GUARANTY OF LEASE

THIS GUARANTY OF LEASE (this "Guaranty") is made as of November 19, 2015, by Lizer Jozofovic ("Guarantor"), to WHITE PLAINS HEALTHCARE PROPERTIES I, LLC, a Massachusetts limited liability company ("Landlord").

RECITALS

- A. Landlord has been requested by HBL SNF, LLC a New York Limited Liability Company ("Tenant") to enter into an Amended and Restated Lease and Security Agreement dated as of November 19, 2015 (the "Lease"), whereby Landlord would lease to Tenant, and Tenant would lease from Landlord, certain premises located in White Plains, New York, as more particularly described in the Lease (the "Premises").
- B. Tenant is owned by Guarantor, and Guarantor will derive substantial economic benefit from the execution and delivery of the Lease.
- C. Guarantor acknowledges that Landlord would not enter into the Lease unless this Guaranty accompanied the execution and delivery of the Lease.
- D. Guarantor hereby acknowledges receipt of a copy of the Lease.

NOW, THEREFORE, in consideration of the execution and delivery of the Lease and of other good and valuable consideration, the receipt and sufficiency of which are hereby acknowledged, Guarantor covenants and agrees as follows:

1. DEFINITIONS. Defined terms used in this Guaranty and not otherwise defined herein have the meanings assigned to them in the Lease.

2. COVENANTS OF GUARANTOR.

2.1 Guarantor absolutely, unconditionally and irrevocably guarantees, as a primary obligor and not merely as a surety: (i) the full and prompt payment of all Minimum Rent and Additional Rent and all other rent, sums and charges of every type and nature payable by Tenant under the Lease, whether due by acceleration or otherwise, including costs and expenses of collection (collectively, the "Monetary Obligations"), and (ii) the full, timely and complete performance of all covenants, terms, conditions, obligations, indemnities and agreements to be performed by Tenant under the Lease, including any indemnities or other obligations of Tenant that survive the expiration or earlier termination of the Lease (all of the obligations described in clauses (i) and (ii), are collectively referred to herein as the "Obligations").

2.2 Guarantor agrees with Landlord that (i) any action, suit or proceeding of any kind or nature whatsoever (an "Action") commenced by Landlord against Tenant, Guarantor or any Other Guarantor of the Lease ("Other Guarantor") to enforce the Obligations shall not prejudice in any way Landlord's rights to enforce the Obligations in any subsequent Action against Tenant, Guarantor or any Other Guarantor, (ii) Landlord may, at its option, join Guarantor in any Action against Tenant or any Other Guarantor or seek recover against Guarantor without Landlord first asserting, prosecuting, or exhausting any remedy or claim against Tenant or any Other Guarantor and (iii) Guarantor will be conclusively bound by a judgment entered in any Action in favor of Landlord against Tenant whether or not Guarantor is entered as a party or participates in such Action.

3.2 If Landlord proposes to grant a mortgage on, or refinance any mortgage encumbering the Premises or any portion thereof, Guarantor shall cooperate in the process, and shall permit Landlord and the proposed mortgagee to meet with Guarantor or, if applicable, officers of Guarantor and to discuss Guarantor's business and finances. On request of Landlord, Guarantor agrees to provide any such prospective mortgagee the information to which Landlord is entitled hereunder, provided that if any such information is not publicly available, such nonpublic information shall be made available on a confidential basis. Guarantor agrees to execute, acknowledge and deliver documents requested by the prospective mortgagee (such as a consent to the financing, without encumbering Guarantor's or Tenant's assets, a consent to a collateral assignment of the Lease and of this Guaranty, estoppel certificate, and a subordination, non-disturbance and attornment agreement), customary for tenants and their guarantors to sign in connection with mortgage loans to landlords, so long as such documents are in form then customary among institutional lenders (provided the same do not materially and adversely change Tenant's rights or obligations under the Lease or materially and adversely change Guarantor's rights and obligations under this Guaranty).

3. GUARANTOR'S OBLIGATIONS UNCONDITIONAL.

3.1 This Guaranty is an absolute and unconditional guaranty of payment and of performance, and not of collection, and shall be enforceable against Guarantor without the necessity of the commencement by Landlord of any Action against Tenant, and without the necessity of any notice of nonpayment, nonperformance or nonobservance, or any notice of acceptance of this Guaranty, or of any other notice or demand to which Guarantor might otherwise be entitled, all of which Guarantor hereby expressly waives in advance. The obligations of Guarantor hereunder are independent of, and may exceed, the obligations of Tenant.

3.2 This Guaranty shall apply notwithstanding any extension or renewal of the Lease, or any holdover following the expiration or termination of the Lease Term or any renewal or extension of the Lease Term.

3.3 This Guaranty is a continuing guarantee and will remain in full force and effect notwithstanding, and the liability of Guarantor hereunder shall be absolute and unconditional irrespective of any or all of the following: (i) any renewals, extensions, modifications, alterations or amendments of the Lease (regardless of whether Guarantor consented to or had notice of same); (ii) any releases or discharges of Tenant or any Other Guarantor other than the full release and complete discharge of all of the Obligations; (iii) Landlord's failure or delay to assert any claim or demand or to enforce any of its rights against Tenant or any Other Guarantor; (iv) any extension of time that may be granted by Landlord to Tenant or any Other Guarantor; (v) any assignment or transfer of all of any part of Tenant's interest under the Lease (whether by Tenant, by operation of law, or otherwise); (vi) any subletting, concession, franchising, licensing or permitting of the Premises or any portion thereof; (vii) any changed or different use of the Premises (or any portion thereof);

(viii) any other dealings or matters occurring between Landlord and Tenant or any Other Guarantor; (ix) the taking by Landlord of any additional guarantees, or the receipt by Landlord of any collateral, from Tenant, any Other Guarantor or any other persons or entities; (x) the release by Landlord of any Other Guarantor; (xi) Landlord's release of any security provided under the Lease or any other guaranty; (xii) Landlord's failure to perfect any landlord's lien or other lien or security interest available under applicable Legal Requirements; (xiii) any assumption by any person of any or all of Tenant's obligations under the Lease or any Other Guarantor's obligations under any other guaranty, or Tenant's assignment of any or all of its rights and interests under the Lease, (xiv) the power or authority or lack thereof of Tenant to execute, acknowledge or deliver the Lease; (xv) the existence, non-existence or lapse at any time of Tenant as a legal entity or the existence, non-existence or termination of any corporate, ownership, business or other relationship between Tenant and Guarantor; (xvi) any sale or assignment by Landlord of any or all of this Guaranty, any other guaranty and the Lease (including any direct or collateral assignment by Landlord to any mortgagee); (xvii) the solvency or lack of solvency of Tenant or any Other Guarantor at any time or from time to time; or (xviii) any other cause, whether similar or dissimilar to any of the foregoing, that might constitute a legal or equitable discharge of Guarantor (whether or not Guarantor shall have knowledge or notice thereof) other than payment and performance in full of the Obligations; (xix) the release or discharge of Tenant in any state or federal creditors' proceedings, receivership, bankruptcy or other proceeding; (xx) the impairment, limitation or modification of the liability of Tenant or the estate of Tenant in bankruptcy, or of any remedy for the enforcement of Tenant's liability under the Lease, resulting from the operation of any present or future provision of the United States Bankruptcy Code (11 U.S.C. § 101 et seq., as amended), or from other statute, or from the order of any court; (xxi) the rejection, disaffirmance or other termination of the Lease in any such proceeding; (xxii) the assertion or the failure to assert by Landlord against Tenant, of any of the rights or remedies reserved to Landlord pursuant to the provisions of the Lease; or (xxiii) if at any time the payment of any amount due under the Lease or this Guaranty is rescinded or must otherwise be returned by Landlord for any reason, in such event, Guarantor shall pay to Landlord an amount equal to any such payment that has been rescinded or returned. This Guaranty shall continue to be effective if at any time the payment of any amount due under the Lease or this Guaranty is rescinded or must otherwise be returned by Landlord for any reason. Without in any way limiting the generality of the foregoing, Guarantor specifically agrees that (A) if Tenant's obligations under the Lease are modified or amended with the express written consent of Landlord, this Guaranty shall extend to such obligations as so amended or modified without notice to, consideration to, or the consent of, Guarantor, and (B) this Guaranty shall be applicable to any obligations of Tenant arising in connection with a termination of the Lease, whether voluntary or otherwise. Guarantor hereby consents, prospectively, to Landlord's taking or entering into any or all of the foregoing actions or omissions. For purposes of this Guaranty and the obligations and liabilities of Guarantor hereunder, "Tenant" shall be deemed to include any and all concessionaires, licensees, franchisees, department operators, assignees, subtenants, permittees or others directly or indirectly operating or conducting a business in or from the Premises or any portion thereof, as fully as if any of the same were the named Tenant under the Lease.

3.4 Notwithstanding anything to the contrary hereunder, Guarantor shall be released and discharged from all liability with respect to any obligations of Tenant under the Lease arising or accruing after the Commencement Date (the "Guaranty Termination Date"); provided that 60 days prior to the Commencement Date Tenant has delivered to Landlord (i) (a)

an unconditional Letter of Credit, in accordance with the Section 7.1(a)(ii) of the Lease in the amount of $3,700,000, or (b) $3,700,000 in cash to secure the full and timely payment and performance of Tenant's obligations under the Lease, (i) an agreement by Capital Funding Group, which cannot be amended except by an agreement in writing signed by Landlord, Tenant and Capital Funding Group, in the form attached as Exhibit 7.1(a) of the Lease or otherwise approved by Landlord and Landlord's lenders in their reasonable discretion, wherein and whereby Capital Funding Group agrees to allow Tenant to draw down on its Credit Line each month so as to enable Capital Funding Group to pay directly to Landlord the sum of $506,096.50 per month commencing the Commencement Date and on each day Fixed Rent is due under the Lease for the following 11 months, and (ii) and released to Landlord all funds in the controlled account number [REDACTED] 7272 in JPMorgan Chase Bank, N.A. in the amount not less than $1,600,000 to be held as an additional Security Deposit by Landlord. After the Guaranty Termination Date, Guarantor shall continue to remain personally liable pursuant to the terms of this Guaranty for (i) all obligations of Tenant under the Lease which arose or accrued on or prior to the Guaranty Termination Date and (ii) any liability of Tenant arising out of a breach of any warranty or representation of Tenant under Lease, and all documents executed by Tenant in connection therewith, (iii) and any liability of Guarantor arising out of a breach of any warranty of representation hereunder.

4. WAIVERS OF GUARANTOR.

4.1 Without limitation of the foregoing, Guarantor waives (i) notice of acceptance of this Guaranty, protest, demand and dishonor, presentment, and demands of any kind now or hereafter provided for by any statute or rule of law, (ii) notice of any actions taken by Landlord or Tenant under the Lease or any other agreement or instrument relating thereto, (iii) notice of any and all defaults by Tenant in the payment of Minimum Rent and Additional Rent or other rent, charges and amounts, or of any other defaults by Tenant under the Lease, (iv) all other notices, demands and protests, and all other formalities of every kind in connection with the enforcement of the Obligations, omission of or delay in which, but for the provisions of this Section 4, might constitute grounds for relieving Guarantor of its obligations hereunder, (v) any requirement that Landlord protect, secure, perfect, insure or proceed against any security interest or lien, or any property subject thereto, or exhaust any right or take any action against Tenant, any Other Guarantor or any other person or entity (including any additional guarantor or Guarantor) or against any collateral, and (vi) the benefit of any statute of limitations affecting Guarantor's liability under this Guaranty.

4.2 GUARANTOR HEREBY WAIVES TRIAL BY JURY IN ANY ACTION, PROCEEDING OR COUNTERCLAIM BROUGHT BY ANY PERSON OR ENTITY WITH RESPECT TO ANY MATTER WHATSOEVER ARISING OUT OF OR IN ANY WAY CONNECTED WITH: THIS GUARANTY; THE LEASE; ANY LIABILITY OR OBLIGATION OF TENANT IN ANY MANNER RELATED TO THE PREMISES OR ANY PORTION THEREOF; ANY CLAIM OF INJURY OR DAMAGE IN ANY WAY RELATED TO THE LEASE AND/OR THE PREMISES (OR ANY PORTION THEREOF); ANY ACT OR OMISSION OF TENANT, ITS AGENTS, EMPLOYEES, CONTRACTORS, SUPPLIERS, SERVANTS, CUSTOMERS, CONCESSIONAIRES, FRANCHISEES, PERMITTEES OR LICENSEES; OR ANY ASPECT OF THE USE OR OCCUPANCY OF, OR THE CONDUCT OF BUSINESS IN, ON OR FROM THE PREMISES (OR ANY PORTION THEREOF).

GUARANTOR SHALL NOT INTERPOSE ANY COUNTERCLAIM OR COUNTERCLAIMS OR CLAIMS FOR SET-OFF, RECOUPMENT OR DEDUCTION OF RENT IN ANY ACTION BROUGHT BY LANDLORD AGAINST GUARANTOR UNDER THIS GUARANTY. GUARANTOR SHALL NOT BE ENTITLED TO MAKE, AND HEREBY WAIVES, ANY AND ALL DEFENSES AGAINST ANY CLAIM ASSERTED BY LANDLORD OR IN ANY SUIT OR ACTION INSTITUTED BY LANDLORD TO ENFORCE THIS GUARANTY OR THE LEASE. IN ADDITION, GUARANTOR HEREBY WAIVES, BOTH WITH RESPECT TO THE LEASE AND WITH RESPECT TO THIS GUARANTY, ANY AND ALL RIGHTS WHICH ARE WAIVED BY TENANT UNDER THE LEASE, IN THE SAME MANNER AS IF ALL SUCH WAIVERS WERE FULLY RESTATED HEREIN. THE LIABILITY OF GUARANTOR UNDER THIS GUARANTY IS PRIMARY AND UNCONDITIONAL.

4.3 Guarantor expressly waives any and all rights to defenses arising by reason of (i) any "one-action" or "anti-deficiency" law or any other law that may prevent Landlord from bringing any action, including a claim for deficiency, against Guarantor before or after Landlord's commencement or completion of any action against Tenant or any Other Guarantor; (ii) ANY ELECTION OF REMEDIES BY LANDLORD (INCLUDING ANY TERMINATION OF THE LEASE) THAT DESTROYS OR OTHERWISE ADVERSELY AFFECTS GUARANTOR'S SUBROGATION RIGHTS OR GUARANTOR'S RIGHTS TO PROCEED AGAINST TENANT FOR REIMBURSEMENT; (iii) any disability, insolvency, bankruptcy, lack of authority or power, death, insanity, minority, dissolution, or other defense of Tenant, of any other guarantor (or any other Guarantor), or of any other person or entity, or by reason of the cessation of Tenant's liability from any cause whatsoever, other than full and final payment in legal tender and performance of the Obligations; (iv) any right to claim discharge of any or all of the Obligations on the basis of unjustified impairment of any collateral for the Obligations; (v) any change in the relationship between Guarantor and Tenant or any Other Guarantor or any termination of such relationship; (vi) any irregularity, defect or unauthorized action by any or all of Landlord, Tenant, any Other Guarantor or surety, or any of their respective officers, directors or other agents in executing and delivering any instrument or agreements relating to the Obligations or in carrying out or attempting to carry out the terms of any such agreements; (vii) any assignment, endorsement or transfer, in whole or in part, of the Obligations, whether made with or without notice to or consent of Guarantor; (viii) if the recovery from Tenant or any other Person (including any Other Guarantor) becomes barred by any statute of limitations or is otherwise prevented; (ix) the benefits of any and all statutes, laws, rules or regulations applicable in the State of Illinois which may require the prior or concurrent joinder of any other party to any action on this Guaranty; (x) any release or other reduction of the Obligations arising as a result of the expansion, release, substitution, deletion, addition, or replacement (whether or not in accordance with the terms of the Lease) of the Premises or any portion thereof; or (xi) any neglect, delay, omission, failure or refusal of Landlord to take or prosecute any action for the collection or enforcement of any of the Obligations or to foreclose or take or prosecute any action in connection with any lien or right of security (including perfection thereof) existing or to exist in connection with, or as security for, any of the Obligations, it being the intention hereof that Guarantor shall remain liable as a principal on the Obligations notwithstanding any act, omission or event that might, but for the provisions hereof, otherwise operate as a legal or equitable discharge of Guarantor. Guarantor hereby waives all defenses of a surety to which it may be entitled by statute or otherwise.

5. SUBORDINATION; SUBROGATION.

5.1 Guarantor subordinates to and postpones in favor of the Obligations (i) any present and future debts and obligations of Tenant or any Other Guarantor to Guarantor (the "Indebtedness"), including: (A) salary, bonuses, and other payments pursuant to any employment arrangement; (B) fees, reimbursement of expenses and other payments pursuant to any independent contractor arrangement; (C) principal and interest pursuant to any Indebtedness; (D) distributions payable to any partners, members or shareholders of Guarantor or Affiliates of Guarantor; (E) lease payments pursuant to any leasing arrangement; (F) any management fees; and (G) all rights, liens and security interests of Guarantor, whether now or hereafter arising, in any assets of the Tenant or any Other Guarantor, and (ii) any liens or security interests securing payment of the Indebtedness. Guarantor shall have no right to possession of any assets of Tenant or any Other Guarantor or to foreclose upon any such asset, whether by judicial action or otherwise, unless and until the Obligations have been paid and performed in full. Guarantor agrees that Landlord shall be subrogated to Guarantor with respect to Guarantor's claims against Tenant or any Other Guarantor and Guarantor's rights, liens and security interest, if any, in any of Tenant's or any Other Guarantor's assets and proceeds thereof until all of the Obligations have been paid and performed in full.

5.2 After the occurrence of an Event of Default and until such Event of Default is cured or after the commencement of any bankruptcy or insolvency proceeding by or against Tenant and until such proceeding is dismissed, Guarantor shall not: (i) make any distributions or other payments to any partners, parent entities, or Affiliates of Guarantor (other than to Tenant); or (ii) ask for, sue for, demand, take or receive any payment, by setoff or in any other manner, including the receipt of a negotiable instrument, for all or any part of the Indebtedness owed by Tenant, or any successor or assign of Tenant, including a receiver, trustee or debtor in possession (the term "Tenant" shall include any such successor or assign of Tenant) until the Obligations have been paid in full; however, if Guarantor receives such a payment, Guarantor shall immediately deliver the payment to Landlord for credit against the then outstanding balance of the Obligations, whether matured or unmatured. Notwithstanding anything in this Section 5 to the contrary, after an Event of Default has occurred and is outstanding, Guarantor may make cash contributions to Tenant.

5.3 Guarantor shall not be subrogated, and hereby waives and disclaims any claim or right against Tenant by way of subrogation or otherwise, to any of the rights of Landlord under the Lease or otherwise, or in the Premises (or any portion thereof), which may arise by any of the provisions of this Guaranty or by reason of the performance by Guarantor of any of its Obligations hereunder. Guarantor shall look solely to Tenant for any recoupment of any payments made or costs or expenses incurred by Guarantor pursuant to this Guaranty. If any amount shall be paid to Guarantor on account of such subrogation rights at any time when all of the Obligations shall not have been paid and performed in full, Guarantor shall immediately deliver the payment to Landlord for credit against the then outstanding balance of the Obligations, whether matured or unmatured.

6. REPRESENTATIONS AND WARRANTIES OF GUARANTOR. Guarantor represents and warrants that:

6.1 This Guaranty is valid and binding upon and enforceable against Guarantor without the requirement of further action or condition.

6.2 The execution, delivery and performance by Guarantor of this Guaranty does not and will not (i) contravene any applicable Legal Requirements, the organizational documents of Guarantor, if applicable, any order, writ, injunction, decree applicable to Guarantor, or any contractual restriction binding on or affecting Guarantor or any of its properties or assets, or (ii) result in or require the creation of any lien, security interest or other charge or encumbrance upon or with respect to any of its properties or assets.

6.3 No approval, consent, exemption, authorization or other action by, or notice to, or filing with, any governmental authority is necessary or required in connection with the execution, delivery or performance by, or enforcement against, Guarantor of this Guaranty or any other instrument or agreement required hereunder.

6.4 There is no action, suit or proceeding pending or threatened against or otherwise affecting Guarantor before any court or other governmental authority or any arbitrator that may materially adversely affect Guarantor's ability to perform its obligations under this Guaranty.

6.6 Guarantor has derived or expects to derive financial and other advantages and benefits directly or indirectly, from the making of the Lease and the payment and performance of the Obligations. Guarantor hereby acknowledges that Landlord will be relying upon Guarantor's guarantee, representations, warranties and covenants contained herein.

6.7 All reports, statements (financial or otherwise), certificates and other data furnished by or on behalf of Guarantor to Landlord in connection with this Guaranty or the Lease are: true and correct, in all material respects, as of the applicable date or period provided therein; do not omit to state any material fact or circumstance necessary to make the statements contained therein not misleading; and fairly represent the financial condition of Guarantor as of the respective date thereof; and no material adverse change has occurred in the financial condition of Guarantor since the date of the most recent of such financial statements.

7. NOTICES. Any consents, notices, demands, requests, approvals or other communications given under this Guaranty shall be in writing and shall be given as provided in the Lease, as follows or to such other addresses as either Landlord or Guarantor may designate by notice given to the other in accordance with the provisions of this Section 7:

The undersigned hereby acknowledges and agrees that Landlord may obtain personal jurisdiction and perfect service of process through Tenant as the undersigned agent, or by any other means now or hereafter permitted by applicable law. Nothing above shall limit Landlord's choice of forum for purposes of enforcing this Guaranty.

9.1 Financial Deliveries. Guarantor shall deliver the following information to Landlord:

9.1.1 As soon as available, and in any event within 120 days after the close of each calendar year, in hard copy and electronic format, in form satisfactory to Landlord, and presented on a consolidated as well as a property-by-property basis, complete financial statements prepared for such year with respect to Guarantor including a balance sheet as of the end of such year, together with related statements of operations, cash flows and changes in equity for such calendar year, prepared in accordance with GAAP applied on a consistent basis.

Upon the delivery of any financial information by or on behalf of Guarantor pursuant to this Section 9 from time to time during the Lease Term, Guarantor shall be deemed (unless Guarantor specifically states otherwise in writing) to automatically represent and warrant to Landlord that the financial information delivered to Landlord is true, accurate and complete, presents fairly the results of operations of Guarantor for the respective periods covered thereby, reflects accurately the books and records of account of Guarantor as of such dates and for such periods, and that there has been no adverse change in the financial condition of Guarantor since the date of the then applicable financial information.

9.2 Assignment; Sale of Assets; Change in Control. Without the prior consent of Landlord, which consent may be withheld or granted in Landlord's sole discretion, Guarantor shall not assign (whether directly or indirectly), in whole or in part, this Guaranty or any obligation hereunder or, through one or more step transactions or tiered transactions, do, or permit to be done, any activity, transaction or Transfer prohibited under Section 10.1 of the Lease.

9.3 Payment Method; Default Interest. Guarantor shall make any payments due hereunder in immediately available funds by wire transfer to Landlord's bank account as notified by Landlord, unless Landlord agrees to another method of payment of immediately available funds. If Guarantor does not pay an amount due hereunder on its due date, Guarantor shall pay, on demand, interest at 18% annually on the amount due for a period ending on the full payment of such amount, including the day of repayment, whether before or after any judgment or award, to the extent permitted under applicable law.

10.1 Guarantor further agrees that Landlord may, without notice, assign this Guaranty in whole or in part. If Landlord disposes of its interest in the Lease, "Landlord," as used in this Guaranty, shall mean Landlord's successors and assigns.

10.2 Guarantor promises to pay all costs of collection or enforcement incurred by Landlord in exercising any remedies provided for in the Lease or this Guaranty whether at law or in equity. If any legal action or proceeding is commenced to interpret or enforce the terms of, or obligations arising out of, this Guaranty, or to recover damages for the breach thereof, the party prevailing in any such action or proceedings shall be entitled to recover from the non-prevailing party all attorneys' fees and reasonable costs and expenses incurred by the prevailing party. As used herein, "attorneys' fees" shall mean the fees and expenses of counsel to the parties hereto, which may include printing, photocopying, duplicating and other expenses, air freight charges, and fees billed for law clerks, paralegals, librarians and others not admitted to the bar but performing services under the supervision of an attorney. The term "attorneys' fees" shall also include all such fees and expenses incurred with respect to appeals, arbitrations and bankruptcy proceedings.

10.3 Guarantor shall, from time to time within 10 days after receipt of Landlord's request, execute, acknowledge and deliver to Landlord a statement certifying that this Guaranty is unmodified and in full force and effect (or if there have been modifications, that the same is in full force and effect as modified and stating such modifications), and setting forth such other information as Landlord may reasonably request. Such certificate may be relied upon by any prospective purchaser, lessor or lender of all or a portion of the Premises (or any portion thereof).

10.8 The provisions of this Guaranty shall be governed by and interpreted solely in accordance with the internal laws of the State of New York, without giving effect to the principles of conflicts of law.

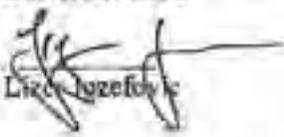

10.9 The execution of this Guaranty after the execution of the Lease shall not invalidate this Guaranty or lessen the Obligations of Guarantor hereunder.

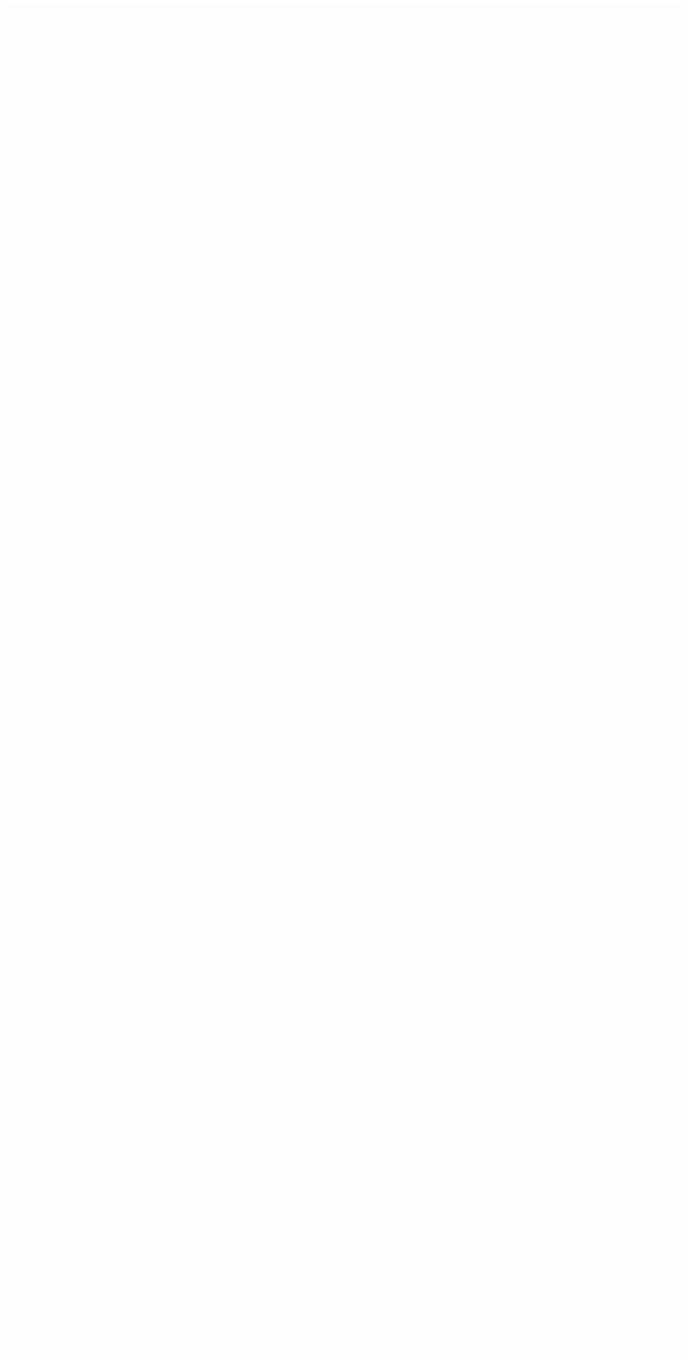

10.10 This Guaranty may be executed in multiple counterparts, each of which shall be an original, but all of which shall constitute but one instrument. The signature page of any counterpart may be detached therefrom and reattached to any other counterpart to physically form a single document.

10.11 The Recitals set forth above are hereby incorporated by this reference and made a part of this Guaranty. Guarantor hereby represents and warrants that the Recitals are true and correct.

to Nicholson Aff.

GUARANTY OF LEASE

THIS GUARANTY OF LEASE (this "Guaranty") is made as of November 19, 2015, by Mark Neuman ("Guarantor"), to WHITE PLAINS HEALTHCARE PROPERTIES I, LLC, a Massachusetts limited liability company ("Landlord").

RECITALS

A. Landlord has been requested by HBL SNF, LLC a New York Limited Liability Company ("Tenant") to enter into an Amended and Restated Lease and Security Agreement dated as of November 19, 2015 (the "Lease"), whereby Landlord would lease to Tenant, and Tenant would lease from Landlord, certain premises located in White Plains, New York, as more particularly described in the Lease (the "Premises").

B. Guarantor will derive substantial economic benefit from the execution and delivery of the Lease.

C. Guarantor acknowledges that Landlord would not enter into the Lease unless this Guaranty accompanied the execution and delivery of the Lease.

D. Guarantor hereby acknowledges receipt of a copy of the Lease.

NOW, THEREFORE, in consideration of the execution and delivery of the Lease and of other good and valuable consideration, the receipt and sufficiency of which are hereby acknowledged, Guarantor covenants and agrees as follows:

1. DEFINITIONS. Defined terms used in this Guaranty and not otherwise defined herein have the meanings assigned to them in the Lease.

2. COVENANTS OF GUARANTOR.

2.1 Guarantor absolutely, unconditionally and irrevocably guarantees, as a primary obligor and not merely as a surety: (i) the full and prompt payment of all Minimum Rent and Additional Rent and all other rent, sums and charges of every type and nature payable by Tenant under the Lease, whether due by acceleration or otherwise, including costs and expenses of collection (collectively, the "Monetary Obligations"), and (ii) the full, timely and complete performance of all covenants, terms, conditions, obligations, indemnities and agreements to be performed by Tenant under the Lease, including any indemnities or other obligations of Tenant that survive the expiration or earlier termination of the Lease (all of the obligations described in clauses (i) and (ii), are collectively referred to herein as the "Obligations").

2.2 Guarantor agrees with Landlord that (i) any action, suit or proceeding of any kind or nature whatsoever (an "Action") commenced by Landlord against Tenant, Guarantor or any Other Guarantor of the Lease ("Other Guarantor") to enforce the Obligations shall not prejudice in any way Landlord's rights to enforce the Obligations in any subsequent Action against Tenant, Guarantor or any Other Guarantor, (ii) Landlord may, at its option, join Guarantor in any Action against Tenant or any Other Guarantor or seek recover against Guarantor without Landlord first asserting, prosecuting, or exhausting any remedy or claim against Tenant or any Other Guarantor and (iii) Guarantor will be conclusively bound by a judgment entered in any Action in favor of Landlord against Tenant whether or not Guarantor is entered as a party or participates in such Action.

2.3 If Landlord proposes to grant a mortgage on, or refinance any mortgage encumbering the Premises or any portion thereof, Guarantor shall cooperate in the process, and shall permit Landlord and the proposed mortgagee to meet with Guarantor or, if applicable, officers of Guarantor and to discuss Guarantor's business and finances. On request of Landlord, Guarantor agrees to provide any such prospective mortgagee the information to which Landlord is entitled hereunder, provided that if any such information is not publicly available, such nonpublic information shall be made available on a confidential basis. Guarantor agrees to execute, acknowledge and deliver documents requested by the prospective mortgagee (such as a consent to the financing, without encumbering Guarantor's or Tenant's assets, a consent to a collateral assignment of the Lease and of this Guaranty, estoppel certificate, and a subordination, non-disturbance and attornment agreement), customary for tenants and their guarantors to sign in connection with mortgage loans to landlords, so long as such documents are in form then customary among institutional lenders (provided the same do not materially and adversely change Tenant's rights or obligations under the Lease or materially and adversely change Guarantor's rights and obligations under this Guaranty).

3. GUARANTOR'S OBLIGATIONS UNCONDITIONAL.

3.1 This Guaranty is an absolute and unconditional guaranty of payment and of performance, and not of collection, and shall be enforceable against Guarantor without the necessity of the commencement by Landlord of any Action against Tenant, and without the necessity of any notice of nonpayment, nonperformance or nonobservance, or any notice of acceptance of this Guaranty, or of any other notice or demand to which Guarantor might otherwise be entitled, all of which Guarantor hereby expressly waives in advance. The obligations of Guarantor hereunder are independent of, and may exceed, the obligations of Tenant.

3.2 This Guaranty shall apply notwithstanding any extension or renewal of the Lease, or any holdover following the expiration or termination of the Lease Term or any renewal or extension of the Lease Term.

3.3 This Guaranty is a continuing guarantee and will remain in full force and effect notwithstanding, and the liability of Guarantor hereunder shall be absolute and unconditional irrespective of any or all of the following: (i) any renewals, extensions, modifications, alterations or amendments of the Lease (regardless of whether Guarantor consented to or had notice of same); (ii) any releases or discharges of Tenant or any Other Guarantor other than the full release and complete discharge of all of the Obligations; (iii) Landlord's failure or delay to assert any claim or demand or to enforce any of its rights against Tenant or any Other Guarantor; (iv) any extension of time that may be granted by Landlord to Tenant or any Other Guarantor; (v) any assignment or transfer of all of any part of Tenant's interest under the Lease (whether by Tenant, by operation of law, or otherwise); (vi) any subletting, concession, franchising, licensing or permitting of the Premises or any portion thereof; (vii) any changed or different use of the Premises (or any portion thereof);

(viii) any other dealings or matters occurring between Landlord and Tenant or any Other Guarantor; (ix) the taking by Landlord of any additional guarantees, or the receipt by Landlord of any collateral, from Tenant, any Other Guarantor or any other persons or entities; (x) the release by Landlord of any Other Guarantor; (xi) Landlord's release of any security provided under the Lease or any other guaranty; (xii) Landlord's failure to perfect any landlord's lien or other lien or security interest available under applicable Legal Requirements; (xiii) any assumption by any person of any or all of Tenant's obligations under the Lease or any Other Guarantor's obligations under any other guaranty, or Tenant's assignment of any or all of its rights and interests under the Lease, (xiv) the power or authority or lack thereof of Tenant to execute, acknowledge or deliver the Lease; (xv) the existence, non-existence or lapse at any time of Tenant as a legal entity or the existence, non-existence or termination of any corporate, ownership, business or other relationship between Tenant and Guarantor; (xvi) any sale or assignment by Landlord of any or all of this Guaranty, any other guaranty and the Lease (including any direct or collateral assignment by Landlord to any mortgagee); (xvii) the solvency or lack of solvency of Tenant or any Other Guarantor at any time or from time to time; or (xviii) any other cause, whether similar or dissimilar to any of the foregoing, that might constitute a legal or equitable discharge of Guarantor (whether or not Guarantor shall have knowledge or notice thereof) other than payment and performance in full of the Obligations; (xix) the release or discharge of Tenant in any state or federal creditors' proceedings, receivership, bankruptcy or other proceeding; (xx) the impairment, limitation or modification of the liability of Tenant or the estate of Tenant in bankruptcy, or of any remedy for the enforcement of Tenant's liability under the Lease, resulting from the operation of any present or future provision of the United States Bankruptcy Code (11 U.S.C. § 101 et seq., as amended), or from other statute, or from the order of any court; (xxi) the rejection, disaffirmance or other termination of the Lease in any such proceeding; (xxii) the assertion or the failure to assert by Landlord against Tenant, of any of the rights or remedies reserved to Landlord pursuant to the provisions of the Lease; or (xxiii) if at any time the payment of any amount due under the Lease or this Guaranty is rescinded or must otherwise be returned by Landlord for any reason, in such event, Guarantor shall pay to Landlord an amount equal to any such payment that has been rescinded or returned. This Guaranty shall continue to be effective if at any time the payment of any amount due under the Lease or this Guaranty is rescinded or must otherwise be returned by Landlord for any reason. Without in any way limiting the generality of the foregoing, Guarantor specifically agrees that (A) if Tenant's obligations under the Lease are modified or amended with the express written consent of Landlord, this Guaranty shall extend to such obligations as so amended or modified without notice to, consideration to, or the consent of, Guarantor, and (B) this Guaranty shall be applicable to any obligations of Tenant arising in connection with a termination of the Lease, whether voluntary or otherwise. Guarantor hereby consents, prospectively, to Landlord's taking or entering into any or all of the foregoing actions or omissions. For purposes of this Guaranty and the obligations and liabilities of Guarantor hereunder, "Tenant" shall be deemed to include any and all concessionaires, licensees, franchisees, department operators, assignees, subtenants, permittees or others directly or indirectly operating or conducting a business in or from the Premises or any portion thereof, as fully as if any of the same were the named Tenant under the Lease.

3.4 Notwithstanding anything to the contrary hereunder, Guarantor shall be released and discharged from all liability with respect to any obligations of Tenant under the Lease arising or accruing after the Commencement Date (the "Guaranty Termination Date"); provided that 60 days prior to the Commencement Date Tenant has delivered to Landlord (i) (a)

IN ADDITION, GUARANTOR HEREBY WAIVES, BOTH WITH RESPECT TO THE LEASE AND WITH RESPECT TO THIS GUARANTY, ANY AND ALL RIGHTS WHICH ARE WAIVED BY TENANT UNDER THE LEASE, IN THE SAME MANNER AS IF ALL SUCH WAIVERS WERE FULLY RESTATED HEREIN. THE LIABILITY OF GUARANTOR UNDER THIS GUARANTY IS PRIMARY AND UNCONDITIONAL.

4.3 Guarantor expressly waives any and all rights to defenses arising by reason of (i) any "one-action" or "anti-deficiency" law or any other law that may prevent Landlord from bringing any action, including a claim for deficiency, against Guarantor before or after Landlord's commencement or completion of any action against Tenant or any Other Guarantor; (ii) ANY ELECTION OF REMEDIES BY LANDLORD (INCLUDING ANY TERMINATION OF THE LEASE) THAT DESTROYS OR OTHERWISE ADVERSELY AFFECTS GUARANTOR'S SUBROGATION RIGHTS OR GUARANTOR'S RIGHTS TO PROCEED AGAINST TENANT FOR REIMBURSEMENT; (iii) any disability, insolvency, bankruptcy, lack of authority or power, death, insanity, minority, dissolution, or other defense of Tenant, of any other guarantor (or any other Guarantor), or of any other person or entity, or by reason of the cessation of Tenant's liability from any cause whatsoever, other than full and final payment in legal tender and performance of the Obligations; (iv) any right to claim discharge of any or all of the Obligations on the basis of unjustified impairment of any collateral for the Obligations; (v) any change in the relationship between Guarantor and Tenant or any Other Guarantor or any termination of such relationship; (vi) any irregularity, defect or unauthorized action by any or all of Landlord, Tenant, any Other Guarantor or surety, or any of their respective officers, directors or other agents in executing and delivering any instrument or agreements relating to the Obligations or in carrying out or attempting to carry out the terms of any such agreements; (vii) any assignment, endorsement or transfer, in whole or in part, of the Obligations, whether made with or without notice to or consent of Guarantor; (viii) if the recovery from Tenant or any other Person (including any Other Guarantor) becomes barred by any statute of limitations or is otherwise prevented; (ix) the benefits of any and all statutes, laws, rules or regulations applicable in the State of Illinois which may require the prior or concurrent joinder of any other party to any action on this Guaranty; (x) any release or other reduction of the Obligations arising as a result of the expansion, release, substitution, deletion, addition, or replacement (whether or not in accordance with the terms of the Lease) of the Premises or any portion thereof; or (xi) any neglect, delay, omission, failure or refusal of Landlord to take or prosecute any action for the collection or enforcement of any of the Obligations or to foreclose or take or prosecute any action in connection with any lien or right of security (including perfection thereof) existing or to exist in connection with, or as security for, any of the Obligations, it being the intention hereof that Guarantor shall remain liable as a principal on the Obligations notwithstanding any act, omission or event that might, but for the provisions hereof, otherwise operate as a legal or equitable discharge of Guarantor. Guarantor agrees that Landlord shall be subrogated to Guarantor with respect to Guarantor's claims against Tenant or any Other Guarantor and Guarantor's rights, liens and security interest, if any, in any of Tenant's or any Other Guarantor's assets and proceeds thereof until all of the Obligations have been paid and performed in full.

5.2 After the occurrence of an Event of Default and until such Event of Default is cured or after the commencement of any bankruptcy or insolvency proceeding by or against Tenant and until such proceeding is dismissed, Guarantor shall not: (i) make any distributions or other payments to any partners, parent entities, or Affiliates of Guarantor (other than to Tenant); or (ii) ask for, sue for, demand, take or receive any payment, by setoff or in any other manner, including the receipt of a negotiable instrument, for all or any part of the Indebtedness owed by Tenant, or any successor or assign of Tenant, including a receiver, trustee or debtor in possession (the term "Tenant" shall include any such successor or assign of Tenant) until the Obligations have been paid in full; however, if Guarantor receives such a payment, Guarantor shall immediately deliver the payment to Landlord for credit against the then outstanding balance of the Obligations, whether matured or unmatured. NOTE

FOR VALUE RECEIVED, WHITE PLAINS HEALTHCARE PROPERTIES I, LLC, a Massachusetts limited liability company ("Borrower") hereby promises to pay to the order of SECURITY BENEFIT LIFE INSURANCE COMPANY ("Lender") under that certain Construction Loan Agreement dated of even date herewith by and among Borrower, Security Benefit Corporation, as agent ("Agent") and Lender (the "Loan Agreement"), without offset, in immediately available funds in lawful money of the United States of America, at the Lender's Office as defined in the Loan Agreement, the principal sum of THIRTY-EIGHT MILLION FIVE HUNDRED THOUSAND AND NO/100 DOLLARS ($38,500,000.00) (or the unpaid balance of all principal advanced against this Note, if that amount is less), together with interest on the unpaid principal balance of this Note from day to day outstanding as hereinafter provided. Capitalized terms used herein and not otherwise defined herein shall have the meanings ascribed to such terms in the Construction Loan Agreement of even date herewith (the "Loan Agreement").

1. Note; Interest; Payment Schedule and Maturity Date. This Note (as may be amended, modified, supplemented, restated and replaced from time to time, the "Note") is the Note referred to in the Loan Agreement and is entitled to the benefits thereof and subject to prepayment in whole or in part as provided therein. The entire principal balance of this Note then unpaid shall be due and payable at the times as set forth in the Loan Agreement. Accrued unpaid interest shall be due and payable at the times and at the interest rate as set forth in the Loan Agreement until all principal and accrued interest owing on this Note shall have been fully paid and satisfied. Any amount not paid when due and payable hereunder shall, to the extent permitted by applicable Law, bear interest and, if applicable, a late charge in each case as set forth in the Loan Agreement.

2. Security; Loan Documents. The security for this Note includes, but is not limited to, a Mortgage Assignment of Leases and Rents, Security Agreement, and Fixture Filing (which, as it may have been or may be amended, restated, modified or supplemented from time to time, is herein called the "Security Instrument") dated as of the date hereof from Borrower to Agent, covering certain property in the County of Westchester, State of New York as more particularly described therein (the "Property"). This Note, the Security Instrument, the Loan Agreement and all other documents now or hereafter securing, guaranteeing or executed in connection with the loan evidenced by this Note (the "Loan"), as the same have been or may be amended, restated, modified or supplemented from time to time, are herein sometimes called individually a "Loan Document" and together the "Loan Documents."

3. Defaults.

(a) Subject to the terms of the Loan Agreement, upon the occurrence and during the continuance of a Default, Lender shall have the rights to declare the unpaid principal balance and accrued but unpaid interest on this Note, and all other amounts due hereunder and under the other Loan Documents, at once due and payable (and upon such declaration, the same shall be at once due and payable), to foreclose any liens and security interests securing payment hereof and to exercise any of its other rights, powers and remedies under this Note, under any other Loan Document, or at Law or in equity.

(b) All of the rights, remedies, powers and privileges (together, "Rights") of Lender provided for in this Note and in any other Loan Document are cumulative of each other and of any and all other Rights at Law or in equity. The resort to any Right shall not prevent the concurrent or subsequent employment of any other appropriate Right. No single or partial exercise of any Right shall exhaust it or preclude any other or further exercise thereof, and every Right may be exercised at any time and from time to time. No failure by Lender to exercise, and no delay in exercising any Right, including, but not limited to, the right to accelerate the maturity of this Note, shall be construed as a waiver of any Default or as a waiver of any Right. Without limiting the generality of the foregoing provisions, the acceptance by Lender from time to time of any payment under this Note which is past due or which is less than the payment in full of all amounts due and payable at the time of such payment, shall not (i) constitute a waiver of or impair or extinguish the right of Lender to accelerate the maturity of this Note or to exercise any other Right at the time or at any subsequent time, or nullify any prior exercise of any such Right, (ii) constitute a waiver of the requirement of punctual payment and performance or a novation in any respect, or (iii) in any way excuse the existence of a Default.

(c) Borrower agrees to pay all out-of-pocket costs and expenses of the holder of this Note which may be incurred unless Borrower is the sole prevailing party in an action to enforce or protect the rights or interests of such holder, including attorneys' fees and expenses (including the market value of services of in-house counsel), investigation costs and all court costs, whether before or after the Maturity Date defined in the Loan Agreement, or whether in connection with bankruptcy, insolvency or appeal, or whether collection is made against Borrower or any guarantor or endorser or any other Person primarily or secondarily liable hereunder. From the time(s) incurred until paid in full to the holder of this Note, all such sums shall bear interest at the Interest Rate set forth in the Loan Agreement until ten (10) days after demand and thereafter at the Default Rate defined in the Loan Agreement.

4. Heirs, Successors and Assigns. The terms of this Note and of the other Loan Documents shall bind and inure to the benefit of the heirs, devisees, representatives, successors and assigns of the parties. Borrower cannot assign this Note or the Loan or any of the obligations hereunder or thereunder without Lender's prior written consent. As further provided in the Loan Agreement, Lender may, at any time, sell, transfer, or assign all or a portion of its interest in this Note, the Security Instrument and the other Loan Documents on the terms and conditions set forth in the Loan Agreement.

5. General Provisions. Time is of the essence with respect to Borrower's obligations under this Note. If more than one Person executes this Note as Borrower, all of said parties shall be jointly and severally liable for payment of the indebtedness evidenced hereby. Borrower and all sureties, endorsers, guarantors and any other party now or hereafter liable for the payment of this Note in whole or in part, hereby severally (a) waive demand, presentment for payment, notice of dishonor and of nonpayment, protest, notice of protest, notice of intent to accelerate, notice of acceleration and all other notices (except any notices which are specifically required by this Note or any other Loan Document), filing of suit and diligence in collecting this Note or enforcing any of the security herefor; (b) agree to any substitution, subordination, exchange or release of any such security or the release of any party primarily or secondarily liable hereon; (c) agree that Lender shall not be required first to institute suit or exhaust its remedies hereon against Borrower or others liable or to become liable hereon or to perfect or enforce its rights against them or any security herefor; (d) consent to any extensions or postponements of time of payment of this Note for any period or periods of time and to any partial payments, before or after maturity, and to any other indulgences with respect hereto, without notice thereof to any of them; and (e) submit (and waive all rights to object) to non-exclusive personal jurisdiction of any state or federal court sitting in the city and county, and venue in the city or county, in which payment is to be made as specified in Section 7.14 of the Loan Agreement, for the enforcement of any and all obligations under this Note and the Loan Documents; (f) waive the benefit of all homestead and similar exemptions as to this Note; (g) agree that their liability under this Note shall not be affected or impaired by any determination that any security interest or lien taken by Lender to secure this Note is invalid or unperfected; and (h) hereby subordinate any and all rights against Borrower and any of the security for the payment of this Note, whether by subrogation, agreement or otherwise, until this Note is paid in full. A determination that any provision of this Note is unenforceable or invalid shall not affect the enforceability or validity of any other provision and the determination that the application of any provision of this Note to any Person or circumstance is illegal or unenforceable shall not affect the enforceability or validity of such provision as it may apply to other Persons or circumstances. This Note may not be amended except in a writing specifically intended for such purpose and executed by the party against whom enforcement of the amendment is sought. Captions and headings in this Note are for convenience only and shall be disregarded in construing it. The words "include" and "including" shall be interpreted as if followed by the words "without limitation." THIS NOTE (INCLUDING, WITHOUT LIMITATION, THE RIGHT TO HOLD BORROWER LIABLE FOR ANY DEFICIENCY REMAINING AFTER FORECLOSURE OR TO BRING SUIT UPON THE INDEBTEDNESS WITHOUT HAVING FIRST PROCEEDED AGAINST THE PROPERTY OR OTHER COLLATERAL THEREFOR) SHALL BE GOVERNED BY AND CONSTRUED IN ACCORDANCE WITH THE INTERNAL LAWS OF THE STATE OF NEW YORK, WITHOUT REGARD TO PRINCIPLES OF CONFLICTS OF LAW.

6. Notices. Any notice, request, or demand to or upon Borrower or Lender shall be deemed to have been properly given or made when delivered in accordance with the Loan Agreement.

7. Lost Note. Upon receipt of an affidavit of an officer of Lender as to the loss, theft, destruction or mutilation of this Note, and, in the case of any such loss, theft, destruction or mutilation, upon cancellation of this Note, Borrower will issue, in lieu thereof, a replacement note in the same principal amount thereof and otherwise of like tenor.

8. Exculpation. The exculpation and related provisions set forth in Section 7.22 of the Loan Agreement are hereby incorporated by reference as if fully set forth herein.

THE WRITTEN LOAN DOCUMENTS REPRESENT THE FINAL AGREEMENT BETWEEN AND AMONG THE PARTIES AND MAY NOT BE CONTRADICTED BY EVIDENCE OF PRIOR, CONTEMPORANEOUS OR SUBSEQUENT ORAL AGREEMENTS OF THE PARTIES. THERE ARE NO ORAL AGREEMENTS BETWEEN THE PARTIES.

Dear Mr. Nicholson:

Re: Notice of Default - Construction loan (the "Loan") evidenced by that certain Promissory Note dated August 18, 2017 (the "Note") in the original aggregate principal amount of $38,500,000.00 made by White Plains Healthcare Properties I, LLC ("Borrower") to the order of Security Benefit Life Insurance Company ("Lender")

Dear Mr. Nicholson:

Reference is made to the Note and to the Loan Agreement dated August 18, 2017 by and between Borrower and Lender (the "Loan Agreement").

Borrower executed and delivered the Note to Lender. The Note evidences the obligation of Borrower to pay the Loan, including without limitation, the principal amount of the Note and all interest which accrued on the Note.

Payment Default

Borrower has failed to make, or cause to be made, the monthly payment of interest due under the Note and under Section 2.12 of the Loan Agreement on May 1, 2020, which failure constitutes an Event of Default under the Loan Agreement Section 5.1 (a) (Events of Default). In accordance with the terms and conditions of the Loan Agreement, for so long as any Event of Default shall have occurred and be continuing, the outstanding principal balance of the Loan and, to the extent permitted by applicable law, overdue interest in respect of the Loan, shall each accrue interest at the Default Rate, calculated from the date such payment was due without regard to any grace or cure periods contained in the Loan Agreement. In addition, pursuant to Section 2.8 of the Loan Agreement, a late charge will be assessed. Please note that the total principal amount currently due from Borrower, together with late charges and default interest due from Borrower, are shown on Exhibit A.

Other Defaults

1. Borrower has failed to establish the Cash Management Account as required under Section 8.1 of the Loan Agreement.

Security Benefit Life Insurance Company

2. Borrower has failed to send a Tenant Direction Notice to direct the sole tenant, HBL SNF, LLC, to pay rent directly to Lender, as required by Section 8.1 of the Loan Agreement.

3. Borrower has failed to deposit all revenue generated by the Property into the Cash Management Account as required by Section 8.1 of the Loan Agreement. Among other things, we recently learned that the Tenant may have paid Borrower approximately $2,200,000 in late 2019 or early 2020. Any such revenue should have been deposited with Lender.

4. Borrower has failed to supply the financial statements for Borrower required under Section 3.13 and Exhibit B of the Loan Agreement.

5. Borrower has failed to supply annual financial statements of each Guarantor as required under Section 3.13 and Exhibit B of the Loan Agreement.

Other Issues

We also call your attention to the following:

1. No Distributions. Section 3.27 of the Loan Agreement prohibits "any distribution" to "any owner of any direct or indirect equity interests of Borrower," with limited exceptions. Please confirm that no prohibited distributions have been made while the Loan has been outstanding.

2. No Termination of Lease. We understand Borrower may have sent a Notice of Termination to the tenant under the Operating Lease in late 2019 or early 2020. Please note that pursuant to Section 3.5 of the Loan Agreement, the Operating Lease cannot be terminated without the consent of Lender.

3. Recourse Liability. Under the Loan Agreement and the Guaranty Agreement, Borrower and each Guarantor are personally liable to Lender for the "misapplication, misappropriation or conversion by Borrower" of any "Rents" or other monetary collateral for the Loan. We also call to your attention that Borrower and each Guarantor are personally liable to Lender for certain "Losses" arising out of the "willful misconduct" of Borrower in connection with the Loan or Property.

4. Maturity Date. We remind you again of the maturity date of the Loan on August 1, 2020.

Reservation of Rights

The foregoing does not constitute a waiver of any term, provision, condition, covenant or agreement contained in any of the Loan Documents (as defined in the Loan Agreement) or any instrument or agreement evidencing, related to or securing the Note, nor shall it (i) operate as a waiver of any right, remedy, power or privilege thereunder, (ii) prejudice or preclude any other further exercise thereof or the exercise of any right or remedy provided by law or in equity, (iii) entitle Borrower to any other or further notice or demand whatsoever or (iv) in any way modify, change impair, affect, diminish or release any liability of Borrower under or pursuant to any of the Loan Documents.

VERIFIED COMPLAINT

Plaintiffs Security Benefit Corporation (“Agent”), a Kansas corporation, and Security Benefit Life Insurance Company (“Security Benefit” and together with Agent, the “Lender”), a Kansas insurance company, by their attorneys, DLA Piper LLP (US), as for their Verified Complaint against the defendants, allege as follows:

NATURE OF THE ACTION

1. Lender brings this action to foreclose on real property and improvements in the County of Westchester and State of New York, known as Section 125.67, Block 3 Lot 1 in the City of White Plains and located at 120 Church Street (the “Mortgaged Property”). The Mortgaged Property secures a $38.5 million loan made to Defendant White Plains Healthcare Properties I, LLC (“Borrower”). Borrower first defaulted on the loan in 2019, long before the COVID-19 pandemic and related government shutdown orders took effect, and failed to pay back all principal and outstanding interest due on the August 1, 2020 maturity date. Lender also sues the individual guarantors who promised to pay the amounts due and owing if Borrower failed to perform, and who promised to cover any deficiencies that arise after application of the proceeds from a public foreclosure auction of the Mortgaged Property.

THE PARTIES

2. Security Benefit Life Insurance Company is, and at all relevant times hereinafter mentioned was, an insurance company, organized and existing under the laws of the State of Kansas, with an address at One Security Benefit Place, Topeka, KS 66626-0001.

3. Agent is, and at all relevant times hereinafter mentioned was, a corporation organized and existing under the laws of the State of Kansas, with an address at One Security Benefit Place, Topeka, KS 66626-0001.

4. Upon information and belief, Borrower is a limited liability company organized and existing under the laws of the State of Massachusetts, with an address at West Peabody Executive Center, Suite 200, 2 Bourbon Street, Peabody, MA 01960, and is the fee simple owner of the Mortgaged Property.

5. Upon information and belief, Defendant William A. Nicholson, an individual who at all times hereinafter mentioned was a resident of the State of Massachusetts, is named as a defendant because William A. Nicholson made certain promises and guarantees concerning Borrower's performance under the Loan Documents (as defined herein), as contained in the Guaranty Agreement dated August 18, 2017 (the "Guaranty").

6. Upon information and belief, Defendant Howard Fensterman is, and at all times hereinafter mentioned was, an individual and a resident of the State of New York, and is named as a defendant because Howard Fensterman also made certain promises and guarantees concerning Borrower's performance under the Loan Documents, as defined herein, and as contained in the Guaranty.

7. Upon information and belief, Defendant Matthew Barbara is, and at all times hereinafter mentioned was, an individual and a resident of the State of New York, and is named as a defendant because Matthew Barbara also made certain promises and guarantees concerning Borrower's performance under the Loan Documents, as defined herein, and as contained in the Guaranty.

8. Upon information and belief, Defendant Paul Barbara (together with Defendant William A. Nicholson, Defendant Howard Fensterman, and Defendant Matthew Barbara, the "Guarantors") is, and at all times hereinafter mentioned was, an individual and a resident of the State of New York, and is named as a defendant because Paul Barbara also made certain promises and guarantees concerning Borrower's performance under the Loan Documents, as defined herein, and as contained in the Guaranty.

9. Upon information and belief, Defendant New York State Department of Taxation and Finance has a principal place of business located at the Office of Counsel, Building 9, W.A. Harriman Campus, Albany, New York 12227, and is made a defendant in this action because it has or may have an interest in or lien against the Mortgaged Property by virtue of any unpaid New York State Franchise taxes, license or maintenance fees which may be due and owing from Borrower.

10. Upon information and belief, Defendant City of White Plains Finance Department has a principal place of business located at 255 Main Street, Room 102, White Plains, New York 10601, and is made a defendant in this action because it has or may have an interest in or lien against the Mortgaged Property by virtue of any unpaid City of White Plains taxes, license or maintenance fees which may be due and owing from Borrower.

11. Upon information and belief, the “John Doe” defendants constitute those persons or corporations or firms that may be in possession of, or may have contract, possessory, lien or other interests in, the Mortgaged Property.

JURISDICTION AND VENUE

12. The Court may exercise jurisdiction over Borrower because Borrower irrevocably submitted to the jurisdiction and venue of this Court in the Loan Documents, as defined herein.

13. The Court may exercise jurisdiction over the Guarantors because they irrevocably submitted to the jurisdiction and venue of the Court in the Guaranty. This Court may also exercise jurisdiction over Defendants Howard Fensterman, Matthew Barbara, and Paul Barbara pursuant to C.P.L.R. Section 301, and over Defendant William A. Nicholson pursuant to C.P.L.R. Section 302.

14. Lender’s collateral—among other things, the real property interest, improvements and personal property securing repayment of the $38,500,000.00 loan described below—is located in the State of New York and, accordingly, pursuant to C.P.L.R. Section 301, and R.P.A.P.L. Article 1, Section 121, this Court has jurisdiction to grant the relief required by Lender in this Verified Complaint.

15. As to all Defendants, venue is proper in Westchester County pursuant to C.P.L.R. Sections 507 and 509.

THE MORTGAGED PROPERTY

16. The Mortgaged Property that is the subject of this action consists of one lot known as Section 125.67, Block 3 Lot 1 in the City of White Plains and located at 120 Church Street, with appurtenances thereto and improvements thereon, all as more specifically described in Schedule A annexed hereto.

THE LOAN DOCUMENTS

17. On or about August 18, 2017, Borrower and Lender entered into a Construction Loan Agreement (the “Loan Agreement”), whereby Lender agreed to make a Building Loan to Borrower in the amount of $30,293,625, in which all or a portion of the Building Loan Costs would be advanced to Borrower, consisting solely of costs and improvements as defined in Section 2 of the New York Lien Law (the “Building Loan”), and whereby Lender further agreed to make additional loan advances to Borrower for other costs with respect to the Project in the amount of $8,206,375 (the “Project Loan”, collectively with the Building Loan referred to as the “Loan”) for a total indebtedness of $38,500,000. The Loan Agreement was duly recorded in the County Clerk’s Office on August 25, 2017, at Control No. 5962984. A true and correct copy of the Loan Agreement is attached hereto as Exhibit 1.

18. On or about August 18, 2017, Borrower, for the purpose of evidencing its indebtedness to Lender of the sum of $38,500,000, executed and delivered to Lender a promissory note dated August 18, 2017 (the “Note”), whereby Borrower was bound and promised to pay Lender such sum, with interest thereon, at the rate therein provided. A true and correct copy of the Note is attached hereto as Exhibit 2.

19. As collateral security for the payment of this indebtedness, Borrower simultaneously therewith executed, acknowledged, and delivered to Lender a mortgage dated August 18, 2017 (the “Mortgage”). The Mortgage was duly recorded in the County Clerk’s office on August 31, 2017, at Control No. 572363745 and the mortgage recording tax was then and there duly paid. A true and correct copy of the Mortgage is attached hereto as Exhibit 3.

21. On August 18, 2017, Borrower also executed, acknowledged, and delivered to Lender an Assignment of Leases and Rents dated August 18, 2017 (“Assignment,” and together with the Mortgage, the Note, the Loan Agreement, and all documents or instruments referenced in the definition of Loan Documents in the Mortgage and the Loan Agreement, and all other documents or instruments securing the repayment of the obligations of Borrower to Lender, the “Loan Documents”), as further collateral security for the payment of the indebtedness. The Assignment of Leases and Rents was duly recorded in the County Clerk’s office on August 31, 2017, at Control No. 572363749. A true and correct copy of the Assignment is attached hereto as Exhibit 4.

22. The Assignment absolutely and unconditionally assigned and granted to Lender’s Agent, for Lender’s benefit, among other things, all of Borrower’s right, title and interest in the all existing and future Leases of the Borrower affecting the use, enjoyment or occupancy of all or any portion of any space in that certain lot or piece of land, more particularly described in Schedule A annexed hereto, as well as all Rents, as defined in the Loan Agreement. (Assignment § 1.1.)

23. The Loan Documents were delivered to Lender in due course.

24. Lender is the owner and holder of the Loan Documents, and is authorized to exercise all of its rights with respect to the Loan Documents.

THE GUARANTY

25. On or about August 18, 2017, the Guarantors executed and delivered to Lender the Guaranty. A true and correct copy of the Guaranty is attached hereto as Exhibit 5.

26. Under the terms of the Guaranty, the Guarantors jointly and severally, unconditionally, absolutely and irrevocably guaranteed payment (and not merely collectability) of and agreed to pay, protect, defend and save harmless Lender for, from and against, and indemnify Lender for, from and against any and all liabilities, obligations, actual losses, damages, costs and expenses (including, without limitation, reasonable attorneys' fees), causes of action, suits, claims, demands, and judgment of any nature or description whatsoever, which may at any time be imposed upon, incurred by or awarded against Lender as a result of, among other things, misapplication, misappropriation or conversion by Borrower, Guarantor, or any Affiliate of any of them of any Rents. (Guaranty § 1(a)(vii).)

27. The Guarantors also agreed that the Guaranty was an absolute, irrevocable and unconditional guaranty of payment and performance, and each party Guarantor would be jointly and severally liable for the payment and performance of the Guaranteed Obligations, as defined in the Guaranty, as a primary obligor. (Guaranty § 4(a).)

28. The Guarantors further agreed that in the event of the occurrence of a Default under the Loan Documents, the Guaranteed Obligations would become immediately due and payable at the election of the Lender's Agent and the Guarantor shall, on demand and without presentment, protest, notice of protest, further notice of nonpayment or of dishonor, default or nonperformance, or notice of acceleration or of intent to accelerate, or any other notice whatsoever, would pay the amounts due to Agent or Lender, and pay all Losses that may arise in consequence of such Event of Default (including, without limitation, all reasonable attorneys' fees and expenses, investigation costs, court costs, and any and all other costs and expenses actually incurred by Agent or Lender in connection with the collection and enforcement of the Guaranty). (Guaranty § 4(b).)

29. Under Section 4(c) of the Guaranty, the Guarantors specifically agreed that suit may be brought or demand may be made against Borrower or against any or all parties who have signed the Guaranty, or against any one or more of them, separately or together, without impairing the rights of Lender against any party hereto. (Guaranty § 4(c).)

BORROWER'S OBLIGATIONS AND DEFAULTS

Borrower's Obligations under the Loan Documents

30. Pursuant to Section 3.1(a) of the Mortgage, Borrower agreed to make due and punctual payment of the Secured Indebtedness, as defined under Section 2.2 of the Mortgage to include:

- (i) The Note;
- (ii) All indebtedness, liabilities, duties, covenants, promises and other obligations owed by Borrower to Mortgagee and/or Lender pursuant to the Loan Documents, expressly excluding, however, any obligations of Guarantor under any Guarantor Document and any obligations under any other guaranty executed by a third party, whether now existing or hereafter arising, and whether joint or several, direct or indirect, primary or secondary, fixed or contingent, liquidated or unliquidated, and the cost of collection of all such amounts; and
- (iii) All amounts that Lender may from time to time advance pursuant to the terms and conditions of this Security Instrument with respect to an obligation secured by a lien or encumbrance prior to the lien of this Security Instrument or for the protection of this Security Instrument, together with interest thereon.

31. Under the Loan Agreement, Borrower agreed that all accrued and unpaid interest would be due and payable on the first day of each calendar month commencing on September 1, 2017 until the Maturity Date, i.e., August 1, 2020, and that the entire principal balance of the Loan then unpaid and all accrued interest is due and payable in full on the Maturity Date. (Loan Agreement § 2.12.)

32. If Borrower failed to make any payment due under the terms of the Loan Agreement or the Note within five days after such payment was due, Borrower agreed to pay a late charge equal to 5% of such payment. (Loan Agreement §2.8.)

33. In addition to the monetary obligation described above, Borrower also agreed to fulfill certain other obligations under the Loan Documents, including, inter alia:

- To establish a Cash Management Account, not later than 60 days prior to the anticipated rent commencement date under the Operating Lease, in the name of Borrower for the sole and exclusive benefit of Agent (on behalf of Lender) into which Borrower shall deposit, or cause to be deposited, all revenue generated at the Mortgaged Property (Loan Agreement § 8.1(a));
- To send a Tenant Direction Notice to direct the sole tenant, HBL SNF, LLC, to pay rent directly into the Cash Management Account set up for Lender’s exclusive benefit (Loan Agreement § 8.1(b));
- To deposit all revenue generated by the Mortgaged Property and received by the Borrower into the Cash Management Account (Loan Agreement § 8.1(b));
- To deliver the Financial Statements and other statements and information at the times and for the periods described in Exhibit “B” attached to the Loan Agreement and any other Loan Document, including the Financial Statements of Borrower and the annual Financial Statement of each Guarantor (Loan Agreement 3.13; Loan Agreement, Exhibit “B”).

Events of Default and Borrower’s Defaults

34. Section 5.1 of the Mortgage defines an Event of Default to include, the occurrence of “Default” as defined in the Loan Agreement. (Mortgage § 5.1.)

35. Under Section 5.1(a) of the Loan Agreement, a Default occurs when any of the indebtedness or any fees payable under the Note or the Loan Agreement are not paid when due, whether on the scheduled due date or upon acceleration, maturity or otherwise. (Loan Agreement § 5.1(a).)

36. Under Section 5.1(b) of the Loan Agreement, a Default occurs when any covenant, agreement of condition in the Loan Agreement or in any other Loan Document is not fully and timely performed, observed or kept by Borrower and if such failure continues unremedied for more than thirty days after notice is given to Borrower by Lender. (Loan Agreement §5.1(b).)

37. Borrower has failed to pay accrued and unpaid interest due on the first day of each calendar month fourteen (14) times, with four of these occasions pre-dating the COVID-19 pandemic and related government shutdown orders:

- (i) Borrower failed to pay accrued unpaid interest for the period beginning October 1, 2019 and ending November 1, 2019 in the amount of $159,081.07. On October 16, 2019, Lender sent a letter notifying Borrower of its Default.
- (ii) In October 2019, Borrower failed to pay a late charge in the amount of $12,642.24.

- (iii) Borrower failed to pay accrued and unpaid interest for the period beginning November 1, 2019 and ending December 2, 2019 in the amount of $159,081.07. On November 5, 2019, Lender sent a letter notifying Borrower of its Default.
- (iv) In November 2019, Borrower failed to pay a late charge of $22,388.29.
- (v) In December 2019, Borrower failed to pay a late charge of $22,388.29.
- (vi) Borrower failed to pay accrued unpaid interest for the period beginning April 1, 2020 and ending May 1, 2020 in the amount of $160,416.67. On April 16, 2020, Lender sent a letter notifying Borrower of its Default.
- (vii) In April 2020, Borrower failed to pay a late charge of $13,765.56.
- (viii) Borrower failed to pay accrued unpaid interest for the period beginning May 1, 2020 and ending June 1, 2020 in the amount of $165,763.89. On May 13, 2020, Lender sent a letter notifying Borrower of its Default.
- (ix) In May 2020, Borrower failed to pay a late charge of $20,829.30.
- (x) Borrower failed to pay accrued unpaid interest for the period beginning June 1, 2020 and ending July 1, 2020 in the amount of $160,416.67.
- (xi) In June 2020, Borrower failed to pay a late charge in the amount of $20,505.21.
- (xii) Borrower failed to pay accrued unpaid interest for the period beginning July 1, 2020 and ending August 3, 2020 in the amount of $176,458.33.
- (xiii) In July 2020, Borrower failed to pay a late charge in the amount of $8,020.83.

(xiv) In August 2020, Borrower failed to pay a late charge in the amount of $8,822.92.

38. Borrower has also defaulted on its obligations under the Loan Documents by failing to establish a Cash Management Account, failing to send a Tenant Direction Notice to the sole tenant to pay rent directly into the Cash Management Account, and failing to deposit all revenue generated by the Mortgaged Property into the Cash Management Account, as required under Section 8.1 of the Loan Agreement, as well as by failing to provide the necessary Financial Statements for Borrower and each of the Guarantors, as required by Section 3.13 and Exhibit B to the Loan Agreement. On May 22, 2020, Lender sent a letter to Borrower notifying it of these Defaults.

39. On August 1, 2020, Borrower defaulted on its obligation to repay in full the entire principal balance of the Loan then unpaid and all accrued interest by the Maturity Date.

40. As of May 1, 2021, the total payment due by Borrower, including late charges, attorneys' fees and costs is $ 41,743,537.06 ("Payoff Statement"). A true and correct copy of the Payoff Statement is attached as Exhibit 6.

41. As of the time Lender commenced this action, Borrower had not cured any of its Defaults.

42. Upon information and belief, Lender may also be in breach of other terms of the Loan Documents, including, but not limited to, Section 3.27 of the Loan Agreement, which prohibits "any distribution" to "any owner of any direct or indirect equity interests of Borrower," with limited exceptions, and Section 3.5 of the Loan Agreement, which prohibits Borrower from terminating the Operating Lease without the consent of the Lender.

43. Upon information and belief, Borrower may have sent a Notice of Termination to the tenant under the Operating Lease in late 2019 or early 2020.

44. No prior action or proceeding has been commenced at law or otherwise for the recovery of the sums secured by the Mortgaged Property or any part thereof.

COMPLIANCE WITH LAWS AND REGULATIONS

45. Lender has complied with all state and federal statutes, Executive Orders, Administrative Orders, Acts and directives instituted as a result of the COVID-19 pandemic. On March 16, 2021, Lender provided notice to Borrower of its right to submit a hardship declaration under the COVID-19 Emergency Protect Our Small Businesses Act of 2021 (the “Act”). A true and correct copy of the March 16, 2021 notice to Borrower is attached hereto as Exhibit 7.

46. On March 22, 2021, Borrower provided Lender with notice of its declaration of COVID-19 related hardship, dated March 18, 2021 (the “Declaration”). A true and correct copy of the Declaration is attached hereto as Exhibit 8.

47. Upon information and belief, Borrower is not entitled to the protections of the Act because, inter alia, Borrower’s business employs more than fifty (50) individuals, that Borrower’s business is not independently owned and operated, and that Borrower is not a New York resident.

AS AND FOR A FIRST CAUSE OF ACTION

48. Lender repeats and realleges the allegations contained in paragraphs “1” through “47” as though fully set forth herein.

49. Lender is the owner and holder of the Loan Documents and is authorized to commence a foreclosure action pursuant to the Loan Documents.

50. Pursuant to Section 6.1(c) of the Mortgage, upon the occurrence and continuance of a Default or in the case that the principal of the Note becomes due and payable, whether by lapse of time or by acceleration, then and in every such case the Mortgagee (Lender) shall have the right to immediately proceed to foreclose the Mortgage lien against the property constituting the Mortgaged Property or any part thereof, in accordance with the laws of New York, including, without limitation, the provisions of Article 13 of the Real Property Actions and Proceedings Law of New York, as such provisions may be extended, renewed, modified or replaced from time to time, and may pursue any other remedy available to a commercial mortgage lender under the laws of New York, including all rights to judicial foreclosure under the laws of New York, and if authorized by the laws of the State of New York, all rights to nonjudicial foreclosure of mortgages. (Mortgage § 6.1(c).)

51. As described above, Borrower has failed to fulfill a number of its obligations under the Loan Documents, which constituted an Event of Default, including but not limited to its failure to repay the Loan in full when the balance became due on the Maturity Date of August 1, 2020.

52. By reason of the foregoing, Borrower is in Default under the Loan Documents.

53. Pursuant to Section 6.1(c) of the Mortgage, and in accordance with the other terms of the Loan Documents, based upon the failure by Borrower to pay all amounts due under the Note on its Maturity Date, Lender elects to foreclose upon the Mortgage and recover the current outstanding principal amount, that, as of May 1, 2021 is $38,500,000, plus accrued interest, fees and legal fees for a total payoff amount of $ 41,742,537.06, together with interest, late fees, and any other amounts to be added pursuant to the terms of the Loan Documents, including attorneys' fees (for which Borrower expressly agreed to be responsible, in accordance with Section 6.1(c) of the Mortgage), exclusive of any tax reserves, interest reserves, insurance reserves, or other cash reserves to be applied to the indebtedness.

54. In order to protect its security interest in the Mortgaged Property, Lender, as it is entitled to do under the Loan Documents, may be compelled to pay, during the pendency of this action, local taxes, assessments, water rates, insurance premiums, ground lease rent, and other charges affecting the Mortgaged Property, and any sums thus paid by Lender for such purposes, together with late payments due thereon, should be added to the sums otherwise due and deemed secured by the Mortgage and adjudged a lien.

55. Lender shall not be deemed to have waived, altered, released or changed the election hereinafter made by reason of any payment after the date of commencement of this action of any or all of the defaults mentioned herein, and such election shall continue and remain effective until the costs and disbursements of this action, and any and all future defaults under the Loan Documents and occurring prior to the discontinuance of this action, are fully paid.

56. Lender has complied with all the terms and provisions of the Loan Documents and, pursuant to R.P.A.P.L. 1301(2), no proceeding other than this action has been commenced to recover any part of the debt secured by the Mortgage owed to Lender.

57. Lender states further that the Mortgaged Property is not a borrower-occupied one to four family dwelling or condominium unit, nor is the Mortgaged Property a high cost or subprime home loan as defined by Sections 6-1 and 6-m of the New York Banking Law. Lender has or will comply with the notice provisions of R.P.A.PL. 1303(1)(b).

AS AND FOR A SECOND CAUSE OF ACTION
(Attorneys' Fees, Costs and Expenses)

58. Lender repeats and realleges the allegations contained in paragraphs "1" through "57" as though fully set forth herein.

59. Under the terms of the Loan Documents, Borrower agreed to pay all out-of-pocket costs and expenses of the holder of the Note which may be incurred unless Borrower is the sole prevailing party in an action to enforce or protect the rights or interests of such holder, including attorneys' fees and expenses (including the market value of services of in-house counsel), investigation costs and all court costs, whether before or after the Maturity Date defined in the Loan Agreement, or whether in connection with bankruptcy, insolvency or appeal, or whether collection is made against Borrower or any guarantor or endorser or any other Person primarily or secondarily liable. (Note § 3(c).)

60. Additionally, under Section 6.1(c) of the Mortgage, Mortgagor (Borrower) agreed to pay, in connection with any foreclosure of the lien or any action to enforce any other remedy of Mortgagee under the Security Instrument, the Note or any other Loan Document, all expenditures and expenses which may be paid or incurred by or on behalf of Mortgagee including, without limitation, attorneys' fees and disbursements, court costs, appraiser's fees, outlays for documentary and expert evidence, stenographers' chargers, publication costs, and costs of procuring all such abstracts of title, title searches and examinations, title insurance policies, and similar data and assurances with respect to title and value as Mortgagee may deem reasonably necessary either to prosecute such suit or to evidence to bidders at any sale which may be had pursuant to such decree the true condition of title to or the value of the Mortgaged Property, and the right to such fees and expenses shall be deemed to have accrued on commencement of such action and shall be enforceable whether or not such action is prosecuted to judgment. (Mortgage § 6.1(c).)

61. Lender has incurred costs and fees in connection with foreclosing the Loan, including attorneys' fees.

62. By reason of the foregoing, Borrower is liable for expenses, including reasonable attorneys' fees, arising from Lender's incurred costs in connection with the foreclosure.

AS AND FOR A THIRD CAUSE OF ACTION
(Recovery Under the Guaranty)

63. Lender repeats and realleges the allegations contained in paragraphs “1” through “62” as though fully set forth herein.

64. Pursuant to the Guaranty, the Guarantors jointly and severally, unconditionally, absolutely and irrevocably guaranteed payment (and not merely collectability) of and agreed to pay, protect, defend and save harmless Lender for, from and against, and indemnify Lender for, from and against any and all liabilities, obligations, actual losses, damages, costs and expenses (including, without limitation, reasonable attorneys’ fees), causes of action, suits, claims, demands, and judgment of any nature or description whatsoever, which may at any time be imposed upon, incurred by or awarded against Lender as a result of, among other things, misapplication, misappropriation or conversion by Borrower, Guarantor, or any Affiliate of any of them of any Rents. (Guaranty § 1(a)(vii).)

65. Borrower defaulted on the Loan Documents and Lender has incurred costs and fees in connection with foreclosing the Loan, including attorneys’ fees.

66. Upon information and belief, Borrower and/or the Guarantors have misapplied, misappropriated or converted Rents collected by them in connection with the Mortgaged Property.

67. By reason of the foregoing, the Guarantors are liable for all liabilities, obligations, actual losses, damages, costs and expenses (including, without limitation, reasonable attorneys’ fees), causes of actions, suits, claims, demands, and judgment of any nature which were incurred in connection with the enforcement of Lender’s rights, remedies or recourse under the Loan Documents due to any misapplication, misappropriation or conversion by Borrower, Guarantor, or any Affiliate of any Rents.

68. Pursuant to the Guaranty, the Guarantors also agreed that the Guaranty was an absolute, irrevocable and unconditional guaranty of payment and performance, and each party comprising Guarantor would be jointly and severally liable for the payment and performance of the Guaranteed Obligations as a primary obligor. (Guaranty § 4(a).)

69. The Guarantors further agreed that in the event of the occurrence of a Default under the Loan Documents, the Guaranteed Obligations would become immediately due and payable at the election of the Lender's Agent and the Guarantor shall, on demand and without presentment, protest, notice of protest, further notice of nonpayment or of dishonor, default or nonperformance, or notice of acceleration or of intent to accelerate, or any other notice whatsoever, would pay the amounts due to Agent or Lender, and pay all Losses that may arise in consequence of such Event of Default (including, without limitation, all reasonable attorneys' fees and expenses, investigation costs, court costs, and any and all other costs and expenses actually incurred by Agent or Lender in connection with the collection and enforcement of the Guaranty). (Guaranty § 4(b).)

70. In the event of foreclosure, the Guarantors agreed that only the net proceeds therefrom, after deduction of all charges and expenses of every kind and nature whatsoever, shall be applied in reduction of the amount due on the Note and Security Instrument, and the Lender shall not be required to institute or prosecute proceedings to recover any deficiency as a condition of payment or enforcement. (Guaranty § 4(b).)

71. Borrower is in Default under the Loan Documents.

72. By reason of the foregoing, the Guarantors are liable for all amounts due to Lender by Borrower, including all Losses that arose as a result of Borrower's Default (including, without limitation, all reasonable attorneys' fees and expenses, investigation costs, court costs, and any and all other costs and expenses actually incurred by Agent or Lender in connection with the collection and enforcement of the Guaranty), and the Guarantors are liable for any deficiency due under the Loan Documents after application of the proceeds in the manner specified by the Court.

AS AND FOR A FOURTH CAUSE OF ACTION
(Deficiency Judgment)

73. Lender repeats and realleges the allegations contained in paragraphs “1” through “72” as though fully set forth herein.

74. By virtue of the Loan Documents, as defined herein, Borrower and Guarantors are liable to pay Lender for any deficiency which may remain after applying all of said sales proceeds, together with interest thereon and other charges, in accordance with the Loan Documents. Such indebtedness will continue to accrue and, therefore, the precise amount due from Borrower and Guarantors to Lender through the date of Judgment herein should be determined by the Court.

A. That Defendants, or any of them, and persons claiming under them or any of them, and all persons claiming any interest in the Mortgaged Property with all of its fixtures, equipment and personal property thereon, subsequent to the commencement of this action and the filing of the notice of pendency of this action be forever barred and foreclosed of and from all estate, right, title, interest, claim, lien and equity of redemption in and to the Mortgaged Property and each and every part thereof;

B. That the Mortgaged Property be sold to obtain the greatest return of sale, whether sold jointly as a single parcel or sold separately as two or more parcels;

C. That the Mortgaged Property should be sold “As Is” subject to: (i) any state of fact that an inspection of the Mortgaged Property would disclose; (ii) any state of fact that an accurate survey of the Mortgaged Property would show; (iii) covenants, restrictions, conditions; reservations; easements; rights of way and public utility agreements of record, if any; (iv) building restrictions and zoning ordinances of the municipality in which the Mortgaged Property is located and possible violations of same; (v) any violations, orders, changes or notices now or hereafter found on the Mortgaged Property, or filed in or issued by any governmental authority having jurisdiction over the Mortgaged Property; (vi) existing leases of the Mortgaged Property or any part thereof or rights of tenants in possession other than those tenants and lessees who are party defendants herein at the time of sale; (vii) prior liens of record, if any, and (viii) any equity of redemption of the United States of America to redeem the Mortgaged Property within 120 days from the date of sale;

D. That the amount due to Lender under the Loan Documents be adjudged;

E. That the proceeds of any foreclosure sale of Borrower's interest in the Mortgaged Property be distributed and applied in the following order of priority, as specified in Section 6.1(c) of the Mortgage: (i) first, to payment of all costs and expenses incident to the foreclosure proceedings; (ii) second, to the cost of any search and/or other evidence of title procured in connection therewith and the transfer tax on any deed or conveyance; (iii) third, to all sums expended under the terms hereof, not then repaid with accrued interest at the rate provided herein; (iv) fourth, to payment of all remaining Secured Indebtedness, in such order as Mortgagee may determine in its sole and absolute discretion; and (v) fifth, the remainder, if any to the person or persons legally entitled thereto.

F. That Borrower be adjudged liable for the payment of any costs and fees incurred in connection with foreclosing the Loan, including attorneys' fees;

G. That the Guarantors be adjudged liable under the Guaranty for liabilities, obligations, actual losses, damages, costs and expenses (including, without limitation, reasonable attorneys' fees), causes of actions, suits, claims, demands, and judgment of any nature which were incurred in connection with the enforcement of Lender's rights, remedies or recourse under the Loan Documents due to any misapplication, misappropriation or conversion by Borrower, Guarantor, or any Affiliate of any Rents;

H. That the Guarantors be adjudged liable for the prompt and unconditional payment of all obligations and liabilities of Borrower pursuant to the Loan Documents, and all Losses that arose in consequence of Borrower's Default (including, without limitation, all reasonable attorneys' fees and expenses, investigation costs, court costs, and any and all other costs and expenses actually incurred by Agent or Lender in connection with the collection and enforcement of the Guaranty);

I. That the Guarantors, to the extent the Guarantors have liability under the Guaranty, be adjudged to pay the amount of any deficiency due under the Loan Documents, or any or all of them, or so much thereof as the Court may determine to be just and equitable, of the debt remaining unsatisfied after a sale of the Mortgaged Property and the application of the proceeds pursuant to the directions contained in such judgment, the amount thereof to be determined by the Court, as provided in R.P.A.P.L. section 1371, together with reasonable attorneys' fees, disbursements and court costs incurred in connection with enforcement of their and Borrower' respective obligations under the Loan Documents;

J. That in the event the proceeds from such sale be insufficient to pay the Lender the entire amount due pursuant to the Loan Documents as described above, then Lender shall have a judgment against Borrower and Guarantors for the amount of any such deficiency; and

K. That Lender have such other and further relief as the Court deems just and proper.

Mark, before you go making comments such as in your last email response to me where you indicated "I understand your outrage after not revealing your bankruptcy for a year" I suggest you get your facts straight as we never hid anything.

We advised you of the bankruptcy immediately prior to filing in January 2016. In fact, in the email from you to me on January 4, 2016 (before HHHW even filed) you recognize that the Agreement will be subject to Bankruptcy Court approval.

Care Institute at White Plains
(Westchester County)
Establish and construct a 160-bed residential health care facility with no ventilator beds

Dear Mr. Blatt:

This letter is in follow-up to the Potential Abandonment letter dated December 18, 2015. The letter stated that a full response to the outstanding contingencies was needed within 30 days from the date of the letter, or the project would be considered abandoned. To date, no responses have been submitted for contingencies #8, #9, #10 and #14.

Your January 15, 2016 letter responding to the Department's potential abandonment letter stated that material responsive to the outstanding contingencies would be submitted to the Department "on or about" various dates from January 26, 2016 thru March 30, 2016. Your letter, also, stated that you would be submitting a formal extension request for these outstanding contingencies. To date there has been no formal extension request submitted.

Also, on February 2, 2016 an Unacceptable Contingency Response letter for contingency #18 was issued. This letter specifically stated what was needed to satisfy the contingency, and that a response was required within 30 days. To date, there has been no response.

Given the age of the project and your failure to provide the requested documents, this project is now considered abandoned pursuant to 10 NYCRR Section 710.10.

If, in the future, you wish to pursue this project, a new Certificate of Need will need to be submitted through the New York State Electronic Certificate of Need (NYSE-CON) system.

If you have any questions, please contact me at 518-402-0967.

Sincerely,

RE: Project No. 092058 B
HBL SNF, LLC d/b/a Rehabilitation and Care Institute of White Plains
(Westchester County)
Establish and Construct a 160 bed Residential Health Care Facility

Dear Mr. Abel:

First off, we would like to take this opportunity to thank you, Ms. Barbara DeCogliano and Mr. George Macko for meeting with us to discuss the current status of the HBL SNF, LLC project. Additionally and as equally important, we thank you for allowing us to submit additional supporting details which will provide a current, comprehensive and complete response pertaining to the status of the projects contingency requirements as well as an expected schedule for each item as to both timeline for the initiation and completion of construction for the project. We believe that the information submitted will validate and prove the applicant's continued commitment to the completion of the construction and opening of the Facility as a completed SNF. The combination of the obstacles we are currently facing are (a) the need for Bankruptcy Court approval of the execution and delivery of the operating agreement by Hebrew Hospital and (b) the market based reality that a construction lender will only issue a final commitment upon the issuance of an approval of the plans by the DOH beyond that the applicant has expeditiously complied with and responded to the other open contingencies and we are truly sorry that we have not properly notified the Department as to the progress of the project as had we done so there would have been no need to solicit the further support of the State Health Department in re-instating the project for continued processing. We believe that all of the factors that resulted in the recommendation for approval for the project still remain:

- There is still an abiding public need for the construction of the Center including local factors. The public need for the nursing facility is still supported by the market demand analysis completed by the Vinea Group that was required as part of the permanent financing initiative.

- Assistance to the County of Westchester in the creation of new jobs from both the construction perspective and also permanent health care professional jobs;

- The continued support and request for participation in the operational planning initiatives of the new nursing facility from White Plains Hospital; and
- The operator's payment of the CON filing fee in excess of $300,000.00.

Mr. William Nicholson
 CEO, The Congress Companies
 White Plains Healthcare Properties I, LLC

- The difference between Construction Mortgage proceeds and total project costs will be supplied by Sponsor in the form of cash equity or contributed equity such as land (subject to Construction Mortgage Lender approval) or allowable prepaid expenses included in the Total Approved Project Cost (as approved by the NY Department of Health).
- Sponsor's Equity will be provided to the Construction Mortgage Lender at Closing and will be used to pay project costs prior to loan proceeds. It is the intent of this transaction that the land will be contributed at historical cost to the transaction to fill a portion of this equity requirement. The contributed cost of the land allowed will be the lesser of what was actually paid for the land or the current value. The land value will be determined by a MAI appraisal that is satisfactory to the Mezzanine Lender.

Other anticipated terms are as follows:

- Borrower: Single purpose limited liability entity owning the real estate of the Collateral Facility, as defined below (collectively, the "Borrower").
- Collateral Facility: The Rehabilitation and Care Institute of White Plains, a to-be-built 160-bed licensed skilled nursing facility located in White Plains, NY.
- Sponsor: White Plains Healthcare Properties I, LLC and other partners that comprise the equity ownership of the Borrower. The Sponsor will lease out the Collateral Facility to the Lessee who will operate the Collateral Facility.
- Financing Purpose: To provide funds for the construction of the Collateral Facility, to fund capitalized interest and to pay closing costs.
- Senior Construction Mortgage Lender: to be determined
- Mezzanine Lender: anticipated to be LTC REIT
- Lessee: An entity to be established to lease and operate the Collateral Facility. This entity will be owned by Lizer Josefovic, an owner/operator of skilled nursing facilities in Westchester County (where White Plains is located). The Lessee will supply a) the working capital to lease up and operate the Collateral Facility and b) a substantial Lease guaranty that needs to be satisfactory to the Construction Mortgage Lender.
- Construction Mortgage Loan Rate: Floating rate of 375 basis points over the 30-day LIBOR with a LIBOR Floor of 3.00% for the term of the Construction Mortgage Loan.
- Construction Mortgage Loan Term: Minimum five year term requiring interest only payments on the Construction Mortgage for the first 36 months following closing and principal and interest payments based on a 22-year amortization at the Construction Mortgage Rate.
- Security / Collateral Facility: Construction Mortgage Loan will be secured by a senior mortgage on the Collateral Facility and a priority lien on all other assets of the Borrower, both tangible and intangible. Additionally, Borrower shall provide an assignment and subordination of any Lease Agreements and/ or Management Agreements, if applicable. Subject to an intercreditor agreement with the Mezzanine Lender that is satisfactory to the Construction Mortgage Lender, and an intercreditor agreement with the Lessee's Accounts Receivable Lender which needs to be satisfactory to the Construction Mortgage Lender.
- Guarantors: Key principals of the Sponsor (and spouses if assets are jointly owned) and the Sponsor will joint and severally personally guaranty all obligations of the Construction Mortgage Loan. The Lessee will guaranty all obligations under the Lease and the guaranty will be assigned to the Construction Mortgage Lender as additional collateral.
- Expenses: All out of pocket expenses of both Borrower and Construction Mortgage Lender are the responsibility of Borrower and Guarantors.

The undersigned acknowledges and agrees that this term sheet is a non-binding expression of interest only. This is not a commitment to lend, nor will Lancaster Pollard act as direct lender on this transaction. Lancaster Pollard's sole role is to arrange debt placement for a senior construction loan on a best efforts basis only. The terms described are an estimate of the terms Lancaster Pollard will use its best efforts to arrange from a senior construction lender, but Lancaster Pollard cannot guarantee a senior construction lender will provide a commitment with the terms described herein. This term sheet does not create a binding obligation for Lancaster Pollard or any senior construction lender, or any other party.

Sincerely,

Lancaster Pollard & Co

Subject: RE: HBL SNF, LLC - Project No. 092058

Good morning - following up on my email of last week:

If I understand the situation correctly, the pending motion requests Court approval for HHHW to execute and assume the Operating Agreement and the Bethel/HHW Agreement regarding HBL SNF, LLC. HBL is the Joint Venture Company described in the motion papers and the applicant on Project No. 092058. Once court approval is obtained for HHHW to enter into these Agreements, it is anticipated that HHHW will propose by way of its proposed plan of liquidation that its 9.9% interest in HBL be transferred to a liquidating trust. It is for this last transfer that the approval of DOH/PHHPC is requested.

Would you please provide us with a copy of the draft plan of liquidation, or a plan of liquidation from another proceeding that involves a liquidating trust, and advise of any other transactions that you are aware of where an ownership interest in a PHHPC applicant or approved operator was transferred to a similar liquidating trust.

All

The fact is that we will need the NYDOH green light, the Operating Agreement and the Appraisal (among other things) to obtain a commitment,

No Lender will bring this into committee without an Operator.

We've naturally had to disclose the bankruptcy issue to the lenders,
And we have not been able to deliver an actual signed Operating Agreement for the Operator entity due to this issue, to get through underwriting.

Obtaining NYDOH approval of this situation in some form or fashion is important to the Lenders who do not want to get caught up in the cross fire of the Bankruptcy courts, and need a Tenant Operating Entity that is not a moving target or a "story", which is all we have had to work with thus far,

This is no one's fault on this team for sure.

Now the passage of time created by this issue, have caused 3rd party reports (including Appraisal, and others) to go "stale".

I understand NYDOH's position.

The reality is that a bone-fide commitment isn't going to happen until we get the entire parade in stride.

I apologize that we couldn't arrange a call this morning.

I am available to speak this afternoon, tomorrow afternoon and Thursday AM.

(e) Upon receipt by the Tax Matters Partner of a final Company administrative adjustment (FPAA), the Tax Matters Partner may, within ninety (90) days of such receipt and subject to jurisdictional requirements, file a petition for readjustment in the Tax Court, the District Court of the United States, or the Court of Claims. Upon commencement of such action by the Tax Matters Partner, no Member may commence a similar action and all Members will become parties to such action and will be bound thereby. In the event the Tax Matters Partner does not commence an action as above provided, any Notice Partner or any Five (5%) Percent Group (as such terms are defined in Code Section 6231(a)) may, within sixty (60) days after the close of the ninety (90) day period set forth above, and subject to jurisdictional requirements, file a petition for readjustment to the Tax Court, the District Court of the United States, or the Court of Claims. The Tax Matters Partner may intervene in any such action and all Members will become parties to such action and will be bound thereby.

11.4.4.2 The Company will reimburse the Tax Matters Partner for all documented expenses incurred by the Tax Matters Partner in its capacity as Tax Matters Partner.

11.4.4.3 The Company, will indemnify and hold harmless the Tax Matters Partner from and against any claim, loss, expense, liability, action, or damage resulting or arising from its acting or its failure to take any action as the Tax Matters Partner, including, without limitation, costs and expenses of litigation and appeal (and fees and expenses of attorneys engaged by the Tax Matters Partner in defense of such act or omission) and including, without limitation, costs and expenses of litigation and appeal (including fees and expenses of attorneys engaged by the Tax Matters Partner) related to the enforcement of the Company's indemnification obligation under this Section 11.4.4.3, provided that any such claim, loss, expense, liability, action or damage does not arise from negligence of the Tax Matters Partner. Any such indemnity will be provided out of and to the extent of Company assets only. Provided, however, that for so long as HUD is the holder or insurer of any indebtedness secured by the Project any indemnification or payments relating to the premiums for director and officer insurance provided by the Company to the Tax Matters Partner shall be limited to the extent of available "Surplus Cash" as defined in the HUD Regulatory Agreement.

TRANSFERS

12.1 General Prohibition. Notwithstanding anything in the Articles of Organization or this Operating Agreement to the contrary, the issuance, transfer or other dispositions of Membership Interests or voting rights in the Company is to be strictly controlled by the provisions of § 2801-a(4)(b) of the New York State Public Health Law. No person may own ten percent (10%) or more of the Membership Interests of the Company unless he has been approved for such ownership by the Public Health and Health Planning Council of the State of New York. Any transfer, assignment or disposition of ten percent (10%) or more of the Membership Interests of the Company or the transfer, assignment or other disposition of the Membership Interests in the Company which results in the ownership or control of ten percent (10%) or more of the Membership Interests of the Company by any person will be subject to approval by the Public Health Council. Except as otherwise specifically provided in Sections 12.2 and 12.3, a Member may not Transfer all or any fraction of his entire Membership Interest. Notwithstanding any provision of this Article XII, no Transfer may take place prior to the issuance of the operating certificate to the Facility, except as set forth in Section 12.7.2.

12.2 Permissible Transfer in General. A Member, upon obtaining Requisite Consent, may Transfer his entire Membership Interest, during his lifetime or upon his death, to any person.

12.2.1 If any Member or (hereinafter called the "Seller") desires to sell the Membership Interest (or any fraction thereof) owned by him and such Seller will have received a bona fide arm's length written offer, which is unconditional except as hereinafter provided (hereinafter called the "Bona Fide Offer"), for the purchase of such Interest from a party who is not a Member pursuant to the terms of this Operating Agreement (hereinafter called the "Outside Party"), the Seller will give a notice in writing (hereinafter called the "Option Notice") to the other Members (hereinafter called the "Remaining Members"), setting forth such desire to sell such Interest, which notice will be accompanied by a photocopy of the original executed Bona Fide Offer and will set forth at least the name and address of the Outside Party and the price and terms of such offer.

12.2.1.1 Within thirty (30) days after the giving of the Option Notice, any or all of the Remaining Members may elect to purchase the interest of the Seller for which the Bona Fide Offer was made, at the same price and upon the same terms and conditions as contained in the Bona Fide Offer, in which event the Remaining Members will be obligated to purchase and the Selling Member will be obligated to sell such Membership or Economic Interest at the same price per unit and upon the same terms and conditions as contained in the Bona Fide Offer. Each Remaining Member will be required to purchase the Interest of the Seller in proportion to the Interest in the Company of each Remaining Member.

12.2.1.1.1 If any Remaining Member is unable to purchase his proportionate share of the Selling Member's interest then and in that event any other of the Remaining Members may purchase that share.

12.2.1.2 Failure of the Remaining Members to exercise their right of first refusal will not constitute Requisite Consent to the sale by the Seller to an Outside Party; however the Remaining Members may not unreasonably withhold their consent from said transfer and upon such Requisite Consent the purchaser will become a Member without any further vote being required.

12.2.2 A Member may leave his entire Interest or any portion thereof by testamentary devise to one or more distributees or devisees. Such a testamentary devise will not ipso facto constitute dissolution of the Company or a withdrawal event. For a period of one (1) year after the death of such Member, his Estate or personal representative will be entitled to exercise the deceased Member's rights as a Member. However, the Estate will have one (1) year from the date of death of the Member to obtain a bona fide purchaser to purchase the entire interest of the deceased Member. Should said bona fide purchaser make an offer and the remaining Members do not exercise their right of first refusal hereunder and vote to allow such a sale, then the bona fide purchaser will become a Member without the necessity of any further approval by the Members and the Company will become reconstituted with the purchaser as a new Member.

12.3 Permissible Transfer to Family Transferees. Subject to following the express provisions of § 2801-a (4) (b) of the New York State Public Health Law and the regulations promulgated by the New York State Department of Health under such statute, a Member may Transfer all or any fraction of his Membership Interest to a Family Transferee who will become a Member, after following the procedures set forth for such membership by the New York State Department of Health.

12.4 Conditions Precedent to Permissible Transfer. As a condition to the Company recognizing the effectiveness and binding nature of a permissible Transfer pursuant to Section 12.2 or 12.3, whichever is applicable, the Transferor and the Transferee will execute, acknowledge and deliver to the Company such instruments of transfer, assignment and assumption and such other certificates, representations and documents, and perform such other acts which legal counsel to the Company reasonably deems necessary or desirable to:

12.4.1 In the case of a Transferee who is not a Member, confirm that the Person desiring to acquire an interest or interests in the Company has accepted, assumed and agreed to be subject to and bound by all of the terms, obligations and conditions of the Operating Agreement;

12.4.2 Preserve the Company after the completion of such Transfer under the laws of each jurisdiction in which the Company is qualified, organized or does business;

12.4.3 Maintain the status of the Company as a Partnership for Federal income tax purposes;

12.4.4 Establish a reasonably convenient date for the Company to deem the Transfer effective;

12.4.5 Assure compliance with any applicable state and Federal laws including securities laws and regulations and the rules and regulations of the New York State Department of Health; and 12.4.6 Indemnify the Company and the remaining Members against any and all loss, damage, or expense (including, without limitation, tax liabilities or loss of tax benefits) arising directly or indirectly as a result of any such Transfer.

12.5 Transferee Not Member in Absence of Consent.

12.5.1 A Transferee who is neither a Member nor a Family Transferee may become a Member only upon obtaining requisite consent of the Members, which consent is deemed to have been given as a consequence of the consent to the Transfer given pursuant to Section 12.2 or at any time thereafter.

12.6 Member Ceases to Be Member Upon Transfer of Entire Interest. A Member who Transfers his entire Membership Interest, regardless of whether the Transfer is permissible under this Article XII or whether his Transferee becomes a Member, will cease to be a Member upon such Transfer. Any non-permissible transfer will not be effective as against the Member.

12.7 Mandatory Transfer:

12.7.1 Call Option: Notwithstanding the provisions of Section 12.2 and 12.3 following the issuance of an operating certificate to the Facility as defined herein WHCP shall have an option to purchase from Bethel and Hebrew (either or both being referred to as "Seller") all, but not less than all, of their Membership Interests (the "Call Option"), for an amount equal to $2,240,000.00 for the Hebrew interest and $504,000.00 for the Bethel interest (the "Call Price"), that shall be payable by WHCP at the Closing

(a) WHCP may, at its option and sole discretion, deliver a written notice (a "Call Notice") to Seller indicating Purchaser's decision to exercise the Call Option, and Closing shall take place within five (5) days of delivery of the Call Notice, or, if consent of the NYSDOH is required to allow the transfer, within five (5) days of receipt of such consent. If such consent and thereby Closing is delayed by more than 90 days, WHCP shall pay interest on the Call Price at the rate of 3% per annum.

(b) Upon the delivery of a Call Notice, Bethel and Hebrew agree to, and shall be obligated to, sell all of their outstanding Membership Interests to WHCP, and WHCP agrees to, and shall be obligated to, purchase from Bethel and Hebrew at the Closing all of the Membership Interests at the Call Price.

12.7.2 Put Right. Notwithstanding the provisions of Section 12.2 and 12.3, following the issuance of an operating certificate to the Company by the New York State Department of Health and subject to the terms set forth herein, Bethel and/or Hebrew shall have the option to sell to WHCP all, but not less than all, of their outstanding Membership Interests (the "Put Right"), for an amount equal to $2,240,000.00 for the Hebrew Membership Interest and $504,000.00 for Bethel Membership Interest (the "Put Price"), that shall be payable by WHCP at the Closing.

(a) Bethel and Hebrew may, at their option and sole discretion, deliver a written notice (a "Put Notice") to WHCP indicating their decision to exercise the Put Right.

(b) Upon delivery of a Put Notice, WHCP agrees to, and shall be obligated to, within five (5) days of delivery of the Put Notice, or, if consent of the NYSDOH is required to allow the transfer, within five (5) days of receipt of such consent, purchase all of the Membership Interests from Bethel and Hebrew, and Bethel and Hebrew agree to, and shall be obligated to, sell to WHCP at the Closing all of the Membership Interests at the Put Price. If such consent and thereby Closing is delayed by more than 90 days, WHCP shall pay interest on the Put Price at the rate of 3% per annum

(c) WHCP agrees that it will have prior to the Effective Date deposited the sum of $1,500,000.00 in an account at Chase Manhattan Bank in the name of HBL-SNF and advanced the sum of $2,200,000.00 to White Plains Healthcare Properties so as to have a balance sheet demonstrating $3,700,000.00 in paid in capital which shall act as a reasonably acceptable proof of ability to pay the Put Price.

12.7.3 For the avoidance of doubt, the mandatory transfer provisions set forth in this Section 12.7 shall not be subject to the provisions of Sections 12.2 and 12.3.

12.8 Hebrew Chapter 11 Assignment. Notwithstanding anything in this Section XII to the contrary, the Parties acknowledge that Hebrew filed a voluntary petition under chapter 11 of the United States Bankruptcy Code (the "Bankruptcy Code") on January 8, 2016 (the "Petition Date") in the United States Bankruptcy Court for the Southern District of New York (the "Bankruptcy Court") in case number 16-10028-mew, jointly administered under case number 15-11158 (the "Chapter 11 Proceeding"), and Hebrew's interests in the Company constitute property of Hebrew's estate pursuant to Bankruptcy Code §541. Further, pursuant to an eventual confirmed Chapter 11 plan ("Chapter 11 Plan") that Hebrew's interests in the Company may be assigned, transferred and conveyed to a resulting Chapter 11 plan designee, trustee or estate representative which person or entity will succeed to Hebrew's rights, interests and obligations as a member of the Company; provided, however, that neither Hebrew or the aforesaid successor shall become the manager of the Company or operator of the skilled nursing facility.

DISSOLUTION AND TERMINATION

13.1 Dissolution.

13.1.1 The Company will be dissolved upon the occurrence of any the following events:

- 13.1.1.1 The expiration of the term set forth in Section 2.5 hereof;
- 13.1.1.2 Requisite Consent thereto being given; or
- 13.1.1.4 The sale of all the Company Property.

13.1.2 If a Member who is an individual dies or a court of competent jurisdiction adjudges him to be incompetent to manage his person or his property, the deceased or incapacitated Member's executor, administrator, guardian, conservator, or other legal representative may exercise all of the Member's rights for the purpose of settling his estate or administering his property.

13.3 Winding Up, Liquidation and Distribution of Assets.

13.3.1 Upon dissolution, an accounting will be made by the Company's independent accountants of the accounts of the Company and of the Company's assets, liabilities and operations, from the date of the last previous accounting until the date of dissolution. The Board of Managers will immediately proceed to wind up the affairs of the Company.

13.3.2 If the Company is dissolved and its affairs are to be wound up, the Board of Managers will:

13.3.2.1 Sell or otherwise liquidate all of the Company's assets as promptly as practicable (except to the extent the Board of Managers may determine to distribute any assets to the Members in kind);

13.3.2.2 Allocate any Profit or Loss resulting from such sales to the Members' Capital Accounts in accordance with Article IX hereof;

13.3.2.3 Discharge all liabilities of the Company and establish such Reserves as may be reasonably necessary to provide for contingent or fixed liabilities of the Company;

13.3.2.4 Distribute the remaining assets in the following order:

(a)(i) Every reasonable effort will be made to dispose of the assets of the Company upon dissolution so that the distribution may be made to the Members in cash. If at the time of the dissolution of the Company, the Company owns any assets in the form of notes, deeds of trust or other noncash assets, such assets, if any, will be distributed in kind to the Members in lieu of cash, proportionately to their right to receive such remaining assets of the Company. For purposes of determining Capital Accounts, each such noncash asset will be treated as having been sold at net fair market value and the Capital Accounts of the Members will be adjusted pursuant to the provisions of Sections 8.3 and 9.1 of this Operating Agreement to reflect such deemed sale.

(ii) For purposes of this Section 13.3.2.4, the net fair market value of the noncash assets of the Company will be determined as follows: The parties will first attempt to agree upon the "net fair market value of the assets." For this purpose, "Net fair market value of the assets" will mean the cash price which a sophisticated purchaser would pay on the financing then encumbering the assets, such valuation to be made on the assumption that those assets which are subject to agreements will not be released from such agreements. A sophisticated purchaser will be one who would take into account the nature, extent, maturity date, and other terms of the liabilities encumbering such assets, whether fixed or contingent, including the favorable or unfavorable nature of any financing, and the prospects that the income from the assets would be sufficient to satisfy such liabilities when due, excluding any liability under any financing already taken into account.

(iii) In the event the Members are unable to agree upon the net fair market value of the noncash assets of the Company, such value will be settled as provided in Section 15.1 hereof.

(b) The positive balance (if any) of each Member's Capital Account (after taking into account all Capital Account adjustments for the Company's taxable year during which the liquidation occurs) will be distributed to the Members, either in cash or in kind, as determined by the ### Requisite Consent of the Members.

13.3.3 Upon completion of the winding up, liquidation and distribution of the assets, the Company will be deemed terminated.

13.3.4 The Board of Managers and the Members will comply with all requirements of applicable law pertaining to the winding up of the affairs of the Company and the final distribution of its assets.

13.4 Document Holding Period. All documents and records will be delivered to the Board of Managers upon dissolution of the Company. The Board of Managers will retain such documents and records for such a period of time ("Document Holding Period") as may be required by any regulation, decree, code, ordinance, rule or law of any city, county, state, or federal government or governmental agency having jurisdiction (including the requirements of the Internal Revenue Service) and will make the documents available during normal business hours to the other Members for inspection and copying at such other Member's cost and expense. In the event any Member ("Withdrawing Member") for any reason ceases to be a Member at any time prior to the dissolution of the Company, and the Company is continued without the Withdrawing Member, the documents for the period prior to the date of the termination of the Withdrawing Member's interest will be maintained by the Board of Managers for the Document Holding Period; provided, however, that if there is an audit or threat of audit, such documents will be retained until the audit is completed and any tax liability finally determined. Said documents will be available for inspection, examination and copying by the Withdrawing Member in the same manner as provided above in this Section 13.4 with respect to dissolution of the Company.

13.5 Certificate of Dissolution. Upon the filing of the certificate of dissolution, the existence of the Company will cease. The Board of Managers will have authority to distribute any Company property discovered after dissolution, convey real estate and take such other action as may be necessary on behalf of and in the name of the Company.

13.6 Return of Contribution Nonrecourse to Other Members and Board of Managers. Upon dissolution, each Member will look solely to the assets of the Company for the return of its Capital Contribution. If the Company property remaining after the payment or discharge of the debts and liabilities of the Company is insufficient to return the contribution of one or more Members, such Member(s) will have no recourse against any Member or the Board of Managers unless such insufficiency arose out of any act of fraud, deceit, gross negligence, willful misconduct, breach of fiduciary duty or a wrongful taking.

ARTICLE XIV WITHDRAWAL

14.1 The death, retirement, resignation, expulsion, bankruptcy or dissolution of any Member shall not constitute a dissolution of the Company.

14.2 Withdrawal. No Member shall have the power to retire or withdraw from the Company by voluntary act. Any attempted voluntary withdrawal or retirement by a Member shall be null and void and of no force or effect whatever. The retirement or withdrawal of a Member shall only be permitted upon the written consent of the Managers; provided, however, upon the occurrence of any of the following events the Company will permit the retirement of such Member without requiring consent:

(a) The Transfer of all of such Person's Membership Interests by means of a Permitted Transfer, by means of a Transfer to which the Managers consent pursuant to, and in accordance with the requirements of this agreement and the public health law;

(b) The death, retirement, resignation, expulsion, bankruptcy or dissolution of a Member shall not automatically terminate the right of that member, its estate or any legal successor to continue to receive the benefits of membership including but not limited to the return of the value of their capital contribution subject only to the rules and regulations of the New York State Department of Health and Article 28 of the Public Health Law governing membership.

(c) If such Person is itself a limited liability company, partnership, or similar entity, the dissolution and commencement of winding up of such limited liability company, partnership, or similar entity;

(d) If such Person is a corporation, ninety (90) days after (i) the filing by such Person of a Certificate of dissolution or its equivalent, (ii) the revocation of such Person's charter, or (iii) the suspension by the jurisdiction of such Person's incorporation of such Person's right to conduct business, unless prior to the end of such ninety-day period the Certificate of dissolution or its equivalent is revoked or such Person's charter or right to conduct business is reinstated; or

(e) Such Person's withdrawal or resignation in violation of this Operating Agreement.

ARTICLE XV MISCELLANEOUS PROVISIONS

15.1 Determination of Amounts under this Agreement. All determinations with respect to Profits and Losses, Capital Accounts, Distributable Cash and any other amounts payable by or to the Company under this Operating Agreement, except as otherwise specifically provided in this Operating Agreement, will be made by the accountants regularly engaged to maintain the books and records of the Company at the time when such determinations are made, in accordance with the accounting practices and procedures regularly employed by such accountants in preparing financial reports and tax statements for companies conducting the same business as the Company.

15.2 Notices. Any notice, demand or communication required or permitted to be given by any provision of this Operating Agreement will be in writing and will be deemed to have been sufficiently given or served for all purposes if delivered personally to the party or to an executive officer of the party to whom the same is directed or sent by registered or certified mail, postage and charges prepaid, addressed to the address of the Board of Managers, Company, Member, as the case may be, which is set forth in this Operating Agreement or in a notice given by such Person to the Board of Managers. Except as otherwise provided herein, any such notice will be deemed to be given three (3) business days after the date on which the same was deposited in a regularly maintained receptacle for the deposit of United States mail, addressed and sent as aforesaid.

15.3 Application of New York Law. This Operating Agreement, and the application and interpretation hereof, will be construed, governed and enforced exclusively by its terms and by the Act and other laws of the State of New York.

15.4 Waiver of Action for Partition. Each Member irrevocably waives during the term of the Company any right that it may have to maintain any action for partition with respect to the property of the Company.

15.5 Entire Understanding; Amendments. This Operating Agreement constitutes the entire understanding of the Members with respect to the subject matter hereof, and no amendment, modification or alteration hereof will be binding on any Person unless in writing executed by all of the Members of the Company. No amendment, supplement or termination of this Operating Agreement will affect or impair any rights or obligations which have heretofore matured hereunder.

15.6 Execution of Additional Instruments. Each Member hereby agrees to execute such other and further statements of interest and holdings, designation, powers of attorney and other instruments necessary to comply with any laws, rules or regulations. In addition, certain financing obligations of the Company or the Department of Health may require the Member hereof to execute and deliver certain documents, such as affidavits, personal guaranties, certifications and resolutions. The Members acknowledge and agree that the failure to promptly execute and deliver any such document at the request of the Board of Managers shall allow the Board of Managers to avail itself of the rights and remedies set forth in Section 8.3, herein as if such Member had failed to make an Additional Capital Contribution.

15.7 Construction. Whenever the singular number is used this Operating Agreement and when required by the context, the same will include the plural and vice versa, and the masculine gender will include the feminine and neuter genders and vice versa.

15.8 Headings. The headings in this Operating Agreement are inserted for convenience only and are in no way intended to describe, interpret, define, or limit the scope, extent or intent of this Operating Agreement or any provision hereof.

15.9 Waivers. The failure of any Person to seek redress for violation of or to insist upon the strict performance of any covenant or condition of this Operating Agreement will not prevent a subsequent act, which would have originally constituted a violation, from having the effect of an original violation.

15.10 Rights and Remedies Cumulative. The rights and remedies provided by this Operating Agreement are cumulative and the use of any one right or remedy by any party will not preclude or waive the right to use any or all other remedies. Said rights and remedies are given in addition to any other rights the parties may have by law, statute, ordinance or otherwise.

15.11 Severability. If any provision of this Operating Agreement or the application hereof to any person or circumstance will be invalid, illegal or unenforceable to any extent, the remainder of this Operating Agreement and the application hereof will not be affected and will be enforceable to the fullest extent permitted by law.

15.12 Binding Effect. Each and all of the covenants, terms, provisions and agreements herein contained will be binding upon and inure to the benefit of the parties hereto and, to the extent permitted by this Operating Agreement, their respective heirs, legal representatives, successors and assigns.

15.13 Creditors. None of the provisions of this Operating Agreement will be for the benefit of or enforceable by any creditors of the Company.

15.14 Counterparts. This Operating Agreement may be executed in counterparts, each of which will be deemed an original but all of which will constitute one and the same instrument.

15.15 Investment Representations.

15.15.1 The Members understand (a) that the Membership Interests evidenced by this Operating Agreement have not been registered under the Securities Act of 1933, New York securities laws or any other state securities laws (the "Securities Acts") because the Company is relying upon the exemptions from the registration requirements of the Securities Acts providing for issuance of securities not involving a public offering, (b) that the Company has relied upon the fact that the Membership Interests are to be held by each Member for investment, and (c) that said exemption from registration would not be available if the Membership Interests were acquired by a Member with a view to distribution.

15.15.2 Accordingly, each Member hereby confirms to the Company that such Member is acquiring the Membership Interests for such Member's own account, for investment and not with a view to the resale or distribution thereof.

15.15.3 Prior to acquiring its Membership Interest each Member has made an investigation of the Company and its business and has had made available to it all information with respect thereto which such Member needed to make an informed decision to acquire its Membership Interest. Each Member considers itself to be a Person possessing experience and sophistication as an investor which is adequate for the evaluation of the merits and risks of such Member's investment in the Company.

New York County Index No.

Consolidated under Westchester
County Index No. as per April 8,
2021 Decision and Order.

Alfred E. Donnellan, an attorney duly admitted to practice in the courts of the State of New York, affirms the following to be true under the penalty of perjury:

1. I am a member of the law firm of DelBello Donnellan Weingarten Wise & Wiederkehr, LLP, lead counsel for White Plains Healthcare Properties I, LLC (“WPH Properties”), CCC Equities, LLC, Project Equity Consulting, The Congress Companies, Howard Fensterman and William Nicholson in the above referenced consolidated actions.

2. I submit this affirmation in opposition to the motion of Lizer Jozefovic (“Jozefovic”), joined by Metropolitan Commercial Bank, (“MCB”), seeking to enjoin WPH Properties from proceeding under Article 9 of the Uniform Commercial Code (the "UCC") to dispose of and/or sell Jozefovic's 71% membership interest (the "Waterview Membership Interest") in Waterview Acquisition I, LLC.

3. For the reasons set forth in the affidavit of William A. Nicholson, sworn to on June 29, 2021, and the accompanying memorandum of law submitted in opposition to the motion, I submit that the motion must be denied and the sale of the Waterview Membership Interest must be allowed to proceed.

4. To begin with, after pledging Waterview Membership Interest to WPH Properties, Jozefovic pledged the same interest to MCB. That violated his covenant in the Pledge Agreement that he would "not enter into any assignment, mortgage, pledge or other instrument which transfers or encumbers all or any part of his interest in" Waterview Hills. Nicholson aff., ex. D, at 2, § 3. He did that by amending the Waterview Hills operating agreement to create membership certificates. That also violated his agreement "not to subsequently further amend or voluntarily permit the amendment of the operating agreement of the Company that would in any manner materially adversely affect this Assignment and/or the rights of the Assignee hereunder without the consent of the Assignee." Nicholson aff., ex. D, at 2, § 4. WPH Properties did not consent to the amendment that allowed for the assignment of the membership certificate to MCB. WPH Properties acknowledges that MCB's lien is prior to WPH Properties' lien because MCB perfected first. But the UCC nevertheless allows a junior creditor to sell the collateral subject to the senior creditor's lien. And there is no reason that Jozefovic should be allowed to defeat WPH Properties' right to sell the Waterview Membership Interest by subsequently pledging it to MCB in violation of the Pledge Agreement.

5. Beyond that, for the reasons set forth in the accompanying memorandum of law, the pledge to MCB does not preclude a sale of the Waterview Membership Interest by WPH Properties. MCB's Pledge Agreement (Exhibit B to Bandazian Aff.) only contains a pledge for Jozefovic's uncertificated membership interest in Waterview Acquisition, not a pledge on a certificate. MCB's UCC filing ((Exhibit D to Bandazian Aff.) also describes a pledge on an uncertificated membership interest, not a membership certificate. And while the Amended and Restated Operating Agreement of Waterview Acquisition (Exhibit C to Bandazian Aff.) states in Section 2.8 that membership interests "shall be evidenced by a certificate or certificates the form of which is attached to this Agreement as Schedule 2.8," no such form is attached to the Operating Agreement submitted by MCB to the Court. Finally, MCB did not submit a copy of its purported certificate of membership interest in its opposition papers. There is no evidence that MCB's pledge for the uncertificated membership interest was actually converted to a pledge for a certificated interest. While MCB claims to be in possession of a certificate, no copy has ever been provided and there is no evidence of that documents' existence except for Bandazian's statements to that effect.

6. Nothing in MCB's supplemental submission to this Court shows that the WPH Properties' Pledge Agreement is in any way invalid or that its uncertificated security interest cannot be sold. All MCB provides are arguments relating to the validity of its own pledge and the priority of its interest. But none of those points preclude WPH Properties from exercising their right to sell Jozefovic's membership interest subject to MCB's alleged senior interest. See supra CMII, LLC, 13Misc3d 1214(A), 2006 WL 2770095. So far, however, the only evidence MCB has provided is of a UCC filing and an agreement pledging Jozefovic's membership interest, not a membership certificate.

7. N.Y.U.C.C. § 9-625(a) provides that relief from a sale authorized under the UCC may be obtained only where the secured party is proceeding in a manner not in accordance with Article 9. See Rapillo v CitiMortgage, Inc., 95 UCC Rep. Serv.2d 267 (E.D.N.Y. Mar. 5, 2018) (“[I]n order for an aggrieved party to obtain injunctive relief, section 9-625(a) requires that the secured party presently be proceeding in a manner that is not in accordance with article 9.”); see also Atlas MF Mezzanine Borrower, LLC v Macquarie Texas Loan Holder LLC, 174 A.D.3d 150, 162 (1st Dep’t 2019). Because WPH Properties has complied with all of the requirements necessary to sell or dispose of the collateral by public sale pursuant to UCC Article 9, including the notice requirements, the required method, manner, time, place, of the sale and the UCC’s commercial reasonableness requirements, Jozefovic and MCB are not entitled to the injunctive relief they seek.

8. N.Y.U.C.C. § 9-613 sets forth the requirements for notice of a sale under Article 9. On June 9, 2021, WPH Properties sent a Notification of Disposition of Collateral with respect to the Waterview Membership Interest to Jozefovic and Metropolitan Commercial Bank (which also claims to have a security interest in the Waterview Membership Interest), notifying them of a public sale of the Waterview Membership Interest to be conducted on July 1, 2021 at the time and place specified. The Notice describes the debtor (Lizer Jozefovic) and the secured party (WPH Properties). N.Y.U.C.C. § 9-613(a)(1); describes “the collateral that is the subject of the intended disposition,” Jozefovic’s 71% membership interest in Waterview. N.Y.U.C.C. § 9-613(a)(2); states the method of intended disposition, a public sale. N.Y.U.C.C. § 9-613(a)(3); states that Lizer Jozefovic is entitled to an accounting of the unpaid indebtedness at no charge. N.Y.U.C.C. § 9-613(a)(3); and states the time and place of a public disposition, July 1, 2021 at 10:00 am at the offices of DelBello Donnellan Weingarten Wise & Wiederkehr, LLP One North Lexington Ave. White Plains, NY 10601, Phone: 914-681-0200. N.Y.U.C.C. § 9-613(a)(4). Further, the Notice is sufficient as a matter of law because it is in the form set forth in N.Y.U.C.C. § 9-613(e), which states that that form “provides sufficient information.”

9. The Notification of Disposition of Collateral was sent by certified mail, return receipt requested and overnight mail. A copy of the Notification of Disposition of Collateral and the certified mail and overnight mail receipts are attached as exhibit X. The Notice was sent on June 9, 2021 by certified mail, return receipt requested, as required by the Pledge Agreement, Nicholson aff., ex. D, at 3, § 13, and by overnight mail as well. The notice scheduled the public sale for July 1, 2021, 22 days later. Accordingly, the notice was fully compliant with the provisions of the Pledge Agreement requiring that WPH Properties give Jozefovic 21 days written notice of the sale. Nicholson aff., ex. D, § 13. And the notice also more than complied with N.Y.U.C.C. § 9-612(b), which specifies that “a notification of disposition sent after default and 10 days or more before the earliest time of disposition set forth in the notification is sent within a reasonable time before the disposition.”

10. Finally, N.Y.U.C.C. § 9-611(c) requires that the secured party provide notification of the disposition to the debtor and to any other secured party which perfected its interest by filing a financing statement be notified of the sale. N.Y.U.C.C. §§ 9-611(c)(1), (c)(3)(C). The Notification of Disposition of Collateral was sent to Jozefovic (the debtor) as well as to MCB, which filed a UCC-1 on December 23, 2019. Nicholson aff. ex. E.

11. On June 11, 2021, WPH Properties sent a letter to 622 targeted recipients, including every nursing home listed on the New York State Department of Health’s website and known investors in the nursing home industry, notifying them of the sale and inviting interested parties to request the Terms of Sale from WPH Properties’ counsel. A copy of a sample of the letter and an affidavit of service of the letters is attached as exhibit Y. Several the recipients of that letter requested copies of the Terms of Sale, and my office forwarded the Terms of Sale to those who

12. WPH Properties also published a Notice of Secured Party Public Auction concerning the sale in the Westchester Business Journal in the weekly issue which circulated from June 21, 2021 through June 28, 2021. Copies of the notice and proof of publication is attached as exhibit Z.

13. The June 11, 2021 letter and the Notice of Secured Party Public Auction published in the Westchester Business Journal stated that the terms of the public sale (the "Terms of Sale") were available upon request. A copy of the Terms of Sale is attached as exhibit AA.

14. The Terms of Sale, among other things, provide a description of the Waterview Membership Interest, the time and location of the public sale, state that the sale will be conducted virtually, advises that the collateral will be sold subject to the security interest of Metropolitan Commercial Bank, describe the procedure for becoming a qualified bidder and describe in detail the process for sale of the collateral.

15. A copy of the Amended and Restated Operating Agreement of Waterview dated 2005 is attached as exhibit BB.

16. N.Y.U.C.C. § 9-610(b) provides that "[e]very aspect of a disposition of collateral, including the method, manner, time, place, and other terms, must be commercially reasonable." The term "commercially reasonable" is not specifically defined by the N.Y.U.C.C. New York courts have held that commercial reasonableness "hing[es] on the totality of the circumstances, including the good faith efforts of the creditor," F.D.I.C. v Wrapwell Corp., 46 U.C.C. Rep. Serv. 2d 885 (S.D.N.Y. Jan. 3, 2002), and have construed the term "to mean that a qualifying disposition must be made in the good faith attempt to dispose of the collateral to the parties' mutual best advantage." Central Budget Corp. v. Garrett, 48 A.D.2d 825, 825 (2d Dep't 1975).

