide to Landlord upon written request such other reports, including a cost comparison report, and all appropriate Medicare and Medicaid reports, as may be required under these programs, as are normally provided by Tenant to the owners of other similar rehabilitation hospitals, psychiatric hospitals, and skilled nursing facilities leased by Tenant.

(ii) Financial Reporting. Tenant will keep and maintain or will cause to be kept and maintained on a calendar year basis, in accordance with GAAP, proper and accurate books, records and accounts reflecting all of the financial affairs of Tenant and all items of income and expense in connection with the operation on an individual basis of the Facility. Notwithstanding the foregoing, Tenant's interim unaudited financial statements shall be prepared in accordance GAAP for interim financial information, but may not include all information or notes required by GAAP for a complete set of financial statements; such financial statements shall include all adjustments and reclassifications of a normal recurring nature considered necessary for a fair and comparable presentation; all such interim financial statements shall be read in conjunction with most recent audited financial statements. Landlord and Mortgagee shall have the right from time to time at all times during normal business hours upon reasonable notice to examine such books, records and accounts at the office of Tenant or any other Person maintaining such books, records and accounts and to make such copies or extracts thereof as Landlord and/or Mortgagee shall desire. After the occurrence of a Lease Default, Tenant shall pay any costs and expenses incurred by Landlord and/or Mortgagee to examine Tenant's accounting records with respect to the Facility, as Landlord and/or Mortgagee shall reasonably determine to be necessary or appropriate in the protection of Landlord and/or Mortgagee's interest.

(iii) Tenant, at its expense, shall submit to Landlord and, upon Landlord's request to Mortgagee, as soon as available, and in any event (A) within thirty (30) days after each calendar month's end, unaudited monthly financial statements (which include income statements, balance sheets, statements of cash flows, occupancy and payor mixes) of Tenant for the month then-ended and year to date, prepared on a basis consistent with the annual statements; monthly census and revenue information of the Facility as of the end of such month and year to date in sufficient detail to show by patient-mix and revenue-mix (i.e., private, Medicare, Medicaid and V.A. and managed care (by program)) the average monthly census of the Facility and year to date; an aged accounts receivable report from the Facility in sufficient detail to show amounts due from each class of patient-mix by the account age classifications of 30 days, 60 days, 90 days, 120 days, and over 120 days; (B) within forty-five (45) days after the end of each calendar quarter, unaudited quarterly financial statements (which include income statements, balance sheets, statements of cash flows, occupancy and payor mixes) of Tenant for the quarter then-ended, prepared on a basis consistent with the annual statements; quarterly census and revenue information of the Facility as of the end of such quarter in sufficient detail to show by patient-mix and revenue-mix (i.e., private, Medicare, Medicaid and V.A. and managed care (by program)) the average quarterly census of the Facility; (C) no later than 120 days after the end of each calendar year of Tenant, audited annual financial statements of Tenant, prepared by an independent certified public accounting firm reasonably acceptable to Landlord, prepared in accordance with generally accepted accounting principles, with an unqualified opinion, and including a balance sheet, a statement of income and expenses for the year then ended, a statements of cash flow, and a schedule audited by such independent certified public accountant reconciling Tenant's, net operating income to net cash flow, which shall itemize all adjustments made to net operating income to arrive at net cash flow deemed material by such independent certified public accountant.

(f) If Tenant or its employees, agents, or contractors violate the provisions of this Section 10.3, then, in addition to any other duty or obligation of Tenant hereunder, at law or in equity, Tenant shall be obligated to clean up, remove, and dispose of the material causing the violation, in compliance with all applicable environmental laws and repair any damage to and remediate the Leased Premises within such period of time as may be reasonable under the circumstances after written notice by Landlord; provided that such work shall commence no later than thirty (30) days from the date of such notice and be diligently and continuously carried to completion by Tenant or Tenant's designated contractors. Tenant shall notify Landlord of its method, time and procedure for any clean-up, remediation or removal of material causing the violation under this provision, and Landlord shall have the right to require reasonable changes in such method, time or procedure.

(g) Landlord reserves the right from time to time, but not more than once a year, except in the event of an emergency or during the occurrence and continuation of an uncured Lease Default during the Term hereof, at Landlord's cost and expense (except that, in the event of a continuing and uncured Lease Default, at Tenant's sole cost and expense), to have the Leased Premises inspected by environmental engineers and/or specialists for the purpose of determining compliance by Tenant with any environmental laws, rules and regulations applicable to Tenant's operations in or about the Leased Premises and with the terms and conditions of this Lease dealing with environmental matters, including without limitation, the provisions of this Section 10.3. If the environmental assessment or report resulting from such inspection discloses any non-compliance with Laws, Tenant shall immediately, following receipt of the environmental assessment, take all such steps as are necessary to put the Leased Premises into compliance, including without limitation, cleaning up any spills or other emissions of Hazardous Wastes or Hazardous Materials, and reimburse Landlord for the costs of its inspection.

(h) Upon the expiration of the Term, or the earlier termination thereof, subject to the last sentence of Section 10.3(d) above, Tenant shall forthwith remove all Hazardous Materials and Hazardous Waste from the Leased Premises or any portion thereof in accordance with applicable Law. Landlord shall have the right to inspect the Leased Premises with regard to the management and disposal of Hazardous Materials and Hazardous Waste at all reasonable times during the Term.

ARTICLE XI

DAMAGE OR DESTRUCTION

Section 11.1 Damage or Destruction. Tenant shall immediately notify Landlord of any casualty, fire, damage, destruction or injury ("Casualty") affecting the Facility, including a description of the Casualty, and whether the Casualty is such as to cause the Leased Premises to be unsuitable, in whole or in part, for the Intended Use. Tenant shall proceed with reasonable diligence to repair or reconstruct the Leased Premises and Tenant shall be liable for any costs of repair or replacement to the Leased Premises, whether or not such Casualty, or the costs of repairing such Casualty, are fully covered by the proceeds of Tenant's insurance required to be carried hereunder. If such Casualty renders the Facility unsuitable for the purpose of this Lease and if Landlord's Mortgagee so requires, Landlord, upon notice to Tenant, Landlord may terminate this Lease and Landlord and Tenant shall be released from any further liability hereunder thereafter accruing with respect to the Facility, except that Tenant shall be responsible and shall pay Landlord an amount equal to the difference between the fair market value of the Leased Premises immediately prior to such Casualty and the proceeds of Tenant's insurance to the extent such difference results from Tenant's breach of Article VI. Notwithstanding the foregoing, if Landlord's obligations to its Mortgagee have been satisfied in full and the DOH approves and agrees to reimburse the costs of rebuilding the Facility, Landlord shall not so terminate this Lease with respect to the Facility, and Tenant shall repair or reconstruct the Leased Premises in substantially the same condition as just prior to the incident with the proceeds of the property casualty insurance carried by Tenant, as required hereunder (if not otherwise paid to the Mortgagee), and/or with funds of Tenant. Regardless of any Casualty, except as provided above, this Lease shall continue in full force and effect without any abatement of Rent, and Tenant shall not be entitled to surrender possession of the Leased Premises as a result of such casualty. Landlord's receipt of Rent from Tenant's rental interruption insurance shall be credited against Rent payments due from Tenant hereunder. If Tenant fails to commence such repair or reconstruction within thirty (30) days of the Casualty, Landlord shall have the option, subject to the approval of the DOH if required by Laws, to either terminate this Lease upon written notice to Tenant or repair and reconstruct the Leased Premises in substantially the same condition just prior to the incident and costs and expenses incurred as a result thereof shall be deemed Additional Rent hereunder and shall be payable to Landlord by Tenant, upon demand. Upon payment of all such sums demanded by Landlord, Tenant may re-enter and resume possession of the Leased Premises pursuant to the terms of this Lease. All insurance proceeds collected under the Policies shall be paid to Landlord, and made available to Tenant to pay for or reimburse Tenant for the costs and expenses for such repairs and reconstruction subject to the terms, conditions and provisions of any mortgage or other loan documents encumbering the Leased Premises. If Mortgagee does not make the insurance proceeds available to Landlord, then Landlord may terminate this Lease upon thirty (30) days' notice to Tenant, and Landlord and Tenant shall be released from any further liability hereunder thereafter accruing with respect to the Facility, except that Tenant shall be responsible and shall pay Landlord an amount equal to the difference between the fair market value of the Leased Premises immediately prior to such Casualty and the proceeds of Tenant's insurance.

Section 11.2 Precedence of Rights of Mortgage. All provisions contained in the loan documents between Landlord and Mortgagee, or any other document in connection therewith which concern or pertain to the restoration of the Leased Premises, the application of insurance proceeds and any and all matters concerning a casualty, shall take precedence over and be in lieu of any contrary provision provided for in this Lease, and in all respects are binding upon Tenant who agrees to and acknowledges the same.

Section 11.3 Tenant hereby waives the provisions of Section 227 of the Real Property Law of the State of New York and acknowledges that the terms of this Article XI shall govern in lieu thereof.

ARTICLE XII

EMINENT DOMAIN

Section 12.1 Eminent Domain. (a) In the event that all or substantially all of the Leased Premises, or such portion of the Real Property which renders the balance of the Facility unsuitable for the purpose of this Lease, shall be taken by condemnation or right of eminent domain, this Lease shall terminate as of the day the taking authority takes possession of the Leased Premises, and Landlord and Tenant shall be released from any further liability hereunder thereafter accruing with respect to the Facility, except as otherwise expressly provided in this Lease. In the event only a portion (and less than substantially all) of the Leased Premises is taken by condemnation or right of eminent domain and the portion so taken does not render the balance of the Leased Premises unsuitable for the purposes of this Lease, as determined by Landlord, this Lease shall not terminate. In such an event, Tenant shall restore the Leased Premises with reasonable diligence with its own funds and with the proceeds of any award from the applicable public or quasi-public authority, or private corporation or individual having the power of condemnation ("Award") to an architectural unit as nearly like its condition prior to such taking as shall be practicable. Notwithstanding anything to the contrary herein, this Section 12.1(a) is subject to the terms, conditions and provisions of any mortgage and other loan documents encumbering the Leased Premises.

(i) Notwithstanding anything to the contrary contained in Section 12.1(a), Landlord may cancel this Lease with no further liability to Tenant, in the event that following a taking by condemnation or right of eminent domain, Mortgagee elects to require Landlord to repay the mortgage on the Leased Premises.

(j) Tenant shall not be entitled to any part of any award or settlement of damages representing the value of land and buildings appropriated, the value of this Lease or any estate therein, or damage to the residue of the Leased Premises or other property of Landlord; it being agreed as between Landlord and Tenant any such award shall be the sole property of Landlord. No appropriation of part or all of the Leased Premises or cancellation of this Lease pursuant to this Article XII shall be deemed an eviction of Tenant or a breach of any covenants of Landlord hereunder.

The term "Business Day" means any day other than (i) a Saturday or a Sunday, and (ii) a day on which federally insured depository institutions in New York, New York are authorized or obligated by law, regulation, governmental decree or executive order to be closed.

Section 13.2 Notices to Mortgagee. (a) Tenant hereby agrees, upon request of Mortgagee, to give to Mortgagee copies of all notices given by Tenant of default by Landlord under this Lease at the same time and in the same manner as, and whenever, Tenant shall give any such notice of default to Landlord. Such Mortgagee shall have the right to remedy any default under this Lease, or to cause any default of Landlord under this Lease to be remedied, and for such purpose Tenant hereby grants such Mortgagee such period of time as may be reasonable to enable such Mortgagee to remedy, or cause to be remedied, any such default in addition to the period given to Landlord for remedying, or causing to be remedied, any such default which is a default. Tenant shall accept performance by such Mortgagee of any term, covenant, condition or agreement to be performed by Landlord under the Lease with the same force and effect as though performed by Landlord. No default by Landlord under the Lease shall exist or shall be deemed to exist (i) as long as such Mortgagee, in good faith, shall have commenced to cure such default and shall be prosecuting the same to completion with reasonable diligence, subject to Force Majeure, or (ii) if possession of the Leased Premises is required in order to cure such default, or if such default is not susceptible of being cured by such Mortgagee, as long as such Mortgagee, in good faith, shall have notified Tenant that such Mortgagee intends to institute proceedings under the mortgage and, thereafter, as long as such proceedings shall have been instituted and shall prosecute the same with reasonable diligence and, after having obtained possession, prosecutes the cure to completion with reasonable diligence. This Lease shall not be assigned by Tenant or modified, amended or terminated without Mortgagee's prior written consent in each instance, which consent shall not be unreasonably withheld or delayed. In the event of the termination of this Lease by reason of any default thereunder or for any other reason whatsoever except the expiration thereof, upon such Mortgagee's written request, given within thirty (30) days after any such termination, Tenant, within fifteen (15) days after receipt of such request, shall execute and deliver to such Mortgagee or its designee or nominee a new lease of the Leased Premises for the remainder of the Term of the Lease upon, at a minimum, all of the terms, covenants and conditions of this Lease. Neither such Mortgagee or its designee or nominee shall become liable under this Lease unless and until such Mortgagee or its designee or nominee becomes, and then only for so long as such Mortgagee or its designee or nominee remains, the fee owner of the Leased Premises or the owner of the leasehold interest of Landlord under this Lease. Such Mortgagee shall have the right, without Tenant's consent, to, as the case may be, foreclose its mortgage or to accept a deed in lieu of foreclosure of such mortgage.

(b) In the event of any act or omission of Landlord which would give Tenant the right, immediately or after lapse of a period of time, to cancel or terminate this Lease, or to claim a partial or total eviction, Tenant shall not exercise such right (i) until it has given written notice of such act or omission to Mortgagee, and (ii) unless such act or omission shall be one which is not capable of being remedied by Landlord or such Mortgagee within a reasonable period of time, until a reasonable period for remedying such act or omission shall have elapsed following the giving of such notice and following the time when such Mortgagee shall have become entitled under its loan documents with Landlord in connection therewith, as the case may be, to remedy the same (which reasonable period shall in no event be less than the period in which Landlord would be entitled under this Lease or otherwise, after similar notice, to effect such remedy).

QUIET ENJOYMENT

Section 14.1 Quiet Enjoyment Landlord covenants, warrants and represents to Tenant that, provided no Lease Default exists under this Lease, Tenant shall at all times during the Term peacefully and quietly have, hold, occupy and enjoy the Leased Premises, subject to the terms and conditions of this Lease, without any hindrance, interference or molestation by Landlord or by, under or through Landlord.