17. Rather than adopt an explicit test to assess commercial reasonableness, New York courts consider “accepted business practice” as a guide and emphasize “the aggregate of the circumstances” when reviewing a UCC sale. Bankers Trust v. Dowler & Co., 47 N.Y.2d 128 (1979); Dougherty v 425 Dev. Assoc., 93 A.D.2d 438, 446-47 (1st Dep’t 1983); In re Zsa Zsa Ltd., 352 F. Supp. 665, 670 (S.D.N.Y. 1972), aff’d, 475 F.2d 1393 (2d Cir 1973) (“It is the aggregate of circumstances in each case-rather than specific details of the sale taken in isolation-that should be emphasized in a review of the sale”). As the federal Seventh Circuit Court of Appeals aptly stated, applying New York law, “[i]n the end, the [factfinder] must decide what a reasonable business would have done to maximize the return on the collateral.” Matter of Excello Press, Inc., 890 F.2d 896, 906 (7th Cir. 1989).

18. Here, the totality of the circumstances shows that WPH Properties have taken every possible step to ensure that the sale of the Waterview Membership Interest will be commercially reasonable. WPH Properties has fully complied with Article 9’s notice requirements and scheduled the sale on 21 days’ notice as required under Pledge Agreement. That more than satisfies the requirements of N.Y.U.C.C. § 9-612. As stated above, WPH Properties advertised the sale the Westchester Business Journal in the weekly issue which circulated from June 21, 2021 through June 28, 2021.

19. New York law “does not require that a seller advertise a [disposition] sale in any specific type of media or for any particular amount of time.” Adobe Oil Field Services, Ltd. v. PNC Bank, N.A. (In re Adobe Trucking, Inc.), No. 11-7005-RBK, 2011 WL 6258233, at *12 (W.D. Tex. Dec. 15, 2011), aff’d, 551 Fed. Appx. 167 (2014). The extent of WPH Properties’ advertising of the sale here far surpasses that of other court-approved public sales. Adobe Trucking, Inc., 2011 WL 6258233, at *12 (advertisement of public sale in three local newspapers for one day each was commercially reasonable under NY UCC); see also Credit Alliance Corp. v. David O. Crump Sand

& Fill Co., 470 F. Supp. 489, 494-95 (S.D.N.Y. 1979) (advertisement was commercially reasonable where the notices appeared in three local newspapers on November 25-28 and the sale was held on November 30); Sackman Mortg. Corp., 158 B.R. at 936 (notice of a sale was commercially reasonable under N.Y.U.C.C. § 9-504 where the secured party advertised the sale for five days in three widely read local newspapers, several parties responded and inquired about the collateral, although none appeared at the sale.)

20. In addition, on June 11, 2021, WPH Properties sent a letter to 622 targeted recipients including every nursing home listed on the New York State Department of Health's website and known investors in the nursing home industry notifying them of the sale. Nicholson aff., ¶ 25 & ex. H. The number of potential purchasers contacted by WPH Properties far exceeds those contacted in other court-approved public sales. See e.g., Leasing Serv. Corp. v Carbonex, Inc., 512 F. Supp. 235, 256 (S.D.N.Y. 1981) (notice of a sale was commercially reasonable where sale was advertised and twenty-six potential purchasers were sent copies of the notice).

21. The sale also satisfies Article 9's requirements for a "public disposition." The Official Comment to N.Y.U.C.C. § 9-610 states that:

[a]lthough the term is not defined, as used in this Article, a "public disposition" is one at which the price is determined after the public has had a meaningful opportunity for competitive bidding. "Meaningful opportunity" is meant to imply that some form of advertisement or public notice must precede the sale (or other disposition) and that the public must have access to the sale (disposition).

22. These requirements are clearly met. N.Y.U.C.C. § 9-610, Official Comment 7 (Public vs. Private Dispositions) (2019). As previously discussed, the sale was publicly advertised and notice was sent to 622 potential purchasers. And the sale is fully accessible to the public. As the advertisement states, the sale is a "public auction" and "[a]ll interested prospective purchasers are invited to become Qualified Bidders."

23. WPH Properties has therefore complied with all of Article 9's prerequisites relating to the disposition of the Waterview Membership Interests, including those relating to notice, commercial reasonableness and public disposition. Because under N.Y.U.C.C. § 9-625(a) Jozefovic may obtain injunctive relief only if he demonstrates that WPH Properties is in violation of Article 9's requirements the sale, Jozefovic cannot possibly succeed on the merits and his motion for a temporary restraining order and a preliminary injunction should be denied.

24. I further respectfully submit that, if the court grants a preliminary injunction, Jozefovic is required to post a bond in the amount of $1.6 million.

25. Pursuant to CPLR 6312(b), before the granting of a preliminary injunction, the movant is required to provide an undertaking in an amount to be fixed by the Court, that the movant, if it is finally determined that he or she was not entitled to an injunction, will pay to the other party all damages and costs which may be sustained by reason of the injunction. CPLR 6312(b); Putter v. Singer, 73 A.D.3d 1147, 1148 (2d Dep't 2010) ("While fixing the amount of an undertaking when granting a motion for a preliminary injunction is a matter within the sound discretion of the court, CPLR 6312(b) requires that the party seeking an injunction give an undertaking."); Livas v. Mitzner, 303 A.D.2d 381, 383 (2d Dep't 2003) (same).

26. "The amount of the undertaking . . . must not be based upon speculation and must be rationally related to the damages the nonmoving party might suffer if the court later determines that the relief to which the undertaking relates should not have been granted." Olympic Ice Cream Co., Inc. v. Sussman, 151 A.D.3d 872, 874 (2d Dep't 2017) (quoting Access Medical Group, P.C. v. Straus Family Capital Group, Inc., 44 A.D.3d 975, 975 (2d Dep't 2007)).

27. Here, HBL SNF, LLC and Jozefovic have defaulted under the Pledge Agreement by, among other defaults, failing to post $3.7 million in security by cash or letter of credit and additional security in the amount of $1.6 million in cash as required by the Lease. In order for the amount of the bond to be rationally related to the damage suffered by WPH Properties if the Court grants a preliminary injunction, the amount of the bond posted by Jozefovic must be equal to the portion of the security deposit HBL and Jozefovic were required to make. Otherwise, the Court's order leaves WPH Properties exposed for HBL's further defaults under the Lease. Jozefovic has also failed to deposit the remaining amount of the security deposit in the amount of $3.7 million.

28. The bond must also be sufficient to protect WPH Properties against the risk that the Waterview Membership Interest becomes worthless or unavailable for UCC disposition. WPH Properties currently has no financial information whatever concerning Waterview or the value of Jozefovic's Waterview Membership Interest upon which to base the amount of an undertaking and therefore currently has no basis upon which to determine the amount of an appropriate undertaking.

29. The undertaking must also be sufficient to cover all WPH Properties' anticipated attorneys' fees and costs, which are recoverable as damages for a successful effort to vacate a preliminary injunction. Shu Yiu Louie v. David & Chiu Place Rest., Inc., 261 A.D.2d 150, 152 (1st Dep't 1999).

30. WPH Properties requests, therefore that if the Court grants injunctive relief, it set the amount of the bond at $5.3 million and that if the Court were to consider a bond in a different amount the Court require Jozefovic provide to the Court and WPH Properties, before granting the preliminary injunction, documents and information upon which the value of the Waterview Membership Interest can be determined and that the Court allow WPH Properties to make a subsequent submission to the Court concerning the appropriate amount of an undertaking, including an estimate of legal fees WPH Properties will incur as part of a successful effort to vacate the injunction.

WHEREFORE, I respectfully request that this Court deny the motion of Jozefovic in its entirety and require Jozefovic to post a bond if the court grants a preliminary injunction.

71% OF THE MEMBERSHIP INTERESTS IN WATERVIEW ACQUISITION I, LLC

pursuant to the Notice of Secured Party Public Auction (the “Notice”), a copy of which is attached hereto as Exhibit A.

The public auction will take place on July 1, 2021 starting at 10:00 a.m. Eastern Daylight Time (New York) at the law offices of DelBello Donnellan Weingarten Wise & Wiederkehr, LLP, One North Lexington Avenue, White Plains, New York 10601, phone: 914-681-0200.

1. It is the understanding and belief of the Secured Party, but without any warranty or representation by the Secured Party as to accuracy or completeness, that the Collateral consists of 71% of all rights, title and interest of Jozefovic as a member in Waterview Acquisition I, LLC.
2. The Collateral will be sold subject to the security interest of Metropolitan Commercial Bank, 99 Park Avenue, 4th floor New York, NY 10016, which filed a UCC-1 financing statement on December 23, 2019 with respect to the Collateral.
3. The Collateral will be sold subject to all licensing and approval requirements of the New York State Department of Health.
4. Only the bids of “Qualified Bidders” will be considered by the Secured Party. All bids must be accompanied by evidence satisfactory to the Secured Party in its sole and absolute discretion of the proposed bidder’s ability to make payment of the balance of the purchase price.
5. Only “Qualified Bidders” and their duly appointed agents and representatives (whose names and contact information must be disclosed in writing prior to the time of the sale) may be present at the sale virtually or by phone.

To be a “Qualified Bidder,” prior to the sale, the proposed bidder must deposit at least ten (10%) percent of the amount of the bid in escrow with DelBello Donnellan, which deposit shall be returned to the proposed bidder only if the proposed bidder is not the successful bidder. For wire transfer instructions, contact Alfred Donnellan, Esq.,

DelBello Donnellan Weingarten Wise & Wiederkehr, LLP, One North Lexington Avenue, White Plains, New York 10601, phone: 914-681-0200, e-mail: aed@ddw-law.com.

6. The Collateral is an unregistered security under the Securities Act of 1933 (the “33 Act”). Because of this, and the fact that the Collateral is being sold as a single unit, to be a Qualified Bidder, the proposed bidder must, no later than the sale, provide to the Secured Party a letter (the “33 Act Letter”), in form and substance satisfactory to the Secured Party in its sole and absolute discretion, representing (i) that it is purchasing the Collateral for its own account and not with a view to distribution thereof; (ii) that the Collateral will not be resold or transferred or otherwise hypothecated by the proposed bidder without the prior registration in accordance with the 33 Act and applicable state blue sky laws or unless an exemption from such registration under the 33 Act or applicable state blue sky laws is available; (iii) that it possesses sufficient business experience to evaluate the risk of purchasing the Collateral; and (iv) that it has sufficient financial means to afford the risk of the investment. The Collateral will be appropriately conveyed pursuant to a Transfer Statement (described below), which will bear an appropriate legend to the effect that the Collateral may not be sold or transferred without registration under the 33 Act or the availability of a valid exemption from such registration.
7. The Collateral will be offered for sale as a single unit and not in parts or as separate units to the highest “Qualified Bidder.”
8. The Secured Party may modify the Terms of Sale and add additional terms by announcement made prior to or at the time of the public auction.
9. The Secured Party may reject any and all bids in its sole and absolute discretion and withdraw the Collateral from sale at any time and for any reason whatsoever.
10. The Secured Party may cancel the public auction or cause the sale to be adjourned from time to time, without prior written notice or further publication upon one day's written notice of by announcement prior to or at the time and place appointed for the public auction or at any adjournment thereof.
11. The Secured Party reserves the right to bid at the time and place of the public auction, to become the purchaser of the Collateral and to credit bid against the purchase price of the Collateral any and all indebtedness of Jozefovic to the Secured Party. In the event the Secured Party is the successful bidder, it shall not be required to deposit any cash prior to or at the time of the public auction and, to the extent its bid exceeds the amount of the indebtedness of Jozefovic to it, the excess of the amount bid over the amount of such indebtedness shall be due and payable within ten (10) days of the conclusion of the public auction.
12. Jozefovic’s right, title and interest in the Collateral will be conveyed by an appropriate transfer statement (the “Transfer Statement”), pursuant to §9-619(a) of Revised Article 9 of the Uniform Commercial Code, on an “as is, where is” basis and without representations or warranties of any kind or nature whatsoever, including, without limitation, any representation or warranty of merchantability or fitness, title, possession, quiet enjoyment, or the like. On information and belief, and without any representations or warranties of any kind or nature whatsoever, Jozefovic is a party to and subject to the terms and provisions of that certain Collateral Assignment and Pledge of Membership Interest and Security Agreement, dated August 11, 2017, made by and between Lizer Jozefovic and Howard Fensterman, as nominee for White Plains Health Care Properties I, LLC, which is annexed hereto and made a part hereof. It shall be the sole responsibility of the successful bidder, and not that of the Secured Party, to obtain a new membership interest certificate evidencing the transfer of ownership of the Collateral to the purchaser.

- 13. The entire amount of the bid will be due and payable within ten (10) days of the conclusion of the public auction, failing which the Secured Party will be entitled to the deposit held in escrow by DelBello Donnellan.
- 14. At the time and place set for the public auction, and before any proposed bidder shall be entitled to have its bid considered, such proposed bidder must execute such acknowledgements as the Secured Party may require that such proposed bidder has reviewed the form of the Transfer Statement and is prepared to execute such investment letters and other acknowledgements as may be required as part of the Transfer Statement on the part of a successful bidder.
- 15. The successful bidder will be required to execute a Memorandum of Sale in the form provided below at the time the bid is accepted.
- 16. If the successful bidder defaults, the Secured Party is authorized to retain the bid deposit. The posting of the bid deposit shall constitute the successful bidder's waiver of any and all right, title and interest in and to the bid deposit, other than as a credit against the successful bid upon payment by the successful bidder of the bid amount in compliance with the terms hereof or the return thereof if the proposed bidder is not the successful bidder.
- 17. In the event the Secured Party is unable for any reason to consummate the sale of the Collateral to the successful bidder, its sole obligation to the proposed bidder shall be the return of the principal amount of the proposed bidder's deposit, without interest.

Howard Fensterman, being duly sworn, deposes and says:

1. I am a member of WPH Properties.<sup>1</sup> I have personal knowledge of the facts and circumstances set forth in this affidavit.
2. I submit this affidavit in opposition to Jozefovic's motion for a temporary restraining order and preliminary injunction to enjoin WPH Properties from proceeding under UCC Article 9 to dispose of and/or sell the Waterview Membership Interest.

3. The relevant facts are fully set forth in the accompanying affidavit of William Nicholson, the Manager of WPH Properties, sworn to on June 29, 2021 (the "Nicholson affidavit") and the accompanying affirmation of Alfred E. Donnellan, Esq., dated June 29, 2021.

4. Pursuant to the Pledge Agreement, Jozefovic pledged and assigned to WPH Properties his controlling, 71% membership interest in Waterview (the "Waterview Membership Interest"). The pledge and assignment were security for: (i) Jozefovic's obligations concerning the maintenance of certain bank accounts containing funds sufficient to cover a $1.6 million additional security deposit that HBL was required to provide to WPH Properties under the Lease; and (ii) HBL's obligations under the Lease. Jozefovic failed to comply with his obligations under the Pledge Agreement and HBL defaulted on its obligations under the Lease.

5. As more fully explained in the Nicholson affidavit and the accompanying memorandum of law, Jozefovic failed to take all of the necessary steps to add me as a co-signatory to the Waterview JPM Accounts, as required by the Pledge Agreement. Contrary to the express provisions of the Pledge Agreement and the Waterview resolution attached to the Pledge Agreement, I was never provided with full the authority necessary to ensure that the balance in the Waterview JPM Accounts was not reduced to below $1.6 million.

6. Jozefovic's claim that I did not return the bank documents that were sent to me is false. The email that I received from HBL's counsel, Mark Zafrin, directed me to send the signed documents to Skyview, 1280 Albany Post Road, Croton-on-Hudson, New York 10520. A copy is attached as Exhibit CC. I sent the documents by Federal Express to that address the following day. A copy of the Fed Ex receipt is attached as Exhibit DD.

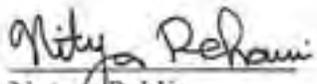

7. More fundamental is that HBL also failed (and continues to this date to refuse) to deposit the $1.6 million Additional Security Deposit in WPH Properties' Rent Security Deposit Account, a breach of both the Pledge Agreement and the Lease. Exhibit A, Lease, § 7.1(a)(iii). HBL committed a number of other breaches of the Lease as well,

8. Contrary to Jozefovic's claims, neither I nor the law firm for which I serve as managing partner, Abrams, Fensterman, Fensterman, Eisman, Formato, Ferrara, Wolf & Carone, LLP ("Abrams Fensterman"), have ever represented Jozefovic as counsel in his personal capacity.

9. Abrams Fensterman does represent Waterview in litigation to collect unpaid invoices, in connection with applications for Medicaid benefits and in so-called Fair Hearing administrative proceedings arising out of Medicaid reimbursement disputes. None of the matters in which the Abrams Fensterman law firm represents or has ever represented Waterview has anything whatsoever to do with any of the issues in this case, including the Pledge Agreement, the Lease or the Waterview Operating Agreement or Jozefovic's pledge and assignment of the Waterview Membership Interest to WPH Properties.

PRELIMINARY STATEMENT

White Plains Healthcare Properties I, LLC (“WPH Properties”), CCC Equities, LLC, Project Equity Consulting, The Congress Companies, Howard Fensterman and William Nicholson respectfully submit this memorandum of law in opposition to the motion of Lizer Jozefovic (“Jozefovic”) for a temporary restraining order and preliminary injunction taking any action to transfer, assign, convey, or sell Jozefovic’s membership interest in Waterview Acquisition I, LLC (“Waterview”) during the pendency of this action and reducing the rent security below $1.6 million during the pendency of this action.

SUMMARY OF ARGUMENT

Jozefovic pledged his interest in Waterview as security for the satisfaction by HBL SNF, LLC (“HBL”) of its obligations under its Amended and Restated Operating Lease (the “Lease”) for a $65 million state-of-the-art nursing facility from WPH Properties. HBL is in breach of the Lease by, among many other things, failing to provide $5.3 million in security deposits, as the Lease requires. In fact, HBL has not posted a dime of security. HBL’s breach entitles WPH Properties, as a secured creditor, to sell Jozefovic’s interest in Waterview. This is the second time it has noticed such a sale.

WPH Properties’ security interest did not terminate when Jozefovic tendered banking documents to one of WPH Properties’ principals. The express terms of the pledge agreement provide that the security interest terminates only when the $1.6 million is deposited in WPH Properties’ tenant security deposit account. That has never happened.

Nor does the lien on the Waterview membership certificates that Jozefovic gave to Metropolitan Commercial Bank (“MCB”) prevent WPH Properties from exercising its right to sell Jozefovic’s interest. WPH Properties’ security interest attached to Jozefovic’s membership interest before a certificate for that interest was created. Jozefovic could not defeat that security instrument by creating a membership certificate and pledging it to MCB. WPH Properties is still a secured creditor entitled under the UCC to sell Jozefovic's membership interest subject to the interest of MCB.

Jozefovic and MCB also cannot establish the irreparable harm and balancing of the equities in their favor that is necessary to that relief. HBL took occupancy in September 2019 and has been in continuous occupancy since without posting any security deposit whatsoever. It is also in breach of the Lease in many other respects.

Selling Jozefovic's membership interest will not cause any irreparable harm to Jozefovic or to MCB. MCB will have the same lien on the same membership interest after the sale that it has today. HBL is in default under the Lease; Jozefovic will simply be held to account for that default in accordance with the agreement he made with WPH Properties.

The only party that will be harmed here is WPH Properties if the sale is not permitted to proceed. It will be stuck with a tenant in possession of its $65 million state-of-the-art nursing facility with no security deposit and no ability to enforce the pledge for which it negotiated. The equities balance solidly in favor of WPH Properties. The motion should be denied.

STATEMENT OF FACTS

WPH Properties respectfully refers the court to the affidavit of William A. Nicholson sworn to on June 28, 2021 (the "Nicholson aff." or "Nicholson affirmation"), which summarizes the relevant facts.

Jozefovic failed to submit an affidavit from anyone with personal knowledge to support his application. The only support for the motion was an attorney’s affirmation. That should have been fatal to the motion. See Morales v. Coram Materials Corp., 51 A.D.3d 86, 96 (2d Dept 2008); McDermott v. South Farmingdale Water District, 167 A.D.2d 517 (2d Dept. 1990). At the conference on June 25, 2021, the Court allowed Jozefovic to cure this deficiency by submitting an affidavit of someone with personal knowledge by noon on June 28, 2021. Jozefovic failed to do that. He submitted his affirmation at 4:35 p.m. That affirmation was untimely and should be disregarded and the motion should be denied for failure to provide the required evidentiary support.

Jozefovic and Metropolitan Commercial Bank have failed to establish the elements necessary for a preliminary injunction and temporary restraining order “To obtain a preliminary injunction, a movant must establish, by clear and convincing evidence: (1) a likelihood of success on the merits, (2) irreparable injury absent a preliminary injunction, and (3) a balancing of the equities in the movant’s favor.” Alayoff v. Alayoff, 112 A.D.3d at 564 (2d Dep’t 2013), quoting from Arthur J. Gallagher & Co. v. Marchese, 96 A.D.3d 791 (2d Dep’t 2012). “Pursuant to CPLR 6301, a temporary restraining order may be granted pending a hearing for a preliminary injunction where it appears that immediate and irreparable injury, loss, or damage will result unless the defendant is restrained before the hearing can be held.” Crescentini v. Slate Hill Biomass Energy, LLC, 113 A.D.3d 806, 807 (2d Dep’t 2014)..

A. Jozefovic cannot demonstrate a likelihood of success on the merits.

1. WPH Properties is entitled to dispose of the Waterview membership interest.

The Pledge Agreement unambiguously pledges and assigns the Waterview Membership Interest to WPH Properties in order to secure the promises made by Jozefovic in the Pledge Agreement and by HBL in the Lease. HBL does not dispute that it is in default under the Lease. WPH Properties is a “secured party” under Article 9 of the New York UCC. § 9-102-73(A) defines a “secured party,” as relevant here, as a person “in whose favor a security interest is created or provided for under a security agreement, whether or not any obligation to be secured is outstanding.” Here, pursuant to the Pledge Agreement, Jozefovic pledged and assigned the Waterview Membership Interest to WPH Properties as collateral to secure HBL’s obligations under the Lease and Jozefovic’s obligation under the Pledge Agreement with respect to the Waterview JPM Accounts. Nicholson aff., ¶ 4 & ex. D, at 2, second Whereas clause. The Pledge Agreement therefore granted WPH Properties a security interest, making the Pledge Agreement a security agreement under the UCC and WPH Properties a secured party under UCC §§ 1-201(35); 9-102-73(A).

Pursuant to Article 9 of the UCC, a secured party has the right to dispose of collateral upon a default. “After default, a secured party may sell, lease, license, or otherwise dispose of any or all of the collateral in its present condition or following any commercially reasonable preparation or processing.” N.Y.U.C.C. § 9-610(a).

The Pledge Agreement is a clear, unambiguous contract entered into at arms-length between Jozefovic and WPH Properties that should be enforced. When sophisticated parties agree to the terms of an unambiguous contract, the terms of the contract control and the contract will be enforced according to its terms. See Matter of Wallace v 600 Partners Co., 86 N.Y.2d 543, 548 (1995). Courts will neither modify nor rewrite a contract when the terms of the contract are clear.

See Morlee Sales Corp. v Manufacturers Tr. Co., 9 N.Y.2d 16, 19 (1961); Ligeras Enterprises, Inc. v Carla Realty Co., 164 A.D.3d 783, 784 (2d Dep’t 2018). As fully detailed below and in the Nicholson affidavit, Jozefovic and HBL breached its obligations under the Lease and Pledge Agreement. See Nicholson aff., ¶¶ 13 - 27. WPH Properties is therefore entitled to exercise its rights under Article 9 of the UCC and the Pledge Agreement by disposing of the Waterview Membership Interest at a public sale.

2. WPH Properties still has security interest under the Pledge Agreement because HBL has never deposited $1.6 million in WPH Properties’ Rent Security Account.

Contrary to Jozefovic’s argument, the Pledge Agreement does not provide that it terminates when the $1.6 million has been deposited in the Waterview JPM Account. What it provides, specifically, is that the Pledge Agreement terminates when the $1.6 million is deposited in WPH Properties’ Rent Security Account:

2. Upon effectuation of Section 7.1(a)(iii) of the lease which requires Sixty days prior to the anticipated Commencement Date, the funds in the JP Morgan Chase Bank account in the amount of not less than $1,600,000 shall be deposited into the Landlords Rent Security Account, the interest in the company assigned to the Assignee pursuant to Paragraph 1 hereof shall be automatically reassigned by the Assignee to the Assignor without recourse, representation or warranty, and this Assignment shall automatically terminate and be void and of no further effect.

Nicholson aff., ¶ 6 - 8 & ex. D, at 2. Since the $1.6 million Additional Security Deposit was never delivered to WPH Properties in accordance with Section 7.1(a)(iii) of the Lease, the Pledge Agreement remains in full force and effect. And because the Pledge Agreement, by its express terms, secures the obligations under the Lease, the failure to deliver the $1.6 million in additional rent security was also a default under the Pledge Agreement.

3. The tender of the bank documents, although irrelevant under the terms of the Pledge Agreement, was, in any event, insufficient to satisfy Jozefovic’s obligation.

Jozefovic’s argument about the tender of the bank documents to Howard Fensterman is irrelevant. Even if that story were factually correct, the tender did not terminate the Pledge Agreement. But the story is also false.

The Pledge Agreement obligates Jozefovic to transfer the funds into the two JPM Accounts owned by Waterview (account number xxxxxx7002 and account number xxx-x0885) and to add Fensterman as a signatory to both of those accounts to guarantee that no withdrawals would be made from those accounts that would reduce the balance below $1.6 million, “so as to ensure that when required 60 days prior to the commencement date [of the Lease] the money in the account or equivalent shall be delivered as additional cash security for the [L]ease.” Nicholson aff., ex. D & ¶ 15-18. Similarly, the Waterview Resolution attached as Exhibit A to the Pledge Agreement requires, among other things, that “[t]he Company add Howard Fensterman as a co-signatory to the following account Waterview Acquisition I, LLC Account Number 7002 and Account Number 0885 at JP Morgan Chase together with Marc Neuman and Lizer Jozefovic.” Nicholson aff., ex. D.

In other words, the funds in the Waterview JPM Accounts were intended to secure the obligation under the Lease to post the $1.6 million Additional Security Deposit by adding Fensterman as a co-signatory. The agreement was that Fensterman, as co-signatory, would ensure that the balance of Waterview JPM Accounts was at least $1.6 million, the amount of the Additional Security Deposit, and those funds would be used to post the Additional Security Deposit as required under the Lease when that became due. That is why the Pledge Agreement does not terminate until the $1.6 million is deposited into WPH Properties’ Rent Security Deposit Account.

Fensterman was never added as a signatory to either Account 7002 or Account Number 0885. As to Account 7002, Jozefovic makes no claim that Fensterman was added as a signatory to Account 7002. That alone was a breach of the provisions of the Waterview Resolution and therefore of the Pledge Agreement.

The Giardino affirmation states that the $1.6 million in “Additional Rent Security” was transferred to Account 0885. Giardino aff., ¶ 45; Jozefovic aff., ¶ 135. But that is beside the point. The point is that Jozefovic failed to take all of the necessary steps to add Fensterman as a co-signatory to the Waterview JPM Accounts, a clear breach of the Pledge Agreement.

The Giardino affirmation vaguely states that “the resolution and account holder information [for Account 0885] were tendered to Fensterman” and that “Fensterman simply had to sign the forms provided and submit them in order to become a signatory on” Account 0885. Giardino aff., ¶¶ 46, 47; Jozefovic aff., ¶¶ 36, 39. In support of these claims, the Giardino affirmation attaches as exhibit H certain account documents for Account 0885 and an August 17, 2017 email from Mr. Zafrin to Fensterman stating “Howard I need your signature on the last page.” Giardino aff., ex. H. One of the documents, the Limited Liability Company Certification states on page 1 (in bold lettering): “Use this form to certify the members/managers authorized to act on an investment account for a Limited Liability Company. A Signatory Information Sheet MUST BE provided for all signers Someone executing an LLC Certification was also required to provide a Signatory Information Sheet.” Therefore, execution of the LLC Certification alone was insufficient to make Fensterman an authorized signatory on Account 0885. And the account documents attached to the Giardino affirmation do not include a Signatory Information Sheet for Howard Fensterman.

4. WPH Properties did not waive its rights under the Pledge Agreement.

In one sentence and without further explanation, Jozefovic argues that WPH Properties’ “failure to consummate the account transaction in 2017 constitutes a complete waiver of contractual rights.” Defendants’ br., at 14-15. It is completely unclear that this means. WPH Properties did not waive any rights and Jozefovic has offered no proof whatsoever that it did.

Jozefovic’s contention that WPH Properties “waived its rights under the [Pledge Agreement] with respect to Rent Security by accepting a $2.2 million payment from Epic,” Defendants’ br., at 15, is also frivolous. To reiterate, the Lease obligates HBL to deliver to WPH Properties, before the commencement date of the Lease, an unconditional letter of credit or cash in the amount of $3,700,000 to secure the full and timely performance of its obligations under the Lease and, as previously noted, an Additional Security Deposit in the amount of $1,600,000. Nicholson aff. ex. A, § 7.1. HBL defaulted on its obligation to provide security deposits before the commencement date of the Lease. It was HBL’s immediate default under the Lease by not paying the required security deposits in the amounts of $3,700,000 and an additional $1,600,000 that prompted WPH Properties and HBL to negotiate the letter of intent dated November 20, 2019 (the “LOI”). Giardino aff., ex. I. HBL also defaulted under the terms of the LOI in a number of ways, including by failing to provide the required security deposit in the re-negotiated amount, failing to pay rent, failing to pay municipal and utility payments, failing to pay real estate taxes, failing to enter into the required Deposit Account Control Agreement, failing to enter into the agreement with JP Morgan Chase Bank and by failing to obtain an $8,000,000 working capital credit line.

5. MCB’s lien on the Waterview membership Interest does not affect WPH Properties’ right to sell the interest.

After pledging Waterview Membership Interest to WPH Properties, Jozefovic pledged the same interest to MCB. That violated his covenant in the Pledge Agreement that he would “not enter into any assignment, mortgage, pledge or other instrument which transfers or encumbers all or any part of his interest in” Waterview Hills. Nicholson aff., ex. D, at 2, § 3. He did that by amending the Waterview Hills operating agreement to create membership certificates. That also violated his agreement “not to subsequently further amend or voluntarily permit the amendment of the operating agreement of the Company that would in any manner materially adversely affect this Assignment and/or the rights of the Assignee hereunder without the consent of the Assignee.” Nicholson aff., ex. D, at 2, § 4. WPH Properties did not consent to the amendment that allowed for the assignment of the membership certificate to MCB. WPH Properties acknowledges that MCB’s lien is prior to WPH Properties’ lien because MCB perfected first. But the UCC nevertheless allows a junior creditor to sell the collateral subject to the senior creditor’s lien. And there is no reason that Jozefovic should be allowed to defeat WPH Properties’ right to sell the Waterview Membership Interest by subsequently pledging it to MCB in violation of the Pledge Agreement.

First, the fact that MCB has an alleged senior security interest in the Waterview Membership Interest does not prohibit WPH Properties from disposing of the collateral in accordance with Article 9 of the UCC. N.Y.U.C.C. § 9-610(a) provides that “[a]fter default, a secured party may sell, lease, license, or otherwise dispose of any or all of the collateral in its present condition or following any commercially reasonable preparation or processing.” The section does not provide that only the most senior secured creditor may conduct a sale. The Official Comments confirm this. Official Comment 5 to N.Y.U.C.C. § 9-610 states “[d]isposition rights under subsection (a) are not limited to first-priority security interests. Rather, any secured party as to whom there has been a default has the right to dispose of collateral under this subsection.” For example, courts have held that a party may foreclose a subordinate membership interest. CMI II, LLC v. Interactive Brand Dev., Inc., 13Misc3d 1214(A), 2006 WL 2770095, (N.Y. Co. Sup. 2006) (“IIG alleges that plaintiff cannot foreclose on the Collateral because IIG has a more senior security interest. However, the fact that plaintiff’s security interest is subordinated does not preclude plaintiff from seeking and obtaining foreclosure. As part of the foreclosure process, plaintiff is entitled to have the amount secured by IIG's senior security interest judicially determined, and to have that amount satisfied out of the sale of the Collateral.”)

Second, the UCC does not require that the secured party possess the collateral in order to foreclose. UCC § 9-102-73(A) defines a secured party, as relevant here, as “a person in whose favor a security interest is created or provided for under a security agreement. . . .” It does not require that the secured party have possession. Nothing in UCC Article 9 provides that possession of certificates is required as a precondition to a UCC Article 9 foreclosure. It requires only that the party foreclosing be a “secured party.” See N.Y.U.C.C. § 9-601(a). Further, N.Y.U.C.C. § 9-613 does not require that a notice of a sale of collateral under Article 9 state whether the secured party is in possession of the collateral. Indeed, “[s]ection 9-202 declares the policy of Article 9 of the Code stating that ‘each provision of this Article with regard to rights, obligations and remedies applies whether title to collateral is in the secured party or in the debtor.’” In re Yale Exp. Sys., Inc., 370 F.2d 433, 437 (2d Cir. 1966).

Generally, a membership interest is an intangible asset unless the operating agreement specifically provides that such interest must be evidenced by a certificate. N.Y. Limit. Liab. Co. § 603 (b). In this case, Jozefovic’s membership interest is a general intangible asset because its operating agreement did not provide otherwise. Even if the operating agreement was amended after Jozefovic pledged his membership interest, the certificate is relevant only to resolve the priority of competing claims. Abele Tractor & Equip. Co., Inc. v. Schaeffer, 167 A.D.3d 1256, 1259 (3d Dept 2018) (“An unperfected security interest may be enforced directly against a debtor (see UCC 9–201, 9–203[a], [b]); perfection is relevant only to resolve the priority of competing claims (see UCC 9–322).”). The case cited by MCB is inapposite. The creditor in In re Domestic Fuel Corp. – a bankruptcy case – held a security interest in corporate stock, not a membership interest in a limited liability company. In re Domestic Fuel Corp., 71 B.R. 734 (1987). Unlike stock certificates, a membership interest in an LLC is not required to be evidenced by a written instrument. See N.Y. Limit. Liab. Co. § 603 (b). Hotel 71 Mezz Lender LLC v. Falor, 14 N.Y.3d 303 (2010), is illustrative. In that case, the Court of Appeals rejected arguments analogizing a party’s ownership/membership interest in various LLC to shares of corporate stock for purposes of attachment of that interest. Id. at 316-17. (“Corporate shares are typically evidenced by stock certificates. Defendants’ interests, on the other hand, are not evidenced by “ownership” certificates or any other written instrument.”) The Court stated that “defendants’ ownership/ membership interests in 22 out-of-state limited liability companies—is akin to intangible contract rights, and is clearly assignable and transferable” and concluded that the intangible property interests’ situs is wherever the debtor is present. (“Just as a debt clings to the debtor when he enters a state other than the state where the debt was incurred, it follows that defendants’ uncertificated ownership interests, which defendant Mitchell possesses or has custody over, travel with him, and were attachable in New York based on his presence in this state.”) Id. 315-16. Likewise here, WPH Properties possesses an intangible uncertified ownership interest and it ‘travels’ with it. Thus, MCB’s possession of a certificate – which is not a conclusive fact – does not preclude WPH Properties from selling its security interest.

MCB’s Pledge Agreement (Exhibit B to Bandazian Aff.) only contains a pledge for Jozefovic’s uncertificated membership interest in Waterview Acquisition, not a pledge on a certificate. MCB’s UCC filing ((Exhibit D to Bandazian Aff.) also describes a pledge on an uncertificated membership interest, not a membership certificate. And while the Amended and Restated Operating Agreement of Waterview Acquisition (Exhibit C to Bandazian Aff.) states in Section 2.8 that membership interests “shall be evidenced by a certificate or certificates the form of which is attached to this Agreement as Schedule 2.8,” no such form is attached to the Operating Agreement submitted by MCB to the Court. Finally, MCB did not submit a copy of its purported certificate of membership interest in its opposition papers. There is no evidence that MCB’s pledge for the uncertificated membership interest was actually converted to a pledge for a certificated interest. While MCB claims to be in possession of a certificate, no copy has ever been provided and there is no evidence of that documents’ existence except for Bandazian’s statements to that effect.

Nothing in MCB’s supplemental submission to this Court shows that the WPH Properties’ Pledge Agreement is in any way invalid or that its uncertificated security interest cannot be sold. All MCB provides are arguments relating to the validity of its own pledge and the priority of its interest. But none of those points preclude WPH Properties from exercising their right to sell Jozefovic’s membership interest subject to MCB’s alleged senior interest. See supra CMI II, LLC, 13Misc3d 1214(A), 2006 WL 2770095. So far, however, the only evidence MCB has provided is of a UCC filing and an agreement pledging Jozefovic’s membership interest, not a membership certificate.

UCC section 8-103(c) provides in pertinent part that “[a]n interest in a partnership or limited liability company is not a security unless it is dealt in or traded on securities exchanges or in securities markets, its terms expressly provide that it is a security governed by this Article, or it is an investment company security. However, an interest in a partnership or limited liability company is a financial asset if it is held in a securities account.” (Emphasis added). Without a copy of the certificate, the parties and this Court are unable to ascertain whether or not it complies with the UCC requirement or the requirements in N.Y. Limit. Liab. Co. § 603 (b), stating in pertinent part: “The existence of the restrictions on the sale or transfer of a membership interest, as contained in this chapter and, if applicable, in the operating agreement, shall be noted conspicuously on the face or back of every certificate representing a membership interest issued by a limited liability company.” MCB has not provided proof of the existence of the certificate at any point during the parties’ dispute – not in their opposition to the sale in the New York County action and not in their opposition to the current sale. Thus, as the record stands, all MCB has is the same uncertified intangible security interest in Jozefovic’s membership interest that WPH Properties has.

Further, WPH Properties should not be made to bear any loss of value in its collateral because of Jozefovic’s attempt to defraud it and/or MCB. WPH Properties’ sale is commercially reasonable and MCB will not be prejudiced if the sale is made subject to its security interest. MCB’s security is for the amount of $3 million (Bandazian Aff. §§ 3 and 4. Jozefovic himself states in his affidavit that his “Membership Interest is worth no less than $6 million.” (Jozefovic Supplemental Aff. § 86). Thus, Jozefovic’s membership is likely to sell for more than the MCB loan is worth and its value will likely continue to accrue following any sale. Precluding WPH Properties from exercising its rights due to Jozefovic’s actions would only encourage other debtors to engage in the same tactic of certificating their interest in violation of a prior pledge to defeat the pledge when the pledgee seeks to enforce it.

6. The members of Waterview consented to the pledge and assignment of the Waterview Membership Interest

Jozefovic’s claim that the pledge and assignment of the Waterview Membership Interest was prohibited by Waterview’s operating agreement is also incorrect. Jozefovic aff., ¶¶ 42-44. The Pledge Agreement was executed by both Waterview and Jozefovic. And the Waterview resolution attached to the Pledge Agreement, which authorizes adding the requirement for Howard Fensterman’s signature, was executed by all the members of Waterview, and specifically provides that the “action is taken pursuant to the applicable New York limited liability company statutory laws and the operating agreement of the Company, by the written consent of a majority of its members and managers of the Company.” Id. at 8.

In any event, a prohibition on pledge of the Waterview Membership Interest absent consent of all the members is illegal and void. See Allen v. Biltmore Tissue Corp., 2 N.Y.2d 534, 542 (1957) The rule articulated in Allen v. Biltmore Tissue Corp. prohibits the exactly the kind of restriction here: one that gives the other members of Waterview the right to unilaterally control whether one member may transfer or pledge his ownership interest. See Rafe v. Hindin, 29 A.D.2d 481 (2d Dep't), aff'd, 23 N.Y.2d 759 (1958) (voiding as against public policy a legend on a stock certificate providing that “each stockholder is required to obtain the consent of the other stockholder to a proposed transfer of the stock to a third party. . . .” Membership Interests in limited liability companies are, like stocks, personal property, N.Y. Limited Liab. Co. Law § 610, and therefore should be treated identically with respect to illegal restraints on alienation than shares in closely-held corporations.

7. Jozefovic’s remaining arguments in opposition to the sale are without basis.

None of Jozefovic’s arguments in opposition to the sale of the Waterview Membership Interest have any merit.

a. The notice of the sale is not defamatory.

Jozefovic complains that the Notification of Disposition of Collateral is “defamatory” because it refers to Jozefovic as “assignor” and states that WPH Properties will sell the Waterview Membership Interest at public auction “to satisfy Epic’s debts.” Defendants’ br., at 16. These assertions are frivolous. The notice makes no reference whatever to Epic or to “Epic’s debts.” Epic is not a party to the Lease or the Pledge Agreement. WPH Properties is authorized to conduct a public sale of the Waterview Membership Interest in the event of a default under the Pledge Agreement (to which Jozefovic is a party) or the Lease (to which HBL is a party). The essence of Jozefovic’s claim, that WPH Properties’ distribution of a notice of that sale in accordance with the UCC is defamatory, is absurd. Jozefovic’s assertion that the notice refers to Jozefovic as an “assignor” is wrong. It does nothing more than a reference to the Pledge Agreement, which defines Jozefovic as the “Assignor” in its first paragraph. Giardino aff., ex. C, at 1. And the notice does not state that WPH Properties will sell the Waterview Membership Interest at public auction to “satisfy debts.” Defendants’ br., at 16.

b. The requirement that the New York State Department of Health approve the sale does not prevent a sale subject to the approval of the New York State Department of Health.

Jozefovic argues that the approval of the New York State Department of Health (“NYSDOH”) is a prerequisite for sale of the Waterview Membership Interest. Westchester Healthcare agrees, but that is not an obstacle to UCC sale. The Terms of Sale being provided to prospective purchasers provide that “[t]he Collateral will be sold subject to all licensing and approval requirements of the New York State Department of Health.” Nicholson aff., ex. J.

c. Jozefovic’s claims against Howard Fensterman are without merit.

Finally, Jozefovic argues that his utterly baseless claims against Howard Fensterman for breach of fiduciary duty, legal malpractice and violation Judiciary Law § 487 support his motion for injunctive relief. Each those claims is frivolous and in any event none of them support Jozefovic’s motion for injunctive relief.

Neither Mr. Fensterman nor Abrams, Fensterman, Fensterman, Eisman, Formato, Ferrara, Wolf & Carone, LLP (“Abrams Fensterman”), the law firm for which he serves as managing partner, has ever represented Jozefovic in his personal capacity. See accompanying affirmation of Howard Fensterman dated June 29, 2021 (the “Fensterman affidavit” or “Fensterman aff.”), ¶ 7. The lack of an attorney-client relationship is fatal to Jozefovic’s malpractice claim. Cusack v. Greenberg Traurig, LLP, 109 A.D.3d 747,747 (1st Dep’t 2013) (Court properly dismissed claim of legal malpractice, as there was no attorney-client relationship because the “defendant represented the corporate entity, not its shareholders or employees and, thus, not plaintiff.”); Learning Annex, L.P. v. Blank Rome LLP, 106 A.D.3d 663, 663 (1st Dep’t 2013) (“[A] claim for legal malpractice . . . would fail to state a cause of action in the absence of an attorney-client relationship.”); Fortress Credit Corp. v. Dechert LLP, 89 A.D.3d 615, 616 (1st Dep’t 2011) (“legal malpractice cause of action fails because the parties had no attorney-client relationship”).

The lack of an attorney-client relationship is also fatal to Jozefovic’s breach of fiduciary duty claim. A fiduciary relationship arises “between two persons when one of them is under a duty to act for or to give advice for the benefit of another upon matters within the scope of the relation. EBC I, Inc. v. Goldman, Sachs & Co., 5 N.Y.3d 11, 19 (2005) “A fiduciary relation exists when confidence is reposed on one side and there is resulting superiority and influence on the other.” AG Capital Funding Partners, L.P. v. State St. Bank & Trust Co., 11 N.Y.3d 146, 158 (2008). Mr. Fensterman never acted as counsel to Jozefovic and he has made no showing whatever that Mr. Fensterman otherwise has “a duty to act for or to give advice for the benefit of” Jozefovic.

Finally, Josefovich’s claim under Judiciary Law § 487 is not viable either given the absence of an attorney-client relationship. Mecca v. Shang, 258 A.D.2d 569, 570 (2d Dep’t 1999) (affirming dismissal of Judiciary Law § 487 claim because plaintiff “never retained the defendants’ legal services”); see also Rogath v. Koegel, No. 96 Civ. 8729, 1998 WL 695668, at *4 n.10 (S.D.N.Y. Oct. 6, 1998) (dismissing Judiciary Law § 487 claim because plaintiff could not plead that any fiduciary duty or attorney-client relationship existed between plaintiff and defendant).

Abrams Fensterman does represent Waterview (which Jozefovic’s motion papers refers to as Epiq) in completely unrelated matters. As a matter of law, that representation is of the limited liability company alone and does not extend to Jozefovic or the other members of Waterview. See

Stang LLC v Hudson Sq. Hotel, LLC, 2016 N.Y. Slip Op. 32434[U], 29-30 (Sup. Ct. New York Cty. [Anil C. Singh, J.] December 12, 2016), aff'd, 158 A.D.3d 446 (1st Dep't 2018).

Further, as stated in the Fensterman affidavit, Abrams Fensterman represents Waterview in litigation to collect unpaid invoices, in applications for Medicaid benefits and in so-called Fair Hearing administrative proceedings arising out of Medicaid reimbursement disputes. Because none of the matters in which Abrams Fensterman represents or has ever represented Waterview has anything whatever to do with any of the issues in this case, Fensterman aff., ¶ 8, none of those representations creates an actual or potential conflict of interest And in any event, Waterview is not a plaintiff in this case and has not, and cannot asserted any claims against Fensterman; indeed, there would be absolutely no factual or legal basis for doing so.

B. Jozefovic cannot demonstrate irreparable harm.

To demonstrate entitlement to injunctive relief with respect to a disposition of collateral under N.Y.U.C.C. § 9-625, a movant is required to establish irreparable harm. Lombard v. Station Square Inn Apartments Corp., 94 A.D.3d 717, 721 (2d Dep't 2012); see generally 306 Rutledge, LLC v. City of New York, 90 A.D.3d 1026, 1028 (2d Dep't 2011) (quoting Mar v. Liquid Mgt. Partners, LLC, 62 A.D.3d 762, 763 (2d Dep't 2009)); Broadway 500 W. Monroe, 80 A.D.3d 483, 484 (1st Dep't 2011).

Jozefovic will not suffer irreparable harm here. The Waterview Membership Interest is a purely commercial one, the loss of which is quantifiable and compensable by monetary damages. Lombard v. Station Square Inn Apartments Corp., 94 A.D.3d 717, 721 (2d Dep't 2012); 1248 Assoc. Mezz II LLC v. 12E48 Mezz II LLC, No. 651812/2020, 2020 WL 2569405 (Sup. Ct. New York Cty. [Frank P. Nervo, J.] May 8, 2020). The disposition of that interest at a UCC sale would result in a loss of Jozefovic's investment in Waterview, nothing more. Such a loss can be compensated by money damages and, therefore, Jozefovic cannot possibly suffer irreparable harm as a result of the UCC sale. The motion for injunctive relief should therefore be denied.

C. The balance of the equities weighs heavily in WPH Properties' favor.

Finally, to enjoin the sale, Jozefovic must establish that the balance of the equities tip in his favor; that is, he is "required to show that the irreparable injury to be sustained is more burdensome to him than the harm that would be caused to the defendant through the imposition of the injunction. Lombard, 94 A.D.3d at 721 (citing Klein, Wagner & Morris v Lawrence A. Klein, P.C., 186 A.D.2d 631, 633 (2d Dep't 1992)). Jozefovic cannot possibly make this showing.

It is undisputed that Jozefovic pledged the same membership interest to both WPH Properties and MCB. If MCB was not aware of Jozefovic's prior pledge to WPH Properties, it was only because Jozefovic made fraudulent misrepresentations to MCB on the assignability of his membership interest.

WPH Properties has suffered irreparable harm. As a result of HBL's refusal to make timely rents payments under the Lease, WPH Properties was unable to make certain monthly payments of debt service required by the Note and the Construction Loan Agreement. And because HBL had also failed to make the required security deposits under the Lease, WPH Properties lacked an alternative source of funds upon which to draw upon to make the untimely rent payments. Nicholson aff., ¶ 32.

The Lease requires HBL to cooperate in WPH Properties' efforts to refinance the Mortgage. Nicholson aff., ex. A, §7.8. As a direct result of HBL's defaults under the Lease, however, WPH Properties was unable to refinance the Mortgage securing the construction loan prior to maturity. HBL's default under the Lease made it impossible to refinance the Mortgage because any new lender would have required proof that the Lease (which would provide the necessary funding in the form of rents to pay debt service on the new mortgage loan) was not in default. Due to HBL's default, it was therefore impossible for WPH Properties to provide any prospective new lender an estoppel certificate or other evidence certifying that the Lease was not in default. As a result, the construction loan has now matured and is in default, placing the ongoing operations of the Facility and WPH Properties at imminent risk because the construction Security Benefit may foreclose at any time. Nicholson aff., ¶ 35.

The lender, Security Benefit issued notices of default and commenced an action to foreclose the Mortgage, but then withdrew the foreclosure action without prejudice to renew upon expiration of the moratorium on commercial foreclosure proceedings in New York State Upon expiration of the statutory foreclosure prohibition on August 31, 2021, Security Benefit will almost certainly recommence instate the Foreclosure Action. Nicholson aff., ¶ 36

The failures of Jozefovic and HBL, which Jozefovic controls, to comply with their contractual obligations under the Pledge Agreement and the Lease and guarantees have therefore caused WPH Properties substantial prejudice and financial harm and placed its principal asset, the Facility, at serious risk of foreclosure by Security Benefit. Enjoining WPH Properties from exercising their contractual and statutory remedies for these defaults would obviously cause it substantial, completely unwarranted harm. Nicholson aff., ¶ 36.

On the other hand, the only consequences Jozefovic will suffer as a result of the UCC sale is the loss of his Waterview Membership Interest, which is precisely what he bargained for in the event he defaulted on his obligations under the Pledge Agreement and the Lease. Nicholson aff., ¶ 37. Where alleged harm to movant is self-created, the balance of equities does not tip in movant's favor. Sync Realty Grp., Inc. v. Rotterdam Ventures, Inc., 63 A.D.3d 1429, 1431 (3d Dep't 2009) ("Considering that plaintiff's alleged harm appears to be in part self-created, it cannot be said that the balance of equities tilts in plaintiff's favor.").

If the Court grants an injunction, Jozefovic must be required to post a $1.6 million bond

CPLR 6312(b) requires that when the Court grants a preliminary injunction it must require the movant to provide an undertaking in an amount to be fixed by the Court, that the movant, if it is finally determined that he or she was not entitled to an injunction, will pay to the other party all damages and costs which may be sustained by reason of the injunction. CPLR 6312(b); Putter v. Singer, 73 A.D.3d 1147, 1148 (2d Dep’t 2010) (“While fixing the amount of an undertaking when granting a motion for a preliminary injunction is a matter within the sound discretion of the court, CPLR 6312(b) requires that the party seeking an injunction give an undertaking.”); Livas v. Mitzner, 303 A.D.2d 381, 383 (2d Dep’t 2003) (same).

“The amount of the undertaking . . . must not be based upon speculation and must be rationally related to the damages the nonmoving party might suffer if the court later determines that the relief to which the undertaking relates should not have been granted.” Olympic Ice Cream Co., Inc. v. Sussman, 151 A.D.3d 872, 874 (2d Dep’t 2017) (quoting Access Medical Group, P.C. v. Straus Family Capital Group, Inc., 44 A.D.3d 975, 975 (2d Dep’t 2007)).

For the reasons set forth in the accompanying affirmation of Alfred E. Donnellan, Esq., the amount of the bond should be $1.6 million.

CONCLUSION

For all of these reasons, WPH Properties respectfully requests that the motion for a temporary restraining order and preliminary injunction be denied in its entirety and that the Court award such other relief as it deems just.

during the pendency of this action, from, among other things, taking any action to transfer, assign, convey, or sell Josefovich's membership interests in Waterview Acquisition I, LLC ("Waterview"), which have now been certificated (the "Certificate").

2. In their papers filed last night (June 29, 2021), the WP Parties insincerely raised for the first time a question as to whether or not the Certificate exists, and to resolve that "question" MCB submits a true copy of the Certificate in the accompanying supplemental affidavit of Brett Bandazian.

3. In any event, examination of the Certificate is not really necessary because Waterview "opted in" to treat its membership interests as securities under UCC Article 8 and such election is determined by the language in the operating agreement. See In re Brown, 479 B.R. 112, 117 (Bankr. D. Kan. 2012). This makes sense given the fact that "[a] member's interest may be a certificated security or an uncertificated security within the meaning of section 8-102 of the uniform commercial code if the requirements of section 8-103(c) are met ...." N.Y. Limited Liability Company Law § 603. In In re Brown, the Court ultimately determined that the limited liability interests at issue were general intangibles. Id. In doing so, however, the Court studied the provisions of the operating agreement, without concern for any certificate, noting that:

None of the conditions listed in § 8-103(c) are met by the units in question here. The units are not traded on any market and the operating agreement makes no provision for Article Eight to apply to them. KMC is a hospital, not an investment company. Because these units are not securities under Article Eight, they cannot be investment property under Article Nine. Id. (emphasis added).

4. Conversely, Waterview's Operating Agreement clearly states that its interests are to be certificated and treated as securities (Malatak Aff. Ex. C to Exhibit 1 (Doc No. 124)) and that is all that is required. There is no requirement -- and the WP Parties cite to none -- that the election to "opt in" be stated on the Certificate. See also, "The Article 8 Opt In," Law Journal Newsletters, September 2016 ("For a limited liability company or partnership to 'opt in' under UCC Article 8, the entity must adhere to the requirements contained in section 8-103 of the UCC. Specifically, an entity's operating agreement must contain explicit language stating that the entity has opted to have its membership interest treated as a security. *** If the entity chooses to issue certificates, the certificates will frequently (though not always) contain language notice that the entity has elected to opt in under Article 8"), a true copy of which is annexed hereto as Exhibit 7 (emphasis added).

5. In summary, Waterview elected, through its Operating Agreement, to treat its interests as securities under Article 8. Accordingly, the interests are securities, MCB is currently in possession of the Certificate and thus, the WP Parties are not able to conduct a commercially reasonable sale.

WHEREFORE, MCB respectfully requests that the Court issue an order granting (1) Movants' order to show cause for a temporary restraining order and preliminary injunction, except that the injunction should not be extended to MCB and (2) MCB such other and further relief as this Court deems just and proper.

When a lender provides financing to a commercial borrower, it typically requires the borrower to grant a security interest in some or all of the borrower's assets. Among many other types of assets or collateral, a borrower may be required to grant a security interest in stock or membership interests owned by the borrower, including stock or membership interests in the borrower's subsidiaries or affiliates.

Of course, simply obtaining a security interest provides only marginal protection relative to parties other than the borrower ' including, for example, competing secured creditors or trustees in bankruptcy. See, e.g., UCC ' 9-322 (priority rules governing competing security interests in collateral); and 11 U.S.C. ' 546 (bankruptcy trustee possesses rights and powers of certain lien creditors). Thus, in addition to merely obtaining a security interest, a lender must take all necessary steps under the Uniform Commercial Code ("UCC" (the UCC has been adopted in all 50 states with some ' usually, but not always, minor ' variations)) or other applicable law to perfect that interest.

The appropriate method for perfecting a security interest varies depending on the type of collateral. To perfect security interests in many types of assets, a lender need only file a UCC financing statement in the appropriate filing jurisdiction. For other assets, a UCC financing statement may not perfect a security interest, or it may only provide a fragile level of perfection that is vulnerable to being trumped by a party that has perfected through a different means.

Thus, knowing the proper and best way to perfect a security interest in a given type of asset is critical for parties and advisors involved in secured lending. However, some types of assets present an extra degree of challenge because the best way to perfect interests in such assets may vary depending on the situation and the organizational documents of the entity in question. Membership interests in limited liability companies, general partnerships, and limited partnerships are one example of this phenomenon.

Security or General Intangible

In the absence of the steps discussed below, membership interests in limited liability companies and partnerships will be treated as general intangibles. Pursuant to ' 9-310 of the UCC, the means by which to perfect a security interest in a general intangible is the filing of a UCC-1 financing statement in the proper jurisdiction. UCC ' 9-310. Thus, assuming a secured lender has obtained a valid security interest in a limited liability company or partnership membership interest, once the financing statement is filed in the appropriate jurisdiction, the lender's interest will be perfected. If no other creditor has taken similar steps, the lender will have a first priority security interest in the membership interest (conversely, if another party has already taken the necessary steps to perfect a security interest in the entity's membership interest, then the "first to file" rules set forth in Article 9 will govern priority ( see UCC ' 9-322)).

To illustrate, if Blue Bank agrees to provide financing to Red Corp., and as part of the transaction, Red Corp. grants Blue Bank a security interest in among other things its membership interest in Red LLC, then once Blue Bank files a financing statement in the appropriate jurisdiction, it will have a perfected security interest in the membership interest of Red LLC that is held by Red Corp.

However, a limited liability company or partnership may take certain steps which, for purposes of perfection under the UCC, will change the character of the entity's membership interest from a general intangible to a security. This is commonly referred to as the Article 8 "opt in." Whether an entity has elected to opt in will affect the optimal means by which to perfect a security interest in the entity's membership interest.

The 'Opt In' Mechanism

For a limited liability company or partnership to "opt in" under UCC Article 8, the entity must adhere to the requirements contained in section 8-103 of the UCC. Specifically, an entity's operating agreement must contain explicit language stating that the entity has opted to have its membership interest treated as a security. See UCC ' 8-103(c). To effectively opt in under Article 8, an entity's operating agreement should contain language such as that shown below:

Each interest in [name of issuer] shall constitute and shall remain a 'security' within the meaning of (i) Section 8-102(a)(15) of the Uniform Commercial Code as in effect from time to time in the State of [state of organization of issuer] [cite to UCC in applicable state] and (ii) the Uniform Commercial Code of any other applicable jurisdiction that now or hereafter substantially includes the 1994 revisions to Article 8 thereof as adopted by the American Law Institute and the National Conference of Commissioners on Uniform State Laws and approved by the American Bar Association on February 14, 1995, and the [issuer] has, pursuant to the [list relevant organizational documents of the issuer], 'opted in' to such provisions for the purpose of the UCC. Notwithstanding any provision of this Agreement to the contrary, to the extent that any provision of this Agreement is inconsistent with any non-waivable provision of Article 8 of the UCC, such provision of Article 8 of the UCC shall be controlling.

When dealing with an entity that is considering the Article 8 opt in, or one that has already opted in, several issues are important to keep in mind. First, section 8-103's opt in provision explicitly applies only to limited liability companies, limited partnerships, and general partnerships; it does not apply to corporations or other entities.

Additionally, as section 8-103(c) of the UCC makes clear, an entity must expressly elect to have its membership interest treated as a security; otherwise, its membership interest will be treated as a general intangible. Thus, it is impossible for a limited liability company or a partnership to accidentally or inadvertently opt in.

Finally, for an entity that chooses to opt in, its membership interest can be certificated or uncertificated. If the entity chooses to issue certificates, the certificates will frequently (though not always) contain language noting that the entity has elected to opt in under Article 8. As discussed below, if an entity has elected to opt in, the lender will often require that the membership interest be certificated so as to enable the lender to take possession of the certificates.

Effect of Article 8 Opt In on Perfection

As noted above, if a limited liability company or partnership has taken the steps to opt in, then for purposes of perfection, the membership interest will no longer be classified as a general intangible ' rather, it will be classified as a security. In such an instance, the best way to perfect a security interest in the membership interest is no longer the filing of a financing statement; instead, the optimal perfection method is either control or possession.

If the membership interest is uncertificated, then the best means to perfect the security interest is through control. Conversely, if the membership interest is certificated, the best way for a secured party to perfect is to take possession of the certificate (methods by which to perfect a security interest in a security are addressed in UCC " 9-310 (filing of financing statement), 9-312 (various means), 9-313 (possession), and 9-314 (control)). Even if an entity has elected to opt in, the filing of a valid financing statement will perfect the lender's interest; however, this method of perfection does not provide the lender with the highest form of protection, which is best achieved via control or possession. See UCC " 9-312 and 9-328.

Dangers for the Unwary Lender

There are several risks for a lender providing financing secured, at least in part, by a membership interest in a partnership or limited liability company. If the lender perfects its security interest in the membership interest solely by filing a financing statement, and the entity has elected to opt in, then the lender is at risk of its security interest being trumped by a party that perfected either by control or possession, which are superior methods of perfection under Article 9 of the UCC. See UCC ' 9-328.

By way of illustration, if Blue Bank provides financing to Red Corp. and, as part of the transaction, Red Corp. grants Blue Bank a security interest in its membership interest in Red LLC, then once Blue Bank files a financing statement in the appropriate jurisdiction, it will have a perfected security interest in the membership interest of Red LLC that is owned by Red Corp. If Red LLC has not elected to opt in, then Blue Bank's priority would only be at risk if another party filed a financing statement that qualified as a prior filing under ' 9-322 of the UCC. However, if Red LLC did opt in, then Blue Bank's priority could be primed by another party that perfects by control or possession of Red LLC's membership interest. This would be the result even if the other party perfects its interest after Blue Bank files its financing statement.

Another ongoing risk for a lender is an entity's ability to change its opt-in status. A lender's security interest may be weakened or abrogated if the entity either opts in or elects to opt out after the lender has taken necessary steps to perfect its security interest in the entity's membership interest. For example, if Red LLC opts in after Blue Bank provided Red Corp. with financing, and another lender subsequently perfects by control or possession of the membership interest, then Blue Bank would face the same priority issues discussed above.

Conversely, if an entity chooses to opt out after a lender has provided financing, and the lender has not filed a financing statement perfecting its security interest in the entity's membership interest, then the lender will be unperfected, since the entity's membership interest will be classified as a general intangible which, as noted above, can only be perfected through the filing of a financing statement.

Consequently, many lenders require a borrower to affirmatively represent and warrant that any limited liability company or partnership whose membership interest is being pledged as security either has or has not elected to opt in under Article 8, and that such entity will not alter its election status. Additionally, when an entity has opted in, many lenders require the entity's membership interest to be certificated and possession of the certificates to be transferred to the lender.

Conclusion

The Article 8 opt-in election adds an additional layer of complexity to the already labyrinthine rules governing perfection of security interests under the UCC. A lender that is unaware of the nuances created by the opt in (or if the entity's Article 8 opt in status is different than the lender believes) may find its security interest vulnerable to being primed by another party that has taken steps to perfect in a superior manner under the circumstances. Even worse, the lender may discover that it is unperfected entirely with respect to the membership interest in question.

As a final matter, it is also worth noting that while the opt in provides additional complications with respect to perfection of security interests in limited liability and partnership membership interests, the opt in may also provide several additional benefits for a secured lender. Among other things, when an entity has elected to opt in, a secured lender may in certain circumstances qualify as a protected purchaser under ' 8-303 of the UCC. As these added opt-in benefits are worthy of a separate article unto itself, a fuller discussion of them will come at a later date.

Description of Appeal, Proceeding or Application and Statement of Issues

Description: If an appeal, briefly describe the paper appealed from. If the appeal is from an order, specify the relief requested and whether the motion was granted or denied. If an original proceeding commenced in this court or transferred pursuant to CPLR 7804(g), briefly describe the object of proceeding. If an application under CPLR 5704, briefly describe the nature of the ex parte order to be reviewed. This is an appeal of a denial of an Order to Show Cause seeking a temporary restraining order and preliminary injunction to enjoin the sale of certificated membership interests in a limited liability company.

Issues: Specify the issues proposed to be raised on the appeal, proceeding, or application for CPLR 5704 review, the grounds for reversal, or modification to be advanced and the specific relief sought on appeal.

Appellant/Third-Party Defendant Metropolitan Commercial Bank ("MCB") appeals the denial of a preliminary injunction enjoining the sale of certain certificated membership interests in an limited liability company because (1) MCB has a security interest senior to plaintiff White Plains Healthcare Properties I, LLC; and (2) MCB has possession of the certificate, so the junior creditor cannot conduct a commercially reasonable sale. There are also disputes concerning whether the junior creditor's security interest has been terminated pursuant to the terms of its security agreement.

Instructions: Fill in the name of each party to the action or proceeding, one name per line. If this form is to be filed for an appeal, indicate the status of the party in the court of original instance and his, her, or its status in this court, if any. If this form is to be filed for a proceeding commenced in this court, fill in only the party's name and his, her, or its status in this court.

The following e-filed documents, listed by NYSCEF document number (Motion 002) 7, 8, 9, 10, 11, 12, 13, 61, 62, 63, 77, 78, 79, 80, 81, 82, 83, 84, 85, 87, 89 were read on this motion to/for CHANGE VENUE.

In this action seeking a declaratory judgment and damages in connection with claims sounding in, inter alia, breach of contract, fraud, defamation, breach of fiduciary duty, and legal malpractice, the plaintiff moves pursuant to CPLR 6301 for a preliminary injunction enjoining the defendants and their agents from publishing and distributing false statements about the plaintiff and from taking any action to transfer, assign, convey, or sell the plaintiff's membership interest in Waterview Acquisition I, LLC ("Waterview") (SEQ 001). The defendants White Plains Healthcare Properties I, LLC ("WPH Properties"), and Howard Fensterman ("Fensterman") oppose the motion and separately move pursuant to CPLR 511 and 602 to transfer this action to Westchester County and consolidate it with an action pending there entitled White Plains Healthcare Properties I, LLC v HBL SNF, LLC, Lizer Jozefovic and Mark Neuman, Index No. 60278/2020 (the "Westchester Action") (SEQ 002). The plaintiff opposes the moving defendants' application. For the following reasons, the moving defendants' motion is granted and the plaintiff's motion is denied without prejudice.

WPH Properties is the developer and owner of a new skilled nursing facility located in Westchester County, New York (the "Facility"). The Facility is operated by HBL SNF, LLC ("HBL"), an entity controlled by the plaintiff. WPH Properties and HBL are parties to an operating lease dated November 19, 2015 (the "Lease"), under which WPH Properties leases the Facility to HBL, as tenant. The plaintiff and nonparty Marc Neuman, as principals of HBL, are HBL's guarantors under the Lease.

Section 7.1(a)(iii) of the Lease provides that HBL was to pay an additional security deposit in the amount of $1.6 Million 60 days prior to the start of the lease period. As security for that payment, the plaintiff and WPH Properties entered into a collateral assignment agreement (the "Collateral Assignment Agreement"). Pursuant to the Collateral Assignment Agreement, the plaintiff assigned to WPH Properties his 71% membership interest in Waterview, an entity that owns another skilled nursing home in Westchester County (the "Waterview Interest"). The plaintiff also agreed to list Howard Fensterman, attorney for WPH Properties, as a signatory to a Waterview account with JP Morgan (the "Waterview account") where the $1.6 Million was currently being held. The Collateral Assignment Agreement provided that:

"[u]pon the effectuation of Section 7.1(a)(iii) of the lease which requires Sixty days prior to the anticipated Commencement Date, the funds in the [Waterview account] in the amount of not less than $1,600,000 shall be deposited into the Landlords Rent Security Account, the [Waterview Interest] assigned to [WPH Properties] ...shall be automatically reassigned by [WPH Properties] to [the plaintiff] without recourse, representation or warranty, and this Assignment shall automatically terminate and be void and of no further effect."

The "Landlords Rent Security Account" is not a defined term in the Lease or the Collateral Assignment Agreement. The Collateral Assignment Agreement further provides that the exercise of WPH Properties' rights to sell the Waterview Interest as assignee is authorized upon the plaintiff's violation of the "terms and provisions concerning the maintenance of the [Waterview account]..."

The plaintiff avers that he satisfied his obligations under the Collateral Assignment Agreement and that as a result, the assignment terminated. In 2019, the plaintiff assigned the Waterview Interest to defendant Metropolitan Commercial Bank ("MCB") in connection with a $3 Million loan as part of a financing arrangement to provide working capital to benefit the Facility, including through the payment of rent to WPH Properties.

On September 18, 2020, WPH Properties commenced the Westchester Action, in which it contends, inter alia, that HBL breached the Lease by failing to pay rent, municipal and utility deposits, real estate taxes, and other fees associated with the Facility, including the $1.6 Million security deposit required by Section 7.1(a)(iii). On October 6, 2020, WPH Properties noticed a public sale of the Waterview Interest based upon the plaintiff's alleged default under the Collateral Assignment Agreement. On October 22, 2020, this action ensued.

"Consolidation is generally favored in the interest of judicial economy and ease of decision-making where cases present common questions of law and fact, 'unless the party opposing the motion demonstrates that a consolidation will prejudice a substantial right.'" Raboy v McCrory Corp., 210 AD2d 145 (1st Dept. 1994) (quoting Amtorg Trading Corp. v Broadway & 56th St. Assoc., 191 AD2d 212, 213 [1st Dept. 1993]). The movants correctly argue that consolidation is warranted here because this action and the Westchester Action share common questions of law and fact. See CPLR 602; DeSilva v Plot Realty, LLC, 85 AD3d 422 (1st Dept. 2011); Kern v Shandell, Blitz, Blitz & Bookson, 58 AD3d 487 (1st Dept. 2009).

The plaintiff opposes consolidation, observing that while the Westchester Action involves claims regarding HBL's performance of its obligations under the Lease and the plaintiff's performance under the guarantee he signed, the instant action involves claims regarding ownership of the Waterview Interest pursuant to the separate Collateral Assignment Agreement. However, this characterization of the actions ignores the fact that both (a) WPH Properties' claim in the Westchester Action that the additional security was not paid and (b) the plaintiff's central claim in this action that the Collateral Assignment Agreement automatically terminated turn on the same question: whether Section 7.1(a)(iii) of the Lease was effectuated. Allowing this question to proceed in two separate courts risks inconsistent results. Moreover, WPH Properties avers in its moving papers that it has amended its complaint in the Westchester Action to include a claim sounding in violation of the Collateral Assignment Agreement against the plaintiff. Finally, the plaintiff, who is a resident of Westchester County and a party to the Westchester Action, which was commenced prior to the instant action, would not suffer prejudice to any substantial right as a result of consolidation and transfer.

The court notes that transfer is also appropriate because it appears that venue is improper in New York County. CPLR 503 provides that "[e]xcept where otherwise prescribed by law, the place of trial shall be in the county in which one of the parties resided when it was commenced; the county in which a substantial part of the events or omissions giving rise to the claim occurred; or, if none of the parties then resided in the state, in any county designated by the plaintiff." Here, the only entity residing in New York County is MCB, which the plaintiff has included as a defendant but against which the plaintiff has not asserted any claim. Conversely, several parties, including the plaintiff, reside in Westchester County. Since venue properly lies in Westchester County, the court declines to retain venue on the basis of MCB, a nominal defendant against whom there is no claim. See Espinoza v Concordia Intl. Forwarding Corp., 39 AD3d 258 (1st Dept. 2007).

The plaintiff's motion for preliminary injunctive relief is denied without prejudice to renewal upon transfer and consolidation in Westchester County.

Accordingly, it is

ORDERED that the plaintiff's motion pursuant to CPLR 6301 for a preliminary injunction (SEQ 001) is denied without prejudice to renewal upon the transfer and consolidation of this action in Westchester County; and it is further

ORDERED that the motion of White Plains Healthcare Properties I, LLC, and Howard Fensterman pursuant to CPLR 511 and 602 to transfer this action to Westchester County and consolidate it with an action pending there entitled White Plains Healthcare Properties I, LLC v HBL SNF, LLC, Lizer Jozefovic and Mark Neuman, Index No. 60278/2020, (SEQ 002) is granted; and it is further

Dear Justice Walsh:

This firm represents plaintiff, White Plains Healthcare Properties I, LLC (“WPH Properties”) and third-party defendants, CCC Equities, LLC, Project Equity Consulting, The Congress Companies, Howard Fensterman and William Nicholson (collectively, “third-party defendants”) in the above consolidated action.

We are writing to request a pre-motion conference concerning a motion for summary judgment that we wish to make. The motion is based on the undisputed facts that HBL SNF, LLC defaulted even before it took occupancy by failing to provide the required security deposit 60 days in advance and has, in fact, never, to this day, provided any security deposit. The same failure to provide a security deposit was a default under the letter of intent by which WPH Properties agreed to sell the premises to an entity in which HBL and its principals had a majority interest. HBL has defaulted in multiple other respects, as well. The motion will seek judgment determining that HBL defaulted under the lease and letter of intent, that HBL, as well as Jozefovic and Neuman, as guarantors of HBL’s obligations, are liable for that default and money judgment against each of the defendants for the amount due WPH Properties as of July 31, 2021 by reason of HBL’s defaults.

Thank you for your consideration of this request.

Respectfully,

/s/ Alfred E. Donnellan

Dear Justice Walsh:

This firm represents plaintiff, White Plains Healthcare Properties I, LLC (“WPH Properties”) and third-party defendants, CCC Equities, LLC, Project Equity Consulting, The Congress Companies, Howard Fensterman and William Nicholson (collectively, “third-party defendants”) in the above consolidated action.

Yesterday afternoon we received a communication from Mr. Wintermute offering times for the pre-motion conference we requested with respect to our motion for summary judgment on August 24th, 25th and 26th. As the Court is aware, our clients will likely be sued by their construction lender on September 1, 2021. As the Court is, I believe, also aware, the defendants’ apparent strategy is to delay the resolution of this case sufficiently so that the construction lenders’ suit will put the plaintiffs in an impossible situation. Not being able to serve our summary judgment motion until August 24th, 25th or 26th is, therefore, seriously prejudicial to the plaintiffs.

We are writing to request, therefore, that we be permitted to serve the motion prior to the conference. We have no objection to attending the conference, and we would be willing to satisfy the purpose of the conference, as stated in Rule 24(a), by withdrawing or modifying our motion if the conference results in the Court successfully resolving any of the issues (although we see that as unlikely since multiple attempts to resolve this matter have been ineffective). But it is essential that we be permitted to start the summary judgment process.

Thank you for your consideration of this request.

Respectfully,

Consolidated under Westchester
County Index No. as per April 8,
2021 Decision and Order.

Alfred E. Donnellan, an attorney duly admitted to practice in the courts of the State of New York, affirms the following to be true under the penalty of perjury:

1. I am a member of the law firm of DelBello Donnellan Weingarten Wise & Wiederkehr, LLP, lead counsel for plaintiff White Plains Healthcare Properties I, LLC (“WPH Properties”) and third-party defendants, CCC Equities, LLC, Project Equity Consulting, The Congress Companies, Howard Fensterman and William Nicholson (collectively, “third-party defendants”).

2. I submit this affirmation in support of the motion of WPH Properties and third-party defendants for an order granting summary judgment in favor of WPH Properties for the relief demanded in the complaint and dismissing the counterclaims and third-party claims (collectively, the “defendants’ claims”) asserted by defendants/third-party plaintiffs, HBL SNF, LLC (“HBL”), Lizer Jozefovic (“Jozefovic”) and Mark Neuman (“Neuman”) (collectively, “defendants”).

Introduction

3. WPH Properties commenced this action after HBL defaulted under its lease of a nursing home facility located at 116-120 Church Street, White Plains, New York, that was developed and financed by, and is owned by, WPH Properties. The action comes after six years of failures by HBL and its principals, Jozefovic and Neuman, to comply with their obligations, in each case using their default to re-negotiate more favorable terms for HBL and themselves. The bankruptcy of one of HBL’s members also caused significant delays. As detailed in the accompanying affidavit of William A. Nicholson, one of the managing members of WPH Properties, HBL did not comply with the lease that was negotiated in 2015 or the lease that was amended and restated in 2017. Specifically, and most important, HBL did not provide the $5.3 million security deposit when it was required in 2019 and has, in fact, never deposited any security with WPH Properties. When HBL defaulted in November 2019, WPH Properties even agreed to transfer the property to a Delaware Statutory Trust in which WPH Properties and HBL would be the majority beneficiaries, provided that HBL provided a reduced initial payment toward the security deposit of $1,000,000 within 10 days, by December 1, 2019, complied in all other respects with the terms of the lease pending the closing of title and closed by April 1, 2020. HBL failed in every respect.

4. With respect to the security deposit, the lease required HBL to have delivered to WPH Properties “60 days prior to the anticipated Commencement Date,” a security deposit consisting of $3.7 million in cash or letter of credit and an additional $1.6 million from an identified bank account. Exhibit 12, Lease § 7.1(a)(ii) and (iii). HBL admits that it took occupancy of the property on September 30, 2019. Exhibit 11, Notice to Admit, No.1. The security deposit was due, therefore, in July 2019. HBL did not pay the security deposit then and has never paid the security deposit since – not even a penny. Failure to provide the security deposit is defined in the lease as a material default and is a material default as a matter of law.

5. HBL also defaulted by failing to pay rent, real estate taxes timely, municipal escrows and utility charges, by failing or refusing to deliver certificates of insurance timely, as well as all Medicare, Medicaid and other provider agreements and reimbursement rate sheets for the facility and by failing or refusing to deliver required financial reporting and written reporting providing an operational overview of significant events and circumstances at the facility during each month of the lease term, all as required by the lease. All of these defaults are detailed, with supporting documentation, in the accompanying affidavit of Edward O. Tabor.

6. HBL does not deny that it has defaulted. In fact, HBL has admitted its defaults by failing to respond to the notice to admit that was served on June 2, 2021.

7. WPH Properties commenced this action on September 18, 2020 seeking to recover the amounts due as a result of HBL’s defaults under the lease and the letter of intent and to enforce the guarantees of HBL’s obligations given by Jozefovic and Neuman. WPH Properties later filed an amended complaint adding a cause of action against Jozefovic to enforce a pledge agreement he gave as security for his obligations and HBL’s obligation under the lease. That interest has since been sold at a public auction in accordance with its terms.

A. Procedural History

(i) The Westchester County action

8. On September 18, 2020, WPH Properties commenced this action by filing a summons and complaint in the Supreme Court, Westchester County, under Index No. 60278/2020 (the "Westchester County Action"). A copy of the summons and complaint is attached as exhibit 1.

9. On November 5, 2020, the defendants filed a verified answer including counterclaims, purporting to assert third-party claims. A copy of the verified answer is attached as exhibit 2.

10. On November 30, 2020, WPH Properties filed an amended verified complaint. A copy of the amended verified complaint filed on November 30, 2020 is attached as exhibit 3.

11. On December 11, 2020, WPH Properties filed a verified reply to the counterclaims and the third-party defendants filed a verified answer to third-party complaint. The third-party defendants' verified answer to third-party complaint is attached as exhibit 4. WPH Properties' verified reply to counterclaims is attached as exhibit 4.

12. By order dated March 18, 2021, the Court granted WPH Properties' motion for leave to file an amended complaint. On March 22, 2021, WPH Properties re-filed its amended verified complaint in accordance with the order. A copy of the amended verified complaint filed on March 22, 2020 is attached as exhibit 5.

(ii) The New York County action

13. On October 22, 2020, Jozefovic filed a summons and complaint in the Supreme Court, New York County, under Index No. 655549/2020 (the "New York County Action") commencing an action against WPH Properties, Fensterman and Metropolitan Commercial Bank

(“MCB”). Copies of the summons and complaint filed in the New York County Action are attached as exhibit 6. Jozefovic moved at the same time for a preliminary injunction prohibiting WPH Properties from, among other things, selling his membership interest in Waterview Hills Acquisition I, LLC, which he had pledged as collateral for HBL’s obligations under the lease.

14. By order to show cause signed on November 12, 2020, WPH Properties and Fensterman moved for an order changing the venue of the New York County Action to Westchester County and consolidating it with the Westchester County Action.

15. On November 18, 2020, WPH Properties and Fensterman filed a verified answer in the New York County Action. A copy of the verified answer filed by WPH Properties and Fensterman in the New York County Action is attached as exhibit 7.

16. On January 8, 2021, MCB filed an “answer with cross-claim” in the New York County Action. A copy of MCB’s answer with cross-claim filed in the New York County Action is attached as exhibit 8.

17. By order dated April 8, 2021, the Supreme Court, New York County (Nancy M. Bannon, J.), granted the motion made by WPH Properties and Fensterman to transfer the New York County Action to Westchester County and consolidate it with the Westchester County Action under Westchester County Index No. 60278/2020. A copy of the April 8, 2021 order is attached as exhibit 9.

(iii) The Consolidated Action

18. On May 21, 2021, the defendants filed a “first amended verified answer,” including counterclaims and purporting to assert third-party claims. A copy of the “first amended verified answer” is attached as exhibit 10.

19. On June 2, 2021, WPH Properties filed and served upon defendants a notice to admit.

A copy of the notice to admit, with proof of service, is attached as exhibit 11.

20. The defendants did not respond to the notice to admit within 20 days of the date on which it was served and have not responded since.

21. By failing to respond to the notice to admit, the defendants have admitted each of the alleged defaults. Specifically, the defendants have admitted that (i) HBL did not pay fixed rent when due for September 30, 2019 through December 31, 2019; (ii) HBL did not pay additional rent when due for January 1, 2020 through January 30, 2020; (iii) on and after January 13, 2020, HBL continued to occupy the facility; (iv) HBL has continuously occupied the facility during the period from January 13, 2020 through the date of the notice to admit [June 2, 2021]; (v) HBL did not pay accelerated rent at any time after January 13, 2020; (vi) HBL did not pay increased rent at any time after January 13, 2020; (vii) HBL did not pay real estate taxes when due for the period July 1, 2019 through December 1, 2019; (viii) HBL did not pay real estate taxes when due for the period January 1, 2020 through June 30, 2020; (ix) HBL did not pay charges for utilities when due; (x) HBL did not deliver the required certificates of insurance to WPH Properties; (xi) HBL did not deliver to WPH Properties 60 days before the commencement date the agreement with Capital Funding Group, required by § 7.1(a)(i) of the Lease, allowing HBL to draw down on its credit line and enabling Capital Funding Group to pay to WPH Properties directly the sum of $506,096.50 per month commencing on the commencement date and on each day fixed rent is due under the lease for the following 11 months; (xi) HBL did not ever deliver to WPH Properties the agreement with Capital Funding Group required by § 7.1(a)(i) of the Lease; (xii) HBL did not deliver to WPH Properties 60 days prior to the commencement date the unconditional letter of credit in the amount of $3,700,000 required by § 7.1(a)(ii) of the lease; (xii) HBL did not ever deliver to WPH Properties the unconditional letter of credit in the amount of $3,700,000 required by § 7.1(a)(ii) of the lease; (xiii) HBL did not deliver to WPH Properties 60 days prior to the commencement date the $3,700,000 in cash as a security deposit, as required by § 7.1(a)(ii) of the Lease; (xiv) HBL did not ever deliver to WPH Properties the $3,700,000 in cash as a security deposit, as required by § 7.1(a)(ii) of the Lease; (xv) HBL did not deliver to WPH Properties 60 days prior to the Commencement Date funds in the controlled account number *****7272 in JPMorgan Chase Bank, N.A. in the amount of not less than $1,600,000 to be held by WPH Properties as the additional security deposit, as required by § 7.1(a)(ii) of the Lease; (xvi) HBL did not ever deliver to WPH Properties funds in the controlled account number *****7272 in JPMorgan Chase Bank, N.A. in the amount not less than $1,600,000 to be held by WPH Properties as the additional security deposit, as required by § 7.1(a)(ii) of the lease; (xvii) HBL did not keep and maintain the financial reporting, as required by § 7.4(a)(ii) of the lease; (xviii) HBL did not submit to WPH Properties unaudited monthly financial statements, census and revenue information, aged accounts receivable reports, unaudited quarterly financial statements, quarterly census revenue information, audited annual financial statements, audited schedule reconciling HBL's net operating income to net cash flow, all as required by § 7.4(a)(iii) of the lease; (xix) HBL did not submit to WPH Properties a written report providing an operational overview of significant events and circumstances at the facility, and a copy of all HBL's federal income tax returns, all as required by §7.4(a)(vi) of the lease; (xx) HBL did not deliver to WPH Properties the annual Medicaid and Medicare provider agreements for the facility, as required by § 7.4(g) of the lease; (xxi) HBL did not deliver to WPH Properties the annual Medicaid and Medicare reimbursement rate sheets for the facility, as required by § 7.4(g) of the lease; and (xii) HBL did not deliver to WPH Properties the new, revised or amended Medicaid and Medicare reimbursement rate sheets issued subsequent to the annual reimbursement rate sheets for the facility, as required by § 7.4(j) of the lease.

B. WPH Properties is entitled to summary judgment

22. For the reasons set forth here, in the accompanying affidavits of Edward O. Tabor, William A. Nicholson and Howard Fensterman, and in the accompanying memorandum of law, WPH Properties is entitled to summary judgment granting judgment against HBL, Jozefovic and Neuman for liability and for damages, in the total amount of $111,420,213.50, for breach of the lease and the letter of intent, as well as dismissing the cross-claims and counterclaims asserted by HBL, Jozefovic and Neuman in the Westchester County Action and dismissing the claims asserted by Jozefovic in the New York County Action.

23. The affidavit of Edward O. Tabor sets forth the terms of the lease and the evidence establishing that HBL breached the lease.

24. The affidavit of William A. Nicholson establishes the history of repeated defaults by HBL and Jozefovic. It demonstrates that even before the facility was constructed, and continuing thereafter, WPH Properties reacted to each of those defaults by renegotiating the terms to accommodate HBL and Jozefovic. It also demonstrates that immediately after taking possession of the premises on September 30, 2019, HBL failed to perform its obligations, constituting a material default under the lease by, among other things, failing to deliver security deposits, pay rent, real estate taxes, utility deposits, municipal maintenance escrows and utility charges, have and maintain the working capital account required by the lease. It further shows that even after HBL defaulted under the lease, WPH Properties gave HBL the opportunity to cure all of its defaults by purchasing a majority interest in the property, but it defaulted on that agreement, as well. The Nicholson affidavit also establishes that WPH Properties has fully performed all obligations required to be performed on its part with respect to the lease and HBL's month-to-month tenancy after the termination of the lease.

25. Those same affidavits demonstrate as a matter of law that the defendants are barred by the lease and the guaranties from asserting counterclaims and, in those same agreements, waived or released all of those claims. But even if they had not, the affirmative defenses counterclaims are without merit and must be dismissed, either because they fail to state a cause of action upon which relief can be granted or because the undisputed facts establish the entitlement of WPH Properties and the third-party defendants to judgment as a matter of law.

26. The defendants' first cause of action demands an accounting. The evidence establishes, however, that there was never the fiduciary relationship between the parties that is necessary to an accounting claim. In fact, the lease specifically provides that the relationship between HBL and WPH Properties is solely that of landlord and tenant and there is no partnership, joint venture, agency or common interest in profits or income, or any sharing of liabilities, losses, costs or expenses among them. Exhibit 12, Lease, § 20.28.

27. The second cause of action, which seeks "imputed interest" on a purported loan of $2.2 million made by HBL to WPH Properties, must also be dismissed on the basis of the accompanying affidavit of William A. Nicholson, which establishes that there was no loan and no agreement to pay interest.

28. The defendants' third cause of action alleges, in essence, that WPH Properties failed to satisfy its obligations under the development agreement and the lease with respect to development, financing and construction of the nursing home facility. The accompanying affidavit of William A. Nicholson establishes that the claim is false and that the defendants have admitted that it is false. The development agreement, in fact, expressly acknowledges that by taking occupancy of the property, which the defendants did in 2019, the defendants recognized that WPH

Properties had fulfilled all its obligations and responsibilities under the development agreement. The development agreement thus either waives or releases the claims against WPH Properties that the defendants assert in their first, second and third causes of action. The lease does the same thing. Under the lease, HBL, by taking occupancy, waived any claims it may have had against WPH Properties in law or equity with respect to any aspect of the nursing home facility.

29. The fourth, fifth and sixth causes of action alleging fraud in the inducement, bad faith and fraud must be dismissed, initially, because they are duplicative of the defendants' breach of contract claim. Further, the defendants' allegation that Nicholson and Fensterman misrepresented their intent to perform their obligations under the agreements is not true, as set forth in the accompanying affidavits of Nicholson and Fensterman. But even if the allegations were true, they do not constitute actionable fraud because they do not allege misrepresentations of present facts, as set forth in the accompanying memorandum of law.

30. For all of these reasons, each of which is addressed more fully in the accompanying memorandum of law and the affidavits of Edward O. Tabor, William A. Nicholson and Howard Fensterman, and the defendants' admissions, WPH Properties and the third-party defendants have established their entitlement to judgment as a matter of law against HBL for the relief demanded in the complaint.

31. The same proof establishes the liability of Jozefovic and Neuman for HBL's defaults. Jozefovic and Neuman admitted in their guaranties in their answer. By those guaranties, they absolutely and unconditionally guaranteed HBL's obligations under the lease. Their guaranties expressly apply to all rent, sums and charges of every type, including accelerated rent. WPH Properties is therefore entitled to judgment against them in the same amount as it is entitled to judgment against HBL.

32. WPH Properties is also entitled to judgment against HBL for the damages WPH Properties incurred as a result of HBL's default under the letter of intent. As set forth in the affidavit of Edward O. Tabor, HBL defaulted under the letter of intent by failing to pay the $1,000,000 security deposit, failing to pay rent, failing to pay municipal and utility payments, failing to pay real estate taxes, failing to enter into the required "Deposit Account Control Agreement," failing to enter into an agreement with JP Morgan Chase Bank, failing to maintain an $8,000,000 working capital credit line and failing to close on its purchase of the property by April 1, 2020. As a result, WPH Properties incurred substantial additional interest expense under its construction loan, as detailed in the accompanying affidavit of William A. Nicholson.

33. The claims Jozefovic asserts in the New York County Action are baseless and must be dismissed. As set forth in the accompanying affidavit of Howard Fensterman, Jozefovic never gave Fensterman access to the security deposit account that he had agreed to provide prior to HBL's occupancy of the property, but even if he had, HBL breached the lease by failing to deposit those funds into WPH Properties' lease security account 60 days prior to taking occupancy, as the lease required. Jozefovic's defamation claim is defeated by the fact that Jozefovic was a debtor, as stated in the original notice of sale of the interest in Waterview Hills Acquisition I, LLC, because he had guarantied HBL's obligations under the lease and HBL defaulted on those obligations. And, as set forth in the Fensterman affidavit, neither Fensterman nor his law firm has ever represented Jozefovic.

34. For all of these reasons, as more fully set forth in the accompanying affidavits of Edward O. Tabor, William A. Nicholson and Howard Fensterman, and the accompanying memorandum of law, WPH Properties is entitled to summary judgment establishing HBL's default under the lease and the letter of intent and the liability of Jozefovic and Neuman as guarantors for those breaches, to a money judgment against HBL, Jozefovic and Neuman in the amount of $111,420,213.50. WPH Properties and the third-party defendants are also entitled to judgment dismissing the counterclaims and third-party claims.

WHEREFORE, I respectfully request that this Court grant summary judgment for liability and damages in favor of WPH Properties and against HBL, Jozefovic and Neuman in the amount of $111,420,213.50 and dismiss the defendants' counterclaims and third-party claims.

VERIFIED COMPLAINT

Plaintiff, White Plains Healthcare Properties I, LLC ("WPH Properties"), by its attorneys, DeBello, Donnellan, Weingarten, Wise & Wiederkehr, LLP and Abrams, Fensterman, Fensterman, Eisman, Formato, Ferrara, Wolf & Crono, LLP, for its complaint against defendants, HBL SNF, LLC ("HBL"), Lizer Jozefovic a/k/a Lizer Jozefovic ("Jozefovic") and Mark Neuman ("Neuman"), alleges:

NATURE OF THE CASE

1. This action concerns HBL's material default of its obligations under an amended and restated operating lease dated as of November 19, 2015 (the "Lease"), by which WPH Properties leased to HBL a brand new, state-of-the-art, 160-bed skilled nursing facility that WPH Properties constructed at 116-120 Church Street, White Plains, New York.

2. WPH Properties had constructed the nursing facility and entered into the Lease with HBL dated November 19, 2015. The Lease was amended and restated in 2017. It provided that HBL would operate the facility for 30 years, commencing September 30, 2019. HBL took possession of the facility on September 30, 2019. By the end of October 2019, HBL had defaulted.

3. On January 7, 2020, WPH Properties served notice of default and elected to terminate the Lease and accelerate all rents due. This action seeks to recover from HBL the Rent it owes and the other damages its defaults have caused and to enforce the unconditional guaranties of HBL's performance under the Lease given by Neuman and Jozefovic.

PARTIES AND VENUE

4. WPH Properties is a limited liability company duly organized and existing under the laws of the State of Massachusetts, with its principal place of business at 2 Bourbon Street, Suite 200, Peabody, Massachusetts. WPH Properties is duly authorized to do business in the State of New York.

5. HBL was and is a limited liability company duly organized and existing under the laws of the State of New York with an address and place of business at 537 Route 22, Purdys, New York.

6. Jozefovic is an individual residing at 53 Mariner Way, Monsey, New York, with a business address and place of business at HBL, 537 Route 22, Purdys, New York.

7. Neuman is an individual residing at 22 Lyncrest Drive, Monsey, New York, with a business address and place of business at HBL, 537 Route 22, Purdys, New York.

8. Pursuant to CPLR § 503(a), venue is properly designated in Westchester County based on the residences of WPH Properties and HBL, because a substantial part of the events giving rise to the claim occurred in Westchester County and because HBL agreed in the Lease that any action or proceeding arising out of the Lease be brought in Westchester County. Lease § 20.1(b).

FACTS

9. WPH Properties is and was at all relevant times the owner of the real property known as 116-120 Church Street, White Plains, New York (the "Real Property").

10. WPH Properties constructed a brand new, state-of-the-art, 160-bed skilled nursing facility on the Real Property.

The Lease

11. In 2017, WPH Properties, as landlord, and HBL, as tenant, entered into the amended and restated Lease, dated as of November 19, 2015, under which WPH Properties leased to HBL the Real Property and the improvements to be constructed on the Real Property, together with other assets, all as defined in Section 2.1 of the Lease (the "Facility"). A true and accurate copy of the Lease is annexed to this complaint as Exhibit 1 and is incorporated into this complaint by reference.

12. WPH Properties obtained a certificate of occupancy for the Facility on August 22, 2019.

13. HBL entered into possession of the Facility on September 30, 2019.

14. The lease provided for a term of 30 years, with three 10 year options to the tenant, unless sooner terminated. Exhibit 1, Lease, § 3.1.

15. The Lease obligated HBL to pay WPH Properties annual fixed rent of $6,073,158 in monthly installments of $506,096.50 (the "Fixed Rent"). Exhibit 1, Lease, § 3.2.

16. The Lease also obligated HBL to pay WPH Properties other amounts which are defined as "Additional Rent." Fixed Rent and Additional Rent are referred to collectively as "Rent."

17. The Lease obligated HBL to pay all charges for electricity, steam, telephone, cable, gas, oil, water, sewer and all other services or utilities used on or related to the Premises during the Term. Exhibit 1, Lease, § 4.1.

18. The Lease obligated HBL to pay, before penalties are incurred, all real estate taxes, assessments, utility charges and other taxes. Exhibit 1, Lease, § 4.2.

19. The Lease obligated HBL to keep the Premises in good condition and repair including, at HBL's sole cost and expense, payment of all utility service and maintenance deposits and expenses relating to the Premises. Exhibit 1, Lease, § 5.2.

20. The Lease obligated HBL to deliver a guarantee of all obligations owed by HBL under the Lease from Jozefovic (the "Jozefovic Guaranty") and from Neuman (the "Neuman Guaranty"). Exhibit 1, Lease, § 7.1.

21. A true and accurate copy of the Jozefovic Guaranty is annexed to this complaint as Exhibit 2.

22. A true and accurate copy of the Neuman Guaranty is annexed to this complaint as Exhibit 3.

23. Pursuant to the Jozefovic Guaranty, Jozefovic absolutely, unconditionally and irrevocably guaranteed the full and prompt payment of all rent, sums and charges of every type and nature payable by HBL under the Lease, whether due by acceleration or otherwise, and the full, timely and complete performance of all obligations to be performed by HBL under the Lease, including obligations that survive termination of the Lease.

24. The Jozefovic Guaranty is an absolute and unconditional guaranty of payment and of performance and is enforceable against Jozefovic without the necessity of any notice of nonpayment, nonperformance or nonobservance, or any notice or demand, all of which Jozefovic expressly waived.

25. Pursuant to the Neuman Guaranty, Neuman absolutely, unconditionally and irrevocably guaranteed the full and prompt payment of all rent, sums and charges of every type and nature payable by HBL under the Lease, whether due by acceleration or otherwise, and the full, timely and complete performance of all obligations to be performed by HBL under the Lease, including obligations that survive termination of the Lease.

26. The Neuman Guaranty is an absolute and unconditional guaranty of payment and of performance and is enforceable against Neuman without the necessity of any notice of nonpayment, nonperformance or nonobservance, or any notice or demand, all of which Neuman expressly waived.

27. The Lease obligated HBL to deliver to WPH Properties, before the commencement date of the Lease, an agreement by Capital Funding Group by which Capital Funding Group agreed to allow HBL to draw down on its credit line each month so as to enable Capital Funding Group to pay the Fixed Rent each month directly to WPH Properties on the commencement date and for the following 11 months. Exhibit 1, Lease, § 7.1.

28. The Lease obligated HBL to deliver to WPH Properties, before the commencement date of the Lease, an unconditional letter of credit or cash in the amount of $3,700,000 to secure the full and timely performance of its obligations under the Lease. Exhibit 1, Lease, § 7.1.

29. The Lease obligated HBL to deliver to WPH Properties, before the commencement date of the Lease, $1,600,000 as an additional security deposit. Exhibit 1, Lease, § 7.1.

30. The Lease obligated HBL to provide WPH Properties all reports, statements and inspections as defined in the Lease, including all Medicare, Medicaid and other provider agreements and reimbursement rates for the Facility, updated reimbursement rates, financial reporting and written reports providing an operational overview of significant events and circumstances on a monthly basis. Exhibit 1, Lease, § 7.4.

31. The Lease obligated HBL to maintain working capital accounts in specified amounts. Exhibit 1, Lease, § 7.7.

32. The Lease provides that HBL will be in default of the Lease if, among other things, (i) HBL fails to pay any installment of Rent within five days of the date when Rent was due; (ii) HBL defaults in the prompt and full performance of any other of its obligations and fails to correct that failure within 30 days of receipt of written notice from WPH Properties of the default; (iii) HBL fails to give WPH Properties timely notice or timely deliver copies of documents as required by section 7.4 of the Lease; (iv) HBL defaults or breaches the provisions of section 7.4(b); (v) a Guarantor defaults beyond expiration of any applicable cure period; or (vi) any governmental authority assesses a fine or penalty against HBL in an amount in excess of $75,000. Exhibit 1, Lease, § 16.1.

33. WPH Properties performed all of the conditions on its part required by the Lease.

34. The Lease provides in section 16.1 that upon the occurrence of a default by HBL, WPH Properties may, upon five days written notice, terminate the Lease, accelerate the payment of all Rent for the balance of the Term and declare the Rent presently due and payable in full, requiring HBL to pay to WPH Properties the present value of the accelerated Rent.

35. Section 16.1 of the Lease also provides that upon the occurrence of a default, and in addition to all of the other remedies provided for in the Lease, WPH Properties is immediately entitled to retain the security deposit required by section 7.1 of the Lease and HBL has no further claim, right, title or interest therein to the extent of WPH Properties' claims.

36. Section 16.1 of the Lease also provides that upon the occurrence of a default and the commencement of an action for Rent or for any other amount due under the Lease, HBL must pay to WPH Properties all of the expenses, including reasonable attorneys' fees, incurred by WPH Properties to enforce the Lease.

37. In addition, under the terms of the Lease, HBL's continuation in occupancy after termination (does not constitute a renewal) of the Lease, but HBL becomes a tenant month-to-month for a rental of 300% of the most recent Rent payable by HBL under the Lease. Exhibit 1, Lease, § 201.13.

HBL breached its obligations under the Lease

38. HBL failed to perform its obligations, materially defaulting under the Lease, almost immediately after taking possession of the Premises.

39. HBL failed to pay Rent as required by the Lease.

40. HBL failed to pay real estate taxes as required by the Lease.

41. HBL failed to pay utility deposits as required by the Lease.

42. HBL failed to pay municipal maintenance escrows as required by the Lease.

43. HBL failed to pay utility charges as required by the Lease.

44. HBL failed or refused to deliver certificates of insurance as required by the Lease.

45. HBL failed to deliver to WPH Properties all Medicare, Medicaid and other provider agreements and reimbursement rate sheets for the Facility, as required by the Lease.

46. HBL failed to deliver to WPH Properties all Medicare, Medicaid and other provider updated rate sheets, as required by the Lease.

47. HBL failed to deliver to WPH Properties the required financial reporting, as required by the Lease.

48. HBL failed to deliver to WPH Properties the required written reporting providing an operational overview of significant events and circumstances at the Facility during each prior month of the term of the Lease, as required by the Lease.

49. HBL failed or refused to deliver to WPH Properties the security deposits, as required by the Lease.

50. HBL failed to deliver and maintain the required credit line in an amount equal to 12 months rent, as required by the Lease.

51. HBL failed to have and maintain the working capital account required by the Lease.

52. HBL failed to pay late fees and costs, as required by the Lease.

The Letter of Intent

53. After HBL defaulted, WPH Properties negotiated in good faith with HBL in an attempt to avoid termination of the Lease, despite HBL's default.

54. On November 20, 2019, WPH Properties and HBL entered into a Letter of Intent (the "LOI") in which WPH Properties and HBL agreed that WPH Properties would sell the Facility for $73,000,000 to a Delaware Statutory Trust in which Jozefovic and Neuman would have a 77.5 percent interest and WPH Properties or its designees would have a 22.5 percent interest.

55. A true and accurate copy of the LOI is annexed to this complaint as exhibit 4.

56. The LOI provides for the Lease to be amended to require that HBL pay the November 2019 rent by November 18, 2019, the December rent by December 5, 2019 and all real estate taxes and utility payments by December 1, 2019, that by December 5, 2019 HBL reimburse WPH Properties for $65,856 in municipal and utility deposits, that HBL enter into a Deposit Account Control Agreement with MNB requiring MNB to draw on the account first to pay the rent.

57. The LOI further provides for the Lease to be amended so that the $3,700,000 security deposit required by section 7.1(a)(ii) is reduced to $2,000,000, $1,000,000 of which was required to be paid by HBL on or before December 1, 2019 or the date on which WPH Properties obtained a certificate of occupancy for the Facility, whichever was later, and the balance of which was required to be paid upon the closing of title on April 1, 2020.

58. In addition, the LOI provides for the Lease to be amended so that in lieu of providing the additional $1,600,000 in security required by section 7.1(a)(iii) of the Lease, HBL would be required to enter into an agreement with JP Morgan Chase Bank prohibiting liquidation of that account until the second $1,000,000 in security required by the LOI had been paid.

59. The LOI also provides for the Lease to be amended to require HBL to obtain a single working capital line of credit in the amount of $8,000,000 by December 1, 2019.

60. HBL defaulted and breached its obligations under the LOI by failing to pay rent, failing to pay the municipal and utility payments to WPH Properties, failing to pay the real estate taxes and utility payments, failing to enter into the Deposit Account Control Agreement, failing to enter into the agreement with JP Morgan Chase Bank, by failing to pay the first $1,000,000 security deposit as required by the LOI and by failing to obtain the $8,000,000 working capital credit line.

61. WPH Properties performed all conditions on its part required by the LOI.

62. Solely as a result of HBL's breach of the LOI, WPH Properties did not sell the property to the Delaware Statutory Trust, causing damage to WPH Properties, and WPH Properties incurred interest and late charges on its loans, all of which are the direct result of HBL's breach of the LOI.

Notice of default, termination of the Lease and acceleration of Rent

63. On January 7, 2020, while the LOI was in effect, WPH Properties served a "Notice of Default And Landlord's Election To Terminate Lease And Accelerate All Rents Due For The Balance of the Lease Term" upon HBL (the "Notice of Default").

64. A true and accurate copy of the Notice of Default is annexed to this complaint as Exhibit 5 and incorporated into this complaint by reference.

65. The Notice of Default contains a true and accurate accounting of the amounts then due and owing under the Lease and LOI.

66. The Notice of Default gave HBL notice that by reason of HBL's defaults under the Lease, WPH Properties had exercised its right under section 16.1 of the Lease to terminate the Lease, effective January 13, 2020.

67. The Notice of Default further gave HBL notice that pursuant to section 16.1 of the Lease all Rent for the balance of the Term was accelerated and HBL became obligated to pay WPH Properties the present value of the accelerated rent, discounted at a rate of 6% per annua.

68. HBL continued, and still continues, to occupy the Premises, despite WPH Properties' termination of the Lease.

69. Because HBL has held over after its default resulted in termination of the Lease, HBL is a tenant month-to-month at a rent equal to 300% of the most recent Rent payable by HBL under the Lease. Exhibit 1, Lease, § 20.13.

70. HBL has failed to perform its obligations as a tenant month-to-month by failing to pay rent in the amount of 300% of the most recent Rent payable by HBL under the Lease, remitting only the base rent which had been payable before WPH Properties terminated the Lease.

71. HBL is in default with respect to its obligations under the Lease and its obligations as a month-to-month tenant following termination of the Lease effective January 13, 2020.

Amounts Due

72. As a result of HBL's defaults, HBL is obligated to pay to WPH Properties, as of August 25, 2020, the sum of $113,832,987.54 (the "Amounts Due"), as follows: (i) holdover rent and rent, $7,056,182.79; (ii) municipal and utility deposits, $26,725.35; (iii) security and working capital deposits, $9,800,000.00; (iv) late fees, default fees, costs and professional fees, $1,948,753.00; and (v) accelerated rent, $94,961,326.40.

73. HBL is obligated to pay to WPH Properties the Amounts Due in full, plus any amounts that have accrued since August 25, 2020.

74. HBL has failed or refused to pay the Amounts Due.

75. WPH Properties has fully performed all obligations required to be performed on its part with respect to the Lease, the LOI, HBL's month-to-month tenancy after the termination of the Lease, the Jozefovic Guaranty, the Neuman Guaranty, the HBL Security Agreement, the Jozefovic HBL Security Agreement and the Neuman HBL Security Agreement.

FIRST CAUSE OF ACTION AGAINST HBL
(BREACH OF CONTRACT)

76. WPH Properties repeats and re-alleges each and every allegation set forth in paragraphs "1" through "75" with the same force and effect as if fully set forth here.

77. By reason of HBL's material default and breach of its obligations pursuant to the Lease and its obligations as a month-to-month tenant after termination of the lease, WPH Properties is entitled to judgment against HBL for the Amounts Due, together with the other and further amounts that may come due between the date of this complaint and the entry of judgment, plus interest from the date of the default as provided by law.

SECOND CAUSE OF ACTION AGAINST HBL
(BREACH OF CONTRACT)

78. WPH Properties repeats and re-alleges each and every allegation set forth in paragraphs "1" through "77" with the same force and effect as if fully set forth here.

THIRD CAUSE OF ACTION AGAINST JOZEFOVIC
(ENFORCING GUARANTY)

80. WPH Properties repeats and re-alleges each and every allegation set forth in paragraphs "1" through "79" with the same force and effect as if fully set forth here.

81. By reason of HBL's default in the performance of its obligations under the Lease, WPH Properties is entitled to judgment against Jozefovic for the Amounts Due pursuant to the terms of the Jozefovic Guaranty.

FOURTH CAUSE OF ACTION AGAINST NEUMAN
(ENFORCING GUARANTY)

82. WPH Properties repeats and re-alleges each and every allegation set forth in paragraphs "1" through "81" with the same force and effect as if fully set forth here.

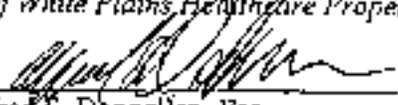

83. By reason of HBL's default in the performance of its obligations under the Lease, WPH Properties is entitled to judgment against Neuman for the Amounts Due pursuant to the terms of the Neuman Guaranty.

WHEREFORE, WPH Properties demands judgment as follows:

1. On its first cause of action, against HBL in the amount of $113,832,987.54, together with the other and further amounts that may come due between the date of this complaint and the entry of judgment, plus interest from the date of the default as provided by law; and
2. On its Second Cause of Action, against HBL, in an amount to be determined at trial; and
3. On its Third Cause of Action, against Jozefovic in the amount of $113,832,987.54, together with the other and further amounts that have come due since August 25, 2020 and may come due between the date of this complaint and the entry of judgment, plus interest from the date of the default as provided by law; and

5. On all causes of action, awarding costs, disbursements and attorneys' fees against HBL pursuant to the provisions of the Lease and against Jozefovic and Neuman pursuant to the provisions of the Jozefovic Guaranty and the Neuman Guaranty; and
6. Awarding such other and further relief as the Court may deem just and proper.

(b) Provided a Lease Default has not occurred and is then continuing either at the time of the exercise of the options provided below or at the end of the Term or Extension Term, or there has not been any Lease Default listed in Schedule 3.1 attached hereto (a "Material Default"), whether or not cured, within two years of the end of the Term or Extension Term, Tenant shall have the option to extend the Term of this Lease for three (3) additional periods of ten (10) years each (each a "Extension Term"), by giving written notice to Landlord not less than five forty-five (545) days nor more than seven hundred (700) days prior to the expiration of the Term (or Extension Term as the case may be) of this Lease, TIME BEING OF THE ESSENCE to these time periods. These options may be exercised by Tenant serving written notice upon Landlord stating that Tenant is exercising the option to extend. If Tenant fails to give such notice in writing to Landlord within the time period specified herein, all rights and privileges granted to Tenant to extend this Lease shall lapse and become null and void. No later option may be exercised if Tenant has failed to exercise a prior option. If Tenant has validly exercised its option(s) to extend the Term, references herein to the "Term" shall be deemed to include an Extension Term.

Section 3.2 Rent

(a) Beginning in the first (1st) Lease Year of the Term and for each succeeding Lease Year thereafter, including during any and all Extension Terms, until the First Refinance Date, Tenant shall pay Landlord an annual amount of Six Million Seventy Three Thousand One Hundred Fifty Eight ($6,073,158; Dollars ("Fixed Rent") in monthly installments of $506,096.50.

(b) Tenant shall pay the Rent to Landlord during the term without deduction or setoff and without demand.

(c) The terms "Additional Rent" or "additional rent" means all sums, amounts, fees, expenses and costs (including, without limitation, legal fees and disbursements) payable or reimbursable to Landlord under this Lease other than Fixed Rent, and all of same shall be and constitute Additional Rent hereunder. The terms "Fixed Rent" and "Additional Rent" shall be collectively referred to as "Rent." Landlord shall have the same rights and remedies hereunder consequent upon a failure of Tenant to pay any item of Additional Rent as upon a failure of Tenant to pay any item of Fixed Rent.

(d) Rent shall be due and payable in advance in equal monthly installments during each year on the first (1st) day of each calendar month thereof (or in the event the first day of the calendar month is not a business day, on the first business day following the first day of each calendar month) throughout the Term. Rent for any period which is less than a full calendar month or full year, as the case may be, during the Term, shall be pro-rated on a daily basis. Rent shall not be paid more than one (1) month in advance. Rent shall be paid to Landlord at Landlord's address set forth in Section 1.3 or at such other place as Landlord designates from time to time by written notice to Tenant. Tenant agrees to pay Rent, at Landlord's direction, by electronic transfer or wire, as directed by Mortgagee in writing.

(e) TENANT HEREBY ACKNOWLEDGES THAT LATE PAYMENT BY TENANT TO LANDLORD OF RENT WILL CAUSE LANDLORD TO INCUR COSTS NOT CONTEMPLATED HEREUNDER, THE EXACT AMOUNT OF WHICH IS PRESENTLY ANTICIPATED TO BE EXTREMELY DIFFICULT TO ASCERTAIN. SUCH COSTS MAY INCLUDE PROCESSING AND ACCOUNTING CHARGES AND LATE CHARGES WHICH MAY BE IMPOSED ON LANDLORD BY THE TERMS OF ANY LOAN AGREEMENT AND OTHER EXPENSES OF A SIMILAR OR DISSIMILAR NATURE. ACCORDINGLY, IF ANY INSTALLMENT OF RENT THAT IS PAYABLE TO LANDLORD

OR ITS DESIGNEE SHALL NOT BE PAID WITHIN FIVE (5) DAYS OF THE DATE WHEN DUE, TENANT WILL PAY LANDLORD ON DEMAND A LATE CHARGE EQUAL TO FIVE PERCENT (5%) OF THE UNPAID PORTION OF THE AMOUNT OF SUCH INSTALLMENT. THE PARTIES AGREE THAT THIS LATE CHARGE REPRESENTS A FAIR AND REASONABLE ESTIMATE OF THE COSTS THAT LANDLORD WILL INCUR BY REASON OF LATE PAYMENT BY TENANT. THE PARTIES FURTHER AGREE THAT SUCH LATE CHARGE IS RENT AND NOT INTEREST AND SUCH ASSESSMENT DOES NOT CONSTITUTE A LENDER OR BORROWER/CREDITOR RELATIONSHIP BETWEEN LANDLORD AND TENANT. IN ADDITION, THE AMOUNT UNPAID, INCLUDING ANY LATE CHARGES, SHALL BEAR INTEREST AT THE OVERDUE RATE FROM THE DUE DATE OF SUCH INSTALLMENT TO THE DATE OF PAYMENT THEREOF, AND TENANT SHALL PAY SUCH INTEREST TO LANDLORD ON DEMAND. THE PAYMENT OF SUCH LATE CHARGE AND/OR SUCH INTEREST SHALL NOT CONSTITUTE A WAIVER OF, NOR EXCUSE OR CURE, ANY DEFAULT UNDER THIS LEASE, NOR PREVENT LANDLORD FROM EXERCISING ANY OTHER RIGHTS AND/OR REMEDIES AVAILABLE TO LANDLORD.

(j) If a default is declared by the Commissioner under the provisions of the Regulatory Agreement, provided a copy of Notice of Default is given to Tenant, Tenant shall thereafter make all future payments under this Lease to the Commissioner.

Section 3.3 Net Lease Provisions. Landlord and Tenant intend that the Rent herein specified shall be net to Landlord in each year during the Term, and that all costs, expenses and obligations of every kind and nature, (known or unknown, general or special, ordinary or extraordinary, foreseen or unforeseen, direct or indirect, contingent or otherwise) relating to the operation, repair and maintenance of the Leased Premises (except Landlord's income taxes) which may arise or become due during the Term shall be timely paid by Tenant and that Landlord shall be indemnified by Tenant against such costs, expenses and obligations. Tenant's obligation to pay Rent is independent of all, and is in no manner conditioned upon any, other covenants, conditions and obligations of Landlord or Tenant under this Lease. There shall be no abatement of Rent payments for any reason nor shall Tenant be entitled to any offsets or deductions from Rent payments due hereunder.

Section 3.4 Rent Tax. If any governmental taxing authority levies, assesses, or imposes any tax, sales or use tax, privilege tax, excise or assessment (other than income or franchise taxes) upon or against the Rent payable by Tenant to Landlord, either by way of substitution for or in addition to any existing tax on land and buildings or otherwise, then Tenant shall be responsible for and shall pay such tax, excise or assessment, or, if Landlord pays same, Tenant shall reimburse Landlord for the amount thereof within ten (10) days after written demand by Landlord.

It is the intent of this Section 3.4 and all other provisions of this Lease to insure that the Rent (including Additional Rent) paid to Landlord by Tenant will be received by Landlord without diminution by any tax, assessment, charge or levy of any nature whatsoever, except United States, State of New York and local net income taxes, and the terms and conditions of this Lease shall be liberally construed to effect such purpose. Without limiting the generality of the foregoing, if any tax is assessed or based on gross income actually or constructively received by Landlord pursuant to this Lease, Tenant shall pay such amount which, when added to said gross income, shall yield to Landlord, after deduction of all such tax payable by Landlord with respect thereto, a net amount equal to that which Landlord would have realized therefrom had no such tax been imposed.

Section 3.5 Assignment of Lease to Mortgagee. Tenant acknowledges that all of the interest of Landlord in and to this Lease has been or will be assigned to Mortgagee pursuant to the Loan Documents.

Tenant agrees to promptly execute and deliver to Landlord from time to time any and all documents required by a Mortgagee, Prospective Mortgagee, HUD and/or HUD's Approved Lender, or any successor, commercial, agency or private lender, including, without limitation, a lease addendum, regulatory agreement, subordination agreement, non-disturbance and attornment agreement, and/or estoppel certificate, in order to finance or refinance the Facility or otherwise.

Tenant will on request at any time or from time to time by Landlord or any Mortgagee or Prospective Mortgagee subordinate this lease and all of Tenant's rights and estate hereunder to such Person's Mortgage and to any renewals, extensions, substitutions, refinancings, modifications or amendments thereof, or declare such Mortgage to be prior to this lease and to any renewals, extensions, substitutions, refinancings, modifications or amendments thereof, and agree with such holder that Tenant will assent thereto in the event of foreclosure. Landlord agrees to use reasonable efforts (except that Landlord shall not be obligated to expend money for any such agreement) to obtain a written agreement from any such holder in the form typically used by such holder which consents to this lease and provides that, notwithstanding such mortgage or any default, expiration, termination, foreclosure, sale, entry or other act or omission under, pursuant to or affecting said Mortgage, Tenant shall not be disturbed in peaceful enjoyment of the Leased Premises or this lease terminated or canceled at any time, except in the event Landlord shall have the right to terminate this lease under the terms and provisions set forth herein.

Section 3.6 True Lease. It is the intent of Landlord and Tenant and the parties agree that this Lease is a true lease and that this Lease does not represent a financing agreement. Each party shall reflect the transaction represented hereby in all applicable books, records and reports (including income tax filings) in a manner consistent with "true lease" treatment rather than "financing" treatment.

Section 3.7 Right of First Refusal/ Buyout. (a) Landlord shall not sell, transfer or convey the Leased Premises to a third person or entity unless Tenant first is given the opportunity to purchase the Leased Premises pursuant to the terms and conditions set forth in this Section 3.7(a). If at any time during the first eleven years of Term Landlord receives from any third person or entity an Offer (as hereinafter defined) to purchase the Leased Premises which Landlord desires to accept, Landlord shall notify Tenant of such Offer by delivering written notice to Tenant, which notification (the "Offer Notice") shall contain a copy of the written Offer or, at Landlord's election, a written summary of the terms of the Offer. For purposes of this Lease, an "Offer" shall mean any bona fide written instrument or verbal communication setting forth the terms pursuant to which Landlord will convey the Leased Premises. Tenant shall have ten (10) Business Days after receipt of the Offer Notice in which to elect by written notice delivered to Landlord (the "Acceptance Notice") to enter into a formal agreement on the same terms and conditions as those contained in the Offer ("Tenant's Purchase Right"). Such election shall be effective only if within ten (10) Business Days after delivery of the Acceptance Notice the parties enter into a written purchase agreement on terms reasonably acceptable to Landlord in good faith for the sale of the Leased Premises to Tenant containing all terms of the Offer. If Tenant fails to timely deliver the Acceptance Notice, or if Tenant fails to timely enter into said purchase agreement as provided herein, Landlord shall have the right to accept the Offer or any modification thereof on terms substantially similar as those set forth in the Offer. Tenant's right to purchase the Leased Premises identified in the Offer Notice shall not apply to (i) transfers of less than one hundred percent of the ownership interests in Landlord, (ii) a public offering of ownership interests in Landlord, (iii) a recapitalization transaction of any kind involving Landlord, (iv) condemnation, eminent domain or similar proceedings, or (v), rights exercised by Mortgagees in foreclosure or in lieu thereof pursuant to Mortgage or other documents executed by Landlord in connection therewith, including the subsequent disposition of the Premises by Mortgagee or its affiliate or designee that acquires the Leased Premises in connection therewith.

(b) Notwithstanding anything to the contrary, if Landlord's Offer Notice states that it is purchasing from Tenant Tenant's Purchase Right, then (i) Tenant shall have no further rights under Section 3.7(a), and Section 3.7(a) shall be null and void without further effect, and (ii) upon the closing of the purchase and sale of the Leased Premises pursuant to the Offer, Landlord shall pay Tenant ten percent (10%) of the excess of the sales price agreed to pursuant to the Offer (less costs and fees, including broker's fees) over the TPC, the "Offer Fee", and (iii) the Rent shall be the greater of the amount as determined by Section 3.2(a) or fair market value, as shall be determined by an independent third party appraiser jointly appointed by Landlord or and Tenant, and absent their agreement appointed by the then chairman or similar officer of the Westchester County Society of Real Estate Appraisers. For purposes of classification, Tenant shall not be entitled to the receipt of the Offer Fee if Tenant exercises Tenant's Purchase Right as set forth in Section 3.7(a) above.

(c) Upon expiration of the eleventh Lease Year, Tenant's Right of First Refusal as set forth in in Section 3.7(a) shall lapse and become null and void.

Section 3.8. Option to Purchase. Commencing on the later of (i) the first day after the Commencement Date and (ii) 24 months from the date of the closing of the Original Mortgage, and ending on the last day of the fifteenth Lease Year of the Lease, Tenant shall have the option to purchase the Leased Premises from Landlord for a purchase price of $65,055,000 by giving written notice of its exercise of the Option to Purchase including a proposed closing date, provided if Tenant does not exercise the Option to Purchase prior to receiving an Offer Notice pursuant to Section 3.7, Tenant's Option to Purchase under this Section 3.8 shall lapse unless and until the conveyance of the Leased Premises contemplated under Section 3.7 does not occur. Upon expiration of the fifteenth Lease Year, Tenant's the right to purchase the Leased Premises from Landlord, all as set forth above, shall lapse, become null and void, and Tenant shall have deemed to waived all such rights hereinafter.

ARTICLE IV

UTILITIES AND TAXES

Section 4.1 Utilities. From and after the Commencement Date, Tenant shall pay or cause to be paid all charges next coming due and payable for electricity, steam, telephone, cable, gas, oil, water, sewer and all other services or utilities used on or related to the Leased Premises (the "Utilities") during the Term. Tenant covenants to place all Utilities in Tenant's name as of the Commencement Date. Adjustment shall be made for Utilities applicable to any period prior to the Commencement Date. In the event Landlord is billed directly by any service provider or utility company for any Utilities or services supplied to Tenant during the Term, Landlord shall send Tenant the bill and Tenant shall promptly pay the same. Landlord shall have no obligation or liability with respect to any interruption or failure in the supply of any such Utilities. If Landlord elects to or shall be required to pay for any Utilities to preserve and/or protect the Leased Premises, Tenant shall reimburse Landlord for the cost and expense thereof plus interest at the Prime Rate.

Section 4.2 Taxes. Tenant shall be solely responsible for the payment, prior to the date when penalties would attach, of all general and special real estate taxes and assessments (together with any excise taxes on such real estate taxes and assessments levied or imposed by any governmental taxing authority), fire district taxes, liens, impositions, including capital stock, franchise, ad valorem, sales, use, single business, gross receipts, transaction privilege, rent or similar taxes; personal property taxes, assessments including assessments for public improvements or benefits, whether or not commenced or completed prior to the date hereof and whether or not to be completed within the Term; ground rents; water, sewer and other utility levies and charges; excise tax levies; fees including license, permit, inspection, authorization and similar fees; and all other governmental charges, in each case whether general or special, ordinary or extraordinary, or foreseen or unforeseen, of every character in respect of the Leased Premises, and all interest and penalties thereon attributable to any failure in payment by Lessee which at any time prior to, during or in respect of the Term hereof may be assessed or imposed on or in respect of or be a lien upon the Leased Premises (collectively, the "Impositions") that accrue from the Commencement Date through the Term. Adjustment shall be made for Impositions applicable to any period prior to the Commencement Date. Tenant shall pay all of the Impositions directly to the applicable taxing authorities and Tenant shall promptly forward proof of payment to Landlord in such form as shall be reasonably acceptable to Landlord unless Landlord elects to require escrow deposits in accordance with Section 4.3 hereof. Landlord shall promptly forward any tax bills which it may receive to Tenant. Landlord shall only bill Tenant for any of the Impositions if Tenant does not pay any of the Impositions before delinquency and Landlord is obligated or elects (in Landlord's sole and absolute discretion) to pay any of the Impositions directly to remain current with all taxing authorities. Tenant shall pay the full amount of any increases in any of the Impositions resulting from alterations or improvements made by or for the benefit of Tenant. After the expiration or termination of this Lease, Tenant shall pay all bills for any of the Impositions which become due and payable after the expiration or termination of the Lease covering any period through the expiration or earlier termination of the Lease. If any governmental taxing authority acting under any present or future ordinance or regulation, shall levy, assess or impose a tax, excise and/or assessment (other than any net income or franchise tax) upon Landlord or Tenant for rental payable by Tenant to Landlord, either by way of substitution for or in addition to any existing tax on land, buildings or otherwise, then Tenant shall be responsible for and shall pay such tax, excise and/or assessment or shall reimburse Landlord for the cost and expense thereof, as the case may be. Provided that Tenant shall have deposited a sufficient amount of funds to pay the Impositions pursuant to Section 4.3 and Tenant has done nothing to prevent payment by Landlord or its lender of the Impositions, then Tenant shall not be responsible for any and all late payment fees and/or penalties, including interest, imposed by any applicable taxing authorities with respect to the untimely payment of Impositions.