SUBLETTING AND ASSIGNMENT

Section 15.1 Subletting and Assignment (a) Tenant shall not, without the prior written consent of Landlord, which consent may be withheld in the Landlord's sole and absolute discretion (and, if required by law, without the prior written consent of the Commissioner, which consent may be withheld in the Commissioner's sole and absolute discretion), transfer or assign this Lease or Tenant's interest in the Leased Premises or any part thereof or sublease all or any part of the Leased Premises. In all events of assignment, transfers or subletting, the prior approval of the DOH shall be required. Tenant shall not at any time, without the prior written consent of Landlord, which consent may be withheld or given in the sole and absolute discretion of Landlord, pledge, mortgage, or hypothecate the leasehold estate hereby created or any interest of Tenant therein. The issuance of or a transfer or series of transfers (including transfers caused by mergers, acquisitions or consolidations of any direct or indirect interests in the equity ownership interests in Tenant or any subtenant aggregating to forty-nine percent (49%) or more of the stock, membership or ownership interest in Tenant or any subtenant shall constitute an assignment for purposes of this Lease, requiring Landlord's consent thereof; notwithstanding anything to the contrary, any change in the management or control of Tenant such that Lizer Josefovic does not control all of the decisions of Tenant shall constitute an assignment for purposes of this Lease, requiring Landlord's consent thereof. Notwithstanding anything to the contrary, the issuance of or a transfer or series of transfers (including transfers caused by mergers, acquisitions or consolidations of any direct or indirect interests in the equity ownership interests in Tenant or any subtenant resulting in the aggregate interest of Lizer Josefovic, Marc Neuman, and their spouse or issue, or a trust for their benefit, equaling less than seventy-five percent (75%) of the stock, membership or ownership interest in Tenant or any subtenant to any person or entity shall constitute an assignment for purposes of this Lease, requiring Landlord's consent thereof; provided that any assignment by Lizer Josefovic to Joseph Josefovic made after five years after the Commencement date shall not be unreasonably denied by Landlord taking into account, among other things, the experience, performance record, and financial strength of Joseph Josefovic. The consent by Landlord to any transfer shall not constitute consent to any subsequent transfer or to any successive transfer. Further, subject to the provisions of Section 3.2, and without in any way limiting or otherwise affecting the provisions of this Lease, Landlord shall be permitted to assign this Lease and all agreements, duties, obligations and rights incidental thereto to any entity related to, or affiliated with Landlord, without any consent from Tenant. The term "transfer" shall mean any direct or indirect sale, conveyance, transfer, lease (including any amendment, extension, modification, waiver or renewal thereof), sublease, sub-sublease, assignment, mortgage, pledge, grant of a security interest or hypothecation, whether by operation of law or otherwise, whether voluntary or not, of or in (i) all or part of the Leased Premises (including any legal or beneficial direct or indirect interest therein) or (ii) any direct or indirect interest in Tenant. Notwithstanding anything to the contrary contained herein, Tenant may assign this Lease to, or enter into a sublease with, or transfer interests in an entity comprising Tenant to, an affiliate under common control with Tenant, or owned by Lizer Josefovic, Marc Neuman, or their spouse or issue, or a Trust for their benefit, without Landlord's consent, provided (x) Landlord is given thirty (30) days prior written notice of such intended transfer, assignment or sublease with copies of the organizational documents of the assignee, transferee or sublessee, (y) after such transfer, assignment or sublease, Lizer Josefovic controls all of the decisions of the assignee, transferee or sublessee, and (z) all required consents from the Mortgagee, the DOH and/or the Commissioner (if required), have been obtained by Tenant. Notwithstanding the foregoing and any other provision contained herein to the contrary, no transfer or series of transfers of legal, economic, beneficial or equitable (direct or indirect) interest in the Lease or in Tenant's membership interest that requires DOH's consent shall occur without the prior written consent of Landlord and DOH. Tenant shall enter into such subordination agreements or subordination, non-disturbance agreements ("SNDAs") as Mortgagee may request from time to time.

Section 15.2 Atornment and Related Matters. Any sublease shall be expressly subject and subordinate to all applicable terms and conditions of this Lease and provide that upon the expiration or earlier termination of this Lease, Landlord, at its option and without any obligation to do so, may require any subtenant to attorn to Landlord, its successors and assigns, in which event Landlord shall undertake the obligations of Tenant, under such sublease from the time of the exercise of such option to the termination of such sublease; provided, however, that in such case Landlord shall not be liable for any prepaid rents, fees or other charges or for any prepaid security deposits paid by such subtenant to Tenant or for any other prior defaults of Tenant under such sublease. In the event that Landlord shall not require such attornment with respect to any sublease, then such sublease shall automatically terminate upon the expiration or earlier termination of this Lease, including any early termination by mutual agreement of Landlord and Tenant. In addition, any such sublease shall provide that in the event that the subtenant or other transferee receives a written notice from Landlord stating that a Lease Default has occurred or that an event or circumstance has occurred which with notice and/or passage of time would constitute a Lease Default, such subtenant or other transferee thereafter shall without further consent or instruction of Tenant pay all rentals accruing under such sublease directly to Landlord or as Landlord may direct; provided, however, that (a) as and to the extent that the amounts so paid to Landlord, together with other amounts paid to or received by Landlord on account of this Lease, exceed the amounts then due Landlord from Tenant under this Lease, the excess shall be promptly remitted to Tenant, and (b) at such time as the Lease Default has been cured and this Lease reinstated (if ever), Landlord shall notify and direct the subtenant(s) in writing to resume making payments of rentals under their sublease(s) directly to Tenant, or as Tenant may direct. Any such rentals collected from such subtenant or other transferee by Landlord shall be credited against the amounts owing by Tenant under this Lease in such order of priority as Landlord shall reasonably determine. Furthermore, any sublease or other agreement regarding a transfer shall expressly provide that the subtenant, assignee, manager or other transferee shall furnish Landlord, its lender, the Mortgagee, if applicable, the HUD Mortgagee, and/or the Commissioner, and /or DOH, if applicable, with such financial, operational and other information about the Facility and subtenant, etc., as Landlord may request from time to time.

Section 15.3 Assignment of Subleases. To secure the prompt and full payment by Tenant of the Rent and the faithful performance by Tenant of all the other terms and conditions herein contained on its part to be kept and performed, Tenant hereby assigns, transfers and sets over unto Landlord, subject to the conditions hereinafter set forth and any required consent(s) from DOH, all of Tenant's right, title and interest in and to all permitted subleases, assignments, licenses and occupancy agreements, to the extent permitted by law, involving the Facility, as set forth on Schedule 15.3 attached hereto (the "Sublease", and the subtenant under a Sublease herein referred to as a "Subtenant") and hereby confers upon Landlord, its agents and representatives, a right of entry (subject to prior notice) in, and sufficient possession of, the Leased Premises to permit and insure the collection by Landlord of the rentals and other sums payable under the Sublease, and further agrees that the exercise of said right of entry and qualified possession by Landlord shall not constitute an eviction of Tenant from the Leased Premises or any portion thereof and that should said right of entry and possession be denied Landlord, its agent or representative, Landlord, in the exercise of said right, may use all requisite force to gain and enjoy the same without responsibility or liability to Tenant, its servants, employees, guests or invitees, or any Person whomsoever; provided, however, that such assignment shall become operative and effective only if (a) a Lease Default shall occur and be continuing or (b) this Lease and the Term shall be cancelled or terminated pursuant to the terms, covenants and conditions hereof or (c) there occurs a repossession under a dispossessory warrant or other re-entry or repossession by Landlord under the provisions hereof or (d) a receiver for all or a portion of the Leased Premises is appointed, and then only as to such of the subleases that Landlord may elect to take over and assume. At any time and from time to time within ten (10) days after Landlord's written demand, Tenant promptly shall deliver to Landlord a schedule of all Subleases, setting forth the names of all Subtenants, with a photostatic copy of each of the Subleases. Upon request of Landlord, Tenant shall permit Landlord and its agents and representatives, and Mortgagee, its agents and representatives, to inspect all Subleases affecting the Leased Premises. Tenant covenants that each Sublease shall provide that the Subtenant thereunder shall be required from time to time, upon request of Landlord or Tenant, to execute, acknowledge and deliver, to and for the benefit of Landlord, an estoppel certificate confirming with respect to such Sublease the information set forth in Section 20.11 hereof.

Section 15.4 Additional Sublease Requirements. Tenant covenants and agrees that all Subleases hereafter entered into affecting the Leased Premises shall provide that (a) they are subject to this Lease and that the principals of the Subtenant acknowledge that they have read this Lease and accept the terms hereof, (b) the term thereof shall not end less than one (1) day prior to the Expiration Date hereof, unless Landlord shall consent otherwise, which consent may be withheld in Landlord's sole and absolute discretion, (c) the Subtenants will not do, authorize or execute any act, deed or thing whatsoever or fail to take any such action which will or may cause Tenant to be in violation of any of its obligations under this Lease, (d) the Subtenants will not pay rent or other sums under the Subleases with Tenant for more than one (1) month in advance, (e) the Subtenants shall give to Landlord at the address and otherwise in the manner specified in Section 13.1 hereof, a copy of any notice of default by Tenant as the landlord under the Subleases at the same time as, and whenever, any such notice of default shall be given by the Subtenants to Tenant; and (f) all of the representations, warranties and covenants given by Tenant to Landlord in this Lease, including but not limited to all reporting requirements and covenants set forth in Section 7.4 above, shall be made and given by each Subtenant for the benefit of Landlord, Mortgagee, and their respective successors and assigns.