Section 4.3 Escrow Deposits.

(a) Escrow. At the option of Landlord, which may be exercised at any time by Landlord in its sole and absolute discretion Tenant shall, on the first day of the first calendar month commencing after notice from Landlord, and on the first day of each calendar month thereafter during the Term (each of which dates is referred to as a "Monthly Deposit Date"), pay to and deposit with Landlord a sum equal to one-twelfth (1/12th) of the Impositions to be levied, charged, filed, assessed or imposed upon or against the Leased Premises within one (1) year after said Monthly Deposit Date and a sum equal to one-twelfth (1/12th) of the premiums for the property insurance policies required pursuant to Article VI which are payable within one (1) year after said Monthly Deposit Date. If the amount of the Impositions to be levied, charged, assessed or imposed or insurance premiums to be paid within the ensuing one (1) year period shall not be fixed upon any Monthly Deposit Date, such amount for the purpose of computing the deposit to be made by Tenant hereunder shall be reasonably estimated by Landlord with an appropriate adjustment to be promptly made between Landlord and Tenant as soon as such amount becomes determinable. In addition, Landlord may, at its option, from time to time require that any particular deposit be greater than one-twelfth (1/12th) of the estimated amount payable within one (1) year after said Monthly Deposit Date, if such additional deposit is required in order to provide to Landlord sufficient funds from which to make payment of all Impositions on or before the next due date of any installment thereof, or to make payment of any required insurance premiums not later than the due date thereof. If any Mortgagee or the Commissioner requires Landlord to impound insurance premiums on a periodic basis during the term, Tenant, on notice from Landlord indicating this requirement, shall pay a sum of money towards its liability under this Lease to Landlord on a periodic basis in accordance with Landlord's requirements. Landlord shall impound the premium payments received from Tenant in accordance with the requirements of Mortgagee and shall utilize such funds to timely pay insurance premiums.

(b) Use of Deposits. The sums deposited by Tenant under this Section 4.3 shall be held by Landlord or Mortgagee and shall be applied in payment of the Impositions or insurance premiums, as the case may be, when due. Any such deposits may be commingled with other assets of Landlord or such Mortgagee, and shall be deposited by Landlord or such Mortgagee in an Eligible Institution in such account or accounts as Landlord or the Mortgagee may, from time to time select, and Landlord shall not be liable to Tenant or any other person (i) based on Landlord's or the Mortgagee's (or any bank's) choice of investment vehicles, (ii) for any consequent loss of principal or interest or (iii) for any unavailability of funds based on such choice of investment. Furthermore, subject to the foregoing regarding the use of depositories and accounts, Landlord and its Mortgagee shall bear no responsibility for the financial condition of, nor any act or omission by the depository bank. No income, if any, from such investment or interest on such deposits shall be paid to Tenant. To the extent that Landlord does not have at invoice or bill specifying the due date for payment, Tenant shall give not less than thirty (30) days prior written notice to Landlord in each instance when an Imposition or insurance premium is due, specifying the Imposition or premium to be paid and the amount thereof, the place of payment, and the last day on which the same may be paid in order to comply with the requirements of this Lease. If Landlord, in violation of its obligations under this Lease, does not pay any Imposition or insurance premium when due, for which a sufficient deposit exists, Tenant shall not be in default hereunder by virtue of the failure to pay such Imposition or such insurance premium and Tenant shall not be liable for any late payment fees and/or penalties, including interest imposed as a result of such failure to pay. The term "Eligible Institution" shall mean a depository institution or trust company, the short term unsecured debt obligations of commercial paper of which are rated at least "A-1+" by S&P, "P-1" by Moody's and "P-1+" by Fitch in the case of accounts in which funds are held for thirty (30) days or less (or, in the case of accounts in which funds are held for more than thirty (30) days, the long term unsecured debt obligations of which are rated at least "AA" by Fitch and S&P and "Aa2" by Moody's).

(c) Deficit. If for any reason any deposit made by Tenant or held by Landlord under this Section 4.3 shall not be sufficient to pay any Imposition or insurance premium within the time specified therefor in this Lease, then, within ten (10) days after demand by Landlord, Tenant shall deposit an additional amount with Landlord, increasing the deposit held by Landlord so that Landlord holds sufficient funds to pay such Imposition or premium in full (or in installments as otherwise provided for herein), together with any penalty or interest thereon. Landlord may change its estimate of any Imposition or insurance premium for any period on the basis of a change in an assessment or tax rate or on the basis of a prior miscalculation or for any other good faith reason; in which event, within ten (10) days after demand by Landlord, Tenant shall deposit with Landlord the amount in excess of the sums previously deposited with Landlord for the applicable period which would therefore have been payable under the revised estimate.

(d) Transfers. Consistent with Section 2.2, in connection with any assignment of Landlord's interest under this Lease and the assumption of this Lease by a new landlord, the original Landlord named herein and each successor in interest shall have the right to transfer all amounts deposited pursuant to the provisions of this Section 4.3 and not used pursuant to this Section 4.3 to such assignee (as the subsequent holder of Landlord's interest in this Lease) and upon such transfer, the original Landlord named herein or the applicable successor in interest transferring the deposits shall thereupon be completely released from all liability with respect to such deposits so transferred and Tenant shall look solely to said assignee, as the subsequent holder of Landlord's interest under this Lease, in reference thereto.

(e) Security. All amounts deposited with Landlord pursuant to the provisions of this Section 4.3 shall be held by Landlord as additional security for the payment and performance of Tenant's obligations under this Lease and, upon the occurrence and during the continuance of any Lease Default, Landlord may, in its sole and absolute discretion, apply such amounts towards payment or performance of such obligations.

(f) Return. Upon the expiration or earlier termination of this Lease, as long as all of the Rent and any and all other obligations due under this Lease have been fully paid and performed, any sums then held by Landlord under this Section 4.3 shall be refunded to Tenant.

and subject to the rights of a Mortgagee, together with all interest, if any, earned thereon and all income, if any, earned therefrom; provided, however, that if a Lease Default has occurred and is continuing, all of such sums may be applied by Landlord towards any amounts owed to Landlord pursuant to this Lease.

(g) Receipts. Tenant shall deliver to Landlord copies of all claims and bills in relation to the Impositions and Insurance premiums promptly upon receipt thereof by Tenant.

This Article and the obligations herein shall survive expiration or earlier termination of this Lease.

ARTICLE V

LANDLORD'S WORK, MAINTENANCE AND REPAIR; IMPROVEMENTS

Section 5.1 Landlord's Work. (a) Landlord shall cause the Facility to be constructed ("Landlord's Work").

(b) Landlord will give Tenant thirty (30) days' notice of the date Landlord expects to be the Substantial Completion Date. On or prior to the Substantial Completion Date, Landlord and Tenant shall jointly prepare a list of the items for the Facility that remain to be completed or corrected, set a dollar value for the cost to complete the work, and fix time for their completion or correction (collectively the "Punchlist").

(c) Notwithstanding anything in this lease to the contrary, on and after the Substantial Completion Date Tenant shall be deemed to have agreed Landlord has completed Landlord's Work to Tenant's complete satisfaction, except for (i) the Punchlist, (ii) such items of decoration or mechanical adjustment of which Tenant gives Landlord written notice within thirty (30) days after the Substantial Completion Date (the "Initial Correction Items") or (iii) any defects in the Facility which were not known or reasonably discoverable by Tenant in the time period specified in the immediately prior clause (ii) ("Latent Defects"); provided that, as to Latent Defects, Landlord will have no responsibility or liability therefor, or for the correction thereof, unless (A) Tenant conducts at least one inspection of the Facility with a qualified engineer or other expert, within one year from the Substantial Completion Date, and (B) Tenant gives Landlord notice of such Latent Defects within thirty (30) days after discovery thereof and in any event not later than one year after the Substantial Completion Date, which notice will be accompanied by the certification of such engineer or other experts, specifying, in detail, such Latent Defects in the Facility.

(d) At its sole expense, Landlord shall complete the Punchlist, and remedy the Initial Correction Items, and the Latent Defects provided with respect to Latent Defects that the conditions set out in clause (iii) of section (c) are satisfied.

(e) To the extent assignable at no cost to Landlord, Landlord assigns to Tenant all manufacturer warranties on materials and equipment. Tenant shall have the benefit and right to enforce such warranties at its sole cost and expense.

Section 5.2 Maintenance and Repair. Except as provided in Section 5.1, Tenant, at Tenant's sole cost and expense, shall keep the Leased Premises, including all buildings, fixtures, trade equipment, trade fixtures, furniture, beds and other personal property leased to Tenant pursuant to this Lease, including, without limitation, all structural and non-structural components, the roof, foundation, all outer walls, plumbing, sprinklers, electrical, mechanical, heating, ventilation, utility service, air conditioning, vertical transport, telephone, communications, cable, computer, fire-life-safety, nursing call, and all other systems of the Leased Premises in good condition and repair and in compliance with all Laws. Landlord shall not be responsible to make any improvements, repairs, maintenance or replacements whether occasioned by the act, omission, active negligence, or passive negligence of Landlord or Tenant and/or its agents, employees, invitees or licensees or otherwise, and Tenant shall pay for all improvements, repairs, replacements, maintenance and expenditures relating to the Leased Premises, whether interior or exterior, structural or non-structural, ordinary or extraordinary, foreseen or unforeseen or arising by reason of a condition existing prior to the commencement of the Lease, by Tenant's use or by a change in applicable Laws. The Leased Premises and its appurtenances shall at all times be kept clean, safe and sanitary and in good order, condition, replacement and repair by Tenant, at Tenant's sole cost and expense, except for ordinary wear and tear (provided, however, that, without limiting the generality of this Section 5.2, Tenant shall be obligated to replace any portion of the Leased Premises upon any obsolescence thereof or if proper repair is impractical). Tenant shall provide (if not currently a part of the Leased Premises) and maintain, repair and replace, as necessary, all furniture, fixtures, equipment and/or other personal property required by any Governmental Authority (other than furniture, fixtures, equipment and/or other personal property owned by contractors providing ancillary services at the Facility) necessary for the operation of the Facility and to comply with all Laws. All such property provided by Tenant shall immediately become the property of Landlord and Tenant shall execute such documentation as Landlord may reasonably require vesting title in such property in Landlord. Landlord shall have no liability or obligation with respect to such property or any of Tenant's operations relating thereto. All replacements made by Tenant hereunder shall be made in a good and workmanlike manner in accordance with Laws using the same, similar or better quality of materials as being replaced and shall immediately become the property of Landlord. Tenant acknowledges that title and ownership of all repaired and replaced furniture, fixtures, equipment and/or other personal property made hereunder shall belong to and is for the benefit of Landlord. Tenant shall not enter into any equipment lease or conditional sales contracts for any furniture, fixtures, equipment and/or other personal property relating to the Facility without Landlord's consent which it may grant or withhold in its sole discretion. The term "Laws" means, all federal, state, county, municipal and other governmental statutes, laws, rules, orders, regulations, ordinances, judgments, decrees and injunctions of Governmental Authorities affecting any Leased Premises or any part thereof, or the construction, use, alteration or operation thereof, or any part thereof, whether now or hereafter enacted and in force, and all permits, licenses and authorizations and regulations relating thereto, and all covenants, agreements, restrictions and encumbrances contained in any instruments, either of record or known to Tenant, at any time in force affecting the Leased Premises or any part thereof. The term "Governmental Authority" means any court, board, agency, arbitrator, commission, office or other authority of any nature whatsoever for any governmental unit (foreign, federal, state, county, districts, municipal, city or otherwise) whether new or hereafter in existence.

Section 5.3 Improvements, Renovation, Alterations and Additions. Tenant shall have the right during the Term to make such non-structural interior alterations, changes and improvements to the Leased Premises as may be proper and necessary for the conduct of Tenant's business, to cause the Leased Premises to conform to all Laws, for patient comfort and safety, or for the full beneficial use of the Leased Premises, so long as such improvements do not (i) exceed Three Hundred Fifty Thousand Dollars ($350,000.00) in any given calendar year, (ii) interfere with any of the purposes for which the Facility was leased or affect the roof or structure, (iii) decrease the value of the Leased Premises, (iv) affect any building system, including, heating, ventilation, air conditioning, mechanical, electrical, plumbing or vertical transport systems, or (v) affect the exterior appearance of the Leased Premises. Tenant shall not make any other alterations, changes, or improvements without the express written approval in each instance by Landlord, which consent shall not be unreasonably withheld; ~~provided, however,~~ that the granting or withholding of consent shall not result in any liability to Landlord. Furthermore, Tenant may make all repairs or replacements required by a Governmental Authority without obtaining Landlord's consent, provided, however, Tenant shall give Landlord no less than ten (10) days prior written notice of such government mandated repairs or replacements prior to making or implementing same, unless emergency factors necessitate the making of such repairs before Tenant can reasonably give notice to Landlord, in which event Tenant shall give notice to Landlord as soon as reasonably possible. Tenant shall pay for all costs, fees and penalties imposed by the applicable state agencies or the Center for Medicare and Medicaid Services ("CMS") or other Governmental Authority in connection with any survey or the Change of Ownership. Tenant shall notify Landlord of any alterations, changes or improvements required and/or permitted by the applicable state agencies or the CMS or other Governmental Authority prior to the commencement thereof. Tenant shall pay all costs and expenses of any required and/or permitted alterations, changes, and improvements, shall make the same in a good and workmanlike manner, and in accordance with all Laws, having obtained all necessary permits and approvals from Governmental Authorities having jurisdiction over the Facility and work performed thereon or therein, and shall assure Landlord, in form reasonably satisfactory to Landlord, all necessary permits and authorizations have been received and that payment for the work and materials will be made by Tenant. Tenant hereby completely and fully indemnifies Landlord against any mechanic's liens or other liens or claims in connection with the making of any alterations, changes, and/or improvements. Any liens arising out of any required and/or permitted alterations, changes, and/or improvements shall be discharged of record by Tenant within the earlier of thirty (30) days after the same have been filed by payment, bonding or otherwise, as permitted by law, or five (5) days after commencement of a foreclosure or enforcement action. Notwithstanding any provision of this Lease to the contrary, Tenant shall not undertake any alterations, renovations, or improvements to the Facility or otherwise commence any project or activity with respect to the Facility, which may result in any bed being taken out of service for more than seven (7) days without Landlord's and/or Mortgagee's prior written consent, which Landlord's consent shall not be unreasonably withheld. Tenant shall give Landlord written notice ten (10) days prior to commencing repairs, construction, or alterations whose costs exceed One Hundred Thousand Dollars ($100,000.00).

Section 5.4 Signage. All signs installed by Tenant at the Facility shall comply with all Laws, and all necessary permits or licenses shall be obtained by Tenant. Tenant shall maintain all signs in good condition and repair, and/or replace as may be required by applicable law, at all times at Tenant's sole cost and expense. Upon vacating the Leased

Premises, Tenant shall remove all signs and supporting material or installations so installed by Tenant, but only if Landlord shall request such removal, and Tenant shall repair all damage caused by such removal. Landlord acknowledges and agrees that neither Landlord nor any subsequent tenant of Landlord shall be authorized to use any company or registered trade name of Tenant or any of Tenant's affiliates or subtenants.

Section 5.5 Surrender. (a) Subject to applicable law and to receipt of any necessary DOH approval, Tenant shall deliver up and surrender to Landlord possession of the Leased Premises and all improvements and replacements thereof, including all of Tenant's alterations, improvements work (and all replacements thereof) and all fixtures permanently attached to the Leased Premises by Tenant during the Term, upon the expiration of this Lease or its termination in any manner whatsoever, in as good condition and repair and in substantially similar form, character and manner as the same shall be on the Commencement Date, reasonable wear and tear excepted (without compensation to Tenant), with permitted changes, improvements and additions made during the Term as authorized herein, subject to no liens, encumbrances, charges, restrictions, conditions, limitations or claims whatsoever to the extent not encumbering the Leased Premises as of the Commencement Date, and deliver the Keys and/or operational security cards to the Leased Premises to Landlord or Landlord's designated agent.

(b) Licenses and Transfer of Operations. Without limiting the generality of the foregoing, if requested by Landlord or a proposed replacement operator for the Facility, Tenant hereby agrees to enter into a reasonable operations transfer agreement with such replacement operator. Tenant shall not unreasonably withhold, condition or delay its consent to entering into any interim subleases or management agreements as may be necessary to effectuate an early transfer of the operations of the Facility prior to the time that such replacement operator holds all licenses and permits from all applicable Governmental Authorities with jurisdiction necessary to operate the Facility for its intended use. In addition, upon request, Tenant shall and shall cause sublicensee, to promptly deliver copies to Landlord or Landlord's designee of all books and records relating to the Leased Premises and operations thereon (including inventories, employee lists and personnel records, and policies and procedures manuals). In addition, Tenant shall not terminate the employees of the Facility except in connection with and upon the transfer of operations of the Facility to Landlord or its designee.

(c) If Landlord notifies Tenant in writing that it intends to transfer the operations of the Facility to a new operator and desires to have Tenant continue to operate the Facility after the Expiration Date or earlier termination of the Lease, then Tenant shall continue to operate the Facility until the earliest to occur of (i) the date on which such successor operator shall assume operation of the Facility, or (ii) the date that is 180 days after the applicable Expiration Date or termination date (the "Reimbursement Period"). During the Reimbursement Period (x) Landlord shall provide Tenant with an operating budget, (y) Landlord shall include in the aforesaid operating budget, and Tenant shall continue to pay during the Reimbursement Period, all Rent that would have been owing under this Lease as to the Leased Premises if this Lease had not expired or terminated as to and/or Tenant had not been dispossessed from, such Leased Premises, and (z) provided that this Lease was not terminated with respect to, and Tenant was not dispossessed from, such the Lease Premises due to a Lease Default, Landlord shall reimburse Tenant for any operating deficits with respect to the Facility that Tenant may be required to fund out-of-pocket on account of operating losses and expenses incurred by Tenant by reason of, or arising out of compliance with, such budget with respect to the Reimbursement Period. Any such reimbursement shall be due from Landlord to Tenant within 60 days after request by Tenant, provided that Tenant shall furnish such documentation of any operating deficits, losses and expenses as Landlord may reasonably request. The terms of this Section 5.5(c) shall survive the expiration or earlier termination of this Lease and/or any dispossession of Tenant from the Lease Premises.

(d) Use of Legacy Tradename. Without limitation of the other provisions of this Section 5.5 and notwithstanding anything to the contrary contained in this Lease, Tenant agrees to allow Landlord or its designee operator, at its option and at no cost to Landlord or any such designee, to continue to use, in its signage, marketing and advertising materials, operations and otherwise, any or all name(s) (including trademarks) associated with the operation of the Facility as a going concern for up to 180 days following (i) the expiration or termination of this Lease and (ii) the vacation from, and surrender of, the Leased Premises and Facility by Tenant. At the end of such 180 day period, or upon sooner written notice from Landlord to Tenant, Tenant shall, promptly and at its expense, remove its aforesaid name(s) from all signs on the Facility and repair any damage to such signs caused by such removal. Landlord acknowledges and agrees that Tenant, not Landlord, owns the aforesaid names and that neither Landlord nor any designee of Landlord may use the same except as described in this Section 5.5(d) or as otherwise agreed in writing by Tenant.

(c) Management of Terminated/Dispossessed Premises. Commencing on the applicable Termination/Dispossession Date as to any Terminated/Dispossessed Premises, Landlord or its designee, upon notice to Tenant, may elect to assume the responsibilities and obligations for the management and operation of the Business at such Terminated/Dispossessed Premises, and Tenant agrees to cooperate fully to accomplish the transfer of such management and operation without interrupting the operation of such Business to the extent allowable by Law. Tenant shall permit Landlord or its designee to operate the Facility under Tenant's licenses, certifications and other authorizations pending the issuance of new licenses, certifications and other authorizations Landlord or its designee. Tenant shall not commit any act or be remiss in the undertaking of any act that would jeopardize any licenses, certifications and other authorizations related to the Facility, and Tenant shall comply with all requests for an orderly transfer of all licenses, certifications and other authorizations related to the Facility and any payor's certifications.

(d) In addition, upon any expiration or termination of this Lease, Tenant covenants and agrees to do such things and to take such action as may, from time to time, be necessary or appropriate to permanently surrender and withdraw from possession and operation (including but not limited to licensure and certification) of the Leased Premises, and shall thereafter be fully and permanently relieved of all powers, duties, responsibilities and obligations that are conferred or imposed upon Tenant under this Lease (except those continuing obligations, including but not limited to the obligation to pay all Rent due and owing under this Lease, and the obligation to pay all amounts owed by Tenant to the Medicare, Medicaid, third party payor programs and residents for the period of the Term, which survive the termination hereof as provided herein) and to restore and place Landlord or its designee in possession and operation of the Leased Premises, or any portion thereof, and Tenant covenants and agrees to execute and deliver to Landlord or Landlord's designee (each subject to the approval of DOH) all assignments, operation transfer agreements, consents, consents to assignments (including Medicare and Medicaid provider agreements, if requested by Landlord) documents and other instruments, to the reasonable satisfaction of Landlord in order to effectuate the provisions hereof.

(b) Subject to Section 5.1, Tenant shall accept and take possession of the Leased Premises in its "AS IS," "WHERE IS," "WITH ALL FAULTS" condition, and acceptance of possession of the Leased Premises on the Commencement Date shall be deemed an acknowledgment by Tenant of Tenant's acceptance of the condition of the Leased Premises. Tenant acknowledges and agrees that Landlord is not making any representation, warranty or covenant whatsoever with respect to the condition of the Leased Premises, or any portion thereof, or its suitability for any particular purpose, and Tenant shall be relying solely on its inspection of the Leased Premises and due diligence investigations with respect thereto.

(b) LANDLORD MAKES NO WARRANTY OR REPRESENTATION, EXPRESS OR IMPLIED, IN RESPECT OF THE LEASED PREMISES OR ANY PART THEREOF, EITHER AS TO ITS FITNESS FOR USE, DESIGN OR CONDITION FOR ANY PARTICULAR USE OR PURPOSE OR OTHERWISE, OR AS TO THE NATURE OR QUALITY OF THE MATERIAL OR WORKMANSHIP THEREIN, OR THE EXISTENCE OF ANY HAZARDOUS SUBSTANCE, IT BEING AGREED THAT ALL SUCH RISKS, LATENT OR PATENT, ARE TO BE BORNE SOLELY BY TENANT, INCLUDING ALL RESPONSIBILITY AND LIABILITY FOR ANY ENVIRONMENTAL REMEDIATION AND FOR COMPLIANCE WITH ALL ENVIRONMENTAL LAWS. THIS RELEASE SHALL BE GIVEN FULL FORCE AND EFFECT ACCORDING TO EACH OF ITS EXPRESSED TERMS AND PROVISIONS, INCLUDING THOSE RELATING TO UNKNOWN AND UNSUSPECTED CLAIMS, DAMAGES AND CAUSES OF ACTION. EXCEPT AS TO MATTERS SPECIFICALLY SET FORTH IN THIS LEASE: (A) TENANT WILL ACQUIRE THE LEASED PREMISES SOLELY ON THE BASIS OF ITS OWN PHYSICAL AND FINANCIAL EXAMINATIONS, REVIEWS AND INSPECTIONS, AND (B) WITHOUT LIMITING THE FOREGOING, WAIVES ANY RIGHT IF OTHERWISE MAY HAVE AT LAW OR IN EQUITY AGAINST LANDLORD WITH RESPECT TO ANY ASPECT OF LEASED PREMISES.

(x) the commercial property and business income insurance required under Sections 6.1(a)(i) and (ii) above shall cover perils of terrorism and acts of terrorism and Tenant shall maintain commercial property and business income insurance for loss resulting from perils and acts of terrorism on terms (including amounts) consistent with those required under Sections 6.1(a)(i) and (ii) above at all times during the Term;

(xi) professional liability and malpractice insurance with limits of at least Two Million Dollars ($2,000,000.00) per claim / Five Million Dollars ($5,000,000.00) in the aggregate. Not less than ten (10) days prior to the expiration dates of the Policies theretofore furnished to Lendlord and Mortgagee, certificates of insurance evidencing the Policies accompanied by evidence satisfactory to Lendlord and Mortgagee of payment of the premiums due thereunder (the "Insurance Premiums"), shall be delivered by Tenant to Lendlord and Mortgagee.

(c) Any blanket insurance Policy shall specifically allocate to the Facility the amount of coverage from time to time required hereunder and shall otherwise provide the same protection as would a separate Policy insuring only the Facility in compliance with the provisions of Section 6.1(a).

(d) All Policies provided for or contemplated by Section 6.1(a), except for the Policy referenced in Section 6.1(a)(v), shall name Tenant as the insured and Lendlord and Mortgagee as the additional insured, as their interests may appear, and in the case of property damage, boiler and machinery, flood and earthquake insurance, shall contain a so-called lender's loss payee endorsement in favor of Mortgagee providing that the loss thereunder shall be payable to Mortgagee.

(e) All Policies provided for in Section 6.1 shall contain clauses or endorsements to the effect that:

(i) no act or negligence of Tenant, or anyone acting for Tenant, or of any tenant or other occupant, or failure to comply with the provisions of any Policy, which might otherwise result in a forfeiture of the insurance or any part thereof, shall in any way affect the validity or enforceability of the insurance insofar as Lendlord and Mortgagee are concerned;

(ii) the Policies shall not be materially changed (other than to increase the coverage provided thereby) or canceled without at least thirty (30) days' written notice to Landlord and Mortgagee and any other party named therein, as an additional insured,

(iii) the issuers thereof shall give notice to Landlord and Mortgagee if the Policies have not been renewed fifteen (15) days prior to its expiration; and

(iv) Neither Landlord nor Mortgagee shall be liable for any insurance premiums thereon or subject to any assessments due thereunder.

(f) If at any time Landlord and Mortgagee is not in receipt of written evidence that all Policies are in full force and effect, either shall have the right, without notice to Tenant, to take such action as either deems necessary to protect its interest in the Leased Premises, including, without limitation, the obtaining of such insurance coverage as either in its sole discretion deems appropriate. All premiums incurred by Landlord and/or Mortgagee in connection with such action or in obtaining such insurance and keeping it in effect shall be paid by Tenant to Landlord and/or Mortgagee, as the case may be, upon demand and, until paid, shall be secured by the Mortgagee and shall bear interest at the Overdue Rate.

(g) Tenants Insurance. If Tenant has claims made insurance coverage of any type, upon expiration or earlier termination of this Lease, Tenant shall purchase so-called "roll" insurance for a period of three years in an amount not less than its existing coverages in order to assure Tenant is covered by insurance after the expiration or earlier termination of this Lease for all claims arising or relating to the period prior to the expiration or earlier termination of this Lease, and Landlord and Mortgagee shall be named as additional insured thereunder.

Section 6.2 Certificates of Insurance. Upon the Commencement Date of this Lease, Tenant shall furnish Landlord, Mortgagee and other third parties which Landlord shall designate with appropriate certificates of insurance on acceptable Acond forms, together with an additional insurance endorsement showing that each type of insurance required under this Article VI is in full force and effect and not cancelable or modifiable without thirty (30) days prior written notice to Landlord, and upon request of Landlord or one or more of such additional insureds, deliver copies of such insurance policies. a waiver of subrogation for property damage is not prohibited in the State of New York, has been consented to by the applicable insurance carrier, and only to the extent of such insurance coverage.

ARTICLE VII

SECURITY, ACCESS AND REPORTING OBLIGATIONS, WORKING CAPITAL,

Section 7.1 Security Deposit/Guaranty

(a) Contemporaneously with the execution of this Lease, Tenant shall deliver a guarantee of this Lease (the "Guaranty") from Lizer Josefovich and Mark Neuman (collectively, the "Guarantors") in the form of Exhibit "B" attached hereto, or in form and amount as may be otherwise required by the Landlord and Landlord's first and second Mortgages. The Guaranty shall set forth that the Guarantors will be required to cooperate in turning the license over to the Landlord's designee or be personally liable for all costs, expenses and damages or deficiencies. The Guarantors shall ensure that the Tenant shall deliver all of the documents required to transfer the license in escrow to Peiser, Blackstein & Lund, or such other party as Landlord designates. As further security for the Tenant's performance under the Lease, the Tenant hereby agrees as follows:

(i) Tenant agrees that it shall deliver to Landlord 60 days prior to the Commencement Date, an agreement by Capital Funding Group, which cannot be amended except by an agreement in writing signed by Landlord, Tenant and Capital Funding Group, in the form attached hereto as Exhibit 7.1(a) or otherwise approved by Landlord and Landlord's lenders in their reasonable discretion, wherein and whereby Capital Funding Group agrees to allow Tenant to draw down on its Credit Line each month so as to enable Capital Funding Group to pay directly to Landlord the sum of $506,056.50 per month commencing the Commencement Date and on each day Fixed Rent is due under the Lease for the following 11 months.

(ii) Tenant agrees that it shall deliver 60 days prior to the anticipated Commencement Date either (i) an unconditional Letter of Credit, in accordance with the Letter of Credit Agreement attached hereto as Exhibit 7.1(b) (which shall be executed simultaneously herewith), in the amount of $3,700,000, or (ii) $3,700,000 in cash ("Security Deposit") to secure the full and timely payment and performance of Tenant's obligations under this Lease. Tenant's failure to deliver the Letter of Credit or timely pay to Landlord the Security Deposit shall be deemed a Lease Default by Tenant. Landlord may retain the Security Deposit in such accounts as Landlord elects in its sole discretion and Landlord may commingle the Security Deposit with other funds of Landlord or its affiliates. Tenant shall have no right or interest in the funds comprising the Security Deposit that it delivers to Landlord.

(iii) Sixty days prior to the anticipated Commencement Date, the funds in the controlled account number [REDACTED] in JPMorgan Chase Bank, N.A. (the "Bank") in the amount not less than $1,500,000 shall be delivered by Tenant to Landlord and released by Tenant to Landlord to be held as an additional Security Deposit by Landlord. The letter to Bank implementing the Tenant's obligations pursuant to the preceding sentence, attached hereto as Exhibit 7.1(c), which shall be held in escrow by Posternak, Blankstein, & Lund, shall be delivered by it to the Bank sixty days prior to the anticipated Commencement Date upon notice from Landlord.

(b) The term "Letter of Credit" shall mean an irrevocable, unconditional, transferable, clean sight draft letter of credit in favor of Landlord in form and content reasonably satisfactory to Landlord and entitling Landlord to draw thereon without the payment of any fees or charges in New York, New York, issued by a domestic banking institution or the U.S. agency or branch of a foreign banking institution; provided, that such banking institution has a long term senior unsecured debt obligation rating of at least "AA" by S&P. The Letter of Credit shall have an expiration date of the date that is the first anniversary of the date hereof. The Letter of Credit shall provide that it shall be deemed automatically renewed (without amendment) for consecutive periods of one year each thereafter during the Term unless the issuing bank sends written notice to Landlord and Tenant by certified mail, return receipt requested, not less than thirty (30) days preceding the then expiration date of the Letter of Credit that it elects not to have such Letter of Credit renewed. If such notice is sent, then at least twenty (20) days prior to the expiration of the Letter of Credit (and each subsequent or replacement Letter of Credit), Tenant shall deliver to Landlord a new Letter of Credit in the same amount and a failure to do so shall entitle Landlord to draw upon the existing Letter of Credit and to receive the proceeds therefrom and hold such proceeds as a cash Security Deposit pursuant to this Section 7.1 pending delivery of a new Letter of Credit.

(c) Upon a Lease Default, Landlord shall have the right, but not the obligation, in Landlord's sole and absolute discretion, to draw upon the Security Deposit and/or Letter of Credit and apply some or all of the funds to remedy such default or occurrence and to compensate Landlord for any loss or damage resulting therefrom, without prejudice to any other rights or remedies of Landlord under this Lease or at law or in equity. Upon any such application by Landlord, Tenant shall promptly deposit with Landlord an amount in cash equal to the amount from the Security Deposit so utilized by Landlord. Landlord shall at all times have, no security hereunder, Letter of Credit and cash Security Deposit in the amounts stated in Section 7.1(a). Upon the termination or expiration of this Lease, as long as Tenant has performed all of its obligations pursuant to this Lease and no Lease Default has occurred which is continuing, the remaining amount of the Security Deposit shall be returned or refunded to Tenant, without interest, subject in all events to Landlord's right to apply the Security Deposit as provided herein.

(d) Upon the occurrence of a Lease Default, Landlord may use, apply or retain the whole or any part of the Security Deposit or draw under a Letter of Credit to the extent required for the payment of any Rent or any other sums as to which Tenant is in default or for any sum which Landlord may expend or may be required to expend by reason of Tenant's default in respect of any of the terms, covenants and conditions of this Lease, including, but not limited to, any damages or deficiency in the relating of all or any portion of the Leased Premises, whether such damages or deficiency accrue before or after summary proceedings or other re-entry by Landlord. If Landlord shall so use, apply or retain the whole or any part of the Security Deposit, Tenant shall upon demand immediately deposit with Landlord a sum equal to the amount so used, applied or retained. In the event of any sale or financing of Landlord's interest in the Leased Premises, Landlord shall have the right to assign its interests in the Security Deposit to the transferee, assignee or mortgagee, as the case may be, and if Landlord has given notice to Tenant of the assignment of Landlord's interest in the Security Deposit and if assignee or transferee of the Security Deposit has accepted liability for the Security Deposit, Landlord shall thereupon be released by Tenant from all liability for the return or payment thereof; and Tenant shall look solely to the new landlord or mortgagee for the return or payment of the same. Tenant shall not assign or encumber or attempt to assign or encumber the Security Deposit and neither Landlord, nor its successors or assigns, shall be bound by any such assignment, encumbrance, attempted assignment or attempted encumbrance.

Section 7.2 Access to Leased Premises. Tenant shall permit Landlord, Mortgagee and their agents to enter upon the Leased Premises at all reasonable times during ordinary business hours and upon at least twenty-four (24) hours advance oral notice (except that in the case of emergency, Landlord may enter at any time and without prior notice) to inspect and examine the Leased Premises, to perform repairs as to Landlord's Work pursuant to Section 5.1, and to inspect and copy any operating manuals, procedures manuals, training manuals, and other books and records concerning unemployment, workers' compensation, insurance, tax, and any other business issues pertaining to the Leased Premises (subject to applicable laws and regulations governing patient confidentiality and privacy and the confidentiality of medical records) and any information necessary for audit relating to cost reimbursement, collections, general financial matters, litigation, inquiries and related activities (as may be necessary in connection with the Lease or the Leased Premises or any matters relating to periods prior to the Commencement Date). Any access by Landlord to patient records or medical records shall be strictly governed by Laws governing patient confidentiality and privacy and the confidentiality of medical records and all appropriate consents and/or waivers from residents or their guardians or representatives shall have been obtained before access to such records shall be granted. Landlord shall make reasonable efforts not to materially interfere with or materially disrupt Tenant's business and use and enjoyment of the Leased Premises during any such inspection or examination. Landlord shall also have the right but not the obligation to conduct a physical inspection of the Facility and from time to time and within thirty (30) days prior to the expiration of the Term or earlier termination of the Lease, upon twenty-four (24) hours advance oral notice. If Landlord reasonably determines based on this inspection that the Facility, or any portion of the Facility, requires repairs or maintenance so that the condition of the Facility is in compliance with this Lease and all Laws, then within thirty (30) days of notification by Landlord, Tenant shall commence making said repairs and diligently pursue such repairs to completion. Should Tenant fail to do so, within seven (7) days of notification by Landlord, Tenant shall pay to Landlord a deposit of funds in an amount equal to Landlord's reasonable estimate of the costs of such repairs or maintenance, which funds shall be released to Tenant from time to time during the progress of such repairs and maintenance based on submission by Tenant of evidence reasonably satisfactory to Landlord that such work is complete and all costs and expenses incurred to date have been paid in full. Tenant and Landlord acknowledge that the operations of the Facility and its maintenance are the sole and absolute responsibility of Tenant. Landlord shall have no liabilities or obligations with respect to the Facility, including no liabilities or obligations with respect to inspections of the Facility or the failure by Landlord to inspect the Facility.

Notwithstanding anything to the contrary in this Lease, Landlord and Tenant agree that all information, records and data collected or maintained regarding Facility residents shall be confidential). Landlord, Tenant, and their respective employees and agents shall maintain the confidentiality of all Facility resident information received in accordance with applicable New York and federal laws, including the Health Insurance Portability and Accountability Act of 1996 (Public Law 104-91) and the regulations issued in connection therewith (collectively, "HIPAA"). If Tenant's business requires the use of any Hazardous Materials, other than such cleaning materials as are typically found in skilled nursing facilities in compliance with Section 10.1, Tenant shall notify Landlord in writing and shall comply with hazard communication and notification requirements of the Occupational Safety and Health Act ("OSHA") and all Laws which require notification of employees, the community or any governmental agency of the hazardous properties of such Hazardous Materials. For purposes of this Lease, "Hazardous Materials" means and includes any hazardous substance defined as such in OSHA, the Comprehensive Environmental Response, Compensation, and Liability Act ("CERCLA"), the Toxic Substances Control Act ("TSCA"), or any other federal, state or local statute, law, ordinance, code, rule, regulation, order or decree regulating, relating to, or imposing liability or standards of conduct concerning, any hazardous substance or material, as now or at any time hereafter in effect.

(d) Tenant shall not place, hold or dispose of any Hazardous Waste on, under or at the Leased Premises except as specifically allowed in this Section 10.3. Tenant further agrees that it shall not use the Leased Premises as a treatment, storage, or disposal (whether permanent or temporary) facility for Hazardous Waste. If Tenant, in the ordinary course of its business as a skilled nursing facility generates Hazardous Waste, then Tenant shall comply with all applicable federal, state and local laws, statutes, ordinances, codes, rules, regulations, orders or decrees relating to the appropriate use, storage, transportation and disposal of Hazardous Waste. For the purposes of this Lease, "Hazardous Waste" means and includes any hazardous material that has entered the waste stream or any contaminant or pollutant as defined as such in the Resource Conservation and Recovery Act, CERCLA, as amended, any so-called "Superfund" or "Superfund" law, the TSCA, or any other Law, relating to or imposing liability or standards of conduct concerning, any hazardous, toxic or dangerous waste. Tenant further agrees that it shall properly dispose in accordance with Laws of all "infectious waste" such as laboratory waste, pathological waste, blood specimens or products, patient or resident waste including, without Immediately upon receipt of any Environmental Notice (as hereinafter defined) from any Person, Tenant shall deliver to Landlord a true, correct and complete copy of same. "Environmental Notice" shall mean any note, notice, or report of any suit, proceeding, investigation, order, consent order, injunction, writ, award, or action related to or affecting or indicating the treatment, storage, handling, disposal, generation, spill, release or discharge of any Hazardous Waste or Hazardous Materials in, upon, under, from or affecting the Leased Premises. All of the terms, covenants, warranties and indemnifications contained in this Section 10.3 shall survive the expiration or termination of this Lease.

(e) Without in any way limiting Tenant's obligation to indemnify Landlord and Landlord's Indemnitees under Section 9.1 of this Lease, Tenant shall indemnify, defend (at Landlord's request) and hold harmless Landlord and Landlord's Indemnitees from and against any claims, losses, costs, damages or expenses of any and every kind whatsoever (including reasonable attorney's fees and expenses and consultant's and expert's fees and expenses) which at any time or from time to time may be paid, incurred or suffered by, or asserted against Landlord and/or Landlord's Indemnitees for, with respect to, or as a direct or indirect result of: (a) a breach by Tenant of the covenants set forth in Section 10.3 or, (b) caused, permitted or allowed by Tenant or any agent, employee, invitee, or licensee of Tenant, the presence on or under, or the escape, seepage, leakage, spillage, discharge, emission, or release from, onto, or into the Leased Premises, the atmosphere, or any watercourse, body of water, or groundwater, of any Hazardous Material (including, without limitation, any losses, liabilities, damages, injuries, costs, expenses or claims asserted or arising under CERCLA, as amended, any so-called "Superfund" or "Superfund" law, or any other Law, relating to or imposing liability or standards of conduct concerning, any Hazardous Material) occurring from and after the Commencement Date; and the provisions of and undertakings and indemnification set out in this Section 10.3(d) shall survive the termination of this Lease, and shall continue to be the personal liability, obligation and indemnification of Tenant, binding upon Tenant, forever. If required by Mortgagee, Tenant shall enter into an agreement to indemnify, defend and hold harmless Mortgagee with respect to matters contained in this Section 10.3, and other similar matters pursuant to a form of agreement reasonably acceptable to Mortgagee. In no event however shall Tenant have any liability to Landlord or Landlord's Indemnitees for Hazardous Materials located at or under the Leased Premises prior to the Commencement Date or for the remediation of same.

(f) If Tenant or its employees, agents, or contractors violate the provisions of this Section 10.3, then, in addition to any other duty or obligation of Tenant hereunder, at law or in equity, Tenant shall be obligated to clean up, remove, and dispose of the material causing the violation, in compliance with all applicable environmental laws and repair any damage to and remediate the Leased Premises within such period of time as may be reasonable under the circumstances after written notice by Landlord; provided that such work shall commence no later than thirty (30) days from the date of such notice and be diligently and continuously carried to completion by Tenant or Tenant's designated contractors. Tenant shall notify Landlord of its method, time and procedure for any clean-up, remediation or removal of material causing the violation under this provision, and Landlord shall have the right to require reasonable changes in such method, time or procedure.

(g) Landlord reserves the right from time to time, but not more than once a year, except in the event of an emergency or during the occurrence and continuation of an uncured Lease Default during the Term hereof, at Landlord's cost and expense (except that, in the event of a continuing and uncured Lease Default, at Tenant's sole cost and expense), to have the Leased Premises inspected by environmental engineers and/or specialists for the purpose of determining compliance by Tenant with any environmental laws, rules and regulations applicable to Tenant's operations in or about the Leased Premises and with the terms and conditions of this Lease dealing with environmental matters, including without limitation, the provisions of this Section 10.3. If the environmental assessment or report resulting from such inspection discloses any non-compliance with Laws, Tenant shall immediately, following receipt of the environmental assessment, take all such steps as are necessary to put the Leased Premises into compliance, including without limitation, cleaning up any spills or other emissions of Hazardous Wastes or Hazardous Materials, and reimburse Landlord for the costs of its inspection.

DAMAGE OR DESTRUCTION

Section 11.1 Damage or Destruction. Tenant shall immediately notify Landlord of any casualty, fire, damage, destruction or injury ("Casualty") affecting the Facility, including a description of the Casualty, and whether the Casualty is such as to cause the Leased Premises to be unusable, in whole or in part, for the intended Use. Tenant shall proceed with reasonable diligence to repair or reconstruct the Leased Premises and Tenant shall be liable for any costs of repair or replacement to the Leased Premises, whether or not such Casualty, or the costs of repairing such Casualty, are fully covered by the proceeds of Tenant's insurance required to be carried hereunder. If such Casualty renders the Facility unusable for the purpose of this Lease and if Landlord's Mortgagee so requires, Landlord, upon notice to Tenant, Landlord may terminate this Lease and Landlord and Tenant shall be released from any further liability hereunder thereafter according with respect to the Facility, except that Tenant shall be responsible and shall pay Landlord an amount equal to the difference between the fair market value of the Leased Premises immediately prior to such Casualty and the proceeds of Tenant's insurance to the extent such difference results from Tenant's breach of Article VI. Notwithstanding the foregoing, if Landlord's obligations to its Mortgagee have been satisfied in full and the DOH approves and agrees to reimburse the costs of rebuilding the Facility, Landlord shall not so terminate this Lease with respect to the Facility, and Tenant shall repair or reconstruct the Leased Premises in substantially the same condition as just prior to the incident with the proceeds of the property casualty insurance carried by Tenant, as required hereunder (if not otherwise paid to the Mortgagee), and/or with funds of Tenant. Regardless of any Casualty, except as provided above, this Lease shall continue in full force and effect without any abatement of Rent, and Tenant shall not be entitled to surrender possession of the Leased Premises as a result of such casualty. Landlord's receipt of Rent from Tenant's rental interruption insurance shall be credited against Rent payments due from Tenant hereunder. If Tenant fails to commence such repair or reconstruction within thirty (30) days of the Casualty, Landlord shall have the option, subject to the approval of the DOH if required by Laws, to either terminate this Lease upon written notice to Tenant or repair and reconstruct the Leased Premises in substantially the same condition just prior to the incident and costs and expenses incurred as a result thereof shall be deemed Additional Rent hereunder and shall be payable to Landlord by Tenant, upon demand. Upon payment of all such sums demanded by Landlord, Tenant may re-enter and resume possession of the Leased Premises pursuant to the terms of this Lease. All insurance proceeds collected under the Policies shall be paid to Landlord, and made available to Tenant to pay for or reimburse Tenant for the costs and expenses for such repairs and reconstruction subject to the terms, conditions and provisions of any mortgage or other loan documents encumbering the Leased Premises. If Mortgagee does not make the insurance proceeds available to Landlord, then Landlord may terminate this Lease upon thirty (30) days' notice to Tenant, and Landlord and Tenant shall be released from any further liability hereunder thereafter accruing with respect to the Facility, except that Tenant shall be responsible and shall pay Landlord an amount equal to the difference between the fair market value of the Leased Premises immediately prior to such Casualty and the proceeds of Tenant's insurance.

Section 11.2 Precedence of Rights of Mortgagee. All provisions contained in the loan documents between Landlord and Mortgagee, or any other document in connection therewith which concern or pertain to the restoration of the Leased Premises, the application of insurance proceeds and any and all matters concerning a casualty, shall take precedence over and be in lieu of any contrary provision provided for in this Lease, and in all respects are binding upon Tenant who agrees to and acknowledges the same.

Section 11.3 Tenant hereby waives the provisions of Section 227 of the Real Property Law of the State of New York and acknowledges that the terms of this Article XI shall govern in lieu thereof.

EMINENT DOMAIN

Section 12.1 Eminent Domain. (a) In the event that all or substantially all of the Leased Premises, or such portion of the Real Property which renders the balance of the Facility unsuitable for the purpose of this Lease, shall be taken by condemnation or right of eminent domain, this Lease shall terminate as of the day the taking authority takes possession of the Leased Premises, and Landlord and Tenant shall be released from any further liability hereunder thereafter accruing with respect to the Facility, except as otherwise expressly provided in this Lease. In the event only a portion (and less than substantially all) of the Leased Premises is taken by condemnation or right of eminent domain and the portion so taken does not render the balance of the Leased Premises unsuitable for the purposes of this Lease, as determined by Landlord, this Lease shall not terminate. In such an event, Tenant shall restore the Leased Premises with reasonable diligence with its own funds and with the proceeds of any award from the applicable public or quasi-public authority, or private corporation or individual having the power of condemnation ("Award") to an architectural unit as nearly like its condition prior to such taking as shall be practicable. Notwithstanding anything to the contrary herein, this Section 12.1(a) is subject to the terms, conditions and provisions of any mortgage and other loan documents encumbering the Leased Premises.

(i) Notwithstanding anything to the contrary contained in Section 12.1(e), Landlord may cancel this Lease with no further liability to Tenant, in the event that following a taking by condemnation or right of eminent domain, Mortgagee elects to require Landlord to repay the mortgage on the Leased Premises.

(j) Tenant shall not be entitled to any part of any award or settlement of damages representing the value of land and buildings appropriated, the value of this Lease or any estate therein, or damage to the residue of the Leased Premises or other property of Landlord; it being agreed as between Landlord and Tenant any such award shall be the sole property of Landlord. No appropriation of part or all of the Leased Premises or cancellation of this Lease pursuant to this Article XII shall be deemed an eviction of Tenant or a breach of any covenants of Landlord hereunder.

Section 13.2 Notice to Mortgagee. (a) Tenant hereby agrees, upon request of Mortgagee, to give to Mortgagee copies of all notices given by Tenant of default by Landlord under this Lease at the same time and in the same manner as, and whenever, Tenant shall give any such notice of default to Landlord. Such Mortgagee shall have the right to remedy any default under this Lease, or to cause any default of Landlord under this Lease to be remedied, and for such purpose Tenant hereby grants such Mortgagee such period of time as may be reasonable to enable such Mortgagee to remedy, or cause to be remedied, any such default in addition to the period given to Landlord for remedying, or causing to be remedied, any such default which is a default. Tenant shall accept performance by such Mortgagee of any term, covenant, condition or agreement to be performed by Landlord under the Lease with the same force and effect as though performed by Landlord. No default by Landlord under the Lease shall exist or shall be deemed to exist (i) as long as such Mortgagee, in good faith, shall have commenced to cure such default and shall be prosecuting the same to completion with reasonable diligence, subject to Force Majeure, or (ii) if possession of the Leased Premises is required in order to cure such default, or if such default is not susceptible of being cured by such Mortgagee, as long as such Mortgagee, in good faith, shall have notified Tenant that such Mortgagee intends to institute proceedings under the mortgage and, thereafter, as long as such proceedings shall have been instituted and shall prosecute the same with reasonable diligence and, after having obtained possession, prosecutes the cure to completion with reasonable diligence. This Lease shall not be assigned by Tenant or modified, amended or terminated without Mortgagee's prior written consent in each instance, which consent shall not be unreasonably withheld or delayed. In the event of the termination of this Lease by reason of any default thereunder or for any other reason whatsoever except the expiration thereof, upon such Mortgagee's written request, given within thirty (30) days after any such termination, Tenant, within fifteen (15) days after receipt of such request, shall execute and deliver to such Mortgagee or its designee or nominee a new lease of the Leased Premises for the remainder of the Term of the Lease upon, at a minimum, all of the terms, covenants and conditions of this Lease. Neither such Mortgagee or its designee or nominee shall become liable under this Lease unless and until such Mortgagee or its designee or nominee becomes, and then only for so long as such Mortgagee or its designee or nominee remains, the fee owner of the Leased Premises or the owner of the leasehold interest of Landlord under this Lease. Such Mortgagee shall have the right, without Tenant's consent, to, as the case may be, foreclose its mortgage or to accept a deed in lieu of foreclosure of such mortgage.

(b) In the event of any act or omission of Landlord which would give Tenant the right, immediately or after lapse of a period of time, to cancel or terminate this Lease, or to claim a partial or total eviction, Tenant shall not exercise such right (i) until it has given written notice of such act or omission to Mortgagee, and (ii) unless such act or omission shall be one which is not capable of being remedied by Landlord or such Mortgagee within a reasonable period of time, until a reasonable period for remedying such act or omission shall have elapsed following the giving of such notice and following the time when such Mortgagee shall have become entitled under its loan documents with Landlord in connection therewith, as the case may be, to remedy the same (which reasonable period shall in no event be less than the period to which Landlord would be entitled under this Lease or otherwise, after similar notice, to effect such remedy).

ARTICLE XIV

QUIET ENJOYMENT

Section 14.1 Quiet Enjoyment. Landlord covenants, warrants and represents to Tenant that, provided no Lease Default exists under this Lease, Tenant shall at all times during the Term peacefully and quietly have, hold, occupy and enjoy the Leased Premises, subject to the terms and conditions of this Lease, without any hindrance, interference or molestation by Landlord or by, under or through Landlord.

ARTICLE XV

SUBLETTING AND ASSIGNMENT

Section 15.1 Subletting and Assignment. (a) Tenant shall not, without the prior written consent of Landlord, which consent may be withheld in the Landlord's sole and absolute discretion (and, if required by law, without the prior written consent of the Commissioner, which consent may be withheld in the Commissioner's sole and absolute discretion), transfer or assign this Lease or Tenant's interest in the Leased Premises or any part thereof or sublease all or any part of the Leased Premises. In all events of assignment, transfers or subletting, the prior approval of the DOH shall be required. Tenant shall not at any time, without the prior written consent of Landlord, which consent may be withheld or given in the sole and absolute discretion of Landlord, pledge, mortgage, or hypothecate the leasehold estate hereby created or any interest of Tenant therein. The issuance of or a transfer or series of transfers (including transfers caused by mergers, acquisitions or consolidations of any direct or indirect interests in the equity ownership interests in Tenant or any subtenant aggregating to forty-nine percent (49%) or more of the stock, membership or ownership interest in Tenant or any subtenant shall constitute an assignment for purposes of this Lease, requiring Landlord's consent thereof; notwithstanding anything to the contrary, any change in the management or control of Tenant such that Lizer Josefovic does not control all of the decisions of Tenant shall constitute an assignment for purposes of this Lease, requiring Landlord's consent thereof. Notwithstanding anything to the contrary, the issuance of or a transfer or series of transfers (including transfers caused by mergers, acquisitions or consolidations of any direct or indirect interests in the equity ownership interests in Tenant or any subtenant resulting in the aggregate interest of Lizer Josefovic, Marc Neuman, and their spouse or issue, or a trust for their benefit, equaling less than seventy-five percent (75%) of the stock, membership or ownership interest in Tenant or any subtenant to any person or entity shall constitute an assignment for purposes of this Lease, requiring Landlord's consent thereof; provided that any assignment by Lizer Josefovic to Joseph Josefovic made after five years after the Commencement date shall not be unreasonably denied by Landlord taking into account, among other things, the experience, performance record, and financial strength of Joseph Josefovic. The consent by Landlord to my transfer shall not constitute consent to any subsequent transfer or to any successive transfer. Further, subject to the provisions of Section 2.2, and without in any way limiting or otherwise affecting the provisions of this Lease, Landlord shall be permitted to assign this Lease and all agreements, duties, obligations and rights incidental thereto to any entity related to, or affiliated with Landlord, without any consent from Tenant. The term "transfer" shall mean: any direct or indirect sale, conveyance, transfer, lease (including any amendment, extension, modification, waiver or renewal (hereof)), sublease, sub-sublease, assignment, mortgage, pledge, grant of a security interest or hypothecation, whether by operation of law or otherwise, whether voluntary or not, of or in (i) all or part of the Leased Premises (including any legal or beneficial direct or indirect interest therein) or (ii) any direct or indirect interest in Tenant. Notwithstanding anything to the contrary contained herein, Tenant may assign this Lease to, or enter into a sublease with, or transfer interests in an entity comprising Tenant to, an affiliate under common control with Tenant, or owned by Lizer Josefovic, Marc Neuman, or their spouse or issue, or a Trust for their benefit, without Landlord's consent, provided (x) Landlord is given thirty (30) days prior written notice of such intended transfer, assignment or sublease with copies of the organizational documents of the assignee, transferee or sublessee, (y) after such transfer, assignment or sublease, Lizer Josefovic controls all of the decisions of the assignee, transferee or sublessee, and (z) all required consents from the Mortgagee, the DOH and/or the Commissioner (if required), have been obtained by Tenant. Notwithstanding the foregoing and any other provision contained herein to the contrary, no transfer or series of transfers of legal, economic, beneficial or equitable (direct or indirect) interest in the Lease or in Tenant's membership interest that requires DOH's consent shall occur without the prior written consent of Landlord and DOH. Tenant shall enter into such subordination agreements or subordination, non-disturbance agreements ("SNDAs") as Mortgagee may request from time to time.

Section 15.2 Assignment and Related Matters. Any sublease shall be expressly subject and subordinate to all applicable terms and conditions of this Lease and provide that upon the expiration or earlier termination of this Lease, Landlord, at its option and without any obligation to do so, may require any subtenant to whom Landlord, its successors and assigns, in which event Landlord shall undertake the obligations of Tenant, under such sublease from the time of the exercise of such option to the termination of such sublease; provided, however, that in such case Landlord shall not be liable for any prepaid rents, fees or other charges or for any prepaid security deposits paid by such subtenant to Tenant or for any other prior defaults of Tenant under such sublease. In the event that Landlord shall not require such attornment with respect to any sublease, then such sublease shall automatically terminate upon the expiration or earlier termination of this Lease, including any early termination by mutual agreement of Landlord and Tenant. In addition, any such sublease shall provide that in the event that the subtenant or other transferee receives a written notice from Landlord stating that a Lease Default has occurred or that an event or circumstance has occurred which with notice and/or passage of time would constitute a Lease Default, such subtenant or other transferee thereafter shall without further consent or instruction of Tenant pay all rentals accruing under such sublease directly to Landlord or as Landlord may direct; provided, however, that (a) as and to the extent that the amounts so paid to Landlord, together with other amounts paid to or received by Landlord on account of this Lease, exceed the amounts then due Landlord from Tenant under this Lease, the excess shall be promptly remitted to Tenant, and (b) at such time as the Lease Default has been cured and this Lease reinsured (if ever), Landlord shall notify and direct the subtenant(s) in writing to resume making payments of rentals under their sublease(s) directly to Tenant, or as Tenant may direct. Any such rentals collected from such subtenant or other transferee by Landlord shall be credited against the amounts owing by Tenant under this Lease in such order of priority as Landlord shall reasonably determine. Furthermore, any sublease or other agreement regarding a transfer shall expressly provide that the subtenant, assignee, manager or other transferee shall furnish Landlord, its lender, the Mortgagee, if applicable, the HUD Mortgagee, and/or the Commissioner, and /or DOH, if applicable, with such financial, operational and other information about the Facility and subtenant, etc., as Landlord may request from time to time.

Section 15.3 Assignment of Subleases. To secure the prompt and full payment by Tenant of the Rent and the faithful performance by Tenant of all the other terms and conditions herein contained on its part to be kept and performed, Tenant hereby assigns, transfers and sets over unto Landlord, subject to the conditions hereinafter set forth and any required consent(s) from DOH, all of Tenant's right, title and interest in and to all permitted subleases, assignments, licenses and occupancy agreements, to the extent permitted by law, involving the Facility, as set forth on Schedule 15.3 attached hereto (the "Sublease", and the subtenant under a Sublease herein referred to as a "Subtenant") and hereby confers upon Landlord, its agents and representatives, a right of entry (subject to prior notice) in, and sufficient possession of, the Leased Premises to permit and insure the collection by Landlord of the rentals and other sums payable under the Sublease, and further agrees that the exercise of said right of entry and qualified possession by Landlord shall not constitute an eviction of Tenant from the Leased Premises or any portion thereof and that should said right of entry and possession be denied Landlord, its agent or representative, Landlord, in the exercise of said right, may use all requisite force to gain and enjoy the same without responsibility or liability to Tenant, its servants, employees, guests or invitees, or any Person whomsoever; provided, however, that such assignment shall become operative and effective only if (a) a Lease Default shall occur and be continuing or (b) this Lease and the Term shall be canceled or terminated pursuant to the terms, covenants and conditions hereof or (c) there occurs a repossession under a dispossessory warrant or other re-entry or repossession by Landlord under the provisions hereof or (d) a receiver for all or a portion of the Leased Premises is appointed, and then only as to such of the Subleases that Landlord may elect to take over and assume. At any time and from time to time within ten (10) days after Landlord's written demand, Tenant promptly shall deliver to Landlord a schedule of all Subleases, setting forth the names of all Subtenants, with a photostatic copy of each of the Subleases. Upon request of Landlord, Tenant shall permit Landlord and its agents and representatives, and Mortgagee, its agents and representatives, to inspect all Subleases affecting the Leased Premises. Tenant covenants that each Sublease shall provide that the Subtenant thereunder shall be required from time to time, upon request of Landlord or Tenant, to execute, acknowledge and deliver, to and for the benefit of Landlord, an estoppel certificate confirming with respect to such Sublease the information set forth in Section 20.11 hereof.

Section 15.4 Additional Sublease Requirements. Tenant covenants and agrees that all Subleases hereafter entered into affecting the Leased Premises shall provide that (a) they are subject to this Lease and that the principals of the Subtenant acknowledge that they have read this Lease and accept the terms hereof, (b) the term hereof shall not end less than one (1) day prior to the Expiration Date hereof, unless Landlord shall consent otherwise, which consent may be withheld in Landlord's sole and absolute discretion, (c) the Subtenants will not do, authorize or execute any act, deed or thing whatsoever or fail to take any such action which will or may cause Tenant to be in violation of any of its obligations under this Lease, (d) the Subtenants will not pay rent or other sums under the Subleases with Tenant for more than one (1) month in advance, (e) the Subtenants shall give to Landlord at the address and otherwise in the manner specified in Section 13.1 hereof, a copy of any notice of default by Tenant as the landlord under the Subleases at the same time as, and wherever, any such notice of default shall be given by the Subtenants to Tenant; and (f) all of the representations, warranties and covenants given by Tenant to Landlord in this Lease, including but not limited to all reporting requirements and covenants set forth in Section 7.4 above, shall be made and given by each Subtenant for the benefit of Landlord, Mortgagee, and their respective successors and assigns.

Section 15.5 Transfers in Bankruptcy. (a) In the event of a transfer pursuant to the provisions of Title 11 of the United States Code or any statute of similar purpose or nature (the "Bankruptcy Code"), all consideration payable or otherwise to be delivered in connection with such transfer shall be paid or delivered to Landlord, shall be and remain the exclusive property of Landlord and shall not constitute property of Tenant or of the estate of Tenant within the meaning of the Bankruptcy Code. Any consideration constituting Landlord's property pursuant to the immediately preceding sentence and not paid or delivered to Landlord shall be held in trust for the benefit of Landlord and be promptly paid or delivered to Landlord. For purposes of this Section 15.5, the term "consideration" shall mean and include money, services, property and any other thing of value such as payment of costs, cancellation or forgiveness of indebtedness, discounts, rebates, barter and the like. If any such consideration is in a form other than cash (such as in kind, equity interests, indebtedness pay-outs, or other deferred payments, consulting or management fees, etc.), Landlord shall be entitled to receive in cash the then present fair market value of such consideration. If Tenant assumes this Lease and proposes to assign the same pursuant to the provisions of the Bankruptcy Code to any person or entity who shall have made a bona fide offer to accept an assignment of this Lease on terms acceptable to Tenant, then notice of such proposed assignment shall be given to Landlord by Tenant no later than fifteen (15) days after receipt of such offer by Tenant, but in any event no later than ten (10) days prior to the date that Tenant shall file any application or motion with a court of competent jurisdiction for authority and approval to enter into such assumption and assignment. Such notice shall set forth (a) the name and address of the assignee, (b) all of the terms and conditions of such offer, and (c) the proposal for providing adequate assurance of future performance by such person under the Lease, including, without limitation, the assurance referred to in Section 365 of the Bankruptcy Code. Any person or entity to which this Lease is assigned pursuant to the provisions of the Bankruptcy Code shall be deemed without further act or deed to have assumed all of the obligations arising under this Lease from and after the date of such assignment. Any such assignee shall execute and deliver to Landlord upon demand an instrument confirming such assumption.

(b) The term "adequate assurance of future performance" as used in this Lease shall mean (in addition to the assurances called for in Bankruptcy Code Section 365(4)) that any proposed assignee shall, among other things, (i) deposit with Landlord on the assumption of this Lease an amount equal to the greater of (x) two (2) times the then monthly Fixed Rent and Additional Rent or (y) such other amount deemed by the Bankruptcy Court to be reasonably necessary for the adequate protection of Landlord under the circumstances, as security for the faithful performance and observance by such assignee of the terms and obligations of this Lease, (ii) furnish Landlord with financial statements of such assignee for the prior three (3) calendar years, as finally determined after an audit and certified as correct by a certified public accountant, which financial statements shall show a net worth at least equal to the amount of the deposit referenced in (i) above, (iii) if determined by the Bankruptcy Court to be appropriate under the circumstances, grant to Landlord a security interest in such property of the proposed assignee as Landlord shall deem necessary to secure such assignee's future performance under this Lease, and (iv) provide such other information or take such action as Landlord, in its reasonable judgment, shall determine is necessary to provide adequate assurance of the performance by such assignee of its obligations under the Lease.

(c) If, at any time after Tenant may have assigned Tenant's interest in this Lease in a proceeding of the type described in Section 16.1 (iv) through (vii), this Lease shall be disaffirmed or rejected in any proceeding of the types described in Section 16.1 (iv) through (vii) hereof, or in any similar proceeding, or in the event of termination of this Lease by reason of any such proceeding or by reason of lapse of time following notice of termination given pursuant to Article XVI based upon any of the Lease Defaults set forth in said Section 16.1 (iv) through (vii) Tenant, upon request of Landlord given within thirty (30) days next following any such disaffirmance, rejection or termination (and actual notice thereof to Landlord in the event of a disaffirmance or rejection or in the event of termination other than by act of Landlord); shall (a) pay to Landlord all Rent due and owing by the assignee to Landlord under this Lease to and including the date of such disaffirmance, rejection or termination, and (b) as "tenant", enter into a new lease with Landlord for a term commencing on the effective date of such disaffirmance, rejection or termination and ending on the expiration date of the term, unless sooner terminated as in such lease provided, at the same Fixed Rent and Additional Rent upon the then executory terms, covenants and conditions as are contained in this Lease, except that (i) Tenant's rights under the new lease shall be subject to the possessory rights, if any, of the assignee under this Lease and the possessory rights of any person claiming through or under such assignee or by virtue of any applicable Law, (ii) such new lease shall require all defaults existing under this Lease to be cured by Tenant with due diligence, and (iii) such new lease shall require Tenant to pay all Rent reserved in this Lease which, had this Lease not been so disaffirmed, rejected or terminated, would have accrued under the provisions of this Lease after the date of such disaffirmance, rejection or termination with respect to any period prior thereto. If Tenant shall default in its obligation to enter into said new lease for a period of ten (10) days next following Landlord's request therefor, then in addition to all other rights and remedies by reason of such default, either at law or in equity, Landlord shall have the same rights and remedies against Tenant as if Tenant had entered into such new lease and such new lease had thereafter been terminated as of the commencement date thereof by reason of Tenant's default thereunder.

Tenant agrees and acknowledges that it will not enter into any management agreements during the Term with regard to the Facility except with an entity (i) owned wholly by a an individual principal of Tenant which entity has been received establishment approval from the New York State Department of Health Public Health and Health Planning Council in compliance with 10 NYCRR 600.9(c)(1) and (ii) approved by HUD if the Facility is, or is about to be financed by a HUD program, and/or Mortgagee. Any such management agreement shall be subordinate to Landlord's rights hereunder, to the rights of Mortgagee and to the rights of the Commissioner. Tenant shall cause such manager to execute such documents as are required by Landlord or Mortgagee or by the Commissioner to effect such subordination.

This Lease shall not be recorded, but either party may record a memorandum of lease in which shall describe the parties to this Lease, a description of the Leased Premises and a recitation of the Term. The party requesting that the memorandum of lease be recorded shall prepare and pay all costs of recording the memorandum of lease, and the other party agrees to execute at any and all times such instruments as may be reasonably required for such recording. Upon the expiration or earlier termination of this Lease, Landlord may release the memorandum of lease. For this purpose Tenant constitutes and appoints Landlord its true and lawful attorney-in-fact with full power of substitution to execute a release of such memoranda in the name of Tenant. Such power of attorney shall be deemed to be a power coupled with an interest and cannot be revoked. To the extent any transfer tax, conveyance tax, excise tax, or similar tax is imposed by any Governmental Authority as a result of the recording of such Memorandum of Lease, or is otherwise due and payable as to Tenant's leasehold interest granted pursuant to this Lease, Tenant shall pay same to the applicable Governmental Authority.

Upon the occurrence of a Lease Default, Landlord, may, if Landlord so elects, upon five (5) days written notice of such election, forthwith terminate this Lease and Tenant's right to possession of the Leased Premises and, at Landlord's sole and absolute discretion, accelerate the payment of all Rent for the balance of the Term and declare the same presently due and payable in full provided, however, that with respect to a Lease Default under Section 16.1(b)(iv), this Lease shall automatically terminate. In the event of such Lease termination, Tenant shall immediately pay Landlord the then present value of all such accelerated Rent. Landlord, in addition to all other remedies given to Landlord at law or in equity, may by written notice to Tenant, without terminating this Lease, cause Tenant to apply to the DOH to install a manager and/or management consultant and/or a receiver having the necessary approvals from Governmental Authorities, of Landlord's choice, at Tenant's sole cost and expense or to the extent permitted by applicable law, reenter the Leased Premises by summary proceedings or otherwise. In any event, upon a Lease Default, Landlord may require Tenant to consent to a so-called "Change of Ownership" and Landlord may dispossess Tenant upon approval of the Change of Ownership or Certificate of Need by DOH, it being the understanding that under no circumstances is this Lease to be an asset for Tenant's creditors by operation of law or otherwise. In the event of such reentry, Landlord may relet the Leased Premises without being obligated to do so, and in the event of a reletting may apply the Rent therefrom first to the payment of Landlord's cost and expenses, including consulting and/or expert and attorneys' fees and expenses incurred by reason of such Lease Default, and the cost and expense of reletting including, but not limited to, repairs, renovation, or alteration of the Leased Premises and then to the amount of Rent and all other sums due from or payable by Tenant hereunder. Tenant remaining liable for all other sums due from or payable by Tenant hereunder and for any deficiency. Tenant shall also be liable for and indemnify Landlord against all amounts owed to Medicare, Medicaid, all applicable third-party payer programs, third party payors, or residents, including, but not limited to, any overpayments received by Tenant, relating to the Term. Any and all such deficiencies shall constitute Additional Rent hereunder and shall be payable by Tenant monthly on the date herein provided for the payment of Rent. In addition to the foregoing remedies, Landlord shall immediately be entitled to retain the Security Deposit and draw on; and retain proceeds of the Letter of Credit, and thereafter Tenant shall have no further claim, right, title or interest therein to the extent of Landlord's claims only.

Landlord acknowledges that its rights of reentry onto the Leased Premises set forth in this Lease do not confer on Landlord the authority to operate a nursing facility as defined in Article 28 of the Public Health Law on the Leased Premises and agrees that except in the event of a Lease Default Landlord will give the DOH, Tower Building, Empire State Plaza, Albany, NY 12237, notification by certified mail of its intent to reenter the Leased Premises or to initiate dispossession proceedings or that the Lease is due to expire at least thirty (30) days prior to the date on which Landlord intends to exercise a right of reentry or to initiate such proceedings or at least sixty (60) days before expiration of the Lease.

Upon receipt of notice from Landlord of its intent to exercise its right of reentry or upon the service of process in dispossession proceedings and sixty (60) days prior to the expiration of the Lease, Tenant shall immediately notify by certified mail the DOH, Tower Building, Empire State Plaza, Albany, NY 12237 (or its then current address), of the receipt of such notice or service of such process or that the Lease is about to expire.

(b) Except as provided in this Lease to the contrary, Rent and other sums not paid when due (unless paid within any applicable grace period) shall bear interest from the date when the same are first payable under the terms of this Lease until the same shall be paid at an annual rate of interest equal to the Overdue Rate.

(c) Upon the filing of a petition by or against Tenant pursuant to the Bankruptcy Code, Tenant, as debtor and as debtor-in-possession, and any trustee who may be appointed shall: (i) timely perform each and every obligation of Tenant under this Lease until such time as this Lease is either rejected or assumed by order of the United States Bankruptcy Court; (ii) pay monthly in advance on the first day of each month as reasonable compensation for use and occupancy of the Leased Premises an amount equal to the Rent and other charges otherwise due pursuant to this Lease; and (iii) reject or assume this Lease within one hundred twenty (120) days after the filing of such petition under the Bankruptcy Code or within such time period as the Bankruptcy Code may allow. Tenant, as debtor and as debtor-in-possession and any trustee shall be deemed to have rejected this Lease in the event of the failure to comply with any of the above. Included within and in addition to any other conditions or obligations imposed upon Tenant or its successor, in the event of assumption and/or assignment is the prior written consent of any mortgagee to which this Lease has been assigned as collateral security.

(d) In the event of termination of this Lease by reason of any Lease Default by Tenant, or upon the expiration of the Term, then, and in any of such events, Tenant, upon Landlord's written request, shall to the greatest extent permitted by law, transfer to Landlord or its designees or assigns, or cause its Subtenants and/or Affiliates, to transfer to Landlord or its designees or assigns, the following: (i) all federal, state or municipal licenses, certifications, certificates, accreditations, approvals, permits, variances, waivers, provider agreements (including non-governmental) and other authorizations which relate to the operation of the Facility; and (ii) the name of the Facility as then commonly known to the general public. Tenant shall also prepare and file all notices required by applicable law in connection with such termination and shall also prepare and timely file all final Medicare and Medicaid cost reports. In the event Tenant fails or refuses to transfer any such licenses, certifications, certificates, accreditations, approvals, permits, variances, waivers, provider agreements, other authorization or trade name, then this provision shall constitute an act of assignment by Tenant to Landlord or its assigns without the necessity of any further written instrument. For this purpose, Tenant constitutes and appoints Landlord its true and lawful attorney-in-fact with full power of substitution to complete or undertake such replacements in the name of Tenant. Such power of attorney shall be deemed to be a power coupled with an interest and cannot be revoked.

(c) Landlord shall have the option of taking over the operation of the Facility, or having the operation of the Facility taken over by a designee, in the event of a termination of this Lease for any reason, without Landlord or designee assuming any of Tenant's liabilities or obligations, including Tenant's liabilities and obligations with respect to employees, such as vacation, sick leave, health insurance and pension liabilities and Tenant's obligations under applicable law to offer and provide group health continuation coverage. Landlord shall give Tenant written notice of Landlord's intent to exercise the right set forth above, in which event, upon the approval of the DOH of the Change of Ownership, Tenant shall and shall cause the Subtenant to immediately turn over possession and control of the Facility without any further action having to be taken on the part of Landlord. At the request of Landlord, Tenant shall and shall cause the Subtenant to turn over any or all of inventories, personal property (including computer and telecommunications equipment but excluding any leased equipment) vehicles, and material contracts (including hospital, transfer, vendor, and managed care contracts).

(f) No failure of Landlord to enforce any rights or remedies upon default of Tenant shall prejudice or affect the rights of Landlord upon any subsequent or similar default.

(g) In the event of a Lease Default by Tenant of any of the terms, covenants, conditions or provisions of this Lease, which Lease Default is not cured within any applicable grace or cure period, Landlord shall have the right to invoke any remedy permitted to Landlord at law, in equity or otherwise. All remedies available to Landlord are declared to be cumulative and concurrent and the exercise of one shall not preclude or waive the right to exercise any other. No termination of this Lease and no taking or recovering of possession of the Leased Premises shall deprive Landlord of any of its remedies or actions against Tenant and Tenant shall remain liable for all past or future Rent, including all taxes, insurance premiums and all other charges and Rent payable by Tenant under this Lease, during and for the balance of the Term hereof. The bringing of any action for Rent or other default shall not be construed as a waiver of the right to obtain possession of the Premises.

(h) If suit shall be brought for recovery of possession of the Leased Premises, for the recovery of Rent, or any other amount due under the provisions of this Lease, or because of the breach of any other covenant herein contained on the part of Tenant to be kept or performed, and breach shall be established, Tenant shall pay to Landlord all expenses, including reasonable attorney fees, incurred therefor. (This subsection shall survive termination of this Lease.

Section 16.2 Facility Operating Deficiencies. On written notice of a request therefor by Landlord to Tenant, upon a Lease Default and for a period of time necessary to fully remedy the Lease Default, Tenant shall engage the services of a consultant, unaffiliated with Tenant and approved by Landlord, which approval shall not be unreasonably withheld, to review the management of the facility for the purpose of making recommendations to remedy the Lease Default. Subject to applicable legal requirements governing confidentiality of patient records, the consultant shall have complete access to the Facility, its records, offices and facilities, in order that it may carry out its duties. Tenant shall cause such consultant to prepare and deliver to Landlord and Tenant a written report of its recommendations within ten (10) days after its engagement. If Tenant shall fail to designate a consultant approved by Landlord as provided above within five (5) days after Tenant's receipt of Landlord's notice, Landlord may designate such consultant by further notice to Tenant. Tenant shall be responsible for payment of all fees and expenses reasonably charged and incurred by the consultant in carrying out its duties. Tenant shall promptly implement any and all reasonable recommendations made by such consultant in order to promptly correct or cure the Lease Default; provided, however, that in no event shall Tenant implement any such recommendations if the same would constitute a violation of applicable legal requirements, violate any rule or regulation of the DOH, or would otherwise cause a Lease Default hereunder (e.g., a transfer or change in use of the Leased Premises), unless Landlord consents in writing to such Lease Default, which consent may be given or withheld in Landlord's sole and absolute discretion. Nothing herein shall impose any liability or obligation on Landlord to (a) request the appointment of a consultant or (b) otherwise remedy the Facility Operating Deficiency(ies) nor shall it deem Landlord an operator of the Facility.

Section 16.3 Receivership.

Tenant acknowledges that one of the rights and remedies available under applicable law for nursing facilities which fail to comply with the conditions of participation for Medicaid or Medicaid is to apply to a court of competent jurisdiction for the appointment of a receiver to take possession of the Facility, to collect the rents, issues, profits and income of the Facility and to manage the operation of the Facility. Tenant further acknowledges that the revocation, suspension or material limitation of the certification of the Facility for provider status under Medicare or Medicaid (or successor programs) and/or the revocation, suspension or material limitation of a license relating to the operation of the Facility for its intended use under the laws of the State of New York will materially and irreparably impair the value of Landlord's investment in the Facility. Therefore, in the event of a Lease Default, and in addition to any other right or remedy of Landlord under this Lease, at the request of Landlord, Tenant shall request DOH to, or to the extent permissible under law, Tenant shall, petition any appropriate court, for the appointment of a receiver to take possession of the Facility, to manage the operation of the Facility under Tenant's licenses and certifications, to collect and disburse all rents, issues, profits and income generated thereby and to preserve or replace to the extent possible any such license and provider certification for the Facility or to otherwise substitute the licensee or provider thereof. The receiver shall be entitled to a reasonable fee for its services as a receiver. All such fees and other expenses of the receivership estate shall be added to the monthly Rent due to Landlord under this Lease as Additional Rent. Tenant hereby irrevocably stipulates to the voluntary appointment of a receiver under such circumstances and for such purposes and agrees not to contest such appointment.

Section 16.4 Tenant's Waiver, Mitigation. In connection with the exercise by Landlord of any of its remedies under this Section 16, including the termination of this Lease, in whole or in part, Tenant waives, to the maximum extent permitted by applicable Laws, (1) any right of redemption, re-entry or repossession, (2) the benefit of any moratorium laws or any laws now or hereafter in force exempting property from liability for rent or for debt, (3) any duty on the part of Landlord to mitigate the damages recoverable from Tenant on account of any Lease Default by Tenant, except that, notwithstanding the foregoing or anything in this Lease to the contrary, Landlord agrees to comply with any duty to mitigate damages where applicable Laws do not allow Tenant to waive such right, (4) the right to interpose any counterclaim (other than compulsory counterclaims) in any summary proceeding instituted by Landlord against Tenant in any court or in any action instituted by Landlord in any court for unpaid Rent under this Lease, and (5) any other right provided to Tenant under applicable Laws relating to a breach of or Lease Default under this Lease, including any rights to cure such breach or Lease Default.

ENTRY AND REIMBURSEMENT RIGHTS OF LANDLORD

Section 17.1 Entry and Reimbursement Rights of Landlord. In addition to those rights set forth in Section 7.2 of this Lease, Landlord reserves the right at all reasonable times during business hours and upon at least twenty-four (24) hours' advance oral notice to go upon and inspect the Facility and every part thereof (subject to applicable Laws pertaining to patient confidentiality and privacy and the confidentiality of medical records). If Landlord shall make any payments or perform any repairs on behalf of Tenant which are Tenant's obligation and which Tenant has failed to make after applicable notice from Landlord, then any reasonable amounts so paid by Landlord are agreed and declared to be Additional Rent, and shall be due and payable to Landlord by Tenant upon submission to Tenant of an invoice, bill, or statement therefor, together with interest charged at the Overdue Rate commencing on the date of such invoice, bill, or statement. Nothing in this Section 17.1 shall impose any liability or obligation upon Landlord.

No waiver shall be effective unless set forth in writing and signed by the party against whom such waiver is asserted.

Section 20.3 Delay Not a Waiver. Neither any failure nor any delay on the part of any party hereto in insisting upon strict performance of any terms, condition, covenant or agreement, or exercising any right, power, remedy or privilege hereunder, or any other document or instrument entered into or delivered in connection herewith or pursuant hereto, shall operate as or constitute a waiver thereof, nor shall a single or partial exercise thereof preclude any other future exercise, or the exercise of any other right, power, remedy or privilege. A waiver of one default with respect to any Person shall not be construed to be a waiver of any subsequent default with respect to such Person or any other Person or to impair any remedy, right or power consequent thereon.

All representations, promises and prior or contemporaneous undertakings between such Parties are merged into and expressed in this instrument, and any and all prior agreements between such Parties are hereby canceled. All counterparts will be construed together and shall constitute one lease. Signatures transmitted by email or PDF's shall have the same effect as original signatures.

Section 20.8 Survival of Representations and Warranties. Except as specifically provided otherwise in this Lease, all representations and warranties of Landlord and Tenant shall survive the Term of this Lease.

Section 20.9 Use of Brokers. Landlord and Tenant each represent and warrant to the other that no broker, finder or other person has been involved in regard to this Lease. Landlord and Tenant hereby agree to indemnify, defend and hold the other harmless from and against any and all claims, liabilities, costs and expenses of any kind (including the injured party's reasonable attorneys' fees and expenses) in any way relating to or arising from a claim by any Person that such Person acted on behalf of a party to this Lease in connection with the transactions contemplated herein. The provisions of this Section 20.9 shall survive the expiration and termination of the Lease.

Section 20.10 Owner for Federal Tax Purposes. It is hereby agreed between Landlord and Tenant that for federal, state and local income tax purposes Landlord will be the owner of the Leased Premises and Tenant will be the lessee thereof, and each party hereto agrees to characterize this Lease as a lease for federal, state and local income tax purposes and to file all tax returns consistent therewith.

Section 20.11 Estoppel Certificates. Tenant shall, without charge, at any time and from time to time, within ten (10) days after written request by Landlord or Mortgagee, deliver a written instrument to Landlord or any other person specified by Landlord, duly executed and acknowledged, certifying the following and such other matters as may be reasonably required by Landlord, including without limitation, current financial information relating to Tenant:

- (a) That Tenant has accepted and is in possession of the Leased Premises;

- (d) That no Lease Defaults exist or are continuing; and
- (e) The dates to which Rent and all other charges hereunder have been paid.

Section 20.12 Confidentiality. (c) Landlord and Tenant agree to keep all aspects of (but not the existence of) this Lease confidential, and shall not disclose to any person other than the members, managers, owners, directors, officers, employees, agents, advisors, affiliates, brokers, lenders, attorneys or accountants (collectively the "Representatives") of the Parties hereto on a need-to-know basis, or to any Governmental Authority pursuant to regulatory authority, any confidential or proprietary information, knowledge or data concerning the business, affairs, operations, secrets, dealings or finances of the other party furnished directly or indirectly by such other party (collectively referred to as the "Confidential Information"). As used in this Lease, the term "Confidential Information" does not include any information which: (i) at the time of disclosure is generally available to and known by the public (other than as a result of a disclosure directly or indirectly by either party or their Representatives); (ii) was available to either party on a non-confidential basis from a source other than a party to this Lease or its Representatives, provided that such source is not, and was not bound by a confidentiality agreement with the party hereto; (iii) has been independently acquired or developed by either party or their Representatives without violating any of the obligations hereunder; (iv) is required by law to be disclosed; or (v) relates to the tax structure, tax strategy or tax planning of this transaction.

(f) In the event that either party or any of the Representatives receives notice of a legal request for disclosure of any of the Confidential Information (by deposition, interrogatory, request for documents, subpoena, civil investigative demand or similar process), the party receiving such notice ("Receiving Party") shall promptly notify the other party ("Notified Party") so that the Notified Party may seek a protective order or other appropriate remedy if it chooses to do so. Failure by the Notified Party to take action to seek a protective order or other remedy and to notify the Receiving Party of such action prior to the required disclosure date, shall be deemed a waiver of the provisions of this section. In the event that a protective order or other remedy is not obtained or that the Notified Party waives compliance with the provisions hereof, the Receiving Party shall exercise its best efforts to obtain a confidentiality agreement or protective order concerning the Confidential Information, and in the absence thereof, shall disclose only that portion of the Confidential Information which it is advised by written opinion of counsel is legally required to be disclosed, or which is compelled by court order.

(g) In the event of any breach or threatened breach hereof, Landlord or Tenant shall be entitled to equitable relief, including a temporary preliminary and permanent injunction and specific performance, in addition to all other remedies available to them at law or in equity.

(h) Notwithstanding anything herein to the contrary, Landlord (and each employee, agent, or other Representative of Landlord) may disclose to any and all persons, without limitation of any kind, the tax treatment and tax structure of this Lease, related documents and all materials of any kind (including opinions or other tax analyses) that are provided to Landlord relating to such tax treatment and tax structure. For this purpose, the tax treatment of a transaction is the purported or claimed U.S. federal income tax treatment of the transaction and the tax structure of a transaction is any fact that may be relevant to understanding the purported or claimed U.S. federal income tax treatment of the transaction.

Section 20.13 Holdover. If, at the expiration of the Term, or earlier termination of the Lease, Tenant continues to occupy the Leased Premises except during a Reimbursement Period, with Landlord's consent, such holding over shall not constitute a renewal of this Lease, but Tenant shall be a Tenant from month-to-month at 300% of the most recent Rent payable by Tenant hereunder, at Landlord's sufferance, and under the same terms and conditions as were in force and effect at the expiration of the Term (except only as to the Term), and except that in the event Tenant shall continue to occupy the Leased Premises after the expiration of the Term, without a duly executed extension agreement in writing having been entered into by and between Landlord and Tenant, then if Landlord shall suffer any damage, loss, cost or expense as a result of such holdover, then Tenant, in addition to such increased Rent, shall pay the amount thereof to Landlord immediately on demand. The provisions of this Section shall be deemed to be "an agreement expressly provided" otherwise as provided in Section 232-C of the Real Property Law of the State of New York, Holding Over. Nothing contained herein shall constitute the consent, express or implied, of Landlord to the holding over of Tenant after the Expiration Date or earlier termination of this Lease, nor shall anything contained herein be deemed to limit Landlord's remedies.

Section 20.14 Tenant's Waiver of Claim for Physical Injury. Landlord and Landlord's Indemnitees shall not be liable for, and Tenant waives and indemnifies Landlord and Landlord's Indemnitees against all claims for, damage or injury to person or property sustained by Tenant or any person claiming through Tenant, or otherwise, resulting from any accident or occurrence in, about, or upon the Leased Premises, whether occurring as a result of Landlord's active or passive negligence, or otherwise.

(a) Such waiver shall include, but not be limited to, claims for damage resulting from: (i) any equipment or appliances becoming out of repair or any other capital improvement, replacement, repair or maintenance; (ii) injury done or occasioned by wind; (iii) any defect in or failure of plumbing, heating, or air conditioning equipment, electric wiring, gas, water and steam pipes, stairs, rail or walks; (iv) broken glass; (v) the backing up of any sewer pipe or washstand, water closet, waste pipe, drain or any other pipe or tank in, upon or about the Leased Premises; (vi) the escape of steam or hot water; (vii) water, snow or ice being upon, falling from or coming through the roof, skylight, trap door, stairs, walks or any other place upon or near the Leased Premises; (viii) the falling of any fixture, plaster, drywall or stucco; and (ix) any act, omission or negligence of trespassers.

Section 20.15 Binding Effect. This Lease does not constitute an offer to lease and shall not bind Landlord or Tenant unless and until each such party elects to be bound hereby by executing and delivering to the other party an executed original counterpart hereof.

Section 20.16 Default by Landlord. Landlord shall in no event be charged with default in the performance of any of its obligations hereunder unless and until Landlord shall have failed to perform such obligations within sixty (60) days of when they are due to be performed, except in cases when documents are required or consents needed in less than sixty (60) days in which case failure to render timely shall be deemed to be approval or consent of Landlord (or such additional time as is reasonably required to correct any such default) except for Landlord's default in making timely payment of taxes and interest, in which case Landlord shall be in default when such payments are delinquent or past due. Tenant agrees to give to the holder of record of any mortgage covering the Leased Premises notice simultaneously with any notice given to Landlord to correct any default of Landlord as hereinabove provided and agrees that the holder of record of any mortgage shall have the right, after receipt of notice of such default, within sixty (60) days after the expiration of Tenant's applicable cure period with respect thereto, to correct or remedy such default before Tenant may take any action under this Lease by reason of such default. Landlord shall also give to the holder of any mortgage copies of any notices of default which it may give or send to Tenant.

Section 20.17 Liens. Tenant shall not do or suffer anything to be done whereby the Leased Premises, or any portion thereof, or any interest therein, may be encumbered by any liens of mechanics, laborers, or materialmen, chattel mortgages or any other liens. Tenant shall, whenever and as often as any such liens are filed against the Leased Premises, or any portion thereof, purporting to be for labor or material furnished or to be furnished to Tenant, discharge the same of record within thirty (30) days after the date of filing by payment, bonding or otherwise, as provided by law. In the event of the default of Tenant in procuring the discharge, as aforesaid, of any such lien, Landlord may, with five (5) days prior notice, procure such discharge and the expenses incurred by Landlord in obtaining such discharge shall be paid by Tenant as Additional Rent within ten (10) days after notice from Landlord of the amount thereof.

Section 20.18 Publicity. All news releases, publicity or advertising by Tenant or their Affiliates through any media intended to reach the general public which refers to Landlord, or its Affiliates, this Lease or the purchase of the Real Property shall be subject to the prior written approval of Landlord.

Section 20.19 Trial by Jury. TENANT HEREBY AGREES NOT TO ELECT A TRIAL BY JURY OF ANY ISSUE TRIABLE OF RIGHT BY JURY, AND WAIVES ANY RIGHT TO TRIAL BY JURY FULLY TO THE EXTENT THAT ANY SUCH RIGHT SHALL NOW OR HEREAFTER EXIST WITH REGARD TO THIS LEASE, OR ANY CLAIM, COUNTERCLAIM OR OTHER ACTION ARISING IN CONNECTION THEREWITH. THIS WAIVER OF RIGHT TO TRIAL BY JURY IS GIVEN KNOWINGLY AND VOLUNTARILY BY TENANT, AND IS INTENDED TO ENCOMPASS INDIVIDUALLY EACH INSTANCE AND EACH ISSUE AS TO WHICH THE RIGHT TO A TRIAL BY JURY WOULD OTHERWISE ACCRUE. LANDLORD IS HEREBY AUTHORIZED TO FILE A COPY OF THIS PARAGRAPH IN ANY PROCEEDING AS CONCLUSIVE EVIDENCE OF THIS WAIVER BY TENANT.

Section 20.20 Construction and Interpretation. The Parties have each negotiated the terms and conditions hereof and reviewed this Lease carefully. It is the intent of the Parties that each word, phrase, sentence and other part hereof shall be given its plain meaning, and that rules of interpretation or construction of contracts that would construe any ambiguity of any part hereof against the draftsman, by virtue of being the draftsman, shall not apply.

Section 20.21 Accord and Satisfaction. No payment by Tenant or receipt by Landlord of a lesser amount than shall be due hereunder, shall be deemed to be other than a payment on account nor shall any endorsement or statement on any check or any letter accompanying any check or payment as rent be given any effect or be deemed an accord and satisfaction, and Landlord may accept such checks without prejudice to any other rights or remedies which Landlord may have.

Section 20.22 Captions and Headings. The captions and headings set forth in this Lease are included for convenience and reference only, and the words obtained therein shall in no way be held or deemed to define, limit, describe, explain, modify, amplify or add to the interpretation, construction or meaning of, or the scope or intent of, this Lease, or any parts hereof or thereof.

Section 20.23 Time is of the Essence Time is of the essence of each and every term, condition, covenant and warranty set forth herein or in any of the other Lease Documents.

Section 20.24 Successors and Assigns. This Lease and the other Lease Documents shall (a) be binding upon Tenant and Tenant's legal representatives and permitted successors and permitted assigns, and (b) inure to the benefit of Landlord and any other person or entity who may now or hereafter hold the interest of Landlord under this Lease and their respective successors and assigns.

Section 20.25 No Third Party Beneficiaries This Lease is solely for the benefit of Landlord, its successors and assigns, and Tenant, and nothing contained herein shall confer upon any person other than Tenant or Landlord or their respective successors and assigns, any right to insist upon or to enforce the performance or observance of any of the obligations contained herein, except only as may be otherwise specifically provided for in this Lease. All conditions to the obligations of Landlord to advance or make available proceeds of insurance or condemnation are imposed solely and exclusively for the benefit of Landlord, its successors and assigns. No other person or entity shall have standing to require satisfaction of such conditions in accordance with their terms, and no other person or entity shall, under any circumstances, be a beneficiary of such conditions, any or all of which may be freely waived in whole or in part by Landlord at any time, if in Landlord's sole and absolute discretion, Landlord deems it advisable or desirable to do so.

Section 20.26 Non-Competition and Non-Solicitation.

Tenant agrees to the following restrictive covenants and agreements which covenants are not severable from this Lease and which are included to protect the value of the Leased Premises. Accordingly, Tenant agrees that it and their Affiliates will not, during the Term of this Lease at any time for a period of two (2) years after the expiration or early termination of this Lease, directly or indirectly, together or alone or in conjunction with any others, engage in the following:

- (i) compete with the business conducted at the Facility, and for those purposes will not own, manage, operate, join, control or participate in, or be connected as an officer, employee, partner, director, trustee or otherwise in any manner with a company which owns or operates (or provides consulting and/or management services to any skilled nursing facility located within the Primary Market of the Facility or (ii) any company providing hospice services in the Commonwealth of Massachusetts, or, otherwise lend credits to a person, firm or entity of a type which they prohibited from owning.

(ii) solicit or hire any then current or former (having provided services during the period commencing one year prior to such date of solicitation or hire) employees of the Facility (except for employment at the Facility),

(iii) solicit or cause any then current resident of the Facility to move to another nursing facility unless, except during the Term of this Lease the Facility can no longer provide adequate care for such resident.

Tenant acknowledges and agrees that the remedy at law for any breach or threat of breach of the foregoing agreements will be inadequate and that Landlord shall be entitled to injunctive relief in addition to any rights or remedies available to it for any breach or threat of breach hereof. The foregoing covenants shall be deemed to be severable and if the same be held invalid by reason of length of time or area covered, or both, the Tenant agrees that such length of time or area covered, or either of them, shall be reduced to the extent necessary to cure such invalidity and the provisions hereof shall be enforceable to the fullest extent permitted by law.

If Landlord subdivides the Leased Premises there shall be no change in the Rent payable hereunder. After any such subdivision, Tenant shall have no rights to any land which is no longer part of the Leased Premises and Landlord may sell, lease or develop any land which is no longer part of the Leased Premises. If Landlord elects to subdivide the Leased Premises Tenant shall cooperate with Landlord and take all actions reasonably requested by Landlord to effect such subdivision.

Section 20.28 Landlord Not in Control; No Partnership. None of the covenants or other provisions contained in this Lease shall, or shall be deemed to, give Landlord the right or power to exercise control over the affairs or management of Tenant, the power of Landlord being limited to the rights to exercise the remedies referred to in this Lease. The relationship between Tenant, on the one hand, and Landlord, on the other hand, is, and at all times shall remain, solely that of landlord and tenant. No covenant or provision of this Lease is intended, nor shall it be deemed or construed, to create a partnership, joint venture, agency or common interest in profits or income between Landlord, on the one hand, and Tenant, on the other hand. Landlord undertakes or assumes no responsibility or duty to Tenant or to any other person with respect to the Facility or this Lease, except as expressly provided in this Lease; and notwithstanding any other provision of this Lease (a) Landlord shall not be construed as, a partner, joint venturer, alter ego, manager, controlling person or other business associate or participant of any kind of Tenant or its stockholders, members, or partners and Landlord never intends to ever assume such status; (b) Landlord shall not in any event be liable for any debts, expenses or losses incurred or sustained by Tenant; and (c) Landlord shall not be deemed responsible for or a participant in any acts, omissions or decisions of Tenant or their stockholders, members, or partners. Landlord, on the one hand, and Tenant, on the other hand, disclaim any intention to create any partnership, joint venture, agency or common interest in profits or income between Landlord, on the one hand, and Tenant, on the other hand, or any sharing of liabilities, losses, costs or expenses.

Tenant further agrees to cooperate with Landlord and with its lenders who are processing and will be making HUD Loans to Landlords.

Section 20.30 Capitalized Terms. To the extent capitalized terms used herein are not defined, they shall have the same meaning as capitalized terms in the Loan Documents.

Section 20.31 Affiliate. The term "Affiliate" shall mean, as to any Person, any other Person that, directly or indirectly, is in control of, is controlled by or is under common control with such Person or is a director or officer of such Person or of an Affiliate of such Person.

Tenant represents and warrants to Landlord, to its actual knowledge after making due inquiry, that neither Tenant nor any holder of a direct or indirect interest in Tenant (i) is under investigation by any governmental authority for, or has been charged with, or convicted of, money laundering under 18 U.S.C. §§ 1956 and 1957, drug trafficking, terrorist-related activities or other money laundering predicate crimes, or any violation of the BSA, (ii) has been assessed civil penalties

Health Care Representations. Tenant, for itself, and for the Subtenants, do hereby represent and warrant to Landlord, its successors and assigns, as of the date of the Lease, that:

(a) All Medicare and Medicaid provider agreements, certificates of need, if applicable, certifications, governmental licenses, permits, regulatory agreements or other agreements and approvals, including certificates of operation, completion and occupancy, and state nursing facility licenses or other licenses required by Health Care Authorities (as defined in the Lease) for the legal use, occupancy and operation of the Facility (collectively, the "Health Care Licenses") for the Facility have been obtained by the party required to hold such Health Care Licenses and are in full force and effect, including approved provider status in any approved third-party payor program. Each Subtenant (hereinafter "Operator") owns and/or possesses, and holds free from restrictions or conflicts with the rights of others, all such Health Care Licenses and will operate or cause the Facility to be operated in such a manner that the Health Care Licenses shall remain in full force and effect;

(b) The Facility is duly licensed as a skilled nursing facility as required under the applicable laws of the State of New York. The licensed bed capacity of the Facility and the actual bed count operated at the Facility is 160. The Tenant has not applied to reduce the number of licensed or certified beds of the Facility or to move or transfer the right to any and all of the licensed or certified beds of the Facility to any other location or to amend or otherwise change the Facility and/or the number of beds approved by the DOH or other applicable state licensing agency, and there are no proceedings or actions pending or contemplated to reduce the number of licensed or certified beds of the Facility;

(c) The Health Care License with respect to the Facility (i) has not been and will not be (A) transferred to any location other than the Facility or (B) pledged as collateral security (other than any pledge as collateral security to Tenant's accounts receivable lender approved by Landlord which pledge is subject to the interests of (x) Landlord under the Lease and (y) Mortgagee, including the less and security interests of the Loan Documents), (ii) is and will continue to be held free from restrictions or known conflicts that would materially impair the use or operation of the Facility as intended, and (iii) is not provisional, probationary, or restricted in any way, except in instances where a Governmental Authority or Health Care Authority has issued a provisional, probationary or restricted license, permit or certification in the ordinary course pending issuance of a final license, permit or certification;

(d) Tenant has or will take any action to rescind, withdraw, revoke, amend, modify, supplement or otherwise alter the nature, tenor or scope of any Health Care

License or applicable provider payment program participation other than non-material alterations effected in the ordinary course of business;

(e) Tenant and the operation of the Facility are in material compliance with the applicable provisions of the Law and all orders, standards, policies, restrictions or rules of any Health Care Authority having jurisdiction over the ownership, use, occupancy or operation of the Facility, including (i) staffing requirements, (ii) health and fire safety codes including quality and safety standards, (iii) accepted professional standards and principles that apply to the Operator's provision of services at the Facility, (iv) federal, state or local laws, rules, regulations or published interpretations or policies relating to the prevention of fraud and abuse, (v) insurance, reimbursement and cost reporting requirements, government payment program requirements and disclosure of ownership and related information requirements, (vi) requirements of applicable Health Care Authorities, including those relating to the Facility's physical structure and environment, licensing, quality and adequacy of nursing facility care, distributions of pharmaceuticals, rate setting, equipment, personnel, operating policies, and conditions of Facility and services, and (vii) any other applicable laws, regulations or agreements for reimbursement for the type of care or services provided by Tenant and/ with respect to the Facility. As used herein, "material compliance" means a level of compliance that would keep Tenant and/ (and the operation of the Facility) free from any final orders or sanctions by any Governmental Authority or Health Care Authority having jurisdiction over the operation of the Facility and would not adversely affect Tenant's and/'s operations, including, but not limited to, its right to receive reimbursement or insurance payments;

(f) Tenant and the Facility are each in material compliance with the requirements for participation in the Medicare and Medicaid programs with respect to the Facility that currently participates in such programs and has a current provider agreement under Title XVIII and/or XIX of the Social Security Act which is in full force and effect. Facility has not had any deficiencies on its most recent survey (standard or complaint) that would result in a denial of payment for new admissions with no opportunity to correct prior to termination. The Facility had not any deficiencies at "level G" or above on its most recent survey (standard or complaint), nor has Tenant been cited with any substantial quality of care deficiencies (as that term is defined in Part 488 of 42 C.F.R.) for the past two consecutive surveys. The Facility has not been designated as a Special Focus Facility (as such term is defined by the Centers for Medicare and Medicaid Services Special Focus Facility Program);

(g) Neither Tenant nor the Facility is a target of, participant in, or subject to any action, proceeding, suit, audit, investigation or sanction by any Health Care Authority or any other administrative or investigative body or entity or any other third party payor or any patient or resident (including, without limitation, whistleblower suits, or suits brought pursuant to federal or state False Claims Act, and Medicaid/Medicare/State fraud/abuse laws, but excluding medical malpractice claims and other civil liability lawsuits for which the Facility is maintaining insurance coverage in the ordinary course of business) which may result, directly or indirectly or with the passage of time, in the imposition of a fine, penalty, alternative, interim or final sanction, a lower rate certification, recoupment, recovery, suspension or discontinuance of all or part of reimbursement from any Health Care Authority, third-party payor, insurance carrier or private payor, a lower reimbursement rate for services rendered to eligible patients, or any other civil or criminal remedy, or which could reasonably be expected to have a material adverse effect on Landlord, Tenant, or the operation of the Facility, including the Facility's ability to accept or retain residents, or which could result in the appointment of a receiver or manager, or in the modification, limitation, annulment, revocation, transfer, surrender, suspension or other impairment of a Health Care License, or effect Tenant's participation in the Medicare, Medicaid, or third-party payor program, as applicable, or any successor program thereto, at current rate certification, nor has any such action, proceeding, suit, investigation or audit been threatened;

(b) There are no agreements with residents of the Facility or with any other persons or organizations that deviate in any material adverse respect from or that conflict with, any statutory or regulatory requirements. All resident records at the Facility, including patient and/or resident accounts records, are true, complete, and correct in all material respects;

(j) Other than the Medicare, Medicaid, and Veteran Administration programs, Tenant is not a participant in any federal, state or local program whereby any federal, state or local government or quasi-governmental body, or any intermediary, agency, board or other authority or entity may have the right to recover funds with respect to any Individual Property by reason of the advance of federal, state or local funds, including, without limitation, those authorized under the Hill-Burton Act (42 U.S.C. 291, et seq.). Tenant has received no notice, and is not aware of any violation of applicable anti-trust laws;

(n) Tenant is in compliance with the Health Care Insurance Portability and Accountability Act of 1996, and the regulations promulgated thereunder;

(o) There is no threatened or pending revocation, suspension, termination, probation, restriction, limitation, or non-renewal affecting Tenant and/or the Facility or provider agreement with any third-party payor, Medicare or Medicaid;

(o) All Medicare, Medicaid, and private insurance cost reports and financial reports submitted by or on behalf of the Facility are and will continue to be materially accurate and complete and have not been and will not be misleading in any material respects;

(q) Any existing agreement relating to the management or operation of the Facility is in full force and effect and is not in default by any party. In the event any management or operating agreement is terminated or in the event of foreclosure or other acquisition, the subsequent operator need not obtain a certificate of need prior to applying for and receiving a license to operate the Facility or prior to receiving Medicare or Medicaid payments, as applicable;

(r) There are no actions, suits, or proceedings at law or in equity by any person or entity, including any Governmental Authority or any Health Care Authority or other agency now pending or threatened against or affecting Tenant and/or the Facility, which actions, suits or proceedings, individually or collectively, if determined against Tenant and/or the Facility, might materially adversely affect the condition (financial or otherwise) or business of Tenant and/or the condition, ownership or operation of the Facility.

Exhibit 2 to Verified Complaint

GUARANTY OF LEASE

THIS GUARANTY OF LEASE (this "Guaranty") is made as of November 19, 2015, by Lizer Jozosevic ("Guarantor"), to WHITE PLAINS HEALTHCARE PROPERTIES I, LLC, a Massachusetts limited liability company ("Landlord").

RECITALS

- A. Landlord has been requested by HBL SNF, LLC a New York Limited Liability Company ("Tenant") to enter into an Amended and Restated Lease and Security Agreement dated as of November 19, 2015 (the "Lease"), whereby Landlord would lease to Tenant, and Tenant would lease from Landlord, certain premises located in White Plains, New York, as more particularly described in the Lease (the "Premises").
- B. Tenant is owned by Guarantor, and Guarantor will derive substantial economic benefit from the execution and delivery of the Lease.
- C. Guarantor acknowledges that Landlord would not enter into the Lease unless this Guaranty accompanied the execution and delivery of the Lease.
- D. Guarantor hereby acknowledges receipt of a copy of the Lease.

NOW, THEREFORE, in consideration of the execution and delivery of the Lease and of other good and valuable consideration, the receipt and sufficiency of which are hereby acknowledged, Guarantor covenants and agrees as follows:

1. DEFINITIONS. Defined terms used in this Guaranty and not otherwise defined herein have the meanings assigned to them in the Lease.

2. COVENANTS OF GUARANTOR.

2.1 Guarantor absolutely, unconditionally and irrevocably guarantees, as a primary obligor and not merely as a surety: (i) the full and prompt payment of all Minimum Rent and Additional Rent and all other rent, sums and charges of every type and nature payable by Tenant under the Lease, whether due by acceleration or otherwise, including costs and expenses of collection (collectively, the "Monetary Obligations"), and (ii) the full, timely and complete performance of all covenants, terms, conditions, obligations, indemnities and agreements to be performed by Tenant under the Lease, including any indemnities or other obligations of Tenant that survive the expiration or earlier termination of the Lease (all of the obligations described in clauses (i) and (ii), are collectively referred to herein as the "Obligations").

2.2 Guarantor agrees with Landlord that (i) any action, suit or proceeding of any kind or nature whatsoever (an "Action") commenced by Landlord against Tenant, Guarantor or any Other Guarantor of the Lease ("Other Guarantor") to enforce the Obligations shall not prejudice in any way Landlord's rights to enforce the Obligations in any subsequent Action against Tenant, Guarantor or any Other Guarantor, (ii) Landlord may, at its option, join Guarantor in any Action against Tenant or any Other Guarantor or seek recovery against Guarantor without Landlord first asserting, prosecuting, or exhausting any remedy or claim.

against Tenant or any Other Guarantor and (ii) Guarantor will be conclusively bound by a judgment entered in any Action in favor of Landlord against Tenant whether or not Guarantor is entered as a party or participates in such Action.

2.3 If Landlord proposes to grant a mortgage on, or refinance any mortgage encumbering the Premises or any portion thereof, Guarantor shall cooperate in the process, and shall permit Landlord and the proposed mortgagee to meet with Guarantor or, if applicable, officers of Guarantor and to discuss Guarantor's business and finances. On request of Landlord, Guarantor agrees to provide any such prospective mortgagee the information to which Landlord is entitled hereunder, provided that if any such information is not publicly available, such nonpublic information shall be made available on a confidential basis. Guarantor agrees to execute, acknowledge and deliver documents requested by the prospective mortgagee (such as a consent to the financing, without encumbering Guarantor's or Tenant's assets, a consent to a collateral assignment of the Lease and of this Guaranty, estoppel certificate, and a subordination, non-disturbance and attornment agreement), customary for tenants and their guarantors to sign in connection with mortgage loans to landlords, so long as such documents are in form then customary among institutional lenders (provided the same do not materially and adversely change Tenant's rights or obligations under the Lease or materially and adversely change Guarantor's rights and obligations under this Guaranty).

3. GUARANTOR'S OBLIGATIONS UNCONDITIONAL.

3.1 This Guaranty is an absolute and unconditional guaranty of payment and of performance, and not of collection, and shall be enforceable against Guarantor without the necessity of the commencement by Landlord of any Action against Tenant, and without the necessity of any notice of nonpayment, nonperformance or nonobservance, or any notice of acceptance of this Guaranty, or of any other notice or demand to which Guarantor might otherwise be entitled, all of which Guarantor hereby expressly waives in advance. The obligations of Guarantor hereunder are independent of, and may exceed, the obligations of Tenant.

3.2 This Guaranty shall apply notwithstanding any extension or renewal of the Lease, or any holdover following the expiration or termination of the Lease Term or any renewal or extension of the Lease Term.

3.3 This Guaranty is a continuing guarantee and will remain in full force and effect notwithstanding, and the liability of Guarantor hereunder shall be absolute and unconditional irrespective of any or all of the following: (i) any renewals, extensions, modifications, iterations or amendments of the Lease (regardless of whether Guarantor consented to or had notice of same); (ii) any releases or discharges of Tenant or any Other Guarantor other than the full release and complete discharge of all of the Obligations; (iii) Landlord's failure or delay to assert any claim or demand or to enforce any of its rights against Tenant or any Other Guarantor; (iv) any extension of time that may be granted by Landlord to Tenant or any Other Guarantor; (v) any assignment or transfer of all of any part of Tenant's interest under the Lease (whether by Tenant, by operation of law, or otherwise); (vi) any subletting, concession, franchising, licensing or permitting of the Premises or any portion thereof; (vii) any changed or different use of the Premises (or any portion thereof);

(viii) any other dealings or matters occurring between Landlord and Tenant or any Other Guarantor; (ix) the taking by Landlord of any additional guarantees, or the receipt by Landlord of any collateral, from Tenant, any Other Guarantor or any other persons or entities; (x) the release by Landlord of any Other Guarantor; (xi) Landlord's release of any security provided under the Lease or any other guaranty; (xii) Landlord's failure to perfect any landlord's lien or other lien or security interest available under applicable legal requirements; (xiii) any assumption by any person of any or all of Tenant's obligations under the Lease or any Other Guarantor's obligations under any other guaranty, or Tenant's assignment of any or all of its rights and interests under the Lease; (xiv) the power or authority or lack thereof of Tenant to execute, acknowledge or deliver the Lease; (xv) the existence, non-existence or lapse at any time of Tenant as a legal entity or the existence, non-existence or termination of any corporate, ownership, business or other relationship between Tenant and Guarantor; (xvi) any sale or assignment by Landlord of any or all of this Guaranty, any other guaranty and the Lease (including any direct or collateral assignment by Landlord to any mortgagee); (xvii) the solvency or lack of solvency of Tenant or any Other Guarantor at any time or from time to time; or (xviii) any other cause, whether similar or dissimilar to any of the foregoing, that might constitute a legal or equitable discharge of Guarantor (whether or not Guarantor shall have knowledge or notice thereof) other than payment and performance in full of the Obligations; (xix) the release or discharge of Tenant in any state or federal creditors' proceedings, receivership, bankruptcy or other proceeding; (xx) the impairment, limitation or modification of the liability of Tenant or the estate of Tenant in bankruptcy, or of any remedy for the enforcement of Tenant's liability under the Lease, resulting from the operation of any present or future provision of the United States Bankruptcy Code (11 U.S.C. § 101 et seq., as amended), or from other statute, or from the order of any court; (xxi) the rejection, disaffirmance or other termination of the Lease in any such proceeding; (xxii) the assertion or the failure to assert by Landlord against Tenant, of any of the rights or remedies reserved to Landlord pursuant to the provisions of the Lease; or (xxiii) if at any time the payment of any amount due under the Lease or this Guaranty is rescinded or must otherwise be returned by Landlord for any reason, in such event, Guarantor shall pay to Landlord an amount equal to any such payment that has been rescinded or returned. This Guaranty shall continue to be effective if at any time the payment of any amount due under the Lease or this Guaranty is rescinded or must otherwise be returned by Landlord for any reason. Without in any way limiting the generality of the foregoing, Guarantor specifically agrees that (A) if Tenant's obligations under the Lease are modified or amended with the express written consent of Landlord, this Guaranty shall extend to such obligations as so amended or modified without notice to, consideration to, or the consent of, Guarantor, and (B) this Guaranty shall be applicable to any obligations of Tenant arising in connection with a termination of the Lease, whether voluntary or otherwise. Guarantor hereby consents, prospectively, to Landlord's taking or entering into any or all of the foregoing actions or omissions. For purposes of this Guaranty and the obligations and liabilities of Guarantor hereunder, "Tenant" shall be deemed to include any and all concessionaires, licensees, franchisees, department operators, assignees, subtenants, permittees or others directly or indirectly operating or conducting a business in or from the Premises or any portion thereof, as fully as if any of the same were the named Tenant under the Lease.

3.4 Notwithstanding anything to the contrary hereunder, Guarantor shall be released and discharged from all liability with respect to any obligations of Tenant under the Lease arising or accruing after the Commencement Date (the "Guaranty Termination Date"); provided that 60 days prior to the Commencement Date Tenant has delivered to Landlord (i) (a)

an unconditional Letter of Credit in accordance with the Section 7.1(a)(i) of the Lease in the amount of $3,700,000, or (b) $3,700,000 in cash to secure the full and timely payment and performance of Tenant's obligations under the Lease, (ii) an agreement by Capital Funding Group, which cannot be amended except by an agreement in writing signed by Landlord, Tenant and Capital Funding Group, in the form attached as Exhibit 7.1(a) of the Lease or otherwise approved by Landlord and Landlord's lenders in their reasonable discretion, wherein and whereby Capital Funding Group agrees to allow Tenant to draw down on its Credit Line each month so as to enable Capital Funding Group to pay directly to Landlord the sum of $506,096.50 per month commencing the Commencement Date and on each day Fixed Rent is due under the Lease for the following 11 months, and (iii) and released to Landlord all funds in the controlled account number [REDACTED] in JPMorgan Chase Bank, N.A. in the amount not less than $1,600,000 to be held as an additional Security Deposit by Landlord. After the Guaranty Termination Date, Guarantor shall continue to remain personally liable pursuant to the terms of this Guaranty for (i) all obligations of Tenant under the Lease which arose or accrued on or prior to the Guaranty Termination Date and (ii) any liability of Tenant arising out of a breach of any warranty or representation of Tenant under Lease, and all documents executed by Tenant in connection therewith, (iii) and any liability of Guarantor arising out of a breach of any warranty or representation hereunder.

4.1 Without limitation of the foregoing, Guarantor waives (i) notice of acceptance of this Guaranty, protest, demand and dishonor, presentment, and demands of any kind now or hereafter provided for by any statute or rule of law, (ii) notice of any notices taken by Landlord or Tenant under the Lease or any other agreement or instrument relating thereto, (iii) notice of any and all defaults by Tenant in the payment of Minimum Rent and Additional Rent or other rent, charges or amounts, or of any other defaults by Tenant under the Lease, (iv) all other notices, demands and protests, and all other formalities of every kind in connection with the enforcement of the Obligations, omission of or delay in which, but for the provisions of this Section 4, might constitute grounds for relieving Guarantor of its obligations hereunder, (v) any requirement that Landlord protest, secure, perfect, insure or proceed against any security interest or lien, or any property subject thereto, or exhaust any right or take any action against Tenant, any Other Guarantor or any other person or entity (including any additional guarantor or Guarantor) or against any collaterals, and (vi) the benefit of any statute of limitations affecting Guarantor's liability under this Guaranty.

4.2 GUARANTOR HEREBY WAIVES TRIAL BY JURY IN ANY ACTION, PROCEEDING OR COUNTERCLAIM BROUGHT BY ANY PERSON OR ENTITY WITH RESPECT TO ANY MATTER WHATSOEVER ARISING OUT OF OR IN ANY WAY CONNECTED WITH THIS GUARANTY; THE LEASE; ANY LIABILITY OR OBLIGATION OF TENANT IN ANY MANNER RELATED TO THE PREMISES OR ANY PORTION THEREOF; ANY CLAIM OF INJURY OR DAMAGE IN ANY WAY RELATED TO THE LEASE AND/OR THE PREMISES (OR ANY PORTION THEREOF); ANY ACT OR OMISSION OF TENANT, ITS AGENTS, EMPLOYEES, CONTRACTORS, SUPPLIERS, SERVANTS, CUSTOMERS, CONCESSIONAIRES, FRANCHISEES, PERMITTEES OR LICENSEES; OR ANY ASPECT OF THE USE OR OCCUPANCY OF, OR THE CONDUCT OF BUSINESS IN, ON OR FROM THE PREMISES (OR ANY PORTION THEREOF).

GUARANTOR SHALL NOT INTERPOSE ANY COUNTERCLAIM OR COUNTERCLAIMS OR CLAIMS FOR SET-OFF, RECOUPMENT OR DEDUCTION OF RENT IN ANY ACTION BROUGHT BY LANDLORD AGAINST GUARANTOR UNDER THIS GUARANTY. GUARANTOR SHALL NOT BE ENTITLED TO MAKE, AND HEREBY WAIVES, ANY AND ALL DEFENSES AGAINST ANY CLAIM ASSERTED BY LANDLORD OR IN ANY SUIT OR ACTION INSTITUTED BY LANDLORD TO ENFORCE THIS GUARANTY OR THE LEASE. IN ADDITION, GUARANTOR HEREBY WAIVES, BOTH WITH RESPECT TO THE LEASE AND WITH RESPECT TO THIS GUARANTY, ANY AND ALL RIGHTS WHICH ARE WAIVED BY TENANT UNDER THE LEASE, IN THE SAME MANNER AS IF ALL SUCH WAIVERS WERE FULLY RESTATED HEREIN. THE LIABILITY OF GUARANTOR UNDER THIS GUARANTY IS PRIMARY AND UNCONDITIONAL.

4.3 Guarantor expressly waives any and all rights to defenses arising by reason of (i) any "one-action" or "anti-deficiency" law or any other law that may prevent Landlord from bringing any action, including a claim for deficiency, against Guarantor before or after Landlord's commencement or completion of any action against Tenant or any Other Guarantor; (ii) ANY ELECTION OF REMEDIES BY LANDLORD (INCLUDING ANY TERMINATION OF THE LEASE) THAT DESTROYS OR OTHERWISE ADVERSELY AFFECTS GUARANTOR'S SUBROGATION RIGHTS OR GUARANTOR'S RIGHTS TO PROCEED AGAINST TENANT FOR REIMBURSEMENT; (iii) any disability, insolvency, bankruptcy, lack of authority or power, death, insanity, minority, dissolution, or other defenses of Tenant, of any other guarantor (or any other Guarantor), or of any other person or entity, or by reason of the cessation of Tenant's liability from any cause whatsoever, other than full and final payment in legal tender and performance of the Obligations; (iv) any right to claim discharge of any or all of the Obligations on the basis of unjustified impairment of any collateral for the Obligations; (v) any change in the relationship between Guarantor and Tenant or any Other Guarantor or any termination of such relationship; (vi) any irregularity, defect or unauthorized action by any or all of Landlord, Tenant, any Other Guarantor or surety, or any of their respective officers, directors or other agents in executing and delivering any instrument or agreements relating to the Obligations or in carrying out or attempting to carry out the terms of any such agreements; (vii) any assignment, endorsement or transfer, in whole or in part, of the Obligations, whether made with or without notice to or consent of Guarantor; (viii) if the recovery from Tenant or any other Person (including any Other Guarantor) becomes barred by any statute of limitations or is otherwise prevented; (ix) the benefits of any and all statutes, laws, rules or regulations applicable in the State of Illinois which may require the prior or concurrent joinder of any other party to any action on this Guaranty; (x) any release or other reduction of the Obligations arising as a result of the expansion, release, substitution, deletion, addition, or replacement (whether or not in accordance with the terms of the Lease) of the Premises or any portion thereof; or (xi) any neglect, delay, omission, failure or refusal of Landlord to take or prosecute any action for the collection or enforcement of any of the Obligations or to foreclose or take or prosecute any action in connection with any lien or right of security (including perfection thereof) existing or to exist in connection with, or as security for, any of the Obligations, it being the intention hereof that Guarantor shall remain liable as a principal on the Obligations notwithstanding any act, omission or event that might, but for the provisions hereof, otherwise operate as a legal or equitable discharge of Guarantor. Guarantor hereby waives all defenses of a surety to which it may be entitled by statute or otherwise.

5.1 Guarantor subordinates to and postpones in favor of the Obligations (i) any present and future debts and obligations of Tenant or any Other Guarantor to Guarantor (the "Indebtedness"), including: (A) salary, bonuses, and other payments pursuant to any employment arrangement; (B) fees, reimbursement of expenses and other payments pursuant to any independent contractor arrangement; (C) principal and interest pursuant to any Indebtedness; (D) distributions payable to any partners, members or shareholders of Guarantor or Affiliates of Guarantor; (E) lease payments pursuant to any leasing arrangement; (F) any management fees; and (G) all rights, liens and security interests of Guarantor, whether now or hereafter arising, in any assets of the Tenant or any Other Guarantor, and (ii) any liens or security interests securing payment of the Indebtedness. Guarantor shall have no right to possession of any assets of Tenant or any Other Guarantor or to foreclose upon any such asset, whether by judicial action or otherwise, unless and until the Obligations have been paid and performed in full. Guarantor agrees that Landlord shall be subrogated to Guarantor with respect to Guarantor's claims against Tenant or any Other Guarantor and Guarantor's rights, liens and security interest, if any, in any of Tenant's or any Other Guarantor's assets and proceeds thereof until all of the Obligations have been paid and performed in full.

5.2 After the occurrence of an Event of Default and until such Event of Default is cured or after the commencement of any bankruptcy or insolvency proceeding by or against Tenant and until such proceeding is dismissed, Guarantor shall not: (i) make any distributions or other payments to any partners, parent entities, or Affiliates of Guarantor (other than to Tenant); or (ii) ask for, sue for, demand, take or receive any payment, by setoff or in any other manner, including the receipt of a negotiable instrument, for all or any part of the Indebtedness owed by Tenant, or any successor or assign of Tenant, including a receiver, trustee or debtor in possession (the term "Tenant" shall include any such successor or assign of Tenant) until the Obligations have been paid in full; however, if Guarantor receives such a payment, Guarantor shall immediately deliver the payment to Landlord for credit against the then outstanding balance of the Obligations, whether matured or unmatured. Notwithstanding anything in this Section 5 to the contrary, after an Event of Default has occurred and is outstanding, Guarantor may make cash contributions to Tenant.

5.3 Guarantor shall not be subrogated, and hereby waives and disclaims any claim or right against Tenant by way of subrogation or otherwise, to any of the rights of Landlord under the Lease or otherwise, or in the Premises (or any portion thereof), which may arise by any of the provisions of this Guaranty or by reason of the performance by Guarantor of any of its Obligations hereunder. Guarantor shall look solely to Tenant for any recoupment of any payments made or costs or expenses incurred by Guarantor pursuant to this Guaranty. If any amount shall be paid to Guarantor on account of such subrogation rights at any time when all of the Obligations shall not have been paid and performed in full, Guarantor shall immediately deliver the payment to Landlord for credit against the then outstanding balance of the Obligations, whether matured or unmatured.

6. REPRESENTATIONS AND WARRANTIES OF GUARANTOR. Guarantor represents and warrants that:

6.1 This Guaranty is valid and binding upon and enforceable against Guarantor without the requirement of further action or condition.

6.2 The execution, delivery and performance by Guarantor of this Guaranty does not and will not (i) contravene any applicable Legal Requirements, the organizational documents of Guarantor, if applicable, any order, writ, injunction, decree applicable to Guarantor, or any contractual restriction binding on or affecting Guarantor or any of its properties or assets, or (ii) result in or require the creation of any lien, security interest or other charge or encumbrance upon or with respect to any of its properties or assets.

6.3 No approval, consent, exemption, authorization or other action by, or notice to, or filing with, any governmental authority is necessary or required in connection with the execution, delivery or performance by, or enforcement against, Guarantor of this Guaranty or any other instrument or agreement required hereunder.

6.4 There is no action, suit or proceeding pending or threatened against or otherwise affecting Guarantor before any court or other governmental authority or any arbitrator that may materially adversely affect Guarantor's ability to perform its obligations under this Guaranty.

6.6 Guarantor has derived or expects to derive financial and other advantages and benefits directly or indirectly, from the making of the Lease and the payment and performance of the Obligations. Guarantor hereby acknowledges that Landlord will be relying upon Guarantor's guarantee, representations, warranties and covenants contained herein.

6.7 All reports, statements (financial or otherwise), certificates and other data furnished by or on behalf of Guarantor to Landlord in connection with this Guaranty or the Lease are: true and correct, in all material respects, as of the applicable date or period provided therein; do not omit to state any material fact or circumstance necessary to make the statements contained therein not misleading; and fairly represent the financial condition of Guarantor as of the respective date thereof; and no material adverse change has occurred in the financial condition of Guarantor since the date of the most recent of such financial statements.