Section 15.5 Transfers in Bankruptcy. (a) In the event of a transfer pursuant to the provisions of Title 11 of the United States Code or any statute of similar purpose or nature (the "Bankruptcy Code"), all consideration payable or otherwise to be delivered in connection with such transfer shall be paid or delivered to Landlord, shall be and remain the exclusive property of Landlord and shall not constitute property of Tenant or of the estate of Tenant within the meaning of the Bankruptcy Code. Any consideration constituting Landlord's property pursuant to the immediately preceding sentence and not paid or delivered to Landlord shall be held in trust for the benefit of Landlord and be promptly paid or delivered to Landlord. For purposes of this Section 15.5, the term "consideration" shall mean and include money, services, property and any other thing of value such as payment of costs, cancellation or forgiveness of indebtedness, discounts, rebates, barter and the like. If any such consideration is in a form other than cash (such as in kind, equity interests, indebtedness earn-outs, or other deferred payments, consulting or management fees, etc.), Landlord shall be entitled to receive in cash the then present fair market value of such consideration. If Tenant assumes this Lease and proposes to assign the same pursuant to the provisions of the Bankruptcy Code to any person or entity who shall have made a bona fide offer to accept an assignment of this Lease on terms acceptable to Tenant, then notice of such proposed assignment shall be given to Landlord by Tenant no later than fifteen (15) days after receipt of such offer by Tenant, but in any event to later than ten (10) days prior to the date that Tenant shall file any application or motion with a court of competent jurisdiction for authority and approval to enter into such assumption and assignment. Such notice shall set forth (a) the name and address of the assignee, (b) all of the terms and conditions of such offer, and (c) the proposal for providing adequate assurance of future performance by such person under the Lease, including, without limitation, the assurance referred to in Section 365 of the Bankruptcy Code. Any person or entity to which this Lease is assigned pursuant to the provisions of the Bankruptcy Code shall be deemed without further act or deed to have assumed all of the obligations arising under this Lease from and after the date of such assignment. Any such assignee shall execute and deliver to Landlord upon demand an instrument confirming such assumption.

(b) The term "adequate assurance of future performance" as used in this Lease shall mean (in addition to the assurances called for in Bankruptcy Code Section 365(1)) that any proposed assignee shall, among other things, (i) deposit with Landlord on the assumption of this Lease an amount equal to the greater of (x) two (2) times the then monthly Fixed Rent and Additional Rent or (y) such other amount deemed by the Bankruptcy Court to be reasonably necessary for the adequate protection of Landlord under the circumstances, as security for the faithful performance and observance by such assignee of the terms and obligations of this Lease, (ii) furnish Landlord with financial statements of such assignee for the prior three (3) calendar years, as finally determined after an audit and certified as correct by a certified public accountant, which financial statements shall show a net worth at least equal to the amount of the deposit referenced in (i) above, (iii) if determined by the Bankruptcy Court to be appropriate under the circumstances, grant to Landlord a security interest in such property of the proposed assignee as Landlord shall deem necessary to secure such assignee's future performance under this Lease, and (iv) provide such other information or take such action as Landlord, in its reasonable judgment, shall determine is necessary to provide adequate assurance of the performance by such assignee of its obligations under the Lease.

(c) If, at any time after Tenant may have assigned Tenant's interest in this Lease in a proceeding of the type described in Section 16.1 (iv) through (vii), this Lease shall be disaffirmed or rejected in any proceeding of the types described in Section 16.1 (iv) through (vii) hereof, or in any similar proceeding, or in the event of termination of this Lease by reason of any such proceeding or by reason of lapse of time following notice of termination given pursuant to Article XVI based upon any of the Lease Defaults set forth in said Section 16.1 (iv) through (vii) Tenant, upon request of Landlord given within thirty (30) days next following any such disaffirmance, rejection or termination (and actual notice thereof to Landlord in the event of a disaffirmance or rejection or in the event of termination other than by act of Landlord), shall (a) pay to Landlord all Rent due and owing by the assignee to Landlord under this Lease to and including the date of such disaffirmance, rejection or termination, and (b) as "tenant", enter into a new lease with Landlord for a term commencing on the effective date of such disaffirmance, rejection or termination and ending on the expiration date of the term, unless sooner terminated as in such lease provided, at the same Fixed Rent and Additional Rent upon the then executory terms, covenants and conditions as are contained in this Lease, except that (i) Tenant's rights under the new lease shall be subject to the possessory rights, if any, of the assignee under this Lease and the possessory rights of any person claiming through or under such assignee or by virtue of any applicable Law, (ii) such new lease shall require all defaults existing under this Lease to be cured by Tenant with due diligence, and (iii) such new lease shall require Tenant to pay all Rent reserved in this Lease which, had this Lease not been so disaffirmed, rejected or terminated, would have accrued under the provisions of this Lease after the date of such disaffirmance, rejection or termination with respect to any period prior thereto. If Tenant shall default in its obligation to enter into said new lease for a period of ten (10) days next following Landlord's request therefor, then in addition to all other rights and remedies by reason of such default, either at law or in equity, Landlord shall have the same rights and remedies against Tenant as if Tenant had entered into such new lease and such new lease had thereafter been terminated as of the commencement date thereof by reason of Tenant's default thereunder.

Section 15.6 Management Agreement. Tenant agrees and acknowledges that it will not enter into any management agreements during the Term with regard to the Facility, except with an entity (i) owned wholly by an individual principal of Tenant which entity has been received establishment approval from the New York State Department of Health Public Health and Health Planning Council in compliance with 10 NYCRR 600.9(d)(1) and (ii) approved by HUD if the Facility is, or is about to be financed by a HUD program, and/or Mortgagee. Any such management agreement shall be subordinate to Landlord's rights hereunder, to the rights of Mortgagee and to the rights of the Commissioner. Tenant shall cause such manager to execute such documents as are required by Landlord or Mortgagee or by the Commissioner to effect such subordination.

Section 15.7 Memorandum of Lease. This Lease shall not be recorded, but either party may record a memorandum of lease in which shall describe the parties to this Lease, a description of the Leased Premises and a recitation of the Term. The party requesting that the memorandum of lease be recorded shall prepare and pay all costs of recording the memorandum of lease, and the other party agrees to execute at any and all times such instruments as may be reasonably required for such recording. Upon the expiration or earlier termination of this Lease, Landlord may release the memorandum of lease. For this purpose Tenant constitutes and appoints Landlord its true and lawful attorney-in-fact with full power of substitution to execute a release of such memoranda in the name of Tenant. Such power of attorney shall be deemed to be a power coupled with an interest and cannot be revoked. To the extent any transfer tax, conveyance tax, excise tax, or similar tax is imposed by any Governmental Authority as a result of the recording of such Memorandum of Lease, or is otherwise due and payable as to Tenant's leasehold interest granted pursuant to this Lease, Tenant shall pay same to the applicable Governmental Authority.

ARTICLE XVI

(a) Tenant shall be in default under this Lease upon the occurrence of any of the following events referred to herein individually or collectively as a "Lease Default" (any reference to such event occurring or involving Tenant shall be deemed to include any such event occurring or involving any of Tenant's Subtenants):

(i) if Tenant fails to pay any installment of Rent within five (5) days after the date when due;

(ii) if Tenant defaults in the prompt and full performance of any other of Tenant's covenants, obligations or agreements hereunder which are not specifically enumerated herein as a Lease Default and fails to correct such failure within thirty (30) days of receipt of written notice from Landlord of such default (unless such default cannot reasonably be cured within thirty (30) days, in which event such period shall be extended, provided Tenant shall have commenced in good faith to cure such default within the first such thirty (30) day period and shall proceed with all due diligence to correct such default thereafter but in no event more than ninety (90) days of receipt of such written notice);

(iii) if the leasehold interest of Tenant shall be levied upon under execution or be liened or attached and such levy, lien or attachment is not removed within sixty (60) days of the date Tenant receives notice of it;

(iv) in the event of a filing by or against Tenant of a petition under federal or state law pertaining to bankruptcy or insolvency or for a reorganization or other relief;

(v) if Tenant shall admit in writing its inability to pay its debts generally as they become due;

(vi) if Tenant is adjudicated as bankrupt or a court of competent jurisdiction shall enter an order or decree appointing, with or without the consent of Tenant, a receiver or trustee of Tenant or of the whole or substantially all of its property;

(vii) if Tenant makes any general assignment for the benefit of creditors;

(A) if Tenant abandons the Leased Premises or if, except as a result of damage, destruction or a partial or complete condemnation, Tenant ceases operations of the Facility, or Tenant closes any portion of the Facility;

(viii) if Tenant receives a state or federal notice of termination of license or de-certification and such notice has not been suspended, extended, withdrawn or terminated prior to 30 days before the effective date of such termination or decertification by any Governmental Authority;

(ix) if Tenant fails to maintain its qualifications for licensure as required by this Lease if failure to do so would result in an inability to operate the Facility or would result in the appointment of a receiver with respect to the Facility;

(κ) if any transfer or assignment of this Lease or Tenant's direct or indirect interest therein or a transfer of Tenant's direct or indirect equity ownership interests occurs in violation of this Lease;

(xi) if any malpractice award or judgment exceeding any applicable malpractice insurance coverage and any applicable umbrella coverage by more than One Million

Upon the occurrence of a Lease Default, Landlord, may, if Landlord so elects, upon five (5) days written notice of such election, forthwith terminate this Lease and Tenant's right to possession of the Leased Premises and, at Landlord's sole and absolute discretion, accelerate the payment of all Rent for the balance of the Term and declare the same presently due and payable in full provided, however, that with respect to a Lease Default under Section 16.1(a)(iv), this Lease shall automatically terminate. In the event of such Lease termination, Tenant shall immediately pay Landlord the then present value of all such accelerated Rent. Landlord, in addition to all other remedies given to Landlord at law or in equity, may by written notice to Tenant, without terminating this Lease, cause Tenant to apply to the DOH to install a manager and/or management consultant and/or a receiver having the necessary approvals from Governmental Authorities, of Landlord's choice, at Tenant's sole cost and expense or to the extent permitted by applicable law, reenter the Leased Premises by summary proceedings or otherwise. In any event, upon a Lease Default, Landlord may require Tenant to consent to a so-called "Change of Ownership" and Landlord may dispossess Tenant upon approval of the Change of Ownership or Certificate of Need by DOH, it being the understanding that under no circumstances is this Lease to be an asset for Tenant's creditors by operation of law or otherwise. In the event of such reentry, Landlord may relet the Leased Premises without being obligated so to do, and in the event of a reletting may apply the Rent therefrom first to the payment of Landlord's cost and expenses, including consultant and/or expert and attorneys' fees and expenses incurred by reason of such Lease Default, and the cost and expense of reletting including, but not limited to, repairs, renovation, or alteration of the Leased Premises and then to the amount of Rent and all other sums due from or payable by Tenant hereunder, Tenant remaining liable for all other sums due from or payable by Tenant hereunder and for any deficiency. Tenant shall also be liable for and indemnify Landlord against all amounts owed to Medicare, Medicaid, all applicable third-party payor programs, third party payors, or residents, including, but not limited to, any overpayments received by Tenant, relating to the Term. Any and all such deficiencies shall constitute Additional Rent hereunder and shall be payable by Tenant monthly on the date herein provided for the payment of Rent. In addition to the foregoing remedies, Landlord shall immediately be entitled to retain the Security Deposit and draw on and retain proceeds of the Letter of Credit, and thereafter Tenant shall have no further claim, right, title or interest therein to the extent of Landlord's claims only.

Landlord acknowledges that its rights of reentry onto the Leased Premises set forth in this Lease do not confer on Landlord the authority to operate a nursing facility as defined in Article 28 of the Public Health Law on the Leased Premises and agrees that except in the event of a Lease Default Landlord will give the DOH, Tower Building, Empire State Plaza, Albany, NY 12237, notification by certified mail of its intent to reenter the Leased Premises or to initiate dispossession proceedings or that the Lease is due to expire at least thirty (30) days prior to the date on which Landlord intends to exercise a right of reentry or to initiate such proceedings or at least sixty (60) days before expiration of the Lease.

Upon receipt of notice from Landlord of its intent to exercise its right of reentry or upon the service of process in dispossession proceedings and sixty (60) days prior to the expiration of the Lease, Tenant shall immediately notify by certified mail the DOH, Tower Building, Empire State Plaza, Albany, NY 12237 (or its then current address), of the receipt of such notice or service of such process or that the Lease is about to expire.

(b) Except as provided in this Lease to the contrary, Rent and other sums not paid when due (unless paid within any applicable grace period) shall bear interest from the date when the same are first payable under the terms of this Lease until the same shall be paid at an annual rate of interest equal to the Overdue Rate.

(c) Upon the filing of a petition by or against Tenant pursuant to the Bankruptcy Code, Tenant, as debtor and as debtor-in-possession, and any trustee who may be appointed shall: (i) timely perform each and every obligation of Tenant under this Lease until such time as this Lease is either rejected or assumed by order of the United States Bankruptcy Court; (ii) pay monthly in advance on the first day of each month as reasonable compensation for use and occupancy of the Leased Premises an amount equal to the Rent and other charges otherwise due pursuant to this Lease; and (iii) reject or assume this Lease within one hundred twenty (120) days after the filing of such petition under the Bankruptcy Code or within such time period as the Bankruptcy Code may allow. Tenant, as debtor and as debtor-in-possession, and any trustee shall be deemed to have rejected this Lease in the event of the failure to comply with any of the above. Included within and in addition to any other conditions or obligations imposed upon Tenant or its successor, in the event of assumption and/or assignment is the prior written consent of any mortgagee to which this Lease has been assigned as collateral security.

(d) In the event of termination of this Lease by reason of any Lease Default by Tenant, or upon the expiration of the Term, then, and in any of such events, Tenant, upon Landlord's written request, shall to the greatest extent permitted by law, transfer to Landlord or its designees or assigns, or cause its Subtenants and/or Affiliates, to transfer to Landlord or its designees or assigns, the following: (i) all federal, state or municipal licenses, certifications, certificates, accreditations, approvals, permits, variances, waivers, provider agreements (including non-governmental) and other authorizations which relate to the operation of the Facility; and (ii) the name of the Facility as then commonly known to the general public. Tenant shall also prepare and file all notices required by applicable law in connection with such termination and shall also prepare and timely file all final Medicare and Medicaid cost reports. In the event Tenant fails or refuses to transfer any such licenses, certifications, certificates, accreditations, approvals, permits, variances, waivers, provider agreements, other authorization or trade name, then this provision shall constitute an act of assignment by Tenant to Landlord or its assigns without the necessity of any further written instrument. For this purpose, Tenant constitutes and appoints Landlord its true and lawful attorney-in-fact with full power of substitution to complete or undertake such replacements in the name of Tenant. Such power of attorney shall be deemed to be a power coupled with an interest and cannot be revoked.

(e) Landlord shall have the option of taking over the operation of the Facility, or having the operation of the Facility taken over by a designee, in the event of a termination of this Lease for any reason, without Landlord or designee assuming any of Tenant's liabilities or obligations, including Tenant's liabilities and obligations with respect to employees, such as vacation, sick leave, health insurance and pension liabilities and Tenant's obligations under applicable law to offer and provide group health continuation coverage. Landlord shall give Tenant written notice of Landlord's intent to exercise the right set forth above, in which event, upon the approval of the DOH of the Change of Ownership, Tenant shall and shall cause the Subtenant to immediately turn over possession and control of the Facility without any further action having to be taken on the part of Landlord. At the request of Landlord, Tenant shall and shall cause the Subtenant to turn over any or all of inventories, personal property (including computer and telecommunications equipment but excluding any leased equipment) vehicles, and material contracts (including hospital, transfer, vendor, and managed care contracts).

(f) No failure of Landlord to enforce any rights or remedies upon default of Tenant shall prejudice or affect the rights of Landlord upon any subsequent or similar default.

(g) In the event of a Lease Default by Tenant of any of the terms, covenants, conditions or provisions of this Lease, which Lease Default is not cured within any applicable grace or cure period, Landlord shall have the right to invoke any remedy permitted to Landlord at law, in equity or otherwise. All remedies available to Landlord are declared to be cumulative and concurrent and the exercise of one shall not preclude or waive the right to exercise any other. No termination of this Lease and no taking or recovering of possession of the Leased Premises shall deprive Landlord of any of its remedies or actions against Tenant and Tenant shall remain liable for all past or future Rent, including all taxes, insurance premiums and all other charges and Rent payable by Tenant under this Lease, during and for the balance of the Term hereof. The bringing of any action for Rent or other default shall not be construed as a waiver of the right to obtain possession of the Premises.

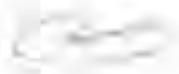

(h) If suit shall be brought for recovery of possession of the Leased Premises, for the recovery of Rent, or any other amount due under the provisions of this Lease, or because of the breach of any other covenant herein contained on the part of Tenant to be kept or performed, and breach shall be established, Tenant shall pay to Landlord all expenses, including reasonable attorney fees, incurred therefor. This subsection shall survive termination of this Lease.