7. NOTICES. Any consents, notices, demands, requests, approvals or other communications given under this Guaranty shall be in writing and shall be given as provided in the Lease, as follows or to such other addresses as either Landlord or Guarantor may designate by notice given to the other in accordance with the provisions of this Section 7:

8. CONSENT TO JURISDICTION. Guarantor hereby (a) consents and submits to the jurisdiction of the courts of the State of New York and the federal courts sitting in the State of New York with respect to any dispute arising, directly or indirectly, out of this Guaranty, (b) waives any objections which the undersigned may have to the laying of venue in any such suit, action or proceeding in either such court, (c) agrees to join Landlord in any petition for removal to either such court, and (d) irrevocably designates and appoints Tenant as its authorized agent to accept and acknowledge on its behalf service of process with respect to any disputes arising, directly or indirectly, out of this Guaranty. The undersigned hereby acknowledges and agrees that Landlord may obtain personal jurisdiction and perfect service of process through Tenant as the undersigned agent, or by any other means now or hereafter permitted by applicable law. Nothing above shall limit Landlord's choice of forum for purposes of enforcing this Guaranty.

9. CERTAIN ADDITIONAL COVENANTS.

9.1 Financial Deliveries. Guarantor shall deliver the following information to Landlord:

9.1.1 As soon as available, and in any event within 120 days after the close of each calendar year, in hard copy and electronic format, in form satisfactory to Landlord, and presented on a consolidated as well as a property-by-property basis, complete financial statements prepared for such year with respect to Guarantor including a balance sheet as of the end of such year, together with related statements of operations, cash flows and changes in equity for such calendar year, prepared in accordance with GAAP applied on a consistent basis.

Upon the delivery of any financial information by or on behalf of Guarantor pursuant to this Section 9 from time to time during the Lease Term, Guarantor shall be deemed (unless Guarantor specifically states otherwise in writing) to automatically represent and warrant to Landlord that the financial information delivered to Landlord is true, accurate and complete, presents fairly the results of operations of Guarantor for the respective periods covered thereby, reflects accurately the books and records of account of Guarantor as of such dates and for such periods, and that there has been no adverse change in the financial condition of Guarantor since the date of the then applicable financial information.

9.2 Assignment; Sale of Assets; Change in Control. Without the prior consent of Landlord, which consent may be withheld or granted in Landlord's sole discretion, Guarantor shall not assign (whether directly or indirectly), in whole or in part, this Guaranty or any obligation hereunder or, through one or more step transactions or tiered transactions, do, or permit to be done, any activity, transaction or Transfer prohibited under Section 10.1 of the Lease.

9.3 Payment Method; Default Interest. Guarantor shall make any payments due hereunder in immediately available funds by wire transfer to Landlord's bank account as notified by Landlord, unless Landlord agrees to another method of payment of immediately available funds. If Guarantor does not pay an amount due hereunder on its due date, Guarantor shall pay, on demand, interest at 18% annually on the amount due for a period ending on the full payment of such amount, including the day of repayment, whether before or after any judgment or award, to the extent permitted under applicable law.

10.1 Guarantor further agrees that Landlord may, without notice, assign this Guaranty in whole or in part. If Landlord disposes of its interest in the Lease, "Landlord," as used in this Guaranty, shall mean Landlord's successors and assigns.

10.2 Guarantor promises to pay all costs of collection or enforcement incurred by Landlord in exercising any remedies provided for in the Lease or this Guaranty whether at law or in equity. If any legal action or proceeding is commenced to interpret or enforce the terms of, or obligations arising out of, this Guaranty, or to recover damages for the breach thereof, the party prevailing in any such action or proceedings shall be entitled to recover from the non-prevailing party all attorneys' fees and reasonable costs and expenses incurred by the prevailing party. As used herein, "attorneys' fees" shall mean the fees and expenses of counsel to the parties hereto, which may include printing, photocopying, duplicating and other expenses, air freight charges, and fees billed for law clerks, paralegals, librarians and others not admitted to the bar but performing services under the supervision of an attorney. The term "attorneys' fees" shall also include all such fees and expenses incurred with respect to appeals, arbitrations and bankruptcy proceedings.

10.3 Guarantor shall, from time to time within 10 days after receipt of Landleord's request, execute, acknowledge and deliver to Landleord a statement certifying that this Guaranty is unmodified and in full force and effect (or if there have been modifications, that the same is in full force and effect as modified and stating such modifications), and setting forth such other information as Landleord may reasonably request. Such certificates may be relied upon by any prospective purchaser, lessor or lender of all or a portion of the Premises (or any portion thereof).

10.4 If any portion of this Guaranty shall be deemed invalid, unenforceable or illegal for any reason, such invalidity, unenforceability or illegality shall not affect the balance of this Guaranty, which shall remain in full force and effect to the maximum permitted extent.

10.5 The provisions, covenants and guarantees of this Guaranty shall be binding upon Guarantor and its heirs, successors, legal representatives and assigns, and shall inure to the benefit of Landleord and its successors and assigns, and shall not be deemed waived or modified unless such waiver or modification is specifically set forth in writing, executed by Landleord or its successors and assigns, and delivered to Guarantor.

10.6 Whenever the words "include", "includes", or "including" are used in this Guaranty, they shall be deemed to be followed by the words "without limitation", and, whenever the circumstances or the context requires, the singular shall be construed as the plural, the masculine shall be construed as the feminine and/or the neuter and vice versa. This Guaranty shall be interpreted and enforced without the aid of any canon, custom or rule of law requiring or suggesting construction against the party drafting or causing the drafting of the provision in question.

10.7 Each of the rights and remedies herein provided are cumulative and not exclusive of any rights or remedies provided by law or in the Lease or this Guaranty.

10.8 The provisions of this Guaranty shall be governed by and interpreted solely in accordance with the internal laws of the State of New York, without giving effect to the principles of conflicts of law.

10.9 The execution of this Guaranty after the execution of the Lease shall not invalidate this Guaranty or lessen the Obligations of Guarantor hereunder.

10.10 This Guaranty may be executed in multiple counterparts, each of which shall be an original, but all of which shall constitute but one instrument. The signature page of any counterpart may be detached therefrom and reattached to any other counterpart to physically form a single document.

10.11 The Recitals set forth above are hereby incorporated by this reference and made a part of this Guaranty. Guarantor hereby represents and warrants that the Recitals are true and correct.

Exhibit 3 to Verified Complaint

GUARANTY OF LEASE

THIS GUARANTY OF LEASE (this "Guaranty") is made as of November 19, 2015, by Mark Newman ("Guarantor"), to WHITE PLAINS HEALTHCARE PROPERTIES I, LLC, a Massachusetts limited liability company ("Landlord").

RECITALS

A. Landlord has been requested by HBI SNE, LLC a New York Limited Liability Company ("Tenant") to enter into an Amended and Restored Lease and Security Agreement dated as of November 19, 2015 (the "Lease"), whereby Landlord would lease to Tenant, and Tenant would lease from Landlord, certain premises located in White Plains, New York, as more particularly described in the Lease (the "Premises").

B. Guarantor will derive substantial economic benefit from the execution and delivery of the Lease.

C. Guarantor acknowledges that Landlord would not enter into the Lease unless this Guaranty accompanied the execution and delivery of the Lease.

D. Guarantor hereby acknowledges receipt of a copy of the Lease.

NOW, THEREFORE, in consideration of the execution and delivery of the Lease and of other good and valuable consideration, the receipt and sufficiency of which are hereby acknowledged, Guarantor covenants and agrees as follows:

1. DEFINITIONS. Defined terms used in this Guaranty and not otherwise defined herein have the meanings assigned to them in the Lease.

2. COVENANTS OF GUARANTOR.

2.1 Guarantor absolutely, unconditionally and irrevocably guarantees, as a primary obligor and not merely as a surety: (i) the full and prompt payment of all Minimum Rent and Additional Rent and all other rent, sums and charges of every type and nature payable by Tenant under the Lease, whether due by acceleration or otherwise, including costs and expenses of collection (collectively, the "Monetary Obligations"), and (ii) the full, timely and complete performance of all covenants, terms, conditions, obligations, indemnities and agreements to be performed by Tenant under the Lease, including any indemnities or other obligations of Tenant that survive the expiration or earlier termination of the Lease (all of the obligations described in clauses (i) and (ii), are collectively referred to herein as the "Obligations").

2.2 Guarantor agrees with Landlord that (i) any action, suit or proceeding of any kind or nature whatsoever (an "Action") commenced by Landlord against Tenant, Guarantor or any Other Guarantor of the Lease ("Other Guarantor") to enforce the Obligations shall not prejudice in any way Landlord's rights to enforce the Obligations in any subsequent Action against Tenant, Guarantor or any Other Guarantor, (ii) Landlord may, at its option, join Guarantor in any Action against Tenant or any Other Guarantor or seek recovery against Guarantor without Landlord first asserting, prosecuting, or exhausting any remedy or claim against Tenant or any Other Guarantor and (iii) Guarantor will be conclusively bound by a judgment entered in any Action in favor of Landlord against Tenant whether or not Guarantor is entered as a party or participates in such Action.

2.3 If Landlord proposes to grant a mortgage on, or refinance any mortgage encumbering the Premises or any portion thereof, Guarantor shall cooperate in the process, and shall permit Landlord and the proposed mortgagee to meet with Guarantor or, if applicable, officers of Guarantor and to discuss Guarantor's business and finances. On request of Landlord, Guarantor agrees to provide any such prospective mortgagee the information to which Landlord is entitled hereunder, provided that if any such information is not publicly available, such nonpublic information shall be made available on a confidential basis. Guarantor agrees to execute, acknowledge and deliver documents requested by the prospective mortgagee (such as a consent to the financing, without encumbering Guarantor's or Tenant's assets, a consent to a collateral assignment of the Lease and of this Guaranty, estoppel certificate, and a subordination, non-disturbance and attornment agreement), customary for tenants and their guarantors to sign in connection with mortgage loans to landlords, so long as such documents are in form then customary among institutional lenders (provided the same do not materially and adversely change Tenant's rights or obligations under the Lease or materially and adversely change Guarantor's rights and obligations under this Guaranty).

3. GUARANTOR'S OBLIGATIONS UNCONDITIONAL.

3.1 This Guaranty is an absolute and unconditional guaranty of payment and of performance, and not of collection, and shall be enforceable against Guarantor without the necessity of the commencement by Landlord of any Action against Tenant, and without the necessity of any notice of nonpayment, nonperformance or nonobservance, or any notice of acceptance of this Guaranty, or of any other notice or demand to which Guarantor might otherwise be entitled, all of which Guarantor hereby expressly waives in advance. The obligations of Guarantor hereunder are independent of, and may exceed, the obligations of Tenant.

3.2 This Guaranty shall apply notwithstanding any extension or renewal of the Lease, or any holdover following the expiration or termination of the Lease Term or any renewal or extension of the Lease Term.

3.3 This Guaranty is a continuing guarantee and will remain in full force and effect notwithstanding, and the liability of Guarantor hereunder shall be absolute and unconditional irrespective of any or all of the following: (i) any renewals, extensions, modifications, alterations or amendments of the Lease (regardless of whether Guarantor consented to or had notice of same); (ii) any releases or discharges of Tenant or any Other Guarantor other than the full release and complete discharge of all of the Obligations; (iii) Landlord's failure or delay to assert any claim or demand or to enforce any of its rights against Tenant or any Other Guarantor; (iv) any extension of time that may be granted by Landlord to Tenant or any Other Guarantor; (v) any assignment or transfer of all of any part of Tenant's interest under the Lease (whether by Tenant, by operation of law, or otherwise); (vi) any subletting, concession, franchising, licensing or permitting of the Premises or any portion thereof; (vii) any changed or different use of the Premises (or any portion thereof);

(viii) any other dealings or matters occurring between Landlord and Tenant or any Other Guarantor; (ix) the taking by Landlord of any additional guarantors, or the receipt by Landlord of any collateral, from Tenant, any Other Guarantor or any other persons or entities; (x) the release by Landlord of any Other Guarantor; (xi) Landlord's release of any security provided under the Lease or any other guaranty; (xii) Landlord's failure to perfect any landlord's lien or other lien or security interest available under applicable Legal Requirements; (xiii) any assumption by any person of any or all of Tenant's obligations under the Lease or any Other Guarantor's obligations under any other guaranty, or Tenant's assignment of any or all of its rights and interests under the Lease; (xiv) the power or authority or lack thereof of Tenant to execute, acknowledge or deliver the Lease; (xv) the existence, non-existence or lapse at any time of Tenant as a legal entity or the existence, non-existence or termination of any corporate, ownership, business or other relationship between Tenant and Guarantor; (xvi) any sale or assignment by Landlord of any or all of this Guaranty, any other guaranty and the Lease (including any direct or collateral assignment by Landlord to any mortgagee); (xvii) the solvency or lack of solvency of Tenant or any Other Guarantor at any time or from time to time; or (xviii) any other cause, whether similar or dissimilar to any of the foregoing, that might constitute a legal or equitable discharge of Guarantor (whether or not Guarantor shall have knowledge or notice thereof) other than payment and performance in full of the Obligations; (xix) the release or discharge of Tenant in any state or federal creditors' proceedings, receivership, bankruptcy or other proceedings; (xx) the impairment, limitation or modification of the liability of Tenant or the estate of Tenant in bankruptcy, or of any remedy for the enforcement of Tenant's liability under the Lease, resulting from the operation of any present or future provision of the United States Bankruptcy Code (11 U.S.C. § 101 et seq., as amended), or from other statute, or from the order of any court; (xxi) the rejection, disaffirmance or other termination of the Lease in any such proceeding; (xxii) the assertion or the failure to assert by Landlord against Tenant, of any of the rights or remedies reserved to Landlord pursuant to the provisions of the Lease; or (xxiii) if at any time the payment of any amount due under the Lease or this Guaranty is rescinded or must otherwise be returned by Landlord for any reason, in such event, Guarantor shall pay to Landlord an amount equal to any such payment that has been rescinded or returned. This Guaranty shall continue to be effective if at any time the payment of any amount due under the Lease or this Guaranty is rescinded or must otherwise be returned by Landlord for any reason. Without in any way limiting the generality of the foregoing, Guarantor specifically agrees that (A) if Tenant's obligations under the Lease are modified or amended with the express written consent of Landlord, this Guaranty shall extend to such obligations as so amended or modified without notice to, consideration to, or the consent of, Guarantor, and (B) this Guaranty shall be applicable to any obligations of Tenant arising in connection with a termination of the Lease, whether voluntary or otherwise. Guarantor hereby consents, prospectively, to Landlord's taking or entering into any or all of the foregoing actions or omissions. For purposes of this Guaranty and the obligations and liabilities of Guarantor hereunder, "Tenant" shall be deemed to include any and all concessionaires, licensees, franchisees, department operators, assignees, subtenants, permittees or others directly or indirectly operating or conducting a business in or from the Premises or any portion thereof, as fully as if any of the same were the named Tenant under the Lease.

3.4 Notwithstanding anything to the contrary hereunder, Guarantor shall be released and discharged from all liability with respect to any obligations of Tenant under the Lease arising or accruing after the Commencement Date (the "Guaranty Termination Date"); provided that 60 days prior to the Commencement Date Tenant has delivered to Landlord (i) (a)

4.1 Without limitation of the foregoing, Guarantor waives (i) notice of acceptance of this Guaranty, protest, demand and dishonor, presentment, and demands of any kind now or hereafter provided for by any statute or rule of law, (ii) notice of any actions taken by Landlord or Tenant under the Lease or any other agreement or instrument relating thereto, (iii) notice of any and all defaults by Tenant in the payment of Minimum Rent and Additional Rent or other rent, charges or amounts, or of any other defaults by Tenant under the Lease, (iv) all other notices, demands and protests, and all other formalities of every kind in connection with the enforcement of the Obligations, omission of or delay in which, but for the provisions of this Section 4, might constitute grounds for relieving Guarantor of its obligations hereunder, (v) any requirement that Landlord protect, secure, perfect, insure or proceed against any security interest or lien, or any property subject thereto, or exhaust any right or take any action against Tenant, any Other Guarantor or any other person or entity (including any additional guarantor or Guarantor) or against any collateral, and (vi) the benefit of any statute of limitations affecting Guarantor's liability under this Guaranty.

4.2 GUARANTOR HEREBY WAIVES TRIAL BY JURY IN ANY ACTION, PROCEEDING OR COUNTERCLAIM BROUGHT BY ANY PERSON OR ENTITY WITH RESPECT TO ANY MATTER WHATSOEVER ARISING OUT OF OR IN ANY WAY CONNECTED WITH THIS GUARANTY; THE LEASE; ANY LIABILITY OR OBLIGATION OF TENANT IN ANY MANNER RELATED TO THE PREMISES OR ANY PORTION THEREOF; ANY CLAIM OF INJURY OR DAMAGE IN ANY WAY RELATED TO THE LEASE AND/OR THE PREMISES (OR ANY PORTION THEREOF); ANY ACT OR OMISSION OF TENANT, ITS AGENTS, EMPLOYEES, CONTRACTORS, SUPPLIERS, SERVANTS, CUSTOMERS, CONCESSIONAIRES, FRANCHISEES, PERMITTEES OR LICENSEES; OR ANY ASPECT OF THE USE OR OCCUPANCY OF, OR THE CONDUCT OF BUSINESS IN, ON OR FROM THE PREMISES (OR ANY PORTION THEREOF).

GUARANTOR SHALL NOT INTERPOSE ANY COUNTERCLAIM OR COUNTERCLAIMS OR CLAIMS FOR SET-OFF, RECOUPMENT OR DEDUCTION OF RENT IN ANY ACTION BROUGHT BY LANDLORD AGAINST GUARANTOR UNDER THIS GUARANTY. GUARANTOR SHALL NOT BE ENTITLED TO MAKE, AND HEREBY WAIVES, ANY AND ALL DEFENSES AGAINST ANY CLAIM ASSERTED BY LANDLORD OR IN ANY SUIT OR ACTION INSTITUTED BY LANDLORD TO ENFORCE THIS GUARANTY OR THE LEASE. IN ADDITION, GUARANTOR HEREBY WAIVES, BOTH WITH RESPECT TO THE LEASE AND WITH RESPECT TO THIS GUARANTY, ANY AND ALL RIGHTS WHICH ARE WAIVED BY TENANT UNDER THE LEASE, IN THE SAME MANNER AS IF ALL SUCH WAIVERS WERE FULLY RESTATED HEREIN. THE LIABILITY OF GUARANTOR UNDER THIS GUARANTY IS PRIMARY AND UNCONDITIONAL.

4.3 Guarantor expressly waives any and all rights to defenses arising by reason of (i) any "one-action" or "anti-deficiency" law or any other law that may prevent Landlord from bringing any action, including a claim for deficiency, against Guarantor before or after Landlord's commencement or completion of any action against Tenant or any Other Guarantor; (ii) ANY ELECTION OF REMEDIES BY LANDLORD (INCLUDING ANY TERMINATION OF THE LEASE) THAT DESTROYS OR OTHERWISE ADVERSELY AFFECTS GUARANTOR'S SUBROGATION RIGHTS OR GUARANTOR'S RIGHTS TO PROCEED AGAINST TENANT FOR REIMBURSEMENT; (iii) any disability, insolvency, bankruptcy, lack of authority or power, death, insanity, minority, dissolution, or other defense of Tenant, of any other guarantor (or any other Guarantor), or of any other person or entity, or by reason of the cessation of Tenant's liability from any cause whatsoever, other than full and final payment in legal tender and performance of the Obligations; (iv) any right to claim discharge of any or all of the Obligations on the basis of unjustified impairment of any collateral for the Obligations; (v) any change in the relationship between Guarantor and Tenant or any Other Guarantor or any termination of such relationship; (vi) any irregularity, defect or unauthorized action by any or all of Landlord, Tenant, any Other Guarantor or surety, or any of their respective officers, directors or other agents in executing and delivering any instrument or agreements relating to the Obligations or in carrying out or attempting to carry out the terms of any such agreements; (vii) any assignment, endorsement or transfer, in whole or in part, of the Obligations, whether made with or without notice to or consent of Guarantor; (viii) if the recovery from Tenant or any other Person (including any Other Guarantor) becomes barred by any statute of limitations or is otherwise prevented; (ix) the benefits of any and all statutes, laws, rules or regulations applicable in the State of Illinois which may require the prior or concurrent joinder of any other party to any action on this Guaranty; (x) any release or other reduction of the Obligations arising as a result of the expansion, release, substitution, deletion, addition, or replacement (whether or not in accordance with the terms of the Lease) of the Premises or any portion thereof; or (xi) any neglect, delay, omission, failure or refusal of Landlord to take or prosecute any action for the collection or enforcement of any of the Obligations or to foreclose or take or prosecute any action in connection with any lien or right of security (including perfection thereof) existing or to exist in connection with, or as security for, any of the Obligations, it being the intention hereof that Guarantor shall remain liable as a principal on the Obligations notwithstanding any act, omission or event that might, but for the provisions hereof, otherwise operate as a legal or equitable discharge of Guarantor. Guarantor hereby waives all defenses of a surety to which it may be entitled by statute or otherwise.

5.1 Guarantor subordinates to and postpones in favor of the Obligations (i) any present and future debts and obligations of Tenant or any Other Guarantor to Guarantor (the "Indebtedness"), including: (A) salary, bonuses, and other payments pursuant to any employment arrangement; (B) fees, reimbursement of expenses and other payments pursuant to any independent contractor arrangement; (C) principal and interest pursuant to any Indebtedness; (D) distributions payable to any partners, members or shareholders of Guarantor or Affiliates of Guarantor; (E) lease payments pursuant to any leasing arrangement; (F) any management fees; and (G) all rights, liens and security interests of Guarantor, whether now or hereafter arising, in any assets of the Tenant or any Other Guarantor, and (ii) any liens or security interests securing payment of the Indebtedness. Guarantor shall have no right to possession of any assets of Tenant or any Other Guarantor or to foreclose upon any such asset, whether by judicial action or otherwise, unless and until the Obligations have been paid and performed in full. Guarantor agrees that Landlord shall be subrogated to Guarantor with respect to Guarantor's claims against Tenant or any Other Guarantor and Guarantor's rights, liens and security interest, if any, in any of Tenant's or any Other Guarantor's assets and proceeds thereof until all of the Obligations have been paid and performed in full.

5.2 After the occurrence of an Event of Default and until such Event of Default is cured or after the commencement of any bankruptcy or insolvency proceeding by or against Tenant and until such proceeding is dismissed, Guarantor shall not: (i) make any distributions or other payments to any partners, parent entities, or Affiliates of Guarantor (other than to Tenant); or (ii) ask for, sue for, demand, take or receive any payment, by cutoff or in any other manner, including the receipt of a negotiable instrument, for all or any part of the Indebtedness owed by Tenant, or any successor or assign of Tenant, including a receiver, trustee or debtor in possession (the term "Tenant" shall include any such successor or assign of Tenant) until the Obligations have been paid in full; however, if Guarantor receives such a payment, Guarantor shall immediately deliver the payment to Landlord for credit against the then outstanding balance of the Obligations, whether matured or unmatured. Notwithstanding anything in this Section 5 to the contrary, after an Event of Default has occurred and is outstanding, Guarantor may make cash contributions to Tenant.

5.3 Guarantor shall not be subrogated, and hereby waives and disclaims any claim or right against Tenant by way of subrogation or otherwise, to any of the rights of Landlord under the Lease or otherwise, or in the Premises (or any portion thereof), which may arise by any of the provisions of this Guaranty or by reason of the performance by Guarantor of any of its Obligations hereunder. Guarantor shall look solely to Tenant for any recoupment of any payments made or costs or expenses incurred by Guarantor pursuant to this Guaranty. COUNTERCLAIMS AGAINST WHITE PLAINS
HEALTHCARE PROPERTIES I, LLC
THIRD-PARTY CLAIMS AGAINST CCC EQUITIES, LLC, PROJECT EQUITY CONSULTING, THE CONGRESS COMPANIES, HOWARD FENSTERMAN, AND WILLIAM NICHOLSON

Now and for their counterclaims against plaintiff and third-party complaint against third-party defendants, Defendants, upon information and belief, allege the following:

1. CCC Equities, LLC is a limited liability company duly organized and existing under the laws of the State of New York with an address and place of business at 3 Dakota Drive, Suite 300, Lake Success, New York 11042.

2. Project Equity Consulting is a limited liability company duly organized and existing under the laws of the State of New York with an address and place of business at 3 Dakota Drive, Suite 300, Lake Success, New York 11042.

3. The Congress Companies is a corporation duly organized and existing under the laws of the State of Massachusetts with an address and place of business at 2 Bourbon Street, West Peabody Executive Center, Peabody, Massachusetts 01960 and regularly conducts business within the State of New York.

4. Howard Fensterman is an individual residing at 4 Pond Lane, Sands Point, New York 11050 with a business address and place of business at Abrams, Fensterman, Fensterman, Eisman, Formato, Ferrara, Wolf & Carone, LLP, 3 Dakota Drive, Suite 300, Lake Success, New York 11042.

5. Through the period complained of herein, Fensterman acted as both a principal in the transaction and legal counsel to certain parties including the defendant Lizer Jozefovic.

6. William Nicholson is an individual residing at 12 Long Meadow Drive, Ipswich, Massachusetts 01938 with a business address and place of business at 2 Bourbon Street, West Peabody Executive Center, Suite 200, Peabody, Massachusetts 01960.

7. This case involves the development of a new state-of-the-art 160-bed skilled nursing facility on Church Street in White Plains, New York (the "Facility.")

8. The Facility was proposed by the defendant, HBL SNF, LLC, and its principals Lizer Jozefovic and Mark Newman (the “Jozefovic Team”) to the New York State Department of Health (“NYSDOH”) in August 2009.

9. The Facility is dedicated to providing specialized services to “difficult to place patients,” including but not limited to, patients who exhibit psychiatric behaviors, patients who are undocumented, patients with developmental and physical disabilities, and patients who have no means of financial support and require charity care.

10. The Facility was intentionally located in White Plains to service high-density minority and high-density poverty populations as compared to surrounding regions.

11. In order to obtain a Certificate of Need from NYSDOH, the Jozefovic Team acquired skilled nursing bed licenses from other area nursing facilities including Hebrew Hospital Home of Westchester, Bethel Nursing Home, and Taylor Care Center.

12. After full review of the Jozefovic Team’s application, NYSDOH determined that the Jozefovic Team was a successful operator of nursing facilities that are authorized to care for the elderly and individuals with long-term physical care needs and has an established history of achieving high occupancy at the facilities it operated.

13. NYSDOH further determined that the Facility was unique and necessary as it provided care to patients not accepted by other facilities because of their special needs.

14. At the time the Jozefovic Team proposed the Facility, the Plaintiff White Plains Healthcare Properties I, LLC (“WPHP”) and the third-party defendants Howard Fensterman (“Fensterman”), William Nicholson (“Nicholson”), and their companies CCC Equities LLC (“CCCE”), Project Equity Construction (“PEC”), and The Congress Companies (“Congress”), approached the Jozefovic Team and proposed that they act as developers for the new Facility.

15. Led by third-party defendant Fensterman, these parties represented that they were capable of performing all aspects of development of the Facility including construction and financing (hereafter “the Project.”)

16. In fact, the Project costs for the Facility presented to NYSDOH by the Jozefovic Team were costs calculated and submitted by Fensterman and Nicholson.

17. Importantly, these costs established a total Project cost of $56, 631,759.

18. The Project costs for the Facility were itemized by Fensterman and Nicholson as follows:

Land acquisition	$ 4,528,333
New construction	$37,282,722
Design Contingency	$ 1,864,136
Construction Contingency	$ 1,864,136
Architect/Engineering Fees	$ 2,982,618
Construction Manager Fees	$ 745,654
Other Fees (Consultant)	$ 750,000
Movable Equipment	$ 1,480,000
Financing Costs	$ 2,112,000
Interim Interest Expense	$ 2,710,400
CON Application Fee	$ 2,000
CON Processing Fee	$ 309,760
Total Project Cost	$56,631,759

19. Many of these costs were to be paid to Fensterman and Nicholson directly, as well as Fensterman’s law firm, and other costs to their entities as fees, interest costs, and other Project expenses.

20. In addition, Fensterman and Nicholson represented that they could arrange for 100% of the Project financing.

21. More specifically, Fensterman and Nicholson specifically represented and agreed in writing that they could secure a HUD insured mortgage in the amount of $42,240,000 with an interest rate of 5.5% and a term of thirty (30) years.

22. A description of this mortgage was included in the projected Medicaid Reimbursement submitted to NYSDOH as part of the Project feasibility forecast.

23. Furthermore, Fensterman represented that he could provide the necessary project equity in the amount of $9,863,246 through his company CCC Equities, LLC.

24. The Jozefovic Team presented this financing arrangement to NYSDOH in support of its request for approval of the Facility and these costs became part of NYSDOH's Project approval.

25. Given that Fensterman and Nicholson agreed to develop, finance, and own the Project, the Jozefovic Team agreed to enter into a Lease Agreement to occupy and operate the Facility.

26. To accomplish this, Fensterman and Nicholson proposed that their company White Plains Healthcare Properties I, LLC become the landlord for the operating company owned by the Jozefovic Team known as HBL SNF, LLC.

27. The Lease was to be for a twenty (20) year term.

28. The rent was to be calculated as an amount equal to the debt service of the HUD insured mortgage to be obtained by Fensterman and Nicholson plus a return of cash equity to WPHP on the account of the equity contributions through CCCE.

29. The annual rent proposed by Fensterman and Nicholson and presented to NYSDOH equaled $4,318,000 annually or $360,000 per month.

30. The amount of annual rent as calculated above was eligible for reimbursement to HBL SNF, LLC through the NYSDOH.

31. The Project as proposed to the NYSDOH was to be completed in approximately twenty (20) months.

32. The NYSDOH gave approval for the Project on the terms described above in October 2012.

33. Throughout the NYSDOH application process, the Jozefovic Team relied upon representations made by Fensterman and Nicholson.

34. However, shortly after receiving approval from NYSDOH, the Jozefovic Team learned that Fensterman and Nicholson did not have the capital necessary to commence or complete the Project as presented.

35. As a result of this lack of capital the Project was delayed for years.

36. In an attempt to overcome this lack of capital, on November 15, 2015, HBL SNF, LLC entered into a Development Agreement with White Plains Healthcare Properties I, LLC (the “Development Agreement.”)

37. On the same date, HBL SNF, LLC entered into a Lease with White Plains Healthcare Properties I, LLC (the “Lease”) for the Facility in order to enable WPHP to obtain its Project financing.

38. The Development Agreement and Lease are essential parts of the same transaction and are constitute integrated agreements.

39. Pursuant to the Development Agreement, the Project was to be “turn-key” meaning that the plaintiff and third-party defendants would deliver a fully constructed facility authorized to operate as a skilled nursing facility with permanent financing in place in accordance with the approval granted by NYSDOH.

40. However, because Fensterman and Nicholson lacked sufficient capital to complete the Project on a turn-key basis, they induced the Jozefovic Team to withdraw its equity from another nursing facility which it owned and operated known as Waterview Nursing Home and to contribute that equity to the Project so that the Project could move forward in 2016.

41. In particular, the Jozefovic Team made the following capital contributions to the Project as memorialized in a Term Sheet dated November 20, 2015:

- a) $2,200,000 paid to WPHP to be used by Congress for pre-development costs;
- b) $197,072 to CCC Equities, LLC to be used in the discretion of Fensterman;
- c) $1,595,368.32 into a control account in the name of HBL SNF.

42. Despite repeated requests since 2015, Fensterman, Nicholson, Congress, and CCCE have failed or refused to provide an accounting of the use of the predevelopment and discretionary funds paid to them.

43. In consideration for the $2,200,000 contribution to WPHP, WPHP agreed that these funds constituted a loan to WPHP to be repaid to HBL SNF, LLC.

44. No provision was made for the payment of interest on the loan notwithstanding that WPHP had the use of such funds since 2015.

45. WPHP agreed to repay the principal amount of the loan by purchasing the furniture, fixtures, and equipment (the "FF&E") in the amount of $1,500,000 for the Project and by giving HBL SNF, LLC a future credit against Lease payments.

46. When advancing these funds to Fensterman, Nicholson, CCC Equities and Congress, the Jozefovic Team anticipated that the Facility would be delivered in September 2017.

47. The Facility was not delivered until December 2019.

48. Despite repeated requests, WPHP has never provided an accounting for purchases of the required FF&E or any documentation evidencing repayment of $1,500,000 of the loan amount to HBL SNF, LLC.

49. In the absence of such an accounting, HBL SNF, LLC cannot determine how much of its loan amount, if any, has been repaid and how much of the remaining loan balance should be credited to current Lease payments.

50. In addition, accrued interest on the $2,200,000 loan must be calculated from November 2015 and either paid to HBL SNF, LLC or credited to payments due under the Lease.

51. The Development Agreement required that the Project be substantially completed within twenty-two (22) months or before September 2017.

52. The plaintiff breached its obligations to HBL SNF, LLC by failing to complete the Project until December 2019.

53. The delay in completing the Project caused HBL SNF, LLC to lose substantial revenue.

54. In addition, by delivering the Project in December 2019, HBL SNF, LLC encountered market conditions during its start-up phase in 2020 caused by the COVID-19 pandemic which adversely affected HBL SNF LLC's operations as it has nursing homes throughout the region.

55. HBL SNF, LLC would not have encountered these adverse financial conditions but not for the delay caused by plaintiff and third-party defendants.

56. In addition to the Project being completed more than two (2) years late, plaintiff and third-party defendants delivered the Project well over budget.

57. The Development Agreement required the plaintiff to enter into a construction contract with Congress and to secure a 100% performance bond to guarantee the performance of the construction contract.

58. However, unbeknownst to HBL SNF, LLC, Congress could not secure a performance bond.

59. Fensterman and Nicholson never disclosed to HBL SNF, LLC or any of its principals that Congress could not obtain a bond.

60. As a result, WPHP entered into a contract without approval or consent from HBL SNF, LLC for a creation of a joint venture agreement with a third-party contractor.

61. The joint venture, among other reasons, added substantial costs to the Project.

62. These substantial additional costs exceeded the capital expenditures approved by NYSDOH and are not reimbursable through NYSDOH.

63. Upon information and belief, Congress's inability to secure the performance bond is related to certain judgments taken against its principal Nicholson arising from claims for diversion of project funds in a skilled nursing project located in Milwaukee, Wisconsin dating back to 2015, the time when the Jozefovic Team advanced monies to Nicholson and Congress.

64. Neither Fensterman nor Nicholson disclosed these adverse proceedings to the Jozefovic Team.

65. In fact, Nicholson was adjudged to have committed conversion and civil theft in the amount of $1,903,452, and that judgement was affirmed on appeal to the Seventh Circuit Court of Appeals.

66. The Development Agreement required that plaintiff and third-party defendants deliver the Project at the costs approved by NYSDOH.

67. Only in the event of a change order, authorized by HBL SNF, LLC, would HBL SNF, LLC have responsibility for any cost higher than the cost approved by the NYSDOH.

68. There were no approved change orders.

69. The approved Project cost is $57,000,000.
70. The plaintiff and third-party defendants caused the Project to exceed the approved costs by more than $5,000,000.
71. The plaintiff and third-party defendants breached their obligations to HBL SNF, LLC under the Development Agreement by causing the Project to be over budget.
72. As a result, HBL SNF, LLC is not eligible for reimbursement of its rent payments as originally intended - a loss of eligibility that will cause substantial harm to HBL SNF, LLC.
73. Given these costs overruns and the loss of eligibility for reimbursement, the Lease is unenforceable.
74. As part of the “turn-key” delivery of the Project, plaintiff was obligated to provide permanent financing for the Project on the terms of the HUD insured loan submitted by plaintiff as part of the Project approved by NYSDOH.
75. The plaintiff and third-party defendants have failed to provide such permanent financing and are in breach of the Development Agreement and the Lease.
76. In connection with the permanent financing, the plaintiff and third-party defendants were required to demonstrate sufficient equity invested in the Project for HUD or any other lender of permanent financing to grant a thirty (30) year loan to the Project.
77. Plaintiff and third-party defendants have failed to demonstrate sufficient equity in the Project.
78. Upon information and belief, Fensterman procured financial contributions from individual third parties who contributed capital to CCCE to meet the equity requirement.
79. Although this capital is required to be and has, in fact, been represented by Fensterman to be in the nature of equity, upon information and belief, these contributions from individual third-parties are loans at high rates of interest which are overdue as a result of the Project delays.

80. Fensterman, CCCE, and plaintiff have caused additional financial burden to the Project and have attempted to pass along to HBL SNF, LLC and the Jozefovic Team these higher interest costs.

81. The Project cost overruns and the higher finance costs due to the delay in delivering the Project, together with the lack of sufficient equity, have prevented the Project from securing permanent financing.

82. The plaintiff and third-party defendants have advised HBL SNF, LLC that they have initiated this lawsuit because they are in default of their current loan agreements.

83. As of this date, plaintiff and third-party defendants have been unable to provide to the Jozefovic Team an accurate Project accounting of Project expenditures and have refused to provide information concerning the Project financing.

84. As of this date, plaintiff and third-party defendants have been unable to procure the HUD insured financing which they represented they could secure and is required by NYSDOH Project approval.

85. As of this date, the Project does not comply with the approval issued by the NYSDOH.

86. As a result of the failure to deliver the Project on the terms approved by NYSDOH, HBL SNF, LLC cannot be reimbursed for the cost of the Facility as intended by the Development Agreement and the Lease and HBL SNF, LLC and its principals have suffered financial harm as a result.

87. Throughout the development process, WPHP, Fensterman, Nicholson and Congress have made false representations to the Jozefovic Team and have taken adverse actions which have adversely affected the business of HBL SNF, LLC.

AS AND FOR A FIRST CAUSE OF ACTION AS AGAINST WPHP, CCCE, CONGRESS, AND FENSTERMAN (DEMAND FOR ACCOUNTING)

88. Defendants repeat and reallege each and every allegation set forth in paragraphs “1” through “87” with the same force and effect as if fully set forth herein.

89. HBL SNF, LLC, Lizer Jozefovic and Mark Neuman had a trust-based relationship with Fensterman, Nicholson, and WPHP.

90. Given that relationship, HBL SNF, LLC, Lizer Jozefovic, and Mark Neuman advanced monies to WPHP and Fensterman prior to commencement of the Project in order to allow the Project to proceed.

91. HBL SNF, LLC, Lizer Jozefovic, and Mark Neuman are entitled to an accounting of the use of the funds advanced for the Project.

AS AND FOR A SECOND CAUSE OF ACTION AS AGAINST WPHP (PAYMENT OF INTEREST)

92. Defendants repeat and reallege each and every allegation set forth in paragraphs “1” through “91” with the same force and effect as if fully set forth herein.

93. HBL SNF, LLC is entitled to imputed interest on the $2,200,000 made to WPHP loan from November 2015 to present.

AS AND FOR A THIRD CAUSE OF ACTION AS AGAINST WPHP
(BREACH OF CONTRACT)

94. Defendants repeat and reallege each and every allegation set forth in paragraphs “1” through “93” with the same force and effect as if fully set forth herein.

95. WPHP breached the Development Agreement and the Lease.

96. As a result of such breach, HBL SNF, LLC has been damaged by the loss of reimbursable capital expenditures and has incurred other costs due to the nonperformance of WPHP.

97. In addition, HBL SNF, LLC has lost funds and continues to lose revenues as a result of Project delays.

AS AND FOR A FOURTH CAUSE OF ACTION
AS AGAINST FENSTERMAN AND NICHOLSON (FRAUD IN THE INDUCEMENT)

98. Defendants repeat and reallege each and every allegation set forth in paragraphs “1” through “97” with the same force and effect as if fully set forth herein.

99. Third-party defendants Fensterman and Nicholson fraudulently induced HBL SNF, LLC, Lizer Jozefovic, and Mark Neuman to enter into the Development Agreement, the Lease, and the Guaranty.

100. Fensterman and Nicholson misrepresented the Project costs.

101. Fensterman and Nicholson misrepresented their ability to secure permanent HUD financing.

102. Fensterman and Nicholson misrepresented their ability to complete the Project.

103. Fensterman misrepresented the capital contributions made to CCCE to satisfy the equity requirement for the Project.

104. Fensterman and Nicholson failed to disclose the claimant civil proceeding against Nicholson for civil theft.

105. By reason of such fraud in the inducement, Defendants Lizer Jozefovic and Mark Neuman have no obligations under the guarantees.

106. By reason of such fraud in the inducement, HBL SNF, LLC has suffered financial damages.

AS AND FOR A FIFTH CAUSE OF ACTION
AS AGAINST ALL THIRD-PARTY DEFENDANTS
(BAD FAITH)

107. Defendants repeat and reallege each and every allegation set forth in paragraphs “1” through “106” with the same force and effect as if fully set forth herein.

109. As a result of such bad faith dealings, HBL SNF, LLC has suffered damages in an amount not less than $15,000,000.

AS AND FOR A SIXTH CAUSE OF ACTION
AS AGAINST WPHP AND ALL THIRD-PARTY DEFENDANTS (FRAUD)

110. Defendants repeat and reallege each and every allegation set forth in paragraphs “1” through “109” with the same force and effect as if fully set forth herein.

111. The misrepresentations and non-disclosures by Fensterman and Nicholson and third-party defendants constitute fraud.

112. WPHP, Fensterman and Nicholson new such statements were false.

113. WPHP, Fensterman and Nicholson made such statements to deceive HBL SNF, LLC, Lizer Jozefovic, and Mark Neuman.

114. HBL SNF, LLC has been damaged by such fraudulent conduct.

WHEREFORE, Defendants and Third-Party Plaintiffs deny generally and specifically that it committed any wrongdoing and demand:

- 1) A determination that the amount of rent payable under the Lease be modified by any sums not reimbursable by the NYSDOH and offset by prior payments and accrued interest;
- 2) The Guaranty Agreements be nullified;
- 3) Monetary damages in an amount to be determined;
- 4) Attorneys' fees, and
- 5) Such other relief as the Court deems appropriate.

COMPLAINT

NATURE OF THE CASE

1. This action concerns HBL's material default of its obligations under an amended and restated operating lease dated as of November 19, 2015 (the "Lease"), by which WPH Properties leased to HBL a brand new, state-of-the-art, 160-bed skilled nursing facility that WPH Properties constructed at 116-120 Church Street, White Plains, New York.

2. WPH Properties had constructed the nursing facility and entered into the Lease with HBL, dated November 19, 2015. The Lease was amended and restated in 2017. It provided that HBL would operate the facility for 30 years. The Lease commenced on September 30, 2019. HBL took possession of the facility on September 30, 2019. By the end of October 2019, HBL had defaulted.

3. On January 7, 2020, WPH Properties served notice of default and elected to terminate the Lease and accelerate all rents due. This action seeks to recover from HBL the Rent it owes and the other damages its defaults have caused and to enforce the unconditional guaranties of HBL's performance under the Lease given by Neuman and Jozefovic.

PARTIES AND VENUE

4. WPH Properties is a limited liability company duly organized and existing under the laws of the State of Massachusetts, with its principal place of business at 2 Bourbon Street, Suite 200, Peabody, Massachusetts. WPH Properties is duly authorized to do business in the State of New York.

5. HBL was and is a limited liability company duly organized and existing under the laws of the State of New York with an address and place of business at 537 Route 22, Purdys, New York.

7. Neuman is an individual residing at 22 Lyncrest Drive, Monsey, New York, with a business address and place of business at HBL, 537 Route 22, Purdys, New York.

8. Pursuant to CPLR § 503(a), venue is properly designated in Westchester County based on the residences of WPH Properties and HBL, because a substantial part of the events giving rise to the claim occurred in Westchester County and because HBL and WPH Properties agreed in the Lease that any action or proceeding arising out of the Lease be brought in Westchester County. Lease § 20.1(b).

FACTS

9. WPH Properties is and was at all relevant times the owner of the real property known as 116-120 Church Street, White Plains, New York (the "Real Property").

10. WPH Properties constructed a brand new, state-of-the-art, 160-bed skilled nursing facility on the Real Property.

THE LEASE

11. In 2017, WPH Properties, as landlord, and HBL, as tenant, entered into the amended and restated Lease, dated as of November 19, 2015, under which WPH Properties leased to HBL the Real Property and the improvements to be constructed on the Real Property, together with other assets, all as defined in Section 2.1 of the Lease (the "Facility"). A true and accurate copy of the Lease is annexed to this complaint as Exhibit 1 and is incorporated into this complaint by reference.

12. WPH Properties obtained a certificate of occupancy for the Facility on August 22, 2019.

13. HBL entered into possession of the Facility on September 30, 2019.

14. The Lease provided for a term of 30 years, with three 10-year options to the tenant, unless sooner terminated. Exhibit 1, Lease, § 3.1.

15. The Lease obligated HBL to pay WPH Properties annual fixed rent of $6,073,158 in monthly installments of $506,096.50 (the "Fixed Rent"). Exhibit 1, Lease, § 3.2.

16. The Lease also obligated HBL to pay WPH Properties other amounts which are defined as "Additional Rent." Fixed Rent and Additional Rent are referred to collectively as "Rent."

17. The Lease obligated HBL to pay all charges for electricity, steam, telephone, cable, gas, oil, water, sewer and all other services or utilities used on or related to the Premises during the Term. Exhibit 1, Lease, § 4.1.

18. The Lease obligated HBL to pay, before penalties are incurred, all real estate taxes, assessments, utility charges and other taxes. Exhibit 1, Lease, § 4.2.

19. The Lease obligated HBL to keep the Premises in good condition and repair including, at HBL's sole cost and expense, payment of all utility service and maintenance deposits and expenses relating to the Premises. Exhibit 1, Lease, § 5.2.

20. The Lease obligated HBL to deliver a guarantee of all obligations owed by HBL under the Lease from Jozefovic (the "Jozefovic Guaranty") and from Neuman (the "Neuman Guaranty"). Exhibit 1, Lease, § 7.1.

21. A true and accurate copy of the Jozefovic Guaranty is annexed to this complaint as Exhibit 2.

22. A true and accurate copy of the Neuman Guaranty is annexed to this complaint as Exhibit 3.

23. Pursuant to the Jozefovic Guaranty, Jozefovic absolutely, unconditionally and irrevocably guaranteed the full and prompt payment of all rent, sums and charges of every type and nature payable by HBL under the Lease, whether due by acceleration or otherwise, and the full, timely and complete performance of all obligations to be performed by HBL under the Lease, including obligations that survive termination of the Lease.

24. The Jozefovic Guaranty is an absolute and unconditional guaranty of payment and of performance and is enforceable against Jozefovic without the necessity of any notice of nonpayment, nonperformance or nonobservance, or any notice or demand, all of which Jozefovic expressly waived.

25. Pursuant to the Neuman Guaranty, Neuman absolutely, unconditionally and irrevocably guaranteed the full and prompt payment of all rent, sums and charges of every type and nature payable by HBL under the Lease, whether due by acceleration or otherwise, and the full, timely and complete performance of all obligations to be performed by HBL under the Lease, including obligations that survive termination of the Lease.

26. The Neuman Guaranty is an absolute and unconditional guaranty of payment and of performance and is enforceable against Neuman without the necessity of any notice of nonpayment, nonperformance or nonobservance, or any notice or demand, all of which Neuman expressly waived.

27. The Lease obligated HBL to deliver to WPH Properties, before the commencement date of the Lease, an agreement by Capital Funding Group by which Capital Funding Group agreed to allow HBL to draw down on its credit line each month so as to enable Capital Funding Group to pay the Fixed Rent each month directly to WPH Properties on the commencement date and for the following 11 months. Exhibit 1, Lease, § 7.1.

28. The Lease obligated HBL to deliver to WPH Properties, before the commencement date of the Lease, an unconditional letter of credit or cash in the amount of $3,700,000 to secure the full and timely performance of its obligations under the Lease. Exhibit 1, Lease, § 7.1.

29. The Lease obligated HBL to deliver to WPH Properties, before the commencement date of the Lease, $1,600,000 as an additional security deposit. Exhibit 1, Lease, § 7.1.

30. The Lease obligated HBL to provide WPH Properties all reports, statements and inspections as defined in the Lease, including all Medicare, Medicaid and other provider agreements and reimbursement rates for the Facility, updated reimbursement rates, financial reporting and written reports providing an operational overview of significant events and circumstances on a monthly basis, Exhibit I, Lease, § 7.4.

31. The Lease obligated HBL to maintain working capital accounts in specified amounts, Exhibit I, Lease, § 7.7.

32. The Lease provides that HBL will be in default of the Lease if, among other things, (i) HBL fails to pay any installment of Rent within five days of the date when Rent was due; (ii) HBL defaults in the prompt and full performance of any other of its obligations and fails to correct that failure within 30 days of receipt of written notice from WPH Properties of the default; (iii) HBL fails to give WPH Properties timely notice or timely deliver copies of documents as required by Section 7.4 of the Lease; (iv) HBL defaults or breaches the provisions of Section 7.4(b); (v) a Guarantor defaults beyond expiration of any applicable cure period; or (vi) any governmental authority assesses a fine or penalty against HBL in an amount in excess of $75,000, Exhibit I, Lease, § 16.1.

33. WPH Properties performed all of the conditions on its part required by the Lease.

34. The Lease provides in Section 16.1 that upon the occurrence of a default by HBL, WPH Properties may, upon five days written notice, terminate the Lease, accelerate the payment of all Rent for the balance of the Term and declare the Rent presently due and payable in full, requiring HBL to pay to WPH Properties the present value of the accelerated Rent.

35. Section 16.1 of the Lease also provides that upon the occurrence of a default, and in addition to all of the other remedies provided for in the Lease, WPH Properties is immediately entitled to retain the security deposit required by Section 7.1 of the Lease and HBL has no further claim, right, title or interest therein to the extent of WPH Properties' claims.

36. Section 16.1 of the Lease also provides that upon the occurrence of a default and the commencement of an action for Rent or for any other amount due under the Lease, HBL must pay to WPH Properties all of the expenses, including reasonable attorneys' fees, incurred by WPH Properties to enforce the Lease.

37. In addition, under the terms of the Lease, HBL's continuation in occupancy after termination does not constitute a renewal of the Lease, but HBL becomes a tenant month-to-month for a rental of 300% of the most recent Rent payable by HBL under the Lease. Exhibit 1, Lease, § 201.13.

THE JOZEFOVIC SECURITY AGREEMENT

38. On August 11, 2017 Jozefovic executed a Collateral Assignment and Pledge of Membership Interest and Security Agreement (the "Jozefovic Security Agreement"), assigning to WPH Properties' nominee a first and superior security interest in Jozefovic's interest in Waterview Acquisition I, LLC (the "Jozefovic Waterview Collateral") in order to secure the obligations under the Jozefovic Security Agreement and under the Lease. A true and accurate copy of the Jozefovic Security Agreement is annexed to this complaint as Exhibit 4.

39. The Jozefovic Security Agreement provides that Jozefovic has not and will not enter into any assignment, mortgage, pledge or other instrument which transfers or encumbers all or any part of the Jozefovic Waterview Collateral. Exhibit 4, Jozefovic Security Agreement § 3

40. The Jozefovic Security Agreement further provides that Jozefovic agrees not to subsequently further amend or voluntarily permit the amendment of the Waterview Acquisition I,

LLC Operating Agreement that would in any manner materially adversely affect the Jozefovic Security Agreement and or the rights of WPH Properties. Exhibit 4, Jozefovic Security Agreement § 4

41. On September 15, 2020 WPH Properties duly perfected its security interest with respect to the Jozefovic Waterview Collateral by filing a UCC financing statement.

42. Upon information and belief, in or around December 2019, Jozefovic assigned the Jozefovic Waterview Collateral to Metropolitan Commercial Bank ("MCB") to secure Jozefovic's obligation to repay a $3,000,000 loan from MCB to Jozefovic.

43. Upon information and belief, to effectuate Jozefovic's assignment of the Jozefovic Waterview Collateral to MCB, Jozefovic agreed to and voluntarily permitted the amendment of the Waterview Acquisition I, LLC Operating Agreement.

44. Jozefovic breached his obligations under the Jozefovic Security Agreement by agreeing to and voluntarily permitting the amendment of the Waterview Acquisition I, LLC Operating Agreement and assigning the Jozefovic Waterview Collateral to MCB.

45. Jozefovic further breached the Jozefovic Security Agreement by failing to take all of the necessary steps to add Howard Fensterman, a principal of WPH Properties, as a co-signatory to the JP Morgan Chase accounts identified therein as required by the Jozefovic Security Agreement.

46. Jozefovic and HBL breached their obligation to post the $1,600,000 additional security deposit required by the Jozefovic Security Agreement and the Lease.

47. Jozefovic's moving of funds into a separate account that he controls does not satisfy the obligation to post the $1.6 million additional security deposit as required by the Jozefovic

Security Agreement and the Lease.

48. Jozefovic's and HBL's failure to satisfy the obligation to post the $1.6 million additional security deposit constitutes a breach of the Jozefovic Security Agreement and a breach of the Lease.

49. The Jozefovic Security Agreement provides that Jozefovic pledges, assigns and grants a first and superior security interest in and to all of his rights, title and interest as a member of Waterview Acquisition I, LLC to WPH Properties in order to secure the obligations under the Jozefovic Security Agreement and under the Lease

50. Pursuant to the remedies granted to WPH Properties under the UCC and the Jozefovic Security Agreement, in the event of a default, WPH Properties is entitled, among other remedies, to dispose of the Jozefovic Waterview Collateral at a public sale.

51. Jozefovic breached the Jozefovic Security Agreement and materially and adversely affected the Jozefovic Waterview Collateral and the rights of WPH Properties by (i) agreeing to and voluntarily permitting the amendment of the Waterview Acquisition I, LLC Operating Agreement and (ii) assigning the Jozefovic Waterview Collateral to MCB to secure Jozefovic's obligation to repay a $3,000,000 loan from MCB to Jozefovic.

52. As a result of Jozefovic breaching the Jozefovic Security Agreement by amending the operating agreement and assigning the Jozefovic Waterview Collateral to MCB, any purchaser of the Jozefovic Waterview Collateral at public sale by WPH Properties will purchase the Jozefovic Waterview Collateral subject to MCB's senior security interest in the collateral.

53. Jozefovic's breach of the Jozefovic Security Agreement therefore has caused WPH Properties damages in the amount of $3,000,000, the amount of Jozefovic's obligation to MCB secured by Jozefovic's illicit assignment of the same collateral to MCB.

HBL BREACHED ITS OBLIGATIONS UNDER THE LEASE

54. HBL failed to perform its obligations, materially defaulting under the Lease, almost immediately after taking possession of the Premises.

55. HBL failed to pay Rent as required by the Lease.

56. HBL failed to pay real estate taxes as required by the Lease.

57. HBL failed to pay utility deposits as required by the Lease.

58. HBL failed to pay municipal maintenance escrows as required by the Lease.

59. HBL failed to pay utility charges as required by the Lease.

60. HBL failed or refused to deliver certificates of insurance as required by the Lease.

61. HBL failed to deliver to WPH Properties all Medicare, Medicaid and other provider agreements and reimbursement rate sheets for the Facility, as required by the Lease.

62. HBL failed to deliver to WPH Properties all Medicare, Medicaid and other provider updated rate sheets, as required by the Lease.

63. HBL failed to deliver to WPH Properties the required financial reporting, as required by the Lease.

64. HBL failed to deliver to WPH Properties the required written reporting providing an operational overview of significant events and circumstances at the Facility during each prior month of the term of the Lease, as required by the Lease.

65. HBL failed or refused to deliver to WPH Properties the security deposits, as required by the Lease.

66. HBL failed to deliver and maintain the required credit line in an amount equal to

12 months' rent, as required by the Lease.

67. HBL failed to have and maintain the working capital account required by the Lease.

68. HBL failed to pay late fees and costs, as required by the Lease.

THE LETTER OF INTENT

69. After HBL defaulted, WPH Properties negotiated in good faith with HBL in an attempt to avoid termination of the Lease, despite HBL's default.

70. On November 20, 2019, WPH Properties and HBL entered into a Letter of Intent (the "LOI") in which WPH Properties and HBL agreed that WPH Properties would sell the Facility for $73,000,000 to a Delaware Statutory Trust in which Jozefovic and Neuman would have a 77.5 percent interest and WPH Properties or its designees would have a 22.5 percent interest.

71. A true and accurate copy of the LOI is annexed to this complaint as Exhibit 5.

72. The LOI provides for the Lease to be amended to require that HBL pay the November 2019 rent by November 15, 2019, the December rent by December 5, 2019 and all real estate taxes and utility payments by December 1, 2019, that by December 5, 2019 HBL reimburse WPH Properties for $65,856 in municipal and utility deposits, that HBL enter into a Deposit Account Control Agreement with MNB requiring MNB to draw on the account first to pay the rent.

73. The LOI further provides for the Lease to be amended so that the $3,700,000 security deposit required by Section 7.1(a)(ii) is reduced to $2,000,000, $1,000,000 of which was required to be paid by HBL on or before December 1, 2019 or the date on which WPH Properties obtained a permanent certificate of occupancy for the Facility (which was granted on November 14, 2019), whichever was later, and the balance of which was required to be paid on April 1, 2020.

which was the Closing date required by the LOI.

74. In addition, the LOI provides for the Lease to be amended so that in lieu of providing the additional $1,000,000 in security required by Section 7.1(a)(iii) of the Lease, HBL would be required to enter into an agreement with JP Morgan Chase Bank prohibiting liquidation of that account until the second $1,000,000 in security required by the LOI had been paid.

75. The LOI also provides for the Lease to be amended to require HBL to obtain a single working capital line of credit in the amount of $8,000,000 by December 1, 2019.

76. HBL defaulted and breached its obligations under the LOI by failing to pay rent, failing to pay the municipal and utility payments to WPH Properties, failing to pay the real estate taxes and utility payments, failing to enter into the Deposit Account Control Agreement, failing to enter into the agreement with JP Morgan Chase Bank, by failing to pay the first $1,000,000 security deposit as required by the LOI and by failing to obtain the $8,000,000 working capital credit line, and by failing to meet the required Closing date of April 1, 2020.

77. WPH Properties performed all conditions on its part required by the LOI.

78. Solely as a result of HBL's breach of the LOI, WPH Properties did not sell the property to the Delaware Statutory Trust, causing damage to WPH Properties, and WPH Properties incurred interest and late charges on its loans, all of which are the direct result of HBL's breach of the LOI.

NOTICE OF DEFAULT, TERMINATION OF THE LEASE AND ACCELERATION OF RENT

79. On January 7, 2020, while the LOI was in effect, WPH Properties served a "Notice of Default And Landlord's Election To Terminate Lease And Accelerate All Rents Due For The Balance of the Lease Term" upon HBL (the "Notice of Default").

80. A true and accurate copy of the Notice of Default is annexed to this complaint as Exhibit 6 and incorporated into this complaint by reference.

81. The Notice of Default contains a true and accurate accounting of the amounts then due and owing under the Lease and L.OI.

82. The Notice of Default gave HBL notice that by reason of HBL's defaults under the Lease, WPH Properties had exercised its right under Section 16.1 of the Lease to terminate the Lease, effective January 13, 2020.

83. The Notice of Default further gave HBL notice that pursuant to Section 16.1 of the Lease all Rent for the balance of the Term was accelerated and HBL became obligated to pay WPH Properties the present value of the accelerated rent, discounted at a rate of 6% per annum.

84. HBL continued, and still continues, to occupy the Premises, despite WPH Properties' termination of the Lease.

85. Because HBL has held over after its default resulted in termination of the Lease, HBL is a tenant month-to-month at a rent equal to 300% of the most recent Rent payable by HBL under the Lease. Exhibit 1, Lease, § 20.13.

86. HBL has failed to perform its obligations as a tenant month-to-month by failing to pay rent in the amount of 300% of the most recent Rent payable by HBL under the Lease, remitting only the base rent which had been payable before WPH Properties terminated the Lease.

87. HBL is in default with respect to its obligations under the Lease and its obligations as a month-to-month tenant following termination of the Lease effective January 13, 2020.

AMOUNTS DUE

88. As a result of HBL's defaults, HBL is obligated to pay to WPH Properties, as of August 25, 2020, the sum of $113,832,987.54 (the "Amounts Due"), as follows: (i) holdover rent and rent, $7,096,182.79; (ii) municipal and utility deposits, $26,725.35; (iii) security and working capital deposits, $9,800,000.00; (iv) late fees, default fees, costs and professional fees, $1,948,753.00; and (v) accelerated rent, $94,961,326.40.

89. HBL is obligated to pay to WPH Properties the Amounts Due in full, plus any amounts that have accrued since August 25, 2020.

90. HBL has failed or refused to pay the Amounts Due.

91. WPH Properties has fully performed all obligations required to be performed on its part with respect to the Lease, the LOI, HBL's month-to-month tenancy after the termination of the Lease, the Jozefovic Guaranty, the Neuman Guaranty, the HBL Security Agreement, the Jozefovic HBL Security Agreement and the Neuman HBL Security Agreement.

(BREACH OF CONTRACT)

92. WPH Properties repeats and re-alleges each and every allegation set forth in paragraphs "1" through "91" with the same force and effect as if fully set forth here.

(ENFORCING GUARANTY)

100. WPH Properties repeats and re-alleges each and every allegation set forth in paragraphs "1" through "99" with the same force and effect as if fully set forth here.

101. By reason of Jozefovic's default in the performance of his obligations under the Jozefovic Security Agreement and HBL's default in the performance of its obligations under the Lease, WPH Properties is entitled to judgment against Jozefovic in the amount of $3,000,000.00.

WHEREFORE, WPH Properties demands judgment as follows:

5. On its Fifth Cause of Action, against Jozefovic in the amount of $3,000,000.00; and

FIRST AMENDED
VERIFIED COMPLAINT

Plaintiff, White Plains Healthcare Properties I, LLC ("WPH Properties"), by its attorneys, DeHelle, Donnellan, Weingarten, Wise & Wiederkehr, LLP and Abrams, Fensterman, Fensterman, Eisman, Formato, Ferrara, Wolf & Carone, LLP, for its amended verified complaint against defendants, HBL SNF, LLC ("HBL"), Lizer Jozefovic a/k/a Lizer Jozefovic ("Jozefovic") and Mark Neuman ("Neuman"), alleges:

NATURE OF THE CASE

1. This action concerns HBL's material default of its obligations under an amended and restated operating lease dated as of November 19, 2015 (the "Lease"), by which WPH Properties leased to HBL a brand new, state-of-the-art, 160-bed skilled nursing facility that WPH Properties constructed at 116-120 Church Street, White Plains, New York.
2. WPH Properties had constructed the nursing facility and entered into the Lease with HBL, dated November 19, 2015. The Lease was amended and restated in 2017. It provided that HBL would operate the facility for 30 years. The Lease commenced on September 30, 2019. HBL took possession of the facility on September 30, 2019. By the end of October 2019, HBL had defaulted.

3. On January 7, 2020, WPH Properties served notice of default and elected to terminate the Lease and accelerate all rents due. This action seeks to recover from HBL the Rent it owes and the other damages its defaults have caused and to enforce the unconditional guaranties of HBL's performance under the Lease given by Neuman and Jozefovic.

PARTIES AND VENUE

4. WPH Properties is a limited liability company duly organized and existing under the laws of the State of Massachusetts, with its principal place of business at 2 Bourbon Street, Suite 200, Peabody, Massachusetts. WPH Properties is duly authorized to do business in the State of New York.

5. HBL was and is a limited liability company duly organized and existing under the laws of the State of New York with an address and place of business at 537 Route 22, Purdys, New York.

7. Neuman is an individual residing at 22 Lyncrest Drive, Monsey, New York, with a business address and place of business at HBL, 537 Route 22, Purdys, New York.

8. Pursuant to CPLR § 503(a), venue is properly designated in Westchester County based on the residences of WPH Properties and HBL, because a substantial part of the events giving rise to the claim occurred in Westchester County and because HBL and WPH Properties agreed in the Lease that any action or proceeding arising out of the Lease be brought in Westchester County. Lease § 20.1(b).

FACTS

9. WPH Properties is and was at all relevant times the owner of the real property known as 116-120 Church Street, White Plains, New York (the "Real Property").

10. WPH Properties constructed a brand new, state-of-the-art, 160-bed skilled nursing facility on the Real Property.

THE LEASE

11. In 2017, WPH Properties, as landlord, and HBL, as tenant, entered into the amended and restated Lease, dated as of November 19, 2015, under which WPH Properties leased to HBL the Real Property and the improvements to be constructed on the Real Property, together with other assets, all as defined in Section 2.1 of the Lease (the "Facility"). A true and accurate copy of the Lease is annexed to this complaint as Exhibit 1 and is incorporated into this complaint by reference.

12. WPH Properties obtained a certificate of occupancy for the Facility on August 22, 2019.

13. HBL entered into possession of the Facility on September 30, 2019.

14. The Lease provided for a term of 30 years, with three 10-year options to the tenant, unless sooner terminated. Exhibit 1, Lease, § 3.1.

15. The Lease obligated HBL to pay WPH Properties annual fixed rent of $6,073,158 in monthly installments of $506,096.50 (the "Fixed Rent"). Exhibit 1, Lease, § 3.2

16. The Lease also obligated HBL to pay WPH Properties other amounts which are defined as "Additional Rent." Fixed Rent and Additional Rent are referred to collectively as "Rent."

17. The Lease obligated HBL to pay all charges for electricity, steam, telephone, cable, gas, oil, water, sewer and all other services or utilities used on or related to the Premises during the Term. Exhibit 1, Lease, § 4.1.

18. The Lease obligated HBL to pay, before penalties are incurred, all real estate taxes, assessments, utility charges and other taxes. Exhibit 1, Lease, § 4.2.

19. The Lease obligated HBL to keep the Premises in good condition and repair including, at HBL's sole cost and expense, payment of all utility service and maintenance deposits and expenses relating to the Premises. Exhibit 1, Lease, § 5.2.

20. The Lease obligated HBL to deliver a guarantee of all obligations owed by HBL under the Lease from Jozefovic (the "Jozefovic Guaranty") and from Neuman (the "Neuman Guaranty"). Exhibit 1, Lease, § 7.1.

21. A true and accurate copy of the Jozefovic Guaranty is annexed to this complaint as Exhibit 2.

22. A true and accurate copy of the Neuman Guaranty is annexed to this complaint as Exhibit 3.

23. Pursuant to the Jozefovic Guaranty, Jozefovic absolutely, unconditionally and irrevocably guaranteed the full and prompt payment of all rent, sums and charges of every type and nature payable by HBL under the Lease, whether due by acceleration or otherwise, and the full, timely and complete performance of all obligations to be performed by HBL under the Lease, including obligations that survive termination of the Lease.

24. The Jozefovic Guaranty is an absolute and unconditional guaranty of payment and of performance and is enforceable against Jozefovic without the necessity of any notice of nonpayment, nonperformance or nonobservance, or any notice or demand, all of which Jozefovic expressly waived

25. Pursuant to the Neuman Guaranty, Neuman absolutely, unconditionally and irrevocably guaranteed the full and prompt payment of all rent, sums and charges of every type and nature payable by HBL under the Lease, whether due by acceleration or otherwise, and the full, timely and complete performance of all obligations to be performed by HBL under the Lease, including obligations that survive termination of the Lease.

26. The Neuman Guaranty is an absolute and unconditional guaranty of payment and of performance and is enforceable against Neuman without the necessity of any notice of nonpayment, nonperformance or nonobservance, or any notice or demand, all of which Neuman expressly waived.

27. The Lease obligated HBL to deliver to WPH Properties, before the commencement date of the Lease, an agreement by Capital Funding Group by which Capital Funding Group agreed to allow HBL to draw down on its credit line each month so as to enable Capital Funding Group to pay the Fixed Rent each month directly to WPH Properties on the commencement date and for the following 11 months. Exhibit 1, Lease, § 7.1.

28. The Lease obligated HBL to deliver to WPH Properties, before the commencement date of the Lease, an unconditional letter of credit or cash in the amount of $3,700,000 to secure the full and timely performance of its obligations under the Lease. Exhibit 1, Lease, § 7.1

29. The Lease obligated HBL to deliver to WPH Properties, before the commencement date of the Lease, $1,600,000 as an additional security deposit. Exhibit 1, Lease, § 7.1.

30. The Lease obligated HBL to provide WPH Properties all reports, statements and inspections as defined in the Lease, including all Medicare, Medicaid and other provider agreements and reimbursement rates for the Facility, updated reimbursement rates, financial reporting and written reports providing an operational overview of significant events and circumstances on a monthly basis. Exhibit 1, Lease, § 7.4.

31. The Lease obligated HBL to maintain working capital accounts in specified amounts. Exhibit 1, Lease, § 7.7.

32. The Lease provides that HBL will be in default of the Lease if, among other things, (i) HBL fails to pay any installment of Rent within five days of the date when Rent was due; (ii) HBL defaults in the prompt and full performance of any other of its obligations and fails to correct that failure within 30 days of receipt of written notice from WPH Properties of the default; (iii) HBL fails to give WPH Properties timely notice or timely deliver copies of documents as required by Section 7.4 of the Lease; (iv) HBL defaults or breaches the provisions of Section 7.4(b); (v) a Guarantor defaults beyond expiration of any applicable cure period; or (vi) any governmental authority assesses a fine or penalty against HBL in an amount in excess of $75,000. Exhibit 1, Lease, § 16.1.

33. WPH Properties performed all of the conditions on its part required by the Lease.

34. The Lease provides in Section 16.1 that upon the occurrence of a default by HBL, WPH Properties may, upon five days written notice, terminate the Lease, accelerate the payment of all Rent for the balance of the Term and declare the Rent presently due and payable in full, requiring HBL to pay to WPH Properties the present value of the accelerated Rent.

35. Section 16.1 of the Lease also provides that upon the occurrence of a default, and in addition to all of the other remedies provided for in the Lease, WPH Properties is immediately entitled to retain the security deposit required by Section 7.1 of the Lease and HBL has no further claim, right, title or interest therein to the extent of WPH Properties' claims.

36. Section 16.1 of the Lease also provides that upon the occurrence of a default and the commencement of an action for Rent or for any other amount due under the Lease, HBL must pay to WPH Properties all of the expenses, including reasonable attorneys' fees, incurred by WPH Properties to enforce the Lease.

37. In addition, under the terms of the Lease, HBL's continuation in occupancy after termination does not constitute a renewal of the Lease, but HBL becomes a tenant month-to-month for a rental of 300% of the most recent Rent payable by HBL under the Lease. Exhibit 1, Lease, § 20.13.

THE JOZEFOVIC SECURITY AGREEMENT

38. On August 11, 2017 Jozefovic executed a Collateral Assignment and Pledge of Membership Interest and Security Agreement (the "Jozefovic Security Agreement"), assigning to WPH Properties' nominee a first and superior security interest in Jozefovic's interest in Waterview Acquisition I, LLC (the "Jozefovic Waterview Collateral") in order to secure the obligations under the Jozefovic Security Agreement and under the Lease. A true and accurate copy of the Jozefovic Security Agreement is annexed to this complaint as Exhibit 4.

39. The Jozefovic Security Agreement provides that Jozefovic has not and will not enter into any assignment, mortgage, pledge or other instrument which transfers or encumbers all or any part of the Jozefovic Waterview Collateral. Exhibit 4, Jozefovic Security Agreement § 3

40. The Jozefovic Security Agreement further provides that Jozefovic agrees not to subsequently further amend or voluntarily permit the amendment of the Waterview Acquisition I,

LLC Operating Agreement that would in any manner materially adversely affect the Jozefovic Security Agreement and/or the rights of WPH Properties, Exhibit 4, Jozefovic Security Agreement § 4

41. On September 15, 2020 WPH Properties duly perfected its security interest with respect to the Jozefovic Waterview Collateral by filing a UCC financing statement.

42. Upon information and belief, in or around December 2019, Jozefovic assigned the Jozefovic Waterview Collateral to Metropolitan Commercial Bank ("MCB") to secure Jozefovic's obligation to repay a $3,000,000 loan from MCB to Jozefovic.

43. Upon information and belief, to effectuate Jozefovic's assignment of the Jozefovic Waterview Collateral to MCB, Jozefovic agreed to and voluntarily permitted the amendment of the Waterview Acquisition I, LLC Operating Agreement.

44. Jozefovic breached his obligations under the Jozefovic Security Agreement by agreeing to and voluntarily permitting the amendment of the Waterview Acquisition I, LLC Operating Agreement and assigning the Jozefovic Waterview Collateral to MCB.

45. Jozefovic further breached the Jozefovic Security Agreement by failing to take all of the necessary steps to add Howard Fensterman, a principal of WPH Properties, as a co-signatory to the JP Morgan Chase accounts identified therein as required by the Jozefovic Security Agreement.

46. Jozefovic and HBL breached their obligation to post the $1,600,000 additional security deposit required by the Jozefovic Security Agreement and the Lease.

47. Jozefovic's moving of funds into a separate account that he controls does not satisfy the obligation to post the $1.6 million additional security deposit as required by the Jozefovic

Security Agreement and the Lease.

48. Jozefovic's and HBL's failure to satisfy the obligation to post the $1.6 million additional security deposit constitutes a breach of the Jozefovic Security Agreement and a breach of the Lease.

49. The Jozefovic Security Agreement provides that Jozefovic pledges, assigns and grants a first and superior security interest in and to all of his rights, title and interest as a member of Waterview Acquisition I, LLC to WPH Properties in order to secure the obligations under the Jozefovic Security Agreement and under the Lease.

50. Pursuant to the remedies granted to WPH Properties under the UCC and the Jozefovic Security Agreement, in the event of a default, WPH Properties is entitled, among other remedies, to dispose of the Jozefovic Waterview Collateral at a public sale.

51. Jozefovic breached the Jozefovic Security Agreement and materially and adversely affected the Jozefovic Waterview Collateral and the rights of WPH Properties by (i) agreeing to and voluntarily permitting the amendment of the Waterview Acquisition I, LLC Operating Agreement; and (ii) assigning the Jozefovic Waterview Collateral to MCB to secure Jozefovic's obligation to repay a $3,000,000 loan from MCB to Jozefovic.

52. As a result of Jozefovic breaching the Jozefovic Security Agreement by amending the operating agreement and assigning the Jozefovic Waterview Collateral to MCB, any purchaser of the Jozefovic Waterview Collateral at public sale by WPH Properties will purchase the Jozefovic Waterview Collateral subject to MCB's senior security interest in the collateral.

53. Jozefovic's breach of the Jozefovic Security Agreement therefore has caused WPH Properties damages in the amount of $3,000,000, the amount of Jozefovic's obligation to MCB.

secured by Jozefovic's illicit assignment of the same collateral to MCB.

HBL BREACHED ITS OBLIGATIONS UNDER THE LEASE

54. HBL failed to perform its obligations, materially defaulting under the Lease, almost immediately after taking possession of the Premises.

55. HBL failed to pay Rent as required by the Lease.

56. HBL failed to pay real estate taxes as required by the Lease.

57. HBL failed to pay utility deposits as required by the Lease.

58. HBL failed to pay municipal maintenance escrows as required by the Lease.

59. HBL failed to pay utility charges as required by the Lease.

60. HBL failed or refused to deliver certificates of insurance as required by the Lease.

61. HBL failed to deliver to WPH Properties all Medicare, Medicaid and other provider agreements and reimbursement rate sheets for the Facility, as required by the Lease.

62. HBL failed to deliver to WPH Properties all Medicare, Medicaid and other provider updated rate sheets, as required by the Lease.

63. HBL failed to deliver to WPH Properties the required financial reporting, as required by the Lease.

64. HBL failed to deliver to WPH Properties the required written reporting providing an operational overview of significant events and circumstances at the Facility during each prior month of the term of the Lease, as required by the Lease.

65. HBL failed or refused to deliver to WPH Properties the security deposits, as required by the Lease.

66. HBL failed to deliver and maintain the required credit line in an amount equal to

12 months' rent, as required by the Lease.

67. HBL failed to have and maintain the working capital account required by the Lease.

68. HBL failed to pay late fees and costs, as required by the Lease.

THE LETTER OF INTENT

69. After HBL defaulted, WPH Properties negotiated in good faith with HBL in an attempt to avoid termination of the Lease, despite HBL's default

70. On November 20, 2019, WPH Properties and HBL entered into a Letter of Intent (the "LOI") in which WPH Properties and HBL agreed that WPH Properties would sell the Facility for $73,000,000 to a Delaware Statutory Trust in which Jozefovic and Neuman would have a 77.5 percent interest and WPH Properties or its designees would have a 22.5 percent interest.

71. A true and accurate copy of the LOI is annexed to this complaint as Exhibit 5.

72. The LOI provides for the Lease to be amended to require that HBL pay the November 2019 rent by November 18, 2019, the December rent by December 5, 2019 and all real estate taxes and utility payments by December 1, 2019, that by December 5, 2019 HBL reimburse WPH Properties for $65,856 in municipal and utility deposits, that HBL enter into a Deposit Account Control Agreement with MNB requiring MNB to draw on the account first to pay the rent.

73. The LOI further provides for the Lease to be amended so that the $3,700,000 security deposit required by Section 7.1(a)(ii) is reduced to $2,000,000, $1,000,000 of which was required to be paid by HBL on or before December 1, 2019 or the date on which WPH Properties obtained a permanent certificate of occupancy for the Facility (which was granted on November 14, 2019), whichever was later, and the balance of which was required to be paid on April 1, 2020, which was the Closing date required by the LOI.

74. In addition, the LOI provides for the Lease to be amended so that in lieu of providing the additional $1,600,000 in security required by Section 7.1(a)(iii) of the Lease, HBL would be required to enter into an agreement with JP Morgan Chase Bank prohibiting liquidation of that account until the second $1,000,000 in security required by the LOI had been paid.

75. The LOI also provides for the Lease to be amended to require HBL to obtain a single working capital line of credit in the amount of $8,000,000 by December 1, 2019.

76. HBL defaulted and breached its obligations under the LOI by failing to pay rent, failing to pay the municipal and utility payments to WPH Properties, failing to pay the real estate taxes and utility payments, failing to enter into the Deposit Account Control Agreement, failing to enter into the agreement with JP Morgan Chase Bank, by failing to pay the first $1,000,000 security deposit as required by the LOI and by failing to obtain the $8,000,000 working capital credit line, and by failing to meet the required Closing date of April 1, 2020.

77. WPH Properties performed all conditions on its part required by the LOI.

78. Solely as a result of HBL's breach of the LOI, WPH Properties did not sell the property to the Delaware Statutory Trust, causing damage to WPH Properties, and WPH Properties incurred interest and late charges on its loans, all of which are the direct result of HBL's breach of the LOI.

NOTICE OF DEFAULT, TERMINATION OF THE LEASE AND ACCELERATION OF RENT

79. On January 7, 2020, while the LOI was in effect, WPH Properties served a "Notice of Default And Landlord's Election To Terminate Lease And Accelerate All Rents Due For The Balance of the Lease Term" upon HBL (the "Notice of Default").

80. A true and accurate copy of the Notice of Default is annexed to this complaint as Exhibit 6 and incorporated into this complaint by reference.

81. The Notice of Default contains a true and accurate accounting of the amounts then due and owing under the Lease and LOE.

82. The Notice of Default gave HBL notice that by reason of HBL's defaults under the Lease, WPH Properties had exercised its right under Section 16.1 of the Lease to terminate the Lease, effective January 13, 2020.

83. The Notice of Default further gave HBL notice that pursuant to Section 16.1 of the Lease all Rent for the balance of the Term was accelerated and HBL became obligated to pay WPH Properties the present value of the accelerated rent, discounted at a rate of 6% per annum.

84. HBL continued, and still continues, to occupy the Premises, despite WPH Properties' termination of the Lease.

85. Because HBL has held over after its default resulted in termination of the Lease, HBL is a tenant month-to-month at a rent equal to 300% of the most recent Rent payable by HBL under the Lease. Exhibit 1, Lease, § 20.13.

86. HBL has failed to perform its obligations as a tenant month-to-month by failing to pay rent in the amount of 300% of the most recent Rent payable by HBL under the Lease, remitting only the base rent which had been payable before WPH Properties terminated the Lease.

87. HBL is in default with respect to its obligations under the Lease and its obligations as a month-to-month tenant following termination of the Lease effective January 13, 2020.

AMOUNTS DUE

88. As a result of HBL's defaults, HBL is obligated to pay to WPH Properties, as of

COMPLAINT

Plaintiff Lizer Jozefovic (“Plaintiff”), by his attorneys Michelman & Robinson, LLP, brings his complaint against Defendants White Plains Healthcare Properties I, LLC (“WPHP”), Howard Fensterman (“Mr. Fensterman”), and Metropolitan Commercial Bank (“MCB”), alleging upon information and belief the following:

INTRODUCTION

1. This is an action to halt the dissemination of false and harmful statements as well as to prevent the fraudulent sale and to clarify the ownership of a limited liability company.
2. Plaintiff is the majority owner of Waterview Acquisition I, LLC.
3. Plaintiff previously entered into a collateral assignment, which established a rent security account for the White Plains Skilled Nursing Facility.
4. Plaintiff performed all obligations under the collateral assignment, which was acknowledged and documented by Mr. Fensterman.
5. Plaintiff subsequently assigned his interest in Waterview Acquisition I, LLC to MCB, as part of a financing arrangement, which both WPHP and Mr. Fensterman were aware of.

6. On October 6, 2020, WPHP and Mr. Fensterman issued a purported Notification of Disposition of Collateral, which stated that Plaintiff was a “debtor” and announced that Plaintiff’s interest in Waterview Acquisition I, LLC would be sold at “public auction” on October 30, 2020 (the “Notification”).

7. The Notification is entirely false: Plaintiff is not now, and has never been, indebted to WPHP or Mr. Fensterman, and WPHP and Mr. Fensterman have no right or ability to sell the Plaintiff’s interest in Waterview Acquisition I, LLC. Any attempt to do so is false, improper, and in breach of the collateral assignment.

8. Moreover, the Notification was designed to inflict maximum damage, as it was widely broadcast to Plaintiff’s business partners and other interested parties, harming Plaintiff’s reputation and ability to operate his facilities.

9. Moreover, Mr. Fensterman has represented Plaintiff previously, and continues to represent Plaintiff in a variety of matters, making his decision to act directly against Plaintiff’s interests bizarre, improper, and actionable.

10. Moreover, if WPHP and Mr. Fensterman continue with a fraudulent sale, as stated in the Notification, it will harm Plaintiff’s business and operations, as well as potential third parties who improperly attempt to purchase Plaintiff’s interest.

THE PARTIES

11. Plaintiff Lizer Jozefovic is a resident of the State of New York.
12. Defendant White Plains Healthcare Properties I, LLC is a foreign limited liability company that regularly conducts business in the State of New York.
13. Defendant Howard Fensterman is a resident of the State of New York and regularly conducts business in the State of New York.

14. Defendant Metropolitan Commercial Bank is a commercial bank with its headquarters located at 99 Park Ave, New York, NY 10016 and regularly conducts business in the State of New York.

15. This Court has jurisdiction over all causes of action asserted herein because all causes of action asserted herein arise out of conduct undertaken by defendants in the State of New York.

16. Each defendant has sufficient minimum contacts with the State of New York and has otherwise intentionally availed himself/itself of the State of New York so as to render the exercise of jurisdiction over it by the State of New York court consistent with traditional notions of fair play and substantial justice.

FACTUAL ALLEGATIONS

The Collateral Assignment

17. Plaintiff has a 70% share of Waterview Acquisition I, LLC (the “Membership Interest”), making him the majority owner.

18. Plaintiff previously entered into a collateral assignment, which established a rent security account for the White Plains Skilled Nursing Facility (the “Collateral Assignment”).

19. The Collateral Assignment states, in relevant part:

- a. Under Paragraph 2, upon the deposit of $1,600,000 into the rent security account, the “assignment shall automatically terminate and be void and of no further effect”;
- b. Under Section 13, the exercise of the White Plains Health Care Properties LLC’s (the “Assignee”) rights is limited to a violation of the “terms and provisions concerning the maintenance of the account...”; and

c. Under Section 13(c), any proceeds derived from the disposition of the collateral must be applied to the rent security account.

20. In November 2015, Plaintiff deposited $1,595,031.44 into Chase Account ending in xxxx-xxx-xxxx-7272 to establish the rent security (the “Rent Security”).

21. The funds for the Rent Security were derived from the refinancing of the Waterview real property.

22. At that time, both Gerald Billow, Esq an attorney at Posternak, Blankstein & Lund LLP, in Boston and Greg Stollar, Esq. of Abrams, Fensterman, Fensterman, Eisman, Formato, Ferrara, Wolf & Carone, LLP (“Abrams, Fensterman LLP”), attorneys for WPHP and Mr. Fensterman, were directly informed that the Rent Security had been established, satisfying the Collateral Assignment requirements.

23. Moreover, Mr. Fensterman was personally aware of the Rent Security and that the Collateral Assignment had been satisfied, as he and his legal counsel were informed of the creation of the account, and the money to fund the account was wired from Abrams, Fensterman LLP after Plaintiff established the account and made arrangements for Mr. Fensterman to be a signatory.

24. On December 14, 2015, Mr. Fensterman signed the Business Account Signature Form.

25. In 2017, the Rent Security was transferred to the Chase account ending in xxxx-xxx-xxxx-0885 by resolution of Waterview Acquisition I, LLC.

26. The resolution and account holder certification form were tendered to Mr. Fensterman.

27. As a result of Plaintiff's performance, all relevant obligations under the Collateral Assignment were completely satisfied by the provision of the Rent Security, automatically terminating the Collateral Assignment and rendering it void pursuant to its own provisions.

Assignment of the Membership Interest to MCB

28. At the time of the Collateral Assignment, the Operating Agreement of Waterview Acquisition I, LLC did not permit its members to assign their membership interests.

29. At that time, the Operating Agreement of Waterview Acquisition I, LLC stated, in relevant part:

- a. Articles 5 and 6 did not provide for any assignment of the Membership Interest;
- b. Article 12 specifically prohibited an assignment of the Membership Interest to Mr. Fensterman as Nominee of White Plains Healthcare Properties LLC.

30. Mr. Fensterman is aware of these facts, as well as the limitations on transferring and assigning the Membership Interest, as Mr. Fensterman and his firm Abrams, Fensterman LLP acted as counsel to Waterview Acquisition I, LLC in its formation and execution of its operating agreement.

31. However, the Operating Agreement of Waterview was subsequently amended in order to authorize Plaintiff, as the majority member, to assign his interest.

32. In December 2019, Plaintiff assigned the Membership Interest to MCB in connection with a $3,000,000.00 loan as part of a financing arrangement to provide working capital to benefit the White Plains project, most of which was paid in the form of rent to Defendants WPHP and Mr. Fensterman.

33. Currently, MCB has perfected its security interest in the Membership Interest and maintains physical possession of the membership certificates evidencing Plaintiff's ownership of interests in Waterview Acquisition I, LLC.

34. Mr. Fensterman knew of the approved of the loan from and assignment to MCB, as the proceeds have been used to pay rent on the White Plains Nursing Home.

35. Moreover, Mr. Fensterman has continued to represent Waterview Acquisition I, LLC to the present date, and has recently tendered bills and asked for payment for certain litigation matters.

36. Moreover, Mr. Fensterman previously acted as Plaintiff's personal counsel, during which time he represented Plaintiff in matters related to the corporate compliance and collection matters for all of Plaintiff's nursing homes.

Distribution of the Notification and Resulting Harm

37. On October 6, 2020, DelBello Donnellan Weingarten Wise & Wiederkehr, LLP ("DDW LLP") issued a purported Notification of Disposition of Collateral, dated October 6, 2020, which announced the intention to sell the Membership Interest at "public auction" (the "Notification").

38. The Notification was first sent on October 6, 2020 by Mr. Fensterman "as nominee for White Plains Health Care Properties, LLC."

39. The Notification claims to be based upon the Collateral Assignment.

40. The Notification states that Plaintiff is a "debtor" and that the Membership Interest will be sold "to the highest qualified public bidder in public" at 10:00 am on Friday, October 30, 2020 at DDW LLP.

41. Since then, Defendants WPHP and Mr. Fensterman have distributed the notice to multiple hospital operators across the state, as well as Plaintiff’s current and potential colleagues and business partners.

42. Plaintiff has received multiple calls inquiring about the alleged “debt” claimed in the Notification.

43. Plaintiff has never received any funds from WPHP or Mr. Fensterman. Therefore, neither Waterview Acquisition I, LLC nor Plaintiff owes any money to WPHP as there is no debt, and Plaintiff is not and cannot be a debtor.

44. Moreover, since 2015, Plaintiff has given WPHP and Mr. Fensterman over $4.6 million in a combination of loans, unallocated payments, and a down-payment for the purchase of a building.

45. Moreover, since September 2019, Plaintiff has paid rent of over $6 million.

46. In Plaintiff’s business, the public allegation of unpaid debts is very serious and damaging and has negatively impacted Plaintiff’s standing in the business and banking communities.

47. On October 16, 2020, Plaintiff, through counsel, attempted to contact Alfred E. Donnellan, Esq. (“Mr. Donnellan), the Managing Partner at DDW LLP, to confirm by October 20, 2020 that the Notification has been withdrawn and that there will be no attempts to proceed against the Membership Interest.

48. Neither Mr. Donnellan nor Mr. Fensterman have responded.

49. Plaintiff has been irreparably harmed by the Notification and any purported sale of the Membership Interest, and this harm will continue until the Notification is withdrawn and a correction is issued.

50. The wide dissemination of the false claims in the Notification has damaged Plaintiff's reputation and standing within the nursing home community.

51. Moreover, Plaintiff has been questioned by lenders and other interested parties as to the viability of his business concerns.

52. Moreover, the publication of the Notification has materially affected admissions to Plaintiff's facilities.

53. Moreover, if WPHP and Mr. Fensterman continue with a wrongful and fraudulent sale of the Membership Interest, it will disastrously and irreparably harm Plaintiff and potential third-parties who attempt to purchase the Membership Interest based upon a non-existent debt and without the ability to do so.

54. This action is brought to seek redress for WPHP and Mr. Fenster's harmful conduct, and to clarify ownership of the Membership Interest as to MCB.

FIRST CAUSE OF ACTION
Declaratory Judgment
(All Defendants)

55. Plaintiff repeats and incorporates by reference each of the foregoing allegations as though fully set forth herein.

56. The Collateral Assignment states that it is automatically terminated upon the establishment of the Rent Security.

57. Plaintiff properly established the Rent Security, pursuant to the requirements of the Collateral Assignment.

58. Defendants have personal knowledge that the Collateral Assignment was satisfied and is therefore null and void.

59. Plaintiff properly assigned the Membership Interest to MCB.

60. Defendants have personal knowledge that the Membership Interest has been assigned to MCB.

61. Plaintiff requests that the Court issue a declaratory judgment finding that: the Collateral Assignment is null and void following the establishment of the Rent Security; that the Membership Interest has been assigned to MCB; that Plaintiff is not indebted to WPHP or Mr. Fensterman; and consequently that WPHP and Mr. Fensterman have no right or claim to the Membership Interest, nor can WPHP, Mr. Fensterman, or DDW LLP sell or otherwise transfer the Membership Interest.

SECOND CAUSE OF ACTION
(WPHP and Mr. Fensterman)

62. Plaintiff repeats and incorporates by reference each of the foregoing allegations as though fully set forth herein.

66. Defendants have personal knowledge that the Rent Security has been established, and that the Collateral Assignment has been terminated.

67. WPHP and Mr. Fensterman issued the Notification in breach of the Collateral Assignment.

68. As a direct and proximate result of the foregoing conduct by WPHP and Mr. Fensterman, Plaintiff has suffered damages in an amount subject to proof at trial.

69. WPHP and Mr. Fensterman’s conduct, as alleged above, was willful, malicious and intentional and done for the purpose of depriving Plaintiff of property or legal rights or otherwise causing injury, and, therefore, was despicable conduct that subjected Plaintiff to a cruel and unjust hardship in conscious disregard of Plaintiff’s rights, so as to justify an award of exemplary and punitive damages in an amount to be established at trial.

76. Plaintiff repeats and incorporates by reference each of the foregoing allegations as though fully set forth herein.

79. WPHP and Mr. Fensterman knew that the statements in the Notification were false at the time the Notification was issued.

99. Deny the allegations in paragraph 99 of the complaint.

100. Deny the allegations alleged under the heading "Prayer For Relief" in the complaint and deny that Jozefovic is entitled to the relief requested in sub-paragraphs 1 through 7 thereof.

FIRST AFFIRMATIVE DEFENSE

101. The court is without jurisdiction over the persons of one or more of the Defendants.

SECOND AFFIRMATIVE DEFENSE

102. Jozefovic's claims are untimely and/or barred by the applicable statute of limitations.

THIRD AFFIRMATIVE DEFENSE

103. Jozefovic's complaint fails to state a valid claim upon which relief can be granted.

FOURTH AFFIRMATIVE DEFENSE

104. Jozefovic's complaint is barred, in whole or in part, by the doctrine of unclean hands.

FIFTH AFFIRMATIVE DEFENSE

105. Jozefovic's complaint is barred, in whole or in part, because Jozefovic breached the Collateral Assignment by failing to take all of the necessary steps to add Fensterman as a co-signatory to the Chase accounts alleged in the complaint as required by the Collateral Assignment.

SIXTH AFFIRMATIVE DEFENSE

106. Jozefovic's complaint is barred, in whole or in part because Jozefovic breached his obligations under the Collateral Assignment and HBL-SNF Inc. ("HBL") breached its obligations under the lease (the "Lease") for the White Plains Nursing Facility between WPH Properties, as landlord and HBL, as tenant. The Collateral Assignment provides that HBL is an entity controlled by Jozefovic.

107. On September 18, 2020, WPH Properties commenced an action entitled White Plains Healthcare Properties I, LLC v. HBL, SNF, LLC, Lizer Jozefovic a/k/a Lizer Jozefovic and

Mark Neuman, Index No. 60278:2020 in Supreme Court, Westchester County (the "Westchester County Action"), seeking, inter alia, recovery against HBL for HBL's material breach of its obligations under the Lease and against Jozefovic to enforce Jozefovic's guaranty of HBL's obligations under the Lease.

108. HBL breached its obligations under the Lease by failing to pay rent, failing to pay real estate taxes, failing to pay utility charges, utility deposits and municipal maintenance escrows, and failing to pay security deposits, including the $1,600,000 additional security deposit alleged in the complaint.

109. Neither Jozefovic nor HBL satisfied their obligation to post the required $1,600,000 additional security deposit alleged in the complaint. Jozefovic's moving of funds into a separate account that he controls does not satisfy the additional security obligations under the Collateral Assignment and the Lease. Failure to satisfy the additional security obligations constitutes a breach of the Collateral Assignment and a breach of the Lease.

110. The Collateral Assignment provides that Jozefovic pledges, assigns and grants a first and superior security interest in and to all of his rights, title and interest as a member of Waterview Acquisition I, LLC to WPH Properties in order to secure the obligations under the Collateral Assignment and under the Lease.

111. Pursuant to the remedies granted to WPH Properties under the UCC and the Collateral Assignment in the event of a default, WPH Properties is entitled to dispose of the collateral at a public sale.

SEVENTH AFFIRMATIVE DEFENSE

112. The Notification of Disposition of Collateral dated October 6, 2020 satisfies all requirements for a notice of sale under N.Y.U.C.C. § 9-613 and is sufficient as a matter of law because it is in the form set forth in N.Y.U.C.C. § 9-613(e).

EIGHTH AFFIRMATIVE DEFENSE

113. WPH Properties complied with all UCC Article 9 requirements relating to disposition of collateral, including those relating to notice, commercial reasonableness and public disposition. Every aspect of the noticed sale of Jozefovic's Waterview membership interest has been and will continue to be commercially reasonable.

114. WPH Properties fully complied with all UCC Article 9 notice requirements and scheduled the sale on 24 days' notice, more notice than is required under the Collateral Assignment or N.Y.U.C.C. § 9-612(e).

115. WPH Properties advertised the sale by publishing a Notice of Secured Party Public Auction concerning the sale in the Westchester Business Journal, inviting interested parties to request the Terms of Sale.

116. WPH Properties sent a letter to 622 targeted recipients including every nursing home listed on the New York State Department of Health's website and known investors in the nursing home industry notifying them of the sale. That letter invited interested parties to request the Terms of Sale and to become qualified bidders. The sale also satisfies UCC Article 9 requirements for a "public disposition".

NINTH AFFIRMATIVE DEFENSE

117. N.Y.U.C.C. § 9-610(a) provides that upon default any secured party may sell, lease, license, or otherwise dispose of any or all collateral. The UCC does not provide that only the most senior secured creditor may conduct a sale. N.Y.U.C.C. § 9-610, Official Comment 5, provides that disposition rights are not limited to first-priority security interests and any secured party as to whom there has been a default has the right to dispose of collateral.

118. The UCC does not require that a notice of an Article 9 sale of collateral specify whether there is another perfected security interest in the collateral being sold. WPH Properties complied with the N.Y.U.C.C. § 9-611(e)(3)(B) requirement that a junior creditor must notify other creditors with perfected security interests in the collateral of the sale and the Terms of Sale provided to interested bidders state that Jozefovic's Waterview membership interest is being sold subject to Metropolitan Commercial Bank's security interest.

TENTH AFFIRMATIVE DEFENSE

119. The Waterview resolution attached to the Collateral Assignment was executed by all the members of Waterview and provides that the "action is taken pursuant to the applicable New York limited liability company statutory laws and the operating agreement of the Company, by the written consent of a majority of its members and managers of the Company" and that the managers of Waterview were authorized, directed and empowered to execute any agreements required to effectuate the terms of the resolution.

120. The Waterview resolution clearly authorizes Waterview and its managers to enter into the Collateral Assignment, which set forth Jozefovic's obligations with respect to the Chase accounts alleged in the complaint and pledged Jozefovic's the Waterview Membership Interest as collateral. The provisions of the resolution, dated the same day as the Collateral Assignment, clearly and unambiguously show that all of the members of Waterview were aware of and consented to the Collateral Assignment.

WHEREFORE, defendants respectfully request that the Court deny the relief sought in the complaint and dismiss the complaint in its entirety.

DEFENSES

100. MCB reserves the right to rely upon any of the following or any additional defenses to the extent that such defenses are supported by information developed through discovery or evidence at trial. MCB presently has insufficient knowledge or information upon which to form a belief as to whether there may be, as yet unstated, defenses available to MCB and thus, expressly reserves the right to (a) amend or supplement this answer, defenses and all other pleadings, and (b) assert any and all additional defenses under any applicable federal and state law in the event that discovery indicates such defenses would be appropriate. By asserting the matters below, MCB does not admit that Plaintiff is relieved of his burden to prove each element of its claims and the damages or relief sought.

AS AND FOR A FIRST DEFENSE

101. MCB has a fully perfected security interest in the Membership Interest and the certificates constituting the Membership Interest that is senior to all other persons.

AS AND FOR A SECOND DEFENSE

102. MCB has a possessory right in the certificates constituting the Membership Interest that is superior to all other persons.

AS AND FOR A THIRD DEFENSE

103. Given that MCB is the creditor with the fully perfected senior secured interest in the Membership Interests and certificates constituting the Membership Interest, and also has possession of the certificates (and cannot be dispossessed of same), defendants WPHP and Fensterman cannot conduct a commercially reasonable sale of the Membership Interest and thus, they cannot proceed with a sale of said Membership Interest.

AS AND FOR A FOURTH DEFENSE

104. Upon information and belief, WPHP and Fensterman never had a valid security interest in the Membership Interest and thus, they cannot foreclose or sell same.

AS AND FOR A FIFTH DEFENSE

105. Upon information and belief, assuming arguendo WPHP and Fensterman had a valid security interest in the Membership Interest, said security interest has since terminated and thus, they cannot foreclose or sell same.

AS AND FOR A CROSS-CLAIM AGAINST WHITE PLAINS HEALTHCARE
PROPERTIES I, LLC AND HOWARD FENSTERMAN
(Declaratory Judgment)

106. MCB repeats and re-alleges the foregoing paragraphs as though fully set forth herein.

MCB's Security Interest in the Membership Interest

107. On or about December 19, 2019, MCB loaned $3 million to, among others, Waterview Acquisition I, LLC ("Waterview") and in connection therewith Waterview executed and delivered to MCB a Promissory Note and Loan Agreement each dated December 19, 2019.

108. To secure repayment of Waterview's obligations to MCB, among other things, Plaintiff executed and delivered to MCB a Guaranty Of Payment dated December 19, 2019 (the "Guaranty").

109. Plaintiff secured his obligations under his Guaranty by executing and delivering to MCB, among other things, the Assignment And Pledge Of Membership Interests dated December 19, 2019 (the "Pledge Agreement").

110. Pursuant to the Pledge Agreement, Plaintiff, among other things, "pledge[d], collateral[ly] assign[ed], transfer[red] and convey[ed], and grant[ed] a security interest in and lien on, in favor of [MCB], all of [Plaintiff's] right, title and interest in, to, and under ... , whether now owned or existing or hereafter acquired or arising [ Seventy and one-tenths percentage (70.1%) of the membership interests ... owned by HERBERT JOZEFOVIC ... in WATERVIEW ACQUISITION I, LLC ....]". In other words, by the Pledge Agreement, Plaintiff pledged his Membership Interests to MCB.

111. To authorize, permit and facilitate the pledge of Plaintiff's Membership Interests to MCB, Plaintiff's Membership Interests were certificated (the "Certificates") and the Amended

And Restated Operating Agreement Of Waterview Acquisition I, LLC was amended pursuant to the Second Amendment To Amended And Restated Operating Agreement Of Waterview Acquisition I, LLC dated December 19, 2019 (collectively, the "Operating Agreement"). After obtaining a senior secured interest in Plaintiff's Membership Interests and Certificates, MCB fully perfected same by filing a UCC Financing Statement on December 23, 2019 and taking possession of the Certificates.

112. All of Plaintiff's rights and interests in and to the Membership Interests are merged with and in the Certificates.

The Certificates

113. MCB remains in possession of the Certificates.

114. MCB has a possessory interest in the Certificates that is superior to all other persons and thus, cannot be dispossessed of the Certificates.

115. The Certificates, moreover, states as follows: "This certifies that Herbert Lizer Jozefovic is the registered owner of Seventy and 1/10 (70.1%) Percent of the membership in the Limited Liability Company transferable only on the books of the Company in accordance with the Company's Operating Agreement and pursuant to the provisions of Section 2801-a(4)(b) of the New York State Public Health Law."

116. Pursuant to Article XII of Waterview's Operating Agreement, a pledge or transfer of a membership interest is prohibited absent consent of the Public Health Council of the State of New York and the members of Waterview.

117. Likewise, Section 2801-a(4)(b) of the New York State Public Health Law requires the consent of the New York Public Health and Health Planning Council.

The Notice of Sale

118. On or about October 6, 2020, MCB and its counsel Windels Marx Lane & Mittendorf, LLP received a Notification Of Disposition Of Collateral pursuant to which WPHP and Fensterman purported to sell WPHP's interests in and to Plaintiff's Membership Interests and Certificates (the "Notice of Sale").

119. The Notice of Sale allegedly relates to an August 11, 2017 collateral assignment, pledge and security agreement between Plaintiff and WPHP. However, WPHP did not file a UCC Financing Statement until September 15, 2020.

120. Even if WPHP and Fensterman were to have a valid security interest in the Membership Interest, it would be junior to MCB's security interest by virtue of the fact that MCB perfected its interest before WPHP's September 15, 2020 UCC Financing Statement.

The UCC Requires that any Sale be "Commercially Reasonable"

121. Pursuant to NY UCC 9-610(b), "Every aspect of a disposition of collateral, including the method, manner, time, place, and other terms, must be commercially reasonable."

122. In order to conduct a commercially reasonable sale of the Membership Interests, WPHP and Fensterman must have possession of the Certificates.

Declaratory Relief is Necessary

123. As evidenced by the Notice of Sale, and the subsequent refusal by WPHP and Fensterman to withdraw the Notice of Sale, there exists a genuine controversy and dispute as to whether WPHP and Fensterman have the authority to sell Plaintiff's Membership Interest given that (a) WPHP and Fensterman never had a security interest in the Membership Interests and if they did, then said security interest long ago terminated, and even if they did and still have a security interest in the Membership Interests, then (b) (i) MCB has a fully perfected security interest in the Membership Interest and Certificates that is senior to all other persons, (ii) MCB is in possession of the Certificates, (iii) MCB has a possessory right in the Certificates that is superior to all other persons, (iv) MCB cannot be dispossessed of the Certificates given its superior possessory right in same, (v) the Certificates limit any transfer of same except in compliance with the Operating Agreement, which requires the consent of Waterview's members, and the Public Health Law, which requires the consent of the Public Health Council; (vi) all of Plaintiff's rights and interests in and to the Membership Interests are merged with and in the Certificates, and (vii) in order to conduct a commercially reasonable sale, WPHP and Fensterman must have possession of the Certificates.

124. A judicial determination of these issues is necessary.

125. This controversy is ripe, genuine, actually justiciable and MCB has no adequate remedy at law.

126. MCB is entitled to a declaratory judgment stating that WPHP and Fensterman are prohibited from selling Plaintiff's Membership Interest pursuant to the Notice of Sale or otherwise because: (a) WPHP and Fensterman never had a security interest in the Membership Interests and if they did, then said security interest long ago terminated, and even if they did and still have a security interest in the Membership Interests, then (b) (i) MCB has a fully perfected security interest in the Membership Interest and Certificates that is senior to all other persons, (ii) MCB is in possession of the Certificates, (iii) MCB has a possessory right in the Certificates that is superior to all other persons, (iv) MCB cannot be dispossessed of the Certificates given its superior possessory right in same, (v) the Certificates limit any transfer of same except in compliance with the Operating Agreement, which requires the consent of Waterview's members, and the Public Health Law, which requires the consent of the Public Health Council; (vi) all of Plaintiff's rights and interests in and to the Membership Interests are merged with and in the Certificates, and (viii) in order to conduct a commercially reasonable sale, WPHP and Fensterman must have possession of the Certificates.

(a) Granting Plaintiff's request for a judgment declaring that (i) the Collateral Assignment to WPHP and Fensterman is null and void following the establishment of the Rent Security; (ii) the Membership Interest has been properly assigned to MCB; and (iii) WPHP and Fensterman have no right or claim to the Membership Interest, nor can WPHP, Fensterman, or counsel sell or otherwise transfer the Membership Interest;

(b) Granting MCB's request for a judgment declaring that WPHP and Fensterman are prohibited from selling Plaintiff's Membership Interest pursuant to the Notice of Sale or otherwise because: (1) WPHP and Fensterman never had a security interest in the Membership Interests and if they did, then said security interest long ago terminated, and even if they did and still have a security interest in the Membership Interests, then (2) (i) MCB has a fully perfected security interest in the Membership Interest and Certificates that is senior to all other persons, (ii) MCB is in possession of the Certificates, (iii) MCB has a possessory right in the Certificates that is superior to all other persons, (iv) MCB cannot be dispossessed of the Certificates given its superior possessory right in same, (v) the Certificates limit any transfer of same except in compliance with the Operating Agreement, which requires the consent of Waterview's members, and the Public Health Law, which requires the consent of the Public Health Council; (vii) all of Plaintiff's rights and interests in and to the Membership Interests are merged with and in the Certificates, and (viii) in order to conduct a commercially reasonable sale, WPHP and Fensterman must have possession of the Certificates; and

(c) Granting MCB such other relief as the Court may deem fair, just and proper.

MOTION SEQ. NO. 001 002

DECISION + ORDER ON MOTION

The following e-filed documents, listed by NYSCEF document number (Motion 001) 2, 3, 4, 5, 6, 14, 15, 16, 17, 18, 19, 20, 21, 22, 23, 24, 25, 28, 29, 30, 31, 32, 33, 34, 35, 36, 37, 38, 39, 40, 41, 42, 43, 44, 45, 46, 47, 48, 49, 50, 51, 52, 53, 54, 55, 56, 57, 58, 59, 60, 65, 66, 67, 68, 69, 70, 71, 72, 73, 74, 75, 76, 86 were read on this motion to/for PREL INJUNCTION/TEMP REST ORDR.

The following e-filed documents, listed by NYSCEF document number (Motion 002) 7, 8, 9, 10, 11, 12, 13, 61, 62, 63, 77, 78, 79, 80, 81, 82, 83, 84, 85, 87, 89 were read on this motion to/for CHANGE VENUE.

In this action seeking a declaratory judgment and damages in connection with claims sounding in, inter alia, breach of contract, fraud, defamation, breach of fiduciary duty, and legal malpractice, the plaintiff moves pursuant to CPLR 6301 for a preliminary injunction enjoining the defendants and their agents from publishing and distributing false statements about the plaintiff and from taking any action to transfer, assign, convey, or sell the plaintiff's membership interest in Waterview Acquisition I, LLC ("Waterview") (SEQ 001). The defendants White Plains Healthcare Properties I, LLC ("WPH Properties"), and Howard Fensterman ("Fensterman") oppose the motion and separately move pursuant to CPLR 511 and 602 to transfer this action to Westchester County and consolidate it with an action pending there entitled White Plains Healthcare Properties I, LLC v HBL SNF, LLC, Lizer Jozefovic and Mark Neuman, Index No. 60278/2020 (the "Westchester Action") (SEQ 002). The plaintiff opposes the moving defendants' application. For the following reasons, the moving defendants' motion is granted and the plaintiff's motion is denied without prejudice.

WPH Properties is the developer and owner of a new skilled nursing facility located in Westchester County, New York (the "Facility"). The Facility is operated by HBL SNF, LLC ("HBL"), an entity controlled by the plaintiff. WPH Properties and HBL are parties to an operating lease dated November 19, 2015 (the "Lease"), under which WPH Properties leases the Facility to HBL, as tenant. The plaintiff and nonparty Marc Neuman, as principals of HBL, are HBL's guarantors under the Lease.

Section 7.1(a)(iii) of the Lease provides that HBL was to pay an additional security deposit in the amount of $1.6 Million 60 days prior to the start of the lease period. As security for that payment, the plaintiff and WPH Properties entered into a collateral assignment agreement (the "Collateral Assignment Agreement"). Pursuant to the Collateral Assignment Agreement, the plaintiff assigned to WPH Properties his 71% membership interest in Waterview, an entity that owns another skilled nursing home in Westchester County (the "Waterview Interest"). The plaintiff also agreed to list Howard Fensterman, attorney for WPH Properties, as a signatory to a Waterview account with JP Morgan (the "Waterview account") where the $1.6 Million was currently being held. The Collateral Assignment Agreement provided that:

"[u]pon the effectuation of Section 7.1(a)(iii) of the lease which requires Sixty days prior to the anticipated Commencement Date, the funds in the [Waterview account] in the amount of not less than $1,600,000 shall be deposited into the Landlords Rent Security Account, the [Waterview Interest] assigned to [WPH Properties] ...shall be automatically reassigned by [WPH Properties] to [the plaintiff] without recourse, representation or warranty, and this Assignment shall automatically terminate and be void and of no further effect."

The "Landlords Rent Security Account" is not a defined term in the Lease or the Collateral Assignment Agreement. The Collateral Assignment Agreement further provides that the exercise of WPH Properties' rights to sell the Waterview Interest as assignee is authorized upon the plaintiff's violation of the "terms and provisions concerning the maintenance of the [Waterview account]..."

The plaintiff avers that he satisfied his obligations under the Collateral Assignment Agreement and that as a result, the assignment terminated. In 2019, the plaintiff assigned the Waterview Interest to defendant Metropolitan Commercial Bank ("MCB") in connection with a $3 Million loan as part of a financing arrangement to provide working capital to benefit the Facility, including through the payment of rent to WPH Properties.

On September 18, 2020, WPH Properties commenced the Westchester Action, in which it contends, inter alia, that HBL breached the Lease by failing to pay rent, municipal and utility deposits, real estate taxes, and other fees associated with the Facility, including the $1.6 Million security deposit required by Section 7.1(a)(iii). On October 6, 2020, WPH Properties noticed a public sale of the Waterview Interest based upon the plaintiff's alleged default under the Collateral Assignment Agreement. On October 22, 2020, this action ensued.

"Consolidation is generally favored in the interest of judicial economy and ease of decision-making where cases present common questions of law and fact, 'unless the party opposing the motion demonstrates that a consolidation will prejudice a substantial right.'" Raboy v McCrory Corp., 210 AD2d 145 (1st Dept. 1994) (quoting Amtorg Trading Corp. v Broadway & 56th St. Assoc., 191 AD2d 212, 213 [1st Dept. 1993]). The movants correctly argue that consolidation is warranted here because this action and the Westchester Action share common questions of law and fact. See CPLR 602; DeSilva v Plot Realty, LLC, 85 AD3d 422 (1st Dept. 2011); Kern v Shandell, Blitz, Blitz & Bookson, 58 AD3d 487 (1st Dept. 2009).

The plaintiff opposes consolidation, observing that while the Westchester Action involves claims regarding HBL's performance of its obligations under the Lease and the plaintiff's performance under the guarantee he signed, the instant action involves claims regarding ownership of the Waterview Interest pursuant to the separate Collateral Assignment Agreement. However, this characterization of the actions ignores the fact that both (a) WPH Properties' claim in the Westchester Action that the additional security was not paid and (b) the plaintiff's central claim in this action that the Collateral Assignment Agreement automatically terminated turn on the same question: whether Section 7.1(a)(iii) of the Lease was effectuated. Allowing this question to proceed in two separate courts risks inconsistent results. Moreover, WPH Properties avers in its moving papers that it has amended its complaint in the Westchester Action to include a claim sounding in violation of the Collateral Assignment Agreement against the plaintiff. Finally, the plaintiff, who is a resident of Westchester County and a party to the Westchester Action, which was commenced prior to the instant action, would not suffer prejudice to any substantial right as a result of consolidation and transfer.

The court notes that transfer is also appropriate because it appears that venue is improper in New York County. CPLR 503 provides that "[e]xcept where otherwise prescribed by law, the place of trial shall be in the county in which one of the parties resided when it was commenced; the county in which a substantial part of the events or omissions giving rise to the claim occurred; or, if none of the parties then resided in the state, in any county designated by the plaintiff.” Here, the only entity residing in New York County is MCB, which the plaintiff has included as a defendant but against which the plaintiff has not asserted any claim. Conversely, several parties, including the plaintiff, reside in Westchester County. Since venue properly lies in Westchester County, the court declines to retain venue on the basis of MCB, a nominal defendant against whom there is no claim. See Espinoza v Concordia Intl. Forwarding Corp., 39 AD3d 258 (1st Dept. 2007).

The plaintiff’s motion for preliminary injunctive relief is denied without prejudice to renewal upon transfer and consolidation in Westchester County.

Accordingly, it is

ORDERED that the plaintiff’s motion pursuant to CPLR 6301 for a preliminary injunction (SEQ 001) is denied without prejudice to renewal upon the transfer and consolidation of this action in Westchester County; and it is further

ORDERED that the motion of White Plains Healthcare Properties I, LLC, and Howard Fensterman pursuant to CPLR 511 and 602 to transfer this action to Westchester County and consolidate it with an action pending there entitled White Plains Healthcare Properties I, LLC v HBL SNF, LLC, Lizer Jozefovic and Mark Neuman, Index No. 60278/2020, (SEQ 002) is granted; and it is further ORDERED this action, Lizer Jozefovic v White Plains Healthcare Properties I, LLC, Howard Fensterman, and Metropolitan Commercial Bank, Index No. 65549/2020, pending in the Supreme Court, New York County, shall be consolidated in the Supreme Court, Westchester County, with White Plains Healthcare Properties I, LLC v HBL SNF, LLC, Lizer Jozefovic and Mark Neuman, Index No. 60278/2020; and it is further, ORDERED that the consolidation shall take place under Westchester County Index No. 60278/2020; and it is further,

ORDERED that the Clerk of this Court shall transfer the file in this action to the Clerk of the Supreme Court, Westchester County, for consolidation and shall mark his records to reflect such transfer; and it is further,

ORDERED that the Clerk of the Court shall coordinate the transfer of the file in this action with the Clerk of the Supreme Court, Westchester County, so as to ensure an efficient transfer and minimize insofar as practical the reproduction of documents, including with regard to any documents that may be in digital format; and it is further

ORDERED that the pleadings in the actions hereby consolidated shall stand as the pleadings in the consolidated action; and it is further

ORDERED that, within 30 days from entry of this order, counsel for the moving defendants shall serve a copy of this order with notice of entry upon the Clerk of this Court, shall pay the appropriate transfer fee, if any, and shall contact the staff of the Clerk of this Court and cooperate in effectuating the transfer and consolidation; and it is further ORDERED that such service upon the Clerk of this Court shall be made in accordance with the procedures set forth in the Protocol on Courthouse and County Clerk Procedures for Electronically Filed Cases (accessible at the "E-Filing" page on the court's website at the address www.nycourts.gov/supctmanh).

This constitutes the Decision and Order of the court.

5. Through the period complained of herein, Fensterman acted as both a principal in the transaction and legal counsel to certain parties including the defendant Lizer Jozefovic.

6. William Nicholson is an individual residing at 12 Long Meadow Drive, Ipswich, Massachusetts 01938 with a business address and place of business at 2 Bourbon Street, West Peabody Executive Center, Suite 200, Peabody, Massachusetts 01960.

7. This case involves the development of a new state-of-the-art 160-bed skilled nursing facility on Church Street in White Plains, New York (the “Facility.”)

8. The Facility was proposed by the defendant, HBL SNF, LLC (“HBL”), and its principals Lizer Jozefovic and Mark Newman (the “Jozefovic Team”) to the New York State Department of Health (“NYSDOH”) in August 2009.

9. The Facility is dedicated to providing specialized services to “difficult to place patients,” including but not limited to, patients who exhibit psychiatric behaviors, patients who are undocumented, patients with developmental and physical disabilities, and patients who have no means of financial support and require charity care.

10. The Facility was intentionally located in White Plains to service high-density minority and high-density poverty populations as compared to surrounding regions.

11. In order to obtain a Certificate of Need from NYSDOH, the Jozefovic Team acquired skilled nursing bed licenses from other area nursing facilities including Hebrew Hospital Home of Westchester, Bethel Nursing Home, and Taylor Care Center.

12. After full review of the Jozefovic Team’s application, NYSDOH determined that the Jozefovic Team was a successful operator of nursing facilities that are authorized to care for the elderly and individuals with long-term physical care needs and has an established history of achieving high occupancy at the facilities it operated.

13. NYSDOH further determined that the Facility was unique and necessary as it provided care to patients not accepted by other facilities because of their special needs.

14. At the time the Jozefovic Team proposed the Facility, the Plaintiff White Plains Healthcare Properties I, LLC (“WPHP”) and the third-party defendants Howard Fensterman (“Fensterman”), William Nicholson (“Nicholson”), and their companies CCC Equities LLC (“CCCE”), Project Equity Construction (“PEC”), and The Congress Companies (“Congress”), approached the Jozefovic Team and proposed that they act as developers for the new Facility.

15. Led by third-party defendant Fensterman, these parties represented that they were capable of performing all aspects of development of the Facility including construction and financing (hereafter “the Project.”)

16. In fact, the Project costs for the Facility presented to NYSDOH by the Jozefovic Team were costs calculated and submitted by Fensterman and Nicholson.

17. Importantly, these costs established a total Project cost of $56, 631,759.

18. The Project costs for the Facility were itemized by Fensterman and Nicholson as follows:

Land acquisition	$ 4,528,333
New construction	$37,282,722
Design Contingency	$ 1,864,136
Construction Contingency	$ 1,864,136
Architect/Engineering Fees	$ 2,982,618
Construction Manager Fees	$ 745,654
Other Fees (Consultant)	$ 750,000
Movable Equipment	$ 1,480,000
Financing Costs	$ 2,112,000
Interim Interest Expense	$ 2,710,400
CON Application Fee	$ 2,000
CON Processing Fee	$ 309,760
Total Project Cost	$56,631,759

19. Many of these costs were to be paid to Fensterman and Nicholson directly, as well as Fensterman's law firm, and other costs to their entities as fees, interest costs, and other Project expenses.

20. In addition, Fensterman and Nicholson represented that they could arrange for 100% of the Project financing.

21. More specifically, Fensterman and Nicholson specifically represented and agreed in writing that they could secure a HUD insured mortgage in the amount of $42,240,000 with an interest rate of 5.5% and a term of thirty (30) years.

22. A description of this mortgage was included in the projected Medicaid Reimbursement submitted to NYSDOH as part of the Project feasibility forecast.

23. Furthermore, Fensterman represented that he could provide the necessary project equity in the amount of $9,863,246 through his company CCC Equities, LLC.

24. The Jozefovic Team presented this financing arrangement to NYSDOH in support of its request for approval of the Facility and these costs became part of NYSDOH's Project approval.

25. Given that Fensterman and Nicholson agreed to develop, finance, and own the Project, the Jozefovic Team agreed to enter into a Lease Agreement to occupy and operate the Facility.

26. To accomplish this, Fensterman and Nicholson proposed that their company White Plains Healthcare Properties I, LLC become the landlord for the operating company owned by the Jozefovic Team known as HBL.

27. The Lease was to be for a twenty (20) year term.

28. The rent was to be calculated as an amount equal to the debt service of the HUD insured mortgage to be obtained by Fensterman and Nicholson plus a return of cash equity to WPHP on the account of the equity contributions through CCCE.

29. The annual rent proposed by Fensterman and Nicholson and presented to NYSDOH equaled $4,318,000 annually or $360,000 per month.

30. The amount of annual rent as calculated above was eligible for reimbursement to HBL through the NYSDOH.

31. The Project as proposed to the NYSDOH was to be completed in approximately twenty (20) months.

32. The NYSDOH gave approval for the Project on the terms described above in October 2012.

33. Throughout the NYSDOH application process, the Jozefovic Team relied upon representations made by Fensterman and Nicholson.

34. However, shortly after receiving approval from NYSDOH, the Jozefovic Team learned that Fensterman and Nicholson did not have the capital necessary to commence or complete the Project as presented.

35. As a result of this lack of capital the Project was delayed for years.

36. In an attempt to overcome this lack of capital, on November 15, 2015, HBL entered into a Development Agreement with White Plains Healthcare Properties I, LLC (the "Development Agreement.")

37. On the same date, HBL entered into a Lease with White Plains Healthcare Properties I, LLC (the "Lease") for the Facility in order to enable WPHP to obtain its Project financing.

38. The Development Agreement and Lease are essential parts of the same transaction and are constitute integrated agreements.

39. Pursuant to the Development Agreement, the Project was to be “turn-key” meaning that the plaintiff and third-party defendants would deliver a fully constructed facility authorized to operate as a skilled nursing facility with permanent financing in place in accordance with the approval granted by NYSDOH.

40. However, because Fensterman and Nicholson lacked sufficient capital to complete the Project on a turn-key basis, they induced the Jozefovic Team to withdraw its equity from another nursing facility which it owned and operated known as Waterview Nursing Home and to contribute that equity to the Project so that the Project could move forward in 2016.

41. In particular, the Jozefovic Team made the following capital contributions to the Project as memorialized in a Term Sheet dated November 20, 2015:

- a) $2,200,000 paid to WPHP to be used by Congress for pre-development costs;
- b) $197,072 to CCC Equities, LLC to be used in the discretion of Fensterman;
- c) $1,595,368.32 into a control account in the name of HBL SNF.

42. These capital contributions were not made as part of a conventional business relationship or an arms-length transaction. Instead, the Jozefovic Team made these capital contributions in reasonable reliance on Fensterman, Nicholson, Congress, and CCCE’s representations that they were acting in a special capacity to protect and advance the Jozefovic Team’s interests. The relationship had developed into a joint venture and a special relationship.

43. The Jozefovic Team would not have made these capital contributions but for Fensterman, Nicholson, Congress, and CCCE’s representations.

44. Yet, despite repeated requests since 2015, Fensterman, Nicholson, Congress, and CCCE have failed or refused to provide an accounting of the use of the predevelopment and discretionary funds paid to them.

45. In consideration for the $2,200,000 contribution to WPHP, WPHP agreed that these funds constituted a loan to WPHP to be repaid to HBL.

46. No provision was made for the payment of interest on the loan notwithstanding that WPHP had the use of such funds since 2015.

47. WPHP agreed to repay the principal amount of the loan by purchasing the furniture, fixtures, and equipment (the "FF&E") in the amount of $1,500,000 for the Project and by giving HBL a future credit against Lease payments.

48. When advancing these funds to Fensterman, Nicholson, CCC Equities and Congress, the Jozefovic Team anticipated that the Facility would be delivered in September 2017.

49. The Facility was not delivered until December 2019.

50. Despite repeated requests, WPHP has never provided an accounting for purchases of the required FF&E or any documentation evidencing repayment of $1,500,000 of the loan amount to HBL.

51. In the absence of such an accounting, HBL cannot determine how much of its loan amount, if any, has been repaid and how much of the remaining loan balance should be credited to current Lease payments.

52. In addition, accrued interest on the $2,200,000 loan must be calculated from November 2015 and either paid to HBL or credited to payments due under the Lease.

53. The Development Agreement required that the Project be substantially completed within twenty-two (22) months or before September 2017.

54. However, at the time the Development Agreement was executed, the plaintiff knew that it could not deliver the completed Project by the promised time of September 2017.

55. Subsequently, the plaintiff breached its obligations to HBL by failing to complete the Project until December 2019.

57. The delay in completing the Project caused HBL to lose substantial revenue.

58. In addition, by delivering the Project in December 2019, HBL encountered market conditions during its start-up phase in 2020 caused by the COVID-19 pandemic which adversely affected HBL's operations as it has nursing homes throughout the region.

59. HBL would not have encountered these adverse financial conditions but not for the delay caused by plaintiff and third-party defendants.

60. In addition to the Project being completed more than two (2) years late, plaintiff and third-party defendants delivered the Project well over budget.

61. The Development Agreement required the plaintiff to enter into a construction contract with Congress and to secure a 100% performance bond to guarantee the performance of the construction contract.

62. However, unbeknownst to HBL, Congress could not secure a performance bond.

63. Fensterman and Nicholson never disclosed to HBL or any of its principals that Congress could not obtain a bond.

64. As a result, WPHP entered into a contract without approval or consent from HBL for a creation of a joint venture agreement with a third-party contractor.

65. The joint venture, among other reasons, added substantial costs to the Project.

66. These substantial additional costs exceeded the capital expenditures approved by NYSDOH and are not reimbursable through NYSDOH.

67. Upon information and belief, Congress's inability to secure the performance bond is related to certain judgments taken against its principal Nicholson arising from claims for diversion of project funds in a skilled nursing project located in Milwaukee, Wisconsin dating back to 2015, the time when the Jozefovic Team advanced monies to Nicholson and Congress.

68. Neither Fensterman nor Nicholson disclosed these adverse proceedings to the Jozefovic Team.

69. In fact, Nicholson was adjudged to have committed conversion and civil theft in the amount of $1,903,452, and that judgement was affirmed on appeal to the Seventh Circuit Court of Appeals.

70. The Development Agreement required that plaintiff and third-party defendants deliver the Project at the costs approved by NYSDOH.

71. Only in the event that HBL authorized a change order would HBL have responsibility for any cost higher than the cost approved by the NYSDOH.

72. There were no approved change orders.

73. The approved Project cost is $57,000,000.

74. The plaintiff and third-party defendants caused the Project to exceed the approved costs by more than $5,000,000.

75. The plaintiff and third-party defendants breached their obligations to HBL under the Development Agreement by causing the Project to be over budget.

76. As a result, HBL is not eligible for reimbursement of its rent payments as originally intended - a loss of eligibility that will cause substantial harm to HBL.

77. Given these costs overruns and the loss of eligibility for reimbursement, the Lease is unenforceable.

78. As part of the “turn-key” delivery of the Project, plaintiff was obligated to provide permanent financing for the Project on the terms of the HUD insured loan submitted by plaintiff as part of the Project approved by NYSDOH.

79. The plaintiff and third-party defendants have failed to provide such permanent financing and are in breach of the Development Agreement and the Lease.

80. In connection with the permanent financing, the plaintiff and third-party defendants were required to demonstrate sufficient equity invested in the Project for HUD or any other lender of permanent financing to grant a thirty (30) year loan to the Project.

81. Plaintiff and third-party defendants have failed to demonstrate sufficient equity in the Project.

82. Upon information and belief, Fensterman procured financial contributions from individual third parties who contributed capital to CCCE to meet the equity requirement.

83. Although this capital is required to be and has, in fact, been represented by Fensterman to be in the nature of equity, upon information and belief, these contributions from individual third-parties are loans at high rates of interest which are overdue as a result of the Project delays.

84. Fensterman, CCCE, and plaintiff have caused additional financial burden to the Project and have attempted to pass along to HBL and the Jozefovic Team these higher interest costs.

85. The Project cost overruns and the higher finance costs due to the delay in delivering the Project, together with the lack of sufficient equity, have prevented the Project from securing permanent financing.

86. The plaintiff and third-party defendants have advised HBL that they have initiated this lawsuit because they are in default of their current loan agreements.

87. As of this date, plaintiff and third-party defendants have been unable to provide to the Jozefovic Team an accurate Project accounting of Project expenditures and have refused to provide information concerning the Project financing.

88. As of this date, plaintiff and third-party defendants have been unable to procure the HUD insured financing which they represented they could secure and is required by NYSDOH Project approval.

89. As of this date, the Project does not comply with the approval issued by the NYSDOH.

90. HBL and its principals reasonably relied upon WPHP, Fensterman, Nicholson, and Congress' representations that they would fulfill their obligations under the Development Agreement and Lease.

91. If HBL and its principals knew that WPHP, Fensterman, Nicholson, and Congress would substantially breach their obligations under the Development Agreement and Lease, HBL and its principals would not have entered into the Development Agreement and Lease.

92. As a result of the failure to deliver the Project on the terms approved by NYSDOH, HBL cannot be reimbursed for the cost of the Facility as intended by the Development Agreement and the Lease and HBL and its principals have suffered financial harm as a result.

93. Throughout the development process, WPHP, Fensterman, Nicholson and Congress' false representations and adverse actions to the Jozefovic Team have adversely affected the business of HBL.

94. WPHP, Fensterman, Nicholson and Congress knew that these representations were false when they were made.

95. At no point have HBL or the Jozefovic Team knowingly intended to agree, in whole or in part, to release or waive WPHP, Fensterman, Nicholson, and Congress for any of their breaches and violations of the Development Agreement and the Lease.

96. Since the Facility began operations, HBL has made regular rent payments to WPHP pursuant to the terms of the Lease.

97. As of this date, HBL has made over $12 million in rental payments to WPHP.

98. HBL has made, and continues to make, these payments in compliance with its obligations under the Lease. HBL's payments do not constitute a waiver or release of HBL's claims against WPHP, CCCE, Congress, Fensterman, or Nicholson.

99. On information and belief, WPHP does not own the property for the Facility outright, but instead received entered into a mortgage agreement with Security Benefit Life Insurance Company and Security Benefit Corporation (collectively, "Security Benefit").

100. The primary purpose of HBL's rental payments to WPHP is for WPHP to satisfy its monthly mortgage payments to Security Benefit.

101. On information and belief, WPHP failed to make required mortgage payments to Security Benefit.

102. On information and belief, Security Benefit instructed WPHP to make certain payments otherwise it would institute foreclosure proceedings, potentially jeopardizing HBL's tenancy and continued operations.

103. On information and belief, although WPHP has received substantial rental payments from HBL, WPHP has refused or failed to make necessary mortgage payments to Security Benefit.

104. On information and belief, Security Benefit has declared WPHP to be in default of its mortgage, having failed to make necessary mortgage payments, charges, interest, and other required fees.

105. On information and belief, Security Benefit has demanded WPHP to send HBL a Tenant Direction Notice, instructing HBL to make all future rental payments directly to Security Benefit.

106. To date, WPHP has not instructed HBL to make future rental payments directly to Security Benefit, but instead continues to collect HBL's monthly rental payments itself.

107. On information and belief, Security Benefit has demanded that WPHP establish a Cash Management Account and instruct HBL to deposit all future rental payments into the Cash Management Account.

108. To date, WPHP has not instructed HBL to deposit future rental payments in a Cash Management Account, but instead continues to receive HBL's monthly rental payments in its own account.

109. On information and belief, Security Benefit has brought a foreclosure action against WPHP and is threatening to foreclose on the mortgage on the property for the Facility.

("HBL"), Lizer Jozefovic ("Jozefovic") and Mark Neuman ("Neuman") (collectively, "defendants").

2. As noted in the accompanying affirmation of our lead attorney, Alfred F. Donnellan, Esq., this is an action to recover damages from HBL and its guarantors, Jozefovic and Neuman, for breach of a lease for the nursing home facility which WPH Properties built and owns at 116-120 Church Street in White Plains and the letter of intent by which WPH Properties agreed to sell a majority interest in the building to HBL's principals. HBL's defaults under both the lease and the letter of intent are fully set forth in the accompanying affidavit of Edward O. Tabor.

3. WPH Properties did not commence this action because of an isolated default by HBL on one occasion, or even a few occasions. HBL and its principals and guarantors, Jozefovic and Neuman, have defaulted or reneged on every agreement they have entered into with WPH Properties since 2015. WPH Properties has repeatedly renegotiated the terms of the deal to accommodate HBL's failure or refusal to comply with its obligations under those agreements. And despite this, HBL has defaulted at every turn.

4. WPH Properties entered into a lease in 2015 for the facility it was going to build commencing in 2017. A copy of the 2015 lease is attached as exhibit 35. Jozefovic and Neuman were not then able, however, to obtain the necessary approvals from the United States Bankruptcy Court to allow their partner Hebrew Hospital Home of Westchester, Inc. to enter into the transaction. Hebrew Hospital finally signed the HBL operating agreement, which governs its partnership with Jozefovic and Neuman, on February 1, 2017. WPH Properties was then able to complete the underwriting of the project with its lenders and reached agreement for the financing of the facility with those lenders on May 26, 2017. The approval of the New York State Department of Health, however, which was required before WPH Properties could start to build the facility, was delayed until July 2017. Defendant's counsel, Mark Zafran, admitted in an e-mail dated April 11, 2017, that it was HBL's Member Hebrew Hospital's bankruptcy that "was a large impediment to our financing package..." Exhibit 36.

5. WPH Properties closed on its construction financing within a month after the Department of Health issued its approval to start construction. Upon learning that WPH Properties had arranged the construction financing, however, Jozefovic insisted upon renegotiating the terms of the lease. We agreed to do so because we were so invested in the purchase of the property and the predevelopment costs, because HBL had failed or refused to put up the deposits required in the 2015 lease, and because, as a practical matter, with no deposits from HBL, we could not afford to lose HBL as the tenant. The renegotiated lease, a true and accurate copy of which is attached exhibit 12, was substantially more favorable to HBL in two respects. First, it gave HBL, as long as it was not in default, a right of first refusal if WPH Properties ever wanted to sell the building. That right was significantly more valuable than the right to purchase the property at a calculated price only during the twelfth through fifteenth years of the lease term, which is what HBL had under the 2015 lease. Second, and far more important, the 2017 lease provided for a fixed monthly rent, rather than a rent amount based upon WPH Properties' financing costs. That saved, or would have saved, HBL roughly $1.8 million, according to my estimate, over just the first six years of the lease term.

6. WPH Properties completed the facility and the Department of Health approved it in 2019. The lease term commenced as of September 30, 2019. Upon taking possession, HBL was in default for failure to pay the required security deposits sixty days in advance of possession. By November 2019, HBL had also defaulted under the lease by, among other things, failing to pay rent, failing to provide the required security deposits and refusing to provide financial and operational reporting required by the lease, which were all critical to WPH Properties because they were all necessary to refinance the construction loan by its due date into a permanent loan. Rather than terminate the lease, as WPH Properties had the right to do, however, WPH Properties agreed in November 2019 to transfer the property to a Delaware Statutory Trust in which HBL's principals would be beneficiaries. The agreement required HBL to provide a $1,000,000 payment toward the security deposit within 10 days (rather than the full $5,300,000 it was obligated to provide under the re-negotiated lease), to comply in all other respects comply with the lease and to close by April 1, 2020. HBL defaulted almost immediately by failing to provide the $1,000,000 payment toward the security deposit. Only after that did WPH Properties terminate the lease and, later, commence this action.

7. HBL's failure to provide the security deposit either before it took occupancy, as the lease required, or at any time thereafter is its principal, and most serious, default on its obligations under the lease. The lease requires that HBL shall have delivered to WPH Properties "60 days prior to the anticipated Commencement Date," a security deposit consisting of $3.7 million in cash or letter of credit and an additional $1.6 million from an identified bank account. Exhibit 12, Lease § 7.1(a)(ii) and (iii). HBL has never done that. HBL admits that it took occupancy of the facility on September 30, 2019. Exhibit 11, Notice to Admit, No. 1. The security deposit was due, therefore, in July 2019. It has never been paid – not even a penny. As a result, HBL has been in occupancy for nearly two years without ever providing any security deposit. The lease specifically defines the failure to provide the security deposit as a material breach of the lease. Exhibit 12,

Lease, Schedule 3.1, §16.1 (xxvi).

8. HBI also defaulted by failing to pay rent, real estate taxes timely, municipal escrows and utility charges as required by the lease, by failing or refusing to deliver certificates of insurance timely, as well as all Medicare, Medicaid and other provider agreements and reimbursement rate sheets for the facility and by failing or refusing to deliver timely the required financial reporting and written reporting providing an operational overview of significant events and circumstances at the facility during each month of the lease term, all as alleged in the complaint. All of these defaults are detailed, with supporting documentation, in the accompanying affidavit of Edward O. Tabor.

9. HBL does not deny that it has defaulted. In fact, HBL has admitted its defaults by failing to respond to the notice to admit that was served in early June. The substance of those admissions is set forth in the accompanying affirmation of Alfred E. Donnellan, Esq.

10. Based on all of this, WPH Properties has established its entitlement to summary judgment for the relief demanded in the complaint against HBL and against Jozefovic and Neuman, who guaranteed HBI's obligations under the lease. As a result, and for the reasons set forth in Mr. Tabor's affidavit, HBL, Jozefovic and Neuman are each indebted to WPH Properties in the sum of $111,420,213.50.

11. The defendants' response has been to make a series of other claims, none of which relieves them of their liability, in the hope that they can muddy the waters sufficiently to avoid summary judgment. The purpose of the balance of this affidavit is to address all of those issues and to demonstrate that there is no basis for the defendants' claims.

12. WPH Properties developed, financed, constructed and owns a brand new, state-of-the-art, 160-bed skilled nursing home located at 116-120 Church Street, White Plains, New York (the "facility"). HBL is the tenant and operator of the facility under an amended and restated operating lease that was signed on July 12, 2017 and is dated as of November 19, 2015, which was the date of the original lease. A true and correct copy of the lease, identical to that which was attached to the complaint, is attached as exhibit 12. The defendants have admitted the accuracy of the copy of the lease that is attached to the complaint. Exhibit 10, First Amended Verified Answer, ¶ 2.

13. WPH Properties and HBL are also parties to a development agreement, dated as of November 19, 2015, as amended July 12, 2017. A true and correct copy of the development agreement is attached as exhibit 13.

14. The lease obligated HBL to deliver guaranties of all of HBL's obligations under the lease by Jozefovic (the "Jozefovic Guaranty") and Neuman (the "Neuman Guaranty"). Exhibit 12, lease, § 7.1. The defendants have admitted the accuracy of the copies of the Jozefovic Guaranty and the Neuman Guaranty that are attached to the complaint. Exhibit 10, First Amended Verified Answer, ¶ 5. A true and correct copy of the Jozefovic Guaranty, identical to the one attached to the complaint, is attached as exhibit 14. A true and correct copy of the Neuman Guaranty, identical to the one attached to the complaint, is attached as exhibit 15.

15. The Jozefovic Guaranty and the Neuman Guaranty both state at section 2.1:

Guarantor absolutely, unconditionally and irrevocably guarantees, as a primary obligator and not merely as a surety: (i) the full and prompt payment of all Minimum Rent and Additional Rent and all other rent, sums and charges of every type and nature payable by Tenant under the lease, whether due by acceleration or otherwise, including costs and expenses of collection (collectively, the "Monetary Obligations"), and (ii) the full, timely and complete performance of all covenants, terms, conditions, obligations, indemnities and agreements to be performed by Tenant under the lease, including any indemnities or other obligations of Tenant that survive the expiration or earlier termination of the lease (all of the obligations described in clauses (i) and (ii), are collectively referred to herein as the "Obligations").

16. Pursuant to the Jozefovic Guaranty, Jozefovic absolutely, unconditionally and irrevocably guarantees the full and prompt payment of all rent, sums and charges of every type and nature payable by HBI, under the lease, whether due by acceleration or otherwise. The Jozefovic Guaranty is an absolute and unconditional guaranty of payment and is enforceable against Jozefovic without the necessity of any notice of nonpayment, nonperformance or nonobservance, or any notice or demand, all of which Jozefovic expressly waived.

17. Pursuant to the Neuman Guaranty, Neuman absolutely, unconditionally and irrevocably guarantees the full and prompt payment of all rent, sums and charges of every type and nature payable by HBL under the lease, whether due by acceleration or otherwise. The Neuman Guaranty is an absolute and unconditional guaranty of payment and is enforceable against Neuman without the necessity of any notice of nonpayment, nonperformance or nonobservance, or any notice or demand, all of which Neuman expressly waived.

18. Finally, as security for his guaranty, Jozefovic pledged his 71 percent interest in Waterview Acquisition I, LLC ("Waterview"), which owns a 130-bed skilled nursing facility known as Waterview Hills Rehabilitation and Nursing Center located at 537 Route 22, Purdys, New York 10578. Pursuant to a Collateral Assignment and Pledge of Membership Interest and Security Agreement dated August 11, 2017 (the "pledge agreement"). The defendants have admitted the accuracy of the copy of the pledge agreement attached to the complaint. Exhibit 10,

First Amended Answer, ¶ 11. A true and correct copy of the pledge agreement, identical to the one attached to the complaint, is attached as exhibit 16.

19. In 2019, after HBL had defaulted under the lease within weeks of taking possession, the parties entered into a third agreement, the letter of intent, in an attempt to resolve the issues presented by the default in a mutually agreeable way. The letter of intent provided that WPH Properties would sell the building to a Delaware Statutory Trust in which Jozefovic and Neuman would have a 77.5 percent interest and WPH Properties would have a 22.5 percent interest. The defendants have admitted the accuracy of the copy of the letter of intent attached to the complaint. Exhibit 10, First Amended Verified Answer, ¶ 19. A true and correct copy of the letter of intent, identical to the one attached to the complaint, is attached as exhibit 17.

20. The letter of intent gave significant relief to HBL under the lease. In contemplation that the sale would be consummated in several months, the letter of intent allowed HBL to provide an initial payment of only $1,000,000 toward the $5.3 million security deposit from its credit line, and an additional $1,000,000 when WPH Properties delivered free and clear title to the furniture, fixtures and equipment and then an additional $40,000 per month thereafter. Exhibit 17, Letter of Intent, § 6(d). The letter of intent also allowed HBL to put the $1.6 million cash security deposit in an account subject to a "blocked account agreement." Exhibit 17, Letter of Intent, § 6(e).

21. But HBL defaulted under the letter of intent as well. HBL never provided the $1,000,000 toward the security deposit and never complied with its other obligations under the lease, as the letter of intent required. It failed to pay rent, failed to pay municipal and utility payments and real estate taxes timely, failed to enter into a "Deposit Account Control Agreement," failed to enter into the agreement with JP Morgan Chase Bank, failed to obtain the required

$8,000,000 working capital credit line and failed to close on April 1, 2020.

HBL's affirmative defenses are without merit

22. HBL asserts 10 affirmative defenses, none of which have any merit

23. The first two affirmative defenses allege that WPH Properties failed to perform its obligations under the lease and development agreement and failed to pay its mortgage debt. Those claims are false for the reasons stated below.

24. The third affirmative defense, that the lease is not sufficiently clear and definite to be enforced, is baseless as well. There is nothing uncertain about HBL's obligations to provide the required security deposit, to pay rent, taxes and utilities and to provide the various documents the lease specifically identifies. HBL does not dispute that it failed to satisfy these obligations and it has never claimed, until its answer in this action, that it did not understand them.

25. The fourth affirmative defense is addressed in the accompanying affidavit of Edward O. Tabor. To the extent that HBL did make payments, those payments have been accounted for and credited to HBL. HBL is still in default in the payments it is obligated to make under the lease.

26. The fifth, sixth, seventh and eighth affirmative defenses are addressed below. WPH Properties has never defaulted in its obligations or given HBL any basis for a setoff. And while WPH Properties offered HBL the opportunity to overcome its defaults under the lease by purchasing the facility, as set forth in the letter of intent, which HBL also breached, it has consistently insisted on HBL's performance of its lease obligations.

27. Finally, addressing the ninth affirmative defense, there is not one instance in which WPH Properties or its principals have been guilty of bad faith in this matter. To the contrary, HBL and Jozefovic have consistently demonstrated their bad faith by completely disregarding HBL's obligations under the lease, as well as Jozefovic's obligations under the pledge agreement and the obligations of Jozefovic and Neuman as guarantors of HBL's performance under the lease. Jozefovic's bad faith scheme is clear. He thinks that by using HBL's defaults under the lease to prevent WPH Properties from obtaining permanent financing he can put WPH Properties into default under its construction loan and then negotiate with the lender to purchase the facility for far less than he agreed to pay WPH Properties.

WPH Properties and third-party defendants are entitled to judgment dismissing defendants' claims

28. The defendants impermissibly assert counterclaims and third-party claims here. Those claims are based upon false and scurrilous allegations that are either refuted by the documentary evidence, including the release in favor WPH Properties, or are insufficient to state a cause of action. These arguments are fully addressed below and in the accompanying memorandum of law.

29. To begin with, HBL's counterclaims against WPH Properties are barred by section 16.4 of the lease, which provides that "Tenant waives, to the maximum extent permitted by applicable Laws, . . . (4) the right to interpose any counterclaim (other than compulsory counterclaims) in . . . any action instituted by Landlord in any court for unpaid Rent under this Lease . . ."

30. The counterclaims and third-party claims asserted by Jozefovic and Neuman must be dismissed by reason of the similar language in the guaranties. Each provides that "the liability of * Counsel advises me that there are no compulsory counterclaims in New York. See Henry Modell & Co., Inc. v. Minister, Elders and Deacons, 68 N.Y.2d 456, 461 (1986).

Guarantor hereunder shall be absolute and unconditional irrespective of any or any of the following . . . (viii) any other dealings or matters occurring between Landlord and Tenant; . . . or (xviii) any other cause, whether similar or dissimilar to any of the foregoing, that might constitute a legal or equitable discharge of Guarantor (whether or not Guarantor shall have knowledge or notice thereof) other than payment and performance in full of the Obligations;" ¶ 3.3. Further,

GUARANTOR SHALL NOT INTERPOSE ANY COUNTERCLAIM OR COUNTERCLAIMS OR CLAIMS FOR SET-OFF, RECOUPMENT OR DEDUCTION OF RENT IN ANY ACTION BROUGHT BY LANDLORD AGAINST GUARANTOR UNDER THIS GUARANTY. GUARANTOR SHALL NOT BE ENTITLED TO MAKE, AND HEREBY WAIVES, ANY AND ALL DEFENSES AGAINST ANY CLAIM ASSERTED BY LANDLORD OR IN ANY SUIT OR ACTION INSTITUTED BY LANDLORD TO ENFORCE THIS GUARANTY OR THE LEASE. IN ADDITION, GUARANTOR HEREBY WAIVES, BOTH WITH RESPECT TO THE LEASE AND WITH RESPECT TO THIS GUARANTY, ANY AND ALL RIGHTS WHICH ARE WAIVED BY TENANT UNDER THE LEASE. IN THE SAME MANNER AS IF ALL SUCH WAIVERS WERE FULLY RESTATED HEREIN. THE LIABILITY OF GUARANTOR UNDER THIS GUARANTY IS PRIMARY AND UNCONDITIONAL.

Exhibit 14, Jozefovic Guaranty, ¶ 4.2; Exhibit 15, Neuman Guaranty, ¶ 4.2. Jozefovic and Neuman, therefore, have no defenses, no counterclaims and no third-party claims.

A. The defendants' first cause of action, for an accounting, must be dismissed because there was no fiduciary relationship between HBL, Jozefovic and Neuman and WPH Properties or any of the third-party defendants.

31. The relationship between WPH Properties and its principals, on one hand, and HBL, Jozefovic and Neuman, on the other, was, at all times, an arms-length transaction. The lease confirms that. It provides that "[i]t is the intent of Landlord and Tenant that this this lease is a true lease and that this lease does not represent a financing arrangement." Exhibit 12, Lease, § 3.6. The lease also expressly provides that (i) the relationship between HBL and WPH Properties is, and at all times shall remain, solely that of landlord and tenant; (ii) there is no partnership, joint venture, agency or common interest in profits or income between the parties; (iii) WPH Properties shall not be construed as a partner, joint venturer, alter ego, manager, controlling person or other business associate or participant of any kind of HBL or its stockholders, members, or partners; (iv) WPH Properties never intends to ever assume such status, and (v) both WPH Properties and HBL "disclaim any intention to create any partnership, joint venture, agency or common interest in profits or income between (WPH Properties and HBL), or any sharing of liabilities, losses, costs or expenses." Exhibit 12, Lease, § 20.28 The lease therefore expressly defeats the counterclaim for an accounting.

32. The $2.2 million that HBL paid pursuant to the letter of intent was not in payment of any of HBL's obligations under the lease. It was HBL's non-refundable down payment for the purchase of the facility. Exhibit 17, Letter of Intent, § (1)(a)(i) and § (1)(a)(i)(3). And HBL breached the letter of intent by failing to provide the $1,000,000 toward the security deposit, failing to pay rent, failing to pay municipal and utility payments and real estate taxes, failing to enter into a "Deposit Account Control Agreement," failing to enter into the agreement with JP Morgan Chase Bank, failing to obtain the required $8,000,000 working capital credit line and failing to close on April 1, 2020. It is therefore not entitled to the return of the $2.2 million, which was non-refundable by its terms. That payment, in any event, is no defense to its failure to satisfy its obligations under the lease.

B. The defendants' second cause of action, for imputed interest, is baseless.

33. HBL's second cause of action, for imputed interest, is baseless as well. The defendants' answer admits that "no provision was made for the payment of interest on the loan notwithstanding that WPH had the use of such funds since 2015." Exhibit 10, First Amended Verified Answer, ¶ 46.

C. The defendants' third cause of action, alleging that WPH Properties breached the contract, is belied by the facts.

34. WPH Properties is not, and has never been, in default of any of its obligations under any of its agreements with the defendants. In any event, even if the defendants could assert such a counterclaim, they have waived or released it.

(i) The defendants have waived any claims based on WPH Properties' construction of the facility.

35. WPH Properties' principal obligation was to construct a building in accordance with the requirements of the development agreement. HBL has admitted that WPH Properties satisfied those obligations. Article III(1) of the development agreement provides that on the "substantial completion date" HBL "shall (i) be deemed to have taken occupancy and accepted possession of the Project, (ii) have agreed that the Project has been completed in accordance with the Plans and Specifications, and (iii) have agreed that the Developer has fulfilled all of its responsibilities hereunder to the satisfaction of Tenant/Operator." Exhibit 13, Development Agreement, Article III(1).

36. The "substantial completion date" is defined in Article VIII of the development agreement as "the later of: (i) the date specified in the AIA Form G704, duly executed and certified by the Architect, that the Project was substantially completed and in substantial compliance with the Plans and Specifications for the Project, (ii) the date Developer delivers a Temporary Certificate of Occupancy (the "TCO") for the Project, and (iii) the date the DOH approves the Project as constructed (but not necessarily the Operator/Tenant's operations) to accept patients." Exhibit 13, Development Agreement, Article VIII. All of those dates have long passed.

37. The temporary certificate of occupancy was issued on August 22, 2019. A true and accurate copy is attached as exhibit 18. The architect certified that the building was substantially completed and in substantial compliance with the plans and specifications on September 30, 2019. A true and accurate copy of the signed AIA Form G704 is attached as exhibit 19. The New York State Department of Health approved the project to accept patients on November 14, 2019. A true and accurate copy of the letter from the New York State Department of Health is attached as exhibit 20. The defendants admit that the facility was delivered in December 2019. Exhibit 10. First Amended Verified Answer, ¶ 49. In fact, the New York State Department of Health was prepared to approve the project for occupancy on October 1, 2019 but was delayed in doing so solely by HBL's own failure to provide a required signature in order to delay the start of rent payments. A true and accurate copy of the email chain in this regard is attached as exhibit 21.

38. The defendants' admission in the development agreement that WPH Properties completed the facility in accordance with the plans and specifications and fulfilled all of its responsibilities under the development agreement thus defeats every claim the defendants have asserted with respect to the condition of the facility and the satisfaction by WPH Properties of all of its obligations. In addition, HBL represented in the lease that "as of Commencement Date and at all times during the Term," the facility satisfies "requirements of applicable Health Care Authorities, including those relating to the facility's physical structure and environment." Exhibit 12. Lease, Schedule 18(k), ¶ (e); ¶ 18(k).

39. The lease also defeats all of the defendants' other claims against WPH Properties. Section 5.6 of the lease provides that HBL takes the facility "AS IS" "WHERE IS" "WITH ALL FAULTS." Exhibit 12, Lease, § 5.6(a). The lease further provides that HBL, its officers, agents and anyone acting on its behalf release WPH Properties from "ALL CLAIMS . . . ARISING FROM OR RELATED TO ANY MATTER OR THING RELATED TO OR IN CONNECTION WITH THE LEASED PREMISES." Exhibit 12, Lease, § 5.6(h) (emphasis in original). The lease further provides, in the same paragraph, that HBL "waives any right it otherwise may have at law or equity against the landlord with respect to any aspect of the leased Premises." Since the lease was entered into in 2017, the release that it contains requires that the defendants' first, second, third, fifth and sixth claims against WPH Properties, all of which necessarily arose before 2017, be dismissed.

(ii) WPH Properties completed the facility on time.

40. The development agreement did not require that the building be substantially completed within 22 months or before September 2017, as the defendants claim. Exhibit 10, First Amended Verified Answer, ¶ 53. Rather, the development agreement provides only that WPH Properties "shall use commercially reasonable efforts to cause the project to be substantially completed and ready for occupancy within 22 months following receipt of all Approvals and DOH Approvals and financing necessary for the Project." Exhibit 13, Development Agreement, Article III(D) (emphasis supplied). HBL signed an estoppel certificate on August 1, 2017 attesting to WPH Properties' lender, in advance of the closing in the construction financing, that "Lessor is not in default under the Lease, and no state of facts exist which, with the passage of time or the giving of notice, or both, could constitute a default by Lessor under the Lease." Exhibit 37. Obviously, with the construction not starting after the construction financing had closed, it would not be completed the following month, but HBL never preserved any claim to allege a default on that basis. In any event, as noted above, HBL has acknowledged that WPH Properties delivered the building in accordance with the requirements of the development agreement, defeating any claim that the building was not delivered on time or within budget (even if that mattered to HBL).

(iii) Nothing in the development agreement or the lease obligates WPH Properties to obtain permanent financing.

41. Nothing in the lease or development agreement obligates WPH Properties to obtain permanent financing. In any event, HBL cannot assert a claim for WPH Properties' failure to do so because, in the letter of intent, HBL waived "any claims by the Tenant that the Landlord is or ever was required to deliver a mortgage of any particular amount, terms, amortization or interest rate, for Medicaid rate setting or any other purpose" and "any claims related to the Cost Certification." Exhibit 17, Letter of Intent, ¶ 8.

(iv) HBL's default is the only reason WPH Properties does not have permanent financing.

42. WPH Properties would have obtained permanent financing long before its construction loan was due if HBL had not defaulted. As the Court is aware, the construction lender has commenced and withdrawn a foreclosure action. The defaults alleged in the foreclosure complaint are that WPH Properties did not satisfy the construction loan when it was due and has not paid the interest at the default rate since then (although WPH Properties has continued to pay interest at the non-default rate). WPH Properties would have been able to satisfy the construction loan on a timely basis by refinancing, however, if HBL had not defaulted under the lease. No lender will lend to a landlord whose sole tenant is in default. The failure to obtain permanent financing is, therefore, the fault of HBL, not WPH Properties.

43. The costs incurred by WPH Properties as a result of its inability to obtain permanent financing have not been passed along to HBL, yet, as the defendants allege. Exhibit 10, First Amended Verified Answer, ¶ 92. HBL pays a fixed rent, not dependent on WPH Properties' costs. But those costs are part of WPH Properties' damages claim against HBL.

(v) The defendants' claims based on the 2015 term sheet are completely baseless.

44. Even if the 2015 term sheet was a binding agreement when it was signed, it no longer has any significance because the merger clause in the amended and restated lease, which was entered into in 2017, after the 2015 date of the term sheet, precludes reliance on prior agreements. Exhibit 12, Lease, § 20.6. But the 2015 term sheet was never a binding agreement. It was intended, by its terms, only to "clarify the pertinent information shared at the meeting of 04/22/15," not to be binding agreement between the parties. A true and accurate copy of the 2015 term sheet is attached as exhibit 22.

D. The defendants' fourth and sixth causes of action, for fraud have no basis in fact.

45. The defendants' claims of alleged misrepresentations with respect to the cost of the building and its financing are both irrelevant and waived. HBL "acknowledge[d] and agree[d]" in the development agreement that "the actual total cost of the Project ("Project Cost") as of the date hereof [November 20, 2015] is approximately $60.0 million, is not possible to exactly ascertain as of the date of this Agreement due to circumstances beyond the control of all parties to this Agreement and is projected to be greater than the Approved Project Cost." Exhibit 13, Development Agreement, Article IV(A). In fact, HBL was responsible for all of the approvals required from the New York State Department of Health. Exhibit 13, Development Agreement, Article II(C). HBL, not WPH Properties, was responsible to "file and diligently pursue with DOH all applications required to increase the Approved Project Cost such that it then equals the best estimate of the Project Cost." Exhibit 13, Development Agreement, Article IV(A).

46. But even if HBL had a cognizable claim that the cost of the project somehow caused HBL to fail to comply with its regulatory obligations, that claim is defeated by the lease and the letter of intent. HBL's representations in the lease include the express representation that the facility complies with "insurance, reimbursement and cost reporting requirements" and "regulations or agreements for reimbursement," Exhibit 12, Lease, Schedule 18(k), (e). The letter of intent addresses this issue directly. It provides:

Except as set forth herein above, the Tenant waives any and all claims against the Landlord it has or every may have had for the following: (1) any claims by the Tenant that the Landlord is or ever was required to deliver a mortgage of any particular amount, terms, amortization or interest rate, for Medicaid rate setting or any other purposes (2) any claims for Punchlist or uncompleted Work, except for the Remaining Punchlist and the Suspended Work defined herein above, and the Warranties and Guarantees set forth in the lease, (3) any claims related to the Cost Certification, except the Landlord shall complete the Final Cost Certification in the usual and ordinary course, upon the receipt of the Initial Payment, the Rent having been brought and remaining current, and all other obligations of the Tenant are paid as set forth herein above.

Exhibit 17, Letter of Intent, ¶ 8.

47. WPH Properties financed and built the building. It paid all of the development costs. Exhibit 13, Development Agreement, Article III(E). HBL is a tenant. It had no right with respect to the landlord's financing and no obligations that were in any way dependent upon or related to the financing or cost of the building. And the defendants' claim that the rent was somehow fixed on the basis of debt service is belied by the lease. Unlike the 2015 lease, the amended and restated 2017 lease provides for annual rent in a specified amount, not tied to the cost of the building, the cost of debt, equity or any other capital sources, or anything else. Exhibit 12, Lease, § 3.2.

E. The defendants' fifth cause of action must be dismissed because bad faith is not a cause of action.

48. My attorneys advise me that, for the reasons set forth in the accompanying memorandum of law, the defendants' fifth cause of action, for "bad faith," must be dismissed because there is no cause of action for "bad faith." In any event, as discussed above, there has been no bad faith on the part of WPH Properties or the third-party defendants.

F. WPH Properties and the third-party defendants are entitled to judgment dismissing the counterclaims and third-party claims.

49. For all of these reasons, and as more fully set forth in the accompanying memorandum of law, the defendants' counterclaims and third-party claims have no merit and must be dismissed. The purpose for asserting those claims is obvious: to continue to prolong these proceedings so that HBL can continue to default under the lease and, ultimately, use the pressure asserted by WPH Properties' lender either to try to squeeze favorable concessions from WPH Properties, or to continue with its obvious master strategy to force WPH Properties into default with its current lender by way of its own defaults under the lease, rendering the property unfinanceable and unsaleable, and then purchase the property at a deep discount from a foreclosure proceeding rather than from WPH Properties at fair market value. The Court should not let either happen.

50. WPH Properties satisfied its obligations to HBI. HBI has admitted that HBI, in fact, has released WPH Properties from liability. HBI's counterclaims and third-party claims have no basis in fact and no merit as a matter of law. They should be dismissed.

WPH Properties and Fensterman are entitled to judgment dismissing the claims asserted by Jozefovic in the New York County Action

51. The six causes of action Jozefovic asserts in the New York County action have even less merit than the meritless counterclaims.

52. The first and second causes of action in the New York County complaint allege that Jozefovic's collateral assignment of his interest in Waterview Hills Acquisition I, LLC, is void because HBL provided the rent security required by the lease to WPH Properties. That is simply not true.

53 Jozefovic's claim is that he satisfied his obligations under the pledge agreement by allegedly tendering documents to Howard Fensterman sufficient to give him control over the account in which the $1.6 million in additional security deposit was to be held prior to HBL's occupancy of the facility. Jozefovic's allegation is patently false, as set forth in the accompanying affidavit of Howard Fensterman. It is also irrelevant. Whether or not Jozefovic tendered the appropriate documents, HBL never paid the security deposit, as it has admitted, as stated above and in the accompanying affirmation of Alfred E. Donnellan, Esq.

54. WPH Properties and HBL entered into the lease before the building was built. They did so knowing that the pre-construction and construction activities were going to take several years. (In fact, as will be discussed below, HBL caused the delay in moving forward with the construction of the building.) HBL was reluctant to post the $1.6 million in security two years before taking occupancy. WPH Properties needed to know, however, that HBL had the funds to provide the security when the building was completed. So the parties agreed that HBL could hold the funds in its account until 60 days before the building was going to be finished, as long as the funds could not be moved from that account and remained available to be posted as security. That obligation (like HBL's other obligations under the lease) was secured by the pledge of the Waterview Membership Interest, which the pledge agreement allows WPH Properties to sell if Jozefovic defaults under the pledge agreement or HBL defaults under the lease. Both defaults have occurred.

55. Jozefovic's argument to avoid his obligations under the pledge agreement centers on his contention that he satisfied his obligations under the pledge agreement by tendering certain bank documents to Howard Fensterman. As will be explained more fully below, the documents Jozefovic tendered were insufficient for that purpose. That argument, however, is a sideshow, intended to divert the Court's attention from the substantial default under the lease – HBL's failure to post any security deposit – that Jozefovic does not dispute or even argue about.

56. Even if HBL had put the $1.6 million in the account, that would not have terminated the pledge agreement. The pledge agreement terminated only when HBL deposited the $1.6 million in WPH Properties rent security deposit account. That has never happened, as HBL has admitted.

57. Jozefovic admits, in his affirmation in support of his motion to stop the sale of his Waterview Hills interest, a copy of which is attached as exhibit 23, that "[u]nder Paragraph 2, as soon as I deposited $1,600,000 into the rent security account, the Collateral Assignment 'shall automatically terminate and be void and of no further effect.'" Exhibit 23, Jozefovic Affirmation, ¶ 29. That is an accurate citation of paragraph 2, Exhibit 16, Pledge Agreement, ¶ 2. But then he states, in direct contradiction to that statement, that "[t]he Collateral Assignment required me to place $1.6 million into an account and provide Fensterman with signatory authority. after which the Collateral Assignment would automatically terminate." Exhibit 23, Jozefovic Affirmation, ¶ 38. That is a complete and blatant misreading of paragraph 2. As Jozefovic admitted in paragraph 29 of his affirmation, the Pledge Agreement terminates only after the $1.6 million was deposited in WPH Properties' Rent Security Deposit Account. Exhibit 16, Pledge Agreement. Exhibit 23, Jozefovic affirmation, ¶ 2.

58. HBL has been and continues to be in default of its obligation under the lease to post the $1.6 million in security. Because HBL has not posted that security, the pledge agreement remains in effect and the first two causes of action asserted in the New York County action must be dismissed.

59. In fact, Jozefovic, breached the pledge agreement by subsequently pledging the Waterview Membership Interest to Metropolitan Commercial Bank ("MCB"). The pledge agreement prohibits Jozefovic from pledging his interest in Waterview Hills to anyone else. It also prohibits him from amending the Waterview operating agreement, which he did to authorize the membership certificates that he pledged to MCB. Exhibit 16, Pledge Agreement, ¶¶ 3, 4.

60. Notwithstanding these express prohibitions in the pledge agreement, Jozefovic, after signing the pledge agreement, amended the operating agreement and pledged the Waterview Membership Interest to MCB. Jozefovic's material breach of the pledge agreement should defeat his motion, not be used to support it.

61. The third cause of action asserted in the New York County action must be dismissed for the same reason. Contrary to his claim, Jozefovic is a debtor. He guaranteed HBL's obligations under the lease. HBL has defaulted on those obligations. That makes him liable for those debts and, consequently, a debtor. To the extent that he claims he is not a debtor because his obligations under the pledge agreement have been satisfied, he is wrong, for the reasons that have been stated.

62. The fourth, fifth and sixth causes of action asserted in the New York County action are addressed in, and defeated by, the accompanying affidavit of Howard Fensterman.

HBL's breach of its obligations under the lease and letter of intent caused WPH Properties to incur interest rate damages and lender charges

63. HBL's defaults have not only caused harm to WPH Properties standing on their own, but they have had a cascading effect, causing WPH Properties to default under its construction loan agreement. WPH Properties has been unable to refinance the construction loan prior to its maturity because HBL's defaults made it impossible for WPH Properties to provide a new lender with an estoppel certificate certifying that the tenant was in compliance with the lease. As a result, WPH Properties became subject to increased interest rates and incurred default and late charges.

64. On April 16, 2020, the construction lender issued a notice of default to WPH Properties. And on May 1, 2021, the construction lender commenced an action to foreclose the mortgage, entitled Security Benefit Life Insurance Company v. White Plains Healthcare Properties I, LLC, et al (Supreme Court, Westchester County, Index, No. 55883-2021). Security Benefit later withdrew the foreclosure action without prejudice to renew upon expiration of the moratorium on commercial foreclosure proceedings in New York State enacted by the "Covid-19 Protect Our Small Businesses Act of 2021," as amended, which is currently set to expire on August 31, 2021. Thus, upon expiration of the statutory foreclosure prohibition on August 31, 2021, the facility and WPH Properties face the imminent likelihood that Security Benefit will reinstate the foreclosure action.

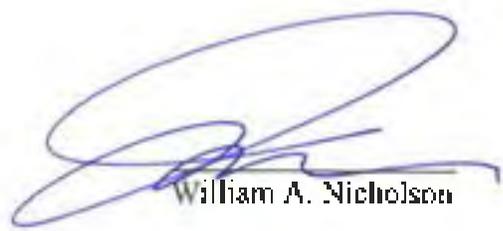

65. The lease requires HBL to cooperate in WPH Properties' efforts to refinance the mortgage. Exhibit 12, Lease, §7.8. HBL has not done that. The failures of Jozefovic and HBL, which Jozefovic controls, to comply with their contractual obligations under the Pledge Agreement, the lease, the letter of intent and guarantees have therefore caused WPH Properties substantial prejudice and financial harm and placed its principal asset, the facility, at serious imminent risk of foreclosure.

66. The mezzanine lender, Bradford Allen Funding Company LLC ("Bradford Allen") is also entitled to late charges and extension fees under its loan documents, for the same reasons. WPH Properties is entitled to indemnification under the lease, Article IX for Security Benefit and Bradford Allen legal and professional fees, default interest, late charges and extension fees caused by HBL's default.

Conclusion

67. For all of these reasons, and for the reasons more fully set forth in the accompanying affirmation, affidavits and memorandum of law, I respectfully request that the Court grant summary judgment in favor of WPH Properties establishing the liability of HBL, Jozefovic and Neuman for the breach of the lease and the letter of intent, awarding a money judgment against HBL, Jozefovic and Neuman in the amount of $111,420,213.50 and dismissing the defendants' counterclaims and third-party claims.

GUARANTY OF LEASE

THIS GUARANTY OF LEASE (this "Guaranty") is made as of November 19, 2015, by Lizer Jozofovic ("Guarantor"), to WHITE PLAINS HEALTHCARE PROPERTIES I, LLC, a Massachusetts limited liability company ("Landlord").

RECITALS

A. Landlord has been requested by HBL SNF, LLC a New York Limited Liability Company ("Tenant") to enter into an Amended and Restated Lease and Security Agreement dated as of November 19, 2015 (the "Lease"), whereby Landlord would lease to Tenant, and Tenant would lease from Landlord, certain premises located in White Plains, New York, as more particularly described in the Lease (the "Premises").

B. Tenant is owned by Guarantor, and Guarantor will derive substantial economic benefit from the execution and delivery of the Lease.

C. Guarantor acknowledges that Landlord would not enter into the Lease unless this Guaranty accompanied the execution and delivery of the Lease.

D. Guarantor hereby acknowledges receipt of a copy of the Lease.

NOW, THEREFORE, in consideration of the execution and delivery of the Lease and of other good and valuable consideration, the receipt and sufficiency of which are hereby acknowledged, Guarantor covenants and agrees as follows:

1. DEFINITIONS. Defined terms used in this Guaranty and not otherwise defined herein have the meanings assigned to them in the Lease.

2. COVENANTS OF GUARANTOR.

2.1 Guarantor absolutely, unconditionally and irrevocably guarantees, as a primary obligor and not merely as a surety: (i) the full and prompt payment of all Minimum Rent and Additional Rent and all other rent, sums and charges of every type and nature payable by Tenant under the Lease, whether due by acceleration or otherwise, including costs and expenses of collection (collectively, the "Monetary Obligations"), and (ii) the full, timely and complete performance of all covenants, terms, conditions, obligations, indemnities and agreements to be performed by Tenant under the Lease, including any indemnities or other obligations of Tenant that survive the expiration or earlier termination of the Lease (all of the obligations described in clauses (i) and (ii), are collectively referred to herein as the "Obligations").

2.2 Guarantor agrees with Landlord that (i) any action, suit or proceeding of any kind or nature whatsoever (an "Action") commenced by Landlord against Tenant, Guarantor or any Other Guarantor of the Lease ("Other Guarantor") to enforce the Obligations shall not prejudice in any way Landlord's rights to enforce the Obligations in any subsequent Action against Tenant, Guarantor or any Other Guarantor, (ii) Landlord may, at its option, join Guarantor in any Action against Tenant or any Other Guarantor or seek recover against Guarantor without Landlord first asserting, prosecuting, or exhausting any remedy or claim against Tenant or any Other Guarantor and (iii) Guarantor will be conclusively bound by a judgment entered in any Action in favor of Landlord against Tenant whether or not Guarantor is entered as a party or participates in such Action.

3.3 If Landlord proposes to grant a mortgage on, or refinance any mortgage encumbering the Premises or any portion thereof, Guarantor shall cooperate in the process, and shall permit Landlord and the proposed mortgagee to meet with Guarantor or, if applicable, officers of Guarantor and to discuss Guarantor's business and finances. On request of Landlord, Guarantor agrees to provide any such prospective mortgagee the information to which Landlord is entitled hereunder, provided that if any such information is not publicly available, such nonpublic information shall be made available on a confidential basis. Guarantor agrees to execute, acknowledge and deliver documents requested by the prospective mortgagee (such as a consent to the financing, without encumbering Guarantor's or Tenant's assets, a consent to a collateral assignment of the Lease and of this Guaranty, estoppel certificate, and a subordination, non-disturbance and attornment agreement), customary for tenants and their guarantors to sign in connection with mortgage loans to landlords, so long as such documents are in form then customary among institutional lenders (provided the same do not materially and adversely change Tenant's rights or obligations under the Lease or materially and adversely change Guarantor's rights and obligations under this Guaranty).

3. GUARANTOR'S OBLIGATIONS UNCONDITIONAL.

3.1 This Guaranty is an absolute and unconditional guaranty of payment and of performance, and not of collection, and shall be enforceable against Guarantor without the necessity of the commencement by Landlord of any Action against Tenant, and without the necessity of any notice of nonpayment, nonperformance or nonobservance, or any notice of acceptance of this Guaranty, or of any other notice or demand to which Guarantor might otherwise be entitled, all of which Guarantor hereby expressly waives in advance. The obligations of Guarantor hereunder are independent of, and may exceed, the obligations of Tenant.

3.2 This Guaranty shall apply notwithstanding any extension or renewal of the Lease, or any holdover following the expiration or termination of the Lease Term or any renewal or extension of the Lease Term.

3.3 This Guaranty is a continuing guarantee and will remain in full force and effect notwithstanding, and the liability of Guarantor hereunder shall be absolute and unconditional irrespective of any or all of the following: (i) any renewals, extensions, modifications, alterations or amendments of the Lease (regardless of whether Guarantor consented to or had notice of same); (ii) any releases or discharges of Tenant or any Other Guarantor other than the full release and complete discharge of all of the Obligations; (iii) Landlord's failure or delay to assert any claim or demand or to enforce any of its rights against Tenant or any Other Guarantor; (iv) any extension of time that may be granted by Landlord to Tenant or any Other Guarantor; (v) any assignment or transfer of all of any part of Tenant's interest under the Lease (whether by Tenant, by operation of law, or otherwise); (vi) any subletting, concession, franchising, licensing or permitting of the Premises or any portion thereof; (vii) any changed or different use of the Premises (or any portion thereof);

(viii) any other dealings or matters occurring between Landlord and Tenant or any Other Guarantor; (ix) the taking by Landlord of any additional guarantees, or the receipt by Landlord of any collateral, from Tenant, any Other Guarantor or any other persons or entities; (x) the release by Landlord of any Other Guarantor; (xi) Landlord's release of any security provided under the Lease or any other guaranty; (xii) Landlord's failure to perfect any landlord's lien or other lien or security interest available under applicable Legal Requirements; (xiii) any assumption by any person of any or all of Tenant's obligations under the Lease or any Other Guarantor's obligations under any other guaranty, or Tenant's assignment of any or all of its rights and interests under the Lease, (xiv) the power or authority or lack thereof of Tenant to execute, acknowledge or deliver the Lease; (xv) the existence, non-existence or lapse at any time of Tenant as a legal entity or the existence, non-existence or termination of any corporate, ownership, business or other relationship between Tenant and Guarantor; (xvi) any sale or assignment by Landlord of any or all of this Guaranty, any other guaranty and the Lease (including any direct or collateral assignment by Landlord to any mortgagee); (xvii) the solvency or lack of solvency of Tenant or any Other Guarantor at any time or from time to time; or (xviii) any other cause, whether similar or dissimilar to any of the foregoing, that might constitute a legal or equitable discharge of Guarantor (whether or not Guarantor shall have knowledge or notice thereof) other than payment and performance in full of the Obligations; (xix) the release or discharge of Tenant in any state or federal creditors' proceedings, receivership, bankruptcy or other proceeding; (xx) the impairment, limitation or modification of the liability of Tenant or the estate of Tenant in bankruptcy, or of any remedy for the enforcement of Tenant's liability under the Lease, resulting from the operation of any present or future provision of the United States Bankruptcy Code (11 U.S.C. § 101 et seq., as amended), or from other statute, or from the order of any court; (xxi) the rejection, disaffirmance or other termination of the Lease in any such proceeding; (xxii) the assertion or the failure to assert by Landlord against Tenant, of any of the rights or remedies reserved to Landlord pursuant to the provisions of the Lease; or (xxiii) if at any time the payment of any amount due under the Lease or this Guaranty is rescinded or must otherwise be returned by Landlord for any reason, in such event, Guarantor shall pay to Landlord an amount equal to any such payment that has been rescinded or returned. This Guaranty shall continue to be effective if at any time the payment of any amount due under the Lease or this Guaranty is rescinded or must otherwise be returned by Landlord for any reason. Without in any way limiting the generality of the foregoing, Guarantor specifically agrees that (A) if Tenant's obligations under the Lease are modified or amended with the express written consent of Landlord, this Guaranty shall extend to such obligations as so amended or modified without notice to, consideration to, or the consent of, Guarantor, and (B) this Guaranty shall be applicable to any obligations of Tenant arising in connection with a termination of the Lease, whether voluntary or otherwise. Guarantor hereby consents, prospectively, to Landlord's taking or entering into any or all of the foregoing actions or omissions. For purposes of this Guaranty and the obligations and liabilities of Guarantor hereunder, "Tenant" shall be deemed to include any and all concessionaires, licensees, franchisees, department operators, assignees, subtenants, permittees or others directly or indirectly operating or conducting a business in or from the Premises or any portion thereof, as fully as if any of the same were the named Tenant under the Lease.

3.4 Notwithstanding anything to the contrary hereunder, Guarantor shall be released and discharged from all liability with respect to any obligations of Tenant under the Lease arising or accruing after the Commencement Date (the "Guaranty Termination Date"); provided that 60 days prior to the Commencement Date Tenant has delivered to Landlord (i) (ii)

an unconditional Letter of Credit, in accordance with the Section 7.1(a)(ii) of the Lease in the amount of $3,700,000, or (b) $3,700,000 in cash to secure the full and timely payment and performance of Tenant's obligations under the Lease, (i) an agreement by Capital Funding Group, which cannot be amended except by an agreement in writing signed by Landlord, Tenant and Capital Funding Group, in the form attached as Exhibit 7.1(a) of the Lease or otherwise approved by Landlord and Landlord's lenders in their reasonable discretion, wherein and whereby Capital Funding Group agrees to allow Tenant to draw down on its Credit Line each month so as to enable Capital Funding Group to pay directly to Landlord the sum of $506,096.50 per month commencing the Commencement Date and on each day Fixed Rent is due under the Lease for the following 11 months, and (ii) and released to Landlord all funds in the controlled account number [REDACTED] in JPMorgan Chase Bank, N.A. in the amount not less than $1,600,000 to be held as an additional Security Deposit by Landlord. After the Guaranty Termination Date, Guarantor shall continue to remain personally liable pursuant to the terms of this Guaranty for (i) all obligations of Tenant under the Lease which arose or accrued on or prior to the Guaranty Termination Date and (ii) any liability of Tenant arising out of a breach of any warranty or representation of Tenant under Lease, and all documents executed by Tenant in connection therewith, (iii) and any liability of Guarantor arising out of a breach of any warranty of representation hereunder.

4.1 Without limitation of the foregoing, Guarantor waives (i) notice of acceptance of this Guaranty, protest, demand and dishonor, presentment, and demands of any kind now or hereafter provided for by any statute or rule of law, (ii) notice of any actions taken by Landlord or Tenant under the Lease or any other agreement or instrument relating thereto, (iii) notice of any and all defaults by Tenant in the payment of Minimum Rent and Additional Rent or other rent, charges or amounts, or of any other defaults by Tenant under the Lease, (iv) all other notices, demands and protests, and all other formalities of every kind in connection with the enforcement of the Obligations, omission of or delay in which, but for the provisions of this Section 4, might constitute grounds for relieving Guarantor of its obligations hereunder, (v) any requirement that Landlord protect, secure, perfect, insure or proceed against any security interest or lien, or any property subject thereto, or exhaust any right or take any action against Tenant, any Other Guarantor or any other person or entity (including any additional guarantor or Guarantor) or against any collateral, and (vi) the benefit of any statute of limitations affecting Guarantor's liability under this Guaranty.

4.2 GUARANTOR HEREBY WAIVES TRIAL BY JURY IN ANY ACTION, PROCEEDING OR COUNTERCLAIM BROUGHT BY ANY PERSON OR ENTITY WITH RESPECT TO ANY MATTER WHATSOEVER ARISING OUT OF OR IN ANY WAY CONNECTED WITH: THIS GUARANTY; THE LEASE; ANY LIABILITY OR OBLIGATION OF TENANT IN ANY MANNER RELATED TO THE PREMISES OR ANY PORTION THEREOF; ANY CLAIM OF INJURY OR DAMAGE IN ANY WAY RELATED TO THE LEASE AND/OR THE PREMISES (OR ANY PORTION THEREOF); ANY ACT OR OMISSION OF TENANT, ITS AGENTS, EMPLOYEES, CONTRACTORS, SUPPLIERS, SERVANTS, CUSTOMERS, CONCESSIONAIRES, FRANCHISEES, PERMITTEES OR LICENSEES; OR ANY ASPECT OF THE USE OR OCCUPANCY OF, OR THE CONDUCT OF BUSINESS IN, ON OR FROM THE PREMISES (OR ANY PORTION THEREOF).

GUARANTOR SHALL NOT INTERPOSE ANY COUNTERCLAIM OR COUNTERCLAIMS OR CLAIMS FOR SET-OFF, RECOUPMENT OR DEDUCTION OF RENT IN ANY ACTION BROUGHT BY LANDLORD AGAINST GUARANTOR UNDER THIS GUARANTY. GUARANTOR SHALL NOT BE ENTITLED TO MAKE, AND HEREBY WAIVES, ANY AND ALL DEFENSES AGAINST ANY CLAIM ASSERTED BY LANDLORD OR IN ANY SUIT OR ACTION INSTITUTED BY LANDLORD TO ENFORCE THIS GUARANTY OR THE LEASE. IN ADDITION, GUARANTOR HEREBY WAIVES, BOTH WITH RESPECT TO THE LEASE AND WITH RESPECT TO THIS GUARANTY, ANY AND ALL RIGHTS WHICH ARE WAIVED BY TENANT UNDER THE LEASE, IN THE SAME MANNER AS IF ALL SUCH WAIVERS WERE FULLY RESTATED HEREIN. THE LIABILITY OF GUARANTOR UNDER THIS GUARANTY IS PRIMARY AND UNCONDITIONAL.

4.3 Guarantor expressly waives any and all rights to defenses arising by reason of (i) any "one-action" or "anti-deficiency" law or any other law that may prevent Landlord from bringing any action, including a claim for deficiency, against Guarantor before or after Landlord's commencement or completion of any action against Tenant or any Other Guarantor; (ii) ANY ELECTION OF REMEDIES BY LANDLORD (INCLUDING ANY TERMINATION OF THE LEASE) THAT DESTROYS OR OTHERWISE ADVERSELY AFFECTS GUARANTOR'S SUBROGATION RIGHTS OR GUARANTOR'S RIGHTS TO PROCEED AGAINST TENANT FOR REIMBURSEMENT; (iii) any disability, insolvency, bankruptcy, lack of authority or power, death, insanity, minority, dissolution, or other defense of Tenant, of any other guarantor (or any other Guarantor), or of any other person or entity, or by reason of the cessation of Tenant's liability from any cause whatsoever, other than full and final payment in legal tender and performance of the Obligations; (iv) any right to claim discharge of any or all of the Obligations on the basis of unjustified impairment of any collateral for the Obligations; (v) any change in the relationship between Guarantor and Tenant or any Other Guarantor or any termination of such relationship; (vi) any irregularity, defect or unauthorized action by any or all of Landlord, Tenant, any Other Guarantor or surety, or any of their respective officers, directors or other agents in executing and delivering any instrument or agreements relating to the Obligations or in carrying out or attempting to carry out the terms of any such agreements; (vii) any assignment, endorsement or transfer, in whole or in part, of the Obligations, whether made with or without notice to or consent of Guarantor; (viii) if the recovery from Tenant or any other Person (including any Other Guarantor) becomes barred by any statute of limitations or is otherwise prevented; (ix) the benefits of any and all statutes, laws, rules or regulations applicable in the State of Illinois which may require the prior or concurrent joinder of any other party to any action on this Guaranty; (x) any release or other reduction of the Obligations arising as a result of the expansion, release, substitution, deletion, addition, or replacement (whether or not in accordance with the terms of the Lease) of the Premises or any portion thereof; or (xi) any neglect, delay, omission, failure or refusal of Landlord to take or prosecute any action for the collection or enforcement of any of the Obligations or to foreclose or take or prosecute any action in connection with any lien or right of security (including perfection thereof) existing or to exist in connection with, or as security for, any of the Obligations, it being the intention hereof that Guarantor shall remain liable as a principal on the Obligations notwithstanding any act, omission or event that might, but for the provisions hereof, otherwise operate as a legal or equitable discharge of Guarantor. Guarantor hereby waives all defenses of a surety to which it may be entitled by statute or otherwise.

5. SUBORDINATION; SUBROGATION.

5.1 Guarantor subordinates to and postpones in favor of the Obligations (i) any present and future debts and obligations of Tenant or any Other Guarantor to Guarantor (the "Indebtedness"), including: (A) salary, bonuses, and other payments pursuant to any employment arrangement; (B) fees, reimbursement of expenses and other payments pursuant to any independent contractor arrangement; (C) principal and interest pursuant to any Indebtedness; (D) distributions payable to any partners, members or shareholders of Guarantor or Affiliates of Guarantor; (E) lease payments pursuant to any leasing arrangement; (F) any management fees; and (G) all rights, liens and security interests of Guarantor, whether now or hereafter arising, in any assets of the Tenant or any Other Guarantor, and (ii) any liens or security interests securing payment of the Indebtedness. Guarantor shall have no right to possession of any assets of Tenant or any Other Guarantor or to foreclose upon any such asset, whether by judicial action or otherwise, unless and until the Obligations have been paid and performed in full. Guarantor agrees that Landlord shall be subrogated to Guarantor with respect to Guarantor's claims against Tenant or any Other Guarantor and Guarantor's rights, liens and security interest, if any, in any of Tenant's or any Other Guarantor's assets and proceeds thereof until all of the Obligations have been paid and performed in full.

5.2 After the occurrence of an Event of Default and until such Event of Default is cured or after the commencement of any bankruptcy or insolvency proceeding by or against Tenant and until such proceeding is dismissed, Guarantor shall not: (i) make any distributions or other payments to any partners, parent entities, or Affiliates of Guarantor (other than to Tenant); or (ii) ask for, sue for, demand, take or receive any payment, by setoff or in any other manner, including the receipt of a negotiable instrument, for all or any part of the Indebtedness owed by Tenant, or any successor or assign of Tenant, including a receiver, trustee or debtor in possession (the term "Tenant" shall include any such successor or assign of Tenant) until the Obligations have been paid in full; however, if Guarantor receives such a payment, Guarantor shall immediately deliver the payment to Landlord for credit against the then outstanding balance of the Obligations, whether matured or unmatured. Notwithstanding anything in this Section 5 to the contrary, after an Event of Default has occurred and is outstanding, Guarantor may make cash contributions to Tenant.

5.3 Guarantor shall not be subrogated, and hereby waives and disclaims any claim or right against Tenant by way of subrogation or otherwise, to any of the rights of Landlord under the Lease or otherwise, or in the Premises (or any portion thereof), which may arise by any of the provisions of this Guaranty or by reason of the performance by Guarantor of any of its Obligations hereunder. Guarantor shall look solely to Tenant for any recoupment of any payments made or costs or expenses incurred by Guarantor pursuant to this Guaranty. If any amount shall be paid to Guarantor on account of such subrogation rights at any time when all of the Obligations shall not have been paid and performed in full, Guarantor shall immediately deliver the payment to Landlord for credit against the then outstanding balance of the Obligations, whether matured or unmatured.

6. REPRESENTATIONS AND WARRANTIES OF GUARANTOR. Guarantor represents and warrants that:

6.1 This Guaranty is valid and binding upon and enforceable against Guarantor without the requirement of further action or condition.

6.2 The execution, delivery and performance by Guarantor of this Guaranty does not and will not (i) contravene any applicable Legal Requirements, the organizational documents of Guarantor, if applicable, any order, writ, injunction, decree applicable to Guarantor, or any contractual restriction binding on or affecting Guarantor or any of its properties or assets, or (ii) result in or require the creation of any lien, security interest or other charge or encumbrance upon or with respect to any of its properties or assets.

6.3 No approval, consent, exemption, authorization or other action by, or notice to, or filing with, any governmental authority is necessary or required in connection with the execution, delivery or performance by, or enforcement against, Guarantor of this Guaranty or any other instrument or agreement required hereunder.

6.4 There is no action, suit or proceeding pending or threatened against or otherwise affecting Guarantor before any court or other governmental authority or any arbitrator that may materially adversely affect Guarantor's ability to perform its obligations under this Guaranty.

6.6 Guarantor has derived or expects to derive financial and other advantages and benefits directly or indirectly, from the making of the Lease and the payment and performance of the Obligations. Guarantor hereby acknowledges that Landlord will be relying upon Guarantor's guarantee, representations, warranties and covenants contained herein.

6.7 All reports, statements (financial or otherwise), certificates and other data furnished by or on behalf of Guarantor to Landlord in connection with this Guaranty or the Lease are: true and correct, in all material respects, as of the applicable date or period provided therein; do not omit to state any material fact or circumstance necessary to make the statements contained therein not misleading; and fairly represent the financial condition of Guarantor as of the respective date thereof; and no material adverse change has occurred in the financial condition of Guarantor since the date of the most recent of such financial statements.

7. NOTICES. Guarantor hereby (a) consents and submits to the jurisdiction of the courts of the State of New York and the federal courts sitting in the State of New York with respect to any dispute arising, directly or indirectly, out of this Guaranty, (b) waives any objections which the undersigned may have to the laying of venue in any such suit, action or proceeding in either such court, (c) agrees to join Landlord in any petition for removal to either such court, and (d) irrevocably designates and appoints Tenant as its authorized agent to accept and acknowledge on its behalf service of process with respect to any disputes arising, directly or indirectly, out of this Guaranty. The undersigned hereby acknowledges and agrees that Landlord may obtain personal jurisdiction and perfect service of process through Tenant as the undersigned agent, or by any other means now or hereafter permitted by applicable law. Nothing above shall limit Landlord's choice of forum for purposes of enforcing this Guaranty.

9. CERTAIN ADDITIONAL COVENANTS

9.1 Financial Deliveries. Guarantor shall deliver the following information to Landlord:

9.1.1 As soon as available, and in any event within 120 days after the close of each calendar year, in hard copy and electronic format, in form satisfactory to Landlord, and presented on a consolidated as well as a property-by-property basis, complete financial statements prepared for such year with respect to Guarantor including a balance sheet as of the end of such year, together with related statements of operations, cash flows and changes in equity for such calendar year, prepared in accordance with GAAP applied on a consistent basis.

Upon the delivery of any financial information by or on behalf of Guarantor pursuant to this Section 9 from time to time during the Lease Term, Guarantor shall be deemed (unless Guarantor specifically states otherwise in writing) to automatically represent and warrant to Landlord that the financial information delivered to Landlord is true, accurate and complete, presents fairly the results of operations of Guarantor for the respective periods covered thereby, reflects accurately the books and records of account of Guarantor as of such dates and for such periods, and that there has been no adverse change in the financial condition of Guarantor since the date of the then applicable financial information.

9.2 Assignment; Sale of Assets; Change in Control. Without the prior consent of Landlord, which consent may be withheld or granted in Landlord's sole discretion, Guarantor shall not assign (whether directly or indirectly), in whole or in part, this Guaranty or any obligation hereunder or, through one or more step transactions or tiered transactions, do, or permit to be done, any activity, transaction or Transfer prohibited under Section 10.1 of the Lease.

9.3 Payment Method; Default Interest. Guarantor shall make any payments due hereunder in immediately available funds by wire transfer to Landlord's bank account as notified by Landlord, unless Landlord agrees to another method of payment of immediately available funds. If Guarantor does not pay an amount due hereunder on its due date, Guarantor shall pay, on demand, interest at 18% annually on the amount due for a period ending on the full payment of such amount, including the day of repayment, whether before or after any judgment or award, to the extent permitted under applicable law.

10.1 Guarantor further agrees that Landlord may, without notice, assign this Guaranty in whole or in part. If Landlord disposes of its interest in the Lease, "Landlord," as used in this Guaranty, shall mean Landlord's successors and assigns.

10.2 Guarantor promises to pay all costs of collection or enforcement incurred by Landlord in exercising any remedies provided for in the Lease or this Guaranty whether at law or in equity. If any legal action or proceeding is commenced to interpret or enforce the terms of, or obligations arising out of, this Guaranty, or to recover damages for the breach thereof, the party prevailing in any such action or proceedings shall be entitled to recover from the non-prevailing party all attorneys' fees and reasonable costs and expenses incurred by the prevailing party. As used herein, "attorneys' fees" shall mean the fees and expenses of counsel to the parties hereto, which may include printing, photocopying, duplicating and other expenses, air freight charges, and fees billed for law clerks, paralegals, librarians and others not admitted to the bar but performing services under the supervision of an attorney. The term "attorneys' fees" shall also include all such fees and expenses incurred with respect to appeals, arbitrations and bankruptcy proceedings.

10.3 Guarantor shall, from time to time within 10 days after receipt of Landlord's request, execute, acknowledge and deliver to Landlord a statement certifying that this Guaranty is unmodified and in full force and effect (or if there have been modifications, that the same is in full force and effect as modified and stating such modifications), and setting forth such other information as Landlord may reasonably request. Such certificate may be relied upon by any prospective purchaser, lessor or lender of all or a portion of the Premises (or any portion thereof).

10.4 If any portion of this Guaranty shall be deemed invalid, unenforceable or illegal for any reason, such invalidity, unenforceability or illegality shall not affect the balance of this Guaranty, which shall remain in full force and effect to the maximum permitted extent.

10.5 The provisions, covenants and guaranties of this Guaranty shall be binding upon Guarantor and its heirs, successors, legal representatives and assigns, and shall inure to the benefit of Landlord and its successors and assigns, and shall not be deemed waived or modified unless such waiver or modification is specifically set forth in writing, executed by Landlord or its successors and assigns, and delivered to Guarantor.

This Guaranty shall be interpreted and enforced without the aid of any canon, custom or rule of law requiring or suggesting construction against the party drafting or causing the drafting of the provision in question.

10.7 Each of the rights and remedies herein provided are cumulative and not exclusive of any rights or remedies provided by law or in the Lease or this Guaranty.

10.8 The provisions of this Guaranty shall be governed by and interpreted solely in accordance with the internal laws of the State of New York, without giving effect to the principles of conflicts of law.

10.9 The execution of this Guaranty after the execution of the Lease shall not invalidate this Guaranty or lessen the Obligations of Guarantor hereunder.

10.10 This Guaranty may be executed in multiple counterparts, each of which shall be an original, but all of which shall constitute but one instrument. The signature page of any counterpart may be detached therefrom and reattached to any other counterpart to physically form a single document.

10.11 The Recitals set forth above are hereby incorporated by this reference and made a part of this Guaranty. Guarantor hereby represents and warrants that the Recitals are true and correct.

Exhibit 15

THIS GUARANTY OF LEASE (this "Guaranty") is made as of November 19, 2015, by Mark Neuman ("Guarantor"), to WHITE PLAINS HEALTHCARE PROPERTIES I, LLC, a Massachusetts limited liability company ("Landlord").

RECITALS

A. Landlord has been requested by HBL SNF, LLC a New York Limited Liability Company ("Tenant") to enter into an Amended and Restated Lease and Security Agreement dated as of November 19, 2015 (the "Lease"), whereby Landlord would lease to Tenant, and Tenant would lease from Landlord, certain premises located in White Plains, New York, as more particularly described in the Lease (the "Premises").

B. Guarantor will derive substantial economic benefit from the execution and delivery of the Lease.

C. Guarantor acknowledges that Landlord would not enter into the Lease unless this Guaranty accompanied the execution and delivery of the Lease.

D. Guarantor hereby acknowledges receipt of a copy of the Lease.

NOW, THEREFORE, in consideration of the execution and delivery of the Lease and of other good and valuable consideration, the receipt and sufficiency of which are hereby acknowledged, Guarantor covenants and agrees as follows:

1. DEFINITIONS. Defined terms used in this Guaranty and not otherwise defined herein have the meanings assigned to them in the Lease.

2. COVENANTS OF GUARANTOR.

2.1 Guarantor absolutely, unconditionally and irrevocably guarantees, as a primary obligor and not merely as a surety: (i) the full and prompt payment of all Minimum Rent and Additional Rent and all other rent, sums and charges of every type and nature payable by Tenant under the Lease, whether due by acceleration or otherwise, including costs and expenses of collection (collectively, the "Monetary Obligations"), and (ii) the full, timely and complete performance of all covenants, terms, conditions, obligations, indemnities and agreements to be performed by Tenant under the Lease, including any indemnities or other obligations of Tenant that survive the expiration or earlier termination of the Lease (all of the obligations described in clauses (i) and (ii), are collectively referred to herein as the "Obligations").

2.2 Guarantor agrees with Landlord that (i) any action, suit or proceeding of any kind or nature whatsoever (an "Action") commenced by Landlord against Tenant, Guarantor or any Other Guarantor of the Lease ("Other Guarantor") to enforce the Obligations shall not prejudice in any way Landlord's rights to enforce the Obligations in any subsequent Action against Tenant, Guarantor or any Other Guarantor, (ii) Landlord may, at its option, join Guarantor in any Action against Tenant or any Other Guarantor or seek recover against Guarantor without Landlord first asserting, prosecuting, or exhausting any remedy or claim against Tenant or any Other Guarantor and (iii) Guarantor will be conclusively bound by a judgment entered in any Action in favor of Landlord against Tenant whether or not Guarantor is entered as a party or participates in such Action.

2.3 If Landlord proposes to grant a mortgage on, or refinance any mortgage encumbering the Premises or any portion thereof, Guarantor shall cooperate in the process, and shall permit Landlord and the proposed mortgagee to meet with Guarantor or, if applicable, officers of Guarantor and to discuss Guarantor's business and finances. On request of Landlord, Guarantor agrees to provide any such prospective mortgagee the information to which Landlord is entitled hereunder, provided that if any such information is not publicly available, such nonpublic information shall be made available on a confidential basis. Guarantor agrees to execute, acknowledge and deliver documents requested by the prospective mortgagee (such as a consent to the financing, without encumbering Guarantor's or Tenant's assets, a consent to a collateral assignment of the Lease and of this Guaranty, estoppel certificate, and a subordination, non-disturbance and attornment agreement), customary for tenants and their guarantors to sign in connection with mortgage loans to landlords, so long as such documents are in form then customary among institutional lenders (provided the same do not materially and adversely change Tenant's rights or obligations under the Lease or materially and adversely change Guarantor's rights and obligations under this Guaranty).

3. GUARANTOR'S OBLIGATIONS UNCONDITIONAL.

3.1 This Guaranty is an absolute and unconditional guaranty of payment and of performance, and not of collection, and shall be enforceable against Guarantor without the necessity of the commencement by Landlord of any Action against Tenant, and without the necessity of any notice of nonpayment, nonperformance or nonobservance, or any notice of acceptance of this Guaranty, or of any other notice or demand to which Guarantor might otherwise be entitled, all of which Guarantor hereby expressly waives in advance. The obligations of Guarantor hereunder are independent of, and may exceed, the obligations of Tenant.

3.2 This Guaranty shall apply notwithstanding any extension or renewal of the Lease, or any holdover following the expiration or termination of the Lease Term or any renewal or extension of the Lease Term.

3.3 This Guaranty is a continuing guarantee and will remain in full force and effect notwithstanding, and the liability of Guarantor hereunder shall be absolute and unconditional irrespective of any or all of the following: (i) any renewals, extensions, modifications, alterations or amendments of the Lease (regardless of whether Guarantor consented to or had notice of same); (ii) any releases or discharges of Tenant or any Other Guarantor other than the full release and complete discharge of all of the Obligations; (iii) Landlord's failure or delay to assert any claim or demand or to enforce any of its rights against Tenant or any Other Guarantor; (iv) any extension of time that may be granted by Landlord to Tenant or any Other Guarantor; (v) any assignment or transfer of all of any part of Tenant's interest under the Lease (whether by Tenant, by operation of law, or otherwise); (vi) any subletting, concession, franchising, licensing or permitting of the Premises or any portion thereof; (vii) any changed or different use of the Premises (or any portion thereof);

(viii) any other dealings or matters occurring between Landlord and Tenant or any Other Guarantor; (ix) the taking by Landlord of any additional guarantees, or the receipt by Landlord of any collateral, from Tenant, any Other Guarantor or any other persons or entities; (x) the release by Landlord of any Other Guarantor; (xi) Landlord's release of any security provided under the Lease or any other guaranty; (xii) Landlord's failure to perfect any landlord's lien or other lien or security interest available under applicable Legal Requirements; (xiii) any assumption by any person of any or all of Tenant's obligations under the Lease or any Other Guarantor's obligations under any other guaranty, or Tenant's assignment of any or all of its rights and interests under the Lease, (xiv) the power or authority or lack thereof of Tenant to execute, acknowledge or deliver the Lease; (xv) the existence, non-existence or lapse at any time of Tenant as a legal entity or the existence, non-existence or termination of any corporate, ownership, business or other relationship between Tenant and Guarantor; (xvi) any sale or assignment by Landlord of any or all of this Guaranty, any other guaranty and the Lease (including any direct or collateral assignment by Landlord to any mortgagee); (xvii) the solvency or lack of solvency of Tenant or any Other Guarantor at any time or from time to time; or (xviii) any other cause, whether similar or dissimilar to any of the foregoing, that might constitute a legal or equitable discharge of Guarantor (whether or not Guarantor shall have knowledge or notice thereof) other than payment and performance in full of the Obligations; (xix) the release or discharge of Tenant in any state or federal creditors' proceedings, receivership, bankruptcy or other proceeding; (xx) the impairment, limitation or modification of the liability of Tenant or the estate of Tenant in bankruptcy, or of any remedy for the enforcement of Tenant's liability under the Lease, resulting from the operation of any present or future provision of the United States Bankruptcy Code (11 U.S.C. § 101 et seq., as amended), or from other statute, or from the order of any court; (xxi) the rejection, disaffirmance or other termination of the Lease in any such proceeding; (xxii) the assertion or the failure to assert by Landlord against Tenant, of any of the rights or remedies reserved to Landlord pursuant to the provisions of the Lease; or (xxiii) if at any time the payment of any amount due under the Lease or this Guaranty is rescinded or must otherwise be returned by Landlord for any reason, in such event, Guarantor shall pay to Landlord an amount equal to any such payment that has been rescinded or returned. This Guaranty shall continue to be effective if at any time the payment of any amount due under the Lease or this Guaranty is rescinded or must otherwise be returned by Landlord for any reason. Without in any way limiting the generality of the foregoing, Guarantor specifically agrees that (A) if Tenant's obligations under the Lease are modified or amended with the express written consent of Landlord, this Guaranty shall extend to such obligations as so amended or modified without notice to, consideration to, or the consent of, Guarantor, and (B) this Guaranty shall be applicable to any obligations of Tenant arising in connection with a termination of the Lease, whether voluntary or otherwise. Guarantor hereby consents, prospectively, to Landlord's taking or entering into any or all of the foregoing actions or omissions. For purposes of this Guaranty and the obligations and liabilities of Guarantor hereunder, "Tenant" shall be deemed to include any and all concessionaires, licensees, franchisees, department operators, assignees, subtenants, permittees or others directly or indirectly operating or conducting a business in or from the Premises or any portion thereof, as fully as if any of the same were the named Tenant under the Lease.

3.4 Notwithstanding anything to the contrary hereunder, Guarantor shall be released and discharged from all liability with respect to any obligations of Tenant under the Lease arising or accruing after the Commencement Date (the "Guaranty Termination Date"); provided that 60 days prior to the Commencement Date Tenant has delivered to Landlord (i) (a)

an unconditional Letter of Credit, in accordance with the Section 7.1(a)(ii) of the Lease in the amount of $3,700,000, or (b) $3,700,000 in cash to secure the full and timely payment and performance of Tenant's obligations under the Lease, (ii) an agreement by Capital Funding Group, which cannot be amended except by an agreement in writing signed by Landlord, Tenant and Capital Funding Group, in the form attached as Exhibit 7.1(a) of the Lease or otherwise approved by Landlord and Landlord's lenders in their reasonable discretion, wherein and whereby Capital Funding Group agrees to allow Tenant to draw down on its Credit Line each month so as to enable Capital Funding Group to pay directly to Landlord the sum of $506,096.50 per month commencing the Commencement Date and on each day Fixed Rent is due under the Lease for the following 11 months, and (iii) and released to Landlord all funds in the controlled account number [REDACTED] in JPMorgan Chase Bank, N.A. in the amount not less than $1,600,000 to be held as an additional Security Deposit by Landlord. After the Guaranty Termination Date, Guarantor shall continue to remain personally liable pursuant to the terms of this Guaranty for (i) all obligations of Tenant under the Lease which arose or accrued on or prior to the Guaranty Termination Date and (ii) any liability of Tenant arising out of a breach of any warranty or representation of Tenant under Lease, and all documents executed by Tenant in connection therewith, (iii) and any liability of Guarantor arising out of a breach of any warranty of representation hereunder.

4.1 Without limitation of the foregoing, Guarantor waives (i) notice of acceptance of this Guaranty, protest, demand and dishonor, presentment, and demands of any kind now or hereafter provided for by any statute or rule of law, (ii) notice of any actions taken by Landlord or Tenant under the Lease or any other agreement or instrument relating thereto, (iii) notice of any and all defaults by Tenant in the payment of Minimum Rent and Additional Rent or other rent, charges or amounts, or of any other defaults by Tenant under the Lease, (iv) all other notices, demands and protests, and all other formalities of every kind in connection with the enforcement of the Obligations, omission of or delay in which, but for the provisions of this Section 4, might constitute grounds for relieving Guarantor of its obligations hereunder, (v) any requirement that Landlord protect, secure, perfect, insure or proceed against any security interest or lien, or any property subject thereto, or exhaust any right or take any action against Tenant, any Other Guarantor or any other person or entity (including any additional guarantor or Guarantor) or against any collateral, and (vi) the benefit of any statute of limitations affecting Guarantor's liability under this Guaranty.

4.2 GUARANTOR HEREBY WAIVES TRIAL BY JURY IN ANY ACTION, PROCEEDING OR COUNTERCLAIM BROUGHT BY ANY PERSON OR ENTITY WITH RESPECT TO ANY MATTER WHATSOEVER ARISING OUT OF OR IN ANY WAY CONNECTED WITH: THIS GUARANTY; THE LEASE; ANY LIABILITY OR OBLIGATION OF TENANT IN ANY MANNER RELATED TO THE PREMISES OR ANY PORTION THEREOF; ANY CLAIM OF INJURY OR DAMAGE IN ANY WAY RELATED TO THE LEASE AND/OR THE PREMISES (OR ANY PORTION THEREOF); ANY ACT OR OMISSION OF TENANT, ITS AGENTS, EMPLOYEES, CONTRACTORS, SUPPLIERS, SERVANTS, CUSTOMERS, CONCESSIONAIRES, FRANCHISEES, PERMITTEES OR LICENSEES; OR ANY ASPECT OF THE USE OR OCCUPANCY OF, OR THE CONDUCT OF BUSINESS IN, ON OR FROM THE PREMISES (OR ANY PORTION THEREOF).

GUARANTOR SHALL NOT INTERPOSE ANY COUNTERCLAIM OR COUNTERCLAIMS OR CLAIMS FOR SET-OFF, RECOUPMENT OR DEDUCTION OF RENT IN ANY ACTION BROUGHT BY LANDLORD AGAINST GUARANTOR UNDER THIS GUARANTY. GUARANTOR SHALL NOT BE ENTITLED TO MAKE, AND HEREBY WAIVES, ANY AND ALL DEFENSES AGAINST ANY CLAIM ASSERTED BY LANDLORD OR IN ANY SUIT OR ACTION INSTITUTED BY LANDLORD TO ENFORCE THIS GUARANTY OR THE LEASE. IN ADDITION, GUARANTOR HEREBY WAIVES, BOTH WITH RESPECT TO THE LEASE AND WITH RESPECT TO THIS GUARANTY, ANY AND ALL RIGHTS WHICH ARE WAIVED BY TENANT UNDER THE LEASE, IN THE SAME MANNER AS IF ALL SUCH WAIVERS WERE FULLY RESTATED HEREIN. THE LIABILITY OF GUARANTOR UNDER THIS GUARANTY IS PRIMARY AND UNCONDITIONAL.

4.3 Guarantor expressly waives any and all rights to defenses arising by reason of (i) any "one-action" or "anti-deficiency" law or any other law that may prevent Landlord from bringing any action, including a claim for deficiency, against Guarantor before or after Landlord's commencement or completion of any action against Tenant or any Other Guarantor; (ii) ANY ELECTION OF REMEDIES BY LANDLORD (INCLUDING ANY TERMINATION OF THE LEASE) THAT DESTROYS OR OTHERWISE ADVERSELY AFFECTS GUARANTOR'S SUBROGATION RIGHTS OR GUARANTOR'S RIGHTS TO PROCEED AGAINST TENANT FOR REIMBURSEMENT; (iii) any disability, insolvency, bankruptcy, lack of authority or power, death, insanity, minority, dissolution, or other defense of Tenant, of any other guarantor (or any other Guarantor), or of any other person or entity, or by reason of the cessation of Tenant's liability from any cause whatsoever, other than full and final payment in legal tender and performance of the Obligations; (iv) any right to claim discharge of any or all of the Obligations on the basis of unjustified impairment of any collateral for the Obligations; (v) any change in the relationship between Guarantor and Tenant or any Other Guarantor or any termination of such relationship; (vi) any irregularity, defect or unauthorized action by any or all of Landlord, Tenant, any Other Guarantor or surety, or any of their respective officers, directors or other agents in executing and delivering any instrument or agreements relating to the Obligations or in carrying out or attempting to carry out the terms of any such agreements; (vii) any assignment, endorsement or transfer, in whole or in part, of the Obligations, whether made with or without notice to or consent of Guarantor; (viii) if the recovery from Tenant or any other Person (including any Other Guarantor) becomes barred by any statute of limitations or is otherwise prevented; (ix) the benefits of any and all statutes, laws, rules or regulations applicable in the State of Illinois which may require the prior or concurrent joinder of any other party to any action on this Guaranty; (x) any release or other reduction of the Obligations arising as a result of the expansion, release, substitution, deletion, addition, or replacement (whether or not in accordance with the terms of the Lease) of the Premises or any portion thereof; or (xi) any neglect, delay, omission, failure or refusal of Landlord to take or prosecute any action for the collection or enforcement of any of the Obligations or to foreclose or take or prosecute any action in connection with any lien or right of security (including perfection thereof) existing or to exist in connection with, or as security for, any of the Obligations, it being the intention hereof that Guarantor shall remain liable as a principal on the Obligations notwithstanding any act, omission or event that might, but for the provisions hereof, otherwise operate as a legal or equitable discharge of Guarantor. Guarantor hereby waives all defenses of a surety to which it may be entitled by statute or otherwise.

5.1 Guarantor subordinates to and postpones in favor of the Obligations (i) any present and future debts and obligations of Tenant or any Other Guarantor to Guarantor (the "Indebtedness"), including: (A) salary, bonuses, and other payments pursuant to any employment arrangement; (B) fees, reimbursement of expenses and other payments pursuant to any independent contractor arrangement; (C) principal and interest pursuant to any Indebtedness; (D) distributions payable to any partners, members or shareholders of Guarantor or Affiliates of Guarantor; (E) lease payments pursuant to any leasing arrangement; (F) any management fees; and (G) all rights, liens and security interests of Guarantor, whether now or hereafter arising, in any assets of the Tenant or any Other Guarantor, and (ii) any liens or security interests securing payment of the Indebtedness. Guarantor shall have no right to possession of any assets of Tenant or any Other Guarantor or to foreclose upon any such asset, whether by judicial action or otherwise, unless and until the Obligations have been paid and performed in full. Guarantor agrees that Landlord shall be subrogated to Guarantor with respect to Guarantor's claims against Tenant or any Other Guarantor and Guarantor's rights, liens and security interest, if any, in any of Tenant's or any Other Guarantor's assets and proceeds thereof until all of the Obligations have been paid and performed in full.

5.2 After the occurrence of an Event of Default and until such Event of Default is cured or after the commencement of any bankruptcy or insolvency proceeding by or against Tenant and until such proceeding is dismissed, Guarantor shall not: (i) make any distributions or other payments to any partners, parent entities, or Affiliates of Guarantor (other than to Tenant); or (ii) ask for, sue for, demand, take or receive any payment, by setoff or in any other manner, including the receipt of a negotiable instrument, for all or any part of the Indebtedness owed by Tenant, or any successor or assign of Tenant, including a receiver, trustee or debtor in possession (the term "Tenant" shall include any such successor or assign of Tenant) until the Obligations have been paid in full; however, if Guarantor receives such a payment, Guarantor shall immediately deliver the payment to Landlord for credit against the then outstanding balance of the Obligations, whether matured or unmatured. Notwithstanding anything in this Section 5 to the contrary, after an Event of Default has occurred and is outstanding, Guarantor may make cash contributions to Tenant.

5.3 Guarantor shall not be subrogated, and hereby waives and disclaims any claim or right against Tenant by way of subrogation or otherwise, to any of the rights of Landlord under the Lease or otherwise, or in the Premises (or any portion thereof), which may arise by any of the provisions of this Guaranty or by reason of the performance by Guarantor of any of its Obligations hereunder. Guarantor shall look solely to Tenant for any recoupment of any payments made or costs or expenses incurred by Guarantor pursuant to this Guaranty. If any amount shall be paid to Guarantor on account of such subrogation rights at any time when all of the Obligations shall not have been paid and performed in full, Guarantor shall immediately deliver the payment to Landlord for credit against the then outstanding balance of the Obligations, whether matured or unmatured.

USE OF PROCEEDS FROM REFINANCE OF WATERVIEW AND SALEM AND
CCC EQUITIES PAYOFFS

This Term Sheet is intended to clarify the pertinent information shared at the meeting of 04/22/2015, attended by Howard Fensterman, as Manager of CCC Equities I, LLC (“CCC”), William Nicholson as Manager of White Plain Healthcare Properties I, LLC (“WPHCP”), Lizer Jozefovic as Manager of HBL/SNF, LLC (“HBL/SNF”) the Tenant, and Mark Zafrin as counsel to HBL/SNF, and to further outline the action items required in order to break ground in the Spring of 2016.

AFFIRMATION OF LIZER JOZEFOVIC IN SUPPORT OF ORDER TO SHOW CAUSE

LIZER JOZEFOVIC affirms the following to be true under the penalties of perjury:

1. I respectfully submit this affirmation in support of the Motion for an Order to Show Cause preventing the sale of my Membership Interest in Waterview Acquisition I, LLC ("Waterview"). This Affirmation is based upon my personal knowledge.

2. I am the managing member of Waterview and own 70.1% of the company (the "Membership Interest.")

3. The history of my dealings with White Plains and all other parties is set forth in the Affirmation of John Giardino and the Memorandum of Law.

4. The Waterview facility consists of a 130-bed skilled nursing facility licensed by the State of New York.

5. I acquired Waterview in 2005.

6. There are currently 126 residents in the facility.

7. I am personally involved in managing the daily operations of Waterview and I am in the facility every week.

8. My son, Joseph Jozefovic, has been the administrator of the facility since 2015.

9. I am personally the holder of the nursing home license issued by the New York State Department of Health whose operations are overseen by the Department of Health.

10. In 2015, I refinanced the facility with the U.S. Department of Housing and Urban Development and there is currently a $25,000,000 HUD loan in place for the Waterview operations.

11. In addition, I borrowed $3,000,000 from Metropolitan Commercial Bank to fund operations, a loan I personally guaranteed.

12. I also have a line of credit extended by Gemino in the amount of $1,400,000, which I have also personally guaranteed.

13. The proposed sale of my membership interest in Waterview will cause a default on all of these loans.

14. As set forth in the motion papers, I have invested approximately $5,000,000 in White Plains. Without the infusion of my capital, the White Plains Project could not have been completed.

15. Specifically, on November 20, 2015, I contributed to the Project: (1) $2,200,000 paid to White Plains to be used by Congress for pre-development costs; (2) $197,072 paid to CCCE to be used at the discretion of Fensterman; and (3) $1,595,368.32 paid into a control account as rent security.

16. During this time, I was represented by Third-Party Defendant Howard Fensterman of Abrams, Fensterman, Fensterman, Eisman, Formato, Ferrara, Wolf & Carone, LLP.

17. These funds are a loan to the developer that has never been paid back to me by White Plains.

18. White Plains agreed to repay $1,500,000 of the principal amount of the loan by purchasing the furniture, fixtures, and equipment (the "FF&E") for the Project and conveying title to my company.

19. In addition, White Plains agreed to repay $700,000 of the principal amount of the loan by providing credit against Lease payments.

20. I have never received this rent credit and this amount of $700,000 could certainly be credited to the rent security which Plaintiff is seeking that sale of the Waterview Membership interest<sup>1</sup>.

21. To date, White Plains has refused to convey title to the FF&E, or to provide an accounting of the use of these predevelopment and discretionary funds.

22. To date, White Plains has refused to provide evidence of purchases of the required FF&E, or to credit $700,000 against the Lease payments.

23. To date, interest accrued on this $2,200,000 loan is equal to more than $450,000.

24. In short, White Plains has an unpaid obligation to me which totals over $1,140,000.

25. I have always performed my obligations under the Development Agreement and the Lease.

26. On August 10, 2017, an email was sent to Fensterman (the "August 10 Email"). The August 10 Email states, in relevant part, that the following "reflects what we agreed to. Please confirm...[and] do the paperwork to finalize this." The August 10 Email continues to state that "[w]ith respect to the Waterview account: I, Howard Fensterman and Lizer Jozefovic shall be co-signatories to the Waterview account...."

27. A true and correct copy of the August 10 Email is attached to the Affirmation of John Giardino as Exhibit F.

28. On or about August 11, 2017, I entered into a Collateral Assignment and Pledge of Membership Interest and Security Agreement, which formalized the rent security account for the Facility (the "Collateral Assignment").

29. The Collateral Assignment contained three relevant sections:

- a. Under Paragraph 2, as soon I deposited $1,600,000 into the rent security account, the Collateral Assignment "shall automatically terminate and be void and of no further effect";
- b. Under Section 13, White Plains' rights are limited to a violation of the "terms and provisions concerning the maintenance of the account..."; and
- c. Under Section 13(c), any proceeds derived from the disposition of the collateral must be applied to the Rent security.

30. A true and correct copy of the Collateral Assignment is attached to the Affirmation of John Giardino as Exhibit D.

31. On August 16, 2017, Fensterman was sent a series of emails (the "August 16 Emails"). The August 16 Emails state, in relevant part, "[e]nclosed please find the Chase Certification that we received today; Please note that the Certification requires that the Resolution that we prepared be annexed as an exhibit. What I need from Howard is original signature cards from Howard with wet ink signatures."

32. True and correct copies of the August 16 Emails are attached to the Affirmation of John Giardino as Exhibit G.

33. On August 17, 2017, an email was sent to Fensterman (the "August 17 Email"). The August 17 Email states, in relevant part, that "I need [Fensterman's] signature on the last page."

34. The purpose of the August 17 Email was to transfer the Rent Security to a new account pursuant to a resolution of Waterview Acquisition I, LLC

35. In 2017, the Rent Security was transferred to the Chase account ending in xxxx-xxx-xxxx-0885 (the "Second Account").

36. Once completed, the resolution and account holder certification form were tendered to Fensterman.

37. True and correct copies of the August 17 Email, account information form, resolution, and account holder form are attached to the Affirmation of John Giardino as Exhibit H.

38. The Collateral Assignment required me to place $1.6 million into an account and provide Fensterman with signatory authority, after which the Collateral Assignment would automatically terminate.

39. I ensured that the Rent Security was properly deposited in the Second Account and that Fensterman was provided with all necessary forms to become a signatory, thereby completing all of my obligations under the Collateral Assignment.

40. However, following the August 17 Email, White Plains and Fensterman took no actions to become a signatory. From August 2017 until this current action, the Second Account was never discussed, and White Plains never raised it as an issue. As multiple years passed, I reasonably believed that White Plains was satisfied with the Rent Security, especially since the Second Account maintained a balance of well over $1.6 million.

41. I sent these documents to Mr. Fensterman and never heard anything further until this lawsuit.

42. Previously, the Operating Agreement of Waterview Acquisition 1, LLC did not permit its members to assign their membership interests.

43. At the time, the Operating Agreement of Waterview Acquisition 1, LLC stated, in relevant part:

- a. Articles 5 and 6 did not provide for any such assignment of the Membership Interest;
- b. Article 12 specifically prohibited an assignment of the Membership Interest to Fensterman as Nominee of White Plains Healthcare Properties LLC.

44. Fensterman is aware of these facts, as well as the limitations on transfer and assignment of the Membership Interest, as Fensterman and Abrams, Fensterman LLP acted as counsel to Waterview Acquisition 1, LLC in its formation and execution of its operating agreement.

45. To permit an assignment, the Operating Agreement of Waterview was amended to authorize me, as the Majority Member, to assign the Membership Interest.

46. In December 2019, I assigned the Membership Interest to Metropolitan Commercial Bank ("MCB") as part of a $3 million loan and financing arrangement to provide working capital to benefit the Project, most of which was paid in the form of rent to White Plains.

47. On December 23, 2019, I granted MCB a security interest in the Membership Interest, and MCB perfected its security interest by taking possession of the related certifications and filing a Uniform Commercial Code Financing Statement.

48. Currently, MCB has perfected its security interest in Membership Interest and has physical possession of the membership certificates. White Plains knew and approved of the loan from MCB, since the proceeds have been used to pay rent on the Facility.

49. Following my performance under the Collateral Assignment, I waited for White Plains to complete the Project. Pursuant to the Development Agreement, White Plains was required to complete the Project by no later than September 2017.

50. However, due to unexplained delays, the Project was not completed until December 2019. Not only was this two-year delay financially burdensome, but it also forced me to open the Facility at the onset of the COVID-19 pandemic.

51. Moreover, the Development Agreement required White Plains to complete the Project at the NYSDOH-approved budget of $57 million. To guarantee that White Plains stayed within this budget, I was supposed to be responsible only for additional costs pre-authorized via change orders.

52. Throughout the entire Project, I never authorized a single change order. Yet, by the time the Facility was completed, White Plains had incurred more than $5 million in additional costs.

53. These cost overruns are extremely detrimental, as not only must they be repaid, but they have also prevented me from obtaining full reimbursement of my monthly rent payments as was originally intended under the Development Agreement and Lease.

54. Moreover, White Plains was required to provide permanent financing for the Project in the form of the HUD-insured loan approved by NYSDOH.

55. However, White Plains failed to provide permanent financing, breaching the Development Agreement and the Lease.

56. As a result of White Plains' breach, I am currently losing $68,000 per month on NYSDOH reimbursements, resulting in an annualized loss of $816,000.

57. On November 20, 2019, I entered into a letter of intent with White Plains to address certain defaults and issues (the "LOI").

58. A true and correct copy of the LOI is attached to the Affirmation of John Giardino as Exhibit 1.

59. Pursuant to the LOI, I paid White Plains an additional $2.2 million.

60. White Plains has never accounted for these funds.

61. To the extent there were any issues about the Rent Security, the $2.2 million payment for these funds resolved them.

62. To date, I have paid and continue to pay rent to White Plains on time every month.

63. Since December of 2019, I have made every monthly rent payment of $506,096.50, totaling more than $12 million.

64. I understood that White Plains would use my rent payments to pay the mortgage for the Facility, which is owned by Security Benefit Life Insurance Company ("Security Benefit").

65. However, Security Benefit has declared White Plains to be in default of the mortgage for having failed to make necessary mortgage payments, charges, interest, and other required fees.

66. In a notice dated April 16, 2020, Security Benefit stated that White Plains breached the terms of the mortgage.

67. On May 22, 2020, Security Benefit sent another letter to White Plains, reiterating that White Plains remains in default and raising additional breaches.

68. True and correct copies of the Security Benefit letters are attached to the Affirmation of John Giardino as Exhibit J.

69. On May 1, 2021, Security Benefit brought a foreclosure action against White Plains for nonpayment of rent in the action captioned Security Benefit Life Insurance Company, et al. v. White Plains Healthcare Properties I. LLC et al., No. 55883/2021.

70. Although I have paid over $500,000 per month in rental payments to White Plains each and every month, pursuant to Security Benefit's complaint, White Plains is required to pay Security Benefit approximately $160,000 per month in mortgage payments. It is inexplicable why White Plains has failed to pay its mortgage, and raises troubling questions concerning what White Plains is doing with my rental payments.

71. The mortgage foreclosure action has harmed the reputation of the facility and has adversely affected business.

72. Rather than address its own failures and breaches under the Development Agreement, Lease, Collateral Assignment, LOI, and mortgage with Security Benefit, White Plains has engaged in extrajudicial tactics to seize the Membership Interest and the Facility.

73. On or about October 6, 2020, I received a purported Notification of Disposition of Collateral issued by DelBello Donnellan Weingarten Wise & Wiederkehr, LLP ("DDW LLP"), dated October 6, 2020 (the "First Notification").

74. The First Notification claimed that I was a debtor and that the Membership Interest at would be sold "to the highest qualified public bidder in public" at 10:00 am on Friday, October 30, 2020.

75. A true and correct copy of the First Notification is attached to the Affirmation of John Giardino as Exhibit A.

76. The First Notification was negated by the entry of a Preliminary Injunction and Temporary Restraining Order by Judge Bannon in the action captioned Lizer Jozefovic v. White Plains Healthcare Properties I, LLC et al., No. 655549/2020.

77. On or about March 2021, after the First Notification failed, White Plains contacted NYSDOH and claimed that the appointment of an emergency receiver for the Facility was necessary.

78. White Plains made this request in secret, never informing me or my counsel of this request.

79. I was subsequently contacted by NYSDOH Director Marthe JB Ngwashi who requested further information about the situation and whether the Facility was in financial jeopardy.

80. Once I was given the opportunity to meaningfully respond, NYSDOH took no further steps to appoint a receiver.

81. A true and correct copy of the letter from my counsel to NYSDOH regarding White Plains' improper request for receivership is attached to the Affirmation of John Giardino as Exhibit K.

82. Finally, on or about June 10, 2021, I received a purported Notification of Disposition of Collateral, dated June 9, 2020 (the "Second Notification"), which announced White Plains' renewed intention to sell the Membership Interest at "public auction".

83. A true and correct copy of the Second Notification is attached to the Affirmation of John Giardino as Exhibit B.

84. However, White Plains is not in possession of my Membership Interest.

85. White Plains has widely distributed the Second Notification to my business partners and colleagues. As a result, I have received calls from interested and concerned parties inquiring about the purported sale.

86. I have spent years of my life successfully building and operating nursing homes. Although it is difficult to estimate, the Membership Interest is worth no less than $6 million.

87. White Plains has no right to sell the Membership Interest under the Collateral Assignment. Moreover, White Plains' rights under the Collateral Assignment are limited to enforcing the Rent Security, which remains intact.

88. I will be irreprovably harmed if the sale is permitted to proceed.

89. Furthermore, under the Assignment, the proceeds of such a sale can only be used to fund the Rent Deposit Account.

90. The continued publication of the Second Notification and any purported sale will irreparably harm me and jeopardize my operations.

91. Because White Plains will attempt to sell the Membership Interest, I will be irreparably harmed if the relief requested is not granted.

92. Moreover, my Membership Interest is essential for the management of Waterview and New York Law. I obtained the proper licensing and authorization to operate these particular nursing homes from NYSDOH. The licensing and authorization cannot be transferred to another party without a thorough analysis and approval from NYSDOH.

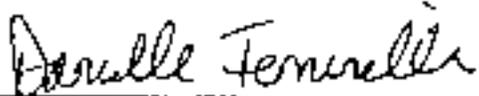

93. In this action, my claims for damages far exceed $1.6 million.

94. I seek an Order to Show Cause for a preliminary injunction to (1) enjoin White Plains Healthcare Properties I, LLC, Howard Fensterman, and Metropolitan Commercial Bank from taking any action to transfer, assign, convey or sell the Membership Interest; and (2) enjoin Epic and Defendants and Third-Party Plaintiffs HBL SNF, LLC, Lizer Jozefovic, and Mark Neuman from taking any action to reduce the Rent Security below $1.6 million.

LEASED PREMISES

Section 2.1 Leased Premises. Landlord hereby leases and demises to Tenant, and Tenant hereby leases from Landlord, on the terms and conditions set forth in this Lease, the following assets:

(a) all of Landlord's right, title, and interest in and to the Real Property, including, without limitation, all buildings, structures, erections, improvements, appurtenances, easements and fixtures, including fixed machinery and fixed equipment situated thereon or forming a part thereof; and

(b) all of Landlord's right, title and interest in and to all machinery, trade equipment, trade fixtures, furniture, furnishings, beds, and accessories of all kinds used in connection with the Facility located on the Real Property.

All of the items described in Sections 2.1(a) and 2.1(b) herein are collectively referred to as the "Leased Premises." Landlord and Tenant acknowledge and understand that all of the items which comprise the Leased Premises, as repaired, rebuilt, replaced, restored, altered or added to as permitted or required by provisions of this Lease, shall be transferred back to Landlord in accordance with the terms and conditions set forth herein upon the expiration or earlier termination of this Lease.

ARTICLE III

TERM AND RENT

Section 3.1 Term of Lease.

(a) The term (the "Term") of this Lease shall be for a period of thirty (30) years commencing on the later to occur of (i) the date of issuance of a permanent or temporary Certificate of Occupancy for the Facility and (ii) the date that New York State Department of Health (hereinafter sometimes, "DOH") determines that the Landlord's Work is sufficiently complete as constructed (but not necessarily the Tenant's operations) to accept patients, provided, however, if the Landlord is unable to obtain a permanent or temporary Certificate of Occupancy because of the actions or inactions of the Tenant, its employees or agents including, but not limited to, a delay in obtaining the necessary DOH approvals then delivery of a permanent or temporary Certificate of Occupancy shall not be a condition under clause (i) (the "Commencement Date"), and ending at 11:59:59 P.M. on the day preceding the thirtieth (30th) anniversary of the Commencement Date (the "Expiration Date"). Under any and all circumstances, Landlord shall not be liable to Tenant, in damages or otherwise, for any delay in delivering the Leased Premises to Tenant and Tenant shall have no right to terminate or rescind this Lease on account thereof. Notwithstanding the Commencement Date, certain of the rights and obligations of the parties shall commence on the Effective Date, but not including Tenant's obligations to pay Fixed Rent and Impositions prior to the Commencement Date, or to maintain the Leased Premises, insure the Leased Premises or restore the Leased Premises after a casualty or condemnation prior to the Commencement Date, or any other rights and obligations, which by their terms are intended to commence as of the Commencement Date, which rights and obligations shall commence on the Commencement Date.

As used herein with respect to the Term and the periods for payment of Rent (unless the context otherwise requires) the term "Lease Year" shall mean a 365 day period (or 366 day period in the case of a leap year), first commencing on the Commencement Date and thereafter on successive anniversaries thereof, and ending on the day prior to the next succeeding anniversary of the Commencement Date.

Landlord and Tenant hereby acknowledge that the Commencement Date is presently indeterminate and shall occur only as hereinabove provided in this Section. Except for the rights of Tenant expressly stated herein, Tenant hereby waives any right to rescind this Lease under the provisions of Section 223-a of the Real Property Law of the State of New York, and agrees that the provisions of this Article are intended to constitute "an express provision to the contrary" within the meaning of said Section 223-a. Landlord and Tenant shall execute a memo specifying the Commencement Date immediately following its occurrence.

(b) Provided a Lease Default has not occurred and is then continuing either at the time of the exercise of the options provided below or at the end of the Term or Extension Term, or there has not been any Lease Default listed in Schedule 3.1 attached hereto (a "Material Default"), whether or not cured, within two years of the end of the Term or Extension Term, Tenant shall have the option to extend the Term of this Lease for three (3) additional periods of ten (10) years each (each an "Extension Term"), by giving written notice to Landlord not less than five forty-five (545) days nor more than seven hundred (700) days prior to the expiration of the Term (or Extension Term as the case may be) of this Lease, TIME BEING OF THE ESSENCE to these time periods. These options may be exercised by Tenant serving written notice upon Landlord stating that Tenant is exercising the option to extend. If Tenant fails to give such notice in writing to Landlord within the time period specified herein, all rights and privileges granted to Tenant to extend this Lease shall lapse and become null and void. No later option may be exercised if Tenant has failed to exercise a prior option. If Tenant has validly exercised its option(s) to extend the Term, references herein to the "Term" shall be deemed to include an Extension Term.

(a) Beginning in the first (1st) Lease Year of the Term and for each succeeding Lease Year thereafter, including during any and all Extension Terms, Tenant shall pay Landlord an amount ("Fixed Rent"). computed on an annualized basis, equal to the sum of the amounts provided for in clauses (i) through (iv), less the amount provided for in clause (v):

(i) the annual debt service payments (principal and interest) that Landlord is required to pay to Lender pursuant to the first Mortgage, plus such additional amounts as Landlord may be required to pay under any of the Loan Documents with respect to tax, insurance and other reserve requirements and/or payment obligations;

(ii) the annual debt service payments or preferred equity payments that the Landlord is required to pay pursuant to the Mezzanine or second Mortgage, plus such additional amounts as Landlord may be required to pay under any of the Loan Documents with respect to tax, insurance and other reserve requirements and/or payment obligations under the Mezzanine or second Mortgage;

(iii) an annual amount equal to as sum computed by multiplying the amount of Landlord's Unreturned Capital Value by Twelve Percent (12%);

(iv) an additional amount of $250,000 per year during Lease Years one through three; $350,000 per year during Lease Years 4 and 5; and $400,000.00 per Lease Year thereafter until the end of the Term.

(v) $32,400 annually for years one through thirty five

(b) Tenant shall pay the Rent to Landlord during the term without deduction or setoff and without demand.

(c) The terms "Additional Rent" or "additional rent" means all sums, amounts, fees, expenses and costs (including, without limitation, legal fees and disbursements) payable or reimbursable to Landlord under this Lease other than Fixed Rent, and all of same shall be and constitute Additional Rent hereunder. The terms "Fixed Rent" and "Additional Rent" shall be collectively referred to as "Rent." Landlord shall have the same rights and remedies hereunder consequent upon a failure of Tenant to pay any item of Additional Rent as upon a failure of Tenant to pay any item of Fixed Rent.

(d) Rent shall be due and payable in advance in equal monthly installments during each year on the first (1st) day of each calendar month thereof (or in the event the first day of the calendar month is not a business day, on the first business day following the first day of each calendar month) throughout the Term. Rent for any period which is less than a full calendar month or full year, as the case may be, during the Term, shall be prorated on a daily basis. Rent shall not be paid more than one (1) month in advance. Rent shall be paid to Landlord at Landlord's address set forth in Section 13.1 or at such other place as Landlord designates from time to time by written notice to Tenant. Tenant agrees to pay Rent, at Landlord's direction, by electronic transfer or wire, as directed by Mortgagee in writing.

(e) TENANT HEREBY ACKNOWLEDGES THAT LATE PAYMENT BY TENANT TO LANDLORD OF RENT WILL CAUSE LANDLORD TO INCUR COSTS NOT CONTEMPLATED HEREUNDER, THE EXACT AMOUNT OF WHICH IS PRESENTLY ANTICIPATED TO BE EXTREMELY DIFFICULT TO ASCERTAIN. SUCH COSTS MAY INCLUDE PROCESSING AND ACCOUNTING CHARGES AND LATE CHARGES WHICH MAY BE IMPOSED ON LANDLORD BY THE TERMS OF ANY LOAN AGREEMENT AND OTHER EXPENSES OF A SIMILAR OR DISSIMILAR NATURE. ACCORDINGLY, IF ANY INSTALLMENT OF RENT THAT IS PAYABLE TO LANDLORD OR HIS DESIGNEE SHALL NOT BE PAID WITHIN FIVE (5) DAYS OF THE DATE WHEN DUE, TENANT WILL PAY LANDLORD ON DEMAND A LATE CHARGE EQUAL TO FIVE PERCENT (5%) OF THE UNPAID PORTION OF THE AMOUNT OF SUCH INSTALLMENT. THE PARTIES AGREE THAT THIS LATE CHARGE REPRESENTS A FAIR AND REASONABLE ESTIMATE OF THE COSTS THAT LANDLORD WILL INCUR BY REASON OF LATE PAYMENT BY TENANT. THE PARTIES FURTHER AGREE THAT SUCH LATE CHARGE IS RENT AND NOT INTEREST AND SUCH ASSESSMENT DOES NOT CONSTITUTE A LENDER OR BORROWER/CREDITOR RELATIONSHIP BETWEEN LANDLORD AND TENANT. IN ADDITION, THE AMOUNT UNPAID, INCLUDING ANY LATE CHARGES, SHALL BEAR INTEREST AT THE OVERDUE RATE FROM THE DUE DATE OF SUCH INSTALLMENT TO THE DATE OF PAYMENT THEREOF, AND TENANT SHALL PAY SUCH INTEREST TO LANDLORD ON DEMAND. THE PAYMENT OF SUCH LATE CHARGE AND/OR SUCH INTEREST SHALL NOT CONSTITUTE A WAIVER OF, NOR EXCUSE OR CURE, ANY DEFAULT UNDER THIS LEASE. NOR PREVENT LANDLORD FROM EXERCISING ANY OTHER RIGHTS AND/OR REMEDIES AVAILABLE TO LANDLORD.

(f) If a default is declared by the Commissioner under the provisions of the Regulatory Agreement, provided a copy of Notice of Default is given to Tenant, Tenant shall thereafter make all future payments under this Lease to the Commissioner.

Section 3.3 Net Lease Provisions. Landlord and Tenant intend that the Rent herein specified shall be net to Landlord in each year during the Term, and that all costs, expenses and obligations of every kind and nature, (known or unknown, general or special, ordinary or extraordinary, foreseen or unforeseen, direct or indirect, contingent or otherwise) relating to the operation, repair and maintenance of the Leased Premises (except Landlord's income taxes) which may arise or become due during the Term shall be timely paid by Tenant and that Landlord shall be indemnified by Tenant against such costs, expenses and obligations. Tenant's obligation to pay Rent is independent of all, and is in no manner conditioned upon any, other covenants, conditions and obligations of Landlord or Tenant under this Lease. There shall be no abatement of Rent payments for any reason nor shall Tenant be entitled to any offsets or deductions from Rent payments due hereunder.

Section 3.4 Rent Tax. If any governmental taxing authority levies, assesses, or imposes any tax, sales or use tax, privilege tax, excise or assessment (other than income or franchise taxes) upon or against the Rent payable by Tenant to Landlord, either by way of substitution for or in addition to any existing tax on land and buildings or otherwise, then Tenant shall be responsible for and shall pay such tax, excise or assessment, or, if Landlord pays same, Tenant shall reimburse Landlord for the amount thereof within ten (10) days after written demand by Landlord.

It is the intent of this Section 3.4 and all other provisions of this Lease to insure that the Rent (including Additional Rent) paid to Landlord by Tenant will be received by Landlord without diminution by any tax, assessment, charge or levy of any nature whatsoever, except United States, State of New York and local net income taxes, and the terms and conditions of this Lease shall be liberally construed to effect such purpose. Without limiting the generality of the foregoing, if any tax is assessed or based on gross income actually or constructively received by Landlord pursuant to this Lease, Tenant shall pay such amount which, when added to said gross income, shall yield to Landlord, after deduction of all such tax payable by Landlord with respect thereto, a net amount equal to that which Landlord would have realized therefrom had no such tax been imposed.

Section 3.5 Assignment of Lease to Mortgagee. Tenant acknowledges that all of the interest of Landlord in and to this Lease has been or will be assigned to Mortgagee pursuant to the Loan Documents.

Tenant agrees to promptly execute and deliver to Landlord from time to time any and all documents required by a Mortgagee, Prospective Mortgagee, HUD and/or HUD's Approved Lender, or any successor, commercial, agency or private lender, including, without limitation, a lease addendum, regulatory agreement, subordination agreement, non-disturbance and attornment agreement, and/or estoppel certificate, in order to finance or refinance the Facility or otherwise.

Tenant will on request at any time or from time to time by Landlord or any Mortgagee or Prospective Mortgagee subordinate this lease and all of Tenant's rights and estate hereunder to such Person's Mortgage and to any renewals, extensions, substitutions, refinancings, modifications or amendments thereof, or declare such Mortgage to be prior to this lease and to any renewals, extensions, substitutions, refinancings, modifications or amendments thereof, and agree with such holder that Tenant will attorn thereto in the event of foreclosure. Landlord agrees to use reasonable efforts (except that Landlord shall not be obligated to expend money for any such agreement) to obtain a written agreement from any such holder in the form typically used by such holder which consents to this lease and provides that, notwithstanding such mortgage or any default, expiration, termination, foreclosure, sale, entry or other act or omission under, pursuant to or affecting said Mortgage, Tenant shall not be disturbed in peaceful enjoyment of the Leased Premises or this lease terminated or canceled at any time, except in the event Landlord shall have the right to terminate this lease under the terms and provisions set forth herein.

Section 3.6 True Lease. It is the intent of Landlord and Tenant and the parties agree that this Lease is a true lease and that this Lease does not represent a financing agreement. Each party shall reflect the transaction represented hereby in all applicable books, records and reports (including income tax filings) in a manner consistent with "true lease" treatment rather than "financing" treatment.

Section 3.7 Right of First Refusal; Buyout. (a) Landlord shall not sell, transfer or convey the Leased Premises to a third person or entity unless Tenant first is given the opportunity to purchase the Leased Premises pursuant to the terms and conditions set forth in this Section 3.7(a). If at any time during the first eleven years of Term Landlord receives from any third person or entity an Offer (as hereinafter defined) to purchase the Leased Premises which Landlord desires to accept, Landlord shall notify Tenant of such Offer by delivering written notice to Tenant, which notification (the "Offer Notice") shall contain a copy of the written Offer or, at Landlord's election, a written summary of the terms of the Offer. For purposes of this Lease, an "Offer" shall mean any bona fide written instrument or verbal communication setting forth the terms pursuant to which Landlord will convey the Leased Premises. Tenant shall have ten (10) Business Days after receipt of the Offer Notice in which to elect by written notice delivered to Landlord (the "Acceptance Notice") to enter into a formal agreement on the same terms and conditions as those contained in the Offer ("Tenant's Purchase Right"). Such election shall be effective only if within ten (10) Business Days after delivery of the Acceptance Notice the parties enter into a written purchase agreement on terms reasonably acceptable to Landlord in good faith for the sale of the Leased Premises to Tenant containing all terms of the Offer. If Tenant fails to timely deliver the Acceptance Notice, or if Tenant fails to timely enter into said purchase agreement as provided herein, Landlord shall have the right to accept the Offer or any modification thereof on terms substantially similar as those set forth in the Offer. Tenant's right to purchase the Leased Premises identified in the Offer Notice shall not apply to (i) transfers of less than one hundred percent of the ownership interests in Landlord, (ii) a public offering of ownership interests in Landlord, (iii) a recapitalization transaction of any kind involving Landlord, (iv) condemnation, eminent domain or similar proceedings, or (v) rights exercised by Mortgagees in foreclosure or in lieu thereof pursuant to Mortgages or other documents executed by Landlord in connection therewith, including the subsequent disposition of the Premises by Mortgagee or its affiliate or designee that acquires the Leased Premises in connection therewith.

(b) Notwithstanding anything to the contrary, if Landlord's Offer Notice states that it is purchasing from Tenant Tenant's Purchase Right, then (i) Tenant shall have no further rights under Section 3.7(a), and Section 3.7(a) shall be null and void without further effect, and (ii) upon the closing of the purchase and sale of the Leased Premises pursuant to the Offer, Landlord shall pay Tenant ten percent (10%) of the excess of the sales price agreed to pursuant to the Offer (less costs and fees, including broker's fees) over the "GPC, the "Offer Fee"), and (iii) the Rent shall be the greater of the amount as determined by Section 3.2(a) or fair market value, as shall be determined by an independent third party appraiser jointly appointed by Landlord or and Tenant, and absent their agreement appointed by the then chairman or similar officer of the Westchester County Society of Real Estate Appraisers. For purposes of clarification, Tenant shall not be entitled to the receipt of the Offer Fee if Tenant exercises Tenant's Purchase Right as set forth in Section 3.7(a) above.

(c) Upon expiration of the eleventh Lease Year, Tenant's Right of First Refusal as set forth in in Section 3.7(a) shall lapse and become null and void.

Section 3.8. Option to Purchase. Commencing on the first day of the twelfth Lease Year of the lease and ending on the last day of the fifteenth Lease Year of the lease, the Tenant shall have the right to purchase the Leased Premises from Landlord for a purchase price during each of the following Lease Years as follows:

- (a) During the Twelfth Lease Year the sum of (i) TPC plus (ii) One Million Five Hundred Thousand Dollars
- (b) During the thirteenth Lease Year the sum of (i) TPC plus (ii) One Million Six Hundred Fifty Thousand Dollars
- (c) During the fourteenth Lease Year the sum of (i) TPC plus (ii) One Million Eight Hundred Thousand Dollars
- (d) During the fifteenth Lease Year the sum of (i) TPC plus (ii) One Million Nine Hundred Fifty Thousand Dollars

Upon expiration of the fifteenth Lease Year, Tenant's the right to purchase the Leased Premises from Landlord, all as set forth above, shall lapse, become null and void, and Tenant shall have deemed to waived all such rights hereunder.

Section 4.1 Utilities. From and after the Commencement Date, Tenant shall pay or cause to be paid all charges next coming due and payable for electricity, steam, telephone, cable, gas, oil, water, sewer and all other services or utilities used on or related to the Leased Premises (the "Utilities") during the Term. Tenant covenants to place all Utilities in Tenant's name as of the Commencement Date. Adjustment shall be made for Utilities applicable to any period prior to the Commencement Date. In the event Landlord is billed directly by any service provider or utility company for any Utilities or services supplied to Tenant during the Term, Landlord shall send Tenant the bill and Tenant shall promptly pay the same. Landlord shall have no obligation or liability with respect to any interruption or failure in the supply of any such Utilities. If Landlord elects to or shall be required to pay for any Utilities to preserve and/or protect the Leased Premises, Tenant shall reimburse Landlord for the cost and expense thereof plus interest at the Prime Rate.

Section 4.2 Taxes. Tenant shall be solely responsible for the payment, prior to the date when penalties would attach, of all general and special real estate taxes and assessments (together with any excise taxes on such real estate taxes and assessments levied or imposed by any governmental taxing authority), fire district taxes, liens, impositions, including capital stock, franchise, ad valorem, sales, use, single business, gross receipts, transaction privilege, rent or similar taxes; personal property taxes, assessments including assessments for public improvements or benefits, whether or not commenced or completed prior to the date hereof and whether or not to be completed within the Term; ground rents; water, sewer and other utility levies and charges; excise tax levies; fees including license, permit, inspection, authorization and similar fees; and all other governmental charges, in each case whether general or special, ordinary or extraordinary, or foreseen or unforeseen, of every character in respect of the Leased Premises, and all interest and penalties thereon attributable to any failure in payment by Lessee which at any time prior to, during or in respect of the Term hereof may be assessed or imposed on or in respect of or be a lien upon the Leased Premises (collectively, the "impositions") that accrue from the Commencement Date through the Term. Adjustment shall be made for Impositions applicable to any period prior to the Commencement Date. Tenant shall pay all of the Impositions directly to the applicable taxing authorities and Tenant shall promptly forward proof of payment to Landlord in such form as shall be reasonably acceptable to Landlord unless Landlord elects to require escrow deposits in accordance with Section 4.3 hereof. Landlord shall promptly forward any tax bills which it may receive to Tenant. Landlord shall only bill Tenant for any of the Impositions if Tenant does not pay any of the Impositions before delinquency and Landlord is obligated or elects (in Landlord's sole and absolute discretion) to pay any of the Impositions directly to remain current with all taxing authorities. Tenant shall pay the full amount of any increases in any of the Impositions resulting from alterations or improvements made by or for the benefit of Tenant. After the expiration or termination of this Lease, Tenant shall pay all bills for any of the Impositions which become due and payable after the expiration or termination of the Lease covering any period through the expiration or earlier termination of the Lease. If any governmental taxing authority acting under any present or future ordinance or regulation, shall levy, assess or impose a tax, excise and/or assessment (other than any net income or franchise tax) upon Landlord or Tenant for rental payable by Tenant to Landlord, either by way of substitution for or in addition to any existing tax on land, buildings or otherwise, then Tenant shall be responsible for and shall pay such tax, excise and/or assessment or shall reimburse Landlord for the cost and expense thereof, as the case may be. Provided that Tenant shall have deposited a sufficient amount of funds to pay the Impositions pursuant to Section 4.3 and Tenant has done nothing to prevent payment by Landlord or its lender of the Impositions, then Tenant shall not be responsible for any and all late payment fees and/or penalties, including interest, imposed by any applicable taxing authorities with respect to the untimely payment of Impositions.

Section 4.3 Escrow Deposits.

(a) Escrow. At the option of Landlord, which may be exercised at any time by Landlord in its sole and absolute discretion Tenant shall, on the first day of the first calendar month commencing after notice from Landlord, and on the first day of each calendar month thereafter during the Term (each of which dates is referred to as a "Monthly Deposit Date"), pay to and deposit with Landlord a sum equal to one-twelfth (1/12th) of the Impositions to be levied, charged, filed, assessed or imposed upon or against the Leased Premises within one (1) year after said Monthly Deposit Date and a sum equal to one-twelfth (1/12th) of the premiums for the property insurance policies required pursuant to Article VI which are payable within one (1) year after said Monthly Deposit Date. If the amount of the Impositions to be levied, charged, assessed or imposed or insurance premiums to be paid within the ensuing one (1) year period shall not be fixed upon any Monthly Deposit Date, such amount for the purpose of computing the deposit to be made by Tenant hereunder shall be reasonably estimated by Landlord with an appropriate adjustment to be promptly made between Landlord and Tenant as soon as such amount becomes determinable. In addition, Landlord may, at its option, from time to time require that any particular deposit be greater than one-twelfth (1/12th) of the estimated amount payable within one (1) year after said Monthly Deposit Date, if such additional deposit is required in order to provide to Landlord sufficient funds from which to make payment of all Impositions on or before the next due date of any installment thereof, or to make payment of any required insurance premiums not later than the due date thereof. If any Mortgagee or the Commissioner requires Landlord to impound insurance premiums on a periodic basis during the term, Tenant, on notice from Landlord indicating this requirement, shall pay a sum of money towards its liability under this Lease to Landlord on a periodic basis in accordance with Landlord's requirements. Landlord shall impound the premium payments received from Tenant in accordance with the requirements of Mortgagee and shall utilize such funds to timely pay insurance premiums

(b) Use of Deposits. The sums deposited by Tenant under this Section 4.3 shall be held by Landlord or Mortgagee and shall be applied in payment of the Impositions or insurance premiums, as the case may be, when due. Any such deposits may be commingled with other assets of Landlord or such Mortgagee, and shall be deposited by Landlord or such Mortgagee in an Eligible Institution in such account or accounts as Landlord or the Mortgagee may, from time to time select, and Landlord shall not be liable to Tenant or any other person (i) based on Landlord's or the Mortgagee's (or any bank's) choice of investment vehicles, (ii) for any consequent loss of principal or interest or (iii) for any unavailability of funds based on such choice of investment. Furthermore, subject to the foregoing regarding the use of depositories and accounts, Landlord and its Mortgagee shall bear no responsibility for the financial condition of, nor any act or omission by the depository bank. No income, if any, from such investment or interest on such deposits shall be paid to Tenant. To the extent that Landlord does not have an invoice or bill specifying the due date for payment, Tenant shall give not less than thirty (30) days prior written notice to Landlord in each instance when an Imposition or insurance premium is due, specifying the Imposition or premium to be paid and the amount thereof, the place of payment, and the last day on which the same may be paid in order to comply with the requirements of this Lease. If Landlord, in violation of its obligations under this Lease, does not pay any Imposition or insurance premium when due, for which a sufficient deposit exists, Tenant shall not be in default hereunder by virtue of the failure to pay such Imposition or such insurance premium and Tenant shall not be liable for any late payment fees and/or penalties, including interest imposed as a result of such failure to pay. The term "Eligible Institution" shall mean a depository institution or trust company, the short term unsecured debt obligations or commercial paper of which are rated at least "A-11" by S&P, "P-1" by Moody's and "F-1+" by Fitch in the case of accounts in which funds are held for thirty (30) days or less (or, in the case of accounts in which funds are held for more than thirty (30) days, the long term unsecured debt obligations of which are rated at least "AA" by Fitch and S&P and "Aa2" by Moody's).