Section 16.2 Facility Operating Deficiencies. On written notice of a request therefor by Landlord to Tenant, upon a Lease Default and for a period of time necessary to fully remedy the Lease Default, Tenant shall engage the services of a consultant, unaffiliated with Tenant and approved by Landlord, which approval shall not be unreasonably withheld, to review the management of the facility for the purpose of making recommendations to remedy the Lease Default. Subject to applicable legal requirements governing confidentiality of patient records, the consultant shall have complete access to the Facility, its records, offices and facilities, in order that it may carry out its duties. Tenant shall cause such consultant to prepare and deliver to Landlord and Tenant a written report of its recommendations within ten (10) days after its engagement. If Tenant shall fail to designate a consultant approved by Landlord as provided above within five (5) days after Tenant's receipt of Landlord's notice, Landlord may designate such consultant by further notice to Tenant. Tenant shall be responsible for payment of all fees and expenses reasonably charged and incurred by the consultant in carrying out its duties. Tenant shall promptly implement any and all reasonable recommendations made by such consultant in order to promptly correct or cure the Lease Default; provided, however, that in no event shall Tenant implement any such recommendations if the same would constitute a violation of applicable legal requirements, violate any rule or regulation of the DOH, or would otherwise cause a Lease Default hereunder (e.g., a transfer or change in use of the Leased Premises), unless Landlord consents in writing to such Lease Default, which consent may be given or withheld in Landlord's sole and absolute discretion. Nothing herein shall impose any liability or obligation on Landlord to (a) request the appointment of a consultant or (b) otherwise remedy the Facility Operating Deficiency(ies) nor shall it deem Landlord an operator of the Facility.

Section 16.3 Receivership

Tenant acknowledges that one of the rights and remedies available under applicable law for nursing facilities which fail to comply with the conditions of participation for Medicare or Medicaid is to apply to a court of competent jurisdiction for the appointment of a receiver to take possession of the Facility, to collect the rents, issues, profits and income of the Facility and to manage the operation of the Facility. Tenant further acknowledges that the revocation, suspension or material limitation of the certification of the Facility for provider status under Medicare or Medicaid (or successor programs) and/or the revocation, suspension or material limitation of a license relating to the operation of the Facility for its intended use under the laws of the State of New York will materially and irreparably impair the value of Landlord's investment in the Facility. Therefore, in the event of a Lease Default, and in addition to any other right or remedy of Landlord under this Lease, at the request of Landlord, Tenant shall request DOH to, or to the extent permissible under law, Tenant shall, petition any appropriate court, for the appointment of a receiver to take possession of the Facility, to manage the operation of the Facility under Tenant's licenses and certifications, to collect and disburse all rents, issues, profits and income generated thereby and to preserve or replace to the extent possible any such license and provider certification for the Facility or to otherwise substitute the licensee or provider thereof. The receiver shall be entitled to a reasonable fee for its services as a receiver. All such fees and other expenses of the receivership estate shall be added to the monthly Rent due to Landlord under this Lease as Additional Rent. Tenant hereby irrevocably stipulates to the voluntary appointment of a receiver under such circumstances and for such purposes and agrees not to contest such appointment.

Section 16.4 Tenant's Waiver, Mitigation. In connection with the exercise by Landlord of any of its remedies under this Section 16, including the termination of this Lease, in whole or in part, Tenant waives, to the maximum extent permitted by applicable Laws, (1) any right of redemption, re-entry or repossession, (2) the benefit of any moratorium laws or any laws now or hereafter in force exempting property from liability for rent or for debt, (3) any duty on the part of Landlord to mitigate the damages recoverable from Tenant on account of any Lease Default by Tenant, except that, notwithstanding the foregoing or anything in this Lease to the contrary, Landlord agrees to comply with any duty to mitigate damages where applicable Laws do not allow Tenant to waive such right, (4) the right to interpose any counterclaims (other than compulsory counterclaims) in any summary proceeding instituted by Landlord against Tenant in any court or in any action instituted by Landlord in any court for unpaid Rent under this Lease, and (5) any other right provided to Tenant under applicable Laws relating to a breach of or Lease Default under this Lease, including any rights to cure such breach or Lease Default.

ARTICLE XVII

ENTRY AND REIMBURSEMENT RIGHTS OF LANDLORD

Section 17.1 Entry and Reimbursement Rights of Landlord. In addition to those rights set forth in Section 7.2 of this Lease, Landlord reserves the right at all reasonable times during business hours and upon at least twenty-four (24) hours' advance oral notice to go upon and inspect the Facility and every part thereof (subject to applicable Laws pertaining to patient confidentiality and privacy and the confidentiality of medical records). If Landlord shall make any payments or perform any repairs on behalf of Tenant which are Tenant's obligation and which Tenant has failed to make after applicable notice from Landlord, then any reasonable amounts so paid by Landlord are agreed and declared to be Additional Rent, and shall be due and payable to Landlord by Tenant upon submission to Tenant of an invoice, bill, or statement therefor, together with interest charged at the Overdue Rate commencing on the date of such invoice, bill, or statement. Nothing in this Section 17.1 shall impose any liability or obligation upon Landlord.

Section 20.2 Waiver of Breach. The waiver by either party of a breach or violation of any provision of this Lease shall not operate as, or be construed to be a waiver of, any subsequent breach of the same or other provision hereof. No waiver shall be effective unless set forth in writing and signed by the party against whom such waiver is asserted.

Section 20.3 Delay Not a Waiver. Neither any failure nor any delay on the part of any party hereto in insisting upon strict performance of any term, condition, covenant or agreement, or exercising any right, power, remedy or privilege hereunder, or any other document or instrument entered into or delivered in connection herewith or pursuant hereto, shall operate as or constitute a waiver thereof, nor shall a single or partial exercise thereof preclude any other future exercise, or the exercise of any other right, power, remedy or privilege. A waiver of one default with respect to any Person shall not be construed to be a waiver of any subsequent default with respect to such Person or any other Person or to impair any remedy, right or power consequent thereon.

Section 20.4 Force Majeure. Neither party shall be liable nor deemed to be in default (other than monetary defaults) for any delay or failure in performance under this Lease or other interruption of service or employment deemed resulting, directly or indirectly, from acts of God, acts of public enemy, war, accidents, fires, explosions, earthquakes, floods, failure of transportation, strikes or other work interruptions by either Parties' employees, or any similar or dissimilar cause beyond the reasonable control of either party ("Force Majeure").

Section 20.5 Severability. In the event any provision of this Lease is held to be unenforceable for any reason, the unenforceability thereof shall not affect the remainder of this Lease so long as the intent of the parties under this Lease can still be effected, which shall remain in full force and effect and enforceable in accordance with its terms.

Section 20.6 Entire Agreement Amendments. This instrument contains the entire agreement between the Parties hereto with respect to the subject matter hereof. All representations, promises and prior or contemporaneous undertakings between such Parties are merged into and expressed in this instrument, and any and all prior agreements between such Parties are hereby canceled. The agreements contained in this instrument shall not be amended, modified, or supplemented except by a written agreement duly executed by both Landlord and Tenant.

Section 20.7 Counterpart Execution; Electronic Execution. This Lease may be executed in any number of counterparts with the same effect as if the Parties hereto had signed the same document. All counterparts will be construed together and shall constitute one lease. Signatures transmitted by email as PDFs shall have the same effect as original signatures.

Section 20.8 Survival of Representations and Warranties. Except as specifically provided otherwise in this Lease, all representations and warranties of Landlord and Tenant shall survive the Term of this Lease.

Section 20.9 Use of Brokers. Landlord and Tenant each represent and warrant to the other that no broker, finder or other person has been involved in regard to this Lease. Landlord and Tenant hereby agree to indemnify, defend and hold the other harmless from and against any and all claims, liabilities, costs and expenses of any kind (including the injured party's reasonable attorneys' fees and expenses) in any way relating to or arising from a claim by any Person that such Person acted on behalf of a party to this Lease in connection with the transactions contemplated herein. The provisions of this Section 20.9 shall survive the expiration and termination of this Lease.

Section 20.10 Owner for Federal Tax Purposes. It is hereby agreed between Landlord and Tenant that for federal, state and local income tax purposes Landlord will be the owner of the Leased Premises and Tenant will be the lessee thereof, and each party hereto agrees to characterize this Lease as a lease for federal, state and local income tax purposes and to file all tax returns consistent therewith.