(c) Deficits. If for any reason any deposit made by Tenant or held by Landlord under this Section 4.3 shall not be sufficient to pay any Imposition or insurance premium within the time specified therefor in this Lease, then, within ten (10) days after demand by Landlord, Tenant shall deposit an additional amount with Landlord, increasing the deposit held by Landlord so that Landlord holds sufficient funds to pay such Imposition or premium in full (or in installments as otherwise provided for herein), together with any penalty or interest thereon. Landlord may change its estimate of any Imposition or insurance premium for any period on the basis of a change in an assessment or tax rate or on the basis of a prior miscalculation or for any other good faith reason; in which event, within ten (10) days after demand by Landlord, Tenant shall deposit with Landlord the amount in excess of the sums previously deposited with Landlord for the applicable period which would theretofore have been payable under the revised estimate.

(d) Transfers. Consistent with Section 2.2, in connection with any assignment of Landlord's interest under this Lease and the assumption of this Lease by a new landlord, the original Landlord named herein and each successor in interest shall have the right to transfer all amounts deposited pursuant to the provisions of this Section 4.3 and not used pursuant to this Section 4.3 to such assignee (as the subsequent holder of Landlord's interest in this Lease) and upon such transfer, the original Landlord named herein or the applicable successor in interest transferring the deposits shall thereupon be completely released from all liability with respect to such deposits so transferred and Tenant shall look solely to said assignee, as the subsequent holder of Landlord's interest under this Lease, in reference thereto.

(e) Security. All amounts deposited with Landlord pursuant to the provisions of this Section 4.3 shall be held by Landlord as additional security for the payment and performance of Tenant's obligations under this Lease and, upon the occurrence and during the continuance of any Lease Default, Landlord may, in its sole and absolute discretion, apply such amounts towards payment or performance of such obligations.

(f) Return. Upon the expiration or earlier termination of this Lease, as long as all of the Rent and any and all other obligations due under this Lease have been fully paid and performed, any sums then held by Landlord under this Section 4.3 shall be refunded to Tenant, and subject to the rights of a Mortgagee, together with all interest, if any, earned thereon and all income, if any, earned therefrom; provided, however, that if a Lease Default has occurred and is continuing, all of such sums may be applied by Landlord towards any amounts owed to Landlord pursuant to this Lease.

(g) Receipts. Tenant shall deliver to Landlord copies of all claims and bills in relation to the Impositions and insurance premiums promptly upon receipt thereof by Tenant.

This Article and the obligations herein shall survive expiration or earlier termination of this Lease.

ARTICLE V

LANDLORD'S WORK, MAINTENANCE AND REPAIR; IMPROVEMENTS

Section 5.1 Landlord's Work. (a) Landlord shall cause the Facility to be constructed ("Landlord's Work").

(b) Landlord will give Tenant thirty (30) days' notice of the date Landlord expects to be the Substantial Completion Date. On or prior to the Substantial Completion Date, Landlord and Tenant shall jointly prepare a list of the items for the Facility that remain to be completed or corrected, set a dollar value for the cost to complete the work, and fix time for their completion or correction (collectively the "Punchlist").

(c) Notwithstanding anything in this lease to the contrary, on and after the Substantial Completion Date Tenant shall be deemed to have agreed Landlord has completed Landlord's Work to Tenant's complete satisfaction, except for (i) the Punchlist, (ii) such items of decoration or mechanical adjustment of which Tenant gives Landlord written notice within thirty

(30) days after the Substantial Completion Date (the "Initial Correction Items") or (iii) any defects in the Facility which were not known or reasonably discoverable by Tenant in the time period specified in the immediately prior clause (ii) ("Latent Defects"); provided that, as to Latent Defects, Landlord will have no responsibility or liability therefor, or for the correction thereof, unless (A) Tenant conducts at least one inspection of the Facility with a qualified engineer or other expert, within one year from the Substantial Completion Date, and (B) Tenant gives Landlord notice of such Latent Defects within thirty( 30) days after discovery thereof and in any event not later than one year after the Substantial Completion Date, which notice will be accompanied by the certification of such engineer or other experts, specifying, in detail, such Latent Defects in the Facility.

(d) At its sole expense, Landlord shall complete the Punchlist, and remedy the Initial Correction Items, and the Latent Defects provided with respect to Latent Defects that the conditions set out in clause (iii) of section (c) are satisfied.

(e) In the extent assignable at no cost to Landlord, Landlord assigns to Tenant all manufacturer warranties on materials and equipment. Tenant shall have the benefit and right to enforce such warranties at its sole cost and expense.

Section 5.2 Maintenance and Repair. Except as provided in Section 5.1, Tenant, at Tenant's sole cost and expense, shall keep the Leased Premises, including all buildings, fixtures, trade equipment, trade fixtures, furniture, beds and other personal property leased to Tenant pursuant to this Lease, including, without limitation, all structural and non-structural components, the roof, foundation, all outer walls, plumbing, sprinklers, electrical, mechanical, heating, ventilation, utility service, air conditioning, vertical transport, telephone, communications, cable, computer, fire-life-safety, nursing call, and all other systems of the Leased Premises in good condition and repair and in compliance with all Laws. Landlord shall not be responsible to make any improvements, repairs, maintenance or replacements whether occasioned by the act, omission, active negligence, or passive negligence of Landlord or Tenant and/or its agents, employees, invitees or licensees or otherwise, and Tenant shall pay for all improvements, repairs, replacements, maintenance and expenditures relating to the Leased Premises, whether interior or exterior, structural or non-structural, ordinary or extraordinary, foreseen or unforeseen or arising by reason of a condition existing prior to the commencement of the Lease, by Tenant's use or by a change in applicable Laws. The Leased Premises and its appurtenances shall at all times be kept clean, safe and sanitary and in good order, condition, replacement and repair by Tenant, at Tenant's sole cost and expense, except for ordinary wear and tear (provided, however, that, without limiting the generality of this Section 5.2, Tenant shall be obligated to replace any portion of the Leased Premises upon any obsolescence thereof or if proper repair is impractical). Tenant shall provide (if not currently a part of the Leased Premises) and maintain, repair and replace, as necessary, all furniture, fixtures, equipment and/or other personal property required by any Governmental Authority (other than furniture, fixtures, equipment and/or other personal property owned by contractors providing ancillary services at the Facility) necessary for the operation of the Facility and to comply with all Laws. All such property provided by Tenant shall immediately become the property of Landlord and Tenant shall execute such documentation as Landlord may reasonably require vesting title in such property in Landlord. Landlord shall have no liability or obligation with respect to such property or any of Tenant's operations relating thereto. All replacements made by Tenant hereunder shall be made in a good and workmanlike manner in accordance with Laws using the same, similar or better quality of materials as being replaced and shall immediately become the property of Landlord. Tenant acknowledges that title and ownership of all repaired and replaced furniture, fixtures, equipment and/or other personal property made hereunder shall belong to and is for the benefit of Landlord. Tenant shall not enter into any equipment leases or conditional sales contracts for any furniture, fixtures, equipment and/or other personal property relating to the Facility without Landlord's consent which it may grant or withhold in its sole discretion. The term "Laws" means, all federal, state, county, municipal and other governmental statutes, laws, rules, orders, regulations, ordinances, judgments, decrees and injunctions of Governmental Authorities affecting any Leased Premises or any part thereof, or the construction, use, alteration or operation thereof, or any part thereof, whether now or hereafter enacted and in force, and all permits, licenses and authorizations and regulations relating thereto, and all covenants, agreements, restrictions and encumbrances contained in any instruments, either of record or known to Tenant, at any time in force affecting the Leased Premises or any part thereof. The term "Governmental Authority" means any court, board, agency, arbitrator, commission, office or other authority of any nature whatsoever for any governmental unit (foreign, federal, state, county, district, municipal, city or otherwise) whether now or hereafter in existence.

Section 5.3 Improvements, Renovation, Alterations and Additions. Tenant shall have the right during the Term to make such non-structural interior alterations, changes and improvements to the Leased Premises as may be proper and necessary for the conduct of Tenant's business, to cause the Leased Premises to conform to all Laws, for patient comfort and safety, or for the full beneficial use of the Leased Premises, so long as such improvements do not (i) exceed Three Hundred Fifty Thousand Dollars ($350,000.00) in any given calendar year, (ii) interfere with any of the purposes for which the Facility was leased or affect the roof or structure, (iii) decrease the value of the Leased Premises, (iv) affect any building system, including, heating, ventilation, air conditioning, mechanical, electrical, plumbing or vertical transport systems, or (v) affect the exterior appearance of the Leased Premises. Tenant shall not make any other alterations, changes, or improvements without the express written approval in each instance by Landlord, which consent shall not be unreasonably withheld; provided, however, that the granting or withholding of consent shall not result in any liability to Landlord. Furthermore, Tenant may make all repairs or replacements required by a Governmental Authority without obtaining Landlord's consent, provided, however, Tenant shall give Landlord no less than ten (10) days prior written notice of such government mandated repairs or replacements prior to making or implementing same, unless emergency factors necessitate the making of such repairs before Tenant can reasonable give notice to Landlord, in which event Tenant shall give notice to Landlord as soon as reasonably possible. Tenant shall pay for all costs, fees and penalties imposed by the applicable state agencies or the Center for Medicare and Medicaid Services ("CMS") or other Governmental Authority in connection with any survey or the Change of Ownership. Tenant shall notify Landlord of any alterations, changes or improvements required and/or permitted by the applicable state agencies or the CMS or other Governmental Authority prior to the commencement thereof. Tenant shall pay all costs and expenses of any required and/or permitted alterations, changes, and improvements, shall make the same in a good and workmanlike manner, and in accordance with all Laws, having obtained all necessary permits and approvals from Governmental Authorities having jurisdiction over the Facility and work performed thereon or therein, and shall assure Landlord, in form reasonably satisfactory to Landlord, all necessary permits and authorizations have been received and that payment for the work and materials will be made by Tenant. Tenant hereby completely and fully indemnifies Landlord against any mechanic's liens or other liens or claims in connection with the making of any alterations, changes, and/or improvements. Any liens arising out of any required and/or permitted alterations, changes, and/or improvements shall be discharged of record by Tenant within the earlier of thirty (30) days after the same have been filed by payment, bonding or otherwise, as permitted by law, or five (5) days after commencement of a foreclosure or enforcement action. Notwithstanding any provision of this Lease to the contrary, Tenant shall not undertake any alterations, renovations, or improvements to the Facility or otherwise commence any project or activity with respect to the Facility, which may result in any bed being taken out of service for more than seven (7) days without Landlord's and/or Mortgagee's prior written consent, which Landlord's consent shall not be unreasonably withheld. Tenant shall give Landlord written notice ten (10) days prior to commencing repairs, construction, or alterations whose costs exceed One Hundred Thousand Dollars ($100,000.00).

Section 5.4 Signage. All signs installed by Tenant at the Facility shall comply with all Laws, and all necessary permits or licenses shall be obtained by Tenant. Tenant shall maintain all signs in good condition and repair, and/or replace as may be required by applicable law, at all times at Tenant's sole cost and expense. Upon vacating the Leased Premises, Tenant shall remove all signs and supporting material or installations so installed by Tenant, but only if Landlord shall request such removal, and Tenant shall repair all damage caused by such removal. Landlord acknowledges and agrees that neither Landlord nor any subsequent tenant of Landlord shall be authorized to use any company or registered trade name of Tenant or any of Tenant's affiliates or subtenants.

Section 5.5 Surrender. (a) Subject to applicable law and to receipt of any necessary DOH approval, Tenant shall deliver up and surrender to Landlord possession of the Leased Premises and all improvements and replacements thereof, including all of Tenant's alterations, improvements work (and all replacements thereof) and all fixtures permanently attached to the Leased Premises by Tenant during the Term, upon the expiration of this Lease or its termination in any manner whatsoever, in as good condition and repair and in substantially similar form, character and manner as the same shall be on the Commencement Date, reasonable wear and tear excepted (without compensation to Tenant), with permitted changes, improvements and additions made during the Term as authorized herein, subject to no liens, encumbrances, charges, restrictions, conditions, limitations or claims whatsoever to the extent not encumbering the Leased Premises as of the Commencement Date, and deliver the keys and/or operational security cards to the Leased Premises to Landlord or Landlord's designated agent.

(b) Licenses and Transfer of Operations. At the end of such 180 day period, or upon sooner written notice from Landlord to Tenant, Tenant shall, promptly and at its expense, remove its aforesaid name(s) from all signs on the Facility and repair any damage to such signs caused by such removal. Landlord acknowledges and agrees that Tenant, not Landlord, owns the aforesaid names and that neither Landlord nor any designee of Landlord may use the same except as described in this Section 5.5(d) or as otherwise agreed in writing by Tenant.

(ii) the Policies shall not be materially changed (other than to increase the coverage provided thereby) or canceled without at least thirty (30) days' written notice to Landlord and Mortgagee and any other party named therein as an additional insured;

ARTICLE VII

SECURITY, ACCESS AND REPORTING OBLIGATIONS, WORKING CAPITAL

Section 7.1 Security Deposit/Guaranty.

(a) Contemporaneously with the execution of this Lease, Tenant, shall deliver a guarantee of this Lease (the "Guaranty") from Lizer Josefovic and Mark Neuman (collectively, the "Guarantors") in the form of Exhibit "B" attached hereto, or in form and amounts as may be otherwise required by the Landlord and Landlord's first and second Mortgagee. As further security for the Tenants performance under the Lease, the Tenant hereby agrees as follows:

(i) Tenant shall post at such times as required by Landlord's first and second Mortgagee, and Landlord in its reasonable discretion (but at least 45 days prior to the Commencement Date), and from time to time such Letters of Credit and/or reserves in such amounts and under such terms as required by Landlord's first and second Mortgagee, and Landlord in its reasonable discretion.

(ii) Tenant shall deposit at the time required by Landlord's first and second Mortgagee, and Landlord in its reasonable discretion, a sum in cash in an amount equal to the greater of (A) an amount determined by Landlord's first and second Mortgagee, and (B) one year's Fixed Rent with Landlord to be held by Landlord as a security deposit ("Security Deposit") to secure the full and timely payment and performance of Tenant's obligations under this Lease. Tenant's failure to timely pay to Landlord the Security Deposit shall be deemed a Lease Default by Tenant. Landlord may retain the Security Deposit in such accounts as Landlord elects in its sole discretion and Landlord may commingle the Security Deposit with other funds of Landlord or its affiliates. Tenant shall have no right to any interest on the funds comprising the Security Deposit that it delivers to Landlord.

(iii) Guarantor Obligations:

(A) The Guaranty shall set forth that the Guarantors will be required to cooperate in turning the license over to the Landlord's designee or be personally liable for all costs, expenses and damages or deficiencies.

(B) The Guarantors shall ensure that the Tenant shall deliver all of the documents required to transfer the license in escrow to Posternak, Blankstein & Land, or such other party as Landlord designates.

(b) The term "Letter of Credit" shall mean an irrevocable, unconditional, transferable, clean sight draft letter of credit in favor of Landlord in form and content reasonably satisfactory to Landlord and entitling Landlord to draw thereon without the payment of any fees or charges in New York, New York, issued by a domestic banking institution or the U.S. agency or branch of a foreign banking institution; provided, that such banking institution has a long term senior unsecured debt obligation rating of at least "AA" by S&P. The Letter of Credit shall be in the initial amount determined by Landlord's first and second Mortgagee, and Landlord in its reasonable discretion and shall have an expiration date of the date that is the first anniversary of the date hereof. The Letter of Credit shall provide that it shall be deemed automatically renewed (without amendment) for consecutive periods of one year each thereafter during the Term unless the issuing bank sends written notice to Landlord and Tenant by certified mail, return receipt requested, not less than thirty (30) days preceding the then expiration date of the Letter of Credit that it elects not to have such Letter of Credit renewed. If such notice is sent, then at least twenty (20) days prior to the expiration of the Letter of Credit (and each subsequent or replacement Letter of Credit), Tenant shall deliver to Landlord a new Letter of Credit in the same amount and a failure to do so shall entitle Landlord to draw upon the existing Letter of Credit and to receive the proceeds therefrom and hold such proceeds as a cash Security Deposit pursuant to this Section 7.1 pending delivery of a new Letter of Credit.

(c) Upon a Lease Default, Landlord shall have the right, but not the obligation, in Landlord's sole and absolute discretion, to draw upon the Security Deposit and/or Letter of Credit and apply some or all of the funds to remedy such default or occurrence and to compensate Landlord for any loss or damage resulting therefrom, without prejudice to any other rights or remedies of Landlord under this Lease or at law or in equity. Upon any such application by Landlord, Tenant shall promptly deposit with Landlord an amount in cash equal to the amount from the Security Deposit so utilized by Landlord. Landlord shall at all times have, as security hereunder, Letter of Credit and cash Security Deposit in the amounts stated in Section 7.1(a). Upon the termination or expiration of this Lease, as long as Tenant has performed all of its obligations pursuant to this Lease and no Lease Default has occurred which is continuing, the remaining amount of the Security Deposit shall be returned or refunded to Tenant, without interest, subject in all events to Landlord's right to apply the Security Deposit as provided herein.

(d) Upon the occurrence of a Lease Default, Landlord may use, apply or retain the whole or any part of the Security Deposit or draw under a Letter of Credit to the extent required for the payment of any Rent or any other sums as to which Tenant is in default or for any sum which Landlord may expend or may be required to expend by reason of Tenant's default in respect of any of the terms, covenants and conditions of this Lease, including, but not limited to, any damages or deficiency in the retaking of all or any portion of the Leased Premises, whether such damages or deficiency accrue before or after summary proceedings or other re-entry by Landlord. If Landlord shall so use, apply or retain the whole or any part of the Security Deposit, Tenant shall upon demand immediately deposit with Landlord a sum equal to the amount so used, applied or retained. In the event of any sale or financing of Landlord's interest in the Leased Premises, Landlord shall have the right to assign its interests in the Security Deposit to the transferee, assignee or mortgagee, as the case may be, and if Landlord has given notice to Tenant of the assignment of Landlord's interest in the Security Deposit and if assignee or transferee of the Security Deposit has accepted liability for the Security Deposit, Landlord shall thereupon be released by Tenant from all liability for the return or payment thereof; and Tenant shall look solely to the new landlord or mortgagee for the return or payment of the same. Tenant shall not assign or encumber or attempt to assign or encumber the Security Deposit and neither Landlord, nor its successors or assigns, shall be bound by any such assignment, encumbrance, attempted assignment or attempted encumbrance.

Section 7.2 Access to Leased Premises. Tenant shall permit Landlord, Mortgagee and their agents to enter upon the Leased Premises at all reasonable times during ordinary business hours and upon at least twenty-four (24) hours advance oral notice (except that in the case of emergency, Landlord may enter at any time and without prior notice) to inspect and examine the Leased Premises, to perform repairs as to Landlord's Work pursuant to Section 5.1, and to inspect and copy any operating manuals, procedures manuals, training manuals, and other books and records concerning unemployment, workers' compensation, insurance, tax, and any other business issues pertaining to the Leased Premises (subject to applicable laws and regulations governing patient confidentiality and privacy and the confidentiality of medical records) and any information necessary for audit relating to cost reimbursement, collections, general financial matters, litigation, inquiries and related activities (as may be necessary in connection with the Lease or the Leased Premises or any matters relating to periods prior to the Commencement Date). Any access by Landlord to patient records or medical records shall be strictly governed by Laws governing patient confidentiality and privacy and the confidentiality of medical records and all appropriate consents and/or waivers from residents or their guardians or representatives shall have been obtained before access to such records shall be granted. Landlord shall make reasonable efforts not to materially interfere with or materially disrupt Tenant's business and use and enjoyment of the Leased Premises during any such inspection or examination. Landlord shall also have the right but not the obligation to conduct a physical inspection of the Facility and from time to time and within ninety (90) days prior to the expiration of the Term or earlier termination of the Lease, upon twenty-four (24) hours advance oral notice. If Landlord reasonably determines based on this inspection that the Facility, or any portion of the Facility, requires repairs or maintenance so that the condition of the Facility is in compliance with this Lease and all Laws, then within thirty (30) days of notification by Landlord, Tenant shall commence making said repairs and diligently pursue such repairs to completion. Should Tenant fail to do so, within seven (7) days of notification by Landlord, Tenant shall pay to Landlord a deposit of funds in an amount equal to Landlord's reasonable estimate of the costs of such repairs or maintenance, which funds shall be released to Tenant from time to time during the progress of such repairs and maintenance based on submission by Tenant of evidence reasonably satisfactory to Landlord that such work is complete and all costs and expenses incurred to date have been paid in full. Tenant and Landlord acknowledge that the operations of the Facility and its maintenance are the sole and absolute responsibility of Tenant. Landlord shall have no liabilities or obligations with respect to the Facility, including no liabilities or obligations with respect to inspections of the Facility or the failure by Landlord to inspect the Facility.

Notwithstanding anything to the contrary in this in this Lease, Landlord and Tenant agree that all information, records and data collected or maintained regarding Facility residents shall be confidential. Landlord, Tenant, and their respective employees and agents shall maintain the confidentiality of all Facility resident information received in accordance with applicable New York and federal laws, including the Health Insurance Portability and Accountability Act of 1996 (Public Law 104-91) and the regulations issued in connection therewith (collectively, "HIPAA"). No employee or agent of Landlord or Tenant shall discuss, transmit or narrate in any manner the Facility resident information of a personal, medical, or other nature except as a necessary part of providing services to the resident, effectuating a transfer of the Facility's assets, or otherwise fulfilling its obligations under this Lease or under law. The obligations under this Section 7.2 shall survive the termination of this Lease, whether by rescission or otherwise.

Section 7.3 Changes in Licensure and Certification Status. As of the Commencement Date, Tenant represents and warrants that the number of beds licensed or certified for the Facility is one hundred sixty (160). For purposes of this Lease, "Hazardous Materials" means and includes any hazardous substance defined as such in OSHA, the Comprehensive Environmental Response, Compensation, and Liability Act ("CERCLA"), the Toxic Substances Control Act ("TSCA"), or any other federal, state or local statute, law, ordinance, code, rule, regulation, order or decree regulating, relating to, or imposing liability or standards of conduct concerning, any hazardous substance or material, as now or at any time hereafter in effect.

(c) Tenant shall not cause or allow any asbestos or any asbestos containing materials to be incorporated into any improvements or alterations which it makes or causes to be made on or to the Leased Premises. (d) Tenant shall not place, hold or dispose of any Hazardous Waste on, under or at the Leased Premises except as specifically allowed in this Section 10.3. Tenant further agrees that it shall not use the Leased Premises as a treatment, storage, or disposal (whether permanent or temporary) facility for Hazardous Waste. If Tenant, in the ordinary course of its business as a skilled nursing facility generates Hazardous Waste, then Tenant shall comply with all applicable federal, state and local laws, statutes, ordinances, codes, rules, regulations, orders or decrees relating to the appropriate use, storage, transportation and disposal of Hazardous Waste. For the purposes of this Lease, "Hazardous Waste" means and includes any hazardous material that has entered the waste stream or any contaminant or pollutant as defined as such in the Resource Conservation and Recovery Act, CERCLA, as amended, any so-called "Superfund" or "Superfund" law, the TSCA, or any other Law, relating to or imposing liability or standards of conduct concerning, any hazardous, toxic or dangerous waste. Tenant further agrees that it shall properly dispose in accordance with Laws of all "infectious waste" such as laboratory waste, pathological waste, blood specimens or products, patient or resident waste including, without limitation, bandages and disposable gowns, sharp waste and any material generated by the production or testing of biological agents. Immediately upon receipt of any Environmental Notice (as hereinafter defined) from any Person, Tenant shall deliver to Landlord a true, correct and complete copy of same. "Environmental Notice" shall mean any note, notice, or report of any suit, proceeding, investigation, order, consent order, injunction, writ, award, or action related to or affecting or indicating the treatment, storage, handling, disposal, generation, spill, release or discharge of any Hazardous Waste or Hazardous Materials in upon, under, from or affecting the Leased Premises. All of the terms, covenants, warranties and indemnifications contained in this Section 10.3 shall survive the expiration or termination of this Lease.

(e) Without in any way limiting Tenant's obligation to indemnify Landlord and Landlord's Indemnitees under Section 9.1 of this Lease, Tenant shall indemnify, defend (at Landlord's request) and hold harmless Landlord and Landlord's Indemnitees from and against any claims, losses, costs, damages or expenses of any and every kind whatsoever (including reasonable attorney's fees and expenses and consultant's and expert's fees and expenses) which at any time or from time to time may be paid, incurred or suffered by, or asserted against Landlord and/or Landlord's Indemnitees for, with respect to, or as a direct or indirect result of: (a) a breach by Tenant of the covenants set forth in Section 10.3 or, (b) caused, permitted or allowed by Tenant or any agent, employee, invitee, or licensee of Tenant, the presence on or under, or the escape, seepage, leakage, spillage, discharge, emission, or release from, onto, or into the Leased Premises, the atmosphere, or any watercourse, body of water, or groundwater, of any Hazardous Material (including, without limitation, any losses, liabilities, damages, injuries, costs, expenses or claims asserted or arising under CERCLA, as amended, any so-called "Superfund" or "Superlien" law, or any other Law, relating to or imposing liability or standards of conduct concerning any Hazardous Material) occurring from and after the Commencement Date; and the provisions of and undertakings and indemnification set out in this Section 10.3(d) shall survive the termination of this Lease, and shall continue to be the personal liability, obligation and indemnification of Tenant, binding upon Tenant, forever. If required by Mortgagee, Tenant shall enter into an agreement to indemnify, defend and hold harmless Mortgagee with respect to matters contained in this Section 10.3 and other similar matters pursuant to a form of agreement reasonably acceptable to Mortgagee. In no event however shall Tenant have any liability to Landlord or Landlord's Indemnitees for Hazardous Materials located at or under the Leased Premises prior to the Commencement Date or for the remediation of same.

(f) If Tenant or its employees, agents, or contractors violate the provisions of this Section 10.3, then, in addition to any other duty or obligation of Tenant hereunder, at law or in equity, Tenant shall be obligated to clean up, remove, and dispose of the material causing the violation, in compliance with all applicable environmental laws and repair any damage to and remediate the Leased Premises within such period of time as may be reasonable under the circumstances after written notice by Landlord; provided that such work shall commence no later than thirty (30) days from the date of such notice and be diligently and continuously carried to completion by Tenant or Tenant's designated contractors. Tenant shall notify Landlord of its method, time and procedure for any clean-up, remediation or removal of material causing the violation under this provision, and Landlord shall have the right to require reasonable changes in such method, time or procedure.

If the environmental assessment or report resulting from such inspection discloses any non-compliance with Laws, Tenant shall immediately, following receipt of the environmental assessment, take all such steps as are necessary to put the Leased Premises into compliance, including without limitation, cleaning up any spills or other emissions of Hazardous Wastes or Hazardous Materials, and reimburse Landlord for the costs of its inspection.

(h) Upon the expiration of the Term, or the earlier termination thereof, subject to the last sentence of Section 10.3(d) above, Tenant shall forthwith remove all Hazardous Materials and Hazardous Waste from the Leased Premises or any portion thereof in accordance with applicable Law. Landlord shall have the right to inspect the Leased Premises with regard to the management and disposal of Hazardous Materials and Hazardous Waste at all reasonable times during the Term.

DAMAGE OR DESTRUCTION

Section 11.1 Damage or Destruction. Tenant shall immediately notify Landlord of any casualty, fire, damage, destruction or injury ("Casualty") affecting the Facility, including a description of the Casualty, and whether the Casualty is such as to cause the Leased Premises to be unsuitable, in whole or in part, for the Intended Use. Tenant shall proceed with reasonable diligence to repair or reconstruct the Leased Premises and Tenant shall be liable for any costs of repair or replacement to the Leased Premises, whether or not such Casualty, or the costs of repairing such Casualty, are fully covered by the proceeds of Tenant's insurance required to be carried hereunder. If such Casualty renders the Facility unsuitable for the purpose of this Lease and if Landlord's Mortgagee so requires, Landlord, upon notice to Tenant, Landlord may terminate this Lease and Landlord and Tenant shall be released from any further liability hereunder thereafter accruing with respect to the Facility, except that Tenant shall be responsible and shall pay Landlord an amount equal to the difference between the fair market value of the Leased Premises immediately prior to such Casualty and the proceeds of Tenant's insurance to the extent such difference results from Tenant's breach of Article VI. Notwithstanding the foregoing, if Landlord's obligations to its Mortgagee have been satisfied in full and the DOH approves and agrees to reimburse the costs of rebuilding the Facility, Landlord shall not so terminate this Lease with respect to the Facility, and Tenant shall repair or reconstruct the Leased Premises in substantially the same condition as just prior to the incident with the proceeds of the property casualty insurance carried by Tenant, as required hereunder (if not otherwise paid to the Mortgagee), and/or with funds of Tenant. Regardless of any Casualty, except as provided above, this Lease shall continue in full force and effect without any abatement of Rent, and Tenant shall not be entitled to surrender possession of the Leased Premises as a result of such casualty. Landlord's receipt of Rent from Tenant's rental interruption insurance shall be credited against Rent payments due from Tenant hereunder. If Tenant fails to commence such repair or reconstruction within thirty (30) days of the Casualty. Landlord shall have the option, subject to the approval of the DOH if required by Laws, to either terminate this Lease upon written notice to Tenant or repair and reconstruct the Leased Premises in substantially the same condition just prior to the incident and costs and expenses incurred as a result thereof shall be deemed Additional Rent hereunder and shall be payable to Landlord by Tenant, upon demand. Upon payment of all such sums demanded by Landlord, Tenant may re-enter and resume possession of the Leased Premises pursuant to the terms of this Lease. All insurance proceeds collected under the Policies shall be paid to Landlord, and made available to Tenant to pay for or reimburse Tenant for the costs and expenses for such repairs and reconstruction subject to the terms, conditions and provisions of any mortgage or other loan documents encumbering the Leased Premises. If Mortgagee does not make the insurance proceeds available to Landlord, then Landlord may terminate this Lease upon thirty (30) days' notice to Tenant, and Landlord and Tenant shall be released from any further liability hereunder thereafter accruing with respect to the Facility, except that Tenant shall be responsible and shall pay Landlord an amount equal to the difference between the fair market value of the Leased Premises immediately prior to such Casualty and the proceeds of Tenant's insurance.

Section 11.2 Precedence of Rights of Mortgagee. All provisions contained in the loan documents between Landlord and Mortgagee, or any other document in connection therewith which concern or pertain to the restoration of the Leased Premises, the application of insurance proceeds and any and all matters concerning a casualty, shall take precedence over and be in lieu of any contrary provision provided for in this Lease, and in all respects are binding upon Tenant who agrees to and acknowledges the same.

Section 11.3 Tenant hereby waives the provisions of Section 227 of the Real Property Law of the State of New York and acknowledges that the terms of this Article XI shall govern in lieu thereof.

ARTICLE XII

EMINENT DOMAIN

Section 12.1 Eminent Domain. a) In the event that all or substantially all of the Leased Premises, or such portion of the Real Property which renders the balance of the Facility unsuitable for the purpose of this Lease, shall be taken by condemnation or right of eminent domain, this Lease shall terminate as of the day the taking authority takes possession of the Leased Premises, and Landlord and Tenant shall be released from any further liability hereunder thereafter accruing with respect to the Facility, except as otherwise expressly provided in this Lease. In the event only a portion (and less than substantially all) of the Leased Premises is taken by condemnation or right of eminent domain and the portion so taken does not render the balance of the Leased Premises unsuitable for the purposes of this Lease, as determined by Landlord, this Lease shall not terminate. In such an event, Tenant shall restore the Leased Premises with reasonable diligence with its own funds and with the proceeds of any award from the applicable public or quasi-public authority, or private corporation or individual having the power of condemnation ("Award") to an architectural unit as nearly like its condition prior to such taking as shall be practicable. Notwithstanding anything to the contrary herein, this Section 12.1(a) is subject to the terms, conditions and provisions of any mortgage and other loan documents encumbering the Leased Premises.

(i) Notwithstanding anything to the contrary contained in Section 12.1(a), Landlord may cancel this Lease with no further liability to Tenant, in the event that following a taking by condemnation or right of eminent domain, Mortgagee elects to require Landlord to repay the mortgage on the Leased Premises.

(j) Tenant shall not be entitled to any part of any award or settlement of damages representing the value of land and buildings appropriated, the value of this Lease or any estate therein, or damage to the residue of the Leased Premises or other property of Landlord; it being agreed as between Landlord and Tenant any such award shall be the sole property of Landlord. No appropriation of part or all of the Leased Premises or cancellation of this Lease pursuant to this Article XII shall be deemed an eviction of Tenant or a breach of any covenants of Landlord hereunder.

Section 13.2 Notices to Mortgagee. (a) Tenant hereby agrees, upon request of Mortgagee, to give to Mortgagee copies of all notices given by Tenant of default by Landlord under this Lease at the same time and in the same manner as, and whenever, Tenant shall give any such notice of default to Landlord. Such Mortgagee shall have the right to remedy any default under this Lease, or to cause any default of Landlord under this Lease to be remedied, and for such purpose Tenant hereby grants such Mortgagee such period of time as may be reasonable to enable such Mortgagee to remedy, or cause to be remedied, any such default in addition to the period given to Landlord for remedying, or causing to be remedied, any such default which is a default. Tenant shall accept performance by such Mortgagee of any term, covenant, condition or agreement to be performed by Landlord under the Lease with the same force and effect as though performed by Landlord. No default by Landlord under the Lease shall exist or shall be deemed to exist (i) as long as such Mortgagee, in good faith, shall have commenced to cure such default and shall be prosecuting the same to completion with reasonable diligence, subject to Force Majeure, or (ii) if possession of the Leased Premises is required in order to cure such default, or if such default is not susceptible of being cured by such Mortgagee, as long as such Mortgagee, in good faith, shall have notified Tenant that such Mortgagee intends to institute proceedings under the mortgage and, thereafter, as long as such proceedings shall have been instituted and shall prosecute the same with reasonable diligence and, after having obtained possession, prosecutes the cure to completion with reasonable diligence. This Lease shall not be assigned by Tenant or modified, amended or terminated without Mortgagee's prior written consent in each instance, which consent shall not be unreasonably withheld or delayed. In the event of the termination of this Lease by reason of any default thereunder or for any other reason whatsoever except the expiration thereof, upon such Mortgagee's written request, given within thirty (30) days after any such termination, Tenant, within fifteen (15) days after receipt of such request, shall execute and deliver to such Mortgagee or its designee or nominee a new lease of the Leased Premises for the remainder of the Term of the Lease upon, at a minimum, all of the terms, covenants and conditions of this Lease. Neither such Mortgagee or its designee or nominee shall become liable under this Lease unless and until such Mortgagee or its designee or nominee becomes, and then only for so long as such Mortgagee or its designee or nominee remains, the fee owner of the Leased Premises or the owner of the leasehold interest of Landlord under this Lease. Such Mortgagee shall have the right, without Tenant's consent, to, as the case may be, foreclose its mortgage or to accept a deed in lieu of foreclosure of such mortgage.

(b) In the event of any act or omission of Landlord which would give Tenant the right, immediately or after lapse of a period of time, to cancel or terminate this Lease, or to claim a partial or total eviction, Tenant shall not exercise such right (i) until it has given written notice of such act or omission to Mortgagee, and (ii) unless such act or omission shall be one which is not capable of being remedied by Landlord or such Mortgagee within a reasonable period of time, until a reasonable period for remedying such act or omission shall have elapsed following the giving of such notice and following the time when such Mortgagee shall have become entitled under its loan documents with Landlord in connection therewith, as the case may be, to remedy the same (which reasonable period shall in no event be less than the period to which Landlord would be entitled under this Lease or otherwise, after similar notice, to effect such remedy).

QUIET ENJOYMENT

Section 14.1 Quiet Enjoyment Landlord covenants, warrants and represents to Tenant that, provided no Lease Default exists under this Lease, Tenant shall at all times during the Term peaceably and quietly have, hold, occupy and enjoy the Leased Premises, subject to the terms and conditions of this Lease, without any hindrance, interference or molestation by Landlord or by, under or through Landlord.

Section 15.1 Subletting and Assignment (a) Tenant shall not, without the prior written consent of Landlord, which consent may be withheld in the Landlord's sole and absolute discretion (and, if required by law, without the prior written consent of the Commissioner, which consent may be withheld in the Commissioner's sole and absolute discretion), transfer or assign this Lease or Tenant's interest in the Leased Premises or any part thereof or sublease all or any part of the Leased Premises. In all events of assignment, transfers or subletting, the prior approval of the DOH shall be required. Tenant shall not at any time, without the prior written consent of Landlord, which consent may be withheld or given in the sole and absolute discretion of Landlord, pledge, mortgage, or hypothecate the leasehold estate hereby created or any interest of Tenant therein. The issuance of or a transfer or series of transfers (including transfers caused by mergers, acquisitions or consolidations of any direct or indirect interests in the equity ownership interests in Tenant or any subtenant aggregating to forty-nine percent (49%) or more of the stock, membership or ownership interest in Tenant or any subtenant shall constitute an assignment for purposes of this Lease, requiring Landlord's consent thereof; notwithstanding anything to the contrary, any change in the management or control of Tenant such that Lizer Josefovici does not control all of the decisions of Tenant shall constitute an assignment for purposes of this Lease, requiring Landlord's consent thereof. Notwithstanding anything to the contrary, the issuance of or a transfer or series of transfers (including transfers caused by mergers, acquisitions or consolidations of any direct or indirect interests in the equity ownership interests in Tenant or any subtenant resulting in the aggregate interest of Lizer Josefovici, Marc Neuman, and their spouse or issue, or a trust for their benefit, equaling less than seventy-five percent (75%) of the stock, membership or ownership interest in Tenant or any subtenant to any person or entity shall constitute an assignment for purposes of this Lease, requiring Landlord's consent thereof; provided that any assignment by Lizer Josefovici to Joseph Josefovici made after five years after the Commencement date shall not be unreasonably denied by Landlord taking into account, among other things, the experience, performance record, and financial strength of Joseph Josefovici. The consent by Landlord to any transfer shall not constitute consent to any subsequent transfer or to any successive transfer. Further, subject to the provisions of Section 2.2, and without in any way limiting or otherwise affecting the provisions of this Lease, Landlord shall be permitted to assign this Lease and all agreements, duties, obligations and rights incidental thereto to any entity related to, or affiliated with Landlord, without any consent from Tenant. The term "transfer" shall mean any direct or indirect sale, conveyance, transfer, lease (including any amendment, extension, modification, waiver or renewal thereof), sublease, sub-sublease, assignment, mortgage, pledge, grant of a security interest or hypothecation, whether by operation of law or otherwise, whether voluntary or not, of or in (i) all or part of the Leased Premises (including any legal or beneficial direct or indirect interest therein) or (ii) any direct or indirect interest in Tenant. Notwithstanding anything to the contrary contained herein, Tenant may assign this Lease to, or enter into a sublease with, or transfer interests in an entity comprising Tenant to, an affiliate under common control with Tenant, or owned by Lizer Josefovici, Marc Neuman, or their spouse or issue, or a Trust for their benefit, without Landlord's consent, provided (x) Landlord is given thirty (30) days prior written notice of such intended transfer, assignment or sublease with copies of the organizational documents of the assignee, transferee or sublessee, (y) after such transfer, assignment or sublease, Lizer Josefovici controls all of the decisions of the assignee, transferee or sublessee, and (z) all required consents from, the Mortgagee, the DOH and/or the Commissioner (if required), have been obtained by Tenant. Notwithstanding the foregoing and any other provision contained herein to the contrary, no transfer or series of transfers of legal, economic, beneficial or equitable (direct or indirect) interest in the Lease or in Tenant's membership interest that requires DOH's consent shall occur without the prior written consent of Landlord and DOH. Tenant shall enter into such subordination agreements or subordination, non-disturbance agreements ("SNDAs") as Mortgagee may request from time to time.

Section 15.2 Attornment and Related Matters. Any sublease shall be expressly subject and subordinate to all applicable terms and conditions of this Lease and provide that upon the expiration or earlier termination of this Lease, Landlord, at its option and without any obligation to do so, may require any subtenant to attorn to Landlord, its successors and assigns, in which event Landlord shall undertake the obligations of Tenant, under such sublease from the time of the exercise of such option to the termination of such sublease; provided, however, that in such case Landlord shall not be liable for any prepaid rents, fees or other charges or for any prepaid security deposits paid by such subtenant to Tenant or for any other prior defaults of Tenant under such sublease. In the event that Landlord shall not require such attornment with respect to any sublease, then such sublease shall automatically terminate upon the expiration or earlier termination of this Lease, including any early termination by mutual agreement of Landlord and Tenant. In addition, any such sublease shall provide that in the event that the subtenant or other transferee receives a written notice from Landlord stating that a Lease Default has occurred or that an event or circumstance has occurred which with notice and/or passage of time would constitute a Lease Default, such subtenant or other transferee thereafter shall without further consent or instruction of Tenant pay all rentals accruing under such sublease directly to Landlord or as Landlord may direct; provided, however, that (a) as and to the extent that the amounts so paid to Landlord, together with other amounts paid to or received by Landlord on account of this Lease, exceed the amounts then due Landlord from Tenant under this Lease, the excess shall be promptly remitted to Tenant, and (b) at such time as the Lease Default has been cured and this Lease reinstated (if ever), Landlord shall notify and direct the subtenant(s) in writing to resume making payments of rentals under their sublease(s) directly to Tenant, or as Tenant may direct. Any such rentals collected from such subtenant or other transferee by Landlord shall be credited against the amounts owing by Tenant under this Lease in such order of priority as Landlord shall reasonably determine. Furthermore, any sublease or other agreement regarding a transfer shall expressly provide that the subtenant, assignee, manager or other transferee shall furnish Landlord, its lender, the Mortgagee, if applicable, the HUD Mortgagee, and/or the Commissioner, and /or DOH, if applicable, with such financial, operational and other information about the Facility and subtenant, etc., as Landlord may request from time to time.

Section 15.3 Assignment of Subleases. To secure the prompt and full payment by Tenant of the Rent and the faithful performance by Tenant of all the other terms and conditions herein contained on its part to be kept and performed, Tenant hereby assigns, transfers and sets over unto Landlord, subject to the conditions hereinafter set forth and any required consent(s) from DOH, all of Tenant's right, title and interest in and to all permitted subleases, assignments, licenses and occupancy agreements, to the extent permitted by law, involving the Facility, as set forth on Schedule 15.3 attached hereto (the "Sublease", and the subtenant under a Sublease herein referred to as a "Subtenant") and hereby confers upon Landlord, its agents and representatives, a right of entry (subject to prior notice) in, and sufficient possession of, the Leased Premises to permit and insure the collection by Landlord of the rentals and other sums payable under the Sublease, and further agrees that the exercise of said right of entry and qualified possession by Landlord shall not constitute an eviction of Tenant from the Leased Premises or any portion thereof and that should said right of entry and possession be denied Landlord, its agent or representative, Landlord, in the exercise of said right, may use all requisite force to gain and enjoy the same without responsibility or liability to Tenant, its servants, employees, guests or invitees, or any Person whomsoever, provided, however, that such assignment shall become operative and effective only if (a) a Lease Default shall occur and be continuing or (b) this Lease and the Term shall be cancelled or terminated pursuant to the terms, covenants and conditions hereof or (c) there occurs a repossession under a dispossessory warrant or other re-entry or repossession by Landlord under the provisions hereof or (d) a receiver for all or a portion of the Leased Premises is appointed, and then only as to such of the subleases that Landlord may elect to take over and assume. At any time and from time to time within ten (10) days after Landlord's written demand, Tenant promptly shall deliver to Landlord a schedule of all Subleases, setting forth the names of all Subtenants, with a photostatic copy of each of the Subleases. Upon request of Landlord, Tenant shall permit Landlord and its agents and representatives, and Mortgagee, its agents and representatives, to inspect all Subleases affecting the Leased Premises. Tenant covenants that each Sublease shall provide that the Subtenant thereunder shall be required from time to time, upon request of Landlord or Tenant, to execute, acknowledge and deliver, to and for the benefit of Landlord, an estoppel certificate confirming with respect to such Sublease the information set forth in Section 20.11 hereof.

Section 15.4 Additional Sublease Requirements. Tenant covenants and agrees that all Subleases hereafter entered into affecting the Leased Premises shall provide that (a) they are subject to this Lease and that the principals of the Subtenant acknowledge that they have read this Lease and accept the terms hereof, (b) the term thereof shall not end less than one (1) day prior to the Expiration Date hereof, unless Landlord shall consent otherwise, which consent may be withheld in Landlord's sole and absolute discretion, (c) the Subtenants will not do, authorize or execute any act, deed or thing whatsoever or fail to take any such action which will or may cause Tenant to be in violation of any of its obligations under this Lease, (d) the Subtenants will not pay rent or other sums under the Subleases with Tenant for more than one (1) month in advance, (e) the Subtenants shall give to Landlord at the address and otherwise in the manner specified in Section 13.1 hereof, a copy of any notice of default by Tenant as the landlord under the Subleases at the same time as, and whenever, any such notice of default shall be given by the Subtenants to Tenant; and (f) all of the representations, warranties and covenants given by Tenant to Landlord in this Lease, including but not limited to all reporting requirements and covenants set forth in Section 7.4 above, shall be made and given by each Subtenant for the benefit of Landlord, Mortgagee, and their respective successors and assigns.

Section 15.5 Transfers in Bankruptcy. (a) In the event of a transfer pursuant to the provisions of Title 11 of the United States Code or any statute of similar purpose or nature (the "Bankruptcy Code"), all consideration payable or otherwise to be delivered in connection with such transfer shall be paid or delivered to Landlord, shall be and remain the exclusive property of Landlord and shall not constitute property of Tenant or of the estate of Tenant within the meaning of the Bankruptcy Code. Any consideration constituting Landlord's property pursuant to the immediately preceding sentence and not paid or delivered to Landlord shall be held in trust for the benefit of Landlord and be promptly paid or delivered to Landlord. For purposes of this Section 15.5, the term "consideration" shall mean and include money, services, property and any other thing of value such as payment of costs, cancellation or forgiveness of indebtedness, discounts, rebates, barter and the like. If any such consideration is in a form other than cash (such as in kind, equity interests, indebtedness earn-outs, or other deferred payments, consulting or management fees, etc.), Landlord shall be entitled to receive in cash the then present fair market value of such consideration. If Tenant assumes this Lease and proposes to assign the same pursuant to the provisions of the Bankruptcy Code to any person or entity who shall have made a bona fide offer to accept an assignment of this Lease on terms acceptable to Tenant, then notice of such proposed assignment shall be given to Landlord by Tenant no later than fifteen (15) days after receipt of such offer by Tenant, but in any event no later than ten (10) days prior to the date that Tenant shall file any application or motion with a court of competent jurisdiction for authority and approval to enter into such assumption and assignment. Such notice shall set forth (a) the name and address of the assignee, (b) all of the terms and conditions of such offer, and (c) the proposal for providing adequate assurance of future performance by such person under the Lease, including, without limitation, the assurance referred to in Section 365 of the Bankruptcy Code. Any person or entity to which this Lease is assigned pursuant to the provisions of the Bankruptcy Code shall be deemed without further act or deed to have assumed all of the obligations arising under this Lease from and after the date of such assignment. Any such assignee shall execute and deliver to Landlord upon demand an instrument confirming such assumption.

(h) The term "adequate assurance of future performance" as used in this Lease shall mean (in addition to the assurances called for in Bankruptcy Code Section 365(i)) that any proposed assignee shall, among other things, (i) deposit with Landlord on the assumption of this Lease an amount equal to the greater of (x) two (2) times the then monthly Fixed Rent and Additional Rent or (y) such other amount deemed by the Bankruptcy Court to be reasonably necessary for the adequate protection of Landlord under the circumstances, as security for the faithful performance and observance by such assignee of the terms and obligations of this Lease, (ii) furnish Landlord with financial statements of such assignee for the prior three (3) calendar years, as finally determined after an audit and certified as correct by a certified public accountant, which financial statements shall show a net worth at least equal to the amount of the deposit referenced in (i) above, (iii) if determined by the Bankruptcy Court to be appropriate under the circumstances, grant to Landlord a security interest in such property of the proposed assignee as Landlord shall deem necessary to secure such assignee's future performance under this Lease, and (iv) provide such other information or take such action as Landlord, in its reasonable judgment, shall determine is necessary to provide adequate assurance of the performance by such assignee of its obligations under the Lease.

(e) If, at any time after Tenant may have assigned Tenant's interest in this Lease in a proceeding of the type described in Section 16.1 (iv) through (vii), this Lease shall be disaffirmed or rejected in any proceeding of the types described in Section 16.1 (iv) through (vii) hereof, or in any similar proceeding, or in the event of termination of this Lease by reason of any such proceeding or by reason of lapse of time following notice of termination given pursuant to Article XVI based upon any of the Lease Defaults set forth in said Section 16.1 (iv) through (vii) Tenant, upon request of Landlord given within thirty (30) days next following any such disaffirmance, rejection or termination (and actual notice thereof to Landlord in the event of a disaffirmance or rejection or in the event of termination other than by act of Landlord), shall (a) pay to Landlord all Rent due and owing by the assignee to Landlord under this Lease to and including the date of such disaffirmance, rejection or termination, and (b) as "tenant", enter into a new lease with Landlord for a term commencing on the effective date of such disaffirmance, rejection or termination and ending on the expiration date of the term, unless sooner terminated as in such lease provided, at the same Fixed Rent and Additional Rent upon the then executory terms, covenants and conditions as are contained in this Lease, except that (i) Tenant's rights under the new lease shall be subject to the possessory rights, if any, of the assignee under this Lease and the possessory rights of any person claiming through or under such assignee or by virtue of any applicable Law, (ii) such new lease shall require all defaults existing under this Lease to be cured by Tenant with due diligence, and (iii) such new lease shall require Tenant to pay all Rent reserved in this Lease which, had this Lease not been so disaffirmed, rejected or terminated, would have accrued under the provisions of this Lease after the date of such disaffirmance, rejection or termination with respect to any period prior thereto. If Tenant shall default in its obligation to enter into said new lease for a period of ten (10) days next following Landlord's request therefor, then in addition to all other rights and remedies by reason of such default, either at law or in equity, Landlord shall have the same rights and remedies against Tenant as if Tenant had entered into such new lease and such new lease had thereafter been terminated as of the commencement date thereof by reason of Tenant's default thereunder.

Section 15.6 Management Agreement. Tenant agrees and acknowledges that it will not enter into any management agreements during the Term with regard to the Facility except with an entity (i) owned wholly by a an individual principal of Tenant which entity has been received establishment approval from the New York State Department of Health Public Health and Health Planning Council in compliance with 10 NYCRR 600.9(d)(1) and (ii) approved by HUD if the Facility is, or is about to be financed by a HUD program, and/or Mortgagee. Any such management agreement shall be subordinate to Landlord's rights hereunder, to the rights of Mortgagee and to the rights of the Commissioner. Tenant shall cause such manager to execute such documents as are required by Landlord or Mortgagee or by the Commissioner to effect such subordination.

Section 15.7 Memorandum of Lease. This Lease shall not be recorded, but either party may record a memorandum of lease in which shall describe the parties to this Lease, a description of the Leased Premises and a recitation of the Term. The party requesting that the memorandum of lease be recorded shall prepare and pay all costs of recording the memorandum of lease, and the other party agrees to execute at any and all times such instruments as may be reasonably required for such recording. Upon the expiration or earlier termination of this Lease, Landlord may release the memorandum of lease. For this purpose Tenant constitutes and appoints Landlord its true and lawful attorney-in-fact with full power of substitution to execute a release of such memoranda in the name of Tenant. Such power of attorney shall be deemed to be a power coupled with an interest and cannot be revoked. To the extent any transfer tax, conveyance tax, excise tax, or similar tax is imposed by any Governmental Authority as a result of the recording of such Memorandum of Lease, or is otherwise due and payable as to Tenant's leasehold interest granted pursuant to this Lease, Tenant shall pay same to the applicable Governmental Authority.

Upon the occurrence of a Lease Default, Landlord, may, if Landlord so elects, upon five (5) days written notice of such election, forthwith terminate this Lease and Tenant's right to possession of the Leased Premises and, at Landlord's sole and absolute discretion, accelerate the payment of all Rent for the balance of the Term and declare the same presently due and payable in full provided, however, that with respect to a Lease Default under Section 16.1(a)(iv), this Lease shall automatically terminate. In the event of such Lease termination, Tenant shall immediately pay Landlord the then present value of all such accelerated Rent. Landlord, in addition to all other remedies given to Landlord at law or in equity, may by written notice to Tenant, without terminating this Lease, cause Tenant to apply to the DOH to install a manager and/or management consultant and/or a receiver having the necessary approvals from Governmental Authorities, of Landlord's choice, at Tenant's sole cost and expense or to the extent permitted by applicable law, reenter the Leased Premises by summary proceedings or otherwise. In any event, upon a Lease Default, Landlord may require Tenant to consent to a so-called "Change of Ownership" and Landlord may dispossess Tenant upon approval of the Change of Ownership or Certificate of Need by DOH, it being the understanding that under no circumstances is this Lease to be an asset for Tenant's creditors by operation of law or otherwise. In the event of such reentry, Landlord may relet the Leased Premises without being obligated so to do, and in the event of a reletting may apply the Rent therefrom first to the payment of Landlord's cost and expenses, including consultant and/or expert and attorneys' fees and expenses incurred by reason of such Lease Default, and the cost and expense of reletting including, but not limited to, repairs, renovation, or alteration of the Leased Premises and then to the amount of Rent and all other sums due from or payable by Tenant hereunder, Tenant remaining liable for all other sums due from or payable by Tenant hereunder and for any deficiency. Tenant shall also be liable for and indemnify Landlord against all amounts owed to Medicare, Medicaid, all applicable third-party payor programs, third party payors, or residents, including, but not limited to, any overpayments received by Tenant, relating to the Term. Any and all such deficiencies shall constitute Additional Rent hereunder and shall be payable by Tenant monthly on the date herein provided for the payment of Rent. In addition to the foregoing remedies, Landlord shall immediately be entitled to retain the Security Deposit and draw on and retain proceeds of the Letter of Credit, and thereafter Tenant shall have no further claim, right, title or interest therein to the extent of Landlord's claims only.

Landlord acknowledges that its rights of reentry onto the Leased Premises set forth in this Lease do not confer on Landlord the authority to operate a nursing facility as defined in Article 28 of the Public Health Law on the Leased Premises and agrees that except in the event of a Lease Default Landlord will give the DOH, Tower Building, Empire State Plaza, Albany, NY 12237, notification by certified mail of its intent to reenter the Leased Premises or to initiate dispossessory proceedings or that the Lease is due to expire at least thirty (30) days prior to the date on which Landlord intends to exercise a right of reentry or to initiate such proceedings or at least sixty (60) days before expiration of the Lease.

Upon receipt of notice from Landlord of its intent to exercise its right of reentry or upon the service of process in dispossessory proceedings and sixty (60) days prior to the expiration of the Lease, Tenant shall immediately notify by certified mail the DOH, Tower Building, Empire State Plaza, Albany, NY 12237 (or its then current address), of the receipt of such notice or service of such process or that the Lease is about to expire.

(b) Except as provided in this Lease to the contrary, Rent and other sums not paid when due (unless paid within any applicable grace period) shall bear interest from the date when the same are first payable under the terms of this Lease until the same shall be paid at an annual rate of interest equal to the Overdue Rate.

(c) Upon the filing of a petition by or against Tenant pursuant to the Bankruptcy Code, Tenant, as debtor and as debtor-in-possession, and any trustee who may be appointed shall: (i) timely perform each and every obligation of Tenant under this Lease until such time as this Lease is either rejected or assumed by order of the United States Bankruptcy Court; (ii) pay monthly in advance on the first day of each month as reasonable compensation for use and occupancy of the Leased Premises an amount equal to the Rent and other charges otherwise due pursuant to this Lease; and (iii) reject or assume this Lease within one hundred twenty (120) days after the filing of such petition under the Bankruptcy Code or within such time period as the Bankruptcy Code may allow. Tenant, as debtor and as debtor-in-possession and any trustee shall be deemed to have rejected this Lease in the event of the failure to comply with any of the above. Included within and in addition to any other conditions or obligations imposed upon Tenant or its successor, in the event of assumption and/or assignment is the prior written consent of any mortgagee to which this Lease has been assigned as collateral security.

(d) In the event of termination of this Lease by reason of any Lease Default by Tenant, or upon the expiration of the Term, then, and in any of such events, Tenant, upon Landlord's written request, shall to the greatest extent permitted by law, transfer to Landlord or its designees or assigns, or cause its Subtenants and/or Affiliates, to transfer to Landlord or its designees or assigns, the following: (i) all federal, state or municipal licenses, certifications, certificates, accreditations, approvals, permits, variances, waivers, provider agreements (including non-governmental) and other authorizations which relate to the operation of the Facility; and (ii) the name of the Facility as then commonly known to the general public Tenant shall also prepare and file all notices required by applicable law in connection with such termination and shall also prepare and timely file all final Medicare and Medicaid cost reports. In the event Tenant fails or refuses to transfer any such licenses, certifications, certificates, accreditations, approvals, permits, variances, waivers, provider agreements, other authorization or trade name, then this provision shall constitute an act of assignment by Tenant to Landlord or its assigns without the necessity of any further written instrument. For this purpose, Tenant constitutes and appoints Landlord its true and lawful attorney-in-fact with full power of substitution to complete or undertake such replacements in the name of Tenant. Such power of attorney shall be deemed to be a power coupled with an interest and cannot be revoked.

(e) Landlord shall have the option of taking over the operation of the Facility, or having the operation of the Facility taken over by a designee, in the event of a termination of this Lease for any reason, without Landlord or designee assuming any of Tenant's liabilities or obligations, including Tenant's liabilities and obligations with respect to employees, such as vacation, sick leave, health insurance and pension liabilities and Tenant's obligations under applicable law to offer and provide group health continuation coverage. Landlord shall give Tenant written notice of Landlord's intent to exercise the right set forth above, in which event, upon the approval of the DOH of the Change of Ownership, Tenant shall and shall cause the Subtenant to immediately turn over possession and control of the Facility without any further action having to be taken on the part of Landlord. At the request of Landlord, Tenant shall and shall cause the Subtenant to turn over any or all of inventories, personal property (including computer and telecommunications equipment but excluding any leased equipment) vehicles, and material contracts (including hospital, transfer, vendor, and managed care contracts).

(f) No failure of Landlord to enforce any rights or remedies upon default of Tenant shall prejudice or affect the rights of Landlord upon any subsequent or similar default.

(g) In the event of a Lease Default by Tenant of any of the terms, covenants, conditions or provisions of this Lease, which Lease Default is not cured within any applicable grace or cure period, Landlord shall have the right to invoke any remedy permitted to Landlord at law, in equity or otherwise. All remedies available to Landlord are declared to be cumulative and concurrent and the exercise of one shall not preclude or waive the right to exercise any other. No termination of this Lease and no taking or recovering of possession of the Leased Premises shall deprive Landlord of any of its remedies or actions against Tenant and Tenant shall remain liable for all past or future Rent, including all taxes, insurance premiums and all other charges and Rent payable by Tenant under this Lease, during and for the balance of the Term hereof. The bringing of any action for Rent or other default shall not be construed as a waiver of the right to obtain possession of the Premises.

(h) If suit shall be brought for recovery of possession of the Leased Premises, for the recovery of Rent, or any other amount due under the provisions of this Lease, or because of the breach of any other covenant herein contained on the part of Tenant to be kept or performed, and breach shall be established, Tenant shall pay to Landlord all expenses, including reasonable attorney fees, incurred therefor. This subsection shall survive termination of this Lease.

Section 16.2 Facility Operating Deficiencies. On written notice of a request therefor by Landlord to Tenant, upon a Lease Default and for a period of time necessary to fully remedy the Lease Default, Tenant shall engage the services of a consultant, unaffiliated with Tenant and approved by Landlord, which approval shall not be unreasonably withheld, to review the management of the facility for the purpose of making recommendations to remedy the Lease Default. Subject to applicable legal requirements governing confidentiality of patient records, the consultant shall have complete access to the Facility, its records, offices and facilities, in order that it may carry out its duties. Tenant shall cause such consultant to prepare and deliver to Landlord and Tenant a written report of its recommendations within ten (10) days after its engagement. If Tenant shall fail to designate a consultant approved by Landlord as provided above within five (5) days after Tenant's receipt of Landlord's notice, Landlord may designate such consultant by further notice to Tenant. Tenant shall be responsible for payment of all fees and expenses reasonably charged and incurred by the consultant in carrying out its duties. Tenant shall promptly implement any and all reasonable recommendations made by such consultant in order to promptly correct or cure the Lease Default; provided, however, that in no event shall Tenant implement any such recommendations if the same would constitute a violation of applicable legal requirements, violate any rule or regulation of the DOH, or would otherwise cause a Lease Default hereunder (e.g., a transfer or change in use of the Leased Premises), unless Landlord consents in writing to such Lease Default, which consent may be given or withheld in Landlord's sole and absolute discretion. Nothing herein shall impose any liability or obligation on Landlord to (a) request the appointment of a consultant or (b) otherwise remedy the Facility Operating Deficiency(ies) nor shall it deem Landlord an operator of the Facility.

Section 16.3 Receivership.

Tenant acknowledges that one of the rights and remedies available under applicable law for nursing facilities which fail to comply with the conditions of participation for Medicare or Medicaid is to apply to a court of competent jurisdiction for the appointment of a receiver to take possession of the Facility, to collect the rents, issues, profits and income of the Facility and to manage the operation of the Facility. Tenant further acknowledges that the revocation, suspension or material limitation of the certification of the Facility for provider status under Medicare or Medicaid (or successor programs) and/or the revocation, suspension or material limitation of a license relating to the operation of the Facility for its intended use under the laws of the State of New York will materially and irreparably impair the value of Landlord's investment in the Facility. Therefore, in the event of a Lease Default, and in addition to any other right or remedy of Landlord under this Lease, at the request of Landlord, Tenant shall request DOH to, or to the extent permissible under law, Tenant shall, petition any appropriate court, for the appointment of a receiver to take possession of the Facility, to manage the operation of the Facility under Tenant's licenses and certifications, to collect and disburse all rents, issues, profits and income generated thereby and to preserve or replace to the extent possible any such license and provider certification for the Facility or to otherwise substitute the licensee or provider thereof. The receiver shall be entitled to a reasonable fee for its services as a receiver. All such fees and other expenses of the receivership estate shall be added to the monthly Rent due to Landlord under this Lease as Additional Rent. Tenant hereby irrevocably stipulates to the voluntary appointment of a receiver under such circumstances and for such purposes and agrees not to contest such appointment.

Section 16.4 Tenant's Waiver, Mitigation. In connection with the exercise by Landlord of any of its remedies under this Section 16, including the termination of this Lease, in whole or in part, Tenant waives, to the maximum extent permitted by applicable Laws, (1) any right of redemption, re-entry or repossession, (2) the benefit of any moratorium laws or any laws now or hereafter in force exempting property from liability for rent or for debt, (3) any duty on the part of Landlord to mitigate the damages recoverable from Tenant on account of any Lease Default by Tenant, except that, notwithstanding the foregoing or anything in this Lease to the contrary, Landlord agrees to comply with any duty to mitigate damages where applicable Laws do not allow Tenant to waive such right, (4) the right to interpose any counterclaim (other than compulsory counterclaims) in any summary proceeding instituted by Landlord against Tenant in any court or in any action instituted by Landlord in any court for unpaid Rent under this Lease, and (5) any other right provided to Tenant under applicable Laws relating to a breach of or Lease Default under this Lease, including any rights to cure such breach or Lease Default.

ENTRY AND REIMBURSEMENT RIGHTS OF LANDLORD

Section 17.1 Entry and Reimbursement Rights of Landlord. In addition to those rights set forth in Section 7.2 of this Lease, Landlord reserves the right at all reasonable times during business hours and upon at least twenty-four (24) hours' advance oral notice to go upon and inspect the Facility and every part thereof (subject to applicable Laws pertaining to patient confidentiality and privacy and the confidentiality of medical records). If Landlord shall make any payments or perform any repairs on behalf of Tenant which are Tenant's obligation and which Tenant has failed to make after applicable notice from Landlord, then any reasonable amounts so paid by Landlord are agreed and declared to be Additional Rent, and shall be due and payable to Landlord by Tenant upon submission to Tenant of an invoice, bill, or statement therefor, together with interest charged at the Overdue Rate commencing on the date of such invoice, bill, or statement. Nothing in this Section 17.1 shall impose any liability or obligation upon Landlord.

The execution, delivery, and performance of this Lease will not violate any provision of law, any order of any court or other agency of federal or state government or any provision of any indenture, agreement, or other instrument to which Landlord is a party or by which it or any of its properties or assets are bound; conflict with, result in a breach of, or constitute (with passage of time or delivery of notice, or both), a default under any such indenture, agreements or other instrument; or result in the creation or imposition of any lien or other encumbrance of any nature whatsoever upon any of the properties or assets of Landlord.

(b) Authorization of Lease. This Lease has been duly authorized by all necessary individuals, shareholders, members, officers, directors, managers and/or owners of Landlord and this Lease constitutes the valid and binding obligation of Landlord, fully enforceable in accordance with its terms.

No waiver shall be effective unless set forth in writing and signed by the party against whom such waiver is asserted.

Section 20.3 Delay Not a Waiver. Neither any failure nor any delay on the part of any party hereto in insisting upon strict performance of any term, condition, covenant or agreement, or exercising any right, power, remedy or privilege hereunder, or any other document or instrument entered into or delivered in connection herewith or pursuant hereto, shall operate as or constitute a waiver thereof, nor shall a single or partial exercise thereof preclude any other future exercise, or the exercise of any other right, power, remedy or privilege. A waiver of one default with respect to any Person shall not be construed to be a waiver of any subsequent default with respect to such Person or any other Person or to impair any remedy, right or power consequent thereon.

Section 20.5 Severability. In the event any provision of this Lease is held to be unenforceable for any reason, the unenforceability thereof shall not affect the remainder of this Lease so long as the intent of the parties under this Lease can still be effected, which shall remain in full force and effect and enforceable in accordance with its terms.

Section 20.6 Entire Agreement; Amendments. This instrument contains the entire agreement between the Parties hereto with respect to the subject matter hereof. All representations, promises and prior or contemporaneous undertakings between such Parties are merged into and expressed in this instrument, and any and all prior agreements between such Parties are hereby canceled. The agreements contained in this instrument shall not be amended, modified, or supplemented except by a written agreement duly executed by both Landlord and Tenant.

Section 20.7 Counterpart Execution; Electronic Execution. This Lease may be executed in any number of counterparts with the same effect as if the Parties hereto had signed the same document. All counterparts will be construed together and shall constitute one lease. Signatures transmitted by email as PDFs shall have the same effect as original signatures.

Section 20.8 Survival of Representations and Warranties. Except as specifically provided otherwise in this Lease, all representations and warranties of Landlord and Tenant shall survive the Term of this Lease.

Section 20.9 Use of Brokers. Landlord and Tenant each represent and warrant to the other that no broker, finder or other person has been involved in regard to this Lease. Landlord and Tenant hereby agree to indemnify, defend and hold the other harmless from and against any and all claims, liabilities, costs and expenses of any kind (including the injured party's reasonable attorneys' fees and expenses) in any way relating to or arising from a claim by any Person that such Person acted on behalf of a party to this Lease in connection with the transactions contemplated herein. The provisions of this Section 20.9 shall survive the expiration and termination of this Lease.

Section 20.10 Owner for Federal Tax Purposes. It is hereby agreed between Landlord and Tenant that for federal, state and local income tax purposes Landlord will be the owner of the Leased Premises and Tenant will be the lessee thereof, and each party hereto agrees to characterize this Lease as a lease for federal, state and local income tax purposes and to file all tax returns consistent therewith.

Section 20.11 Estoppel Certificates. Tenant shall, without charge, at any time and from time to time, within ten (10) days after written request by Landlord or Mortgagee, deliver a written instrument to Landlord or any other person specified by Landlord, duly executed and acknowledged, certifying the following and such other matters as may be reasonably required by Landlord, including without limitation, current financial information relating to Tenant:

(a) That Tenant has accepted and is in possession of the Leased Premises;

(b) That this Lease is unmodified and in full force and effect or, if there has been any modification, that the same is in full force and effect as so modified, and identifying any such modification;

(c) Whether or not there are then existing any setoffs or defenses in favor of Tenant against the enforcement of any of the terms, covenants, and conditions of this Lease by Landlord and, if so, specifying the same, and also whether or not Landlord has observed and performed all of the terms, covenants, and conditions on the part of Landlord to be observed and performed and, if not, specifying same;

(d) That no Lease Defaults exist or are continuing; and

(e) The dates to which Rent and all other charges hereunder have been paid.

Section 20.12 Confidentiality. (a) Landlord and Tenant agree to keep all aspects of (but not the existence of) this Lease confidential, and shall not disclose to any person other than the members, managers, owners, directors, officers, employees, agents, advisors, affiliates, brokers, lenders, attorneys or accountants (collectively the "Representatives") of the Parties hereto on a need-to-know basis, or to any Governmental Authority pursuant to regulatory authority, any confidential or proprietary information, knowledge or data concerning the business, affairs, operations, secrets, dealings or finances of the other party furnished directly or indirectly by such other party (collectively referred to as the "Confidential Information"). As used in this Lease, the term "Confidential Information" does not include any information which: (i) at the time of disclosure is generally available to and known by the public (other than as a result of a disclosure directly or indirectly by either party or their Representatives); (ii) was available to either party on a non-confidential basis from a source other than a party to this Lease or its Representatives, provided that such source is not and was not bound by a confidentiality agreement with the party hereto; (iii) has been independently acquired or developed by either party or their Representatives without violating any of the obligations hereunder; (iv) is required by law to be disclosed; or (v) relates to the tax structure, tax strategy or tax planning of this transaction.

(f) In the event that either party or any of the Representatives receives notice of a legal request for disclosure of any of the Confidential Information (by deposition, interrogatory, request for documents, subpoena, civil investigative demand or similar process), the party receiving such notice ("Receiving Party") shall promptly notify the other party ("Notified Party") so that the Notified Party may seek a protective order or other appropriate remedy if it chooses to do so. Failure by the Notified Party to take action to seek a protective order or other remedy and to notify the Receiving Party of such action prior to the required disclosure date, shall be deemed a waiver of the provisions of this section. In the event that a protective order or other remedy is not obtained or that the Notified Party waives compliance with the provisions hereof, the Receiving Party shall exercise its best efforts to obtain a confidentiality agreement or protective order concerning the Confidential Information, and in the absence thereof, shall disclose only that portion of the Confidential Information which it is advised by written opinion of counsel is legally required to be disclosed, or which is compelled by court order.

(g) In the event of any breach or threatened breach hereof, Landlord or Tenant shall be entitled to equitable relief, including a temporary preliminary and permanent injunction and specific performance, in addition to all other remedies available to them at law or in equity.

(h) Notwithstanding anything herein to the contrary, Landlord (and each employee, agent, or other Representative of Landlord) may disclose to any and all persons, without limitation of any kind, the tax treatment and tax structure of this Lease, related documents and all materials of any kind (including opinions or other tax analyses) that are provided to Landlord relating to such tax treatment and tax structure. For this purpose, the tax treatment of a transaction is the purported or claimed U.S. federal income tax treatment of the transaction and the tax structure of a transaction is any fact that may be relevant to understanding the purported or claimed U.S. federal income tax treatment of the transaction.

Section 20.13 Holdover. If, at the expiration of the Term, or earlier termination of the Lease, Tenant continues to occupy the Leased Premises except during a Reimbursement Period, with Landlord's consent, such holding over shall not constitute a renewal of this Lease, but Tenant shall be a Tenant from month-to-month at 300% of the most recent Rent payable by Tenant hereunder, at Landlord's sufferance, and under the same terms and conditions as were in force and effect at the expiration of the Term (except only as to the Term), and except that in the event Tenant shall continue to occupy the Leased Premises after the expiration of the Term, without a duly executed extension agreement in writing having been entered into by and between Landlord and Tenant, then if Landlord shall suffer any damage, loss, cost or expense as a result of such holdover, then Tenant, in addition to such increased Rent, shall pay the amount thereof to Landlord immediately on demand. The provisions of this Section shall be deemed to be "an agreement expressly provided" otherwise as provided in Section 252-C of the Real Property Law of the State of New York. Holdover. Nothing contained herein shall constitute the consent, express or implied, of Landlord to the holding over of Tenant after the Expiration Date or earlier termination of this Lease, nor shall anything contained herein be deemed to limit Landlord's remedies.

Section 20.14 Tenant's Waiver of Claim for Physical Injury. Landlord and Landlord's Indemnitees shall not be liable for, and Tenant waives and indemnifies Landlord and Landlord's Indemnitees against all claims for, damage or injury to person or property sustained by Tenant or any person claiming through Tenant, or otherwise, resulting from any accident or occurrence in, about, or upon the Leased Premises, whether occurring as a result of Landlord's active or passive negligence, or otherwise.

(a) Such waiver shall include, but not be limited to, claims for damage resulting from: (i) any equipment or appurtenances becoming out of repair or any other capital improvement, replacement, repair or maintenance; (ii) injury done or occasioned by wind; (iii) any defect in or failure of plumbing, heating, or air conditioning equipment, electric wiring, gas, water and steam pipes, stairs, rail or walks; (iv) broken glass; (v) the backing up of any sewer pipe or washstand, water closet, waste pipe, drain or any other pipe or tank in, upon or about the Leased Premises; (vi) the escape of steam or hot water; (vii) water, snow or ice being upon, falling from or coming through the roof, skylight, trap door, stairs, walks or any other place upon or near the Leased Premises; (viii) the falling of any fixture, plaster, drywall or stucco; and (ix) any act, omission or negligence of trespassers.

Section 20.15 Binding Effect. This Lease does not constitute an offer to lease and shall not bind Landlord or Tenant unless and until each such party elects to be bound hereby by executing and delivering to the other party an executed original counterpart hereof.

Section 20.16 Default by Landlord. Landlord shall in no event be charged with default in the performance of any of its obligations hereunder unless and until Landlord shall have failed to perform such obligations within sixty (60) days of when they are due to be performed, except in cases when documents are required or consents needed in less than sixty (60) days in which case failure to render timely shall be deemed to be approval or consent of Landlord (or such additional time as is reasonably required to correct any such default) except for Landlord's default in making timely payment of taxes and interest, in which case Landlord shall be in default when such payments are delinquent or past due. Tenant agrees to give to the holder of record of any mortgage covering the Leased Premises notice simultaneously with any notice given to Landlord to correct any default of Landlord as hereinabove provided and agrees that the holder of record of any mortgage shall have the right, after receipt of notice of such default, within sixty (60) days after the expiration of Tenant's applicable cure period with respect thereto, to correct or remedy such default before Tenant may take any action under this Lease by reason of such default. Landlord shall also give to the holder of any mortgage copies of any notices of default which it may give or send to Tenant.

Section 20.17 Liens. Tenant shall not do or suffer anything to be done whereby the Leased Premises, or any portion thereof, or any interest therein, may be encumbered by any liens of mechanics, laborers, or materialmen, chattel mortgages or any other liens. Tenant shall, whenever and as often as any such liens are filed against the Leased Premises, or any portion thereof, purporting to be for labor or material furnished or to be furnished to Tenant, discharge the same of record within thirty (30) days after the date of filing by payment, bonding or otherwise, as provided by law. In the event of the default of Tenant in procuring the discharge, as aforesaid, of any such lien, Landlord may, with five (5) days prior notice, procure such discharge and the expenses incurred by Landlord in obtaining such discharge shall be paid by Tenant as Additional Rent within ten (10) days after notice from Landlord of the amount thereof.

Section 20.18 Publicity. All news releases, publicity or advertising by Tenant or their Affiliates through any media intended to reach the general public which refers to Landlord, or its Affiliates, this Lease or the purchase of the Real Property shall be subject to the prior written approval of Landlord.

Section 20.19 Trial by Jury TENANT HEREBY AGREES NOT TO ELECT A TRIAL BY JURY OF ANY ISSUE TRIABLE OF RIGHT BY JURY, AND WAIVES ANY RIGHT TO TRIAL BY JURY FULLY TO THE EXTENT THAT ANY SUCH RIGHT SHALL NOW OR HEREAFTER EXIST WITH REGARD TO THIS LEASE, OR ANY CLAIM, COUNTERCLAIM OR OTHER ACTION ARISING IN CONNECTION THEREWITH. THIS WAIVER OF RIGHT TO TRIAL BY JURY IS GIVEN KNOWINGLY AND VOLUNTARILY BY TENANT, AND IS INTENDED TO ENCOMPASS INDIVIDUALLY EACH INSTANCE AND EACH ISSUE AS TO WHICH THE RIGHT TO A TRIAL BY JURY WOULD OTHERWISE ACCRUE. LANDLORD IS HEREBY AUTHORIZED TO FILE A COPY OF THIS PARAGRAPH IN ANY PROCEEDING AS CONCLUSIVE EVIDENCE OF THIS WAIVER BY TENANT.

Section 20.20 Construction and Interpretation. The Parties have each negotiated the terms and conditions hereof and reviewed this Lease carefully. It is the intent of the Parties that each word, phrase, sentence and other part hereof shall be given its plain meaning, and that rules of interpretation or construction of contracts that would construe any ambiguity of any part hereof against the draftsman, by virtue of being the draftsman, shall not apply.

Section 20.21 Accord and Satisfaction. No payment by Tenant or receipt by Landlord of a lesser amount than shall be due hereunder, shall be deemed to be other than a payment on account nor shall any endorsement or statement on any check or any letter accompanying any check or payment as rent be given any effect or be deemed an accord and satisfaction, and Landlord may accept such checks without prejudice to any other rights or remedies which Landlord may have.

Section 20.22 Captions and Headings. The captions and headings set forth in this Lease are included for convenience and reference only, and the words obtained therein shall in no way be held or deemed to define, limit, describe, explain, modify, amplify or add to the interpretation, construction or meaning of, or the scope or intent of, this Lease, or any parts hereof or thereof.

Section 20.23 Time is of the Essence. Time is of the essence of each and every term, condition, covenant and warranty set forth herein or in any of the other Lease Documents.

Section 20.24 Successors and Assigns. This Lease and the other Lease Documents shall (a) be binding upon Tenant and Tenant's legal representatives and permitted successors and permitted assigns, and (b) inure to the benefit of Landlord and any other person or entity who may now or hereafter hold the interest of Landlord under this Lease and their respective successors and assigns.

Section 20.25 No Third Party Beneficiaries This Lease is solely for the benefit of Landlord, its successors and assigns, and Tenant, and nothing contained herein shall confer upon any person other than Tenant or Landlord or their respective successors and assigns, any right to insist upon or to enforce the performance or observance of any of the obligations contained herein, except only as may be otherwise specifically provided for in this Lease. All conditions to the obligations of Landlord to advance or make available proceeds of insurance or condemnation are imposed solely and exclusively for the benefit of Landlord, its successors and assigns. No other person or entity shall have standing to require satisfaction of such conditions in accordance with their terms, and no other person or entity shall, under any circumstances, be a beneficiary of such conditions, any or all of which may be freely waived in whole or in part by Landlord at any time, if in Landlord's sole and absolute discretion, Landlord deems it advisable or desirable to do so.

Section 20.26 Non Competition and Non Solicitation.

Tenant agrees to the following restrictive covenants and agreements which covenants are not severable from this Lease and which are included to protect the value of the Leased Premises. Accordingly, Tenant agrees that it and their Affiliates will not, during the Term of this Lease at any time for a period of two (2) years after the expiration or early termination of this Lease, directly or indirectly, together or alone or in conjunction with any others, engage in the following:

- (i) compete with the business conducted at the Facility, and for these purposes will not own, manage, operate, join, control or participate in, or be connected as an officer, employee, partner, director, trustee or otherwise in any manner with a company which owns or operates (or provides consulting and/or management services to any skilled nursing facility located within the Primary Market of the Facility or (ii) any company providing hospice services in the Commonwealth of Massachusetts, or, otherwise lend credit to a person, firm or entity of a type which they prohibited from owning,

(ii) solicit or hire any then current or former (having provided services during the period commencing one year prior to such date of solicitation or hire) employees of the Facility (except for employment at the Facility),

(iii) solicit or cause any then current resident of the Facility to move to another nursing facility unless, except during the Term of this Lease the Facility can no longer provide adequate care for such resident.

Tenant acknowledges and agrees that the remedy at law for any breach or threat of breach of the foregoing agreements will be inadequate and that Landlord shall be entitled to injunctive relief in addition to any rights or remedies available to it for any breach or threat of breach hereof. The foregoing covenants shall be deemed to be severable and if the same be held invalid by reason of length of time or area covered, or both, the Tenant agrees that such length of time or area covered, or either of them, shall be reduced to the extent necessary to cure such invalidity and the provisions hereof shall be enforceable to the fullest extent permitted by law.

Section 20.27 Subdivision. If the Leased Premises are in excess of that which is required to operate the Facility in accordance with the Intended Use, Landlord may subdivide the Leased Premises and amend this Lease to include only so much of the Leased Premises as is necessary to operate the Facility in accordance with the Primary Intended Use. If Landlord subdivides the Leased Premises there shall be no change in the Rent payable hereunder. After any such subdivision, Tenant shall have no rights to any land which is no longer part of the Leased Premises and Landlord may sell, lease or develop any land which is no longer part of the Leased Premises. If Landlord elects to subdivide the Leased Premises Tenant shall cooperate with Landlord and take all actions reasonably requested by Landlord to effect such subdivision.

Section 20.28 Landlord Not in Control; No Partnership. None of the covenants or other provisions contained in this Lease shall, or shall be deemed to, give Landlord the right or power to exercise control over the affairs or management of Tenant, the power of Landlord being limited to the rights to exercise the remedies referred to in this Lease. The relationship between Tenant, on the one hand, and Landlord, on the other hand, is, and at all times shall remain, solely that of landlord and tenant. No covenant or provision of this Lease is intended, nor shall it be deemed or construed, to create a partnership, joint venture, agency or common interest in profits or income between Landlord, on the one hand, and Tenant, on the other hand. Landlord undertakes or assumes no responsibility or duty to Tenant or to any other person with respect to the Facility or this Lease, except as expressly provided in this Lease; and notwithstanding any other provision of this Lease (a) Landlord shall not be construed as, a partner, joint venturer, alter ego, manager, controlling person or other business associate or participant of any kind of Tenant or its stockholders, members, or partners and Landlord never intends to ever assume such status; (b) Landlord shall not in any event be liable for any debts, expenses or losses incurred or sustained by Tenant; and (c) Landlord shall not be deemed responsible for or a participant in any acts, omissions or decisions of Tenant or their stockholders, members, or partners. Landlord, on the one hand, and Tenant, on the other hand, disclaim any intention to create any partnership, joint venture, agency or common interest in profits or income between Landlord, on the one hand, and Tenant, on the other hand, or any sharing of liabilities, losses, costs or expenses.

Tenant further agrees to cooperate with Landlord and with its lenders who are processing and will be making HUD Loans to Landlords.

Section 20.30 Capitalized Terms. To the extent capitalized terms used herein are not defined, they shall have the same meaning as capitalized terms in the Loan Documents.

Section 20.31 Affiliate. The term "Affiliate" shall mean, as to any Person, any other Person that, directly or indirectly, is in control of, is controlled by or is under common control with such Person or is a director or officer of such Person or of an Affiliate of such Person.

ARTICLE XXI

Section 22.3 Liability Limited to Interest in Premises. Tenant shall look solely to Landlord's interest in the Leased Premises owned by Landlord to satisfy any liability arising under this Lease. It is specifically agreed that no constituent partner in Landlord or officer, director, member, manager or employee of Landlord shall ever be personally liable for any such judgment or for the payment of any monetary obligation to Tenant. Except as otherwise expressly provided herein, in no event shall Landlord ever be liable to Tenant for any indirect or consequential damages suffered by Tenant from whatever cause.

Mark, before you go making comments such as in your last email response to me where you indicated "I understand your outrage after not revealing your bankruptcy for a year" I suggest you get your facts straight as we never hid anything.

We advised you of the bankruptcy immediately prior to filing in January 2016. In fact, in the email from you to me on January 4, 2016 (before HHHW even filed) you recognize that the Agreement will be subject to Bankruptcy Court approval.

STATE OF MASSACHUSETTS ) COUNTY OF ESSEX )

Edward O. Tabor, being duly sworn, deposes and says.

1. I am the Chief Financial Officer of third-party defendant The Congress Companies, which provides management and other services to its affiliate, plaintiff White Plains Healthcare Properties I, LLC ("WPH Properties"). I submit this affidavit in support of the motion of WPH Properties and the third-party defendants for an order granting summary judgment in favor of WPH Properties and dismissing the counterclaims and third-party claims asserted by defendants/third-party plaintiffs, HBL SNF, LLC ("HBL"), Lizer Jozefovic ("Jozefovic") and Mark Neuman ("Neuman"). I am fully and personally familiar with the matters stated in this affidavit.

2. I am responsible for maintaining the books and records kept in the regular course of business of WPH Properties reflecting rent and all other obligations owed to and collected by WPH Properties as landlord with respect to the nursing home located at 116-120 Church Street, White Plains, New York (the "facility"). HBL is the tenant and operator of the facility. WPH Properties and HBL are parties to an amended and restated operating lease (the "lease") dated as of November 19, 2015, as amended July 12, 2017, under which WPH Properties, as landlord, leased the facility to HBL, as tenant. A true and correct copy of the lease is attached as exhibit 12.

3. HBL took possession of the facility as of September 30, 2019. Upon taking possession, HBL was in default for failure to pay the required security deposits sixty days in advance of possession. Within weeks, by November 2019, HBL had also defaulted with respect to other financial obligations under the lease. And on December 1, 2019, HBL defaulted under the letter of intent by failing to pay $1,000,000 toward the security deposit. WPH Properties terminated the lease on January 13, 2020. HBL then defaulted on its obligations as a month-to-month tenant.

4. A document I personally prepared based on business records maintained by WPH Properties containing a true and accurate accounting of amounts received and amounts due as of July 30, 2021 from HBL to WPH Properties as a result of HBL's defaults is attached as exhibit 24 (the "itemization").

HBL failed to provide the security deposit required by the lease

5. The lease requires HBL to deliver to WPH Properties, before the commencement date of the lease, an unconditional letter of credit or cash in the amount of $3,700,000 to secure the full and timely performance of its obligations under the lease. In addition, the lease requires HBL to deposit into WPH Properties' rent security account an "Additional Security Deposit" in the amount of $1,600,000. Exhibit 12, Lease. § 7.1.

6. HBL has never delivered the $3.7 million security deposit, either in cash or by letter of credit, has never deposited the $1.6 million additional security deposit and has never made the $4.5 million working capital deposit.

HBL has failed to pay rent as required

7. The lease obligated HBL to pay WPH Properties annual fixed rent of $6,073,158 in monthly installments of $506,096.50 and other amounts that are defined as "Additional Rent." Exhibit 12, Lease. § 3.2. WPH Properties' record detailing the amounts due for rent and the payments received is attached as exhibit 25.

8. The record attached as exhibit 25 shows the amount due for rent from September 30, 2019 through July 31, 2021, the due date, the amounts paid by HBL, the date WPH Properties received each payment made, the number of days late, if any, for each payment made, late charges, overdue interest, amount due and total charges. HBL defaulted by failing to pay rent when due in every month since September 30, 2019, except February 2020, July 2020 and April 2021. HBL remains in default in the payment of the monthly rent due on September 30, 2019 in the amount of $10,839.79 and has incurred total late and interest charges at the overdue rate for defaulting on its obligation to pay timely rent of $220,784.14.

HBL failed to pay rent as a month-to-month tenant after WPH Properties terminated the lease

9. On January 7, 2020, WPH Properties served a "Notice of Default and Landlord's Election to Terminate Lease and Accelerate all Rents Due For The Balance of the Lease Term" upon HBL. The notice of default itemizes HBL's material breaches and default of the lease including dates of HBL's default and amounts then due. A true and correct copy of the notice of default is attached as exhibit 26.

10. The notice of default gave HBL notice that by reason of HBL's defaults under the lease, WPH Properties had exercised its right under section 16.1 of the lease to terminate the lease, including HBL's right of possession of the premises, effective January 13, 2020.

11. HBL continued, and still continues, to occupy the facility, despite WPH Properties' termination of the lease.

12. The lease provides that if HBL holds over after its default has resulted in the termination of the lease, HBL is a month-to-month tenant obligated to pay rent monthly at a rent equal to 300 percent of the most recent monthly rent payable by HBL under the lease. Exhibit 12, Lease, § 20.13.

13. HBL has failed to pay any holdover rent due from February 1, 2020 through the present. As of July 30, 2021, HBL owes $20,342,629.10 in holdover rent, including late charges and interest required by the lease. Exhibit 12, Lease, §§ 20.13, 3.2 (c) (late charges) and 9.1(b) (overdue interest at the prime rate plus five percent)

HBL is required to pay WPH Properties the present value of accelerated rent

14. The notice of default gave HBL notice that WPH Properties exercised its right to terminate the lease effective January 13, 2020 and to accelerate the payment of all rent due and owing under the lease. Exhibit 26, Notice of Default.

15. The lease provides that upon the occurrence of a default by HBL, WPH Properties may accelerate the payment of all rent due for the balance of the term and declare the rent presently due and payable in full, requiring HBL to pay to WPH Properties the present value of the accelerated rent. Exhibit 12, Lease, §16.1. In the notice of default, WPH Properties notified HBL that the lease was terminated and that all of the rent under the lease was accelerated and immediately due and payable.

16. A chart showing the amount of the accelerated rent owed by HBL, consisting of the net present value of remaining monthly rent payments due under the lease discounted at a rate of six percent per year is attached as exhibit 27. As set forth in the chart, the present value of the accelerated lease payments that HBL is obligated to pay WPH Properties is $82,369,770.

HBL defaulted under the letter of intent

17. As noted above, in November 2019, after HBL had defaulted under the lease, WPH Properties worked with HBL, to try to resolve its defaults by entering into a letter of intent under which WPH Properties would sell the property to an entity in which Jozefovic and his partners would have a 72.5 percent interest. The letter of intent modified the method of payment of the security deposit and reduced the amount due immediately to $1,000,000 but required HBL to otherwise comply with the terms of the lease and to close on the transfer of title by April 1, 2020. A true and correct copy of the letter of intent is attached as exhibit 17.

18. Jozefovic and HBL defaulted under that agreement as well, within ten days of signing it, by failing to pay the initial payment of $1,000,000 toward the security deposit, failing to pay rent, failing to pay municipal and utility payments, failing to pay real estate taxes, failing to enter into the required "Deposit Account Control Agreement," failing to enter into an agreement with JP Morgan Chase Bank and failing to close by April 1, 2020.

19. As a result of HBL's defaults under the lease and the letter of intent, WPH Properties was unable to refinance the construction loan that financed the project. As a result of its inability to refinance the loan, WPH Properties was forced to continue to pay the above-market interest rate under the construction loan, rather than the lower, market-rate interest it would have paid on a refinanced loan.

20. Accordingly, beginning on April 1, 2020, WPH Properties continued to pay interest at a rate of at least 4.11 percent over the market rate and therefore incurred substantial additional interest rate costs that WPH Properties could have avoided had it been able to refinance the construction loan.

21. As a result of HBL's default, from April 1, 2020 through July 31, 2021 WPH Properties incurred $3,181,612.88 in interest rate damages.

HBL is required to pay professional fees incurred by WPH Properties

22. The lease provides that if HBL defaults, it is obligated to pay the attorneys' fees and litigation expenses incurred by WPH Properties as a result of that default Exhibit 12, Lease, Article IX. The itemization sets forth the amount of those fees which HBL is obligated to pay WPH Properties, which includes certain estimates of ongoing work, totaling $1,524,000. Exhibit 24.

23. True and correct copies of the bills, account records and records of payment demonstrating the professional fees set forth on the itemization which HBL is obligated to pay WPH Properties under the lease are attached as Exhibit 28.

HBL is required to pay lender default and late charges

24. HBL's defaults have caused WPH Properties to default under a Construction Loan Agreement, Note and Mortgage given to its construction lender, Security Benefit Life Insurance Company ("Security Benefit"), which financed the construction of the Facility See affidavit of William A. Nicholson, ¶¶ 59-65.

25. As a result of HBL's refusal to make timely rents payments and security deposits under the Lease, WPH Properties was unable to make certain monthly payments of debt service to the construction lender.

26. On April 16, 2020, the construction lender issued a notice of default to WPH Properties, subjecting WPH Properties to increased interest rates, late charges and other penalties.

A copy of the April 16, 2020 notice of default is attached as exhibit 29.

27. On May 22, 2020, the construction lender issued another notice of default to WPH Properties. A copy of the May 22, 2020 notice of default is attached as exhibit 30.

28. On May 1, 2021, Security Benefit commenced an action entitled Security Benefit Life Insurance Company v. White Plains Healthcare Properties I, LLC, et al (Supreme Court, Westchester County, Index. No. 55883/2021) to foreclose the mortgage. A true and correct copy of the complaint in the foreclosure action is attached as exhibit 31.

29. As a result of HBL's default under the lease, WPH Properties incurred lender default charges, late charges and legal and professional fees charged by Security Benefit. Because HBL was in default, WPH Properties could not provide an estoppel certificate which would be required to refinance the construction loan therefore the loan matured. WPH Properties' agreement with the mezzanine lender, Bradford Allen Funding Company LLC ("Bradford Allen"), also provides for late charges and extension fees, for the same reasons.

30. Article IX of the lease entitles WPH Properties to indemnification from HBL for legal and professional fees, default interest, late charges and extension fees caused by HBL's default, in the amount of $3,732,034.22. An itemization of the total amounts due for lender default and late charges with invoices from Security Benefit and Bradford Allen showing default interest due for July 2021 is attached as exhibit 32.

HBL has failed to pay real estate taxes

31. The lease also obligates HBL to timely pay, before penalties are incurred, all real estate taxes, assessments and other taxes. Exhibit 12, Lease, § 4.2. HBL has repeatedly paid the real estate taxes late. In particular, HBL failed to timely pay real estate taxes when due for the period December 2019 through June 2020. That resulted in interest at the overdue rate totaling $2,621.94. HBL currently owes WPH Properties $2,621.94 in interest for defaulting on its obligation to pay real estate taxes when due. A copy of the City of White Plains Tax Bill payable by July 31, 2019 and receipt showing that HBL defaulted by not paying the bill until January 29, 2020 is attached as exhibit 33.

HBL has failed to pay utility charges, utility deposits and municipal maintenance escrows

32. The lease obligates HBL to pay all charges or deposits for electricity, steam, telephone, cable, gas, oil, water, sewer and all other services or utilities used on or related to the facility and required HBL to keep the facility in good condition and repair including, at HBL's sole cost and expense, payment of all utility service and maintenance deposits and expenses. Exhibit 12, Lease, §§ 4.1 and 5.2. HBL defaulted by failing to pay utility charges to Con Edison and failing to pay utility deposits and municipal maintenance escrows totaling $71,472.69. WPH Properties has been reimbursed for a portion of the deposits in the amount of $41,175.00. A chart itemizing the unreimbursed deposits and payments which HBL is obligated to pay to WPH Properties, in the amount of $35,921.44 is attached as Exhibit 33.

HBL failed to deliver required certificates of insurance

33. The lease requires HBL to deliver certificates of insurance showing that each type of insurance required under Article VI of the lease is in full force and effect and not cancelable or modifiable without thirty (30) days prior written notice to WPH Properties. Exhibit 12, Lease, § 6.2.

34. HBL defaulted on this obligation. It did not submit certificates of insurance until January 2020 and July 2021 and the only certificates of insurance it has provided do not comply fully with the lease requirements. True and accurate copies of the certificates of insurance HBL submitted are attached as Exhibit 39. The July 2021 submission establishes that the defendants did not maintain the insurance coverages required by the lease. The insurance analysis I have prepared, which itemizes the deficiencies, is attached as Exhibit 40

HBL failed to deliver Medicare, Medicaid and other provider agreements, reimbursement rate sheets and updated rate sheets as required by the lease

35. The lease requires HBL to deliver all Medicare, Medicaid and other provider agreements, reimbursement rate sheets and updated rate sheets. Exhibit 12, Lease, § 7.4(g) & (j).

36. HBL defaulted by not providing this documentation. HBL has never provided the required Medicare and Medicaid provider agreements. HBL did not provide the required Medicaid reimbursement rate sheets until July 2021 and it has never provided the required Medicare documentation or any revised or amended reimbursement rate sheets. A copy of the Medicaid reimbursement rate sheet which HBL provided in July, 2021, the only rate information HBL provided, is attached as Exhibit 41.

HBL failed to provide the financial and operational reporting required by the lease

37. The lease requires HBL to provide to WPH Properties the following financial reporting and operational reporting: (i) an annual budget; (ii) unaudited monthly financial statements; (iii) "a written report providing an operational overview of significant events and circumstances at the facility during the prior month, during the first six months of the Term and then quarterly thereafter, including, but not limited to, clinical events, employee relations and staffing matters;" and (iv) copies of all federal income tax returns within fifteen days after filing. Exhibit 12, Lease, §§7.4(a)(i), 7.4(a)(iii), 7.4(a)(vi).

38. HBL defaulted under the lease by failing to provide WPH Properties with the required financial and operational reporting. Only recently, in connection with this litigation, has HBL partially cured its default by providing some of the documentation. HBL has never provided complete versions of the required unaudited quarterly financial statements, quarterly census revenue information, audited schedule reconciling HBL's net operating income to net cash flow, written report providing an operational overview and a copy of all HBL's federal tax returns.

39. HBL's default by failing to provide or timely provide the required financial and operating reporting has contributed, in addition to HBL's other defaults, to WPH Properties' damages for inability to obtain refinancing.

40. As a result of HBL's defaults, as of July 31, 2021, HBL is obligated to pay to WPH Properties the total sum of $111,420,213.50, calculated as follows: (i) holdover rent and rent, $20,574,253.03; (ii) real estate taxes, $2,621.94; (iii) municipal and utility deposits, $35,921.44; (iv) interest rate damages for failure to close by April 1, 2020 as required by the letter of intent, $3,181,612.87; (v) costs and professional fees, $1,524,000; (vi) lender default and late charges, $3,732,034.22, and (vii) accelerated rent $82,369,770.

41. HBL has failed or refused to pay these amounts.

5. Through the period complained of herein, Fensterman acted as both a principal in the transaction and legal counsel to certain parties including the defendant Lizer Jozefovic.

6. William Nicholson is an individual residing at 12 Long Meadow Drive, Ipswich, Massachusetts 01938 with a business address and place of business at 2 Bourbon Street, West Peabody Executive Center, Suite 200, Peabody, Massachusetts 01960.

7. This case involves the development of a new state-of-the-art 160-bed skilled nursing facility on Church Street in White Plains, New York (the “Facility.”)

8. The Facility was proposed by the defendant, HBL SNF, LLC (“HBL”), and its principals Lizer Jozefovic and Mark Newman (the “Jozefovic Team”) to the New York State Department of Health (“NYSDOH”) in August 2009.

9. The Facility is dedicated to providing specialized services to “difficult to place patients,” including but not limited to, patients who exhibit psychiatric behaviors, patients who are undocumented, patients with developmental and physical disabilities, and patients who have no means of financial support and require charity care.

10. The Facility was intentionally located in White Plains to service high-density minority and high-density poverty populations as compared to surrounding regions.

11. In order to obtain a Certificate of Need from NYSDOH, the Jozefovic Team acquired skilled nursing bed licenses from other area nursing facilities including Hebrew Hospital Home of Westchester, Bethel Nursing Home, and Taylor Care Center.

12. After full review of the Jozefovic Team’s application, NYSDOH determined that the Jozefovic Team was a successful operator of nursing facilities that are authorized to care for the elderly and individuals with long-term physical care needs and has an established history of achieving high occupancy at the facilities it operated.

13. NYSDOH further determined that the Facility was unique and necessary as it provided care to patients not accepted by other facilities because of their special needs.

14. At the time the Jozefovic Team proposed the Facility, the Plaintiff White Plains Healthcare Properties I, LLC (“WPHP”) and the third-party defendants Howard Fensterman (“Fensterman”), William Nicholson (“Nicholson”), and their companies CCC Equities LLC (“CCCE”), Project Equity Construction (“PEC”), and The Congress Companies (“Congress”), approached the Jozefovic Team and proposed that they act as developers for the new Facility.

15. Led by third-party defendant Fensterman, these parties represented that they were capable of performing all aspects of development of the Facility including construction and financing (hereafter “the Project.”)

16. In fact, the Project costs for the Facility presented to NYSDOH by the Jozefovic Team were costs calculated and submitted by Fensterman and Nicholson.

17. Importantly, these costs established a total Project cost of $56, 631,759.

18. The Project costs for the Facility were itemized by Fensterman and Nicholson as follows:

Land acquisition	$ 4,528,333
New construction	$37,282,722
Design Contingency	$ 1,864,136
Construction Contingency	$ 1,864,136
Architect/Engineering Fees	$ 2,982,618
Construction Manager Fees	$ 745,654
Other Fees (Consultant)	$ 750,000
Movable Equipment	$ 1,480,000
Financing Costs	$ 2,112,000
Interim Interest Expense	$ 2,710,400
CON Application Fee	$ 2,000
CON Processing Fee	$ 309,760
Total Project Cost	$56,631,759

19. Many of these costs were to be paid to Fensterman and Nicholson directly, as well as Fensterman's law firm, and other costs to their entities as fees, interest costs, and other Project expenses.

20. In addition, Fensterman and Nicholson represented that they could arrange for 100% of the Project financing.

21. More specifically, Fensterman and Nicholson specifically represented and agreed in writing that they could secure a HUD insured mortgage in the amount of $42,240,000 with an interest rate of 5.5% and a term of thirty (30) years.

22. A description of this mortgage was included in the projected Medicaid Reimbursement submitted to NYSDOH as part of the Project feasibility forecast.

23. Furthermore, Fensterman represented that he could provide the necessary project equity in the amount of $9,863,246 through his company CCC Equities, LLC.

24. The Jozefovic Team presented this financing arrangement to NYSDOH in support of its request for approval of the Facility and these costs became part of NYSDOH's Project approval.

25. Given that Fensterman and Nicholson agreed to develop, finance, and own the Project, the Jozefovic Team agreed to enter into a Lease Agreement to occupy and operate the Facility.

26. To accomplish this, Fensterman and Nicholson proposed that their company White Plains Healthcare Properties I, LLC become the landlord for the operating company owned by the Jozefovic Team known as HBL.

27. The Lease was to be for a twenty (20) year term.

28. The rent was to be calculated as an amount equal to the debt service of the HUD insured mortgage to be obtained by Fensterman and Nicholson plus a return of cash equity to WPHP on the account of the equity contributions through CCCE.

29. The annual rent proposed by Fensterman and Nicholson and presented to NYSDOH equaled $4,318,000 annually or $360,000 per month.

30. The amount of annual rent as calculated above was eligible for reimbursement to HBL through the NYSDOH.

31. The Project as proposed to the NYSDOH was to be completed in approximately twenty (20) months.

32. The NYSDOH gave approval for the Project on the terms described above in October 2012.

33. Throughout the NYSDOH application process, the Jozefovic Team relied upon representations made by Fensterman and Nicholson.

34. However, shortly after receiving approval from NYSDOH, the Jozefovic Team learned that Fensterman and Nicholson did not have the capital necessary to commence or complete the Project as presented.

35. As a result of this lack of capital the Project was delayed for years.

36. In an attempt to overcome this lack of capital, on November 15, 2015, HBL entered into a Development Agreement with White Plains Healthcare Properties I, LLC (the "Development Agreement.")

37. On the same date, HBL entered into a Lease with White Plains Healthcare Properties I, LLC (the "Lease") for the Facility in order to enable WPHP to obtain its Project financing.

38. The Development Agreement and Lease are essential parts of the same transaction and are constitute integrated agreements.

39. Pursuant to the Development Agreement, the Project was to be “turn-key” meaning that the plaintiff and third-party defendants would deliver a fully constructed facility authorized to operate as a skilled nursing facility with permanent financing in place in accordance with the approval granted by NYSDOH.

40. However, because Fensterman and Nicholson lacked sufficient capital to complete the Project on a turn-key basis, they induced the Jozefovic Team to withdraw its equity from another nursing facility which it owned and operated known as Waterview Nursing Home and to contribute that equity to the Project so that the Project could move forward in 2016.

41. In particular, the Jozefovic Team made the following capital contributions to the Project as memorialized in a Term Sheet dated November 20, 2015:

- a) $2,200,000 paid to WPHP to be used by Congress for pre-development costs;
- b) $197,072 to CCC Equities, LLC to be used in the discretion of Fensterman;
- c) $1,595,368.32 into a control account in the name of HBL SNF.

42. These capital contributions were not made as part of a conventional business relationship or an arms-length transaction. Instead, the Jozefovic Team made these capital contributions in reasonable reliance on Fensterman, Nicholson, Congress, and CCCE’s representations that they were acting in a special capacity to protect and advance the Jozefovic Team’s interests. The relationship had developed into a joint venture and a special relationship.

43. The Jozefovic Team would not have made these capital contributions but for Fensterman, Nicholson, Congress, and CCCE’s representations.

44. Yet, despite repeated requests since 2015, Fensterman, Nicholson, Congress, and CCCE have failed or refused to provide an accounting of the use of the predevelopment and discretionary funds paid to them.

45. In consideration for the $2,200,000 contribution to WPHP, WPHP agreed that these funds constituted a loan to WPHP to be repaid to HBL.

46. No provision was made for the payment of interest on the loan notwithstanding that WPHP had the use of such funds since 2015.

47. WPHP agreed to repay the principal amount of the loan by purchasing the furniture, fixtures, and equipment (the "FF&E") in the amount of $1,500,000 for the Project and by giving HBL a future credit against Lease payments.

48. When advancing these funds to Fensterman, Nicholson, CCC Equities and Congress, the Jozefovic Team anticipated that the Facility would be delivered in September 2017.

49. The Facility was not delivered until December 2019.

50. Despite repeated requests, WPHP has never provided an accounting for purchases of the required FF&E or any documentation evidencing repayment of $1,500,000 of the loan amount to HBL.

51. In the absence of such an accounting, HBL cannot determine how much of its loan amount, if any, has been repaid and how much of the remaining loan balance should be credited to current Lease payments.

52. In addition, accrued interest on the $2,200,000 loan must be calculated from November 2015 and either paid to HBL or credited to payments due under the Lease.

53. The Development Agreement required that the Project be substantially completed within twenty-two (22) months or before September 2017.

54. However, at the time the Development Agreement was executed, the plaintiff knew that it could not deliver the completed Project by the promised time of September 2017.

55. Subsequently, the plaintiff breached its obligations to HBL by failing to complete the Project until December 2019.

57. The delay in completing the Project caused HBL to lose substantial revenue.

58. In addition, by delivering the Project in December 2019, HBL encountered market conditions during its start-up phase in 2020 caused by the COVID-19 pandemic which adversely affected HBL's operations as it has nursing homes throughout the region.

59. HBL would not have encountered these adverse financial conditions but not for the delay caused by plaintiff and third-party defendants.

60. In addition to the Project being completed more than two (2) years late, plaintiff and third-party defendants delivered the Project well over budget.

61. The Development Agreement required the plaintiff to enter into a construction contract with Congress and to secure a 100% performance bond to guarantee the performance of the construction contract.

62. However, unbeknownst to HBL, Congress could not secure a performance bond.

63. Fensterman and Nicholson never disclosed to HBL or any of its principals that Congress could not obtain a bond.

64. As a result, WPHP entered into a contract without approval or consent from HBL for a creation of a joint venture agreement with a third-party contractor.

65. The joint venture, among other reasons, added substantial costs to the Project.

66. These substantial additional costs exceeded the capital expenditures approved by NYSDOH and are not reimbursable through NYSDOH.

67. Upon information and belief, Congress's inability to secure the performance bond is related to certain judgments taken against its principal Nicholson arising from claims for diversion of project funds in a skilled nursing project located in Milwaukee, Wisconsin dating back to 2015, the time when the Jozefovic Team advanced monies to Nicholson and Congress.

68. Neither Fensterman nor Nicholson disclosed these adverse proceedings to the Jozefovic Team.

69. In fact, Nicholson was adjudged to have committed conversion and civil theft in the amount of $1,903,452, and that judgement was affirmed on appeal to the Seventh Circuit Court of Appeals.

70. The Development Agreement required that plaintiff and third-party defendants deliver the Project at the costs approved by NYSDOH.

71. Only in the event that HBL authorized a change order would HBL have responsibility for any cost higher than the cost approved by the NYSDOH.

72. There were no approved change orders.

73. The approved Project cost is $57,000,000.

74. The plaintiff and third-party defendants caused the Project to exceed the approved costs by more than $5,000,000.

75. The plaintiff and third-party defendants breached their obligations to HBL under the Development Agreement by causing the Project to be over budget.

76. As a result, HBL is not eligible for reimbursement of its rent payments as originally intended - a loss of eligibility that will cause substantial harm to HBL.

77. Given these costs overruns and the loss of eligibility for reimbursement, the Lease is unenforceable.

78. As part of the “turn-key” delivery of the Project, plaintiff was obligated to provide permanent financing for the Project on the terms of the HUD insured loan submitted by plaintiff as part of the Project approved by NYSDOH.

79. The plaintiff and third-party defendants have failed to provide such permanent financing and are in breach of the Development Agreement and the Lease.

80. In connection with the permanent financing, the plaintiff and third-party defendants were required to demonstrate sufficient equity invested in the Project for HUD or any other lender of permanent financing to grant a thirty (30) year loan to the Project.

81. Plaintiff and third-party defendants have failed to demonstrate sufficient equity in the Project.

82. Upon information and belief, Fensterman procured financial contributions from individual third parties who contributed capital to CCCE to meet the equity requirement.

83. Although this capital is required to be and has, in fact, been represented by Fensterman to be in the nature of equity, upon information and belief, these contributions from individual third-parties are loans at high rates of interest which are overdue as a result of the Project delays.

84. Fensterman, CCCE, and plaintiff have caused additional financial burden to the Project and have attempted to pass along to HBL and the Jozefovic Team these higher interest costs.

85. The Project cost overruns and the higher finance costs due to the delay in delivering the Project, together with the lack of sufficient equity, have prevented the Project from securing permanent financing.

86. The plaintiff and third-party defendants have advised HBL that they have initiated this lawsuit because they are in default of their current loan agreements.

87. As of this date, plaintiff and third-party defendants have been unable to provide to the Jozefovic Team an accurate Project accounting of Project expenditures and have refused to provide information concerning the Project financing.

88. As of this date, plaintiff and third-party defendants have been unable to procure the HUD insured financing which they represented they could secure and is required by NYSDOH Project approval.

89. As of this date, the Project does not comply with the approval issued by the NYSDOH.

90. HBL and its principals reasonably relied upon WPHP, Fensterman, Nicholson, and Congress' representations that they would fulfill their obligations under the Development Agreement and Lease.

91. If HBL and its principals knew that WPHP, Fensterman, Nicholson, and Congress would substantially breach their obligations under the Development Agreement and Lease, HBL and its principals would not have entered into the Development Agreement and Lease.

92. As a result of the failure to deliver the Project on the terms approved by NYSDOH, HBL cannot be reimbursed for the cost of the Facility as intended by the Development Agreement and the Lease and HBL and its principals have suffered financial harm as a result.

93. Throughout the development process, WPHP, Fensterman, Nicholson and Congress' false representations and adverse actions to the Jozefovic Team have adversely affected the business of HBL.

94. WPHP, Fensterman, Nicholson and Congress knew that these representations were false when they were made.

95. At no point have HBL or the Jozefovic Team knowingly intended to agree, in whole or in part, to release or waive WPHP, Fensterman, Nicholson, and Congress for any of their breaches and violations of the Development Agreement and the Lease.

96. Since the Facility began operations, HBL has made regular rent payments to WPHP pursuant to the terms of the Lease.

97. As of this date, HBL has made over $12 million in rental payments to WPHP.

98. HBL has made, and continues to make, these payments in compliance with its obligations under the Lease. HBL's payments do not constitute a waiver or release of HBL's claims against WPHP, CCCE, Congress, Fensterman, or Nicholson.

99. On information and belief, WPHP does not own the property for the Facility outright, but instead received entered into a mortgage agreement with Security Benefit Life Insurance Company and Security Benefit Corporation (collectively, "Security Benefit").

100. The primary purpose of HBL's rental payments to WPHP is for WPHP to satisfy its monthly mortgage payments to Security Benefit.

101. On information and belief, WPHP failed to make required mortgage payments to Security Benefit.

102. On information and belief, Security Benefit instructed WPHP to make certain payments otherwise it would institute foreclosure proceedings, potentially jeopardizing HBL's tenancy and continued operations.

103. On information and belief, although WPHP has received substantial rental payments from HBL, WPHP has refused or failed to make necessary mortgage payments to Security Benefit.

104. On information and belief, Security Benefit has declared WPHP to be in default of its mortgage, having failed to make necessary mortgage payments, charges, interest, and other required fees.

105. On information and belief, Security Benefit has demanded WPHP to send HBL a Tenant Direction Notice, instructing HBL to make all future rental payments directly to Security Benefit.

106. To date, WPHP has not instructed HBL to make future rental payments directly to Security Benefit, but instead continues to collect HBL's monthly rental payments itself.

107. On information and belief, Security Benefit has demanded that WPHP establish a Cash Management Account and instruct HBL to deposit all future rental payments into the Cash Management Account.

108. To date, WPHP has not instructed HBL to deposit future rental payments in a Cash Management Account, but instead continues to receive HBL's monthly rental payments in its own account.

109. On information and belief, Security Benefit has brought a foreclosure action against WPHP and is threatening to foreclose on the mortgage on the property for the Facility.

RESPONSE TO STATEMENT OF MATERIAL FACTS

Pursuant to 22 NYCRR § 202.8-g(b), § 202.70(g), and the Rules of the Commercial Division of the Supreme Court, Rule 19-a, Defendants and Third-Party Plaintiffs HBL SNF, LLC, Lizer Jozefovic (“Jozefovic”), and Mark Neuman (collectively, “HBL” or “Defendants”) respectfully submit the following Response to Plaintiff White Plains Healthcare Properties I, LLC and Third-Party Defendants CCC Equities, LLC, Project Equity Consulting, The Congress Companies, Howard Fensterman, and William Nicholson’s (collectively “White Plains”) Statement of Material Facts, dated August 19, 2021 [Doc. No. 229] and in opposition to Plaintiff’s motion for summary judgment, dated August 19, 2021 [Motion #6].

HBL’S RESPONSES TO PLAINTIFFS’ STATEMENT OF MATERIAL FACTS

1. HBL does not contest paragraph 1 of White Plains’ Statement of Material Fact.

2. HBL does not contest paragraph 2 of White Plains’ Statement of Material Fact.

3. HBL does not contest paragraph 3 of White Plains’ Statement of Material Fact.

4. HBL disputes paragraph 4 of White Plains’ Statement of Material Fact. White Plains failed to complete the construction of the Facility on the agreed upon timeline. Pursuant to Section 3.1(a) of the Amended Lease, the Commencement Date did not occur until December 2, 2019, when NYSDOH notified White Plains that the Facility was in substantial compliance. Thus, the Project was not completed until December 2019. Jozefovic Aff., ¶ 48.

5. HBL disputes paragraph 5 of White Plains’ Statement of Material Fact. This is a legal conclusion rather than a statement of fact. HBL disputes the legal force and effect of this provision in the Lease. Despite representations made by White Plains to HBL, White Plains lacked the necessary capital to complete the construction project. In a Terms Sheet postdating the Lease, HBL agreed to loan White Plains $2,200,000 to ensure the completion of the project. Term Sheet, § 1(b). HBL provided White Plains with the funds pursuant to the Term Sheet. Jozefovic Aff., ¶ 23. White Plains never repaid the loan and has only recently raised a complaint with HBL regarding the letter of credit provision.

6. HBL disputes paragraph 6 of White Plains’ Statement of Material Fact, specifically the legal force and effect of the letter of credit provision of the Lease. HBL’s $2,200,000 payment satisfied HBL’s financial obligation to White Plains preceding the Commencement of the Lease. Jozefovic Aff., ¶ 23. White Plains never repaid this loan to HBL and has not until recently raised a complaint with HBL regarding the letter of credit provision.

7. HBL disputes paragraph 7 of White Plains’ Statement of Material Fact, specifically the legal force and effect of the letter of credit provision of the Lease. HBL’s $2,200,000 payment satisfied HBL's financial obligation to White Plains preceding the Commencement of the Lease. Jozefovic Aff., ¶ 23. White Plains never repaid this loan to HBL and has not until recently raised a complaint with HBL regarding the letter of credit provision.

8. HBL disputes paragraph 8 of White Plains' Statement of Material Fact, specifically the legal force and effect of the letter of credit provision of the Lease. HBL's $2,200,000 payment satisfied HBL's financial obligation to White Plains preceding the Commencement of the Lease. Jozefovic aff., ¶ 23. White Plains never repaid this loan to HBL and has not until recently raised a complaint with HBL regarding the letter of credit provision.

9. HBL disputes paragraph 9 of White Plains' Statement of Material Fact, specifically the legal force and effect of the letter of credit provision of the Lease. HBL's $2,200,000 payment satisfied HBL's financial obligation to White Plains preceding the Commencement of the Lease. Jozefovic Aff., ¶ 23. White Plains never repaid this loan to HBL and has not until recently raised a complaint with HBL regarding the letter of credit provision.

10. HBL disputes paragraph 10 of White Plains' Statement of Material Fact. This is a legal conclusion rather than a statement of fact. HBL disputes the legal force and effect of this provision in the Lease. In addition to the $2,200,000 loan made by HBL to White Plains preceding the construction of the project, HBL was further required to supply another $2,200,000 to White Plains pursuant to a Letter of Intent entered into by both parties on November 20, 2019. Jozefovic Aff., ¶ 63. White Plains has not delivered to HBL its agreed upon repayment of this loan, nor has it accounted for the additional $2,200,000 payment. The significant payments made by HBL to White Plains to ensure the success of the project have satisfied all financial obligations to White Plains before the Commencement of the Lease. White Plains has not until now raised a complaint with HBL regarding the additional security deposit.

11. HBL disputes paragraph 11 of White Plains' Statement of Material Fact, specifically the legal force and effect of the additional security deposit. White Plains has not delivered to HBL its agreed upon repayment of the original loan, nor has it accounted for the additional $2,200,000 payment made November 2019, and has not until now raised a complaint with HBL regarding the additional security deposit. Jozefovic Aff., ¶ 65.

12. HBL disputes paragraph 12 of White Plains' Statement of Material Fact, specifically the legal force and effect of the additional security deposit. White Plains has not delivered to HBL its agreed upon repayment of the original loan, nor has it accounted for the additional $2,200,000 payment made November 2019, and has not until now raised a complaint with HBL regarding the additional security deposit. Jozefovic Aff., ¶ 65.

13. HBL does not dispute paragraph 13 of White Plains' Statement of Material Fact.

14. HBL disputes paragraph 14 of White Plains' Statement of Material Fact. Since entering into possession of the Facility, HBL has paid every monthly rental payment of $506,096,50 on time, now totaling more than $12,000,000. Jozefovic Aff., ¶ 88. White Plains continues to accept these rent payments and has not until now raised a complaint with HBL regarding rent payments.

15. HBL disputes paragraph 15 of White Plains' Statement of Material Fact. This is a legal conclusion rather than a statement of fact. HBL disputes the legal force and effect of this provision in the Lease. The Lease provides for the payment of Additional Rent in specific circumstances that have not been effected here. HBL has satisfied its financial obligation to White Plains by making rent payments for time in possession of the facility, which White Plains continues to accept. White Plains has not until now raised a complaint with HBL regarding rent payment. Jozefovic Aff., ¶ 88.

16. HBL disputes paragraph 16 of White Plains' Statement of Material Fact. HBL has satisfied its financial obligation to White Plains by making rent payments for months spent in possession of the facility, which White Plains continues to accept. Jozefovic Aff., ¶ 88. White Plains has not until now raised a complaint with HBL regarding rent payment. White Plains has also continually failed to credit HBL's $2,200,000 loan and $2,200,000 letter of credit towards any of the alleged obligations. Jozefovic Aff., ¶ 65.

17. HBL does not contest paragraph 17 of White Plains' Statement of Material Fact.

18. HBL disputes paragraph 18 of White Plains' Statement of Material Fact. White Plains cites to an affidavit which admits that HBL submitted certificates of insurance to White Plains in January 2020 and July 2021. Tabor aff., ¶ 32. White Plains has not raised any complaints regarding the delivery of certificates of insurance until now, and has instead continue to accept rent payments from HBL.

19. HBL does not contest paragraph 19 of White Plains' Statement of Material Fact.

20. HBL disputes paragraph 20 of White Plains' Statement of Material Fact. White Plains cites to an affidavit which admits that HBL reimbursed White Plains for utility charges in the amount of $41,175. None of White Plains' submissions state with specificity the origin of any remaining charges still allegedly owed to White Plains. Tabor aff., ¶ 32. Regardless, White Plains has continued to accept rent payments from HBL, without raising any complaints regarding the delivery of certificates of insurance until now. Jozefovic Aff., ¶ 88.

21. HBL does not contest paragraph 21 of White Plains' Statement of Material Fact.

22. HBL disputes paragraph 22 of White Plains' Statement of Material Fact. White Plains cites to an affidavit which claims that HBL has indeed paid real estate taxes for the Facility, but owes $2,621.94 in late fees. Tabor aff., ¶ 31. White Plains has continued to accept rent payments from HBL, without raising any complaints regarding these fees until now. Jozefovic Aff., ¶ 88. White Plains has also continually failed to credit HBL's $2,200,000 loan and $2,200,000 letter of credit towards any of the alleged obligations. Jozefovic Aff., ¶ 65.

23. HBL does not contest paragraph 23 of White Plains' Statement of Material Fact.

24. HBL does not contest paragraph 24 of White Plains' Statement of Material Fact.

25. HBL disputes paragraph 25 of White Plains' Statement of Material Fact. White Plains cites to an affidavit which claims that HBL did deliver the required Medicaid reimbursement rate sheets in July 2021. Tabor aff., ¶ 36. White Plains has continued to accept rent payments from HBL, without raising any complaints regarding these rate sheets until now. Jozefovic Aff., ¶ 88

26. HBL disputes paragraph 26 of White Plains' Statement of Material Fact. White Plains cites to an affidavit which admits that HBL has provided some of the required documentation. Tabor aff., ¶ 38 . However, White Plains has continued to accept rent payments from HBL, without raising any complaints regarding this documentation until now. Jozefovic Aff., ¶ 88

27. HBL disputes paragraph 27 of White Plains' Statement of Material Fact. White Plains cites to an affidavit which admits that HBL has provided some of the required documentation. Tabor aff., ¶ 38 . However, White Plains has continued to accept rent payments from HBL, without raising any complaints regarding this documentation until now. Jozefovic Aff., ¶ 88

28. HBL disputes paragraph 28 of White Plains' Statement of Material Fact. White Plains cites to an affidavit which admits that HBL has provided some of the required documentation. Tabor aff., ¶ 38 . However, White Plains has continued to accept rent payments from HBL, without raising any complaints regarding this documentation to HBL until now. Jozefovic Aff., ¶ 88

29. HBL disputes paragraph 29 of White Plains' Statement of Material Fact. White Plains has continued to accept rent payments from HBL, without raising any complaints regarding these provider agreements to HBL until now. Jozefovic Aff., ¶ 88.

30. HBL disputes paragraph 25 of White Plains' Statement of Material Fact. White Plains cites to an affidavit which claims that HBL did deliver the required Medicaid reimbursement rate sheets in July 2021. Tabor aff., ¶ 36. White Plains has continued to accept rent payments from HBL, without raising any complaints regarding these rate sheets until now. Jozefovic Aff., ¶ 88

31. HBL does not contest paragraph 31 of White Plains' Statement of Material Fact.

32. HBL does not contest paragraph 32 of White Plains' Statement of Material Fact.

33. HBL disputes paragraph 33 of White Plains' Statement of Material Fact. This is a legal conclusion rather than a statement of fact. Since the alleged notice on January 13, 2020, White Plains has continued to accept rent payments from HBL. Jozefovic Aff., ¶ 88. White Plains has also continually failed to credit HBL's $2,200,000 loan and $2,200,000 letter of credit towards any of the alleged obligations. Jozefovic Aff., ¶ 65.

34. HBL disputes paragraph 34 of White Plains' Statement of Material Fact. This is a legal conclusion rather than a statement of fact. Since the alleged notice on January 13, 2020, White Plains has continued to accept rent payments from HBL. Jozefovic Aff., ¶ 88. White Plains has also continually failed to credit HBL's $2,200,000 loan and $2,200,000 letter of credit towards any of the alleged obligations. Jozefovic Aff., ¶ 65.

35. HBL disputes paragraph 35 of White Plains' Statement of Material Fact. Since the alleged notice on January 13, 2020, White Plains has continued to accept rent payments from HBL without raising a complaint with HBL regarding an increased rent. Jozefovic Aff., ¶ 88. White Plains has also continually failed to credit HBL's $2,200,000 loan and $2,200,000 letter of credit towards any of the alleged obligations. Jozefovic Aff., ¶ 65. HBL has satisfied its financial obligation to White Plains.

36. HBL disputes paragraph 35 of White Plains' Statement of Material Fact. Since the alleged notice on January 13, 2020, White Plains has continued to accept rent payments from HBL without raising a complaint with HBL regarding an increased rent. Jozefovic Aff., ¶ 88. White Plains has also continually failed to credit HBL's $2,200,000 loan and $2,200,000 letter of credit towards. Jozefovic Aff., ¶ 65.

37. HBL does not contest paragraph 37 of White Plains' Statement of Material Fact.

38. HBL disputes paragraph 35 of White Plains' Statement of Material Fact. Since the alleged notice on January 13, 2020, White Plains has continued to accept rent payments from HBL without raising a complaint with HBL regarding an increased rent. Jozefovic Aff., ¶ 88. White Plains has also continually failed to credit HBL's $2,200,000 loan and $2,200,000 letter of credit. Jozefovic Aff., ¶ 65.

39. HBL disputes paragraph 22 of White Plains' Statement of Material Fact. White Plains cites to an affidavit which claims that HBL has indeed paid real estate taxes for the Facility, but owes $2,621.94 in late fees. Tabor aff., ¶ 31. White Plains has continued to accept rent payments from HBL, without raising any complaints regarding these fees until now. Jozefovic Aff., ¶ 88. White Plains has also continually failed to credit HBL's $2,200,000 loan and $2,200,000 letter of credit towards any of the alleged obligations. Jozefovic Aff., ¶ 65.

attorney fees if “breach shall be established.” Lease. White Plains is not entitled to attorneys fees in the absence of a finding of breach.

41. HBL does not contest paragraph 41 of White Plains’ Statement of Material Fact.

HBL’S STATEMENT OF ADDITIONAL UNDISPUTED MATERIAL FACTS PURSUANT TO RULE 19-A

47. White Plains and HBL entered into the Development Agreement, which required White Plains to complete the Facility in 20 months or less, with rent sent at $360,000 per month, and with a construction loan that would convert to permanent mortgage financing. White Plains failed to meet any of these obligations. Jozefovic Aff., ¶ 49.

48. White Plains induced HBL to withdraw its equity from Waterview, an entirely separate nursing facility, and contribute that equity to the Facility. HBL provided White Plains with $2,200,000 for pre-development costs pursuant to the Term Sheet, for which it has received no consideration. Jozefovic Aff., ¶ 23.

49. White Plains was required to obtain a construction loan which would convert to permanent mortgage financing, pursuant to Article VII(B) of the Development Agreement. White Plains failed to do so. Jozefovic Aff., ¶ 32-34.

50. White Plains agreed to repay HBL by purchasing the furniture, fixtures, and equipment (“FF&E”) in the amount of $1,500,000 and by giving a future credit against rent payments in the amount of $700,000. Jozefovic Aff., ¶ 26.

51. White Plains has refused to convey titled to the FF&E, to provide an accounting of the use of these predevelopment and discretionary funds, to provide evidence of purchases of the required FF&E, or to credit $700,000 against HBL’s Lease Payments. Jozefovic Aff., ¶ 59.

52. In August 2017, HBL funded and delivered the executed certification statements for White Plains to assume signatory authority over a $1.6 million rent security account (“RSA”). Jozefovic Aff., ¶ 43.

53. The RSA satisfied all obligations under the Amended Lease and the Collateral Assignment to provide security deposits. Jozefovic Aff., ¶ 43.

54. On August 18, 2017, White Plains and Security Benefit entered into a Loan Agreement. Section 11.2 of the Amended Lease and Sections 3.5 and 4.1 of the Loan Agreement assign Security Benefit the sole right to declare a default under the Amended Lease. Jozefovic Aff., ¶ 46.

55. White Plains has never obtained prior consent from Security Benefit to declare a default under the Amended Lease. Jozefovic Aff., ¶ 78.

56. White Plains was required to secure a construction loan for a five (5) year term that would convert into permanent financing. Instead, White Plains was only able to secure a $38,500,000 construction loan from Security Benefit Life Insurance Company (“Security Benefit”) with a three (3) year term and a $9,800,000 mezzanine loan from Bradford Allan. Jozefovic Aff., ¶ 34.

57. If, as required by Article VII(B) of the Development Agreement, White Plains had successfully obtained a construction loan which converted to permanent mortgage financing, this would have prevented further disputes. Jozefovic Aff., ¶ 33.

58. HBL provided White Plains with $2,200,000 pursuant to the Letter of Intent, for which it received no consideration. Jozefovic Aff., ¶ 63.

59. HBL made rent payments of $506,096.50 every month with the understanding that the payments were to go to White Plains' own mortgage payments to Security Benefit. Jozefovic Aff., ¶ 80.

60. Beginning on October 16, 2019, Security Benefit has placed White Plains on notice that White Plains has breached the Loan Agreement. These defaults preceded and occurred independently of any issues or alleged defaults between White Plains and HBL. On May 1, 2021, and September 1, 2021, Security Benefit brought foreclosure actions against White Plains for nonpayment of rent and breach of the loan agreement. Jozefovic Aff., ¶ 82.

I. PRELIMINARY STATEMENT

Defendants and Third-Party Plaintiffs HBL SNF, LLC (“HBL SNF”) Lizer Jozefovic (“Jozefovic”), and Mark Neuman (“Neuman”) (collectively, “HBL” or “Defendants”) respectfully submit this Memorandum of Law and accompanying Affidavit in opposition to Plaintiff White Plains Healthcare Properties I, LLC and Third-Party Defendants CCC Equities, LLC (“CCCE”), Project Equity Consulting, The Congress Companies (“Congress”), Howard Fensterman (“Fensterman”), and William Nicholson’s (collectively “White Plains”) motion for summary judgment, dated August 19, 2021 (the “Motion”), and request that the Court grant HBL’s cross-motion for an Order striking White Plains’ Notice to Admit, dated June 2, 2021 (the “NTA”), as improper, or in the alternative, granting HBL additional time to respond.

Jozefovic and Neuman spent countless hours of labor and millions of dollars to build and operate a cutting-edge nursing home in downtown White Plains, New York. White Plains approached Jozefovic and Neuman, offering to serve as the developer and future landlord, but White Plains’ failures and breaches multiplied throughout the process: White Plains ran out of funding and demanded HBL provide millions in unaccounted payments; White Plains finished construction on the nursing home two years late, overbudget, and with inadequate financing; and White Plains failed to obtain necessary operational licenses for HBL until just before the COVID-19 pandemic devastated New York’s nursing homes.

The relationship between White Plains and HBL is complex. Over the span of several years, the parties entered into a web of contracts based upon an evolving situation. It is unknown why White Plains accepted millions in rent payments before and after claiming that HBL had breached its obligations (the “Alleged Breaches”), or why White Plains independently breached its own obligations to its own lender, because White Plains has refused to produce any documents or allow for the deposition of key witnesses. Instead, the facts are that HBL has paid over $10.5 million in rent payments to White Plains and that White Plains has received $5,418,000 from HBL which are currently unaccounted for.

Given HBL's substantial compliance with its contractual obligations and the numerous factual disputes at the heart of White Plains' claims, HBL respectfully requests that the Motion be denied in its entirety and that HBL's cross-motion striking the NTA, or in the alternative, providing additional time to respond, be granted.

II. STATEMENT OF FACTS

1. HBL Plans and Funds the Facility

For over 20 years, Jozefovic and Neuman have owned and operated skilled nursing and rehabilitation facilities which consistently provide the highest levels of care for their patients. In August 2009, Jozefovic and Neuman proposed the development of a new, state-of-the-art 160-bed skilled nursing facility in White Plains, New York (the "Facility") to the New York State Department of Health ("NYSDOH"). Jozefovic aff., ¶ 13.

Around this time, White Plains approached Jozefovic and Neuman, claiming they could obtain the necessary NYSDOH approval, financing, and construction management for the Facility, after which they would serve as HBL's landlord. On November 15, 2015, in reliance on White Plains' representations, HBL accepted White Plains' offer and entered into a development agreement (the "Development Agreement") and lease with White Plains. Based upon the Development Agreement, White Plains submitted a development proposal to NYSDOH with the following terms: (1) a total cost of $56,631,759; (2) a thirty-year, $42,240,000 HUD-insured mortgage with an interest rate of 5.5%; and (3) $9,863,246 in project equity contributed by CCCE. Critically, White Plains represented that the Facility would be completed in 20 months or less, after which HBL would pay $360,000 per month in rent. Development Agreement, VII(B). Jozefovic aff., ¶ 15-16.

Pursuant to the Development Agreement, White Plains was required to deliver the facility: (1) fully constructed; (2) authorized to operate as a skilled nursing facility; (3) with HUD permanent financing; and (4) in accordance with the approval granted by NYSDOH. Jozefovic aff., ¶ 20.

Yet, White Plains failed to deliver. White Plains first demanded that HBL enter into a term sheet dated November 20, 2015 (the “Term Sheet”) to raise additional capital. Pursuant to the Term Sheet, Jozefovic and Neuman provided White Plains with (1) $2,200,000 for pre-development costs; (2) $197,072 for CCCE; and (3) $1,595,368.32 into a control account as rent security. Jozefovic aff., ¶ 22-23.

The Term Sheet was a loan, not an investment, as HBL did not receive equity in the Facility. White Plains agreed to repay this loan by: (1) purchasing the furniture, fixtures, and equipment (the “FF&E”) in the amount of $1,500,000 for the Facility, and (2) giving HBL a future credit against Lease payments in the amount of $700,000. Jozefovic aff., ¶ 25-27.

Despite HBL’s infusion of capital, on April 18, 2016, NYSDOH notified White Plains that the Facility was an abandoned project. Finally, after multiple delays, White Plains issued the Contract for General Construction, and on July 26, 2017, NYSDOH notified White Plains that (1) White Plains was authorized to start construction by or before September 15, 2017; and (2) the total project cost should not exceed $56.6 million. Jozefovic aff., ¶ 29-30.

2. HBL, White Plains, and Security Benefit Enter Into the Amended Lease, the Collateral Assignment, and the Loan Agreement

On or about July 2017, White Plains and HBL entered into an amended lease (the “Amended Lease”). The terms of the Amended Lease were substantially different, as HBL was required to pay $506,096.50 per month in rent (“Fixed Rent”) instead of the original $360,000 per month in rent under the original lease, a difference of $1,750,000 per year. Over the term of the Amended Lease, this increase provided White Plains with an additional $44,000,000. Jozefovic aff., ¶ 36-38.

Furthermore, on August 11, 2017, White Plains demanded that HBL enter into a collateral assignment (the “Collateral Assignment”) to satisfy Section 7.1(a)(iii) of the Amended Lease. Specifically, Section 2 of the Collateral Assignment required HBL to deposit $1,600,000 into a rent security account (the “RSA”) and provide Fensterman with signatory authority, after which the Collateral Assignment “shall automatically terminate and be void and of no further effect” (emphasis added). HBL did exactly that. Jozefovic aff., ¶ 41.

On August 10, 2017, Fensterman agreed to assume signatory authority over the RSA, representing the security deposit referenced in Section 7.1(a)(iii) of the Amended Lease and Section 2 of the Collateral Assignment. On August 17, 2017, HBL provided the executed certification statements to Fensterman, but White Plains never transacted them or raised any subsequent issues about HBL’s security deposit obligations. Jozefovic aff., ¶ 43-45.

On August 18, 2017, White Plains and Security Benefit Life Insurance Company (“Security Benefit”) entered into a construction loan agreement (the “Loan Agreement”). Pursuant to Section 11.2 of the Amended Lease and Section 4.1 of the Loan Agreement, White Plains’ rights were subrogated to Security Benefit. As a result, both White Plains and HBL were bound to the terms of the Loan Agreement. Jozefovic aff., ¶ 46.

Finally, pursuant to Section 3.5 of the Loan Agreement, White Plains is prohibited from taking any action to declare a default or terminate the Amended Lease, “without the prior written consent of [Security Benefit].”

3. White Plains Completes the Facility Late and Over Budget

The Development Agreement required White Plains to complete the Facility no later than September 2017. However, White Plains did not receive approval from NYSDOH to begin operations until December 2, 2019. Pursuant to Section 3.1(a) of the Amended Lease, this approval triggered the Commencement Date. Jozefovic aff., ¶ 48.

Not only was the Facility completed late, but White Plains incurred substantial cost overruns and White Plains failed to provide permanent financing for the Facility in the form of the HUD-insured loan. White Plains' shortcomings have caused substantial damages, as HBL is unable to obtain full reimbursement of its monthly rent payments as originally intended, resulting in losses of $68,000 per month, for an annualized loss of $816,000. Additionally, White Plains has refused to convey title to the FF&E, to provide an accounting of the use of the predevelopment and discretionary funds HBL provided, or to credit $700,000 against HBL's rent payments. Jozefovic aff., ¶ 57-59.

Despite White Plains' breaches and failures, HBL has performed under the Amended Lease. Since the Commencement Date on December 2, 2019:

- HBL substantially satisfied the requirements for a security deposit under both the Amended Lease and the Collateral Assignment by funding and maintaining the RSA. By August 17, 2017, HBL provided Fensterman with the necessary forms to become a signatory on the RSA. However, Fensterman never transacted these documents and White Plains never made any subsequent demands on HBL to provide additional security deposits. Jozefovic aff., ¶ 43-45.
- HBL has made consecutive Fixed Rent Payments to White Plains every month, now totaling $12.5 million, which White Plains has accepted without dispute. Moreover, HBL pre-paid an additional two months of rent prior to the Commencement Date. Jozefovic aff., ¶ 88.

- HBL has paid all applicable real estate taxes for the Facility. To date, there are no outstanding charges for real estate or other taxes. Jozefovic aff., ¶ 92.
- HBL has paid all applicable utility charges, utility deposits and municipal maintenance escrows. To date, there are no outstanding charges for Con Edison, or any other utility. Jozefovic aff., ¶ 94.
- HBL has obtained the necessary types and amounts of insurance for the Facility. Jozefovic aff., ¶ 96.
- HBL has delivered necessary provider agreements, rate sheets, and financial and operational reporting to White Plains. Jozefovic aff., ¶ 98.
- As HBL is in substantial compliance with the Amended Lease and the Amended Lease has not been terminated, HBL has no obligation to pay holdover or accelerated rent. Jozefovic aff., ¶ 100.

4. White Plains and HBL Enter Into the LOI

Given the substantial increase in rent and White Plains’ breaches of the Development Agreement and Amended Lease, HBL sought to purchase the Facility from White Plains. On November 20, 2019, HBL and White Plains entered into a letter of intent with White Plains (the “LOI”). Jozefovic aff., ¶ 60-61.

In reliance on White Plains’ representations, HBL made an initial $2.2 million payment to White Plains pursuant to the LOI. Despite HBL’s efforts, White Plains failed to take any steps to complete the transaction, although White Plains retained and has refused to account for HBL’s $2.2 million payment. Jozefovic aff., ¶ 63-65.

5. White Plains Breaches the Loan Agreement

Although HBL continues to make each and every Fixed Rent Payment to White Plains, White Plains defaulted on its mortgage with Security Benefit. On October 16, 2019, Security Benefit issued a notice of default to White Plains for failing to establish a cash management account, as required by the Loan Agreement. Security Benefit issued a second notice of default to White Plains on November 5, 2019 for failing to direct HBL to pay rent into a cash management account. Jozefovic aff., ¶ 66-68.

In a third notice dated April 16, 2020, Security Benefit stated that White Plains was solely at fault for breaching the terms of the Loan Agreement by failing to (1) provide monthly payments of interest; and (2) establish a cash management account. Jozefovic aff., ¶ 77.

In a fourth letter dated May 22, 2020, Security Benefit issued a notice of default to White Plains for the failure to (1) provide monthly payments of interest; (2) establish a cash management account; (3) send a tenant direction notice; (4) forward the $2.2 million payment to Security Benefit, which had been received from HBL; (5) provide financial statements for White Plains; and (6) provide financial statements for each guarantor. Security Benefit makes no reference to HBL's obligations in these letters and notices. Jozefovic aff., ¶ 78.

On August 1, 2020, the Loan Agreement matured. Jozefovic aff., ¶ 81.

6. White Plains Commences Litigation Against HBL, and Security Benefit Commence Litigation Against White Plains

On May 7, 2021, HBL served White Plains with the first amended document requests. White Plains has not provided any documents in response. No depositions have occurred to date. Jozefovic aff., ¶ 102-106.

On September 1, 2021, Security Benefit brought an independent foreclosure action against White Plains captioned Security Benefit Life Insurance Company, et al. v. White Plains Healthcare

Properties I, LLC et al., No. 62109/2021. In Paragraph 42 of the complaint, Security Benefit alleges that White Plains breached Section 3.5 of the Loan Agreement, “which prohibits Borrower from terminating the Operating Lease without the consent of the Lender.” Jozefovic aff., ¶ 82.

III. LEGAL ARGUMENT

1. White Plains Is Not Entitled To Summary Judgment

When considering a motion for summary judgment, if the moving party fails to “make a prima facie showing of entitlement to judgment as a matter of law,” the court must deny “the motion, regardless of the sufficiency of the opposing papers.” Alvarez v Prospect Hosp., 68 NY2d 320, 324 [1986]. If this threshold is met, the “burden shifts to the party opposing the motion for summary judgment to produce evidentiary proof...sufficient to establish the existence of material issues of fact which require a trial of the action.” Id.

The court must view all evidence in the light most favorable to the nonmoving party, as well as give the nonmoving party the benefit of all reasonable inferences. Jacobsen v New York City Health and Hosps. Corp., 22 NY3d 824, 833 [2014]. If there are any doubts concerning the existence of a triable fact, the court must deny the motion. Rotuba Extruders, Inc. v Ceppos, 46 NY2d 223, 231 [1978] (“[S]ummary judgment is a drastic remedy and should not be granted where there is any doubt as to the existence of a triable issue.”).

A. White Plains Brought A Premature Motion for Summary Judgment, Depriving HBL of Necessary Discovery

Under CPLR 3212(f), courts must “deny a motion for summary judgment...where the opposing party has not had a reasonable opportunity for disclosure prior to the making of the motion.” Brielmeier v Leal, 145 AD3d 753, 754 [2d Dept 2016]. Courts are especially quick to deny motions for summary judgment which occur before document production and depositions given the potential that relevant information could be discovered. “[A] motion for summary judgment should be denied as premature where the movant has yet to be deposed.” Barreto v City of New York, 194 AD3d 563 [1st Dep 2021]; see also Guo Ping Gu v Malaxos, 192 AD3d 1087 [2d Dept 2021].

There are substantial factual issues which require discovery to resolve. By way of example, White Plains took $5,418,000 from HBL, but has never returned or accounted for these funds. Jozefovic aff., ¶ 59, 65. White Plains accepted the documents necessary to become a signatory on the RSA, but never completed the transaction and never demanded that HBL post additional security deposits. ¶ 43-45. White Plains entered into exhaustive negotiations with HBL concerning an intercreditor agreement pursuant to the Amended Lease and the purchase of the Facility pursuant to the LOI, but both transactions were never completed. Jozefovic aff., ¶ 63-65. White Plains accepted four months of Fixed Rent Payments without protest, served a delayed and inadequate Notice of Default, and then accepted eight more months of Fixed Rent Payments before commencing this action. Jozefovic aff., ¶ 88.

These issues, among others, cannot be resolved via summary judgment as they directly contradict White Plans’ claims that HBL has breached the Amended Lease. On May 7, 2021, HBL submitted document requests to White Plains, with the intention of deposing White Plains’ key witnesses afterwards. However, White Plains has failed to produce a single document in response, and no depositions have been conducted. Jozefovic aff., ¶ 102-106. As a result, White Plains has prevented HBL from contesting White Plains’ claims or proving HBL’s affirmative defenses and counterclaims. Finally, document discovery and depositions would demonstrate that White Plains waived certain sections of the Amended Lease and accepted HBL’s substantial performance, White Plains wrongfully appropriated HBL’s funds, White Plains accepted monthly rent payments in lieu of demanding specific performance of the Amended Lease, and White Plains' dispute with Security Benefit is due to White Plains' own breach of the Loan Agreement.

B. White Plains Is Prohibited From Declaring a Default Under the Lease

Section 11.2 of the Amended Lease explicitly subrogates the Amended Lease to the Loan Agreement, stating:

“All provisions contained in the loan documents between [White Plains] and [Security Benefit] . . . shall take precedence over and be in lieu of any contrary provision provided for in this Lease, and in all respects are binding upon Tenant who agrees to and acknowledges the same.”

This provision is complimented by Section 4.1 of the Loan Agreement, which “assigns to [Security Benefit] . . . all of [White Plains'] rights in and under all Leases.” The Amended Lease and Loan Agreement constitute an integrated agreement, with both White Plains and HBL bound to the terms of the Loan Agreement. See Rudman v Cowles Comms., 30 NY2d 1, 12 [1972] (agreements are integrated according to “the intent manifested, viewed in the surrounding circumstances.”).

Section 3.5(vi) of the Loan Agreement states that White Plains “will not, without prior written consent of [Security Benefit], terminate or consent to the cancellation or surrender of any Lease.” Yet, this is exactly what occurred. By serving the Notice of Default and bringing this action, White Plains has breached the Loan Agreement and Amended Lease.

As stated in the plain terms of Section 11.2 of the Amended Lease and Sections 3.5 and 4.1 of the Loan Agreement, White Plains cannot terminate the Lease without Security Benefit's prior, written consent. Given the restrictions which the Amended Lease and Loan Agreement place on White Plains, White Plains could not issue the Notice of Default, file this complaint, or bring the Motion against HBL without Security Benefit's prior, written consent. As White Plains has never obtained Security Benefit’s consent, the Motion is improper under the Amended Lease and represents a continued breach of the Loan Agreement.

C. White Plains Waived Any Alleged Defaults

White Plains has waived the right to enforce the provisions of the Amended Lease regarding the alleged defaults committed by HBL (“Alleged Defaults”). Fundamental Portfolio Advisors, Inc. v Tocqueville Asset Mgt., L.P., 7 NY3d 96, 104 [2006]. White Plains’ decision not to enforce the Amended Lease, followed by delayed, selective, and inadequate notices constitute a “failure to act as to evince an intent not to claim the purported advantage.” Hadden v Consol. Edison Co. of New York, Inc., 45 NY2d 466, 469 [1978].

1. White Plains Chose Not to Enforce the Amended Lease

Once a landlord knows that a tenant is in breach of the lease, the landlord must assert their rights, or the breach will be waived. Courts have long held that:

“[T]he option rests with the landlord to recognize the violation and terminate the tenancy. . . . As one old English case put it, the landlord should not be permitted ‘to treat a man as a tenant, and then treat him as a trespasser.’”

Jeppaul Garage Corp. v Presbyt. Hosp. in City of New York, 61 NY2d 442, 447-48 [1984]. This knowledge of defaults combined with a lack of immediate action is strong evidence of waiver, in contrast with landlords who act “promptly” and immediately serve “a notice to cure defaults as the lease provided it should.” Id. (citing Atkin’s Waste Materials, Inc. v May, 34 NY2d 422 [1974]).

White Plains is well-aware of HBL’s requirements and obligations under the Amended Lease. By August 17, 2017, White Plains knew that HBL had funded the RSA and provided Fensterman with signatory authority. Jozefovic aff., ¶ 43. By July 2019, White Plains knew that HBL had not provided the $3.6 million letter of credit. Jozefovic aff., ¶ 87. On November 20, 2019, White Plains did not contest the status of the RSA when it agreed to the modifications in the LOI. Jozefovic aff., ¶ 60-63.

White Plains eventually served another Notice of Default on January 7, 2020, more than six months after the first Alleged Default. However, the Notice of Default was focused on the LOI and stated that the Amended Lease would be terminated on January 13, 2020, White Plains did not terminate the Amended Lease on January 13, and took no further steps until nine months later when it filed this action on September 18, 2021 (“the Complaint”). Jozefovic aff., ¶ 69.

In short, White Plains had full knowledge of the Alleged Defaults, but waited over six months before notifying HBL. White Plains then waited nine more months to file the Complaint, despite the fact that the Notice of Default no longer applied. Many of the Alleged Defaults were only just raised in the Motion, years after the fact.

2. White Plains Decided to Accept—And Continues To Accept—Rent From HBL In Lieu of Enforcing the Amended Lease

Not only did White Plains waive these Alleged Defaults by choosing not to act, but White Plains continued this waiver by accepting rent from HBL. This violates the:

Jefpaul Garage Corp., 61 NY2d at 447-48.

Landlords must either (1) accept rent from the tenant; or (2) decline rent and enforce the lease. As the Court of Appeals held:

“When rent is accepted with knowledge of particular conduct which is claimed to be a default, the acceptance of such rent constitutes a waiver by the landlord of the default.”

Atkin's Waste Materials, Inc. v May, 34 NY2d 422, 427 [1974]; see also TSS-Seedman's, Inc. v Elota Realty Co., 72 NY2d 1024, 1027 [1988] (“[Landlord’s] acceptance of the rent resulted in the leases remaining in effect.”)

White Plains accepted an initial four months of Fixed Rent Payments, despite having knowledge of the Alleged Breaches. Then, after serving the Notice of Default and claiming that the Amended Lease would be terminated on January 13, 2020, White Plains has accepted—and continues to accept—over 18 additional Fixed Rent Payments. Jozefovic aff., ¶ 88.

White Plains has waived its rights by having actual knowledge of the Alleged Breaches and choosing to accept HBL’s rent payments. To date, White Plains has accepted over 22 Fixed Rent Payments for $12.5 million.

3. White Plains’ Actions Override The “No Waiver” Clauses In the Amended Lease

The Amended Lease’s standard “no waiver” clause does not prevent White Plains from waiving the Alleged Defaults, as the “existence of a nonwaiver clause does not in itself preclude waiver of a contract clause.” Dice v Inwood Hills Condominium, 237 AD2d 403, 404 [2d Dept 1997]; see also TSS-Seedman's, Inc., 72 NY2d at 1027 (landlords may waive their rights under the lease, despite “the leases contained ‘nonwaiver’ clauses.”).

Sections 20.2 and 20.3 of the Amended Lease contain two boilerplate “no waiver” clauses. Neither clause permit White Plains to ignore known breaches of the Amended Lease and continue to accept Fixed Rent Payments from HBL. Furthermore, any issues concerning Sections 20.2 and 20.3 of the Amended Lease cannot be decided as a matter of law, given that the application of a “no waiver” clause is a question of fact. Sunoce Properties, Inc. v Bally Total Fitness of Greater New York, Inc., 148 AD3d 751, 752-53 [2d Dept 2017].

4. HBL Detrimentially Relied Upon White Plains’ By Continuing To Build Up and Operate the Facility and White Plains will be Unjustly Enriched

White Plains continues to profit from HBL’s development and usage of the Facility. If the Motion is granted, White Plains will be unjustly enriched through the value that HBL has added to the Facility, on top of the Fixed Rent Payments and the unaccounted funds. See Alan B. Greenfield, M.D., P.C. v. Long Beach Imaging Holdings, LLC 114 AD3d 888, 981 N.Y.S.2d 135.

5. Waiver Is a Question of Fact That Cannot Be Resolved On Summary Judgment

White Plains will undoubtedly argue that there was no waiver and the intention was to hold HBL to the letter of the Amended Lease. By doing so, White Plains would ask the Court to decide an issue of fact. Fundamental Portfolio Advisors, Inc. v Tocqueville Asset Mgt., L.P., 7 NY3d 96, 104 [2006] (“[T]he existence of an intent to forgo such a right is a question of fact.”). Discovery would provide some avenues for resolving the issue of waiver, but White Plains has refused to produce any documents or conduct depositions. Given that the issue of waiver cannot be resolved as a matter of fact, the Motion must be denied.

D. White Plains’ Claims Are False

1. HBL Paid Rent Every Month Without Fail

White Plains claims that HBL took possession of the Facility on September 30, 2019, and failed to pay $10,831.79 in rent for that single day. Motion, 4. White Plains also claims that HBL has failed to pay rent on time. Motion, 4.

This is false. Pursuant to Section 3.1 of the Amended Lease, the Commencement Date did not occur until December 2, 2019, when NYSDOH found the Facility to be capable of receiving patients.<sup>1</sup> Jozefovic aff., ¶ 48. Therefore, HBL had no obligation to make Fixed Rent Payments before December 2, 2019. While HBL opted to pre-pay Fixed Rent Payments in October and November 2019, any claim for rent prior to December 2, 2019, must fail. Jozefovic aff., ¶ 91

Additionally, HBL has promptly made Fixed Rent Payments at the beginning of each month, every month. HBL’s Fixed Rent Payments were made directly via wire transfer, and White Plains has never previously disputed the timing. Jozefovic aff., ¶ 88.

2. HBL Paid All Real Estate Taxes

White Plains claims that HBL has failed to pay real estate taxes. Motion, 4.

This is false. HBL has assumed responsibility for the Facility's taxes, which have been fully paid. Tax records prove that HBL is current on all payments. Jozefovic aff., ¶ 92. Exhibit L.

3. HBL Paid Utility Charges, Utility Deposits, and Municipal Maintenance Escrows

White Plains claims that HBL failed to pay utility deposits in the total amount of $68,828.94, while admitting that they have already been reimbursed $41,175.00. Motion, 5.

This is false. HBL has assumed responsibility for the Facility's utilities, which have been fully paid. Utility records prove that HBL is current on all payments. Jozefovic aff., ¶ 94. Exhibit M. Moreover, White Plains has never notified HBL of the alleged remaining $27,653.94 in Con Edison utility charges, and HBL is not responsible for Con Edison failing to return certain deposits. Motion, Exhibit 33.

4. HBL Delivered Certificates of Insurance

White Plains admits that HBL delivered the necessary certificates of insurance, but now claims that the insurance policies are inadequate. Motion, 5-6.

This is false. HBL delivered the certificates of insurance to White Plains, which substantially comply with the Amended Lease. Jozefovic aff., ¶ 96. Exhibit N. Moreover, White Plains has never demanded that HBL obtain additional insurance coverage.

5. HBL Delivered Medicare, Medicaid, and Other Provider Agreements, Reimbursement Rate Sheets, Updated Rate Sheets, and Financial and Operational Reporting

White Plains admits that HBL has delivered substantial Medicare, Medicaid and other provider agreements, reimbursement and updated rate sheets, and financial and operational reporting, but now claims that the documents are inadequate. Motion, 6.

This is false. HBL delivered substantial documentation concerning provider agreements, rate sheets, and financial operational reports to White Plains, which substantially comply with the Amended Lease. Jozefovic aff., ¶ 98. Exhibit O. Moreover, White Plains has never demanded HBL provide additional documentation.

6. HBL Complied With Its Security Deposit Obligations

White Plains claims that HBL has failed to pay certain security deposits. Motion, 3.

This is a misrepresentation. HBL substantially complied with its obligation to provide security deposits by funding the RSA and tendering signatory authority to White Plains, which White Plains failed to complete. The RSA remains in place today. Jozefovic aff., ¶ 43-45.

Moreover, White Plains has never previously demanded that HBL provide a $3.7 million letter of credit or additional security deposits. As discussed supra, White Plains waived any issues regarding security deposits by choosing to accept HBL’s Fixed Rent Payments. This issue is irrelevant, as security deposits provide landlords with “adequate protection should the finances of a tenant falter.” Glass v Janbach Properties, Inc., 73 AD2d 106, 108-09 [2d Dept 1980]. As HBL has made Fixed Rent Payments each and every month, additional security deposits would serve no purpose. Jozefovic aff., ¶ 88.

7. HBL Is Not Required to Pay Holdover or Accelerated Rent

White Plains claims that HBL is required to pay holdover and accelerated rent. Motion, 7.

This is false. Pursuant to the Amended Lease, holdover and accelerated rent apply only if the Amended Lease has been terminated. For all the reasons discussed herein, White Plains does not have the right to terminate the Amended Lease because it failed to obtain Security Benefit’s prior consent, and White Plains waived its right to enforce the Amended Lease by choosing to accept HBL's Fixed Rent Payments each month without protest. Jozefovic aff., ¶ 88.

8. The Notice of Default Was Improper

White Plains claims rest upon the Notice of Default, which is fatally flawed. Pursuant to Sections 16.1(a)(ii) and 16.1(g) of the Amended Lease, White Plains is required to give HBL written notice of an alleged default, after which HBL is provided with up to 90 days to cure the alleged default.

This did not occur, as the Notice of Default does not contain the same claims that White Plains currently alleges. White Plains never served a subsequent Notice of Default on HBL, nor provided adequate notice for these entirely new claims and damages.

Moreover, the Notice of Default is facially improper. Pursuant to Section 16.1 of the Amended Lease, "Landlord, may...upon five (5) days written notice," move to terminate the Amended Lease. The terms are clear: "Landlord," which is defined in the Amended Lease as "White Plains Healthcare Properties I, LLC," has the sole right to initiate termination proceedings. However, the Notice of Default was served by Alfred Donnellan of Delbello Donnellan Weingarten Wise & Wiederkehr LLP and signed by Joshua Roccapriore as an "Authorized Representative." Jozefovic aff., ¶ 69.

White Plains' decision to serve the Notice of Default via an unauthorized and unknown attorney and representative makes the Notice of Default a nullity. When:

"the lease provides that certain of the rights and immunities arising thereunder may be exercised and enjoyed by either the "Landlord or Landlord's agents", and where it elsewhere designates a named third party . . . as the landlord's attorney, it appears only reasonable that a forfeiture provision calling for cancellation of the lease upon only three days' written notice emanating specifically from the 'Landlord' should be strictly construed against its drawer."

Siegel v Kentucky Fried Chicken of Long Is., Inc., 108 AD2d 218, 221 [2d Dept 1985], affd, Matter of, 67 NY2d 792 [1986] (emphasis in original). Here, Section 13.1 of the Amended Lease states that notices must be provided by (1) White Plains Healthcare Properties I, LLC; (2) Gerald J. Billow, Esq., of Postemak Blankstein & Lund LLP; and (3) Fensterman of Abrams Fensterman. As none of the signatories are included in the Amended Lease, the Notice of Default is defective, given that “the mere assertion of authority on the face of the notice by a total stranger to the transaction that he is the landlord's attorney and that he is authorized to act on the latter's behalf cannot be deemed to provide the tenant with the surety of notice to which he is contractually entitled.” Id.

E. White Plains Is Not Entitled to A Money Judgment Against HBL, Jozefovic, or Neuman

White Plains claims they are entitled to the incredible sum of $111,420,213.50 as a result of the Alleged Defaults. As discussed throughout, White Plains has failed to prove any of its claims or disprove any of HBL’s affirmative defenses and counterclaims. Therefore, it would be premature to award White Plains anything at this time. Harris v Thompson, 117 AD3d 791, 794 [2d Dept 2014].

F. The LOI Is Unenforceable

Pursuant to the LOI, HBL made an initial $2.2 million payment. The next steps required White Plains to “obtain a release of the lien of [Security Benefit] on the FF&E” and deliver “free and clear title to the FF&E.” Jozefovic aff., ¶ 23. However, White Plains breached the LOI by failing to deliver the FF&E, and this, among other issues, caused the automatic self-termination of the LOI. As Section 1(h) of the LOI states:

If the closing does not occur by [April 1, 2020]...this LOI and the Formal Contracts shall be terminated and no party shall have any rights with respect thereto.

Additionally, Section 10 of the LOI states:

No past, present, or future action, course of conduct, or failure to act relating to the transactions referenced in this LOI or relating to the negotiation of the terms of such transactions will give rise to or serve as the basis for any obligation or other liability on the part of Contributor or Buyer or any of their respective affiliates.

Together, Sections 1(h) and 10 of the LOI prevent White Plains from using the LOI as the basis for any claim.

G. HBL’s Affirmative Defenses Are Valid

In the Answer, HBL asserted nine affirmative defenses. For the first, second, fifth and sixth affirmative defenses, HBL has asserted that White Plains’ prior breach of and failure to perform under the Development Agreement, Amended Lease, and Loan Agreement bar White Plains’ claims. Answer, 5. As HBL has already demonstrated, White Plains delivered the Facility two years late and $5 million overbudget, White Plains failed to obtain proper financing for the Facility, and White Plains breached the Loan Agreement with Security Benefit. These prevent White Plains from bringing claims or attempting to terminate the Amended Lease. Cayuga Harvester, Inc. v Allis-Chalmers Corp., 95 AD2d 5, 465 N.Y.S.2d 606. Jozefovic aff., ¶ 49.

For the third and fourth affirmative defense, HBL has asserted that the Amended Lease contains indefinite and unclear terms and that White Plains is in possession of sufficient payments which satisfy any alleged defaults or claims. Answer, 5. Moreover, White Plains should have provided HBL’s Fixed Rent Payments to Security Benefit pursuant to the terms of the Loan Agreement. Answer, 5. In total, HBL has made significant payments to White Plains, including, but not limited to, (1) $2.2 million pursuant to the Term Sheet; (2) $1.2 million in pre-paid Fixed Rent Payments for October and November 2019; (3) $2.2 million pursuant to the LOI; and (4) over $10.5 million in Fixed Rent Payments. None of these payments have been properly applied or accounted for. Triple Diamond Café, Inc. v Those Certain Underwriters at Lloyd's London, 124 AD3d 763, 3 N.Y.S.3d 46. Jozefovic aff., ¶ 23, 63, 88.

For the seventh and eight affirmative defenses, HBL has asserted that factual issues concerning White Plains' representations and actions constitute fraud and waiver. White Plains misrepresented several material facts about their ability to fund and construct the Facility. As a sophisticated party, White Plains' material misrepresentation suggests an intention to injure HBL for their own profit, effecting fraud. RBE Northern Funding, Inc. v Stone Mountain Holdings, LLC, 78 AD3d 807, 911 N.Y.S.2d 115 [2d Dep. 2010]. Jozefovic aff., ¶ 49.

For the ninth affirmative defense, HBL has asserted that White Plains' bad faith and unclean hands prevent enforcement of the Amended Lease. White Plains is using litigation to hold not only HBL hostage, but the wellbeing of HBL's patients. This conduct is unconscionable. Moo Wei Wong v Wong, 293 AD2d 387, 740 N.Y.S.2d 614 [2002].

In response, White Plains claims that HBL's affirmative defenses are baseless. Motion, 9. White Plains does not cite a single legal authority for this proposition, but instead relies solely on an affidavit from William Nicholson. Nicholson Aff., 9. Nicholson, who is not counsel, bases his argument that the affirmative defenses are "without merit" on unspecified "reasons stated below," and a separate affidavit from Edward O. Tabor. Id. This argument carries no weight, and is patently insufficient to serve as the basis for summary judgment.

2. HBL's Counterclaims and Third-Party Claims Are Valid

A. HBL Has Not Waived or Released Any Claims

HBL has consistently sought to address White Plains' breaches and failures under the Development Agreement and Amended Lease. In response, White Plains argues that HBL has waived any and all claims based upon a boilerplate clause in Section 5.6(b) of the Amended Lease. Motion, 9-10.

Section 5.6(b) does not reference HBL's specific claims. Courts are quick to reject similarly broad and baseless waiver clauses because a waiver is ineffective unless it shows "that the release was intended to cover the subject action or claim." Mazzurco v. PII Sam, LLC, 153 A.D.3d 1341, 63 N.Y.S.3d 59 (2017). Generalized waiver clauses cannot form the basis for escaping liability, especially when such waivers do not refer to any "particular claim, obligation, or controversy." See Morales v. Solomon Mgt. Co., LLC, 38 AD3d 381, 382, 832 N.Y.S.2d 195, 196 (1st Dept. 2007).

B. HBL's Counterclaims and Third-Party Claims Must Be Heard

1. HBL Is Entitled to An Accounting

HBL's decision to enter into the Development Agreement, lease, Amended Lease, and LOI was not the result of an arms-length transaction. Instead, HBL was directed by Fensterman, who served as HBL's counsel, and HBL provided White Plains with funds to manage and utilize. Jozefovic aff., ¶ 4, 43. Although never formalized, HBL and White Plains had a quintessential fiduciary relationship. See Faith Assembly v Titledge of N.Y. Abstract, LLC, 106 AD3d 47, 961 N.Y.S.2d 542, 553 ("The core of a fiduciary relationship is a higher level of trust than normally present in the marketplace."); see also Mandelblatt v Devon Stores, Inc., 132 AD2d 162, 521 N.Y.S.2d 672, 676 (holding that fiduciary liability "is not dependent solely upon an agreement...but results from the relation.").

White Plains has claimed that there was no fiduciary relationship. Motion, 13. However, "ascertaining the existence of a fiduciary relationship inevitably requires a fact-specific inquiry." Mosdos Chofetz Chaim, Inc. v RBS Citizens, N.A., 14 F.Supp.3d 191 (quoting Roni LLC, 939

N.Y.S.2d 746); EBC I, Inc. v Goldman, Sachs & Co., 799 N.Y.S.2d 170. As White Plains has stymied all discovery efforts, White Plains cannot demonstrate that a fiduciary relationship does not exist.

2. White Plains Owes HBL Imputed Interest

When HBL provided White Plains with capital via the Term Sheet, it created a short-term loan to be repaid via the purchase and delivery of FF&E and rent credits. As White Plains has never delivered the FF&E or provided the necessary rent credits, HBL is entitled to imputed interest. Gregorio v Gregorio, 234 AD2d 512, 651 N.Y.S.2d 599. Jozefovic aff., ¶ 26.

3. White Plains Breached the Development Agreement and Amended Lease

As discussed supra, White Plains was obligated to deliver the Facility on time, on budget, and with the proper financing in place. White Plains did none of these things, and has continued to breach the terms of the Amended Lease by refusing to return or account for millions in payments. White Plains' reliance on assumptions and boilerplate waiver clauses do not prevent HBL from bringing a cause of action for breach of contract. See Mazzurco v PII Sam, LLC, 153 AD3d 1341, 63 N.Y.S.3d 59. Jozefovic aff., ¶ 49-50.

4. White Plains Fraudulently Misrepresented Material Facts

The root cause is that White Plains materially misrepresented its ability to complete the Facility in order to obtain millions in payments from HBL. Channel Master Corp. v Aluminum Ltd. Sales, 176 N.Y.S.2d 259. (“[I]t is sufficient to show that the defendant knowingly uttered a falsehood intending to deprive the plaintiff of a benefit and that the plaintiff was thereby deceived and damaged.”). HBL has alleged that White Plains made multiple misrepresentations to induce HBL to enter into the Development Agreement, Term Sheet, Amended Lease, and LOI, all with the intent of extracting additional payments. Jozefovic aff., ¶ 49-50.

5. Bad Faith

The doctrine of unclean hands applies when the complaining party shows that the offending party is guilty of immoral, unconscionable conduct. White Plains has demonstrated unclean hands by appropriating and misusing HBL’s funds. See Moo Wei Wong, 293 AD2d 387.

3. HBL Was Not Required To Respond to the NTA

A. The NTA Was Improper

HBL has no obligation to respond to the NTA because it contained improper admissions. Admissions are improper if they are (1) used to compel fundamental or disputed facts; (2) used in place of other discovery devices; or (3) already answered in other responsive pleadings. 32nd Ave. LLC v Angelo Holding Corp., 134 AD3d 696, 698-99 [2d Dept 2015]; see also DeSilva by DeSilva v Rosenberg, 236 AD2d 508 [2d Dept 1997] (“A notice to admit which goes to the heart of the matters at issue is improper.”); see also Meadowbrook-Richman, Inc. v Cicchiello, 273 AD2d 6, 6 [1st Dept 2000].

Here, the NTA runs afoul of all three concerns. White Plains is using the NTA in an attempt to compel admissions concerning the fundamental facts at issue, i.e., whether HBL substantially complied with the terms of the Amended Lease, and why. White Plains has served the NTA, while refusing to participate in document discovery or depositions. Finally, HBL has already filed an Answer responding to the exact same issues and claims in the NTA.

B. In the Alternative, HBL Requests Additional Time to Respond to the NTA

To the extent the Court finds the NTA proper, HBL requests an additional two weeks to respond, as the delay is immaterial and there is no prejudice to White Plains. See Meadowbrook-Richman, Inc. v Cicchiello, 273 AD2d 6, 6-7 [1st Dept 2000].

CONCLUSION

For the foregoing reasons, Defendants and Third-Party Plaintiffs HBL SNF, LLC, Lizer Jozefovic, and Mark Neuman respectfully request that the Court (1) deny the Motion in its entirety; (2) strike the NTA as improper, or in the alternative, grant HBL additional time to respond; together with such other and further relief as this Court deems just, proper, and equitable.

AFFIDAVIT OF LIZER JOZEFOVIC

LIZER JOZEFOVIC, being duly sworn, deposes and says:

1. I respectfully submit this affidavit, based upon my personal knowledge, in support of the Order to Show Cause to nullify and invalidate the purported and commercially unreasonable auction of my Membership Interest in Waterview Acquisition I, LLC (“Waterview”) which Plaintiff White Plains Healthcare Properties I, LLC and Third-Party Defendant Howard Fensterman conducted on July 1, 2021 (the “Auction”), and to prevent any further actions to complete the sale.

2. I am seeking a preliminary order (1) invalidating and nullifying the auction held by Plaintiff and Third-Party Defendants on July 1, 2021, of my membership interest in Waterview Acquisition I, LLC; and (2) enjoining Plaintiff and Third-Party Defendants from taking any further actions to complete the sale of my membership interest in Waterview Acquisition I, LLC during the pendency of this action.

3. If the Auction is allowed to stand it will cause irreparable harm to me.

4. I am the managing member and 70.1% owner of Waterview, a 130-bed skilled nursing facility licensed by the State of New York which I have continuously operated since 2005 (the “Membership Interest”).

5. I, personally, am the holder of the nursing home license issued by the New York State Department of Health (“NYSDOH”).

6. There are currently over 100 residents in the facility.

7. I personally manage the daily operations of Waterview. I am in the facility every week and supervise the care and welfare of the residents.

8. My son, Joseph Jozefovic, has been the administrator of the facility since 2015.

9. In 2015, I refinanced Waterview with the U.S. Department of Housing and Urban Development (“HUD”).

10. There is currently a $25,000,000 HUD loan in place for the Waterview operations.

11. In addition, I borrowed $3,000,000 from Metropolitan Commercial Bank (“MCB”) to fund operations, a loan I personally guaranteed.

12. I also have a line of credit extended by Gemino in the amount of $1,400,000, which I have also personally guaranteed.

13. If my Membership Interest is auctioned off in the manner indicated by White Plains, it will cause a default on all of these loans.

14. In December 2019, I assigned the Membership Interest to MCB as part of a $3 million loan and financing arrangement to provide working capital to benefit the Project, most of which was paid in the form of rent to White Plains.

15. On December 23, 2019, I granted MCB a security interest in the Membership Interest, and MCB perfected its security interest by taking possession of the related certifications and filing a Uniform Commercial Code Financing Statement.

16. Currently, MCB has perfected its security interest in Membership Interest and has physical possession of the membership certificates. White Plains knew and approved of the loan from MCB, since the proceeds have been used to pay rent on the Facility.

17. On or about June 10, 2021, I received a purported Notification of Disposition of Collateral, dated June 9, 2020 (the “Notification”), which announced the intention to sell at “public auction” the Membership Interest.

18. A true and correct copy of the Notification is attached as Exhibit A.

19. On July 1, 2021, Plaintiff White Plains Healthcare Properties I, LLC and Third-Party Defendants CCC Equities, LLC, Project Equity Consulting, The Congress Companies, Howard Fensterman, and William Nicholson’s (collectively “White Plains” or “Plaintiffs”) conducted a purported auction of my 70.1% membership interest in Waterview.

20. I was represented at the Auction by my counsel.

21. Despite representations White Plains made to counsel and to the Court about many interested parties participating in the Auction, not one single bidder attended.

22. In addition, White Plains' representation that the Auction would generate millions in proceeds was false.

23. Instead, as reported by my counsel, White Plains made the one and only bid for the amount of $100.00.

24. As the record before the Court reveals, the Auction was commercially unreasonable for the following reasons:

a. The single bid of $100.00 does not represent 1% of the value of the Membership Interest, which is estimated to be worth at least $6 million;

b. The Auction was a sham, as no bidders attended, and no external bids were made;

c. White Plains engaged in naked self-dealing, as White Plains set the terms, conducted the Auction, and made the one and only bid of $100.00; and

d. The Auction was compromised because (i) any bidder would be taking the Membership Interest pursuant to MCB's senior interest; (ii) any bidder would need to receive approval from NYSDOH, a process which can take months or years; and (iii) the Auction occurred during active litigation, wherein Petitioners maintain counterclaims against White Plains in excess of $1.6 million.

25. As a result, not one third-party bid was made at the Auction.

26. I have spent years of my life successfully building and operating nursing homes. Although it is difficult to estimate, the Membership Interest is worth approximately $6 million.

27. I will be irrevocably harmed if the Auction is permitted to proceed, and I am divested of my managing member interest.

28. New York State and NYSDOH impose strict laws and regulations concerning the sale or transfer of nursing homes. If there is a change in ownership of a nursing home, the new owner must submit an application and provide a comprehensive Certificate of Need in order to receive written approval from NYSDOH to receive an operating license.

29. The failure to receive pre-approval from NYSDOH bars the sale of a nursing home.

30. White Plains was not in possession of my Membership Interest and cannot conduct a commercially reasonable auction.

31. Moreover, any purported auction and sale of the Membership Interest is improper as MCB maintains a prior secured interest of $3 million.

32. Although White Plains represented to the Court that the sale would generate proceeds sufficient to pay off MCB, the sale generated only $100.00.

33. Moreover, any purported auction and sale of the Membership Interest would be complicated by the fact that NYSDOH would have to first approve the licensing and authorization necessary to manage and operate Waterview, a process that can months, or even years, to complete.

34. If the results of the Auction are allowed to stand, White Plains will have seized the Membership Interest for $100.00.

35. On July 7, 2021, I sent a letter to White Plains' counsel requesting that White Plains voluntarily cancel the Auction and abandon any further attempts to sell the Membership Interest (the "July 7 Letter").

36. However, to the extent White Plains believed that the Auction was commercially reasonable and that White Plains' sole $100.00 bid accurately represented the fair market value, I provided White Plains with a check for $100.00 to redeem the Membership Interest.

37. A true and correct copy of the July 7 Letter is attached as Exhibit B.

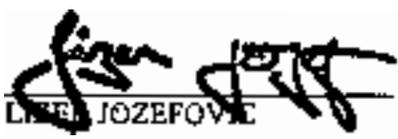

38. If the results of the Auction are allowed to stand, White Plains will jeopardize the continued operations of Waterview and my other nursing homes.

39. I will be irreparably harmed if the relief requested is not granted.

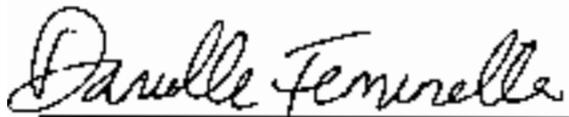

40. I seek an Order to Show Cause for a temporary restraining order and a preliminary injunction to (1) invalidate and nullify the Auction held by Plaintiff and Third-Party Defendants on July 1, 2021, of my membership interest in Waterview Acquisition I, LLC; (2) enjoin Plaintiff and Third-Party Defendants from taking any further actions to complete the sale of my membership interest in Waterview Acquisition I, LLC during the pendency of this action.

Dear Al:

The auction that occurred on July 1, 2021, which was allegedly conducted pursuant to 2017 Collateral Assignment and Pledge of Membership Interest, produced no bona fide bidders. Contrary to your clients' representations to both the trial and appellate courts, "multiple bidders" did not attend and the auction generated no real proceeds, only a token, insider bid of $100.00 from your clients. To state the obvious, the "auction" was commercially unreasonable.

Consequently, we consider the "auction" to be a nullity and intend to take appropriate action to set it aside. As we have already set forth in our papers, the attempted auction constitutes improper self-dealing and will only give rise to new claims for damages suffered by Mr. Jozefovic.

We request that you voluntarily cancel the "auction" and abandon any further attempt to transfer or sell Mr. Jozefovic's Membership Interest. We remain willing to continue our discussions to resolve the rent security account. I am available to discuss the same with you at your convenience.

Without prejudice to our position, we are forwarding Mr. Jozefovic's check in the amount of $100.00 issued to White Plains, which represents the market value your client has now established for the Membership Interest through the auction process. This sum should be applied to our client's rent security obligation. Although we do not believe any action by your client has dispossessed Mr. Jozefovic of his interest in Waterview, this payment is intended to redeem that interest as to your clients' recent actions.

As stated above, let me know if you would like to discuss a resolution of these issues without further motion practice and litigation.

Very truly yours,

I. PRELIMINARY STATEMENT

Defendants and Third-Party Plaintiffs bring an application for a temporary restraining order and a preliminary injunction to invalidate and nullify a commercially unreasonable auction and to prevent the completion of a sale conducted by Plaintiff White Plains Healthcare Properties I, LLC and Third-Party Defendant Howard Fensterman (collectively, “White Plains”) of a membership interest in a nursing home worth over $6 million for $100.00.

As the Court is aware, Defendants and Third-Party Plaintiffs Lizer Jozefovic (“Jozefovic”) and Mark Neuman own and operate a successful skilled nurse management company known as Epic Healthcare Management (collectively with Defendant and Third-Party Plaintiff HBL SNF, LLC, “Epic”). Established more than 20 years ago, Epic successfully manages six high quality skilled nursing and rehabilitation facilities including the two facilities which are the subject of this litigation: Waterview Hills Rehabilitation and Healthcare, located in Purdys, New York (“Waterview”), and Epic Rehabilitation and Nursing of White Plains.

White Plains is the developer and landlord of a single-purpose building in which Epic, as tenants, operate a separate nursing home. On August 11, 2017, White Plains and Epic entered into a collateral assignment which provided certain terms and conditions under which Epic would establish a rent security account. Epic complied with its obligations, placing $1.6 million in an account and tendering the necessary paperwork to White Plains, thereby terminating the collateral assignment. However, White Plains and Epic remain actively engaged in a dispute involving claims arising from the development of this nursing home, the leasing of the property, and the misappropriation of funds by White Plains.

On June 9, 2021, during ongoing litigation, White Plains issued a Notification of Disposition of Collateral, asserting that the collateral assignment gave it the right to sell at auction

Jozefovic’s majority ownership interest in Waterview. As Epic had performed all of its obligations pursuant to the collateral assignment and any attempted auction would cause irreparable harm, Epic sought injunctive relief from the Court.

Epic requested that the Court stay the auction because White Plains had no right to sell the membership interest. Moreover, Epic contested White Plains’ attempts to conduct an auction because the means and methods were inequitable, would inevitably fail, and/or require reversal due to the ongoing litigation between the parties. In response, White Plains claimed that the auction had to continue as scheduled because there were multiple confirmed bidders, the auction would generate millions of dollars sufficient to fund another $1.6 million rent security account and to repay a $3 million secured interest to Defendant Metropolitan Commercial Bank (“MCB”), and any delay would drastically reduce the price of Jozefovic’s membership interest.

The Court declined to issue a temporary restraining order, and on July 1, 2021, Epic’s counsel and representatives attended the auction. No bidders attended, and White Plains placed the only bid of $100.00 for the membership interest, which is worth well over $6 million.

As addressed herein, the auction must be invalidated because it was commercially unreasonable and White Plains must be prevented from taking further steps to complete the sale of Jozefovic’s membership interest.

II. STATEMENT OF FACTS

A. White Plains Attempts To Auction The Membership Interest

On June 9, 2021, White Plains issued a purported Notification of Disposition of Collateral which announced the intention to sell the “Collateral,” defined as “[a]ll rights, title and interest of Lizer Jozefovic as a member of Waterview Acquisition 1, LLC,” to the “highest qualified bidder in public” on Thursday, July 1, 2021, at 10:00 AM (the “Notification”). Jozefovic Aff., ¶ 17.

On June 22, 2021, Epic filed an order to show cause with the Court, seeking injunctive relief. At the subsequent hearing on June 30, 2021, White Plains informed the Court that the auction needed to proceed as scheduled because there were multiple confirmed bidders and the auction would generate sufficient bids to both fund the $1.6 million rent security and to repay MCB's $3 million loan. White Plains also claimed that the auction could not be postponed because any delay would result in a lower price at auction. As a result, the Court declined to enter a temporary restraining order.

On July 1, 2021, Epic sent counsel and representatives to attend the auction, which was held at the offices of White Plains' counsel (the "Auction"). Jozefovic Aff., ¶ 20. Epic confirmed that no bidders attended the Auction, and no bids were entered. Jozefovic Aff., ¶ 21. Instead, White Plains made the sole, nominal bid of $100.00. Jozefovic Aff., ¶ 23.

On July 7, 2021, Epic requested that White Plains voluntarily cancel the Auction and abandon any further attempts to sell the Membership Interest. However, to the extent White Plains believed that the Auction was commercially reasonable and that White Plains' sole $100.00 bid accurately represented the fair market value, Epic provided White Plains with a check for $100.00 to redeem the Membership Interest. Jozefovic Aff., ¶ 36.

III. LEGAL ARGUMENT

A. The Preliminary Injunction Maintains the Status Quo Pending Resolution of the Litigation

The purpose of a preliminary injunction is to preserve the status quo until a matter can be fully briefed and resolved. See, e.g., Koob v. IDS Fin. Serv., Inc., 629 N.Y.S.2d 426 (1st Dep't 1995); Residential Bd. of Managers of the Columbia Condo. v. Alden, 576 N.Y.S.2d 859 (1st Dep't 1991).

To obtain a preliminary judgment, Epic must satisfy three requirements:

- (1) A likelihood of success on the merits of the action;
- (2) The danger of irreparable injury in the absence of a preliminary injunction; and
- (3) A balance of the equities in favor of the party seeking the injunction.

See, e.g., Nobu Next Door, LLC v. Fine Arts Housing, Inc., 4 N.Y.3d 839, 840 (2005); W. T. Grant Co. v. Srogi, 52 N.Y.2d 496, 517 (1981). These factors must be weighed together and in context when determining whether to grant a preliminary injunction. See Doe v. Axelrod, 73 N.Y.2d 748, 750 (1988); see also Chernoff Diamond & Co. v. Fitzmaurice, Inc., 651 N.Y.S.2d 504, 506 (1996).

As set forth below, Epic satisfies each of these three requirements and is entitled to an injunction negating the Auction as commercially unreasonable and preventing White Plains from engaging in any further efforts to sell the Membership Interest.

B. Epic Is Likely To Succeed On The Merits

In order to obtain a preliminary injunction, the moving party is not required to demonstrate “a certainty of success,” but need only provide a prima facie showing of their right to relief. Bingham v. Struve, 591 N.Y.S.2d 156, 158 (1st Dep’t 1992); Parkmed Co. v. Pro-Life Counselling, Inc., 457 N.Y.S.2d 27, 29 (1st Dep’t 1982). The moving party establishes a likelihood of success through credible claims and arguments, regardless of whether the opposing party disputes the facts. Four Times Square Assocs., LLC v. Cigna Invs., Inc., 764 N.Y.S.2d 1, 2 (1st Dep’t 2003).

As evidenced by the fact that the Auction produced no bidders and no bids, and that White Plains made the one and only nominal bid of $100.00, Epic is likely to succeed on the merits of its claims. See also Promenade Condo. v. J.J. & P. Corp., 662 N.Y.S.2d 509, 510 (1997) (holding that an affidavit and basic documentary evidence are sufficient to grant a preliminary injunction).

1. The Auction Was Commercially Unreasonable

Epic has disputed—and continues to dispute—White Plains’ claim that Jozefovic breached the Collateral Assignment and that the Membership Interest can be sold at auction. Regardless, on July 1, 2021, White Plains proceeded with the Auction.

Pursuant to UCC § 9–610(b), an attempted sale of collateral is null and void if it was not performed in a commercially reasonable manner. Whether a specific event is commercially reasonable presents “a fact-intensive inquiry; no magic set of procedures will immunize the sale from scrutiny.” Matter of Excello Press, Inc., 890 F.2d 896, 905 (7th Cir.1989) (applying N.Y. law); see also Federal Deposit Ins. Corp. v. Forte, 144 A.D.2d 627, 629, 535 N.Y.S.2d 75 (2d Dept. 1988).

Auctions and sales are commercially unreasonable and must be invalidated if either (1) the process was "tainted by overreaching, fraud, collusion or mistake;" or (2) if “an unconscionably low sale price was obtained.” Chase Home Fin. LLC v. Diaz, 16 Misc. 3d 415 (N.Y. Sup. Ct. Suffolk County 2007). Additionally, pursuant to UCC § 9-504’s, the secured party must act “in good faith and to the parties' mutual best advantage,” or the sale will be invalidated. See, e.g., 108th Street Owners Corp. v. Overseas Commodities Ltd., 238 A.D.2d 324 (2d Dept. 1997); MTI Systems Corp. v. Hatzimanuel, 151 A.D.2d 649 (2d Dept. 1989); Federal Deposit Ins. Corp. v. Herald Square Fabrics Corp., 81 A.D.2d 168 (2d Dept. 1981). In short, the secured party must make a “good faith” effort to secure “the best obtainable price” in a “fair sale,” i.e., by attempting to obtain the “highest price” in the “best available market.” Obrecht v. Crawford, 175 Md. 385 (Md. Ct. App. 1938); see also Atlantic City Tire & Rubber Corp. v. Southwark F. & M. Co., 289 Pa. 569 (PA 1927).

The Auction was commercially unreasonable and must be nullified because (1) the final bid of $100 was unconscionably low; (2) there were no other bids or bidders; (3) White Plains engaged in blatant self-dealing; and (4) the terms and circumstances of the Auction prevented a commercially reasonable auction from occurring.

i. The Auction Price Was Unconscionably Low

UCC § 9-610(b) requires that sales of collateral be commercially reasonable and UCC § 9-627(a), Official Comment 2 specifically advises that an auction or sale which results in “a low price suggests that a court should scrutinize carefully all aspects of a disposition.”

Accordingly, courts routinely invalidate auctions or attempted sales which generate inadequate “low price” results. A “wide or marked discrepancy in disposal and sale prices is an independently adequate reason to question the commercial reasonableness of a disposition of collateral.” Federal Deposit Ins. Corp. v. Herald Square Fabrics Corp., 81 A.D.2d 168, 185 (N.Y. App. Div. 1981).

It is a “definitive rule” that sale prices of less than 10% of the collateral’s value are found to be “unconscionably low” and consistently held to be commercially unreasonable. Polish Natl. Alliance of Brooklyn v. White Eagle Hall Co., 98 A.D.2d 400 (N.Y. App. Div. 1983). Such sales that produce nominal or token bids are described as “so grossly inadequate as to shock the conscience of the court.” See Central Trust Co. Rochester v. Alcon Developers, 93 Misc. 2d 686 (N.Y. Sup. Ct. Wayne County 1978) (invalidating a $1.00 property sale); see also Chemical Bank & Trust Co. v. Adam Schumann Associates, Inc., 150 Misc. 221 (N.Y. Sup. Ct. Kings County 1934) (invalidating a foreclosure sale of $500.00 for property worth $17,100.00); see also Alben Affiliates v. Astoria Terminal, Inc., 34 Misc. 2d 246 (N.Y. Sup. Ct. Queens County 1962).

Sales that rise above the 10% threshold are still vacated if the sale price is insufficient. See Wright v. Caprarella, 205 App. Div. 559 (2d Dept. 1923) (invalidating an auction when the top bid price was 38% of market value); see also Purdy v. Wilkins, 95 Misc. 706 (N.Y. Sup. Ct. Albany County 1916) (invalidating sale for 26% of the appraised price).

Moreover, courts across the country have regularly found that auction prices up to 60% of the collateral's value may still be unconscionably low if they provide inadequate consideration or otherwise shock the conscience. See, e.g., Pleasant Hollow Homeowners Ass'n v. Sun Ye Webster, 285 S.W.3d 421 (Mo. Ct. App. 2009) (sale price of 59% of the market value was "grossly inadequate"); see also Home Beneficial Life Ins. Co. v. Blue Rock Shopping Center, Inc., 379 A.2d 1147 (New Castle County Superior Court 1977) (the standard for determining if a price is grossly inadequate is whether the "sale price represented 50% of the fair market value of the property"); Krohn v. Sweetheart Props, LTD (In re Krohn), 203 Ariz. 205 (Ariz. 2002) ("the price paid is not merely inadequate but under applicable case law 'grossly' inadequate because the price was less than 20% of fair market value").

The Membership Interest is highly valuable collateral worth over $6 million. Therefore, the Auction is null and void because White Plains' unconscionably low bid of $100.00 does not represent even 1% of the Membership Interests' value.

ii. The Auction Had No Bids and No Bidders

The absence of competitive bidding proves that an auction was not commercially reasonable. See, e.g., Cole v. Manufacturers Trust Co., 164 Misc. 741 (N.Y. Sup. Ct. Kings County 1937) (sale was commercially unreasonable because defendant sold collateral to itself without entertaining other bids); Paco Corp. v Vigliarola, 611 F. Supp. 923, 926 (EDNY 1985), affd, 835 F.2d 1429 (2d Cir 1987) ("The presence at the sale of only defendant Rosselli (who admits he has no use for the equipment) and two secured creditors creates an impression that this was not a public sale.”).

The combination of a low sale price and lack of competitive bidding is universally fatal to any claims of commercial reasonableness. By way of example, a similar auction was rejected because the secured party purchased the collateral “at highly inadequate prices because it was the only bidder present,” which further demonstrated that “the mortgagee engaged in self-dealing.” Martin Realty Co. v. Bay View Heights Land Co., 107 Misc. 140 (N.Y. Sup. Ct. Kings County 1919).

White Plains made multiple representations to Epic and the Court that the Auction could not be postponed because multiple, bona fide bidders would be in attendance. Epic’s representatives attended the Auction and confirmed that there were no bidders, and that White Plains made the one and only bid. Given the complete absence of other bidders and the fact that a competitive bidding process did not occur, the Auction was commercially unreasonable.

iii. White Plains Engaged in Naked Self-Dealing

Self-dealing is the final telltale sign that an auction or sale was commercially unreasonable, especially when coupled with a low sale price. “Marked discrepancies between the disposal and sale prices signal a need for closer scrutiny, especially where the possibilities for self-dealing are substantial.” Central Budget Corp. v. Garrett, 48 A.D.2d 825 (1975).

Courts regularly negate auctions and sales based upon concerns of self-dealing when the winning bid comes from the creditor. See Nat’l Hous. P’ship v. Mun. Capital Appreciation Partners. I, L.P., 935 A.2d 300 (D.C. 2005) (“A large discrepancy between sales price and fair market value signals a need for close scrutiny of the sales procedures, particularly where the secured creditor is also the purchaser. Disposition of the collateral at fire sale prices, when the evidence shows that the creditor made little or no effort to find a buyer, is not commercially reasonable”) (internal citations omitted).

White Plains claimed that it needed to auction the Membership Interest in order to generate the necessary funds for the $1.6 million rent security and to repay MCB’s $3 million loan. However, White Plains simply desired the Membership Interest for itself and has used the Collateral Assignment and the Auction as pretext for seizing the Membership Interest for $100.00. White Plains’ shameless self-dealing is commercially unreasonable and presents another basis for invalidating the Auction.

iv. The Terms and Circumstances of the Auction Were Commercially Unreasonable

Pursuant to UCC 9-504(3), “[e]very aspect of the disposition [of collateral] ... including the method, manner, time, place and terms must be commercially reasonable.” Courts must examine the particular method and conditions under which the sale of collateral is held to determine if it was commercially reasonable. National Bank of Delaware County, Walton v. Gregory 85 A.D.2d 839 (N.Y.S.3d 1981).

Here, every aspect of the Auction was controlled by White Plains. In the Terms of Sale for Public Auction of 71% of the Membership Interests in Waterview Acquisition I, LLC (the “Terms of Sale”) which was provided to prospective bidders, White Plains admitted that the Membership Interest could not actually be sold at the auction, but instead was first “subject to the security interest of [MCB] ... which filed a UCC-1 financing statement on December 23, 2019 with respect to the [Membership Interest],” and was also “subject to all licensing and approval requirements of the New York State Department of Health.” This admission, although accurate, prevents a commercially reasonable auction from occurring, as any prospective bidder would know that their “purchase” would be secondary to MCB’s $3 million loan.

Moreover, the process of obtaining “licensing and approval” from NYSDOH is no simple feat. NYSDOH imposes strict regulations concerning the sale and transfer of nursing homes. See N.Y. Pub. Health Law, § 2803-X. In order to obtain a change in ownership of a nursing facility, the new owner must first get written approval from NYSDOH to receive an operating license. See New York Consol. Laws Article 36, § 3611(A). The application process involves submitting a Certificate of Need and undergoing a lengthy approval process. Failure to procure approval via this process bars the sale of a nursing home. Putnam Acquisition I, LLC, v. KNH Partners, 21 Misc. 3d 1103(A) (Nassau County Supreme Court 2008) (failure to receive NYSDOH approval of their Certificate of Need application prevented a nursing home purchase from being completed). Additionally, before a nursing home can be sold, the owner must provide notification about the sale and the proposed management and operations plan to NYSDOH. See 10 NYCRR § 1001.4(o)(1).

The sale or transfer of nursing homes is further complicated by the COVID-19 pandemic, as NYSDOH continues the freeze on processing nursing applications. See <https://www.health.ny.gov/facilities/cons/>. Once this freeze is lifted and NYSDOH resumes processing new license applications, prospective purchasers will face more extensive requirements, such as the need to: (1) undergo a character and competence review; (2) provide proof of financial resources and feasibility to operate the entity; and (3) “such other matters as [the DOH] shall deem pertinent.” New York Consol. Laws Article 36, § 3605.

In short, any bona fide party interested in purchasing the Membership Interest would be well aware that White Plains’ attempts to hold a forced, private auction was commercially unreasonable and entirely improper. Any bidder who tried to win the Auction and claim the Membership Interest would be delayed, potentially for years, during which the bidder, White Plains, and Epic would need to:

1. Get written approval from NYSDOH to obtain an operating license;
2. Get special approval to operate as a Managed Long Term Care program;
3. Submit a Certificate of Need;
4. Undergo a character and competence and programmatic review;
5. Undergo an architectural and engineering review;
6. Undergo legal review;
7. Provide proof of financial resources and feasibility to operate the entity;
8. Receive a recommendation from NYSDOH staff;
9. Receive a recommendation from the Public Health and Health Planning Council Establishment and Project Review Committee; and
10. Complete any additional requirements NYSDOH “deems pertinent.”

This lengthy process is complicated, expensive, and would likely take years to complete.

Additionally, White Plains held the Auction right before the July 4th holiday weekend at the offices of their counsel. White Plains seemingly had little interest in attracting external bidders, as the Terms of Sale restricted bidding to “Qualified Bidders,” requiring “evidence satisfactory to [White Plains] in its sole and absolute discretion of the proposed bidder’s ability to make payment of the balance of the purchase price,” and requiring such “Qualified Bidders” to “deposit at least ten (10%) percent of the amount of the bid in escrow” prior to the sale. Given the aforementioned issues with actually completing the sale, these highly restrictive bidding terms would likely preclude any interested parties from attending.

C. Epic Will Suffer Irreparable Harm

Courts have long held that membership in, or ownership of, a corporation constitutes a specific asset that cannot be replaced or compensated through money alone. See, e.g., Walker & Zanger v Zanger, 245 AD2d 144, 145 (1st Dept 1997); Vanderminden v Vanderminden, 226 AD2d 1037, 1041 (3d Dept 1996); Matter of Brenner v Hart Sys., Inc., 114 AD2d 363, 366 (2d Dept 1985); Cooperstown Capital, LLC v Patton, 60 AD3d 1251, 1253 (3d Dept 2009). This principle is well settled: irreparable harm will occur and injunctive relief is necessary when the control or management of a closely held corporation is threatened. See, e.g., Casita, LP v Maplewood Equity Partners (Offshore) Ltd., 17 Misc 3d 1137(A) (Sup Ct 2007) (“[The] loss of some or all of its investment...by reason of a forced sale...would constitute irreparable injury.”); Yemini v Goldberg, 60 AD3d 935, 937 (2d Dept 2009) (“[B]ecause control and management...were at stake, money damages were not sufficient.”); Matter of Madelone v Whitten, 18 Misc 3d 1131(A) (Sup Ct 2008) (“The Court concludes that this contemplated shift in the governance and control...constitutes irreparable harm, particularly where the provisional relief sought by petitioner is to maintain the status quo”); Louis Foodservice Corp. v Konstantinos Vouyiouklis, 2002 NY Slip Op 50448(U), 10 (Sup Ct Aug. 26, 2002) (“[A]n opportunity for Epic to shift the balance of power and assume management and control of the corporation, may properly be viewed as irreparable injury”).

Jozefovic is the majority shareholder of Waterview, a closely held corporation, through his ownership of the Membership Interest. Jozefovic has spent years of his life building and operating Waterview, which represents the accumulation of Jozefovic’s efforts, labor, and business acumen. As Waterview is a closely held corporation, the Membership Interest cannot be replaced nor can Jozefovic be compensated for the loss. Therefore, if the Auction is allowed to stand and White Plains is permitted to continue with the sale of the Membership Interest, Epic will be irreparably harmed. See Aetna Ins. Co. v Capasso, 75 NY2d 860, 862 (1990); see also Grand Manor Health Related Facility, Inc. v Hamilton Equities, Inc., 85 AD3d 695 (1st Dept 2011) (“Without the injunction, plaintiff, which operates a residential health care facility, would be at risk of losing its valuable leasehold and incurring significant permanent damage to more than 30 years of hard-earned goodwill.”).

D. The Balance Of Equities Favors Epic

The final requirement involves a balancing of equities. Courts must grant a preliminary injunction if the damage from denying the preliminary injunction would cause substantially greater harm to the moving party if they were ultimately proved right in the action than the harm that would be caused to the nonmoving party by the granting of the preliminary injunction. Kurtz v Zion, 61 AD2d 778, 778 (1st Dept 1978). Courts must give greater deference to actual, concrete harm, whereas theoretical concerns are weighted less. See, e.g., Louis Foodservice Corp., 2002 NY Slip Op at 10.

The known, immediate harm that Epic will suffer far outweighs the minor inconvenience to White Plains. Epic spent years growing and nurturing a closely-held business, whereas White Plains rushed into a sham auction that failed to attract any bidders. Epic is in danger of losing the Membership Interest, worth well over $6 million, whereas the nullification White Plains’ nominal bid of $100.00 is entirely inconsequential and harmless. Given the complete failure of the Auction due to obtain any bidders or bids, White Plains cannot demonstrate any conceivable harm.

Moreover, as the Auction was commercially unreasonable, White Plains has placed itself in substantial jeopardy. Pursuant to UCC § 9–625(b), “a person is liable for damages in the amount of any loss caused by a failure to comply with this article. Loss caused by a failure to comply may include loss resulting from the debtor's inability to obtain, or increased costs of, alternative financing.” See Forthill Constr. Corp. v Blue Acquisition, LLC, 17CV5367, 2020 WL 1878192, at *4 [SDNY Jan. 28, 2020], report and recommendation adopted, 17CV5367, 2020 WL 949256 [SDNY Feb. 27, 2020]. Additionally, pursuant to UCC §§ 9–615(d) and 626(a), the failure to conduct a commercially reasonable sale prevents the secured party from pursuing a deficiency judgment. See Assoc. Commercial Corp. v Liberty Truck Sales & Leasing, Inc., 286 AD2d 311, 312 [2d Dept 2001] (“[A] secured party seeking a deficiency judgment from the debtor after sale of the collateral bears the burden of showing that the sale was made in a ‘commercially reasonable’ manner.”); see also Coxall v Clover Commercial Corp., 4 Misc 3d 654, 663-66 [Civ Ct 2004] (holding that the failure “to comply with ... [the] commercially reasonable disposition requirements of Article 9 ... precludes it from recovering a deficiency.”). Any attempt to uphold the Auction and proceed with the sale of the $6 million Membership Interest for $100.00 will allow Epic to bring claims against White Plains for all resulting damages, and will also prevent White Plains from collecting any subsequent funds for the Rent Security, which was the purported reason for the Auction.

E. The Court Should Grant Epic A Temporary Restraining Order Pending The Determination Of The Preliminary Injunction

CPLR § 6301 states, in relevant part, that

“[a] temporary restraining order may be granted pending a hearing for a preliminary injunction where it appears that immediate and irreparable injury, loss or damage will result unless the defendant is restrained before the hearing can be had.”

Irreparable injury is defined as an injury for which monetary damages are insufficient. James v. Gottlieb, 445 N.Y.S.2d 719, 719 (1981). Additionally, the moving party must demonstrate that the harm is specific and imminent. In short, the moving party is required to provide a showing that the requested temporary relief is needed to protect the status quo, as the threatened action will complicate, diminish, or moot the desired final outcome.

As discussed above, the Auction was a sham, attracting no bids or bidders. Instead, White Plains made the sole bid of $100.00 for collateral worth over $6 million. This farcical bid is commercially unreasonable and, for the reasons discussed supra, poses significant risks of irreparable injuries, losses, and damages, unless it is immediately nullified and White Plains is prevented from taking further steps to complete the sale. Therefore, the Court should grant a temporary restraining order pending a hearing and determination of the preliminary injunction motion.

IV. CONCLUSION

For the foregoing reasons, Epic and Defendants and Third-Party Plaintiffs HBL SNF, LLC, Lizer Jozefovic, and Mark Neuman respectfully request that the Court grant the Order to Show Cause for a preliminary injunction and a temporary restraining order to (1) Invalidate and nullify the commercially unreasonable auction held by White Plains Healthcare Properties I, LLC and Howard Fensterman on July 1, 2021; and (2) Enjoin White Plains Healthcare Properties I, LLC and Howard Fensterman from taking any further actions to complete the auction and sell Jozefovic’s $6 million membership interest in Waterview Acquisition I, LLC to White Plains Healthcare Properties I, LLC for $100.00; together with such other and further relief as this Court deems just, proper and equitable.

Now and for their counterclaims against plaintiff and third-party complaint against third-party defendants, Defendants, upon information and belief, allege the following: <sup>1</sup>

1. CCC Equities, LLC is a limited liability company duly organized and existing under the laws of the State of New York with an address and place of business at 3 Dakota Drive, Suite 300, Lake Success, New York 11042.

2. Project Equity Consulting is a limited liability company duly organized and existing under the laws of the State of New York with an address and place of business at 3 Dakota Drive, Suite 300, Lake Success, New York 11042.

3. The Congress Companies is a corporation duly organized and existing under the laws of the State of Massachusetts with an address and place of business at 2 Bourbon Street, West Peabody Executive Center, Peabody, Massachusetts 01960 and regularly conducts business within the State of New York.

4. Howard Fensterman is an individual residing at 4 Pond Lane, Sands Point, New York 11050 with a business address and place of business at Abrams, Fensterman, Fensterman, Eisman, Formato, Ferrara, Wolf & Carone, LLP, 3 Dakota Drive, Suite 300, Lake Success, New York 11042.

5. Through the period complained of herein, Fensterman acted as both a principal in the transaction and legal counsel to certain parties including the defendant Lizer Jozefovic.

6. William Nicholson is an individual residing at 12 Long Meadow Drive, Ipswich, Massachusetts 01938 with a business address and place of business at 2 Bourbon Street, West Peabody Executive Center, Suite 200, Peabody, Massachusetts 01960.

7. This case involves the development of a new state-of-the-art 160-bed skilled nursing facility on Church Street in White Plains, New York (the “Facility.”)

8. The Facility was proposed by the defendant, HBL SNF, LLC (“HBL”), and its principals Lizer Jozefovic and Mark Newman (the “Jozefovic Team”) to the New York State Department of Health (“NYSDOH”) in August 2009.

9. The Facility is dedicated to providing specialized services to “difficult to place patients,” including but not limited to, patients who exhibit psychiatric behaviors, patients who are undocumented, patients with developmental and physical disabilities, and patients who have no means of financial support and require charity care.

10. The Facility was intentionally located in White Plains to service high-density minority and high-density poverty populations as compared to surrounding regions.

11. In order to obtain a Certificate of Need from NYSDOH, the Jozefovic Team acquired skilled nursing bed licenses from other area nursing facilities including Hebrew Hospital Home of Westchester, Bethel Nursing Home, and Taylor Care Center.

12. After full review of the Jozefovic Team’s application, NYSDOH determined that the Jozefovic Team was a successful operator of nursing facilities that are authorized to care for the elderly and individuals with long-term physical care needs and has an established history of achieving high occupancy at the facilities it operated.

13. NYSDOH further determined that the Facility was unique and necessary as it provided care to patients not accepted by other facilities because of their special needs.

14. At the time the Jozefovic Team proposed the Facility, the Plaintiff White Plains Healthcare Properties I, LLC (“WPHP”) and the third-party defendants Howard Fensterman (“Fensterman”), William Nicholson (“Nicholson”), and their companies CCC Equities LLC (“CCCE”), Project Equity Construction (“PEC”), and The Congress Companies (“Congress”), approached the Jozefovic Team and proposed that they act as developers for the new Facility.

15. Led by third-party defendant Fensterman, these parties represented that they were capable of performing all aspects of development of the Facility including construction and financing (hereafter “the Project.”)

16. In fact, the Project costs for the Facility presented to NYSDOH by the Jozefovic Team were costs calculated and submitted by Fensterman and Nicholson.

17. Importantly, these costs established a total Project cost of $56, 631,759.

18. The Project costs for the Facility were itemized by Fensterman and Nicholson as follows:

Land acquisition	$ 4,528,333
New construction	$37,282,722
Design Contingency	$ 1,864,136
Construction Contingency	$ 1,864,136
Architect/Engineering Fees	$ 2,982,618
Construction Manager Fees	$ 745,654
Other Fees (Consultant)	$ 750,000
Movable Equipment	$ 1,480,000
Financing Costs	$ 2,112,000
Interim Interest Expense	$ 2,710,400
CON Application Fee	$ 2,000
CON Processing Fee	$ 309,760
Total Project Cost	$56,631,759

19. Many of these costs were to be paid to Fensterman and Nicholson directly, as well as Fensterman’s law firm, and other costs to their entities as fees, interest costs, and other Project expenses.

20. In addition, Fensterman and Nicholson represented that they could arrange for 100% of the Project financing.

21. More specifically, Fensterman and Nicholson specifically represented and agreed in writing that they could secure a HUD insured mortgage in the amount of $42,240,000 with an interest rate of 5.5% and a term of thirty (30) years.

22. A description of this mortgage was included in the projected Medicaid Reimbursement submitted to NYSDOH as part of the Project feasibility forecast.

23. Furthermore, Fensterman represented that he could provide the necessary project equity in the amount of $9,863,246 through his company CCC Equities, LLC.

24. The Jozefovic Team presented this financing arrangement to NYSDOH in support of its request for approval of the Facility and these costs became part of NYSDOH's Project approval.

25. Given that Fensterman and Nicholson agreed to develop, finance, and own the Project, the Jozefovic Team agreed to enter into a Lease Agreement to occupy and operate the Facility.

26. To accomplish this, Fensterman and Nicholson proposed that their company White Plains Healthcare Properties I, LLC become the landlord for the operating company owned by the Jozefovic Team known as HBL.

27. The Lease was to be for a twenty (20) year term.

28. The rent was to be calculated as an amount equal to the debt service of the HUD insured mortgage to be obtained by Fensterman and Nicholson plus a return of cash equity to WPHP on the account of the equity contributions through CCCE.

29. The annual rent proposed by Fensterman and Nicholson and presented to NYSDOH equaled $4,318,000 annually or $360,000 per month.

30. The amount of annual rent as calculated above was eligible for reimbursement to HBL through the NYSDOH.

31. The Project as proposed to the NYSDOH was to be completed in approximately twenty (20) months.

32. The NYSDOH gave approval for the Project on the terms described above in October 2012.

33. Throughout the NYSDOH application process, the Jozefovic Team relied upon representations made by Fensterman and Nicholson.

34. However, shortly after receiving approval from NYSDOH, the Jozefovic Team learned that Fensterman and Nicholson did not have the capital necessary to commence or complete the Project as presented.

35. As a result of this lack of capital the Project was delayed for years.

36. In an attempt to overcome this lack of capital, on November 15, 2015, HBL entered into a Development Agreement with White Plains Healthcare Properties I, LLC (the “Development Agreement.”)

37. On the same date, HBL entered into a Lease with White Plains Healthcare Properties I, LLC (the “Lease”) for the Facility in order to enable WPHP to obtain its Project financing.

38. The Development Agreement and Lease are essential parts of the same transaction and are constitute integrated agreements.

39. Pursuant to the Development Agreement, the Project was to be “turn-key” meaning that the plaintiff and third-party defendants would deliver a fully constructed facility authorized to operate as a skilled nursing facility with permanent financing in place in accordance with the approval granted by NYSDOH.

40. However, because Fensterman and Nicholson lacked sufficient capital to complete the Project on a turn-key basis, they induced the Jozefovic Team to withdraw its equity from another nursing facility which it owned and operated known as Waterview Nursing Home and to contribute that equity to the Project so that the Project could move forward in 2016.

41. In particular, the Jozefovic Team made the following capital contributions to the Project as memorialized in a Term Sheet dated November 20, 2015:

- a) $2,200,000 paid to WPHP to be used by Congress for pre-development costs;
- b) $197,072 to CCC Equities, LLC to be used in the discretion of Fensterman;

c) $1,595,368.32 into a control account in the name of HBL SNF.

42. These capital contributions were not made as part of a conventional business relationship or an arms-length transaction. Instead, the Jozefovic Team made these capital contributions in reasonable reliance on Fensterman, Nicholson, Congress, and CCCE's representations that they were acting in a special capacity to protect and advance the Jozefovic Team's interests. The relationship had developed into a joint venture and a special relationship.

43. The Jozefovic Team would not have made these capital contributions but for Fensterman, Nicholson, Congress, and CCCE's representations.

44. Yet, despite repeated requests since 2015, Fensterman, Nicholson, Congress, and CCCE have failed or refused to provide an accounting of the use of the predevelopment and discretionary funds paid to them.

45. In consideration for the $2,200,000 contribution to WPHP, WPHP agreed that these funds constituted a loan to WPHP to be repaid to HBL.

46. No provision was made for the payment of interest on the loan notwithstanding that WPHP had the use of such funds since 2015.

47. WPHP agreed to repay the principal amount of the loan by purchasing the furniture, fixtures, and equipment (the "FF&E") in the amount of $1,500,000 for the Project and by giving HBL a future credit against Lease payments.

48. When advancing these funds to Fensterman, Nicholson, CCC Equities and Congress, the Jozefovic Team anticipated that the Facility would be delivered in September 2017.

49. The Facility was not delivered until December 2019.

50. Despite repeated requests, WPHP has never provided an accounting for purchases of the required FF&E or any documentation evidencing repayment of $1,500,000 of the loan amount to HBL.

51. In the absence of such an accounting, HBL cannot determine how much of its loan amount, if any, has been repaid and how much of the remaining loan balance should be credited to current Lease payments.

52. In addition, accrued interest on the $2,200,000 loan must be calculated from November 2015 and either paid to HBL or credited to payments due under the Lease.

53. The Development Agreement required that the Project be substantially completed within twenty-two (22) months or before September 2017.

54. However, at the time the Development Agreement was executed, the plaintiff knew that it could not deliver the completed Project by the promised time of September 2017

55. Subsequently, the plaintiff breached its obligations to HBL by failing to complete the Project until December 2019.

56. The delay in completing the Project caused HBL to lose substantial revenue.

57. In addition, by delivering the Project in December 2019, HBL encountered market conditions during its start-up phase in 2020 caused by the COVID-19 pandemic which adversely affected HBL's operations as it has nursing homes throughout the region.

58. HBL would not have encountered these adverse financial conditions but not for the delay caused by plaintiff and third-party defendants.

59. In addition to the Project being completed more than two (2) years late, plaintiff and third-party defendants delivered the Project well over budget.

60. The Development Agreement required the plaintiff to enter into a construction contract with Congress and to secure a 100% performance bond to guarantee the performance of the construction contract.

61. However, unbeknownst to HBL, Congress could not secure a performance bond.

62. Fensterman and Nicholson never disclosed to HBL or any of its principals that Congress could not obtain a bond.

63. As a result, WPHP entered into a contract without approval or consent from HBL for a creation of a joint venture agreement with a third-party contractor.

64. The joint venture, among other reasons, added substantial costs to the Project.

65. These substantial additional costs exceeded the capital expenditures approved by NYSDOH and are not reimbursable through NYSDOH.

66. Upon information and belief, Congress's inability to secure the performance bond is related to certain judgments taken against its principal Nicholson arising from claims for diversion of project funds in a skilled nursing project located in Milwaukee, Wisconsin dating back to 2015, the time when the Jozefovic Team advanced monies to Nicholson and Congress.

67. Neither Fensterman nor Nicholson disclosed these adverse proceedings to the Jozefovic Team.

68. In fact, Nicholson was adjudged to have committed conversion and civil theft in the amount of $1,903,452, and that judgement was affirmed on appeal to the Seventh Circuit Court of Appeals.

69. The Development Agreement required that plaintiff and third-party defendants deliver the Project at the costs approved by NYSDOH.

70. Only in the event that HBL authorized a change order would HBL have responsibility for any cost higher than the cost approved by the NYSDOH.

71. There were no approved change orders.

72. The approved Project cost is $57,000,000.

73. The plaintiff and third-party defendants caused the Project to exceed the approved costs by more than $5,000,000.

74. The plaintiff and third-party defendants breached their obligations to HBL under the Development Agreement by causing the Project to be over budget.

75. As a result, HBL is not eligible for reimbursement of its rent payments as originally intended - a loss of eligibility that will cause substantial harm to HBL.

76. Given these costs overruns and the loss of eligibility for reimbursement, the Lease is unenforceable.

77. As part of the “turn-key” delivery of the Project, plaintiff was obligated to provide permanent financing for the Project on the terms of the HUD insured loan submitted by plaintiff as part of the Project approved by NYSDOH.

78. The plaintiff and third-party defendants have failed to provide such permanent financing and are in breach of the Development Agreement and the Lease.

79. In connection with the permanent financing, the plaintiff and third-party defendants were required to demonstrate sufficient equity invested in the Project for HUD or any other lender of permanent financing to grant a thirty (30) year loan to the Project.

80. Plaintiff and third-party defendants have failed to demonstrate sufficient equity in the Project.

81. Upon information and belief, Fensterman procured financial contributions from individual third parties who contributed capital to CCCE to meet the equity requirement.

82. Although this capital is required to be and has, in fact, been represented by Fensterman to be in the nature of equity, upon information and belief, these contributions from individual third-parties are loans at high rates of interest which are overdue as a result of the Project delays.

83. Fensterman, CCCE, and plaintiff have caused additional financial burden to the Project and have attempted to pass along to HBL and the Jozefovic Team these higher interest costs.

84. The Project cost overruns and the higher finance costs due to the delay in delivering the Project, together with the lack of sufficient equity, have prevented the Project from securing permanent financing.

85. The plaintiff and third-party defendants have advised HBL that they have initiated this lawsuit because they are in default of their current loan agreements.

86. As of this date, plaintiff and third-party defendants have been unable to provide to the Jozefovic Team an accurate Project accounting of Project expenditures and have refused to provide information concerning the Project financing.

87. As of this date, plaintiff and third-party defendants have been unable to procure the HUD insured financing which they represented they could secure and is required by NYSDOH Project approval.

88. As of this date, the Project does not comply with the approval issued by the NYSDOH.

89. HBL and its principals reasonably relied upon WPHP, Fensterman, Nicholson, and Congress' representations that they would fulfill their obligations under the Development Agreement and Lease.

90. If HBL and its principals knew that WPHP, Fensterman, Nicholson, and Congress would substantially breach their obligations under the Development Agreement and Lease, HBL and its principals would not have entered into the Development Agreement and Lease.

91. As a result of the failure to deliver the Project on the terms approved by NYSDOH, HBL cannot be reimbursed for the cost of the Facility as intended by the Development Agreement and the Lease and HBL and its principals have suffered financial harm as a result.

92. Throughout the development process, WPHP, Fensterman, Nicholson and Congress' false representations and adverse actions to the Jozefovic Team have adversely affected the business of HBL

93. WPHP, Fensterman, Nicholson and Congress knew that these representations were false when they were made.

94. At no point have HBL or the Jozefovic Team knowingly intended to agree, in whole or in part, to release or waive WPHP, Fensterman, Nicholson, and Congress for any of their breaches and violations of the Development Agreement and the Lease.

95. Since the Facility began operations, HBL has made regular rent payments to WPHP pursuant to the terms of the Lease.

96. As of this date, HBL has made over $12 million in rental payments to WPHP.

97. HBL has made, and continues to make, these payments in compliance with its obligations under the Lease. HBL's payments do not constitute a waiver or release of HBL's claims against WPHP, CCCE, Congress, Fensterman, or Nicholson. On information and belief, WPHP does not own the property for the Facility outright, but instead received entered into a mortgage agreement with Security Benefit Life Insurance Company and Security Benefit Corporation (collectively, "Security Benefit").

98. The primary purpose of HBL's rental payments to WPHP is for WPHP to satisfy its monthly mortgage payments to Security Benefit.

99. On information and belief, WPHP failed to make required mortgage payments to Security Benefit.

100. On information and belief, Security Benefit instructed WPHP to make certain payments otherwise it would institute foreclosure proceedings, potentially jeopardizing HBL's tenancy and continued operations.

101. On information and belief, although WPHP has received substantial rental payments from HBL, WPHP has refused or failed to make necessary mortgage payments to Security Benefit.

102. On information and belief, Security Benefit has declared WPHP to be in default of its mortgage, having failed to make necessary mortgage payments, charges, interest, and other required fees.

103. On information and belief, Security Benefit has demanded WPHP to send HBL a Tenant Direction Notice, instructing HBL to make all future rental payments directly to Security Benefit.

104. To date, WPHP has not instructed HBL to make future rental payments directly to Security Benefit, but instead continues to collect HBL's monthly rental payments itself.

105. On information and belief, Security Benefit has demanded that WPHP establish a Cash Management Account and instruct HBL to deposit all future rental payments into the Cash Management Account.

106. To date, WPHP has not instructed HBL to deposit future rental payments in a Cash Management Account, but instead continues to receive HBL's monthly rental payments in its own account.

107. On information and belief, Security Benefit has brought a foreclosure action against WPHP and is threatening to foreclose on the mortgage on the property for the Facility.

108. Following months of litigation, HBL attempted to exercise its right to purchase the Facility pursuant to Section 3.8 of the Lease on September 17, 2021.

109. The Lease provides in Section 3.8 that HBL has the option to purchase the Leased Premises from WPHP for $65 million.

110. In Section 3.8, the Lease states that HBL's option begins on the latter of either the first day after the Commencement Date or 24 months from the closing of the Original Mortgage between WPHP and Security Benefit. The Lease states that this option runs until the last day of the fifteenth Lease Year of the Lease.

111. The Lease defines the Commencement Date as either the date of issuance of a permanent or temporary Certificate of Occupancy for the Facility or the date that the NYSDOH determines that the WPHP's work is sufficiently constructed to accept patients.

112. The date of issuance of certification from NYSDOH and the City of White Plains for the Facility was in October 2019. The date that NYSDOH determined that WPHP's work was sufficiently constructed to accept patients was December 2, 2019, retroactive to November 14, 2019. Both of these events took place two years before HBL gave notice of its intent to exercise its right to purchase.

113. The Original Mortgage between WPHP and Security Benefit closed on August 18, 2017. The date that marks 24 months after this date, August 18, 2019, took place two years before HBL gave notice of its intent to exercise its right to purchase.

114. The only requirement for HBL to exercise its option to purchase the Facility was to give written notice to WPHP of its intent to exercise the option and to include a proposed closing date.

115. On September 17, 2021, HBL gave WPHP written notice of its intent to exercise its option to purchase the Facility and included a proposed closing date of March 31, 2022.

116. On September 24, 2021, WPHP responded to HBL's notice, denying the validity of HBL's option and refusing to perform the provision, directly challenging rights asserted by HBL.

117. HBL will be unable to exercise its right to purchase the Facility unless WPHP recognizes the validity of the purchase option provision in the Lease.

Attn: Lizer Josefovic

TENANT LETTER OF SEPTEMBER 17, 2021.

Lizer:

We are in receipt of your letter dated September 17, 2021, which attempts to exercise a non-existent "option" to purchase the Leased Premises. It is rejected in its entirety.

Rejection of the September 17, 2021 letter:

1. The Lease was terminated due to the Tenant's defaults thereunder on January 13, 2020 at 5:00 PM. We refer you to the Landlord's counsel, Alfred Donnellan's letter of January 7, 2020, attached herewith. The Tenant has no "option" rights under the Lease, since the Lease has long been terminated.
2. As set forth in the LOI dated November 20, 2019, para 6, g) Right of First Refusal and Option to Purchase, the Tenant's right of first refusal and option to purchase under the Lease were clearly suspended, pending payment in full of certain payments under the Lease, including the Security Deposits required under the Lease (as amended by the LOI), the working capital required by Section 7.7 of the Lease and "the Tenant being in full compliance with the Lease". As you are aware, HBL never paid either the original lease Security Deposits nor the Security Deposits set forth in the LOI and never complied with the working capital requirements under Section 7.7 of the Lease. The Tenant is not currently, and was never, "in full compliance with the Lease".

Tenant's duty to Indemnify the Landlord:

1. In addition, as a result of HBL's blatant and ongoing Defaults under the Lease, (including the professional fees required to respond to this frivolous maneuver) continue to result in significant costs to the Landlord, which the Tenant is responsible to pay under Section 9.1, Tenant's indemnification, of the Lease. HBL's actions to date suggest that it is either unaware of, or in blatant disregard of this provision of the Lease. Be aware that these costs are inarguably the responsibility of the Tenant under the Lease, notwithstanding the Termination of the Lease, and must be paid forthwith.

Amounts due to the Landlord by the Tenant:

1. Due HBL's ongoing defaults, as of July 31, 2021, the Tenant is obligated under the Lease to pay to White Plains Health Care Properties the total sum of $111,420,213.50, including late and default amounts due thereunder, as set forth in the attached accounting, which was included in the Landlord's Motion for Summary Judgment.

(i) Rent and Holdover Rent:	$20,574,253.03
(ii) Real estate taxes:	$2,621.94
(iii) Municipal and utility deposits:	$35,921.44
(iv) Interest rate damages for failure to close by April 1, 2020 as required by the letter of intent,	$3,181,612.87
(v) Costs and professional fees (including certain WIP):	$1,524,000.00
(vi) Lender default and late charges,	$3,732,034.22
(vii) Accelerated rent	$82,369,770.00

2. There can be no credible argument to even remotely suggest that the Tenant is not in Default under the Lease. Accordingly, the Landlord hereby demands immediate payment of $111,420,213.50, (as of the above 7/30/21 accounting) plus further ongoing amounts as set forth under the Lease) from the Tenant HBL, and from its Guarantors Lizer Josefovic and Mark Neuman.
3. The Landlord reserves all other rights and remedies at law or in equity as against the Tenant, and against all Guarantors of the Lease, and the holders of any funds allocated or designated for Landlord's benefit.
4. Notice is hereby given that the Landlord has incurred significant losses and expects to continue to incur significant losses in connection with the Tenant's Defaults as defined the Lease and the Guarantees. Pursuant to your obligations under the Lease and Guaranty, you (HBL and its Guarantors) are hereby placed on notice that the obligations thereunder are now due, owing and continue to accrue. As a result of these obligations, you shall not transfer any assets or otherwise attempt to conceal any assets from White Plains Health Care Properties I LLC. White Plains Health Care Properties I LLC expressly reserves all rights with respect to this matter.

I. PRELIMINARY STATEMENT

Defendants and Third-Party Plaintiffs HBL SNF, LLC, Lizer Jozefovic, and Mark Neuman (collectively, “HBL” or “Defendants”) respectfully submit this Memorandum of Law and accompanying Affidavit in support of HBL’s motion for leave to amend the First Amended Verified Answer with Affirmative Defenses, Counterclaims, and Third-Party Complaint, dated May 21, 2021 [Doc. No. 96] (the “Answer”) pursuant to CPLR § 3025(b), and declaratory judgment for HBL’s right to exercise Section 3.8 of the Amended Lease pursuant to CPLR § 3001.

II. STATEMENT OF FACTS

1. White Plains Breaches the Amended Lease by Refusing To Honor the Put

On or about July 2017, HBL and Plaintiff White Plains Healthcare Properties I, LLC (“White Plains”) entered into an amended lease for a skilled nursing and rehabilitation facility (the “Facility”), which was dated as of the initial lease November 19, 2015 (the “Amended Lease”). Jozefovic Aff., ¶ 4. Pursuant to Section 3.8 of the Amended Lease (the “Put”), HBL has the right to purchase the Facility pursuant to the following conditions:

Commencing on the latter of (i) the first day after the Commencement Date and (ii) 24 months from the date of the closing of that Original Mortgage . . . Tenant shall have the option to purchase the Leased Premises from Landlord for a purchase price of $65,000,000 by giving written notice of its exercise of the Option to Purchase including a proposed closing date.

Aside from the triggering date, the Amended Lease places no other conditions precedent on HBL’s right to the exercise the Put. Jozefovic Aff., ¶ 8.

Pursuant to Section 3.1(a) of the Amended Lease, the Commencement Date occurs upon the later of “(i) the date of issuance of a permanent or temporary Certificate of Occupancy for the Facility and (ii) the date that New York State Department of Health . . . determines that the Landlord's Work is sufficiently complete as constructed . . . to accept patients.” Jozefovic Aff., ¶ 9.

On August 18, 2017, White Plains closed on the original mortgage with Security Benefit Life Insurance Company (“Security Benefit”). Jozefovic Aff., ¶ 12. In October 2019, the Facility received certification from the City of White Plains, and on December 2, 2019, New York State Department of Health issued its determination that the Facility was substantially complete. Jozefovic Aff., ¶ 10. Therefore, pursuant to Sections 3.1 and 3.8 of the Amended Lease, HBL had the right to exercise the Put on December 3, 2019. Jozefovic Aff., ¶ 13.

On September 17, 2021, HBL notified White Plains that it was exercising the Put and proposed a closing date of March 31, 2022. Jozefovic Aff., ¶ 15. On September 24, 2021, White Plains responded by claiming that HBL’s decision to exercise the Put was “rejected in its entirety.” Jozefovic Aff., ¶ 17.

III. LEGAL ARGUMENT

1. The Terms of the Put Place No Restrictions On HBL

“[I]t is well settled that in order to validly exercise an option to purchase real property, one must strictly adhere to the terms and conditions of the option agreement.” Weissman v Adler, 187 AD2d 647, 648 [2d Dept 1992]. Courts will only require tenants to be in compliance with the lease if the option specifically requires it. See, e.g., Galapo v Feinberg, 266 AD2d 150, 150-51 [1st Dept 1999] (“Plaintiff’s former lease accorded him a right to purchase the premises only on condition that he had not defaulted on any of the lease terms.”)

In contrast, courts have held that options can be exercised regardless of the tenant’s standing if the option is silent as to default. See, e.g., Cohen v Nonoo, 101 Misc 2d 1037, 1040-41 [Sup Ct 1979] (“The rent payment obligation and the option provision are independent provisions.

They could have been made dependent, but they were not. This court will not now rewrite the agreement.”); Sharper Properties Enterprises, Inc. v Hubbard Sand & Gravel, Inc., 12 AD3d 494, 495 [2d Dept 2004] (“[T]he plaintiff’s alleged default did not impair its ability to exercise the option.”).

The lack of conditions precedent in Section 3.8 of the Amended Lease are clear, especially when contrasted with Section 3.1(b) of the Amended Lease, which conditions HBL’s right of renewal on its compliance with the terms of the Amended Lease:

Provided a Lease Default has not occurred and is then continuing either at the time of the exercise of the options provided below or at the end of the Term . . . Tenant shall have the option to extend the Term of this Lease for three (3) additional periods of ten (10) years.

In short, White Plains drafted Section 3.8 of the Amended Lease so that HBL could exercise the Put, regardless of whether HBL had defaulted under the Amended Lease. Therefore, HBL has the absolute right to invoke the Put, as courts have held in similar circumstances:

“At the outset we note that the option in the lease is absolute without any conditions save the time requirements for its exercise which are not at issue here. It is well established that absent an express provision conditioning the exercise of an option to purchase on the performance of the terms of a lease, the option and the lease are deemed separate and independent of one another and a breach of the latter has no effect on the rights afforded by the former. Accordingly, plaintiff was entitled to exercise its rights under the option despite the alleged default on its part.”

Curry Rd. Ltd. v Rotterdam Realties Inc., 195 AD2d 780 [3d Dept 1993].

2. White Plains’ Recent Refusal to Recognize the Put Has Resulted in New Relevant Facts and Basis for New Counterclaim by HBL

Pursuant to CPLR § 3025(b), leave to supplement a pleading “shall be freely given.” Davis v. S. Nassau Cmty. Hosp., 26 N.Y.S.3d 231, 241 (2015). Since the filing of the Answer on May 21, 2021, White Plains has refused to allow HBL to exercise the Put. On September 17, 2021, HBL sent written notice to White Plains of its intent to exercise its option to purchase the Leased Premises, pursuant to Section 3.8 of the Lease Agreement, for the agreed upon purchase price of $65 million. On September 24, 2021, White Plains responded to HBL’s notice by denying the validity of the provision authorizing HBL’s option to purchase.

Pursuant to CPLR § 3001, White Plains refusal to honor the Put represents a “justiciable controversy” requiring judicial intervention. Chanos v. MADAC, LLC, 74 A.D.3d 1007, 1008, 903 N.Y.S.2d 506 (“[T]he supreme court may render a declaratory judgment ... as to the rights and other legal relations of the parties to a justiciable controversy...[for] stabiliz[ing] an uncertain or disputed jural relationship with respect to present or prospective obligations”).

New York courts have previously found that a declaratory judgment action to determine the validity of an option in a lease is a justiciable controversy and a valid cause of action for a declaratory judgment. Loudave Estates, Inc., v. Cross Roads Imp. Co., 26 Misc.2d 522, 524, 203 N.Y.S.2d 966 (Sup.Ct., N.Y. County, 1960). Here, White Plains’ refusal to recognize HBL’s legal right to exercise a purchase option represents this dispute, which can result in damages suffered by HBL. If HBL is blocked from exercising this right, its ability to successfully operate its nursing home facility will be thwarted resulting in damages.

IV. CONCLUSION

For the foregoing reasons, Defendants and Third-Party Plaintiffs HBL SNF, LLC, Lizer Jozefovic, and Mark Neuman respectfully request that the Court grant (1) the right to amend the Answer; and (2) declaratory judgment enforcing the Put; together with such other and further relief as this Court deems just, proper, and equitable.

1. CCC Equities, LLC is a limited liability company duly organized and existing under the laws of the State of New York with an address and place of business at 3 Dakota Drive, Suite 300, Lake Success, New York 11042.

2. Project Equity Consulting is a limited liability company duly organized and existing under the laws of the State of New York with an address and place of business at 3 Dakota Drive, Suite 300, Lake Success, New York 11042.

3. The Congress Companies is a corporation duly organized and existing under the laws of the State of Massachusetts with an address and place of business at 2 Bourbon Street, West Peabody Executive Center, Peabody, Massachusetts 01960 and regularly conducts business within the State of New York.

4. Howard Fensterman is an individual residing at 4 Pond Lane, Sands Point, New York 11050 with a business address and place of business at Abrams, Fensterman, Fensterman, Eisman, Formato, Ferrara, Wolf & Carone, LLP, 3 Dakota Drive, Suite 300, Lake Success, New York 11042.

5. Through the period complained of herein, Fensterman acted as both a principal in the transaction and legal counsel to certain parties including the defendant Lizer Jozefovic.

6. William Nicholson is an individual residing at 12 Long Meadow Drive, Ipswich, Massachusetts 01938 with a business address and place of business at 2 Bourbon Street, West Peabody Executive Center, Suite 200, Peabody, Massachusetts 01960.

7. This case involves the development of a new state-of-the-art 160-bed skilled nursing facility on Church Street in White Plains, New York (the “Facility.”)

8. The Facility was proposed by the defendant, HBL SNF, LLC (“HBL”), and its principals Lizer Jozefovic and Mark Newman (the “Jozefovic Team”) to the New York State Department of Health (“NYSDOH”) in August 2009.

9. The Facility is dedicated to providing specialized services to “difficult to place patients,” including but not limited to, patients who exhibit psychiatric behaviors, patients who are undocumented, patients with developmental and physical disabilities, and patients who have no means of financial support and require charity care.

10. The Facility was intentionally located in White Plains to service high-density minority and high-density poverty populations as compared to surrounding regions.

11. In order to obtain a Certificate of Need from NYSDOH, the Jozefovic Team acquired skilled nursing bed licenses from other area nursing facilities including Hebrew Hospital Home of Westchester, Bethel Nursing Home, and Taylor Care Center.

12. After full review of the Jozefovic Team’s application, NYSDOH determined that the Jozefovic Team was a successful operator of nursing facilities that are authorized to care for the elderly and individuals with long-term physical care needs and has an established history of achieving high occupancy at the facilities it operated.

13. NYSDOH further determined that the Facility was unique and necessary as it provided care to patients not accepted by other facilities because of their special needs.

14. At the time the Jozefovic Team proposed the Facility, the Plaintiff White Plains Healthcare Properties I, LLC (“WPHP”) and the third-party defendants Howard Fensterman (“Fensterman”), William Nicholson (“Nicholson”), and their companies CCC Equities LLC (“CCCE”), Project Equity Construction (“PEC”), and The Congress Companies (“Congress”), approached the Jozefovic Team and proposed that they act as developers for the new Facility.

15. Led by third-party defendant Fensterman, these parties represented that they were capable of performing all aspects of development of the Facility including construction and financing (hereafter “the Project.”)

16. In fact, the Project costs for the Facility presented to NYSDOH by the Jozefovic Team were costs calculated and submitted by Fensterman and Nicholson.

17. Importantly, these costs established a total Project cost of $56, 631,759.

18. The Project costs for the Facility were itemized by Fensterman and Nicholson as follows:

Land acquisition	$ 4,528,333
New construction	$37,282,722
Design Contingency	$ 1,864,136
Construction Contingency	$ 1,864,136
Architect/Engineering Fees	$ 2,982,618
Construction Manager Fees	$ 745,654
Other Fees (Consultant)	$ 750,000
Movable Equipment	$ 1,480,000
Financing Costs	$ 2,112,000
Interim Interest Expense	$ 2,710,400
CON Application Fee	$ 2,000
CON Processing Fee	$ 309,760
Total Project Cost	$56,631,759

19. Many of these costs were to be paid to Fensterman and Nicholson directly, as well as Fensterman’s law firm, and other costs to their entities as fees, interest costs, and other Project expenses.

20. In addition, Fensterman and Nicholson represented that they could arrange for 100% of the Project financing.

21. More specifically, Fensterman and Nicholson specifically represented and agreed in writing that they could secure a HUD insured mortgage in the amount of $42,240,000 with an interest rate of 5.5% and a term of thirty (30) years.

22. A description of this mortgage was included in the projected Medicaid Reimbursement submitted to NYSDOH as part of the Project feasibility forecast.

23. Furthermore, Fensterman represented that he could provide the necessary project equity in the amount of $9,863,246 through his company CCC Equities, LLC.

24. The Jozefovic Team presented this financing arrangement to NYSDOH in support of its request for approval of the Facility and these costs became part of NYSDOH's Project approval.

25. Given that Fensterman and Nicholson agreed to develop, finance, and own the Project, the Jozefovic Team agreed to enter into a Lease Agreement to occupy and operate the Facility.

26. To accomplish this, Fensterman and Nicholson proposed that their company White Plains Healthcare Properties I, LLC become the landlord for the operating company owned by the Jozefovic Team known as HBL.

27. The Lease was to be for a twenty (20) year term.

28. The rent was to be calculated as an amount equal to the debt service of the HUD insured mortgage to be obtained by Fensterman and Nicholson plus a return of cash equity to WPHP on the account of the equity contributions through CCCE.

29. The annual rent proposed by Fensterman and Nicholson and presented to NYSDOH equaled $4,318,000 annually or $360,000 per month.

30. The amount of annual rent as calculated above was eligible for reimbursement to HBL through the NYSDOH.

31. The Project as proposed to the NYSDOH was to be completed in approximately twenty (20) months.

32. The NYSDOH gave approval for the Project on the terms described above in October 2012.

33. Throughout the NYSDOH application process, the Jozefovic Team relied upon representations made by Fensterman and Nicholson.

34. However, shortly after receiving approval from NYSDOH, the Jozefovic Team learned that Fensterman and Nicholson did not have the capital necessary to commence or complete the Project as presented.

35. As a result of this lack of capital the Project was delayed for years.

36. In an attempt to overcome this lack of capital, on November 15, 2015, HBL entered into a Development Agreement with White Plains Healthcare Properties I, LLC (the “Development Agreement.”)

37. On the same date, HBL entered into a Lease with White Plains Healthcare Properties I, LLC (the “Lease”) for the Facility in order to enable WPHP to obtain its Project financing.

38. The Development Agreement and Lease are essential parts of the same transaction and are constitute integrated agreements.

39. Pursuant to the Development Agreement, the Project was to be “turn-key” meaning that the plaintiff and third-party defendants would deliver a fully constructed facility authorized to operate as a skilled nursing facility with permanent financing in place in accordance with the approval granted by NYSDOH.

40. However, because Fensterman and Nicholson lacked sufficient capital to complete the Project on a turn-key basis, they induced the Jozefovic Team to withdraw its equity from another nursing facility which it owned and operated known as Waterview Nursing Home and to contribute that equity to the Project so that the Project could move forward in 2016.

41. In particular, the Jozefovic Team made the following capital contributions to the Project as memorialized in a Term Sheet dated November 20, 2015:

- a) $2,200,000 paid to WPHP to be used by Congress for pre-development costs;
- b) $197,072 to CCC Equities, LLC to be used in the discretion of Fensterman;

c) $1,595,368.32 into a control account in the name of HBL SNF.

42. These capital contributions were not made as part of a conventional business relationship or an arms-length transaction. Instead, the Jozefovic Team made these capital contributions in reasonable reliance on Fensterman, Nicholson, Congress, and CCCE's representations that they were acting in a special capacity to protect and advance the Jozefovic Team's interests. The relationship had developed into a joint venture and a special relationship.

43. The Jozefovic Team would not have made these capital contributions but for Fensterman, Nicholson, Congress, and CCCE's representations.

44. Yet, despite repeated requests since 2015, Fensterman, Nicholson, Congress, and CCCE have failed or refused to provide an accounting of the use of the predevelopment and discretionary funds paid to them.

45. In consideration for the $2,200,000 contribution to WPHP, WPHP agreed that these funds constituted a loan to WPHP to be repaid to HBL.

46. No provision was made for the payment of interest on the loan notwithstanding that WPHP had the use of such funds since 2015.

47. WPHP agreed to repay the principal amount of the loan by purchasing the furniture, fixtures, and equipment (the "FF&E") in the amount of $1,500,000 for the Project and by giving HBL a future credit against Lease payments.

48. When advancing these funds to Fensterman, Nicholson, CCC Equities and Congress, the Jozefovic Team anticipated that the Facility would be delivered in September 2017.

49. The Facility was not delivered until December 2019.

50. Despite repeated requests, WPHP has never provided an accounting for purchases of the required FF&E or any documentation evidencing repayment of $1,500,000 of the loan amount to HBL.

51. In the absence of such an accounting, HBL cannot determine how much of its loan amount, if any, has been repaid and how much of the remaining loan balance should be credited to current Lease payments.

52. In addition, accrued interest on the $2,200,000 loan must be calculated from November 2015 and either paid to HBL or credited to payments due under the Lease.

53. The Development Agreement required that the Project be substantially completed within twenty-two (22) months or before September 2017.

54. However, at the time the Development Agreement was executed, the plaintiff knew that it could not deliver the completed Project by the promised time of September 2017

55. Subsequently, the plaintiff breached its obligations to HBL by failing to complete the Project until December 2019.

56. The delay in completing the Project caused HBL to lose substantial revenue.

57. In addition, by delivering the Project in December 2019, HBL encountered market conditions during its start-up phase in 2020 caused by the COVID-19 pandemic which adversely affected HBL's operations as it has nursing homes throughout the region.

58. HBL would not have encountered these adverse financial conditions but not for the delay caused by plaintiff and third-party defendants.

59. In addition to the Project being completed more than two (2) years late, plaintiff and third-party defendants delivered the Project well over budget.

60. The Development Agreement required the plaintiff to enter into a construction contract with Congress and to secure a 100% performance bond to guarantee the performance of the construction contract.

61. However, unbeknownst to HBL, Congress could not secure a performance bond.

62. Fensterman and Nicholson never disclosed to HBL or any of its principals that Congress could not obtain a bond.

63. As a result, WPHP entered into a contract without approval or consent from HBL for a creation of a joint venture agreement with a third-party contractor.

64. The joint venture, among other reasons, added substantial costs to the Project.

65. These substantial additional costs exceeded the capital expenditures approved by NYSDOH and are not reimbursable through NYSDOH.

66. Upon information and belief, Congress's inability to secure the performance bond is related to certain judgments taken against its principal Nicholson arising from claims for diversion of project funds in a skilled nursing project located in Milwaukee, Wisconsin dating back to 2015, the time when the Jozefovic Team advanced monies to Nicholson and Congress.

67. Neither Fensterman nor Nicholson disclosed these adverse proceedings to the Jozefovic Team.

68. In fact, Nicholson was adjudged to have committed conversion and civil theft in the amount of $1,903,452, and that judgement was affirmed on appeal to the Seventh Circuit Court of Appeals.

69. The Development Agreement required that plaintiff and third-party defendants deliver the Project at the costs approved by NYSDOH.

70. Only in the event that HBL authorized a change order would HBL have responsibility for any cost higher than the cost approved by the NYSDOH.

71. There were no approved change orders.

72. The approved Project cost is $57,000,000.

73. The plaintiff and third-party defendants caused the Project to exceed the approved costs by more than $5,000,000.

74. The plaintiff and third-party defendants breached their obligations to HBL under the Development Agreement by causing the Project to be over budget.

75. As a result, HBL is not eligible for reimbursement of its rent payments as originally intended - a loss of eligibility that will cause substantial harm to HBL.

76. Given these costs overruns and the loss of eligibility for reimbursement, the Lease is unenforceable.

77. As part of the “turn-key” delivery of the Project, plaintiff was obligated to provide permanent financing for the Project on the terms of the HUD insured loan submitted by plaintiff as part of the Project approved by NYSDOH.

78. The plaintiff and third-party defendants have failed to provide such permanent financing and are in breach of the Development Agreement and the Lease.

79. In connection with the permanent financing, the plaintiff and third-party defendants were required to demonstrate sufficient equity invested in the Project for HUD or any other lender of permanent financing to grant a thirty (30) year loan to the Project.

80. Plaintiff and third-party defendants have failed to demonstrate sufficient equity in the Project.

81. Upon information and belief, Fensterman procured financial contributions from individual third parties who contributed capital to CCCE to meet the equity requirement.

82. Although this capital is required to be and has, in fact, been represented by Fensterman to be in the nature of equity, upon information and belief, these contributions from individual third-parties are loans at high rates of interest which are overdue as a result of the Project delays.

83. Fensterman, CCCE, and plaintiff have caused additional financial burden to the Project and have attempted to pass along to HBL and the Jozefovic Team these higher interest costs.

84. The Project cost overruns and the higher finance costs due to the delay in delivering the Project, together with the lack of sufficient equity, have prevented the Project from securing permanent financing.

85. The plaintiff and third-party defendants have advised HBL that they have initiated this lawsuit because they are in default of their current loan agreements.

86. As of this date, plaintiff and third-party defendants have been unable to provide to the Jozefovic Team an accurate Project accounting of Project expenditures and have refused to provide information concerning the Project financing.

87. As of this date, plaintiff and third-party defendants have been unable to procure the HUD insured financing which they represented they could secure and is required by NYSDOH Project approval.

88. As of this date, the Project does not comply with the approval issued by the NYSDOH.

89. HBL and its principals reasonably relied upon WPHP, Fensterman, Nicholson, and Congress' representations that they would fulfill their obligations under the Development Agreement and Lease.

90. If HBL and its principals knew that WPHP, Fensterman, Nicholson, and Congress would substantially breach their obligations under the Development Agreement and Lease, HBL and its principals would not have entered into the Development Agreement and Lease.

91. As a result of the failure to deliver the Project on the terms approved by NYSDOH, HBL cannot be reimbursed for the cost of the Facility as intended by the Development Agreement and the Lease and HBL and its principals have suffered financial harm as a result.

92. Throughout the development process, WPHP, Fensterman, Nicholson and Congress' false representations and adverse actions to the Jozefovic Team have adversely affected the business of HBL

93. WPHP, Fensterman, Nicholson and Congress knew that these representations were false when they were made.

94. At no point have HBL or the Jozefovic Team knowingly intended to agree, in whole or in part, to release or waive WPHP, Fensterman, Nicholson, and Congress for any of their breaches and violations of the Development Agreement and the Lease.

95. Since the Facility began operations, HBL has made regular rent payments to WPHP pursuant to the terms of the Lease.

96. As of this date, HBL has made over $12 million in rental payments to WPHP.

97. HBL has made, and continues to make, these payments in compliance with its obligations under the Lease. HBL's payments do not constitute a waiver or release of HBL's claims against WPHP, CCCE, Congress, Fensterman, or Nicholson. On information and belief, WPHP does not own the property for the Facility outright, but instead received entered into a mortgage agreement with Security Benefit Life Insurance Company and Security Benefit Corporation (collectively, "Security Benefit").

98. The primary purpose of HBL's rental payments to WPHP is for WPHP to satisfy its monthly mortgage payments to Security Benefit.

99. On information and belief, WPHP failed to make required mortgage payments to Security Benefit.

100. On information and belief, Security Benefit instructed WPHP to make certain payments otherwise it would institute foreclosure proceedings, potentially jeopardizing HBL's tenancy and continued operations.

101. On information and belief, although WPHP has received substantial rental payments from HBL, WPHP has refused or failed to make necessary mortgage payments to Security Benefit.

102. On information and belief, Security Benefit has declared WPHP to be in default of its mortgage, having failed to make necessary mortgage payments, charges, interest, and other required fees.

103. On information and belief, Security Benefit has demanded WPHP to send HBL a Tenant Direction Notice, instructing HBL to make all future rental payments directly to Security Benefit.

104. To date, WPHP has not instructed HBL to make future rental payments directly to Security Benefit, but instead continues to collect HBL's monthly rental payments itself.

105. On information and belief, Security Benefit has demanded that WPHP establish a Cash Management Account and instruct HBL to deposit all future rental payments into the Cash Management Account.

106. To date, WPHP has not instructed HBL to deposit future rental payments in a Cash Management Account, but instead continues to receive HBL's monthly rental payments in its own account.

107. On information and belief, Security Benefit has brought a foreclosure action against WPHP and is threatening to foreclose on the mortgage on the property for the Facility.

108. Following months of litigation, HBL attempted to exercise its right to purchase the Facility pursuant to Section 3.8 of the Lease on September 17, 2021.

109. The Lease provides in Section 3.8 that HBL has the option to purchase the Leased Premises from WPHP for $65 million.

110. In Section 3.8, the Lease states that HBL's option begins on the latter of either the first day after the Commencement Date or 24 months from the closing of the Original Mortgage between WPHP and Security Benefit. The Lease states that this option runs until the last day of the fifteenth Lease Year of the Lease.

111. The Lease defines the Commencement Date as either the date of issuance of a permanent or temporary Certificate of Occupancy for the Facility or the date that the NYSDOH determines that the WPHP's work is sufficiently constructed to accept patients.

112. The date of issuance of certification from NYSDOH and the City of White Plains for the Facility was in October 2019. The date that NYSDOH determined that WPHP's work was sufficiently constructed to accept patients was December 2, 2019, retroactive to November 14, 2019. Both of these events took place two years before HBL gave notice of its intent to exercise its right to purchase.

113. The Original Mortgage between WPHP and Security Benefit closed on August 18, 2017. The date that marks 24 months after this date, August 18, 2019, took place two years before HBL gave notice of its intent to exercise its right to purchase.

114. The only requirement for HBL to exercise its option to purchase the Facility was to give written notice to WPHP of its intent to exercise the option and to include a proposed closing date.

115. On September 17, 2021, HBL gave WPHP written notice of its intent to exercise its option to purchase the Facility and included a proposed closing date of March 31, 2022.