Section 20.11 Estoppel Certificates. Tenant shall, without charge, at any time and from time to time, within ten (10) days after written request by Landlord or Mortgagee, deliver a written instrument to Landlord or any other person specified by Landlord, duly executed and acknowledged, certifying the following and such other matters as may be reasonably required by Landlord, including without limitation, current financial information relating to Tenant:

- (a) That Tenant has accepted and is in possession of the Leased Premises;
- (b) That this Lease is unmodified and in full force and effect or, if there has been any modification, that the same is in full force and effect as so modified, and identifying any such modification;
- (c) Whether or not there are then existing any setoffs or defenses in favor of Tenant against the enforcement of any of the terms, covenants, and conditions of this Lease by Landlord and, if so, specifying the same, and also whether or not Landlord has observed and performed all of the terms, covenants, and conditions on the part of Landlord to be observed and performed and, if not, specifying same;
- (d) That no Lease Defaults exist or are continuing; and
- (e) The dates to which Rent and all other charges hereunder have been paid.

Section 20.12 Confidentiality. (a) Landlord and Tenant agree to keep all aspects of (but not the existence of) this Lease confidential, and shall not disclose to any person other than the members, managers, owners, directors, officers, employees, agents, advisors, affiliates, brokers, lenders, attorneys or accountants (collectively the "Representatives") of the Parties hereto on a need-to-know basis, or to any Governmental Authority pursuant to regulatory authority, any confidential or proprietary information, knowledge or data concerning the business, affairs, operations, secrets, dealings or finances of the other party furnished directly or indirectly by such other party (collectively referred to as the "Confidential Information"). As used in this Lease, the term "Confidential Information" does not include any information which: (i) at the time of disclosure is generally available to and known by the public (other than as a result of a disclosure directly or indirectly by either party or their Representatives); (ii) was available to either party on a non-confidential basis from a source other than a party to this Lease or its Representatives, provided that such source is not and was not bound by a confidentiality agreement with the party hereto; (iii) has been independently acquired or developed by either party or their Representatives without violating any of the obligations hereunder; (iv) is required by law to be disclosed; or (v) relates to the tax structure, tax strategy or tax planning of this transaction.

(f) In the event that either party or any of the Representatives receives notice of a legal request for disclosure of any of the Confidential Information (by deposition, interrogatory, request for documents, subpoena, civil investigative demand or similar process), the party receiving such notice ("Receiving Party") shall promptly notify the other party ("Notified Party") so that the Notified Party may seek a protective order or other appropriate remedy if it chooses to do so. Failure by the Notified Party to take action to seek a protective order or other remedy and to notify the Receiving Party of such action prior to the required disclosure date, shall be deemed a waiver of the provisions of this section. In the event that a protective order or other remedy is not obtained or that the Notified Party waives compliance with the provisions hereof, the Receiving Party shall exercise its best efforts to obtain a confidentiality agreement or protective order concerning the Confidential Information, and in the absence thereof, shall disclose only that portion of the Confidential Information which it is advised by written opinion of counsel is legally required to be disclosed, or which is compelled by court order.

(g) In the event of any breach or threatened breach hereof, Landlord or Tenant shall be entitled to equitable relief, including a temporary preliminary and permanent injunction and specific performance, in addition to all other remedies available to them at law or in equity.

(h) Notwithstanding anything herein to the contrary, Landlord (and each employee, agent, or other Representative of Landlord) may disclose to any and all persons, without limitation of any kind, the tax treatment and tax structure of this Lease, related documents and all materials of any kind (including opinions or other tax analyses) that are provided to Landlord relating to such tax treatment and tax structure. For this purpose, the tax treatment of a transaction is the purported or claimed U.S. federal income tax treatment of the transaction and the tax structure of a transaction is any fact that may be relevant to understanding the purported or claimed U.S. federal income tax treatment of the transaction.

Section 20.13 Holdover. If, at the expiration of the Term, or earlier termination of the Lease, Tenant continues to occupy the Leased Premises except during a Reimbursement Period, with Landlord's consent, such holding over shall not constitute a renewal of this Lease, but Tenant shall be a Tenant from month-to-month at 300% of the most recent Rent payable by Tenant hereunder, at Landlord's sufferance, and under the same terms and conditions as were in force and effect at the expiration of the Term (except only as to the Term), and except that in the event Tenant shall continue to occupy the Leased Premises after the expiration of the Term, without a duly executed extension agreement in writing having been entered into by and between Landlord and Tenant, then if Landlord shall suffer any damage, loss, cost or expense as a result of such holdover, then Tenant, in addition to such increased Rent, shall pay the amount thereof to Landlord immediately on demand. The provisions of this Section shall be deemed to be "an agreement expressly provided" otherwise as provided in Section 252-C of the Real Property Law of the State of New York. Holding Over. Nothing contained herein shall constitute the consent, express or implied, of Landlord to the holding over of Tenant after the Expiration Date or earlier termination of this Lease, nor shall anything contained herein be deemed to limit Landlord's remedies.

Section 20.14 Tenant's Waiver of Claim for Physical Injury. Landlord and Landlord's Indemnitees shall not be liable for, and Tenant waives and indemnifies Landlord and Landlord's Indemnitees against all claims for, damage or injury to person or property sustained by Tenant or any person claiming through Tenant, or otherwise, resulting from any accident or occurrence in, about, or upon the Leased Premises, whether occurring as a result of Landlord's active or passive negligence, or otherwise.

(a) Such waiver shall include, but not be limited to, claims for damage resulting from: (i) any equipment or appurtenances becoming out of repair or any other capital improvement, replacement, repair or maintenance; (ii) injury done or occasioned by wind; (iii) any defect in or failure of plumbing, heating, or air conditioning equipment, electric wiring, gas, water and steam pipes, stairs, rail or walks; (iv) broken glass; (v) the backing up of any sewer pipe or washstand, water closet, waste pipe, drain or any other pipe or tank in, upon or about the Leased Premises; (vi) the escape of steam or hot water; (vii) water, snow or ice being upon, falling from or coming through the roof, skylight, trap door, stairs, walks or any other place upon or near the Leased Premises; (viii) the falling of any fixture, plaster, drywall or stucco; and (ix) any act, omission or negligence of trespassers.

Section 20.15 Binding Effect. This Lease does not constitute an offer to lease and shall not bind Landlord or Tenant unless and until each such party elects to be bound hereby by executing and delivering to the other party an executed original counterpart hereof.

Section 20.16 Default by Landlord. Landlord shall in no event be charged with default in the performance of any of its obligations hereunder unless and until Landlord shall have failed to perform such obligations within sixty (60) days of when they are due to be performed, except in cases when documents are required or consents needed in less than sixty (60) days in which case failure to render timely shall be deemed to be approval or consent of Landlord (or such additional time as is reasonably required to correct any such default) except for Landlord's default in making timely payment of taxes and interest, in which case Landlord shall be in default when such payments are delinquent or past due. Tenant agrees to give to the holder of record of any mortgage covering the Leased Premises notice simultaneously with any notice given to Landlord to correct any default of Landlord as hereinabove provided and agrees that the holder of record of any mortgage shall have the right, after receipt of notice of such default, within sixty (60) days after the expiration of Tenant's applicable cure period with respect thereto, to correct or remedy such default before Tenant may take any action under this Lease by reason of such default. Landlord shall also give to the holder of any mortgage copies of any notices of default which it may give or send to Tenant.

Section 20.17 Liens. Tenant shall not do or suffer anything to be done whereby the Leased Premises, or any portion thereof, or any interest therein, may be encumbered by any liens of mechanics, laborers, or materialmen, chattel mortgages or any other liens. Tenant shall, whenever and as often as any such liens are filed against the Leased Premises, or any portion thereof, purporting to be for labor or material furnished or to be furnished to Tenant, discharge the same of record within thirty (30) days after the date of filing by payment, bonding or otherwise, as provided by law. In the event of the default of Tenant in procuring the discharge, as aforesaid, of any such lien, Landlord may, with five (5) days prior notice, procure such discharge and the expenses incurred by Landlord in obtaining such discharge shall be paid by Tenant as Additional Rent within ten (10) days after notice from Landlord of the amount thereof.

Section 20.18 Publicity. All news releases, publicity or advertising by Tenant or their Affiliates through any media intended to reach the general public which refers to Landlord, or its Affiliates, this Lease or the purchase of the Real Property shall be subject to the prior written approval of Landlord.