116. On September 24, 2021, WPHP responded to HBL's notice, denying the validity of HBL's option and refusing to perform the provision, directly challenging rights asserted by HBL.

117. HBL will be unable to exercise its right to purchase the Facility unless WPHP recognizes the validity of the purchase option provision in the Lease.

AFFIDAVIT OF LIZER JOZEFOVIC IN SUPPORT OF MOTION FOR LEAVE TO AMEND AND DECLARATORY JUDGMENT

LIZER JOZEFOVIC, being duly sworn, deposes and says:

1. I respectfully submit this affidavit, based upon my personal knowledge, in support of Defendants and Third-Party Plaintiffs HBL SNF, LLC (“HBL SNF”) Lizer Jozefovic (“Jozefovic”), and Mark Neuman (“Neuman”) (collectively, “HBL” or “Defendants”) Motion for Leave to Amend and Declaratory Judgment.

2. Beginning in 2009, I began combining nursing home beds and convinced the New York State Department of Health (“NYSDOH”) to approve the construction of a 161-bed nursing home (the “Facility”).

3. Plaintiff White Plains Healthcare Properties I, LLC and Third-Party Defendants CCC Equities, LLC (“CCCE”), Project Equity Consulting, The Congress Companies (“Congress”), Howard Fensterman (“Fensterman”), and William Nicholson (collectively “White Plains”), claimed they could provide the necessary financing and construction management for the Facility, after which they would serve as HBL’s landlord.

4. On or about July 2017, I entered into an amended lease (the “Amended Lease”) with White Plains.

5. A true and correct copy of the Amended Lease is attached as Exhibit A.

6. The terms of the Amended Lease were substantially different from what I had agreed to in the original lease, as I was required to pay an additional $146,000 per month, or $1,750,000 per year, in rent.

7. Given the high cost of rent, White Plains agreed to give HBL the right to immediately purchase the Facility.

8. Pursuant to Section 3.8 of the Amended Lease (the “Put”), HBL has the right to purchase the Facility upon the later of (1) “the first day after the Commencement Date;” or (2) “24 months from the date of the closing of that Original Mortgage.”

9. Pursuant to Section 3.1(a) of the Amended Lease, the Commence Date occurs upon the later of (1) “the date of issuance of a permanent or temporary Certificate of Occupancy for the Facility;” or (2) “the date that New York State Department of Health . . . determines that the Landlord's Work is sufficiently complete as constructed . . . to accept patients.”

10. On December 2, 2019, NYSDOH notified White Plains that “the facility was found to be in substantial compliance” and was authorized to begin receiving patients.

11. Therefore, pursuant to Section 3.1 of the Amended Lease and the NYSDOH Authorization Notice, the Commencement Date occurred on December 2, 2019.

12. On August 18, 2017, White Plains and Security Benefit Life Insurance Company (“Security Benefit”) entered into a construction loan agreement (the “Loan Agreement”).

13. Therefore, pursuant to Section 3.8 of the Amended Lease, HBL had the right to exercise the Put on (1) December 3, 2019; i.e., one day after the Commencement Date; or (2) August 18, 2019; i.e., 24 months from the date of the closing of the mortgage with Security Benefit.

14. Section 3.8 of the Amended Lease does not contain any other conditions precedent regarding HBL’s right to exercise the Put.

15. On September 17, 2021, HBL notified White Plains that it was exercising the Put and proposed a closing date of March 31, 2022 (the “September 17 Letter”).

16. A true and correct copy of the September 17 Letter is attached as Exhibit B.

17. On September 24, 2021, White Plains responded by claiming that HBL’s decision to exercise the Put was “rejected in its entirety” (the “September 24 Letter”).

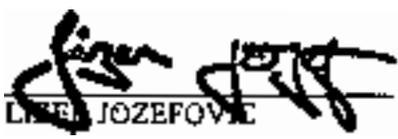

18. A true and correct copy of the September 24 Letter is attached as Exhibit C.

19. White Plains has refused, as is continuing to refuse, to honor the Put.

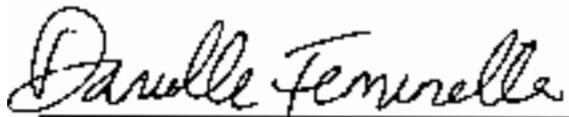

20. If White Plains refuses to honor the Put, HBL will be deprived of its contractual rights as HBL will be unable to exercise Section 3.8 of the Amended Lease and purchase the Facility.

Croton-on-Hudson, NY 10520
Attn: Lizer Josefovic

TENANT LETTER OF SEPTEMBER 17, 2021.

Lizer:

We are in receipt of your letter dated September 17, 2021, which attempts to exercise a non-existent "option" to purchase the Leased Premises. It is rejected in its entirety.

Rejection of the September 17, 2021 letter:

1. The Lease was terminated due to the Tenant's defaults thereunder on January 13, 2020 at 5:00 PM. We refer you to the Landlord's counsel, Alfred Donnellan's letter of January 7, 2020, attached herewith. The Tenant has no "option" rights under the Lease, since the Lease has long been terminated.
2. As set forth in the LOI dated November 20, 2019, para 6, g) Right of First Refusal and Option to Purchase, the Tenant's right of first refusal and option to purchase under the Lease were clearly suspended, pending payment in full of certain payments under the Lease, including the Security Deposits required under the Lease (as amended by the LOI), the working capital required by Section 7.7 of the Lease and "the Tenant being in full compliance with the Lease". As you are aware, HBL never paid either the original lease Security Deposits nor the Security Deposits set forth in the LOI and never complied with the working capital requirements under Section 7.7 of the Lease. The Tenant is not currently, and was never, "in full compliance with the Lease".

Tenant's duty to Indemnify the Landlord:

1. In addition, as a result of HBL's blatant and ongoing Defaults under the Lease, (including the professional fees required to respond to this frivolous maneuver) continue to result in significant costs to the Landlord, which the Tenant is responsible to pay under Section 9.1, Tenant's indemnification, of the Lease. HBL's actions to date suggest that it is either unaware of, or in blatant disregard of this provision of the Lease. Be aware that these costs are inarguably the responsibility of the Tenant under the Lease, notwithstanding the Termination of the Lease, and must be paid forthwith.

Amounts due to the Landlord by the Tenant:

1. Due HBL's ongoing defaults, as of July 31, 2021, the Tenant is obligated under the Lease to pay to White Plains Health Care Properties the total sum of $111,420,213.50, including late and default amounts due thereunder, as set forth in the attached accounting, which was included in the Landlord's Motion for Summary Judgment.

(i) Rent and Holdover Rent:	$20,574,253.03
(ii) Real estate taxes:	$2,621.94
(iii) Municipal and utility deposits:	$35,921.44
(iv) Interest rate damages for failure to close by April 1, 2020 as required by the letter of intent,	$3,181,612.87
(v) Costs and professional fees (including certain WIP):	$1,524,000.00
(vi) Lender default and late charges,	$3,732,034.22
(vii) Accelerated rent	$82,369,770.00

2. There can be no credible argument to even remotely suggest that the Tenant is not in Default under the Lease. Accordingly, the Landlord hereby demands immediate payment of $111,420,213.50, (as of the above 7/30/21 accounting) plus further ongoing amounts as set forth under the Lease) from the Tenant HBL, and from its Guarantors Lizer Josefovich and Mark Neuman.
3. The Landlord reserves all other rights and remedies at law or in equity as against the Tenant, and against all Guarantors of the Lease, and the holders of any funds allocated or designated for Landlord's benefit.
4. Notice is hereby given that the Landlord has incurred significant losses and expects to continue to incur significant losses in connection with the Tenant's Defaults as defined the Lease and the Guarantees. Pursuant to your obligations under the Lease and Guaranty, you (HBL and its Guarantors) are hereby placed on notice that the obligations thereunder are now due, owing and continue to accrue. As a result of these obligations, you shall not transfer any assets or otherwise attempt to conceal any assets from White Plains Health Care Properties I LLC. White Plains Health Care Properties I LLC expressly reserves all rights with respect to this matter.

Honorable Gretchen M. Walsh
Supreme Court of the State of New York
County of Westchester
111 Dr. Martin Luther King, Jr., Blvd.
White Plains, New York 10601

Dear Judge Walsh:

As you know, we represent the HBL parties in this dispute. We will appear before Your Honor for the scheduled settlement conference on Thursday, September 9th at 9:30 a.m. with our clients Mr. Josefovic, Mr. Neuman, and other executives of the company.

In anticipation of the settlement conference, I wanted to provide a report on our efforts to settle this matter in the hopes that my update will facilitate our discussions. I am enclosing a copy of the settlement proposal we tendered to plaintiff's counsel on July 23rd which addresses plaintiff's claims as follows:

1. Unpaid Real Estate Taxes. We have provided proof of payment for all property taxes through the current date, and there are no outstanding taxes due. White Plains has accepted this position.
2. Reimbursement of Security Deposits. We have offered to reimburse White Plains for any unreturned security deposits. White Plains has responded by stating that the security deposits are a minor issue which are immaterial to the resolution of this dispute.
3. The $1,600,000 Rent Security Account. We have offered to provide a letter of credit in the amount of $1.6M or, in the alternative, a cash account separate and apart from the funds in the JP Morgan account, to be escrowed as rent security. We understand that plaintiff will accept the $1.6M rent escrow account.
4. The $3.7M Security Letter of Credit. In November 2019, HBL made a $2.2M payment to White Plains. As this payment remains unallocated, we have proposed that the $2.2M be credited to this undertaking, as well as HBL's other unallocated capital contributions. White Plains has not responded to this proposal.

Honorable Gretchen M. Walsh
Supreme Court of the State of New York
County of Westchester
September 7, 2021

5. Resolution of the Waterview Collateral Assignment. Given the posting of $1.6M in rent security, we believe the issue regarding the assignment of Mr. Josefovic's membership interest in a separate nursing home is resolved, eliminating the need for further litigation involving the collateral assignment.
6. Cooperation with Security Benefit. We have proposed cooperating to secure an extension of White Plains' mortgage with Security Benefit Life Insurance Company ("Security Benefit"). Counsel for Security Benefit has agreed to such discussions, so long as both parties are represented. White Plains has refused to participate in such discussions. We note that the moratorium on evictions and foreclosures has been extended to January 15, 2022.
7. Discontinuance of all claims against Howard Fensterman. We have offered to discontinue all claims against Mr. Fensterman in his role as counsel to Mr. Josefovic and HBL. We understand White Plains has accepted this term.

As we have made—and continue to make—good faith efforts to resolve this action, HBL strongly opposes White Plains' premature motion for summary judgment [Dkt. Nos. 183-230] [Mot. Seq. #6]. White Plains does not dispute that it has received more than $4.4 million in capital contributions from HBL, yet there has been no accounting for the use or application of these invested funds. To date, there has been no discovery on this critical and potentially dispositive issue.

Moreover, pursuant to your Preliminary Conference Order of November 13, 2020 [Dkt. No. 36], the parties were required to complete discovery before bringing dispositive motions, and the Order of Reference to Mediation, dated June 3, 2021 [Dkt. No. 105], required the parties to make a good-faith effort to resolve the dispute via mediation with Frank Spano, Esq. In addition to refusing to respond to any of HBL's discovery requests, White Plains now refuses to participate in mediation as set forth in our settlement proposal.

Finally, as you know, White Plains' purported auction of Mr. Josefovic's membership interest was a complete failure as, contrary to representations made to Your Honor, it failed to attract a single bidder. Instead, White Plains is attempting to seize an asset worth millions with a token, self-dealing $100.00 bid. Given that White Plains refuses to set aside this purported auction and engage in good faith settlement discussions, HBL will proceed with the filing of its Order to Show Cause to set aside this commercially unreasonable auction.

As the moratorium has been extended to January 15, 2022, we believe that the parties should be able to resolve this matter. We look forward to a productive settlement conference on Thursday.

Respectfully yours,

MICHELMAN & ROBINSON, LLP

HBL SNF, LLC SETTLEMENT PROPOSAL

THIS CONFIDENTIAL SETTLEMENT AGREEMENT is entered into between HBL SNF, LLC (“HBL”) and White Plains Healthcare Properties I, LLC (“White Plains”) (collectively, the “Parties”) as follows:

1. The Parties shall enter into a “standstill agreement” and take no further action with respect to:
  - i. All proceedings in Westchester County Supreme Court in the civil action captioned White Plains Healthcare Properties I, LLC v. HBL SNF, LLC et al., Index No. 60278/2020; and
  - ii. Any applications or proceedings with the New York State Department of Health with respect to White Plains, Waterview, or any other facility in which Lizer Josefovic and/or Mark Neuman have any interest.
2. HBL shall provide proof of payment of all real estate taxes for the facility located at 116-120 Church Street, White Plains, New York (the “Facility”), pursuant to Section 4.2 of the Amended and Restated Operating Lease, dated November 19, 2015 (the “Amended Lease”).
3. Pursuant to Section 4.1 of the Amended Lease, HBL agrees to tender payment to White Plains in the amount of $26,725.25 to reimburse White Plains for certain utility deposits previously made for the Facility provided that:
  - i. White Plains provides HBL with proof that the funds remain on deposit with each utility company; and
  - ii. White Plains provides an assignment of such deposits to HBL in form and manner acceptable to the utility company and HBL.
4. HBL shall deliver a letter of credit in the amount of $1,600,000 to White Plains issued by Chase Bank in the form attached hereto in satisfaction of the requirements of Section 7.1(a)(iii) of the Amended Lease. The Parties agree to enter into a second amendment to the Amended Lease replacing this form of security for the security provided for in Section 7.1(a)(iii) of the Amended Lease.

5. White Plains shall execute the Intercreditor Agreement in the form attached hereto in the amount of $3,000,000.
6. HBL will remit the sum of $1,000,000 in cash within five (5) business days of closing on an AR line of credit (the "Cash Payment"), which sum shall be deposited into an escrow account to satisfy the security requirements set forth in Section 7.1(a)(ii) of the Amended Lease and treated in the manner set forth in Section 7 below.
7. Together with the payment of $2,200,000 which HBL made to White Plains in November 2019, the Cash Payment shall satisfy the requirements of Section 7.1(a)(ii) of the Amended Lease. The Parties agree to enter into a second amendment to the Amended Lease replacing this form of security for the security provided for in Section 7.1(a)(ii) of the Amended Lease.
8. White Plains agrees to amend the Amended Lease to provide for treatment of the unamortized portion of the $700,000 rent credit owed to HBL.
9. HBL agrees to execute and deliver a Tenant Estoppel Certificate for the Amended Operating Lease as further amended pursuant to this Agreement.
10. Upon satisfaction of Sections 7.1(a)(ii) and 7.1(a)(iii) of the Amended Lease as set forth in Sections 4 and 7 above, the Guaranty of Lease between Lizer Jozefovic and White Plains, dated November 19, 2015, and the Guaranty of Lease between Mark Neuman and White Plains, dated November 19, 2015 (collectively, the "Guaranty Agreements"), shall be terminated in accordance with Section 3.4 of the Guaranty Agreements.
11. Upon satisfaction of Sections 7.1(a)(ii) and 7.1(a)(iii) of the Amended Lease as set forth in Sections 4 and 7 above, the Collateral Assignment and Pledge of Membership Interest and Security Agreement, dated August 11, 2017 (the "Collateral Assignment"), shall be terminated in accordance with Section 2 of the Collateral Assignment.
12. Through its counsel, White Plains shall coordinate a meeting with counsel for Security Benefit Life Insurance Company ("Security Benefit"). This meeting shall include counsel for HBL for the purposes of resolving Security Benefit's claims, obtaining consent to amendments to Sections 4 and 7 of the Amended Lease as set forth above, and obtaining a forbearance period to allow for refinancing of the property.
13. The parties shall agree to participate in mediation with Frank Spano, Esq. to resolve any remaining issues of damages alleged by White Plains and HBL including, but not limited to:
  - i. White Plains' claims for default interest;
  - ii. White Plains' claim for attorneys' fees; and

iii. HBL’s claim for loss of income due to the shortfall in Medicaid reimbursement revenues provided that, in the event White Plains closes on project financing with a first mortgage in the amount of $42,240,000 within six (6) months of the execution of this Agreement, HBL will withdraw its claim for loss of reimbursement damages, it being recognized that increased rates of reimbursement and the resulting increase in net income is in the interest of both Parties.

In the event the Parties are unable to resolve these claims in mediation, these claims shall be the subject of further proceedings in the civil action.

14. HBL agrees to discontinue with prejudice the claims in its Complaint asserted against Howard Fensterman related to his role as counsel to Lizer Jozefovic, HBL, or any other entity in which Lizer Josefovich has an interest, namely, the 3rd, 4th, 5th and 6th causes of action.

15. All terms of the Amended Lease other than those amended hereby shall remain in full force and effect.

IN WITNESS WHEREOF, this Confidential Settlement Agreement is executed by the Parties on the last date indicated below.

Dear Justice Walsh:

This is in response to Mr. Giardino’s letter of yesterday purporting to set forth the defendants’ efforts to settle this matter. In reality, the defendants have offered nothing at all. Every “concession” they purport to make is, in fact, a reduction in HBL’s obligations under the lease.

HBL was obligated by the lease to provide $5.3 million in security in July 2019. The defendants do not dispute that it has never done that. Now, after White Plains Healthcare Properties has terminated the lease by reason of HBL’s failure to provide the required security deposit, HBL proposes to “settle” this litigation by providing $1.6 million in “a cash account . . . to be escrowed as rent security” and to provide additional security by taking a credit for the $2.2 million it paid as a non-refundable deposit under the letter of intent, as well as a credit for “other unallocated capital contributions.” To begin with, the two sums together do not equal $5.3 million. Further, the lease does not provide, and no landlord would accept, that the security deposit be held in escrow. The defendants forfeited the $2.2 million when they defaulted under the letter of intent. They are not entitled to a credit for it now. Finally, the defendants never made any capital contributions. From my discussion with Mr. Giardino, I assume he is referring to a $700,000 payment HBL made before construction. The original lease provided for a rent credit to pay that amount back with interest. When HBL renegotiated the lease in 2017, however, the rent was further reduced and the specific $700,000 credit was absorbed in that rent reduction. The defendants have never claimed otherwise until now. They are not entitled to that credit a second time.

Although I have had a number of conversations with Mr. Giardino about resolving this matter and we have had one settlement meeting with the parties, the defendants have yet to offer any basis on which it would make sense for White Plains Healthcare Properties to settle this litigation. Each of their proposed “concessions” leaves them with better lease terms than the lease terms they breached and ignores the substantial losses and risks that HBL’s default has caused to White Plains Healthcare Properties.

HBL’s failure to provide the security deposit for more than two years is the essential, and unavoidable, default in this case. The defendants admit that they have never made the required security deposit and they are not even offering to make it now. Because of that default the defendants are liable under the express terms of the lease for $20,574,253.03 in holdover rent and default-related charges and $82,369,770 in accelerated rent. These are enforceable lease terms. See Fifty States Mgt. Corp. v. Pioneer Auto Parks, Inc., 46 N.Y.2d 573 (1979); Seabring, LLC v. Elegance Restaurant Furniture Corp., 188 A.D.3d 744 (2d Dep’t 2020); White Plains Plaza Realty, LLC v. Town Sports International, LLC, 79 A.D.3d 1025 (2d Dep’t 2010). The defendants do not seem to understand that White Plains Healthcare Properties will be entitled to summary judgment for these amounts.

White Plains Healthcare Properties is willing to resolve this litigation for far less than the amounts to which it is entitled as a result of HBL’s default. But the settlement must, at a minimum, compensate White Plains Healthcare Properties for the damage it has incurred. The problem is that if the financial terms the defendants are offering are an accurate reflection of their financial capability, it seems unlikely that they will ever have sufficient funds to compensate White Plains Healthcare properties for its losses here or even satisfy its obligations under the lease obligations going forward. A more likely resolution is for HBL to pay some lesser amount in damages and surrender the lease to White Plains Healthcare Properties so it can lease the property to a tenant that can perform. That would allow White Plains Healthcare Properties to refinance its construction loan and move forward on a profitable basis.

Our clients appreciate the Court’s willingness to engage in the effort to resolve this litigation. We look forward to seeing you tomorrow morning.

Respectfully,

/s/ Alfred E. Donnellan

Re: White Plains Healthcare Properties I, LLC v. HBL SNF, LLC et al.

Dear Judge Walsh:

As agreed in our September 9th settlement conference, we have tendered the attached settlement proposal to Mr. Donnellan as counsel for White Plains. The settlement offer is for the purchase of the Leased Premises with a proposed purchase price of $75,000,000.

As we discussed in Chambers, we have requested that the Seller take six percent (6%) of the purchase price in the form of a purchase money note for forty-eight (48) months at an interest rate of 6% per annum. We are confident that we can accomplish a closing of the proposed transaction in January of 2022 before the expiration of the current moratorium on mortgage foreclosures.

We respectfully ask that Your Honor schedule a follow up settlement conference to address any issues which remain the subject of these negotiations. We have proposed to Mr. Donnellan that October 18, 2021 be set as the date for filing our answering papers to the summary judgment motion and our motion to set aside the Waterview sale. We would ask to schedule a follow up settlement conference before October 8th to eliminate the need for further litigation activities.

We thank you for your efforts in this matter.

Respectfully yours,

Westchester County Supreme Court Index No. 60278/2020

Dear Justice Walsh:

We write to request the Court's assistance is setting the briefing schedule for Plaintiff's motion for summary judgment (Motion #6), which was e-filed on August 19, 2021. Counsel for the parties have conferred to set due dates for the opposition and reply filings but have been unable to reach an agreement. Opposing counsel has proposed October 14, 2021 for Defendants' opposition and November 14, 2021 for Plaintiffs' reply. Opposing counsel has indicated that he is unable to address Defendants' opposition earlier because of other work commitments. While ordinarily our office is amenable to accommodating scheduling conflicts, Plaintiff's motion has been pending for weeks; the court held a pre-motion conference four weeks ago. Our client has engaged in settlement discussions with the express understanding that the litigation would not be delayed. Plaintiff, therefore, request that Defendants' opposition be due by October 4, 2021 with the Plaintiff's reply due October 14, 2021 making the motion returnable October 15, 2021.

Respectfully submitted,

Re: White Plains Healthcare Properties I, LLC v. HBL SNF, LLC et al.

Dear Judge Walsh:

As you know, we represent the HBL parties in this dispute. We write regarding our recent communications concerning a settlement conference with the Court and in response to the White Plains' parties letter dated September 24, 2021 [No. 234].

Your Honor has provided dates for a follow up settlement conference. Unfortunately, the religious holidays continue through September 29th making our client unavailable until September 30th. We are available and prepared to attend the conference on the 1st as the Court offered and have agreed that the parties can attend telephonically if travel to Westchester is not convenient on that date.

White Plains has not provided a date for the settlement conference and instead is attempting to accelerate the briefing schedule for the motion for its summary judgment. We advised Mr. Donnellan that (1) Mr. Giardino is involved in a matter in Los Angeles the week of October 4th and (2) that we have expended our time and resources as the Court has directed to facilitating a settlement.

We believe additional motion practice at this stage will harm settlement efforts, increase litigation costs, and waste judicial resources. The settlement offer we have tendered is in good faith and intended to bring about a total resolution of these disputes. We request the Court's assistance in mediating this proposal—without resorting to further unnecessary motion practice—by scheduling a settlement conference for Friday, October 1, 2021.

We have provided counsel with a reasonable briefing schedule should these settlement efforts fail.

Respectfully yours,

AFFIDAVIT OF LIZER JOZEFOVIC IN OPPOSITION TO MOTION FOR SUMMARY JUDGMENT AND IN SUPPORT OF CROSS-MOTION TO STRIKE

LIZER JOZEFOVIC, being duly sworn, deposes and says:

1. I respectfully submit this affidavit, based upon my personal knowledge, in opposition to Plaintiff White Plains Healthcare Properties I, LLC and Third-Party Defendants CCC Equities, LLC, Project Equity Consulting, The Congress Companies, Howard Fensterman, and William Nicholson’s (collectively “White Plains” or “Plaintiffs”) motion for summary judgment, dated August 19, 2021, and in support of Defendants and Third Party Plaintiffs HBL SNF, LLC, Lizer Jozefovic, and Mark Neuman (“Neuman”) (collectively, “HBL” or “Defendants”) cross-motion to strike White Plains' Notice to Admit, dated June 2, 2021, as improper, or in the alternative, grant HBL additional time to respond.

2. For more than two decades, I have owned and operated skilled nursing and rehabilitation facilities in New York State all of which consistently provide the highest levels of care to patients.

3. Since 2001 I have retained the law firm of Abrams, Fensterman, Fensterman, Eisman, Formato, Ferrara, Wolf & Carone, LLP ("Abrams Fensterman LLP") to serve as counsel to my businesses.

4. Abrams Fensterman LLP has served as my legal counsel in the purchase of five nursing homes, numerous refinancings, and continues to represent my business interests for collections, regulatory and corporate compliance, and other legal matters.

5. Abrams, Fensterman continues to provide these legal services despite taking an adverse position against me in this action as counsel for White Plains Healthcare Properties I, LLC.

6. Mr. Howard Fensterman ("Fensterman"), a partner at Abrams Fensterman LLP, is well-known for raising funds for healthcare transactions.

7. In or about March 2009, Westchester University Medical center offered 71 skilled nursing and 20 ventilator beds for sale pursuant to an agreement with and with the approval of the New York State Department of Health ("NYSDOH").

8. Westchester University Medical issued a Request for Proposal for the purchase of these beds to nursing home operators in Westchester County.

9. Neuman and I were the successful bidders for the purchase through a facility we own known as Waterview Hills Rehabilitation Center.

10. Upon the award of the bid, I consulted with Fensterman about the transaction and he agreed to lend us the sum of $725,000 for the project which involved the construction of a modern skilled nursing facility. The loan included a 14% interest rate, a loan fee of 10%, or $72,500, and one year's interest payments paid into an interest reserve account.

11. Fensterman also introduced me to William Nicholson ("Nicholson") of The Congress Companies, a business associate and client of Fensterman, and recommended that Nicholson act as the developer of the new Westchester facility.

12. After reviewing the proposed project, Nicholson advised that the new facility could not be built cost-effectively with only 91 beds and that the project needed additional bed capacity to move forward.

13. At this time, I became aware of certain additional beds owned by Hebrew Hospital Home ("HHH"), and I approached HHH and reached an agreement with HHH to acquire their beds to add to the new Westchester SNF project.

14. Fensterman and Nicholson formed White Plains Healthcare Properties I for the purposes of acting as the developer of the new SNF facility.

15. As developer, White Plains committed to provide the construction, management services, and permanent financing for the "turn-key" development of the new 162 bed SNF facility, after which White Plains would own the facility and serve as HBL's landlord until HBL purchased the facility for an agreed upon option purchase price.

16. White Plains memorialized the terms of the "turn-key" development in a written application which it submitted to NYSDOH for approval.

17. That application included the following terms, among others:

- a. a total project cost of $56,631,759, including all necessary fixtures, furniture, and equipment;

- b. construction financing which, after five years, would convert to permanent $42,240,000 HUD-insured mortgage with a thirty-year term at an interest rate of 5.5%; and
- c. $ 9,863,246 in project equity to be contributed in cash by CCC Equities, a related entity formed by Fensterman.

18. On November 15, 2015, in reliance on the terms proposed by White Plains and in reliance upon White Plains' representations that it could fund the development and secure permanent financing as required by NYSDOH, HBL entered into a development agreement (the "Development Agreement") and a lease with White Plains.

19. A true and correct copy of the Development Agreement is attached as Exhibit A.

20. Under the Development Agreement, White Plains was required to deliver a "turn-key" facility:

- a. with construction completed in accordance with NYSDOH regulations and approval;
- b. to operate as a skilled nursing facility; and
- c. pursuant to Article VII(B) of the Development Agreement, White Plains would obtain "a Construction Loan or other financing acceptable to the Developer and [NYSDOH] which upon completion shall convert to permanent mortgage financing (the "Permanent Financing") in an amount which is at least 75% of the Project Cost."

21. The Development Agreement and lease required that the Facility be completed in 20 months or less, and rent be paid at $360,000 per month.

22. However, early in the project, Fensterman and Nicholson required that HBL contribute capital in order for the project to continue.

23. As memorialized in a term sheet dated November 20, 2015 (the "Term Sheet"), Neuman and I contributed capital to CCC, as follows:

- a. $2,200,000 for predevelopment costs;

- b. $197,072 for transaction costs and legal fees of Fensterman; and
  - c. $1,595,368.32 into a control rent security account.
24. A true and correct copy of the Term Sheet is attached as Exhibit B.
25. The Term Sheet was not an investment in White Plains, as neither I nor HBL received any equity interest.
26. Rather, the $2,200,000 contribution was a short-term loan to be repaid by White Plains to HBL, as follows:
- a. (1) White Plains agreed to repay $1,500,000 of the principal amount by granting HBL title to the furniture, fixtures, and equipment (the “FF&E”); and
  - b. (2) by giving HBL a future credit against rent payments of $700,000.
27. Additionally, the $1,595,368 for the rent security account (the “RSA”) was to be segregated in an account at Chase Bank for the purpose of future rent security.
28. Despite HBL’s capital contribution to the project, White Plains failed to complete the Facility on schedule.
29. On April 18, 2016, NYSDOH notified White Plains that it considered the Facility an “abandoned project,” which required White Plains to obtain a new Certificate of Need in order to proceed.
30. It was not until June 12, 2017 that White Plains finally issued the Contract for General Construction of the Facility and on July 26, 2017, NYSDOH notified White Plains that (1) White Plains was authorized to start construction by or before September 15, 2017, and (2) that the approved project cost was fixed at $56.6 million.
31. Thereafter, White Plains was unable to obtain the necessary project financing due to various credit issues associated with the development and its principals.

32. Specifically, NYSDOH approved a mortgage of $42,400,000 which was to be converted to permanent HUD long-term financing after five (5) years.

33. If, as required by Article VII(B) of the Development Agreement, White Plains had successfully obtained a construction loan which converted to permanent mortgage financing, this would have prevented further disputes.

34. White Plains was only able to secure a $38,500,000 construction loan from Security Benefit Life Insurance Company (“Security Benefit”) with a three (3) year term and a $9,800,000 mezzanine loan from Bradford Allan.

35. I advised White Plains that these terms were not what had been agreed upon or approved by NYSDOH, but White Plains proceeded with construction with this financing scheme anyway.

36. On or about July 2017, I entered into an amended lease with White Plains (the “Amended Lease”).

37. A true and correct copy of the Amended Lease is attached as Exhibit C.

38. The terms of the Amended Lease were substantially different from the lease I had originally executed and required that rent be paid in the amount of $506,096.50 per month, an increase in the original rent of $360,000 per month, a difference of $146,000 per month or $1,750,000 per year.

39. Over the term of the Amended Lease, this increased rent would result in an additional $44,000,000 in rent payments to White Plains.

40. This increase was offset by my ability to purchase the Facility for a fixed price of $65,000,000 at my option thereby eventually reducing the monthly cash outlay for the Facility.

41. On August 11, 2017, White Plains demanded that I enter into a collateral assignment (the “Collateral Assignment”). The purpose of the Collateral Assignment was to add Fensterman as a “signatory” to the $1.6 million RSA to satisfy the security deposit requirements under the Amended Lease, after which the Collateral Assignment would automatically self-terminate.

42. A true and correct copy of the Collateral Assignment is attached as Exhibit D.

43. On August 17, 2017, my counsel delivered the executed certification statements for Fensterman to assume signatory authority over the RSA, satisfying any and all obligations I had under the Amended Lease and the Collateral Assignment (the “August 2017 Emails”).

44. A true and correct copy of the August 2017 Emails are attached as Exhibit E.

45. For some reason, Fensterman never transacted these documents and White Plains never communicated with me again about any issue with the RSA.

46. On August 18, 2017, I was informed that White Plains and Security Benefit had entered into a construction loan agreement (the “Loan Agreement”) and construction commenced.

47. A true and correct copy of the Loan Agreement is attached as Exhibit F.

48. On December 2, 2019, NYSDOH provided White Plains with a letter stating that “the facility was found to be in substantial compliance.” Under Section 3.1(a) of the Amended Lease, this approval triggered the Commencement Date.

49. Not only did White Plains complete the Facility more than two years late, but White Plains incurred $5 million in cost overruns above the NYSDOH-approved budget of $56.6 million.

50. I was not presented with any request at any time to approve any cost overruns or change order.

51. Furthermore, the Security Benefit construction loan was for a period of only three (3) years, not five (5), as agreed on and White Plains did not obtain permanent long-term financing for the Facility in the form of the HUD-insured loan approved by NYSDOH.

52. Although HBL had no obligation to make any rent payments prior to the Commencement Date of December 2, 2019, White Plains requested that HBL pay rent for the months of October and November 2019 to bridge project cash short falls. This additional $1 million payment has never been credited to HBL.

53. HBL began nursing home operations in December and immediately suffered setbacks due to White Plains' delay and the onset of the COVID-19 pandemic.

54. I held two conferences with White Plains where I raised my concerns about White Plains' failure to obtain the NYSDOH-approved mortgage financing and White Plains' failure to deliver the FF&E.

55. These failures caused substantial damages to HBL.

56. NYSDOH informed me that I would not receive any capital cost reimbursement because White Plains had failed to obtain the proper project financing.

57. After substantial negotiations, NYSDOH did agree to provide reimbursement payments, reduced by $35.00 per day per Medicaid patient, which represents losses of $68,000 per month and an annualized loss of $816,000

58. Additionally, despite HBL's repeated requests, White Plains has refused to convey title to the FF&E, assets which properly belong to HBL.

59. In addition, White Plains failed to provide an accounting for the use of the predevelopment and discretionary funds HBL provided and failed to credit $700,000 against HBL's rent payments.

60. In 2019, to resolve these many defaults and deficiencies, HBL attempted to purchase the facility as originally contemplated.

61. HBL entered into a letter of intent (the "LOI").

62. A true and correct copy of the LOI is attached as Exhibit G.

63. Pursuant to the LOI, HBL made a $2.2 million down payment to White Plains.

64. Despite HBL's efforts, White Plains took no further steps to complete the transaction proposed in the LOI and, importantly, never transferred title to the FF&E.

65. To date, White Plains has refused to account for or return this $2.2 million payment and has failed and refused to turn over the FF&E or return the $1.5 million provided by HBL for its purchase.

66. Although HBL has made each and every monthly Fixed Rent Payment to White Plains, White Plains defaulted on its mortgage with Security Benefit.

67. On October 16, 2019, Security Benefit issued a notice of default to White Plains for failing to establish a cash management account, as required by the Loan Agreement.

68. By October 30, 2019, White Plains was required to direct HBL to pay rent into a cash management account for Security Benefit. When this did not occur, Security Benefit issued a second notice of default to White Plains on November 5, 2019.

69. On January 7, 2020, I received a letter from Alfred Donnellan, an attorney at DelBello Donnellan Weingarten Wise & Wiederkehr LLP. The letter purported to terminate the Amended Lease (the "Notice of Default").

70. A true and correct copy of the Notice of Default is attached as Exhibit H.

71. The Notice of Default references both sections of the Amended Lease and the LOI. It asserts the right to "terminate the Lease as well as Tenant's right of possession of the Leased Premises” by January 13, 2020, as well as an acceleration of the remaining rent totaling $84,073,989.91, under Section 16.1 of the Amended Lease

72. Since the Notice of Default, White Plains has accepted monthly rent each and every month without demurrer, restrictive endorsement, or any communication claiming that rent was being accepted without prejudice to the rights of White Plains concerning the alleged defaults.

73. White Plains took no action to take possession of the leased premises despite their January 13, 2020 notice.

74. HBL has received no further communications from White Plains, Fensterman, or Nicholson which indicated that HBL was in default of the Amended Lease.

75. HBL has received no communications from White Plains, Fensterman, or Nicholson that Alfred Donnellan was their agent and that they had instructed him to terminate the Amended Lease.

76. I have always considered the Notice of Termination to be defective and unenforceable.

77. On April 16, 2020, Security Benefit issued a third notice of default, stating that White Plains was solely at fault for breaching the terms of the Loan Agreement by failing to (1) provide monthly payments of interest; and (2) establish a cash management account.

78. On May 22, 2020, Security Benefit issued a fourth notice of default to White Plains for the failure to (1) provide monthly payments of interest; (2) establish a cash management account; (3) send a Tenant Direction Notice for direct payment from HBL to Security Benefit; (4) forward the $2.2 million payment to Security Benefit, which had been received from HBL; (5) provide financial statements for White Plains; and (6) provide financial statements for each guarantor. Security Benefit makes no reference to HBL’s obligations in these letters and notices.

79. A true and correct copy of Security Benefit's notices of default to White Plains are attached as Exhibit I.

80. Although I have paid over $500,000 per month in rental payments to White Plains each and every month, pursuant to Security Benefit's complaint, White Plains has inexplicably failed to pay Security Benefit, raising troubling questions concerning what White Plains is doing with my rental payments.

81. On August 1, 2020, the Loan Agreement matured.

82. On May 1, 2021, and September 1, 2021, Security Benefit brought foreclosure actions against White Plains. These actions were voluntarily discontinued.

83. A true and correct copy of Security Benefit's foreclosure action against White Plains from September 1, 2021 is attached as Exhibit J.

84. Despite White Plains' breach of the Development Agreement, the Amended Lease, and the Loan Agreement, HBL has substantially complied with its obligations under the Amended Lease.

85. By funding and maintaining the RSA, HBL has substantially satisfied its obligation to post a security deposit under both the Amended Lease and the Collateral Assignment.

86. White Plains failed to become a signatory on the account, and White Plains has never demanded that HBL provide additional security deposits.

87. In addition, although the subject of modification, White Plains never requested delivery of the $3.7 million letter of credit, even while negotiations took place in May and June of 2020 to sign an intercreditor agreement and release HBL's accounts reasonably.

88. HBL has made consecutive Fixed Rent Payments to White Plains every month, totaling over $12.5 million. White Plains has accepted the Fixed Rent Payments without dispute.

89. A true and correct copy of HBL's Fixed Rent Payments to White Plains is attached as Exhibit K.

90. In addition to these rent payments, I subsidized losses in operations in part the purpose of the letter of credit in the amount of $14,000,000.

91. Although the Commencement Date did not occur until December 2019, HBL pre-paid two Fixed Rent Payments for October and November 2019, which have never been properly credited.

92. HBL has paid all applicable real estate taxes for the Facility, and there are no outstanding charges for real estate or other taxes.

93. A true and correct copy of the Facility's current tax records are attached as Exhibit L.

94. HBL has paid all applicable utility charges, utility deposits and municipal maintenance escrows, and there are no outstanding charges for Con Edison, or any other utility.

95. A true and correct copy of the Facility's current utility records are attached as Exhibit M.

96. HBL has maintained the necessary types and amounts of insurance for the Facility.

97. A true and correct copy of the Facility's certificates of insurance are attached as Exhibit N.

98. HBL has delivered necessary provider agreements, rate sheets, and financial and operational reporting to White Plains.

99. A true and correct copy of the Facility's provider agreements, rate sheets, and financial, and operational reporting are attached as Exhibit O.

100. As HBL is in substantial compliance with the Amended Lease and the Amended Lease has not been legally terminated, HBL has no obligation to pay holdover or accelerated rent.

101. On September 18, 2020, White Plains commenced this action against HBL.

102. On May 7, 2021, my counsel served a request for the production of documents and things to White Plains (the “Document Requests”).

103. A true and correct copy of the Document Requests are attached as Exhibit P.

104. On May 21, 2021, my counsel filed a First Amended Verified Answer with Affirmative Defenses, Counterclaims, and Third-Party Complaint (the “Answer”).

105. A true and correct copy of the Answer is attached as Exhibit Q.

106. To date, White Plains has refused to produce a single document in response to the Document Requests.

107. HBL requires White Plains to comply with the Document Requests, as documentary evidence would show that White Plains has accepted HBL’s performance under the Amended Lease.

108. HBL requires White Plains to comply with the Document Requests, as documentary evidence would show that White Plains has accepted, and continues to accept, HBL’s monthly rental payments without dispute.

109. HBL requires White Plains to comply with the Document Requests, as documentary evidence would show that White Plains’ dispute with Security Benefit does not involve HBL.

110. To date, no depositions have occurred.

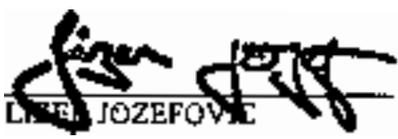

111. HBL must depose Fensterman and Nicholson to provide a full and complete record of why White Plains failed to transact the documents for the RSA.

112. HBL must depose Fensterman and Nicholson to account for the $2,200,000 payment HBL provided to White Plains pursuant to the Term Sheet.

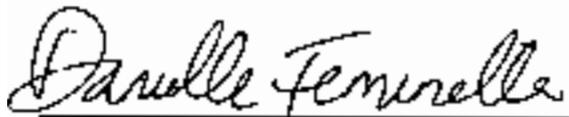

113. HBL must depose Fensterman and Nicholson to account for the $2,200,000 payment HBL provided to White Plains pursuant to the LOI.

USE OF PROCEEDS FROM REFINANCE OF WATERVIEW AND SALEM AND
CCC EQUITIES PAYOFFS

This Term Sheet is intended to clarify the pertinent information shared at the meeting of 04/22/2015, attended by Howard Fensterman, as Manager of CCC Equities I, LLC (“CCC”), William Nicholson as Manager of White Plain Healthcare Properties I, LLC (“WPHCP”), Lizer Jozefovic as Manager of HBL/SNF, LLC (“HBL/SNF”) the Tenant, and Mark Zafrin as counsel to HBL/SNF, and to further outline the action items required in order to break ground in the Spring of 2016.

1) ASSIGNMENT OF CCC EQUITIES MORTGAGES:

The assignment and payoff is not to be construed as a reduction of the equity holdings of CCC in WPHCP, but a “release” of the loans for the purposes of the proceeds being used to fund HBL/SNF and the project.
- b) Disbursement of Proceeds: The proceeds from the CCC Mortgage payoff shall be paid to Madison Title Agency, LLC to be further disbursed as follows:
  - i) $2,200,000.00 to an account in the name of WPHCP designated by Congress Construction Company to be used for the related pre-development costs of the project , as set for in Paragraph 3 of the “Partners Term Sheet” dated May 26, 2015, as further provided below.

Subsequent to such a closing with Lancaster Pollard (or equivalent), any withdrawals or disbursements from the Control Account shall be subject to any restrictions or limitations as determined by Lancaster Pollard (or equivalent). The funds in the Control Account may be invested in instruments of not greater risk than 90 day treasury notes and not to be further disbursed until (a) the closing of the Lancaster Pollard loan and/or (b) a further agreement between HBL/SNF and WPHCP.

c) Guarantees: Simultaneously with the assignment of the Mokray notes and mortgages and the satisfaction of the payoff letter, Lizer Jozefovic and William Nicholson shall jointly and severally issue a guaranty in favor of WPHCP, pursuant to which they shall guarantee any deficiency between the amount of CCC's investment in WPHCP and the proceeds realized from the collateral (Project, Beds, Entitlements, Land, Plans, Control Account, Etc.,) in event the project's assets needs to be sold because Lancaster Pollard (or equivalent) does not provide construction funding and/or Mezzanine financing or as a result of any breach of HBL/SNF's or Lizer Jozefovic's obligations.

Dear Mr. Nicholson:

Reference is made to the Note and to the Loan Agreement dated August 18, 2017 by and between Borrower and Lender (the "Loan Agreement").

Borrower executed and delivered the Note to Lender. The Note evidences the obligation of Borrower to pay the Loan, including without limitation, the principal amount of the Note and all interest which accrued on the Note.

Payment Default

Borrower has failed to make, or cause to be made, the monthly payment of interest due under the Note and under Section 2.12 of the Loan Agreement on May 1, 2020, which failure constitutes an Event of Default under the Loan Agreement Section 5.1 (a) (Events of Default). In accordance with the terms and conditions of the Loan Agreement, for so long as any Event of Default shall have occurred and be continuing, the outstanding principal balance of the Loan and, to the extent permitted by applicable law, overdue interest in respect of the Loan, shall each accrue interest at the Default Rate, calculated from the date such payment was due without regard to any grace or cure periods contained in the Loan Agreement. In addition, pursuant to Section 2.8 of the Loan Agreement, a late charge will be assessed. Please note that the total principal amount currently due from Borrower, together with late charges and default interest due from Borrower, are shown on Exhibit A.

Other Defaults

1. Borrower has failed to establish the Cash Management Account as required under Section 8.1 of the Loan Agreement.

Security Benefit Life Insurance Company

Attn: William A. Nicholson

2. Borrower has failed to send a Tenant Direction Notice to direct the sole tenant, HBL SNF, LLC, to pay rent directly to Lender, as required by Section 8.1 of the Loan Agreement.

3. Borrower has failed to deposit all revenue generated by the Property into the Cash Management Account as required by Section 8.1 of the Loan Agreement. Among other things, we recently learned that the Tenant may have paid Borrower approximately $2,200,000 in late 2019 or early 2020. Any such revenue should have been deposited with Lender.

4. Borrower has failed to supply the financial statements for Borrower required under Section 3.13 and Exhibit B of the Loan Agreement.

5. Borrower has failed to supply annual financial statements of each Guarantor as required under Section 3.13 and Exhibit B of the Loan Agreement.

Other Issues

We also call your attention to the following:

1. No Distributions. Section 3.27 of the Loan Agreement prohibits "any distribution" to "any owner of any direct or indirect equity interests of Borrower," with limited exceptions. Please confirm that no prohibited distributions have been made while the Loan has been outstanding.

2. No Termination of Lease. We understand Borrower may have sent a Notice of Termination to the tenant under the Operating Lease in late 2019 or early 2020. Please note that pursuant to Section 3.5 of the Loan Agreement, the Operating Lease cannot be terminated without the consent of Lender.

3. Recourse Liability. Under the Loan Agreement and the Guaranty Agreement, Borrower and each Guarantor are personally liable to Lender for the "misapplication, misappropriation or conversion by Borrower" of any "Rents" or other monetary collateral for the Loan. We also call to your attention that Borrower and each Guarantor are personally liable to Lender for certain "Losses" arising out of the "willful misconduct" of Borrower in connection with the Loan or Property.

4. Maturity Date. We remind you again of the maturity date of the Loan on August 1, 2020.

Reservation of Rights

The foregoing does not constitute a waiver of any term, provision, condition, covenant or agreement contained in any of the Loan Documents (as defined in the Loan Agreement) or any

The Mortgaged Property secures a $38.5 million loan made to Defendant White Plains Healthcare Properties I, LLC (“Borrower”). Borrower first defaulted on the loan in 2019, long before the COVID-19 pandemic and related government shutdown orders took effect, and failed to pay back all principal and outstanding interest due on the August 1, 2020 maturity date. Lender also sues the individual guarantors who promised to pay the amounts due and owing if Borrower failed to perform, and who promised to cover any deficiencies that arise after application of the proceeds from a public foreclosure auction of the Mortgaged Property.

36. Under Section 5.1(b) of the Loan Agreement, a Default occurs when any covenant, agreement of condition in the Loan Agreement or in any other Loan Document is not fully and timely performed, observed or kept by Borrower and if such failure continues unremedied for more than thirty days after notice is given to Borrower by Lender. (Loan Agreement §5.1(b).)

- (i) Borrower failed to pay accrued unpaid interest for the period beginning October 1, 2019 and ending November 1, 2019 in the amount of $159,081.07. On October 16, 2019, Lender sent a letter notifying Borrower of its Default.

On May 22, 2020, Lender sent a letter to Borrower notifying it of these Defaults.

39. On August 1, 2020, Borrower defaulted on its obligation to repay in full the entire principal balance of the Loan then unpaid and all accrued interest by the Maturity Date.

41. As of the time Lender commenced this action, Borrower had not cured any of its Defaults.

(Foreclosure of the Mortgage)

48. Lender repeats and realleges the allegations contained in paragraphs “1” through “47” as though fully set forth herein.

49. Lender is the owner and holder of the Loan Documents and is authorized to commence a foreclosure action pursuant to the Loan Documents.

50. Pursuant to Section 6.1(c) of the Mortgage, upon the occurrence and continuance of a Default or in the case that the principal of the Note becomes due and payable, whether by lapse of time or by acceleration, then and in every such case the Mortgagee (Lender) shall have the right to immediately proceed to foreclose the Mortgage lien against the property constituting the Mortgaged Property or any part thereof, in accordance with the laws of New York, including, without limitation, the provisions of Article 13 of the Real Property Actions and Proceedings Law of New York, as such provisions may be extended, renewed, modified or replaced from time to time, and may pursue any other remedy available to a commercial mortgage lender under the laws of New York, including all rights to judicial foreclosure under the laws of New York, and if authorized by the laws of the State of New York, all rights to nonjudicial foreclosure of mortgages. (Mortgage § 6.1(c).)

51. As described above, Borrower has failed to fulfill a number of its obligations under the Loan Documents, which constituted an Event of Default, including but not limited to its failure to repay the Loan in full when the balance became due on the Maturity Date of August 1, 2020.

52. By reason of the foregoing, Borrower is in Default under the Loan Documents.

53. Pursuant to Section 6.1(c) of the Mortgage, and in accordance with the other terms of the Loan Documents, based upon the failure by Borrower to pay all amounts due under the Note on its Maturity Date, Lender elects to foreclose upon the Mortgage and recover the current outstanding principal amount, that, as of September 1, 2021 is $38,500,000, plus accrued interest, fees and legal fees for a total payoff amount of $ 42,519,383.54, together with interest, late fees, and any other amounts to be added pursuant to the terms of the Loan Documents, including attorneys' fees (for which Borrower expressly agreed to be responsible, in accordance with Section 6.1(c) of the Mortgage), exclusive of any tax reserves, interest reserves, insurance reserves, or other cash reserves to be applied to the indebtedness.

54. In order to protect its security interest in the Mortgaged Property, Lender, as it is entitled to do under the Loan Documents, may be compelled to pay, during the pendency of this action, local taxes, assessments, water rates, insurance premiums, ground lease rent, and other charges affecting the Mortgaged Property, and any sums thus paid by Lender for such purposes, together with late payments due thereon, should be added to the sums otherwise due and deemed secured by the Mortgage and adjudged a lien.

55. Lender shall not be deemed to have waived, altered, released or changed the election hereinafter made by reason of any payment after the date of commencement of this action of any or all of the defaults mentioned herein, and such election shall continue and remain effective until the costs and disbursements of this action, and any and all future defaults under the Loan Documents and occurring prior to the discontinuance of this action, are fully paid.

56. Lender has complied with all the terms and provisions of the Loan Documents and, pursuant to R.P.A.P.L. 1301(2), no proceeding other than this action has been commenced to recover any part of the debt secured by the Mortgage owed to Lender.

57. Lender states further that the Mortgaged Property is not a borrower-occupied one to four family dwelling or condominium unit, nor is the Mortgaged Property a high cost or subprime home loan as defined by Sections 6-1 and 6-m of the New York Banking Law. Lender has or will comply with the notice provisions of R.P.A.PL. 1303(1)(b).

AS AND FOR A SECOND CAUSE OF ACTION
(Attorneys' Fees, Costs and Expenses)

58. Lender repeats and realleges the allegations contained in paragraphs "1" through "57" as though fully set forth herein.

59. Under the terms of the Loan Documents, Borrower agreed to pay all out-of-pocket costs and expenses of the holder of the Note which may be incurred unless Borrower is the sole prevailing party in an action to enforce or protect the rights or interests of such holder, including attorneys' fees and expenses (including the market value of services of in-house counsel), investigation costs and all court costs, whether before or after the Maturity Date defined in the Loan Agreement, or whether in connection with bankruptcy, insolvency or appeal, or whether collection is made against Borrower or any guarantor or endorser or any other Person primarily or secondarily liable. (Note § 3(c).)

60. Additionally, under Section 6.1(c) of the Mortgage, Mortgagor (Borrower) agreed to pay, in connection with any foreclosure of the lien or any action to enforce any other remedy of Mortgagee under the Security Instrument, the Note or any other Loan Document, all expenditures and expenses which may be paid or incurred by or on behalf of Mortgagee including, without limitation, attorneys' fees and disbursements, court costs, appraiser's fees, outlays for documentary and expert evidence, stenographers' chargers, publication costs, and costs of procuring all such abstracts of title, title searches and examinations, title insurance policies, and similar data and assurances with respect to title and value as Mortgagee may deem reasonably necessary either to prosecute such suit or to evidence to bidders at any sale which may be had pursuant to such decree the true condition of title to or the value of the Mortgaged Property, and the right to such fees and expenses shall be deemed to have accrued on commencement of such action and shall be enforceable whether or not such action is prosecuted to judgment. (Mortgage § 6.1(c).)

61. Lender has incurred costs and fees in connection with foreclosing the Loan, including attorneys' fees.

62. By reason of the foregoing, Borrower is liable for expenses, including reasonable attorneys' fees, arising from Lender's incurred costs in connection with the foreclosure.

AS AND FOR A THIRD CAUSE OF ACTION
(Recovery Under the Guaranty)

63. Lender repeats and realleges the allegations contained in paragraphs “1” through “62” as though fully set forth herein.

64. Pursuant to the Guaranty, the Guarantors jointly and severally, unconditionally, absolutely and irrevocably guaranteed payment (and not merely collectability) of and agreed to pay, protect, defend and save harmless Lender for, from and against, and indemnify Lender for, from and against any and all liabilities, obligations, actual losses, damages, costs and expenses (including, without limitation, reasonable attorneys’ fees), causes of action, suits, claims, demands, and judgment of any nature or description whatsoever, which may at any time be imposed upon, incurred by or awarded against Lender as a result of, among other things, misapplication, misappropriation or conversion by Borrower, Guarantor, or any Affiliate of any of them of any Rents. (Guaranty § 1(a)(vii).)

65. Borrower defaulted on the Loan Documents and Lender has incurred costs and fees in connection with foreclosing the Loan, including attorneys’ fees.

66. Upon information and belief, Borrower and/or the Guarantors have misapplied, misappropriated or converted Rents collected by them in connection with the Mortgaged Property.

67. By reason of the foregoing, the Guarantors are liable for all liabilities, obligations, actual losses, damages, costs and expenses (including, without limitation, reasonable attorneys’ fees), causes of actions, suits, claims, demands, and judgment of any nature which were incurred in connection with the enforcement of Lender’s rights, remedies or recourse under the Loan Documents due to any misapplication, misappropriation or conversion by Borrower, Guarantor, or any Affiliate of any Rents.

68. Pursuant to the Guaranty, the Guarantors also agreed that the Guaranty was an absolute, irrevocable and unconditional guaranty of payment and performance, and each party comprising Guarantor would be jointly and severally liable for the payment and performance of the Guaranteed Obligations as a primary obligor. (Guaranty § 4(a).)

69. The Guarantors further agreed that in the event of the occurrence of a Default under the Loan Documents, the Guaranteed Obligations would become immediately due and payable at the election of the Lender's Agent and the Guarantor shall, on demand and without presentment, protest, notice of protest, further notice of nonpayment or of dishonor, default or nonperformance, or notice of acceleration or of intent to accelerate, or any other notice whatsoever, would pay the amounts due to Agent or Lender, and pay all Losses that may arise in consequence of such Event of Default (including, without limitation, all reasonable attorneys' fees and expenses, investigation costs, court costs, and any and all other costs and expenses actually incurred by Agent or Lender in connection with the collection and enforcement of the Guaranty). (Guaranty § 4(b).)

70. In the event of foreclosure, the Guarantors agreed that only the net proceeds therefrom, after deduction of all charges and expenses of every kind and nature whatsoever, shall be applied in reduction of the amount due on the Note and Security Instrument, and the Lender shall not be required to institute or prosecute proceedings to recover any deficiency as a condition of payment or enforcement. (Guaranty § 4(b).)

71. Borrower is in Default under the Loan Documents.

72. By reason of the foregoing, the Guarantors are liable for all amounts due to Lender by Borrower, including all Losses that arose as a result of Borrower's Default (including, without limitation, all reasonable attorneys' fees and expenses, investigation costs, court costs, and any and all other costs and expenses actually incurred by Agent or Lender in connection with the collection and enforcement of the Guaranty), and the Guarantors are liable for any deficiency due under the Loan Documents after application of the proceeds in the manner specified by the Court.

AS AND FOR A FOURTH CAUSE OF ACTION
(Deficiency Judgment)

73. Lender repeats and realleges the allegations contained in paragraphs “1” through “72” as though fully set forth herein.

74. By virtue of the Loan Documents, as defined herein, Borrower and Guarantors are liable to pay Lender for any deficiency which may remain after applying all of said sales proceeds, together with interest thereon and other charges, in accordance with the Loan Documents. Such indebtedness will continue to accrue and, therefore, the precise amount due from Borrower and Guarantors to Lender through the date of Judgment herein should be determined by the Court.

WHEREFORE, Lender demands judgment as follows:

A. That Defendants, or any of them, and persons claiming under them or any of them, and all persons claiming any interest in the Mortgaged Property with all of its fixtures, equipment and personal property thereon, subsequent to the commencement of this action and the filing of the notice of pendency of this action be forever barred and foreclosed of and from all estate, right, title, interest, claim, lien and equity of redemption in and to the Mortgaged Property and each and every part thereof;

Amount Due : $265.00
Pay Immediately

120 CHURCH ST ENT 55-5547-9695-0001-5 December 16, 2019

A deposit of $265.00 is required as security on your account. In lieu of a cash payment, we are able to accept bank letters of credit or surety bonds, which provide a level of security equivalent to cash.

The deposit is equal to the cost of twice your average monthly usage. Where usage varies widely due to space heating to cooling or in the case of certain manufacturing and industrial processors, the deposit will not exceed the cost of twice the monthly usage during the peak season.

The deposit may be increased or decreased on subsequent billing. At any time, you may request a review of the deposit amount to ensure it is appropriate. We also review the deposit amount once a year and notify you if a change is required, If our review shows a deposit reduction is appropriate, we will refund the excessive portion of the deposit, with interest, within 30 calendar days.

As long as we hold your deposit, we pay interest - currently 2.45% per year. Interest on the deposit is applied to your account each year and when you close your account.

Your account will be reviewed after the deposit has been held for three years. The deposit would be eligible for refund within 30 days provided: no late payments were made during the most recent 12 month period; there were no instances of any meter tampering; and, financial reports do not indicate the potential for default. If the deposit is not eligible for refund at that time, the account will be reviewed each year to determine if a refund can be made.

Please make your payment or submit a letter of credit or surety bond within seven days.

Amount Due : $420.00
Pay Immediately

120 CHURCH ST ENT 55-5547-9697-0001-1 December 17, 2019

A deposit of $420.00 is required as security on your account. In lieu of a cash payment, we are able to accept bank letters of credit or surety bonds, which provide a level of security equivalent to cash.

The deposit is equal to the cost of twice your average monthly usage. Where usage varies widely due to space heating to cooling or in the case of certain manufacturing and industrial processors, the deposit will not exceed the cost of twice the monthly usage during the peak season.

The deposit may be increased or decreased on subsequent billing. At any time, you may request a review of the deposit amount to ensure it is appropriate. We also review the deposit amount once a year and notify you if a change is required, If our review shows a deposit reduction is appropriate, we will refund the excessive portion of the deposit, with interest, within 30 calendar days.

As long as we hold your deposit, we pay interest - currently 2.45% per year. Interest on the deposit is applied to your account each year and when you close your account.

Your account will be reviewed after the deposit has been held for three years. The deposit would be eligible for refund within 30 days provided: no late payments were made during the most recent 12 month period; there were no instances of any meter tampering; and, financial reports do not indicate the potential for default. If the deposit is not eligible for refund at that time, the account will be reviewed each year to determine if a refund can be made.

Please make your payment or submit a letter of credit or surety bond within seven days.

Dear Provider:

Welcome! Your application for enrollment in the New York State Medicaid Program has been approved effective NOVEMBER 14, 2019 for the following Category(s) of Service:

0381 LTC: SKILLED NURSING FACILITY

Your first step as an enrolled provider is to familiarize yourself with the compilation of the Title 18NYCRR, Part 504 rules and regulations established by the State of New York (NYCRR), which is available at the Department of Health's website, www.health.ny.gov, in the Laws & Regulations section.

Please review this correspondence in its entirety as it contains critical information about specific rules governing the provision of your care and service to Medicaid beneficiaries. It also identifies resources you should routinely review to keep current on the Medicaid Program, as well as specific instructions on how to submit a claim for rendered services.

CSRA State and Local Solutions LLC (CSRA) is Medicaid's fiscal agent. CSRA maintains Medicaid's website, www.eMedNY.org. This website is used to notify providers of current issues affecting Medicaid systems and transactions. Please visit www.eMedNY.org and review the Provider Manual(s) associated with your new enrollment. Provider Manuals can be downloaded or can be sent to you via regular mail.

The Medicaid Update, the monthly newsletter published by the NYS Department of Health, contains important policy and regulatory guidelines to assist you in caring for Medicaid beneficiaries. Please refer to the enclosure, Important Information for Medicaid Providers, for more information on receiving the newsletter.

Unless you will be using an enrolled service bureau/billing agent to submit your claims and other transactions, as a new provider in the Medicaid program you will need to obtain an Electronic/Paper Transmitter Identification Number (ETIN) in order to submit claims or other transactions (including paper claim forms).

Institutional providers (only) must include a Medicaid rate code on their claims. If you are an institutional provider, you will receive a rate code letter under separate cover.

Please familiarize yourself with the provider disclosure requirements found in Title 18NYCRR, Part 502 available at the Department of Health's website. Additionally, provider ownership changes must be reported to the Medicaid Program. Whenever you undergo an ownership change or recognize the need to submit a new disclosure notification, please contact the Medicaid Program for more information.

On the following page you will find addresses that are associated with this enrollment. It is critical that location of service is accurately reported on all claims. Therefore, if the service address(es) listed above are not correct, we ask that you please contact the Medicaid Program immediately. Requests to change your correspondence, pay-to or corporate addresses must be submitted in writing. Please print the appropriate change of address form (i.e., fee-for-service/professional-practitioner OR rate-based/institutional) from the Medicaid website and follow form instructions.

If you have any questions, please see the contact information on the enclosed document. We look forward to a successful partnership for the benefit of New York State Medicaid beneficiaries.

Sincerely,
Susan Zelezniak

NOTICE OF REMOVAL

TO: THE JUDGES OF THIS UNITED STATES DISTRICT COURT FOR THE SOUTHERN DISTRICT OF NEW YORK

HBL SNF, LLC (the “Removing Defendant”), gives notice of removal of the entirety of the above-captioned lawsuit (“State Court Action”) from the Supreme Court of the State of New York, County of Westchester, to the United States District Court for the Southern District of New York pursuant to 28 U.S.C. §§ 1334(b) and 1452. As grounds for removal, Removing Defendant states as follows:

BACKGROUND

1. In or around November 2015, the Removing Defendant entered into certain agreements with White Plains Healthcare Properties I, LLC (“WPHCP”) for the construction and finance of the Removing Defendant’s care facility. The Removing Defendant executed that certain Development Agreement (as amended or modified from time to time, the “Development Agreement”), dated as of November 19, 2015, between the Removing Defendant, as operator/tenant, and WPHCP, as developer which was subject to the prior approval of the New York State Department of Health

2. In connection therewith, the Removing Defendant additionally entered into that certain Amended and Restated Operating Lease (as amended or modified from time to time, the “Lease” and, together with the Development Agreement, the “Development and Lease Agreements”), dated November 19, 2015, by and between the Removing Defendant, as tenant, and WPHCP, as Landlord. The Lease provides that it commences upon the date WPHCP’s work is sufficiently complete to accept patients as determined by the New York State Department of Health (the “NYSDOH”) and the issuance of a Certificate of Occupancy.

3. Pursuant to the Development and Lease Agreements, WPHCP agreed to provide the necessary financing and construction management, and to obtain the necessary NYSDOH authorizations and approvals of its plans, specifications and construction and mortgage financing, in order to deliver to the Removing Defendant a “turn-key” facility for operation by the Removing Defendant as a skilled nursing and rehabilitation facility. The Removing Defendant, as tenant and operator of the completed facility, agreed to pay, among other things, monthly fixed rent in the amount of $506,096.50 for an annual amount of fixed rent of $6,073,158, to WPHCP, as landlord, over the thirty-year term of the Lease.

4. The Lease provides that the Removing Defendant's obligations to WPHCP under the Lease are secured by, among other things, a first priority security interest and lien granted to WPHCP upon all of the Removing Defendant's assets, including personal property, equipment, and accounts receivable, and certificates of need and other authorizations of the Removing Defendant with respect to operation of the facility as a skilled nursing facility. The Lease provides that WPHCP agrees to subordinate its lien on accounts receivable in favor of an accounts receivable lender to the Removing Defendant upon certain conditions set forth therein.

5. As of the Petition Date, there is no enforceable UCC-1 Financing Statement of record filed against the Removing Defendant by or on behalf of WPHCP.

6. In furtherance of its obligation to secure financing for the project, WPHCP entered into that certain Construction Loan Agreement (as amended or modified from time to time, the "Loan Agreement"), dated as of August 18, 2017, by and among WPHCP, as borrower, Security Benefit Life Insurance Company, as lender ("Security Benefit Lender"), and Security Benefit Corporation (together with Security Benefit Lender, "Security Benefit"), as agent, whereby Security Benefit Lender would make loans to WPHCP in an aggregate amount of up to $38,500,000, to be used to refinance an existing mortgage on the Real Property, pay the costs of construction and development of the facility, pay the costs of the beds, furniture, fixtures, personal property and equipment to be used at the facility, pay utilities fees and charges, and pay interest, taxes and other budgeted operating costs.

7. WPHCP's obligations under the Loan Agreement are secured by, among other things, that certain Mortgage, Assignment of Leases and Rents, Security Agreement and Fixture Filing (the "Mortgage"), recorded August 31, 2017, granted by WPHCP to Security Benefit, and an Assignment of Leases and Rents (the "Assignment of Rents"), dated as of August 18, 2017, assigning all rents in and under all leases with respect to the Real Property. The Mortgage provides that WPHCP's obligations are secured by liens on real and personal property and all other rights and interests of WPHCP in the Real Property. However, property of the Removing Defendant is expressly excluded from Security Benefit's Mortgage, which provides that "all property of tenants under any Lease...is excluded from the scope of this Security Instrument."

8. In connection with the financing, WPHCP, Security Benefit and the Removing Defendant, as operator, entered into that certain Security Agreement, Assignment of Leases and Rents and Fixture Filing, dated as of July 2017 (the "Security Agreement"), which provides for the Removing Defendant's grant of a security interest in favor of Security Benefit in all of its assets constituting Collateral Property (as defined therein) as security for the payment and performance of, among other things, WPHCP's obligations under the Loan Agreement. With respect to the Removing Defendant's accounts receivable, Security Benefit's liens were granted "to the extent, but only to the extent, they are used in connection with or arise from the operation of the Collateral Property that are or will be subject to an Intercreditor Agreement with the [Removing Defendant's] AR Lender."

9. Security Benefit filed a UCC-1 Financing Statement perfecting this security interest against the Removing Defendant on September 19, 2017. The Removing Defendant is not a party to the Loan Agreement and does not owe any amounts thereunder to Security Benefit. To the best of the Removing Defendant's knowledge, the balance owed by WPHCP to Security Benefit under the Loan Agreement was approximately $41,742,537.06 as of May 1, 2021.

10. After developmental and financing delays necessitating additional capital infusions, WPHCP obtained approval from the New York State Department of Health for the opening of the facility on December 2, 2019, two years later than contemplated under the Development Agreement.

Despite this and other disputes concerning the Development and Lease Agreements, the Removing Defendant made all rent payments of over $506,000 per month as required under the Lease, commencing on October 30, 2019 (even before the opening of the facility and commencement of the Lease), totaling over $10,500,000 as of the Petition Date, which WPHCP accepted.

11. Despite the fact that the Removing Defendant did not default under the Lease, WPHCP defaulted under its Loan Agreement with Security Benefit. Security Benefit issued multiple notices of default to WPHCP, commencing on October 16, 2019, for defaults including failures to establish a cash management account, make monthly interest payments, forward payments received from the Removing Defendant, provide financial statements, and other defaults.

12. Security Benefit commenced litigation against WPHCP attempting to foreclose against the Real Property, but these actions were discontinued as a result of a New York State moratoriums on such actions, which has been extended through January 2022. See Security Benefit Life Insurance Company, Security Benefit Corporation v. White Plains Healthcare Properties I, LLC, et al., Index No. 55883/2021 (Sup. Ct. N.Y. 2021); Security Benefit Life Insurance Company, Security Benefit Corporation v. White Plains Healthcare Properties I, LLC, et al., Index No. 621099/2021 (Sup. Ct. N.Y. 2021).

13. On January 7, 2020, attorneys for WPHCP sent the Removing Defendant a letter alleging that the Removing Defendant defaulted under the Development and Lease Agreements, purporting to terminate the Lease effective January 13, 2020, and seeking accelerated obligations allegedly due in the amount of $84,073,989.91. The Removing Defendant disputes these alleged defaults and the effectiveness of the letter to terminate the Lease. As of the Petition Date, the Removing Defendant was in substantial compliance with the Lease and has made all outstanding rental payments to WPHCP.

14. On September 18, 2020, WPHCP filed a complaint against the Removing Defendant, Lizer Jozefovic, and Mark Neuman in the Supreme Court of the State of New York, County of Westchester (the “Complaint”), captioned as White Plains Healthcare Properties I, LLC v. HBL SNF, LLC, et al., Index No. 60278-20 (N.Y. Sup. Ct. 2020) (the “State Court Action”), containing various frivolous allegations regarding purported defaults by the Removing Defendant under the Lease, seeking termination of the Lease and seeking recovery from the Removing Defendant and co-defendants for over $84 million in alleged damages. WPHCP subsequently amended its Complaint.

15. The Removing Defendant and co-defendants filed an answer to the amended Complaint and asserted counterclaims and third-party claims against WPHCP, among others, seeking a declaratory judgment as well as an accounting, and money damages based upon fraud, fraud in the inducement, breach of contract, bad faith.

16. On August 19, 2021, WPHCP filed a motion seeking entry of summary judgment against the Removing Defendant, among others. As of the Petition Date, the Removing Defendant had filed its opposition to WPHCP’s summary judgment motion, but WPHCP had not yet filed its reply brief. WPHCP’s motion has not yet been deemed to be fully submitted and remains sub judice.

17. Removal of the State Court Action is appropriate because this Court maintains “arising under” and “related to” bankruptcy jurisdiction pursuant to 28 U.S.C. §§ 1334(b) and 1452(a).

Bankruptcy Jurisdiction

18. On November 1, 2021, the Removing Defendant filed a voluntary petition for relief under Subchapter V of Chapter 11 of the United State Bankruptcy Code in the United States Bankruptcy Court for the Southern District of New York. The case number for the Removing Defendant's chapter 11 case is Chapter 11 Case No. 21-22623-SHL (the "Chapter 11 Case"). The Chapter 11 Case is pending before the Honorable Sean H. Lane, United States Bankruptcy Judge.

19. This Court has original jurisdiction over this action pursuant to 28 U.S.C. § 1334(b), which provides that United States district courts shall have jurisdiction over all civil proceedings, "arising under" or "related" to cases under title 11 of the United States Code (the "Bankruptcy Code").

20. The causes of actions asserted by in the State Court Action are "core proceedings" within the meaning of, inter alia, 28 U.S.C §157(b)(2)(B), (C), (E), and (O) in that the State Court Action concerns, inter alia, (i) allowance or disallowance of claims against the Removing Defendant's bankruptcy estates; (ii) counterclaims by the Removing Defendant against Plaintiffs who hold claims against the Removing Defendant's bankruptcy estates; (iii) third party claims by the Removing Defendant; (iv) termination of the Removing Defendant's Lease, and (v) other matters pertaining to the liquidation of the assets of the estate and the adjustment of the debtor-creditor relationship.

21. Alternatively, the causes of action in the State Court Action are "related to" the Chapter 11 Cases because:

- a. Plaintiff seeks a judgment against the Removing Defendant, which "could conceivably have" an effect on the Removing Defendants' bankruptcy estates;
- b. Plaintiff seeks to terminate Removing Defendant's Lease which "could conceivably have" an effect on the Removing Defendants' bankruptcy estates;
- c. Plaintiff seeks judgment against non-debtor defendants and individuals based upon guaranties of certain of Removing Defendant's obligations under the Lease. As a result, non-Removing Defendants may seek contribution or indemnification from

Removing Defendant, which “could conceivably have” an effect on the Removing Defendant’s bankruptcy estate; and

- d. Plaintiff seeks judgment against non-debtor defendants under certain guaranties of the Debtor’s obligations under the Lease. Judgments entered against and amounts collected from non-debtor defendants could have the effect of fixing the amounts owed, if any, by Removing Defendant under the Lease, or otherwise determining the Removing Defendant’s liability for alleged defaults under the Lease. As a result, a judgment against the non-debtor defendants “could conceivably have” an effect on the Removing Defendant’s bankruptcy estate.

See In re Cuyahoga Equip. Corp., 980 F.2d 110, 114 (2d Cir. 1992) (“The test ... is whether [the litigation’s] outcome might have any conceivable effect on the bankrupt estate.”). An action is “related to” a bankruptcy proceeding even when the claims are between third parties. Celotex Corp. v. Edwards, 514 U.S. 300 (1995)(resolving a circuit split by holding that a dispute between parties other than the debtor may be “related to” bankruptcy although the debtor has no interest in the property over which the parties are in dispute).

22. Courts have regularly held that third party proceedings are “related to” bankruptcy proceedings when the defendants have a claim for indemnification or contribution against the debtor estate even where the rights are contingent. See In re Worldcom, Inc. Sees. Litig., 293 B.R. 308, 321 (S.D.N.Y. 2003)(“Because the effect of contribution claims on the bankruptcy estate is at the very least conceivable, the ... action is related to the bankruptcy and subject to the jurisdiction of this Court.”), see also In re Masterwear Corp., 241 B.R. 511, 516-17 (Bankr. S.D.N.Y. 1999) (holding that “related to” jurisdiction existed where defendants “may ultimately be entitled to recover some or all of their legal fees and expenses from [the bankrupt corporation] under [its] bylaws).

23. For any claims or parties not subject to jurisdiction under 28 U.S.C. § 1334, supplemental jurisdiction lies under 28 U.S.C. § 1367 because all claims against all parties in this case form part of the same case or controversy.

Compliance With Procedural Requirements

24. Pursuant to Fed. R. Bankr. P. Rule 9027: (a) this Notice of Removal is being filed with the clerk for the district and division within which the State Court Action is pending; (b) this Notice of Removal is signed pursuant to Fed. R. Bankr. P. Rule 9011; (c) Removing Defendant states that the State Court Action is a core proceeding, but if it is determined to be non-core, Removing Defendant consents to entry of final orders or judgment by the Bankruptcy Court; (d) this Notice of Removal is being timely filed; (e) this Notice of Removal is accompanied by a copy of all process and pleadings filed to date in the State Court Action, (f) Removing Defendant has contemporaneously filed a copy of this notice with the Clerk of the Supreme Court of the State of New York, County of Westchester and shall promptly serve a copy of this Notice of Removal upon Plaintiff's counsel.

25. Removing Defendant expressly reserves the right to raise all defenses in this action after it is removed.

WHEREFORE, the Removing Defendant removes the State Court Action in its entirety from the Supreme Court of the State of New York, Westchester County to the United States District Court for the Southern District of New York and respectfully submits that the matter should be referred to the United States Bankruptcy Court for the Southern District of New York.

Pursuant to 28 U.S.C. § 1746, Alfred E. Donnellan declares as follows:

1. I am a member of the law firm of DeBello Donnellan Weingarten Wise & Wiederkehr, LLP, lead counsel for plaintiff White Plains Healthcare Properties I, LLC ("WPH Properties") and third-party defendants, CCC Equities, LLC, Project Equity Consulting, The Congress Companies, Howard Fensterman and William Nicholson (collectively, "third-party defendants").

2. I submit this reply declaration in further support of the motion of WPH Properties and third-party defendants for an order granting summary judgment in favor of WPH Properties for the relief demanded in the complaint and dismissing the counterclaims and third-party claims asserted by defendants/third-party plaintiffs, HBI, SNF, LLC ("HBI"), Lizer Jozefovic ("Jozefovic") and Mark Neuman (collectively, "defendants").

3. The defendants' assert in their brief in opposition to summary judgment that the January 7, 2020 notice of default signed by me -- as well as by Joshua Roccapiore as authorized agent of WPH Properties -- is a nullity. A copy of the fully executed notice of default including delivery receipts is attached as exhibit A. I separately emailed copies of the notice of default to Jozefovic and Mark Zafrin ("Zafrin"), who was then counsel to HBL and Jozefovic.

4. The defendants claim that I was "an unauthorized and unknown attorney" at the time of the notice of default. Memorandum of law in opposition to motion for summary judgment and in support of motion to strike dated October 25, 2021, at 17. This is false.

5. In fact, Jozefovic and HBL knew prior to January 7, 2020 that I was counsel to WPH Properties and was authorized to act as counsel in matters concerning the Lease. In my capacity as counsel to WPH Properties, I had extensive dealing with Zafrin and his client Jozefovic prior to January 7, 2020. I negotiated with them the November 20, 2019 letter of intent between HBL and WPH Properties, which set forth the terms of an attempted amicable resolution of HBL's defaults under the Lease.

6. As counsel to WPH Properties, I attended a number of meetings with Zafrin and Jozefovic in the conference room at my law firm to negotiate the letter of intent during the Fall of 2019. During that same time period, I had numerous phone calls and exchanged emails with Zafrin concerning the letter of intent. And on behalf of WPH Properties, I worked with Zafrin and Jozefovic to finalize and have signed the letter of intent. Attached as exhibit B is select correspondence between Zafrin and myself in November 2019 concerning the letter of intent, the Lease and other issues.

7. I also negotiated with Zafrin a "pre-negotiation agreement" dated October 25, 2019 between HBL and WPH Properties to facilitate discussions between the parties concerning a possible resolution of differences between them with respect to their rights and obligations under the Lease. Those discussions culminated in the letter of intent. A copy of the pre-negotiation agreement is attached as exhibit C.

WHEREFORE, I respectfully request that this Court grant summary judgment for liability and damages in favor of WPH Properties and against HBL, Jozefovic and Neuman in the amount of $111,420,213.50 and dismiss the defendants' counterclaims and third-party claims.

Re: White Plains Healthcare Properties with HBL-SNF, LLC ("HBL")

Dear Mark:

This is in response to your November 5, 2019 letter. With respect to certain statements contained therein, please be advised as follows:

1. As to your statement: "We are trying to find a way to pay rent to your client, however at this time due to the inability of the Landlord to obtain a permanent CO the conditions under which my client could rationally pay rent or even be obligated to pay rent do not exist."

The plain words of the Lease are clear, the Commencement Date is conditioned upon only "(i) the date of issuance of a permanent or temporary Certificate of Occupancy for the Facility and (ii) the date that New York State Department of Health (hereinafter sometimes, "DOH") determines that the Landlord's Work is sufficiently complete as constructed (but not necessarily the Tenant's operations) to accept patients...". The landlord delivered a temporary C of O on August 22, 2019. There is no requirement for Permanent C of O in the Lease. Apparently DOH now wants this for the Tenant's operations which are explicitly excluded from the Landlord's obligations under the lease and as to the Date of Commencement.

2. "At this point the Department of Health ("DOH") has determined that the Landlord's Work is not "sufficiently complete as constructed to accept patients" Annexed hereto is the final email from Chris Chow where he states that he cannot issue an operating certificate until the DOH receives a copy of the permanent CO. The DOH has taken the position that as soon as they get the CO, everything will start falling into place."

This is simply not true. The Department was clear that the building was "sufficiently complete as constructed (but not necessarily the Tenant's operations)" (Lease Section 3.1 (g)) on 09/30/19, as per Chris Chow's email of that date, and as per the Architect's Certification.

It was Tenant who, in bad faith, withheld the certification to DOH until October 23, 2019. He did so, as he told Mr. Nicholson on October 3, to try to avoid the payment of Rent. The permanent C of O is required for the Tenant's operations (the Tenant's Operating Certificate), as per Chow's email of 09/30/19.

Further, the email string that you provided clearly shows that neither your client's DOH consultant Andrew Blatt of Pinnacle, nor even Chris Chow of DOH knew that the TCO would not now suffice for your client's operations. Mr. Blatt did not even know what provisional approval was (a term that is nowhere referenced in the Lease). The email that you provided clearly display the Tenant and its consultants not knowing what they needed to get their own operations approved by DOH. This is on the Tenant not the Landlord.

No one knew that DOH decided to ask for a Permanent C of O (vs a TCO). It is not required in the Lease. Neither your client and nor its professionals were aware of this apparent change in DOH's procedures. However, since it impacts "the Tenant's operations" (Lease Section 3.1 (a)) your client is desperately attempting to shift this responsibility to the Landlord.

3. As to the statement: "Mr. Nicholson told my client that your partner Mark Weingarten will be at the Building Department today and should give us some clarity as to when the permanent CO will be issued. Should the CO be issued today and given to the DOH we have told you on more than one occasion that we will be in position to pay rent and start admitting patients in December."

This is not true. Mr. Nicholson did not tell you client that "Mark Weingarten will be at the Building Department today". Mr. Nicholson told your client that that Mr. Weingarten would reach out to the people at City Hall to try to help expedite the Permanent C of O, for your client's operations needs.

Further, Mr. Nicholson was clear with your client that he should review the Lease which in plain terms says "(but not necessarily the Tenant's operations)" as to the criteria for the Commencement Date and payment of Rent.

Mr. Nicholson offered to help your client accomplish what was needed for its operations with DOH; but was clear at all times that the Landlord's criteria under the Lease Commencement had been met. And Mr. Nicholson demanded the November rent.

4. As to your request for the costs of the project:

Your October 31, 2019 4:22 PM email requested "The final cost certification".

Your November 1, 2019 5:29 PM email clarified that it was not in fact "the final cost certification" but rather "a statement to show what was the total cost of the building, land, hard construction debt service etc.". We are working on this now and will forward that to you within 24 hours.

5. As to "a series of emails and attachments which demonstrate that the punch list is far from complete and that there are clearly numerous loose ends to be tied up by our respective clients and the building needs to become truly ready for occupancy under the punch list.", and as to the numerous punchlist attached to your November 5, 2019 12:52 PM email:

This attempt to create the illusion that the building is not fit for occupancy is futile, for the following reasons: The documents you transmitted, while voluminous are virtually all irrelevant and outdated. Your client's physical plant and management personnel are well aware of this. Specifically:

- You transmitted the following punchlists
  - o May 5, 2019 Floor 2 patient rooms Backpunch
  - o May 5, 2019 Floor 3 Patient Rooms Backpunch
  - o May 5, 2019 Floor 5 Common and Staff Areas Backpunch
  - o May 5, 2019 Floor 3-4 Common and Staff Areas Backpunch

These punchlists are long completed, as your client's staff is fully aware. The futility of transmitting what your client knows were really rolling Pre-punch tracking lists compiled as far back as May 2019, which have long been completed and which we were patent enough to share with your Client's personnel, is transparent.

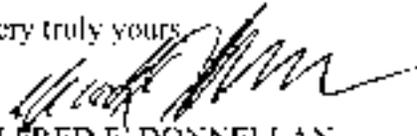

A Con Ed notice your file "white plains 11052019". This is the result of Con Ed's equipment mis- functioning. It has nothing to do with the Landlord's work. We are addressing this, notwithstanding that we have no obligation to do so under the Lease, since the Lease has commenced and we delivered the keys to the Tenant. Notwithstanding, we had ConEd complete the repair/replacement of their gas regulators today for you. We then performed bleeding the gas lines and restarting all equip with our licensed plumbers and HVAC techs, including gas boilers and hot water heater. This is not covered under your warranties, since the Work we performed for you it is the result of your utility provider's equipment. We will send you an invoice for the costs of this building maintenance once the costs are compiled.

- Punchlist printed on November 1, 2019 at 08:35 am EDT with approximately 30 items: 11 are Subcontractor warranties, none of which the Landlord owes to the Tenant under the Lease (you will note that all manufacturers warranties were previously provided), but will be provided as a courtesy to your client, since it is usual and customary in the industry. The remainder of the items are all immaterial, and having no bearing upon occupancy, and most are since completed.
- The Date of Substantial Completion per the AIA G704 is September 30, 2019. Had any of the punchlist items been material enough to preclude occupancy, at that point neither the Architect nor DOH would have determined that the Landlord's work was sufficiently complete.

- White Plains Mmetized Punchlist dated 10/16/219, transmitted internally, shows a list of approximately 22 items all either warranties from subs which have since been provided, or cosmetic, immaterial cleaning or otherwise insignificant items, most of which were since completed.
- The most recent status of the punchlist is attached to the LOI. It is minimal, its value is a mere $3,800, and it has no impact whatsoever upon occupancy or suitability of the building for its intended purpose. Both the Architect and DOH have so determined.
- White plains additional Punchlist Items document:
  - As to the Blinds: This is a valid obligation which the Landlord will deliver if and when the Tenant is no longer in Default. We suspended this work when we observed the Tenant failing or refusing to deliver the deposits and working capital set forth in the Lease 7.1, and 7.7, and other obligations under the Lease.
  - The Cable issue for CATV is a red herring. There is no specification in the Landlord's contract with the Tenant as to which wire is required for the CATV. The Landlord acknowledges its obligation to deliver functional CATV. It is the Landlord's obligation to insure proper performance. The Landlord has done so. The work as installed is performing as required, and has been completed, and fully tested. The Engineering calculations are attached.
- This is all a school of red herrings. The Architect's decision is final on all construction matters in any event (per the Development Agreement, p. 8, Article XI). The Architect signed both (1) the AIA G704 determining that the building was sufficiently constructed for its intended use on September 30, 2019, and (2) signed the DOH Completed Construction Certification Letter on 06/18/19.

Very truly yours,

ALFRED E. DONNELLAN

Pursuant to 28 U.S.C. § 1746, William A. Nicholson declares as follows:

1. I am one of the managing members of plaintiff White Plains Healthcare Properties I, L.L.C. ("WPH Properties"). I am also a third-party defendant. I submit this declaration, based upon my personal knowledge, in reply to the affidavit of Lizer Jozefovic and in further support of the motion of WPH Properties and the third-party defendants for an order granting summary judgment in favor of WPH Properties and dismissing the counterclaims and third-party claims asserted by defendants/third-party plaintiffs, HBL SNF, LLC ("HBL"), Lizer Jozefovic ("Jozefovic") and Mark Neuman ("Neuman") (collectively, "defendants").

2. The defendants' opposition to the motion for summary judgment is based on a series of demonstrably false statements, meritless claims and arguments that are immaterial to the issues before the Court. The principal issue on this motion is whether HBL defaulted under the lease. Clearly, it did, if for no other reasons than that it never provided the $5.3 million in security it was required to provide before it took occupancy of the premises in 2019. The accompanying declaration of our counsel, Alfred E. Donnellan, Esq., and the accompanying reply memorandum of law address the notice issues and legal issues with respect to the termination of the lease. The purpose of this declaration is to respond to the factual misstatements the defendants have made in opposition to the motion and to identify the parts of the moving papers that have already addressed those issues.

3. The lease required that HBL shall have delivered to WPH Properties "60 days prior to the anticipated Commencement Date," a security deposit consisting of $3.7 million in cash or letter of credit, and an additional $1.6 million from an identified bank account. Nicholson Aff. ¶ 6, Exhibit 12, Lease § 7.1(a)(ii) and (iii). There can be no dispute that HBL has never done that. There is no dispute that HBL occupies the property. HBL admits that it took occupancy of the facility on September 30, 2019. Nicholson Aff. ¶ 6, Exhibit 11, Notice to Admit, No. 1. The security deposit was due, therefore, in July 2019. It has never been paid – not even a penny. The lease defines that as a material default. Nicholson aff., Exhibit 12, Lease, Schedule 3.1, §16.1 (xxvi).

4. The defendants' argument that they satisfied their obligation to provide a security deposit by funding the $1.6 million "RSA" and executing the documents necessary for Fensterman to become a signatory on that account is both false, as set forth in the Fensterman affidavit, misleading and immaterial. As more fully discussed in the accompanying memorandum of law, HBL's security deposit obligation was not satisfied by depositing $1.6 million in its own account, regardless of who could sign on that account. The funds were required to be deposited into WPH Properties' tenant security account. Nicholson aff., ex. 12, § 7.1(a)(iii); Fensterman aff., ¶ 4. That never happened and the defendants do not even claim that it did. In addition, the lease required HBL to post an additional $3.7 million in security in cash or letter of credit. Nicholson aff, ex. 12, § 7.1(a)(ii). Again, that never happened and the defendants do not even claim that it did. They simply ignore that obligation, and their undisputed default of it.

5. Jozefovic's lengthy discussion of the history of this project, presumably intended to divert the Court's attention from the undisputed evidence that HBL breached the lease by failing to provide the security deposit, is likewise false and immaterial. WPH Properties is not, and has never been, in default of any of its obligations under any of its agreements with the defendants. My affidavit in support of the motion addresses all of Jozefovic's claims in that regard. Nicholson Aff. ¶¶ 11-13, 40-41.

6. WPH Properties did not finish construction late or overbudget. As fully explained in my affidavit, and contrary to the assertions made by Jozefovic, Jozefovic aff., ¶¶ 28-30, the development agreement did not require that the building be substantially completed within 20 months. Nicholson aff., ex. 40. Jozefovic's allegation that "White Plains failed to complete the Facility on schedule" Jozefovic aff., ¶ 28 is therefore without any basis. Nicholson aff., ¶ 40.

7. Jozefovic's baseless claim that there were "cost overruns" on the project, Jozefovic aff., ¶¶ 49-50, is belied by the development agreement, in which HBL "acknowledge[d] and agree[d]" that "the actual total cost of the Project ("Project Cost") as of the date hereof [November 20, 2015] is approximately $60.0 million, is not possible to exactly ascertain as of the date of this Agreement due to circumstances beyond the control of all parties to this Agreement and is projected to be greater than the Approved Project Cost." Nicholson aff., ¶ 45 & ex. 13. Article IV(A).

8. Jozefovic apparently relies on the application filed with the New York State Department of Health stating a total project cost as a basis for its claim of alleged cost overruns. Jozefovic aff., ¶ 17. But HBL, not WPH Properties, was responsible to “file and diligently pursue with DOH all applications required to increase the Approved Project Cost such that it then equals the best estimate of the Project Cost.” Nicholson aff., ¶ 45 & ex. 13, Article IV(A).

9. In any event, even if there were cost overruns on the project, those costs are irrelevant. Any cost overruns would have no effect on HBL or the lease. HBL is not a partner in the ownership of the property. HBL would incur no additional cost or any increased rent and certainly don't excuse HBL from paying the security deposit or from their other defaults under the lease.

10. Jozefovic alleges that “[o]n April 18, 2016, NYSDOH notified White Plains that it considered the Facility an ‘abandoned project,’ which required White Plains to obtain a new Certificate of Need in order to proceed.” Jozefovic aff., ¶ 29. But it was HBL that was responsible for all of the approvals required from the New York State Department of Health. Nicholson aff., ex. 13, Article II(C).

11. Even if WPH Properties had defaulted in the construction of the property (which it clearly did not), however, the defendants have either waived or released that claim and therefore cannot assert a counterclaim on that basis. Nicholson aff., ¶¶ 34-39.

12. Jozefovic's claims that the terms of the amended lease were substantially different from, and less favorable to, HBL the original 2015 lease, Jozefovic aff., ¶¶ 38-39, is also irrelevant, and false. In fact, the renegotiated lease was substantially more favorable to HBL. Nicholson aff., ¶ 5. In particular, Jozefovic is just wrong or untruthful when he claims in his affidavit the development agreement provides that rent was to be paid at $360,000 per month. The development agreement does not even address the amount of the rent. Jozefovic aff., ¶ 21. The lease expressly obligated HBL to pay WPH Properties annual fixed rent of $6,073,158 in monthly installments of $506,096.50 and other amounts which are defined as "Additional Rent." Tabor aff., ¶ 7; Nicholson aff., Exhibit 12, Lease, § 3.2.

13. It is true that WPH Properties has "accepted millions in rent payments." Def't's Memo of Law at 1. WPH Properties accepted that rent because HBL owed it millions of dollars in rent. And it owes millions more. The lease provides that if HBL holds over after its default has resulted in the termination of the lease, HBL is a month-to-month tenant obligated to pay rent monthly at a rent equal to 300 percent of the most recent monthly rent payable by HBL under the lease. Tabor aff. ¶ 12; Nicholson aff., Exhibit 12, Lease, § 20.13. Although HBL has paid base rent since the lease was terminated, it has never paid holdover rent, as the lease requires. In addition, the lease provides that upon the occurrence of a default by HBL, WPH Properties may accelerate the payment of all rent due for the balance of the term and declare the rent presently due and payable in full, requiring HBL to pay to WPH Properties the present value of the accelerated Rent, Tabor aff., ¶ 15; Nicholson aff., Exhibit 12, Lease, § 16.1. In the notice of default, WPH Properties terminated the lease and accelerated the rent and declared all of the rent under the lease immediately due and owing. Tabor aff., ¶¶ 14-16 & Exhibit 26, Notice of Default. HBL has not paid any of the accelerated rent that is due and owing. Tabor aff., ¶ 16, ex. 27; Donnellan aff., Exhibit 11, Notice to Admit, no. 7. The present value of the accelerated lease payments that HBL is obligated to pay WPH Properties is $82,369,770, Tabor aff., ¶ 16 & Exhibit. 27.

14. Jozefovic's claims with respect to the November 20, 2019 letter of intent are equally baseless. As fully explained in the Nicholson affidavit, the $2.2 million paid by HBL under the letter of intent was not in payment of any of HBL's obligations under the lease. It was a non-refundable payment for the purchase of the facility. Nicholson aff., ¶ 32. HBL breached the letter of intent in a number of ways and therefore is not entitled to a return of the $2.2 million, which, again, was non-refundable in any event. Nicholson aff., ¶ 32.

15. The defendants' claims based on the 2015 term sheet are similarly without merit. Jozefovic aff., ¶¶ 23-26; 58-59. As my earlier affidavit explains, the merger clause contained in the 2017 lease precludes reliance on prior agreements. Nicholson aff., ¶ 44. The term sheet was not, in any event, a binding agreement. By its express terms, it was intended only to "clarify the information shared at the meeting of 4/22/2015." Nicholson aff., ¶ 44.

16. Further, and also contrary to Jozefovic's claim, Jozefovic aff., ¶¶ 31-35, 51, HBL cannot assert a claim based on WPH Properties' failure to obtain permanent financing or financing in particular amounts or terms because, in the letter of intent, HBL waived "any claims by the Tenant that the Landlord is or ever was required to deliver a mortgage of any particular amount, terms, amortization or interest rate, for Medicaid rate setting or any other purpose" and "any claims related to the Cost Certification." Nicholson aff., ex. 17, ¶ 8. WPH Properties would have obtained permanent financing long before its construction loan was due if HBL had not continually and repeatedly defaulted and refused or failed to cure those defaults. Nicholson aff., ¶ 42. Finally, the costs incurred by WPH Properties as a result of its inability to obtain permanent financing have not been passed along to HBL. Nicholson aff., ¶ 43.

17. There is, in short, nothing in the Jozefovic affidavit or in any of the other arguments the defendants have made that even raises a triable issue of fact with respect to HBL's defaults under the lease, the defendants' liability for those defaults or any affirmative defense or counterclaim the defendants' have raised. WPH Properties and the counterclaim defendants are, therefore, entitled to summary judgment.

EDWARD O. TABOR

Pursuant to 28 U.S.C. § 1746, Edward O. Tabor declares as follows:

1. I am the Chief Financial Officer of third-party defendant The Congress Companies, which provides management and other services to its affiliate, plaintiff White Plains Healthcare Properties I, L.L.C. ("WPH Properties"). I submit this declaration in further support of the motion of WPH Properties for summary judgment and to dismiss the counterclaims and third-party claims asserted by defendants third-party plaintiffs, HBL SNF, LLC ("HBL"), Lizer Jozefovic ("Jozefovic") and Mark Neuman (collectively, the "defendants"). I am fully and personally familiar with the matters stated in this declaration.

2. The defendants' assertions that HBL did not default under the lease are incorrect and completely unsupported by the evidence.

3. First, contrary to the defendants' claims, HBL defaulted under the lease by failing to pay the required security deposits. The basis for the defendants' default is fully set forth in the memorandum of law by plaintiffs and third-party defendants in support of their motion for summary judgment dated August 18, 2021 (the "Pl. br." or the "Plaintiffs' brief"). The lease expressly defines the failure to provide the security deposit as a material breach of the lease. Affidavit of William A. Nicholson dated August 18, 2021 (the "Nicholson aff."), ex. 12, Schedule 3.1, §16.1(xxvi). The failure to provide the required security deposits alone is a material default under the lease. Pl. br., at 6.

4. Second, the lease obligated HBL to pay an annual fixed rent of $6,073,158 in monthly installments of $506,096.50 and other amounts that are defined as "Additional Rent." Nicholson aff., ex. 12, § 3.2. The defendants' claim that HBL timely paid the required rent every month, Affidavit of Lizer Jozefovic dated October 25, 2021 (the "Jozefovic aff." or "Jozefovic affidavit"), ¶ 66, is false. The Jozefovic affidavit attaches a copy of wire transfer records for the time period November 18, 2019 through September 2020 showing HBL's fixed rent payments. Jozefovic aff., ex. K. The wire transfer records do nothing more than corroborate WPH Properties' records detailing the amounts due for rent and the payments received. Affidavit of Edward O. Tabor dated August 18, 2021, ex. 25. In particular, the wire transfer records attached to the Jozefovic affidavit confirm that HBL defaulted by paying fixed rent late every month from November 18, 2019 through September 4, 2020, except February 2020 and July 2020. That is fully consistent what is shown in the records attached to the Tabor affidavit. Tabor affidavit, ex. 25.

5. The records attached to the Tabor affidavit also indicate that HBL defaulted by paying rent late in every month from October 2020 through July 2021, except May 2021. Tabor aff., ex. 25. The defendants have offered no evidence disputing that.

6. Third, while the defendants do not contest that HBL continues to occupy the facility, HBL has failed to pay holdover rent due after termination of the lease from February 1, 2020 through the current date. Tabor aff., ¶ 13 & ex. 12. In opposition to the motion, the defendants have failed to submit any evidence showing payment of the holdover rent. The defendants only purported defense to the holdover rent is that the lease has not been terminated. Pl. br., at 6-7. That is false, for the reasons stated in the declaration of William Nicholson and the accompanying memorandum of law.

7. Fourth, the defendants are liable for accelerated rent, Tabor aff., ¶¶ 14-15, but have not submitted any evidence showing that HBL has paid it. In support of the motion, WPH Properties submitted a chart showing the amount of the accelerated rent owed by HBL, consisting of the net present value of remaining monthly rent payments due under the lease discounted at a rate of six percent per year. Tabor aff., ¶ 16 & ex. 27. The defendants assert, falsely, only that the accelerated rent is not owed because the lease has not been terminated. And defendants have not submitted any evidence disputing WPH Properties' calculation of the accelerated rent. Pl. br., at 6-7.

8. Fifth, the lease obligates HBL to pay, before penalties are incurred, all real estate taxes, assessments and other taxes. Nicholson aff., ex. 12, § 4.2. My earlier affidavit correctly states that HBL had failed to timely pay real estate taxes for fiscal year 2020 (December 2019 through June 2020). Tabor aff., ¶ 31 & ex. 38. Jozefovic asserts in his affidavit that "HBL has paid all applicable real estate taxes for the Facility," but relies on a tax bill and check showing the payment of real estate taxes for the 2021 fiscal year (July 1, 2020 through December 31, 2020). These documents are for a completely different time period and do not refute in any way WPH Properties' claim that HBL failed timely to pay real estate taxes for the 2020 fiscal year.

9. Sixth, as stated in the Tabor affidavit, HBL defaulted under the lease by failing to pay utility charges to Con Edison and failing to pay utility deposits and municipal maintenance escrows totaling $71,472.69. WPH Properties has been reimbursed for a portion of the deposits in the amount of $41,175.00 and, therefore HBL, is obligated to pay WPH Properties $35,921.44. Tabor aff., ¶ 32 & ex. 33. The Jozefovic affidavit alleges that HBL has paid all applicable utility charges and deposits and municipal maintenance escrows. Jozefovic aff., ¶ 94. The Jozefovic affidavit attaches unpaid Con Edison bills from December 2019, but the defendants have submitted no evidence to support their conclusory claim that these or any other utility charges, deposits and municipal maintenance escrows have been paid. Jozefovic aff., ex. M

10. Seventh, HBL is required by the lease to deliver certificates of insurance showing that each type of insurance required under Article VI of the lease is in full force and effect and not cancelable or modifiable without thirty (30) days prior written notice to WPH Properties. Tabor aff., ¶ 33; Nicholson aff., ex. 12, § 6.2. HBL failed to provide any certificates of insurance until January 2020 and July 2020. Tabor aff., ¶ 32 & ex. 39. My earlier affidavit sets forth a detailed itemization of the deficiencies in these insurance certificates with reference to the lease requirements. Tabor aff., ex. 40. The Jozefovic affidavit alleges in conclusory fashion that HBL has "maintained the necessary types and amounts of insurance for the Facility" and purports to attach copies of the certificates of insurance. Jozefovic aff., ¶ 97 & ex. N. But the documents attached to the Jozefovic affidavit are not certificates of insurance at all. They consist of a provider agreement and a rate schedule. The defendants have therefore offered nothing whatever to rebut the evidence in the Tabor affidavit that the insurance certificates – which HBL provided to WPH Properties late – comply with the requirements of the lease.

11. Eighth, the lease requires HBL to deliver to WPH Properties all Medicare, Medicaid and other provider agreements, reimbursement rate sheets and updated rate sheets. Tabor aff., ¶ 35; Nicholson aff., ex. 12, § 7.4(g) & (j). The Jozefovic affidavit alleges that HBL "has delivered" the necessary provider agreements and rate sheets, Jozefovic aff., ¶ 98, and attaches the provider agreement for a Medicare Advantage program with Oscar Insurance Corp. (the "Oscar Insurance provider agreement") setting forth the rates for that plan and a document listing the Medicaid rates the New York State Medicaid program (the "NYS Medicaid Rates"). Jozefovic aff., exs. N & O. These documents were never previously provided to WPH Properties. Even assuming for the sake of argument that these are the only programs offered at the White Plains facility, providing WPH Properties with the provider agreements and rate sheets required under the lease in response to this motion, almost two years after HBL took occupancy of the facility, does not come close to complying with HBL's obligations under the lease and is clear evidence of the defendants' bad faith.

12. Ninth, HBL defaulted under the lease by failing to provide WPH Properties with the required financial and operational reporting. Tabor aff. ¶¶ 37-39 The Jozefovic affidavit asserts that HBL has delivered the financial and operational reporting required under the lease and purports to attach that reporting as exhibit O. Jozefovic aff., ¶ 98 & ex. O. But exhibit O consists only of the Oscar Insurance provider agreement and the NYS Medicaid Rates. It does not include any of the other financial and operational reporting required under the lease. Tabor aff., ¶ 37-39.

PRELIMINARY STATEMENT

Plaintiff WPH Properties and the third-party defendants, by their attorneys, Binder & Schwartz and DelBello, Donnellan, Weingarten, Wise & Wiederkehr, LLP and Abrams, Fensterman, Fensterman, Eisman, Formato, Ferrara, Wolf & Carone, LLP, respectfully submit this reply memorandum in further support of their motion for summary judgment for the relief demanded in the complaint against defendants Lizer Jozefovic and Mark Neuman.<sup>1</sup>

ARGUMENT

WPH Properties properly terminated the lease based on HBL's material breach, including its failure to pay the required security deposit

WPH Properties terminated the lease because, among other things, HBL materially breached the lease by failing to pay the $5.3 million security deposit the lease required. WPH Properties satisfied all of the legal requirements for terminating the lease. The defendants' argument that notice of termination was ineffective is meritless, given that notice was indisputably delivered by an attorney known by the tenant to represent the landlord. HBL's claim that WPH Properties waived the defaults is similarly baseless, since, under settled New York case law, a landlord's receipt of post-default rent payments is not a waiver. Further, the lease expressly provides that WPH Properties does not waive its right to enforce the lease terms. And the defendants "unjust enrichment" argument is simply frivolous.

<sup>1</sup> The affidavit of Lizer Jozefovic in opposition dated October 25, 2021 states that Jozefovic submits his affidavit in opposition to the motion and in support of defendants' cross-motion to strike WPH Properties' notice to admit dated June 2, 2021. However, defendants have not filed or served any notice of cross-motion. WPH Properties and third-party defendants nevertheless also submit this memorandum of law in opposition to the procedurally defective cross-motion.

A. HBL does not dispute that it materially breached the lease by failing to pay the security deposit.

HBL materially breached the lease by failing to post the $5.3 million security deposit. The lease requires that HBL deliver to WPH Properties “60 days prior to the anticipated Commencement Date,” (i) a security deposit consisting of $3.7 million in cash or letter of credit and (ii) an additional $1.6 million from an identified bank account. Nicholson aff, ex. 12, § 7.1(a)(ii). HBL admits that it took occupancy of the facility on September 30, 2019. Nicholson aff, ex. 11 (notice to admit), no. 1. The security deposit was due, therefore, in July 2019. It was not delivered then and has never been delivered since. These facts are undisputed.

Failure to provide the security deposit is a material breach of the lease entitling the landlord to terminate the lease. Nicholson aff., ex. 12, Schedule 3.1, §16.1(xxvi); see Kallen v. Kassin, 200 A.D.2d 557, 558 (2d Dep’t 1994); Markowitz v. Landau, 171 A.D.2d 564, 565 (1st Dep’t 1991). Accordingly, WPH Properties had the right to terminate the lease and did terminate the lease based upon HBL’s material default for more than two years.

The defendants oppose summary judgment on the ground that HBL “complied with its obligation to deliver security deposits by funding the [rent security account] and tendering signatory authority to White Plains, which White Plains failed to complete.” Def. br., at 16. As fully explained in the affidavit of Howard Fensterman dated August 18, 2021 (the “Fensterman aff.”), however, that is false. But even if it were true, HBL did not provide Mr. Fensterman with the full authority necessary to ensure that the balance in the Waterview JPM Accounts was not reduced to below $1.6 million. Nicholson aff., ex. 16; Fensterman aff., ¶ 3.

What is more important, and dispositive, is that the defendants do not deny that HBL failed to provide the $3.7 million security deposit required by section 7.1(a)(iii) of the lease and that HBL also failed (and continues to this date to refuse) to deliver the $1.6 million Additional Security Deposit in WPH Properties' rent security deposit account as required by section 7.1(a)(ii) of the lease, a breach of both the pledge agreement and the lease. Nicholson aff., ex. 12, § 7.1(a)(iii); Fensterman aff., ¶ 4.

Instead, the defendants base their opposition on the claim that WPH Properties "has never previously demanded that HBL provide a $3.7 million letter of credit or additional security deposits." Def. br., at 16. That is completely irrelevant and false. Notwithstanding the fact that the lease imposes no obligation on the landlord to demand the tenant's performance, WPH Properties did in fact provide numerous written requests for delivery of the security deposit.

The defendants also reassert their claim that "White Plains waived any issues regarding security deposits by choosing to accept HBL's Fixed Rent Payments," Def. br., at 16, but that is wrong as a matter of law for the reasons that are discussed below.

B. HBL has materially breached the lease in numerous other respects.

Notwithstanding the defendants' claims to the contrary, HBL has committed numerous other breaches of the lease. The Nicholson affidavit and Tabor affidavit describe those defaults in detail. The accompanying reply declaration of Edward O. Tabor dated November 5, 2021 responds to the defendants' assertions disputing HBL's defaults in paying rent, real estate taxes timely, utility charges and deposits and municipal escrows and failure to provide documents and information required under the lease.

C. The notice of default was proper.

The defendants' claim that the January 7, 2020 notice of default is somehow defective because it "does not contain the same claims that White Plains currently alleges," Def. br., at 17, is unadulterated fantasy. The notice of default details each and every default under the lease upon which WPH Properties relies in this motion. Compare Nicholson aff., ex. 26 with Pl. br., at 2-7.

HBL's assertion that the notice of default was "fatally flawed" because the "decision to serve the Notice of Default via an unauthorized and unknown attorney and representative makes the Notice of Default a nullity," Def. br., at 17-18, is a silly and completely baseless argument. The notice of default was signed by Alfred Donnellan, WPH Properties' counsel and WPH Properties' authorized representative, Joshua Roccapiore, with whom Jozefovic and his staff dealt with on a regular basis during the construction of the facility. Donnellan Aff., ¶ 4, ex. A. The notice of default begins by stating that "[w]e are the attorneys for your landlord, White Plains Healthcare Properties I, LLC." Nicholson aff., ex. 26. An attorney is an agent for his client, authorized to act on the client's behalf. See Tredwall v. Doncourt, 18 App. Div. 219 (2d Dep't 1897); Kuris v. Kuris, No. 46317/07S, 2009 WL 1194548, *5 (Sup. Ct., Kings Cty. April 28, 2009).

Siegel v. Kentucky Fried Chicken of Long Is., Inc., 108 A.D.2d 218, 221 (2d Dep't 1985), aff'd, 67 N.Y.2d 792 (1986), upon which the defendants rely, is not to the contrary. As the Appellate Division, Second Department, has subsequently noted:

Siegel is limited to the 'factual peculiarities' of the lease in that case. The lease in Siegel . . . designated certain rights that were to be exercised by "the 'Landlord or Landlord's agent[ ]'" and designated the landlord's attorney by name, while the three-day forfeiture notice that was the subject of that dispute was sent by another attorney, who was unknown to the tenant.

QP III 143 45 Sanford Avenue, LLC v. Spinner, 108 A.D.3d 558, 559 (2d Dep't 2013).

Here, HBL was fully aware prior to the January 7, 2020 notice of default that Mr. Donnellan was counsel to WPH Properties and had extensive dealings with him, including numerous in person meetings at Mr. Donnellan's office attended by Jozefovic and Neuman. Reply declaration of Alfred E. Donnellan dated November 5, 2021 (the "Donnellan reply decl."), ¶¶ 3-7.

Under these circumstances, courts have routinely enforced a landlord's rights under a lease as communicated to the tenant by the landlord's counsel. See Liberty Diner v. 2635 Food Corp., 264 A.D.2d 439, 440 (2d Dep't 1999) (landlord effectively terminated the subject lease through its demand for rent sent by its attorney to the attorney for the tenant, stating that the "attorney representing [the landlord] was named in the lease and was known to [the tenant] by virtue of communications the attorney had with [the tenant] regarding the lease."); Prime Realty Holdings Co. v. Alpine Group, Inc., 225 A.D.2d 533, 534 (2d Dep't 1996) ("The record amply supports the Supreme Court's determination that the plaintiff was aware, at the time it received the notice of cancellation, that the defendant's attorney was authorized to act as its agent in matters concerning the leased premises."); Owego Properties v. Campfield, 182 A.D.2d 1058, 1059 (3d Dep't 1992) (Rejecting the tenant's claim that a notice to cure signed by the landlord's agent was ineffective on the grounds that it did not include an authorization and was not signed the by landlord or the agent identified in the lease and stating that "[t]he record amply demonstrates that respondent knew at the time he received the notice to cure that Sarkisian was authorized to act as petitioner's agent.").

D. WPH Properties' loan agreement with Security Benefit does not prohibit WPH Properties from terminating HBL's lease.

The fact that WPH Properties' loan agreement with its construction lender, Security Benefit Corporation ("Security Benefit"), provides that the lease would not be terminated without Security Benefit's consent does not somehow prohibit WPH Properties from terminating the lease because of HBL's defaults. Def. br. at 10-11; see also Jozefovic aff., ex. F, § 3.5(vi). The tenant, HBL, is not a party to the loan agreement, nor are any of the other defendants. The loan agreement provides that "[t]he Loan Documents are for the sole benefit of Lender and Borrower and are not for the benefit of any third party." Jozefovic aff., ex. F, § 7.3. Nor do the loan agreement and the lease “constitute an integrated agreement with both White Plains and HBL bound to the terms of the Loan Agreement.” Def. br., at 10. The loan agreement is between WPH Properties and Security Benefit and is dated August 18, 2017. Jozefovic aff., ex. F. The parties to the lease are WPH Properties and HBL. The original lease is dated 2015 and the (amended) lease that is currently in effect is dated November 19, 2019. Nicholson aff., exs. 12, 35. As a matter of law, agreements between different parties executed years apart are not integrated agreements. See Rudman v. Cowles Communications, 30 N.Y.2d 1, 13 (1972) (“Recognizing that the agreements involved formally different parties, and actually executed on different dates . . . the conclusion of separateness becomes all but inescapable.”).

E. WPH Properties did not waive any of HBL’s material breaches of the lease.

HBL’s argument that WPH Properties waived its right to enforce the terms of the lease by attempting to work with HBL to resolve its defaults has no basis in law or fact. The express provisions of the lease foreclose the defendants’ argument that there was an implied waiver of the lease defaults. The lease provides that:

Neither any failure nor any delay on the part of any party hereto in insisting upon strict performance of any term condition, covenant or agreement, or exercising any right, power, remedy or privilege hereunder, or any other document or instrument entered into or delivered in connection herewith or pursuant hereto, shall operate as or constitute a waiver thereof, nor shall a single or partial exercise thereof preclude any other future exercise, or the exercise of any other right, power, remedy or privilege. . . .

Nicholson aff., ex. 12, § 20.3. And section 20.2 of the lease forecloses implied waivers by conduct by requiring that any waiver be in writing. Nicholson aff., ex. 12, § 20.2 (“No waiver shall be effective unless set forth in writing and signed by the party against whom such waiver is asserted.”). New York courts have routinely enforced nonwaiver clauses contained in leases. See Jefpaul Garage Corp. v. Presbyterian Hosp., 61 N.Y.2d 442, 446 (1984); Luna Park Housing

Corp. v. Besser, 38 A.D.2d 613, 714 (2d Dep't 1972).

Nor did WPH Properties waive any of its rights under the lease by entering into the letter of intent. The parties entered into the letter of intent when HBL defaulted within weeks of taking possession. Its purpose was to resolve HBL's defaults without terminating the lease. Nicholson aff., ¶¶ 19-21. The letter of intent expressly provides that "[t]he parties shall remain as Landlord and Tenant pursuant to the existing Lease until such time as the Transaction closes." Ex. 17, ¶ 1(h). It thus requires HBL to comply with all of the terms of the lease, except insofar as they had been modified by the letter of intent. And while the letter of intent does include a waiver provision, that provision provides only for waivers by the tenant, HBL, not by WPH Properties. Ex. 17, ¶ 8. These terms preclude any finding that WPH Properties abandoned a known right, which is essential to a waiver. See Beacon Terminal Corp. v. Chemprene, Inc., 75 A.D.2d 350, 355-56 (2d Dep't 1980) (quoting Alsens American. Portland Cement Works v. Degnon Contracting. Co., 222 N.Y. 34, 37 (1917)). WPH Properties' decision to postpone declaring a default under the lease to allow the parties time to attempt to resolve HBL's default was not a waiver.

Additionally, the parties entered into a pre-negotiation agreement which expressly provides that:

The Parties agree that neither party will incur any obligation or liability or waive any rights, remedies, claims and/or defenses by virtue of the commencement, continuance or termination of the Discussions, or the passage of time associated with the Discussions unless and until a Settlement Agreement is executed and delivered by the Parties, and then only to the extent provided in the Settlement Agreement.

Donnellan reply decl., ex. C.

Finally, as a matter of law, WPH Properties' post-default acceptance of rent did not waive HBL's defaults. See Sullivan v. Brevard Associates, 66 N.Y.2d 489, 495 (1985); Georgetown Unsold Shares, LLC v. Ledet, 130 A.D.3d 160, 163-164 (2d Dep’t 2015). In any event section 20.2 of the Lease expressly requires that any waiver be in writing. The defendants do not, and cannot possibly, claim that WPH Properties agreed in writing to waive the default under the lease in exchange for HBL’s rent payments.

F. HBL cannot salvage its lease by claiming unjust enrichment.

The defendants claim that WPH Properties will be “unjustly enriched” if their summary judgment motion is granted because HBL has added “value to the facility,” Def. br., at 13. HBL does not plead unjust enrichment as a defense. In order to state an unjust enrichment claim, “[w]hat is required, generally, is that a party hold property ‘under such circumstances that in equity and good conscience he ought not to retain it.’” Alan B. Greenfield, M.D., P.C. v. Long Beach Imaging Holdings, LLC, 114 A.D.3d 888, 889 (2d Dep’t 2014). HBL is not in that position. HBL was a tenant under the lease that defaulted. Its right are defined by the lease.

WPH Properties seeks in this motion to do nothing more than recover the damages it has sustained on account of HBL’s breaches, including the amounts provided for under the lease when the tenant defaults. The defendants’ claim that compensating WPH Properties for its damages and the amounts provided for under the lease for HBL’s default would result in “unjustly enrichment” is absurd.

II

HBL is liable for holdover rent and accelerated rent

The provisions of the lease requiring the payment of accelerated and holdover rent are fully enforceable. See Fifty States Management Corp. v. Pioneer Auto Parts, Inc., 46 N.Y.2d 573, 577 (1979) (accelerated rent); Sebring, LLC v. Elegence Restaurant Furniture Corp., 188

A.D.3d 744, 746 (2d Dep’t 2020) (holdover rent). The only basis on which the defendants assert that HBL is not liable for accelerated or holdover rent is that “White Plains does not have the right to terminate the Amended Lease because it failed to obtain Security Benefit’s prior consent, and White Plains waived its right to enforce the Amended Lease by choosing to accept HBL’s Fixed Rent Payments each month without protest.” Def. br., at 17. As previously argued, that is wrong. See pages 1-5, supra.

III

WPH Properties is entitled to judgment for breach of the letter of intent

HBL breached the letter of intent within ten days of signing it by failing to provide the first $1 million in security. Nicholson aff., ¶ 21; Tabor aff., ¶ 18. HBL’s material breach in providing the first $1 million of the security deposit released WPH Properties of its obligations under the letter of intent, including its obligations with respect to the FF&E. See J. Petrocelli Construction, Inc. v. Realm Electrical Contractors, Inc., 15 A.D.3d 444, 446 (2d Dep’t 2005) (“[o]nce it becomes clear that one party will not live up to the contract, the aggrieved party is relieved from the performance of futile acts, such as conditions precedent”); U.W. Marx, Inc. v. Koko Contracting, Inc., 124 A.D.3d 1121, 1122-23 (3d Dep’t 2015).

HBL is also mistaken in its claim that the letter of intent is not enforceable because the closing under the letter of intent did not occur by April 20, 2020, Def. br., at 20-21. Because HBL caused the failure to close the transaction by April 20, 2020 by breaching the letter of intent, it cannot take advantage of the closing date requirement as a basis for avoiding its obligations. A.H.A. Gen. Const., Inc. v. New York City Hous. Auth., 92 N.Y.2d 20, 31 (1998) (“[A] party to a contract “cannot rely on the failure of another to perform a condition precedent where he has frustrated or prevented the occurrence of the condition.”) (citations and quotation marks omitted); see also Center for Specialty Care, Inc. v. CSC Acquisition I, LLC, 185 A.D.3d 34, 42 (1st Dep’t 2020); Coby Elecs. Co., Ltd. v. Toshiba Corp., 108 A.D.3d 419, 420 (1st Dep’t 2012), aff’d as modified, 108 A.D.3d 419 (2013) (“A party to a contract cannot rely on the failure of another to perform a condition precedent where he has frustrated or prevented the occurrence of the condition”).

IV

The defendants’ affirmative defenses and counterclaims should be dismissed

A. The defendants’ opposition to the motion fails to address the evidence defeating their affirmative defenses.

In response to WPH Properties detailed recitation of the evidence warranting dismissal of the defendants’ affirmative defenses, the defendants do nothing more than rehash those defenses, in conclusory fashion without addressing the substance of WPH Properties’ evidence. Def. br., at 19-20. The defendants’ conclusory arguments change nothing. As fully set forth in the Nicholson affidavit, the affirmative defenses should be dismissed. Nicholson aff., ¶¶ 22-27.

B. HBL released its claims against WPH Properties when it signed the lease.

When it executed the lease, HBL “RELEASE[D] LANDLORD FROM ALL CLAIMS WHICH TENANT OR ANY AGENT, REPRESENTATIVE, AFFILIATE, EMPLOYEE, DIRECTOR, OFFICER, PARTNER, MANAGER, MEMBER, SERVANT, SHAREHOLDER, TRUSTEE OR OTHER PERSON OR ENTITY ACTING ON TENANT’S BEHALF OR OTHERWISE RELATED TO OR AFFILIATED WITH TENANT ARISING FROM OR RELATED TO ANY MATTER OR THING RELATED TO OR IN CONNECTION WITH THE LEASED PREMISES, INCLUDING THE INFORMATION AND ANY PHYSICAL OR ENVIRONMENTAL CONDITIONS.” Lease ¶ 5.6. All of the claims made by the defendants here against WPH Properties concern the development, construction and financing of the facility. The claims therefore all “arise from or are related to or in connection with” the facility, and necessarily fall within the scope of the release. Pl. br., at 9-11.

In response, the defendants argue that section 5.6(b) is ineffective because it is “broad” and “does not reference HBL’s specific claims.” Def. br., at 21. Whether the release is operative here depends whether the plain language of the release covers the subject matter, not on whether the release is “broad” or whether it “references specific claims.” Rivera v. Wycoff Heights Medical Center, 113 A.D.3d 667, 670-71 (2d Dep’t 2014) Morales v. Solomon Mgt. Co., LLC, 38 A.D.3d 381 (1st Dep’t 2007), upon which the defendants rely, Def. br., at 21, is completely inapposite. In Morales, the Appellate Division First Department simply held that the release at issue there, by its terms, covered only a 1998 accident, not an earlier 1997 incident. Id. at 382.

C. The defendants’ remaining counterclaims have no merit.

The defendants are not entitled to an accounting because there was no fiduciary relationship between the defendants and WPH Properties. HBL and WPH Properties were parties to a conventional business transaction, nothing more. That does not give rise to a fiduciary relationship. Schonfeld v. Thompson, 243 A.D.2d 343, 343 (1st Dep’t 1997); see also Pl. br. at 13-14.

The $2,200,000 disbursement to WPH Properties was not a loan. Although the term sheet states that the “$2,200,000.00 disbursement to WPHCP is to be characterized as a noninterest bearing loan,” the development agreement provides that it is an advance payment against HBL’s obligation to pay for furniture, fixtures and equipment. And even if it was a loan, it was a non interest bearing one, so the defendants have no claim for interest. Pl. br., at 14-15.

The third counterclaim against WPH Properties for breach of the development agreement and lease must be dismissed solely on the basis of the release. But even without the release, it must be dismissed because it fails to state a cause of action. Pl. br., at 15-17;

The defendants' claim based on alleged fraudulent misrepresentations as against WPH Properties have been released and, as against the third-party defendants, those claims are neither meritorious nor viable for a number of reasons. Pl. br., at 17-21.

The defendants' counterclaim claim based on alleged "bad faith" is not viable because there is no cause of action for "bad faith" in itself. The "bad faith" claim is also based on the same alleged facts and circumstances and is also duplicative of the breach of contract claim. Pl. br., at 22. In their opposition brief, the defendants claim that WPH Properties has "unclean hands," Def. br., at 24, but the defendants have asserted no counterclaims based on "unclean hands," nor would such a claim be cognizable.

V

The defendants are bound by their default in responding to the notice to admit

The defendants do not dispute that the notice to admit was served on June 2, 2021 and they have not responded to it in any manner whatever during the almost five months since then. Donnellan aff., ¶¶ 19 and ex. 11, 20. By ignoring and failing to respond to the notice to admit, the defendants have admitted each of the facts that are the subject of the notice to admit. Affirmation of Alfred E. Donnellan dated November 5, 2021, ¶¶ 19-21; see also CPLR 3123(a).

The notice to admit is entirely proper. The notice to admit here did not request that defendants admit ultimate issue in this case (whether the defendants had defaulted under the lease). It sought admissions concerning facts that are relevant to that determination. That is fully consistent with use of a notice to admit to dispose of questions of fact "that are easily provable." Meadowbrook-Richman, Inc. v. Cicchiello, 273 A.D.2d 6, 6 (2d Dep't 2000).

VI

The motion for summary judgment is not premature.

In order to avoid summary judgment by relying on CPLR 3212(f), the non-moving party must establish “from affidavits submitted in opposition to the motion that facts essential to justify opposition may exist but cannot then be stated.” The only affidavit the defendants submitted in opposition to the motion for summary judgment was the affidavit of Lizer Jozefovic sworn to October 25, 2021. That affidavit does not articulate any evidentiary basis for the need for discovery. It only states, in conclusory terms, that HBL claims a need for certain documents and depositions without articulating any reason why that information is necessary. “A determination of summary judgment cannot be avoided by a claimed need for discovery unless some evidentiary basis is offered to suggest that discovery may lead to relevant evidence.” Ruttura & Sons Const. Co. v. J. Petrocelli Const., Inc., 257 A.D.2d 614, 615 (1999). And to the extent that the defendants seek an accounting, they run into the same problem as their cause of action for an accounting – there is no fiduciary relationship or other basis here for an accounting.

CONCLUSION

For all of these reasons, WPH Properties and third-party defendants respectfully request summary judgment against HBL, Jozefovic and Neuman in the amount of $111,420,213.50 and judgment dismissing the claims asserted by the defendants.

Respectfully submitted,