Section 20.19 Trial by Jury. TENANT HEREBY AGREES NOT TO ELECT A TRIAL BY JURY OF ANY ISSUE TRIABLE OF RIGHT BY JURY, AND WAIVES ANY RIGHT TO TRIAL BY JURY FULLY TO THE EXTENT THAT ANY SUCH RIGHT SHALL NOW OR HEREAFTER EXIST WITH REGARD TO THIS LEASE, OR ANY CLAIM, COUNTERCLAIM OR OTHER ACTION ARISING IN CONNECTION THEREWITH. THIS WAIVER OF RIGHT TO TRIAL BY JURY IS GIVEN KNOWINGLY AND VOLUNTARILY BY TENANT, AND IS INTENDED TO ENCOMPASS INDIVIDUALLY EACH INSTANCE AND EACH ISSUE AS TO WHICH THE RIGHT TO A TRIAL BY JURY WOULD OTHERWISE ACCRUE. LANDLORD IS HEREBY AUTHORIZED TO FILE A COPY OF THIS PARAGRAPH IN ANY PROCEEDING AS CONCLUSIVE EVIDENCE OF THIS WAIVER BY TENANT.

Section 20.20 Construction and Interpretation. The Parties have each negotiated the terms and conditions hereof and reviewed this Lease carefully. It is the intent of the Parties that each word, phrase, sentence and other part hereof shall be given its plain meaning, and that rules of interpretation or construction of contracts that would construe any ambiguity of any part hereof against the draftsman, by virtue of being the draftsman, shall not apply.

Section 20.21 Accord and Satisfaction. No payment by Tenant or receipt by Landlord of a lesser amount than shall be due hereunder, shall be deemed to be other than a payment on account nor shall any endorsement or statement on any check or any letter accompanying any check or payment as rent be given any effect or be deemed an accord and satisfaction, and Landlord may accept such checks without prejudice to any other rights or remedies which Landlord may have.

Section 20.22 Captions and Headings. The captions and headings set forth in this Lease are included for convenience and reference only, and the words obtained therein shall in no way be held or deemed to define, limit, describe, explain, modify, amplify or add to the interpretation, construction or meaning of, or the scope or intent of, this Lease, or any parts hereof or thereof.

Section 20.23 Time is of the Essence. Time is of the essence of each and every term, condition, covenant and warranty set forth herein or in any of the other Lease Documents.

Section 20.24 Successors and Assigns. This Lease and the other Lease Documents shall (a) be binding upon Tenant and Tenant's legal representatives and permitted successors and permitted assigns, and (b) inure to the benefit of Landlord and any other person or entity who may now or hereafter hold the interest of Landlord under this Lease and their respective successors and assigns.

Section 20.25 No Third Party Beneficiaries This Lease is solely for the benefit of Landlord, its successors and assigns, and Tenant, and nothing contained herein shall confer upon any person other than Tenant or Landlord or their respective successors and assigns, any right to insist upon or to enforce the performance or observance of any of the obligations contained herein, except only as may be otherwise specifically provided for in this Lease. All conditions to the obligations of Landlord to advance or make available proceeds of insurance or condemnation are imposed solely and exclusively for the benefit of Landlord, its successors and assigns. No other person or entity shall have standing to require satisfaction of such conditions in accordance with their terms, and no other person or entity shall, under any circumstances, be a beneficiary of such conditions, any or all of which may be freely waived in whole or in part by Landlord at any time, if in Landlord's sole and absolute discretion, Landlord deems it advisable or desirable to do so.

Section 20.26 Non-Competition and Non-Solicitation

Tenant agrees to the following restrictive covenants and agreements which covenants are not severable from this Lease and which are included to protect the value of the Leased Premises. Accordingly, Tenant agrees that it and their Affiliates will not, during the Term of this Lease at any time for a period of two (2) years after the expiration or early termination of this Lease, directly or indirectly, together or alone or in conjunction with any others, engage in the following:

- (i) compete with the business conducted at the Facility, and for these purposes will not own, manage, operate, join, control or participate in, or be connected as an officer, employee, partner, director, trustee or otherwise in any manner with a company which owns or operates (or provides consulting and/or management services to any skilled nursing facility located within the Primary Market of the Facility or (ii) any company providing hospice services in the Commonwealth of Massachusetts, or, otherwise lend credit to a person, firm or entity of a type which they prohibited from owning,

(ii) solicit or hire any then current or former (having provided services during the period commencing one year prior to such date of solicitation or hire) employees of the Facility (except for employment at the Facility).

(iii) solicit or cause any then current resident of the Facility to move to another nursing facility unless, except during the Term of this Lease the Facility can no longer provide adequate care for such resident.

Tenant acknowledges and agrees that the remedy at law for any breach or threat of breach of the foregoing agreements will be inadequate and that Landlord shall be entitled to injunctive relief in addition to any rights or remedies available to it for any breach or threat of breach hereof. The foregoing covenants shall be deemed to be severable and if the same be held invalid by reason of length of time or area covered, or both, the Tenant agrees that such length of time or area covered, or either of them, shall be reduced to the extent necessary to cure such invalidity and the provisions hereof shall be enforceable to the fullest extent permitted by law.

Section 20.27 Subdivision. If the Leased Premises are in excess of that which is required to operate the Facility in accordance with the Intended Use, Landlord may subdivide the Leased Premises and amend this Lease to include only so much of the Leased Premises as is necessary to operate the Facility in accordance with the Primary Intended Use. If Landlord subdivides the Leased Premises there shall be no change in the Rent payable hereunder. After any such subdivision, Tenant shall have no rights to any land which is no longer part of the Leased Premises and Landlord may sell, lease or develop any land which is no longer part of the Leased Premises. If Landlord elects to subdivide the Leased Premises Tenant shall cooperate with Landlord and take all actions reasonably requested by Landlord to effect such subdivision.

Section 20.28 Landlord Not in Control; No Partnership. None of the covenants or other provisions contained in this Lease shall, or shall be deemed to, give Landlord the right or power to exercise control over the affairs or management of Tenant, the power of Landlord being limited to the rights to exercise the remedies referred to in this Lease. The relationship between Tenant, on the one hand, and Landlord, on the other hand, is, and at all times shall remain, solely that of landlord and tenant. No covenant or provision of this Lease is intended, nor shall it be deemed or construed, to create a partnership, joint venture, agency or common interest in profits or income between Landlord, on the one hand, and Tenant, on the other hand. Landlord undertakes or assumes no responsibility or duty to Tenant or to any other person with respect to the Facility or this Lease, except as expressly provided in this Lease; and notwithstanding any other provision of this Lease (a) Landlord shall not be construed as, a partner, joint venturer, alter ego, manager, controlling person or other business associate or participant of any kind of Tenant or its stockholders, members, or partners and Landlord never intends to ever assume such status; (b) Landlord shall not in any event be liable for any debts, expenses or losses incurred or sustained by Tenant; and (c) Landlord shall not be deemed responsible for or a participant in any acts, omissions or decisions of Tenant or their stockholders, members, or partners. Landlord, on the one hand, and Tenant, on the other hand, disclaim any intention to create any partnership, joint venture, agency or common interest in profits or income between Landlord, on the one hand, and Tenant, on the other hand, or any sharing of liabilities, losses, costs or expenses.

Section 20.29 Tenant Cooperation. Section 20.31 Affiliate. The term "Affiliate" shall mean, as to any Person, any other Person that, directly or indirectly, is in control of, is controlled by or is under common control with such Person or is a director or officer of such Person or of an Affiliate of such Person.

REMEDIES CUMULATIVE

All of the rights and remedies of Landlord under each of the Lease Documents shall be separate and cumulative and may be exercised concurrently or successively in Landlord's sole and absolute discretion.

No member, manager, officer, shareholder, employee or agent of Landlord or its respective affiliates shall be held to any personal liability, jointly, or severally, for any obligation of, or claim against Landlord under this Lease. All persons dealing with Landlord, in any way, shall look only to the assets of Landlord for the payment of any sum or the performance of any obligations.

No receipt of any such notice under subsections (a), (b) and (c) shall impose any obligation on Landlord to take any action or to enforce its rights hereunder or otherwise remedy the circumstances leading to such notice.
